ÉTRILLER, ay-tree-yay, va. 1 to curry, to comb (un cheval, a horse). 2 fig. (baltr, maltraiter, etc.) to thrash, to belabour; to fleece. On l'a étrillé comme il faut, he has had a sound thrashing. On l'étrillera, comme de raison, quand on voudra bien en faire la dépense, when they will defeat him, as a matter of course, when they choose to make any expense. Jacq. 3 fig. to fleece. Notre hôte nous avait joliment étrillé, our host had felled us unmercifully.

ÉTRIPER, ay-tree-yay, ra. to gut (un veau, un cochon, a calf, a pig). fig. pop. Aller à étripé-beval, to ride a horse furiously. Begam.

ÉTRIQUE, ay-tree-kay, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 (qui manque d'ampleur) scanty. Une robe trop —, a gown too scanty. Un badillement roge tout —, a scanty suit of red. Lamart. 2 fig. (des ouvrages d'esprit, of literary works) poor, curtailed, narrow. Une scène bien —, a scene that has been cut very short. Des jugements —s et faux, narrow and false judgments. Chat.

ÉTRIVIERE, ay-tree-yayr, sf. 1 (corroie) stirrup-strap, stirrup-leather. Donner des coups d'—s, to give a leathering. 2 —s, pl. (coups) leathering, hiding. Donner les —s à quelqu'un, to give a person a good thrashing. 3 fig. —s, pl. (traitement qui humilie) base treatment.

ÉTROIT, ay-troa, adj. m. fem. —E, (Lat. strictus) 1 (qui a peu de largeur) narrow, strait, tight. Chemin —, road —, narrow road, street. Des bas, des souliers trop —s, stockings, shoes too tight. fig. Des bornes —es, d'—es limites, narrow bounds, limits. Dans le cercle — des ses relations habituelles, in the narrow circle of his habitual relations. 2 fig. (qui manque d'élevation) narrow, shallow. Âme —e, cœur —, narrow soul, heart. Le siècle était devenu — et grossier, the age had grown narrow-minded and coarse. L. Blanc. Des idées —es, narrow ideas. C'est un cerveau —, he is a shallow-brained. C'est un génie —, an esprit —, he is a narrow genius, a narrow mind. 3 fig. (intime) close. Une —e alliance, a close alliance. Une —e amitié, a close friendship. 4 fig. (strict, rigoureux) strict. Cela est de droit —, that is strict law. (by analogy) Une —e économie, a pinching economy. 5 scrip. La voie —, the chemin —, the strait and narrow road. 6 L'ÉTROIT, adv. loc. narrowly, spar- ingly. Être logé à l'—, to be pinched for room. fig. Être à l'—, vivre à l'—, to be in straitened circumstances, to live sparingly.

ÉTROITEMENT, ay-troa-t-mang, adv. 1 (à l'étroit) narrowly, straitly. Être logé —, to be cramped up. 2 (fortement) closely. Ils se tenaient — embrassés, they held each other in a close embrace. Unir, joindre —, to unite, to join closely. fig. S'unir — à Dieu, to be closely united to God. Fléch. 3 fig. (rigoureusement) strictly. 4 fig. (sur toutes choses) strictly.

ÉTROITESSE, ay-troa-t-ess, sf. narrowness, tightness, strictness. L'— d'une rue, the narrowness of a street. fig. — d'esprit, of heart, of ideas.

ÉTRONÇONNER, ay-trong-so-day, ra. gard. to head (trees).

ÉTRUSQUE, ay-trusk, adj. mf. (Lat. Etruscan) 1 Etruscan. Architecture —, Etruscan architecture. Vases —s, Etruscan vases. 2 —s, mf. Une jeune —, a young Etruscan girl. 3 —s, sm. (la langue) the Etruscan language.

ÉTUDE, ay-tud, sf. (Lat. studium) 1 (travail, application d'esprit) study. S'adonner, s'appliquer, se livrer à l'— des sciences, to give one's self up, to apply one's self to study. Toutes ses journées étaient occupées d'un bout à l'autre par l'—, all his time was completely dedicated to the study of sciences. Foenin. Cet enfant aime l'—, that child is fond of study. 2 Salle d'—, study-room. Aller, se rendre à l'—, to go, to repair to the study-room. Maître d'—, usher. 3 (le temps où les élèves restent à l'étude) hours of study. 4 Faire ses —s, to go through a course of study. Commencer, terminer ses —s, le cours de ses —s, to begin, to finish the course of one's studies. Avoir de l'—, to be a person of attainments. 5 point. sculpt. academical figure, study. — de tête, de main, de draperie, d'arbre, etc., study of a head, of a hand, of a drapery, of a tree, etc. Tête d'—, a head. 6 (by extension) (soin) study. Je mets à les former mon — et mes soins, I make it my study and care to form them. Rac. Il faut faire de votre vie l'— et la préparation de votre mort, you must make your life a study and a preparation for death. Mass. 7 (by extension) (disparagingly) study. art. 8 (by extension) (d'un notaire, of a notary) office. 9 (by extension) (d'un notaire, etc. of a notary, clientele) office, practice.

ÉTUDIANT, ay-tu-dyag, ppr. of ÉTUDIER, studying, sm. student. Un — en droit, en médecine, a law student, a medical student.

ÉTUDE, ppa. of ÉTUDIER, fem. —E, adjective. 1 (composé, préparé avec soin) studied. Un tableau bien —, an elaborate painting. 2 (feint) studied. Sans douleur au moins —, without even an appearance of grief. Rac. Des larmes —es, affected tears. Maintien —, studied deportment. Le fard d'une hypocrite trop —, the disguise of too studied hypocrisy. Boss. Une simplicité —, a studied simplicity. D'Alemb. Paroles —es, studied words. Fen. Langue —, studied language. Le jeu de cet acteur est trop —, the acting of that performer is too affected.

ÉTUDIER, ay-tu-dyay, va. nous ÉTUDIONS, vous ÉTUDIEZ, 1 to study, to read. — nuit et jour, to study night and day. — en médecine, en droit, etc., to study medicine, law, etc. Autrement on ne faisait — les gentilshommes que pour être d'Eglise, formerly noblemen studied only when destined to the Church. Saint-Evr. Il avait envoyé son fils — à Heidelberg, he had sent his son to H. to study. — ensemble, to study together. 2 (d'un musicien, of a musician) to practise.

ÉTUDIEN, ra. 1 (s'appliquer à apprendre, à connaître) to study (l'histoire, history; la peinture, the musique, painting, music; la nature, nature; une maladie, a disease), 2 (by extension) to practise. Tous les jours il étudie son piano pendant deux heures, every day he practises on his piano for two hours. 3 (apprendre par cœur) to study, to can occur. — son rôle, to study one's part. 4 (méditer) to study. — une cause, to study a cause. 5 point. sculpt. — une draperie, une pose, l'agencement d'un groupe, to study a drapery, an attitude, the arrangement of a group. 6 arch. — un projet, un plan, to study a project, a plan. 7 (by extension) — quelqu'un, to study a person. C'est un homme qui veut vous — avant que de passer outre, he is a man who wants to study you before going any farther. Le Sage. On a beau — les hommes et les approfondir, on s'y trompe toujours, however one may study and sift men, one always makes mistakes in them. Fen. — le monde, to study the world. Étudiez la cour, study the court. Boil. Des siècles, des pays étudiez les mœurs, study the manners of the age, of the country. Boil.

ÉTUDIER, vpr. 1 (des choses, of things) to be studied, practised. 2 (des personnes, of persons) to study one's self. 3 S'— à, to study, to make it one's study to. Il s'étudiait à prévenir mes moindres desirs, he made it his study to anticipate my slightest wishes. Le Sage.

ÉTUI, ay-tue, sm. 1 a case, box. — de ciseaux, de couteaux, scissors-case, knife-case. — à aiguilles, needle-case. De son — la couronne est tirée, the crown is extracted from its case. La Font. — de mathématiques, case of mathematical instruments. fig. La nature a donné à mon âme un — très-faible, nature has given my soul a very feeble envelop. Volt. 2 (by extension) (de certains insectes, of some insects) sheath. 3 (by extension) bol, sheath.

ÉTUIVE, ay-tuv, sf. 1 hot-air bath, vapour-bath. — sèche, hot-air bath. — humide, vapour-bath. (hyperb.) Cette chambre est une —, this room is a stove. 2 (sortie de four à sécher) store, drying-store.

ÉTUVÉE, ay-tuv-vay, sf. colla. 1 stewing. 2 (meis) stew.

ÉTUVEMENT, ay-tuv-mang, sm. stewing, stewing.

ÉTUYER, ay-lu-vay, ra. to foment, to bathe (une plaie, a sore).

ÉTUVISSE, ay-lu-vist, sm. anc. bagpipe-keeper.

ÉTYMOLOGIE, ay-te-mo-lo-zhee, sf. (Gr.) 1 etymology. 2 (la science) etymology.

ÉTYMOLOGIQUE, ay-te-mo-lo-zhik, adj. mf. etymologic, etymological.

ÉTYMOLOGISTE, ay-te-mo-lo-zoist, sm. etymologist.

EU, ff. ppa. of AVOIR, fem. —E, hud. EUCHARISTE, ah-kar-is-tee, sf. (Gr.) Eucharist, Lord's Supper.

EUCHARISTIQUE, ah-kar-is-tik, adj. mf. eucharistic, eucharistical.

EUCOLOGE, ah-kol-ozh, sm. (Gr.) euchology.

ECCRASIE, ah-kraz-ee, sf. (Gr.) med. ecnucry.

ÉUDONNETRE, ah-dyo-may-tr, sm. (Gr.) chem. eudiometer.

ÉUDONNÉTRIE, ah-dyo-may-tree, sf. chem. eudiometry.

ÉUDONNETRIQUE, ah-dyo-may-trik, adj. mf. chem. eudiometric, eudiometrical.

EUTH, ah, interj. ugh!

ÉUTOLOGES, ah-lo-zhee, sf. pl. (Gr.) liturg. eulogies.

EUMÉNIDE, ah-may-nid, sf. (Gr.) myth. Eumenides.

EUNUQUE, ah-nuk, sm. (Gr.) eunuch.

EUPATOIRE, ah-pat-war, sf. (Gr.) bul. eupatorium, eupatory.

ÉUPHÉMIQUE, ah-fay-mik, adj. mf. euphemistic, euphemistical. Tour, expression —, euphemistic turn, expression.

EUPHÉMISME, uh-fay-mism', sm. (Gr.) euphemism.

EUPHONIE, uh-to-nee, sf. (Gr.) 1 euphony. 2 gram. euphony.

EUPHONIQUE, uh-to-nik, adj. sf. gram. euphonic, euphonical.

EUPHORBIE, uh-forb, sm. (Gr.) bot. euphorbia, spurge.

EUROPE, uh-ro-pé, sf. Europe.

EUROPÉANISE, uh-ro-pay-an-e-zay, adj. m. fem. —e, Europeanized. Ces lieux —s, these Europeanized countries. Jacques.

EUROPÉEN, uh-ro-pay-ang, adj. m. fem. —ne, 1 European. Les nations —nes, the European nations. 2 sm. fem. —ne, European. Une —ne, a European woman.

EURYALE, uh-ryal, sf. (Gr.) zool. euryale.

EURYTHMIE, uh-rit-mée, sf. (Gr.) eurythmy.

EUSTACHE, uh-s-tash, sm. 1 Eustace. 2 fam. common knife with wooden handle.

EUX, uh, m. pl. of the pron. pers. lui, they, them. See lui.

ÉVACUANT, ay-vah-không, pr. of évacuer, 1 adj. m. fem. —e, med. evacuant. 2 sm. evacuator.

ÉVACUATIF, ay-vah-khât-if, adj. m. fem. évacuative, med. evacuative.

ÉVACUATION, ay-vah-khâh-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 evacuation. 2 (matières évacuées) evacuation. 3 (action d'évacuer un pays) evacuation.

ÉVACUER, ay-vah-khây, ra, nous évacuons, vous évacuez, (Lat. evacuare) 1 (vider, faire sortir) to evacuate. (intransitively) Ce malade a-t-il bien évacué? has that patient been well purged? 2 (d'un certain nombre de personnes, of persons) (faire sortir, vider, quitter) to evacuate. On fit — la salle, they evacuated the room. — 3 mil. (d'une place, etc., of a place, etc.) to evacuate (un pays, une province, a country, a province). — des troupes, de l'artillerie, etc., d'une place sur une autre, to remove troops, artillery, etc., from one place to another.

S'ÉVACUER, vpr. to be evacuated.

S'ÉVADER, ay-vad-ay, vpr. to evade, to escape (from), to break loose, to make one's escape (from). Il cherche à s'—, he is seeking to escape. Les prisonniers se sont évadés, the prisoners have broken loose. (elliptic.) On l'a fait —, they favoured his escape.

EVALUATION, ay-val-dah-syong, sf. valuation, estimate, estimation. L'— d'une perte, the valuation of a loss. — approximative, approximate valuation.

ÉVALUER, ay-val-lây, ra, nous évaluons, vous évaluez, to value, to estimate, to rate, to assess. A combien, combien a-t-on évalué sa maison? how much has his house been rated at? On évalue la perte à tant, the loss is valued at so much.

ÉVANGÉLIQUE, ay-vâng-zhây-lik, adj. mf. 1 evangelical. Doctrine —, evangelical doctrine. 2 (particul.) (qui est de la religion réformée) evangelical. Ministre —, evangelical minister.

ÉVANGÉLIQUEMENT, ay-vâng-zhây-lik-mâng, adv. evangelically.

ÉVANGÉLISER, ay-vâng-zhây-le-zay, va, to evangelize, to preach the Gospel to.

ÉVANGÉLISTE, ay-vâng-zhây-list, sm. evangelist.

ÉVANGILE, ay-vâng-zhêl, sm. (Gr.) 4 Gospel. 2 (livres) Gospel. 3 absol. (le recueil des quatre Évangiles) Gospel. Lire l'—, to read the Gospel. prov. Il croit cela comme l'—, he takes all that for Gospel. prov. fig. Tout ce qu'il dit n'est pas mot d'—, n'est pas parole d'—, all he says is not Gospel. Je ne suis pas en humeur de parler bien, que de M. de V. el toujours de V., c'est l'— du jour, I have no mind to write well, unless it is about M. de V. and M. de V. over and over again, he is the general topic. Mme de Sév. 4 cath. rel. Gospel. Le côté de l'—, the left side of the altar.

ÉVANOUI, ay-van-oocé, ppa. of évanoûir, fem. —e. 1 Une femme —e, a woman in a swoon. Tomber —e, to fall senseless. 2 (disparu) vanished away. fig. Une société —e, a society that had disappeared. Chat.

S'ÉVANOUIR, ay-van-oocer, pr. (Lat. evanescere) 1 (tomber en faiblesse) to faint, to faint away, to swoon, to fall into a swoon. (elliptic.) Faire évanoûir, to make a person faint away. Cette nouvelle l'a fait —, this news made her faint away. 2 (disparaître, s'évaporer) to vanish, to disappear, to pass away. Ce météore n'a fait que paraître un moment et s'est évanoûi, that meteor did but appear a moment and then vanished away. Le fantôme s'est évanoûi, the phantom vanished out of sight. fig. Tous les grands biens qui étaient dans cette famille se sont évanoûis, the whole of the large property that belonged to this family has melted away. Crois-to que nos chagrins doivent s'—? do you think my grief will ever be obliterated? Rac. Comment ce contraire si terrible en un moment s'est-il évanoûi? how has such terrible wrath been dissipated in an instant? Rac. Cette ombre de gloire va s'—, that shadow of glory is about to vanish away. Boss. Le masque tombe, l'homme reste, et le héros s'évanoûit, the mask falls, the man remains and the hero disappears. J.-B. Rouss. Les longues années d'Abraham et d'Isaac s'évanoûissent auprès de la vie de Sem, the lengthened existence of A. and I. seem nothing when compared with that of S. Rouss. (elliptic.) Faire évanoûir, to cause to vanish. Cette nouvelle a fait — toutes ses espérances, this news has laid low all our hopes. Laissez — le monde, let the world pass away. Boss. 3 alg. Faire — une inconnue, to eliminate an unknown quantity.

ÉVANOUISSEMENT, ay-van-oocés-mâng, sm. fainting fit, swoon. Revenir d'un —, to recover from a fainting fit, from a swoon.

ÉVAPORABLE, ay-vap-o-rabl', adj. mf. evaporable.

ÉVAPORATIF, ay-vap-o-rat-if, adj. m. fem. évaporative, evaporative.

ÉVAPORATION, ay-vap-o-râh-syong, sf. 1 chem. evaporation. 2 fig. (légereté d'esprit) thoughtlessness. Il y a un peu d'— dans son fait, he is rather thoughtless.

ÉVAPORÉ, ppa. of évaporer, fem. —e, (adjective.) 1 fig. (l'air étourdi) thoughtless, heedless. 4 fig. (l'air étourdi) thoughtless, heedless. C'est un fond une bonne fille, mais fort —e, she is a good-natured girl at bottom, but very thoughtless. Merim. Les esprits —s, thoughtless minds. Fea. Une gaieté —e, idle mirth. Volt. Ses airs —s, her giddy ways. J.-J. Rouss. 2 (substantif-) giddy person, giddy-brains.

ÉVAPORER, ay-vap-o-ray, va. (Lat. evaporare) 1 chem. (little used) to evaporate, to vent, to give vent to. 2 fig. — sa bile, — son chagrin, to vent one's bile, to give vent to one's grief.

S'ÉVAPORER, vpr. 1 (se vaporiser) to evaporate. (elliptic.) Faire évaporer une liqueur à feu lent, to evaporate a liquor over a slow fire. (by extension) Les bouillards s'évaporent en montant, the fogs cleared away in rising. Lamart. fig. Je suis devenu squelette, je m'évapore comme du bois enflammé, I have become a skeleton, I waste away like wood on fire. Volt. 2 fig. (s'exhaler) to exhale itself. Sa colère s'évapore en menaces, his passion exhales itself in threats. 3 fig. (se dissiper, se perdre) to waste away. Les meilleurs sentiments s'évaporent après avoir retenu en magnifiques paroles, the best sentiments vanish after having exhaled themselves in magnificent language. Lamart. L'action s'évaporait en paroles, the action died away in words. Lamart.

4 fig. (montrer de la dissipation) to get thoughtless, heedless.

ÉVASÉ, ppa. of évâser, fem. —e, adjective. Un vase trop —, a vase with too wide an opening. Les vieux Turcs au torban —, the old Turks with their bell-shaped turbans. Th. Gaut. Un nez —, a nose with wide nostrils. Des narines —es, wide nostrils.

ÉVASEMENT, ay-vâz-mâng, sm. widening.

ÉVASER, ay-vah-zay, va. 1 to widen (un tuyau, l'ouverture d'un tuyau, a pipe, the opening of a pipe). (by extension) Cette sveltesse de taille, évase le buste, that slenderness of the waist makes the chest seem broader. Th. Gaut. 2 gard. — un arbre, to extend, to spread a tree.

S'ÉVASER, vpr. 1 to be widened. Sa fusanelle s'évasait en cloche, his fusanelle was swelling round in the shape of a bell. Th. Gaut. 2 gard. — to extend, to spread itself.

ÉVASIF, ay-vah-zêe, adj. m. fem. évasive, evasive. Moyen —, evasion. Réponse évasive, evasive answer.

ÉVASION, ay-vah-zyong, sf. 1 escape. flight, breaking loose. Favoriser l'— d'un prisonnier, to favour the escape of a prisoner. 2 fig. (little used) (échappatoire) evasion. Il laisse toujours une porte ouverte à l'—, he always leaves a loop-hole to creep out at. Chat. Ce ministre si fécond en —s, this minister so fertile in evasions. Boss.

ÈVÈCHE, ay-vay-shay, sm. 1 bishopric, see. 2 (dignité) bishopric, episcopate. 3 (ville) cathedral town. 4 (le palais de l'évêque) bishop's palace.

ÈVEIL, ay-vay-yuh, sm. 1 (avis) hint, warning, alert, alarm. C'est lui qui m'en a donné l'—, it was he who gave me the alarm. 2 (rare) (action de s'éveiller) awaking, rousing. Le moment de l'—, the moment of awaking. Buff. fig. Des goûts de séduction qui ne demandent que l'—, a taste for seduction that only requires to be awakened. S.-B.

ÈVEILLÉ, adj. loc. on the alert. Des occupations nombreuses tenaient en — toute la population, numerous occupations held the whole population on the alert. Saint. On n'entendait d'autre bruit que les aboiements de quelques chiens en —, no other noise was heard but the barking of a few dogs on the watch. Th. Gaut. fig. Sa bonté toujours en —, his kindness always ready. E. Souv.

ÈVEILLER, ppa. of éveiller, fem. —e, adjective. 1 awake. Qu'à son lever le soleil trouve tout le chhiprie —, let the sun at his rise see the whole chapter awake. Boil. 2 fig. (provoqué) excited, roused, awakened. Votre soil est-elle —e? do you begin to feel thirsty? Ab. Notre appétit — par l'air de la mer, our appetite sharpened by the sea-air. Th. Gaut. par l'admiration, my sympathy could only be called forth by admiration. E. Souv. 3 fig. (gai, vif) lively, sprightly, sharp. Jamais il n'avait vu sa fille si —e, si parlante, never had he seen his daughter so sprightly, so talkative. Marm. C'était un petit minois —, she had a pleasant countenance. J.-J. Rouss. Avoir l'esprit —, l'air —, la mine —e, to be sharp-witted, to have a sharp look. prov. Il est — comme une potée de sorris, he is as brisk as a bee. 4 fig. (avisé, soigneux) watchful (over), wide awake. C'est un homme fort — sur ses intérêts, he is a man very attentive to his own interest. Les sujets de ce prince sont les plus —s, the subjects of this prince are the smartest and most lively in Italy. Thiers. 5 fig. (substantif-) Ce petit — de Gil Blas avait plus d'esprit qu'il n'était gros, that sharp little fellow Gil Blas was as full of wit as an egg is full of meal. Le Sage. C'est une petite —e, she is a sprightly lass.

ÈVEILLER, ay-vay-yv, ra. 1 (faire ésser le sommeil) to awake, to wake, to wake up. Il faut que tous les jours j'éveille tout mon monde, every day I must wake up all my house. Rac. Le moindre bruit l'éveille, the slightest noise wakes him. fig. Éveillant mille échos, waking up a thousand echoes. V. Hug. 2 fig. (donner de la gaieté, rendre plus actif) to rouse, to rouse up. Il était naturellement indolent, mais l'ambition l'a éveillé, he was naturally indolent, but ambition roused him up. Je viens — ton cœur, I come to make an appeal to your heart. V. Hug. 3 fig. (faire valtre) to rouse, to excite, to awaken. — la jalousie, l'envie, to awake jealousy, envy. Chaque mot ne devait-il pas — toute la sympathie? ought not each word to have awakened your sympathy? Saint. Cette plainte muette éveilla dans mon cœur un sentiment chevaleresque, this mute appeal awakened a chivalrous feeling in my heart. Ab.

ÈVEILLER, vpr. 1 to awake, to wake, to awaken. S'—-ensorsait, to start from sleep. fig. A l'heure où s'éveille la rose, ne vas-tu pas te réveiller? the rose is now awaking, wilt thou not also awake? V. Hug. fig. Comment savoir si ces Galathées de salon peuvrent S'— à la vie? how do we know if these drawing-room Galatians can ever wake up to life? Mme de Gir. 2 fig. (s'agiter) to wake, to rouse one's self up. Me n'éveille à ta voix, je marche à ta clarté, thy voice awakes me, thy light guides me. Volt. Lyre, longtempis oisive, éveillez-vous encore, lyre, long asleep, wake up once more. V. Hug. 3 fig. (être excité, produit) to be awakened, to awake. Dans mon cœur attendri, quel souvenir s'éveille? what remembrance is called up in my softened heart? C. Del. Des voix inconnues s'éveillent en moi, unknown voices wake up within me. Mich.

ÈVÈNEMENT, ay-vayn-màng, sm. (Lat. eventus) 1 ent. Les grands —s de ce règne, the great events of that reign. Tous les —s de notre vie, all the events of our life. Jamais peut-être autant de tragiques —s ne furent pressés dans un espace de temps aussi court, never before were so many tragical events crowded into so short a space of time. Lamart. Voilà des —s, cela, those may be called events. Volt. La portée des —s, the importance of events. Lamart. Faire —, to be an event. Son apparition au bal fit, his appearance at the ball was an event. Son départ fut un —, un véritable —, his departure was an event, a real event. 2 lit. (incident remarquable) event, incident. 3 (l'issue, le succès de quelque chose) event, issue. L'— fit voir qu'il ne s'était pas trompé, the event showed that he had not been mistaken. L'— n'a point démenti mon attente, the event did not deceive my expectation. Rac. Cette affaire a eu — heureux, that affair was brought to a happy issue. & A tout —, at all events, at any rate. Nous nous tenions prêts à tout —, we held ourselves ready for any emergency. Chat.

ÈVENT, ay-vàng, sm. 4 (altération causée par l'impression de l'air sur les vides) etc. flatness, vapidity. 2 (l'air agité) open air. Mettre des marchandises, des bardes à l'—, to air goods, clothes, to put out goods, clothes to air. Donner de l'— à une pièce de vin, to give vent to a cask of wine. fig. Avoir la tête à l'—, to be bare-brained. C'est une tête à l'—, he is a bare-brained fellow. 3 (de certains cétales) blow-hole. 4 (conduits aériens) air-hole, smoke-hole. 5 artillerie. 3 (d'un canon de fusil, etc., of fire-arms) air-hole, smoke-hole. 6 artillerie. windpipe.

ÈVENTAIL, ay-vàng-tab-yoh, sm. 1 fan. Les bâtons d'un —, the sticks of a fan. Jouer de l'—, to flirt a fan. (by extension) Le palmier qui balance légèrement ses —s de verdure, the palm-tree which slowly agitates its large leaves, Chat. Chaque coup d'aviron déployait au sein de l'eau un large — d'argent, each stroke of the oar spread out a large silver fan on the bosom of the water. Lamart. 2 gard. Tailler un arbre en —, to prune a tree in the shape of a fan. 3 (espèce de cadre couvert de toile ou de papier) fan.

ÈVENTAILLISTE, ay-vàng-tab-yist, sm. fan-maker.

ÈVENTAIRE, ay-vàng-tayr, sm. flat basket.

ÈVENTÉ, ppa. of ÈVENTER. fem. —E, adjective. 4 (by extension) Le Bosphore toujours — par les brises marines, the Bosphorus always aired by the breezes from the sea. Th. Gaut. 2 Vin —, flat wine. Laine —e, aired wool. 3 fig. (dévoté) discovered, divulged. Un dessin —- restait rarement, a plan that has got wind rarely succeeds. Corn. Que ce secret ne soit point —, let not this secret be divulged. La Font. 4 fig. (inconsidéré) thoughtless, heedless, giddy. Des Français —, giddy Frenchmen. Volt. Une tête —e, a giddy pate. Regn. 5 fig. (substantif) giddy, thoughtless, heedless fellow. Quelque jeune —, some thoughtless fellow. Gib. Au visage au rouge m'est monté que l'on me vit connu d'un pareil —, I blushed lest I should be seen to be acquainted with such a giddy coxcomb. Mol.

ÈVENTER, ay-vàng-tay, ra. 4 (faire du vent avec un éventail) to fan. 2 (mettre au vent) to air. — le grain, to winnow, to turn over corn. 3 — une liqueur, one substance, to deaden a liquor, a substance. 4 (ouvrir de manière à laisser pénétrer l'air) to discover (une mine, a mine); || fig. — la mine, — la mèche, to sift a secret. fig. — un secret, on complot, to let the cat out of the bag. 5 fig. (divulguer) to discover, to let out. — une intrigue, to get scent of an intrigue. C. Del. Si je ne craignais d'— un petit secret de femme, were I not afraid of letting out a woman's secret. Beaum. N'allez pas, de grâce, — mon secret, do not, I beg you, divulge my secret. Mol. 6 hant. — la voie, to scantly, to light upon the scent. (by analogy) Un chien vient sur l'herbe — la trace de ses pas, a dog came and scented its footsteps on the grass. La Font. 7 naut. — une voile, to fill a sail.

ÈVENTER, vpr. 1 to fan one's self. 2 (du vin, de la bière, etc., of wine, beer, etc.) to become, to get ripid, of 3 (de la laine, de la soie, etc., of thread, of silk, etc.) to get injured. 4 fig. (elliptic) Ils portent des chapeaux qui laissent — leurs débiles cerveaux, they wear hats which allow their weak brains to evaporate. Mol.

ÈVENTOIR, ay-vàng-twâr, sm. fire-fan.

ÈVENTRER, ay-vàng-tray, va. 1 to disembowel, to rip up. — un boeuf, on mouton, to disembowel an ox, a sheep. — une carpe, un brochet, to cut a carp, a pike. (by extension) L'éventrerai ce faquin, I'll run that fellow through the body. V. Hug. fig. — un pâté, to open a pie. — un portefeuille, un portemanteau, to rip open a portfolio, a portmanteau. 2 (blesser en déclarant ou en fendant le ventre) to rip open. Le sanglier éventra plusieurs de nos chiens, the boar ripped open several of our dogs. (hyperb.) Éventrant leurs montures à coups d'épées, ripping up their horses' sides with the spur. Ab.

ÈVÈNTER, vpr. 1 to rip one's self up, open. 2 récipr. to rip up each other. Les deux vaisseaux se beurtèrent d'un choc retentissant, comme pour S'— par l'abordage, the two vessels came into collision with a loud shock, as if in boarding they intended to rip each other open. Lamart.

ÈVENTUALITÉ, ay-vàng-ti-ai-e-clause, sf. 1 contingency, uncertainty (d'une clause, of a condition, d'un traité, of a clause, of a condition, of a treaty). 2 (chase éventuelle) contingency.

ÈVENTUEL, ay-vàng-ti-ai, adj. m. fem. —LE, eventual, contingent. Droits —s, eventual rights. Succession —le, uncertain inheritance. Tout cela est fort —, all that is very uncertain. Profits —s, perquisites.

ÈVENTUELLEMENT, ay-vàng-ti-ai-màng, adv. eventually, contingently.

ÈVEQUE, ay-vayk, sm. (Lat. episcopus) bishop. Nommer, préconiser, sacrer on —, to appoint, to preconize, to consecrate a bishop. — in partibus, a bishop in partibus. prov. pop. Un chien regarde bien un —, a cat may look at a king. prov. fl. Se faire d'— meunier, devenir d'— meunier, to descend from peer to peasant.

ÈVERSIF, ay-vayr-sif, adj. n. fem. ÈVERSIVE, neol. subversive.

ÈVERTUER, ay-vayr-tuy, vpr. nous ÈVERTUONS, vous ÈVERTUEZ, to exert one's self, to degourdish slowly, to courage! allons qu'on s'évertue, tout dire, courage! now then out with it. Rac. Ane fidèle, Èvertuez-vous, faithful soul, exert thyself. Boss. Elle part, elle s'évertue, elle se bâte avec lenteur, she sets out, bestirs herself, and hastens slowly. La Font. Il s'évertue l'esprit pour y réussir, he cudgels his brains to succeed. Saut. (by extension) Votre imagination pent S'— à chercher l'explication que je vous promets, your imagination may exert itself to seek the explanation I promise you. Nod.

ÈVICTION, ay-vik-syong, sf. (Lat.) law. eviction.

EVIDENCE, ay-ve-dazh, sm. 1 hollowing, 2 tech. taking the starch out of.

EVIDE, ppa. of ÈVIDER, fem. —E, 4 hollowed out. Cette masse de pierre est —e comme un joujou de Dieppe, that stony mass is hollowed out like an ivory toy. V. Hug. 2 (ebancré) hollowed. Le collet de cette robe, de ce manteau n'est pas assez —, est trop —, the collar of that gown, of that cloak, is not sufficiently rounded, is hollowed out too much.

ÈVIDEMENT, ay-ve-dah-màng, adv. evidently, plainly, obviously.

EVIDENCE, ay-ve-dangs, sf. (Lat.) evidence, obviousness. Cela est de toute —, that is obvious. L'— d'une proposition, d'une preuve, d'une vérité, d'une fausseté, the clearness of a proposition, the evidence of a proof, of a truth, of a falsehood. Se reudre, se refuser à l'—, to yield to evidence, to fly in the face of facts. Démontrer jusqu'à l'—, to prove clearly. Mettre en —, to render, to make evident, obvious; || to render, to make conspicuous. Être en —, to be conspicuous. Se mettre en —, to make one's self conspicuous.

ÈVIDENT, ay-ve-dang, adj. m. fem. —E, (Lat. evidens) evident, plain, clear, obvious. Vérité, preuve —e, evident truth, proof. Il est —, que, it is evident that.

ÈVIDER, ay-ve-day, va. 4 tech. to hollow, to scoop out, to groove. — un morceau d'ivoire, to hollow out a piece of ivory. — une lame d'épée, to groove the blade of a sword. — un canon de pistolet, to hollow out the barrel of a pistol. 2 needle-work. to hollow, to round (le collet d'une robe, l'entrée d'une manche, the collar of a gown, the entrance of a sleeve). 3 wash. (faire sortir l'empois) to take the starch out of, to unstarch.

ÈVIDOIR, ay-ve-dwar, sm. tech. bit.

ÈVIER, ay-vayv, sm. sink. Pierre d'—, sink-stone.

ÈVINCE, ppa. of ÈVINCRÉ, fem. —E, Des fermiers S'— à l'expiration de leurs baux, farmers ericted at the expiration of their leases. Aug. Th. (by extension) Il a été —, he has been ousted.

ÈVINCRÉ, ay-vàng-say, va. nous ÈVINÇONS; il ÈVINÇA, (Lat. evincere) 1 law. (déposséder) to evict. 2 (by extension) (enlever à quelqu'un par intrigue) one place, one affaire, etc.) to oust.

ÉVITABLE, ay-ve-tabl', adj. mf. (little used) avoidable.

ÉVITER, ay-ve-tahz, sm. — E. Que d'abus prévenus, of injustices — es, how many abuses prevented, how many acts of injustice avoided. Nass.

ÉVITER, ay-ve-tay, sf. 4 nat. breadth, swinging-room, birth. 2 (action) swing. Faire son —, one —, to swing.

ÉVITEMENT, ay-vit-mang, sm. railw. Gare d'—, siding.

ÉVITER, ay-ve-tay, ra. (Lat. evitare) to avoid, to shun, to escape. — un piège, to avoid a snare. — un coup, to escape a blow. Le pilote a heureusement évité ces écueils, the pilot has fortunately steered clear of those rocks. Ceux qui avaient évité le fer périrent dans les flammes, those who had escaped the sword perished in the flames. T. Gaut. J'aurais évité les malheurs qu'il m'attendaient sur la terre, I should have escaped the misfortunes that awaited me on earth. Chat. J'évite les questions qui, j'aurais les questions which. Nod. Désirant la mort plus qu'il n'évitait le supplice, desiring death more than he shunned torture. Lamart. — les occasions, to avoid occasions. — une querelle, to avoid a quarrel. On ne peut — sa destinée, one cannot escape one's destiny. De mou côté je ferai semblant d'— votre conversation, on my side I will appear to shun your society. Le Sage. Elle m'évitait autant que je la fois, she shuns me as much as I do her. Rac. Elle se loquit prît de m'—, the car she took to shun me. Chat. L'évitait maintenant de lui adresser la parole, L. now avoided speaking to him. Saint. — de se commettre, de déplaire, to avoid committing one's self, displease. Éviter qu'il ne vous parle, mind he do not speak to you. En coor- ronnant W., Russia was saved from becoming the vassal of Poland. Mérid. (des animaux, of animals) to avoid.

ÉVITER, en. nat. to swing. Ce vaisseau évite, this ship is swinging. — au vent, to stem the wind. — à la marée, to stem the tide.

S'ÉVITER, ppr. 1 to be avoided, shunned. Cette dépense peut très-bien s'—, this expense may be very well avoided. J.-J. Rous. 2 (éviter soi-même) to shun one's self. Il craint d'être en lui-même, et cherche à s'—, he fears being alone, and shuns his own society. Boil. 3 recipr. to avoid, to shun each other.

ÉVOCATION, ay-vo-kah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 evocation, raising, raising up. L'— des âmes, des esprits, des démons, des ombres, the evocation of souls, the raising of spirits, the conjuration of demons, the calling up shades. 2 law. evocation.

ÉVOCATOIRE, ay-vo-kat-twar, adj. mf. law, that may cause an evocation.

ÉVOLUER, ay-vo-luay, en. (Lat. evolvere) 1 mil. to perform, to make evolutions. 2 nat. to perform evolutions. Ce navire évolue bien, évolue mal, that vessel performs her evolutions well, badly.

ÉVOLUTIF, ay-vo-lut-if, adj. m. fem. évolutive, liable to evolution, to changes.

ÉVOLUTION, ay-vo-lu-syong, sf. (Lat.) 4 mil. evolution. — de cavalerie, d'infanterie, evolutions of the cavalry, of the infantry.

— des soleils dans les airs, the evolutions of the suns in the universe. Lamart. fig. Toutes les — et révolutions de la nature, all the evolutions and revolutions of nature. 3 nat. evolution. — d'une escadre, evolution of a squadron. — navale, naval evolution. 4 nat. (mouvement d'un navire) evolution.

ÉVOQUER, ay-vo-kay, en. (Lat. evocare) 1 to evoke, to conjure, to raise, to call up (les morts, les âmes des morts, les ombres, the dead, the souls of the dead, the shades of the dead). fig. Il eut le pressentiment des haines qu'il venait d'— contre lui, he had a misgiving of the hatred that he had just raised against him. Lamart. 2 (by extension) (des orateurs, of orators) to evoke. L'orateur évoqua les mânes des héros dont on avait outragé la mémoire, the orator evoked the manes of the heroes whose memory had been outraged. 3 (enlever à un tribunal, à des juges la connaissance d'une affaire) to evoke. 4 (attirer à soi la connaissance d'une affaire) to evoke.

ÉVULSIF, ay-vül-sif, adj. m. fem. évulsive, did. evulsive.

ÉVULSION, ay-vül-syong, sf. (Lat.) evulsion. EX, ex, prep. (Lat. ex) late. — ministre, ex-minister. Un — député, ex-deputy. Je serai introduit à deux — majestés, etc., I shall be introduced to two ex-majesties, etc. Jaqu.

EX ABRUPTO, adv. loc. See ABRUPTO. EX AVOO, adv. loc. (Lat.) on an equal rank.

EX PROFESSO, adv. loc. See PROFES-

SO. EX VOTO, sm. (Lat.) ex voto, votive offering.

EXACT, ayg-zakt, adj. m. fem. — E. (Lat. exactus) 1 punctual, exact, strict. M. de B., façonné à la discipline militaire, était on homme — M. de B., formed by military discipline, was a strict man. Al. Dum. Elle est à bien prier — à son dernier point, she is extremely exact at her devotions. Vol. Soyez — à l'heure, be punctual. — à un rendez-vous, exact to an appointment. Un esprit juste, précis, —, a man of sound judgment. (by extension) Et la gaieté revient — à un rendez-vous, and gaiety is true to the appointed hours. C. Del. 2 (des choses, of things) exact, correct, accurate. Voilà la mesure — de sa taille, that is the exact measure of his stature. Compte —, correct account. Une connaissance — des faits, an exact knowledge of the facts. Style correct et —, correct and exact style. C'est la vérité — à, it is the exact truth. Histoire d'une morale —, a man of strict morality. Les sciences — es, the exact sciences.

EXACTEMENT, ayg-zak-tuh-mang, adv. exactly, correctly, accurately, punctually, precisely, strictly. Ces deux choses sont — pareilles, these two things are exactly alike.

EXACTEUR, ayg-zak-tohr, sm. (Lat. exactor, exactor, extorcioner.

EXACTION, ayg-zak-syong, sf. (Lat.) exaction, extortion.

EXACTITUDE, ayg-zak-tuh-lüd, sf. 1 exactness, punctuality. Il faut avoir de l'— dans les affaires, business requires punctuality. L'— est la politesse des rois, punctuality is the politeness of kings. Remplir ses devoirs avec —, to be punctual in performing one's duties. 2 (justesse) exactness, correctness, accuracy (d'une mesure, d'un calcul, of a measure, of a calculation). Les poètes ne se piquent pas d'—, the poets do not pride themselves on accuracy. P.-L. Cour.

EXADRE, ayg-zah-aydr', adj. and s. mf. See HEXADRE.

EXAGERATEUR, ayg-zah-ay-rat-ohr, sm. fem. EXAGERATRICE, 1 exaggerator. 2 (adjectif) exaggeratory.

EXAGERATIF, ayg-zah-ay-rat-if, adj. m. fem. EXAGERATIVE, exaggeratory.

EXAGERATION, ayg-zah-ay-rat-syong, sf. 1 exaggeration. Tomber dans l'—, to fall into exaggeration. 2 point. sculpt. exaggeration.

EXAGÈRE, ppa. of EXAGÉRER, fem. — E. adjective. 1 exaggerated. Recit —, exaggerated account. Eloge —, exaggerated eulogium. Mes sentiments ne sont pas — es, its sentiments are not exaggerated, they are simple and sincere. Mme de Sév. Une confiance — e, an exaggerated confidence. 2 Un homme —, a man given to exaggeration.

tion. 3 (substantif.) one given to exaggeration.

EXAGÉRER, ayg-zah-ay-ray, ra. (Lat. exaggerare) 1 to exaggerate, to overrate. — une victoire, l'importance d'une action, l'énormité d'un crime, to exaggerate a victory, the importance of an action, the enormity of a crime. On affaiblit tout ce qu'on exagère, exaggeration weakens whatever it touches. La Har. C'est un homme qui exagère toujours les choses, soit en bien, soit en mal, he is a man, who always overrates or underrates things. — les vertus, le mérite de quelqu'un, to exaggerate the virtues, the merit of a person. Il exagérât ses bons offices envers le priuut, he exaggerated his good offices in favour of the priuut. Aug. Th. absol. Il est fort sujet à —, he is liable to exaggeration. 2 point. sculpt. to exaggerate.

S'EXAGÉRER, ppr. to exaggerate. S'— quelque chose, to exaggerate a thing to one's self.

EXALTATION, ayg-zal-tah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 (élévation du pape au pontificat) exaltation. 2 anc. chem. exaltation. 3 fig. (enthousiasme) over-excitement. Parler avec —, to speak excitedly. Je remarquai de l'— dans ses idées, I remarked over-excitement in his ideas. L'— des idées, exaggerated ideas. 4 med. over-excitement. 5 astrol. Etre en —, to be in exaltation.

EXALTE, ppa. of EXALTER, fem. — E. adjective. 1 Vous pouvez vous humilier tant qu'il vous plaira, vous serez — e malgré vous, you may humble yourself as much as you please, you will be praised in spite of yourself. Mme de Sév. 2 fig. (en proie à l'exaltation) over-excited. L'esprit —, a wild enthusiast. Les caractères — dans le genre vulgaire sont insupportables, vulgar enthusiasts are insufferable. Chat. C'est un homme —, he is a wild enthusiast. Des idées — es, enthusiastic ideas. 3 (substantif.) Un —, a hot-headed fellow.

EXALTER, ayg-zal-ray, ra. (Lat. exaltare) 1 to exult, to exult, to cry up. Tous exaltaient son adresse, every one cried up his skill. Flor. Pourquoi — les morts aux dépens des vivants? why glorify the dead at the expense of the living? J.-B. Say. Ce n'est pas assez d'— la vertu, it is not sufficient to exalt virtue. C. Del. 2 (élever) to exalt. Le Dieu qui exalte quoad il veut les hommes aux dépens des sages, the God that exalts when he will the most lowly at the expense of the haughty. Nod. Ces hasards qui abaissent ce qui est en haut et qui exaltent ce qui est en bas, those hazards which abase what is exalted, and exalt what is abased. Lamart. 3 anc. chem. to exalt (de l'antimoine, antimony). 4 fig. (surexciter) to over-excite (l'esprit, the mind). 5 fig. (animer à l'exces) to over-excite. Le jeûne exalte les cervelles vides, fasting works upon weak brains. T. Gaut. L'exces des souffrances avait singulièrement exalté les esprits, excess of suffering had singularly over-excited men's minds. Nich. Les jeunes têtes sont faciles à —, young imaginations are easily carried away. La Har. 6 med. to over-excite.

S'EXALTER, ppr. 1 recipr. to praise, to exult each other. 2 fig. (prendre de l'exaltation) to be over-excited, to rise, to grow heated. En me racontant ses espérances, son esprit s'est exalté, whilst relating to me his hopes, his mind worked itself up. E. Souv. Son orgueil s'était tellement exalté que, his pride had grown to such a height that.

EXAMEN, ayg-zah-mang, sm. (Lat. examen) 4 examination, survey, scrutiny. Faire l'— d'un livre, d'un compte, to examine a book, an account. Embrasser une opinion sans —, to embrace an opinion without examination. Elle faisait un — rigoureux de ses fautes, she made a severe examination of her faults. Boss.

EXAMINER, ppa. of EXAMINER, fem. — E, Cela a été — à fond, that has been thoroughly examined. On le craint, tout est —, he is feared, every thing is examined. Rac. Tout bien —, on jagea, every thing taken into consideration, it was judged.

EXAMINER, ayg-zam-e-nat-nhr, sm. examiner.

EXAMINER, ayg-zam-e-nat, ra. (Lat. examinare) 1 à examiner. — à fond on compte, une affaire, to examine on account, an affair thoroughly. — une question, to examine a question. Le Seigneur examinera tout ce que nous aurons fait de bien ou de mal, the Lord will examine all we have done either in good or evil. Boss. — sa conscience, to examine one's conscience. Examinez les hommes qui paraissent les plus heureux, examine the men who appear to be the most happy. B. de St-P. N'examinez pas quelle est la victime que vous allez frapper, do not consider what victim you are about to strike. Lamart. absol. Il y a quelque audace à — quand tout le monde croit, there is some boldness in examining when every body believes. C. Del. 2 (faire subir un examen) to examine. On assembla des évêques pour l'—, bishops were convened to examine her. Mich. — un ecclésiaste, un candidat, to examine a scholar, a candidate. 3 (regarder attentivement) to consider, to observe, to inspect. Pius j'examine cette personne, plus je crois la reconnaître, the more I consider that person, the more I think I recognize him. Je témoignai le désir d'— ses armes, I manifested the desire of examining his arms. Ab.

EXAMINER, rpr. to examine one's self; to examine one's conscience.

EXANTHÉMATÉUSE, ayg-zag-tay-mat-uh, adj. m. fem. EXANTHÉMATÉUSE, med. exanthematous.

EXANTHÉMATIQUE, ayg-zang-tay-mat-ik, adj. m. fem. exanthematic.

EXANTHÈME, ayg-zang-taym, sm. (Gr.) med. exanthem, exanthema, pl. exanthemata.

EXARCHAT, ayg-xar-kab, sm. exarchate.

EXARQUE, ayg-xark, sm. (Gr.) 1 exarch. 2 Gr. church. exarch.

EXASPERATION, ayg-zas-pay-ral-syng, sf. (Lat.) exasperatio. L'— des esprits, the exasperation of the minds.

EXASPERÉ, ppa. of EXASPERER, fem. — E, Je l'ai trouvé fort —, I found him greatly exasperated. — s de haine et d'humiliation, exasperated with hatred and humiliation. Mich.

EXASPERER, ayg-zas-pay-ray, ra. (Lat. exasperare) to exasperate, to incense. Toutes ces calamités exaspéraient les âmes contre les âmes, all those calamities produced a general exasperation. Lamart. Cela avait exaspéré les esprits, that had exasperated men's minds. Son attitude d'exaspération jusqu'à la folie, his attitude exasperated me to a degree of madness. Ab.

EXASPERER, rpr. to become exasperated. fig. Les animosités n'avaient fait que changer de direction en s'exaspérant, the animosities in their exasperation had only taken another direction. Lamart.

EXAUCÉ, ppa. of EXAUCER, fem. — E, Dieu t'a si nos vœux sont — s des cœurs, shortly, if our desires are hearkened to by Heaven. Rac. Ces prières ne devaient pas être — es, those prayers were not to be heard.

EXAUCER, ayg-zo-say, ra. nous exaucerons; il exauce, (Lat. exaudire) to hear favourably, to hear, to hearken to. Dieu exauce les prières des humbles, God hears the prayers of the lowly. To promise d'— le plus cher de mes vœux, you promised to gratify my fondest wish. Rac. (des personnes, of persons) Le Dieu qui nous exauce est avec vous, mon père, God who hears our prayers is with you, my father. C. Del. Grand Dieu, qui m'exauce, great God, who lendest a favourable ear to my prayer. Corn. (by extension) Les vents nous paraissent-ils exaucés cette nuit? have the winds been favourable to us this night? Rac.

EXCAVATION, eks-kav-ah-syng, sf. (Lat.) 1 excavatio, excavatio. 2 (creux) excavation.

EXCAVER, eks-kav-ay, ra. (Lat. excavare) to excavate, to hollow.

EXCÉDANT, ek-say-dang, rpr. of EXCÉDER, adj. m. fem. — E, 1 exceeding, over and above. Les sommes — es, the sums over and above. 2 fig. (fatigant) wearisome, tiring.

EXCÉDANT, sm. (le nombre, la quantité qui excède) surplus, occurus. Un dé de recette, an overplus in the receipts. L'— de la population, the surplus of the population. L'— de leurs besoins, what was in excess of their wants. Nod.

EXCÉDÉ, ppa. of EXCÉDER, fem. — E, 1 malreated, 2 (fatigué à l'excès) wearied, jaded, worn out. C'est un homme — de fatigues, de jeûnes, he is a man worn out with fatigues, with fasting. Une tigresse — e par la faim, a tigress a prey to hunger. Nod. 3 fig. (importuné) wearied, tired. Ne sera-t-il pas bien — de l'étiquette de la cour de Vienne? will he not find the etiquette at Vienna very wearisome? Volt.

EXCÉDER, ek-say-day, ra. (Lat. excedere) 4 (aller au delà de certaines bornes) to exceed, to go beyond. Il a excédé son pouvoir, his powers, he has exceeded his powers, his powers. Vous pouvez employer jusqu'à cent francs, mais n'exécédez pas cette somme, you may go as far as a hundred francs, but do not exceed that sum. fig. On sent à tout moment qu'elle excède son cadre de surintendante, one feels at every moment that she exceeds the limits of her functions as superintendante. St-B. absol. fig. Et aucune chose il ne fait —, one must never go beyond certain limits. V. Hug. Vous excédez dans un récit, you go beyond the bounds in a narration. Bourd. 2 (surpasser, dépasser) to exceed. Celui-là est pauvre dont la dépense excède la recette, he is poor whose expenditure exceeds his income. La Bruy. Cela excède le nombre fixé, that exceeds the number fixed upon. 3 (battre outrageusement) to maltreat. 4 (causer une grande lassitude) to weary, to tire, to tire out, to knock up. Cette course m'a excédée, this walk has knocked me up. — quelqu'un de bonne chère, to surfeit a person. 5 fig. (importuner) to weary of a weary. Vos reproches m'exécèdent, I am weary of your reproaches.

EXCÉDER, rpr. to weary one's self out, to wear one's self out. S'— de travail, de jeûnes, to wear one's self out with work, with fasting. S'— à la chasse, to tire one's self out in a shooting excursion.

EXCELLEMENT, ek-sel-ah-mog, adv. excellently, surpassingly.

EXCELLENCE, ek-sel-ang, sf. (Lat. excellentia) 1 excellence, excellency. L'— d'un fruit, d'un vin, d'un mets, d'un remède, the excellence of a fruit, of a wine, of a dish, of a remedy. L'— de la nature de l'homme, the excellence of man's nature. Buff. Avoir une grande idée de sa propre —, de l'— de son esprit, to have a great idea of one's own excellence, of the excellence of one's understanding. Privé d'—, prize of excellence. 2 (titre d'honneur) Excellence, Excellency. Donner à quelqu'un de l'—, to mylord a person.

PAR EXCELLENCE, adv. loc. 1 preeminently. Cela est beau, cela est bon par —, that is preeminently beautiful, preeminently good. 2 (au suprême degré) by way of eminence. L'homme par —, the man above all. (by analogy) C'est par — que Salomon est appelé le Sage, it is by way of eminence that Solomon is called the wise man. (also said of things) by way of eminence, of distinction, above all. Chapeau, se dit par — du chapeau de cardinal, hat is said by way of distinction of a cardinal's hat.

EXCELLENT, ek-sel-ang, adj. m. fem. — E, (Lat. excellens) 1 excellent. Voilà du vin —, d'— vin, that is excellent wine. Cela a — goût —, that has an excellent taste. Employez-y l'art des plus — s ouvriers, employ in it the art of the most eminent workmen. La Bruy. C'est au homme —, c'est un — homme, he is an excellent man. Un prince —, un — prince, an excellent prince. Ce qu'il y a d'— en cela, c'est que, the best part of the thing is that. La morale chrétienne est — e à tous les vœux, christian morality is excellent for every evil. M^{me} de Sév. Nourriture — e pour les enfants, excellent food for children. ironic. Non cher, je vous trouve —, my dear fellow, you are delightful! La mère est — e; on en rencontre peu de cette force-là, the mother is capital; one does not often meet with such persons. C. Bonj. 2 (substantif) excellent, excellence. Où l'abbé est bon, il va jusqu'à l'exquis et l'—, where R. is good, he rises to the exquisite and the excellent. Volt. Dans l'art, il n'y a que l'— qui compte, in art, excellence alone is esteemed. St-B.

EXCELLENTISSIME, ek-sel-ang-te-seem, adj. mf. 1 (titre de dignité) most excellent. 2 (dans le langage ordinaire) most excellent. Il nous a donné d'un vin —, he gave us some exquisite wine. Le poste est excellent, peste, —! the post is excellent, sounds! most excellent? E. Aug.

EXCELLER, ek-say-lay, rn. (Lat. excellere) to excel, to surpass. Il vaut mieux — dans le médicine que, it is better to excel in mediocrity than. La Bruy. Il excelle à conduire un char dans la carrière, he excels in driving a chariot over the race-ground. Rac. Corneille ne peut être égalé dans les endroits où il excelle, C. is not to be equalled in the passages in which he excels. Volt. Les hommes sont plaisants de prétendre — par-dessus nous, men are comical beings when they pretend to set themselves above us. La Font.

EXCENTRICITÉ, ek-sang-tré-se-lay, sf. 1 math. eccentricity. 2 fig. (bizarrerie) eccentricity. L'— de ses manières, the eccentricity of his manners. De là s'merveilleuse — de pensée et de style, from thence is derived his wonderful eccentricity in thought and style. Lamart.

EXCENTRIQUE, ek-sang-trik, adj. mf. 1 geom. eccentric. 2 fig. (bizarrerie) eccentric, odd, strange. Personnage —, eccentric person, humorist.

EXCEPTÉ, ppa. of EXCEPTER, fem. — E, except, excepted, exempted. Ils en sont — s de droit, they are exempted from it by right. Monsieur, je couvais toute la compagnie vous seul —, sir, I know all the company here yourself excepted. Be Bross.

EXCEPTÉ, prep. 1 except, excepting, sav. but. — ses enfants, elle ne regardait personne, she had eyes only for her children. Balz. Un grand secret, messieurs; on l'a gardé si bien que, — les journaux, personne n'en sait rien, a great secret, gentlemen; it has been so well kept that, except the newspapers, nobody knows any thing about it. C. Del. 2 adf. unless, except.

EXCEPTÉ QUE, conj. loc. except that. EXCEPTER, ek-say-pay, ra. (Lat. exceptare) to except. On accorda l'amnistie aux rebelles, mais en exceptant les chefs, an amnesty was granted to the rebels, but the chiefs were excepted. Bar. Le pape n'excepta de cette réprobation que six articles, the pope excepted but six articles from this reprobation. Aug. Th. Je n'en excepte qui que ce soit, I make an exception in favour of none, I exempt no one from it. Sans — personne, without excepting anybody.

EXCEPTION, ek-sep-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 exception. C'est une — à la règle, it is an exception to the rule. — Tiens parole et tu feras une belle — à la règle, keep your word, and you will be a fine exception to the rule. Beaum. Ce mot fait —, c'est une —, that word is an exception, it is an exception. Faire — de, to except. Par —, by way of exception. Tous sans —, all without any exception. Il n'y a pas de règle sans —, there is no rule without an exception. 2 law. exception, plea. — péremptoire, demurrer. — déclinatorie, plea to the jurisdiction. p'exception, adj. loc. law. exceptional. Loi d'—, exceptional law.

À L'EXCEPTION DE, prep. except, with the exception of. Le plomb peut s'allier à tous les métaux à l'— du fer, lead can be combined with all metals, except iron. A l'— d'un senti, except one.

EXCEPTIONNEL, ek-sep-syonei, adj. m. fem. — LE, exceptional, exceptive. EXCEPTIONNELLEMENT, ek-sep-syonei-mang, adj. exceptionally.

EXCESS, ek-say, sm. (Lat. excessus) 1 excess. — de boire, de manger, excess in eating, in drinking. — de bonne œuvre, excess at table. — de travail, excess in work. — de bonté, d'indulgence, excess of kindness, of indulgence. Qu'A. soit admis à cet — d'honneur, let A. be admitted to that excess of honour. Rac. Ne voyant dans l'— des souffrances que l'— de la gloire, considering excess of suffering only as excess of glory. Chat. A quel — tantôt allait mon desespoir ! to what an excess my despair was carried so soon short time ago ! Rac. Je passai rapidement de l'— de la crainte à l'— de la confiance, I passed all at once from extreme fear to extreme confidence. Chat. Ce sont deux — tellement dangereux, these are two extremes equally dangerous. Pate. Tomber d'un — dans un autre, to go from one excess to another. Fuir l'un et l'autre —, to shun both extremes. — de pouvoir, excess of power. 2 absol. (débâche) excess. Faire de temps en temps un petit —, to have a jollification now and then. 3 absol. (outrage) excess, violence. C'était l'homme le plus propre à entraîner le peuple aux derniers —, he was the man the most fitted to draw the people on to commit the greatest excesses. Launier. Se porter à des —, to proceed to acts of violence. 4 arith. excess.

À L'EXCESS, jusqu'à l'EXCESS, adj. loc. to excess, to an excess. Être ménager, économe à l'—, to be sparing, economical to an excess. Elle était glorieuse et désagréable à l'— avec le gros du monde, she was vain-glorious and disagreeable to an excess with most people. Saint-Sim. Élegant jusqu'à l'—, elegant to an excess. Ab. Porter l'insolence, l'impudence jusqu'à l'—, to carry insolence, impudence to excess.

PAR EXCÈS DE, prep. through an excess of. Par — de religion ne laissons pas la religion périr, let us not cause religion to perish through an excess of religion. Chat.

EXCESSIF, ek-say-sif, adj. m. fem. excessive, 1 excessive, extreme. Un froid —, one chabrous excessive, excessive cold, heat. Être d'un embouppoint —, to be excessively stout. Travail —, joie excessive, excessive labour, excessive joy. Amour-propre —, excessive self-love. Tout ce qui est — est vicieux, every extreme is vicious. 2 (des personnes, of persons) unreasonable. Les Parisiens ont tous les défauts des Athéniens, et sont même plus —, the Parisians have all the faults of the Athenians, and in a still greater degree. Volt. Esprits —, ill-regulated minds. Boss. Il est — eu tout, he goes to extremes in every thing.

EXCESSIVEMENT, ek-say-siv-mang, adv. excessively, immoderately.

EXCIPER, ek-se-pay, va. (Lat. excipere) 1 law. to plead an exception, to allege. 2 (employer une piece pour sa défense) to plead.

EXCIPIENT, ek-se-pyang, sm. (Lat. excipiens) pharm. excipient.

EXCISE, ek-siz, sf. (Eng.) excise.

EXCISER, ek-se-zay, va. (Lat. excidere) surg. to cut off.

S'EXCISER, rpr. to be cut off.

EXCISION, ek-se-zyong, sf. (Lat.) surg. excision.

EXCITABILITÉ, ek-se-tab-e-le-tay, sf. excitability.

EXCITABLE, ek-se-tabl', adj. m. f. excitable.

EXCITANT, ek-se-tang, ppf. of exciter, v. m. fem. — E, 1 med. excitant, exciting, 2 sm. excitant.

EXCITATIF, ek-se-tat-if, adj. m. fem. excitative, med. excitative.

EXCITATION, ek-se-tah-syong, sf. excitement, excitement. — à la haine et au mépris du gouvernement, contempt against the government. L'— des esprits était grande, the minds of the people were in a state of great excitement.

EXCITER, ek-se-tay, va. (Lat. excitare) 1 (engager, porter à) to excite, to urge, to impel, to induce. — à boire, à manger, to press to drink, to eat. L'exemple de ses ancêtres l'excitait à se distinguer, the example of his ancestors served as an inducement to distinguish himself. — le peuple à la révolte, to excite the people to rebellion. C'est lui qui m'excitait à vous opposer, it was he who urged me to venture to seek you. Rac. Il l'exhorta à se rappeler tous ses méfaits pour l'— à la contrition, he exhorted her to call to mind all her misdeeds to excite her to contrition. Mich. C'est vous qui m'excitez à punir, you ! is it you who urge me to punish, you ! Saint. absol. — à pitié, à compassion, to move to pity, to compassion. 2 (animer, encourager) to excite, to animate, to encourage, to stimulate, to set on. Il excitait les soldats par ses paroles et par son exemple, he excited the troops by his words and his example. Le maudit piqueur les excite, the cursed huntsman sets them on. Flor. Je vais les — par un dernier effort, I will make one more effort to excite them. Rac. Je ne fais que les — à s'intéresser eux-mêmes tout ce m'insinuant, I merely stimulate them what I am ignorant of. Jacq. Le vrai courage est toujours ce qu'il doit être ; il ne faut ni l'— ni le retenir, true courage is always what it ought to be ; it requires to be neither stimulated nor checked. J.-J. Rons. — au taurau, to excite a bull. 3 med. — un organe, to excite an organ. absol. Le café excite, coffee is exciting. 4 (provoquer) to excite, to provoke, to create, to stir up. Cela excite la soif, excite l'appétit, that provokes thirst, creates an appetite. Nul mets n'excitait leur envie, no food tempted them. La Font. — une sédition, to excite a rebellion. Ce discours excita une grande rumeur dans l'assemblée, this speech excited violent murmurs in the assembly. Les mauvais succès de la guerre excitèrent les murmures du peuple, the ill success of the war excited the murmure of the people. Le Sage. Elle excita un mouvement de surprise et d'admiration, she excited an emotion of surprise and admiration. Chat. 5 (morally) to excite, to rouse, to stir up, to kindle. — la pitié, to excite pity. — l'envie, la jalousie, to rouse envy, jealousy. Un sujet plus pressant excite nos alarmes, we have a more urgent call for alarm. Rac. Mon émotion excita en lui un trouble dont je m'aperçus, my emotion, I could perceive, threw him into an agitation. Le Sage. Ah ! que ton impudence excite mon courroux ! ah ! how my wrath is kindled by your impudence ! Rac.

S'EXCITER, rpr. 1 to excite one's self, to work one's self up. Elle excitait le zèle de ceux qu'elle avait appelés pour s'— elle-même, she roused the zeal of those whom she had called to rouse herself. Boss. (by extension) Sa piété excitait toujours assez elle-même, her piety found sufficient excitement in itself. Boss. 2 recipr. ils s'excitent l'un l'autre, they excited each other. (by extension) Les passions de notre âme s'excitent peu à peu les unes les autres par un mouvement enchaîné, the passions of our souls excite each other gradually by mutual impulses. Boss. 3 (être excité) to be excited. La vertu s'excite par les grands exemples, virtue is excited by great examples. Flech.

EXCLAMATIF, eks-klam-at-if, adj. m. fem. EXCLAMATIVE, gram. exclamative, exclamatory, of exclamation. Phrase exclamative, exclamatory phrase. Point —, note of exclamation, of admiration.

EXCLAMATION, eks-klam-at-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 exclamation. Faire une —, faire des —, de grandes —, to exclaim, to exclaim loudly. 2 gram. Point d'—, note of admiration, of exclamation.

EXCLAMER, eks-klam-ay, va. (Lat. exclamare) to exclaim, to shout.

S'EXCLAMER, rpr. to exclaim.

EXCLU, eks-klü, ppf. of EXCLURE, fem. — 1 (renvoyer) excluded. 2 (non admis) excluded, shut out. Pourquoi de ce conseil moi seule suis-je — ? why am I alone excluded from the council ? Rac. La bourgeoisie inférieure était — des emplois, the lower class of citizens was excluded from offices. Thiers. 3 (incompatible) excluded. La vertu n'est point — e d'un gouvernement monarchique, virtue is not excluded from a monarchical government. Montesq.

EXCLURE, eks-klür, va. irreg. EXCLUDANT ; EXCLU ; EXCLUS ; TO EXCLUS, IL EXCLUT, NON EXCLUS ; EXCLUSIVEMENT ; EXCLUE ; QUE L'EXCLUSSE, (Lat. excludere) 1 (renvoyer) to exclude. On l'a exclu de cette compagnie, de cette assemblée, he was excluded from that company, from that assembly. 2 (ne pas admettre) to exclude, to shut out, to debar. Ses ennemis l'ont exclu de cette place, his enemies have caused him to be excluded from that place. La loi l'exclut, the law excludes him. 3 (être incompatible avec) to exclude, to shut out. La faveur du prince n'exclut pas le mérite, et ne le suppose pas aussi, the favour of the prince does not exclude merit, nor does it infer its existence. La Bruy. Sa rudesse n'exclut pas la douceur, his roughness did not exclude mildness. Ab. Des gens qui semblaient devoir — la vie végétale, sandstones that seemed to exclude all vegetable life. Mich.

S'EXCLURE, ppf. to exclude each other. La grâce et l'originalité, deux qualités rares, parce qu'elles s'excluent l'une l'autre, gracefulness and originality, two rare qualities, because they exclude each other. Balz.

EXCLUSIVE, eks-klü-zif, adj. m. fem. EXCLUSIVE, 1 exclusive. Un droit —, de tout autre, a right exclusive of any other. Privilège —, exclusive privilege, patent. 2 (des personnes, of persons) exclusive. C'est un esprit très —, an exracière —, he is a very exclusive character. Gôût —, exclusive taste. (by analogy) Patriotisme —, exclusive patriotism. Passion exclusive, exclusive passion.

EXCLUSION, eks-khâ-zyong, sf. exclusion. Donner l'— à quelqu'un, to exclude a person.

À L'EXCLUSION DE, prep. to the exclusion of. À l'— d'un tel, to the exclusion of So-and-so.

EXCLUSIVEMENT, eks-khâ-ziv-mang, adv. exclusively.

EXCOMMUNICATION, eks-ko-mû-nek-zyong, sf. (Lat.) excommunication. Sentence d'—, sentence of excommunication. À peine d'—, under pain of excommunication.

EXCOMMUNIÉ, ppa. of EXCOMMUNIQUER, (fem. —, f. excommunicated. 2 (substantive) excommunicated person.

EXCOMMUNIÉ, eks-ko-mû-nyay, ra. NOUS EXCOMMUNIQUONS, VOUS EXCOMMUNIEZ, (Lat. excommunicare) to excommunicate. Le pape l'a excommunié, the pope excommunicated him. absol. L'Eglise a le droit d'—, the Church has the right to excommunicate.

EXCORIATION, eks-ko-ryah-zyong, sf. (Lat.) surg. excoriation.

EXCORIER, eks-ko-ryay, ra. surg. to excoriate.

EXCRÈMENT, eks-kray-mang, sm. (Lat. excrementum) 1 excrement. 2 (partic.) excrement, faeces. fig. Va-t'en, chétif insecte, — de la terre, away with you, puny insect, scum of the earth. La Font.

EXCRETEUR, eks-kray-tour, adj. m. physiol. excretory. Les vaisseaux, les conduits —s, the excretory vessels, excretory ducts.

EXCRÉTION, eks-kray-zyong, sf. excretion.

EXGROSSANCE, eks-khwâ-sangs, sf. 1 exerescence. 2 de chair, fleshy exerescence. 2 (by extension) (des arbres, des plantes, etc., of trees, of plants, etc.) exerescence.

EXCURSION, eks-khû-zyong, sf. (Lat.) 1 (irruption sur le pays ennemi) inroad, incursion. 2 (d'un touriste) excursion, trip, ramble. 3 fig. (digression) excursion, digression.

EXCUSABLE, eks-khâ-zabl', adj. mf. excusable.

EXCUSATION, eks-khâ-zab-zyong, sf. (Lat.) law. excusation, plea.

EXCUSE, eks-khû, sf. 1 excuse. Donner, apporter, alléguer, présenter une —, to give, to bring, to allege, to offer an excuse. Avoir une — toute prête, to have an excuse ready. On doit dire à l'— de T., we must say to exculpate T. Th. Gaut. Les ans et mes travaux me serviront d'—s, my age and my works will plead for me. La Font. Mais vous, jeune demoiselle, vous n'avez point d'—, but you, young lady, have no excuse to plead. B. de S-P. 2 (terme de civiliste) excuse, apology. Faire des —s à quelqu'un, to beg a person's pardon. Je vous en fais mille —s, I beg your pardon a thousand times. Je lui fis —s d'avoir mal pris son sentiment, I begged his pardon for having misunderstood him. Pasc. Faire des —s à quelqu'un, to apologise to a person. Il faut qu'il aille faire ses —s à l'Université, he was obliged to go and beg pardon of the University. Bar. Exiger des —s, to require an apology.

EXCUSE, ppa. of EXCUSER, (fem. —, excused. 1 pria le roi de le tenir pour — de cette mort, he begged the king to pardon him for this murder. Bar.

EXCUSER, eks-khû-zyay, ra. (Lat. excusare) 1 (donner des raisons pour disculper quelqu'un d'une faute) to excuse. Il l'a excusé auprès du roi, he offered excuses for him to the king. Les hommes, pour — leurs vices, cherchent à décrier la vertu, to excuse their vices, men seek to decry virtue. Mass. 2 (recevoir, admettre les raisons que quelqu'un allègue pour se disculper) to excuse. Après l'avoir entendu, on ne peut s'empêcher de l'—, after having heard him, it is impossible not to excuse him. 3 (pardonner, supporter) to excuse, to pass over. Malire chat excusait ces jeux, Grimaldin found an excuse for the sport. La Font. On doit — les fautes de la jeunesse, one ought to be indulgent to the faults of youth. Excusez l'état où je suis, excuse the condition I am in. Vous m'excuserez, si je ne vous accompagne pas plus loin, you will excuse me, if I do not accompany you any further. Il faut — des gens qui ont perdu la tramontane, we must excuse people whose wits are gone wool-gathering. Mme de Sév. Excusez-moi, excuse me. Vous dites que j'ai fait telle chose, excusez-moi, je ne l'ai point faite, absol. excusez-moi, you say that I did such a thing, I beg your pardon, I did not. Vous resterez avec nous? Excusez-moi, je ne puis, you remain with us? Pardon me, I cannot. Excusez! comme il vous dit cela, upon my word I how he speaks. G. Sand. — quelqu'un de faire une chose, to excuse a person's doing a thing.

S'EXCUSER, rpr. 1 to excuse one's self, to exculpate one's self, to apologise, to make an apology, apologies. Il s'excusa sur les alliances qu'il avait jurées, he pleaded as an excuse the alliances he had entered. Bar. Il s'en excusa sur sa maladie, he begged to be excused on account of his illness. S'— sur un autre, to lay the blame on another. S'— de faire une chose, to decline doing a thing. L'autre assouit de s'—, and the other forthwith to evade. La Font. 2 (être excusé) to be excused. Une telle action ne saurait s'—, there is no excuse for such an action. Mol.

EXEAT, aye-zay-at, sm. (Lat.) 1 (d'un exécuté) exeat. fam. Donner à quelqu'un son —, to dismiss a person. 2 (au collège) exeat.

EXÉCABLE, aye-zay-kabl', adj. mf. (Lat. execrabilis) 1 execrable, accursed, detestable. Forfait —, execrable crime. Va-t'en, monstre —, away, execrable monster. Rac. C'est un homme —, he is an execrable man. Il a des mœurs et des opinions —s, his morality and opinions are execrable. 2 (très-mauvais) execrable.

EXÉCRABLEMENT, aye-zay-kab-luh-mang, adv. execrably.

EXÉCRATION, aye-zay-krah-zyong, sf. (Lat.) 1 execration. Avoir en —, to hold in execration. Cet homme m'est en —, I hold that man in execration. 2 (la personne, la chose) execration. abomination. 3 (imprécation) execration, curse, imprecation.

EXÉCRÉ, ppa. of EXÉCRER, (fem. —, Cet homme —, that odious man. G. Sand.

EXÉCRER, aye-zay-krah, ra. J'EXÉCRÉ, IL EXÉCRÉ, ILS EXÉCRENT, J'EXÉCRERAI; NOUS EXÉCRERONS. (Lat. execrari) to execrate, to hold in execration.

EXÉCUTABLE, aye-zay-khâ-tabl', adj. mf. executable, feasible, practicable.

EXÉCUTANT, aye-zay-khâ-tang, ppa. of EXÉCUTER, sm. mus. performer.

EXÉCUTÉ, ppa. of EXÉCUTER, (fem. —, 4 Ce que tu m'as dit, je veux de point en point qu'il soit —, what you have commanded me, I will see punctually executed. Rac. 2 (rendu, exécuté) executed, performed. 3 (d'un criminel, of a criminal) executed. Il fut — à mort, il fut —, he was executed.

EXÉCUTER, aye-zay-khâ-tay, ra. 1 to execute, to perform, to accomplish, to carry out. Est-il besoin d'—? l'on ne rencontre plus personne, when it comes to the execution, nobody offers. La Font. J'exécuterai ce que j'ai promis, I will perform what I have promised. Cela est difficile à —, that is difficult of performance. — un arrêt, une loi, to execute a decree, to enforce a law. On ne connaît l'importance d'une action que quand on est près de l'—, we are aware of the importance of an action only when we are on the point of accomplishing it. La Font. On n'exécute pas tout ce qui se propose, one does not put every intention into execution. Mol. J'ai exécuté vos ordres, I have executed your orders. — un testament, to execute a will. 2 fine arts, to execute (on tableau, une statue, on bas-relief, a painting, a statue, a bas-relief; on monument, a monument). — un ouvrage en grand, en petit, to execute a work on a grand scale, on a small scale. Il conçoit, il imagine bien, mais il exécute mal, his conception and imagination are good, but his execution is bad. 3 (jouer, représenter, etc.) to execute, to perform, etc. (on morceau de musique, une ouverture, an ballet, an opera, a piece of music, an overture, a ballet, an opera). 4 — des mouvements, to execute movements. — des évolutions, des manœuvres, to execute evolutions, manœuvres. 5 law. (saisir) to distrain. Faire — les meubles de son débiteur, to distrain the furniture of one's debtor. 6 (faire mourir) to execute. 7 mil. — militairement un soldat, to execute, to shoot a soldier.

S'EXÉCUTER, rpr. 1 (être exécuté) to be executed, performed. Cela ne peut s'— facilement, that is not easy of execution. La loi doit s'—, the law must be enforced. 2 (vendre ses meubles, son fonds pour payer ses dettes) to sell off one's property. 3 (se déterminer à faire contre ses propres intérêts ce qu'exige l'honneur, la raison) to yield, to comply. Vous voyez que je m'exécute de bonne grâce, you see that I comply with a good grace. Exécutez-les donc, et de bonne grâce, ta lettre peut m'arriver dans un an, write to me, and with a good grace, your letter may reach me in a year. Jacq.

EXÉCUTEUR, aye-zay-khâ-tour, sm. fem. EXÉCUTRICE, f. exécuter, exécuter. fem. EXÉCUTRESS, EXÉCUTRICE. Exécuteur testamentaire, exécutrix. 2 L'— de la haute justice, l'—, the executioner, the hangman.

EXÉCUTIF, aye-zay-khâ-tif, adj. m. fem. EXÉCUTIVE, EXECUTIVE. Pouvoir —, executive power.

EXÉCUTION, aye-zay-khâ-zyong, sf. (Lat.) 1 execution. L'— d'une entreprise, d'un dessein, the execution of an undertaking, of a design. L'— d'un jugement, d'un acte, d'un contrat, the execution of a judgment, of a law, of a contract. En venir à l'—, to come to execution. Il est homme d'—, he is a man of execution, he is an enterprising man. Mettre à —, to put in execution. 2 law. Saisie —, execution. L'— d'un condamné, the execution of a criminal. 3 war. — militaire, military execution. 4 fine arts. execution, performance. 5 paint. engrav. execution.

EXÉCUTOIRE, aye-zay-khâ-twar, adj. mf. 1 law. EXECUTORY. Titre —, writ of execution. Jugement — par provision, interlocutory judgment. 2 sm. law. execution, writ of execution.

EXEMPLAIRE, eg-zang-playr, adj. mf. (Lat. exemplaris) exemplary. Vie —, exemplary life. Châtiment —, exemplary chastisement.

EXEMPLAIRE, sm. 1 abso. (modèle) pattern, exemplar. — de vertu, pattern of virtue. 2 (des livres, des gravures, etc., of books, of prints, etc.) copy, specimen.

EXEMPLAIREMENT, aye-zang-playr-mang, adv. exemplarily. Vivre —, to live in an exemplary manner. Buss.

EXEMPLE, aye-zang-pl', sm. (Lat. exemplum) 1 example, pattern. Mauvais, dangereux —, bad, dangerous example. Proposer un —, to set as an example. Le plus grand mal que fait un ministre sans probité, c'est le mauvais — qu'il donne, the greatest evil caused by a minister without probity is the bad example he sets. Monteq. Vous trouverez dans le monde tous les vices autorisés par les —, you will find in society every vice sanctioned by examples. Mass. Ne donner que de bons —, to set only good examples. Prêcher d'—, to practise what one preaches. Les bons — ne sont jamais assez connus, good examples are never sufficiently known. Ab. Suis les — de toute ma vie, follow the example of my whole life. Ab. Trop rigoureux peut-être, je le fus pour l'—, too severe perhaps, I did it for your example's sake. C. Del. Se donner pour —, to set one's self up as a pattern. Un écolier qui est l'— de toute sa classe, a scholar that is the example of the whole class. Faire un — de quelqu'un, to make an example of a person. 2 (chose pareille) example, instance, precedent. Il n'y en a point d'—, there is no example of such a thing. Des — tirés des bons auteurs, some examples drawn from standard authors. Alléguer un —, to quote an example. Cela ne fait point —, that is not a precedent. 3 writ. copy, slip. Un bel — d'écriture anglaise, de ronde, de coulée, etc., a fine copy of English writing, of round-hand, of running-hand. Un livre, un cahier d'—s, a copy-slip. 4 of. (lignes, caractères) copy. PAR EXEMPLE, adv. loc. 1 for instance. La cité, par —, devient votre royaume, the city, for instance, becomes your kingdom. C. Del. 2 fam. (elliptic) oh! indeed. Par —, voilà qui est fort, voilà qui est bien singulier, oh! indeed, that is strange, that is singular. Il le fera, dites-vous; ah! par —, c'est ce que nous verrons, he will do it, you say; ah! well, we shall see about that.

A l'exemple de, prep. after the example of, in imitation of. A l'— de ses ancêtres, after the example of his ancestors. Nous nous mîmes à genoux à son — following his example we knelt down. B. de St-P. EXEMPT, ayz-zang, adj. m. fem. —, (Lat. exemptus) 1 exempt (from), free (from), exempted (from). —s de tailles, exempti from taxes. Etre — du service militaire, to be exempt from military service. Noli n'est — de la mort, none is exempted from death. Etre — de tuelle, de caruelle, to be one's own master. prov. Il est exempt de rien faire, others do his work. 2 (garanti) exempt, free, preserved. Un ouvrage — de défauts, a work free from faults.

EXEMPT, am. 1 anc. exempt. — des gardes du corps, — des gardes, exempt of the body-guards. — de la maréchante, exempt of the marshal's. — de police, police-officer. 2 (ecclésiastique) ecclesiastic exempt.

EXEMPTÉ, ppa. of EXEMPTER, fem. —, exempted, freed.

EXEMPTER, eg-zang-tay, va. 4 to exempt, to free (de tout impôt, from all taxes; du service militaire, from military service). Vous avez bien voulu m'— de votre rigueur, you have deigned to exempt me from your rigour. Bar. Se faire —, to get one's self exempted from military service. 2 (dispenser; to exempt (from), to dispense (with)).

S'EXEMPTER, vpr. to exempt one's self (from), to dispense (with).

EXEMPTION, eg-zang-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 exemption (d'impôts, de service, from taxes from service; de toutes charges publiques, from all taxes). 2 (dispense) dispensation.

EXÉQUATOR, eg-zay-kwa-tér, sm. (Lat.) 1 anc. law. exequatur. 2 diplom. exequatur.

EXERCÉ, ppa. of EXERCER, fem. —, exercised, drilled. Des soldats bien —, soldiers well drilled. Leurs fils — au tir de l'arc, their sons trained to archery. Aug. Th. 2 practised, experienced, tried. Une oreille entraînée, a very practised ear. fig. Un esprit — et pratique, an experienced and practical mind. Cous. Ne patiencez pas bien — pendant ce temps-là, my patience was greatly tried during that time. Le Sage.

EXERCER, eg-zay-sat, va. NORS EXERCER; IL EXERÇA, (Lat. exercere) 1 (dresser, former) to exercise, to drill. — des soldats, les — au maniement des armes, to drill, to instruct soldiers, to train them up to the management of arms. — à la tempérance, à la patience, to exercise in temperance, in patience. 2 (des animaux, of animals) to train. 3 (faire mouroir) to exercise. — ses jambes, to exercise one's legs. fig. La géométrie exerce l'esprit, geometry exercises the mind. — la mémoire d'un enfant, — l'exercice the memory of a child. — la patience de quelqu'un, to try the patience of a person. — Plus d'une fois, Rome a été par elle-même exercée la constance, more than once, Rome has tried the constancy of men like me. Rac. Dieu se plait à — les bons, God delights in trying the good. 4 fig. (pratiquer) to practise, to follow, to exercise. — un métier, to follow a trade. — la médecine, la chirurgie, to practise medicine, surgery. — la piraterie, le brigandage, to commit piracy, acts of brigandage. — des fonctions, to exercise functions. — une charge, to fill an office. absol. —, to fill an office, to follow a profession. Cet avocat, ce médecin n'exerce plus, that barrister, that physician no longer exercises his profession. 5 fig. (faire usage) to exercise, to exert, to use. Voici une occasion d'— votre philosophie, I, J. Rouss. — son éloquence, to exert one's eloquence. Les plumes de C. sont bien taillées, il ne demande qu'à les —, the pens of C. are quite ready, he desires nothing better than to make use of them. M^{re} de Sév. En toute affaire ils ne font que souger au moyen d'— leur langue, in every affair their only thought is how they may use their tongues. La Font. — sa libéralité, sa charité, to exercise one's liberality, one's charity. (by analogy) — des actes de clémence, to perform acts of clemency. — l'hospitalité, to exercise, to practise hospitality. Souage que nous ne sommes sur la terre que pour — la vertu, remember that we are on earth only to practise virtue. B. de St-P. — sa cruauté, sa fureur, sa vengeance, etc., to wreak one's cruelty, fury, vengeance. (by analogy) — des actes de cruauté, de vengeance, etc., to perform acts of cruelty, of vengeance. On se servait aussi d'eux pour — des extorsions indirectes sur le peuple, they were likewise employed to practise indirect extortions on the people. Villem. — son droit, ses droits, un privilège, to practise one's right, one's rights, a privilege. Il agit en cette affaire comme exerçant les uoms et actions de son débiteur, in this affair, he steps into the shoes of his debtor. (by analogy) — l'autorité, le pouvoir, to exercise, to exert authority, power. Il exerçait un grand empire, un grand ascendant sur les esprits, he had great ascendancy over the minds. Cet empire que la parole exerçait sur les hommes assembles, that empire which eloquence exercised, over an assembly. Villem. La religion et l'amour exercent à la fois leur empire, religion and love reign at the same time. Chat. — une grande surveillance, une surveillance active sur quelqu'un, sur quelque chose, to watch a person, a thing closely, (by analogy) — la police, to maintain order. 6 absol. —, to inspect and rate excisable commodities.

S'EXERCER, vpr. 1 to exercise one's self (in), to practise, to exercise. S'— à faire des armes, à tirer de l'arc, to exercise one's self in fencing, in archery. S'— à chauter, to joger du violon, to practise singing, music. S'— à la course, à la lutte, to exercise one's self in running, in wrestling. S'— à la patience, à la tempérance, à toutes les vertus, à la pratique de toutes les vertus, to exercise one's self in patience, in temperance, in every virtue, in the practice of every virtue. Je n'ai pas su penser qu'en l'art de feindre il fallût m'—, I could not believe that it was necessary to exercise myself in the art of dissembling. Rac. S'— le corps, to exercise one's body. S'— les doigts en faisant des gammes, to exercise one's fingers in practising the gamut. 2 (se donner du mouvement, de l'exercice) to exercise one's self. Mon bras s'est exercé sur vos laquois d'écus, my arm has exercised itself on your gilded laces. C. Del. fig. Ab! que je plaindrais son esprit vif et agissant, si vous ne lui donniez de quoi s'—! ah! how I should pity his lively and active mind, if you did not afford occupation for it! Boss. 3 fig. (être employé, être pratiqué) to be exercised, used, employed, exerted. Son talent ne trouva pas là de quoi s'—, his talent will find no room there. Un vaste champ où l'éloquence puisse s'— à l'aise, a vast field in which eloquence may find ample room for exercise. Ce droit est écrit dans la loi, mais ne s'exerce presque jamais, that right is written in the law, but it is scarcely ever exercised. Villem. Le meurtre s'exerçait avec impunité, murder was committed with impunity. Boil.

EXERCICE, eg-zay-sis, sm. (Lat. exercitium) 1 exercise, practice. Il faut que je me remette en —, I must get my hand in again. Se tenir en —, to keep one's self in practice, to keep one's hand in. L'âme, comme le corps, ne se développe que par l'—, the soul, like the body, is only developed by exercise. B. de St-P. 2 mil. exercise, drill. L'— du fusil, drilling. Les soldats font l'— tous les jours, the soldiers are drilled every day. — à feu, field exercise. 3 (mouvements pour exercer le corps) exercise. Il se promène, il joue à la paume pour faire de l'—, he walks out, he plays at tennis to take exercise. L'air et l'— nous feront du bien, the air and exercise will do us good. Scri. 4 L'— de la promenade, exercise in walking. 4 L'— des armes, the exercise of arms. Les —s de la gymnastique, gymnastic exercises. 5 fig. (peine, fatigue) exercise, trouble, fatigue. S'il m'attaque, je lui donnerai de l'—, if he attacks me, he shall find me a troublesome customer. Voilà bien de l'—, it will be hard work. Les malades donnaient de l'— au pauvre hospitalier, the patients gave a great deal of trouble to the poor hospitalier. La Font. 6 —s, pl. (occupation d'une compagnie) exercise. Les —s académiques, the academical exercises. 7 (dans les collèges, in schools) exercise. 8 (pratiquer) exercise, practice. L'— d'une profession, the exercise of a profession. Les édifices consacrés à l'— do culte, buildings consecrated to divine worship. L'— de toutes les vertus, the practice of every virtue. L'— d'une charge, d'un emploi, the service of a post, of an employ, the exercise of one's functions, to be in the exercise of one's functions. 9 (specially) (d'une charge, of an office) service. Etre en —, to be in service. C'est son année d'—, it is his year of service. Entrer en —, to commence one's functions. 10 (l'action d'user de quelque chose) exercise (d'un droit, d'un privilège, of a right, of a privilege). 11 fin. absol. receipts and expenditure, budget. L'— de l'année, the receipts and expenditure of the year. 12 fin. absol. (visites des employés des contributions indirectes) inspection of an exciseman.

EXERÉSE, eg-zay-rayz, sf. (Gr.) surg. exercise.

EXERGUE, eg-zayrg, sm. (Gr.) exergue (d'une médaille, of a medal).

EXFOLIATION, eks-to-lyah-syong, sf. surg. exfoliation.

S'EXFOLIER, eks-to-lyay, vpr. 1 to exfoliate. 2 surg (des os, des tendons, etc., of bones, of tendons, etc.) to exfoliate.

EXHALAISON, eg-zah-lay-zong, sf. (Lat.) exhalation.

EXHALANT, eg-zal-ang, ppr. of EXHALER, adj. and sm. anal. exhalant. Les vaisseaux —s, les —s, the exhaling vessels.

EXHALATION, eg-zah-lab-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 (action d'exhaler) exhalation. 2 mal. exhalation.

EXHALER, eg-zal-ay, va. (Lat. exhalaré) 1 to exhale, to shed. Des fleurs qui exhalent une douce odeur, flowers which shed a sweet smell. La terre, fraîchement ouverte par le tranchant des charrues, exhalait une vapeur légère, the earth, recently opened by the edge of the plough, exhaled a light vapour. G. Sand. Ses lèvres desséchées par une soif ardente exhalent une haleine enflammée, his lips dried up with burning thirst exhale a feverish breath. Nod. 2 (by extension) to breathe out, to breathe forth. Elle exhale son dernier soupir sans douleur et sans efforts, she breathes out her last sigh without pain and without a struggle. Chat. Il se fut cru déshonoré d'un soupir, he would have believed himself dishonoured if he had breathed out a sigh of grief. Saint. 3 fig. (manifestation) to vent, to emit. — sa colère contre quelqu'un, to vent one's anger against a person. Contre ses ennemis, il exhala bien sa bile, he gave full vent to his bile against his enemies. Flor. J'ai vu la colonnie, le venin de sa hache impondie, I have seen calumny exhale venom from its mouth with impunity. Volt. — sa douleur en plaintes, to give vent to one's sorrow in complaints. — sa mauvaise humeur, to give vent to one's ill humour.

S'EXHALER, vpr. 1 to be exhaled, to be shed. L'odeur qui s'exhale d'une rose, the odour shed by a rose. La peste qui s'exhale des anciens fossés, the miasma exhaled from the old moats. Saint. L'odeur de tabac qui s'exhalait de ses habits, the smell of tobacco that his clothes gave out. Lamart. 2 (se dissiper par l'évaporation) to be exhaled, to evaporate. 3 fig. (se manifester vivement) to be exhaled. Sa secrète pitié s'exhale en accès de colère contre cet homme lui-même, his secret pity finds vent in fits of anger against that man himself. Saint. Le mécontentement populaire s'exhalait en propos individuels, the popular discontent exhaled itself in individual remarks. Aug. Th. L'indignation qui s'exhale se sent soulagée, the indignation which gives itself vent feels itself relieved. Lamart. (by extension) Il y a des natures qui s'exhalent en propos vifs, éclatants, some characters find relief in sharp, pungent remarks. Ste-B.

EXHAÛSE, ppa. of EXHAÛSSER, fem. —E, Dans le choc de la poplite —, in the choir the erected psoas. Buil. Quelques planches —es sur quelques pieux, a few planks raised over a few stakes. Nod.

EXHAÛSSEMENT, eg-zos-mang, sm. (de constructions, of constructions) raising, height.

EXHAÛSSER, eg-zo-say, va. to raise (on mur, une maison, a wall, a house; on plafond, a ceiling). (by extension) Une grande taille ne songe point à se exhausser en exhaussant sa chausserie, a tall man does not think of making himself still taller by wearing thick soles to his shoes. Boss.

S'EXHAÛSSER, vpr. to be raised. (by extension) Le sol s'est exhaussé de la poussière des siècles, the dust of ages has raised the soil. Th. Gaut. fig. Si quelques sommets tendent à s'—, if any among the leading men betray aspiring views. Pons.

EXHEREDATION, eg-zay-ray-dah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 law. (action) exheredation. 2 (l'état) exheredation, disinheritance, disinherison.

EXHERÉDER, eg-zay-ray-day, va. (Lat. exheredare) law. to exheredate, to disinherit.

EXHIBER, eg-ze-bay, va. (Lat. exhibere) law. to exhibit, to produce. — ses titres, to produce title-deeds. (in joke) Nous exhibâmes aussitôt nos denrées, we immediately produced our provisions. Le Sage.

EXHIBITION, eg-ze-be-syong, sf. law. exhibition, producing. Faire une — de pièces, to produce documents.

EXHILARANT, eg-ze-lar-ang, adj. m. fem. —E, exhilarating. Gaz —, exhilarating gas.

EXHORTATION, eg-zor-tah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 exhortation. (by extension) Sa mort est pour vous une — à bien vivre, his death is an exhortation for you is lead a holy life. Fléch. 2 (particul.) (discours pieux) exhortation.

EXHORTER, eg-zor-tay, va. (Lat. exhortare) to exhort. — les troupes avant le combat, to exhort the troops before the fight. Quelques hommes exhortèrent leurs concitoyens à, some exhorted their fellow-citizens to. Aug. Th. Je criais, j'exhortais mes dragons, I shouted, I exhorted my dragons. Mériu. Elle m'exhortait à la patience, she exhorted me to patience. Chat. — quelqu'un à la mort, to prepare a person for death.

EXHUMATION, eg-zu-mah-syong, sf. (Lat.) exhumation, disinterment.

EXHUMER, eg-zu-may, va. 1 to exhumate, to disinter. 2 fig. (tirer de l'oubli) to disinter, to bring to light old title-deeds. — des souvenirs fâcheux, to revive unpleasant recollections.

EXIGEANT, eg-ze-zhang, ppr. of EXIGER, N' — du roi que la simple assistance d'un allié en cas de revers, requiring from the king but the mere assistance of an ally, in case of a reverse. Aug. Th. adj. m. fem. —E, exacting, particular, unreasonable, troublesome, importunate. Se montrer —, to be particular. L'infortunée personnelle est une compagne —E, personal misfortune is very exacting. Chat. J'ai fait pour eux ce qui était en mon pouvoir, et sans être trop —, I have done for them what lay in my power, and without being too unreasonable. Th. Lecl. Il est très — envers ses domestiques, poor ses domestiques, he is very exacting with his servants.

EXIGENCE, eg-ze-zhangs, sf. 4 unreasonable. C'est votre dernière —, it's the last of it to your last unreasonable request, is it not? Méry. Je ne veux pas me soumettre à toutes —s, I will not submit to all his unreasonable demands. 2 (besoin, nécessité) exigency, exigency. Si j'avais les mêmes besoins ou les mêmes —s, du moins, if I had the same wants or rather the same exigencies. Jacq. Les —s de la nature, the exigencies of nature. Il y a des —s de climat incontestables, the climate has exigencies not to be disputed. Chat. Selon l'— du cas, du temps, des affaires, according to the exigency of the case, of the time, of the affairs.

EXIGER, eg-ze-zhay, va. nous EXIGEONS; IL EXIGE, (Lat. exigere) 1 to exact, to require. — le paiement d'une dette, to exact the payment of a debt. Il exige d'abord de petites choses, qu'il prend ensuite lui devoir être comptées pour rien, he requires trifles at first; which he afterwards pretends ought to go for nothing. La Bray. J'exige seulement de toi que tu m'accompagnes, all I require of you is to accompany me. Le Sage.

J'exigeai entre nous une distance de six pieds anglais, I insisted upon there being between us a distance of six English feet. Ab. J'exigerais chez tous mes subordonnés des manières exquises, I would have from all my subordinates the most refined manners. Ab. — des contributions de guerre, to exact contributions. C'est un usurier qui exige de gros intérêts, he is a usurer who requires a high interest. Les ouvriers exigent un salaire plus élevé, the workmen required higher wages. 2 (des choses, of things) (demander, réclamer) to require, to call for. Ainsi l'exige la discipline de la prison, such is the necessary discipline of the prison. Saint. Notre intérêt commun exige cet effort, our mutual interest requires that effort. C. Del. Ce mal exige une opération, that disease requires an operation. Sa position exige de grands ménagements, his position requires a very delicate treatment.

S'EXIGER, vpr. to be exacted, required. Si l'amitié s'accorde, l'estime s'exige, if friendship is bestowed, esteem is exacted. Beaum.

EXIGIBILITÉ, eg-ze-zhe-be-le-tay, sf. exigibility (d'une dette, of a debt).

EXIGIBLE, eg-zhe-zhibl', adj. mf. exigible, demandable. Une dette —, an exigible debt.

EXIGU, eg-ze-gu, adj. m. fem. —E, (Lat. exiguus) exiguous, scanty, petty, slender, slight. Un repas —, a scanty repast. La somme est fort —E, it is a petty sum. Un revenu fort —, a slender income.

EXIGÜITÉ, eg-ze-güce-tay, sf. exiguity, scantiness, slenderness. L'— de sa fortune l'oblige à beaucoup d'économie, the smallness of his fortune requires him to be very economical.

EXIL, eg-zil, sm. (Lat. exilium) 1 exile. L'— me délivra des plus séduiteux, exile rid me of the most seductive. Rac. L'—, cette première mort des rois, exile, the moral death of kings. V. Hug. Envoyer en —, to exile, to send into exile. (by extension) Salut, champs que j'aimais et vous, riant — des bois, hail, fields that I loved, and you smiling retreat of the woods. Gibl. La terre est pour l'homme un lieu d'—, the earth is for man a place of exile. La vie est on temps d'—, life is a time of exile. — volontaire, voluntary exile. 2 (éloignement) exile. Vivre ainsi loin de vous est une sorte d'—, est un —, un véritable — pour moi, to live thus far from you is a kind of exile, is an exile, a true exile for me.

EXILE, ppa. of EXILER, fem. —E, 4 exiled. Du deux pays de nos aïeux se rons-nous toujours —es? shall we always be exiled from the pleasant country of our fathers? Rac. (by extension) Notre âme se réjouit d'entrevoir la patrie céleste, et s'adonne d'en être —E, our soul rejoices when it obtains a glimpse of the celestial country and grieves at being exiled from it. B. de St-P. fig. De votre âme en secret —E, secretly banished from your soul. Rac. 2 (substantif) exile. L'— partout est seul, the exile is solitary everywhere. Lamart.

EXILER, eg-ze-lay, va. 1 to exile, to banish. On l'exila du royaume, he was banished from the kingdom. On l'accusa d'ingratitude pour avoir fait — le duc d'A., they accused him of ingratitude for having caused the duke of A. to be exiled. Le Sage. 2 (réléguer) to exile. — quelqu'un de sa présence, to banish a person from one's presence.

S'EXILER, vpr. to exile one's self. Il s'est exilé de la ville, he has exiled himself from the town. Il s'est exilé à la campagne, he has exiled himself in the country. Bz. L'amour du bien commun de tous les cœurs s'exile, zeal for the public welfare is dying out of every heart. C. Del. Ces gens lestins d'où s'exilait la gène, those joyous feasts from which constraint was banished. V. Hug.

EXISTANT, eg-zis-tang, ppr. of EXISTER, adj. m. fem. — g. existing, existent. Toutes les créatures — es, all existing creatures. Les trajets — es, the existing routes.

EXISTENCE, eg-zis-tang-s, sf. 1 existence. L'— de Dieu, the existence of God; d'un peuple, d'une nation, of a people, of a nation; d'un fait, d'un acte, of a fact, of an act. 2 (particul.) (vie) existence, being. Cet homme n'a pas six mois d'—, n'a pas pour six mois d'—, that man has not six month's existence, has not six month's life in him. Ceux à qui je dois l'—, those to whom I owe my being. Fatigué de mon —, je la traînais dans des pays lointains, tired of my existence, I dragged it along in distant countries. Barli. Je ne m'apercevais de mon — que par un profond sentiment d'ennui, I was only aware of my existence by a sentiment of utter weariness. Chat. Neutre un terme à sou —, to put an end to one's existence. 3 (position) d'un homme dans la société, social position, walk of life. C'est un homme qui a une belle —, qui n'a point d'— dans le monde, he is a man who is in the upper walks of life, a man unknown in society. J'avais manqué l'occasion de m'assurer que — qu'on m'offrait, I had missed the occasion offered me of securing a position. J. J. Rouss.

EXISTER, eg-zis-tay, vn. (Lat. existere) 1 to exist. De ce que nous avons les idées d'une chose, il ne s'ensuit pas qu'elle existe, because we have ideas of a thing, it does not follow that it exists. Malabr. Il soutenait que le monde existait de toute éternité, he maintained that the world existed from all eternity. S'il était vrai que cet ouvrage existât, ce serait une belle chose, if this work really existed, it would be a master-piece. De Bross. 2 (être, se trouver, avoir lieu) to exist, to be in existence, to be extant. Deux formes de justice existent pour les A., there exist two forms of justice for the E. Villem. Les marquis n'existent plus que dans les almanachs, marquises no longer exist anywhere but in almanachs. Nod. Sa dépouille mortelle n'existait même plus, even her mortal remains no longer existed. Chat. Cette dette n'existe plus, that debt is extinct. L'autorité des grands n'existe plus, the authority of the great no longer exists. (impers.) Il existait un chef suprême que l'on appelait le Lord des Iles, there existed a supreme chief that was called the Lord of the Isles. Aug. Th. Dans une ville d'A., il existait deux malheureux, in a town of A. there lived two unhappy creatures. Flor. Il en existe encore des traces, des vestiges, there are still traces of it left. De qui il existe encore beaucoup de discours, of whom there are still many speeches extant. 3 (particul.) (vivre) to exist, to live. Quand il aura cessé d'—, when he has ceased to exist. Ce n'est qu'en s'occupant qu'on existe, it is only by occupying one's self that one exists. Volt. Il a beaucoup de peine à faire — sa nombreuse famille, he has much difficulty in maintaining his numerous family. Avec cette fortune on peut — honorablement dans le monde, with that fortune, one may live honourably in the world.

EXODE, eg-zod, sm. (Lat. exodus) exodus.

EXORÉATION, eg-zo-may-rah-syong, sf. exoration.

EXORÉNER, eg-zo-may-rah, va. to exorater. — du service militaire, to exorater from military service.

S'EXORÉNER il ppr. to exorater one's self. S'— d'une dette, to get rid of a debt.

EXOPHTHALMIE, eg-zof-tal-mee, sf. sorc. exophthalmia.

EXORABLE, eg-zo-rah-l', adj. mf. (Lat. exorabilis) (little used) exorable. Qu'— à la prière, il soit ferme contre les deman-des, exorably to pray, let him be firm against demands. Montsq. Rendez-le comme vous, à mes vœux —, make him, like yourself, exorably to my prayers. Co.

EXORBITAMENT, eg-zor-be-tam-ang, adv. exorbitantly, excessively.

EXORBITANT, eg-zor-be-tang, adj. m. fem. — g. (Lat. exorbitans) exorbitant, excessive. Il est d'une taille, d'une grosseur — e, he is excessively tall, stout. Dépense — e, extraragant outlay.

EXORCISER, eg-zor-se-zay, va. (Gr.) 1 to exorcise, to cast out (les démons, devils; no possédé, a man possessed with the devil; l'eau, le sel, water, salt). 2 fig. (little used) (ramener à la raison en exhortant) to exhort.

EXORCISME, eg-zor-sism', sm. exorcism.

EXORCISTE, eg-zor-sist, sm. exorcist.

EXORDE, eg-zord, sm. (Lat. exordium) 1 exordium, introduction. Entrer en matière sans —, sans faire d'—, to plunge into a subject without any exordium. 2 (by extension) (commencement) beginning. Belle conclusion et digne de l'—, a fine end and worthy of the beginning. Rac.

EXOSTOSE, eg-zos-toz, sf. (Gr.) surg. exostosis.

EXOTÉRIQUE, eg-zo-tay-rik, adj. mf. (Gr.) phil. exoteric, exoteric.

EXOTIQUE, eg-zo-tik, adj. m. (Gr.) 1 exotic, foreign. Plantes, végétaux — s, exotic plants, vegetable productions. fig. Termes, usages, mœurs — s, foreign terms, customs, manners. 2 (substantiv.) exotic. Les amateurs de l'—, the lovers of exotic. Jacq.

EXPANSIBILITÉ, eks-pang-se-be-le-tay, sf. expansibility, expansitiveness.

EXPANSIBLE, eks-pang-sibl', adj. mf. expansible.

EXPANSIF, eks-pang-sif, adj. m. fem. EXPANSIVE, 1 expansive. Fluide —, expansive fluid. 2 fig. (qui aime à s'expandre) expansive, unreserved, open-minded. Etre —, to be unreserved.

EXPANSION, eks-pang-syong, sf. 1 nat. phil. expansion. L'— de l'air par la chaleur, the expansion of air by heat. (by extension) Le lac inférieur de Constance, n'est qu'une — du Rhin sur des prairies noyées, the lower lake of C., is only an expansion of the Rhine over submerged meadows. Chat. fig. Il arriva à la pleine — de lui-même, he arrived at his full development. Ste-B. L'— localisable de la révolution, the localisable expansion of the revolution. Nod. fig. Avoir de l'—, to be expansive. 2 aut. bot. expansion.

EXPATRIATION, eks-pah-treah-syong, sf. expatriation.

EXPATRIER, eks-pah-tray, va. to expatriate.

S'EXPATRIER, ppr. to expatriate one's self, to leave one's native country.

EXPECTANT, eks-pek-tang, adj. m. fem. — E. (Lat. expectans) 1 expectant. Médecin — à l'Hôtel-Dieu, expectant physician at the Hotel-Dieu. 2 Médecine — e, expectant medicine.

EXPECTATIF, eks-pek-tat-if, adj. m. fem. EXPECTATIVE, expectative.

EXPECTATION, eks-pek-tal-syong, sf. (Lat. med. expectation, expectancy).

EXPECTATIVE, eks-pek-tat-if, sf. 1 (espérance) expectancy, expectation. Il est toujours dans l'—, he is still in expectancy. Vivre dans l'—, to live in expectancy. ironic. Belle —, fine prospects indeed! 2 (droit de survivance) reversion.

EN EXPECTATIVE, adv. loc. in hopes, in view.

EXPECTORANT, eks-pek-to-rang, ppr. of EXPECTORER, adj. m. fem. — E. (Lat. expectorans) 1 med. expectorant. 2 (substantiv.) expectorant.

EXPECTORATION, eks-pek-to-rah-syong, sf. expectoration.

EXPECTOREN, eks-pek-to-ray, va.

(Lat. expectorare) to expectorate, to cough up. absol. C'est fait —, that produces expectoration.

EXPÉDIE, ppa. of EXPÉDIER, lex. — E. 1 (dépêché) despatched. On parle fort du siège de C. qui sera bientôt —, there is a great talk of the siege of C. which will soon be despatched. M^{me} de Sév. 2 (des personnes, of persons) despatched. 3 (envoyé) despatched, forwarded. Marchandises — es par le chemin de fer du Nord, goods forwarded by the Northern railway.

EXPÉDIENT, eks-pay-dyng, sm. (Lat. expedients) 1 expedient, shift, resource, contrivance. Trouvez-moi quelque —, find me some expedient. Je fus obligé d'avoir recours au père des — s, c'est-à-dire à don A., I was obliged to have recourse to the master-contriver Don A. Le Sage. Un homme d'imagination est second en — s, an imaginative man is fruitful in expedients. Boss. Avoir recours aux — s, to have recourse to expedients. Le duc d'obtint que quinze cents archers, encore était-il aux — s pour payer leur solde et leur passage, the duke obtained only fifteen hundred archers, and even yet he was reduced to shifts to find money for their pay and passage. Bar. 2 law. Vider, faire juger une cause par —, to settle a suit amicably. 3 (adjectif) Il est —, it is expedient, fit, proper, suitable. Il est — de faire cela, it is expedient to do that. Il est très — qu'on n'aille rien dire au roi, it is very expedient that nothing should be said to the king. Volt.

EXPÉDIER, eks-pay-dyng, va. (Lat. expedire) 1 to despatch, to get through. — une affaire, to despatch an affair. — la besogne, to get through work. L'expédie fort vite ces lectures, I soon get through that reading. Boss. 2 (dépenser) to despatch, to get through. Cet argent ne restera pas longtemps entre ses mains, il l'aura bientôt expédié, this money will not remain long in his hands, he will soon have got through it. Il expédia tout ce qu'on avait servi devant lui, he despatched all that had been served up before him. Bril.-Sav. Le matin, j'avais expédié le gigot de mouton avec nos officiers, in the morning, I had despatched the leg of mutton with our officers. Saint-Sim. 3 (des personnes, of persons) to despatch. Ce juge expédie promptement les parties, this judge quickly despatches the suits. On voit des gens qui vous expédient en peu de paroles, et ne songent qu'à se dégager de vous, one meets people who despatch you in a few words, and think only how they can get rid of you. La Bruy. 4 Il jouait gros jeu, on l'eût bien vite expédié, he played drey, he was soon cleared out. 5 — quelqu'un (faire mourir vite) to kill a person. Cette maladie l'aura bientôt expédié, that illness will soon have despatched him. (by analogy) Un chien énorme expédiait les loups en forme, an enormous dog despatched wolves in due form. La Font. 6 (envoyer, faire partir) to despatch, to forward. — des marchandises, to forward goods. — un navire, to despatch a ship. Je vous l'expédie par telle voie, I will forward it to you by such a conveyance. — un courrier, une estatette, to despatch a courier, an express. 7 (faire la copie) to draw up, out. —, faire — un contrat de mariage, to draw up a marriage settlement, to have marriage settlements drawn up. Mon copiste qui n'a pu me l'— que ce matin, my copyist who has only been able to draw it up this morning. Ste-B. On n'a pas encore expédié ma commission, mon brevet, my commission, my brevet has not yet been drawn up.

S'EXPÉDIER, ppr. to be despatched, forwarded, sent off, drawn up.

EXPÉDITEUR, eks-pay-de-jubr, sm. com. sender, shipper.

EXPÉDITIF, eks-pay-de-tif, adj. m. fem. expéditive, expeditious, quick.

EXPÉDITION, eks-pay-de-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 (action d'expédier) expedition, despatch, 2 (diligence) expédition, despatch, speed. Homme d'— expeditious man. 3 (action d'envoyer) despatching, forwarding, sending off (des marchandises, goods). 4 — militaire, absol. —, expedition. (by extension) Il aimait à raconter les — nocturnes qu'il faisait avec ses camarades quand il était étudiant, he was fond of relating the nocturnal expeditions he made with his comrades when a student. — maritime, navale, naval expedition. 5 ironie. adventure, exploit. Vous avez fait là une belle —, a fine piece of business you made of it. 6 (copie) copy. L'— d'un acte de vente, d'un arrêt, d'un brevet, d'une commission, the copy of a deed of sale, of a decree, of a brevet, of a commission. Ce commis est pour les —s, he is a copying clerk. 7 pl. (pépèches) despatch.

EXPÉDITIONNAIRE, eks-pay-de-syona-jer, adj. and sm. 4 comm. commission-agent, sender. 2 (commis aux écritures) copying clerk.

EXPÉDITIVEMENT, eks-pay-de-tiv-mang, adv. expeditiously.

EXPÉRIENCE, eks-pay-ryang, sf. (Lat. experientia) 1 experiment, experimentation, experience. Des —s de physique, de chimie, experiments in physics, in chemistry. Faire une triste —, une fâcheuse —, to have sad, unpleasant experience. J'en ai fait l'—, I have tried the experiment, I have experienced it. L'— nous a appris que, experience has taught us that. 2 (connaissance des choses) experience. Il a vicilli dans le métier, il a une longue —, beaucoup d'—, he has grown old in the trade, he has had a long experience, a great experience. Avoir l'— du monde, to be experienced in the world. C'est un jeune homme sans —, he is an unexperienced young man. Une jeune souris de peu d'—, a young mouse of small experience. La Font.

EXPÉRIMENTAL, eks-pay-re-mang-tal, adj. m. fem. —E, experimental. Physique —E, experimental physics. Philosophie —E, experimental philosophy.

EXPÉRIMENTÉ, ppo. of EXPÉRIMENTER, fem. —E, adjective. 4 tried, tested. 2 (instruit par l'expérience) experienced. Un médecin fort —, a very experienced physician.

EXPÉRIMENTER, eks-pay-re-mang-tay, va. to experiment, to try, to test, to experience. Molière avait expérimenté le papier par lui-même, M. Knew the pit from his own experience. Nis.

EXPERT, eks-payt, adj. m. fem. —E, (Lat. expertus) 1 skilful, dexterous, expert, skilled. Un médecin fort — en son art, a physician very skilful in his art. Boil. 2 (substantif) expert. La chose sera réglée à dire d'—s, the matter will be settled by official estimation.

EXPERIMENT, eks-payt-toh-mang, adv. expertly.

EXPERTISE, eks-payt-tiz, sf. 4 law. examination, survey. Faire une —, to make a survey. Frais d'—, surveying expenses. 2 (rapport, procès-verbal) report.

EXPERTISER, eks-payt-te-zay, va. to examine, to make a survey of.

EXPIATEUR, eks-pyat-ahr, adj. m. fem. expiatric, 4 expiator, expiatory offering. 2 sm. expiator, atoner. Le temps est le grand — des choses humaines, time is the great expiator in human concerns. Lamart.

EXPIATION, eks-pyah-syong, sf. 4 expiation, atonement. Tous les griefs du peuple avaient marqué son front innocent pour l'— de plusieurs siècles, all the grievances of the people had marked out his innocent brow for the expiation of centuries. Lamart. 2 (particul.) (cérémonie) expiation.

EXPIATOIRE, eks-pyat-wa, adj. mf. expiatory. Sacrifice —, expiatory sacrifice. 4 sin-offering. fig. Et la terre est pour nous l'autel —, and the earth is for us the expiatory altar. Lamart.

EXPIÉ, ppo. of EXPIER, fem. —E, Ces torts n'étaient pas —s par la fin de sa mission, those faults were not atoned for by the end of his mission. Villem.

EXPIER, eks-pyay, va. to expiate, to atone for. Il y a lieu des personnes qui expient une vie mondaine par une pareille vie, many persons expiate a worldly life by such an end. Le Sage. J'allais — toutes mes —s, I was about to pay the forfeit of all my inconsistencies. Chat. Quelqu'un doit — vos souffrances, somebody must expiate your sufferings. Ab. Rien que la mort n'était capable d'— son forfait, death alone could atone for his crime. La Font.

EXPIRANT, eks-pe-rang, ppr. of EXPIER, adj. m. fem. —E, 4 expiring, dying. Un malade —, a dying patient. Nous le trouvâmes —, we found him expiring. 2 fig. Flamme, lueur —E, expiring, dying flame, light. Un pouvoir —, an expiring power. Une voix —E, a dying voice.

EXPIRATER, eks-pe-rat-ulr, adj. m. anal. expiratory. Muscle —, expiratory muscle.

EXPIRATION, eks-pe-rah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 (échéance) expiration (d'un bail, of a lease). 2 la fin d'un certain temps marqué) expiration, termination, end, close. A l'— de l'année, du trimestre, at the expiration of a year, of the quarter. 3 physiol. expiration.

EXPIRE, ppo. of EXPIER, fem. —E, 4 expired. A ces mots ce héros —, at these words the dead hero. Rac. C'est ton père —, it is your father's body. V. Hng. 2 fig. expired. Les délais sont —s, the delays have expired. La tève est —E, the truce is expired. Ce temps —, aucune réclamation ne pourra être admise, at the expiration of that time, no claims can be admitted.

EXPIRER, eks-pe-ray, va. (Lat. expirare) 4 (mourir) to expire. Il a expiré dans mes bras, entre mes bras, he expired in my arms. Le cheval expiré de fatigue, the horse is dying with fatigue. Lamart. fig. Et mon âme au moment qu'elle expire s'exhale, etc., and my soul in expiring breathes itself forth, etc. Lamart. 2 fig. (do son, de la lumière, etc., of sound, of light, etc.) to expire, to die away. Cette lueur expira par degrés, the glimmer died gradually away. Les sons expirèrent lentement, the sounds slowly died away. La voix de l'— expiré de nouveau, V's voice once more dies away. Chat. Ici la voix de B. expira dans les applaudissements, here B's voice is drowned in applause. Lamart. D'involontaires soupirs venaient — sur ses lèvres, involuntary sighs rose and expired on her lips. Chat. Le bruit des vagues qui venaient — au pied du monastère, the roar of the waves that expired at the foot of the monastery. Nod. 3 (des choses morales) to expire, to die. A sa vie, le reproche expira sur mes lèvres, at the sight of her, reproaches died on my lips. Il sent contre eux — son courroux, he feels his anger against them expiring. Flor. A l'époque où la liberté expira à Rome, at the period when liberty expires at Rome. 4 fig. (prendre fin) to run out, to expire. Son bail expiré bientôt, his lease will soon be out. Sa royauté titulaire expirait nécessairement à l'entrée du roi étranger, his titular royalty necessarily expired at the entrance of the foreign king. Aug. Th.

EXPIRER, va. to expire, to exhale (l'air, the air).

EXPLÉTIF, eks-play-tif, adj. m. fem. expletive. (Lat. expletivus) gram. expletive.

EXPLICABLE, eks-ple-kabl', adj. mf. explicable, explainable.

EXPLICATEUR, eks-ple-kat-ulr, sm. showman, guide.

EXPLICATIF, eks-ple-kat-if, adj. m. fem. explicative, explanatory, explicative.

EXPLICATION, eks-ple-kah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 explanation, explication. L'— d'un passage, the explanation of a passage. Ceci demande —, this requires an explanation. L'— des songes, d'un oracle, d'une énigme, the interpretation of dreams, of an oracle, the reading of a riddle. Me donneriez-vous l'— de votre conduite? will you give me an explanation of your conduct? Avoir une — avec quelqu'un, to have on explanation with a person. Demander à quelqu'un l'— d'une injure, to demand of a person the explanation of an insult. 2 (ce qui aide à trouver la cause, le motif d'une chose). Cela me donne l'— d'un fait dont je n'avais pu encore me rendre compte, this explains to me a fact I had not yet been able to understand. 3 (démonstration) explanation. — anatomique, anatomical explanation. L'— d'un tableau, d'un panorama, the explanation of a picture, of a panorama. A (traduction orale d'un auteur) construing.

EXPLICITE, eks-ple-sit, adj. mf. (Lat. explicitus) explicit, express. Volonté —, express will. Foi —, explicit faith.

EXPLICITEMENT, eks-ple-sit-mang, adv. explicitly.

EXPLIQUE, ppo. of EXPLIQUER, fem. —E, explained, solved. Le mystère autrement peut-il être —? can the mystery be explained otherwise? Lamart.

EXPLIQUER, eks-ple-kay, va. (Lat. explicare) 4 to explain, to expound (un passage, a passage). Cela est difficile à —, this is difficult to explicate. — une énigme, to solve an enigma. J'adore le Seigneur, on m'explique sa loi, I adore the Lord, I am taught his law. Rac. — un phénomène, to explain a phenomenon. Il expliquait les lois de l'univers, he expounded the laws of the universe. Chat. Vous qui passez votre vie à vouloir — ce qu'on n'explique pas, you who spend your lives in trying to explain things which are not to be explained. Flor. Expliquez-moi votre conduite, explain to me your conduct. La seule chose on ne peut difficile à —, quelle ait expiré de nous, c'est, the only thing that expired of us, that is, what could not be explained was, Nod. Je ne peux m'— sa conduite, I cannot account for his conduct. Il ne peut s'— par quelle circonstance singulière, he cannot comprehend by what singular circumstance. Saint. 2 (des choses, of things) to explain, to account for. Ce soupçon semble m'— sa mélancolie, his melancholy seems to me to be explained by that suspicious idea. Chat. Les guerres d'E. expliquent trop ce retard, the wars of E. furnish too sufficient a reason for this delay. Nod. Ceci explique pourquoi il n'est pas venu hier à notre réunion, this accounts for his not coming to our meeting yesterday. 3 (enseigner, démontrer) to explain, to expound. — une doctrine, to expound a doctrine. — le jeu d'une machine, to explain the working of a machine. 4 (interpréter on auteur) to construe, to translate. 5 (déclarer, développer) to explain, to unfold, to declare. Je veux vous — ma pensée, I will unfold my mind to you. ses intentions, ses desseins, ses motifs, to explain one's intentions, designs, motives.

S'EXPLIQUER, ppr. 1 to be explained. Cela peut s'— de deux façons, that may be explained in two ways. Sa conduite s'explique d'elle-même, his conduct furnishes a key to itself. 2 (se faire comprendre) to explain one's self, to speak plain. Je ne sais si je m'explique bien, I do not know whether I speak plain enough. Expliquez-vous, explain yourself. (avec éclipse du pron. pers., the pers. pron. being understood) Il faut faire expliquer cet homme, you must make that man come to an explanation. 4 (donner une explication, un éclaircissement) to explain one's self. Expliquez-vous, nous vous écoutons, explain yourself, we listen to you. Il faut le laisser s'expliquer himself. S'— avec quelqu'un, to come to an explanation with a person. S'— réciproq. Il faut les laisser s'— ensemble, s'— entre eux, they must be left to come to an explanation together.

EXPLOIT, eks-plwá, sm. 4 exploit, feat, achievement, deed. Se signaler par ses —, to signalize one's self by exploits. fig. ironic. Voilà un bel —, vous avez fait là un bel — that is a fine piece of work. 2 law. writ. d'assignation, d'ajournement, writ. Libeller on —, to draw up a writ. Signifier on —, to serve a writ. fig. Souffler on —, to avoid scruping a writ.

EXPLOITABLE, eks-plwá-labl', adj. mf. 1 distrainable. 2 (en état de pouvoir être façonné et débilité) fit for selling. 3 (qui peut être cultivé, exploité) improvable. Cette ferme n'est pas —, nothing can be got out of that farm.

EXPLOITANT, eks-plwá-tang, ppa. of EXPLOITER, adj. m. 4 law. process-serving, writ-serving. 2 sm. farmer, grower, manager, director.

EXPLOITATION, eks-plwá-lah-syong, sf. 4 cultivation, farming, improving, working. L'— d'un domaine, d'une terre, the cultivation of a domain, of an estate. fig. L'— de l'homme par l'homme, speculating on the labour of others. 2 (la propriété qu'on exploite) farm, forest, works. Les instruments qui sont sur l'—, the working-stock.

EXPLOITÉ, ppa. of EXPLOITER, fem. —e. fig. Être — par quelqu'un, to be a source of profit to a person.

EXPLOITER, eks-plwá-tay, va. 4 (mettre en rapport, faire valoir) — des bois, to farm, to grow, to work. — des cultures, to grow woods. — une propriété, une ferme, une métairie, etc., to cultivate an estate, a farm, etc. — une ferme par ses nains, to farm one's self, to be a gentleman-farmer. — une mine, to work a mine. 2 fig. (in a bad part) — une place, to speculate upon a place. — la crédulité publique, to speculate on public credulity. — quelqu'un, to put upon a person.

EXPLOITEUR, rn. 4 absol. to da a deed. (in joke) Vraiment, vous avez bien exploité, truly, you have made a fine thing of it. 2 (faire, donner des exploits) to serve writs. fig. A mal — bien écrire, to give a fine varnish to a bad action.

EXPLOITEUR, eks-plwá-lubr, sm. (in a bad part) speculator, swindler.

EXPLOREUR, eks-plo-rá-ubr, sm. 4 explorer. Les derniers —s des glaces arctiques, the last explorers of the Arctic ices. Chat. (by extension) Cet infatigable — de nos viesilles chroniques, that indefatigable explorer of our old chronicles. 2 absol. explorer.

EXPLOIATION, eks-plo-ráh-syong, sf. (Lat.) 4 exploration. 2 med. surg. exploration.

EXPLOREUR, eks-plo-ray, va. (Lat. explore) 1 (d'un pays, etc., of a country, etc.) to explore. Les mers que ce navigateur a explorées, the seas that this navigator has explored. fig. Chercher quelque chose hors de Dieu, c'est — le néant, to seek for anything out of God, is to explore the void. Lamart.

EXPLOSIF, eks-plo-zif, adj. m. fem. explosive, exploisive.

EXPLOSION, eks-plo-zyong, sf. 4 explosion, blowing up (d'un volcan, of a volcano; d'une mine, d'un magasin à poudre, of a mine, of a powder-magazine). Faire —, to explode, to burst, to blow up. 2 fig. (des passions, des complots, etc., of passions, plots, etc.) explosion, outbreak, burst. Il y eut contre lui une — de murmures, there was a breaking out of murmurs against him. C'était assez pour donner — à la malice, it was enough to cause an outbreak of malice. B. de S-P. Après cette — de douleurs, after this burst of grief, Mich. L'éloquence est un art de l'esprit et non une — de l'âme, eloquence is an art of the mind and not an outbreak of the soul. Lamart. Il semblait contenir l'— de sa pensée, he seemed to lay a restraint upon his thoughts. La Font. L'imprimerie, cette — continue de la pensée humaine, printing, that continuous explosion of human thought. Lamart.

EXPORTATION, eks-por-tah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 4 com. exportation. Loi contre l'— des matières premières, contre l'— du numéraire, law against the exportation of raw materials, against the exportation of specie. 2 crim. law. transportation.

EXPORTÉ, ppa. of EXPORTER, fem. —e, Marchandise —e, exported goods.

EXPORTER, eks-por-tay, va. (Lat. exportare) com. to export (des grains, des étoffes, corn, stuffs).

S'EXPORTER, vpr. to be exported.

EXPOSANT, eks-po-zang, ppr. of EXPOSER, sm. fem. —e, 4 law. petitioner. 2 (ceux qui exposent des ouvrages d'art) exhibitor. 3 alg. exponent, index.

EXPOSÉ, ppa. of EXPOSER, fem. —e, 4 exposed. Être — aux regards, to be exposed to view. Marchandises —es en vente, goods exposed, hung out for sale. 2 (d'un cadavre, of a dead body) Être —, to lie in state. Le cadavre de Dénédic trius demeura trois jours — sur la place du marché, the body of D. lay in state three days in the market-place. Merim. fig. Être — à la vue du public, être — aux regards, aux yeux de tous, to be in a high station, to attract public attention. 3 (tourée d'un certain côté) exposed. — au sud, looking towards the south. Appartement — au soleil, apartment with a sunny aspect. Les meubles —s à l'air, furniture set out to air. absol. Espalier bien —, espalier well exposed to the sun. Maison bien —e, house with a pleasant aspect. (by extension) Être — aux coups, au feu des ennemis, to be exposed to blows, to the fire of the enemy. Être — à l'ardeur du soleil, à la pluie, etc., to be exposed to the heat of the sun, to the rain, etc. — aux bêtes, to be exposed to the beasts.

4 (en butte à, en pèrie) exposed, liable. Ce pays est —, est fort — aux inondations, this country is exposed, is much exposed to inundations. Être — à la raiillerie, à la risée, à la médisance, à la calomnie, to be exposed to railleury, to mockery, to slander, to calumny. Tous les hommes sont —s aux mêmes malheurs, all men are liable to the same misfortunes. Être — à périr, à perdre sa fortune, to be exposed to perish, to lose one's fortune. Je ne serais plus — à demander trop ou trop peu, I should no longer be in danger of asking too much or too little. Ab. 5 absol. exposed to danger. Il se plaçait toujours au premier rang, là où on était le plus —, he always placed himself in the first rank, at the post of the greatest danger. 6 (d'un enfant, of a child) exposed. 7 (explique, déduit) set forth, explained.

EXPOSÉ, sm. 4 statement. L'— des faits, the statement of the facts. 2 (particul.) (dans une requête) recital. 3 (compte rendu, explication) statement, account. — de la situation du royaume, account of the situation of the kingdom. Ce livre contient l'— de leur doctrine, this book contains an account of their doctrine.

EXPOSEUR, eks-po-zy, va. (Lat. exponere) 4 (mettre en vue) to expose, to exhibit, to show. — en spectacle à tout le monde, to expose to public view. — un criminel sur l'échafaud, to expose a criminal on the scaffold. Cet artiste n'a pas encore exposé ses ouvrages au salon, that artist has not yet exhibited his works at the salon. absol. — à une exposition publique, to exhibit at a public exhibition. — en vente, to expose to sale. fig. Cette place, cette dignité expose à la vue de toute la terre, aux yeux de tout le monde, that place, that dignity holds up to public view. 2 (placer, tourner d'un certain côté) to expose. — au nord, au midi, to expose to a northern, to a southern aspect. — du linge au soleil pour le faire sécher, to hang one's linen in the sun to dry. — aux bêtes, to expose to the beasts. 3 fig. (dévoiler, expliquer) to expose, to lay open, to disclose, to make known. — ses sentiments, ses pensées, ses intentions, to expose one's sentiments, thoughts, intentions. Les vignerons viennent n'— que leur récolte à naquée, the wine-growers come to state to me that their harvest has failed. Lamart. Je l'expose ici mon âme toute nue, I now lay open before you my whole soul. Rac. L'expose ici des faits, I here state facts. C. Del. — les motifs d'un projet de loi, to expose the motives of a bill. Il m'exposa l'état de ses affaires, he laid before me the state of his affairs. 4 (mettre en péril, mettre au hasard) to endanger, to expose, to risk. — sa vie, to expose one's pose, to risk. — sa vie, to expose one's life. A votre âge, j'exposais ma vie quatre fois par jour, at your age, I risked my life four times a day. Ab. — sa personne, sa fortune, to expose one's person, one's fortune. Il afflige ses amis en leur annonçant les malheurs auxquels les expose leur imprudence, he grieves his friends by warning them of the misfortunes their imprudence exposes them to. Châuf. Nous ne pouvions boire davantage sans — notre santé, we could not drink any more without endangering our health. Le Sage. Je sais bien que vous n'exposeriez mes capitaux qu'à ve prodence, I know very well you would be prudent in the investment of my capital. Ab. 5 (d'un enfant, of a child) abandoned to expose.

SEXPOSER, vpr. 4 (se mettre en vue) to expose one's self, to make one's self conspicuous. S'— aux yeux de la foule, to throw one's regards, to expose one's self to the eyes of the crowd, to public view. 2 S'— aux coups, au feu des ennemis; s'— à l'ardeur du soleil, à la pluie, etc., to expose one's self to blows, to the fire of the enemy; to the heat of the sun, to the rain. 3 (se mettre en péril) to expose one's self. Sans l'— à une mort ignominieuse, without exposing yourself to an ignominious death. Le Sage. S'— au hasard, to run the risk. S'— à être tué, à être battu, to expose one's self to be killed, to be beaten. N'était-il pas m'— aux réprimandes paternelles? was it not laying myself open to paternal reproofs? Ab. S'— à tuer un homme, to run the risk of killing a man. 4 absol. (se mettre en danger) to expose one's self. Vous vous exposez trop, you are too venturesome.

EXPOSITION, eks-po-ze-syong, sf. (Lat.) 4 exposure, exposing. L'— des reliques, the exposing of relics. On fit dans cette salle l'— de plusieurs tableaux, several paintings were exhibited in this room. 2 (particul.) (réunion des produits de l'art, de l'industrie, etc.) exhibition. L'— des produits de l'industrie, the exhibition of the products of industry. — des beaux-arts, exhibition of fine arts. — agricole, agricultural exhibition, cattle-show. L'— universelle de Paris, the Paris universal exhibition. 3 (le lieu) exhibition. 4 crim. law. exposure, exposure. Le punishment of public exposure, of the pillory. 5 (situation) exposure, aspect. — au nord, au sud, exposure to the north, to the south. 6 (exposition, recit) statement. L'— d'une pièce de théâtre, the exposition of a play; du sujet, dans un poème, of the subject, in a poem. 7 (développement) exposition, expounding. L'— d'une doctrine, the expounding of a doctrine. Une — de principes, a declaration of principles. 8 (interprétation) exposition, explanation, interpretation. L'— du texte de l'Écriture, the exposition of the texts of Scripture. 9 (d'un enfant, of a child) exposing.

EXPRES, eks-pray, adj. m. fem. EXPRESSE, 1 express, positive. La loi est expresse sur ce point, the law is positive on that point. Défense expresse, strict prohibition. Un commandement —, a positive command. 2 am. expresse. Envoyer —, to send an express.

EXPRES, adr. on purpose, expressly, purposely. Il le fait — pour me fâcher, he does it on purpose to vex me. Descendez dans un sac qui j'ai mis là —, come down in a bucket that I placed there on purpose. La Font. Il l'a dit —, he said it on purpose. C'est au fait —, it is done on purpose. C'est comme au fait —, one would think it was done on purpose. Il semble fait — pour cela, he seems to be cut out for that.

EXPRESSÈMENT, eks-pray-say-màng, adr. expressly.

EXPRESSIF, eks-pray-sif, adj. m. fem. EXPRESSIVE, expressive. 1 Un langage —, an expressive language. Silence —, expressive silence. 2 (qui a beaucoup d'expression) expressive, fraught with expression. Physionomie expressive, expressive physiognomy. Musique expressive, expressive music.

EXPRESSION, eks-pray-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 (action d'exprimer le sac, etc.) expression. Huiles tirées par —, oils obtained by expression. 2 (ce qui exprime, ce qui manifeste le sentiment, etc.) expression. L'— de la joie, de la douleur, the expression of joy, of grief. Sa physionomie a beaucoup d'—, his physiognomy is fraught with expression. Son regard est plein d'—, est depourvu d'—, his look is full of expression, is unexpressive. (by extension) Il s'était fait l'— permanente de la colère du peuple, he had become the permanent expression of the anger of the people. Lamart. 3 point. sculpt. expression, expressiveness. 4 (termes, tours) expression, term. Belle, noble, élégante, forte —, fine, noble, elegant, strong expression. Le choix des —, the choice of expressions. Cela pêche par l'—, that is deficient in expression. Cela est beau au delà de toute —, that is beautiful beyond all expression. 5 arith. terms. A la plus simple —, to its lowest terms.

EXPRESSIBLE, eks-pre-mabl', adj. mf. expressible.

EXPRIME, ppa. of EXPRIMER, fem. — E, 1 expressed, pressed out. Suc —, expressed juice. Comme un citron que l'on eût tiré lorsque le jus en est —, like a lemon that is thrown away when the juice is squeezed out. 2 (manifeste, représente) expressed, 3 (énonce) expressed. La vérité m'a été — e qu'une fois pendant toute la durée d'un siècle, truth has found an utterance but once in the whole course of a century. Nod. Cette clause y est bien — e, that clause in it is well expressed.

EXPRIMER, eks-pre-may, ra. (Lat. exprimer) 1 (faire sortir le jus en pressant) to express, to press out, to squeeze out. — le suc d'une herbe, le jus d'une orange, to press out the juice of an herb, of an orange. 2 (manifeste, représenter) to express. — ses sentiments par des gestes énergiques, to express one's sentiments by energetic gestures. Lui dont la physionomie exprimait tant de douceur, he whose physiognomy expressed so much mildness. Nod. Il exprime par ses cris sa joie et sa tendresse, he expresses by his cries his joy and his tenderness. Fior. Les quatre premiers chants expriment bien l'esprit de B., the first four cantos are a true expression of B.'s turn of mind. St-B. Le mot est joli et exprime l'homme, the expression is a charming one, and gives on idea of the man. St-B. 3 (énoncer) to express, to utter, to give utterance to. Il n'est aucune langue complète, aucune qui puisse — toutes nos idées et toutes nos sensations, there is no complete language, none which can express all our ideas, all our sensations. Volt. Je ne saurais vous — combien cela m'afflige, I cannot express to you how much that grieves me. Il faut — cela dans le contrat, that must be mentioned in the contract. Si je veux — un auteur sans défaut, if I wish to point out a faultless author. Boil.

S'EXPRIMER, vpr. 1 to express one's self. S'— par gestes, par signes, to express one's self by gestures, by signs. S'— en bons termes, to express one's self in choice terms. Jamais la profonde sagesse ne s'est exprimée avec plus d'énergie et de simplicité, never had profound wisdom found more energetic and simple language. J.-J. Rouss. 2 (lire énoncé) to be expressed. Cette idée ne saurait s'— en poésie, that idea cannot be expressed in poetry.

EXPROPRIATION, eks-pro-pre-yah-syong, sf. law. expropriation, dispossession. — pour cause d'utilité publique, dispossession for public purposes.

EXPROPRIÉ, ppa. of EXPROPRIER, fem. — E. Un propriétaire —, a landowner expropriated.

EXPROPRIER, eks-pro-pre-yay, ra. law. to expropriate, to dispossess. Ses créanciers menacent de l'—, his creditors threaten to dispossess him.

EXPUGNABLE, eks-püg-nabl', adj. mf. (Lat. expugnabilis) expugnable.

EXPULSÉ, ppa. of EXPULSER, fem. — E, 1 expulsed. Ils furent — s de la ville, they were expulsed from the town. 2 expelled. Il fut honteusement — de l'assemblée, he was disgracefully expelled from the assembly. 3 med. expelled.

EXPULSER, eks-pül-say, ra. (Lat. expulsare) 1 to expulse, to expel, to effect. On l'expulsa de sa maison, de sa terre, he was driven from his house, from his land. Je me leve décidé à l'— de vive force, I rise resolved to drive it out by main force. Nich. 2 (exclure d'un lieu, d'une compagnie, etc.) to expel. 3 med. to expel.

EXPULSIF, eks-pül-sif, adj. m. fem. EXPULSIVE, med. Remèdes — s, expulsive remedies.

EXPULSION, eks-pül-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 expulsion. 2 med, surg. expulsion. EXPURGATOIRE, eks-pür-gai-wär, adj. mf. expurgatory. Index —, expurgatory index.

EXQUIS, eks-keé, adj. m. fem. — E, (Lat. exquisitus) 1 exquisite. Vin —, exquisite wine. Des mets —, d'un goût —, exquisite dishes, of exquisite taste. Cherubin est une création — de St-B. C. is an exquisite creation of B. St-B. 2 (travaille le plus délicatement qu'il est possible) exquisite. Travail —, ouvrage —, exquisite workmanship, piece of work. 3 (de la plus grande perfection) exquisite. 4 am. exquisite. Le doux, l'— vient de l'Orient, the sweet, the exquisite comes from the East. Nich.

EXQUISISSE, eks-ke-zis-sim', adj. mf. most exquisite. De Bross.

EXSANGLE, ek-sàng-guh, adj. mf. (Lat. ex, sanguis) 1 med. bloodless. 2 colourless. Th. Gant.

EXSUCCION, ek-sük-syong, sf. excretion.

EXSUDATION, ek-sü-dah-syong, sf. nat. phil. med. exsudation, exudation.

EXSUDER, ek-sü-day, rn. Lat. exsudare nat. phil. med. to exsude.

EXTANT, eks-tàng, adj. m. fem. — E, (Lat. stans) law. existing.

EXTASE, eks-taz, sf. (Gr.) 1 ecstasy, rapture. Être ravi en —, to fall into ecstasy. Tomber en —, avoir des — s, to fall into ecstasies. Je reçus A. avec une sorte d'— du cœur, I received A. with a kind of transport of the heart. Chat. 2 fig. (vive admiration) ecstasy, transport. Quand il vit de si belles choses, il fut en —, il fut ravi en —, when he saw such beautiful things, he fell into ecstasies. Il sortit les laissant tous les deux en — l'un devant l'autre, he went out leaving them both in ecstasies in face of each other. Saint. Je parcourais avec — ces lieux si peu connus, I wandered with transport over these places so little known. J.-J. Rouss. Il la contemplait avec —, he beheld her with rapture.

EXTASIE, ppa. of EXTASIER, fem. — E, il parut — de ce spectacle, he appeared transported with this spectacle. Lamart.

EXTASIER, eks-taz-yay, vpr. nous ecstasy, rapture. Vous vous extasiez, to be in ecstasy, in rapture. — le capturé, to fall into ecstasies, in raptures. Comme je m'extasiais sur la grosseur de cet arbre, as I was wondering at the size of that tree. Th. Gant. Il s'extasiait sur la nature rajeunie par les printemps, he was enraptured with nature revived by the spring. Lamart. L'ententez-vous qui s'extasie sur la cadence beurrée de ses phrases? do you hear what raptures he is falling into at the happy cadence of his phrases? V'lem.

EXTATIQUE, eks-tat-ik, adj. mf. ecstatic, extatival.

EXTENSEUR, eks-tàng-subr, adj. m. anat. 1 extensor. Les muscles — du bras, des doigts, the extensors of the arm, of the fingers. 2 sm. extensor. Les — s de la jambe, the extensors of the leg.

EXTENSIBILITÉ, eks-tàng-sil', adj. mf. extensibility, extensibility.

EXTENSIF, eks-tàng-sif, adj. m. fem. EXTENSIVE, extending, of extension, of expansion. Force, puissance extensive, force, power of extension.

EXTENSION, eks-tàng-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 (étendue) extent. — en longueur, en largeur, en profondeur, extent in length, breadth, depth. 2 (l'action d'étendre un corps) extension, tension. 3 (l'action de ce qui s'étend) extension. Les muscles qui servent à l'— de la main, the muscles that serve to extend the hand. N'avoir pas l'— du bras libre, not to be able to stretch out one's arm. 4 fig. (accroissement) extension, increase. Donner de l'— à ses affaires, to extend one's commerce. Son commerce prend de l'—, his trade increases. — de privilège, d'autorité, extension of privilege, increase of authority. 5 fig. gram. extension. 6 fig. L'— d'une loi, d'une clause, the stretching of a law, of a clause. 7 surg. extension. 8 (dans le langage ordinaire) extension. L'— d'ua nerf, d'ua tendon, the extension of a nerve, of a sineu.

EXTENUATION, eks-lay-nü-ab-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 absol. extenuation. Il est dans une grande —, he is growing very thin. 2 fig. L'— d'un crime, d'un fait, etc., the extenuation of a crime, of a fact.

EXTENUÉ, ppa. of EXTENUER, fem. — E, j'étais — de fatigue, I was worn out with fatigue. Jacq. Une armée — e de lassitude, an army spent with lassitude. Volt. — de jeunesse et d'abstinence, Flech. Avoir le visage —, to have a thin face.

EXTENUER, eks-tay-nüay, va. (Lat. extenuare) 1 to extenuate, to debilitate, to weaken. Sa maladie l'a extenué, his illness has debilitated him. 2 fig. absol. (affaiblir) to extenuate, to palliate.

S'EXTENER, vpr. to wear one's self out. Il s'extenua à force de veilles, he wore himself out with night-watching.

EXTÉRIEUR, eks-tay-ryahr, adj. m.

sem. — E, (Lat. exterior) 4 exterior, outward, external. Les parties —es du corps, the exterior parts of the body. La forme —e, the exterior. La face —e d'un bâtiment, the outside of a building. 2 (qui a lien, qui se passe au dehors) outward. Le culte —, outward ceremonies. Une vie tout —, a life all in show; || an out-of-door life. 3 (qui a rapport aux pays étrangers) foreign. Le commerce —, foreign trade. Ministre des relations —es, secretary of state for Foreign affairs.

extérieur, sm. 4 (ce qui paraît au dehors) outside, exterior. Tout contribue à lui donner cet — vivant et animé qu'on voit Paris et Londres, every thing concurs in giving it that outward aspect of animation peculiar to Paris and London. De Bross. L'— de ce bâtiment est beau, the outside of this building is beautiful. 2 (des personnes, of persons) outside, exterior, appearance. Il prévient par son —, his exterior is prepossessing. Il donne tout à l'—, all his thought is for the outside. 3 (au dehors) without, out-of-doors. Nous entendimes du bruit à l'—, we heard a noise without. 4 (particul., des pays étrangers) abroad, foreign part, lands, countries. Les nouvelles de l'—, news from abroad. Nos relations avec l'—, our relations with foreign countries.

extérieurement, adv. 4 exteriorly, outwardly, externally.

exterminateur, eks-tayr-me-nat-ur, adj. m. 4 exterminating, destroying. L'ange —, the destroying angel. Le glaive —, the destroying sword. 2 sm. exterminator, destroyer. fig. Ce prince fut l'— des factions, des vices, that prince was the destroyer of factions, of vices.

extermination, eks-tayr-me-nab-syong, sf. extermination. L'— d'un peuple, the extermination of a people. fig. L'— des vices, the extermination of vices. Goette d'—, war of extermination.

exterminer, eks-tayr-me-nay, ra. (Lat. exterminare) to exterminate. Il menaçait de l'— lui et tout sa race, he threatened to exterminate him and his whole race. — les loups d'une forêt, to exterminate the wolves of a forest. fig. Du milieu de mon peuple exterminais les vices, let me root out the vices from among my people. Rac.

s'exterminer, vpr. to exterminate each other. Apprendre aux hommes à s'— les uns les autres, to teach men to exterminate each other. Mass.

externat, eks-tayr-nab, sm. day-school.

externe, eks-tayr-n, adj. mf. 4 external, outer, outward. Lotion pour l'usage —, embrocation for outward application. Les causes —s des maladies, the external causes of diseases. 2 anat. (particul.) outer. La face — de l'omoplate, the outer face of the shoulder-blade. 3 (dans les collèges, in schools) day-schooler. 4 (substantiv.) Les pensionnaires et les —s, the boarders and the day-schoolers.

extinction, eks-langh-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 (action d'éteindre) extinction, extinguishment, putting out. L'— du feu, the extinguishment of the fire. (à une vente, at a sale) A l'— des bougies, des feux, by inch of candle. (by extension) L'— de la chaux, the slacking of lime. — de voix, loss of voice. — de chaleur naturelle, exhaustion. Jusqu'à — de chaleur naturelle, jusqu'à —, to exhaustion. Disputer, crier jusqu'à —, to dispute, to cry till out of breath. 2 fig. (destruction) extirpation, extinction. L'— des abus, the extirpation of abuses. (d'un privilège, of a privilege) d'une race, d'une famille, of a race, of a family; d'une dette, d'une rente, of a debt, of an annuity extinction. L'— de la maison du comte d'A., the extinction of the family of the Count of A. Aug. Th. L'— de certaines facultés semble profiter à d'autres, the extinction of certain faculties seems to turn to the profit of others. Mich. 3 L'— d'un crime, the pardoning of a crime.

extirpateur, eks-tir-pai-nhr, sm. (Lat. extirpator) (little used) extirper, extirpator, wrecker, rooter out, wrecker out. fig. Un grand — d'hérésies, a great wrecker out of heresies.

extirpation, eks-tir-pah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 4 surg. (d'un cancer, d'une loupé, of a polyp, of a cancer, of a wen, of a polypus) eradication, extirpation. fig. L'— de toutes les colonies étrangères, the utter destruction of all the foreign colonies. Aug. Th. 2 fig. extirpation, rooting out, wrecker out, uprooting. L'— des vices, des hérésies, the wrecker out of vices, of heresies.

extirper, eks-tir-pay, ra. (Lat. extirpare) 4 to extirpate, to wrecker out, to root out. fig. Il veut — avec lui toutes les racines malfaisantes du corps social, he wants to extirpate with the sword all the hurtful roots of the social body. Lamart. 2 surg. — un cancer, une loupé, un polype, to extirpate a cancer, a wen, a polypus. 3 fig. (détruire entièrement) to extirpate, to root out (les abus, les vices, abusances, vices). — la tyrannie, to uproot tyranny. — one race, to root out a race.

extorquer, eks-tor-kay, ra. (Lat. extorquere) to extort, to wrest (de l'argent à quelqu'un, money from a person). On lui a extorqué son consentement, his consent has been wrested from him. (by extension) Tu m'as extorqué deux ans de ma vie, you have extorted from me two years of my life. Ab.

extorsion, eks-tor-syong, sf. extortion.

extra, eks-trah, sm. (Lat.) extra. Faire un —, to have something extra. Vin —, extra wine.

extra-muros, adv. loc. (Lat.) extra-muros, suburban, without the walls.

extractif, eks-trak-tif, adj. m. fem. extractive, gram. extractive.

EXTRACTION, eks-trak-syong, sf. 4 extraction (des sels, des métaux, des minéraux, of salts, of metals, of minerals). 2 surg. L'— de la pierre, d'une balle, the extraction of the stone, of a bullet. 3 arith. extraction. 4 fig. (origine) extraction, birth, lineage, descent. Il est de grande —, d'illustre —, de basse —, he is of high birth, of illustrious, of low extraction.

EXTRACTION, eks-trah-de-syong, sf. extraction. Demande d'—, demand of extraction.

EXTHADOS, eks-trah-do, sm. arch. extrados.

EXTRAADOSSÉ, eks-trah-do-say, adj. m. fem. — E, arch. Yaboutie —, a vault the outside of which is not rough.

EXTRAFIN, eks-trah-fang, adj. m. fem. — E, com. extra fine. De l'eau-de-vie —, brandy of extra fine quality.

EXTRAIRE, eks-trayr, ra. conj. like TRAIRE, (Lat. extrahere) 1 (tirer, séparer) to extract. — l'esprit, le suc, l'huile de quelque substance, to extract the spirit, the juice, the oil from a thing. 2 (retirer d'un corps une chose qui s'y est formée en introduite) to extract, to draw, to dig out. L'or, l'argent qu'on extrait d'une mine, gold, silver extracted from a mine. — un corps étranger de quelque partie du corps humain, to extract a foreign body from any part of the human body. — une balle, un calcul, to extract a bullet, a calculus. 3 — un prisonnier de sa prison, to draw a prisoner out of his prison. 4 — un livre, on procède, to extract, to abridge, to make extracts from a book, a lawsuit. 5 arith. — la racine carrée, la racine cubique, etc., d'un nombre, to extract the square root, the cube root, etc., of a number.

EXTRAIT, eks-tray, ppa. of EXTRAIRE, fem. — E, 4 extracted. Sue — de l'orge, juice extracted from barley. 2 surg. extracted. Quand la balle fut —e, when the bullet was extracted. 3 extracted. Cela est — des registres de la mairie, est — de tel journal, this is extracted from the registers of the town-hall, is extracted from such a newspaper.

EXTRAIT, sm. 4 extract. — de guimauve, extract of marsh-mallow. — de saumure, sugar of leud. 2 (ce qu'on tire de quelque livre, de quelque registre, etc.) extract, certificate. — de naissance, certificate of birth. — mortuaire, certificate of death. 3 (abrégé) abstract, extract. Faire l'— d'un livre, to make an abstract of a book. 4 (loterie) single number. 5 (loto) single number.

EXTRAJUDICIAIRE, eks-trah-zhù-de-syay, adj. mf. law. extrajudicial.

EXTRAJUDICIAIREMENT, eks-trah-zhù-de-syay-mang, adv. extrajudicially.

EXTRAORDINAIRE, eks-trah-or-de-nayr, adj. mf. (Lat. extraordinarius) 4 extraordinary, unusual. Par voie —, by extraordinary conveyance. Dépense —, extraordinary expense. Ambas-aieur —, envoyé —, extraordinary ambassador, envoy. Courrier —, extraordinary courier. Procédure —, a criminal process. (substantiv.) Joger à l'—, to judge extraordinarily. 2 (singulier) extraordinary, unusual, uncommon. Un génie —, an extraordinary genius. Un homme — dans son art, a man unparalleled in his art. 3 (in a bad part) (bizarre) extraordinary, odd. (of the way, singular, odd. Voilà un homme bien —, that is a very singular man. Manières —s, odd manners. Habit —, queer habit.

EXTRAORDINAIRE, sm. 4 (ce qui ne se fait pas ordinairement) extraordinary, extraordinary thing. Vous soupez ajourné d'hui, vous faites un —, you sup to-day, that is something unusual with you. C'est pour lui un — de boire du vin, it is something extra for him to drink wine. 2 (dans les comptes, in accounts) extraordinaries. L'— monte à tant, the extraordinaries amount to so much. Trésorier de l'— des guerres, treasurer of the —, commis à l'—, general paymaster of the army.

EXTRAORDINAIREMENT, eks-trah-or-de-nayr-mang, adv. 4 extraordinarily, unusually, uncommonly. Procès — contre quelqu'un, to prosecute a person criminally. 2 (extrêmement) extremely. 3 (bizarrerie) extraordinarily, oddly, queerly.

EXTRAVAGANCE, eks-trav-ag-anhag, adv. (little used) extravagantly. S'habiller —, to dress extravagantly. Se conduire —, to behave unreasonably.

EXTRAVAGANCE, eks-trav-ag-angs, sf. 4 (bizarrerie) extravagance. 2 (action, discours) folly, wild thing.

EXTRAVAGANT, eks-trav-ag-ang, adj. m. fem. — E, 4 extravagant, wild. Un homme —, an extravagant man. Discours —, extravagant discourse. Paroles —es, extravagant words. Saillie —e, an extravagant saillie. J.-J. Rouss. 2 (substantiv.) extravagant, wild person. Une —e, a giddy creature.

EXTRAVAGANT, eks-trav-ag-ay, vn. to rare, to talk wildly, to be light-headed. Il a one bèvre qui le fait —, he is in a rambling fever. — d'amour, to talk love nonsense. Nod.

EXTRAVASATION, eks-trah-vah-zah-syong, EXTRAVASION, eks-trah-vah-zyong, sf. med. nat. hist. extravasation.

s'EXTRAVASER, eks-trav-ah-zay, vpr 4 med. to be extravasated. Quand le sang vient à s'—, when the blood is extravasated. (elliptical.) Un effort violent est capable de faire extravaser le sang, a violent effort is capable of extravasating the blood. (by extension) Les rivières sortaient fréquemment de leurs lits, s'extravasait à droite et à gauche, the rivers frequently left their beds, overflowing to the right and left. J.-J. ROUSS.

EXTREME, eks-traym, adj. mf. (Lat. extremus) 1 extreme, utmost. L'— limite, l'— froutière, the extreme limit, border. 2 (au plus haut degré) extreme, excessive. — joie, excessive joy. Il est dans les —s plaisirs au aiguillon, excessive pleasure leaves a sting behind. Chat. User d'une — rigueur, to be extremely rigorous. Volt. C'est le cri des Français dans les dangers —s, it is the cry of the French in extreme dangers. Chat. La bonté — de votre caractère, the extreme goodness of your temper. Volt. Je m'arrête à vous conjurer d'avoir un soin — de votre santé, I beg and entreat you to take the greatest care of your health. Mme de Sév. Les civilisations —s pesent sur l'individualisme, in extreme civilizations, the individual is absorbed. Th. Gaut. Il mourut dans une — vieillesse, he died in extreme old age. Volt. L'— justice est presque la vengeance, rigorous justice is almost vengeance. C. Del. Il m'a fait une peine —, he has pained me sadly. J'ai une envie — de lire ce livre, I long to read this book. Un froid —, excessive cold. Les maux les plus —s, extreme evils. fig. L'— péril veut un remède —, desperate diseases require desperate remedies. C. Del. Il n'aime pas les partis —s, he does not like desperate resolutions. 3 (des personnes, of persons) extreme, excessive. Cet homme est — en tout, that man carries every thing to extremes. 4 sm. (opposé, contraire) extreme. Le plaisir de passer d'un — à l'autre, the pleasure of going from one extreme to another. Mme de Sév. Le froid et le chaud sont les deux —s, cold and heat are two extremes. 5 (des choses morales) extreme. Se jeter dans les —s, to run into extremes. A. eût été l'ennemi des —s, A. would have been the enemy of extremes. Chat. prov. Les —s se touchent, extremes meet. 6 math. Les —s d'une proportion, the extremes of a proportion.

EXTREME-ONCTION, sf. (Lat. extreme unctio). Donner, porter, recevoir l'— onction, to administer, to bear, to receive extreme unction.

A L'EXTREME, adv. loc. to an extreme. Il l'aime à l'—, he loves her to an extreme. Pousser, porter tout à l'—, to carry every thing to an extreme.

EXTREMEMENT, eks-traym-mang, adv. extremely. Il vous aime —, he loves you extremely. Il dépense — en habits, en chevaux, he spends immensely in clothes, in horses.

EXTREMIS (ix), eks-tray-mees, adv. loc. (Lat.) in extremis, in extremity, at the point of death. — Disposition de dernière volonté faite in —, one disposition in —, will drawn up in extremis. Mariage célébré in —, marriage in —, marriage celebrated in extremis.

EXTREMITÉ, eks-tray-me-tay, sf. (Lat. extremitas) 1 extremity, end, tip, farthest end. L'— d'un corps, the extremity of a body. L'— des doigts, the finger-ends, the tips of the fingers. Cooper l'— des cheveux, to thin the hair. Il est logé à l'— de la ville, he lives at the farther end of the town. Pendant qu'on soulève ainsi les —s de la terre, le roi de France avançait ses conquêtes, whilst the remotest parts of the earth were thus stirred up, the king of F. proceeded with his conquests. Volt. 2 anal. —s, pl., extremities. Les —s supérieures, the upper extremities. Les —s inférieures, the lower extremities. (se dit aussi des pieds et des mains seulement) extremities. Il se meurt, car il a déjà les —s froides, he is dying, for the extremities are already cold. (by analogy) (la partie inférieure des jambes de certains animaux) extremities. Ce cheval a la crinière, la queue et les —s noires, the mane, tail and extremities of this horse are black. 3 (le dernier moment) last moment. N'attendez pas à l'— pour arranger cette affaire, do not wait till the last moment to settle this affair. 4 (les derniers moments de la vie) last moment, last gasp. Sa tante était à l'—, his aunt was at her last gasp. Le Sage, fig. (les villes assiégées, of besieged towns) extremity. 5 fig. (le plus triste état où l'on puisse être réduit) extremity. En ces —s, quel conseil dois-je prendre? In such extremities, what course ought I to follow? Corn. Il n'a pas de quoi vivre, il est réduit à l'—, à la dernière —, he has nothing to live on, he is reduced to extremity, to the last extremity. Une cruelle —, a cruel extremity. A quelle — se s'est-il pas vu réduit? to what extremity did he not see himself reduced? 6 fig. (degré extrême, excès) La ville souffrit toutes les —s de la faim, the town suffered all the extremities of hunger. Volt. Les hommes s'accoutument presque toujours mieux des maux que des —s, men almost always find themselves better in a middle course than in extremes. Montesq. Si l'on savait l'— des besoins des pauvres, if the extreme wants of the poor were known. Bourd. Toutes les —s des choses humaines, every extrem: of human affairs. Boss. Vous allez toujours à l'—, you always run into extremes. Vous portez les choses aux dernières —s, you carry things to extremes. 7 Pousser quelque'un à l'—, to drive a person to extremity. 8 fig. (particul.) (excès de violence, d'empchement) excess, violence, extremity. Il s'est porté contre lui à la dernière —, aux dernières —s, aux —s les plus odieuses, he carried things against him to the utmost extremity, to the most odious extremity. Passer d'une — à l'autre, to go from one extreme to another.

EXUBÉRANCE, ayg-zü-bay-rangs, sf. (Lat. exuberantia) exuberance. — de végétation, exuberance of vegetation. — de vie, exuberance of life. fig. — de mots, d'images, d'idées, exuberance of words, of imagery, of ideas.

EXUBÉRANT, ayg-zü-bay-rang, adj. m. fem. —, exuberant.

EXULCÉRATION, ayg-zü-say-rab-syong, sf. (Lat.) med. ulceration.

EXULCÉRER, ayg-zü-say-ray, ra. l'EXULCÈRE, l'EXULCÈRE, les EXULCÈRENT; l'EXULCÉREMENT, l'EXULCÉREMENT, l'EXULCÉREMENT, (Lat. exulcerare) med. to ulcerate.

EXULTER, ayg-zü-tay, vn. to exult. Nos voisins exultaient de nous voir ainsi nous affaiblir, our neighbours exulted at seeing us thus weaken each other. S-Sim. Il se montre donc, ce cher P.; il exulte en public, he is to be seen, that dear P.; he openly exults. Volt.

EXULTOIRE, ayg-zü-twar, sm. med. issue.

F

F, eff, sm. and f. sixth letter of the alphabet. — initial letter of FRANC. — abbreviation of FRERE, F. Antoine, brother Anthony.

FA, fah, sm. mas. fa. F. — naturel, F. natural. — dièse, F. sharp. Cet air est dans le ton de —, est en —, that air is in the F key. La clef de —, bass, bass clef.

FABAGO, fah-bah-go, sm. FABAGELLE, fah-bah-zel, sf. bot. fabago.

FABLE, fah-bi' sf. (Lat. fabula) 1 fable. Les —s d'Esopé, Aesop's fables. La — du loup et de l'agneau, the fable of the Wolf and the Lamb. Le chène et le roseau —, the Oak and the Reed, a fable. 2 (le sujet d'un poème épique, etc.) fable. 3 (fausseté) fable, untruth. —s que tout cela, all that is nothing but a story. Etre la — du peuple, la — de tout le monde, la — de la ville, to be the laughing-stock of the people, of every body, of the town. 4 (collectif.) (les fables de l'antiquité préenne) Fable, mythology. Les dieux, les déesses de la Fable, the gods, the goddesses of the Fable.

FABLIAU, fah-blyo, sm. pl. FABLIAUX, fabliau.

FABLIER, fah-blyar, sm. 4 (faboliste) fain. fabulist. Notre aimable —, our amiable fabulist. Del. 2 (livre) fable-book.

FABRICANT, fah-re-kang, sm. 1 manufacturer. Un — de soieries, d'étoffes de soie, d'étoffes de coton, a silk, a cotton manufacturer. Un — de bas, de chapeaux, a stocking-manufacturer, a hutmaker. 2 (particul.) manufacturer.

FABRICATEUR, fah-re-kat-ubr, sm. 1 (rare) maker. Le — souverain nous crée desactiers, the maker of all created us beggars. La Font. 2 (in a bad part, coiner, forger. Un — de fausse monnaie, a coiner of base money. Un — de faux billets de banque, a forger of bank-notes. fig. — de faux actes, forger of deeds. — de nouvelles, de fausses nouvelles, a forger of news, of false news, news-monger. Industriel —s d'une gloire frauduleuse, industrious builders up of fraudulent glory. Nod. Stratagème inouï qui des —s paya la constance et la peine, an unheard of stratagem the success of which rewarded the trouble of those who invented it. La Font.

FABRICATION, fah-re-kah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 manufacture, making, curing, fabrication. La — des étoffes de laine, des soieries, woollen, silk manufacture. La — de chapeaux, hat-making. La — de la porcelaine, the manufacture of porcelain. La — de la monnaie, the coining of money, coinage. Frais de —, manufacturing expenses. 2 fig. (disparagingly) La — d'un faux acte, d'un faux testament, forging of a deed, of a will.

FABRIQUE, fah-rik, sf. (Lat. fabrica) 1 (construction d'un édifice, d'une église) building, erection. 2 (tout ce qui appartient à une église paroissiale) fabrie. 3 (administrateurs) vestry-board, church-wardens. 4 (fabrication) coining, manufacture, making, make. La — des monnaies, the coining of money. La — des étoffes de soie, des draps, des chapeaux, etc., the manufacture of silk, cloth, hats, etc. Ce drap est de bonne —, this cloth is of an excellent make. (disparagingly) De —, fabrication, coining, of inferior quality. Louis de —, a bad Louis. Coutaux, bas, montres de —, inferior knives, stockings, watches. fig. Cela est de sa —, that is of his own coining. 5 (établissement) manufactory, factory, mill, works. Les ouvriers d'une —, factory operatives, mill-hands. Le propriétaire d'une —, mill-owner. Prix de —, cast price. fig. Ces deux hommes sont de même —, there is not a pin to choose between those two men. 6 arch. fabrie, frame. 7 arch. structure, fabric. 8 point. fabrics.

FABRIQUE, ppa. of FABRIQUER, fem. —, manufactured. fig. C'est une histoire —, it is a made-up story. Les cinq dogmes fameux par ta main —, the five famous dogmas drawn up by thy hand. Bouil. Un textile —, a forged, a spurious text.

FABRIQUER, fab-ri-kay, va. (Lat. fabricare) 1 to fabricate, la manufactory, to make, to coin. — de la monnaie, to coin money. — des draps, to manufacture cloth. — des étoffes de soie, des chapeaux, des bas, etc., to manufacture silk stuffs, hats, stockings, etc. Faire —, la manufactory. absol. On fabrique beaucoup dans cette contrée, a great deal of manufacturing is carried on in that country. 2 (tenir une fabrique) to manufacture, to direct a manufactory. — de la porcelaine, to manufacture porcelain. (by analogy) Ce pays, cette ville fabrique beaucoup, that country, that town is a manufacturing country, town. 3 fig. (composer, faire) to fabricate, to forge. Je fabriquais des romans dont elle était l'héroïne et moi le héros, I composed romances of which she was the heroine and I the hero. Ab. Je fabrique des vers moins sentés que sa prose, I make verses in which there is not so much good sense as in his prose. La Font. — une pièce, un testament, to forge a document, a will. — un mensonge, une calomnie, une histoire, etc., to forge a lie, a calumny, a story, etc.

FABULEUSEMENT, fab-û-ljuz-mang, adv. fabulously.

FABULEUX, fab-û-ljuz, adj. m. fem. fabuleuse. (Lat. fabulosus) 1 (leint) fabulous. Cela est —, that is incredible. Livre —, fabulous book. 2 (particul.) (qui appartient à la Fable, à la mythologie) fabulous. Les divinités fabuleuses, the fabulous divinities. Les temps —, the fabulous times. 3 (hyperb.) (de ce qui passe la croyance) fabulous. Quelque chose de —, something fabulous. Des sommes fabuleuses, incredible sums of money. 4 sm. fabulous.

FABULISTE, fab-û-list, sm. fabuliste.
FACADE, fas-ad, sf. 4 facade, face, front, frontage. 2 (particul.) front. La — d'une église, the front of a church. La — du Louvre, the front of the Louvre.

FACE, fas, sf. (Lat. facies) 1 (visage) face. Dieu détournera sa face from thee, God will turn away his face from the sinner. Devent. Le Seigneur before the face of the Lord. 2 anat. med. face. Les muscles de la —, the muscles of the face. 3 fam. face. Avoir une grosse —, to be large et rubicund, to have a broad face, a broad ruddy face. Une — réjouie, enluminée, a jolly countenance, a red face. Avoir une — de reproche, to have a hang-dog face. Avoir une — de prédestinée, to look happy. fig. Voyez cet autre avec sa — de carême, look at that one with his whiny face. Rac. 4 point. sculpt. aspect, face. 5 (superficie) face, surface. La — de la terre, the face of the earth. La — de la mer, the surface of the sea. bi. La — des eaux, the face of the waters. La — des alpes, the face of the deep. 6 geom. face. Les —s d'une pyramide, etc., the faces of a pyramid, etc. 7 anat. face. La — supérieure du Testicule, the superior face of the stomach. 8 (le devant d'un édifice) front. La — d'une maison, the front of a house. Faire —, la face, to front. Sa maison fait — à la mienne, his house faces mine. war. Faire —, to show a bold front, to face. Faire — à l'ennemi, to show a bold front to the enemy. Faire — de tous côtés, to face on all sides. fig. Faire —, to meet, la fulfill, to go through. Pour faire — à cette dépense, to meet that expense. Faire — à ses engagements, to meet one's engagements. Je loral — à tous les événements, I shall make head against every event, against every thing. 9 fig. (l'état, la situation) face, aspect. Telle était alors la — des affaires, such was then the face of things. Ma fortune va prendre une — nouvelle, my fortune will assume a better aspect. Rac. Les affaires ont changé de —, ont pris une autre —, tout une autre —, affairs have assumed another aspect, quite another aspect. 10 fig. (les divers aspects d'une chose, d'une affaire) side, aspect. Après avoir considéré cette affaire sous toutes ses —s, after having considered this affair on all sides. 11 (Jeu de basset) face. 12 (les cheveux qui couvrent les tempes) temples. 13 les —s dégarées, his temples are denuded of hair. 13 arch. Les —s de l'architrave, the fascia of an architrave. 14 fort. Les —s d'un bastion, the faces of a bastion. 15 med. — hippocratique, cadavéreuse. Hippocrat. face. 16 bot. — inférieure, externe des plantes, lower, external face of plants. 17 tech. —s de pignon, pignon plate. 18 mint. head. 19 Joan. à pile ou —, to play at head or tail.

EN FACE, adv. loc. 1 in the face. Osez-vous bien, après cela, me regarder en —? how dare you, after that, look me in the face? 2 fig. Regarder la mort en —, le yéril en —, to look death, danger in the face. 2 (en présence) to a person's face. Il osa le lui dire en —, he was so bold as to say it to him to his face. Résister en —, to resist openly. 3 (vis-à-vis) opposite, before. Ils avaient le soleil en —, they had the sun in front, in the face.

EN FACE DE, prep. opposite, fronting. Sa maison est en — de la mienne, his house is opposite to mine. Se placer en — de quelqu'un, de quelque chose, to place one's self opposite to a person, a thing. En — de l'église, se marier to the church; 7 fig. Épouser, se marier en — de l'Eglise, to marry publicly.

DE FACE, adv. loc. in front, with a full front. Une figure vue, dessinée, prise de —, a figure seen, drawn, taken in front.

FACE À FACE, adv. loc. face to face. Se trouver — à — avec quelqu'un, to find one's self face to face with a person. Nous nous sommes rencontrés — à —, we met face to face. Voir Dieu — à —, to see God face to face.

EN FACE, adv. loc. at first, at first sight.

À FACE, adv. de, prep. in the face, in the presence, before. A la — de la justice, in the presence of justice. A la — des autels, before the altar. A la — du ciel, in the face of Heaven. fig. A la — de l'univers, de toute la terre, in the face of the universe, of the whole earth.

FACER, ra. (Jeu de basset) to fass.
FACÉTIE, fas-ay-see, sf. (Lat. facetia) facetiousness, jest, joke, pl. facetiæ. Débitier des —s, la cut, to crack jokes.

FACÉTIEUSEMENT, fas-ay-sybz-mang, adv. facetiously, jocosely.

FACÉTIEUX, fas-ay-syuh, adj. m. fem. FACÉTIEUSE, facetious, jocular.

FACETTE, fas-set, sf. facet, face. Diamant taillé à —s, diamond cut with facets.

FACETTER, fas-say-tay, va. jewel to cut with facets.

FACHE, ppa. of FACHER, fem. —, 1 angry, displeased (with). Il est très- — contre vous, he is very angry with you. Les tient-on —s tout rouge, on les mène où l'on vent, when they are in earnest one makes them do anything one pleases. Beaum. C'est un homme qui a toujours l'air —, he is a man who has always an angry look with him. Cite — avec quelqu'un, to be on bad terms with a person. Il y a longtemps qu'ils ne se voient plus, ils sont —s ensemble, ils sont —s, they have left off each other's society for a long time, they fell out. 2 (affligé) sorry (for, at), grieved (in). Il me parut — jusqu'aux larmes de l'état où il me vit, he appeared to me grieved to tears at the state he saw me in. St-B. Il est — de ne pas vous avoir rencontré, he is sorry he did not meet with you. Je sois très- — que, I am very sorry that. Ironie. Cela ne vous contente pas, j'en suis réellement bien —, you are not satisfied with that, I am very sorry indeed. Vous ne voulez pas venir; j'en sois —, mais j'irai sans vous, you will not come, I am very sorry, but I shall go without you.

FACHER, fas-shay, va. 1 to anger, to put into a passion, to offend, to make angry. C'est un homme qu'il ne faut point —, he is a man that must not be offended. 2 (causer du déplaisir) to vex, to nettie, to grieve, to displease. Ce qui me fâche, c'est qu'en ne faisant rien les jours se passent, what vexes me is that time glides away while nothing is done. Mme de Sév. Votre refus l'a un peu fâché, your refusal rather vexed him. Soit dit sans vous —, allow me to say without vexing you.

SE FACHER, ppr. 1 to be put out, to grow angry, offended, to get, la fall into a passion, la take offence. Tu ne me crois pas assez sot pour me — d'une plaisanterie, you do not think I am so foolish as to take offence at a joke. Moins. Il s'est fâché tout rouge, he got into a regular huff. 2 (se contraindre) quelqu'un, to be, to be angry with a person. Vous vous fâchez! you are angry! Beaum. Parlons sans nous —, let us talk without getting into a passion. Mol. 2 (se brôiller) to fall out (with). 3 (impers.) Il me fâche de vous quitter, I am sorry to leave you. Il me fâche très-fort de vous écrire toujours le pied en l'air, I am very sorry always to write to you in so unsettled a manner. B. de St-P.

FACHERIE, fas-ree, sf. angry feeling, quarrel, disagreement.

FACHEUX, fas-shuh, adj. m. fem. fâcheux, 1 untoward, bad, disagreeable, unpleasant. — accident, an untoward accident. Il est dans un — état, he is in a sad state. Il se répandit une fâcheuse nouvelle, disagreeable news got into circulation. Le Sage. Sa civilité ne sera ni tant, ni tant fâcheuse, his civility will neither be long nor irksome. D'Alemb. De quel front soutenir ce — entretien? how shall I face so disagreeable an interview? Rac. (substantif) Le — de l'affaire, de l'aventure est que, the worst part of the affair, of the adventure is that. 2 Il est —, it is sad, disagreeable, unpleasant. Il est — que vous ne vous soyez pas trouvé avec nous, it is a pity you were not with us. 3 (pénible) uncomfortable, tedious. Un climat —, an uncomfortable climate. Buff. Chemin —, rugged way. 4 (bizarre, peu traitable) peevish, cross-grained. C'est un — personnage, he is a bore. 5 (substantif) tiresome, troublesome person. C'est un —, he is a bore. Aussitôt de — arrivent trois volées, three loads of tiresome people arrive immediately. Buff. La comédie des —, the comedy of the Boreas. Mol.

FACIAL, fas-yal, adj. m. fem. —, anat. facial. Nerf —, facial nerve. Augle —, facial angle.

FACILE, fas-seel, adj. mf. (Lat. facilis)

easy. Il n'est pas — à V. d'aller droit devant soi, it is not easy for V. to walk straight before him. Muss. C'est une chose —, it is an easy thing. Cela est — à dire et non à faire, that is more easily said than done. Une méthode sûre et —, a sure and easy method. Cet homme est de — accès, that man is easy of access. Avoir le travail —, to work with ease, facility. 2 litt. fine arts. free, easy, fluent, natural. Un style naturel et —, a natural easy style. Des vers —, s. flowing verses. Une élocution —, a fluent, voluble delivery. 3 (qui crée, qui exécute aisément) ready, quick. Un esprit —, a quick wit. Une plume —, a ready pen. Un crayon, un pinceau, un ciseau, un burin —, easy, free, natural manner of painting, of carving, of engraving. 4 (conscient) easy, yielding, compliant. C'est un homme — he is a man of an easy temper. Ce dieu, comme on sait, n'est pas — à vivre, this god, as is well known, is not of a complying temper. Flor. Les mœurs d'Atticus étaient —, A. was of an easy temper. Vol. Son caractère doux et —, his mild and easy disposition. Barth. Jamais le ciel ne fut aux humains si —, never was Heaven so condescending to mankind. La Font. 5 (indolgent jusqu'à la faiblesse) easy, soft-tempered, weak. C'est un homme trop —, on lui fait faire ce qu'on veut, he is of too yielding a temper, one may make him do what one pleases. Le — Claude se laissa gouverner par Agrippine, the weak Claudius suffered himself to be led by Agrippina. Vol.

FACILEMENT, fab-sit-mang, adv. easily, readily.

FACILITE, fab-se-le-tay, sf. (Lat. facilitas) 1 facility, easiness. La — d'un expédient, d'un moyen, the facility of an expedient, of a means. 2 (moyen, manière facile) facility, ease. Cela peut se faire avec —, that can be done with ease. Vous ne cherchiez dans votre crédit que la — de nuire aux autres impunément, you only employ your influence as a means of injuring others with impunity. Flich. 3 fin. com. facility, accommodation. easy terms. Il lui promit à cet égard toutes les — possibles, he promised him in this respect all possible facilities. Ste-B. 4 (aptitude) ease, facility, quick parts. Se mouvoir avec —, to move with ease. Ecrire avec —, to write, to write with ease. Cet enfant commence à parler avec —, this child begins to speak fluently. Une merveilleuse — à jurer dans quatre ou cinq idiomes différents, a wonderful facility of swearing in four or five different languages. Saint. Cet enfant n'a aucune —, this child has no aptitude. D'esprit, de conception, quick parts. D'élocution, fluency of discourse. D'exécution, de composition, de pinceau, ease in execution, composition, painting. 5 (manière facile dont une chose est faite) ease. Cela est écrit avec —, that is written with ease. Il y a de la — dans son style, he has on easy style. 6 (complaisance) facility. Sa — à y consentir me surprit, the facility with which he consented surprised me. Il apporte une grande — dans le commerce de la vie, it is easy living with him. Baril. Il est d'une grande — en affaires, he is very accommodating in affairs. — de mœurs, freedom of manners. 7 (manque de fermeté) easy temper, easiness.

FACILITER, fab-se-le-tay, va. to facilitate, to make easy. — les moyens de réussir, to facilitate the means of succeeding. Je vous faciliterai les moyens de quitter la côte, I will facilitate the means of your leaving the coast. Mery. Cela facilite la digestion, that facilitates the digestion. — le passage des troupes, to facilitate the passage of the troops. Ces deux lobes charnus qui ont facilité à la plante sa sortie de terre, those two fleshy lobes which enabled the plant to pierce its way upwards through the soil. Saint. FAÇON, fab-song, sf. 1 (manière, forme) fashion, cut, fabric, workmanship, shape. La — de cette étoffe est belle, the fabric of that stuff is beautiful. C'est une — d'habit toute particulière, it is a coat of quite a peculiar cut. Un de ces jolis contes de Nodier où le fond se dérobe et la — est tout, one of those charming tales of N. resting on a flimsy foundation in which the superstructure is every thing. Ste-B. nant. Les —s d'un bâtiment, narrowing of a ship's floor above and abaf, run. 2 (travail d'un artisan) fashion, making. Payer la — d'un habit, to pay the fashion of a coat. Cet ouvrage coûte tant de —, the workmanship of that work costs so much. Donner à —, to give out work. Travailler à —, to work up materials given out. anc. law. La — d'un art, the drawing up of a decree. 3 agri. dressing. 4 (action de faire, d'inventer quelque chose) fashion, make, making, doing. fig. Attends, je vais te servir un plat de wa —, just wait, I will give you a bone to pick. Ab. Un vice-roi de ma —, a vice-roy of my making. Le Sage. Il me lut des vers de sa —, he read me some verses of his fashion. Je vous donnerai par-dessus le marché quelque ouvrage de ma —, I will give you into the bargain some work of my making. Montesq. Il m'a conté une histoire de sa —, he told me a tale of his own getting up. 5 (manière, sorte) way, manner, sort, kind. Sa — d'écriture est bonne, his style of writing is good. Il vient encore de faire un tour de sa —, he has just played off a trick of his. A la — des Turcs, after the manner of the Turks. De cette — vous rentrerez dans votre argent, in that manner you will get back your money. Ab. Elle ne put en aucune — dire combien de temps elle demeura évanouie, it was totally impossible for her to say how long she remained senseless. Mërim. La — de donner vaut mieux que ce qu'on donne, the manner of giving is better than the gift itself. Corn. De quelque — que l'on me considère, in whatever light I am considered. Corn. De quelle — punissez-vous l'offense? in what way do you punish the offence? Rac. En quelque — je m'étais trouvé dans la nécessité de, etc., I had found myself, in some sort, under the necessity of, etc. Le Sage. Voulez-vous connaître ma — de penser? do you wish to know my way of thinking? Mërim. Je me plaçai de — à bien voir les deux camps, I placed myself so that I might be able to judge both games. Mërim. C'est une épître à la — de Boileau, it is an epistle in the style of B. Il l'a traité d'une étrange —, he treated him in a strange way. Je lui parlerai de la bonne —, I shall speak out to him. Les —s de faire de quelque'un, the way of acting, the manner of proceeding of a person. Je l'oblindrai d'une — ou d'autre, I will get it somehow or other. Parlez-lui de — à l'humilier, speak to him so as to frighten him. Je lui racontai de quelle — j'avais obtenu du duc, I related to him the manner in which I had obtained from the duke. Le Sage. Un grand nombre de seigneurs dont je suis en quelque — le serviteur, a great number of lords, whose servants I am in some sort. Le Sage. Voilà de quelle — tu seras traité tes 75 jours, that is how you will be treated every day. Le Sage. Emploie tes dimanches de la — que je t'ai dit, employ your Sundays in the way I told you. Ab. Jamais il ne fut jeunesse plus riante que la vôtre de toutes les —, none ever had a more pleasant time of it in their youth than we, in every way. M^{me} de Sév. L'autre avait le nez fait de cette — là, the other had a nose of that shape. La Font. L'oe conte en deux —s l'accident du chasseur, the hunter's accident is related in two different ways. La Font. Sa — de rire, his way of laughing. Mol. Je ne veux entendre parler de lui en aucune —, in no way. I will not hear of him in any way whatever. Il faudrait bica, de toute —, que vous y consentiez, you must consent to it, any how. pop. S'en donner de la bonne —, to indulge one's self freely. pop. Si jamais il y revient, je lui en donnerai de la bonne —, if ever he returns, he shall catch it finely. (by analogy) Je le relançais de la bonne —, I took him to task finely. Le Sage. — de parler, form of speech. Les gens d'une certaine —, people of a certain sort. C'est une — de bel esprit, c'est une — de brave, etc., he is a sort of wit, a kind of bully. Des —s de chevaux, spectres of horses. Mol. Une — d'exil, a kind of exile. Nod. 6 (l'air, la mine) appearance, mien, look, presence. Avoir bonne —, mouvaie —, to be good-looking, ill-looking. Un homme, une femme de bonne —, a good-looking man, woman. Il a bien une autre — que son frère, he has quite a different appearance from his brother. Voilà un rôti qui a bonne —, that roast meat looks nice. prov. N'avoit ni —, to have no manner of grace. 7 —s, pl. (manières, procédés) ways, manners. Les enfants ont de petites —s qui plaisent, children have little agreeable ways with them. Je jouai qu'avec de bonnes —s et des complaisances je deviendrais un époux chéri, I deemed that by kind and obliging manners I should become a beloved husband. Le Sage. Il a toutes les —s d'un homme de cour, he has all the ways of a courtier. 8 absol. (manière où il y a de l'affection) affection. C'est une femme pleine de —s, she is a woman full of affection. 9 (cerémonies) ceremony, fuss, ado. Ne faites point tant de —s, don't stand on so much ceremony. A force de —s il assomme le monde, with his ceremonious manners he bores every body. Mol. Ne faites point tant de —s, don't make so much ceremony. Saint. Pas tant de —s, sans tant de —s, without so much ceremony. Il fait des —s pour accepter ce présent, he makes some difficulty of accepting that present. Sans —, without ceremony. Un homme sans —, a plain man. Recevoir, traiter quelqu'un sans —, to receive, to treat a person without any ceremony. J'en use sans — avec vous, I make no stranger of you. J'ouvris la porte sans —, I opened the door without any ceremony. Le Sage. M. D., sans —, voulez-vous dîner avec moi? Mr D., without any ceremony, will you dine with me? Mol. 10 (difficultés qu'une personne fait) ceremony. Après bien des —s, après avoir fait bien des —s, il consentit à ce qu'on lui demandait, after a great deal of ceremony, he gave his consent to what was asked of him. Que de —s! tout un ado! Ces deuil —s qui ne sont propres qu'à exciter ce qu'on a l'air de combattre, these little ceremonious which only serve to excite greater impatience for a thing one seems to refuse. Ste-B. 11 (soin excessif de se faire attention) ceremony. Vous y faites trop de —s, you are too particular about it. Voilà bien des —s pour rien, it is much ery and little wool.

DE FAÇON adv. conj. 4 (tellement) que so that. De — que lassé de vivre avec des gens muets, so that, tired of living with dumb people. La Font. 2 (de telle manière) que so as. Se glissant dans les jardins de — que son costume noir se confondait avec le feuillage sombre, gliding into the garden in such a manner that her black dress could not be distinguished from the dark foliage. Mërim.

FACONDE, fab-kong, sf. (Lat. facundia) 4 absol. (facilité à parler d'abondance) eloquence, fluency. 2 (in a bad part) loquacity, fluency of speech, flow of words.

FAÇONNÉ, ppa. of FAÇONNER, feu. — E, 1 Un ouvrage grossièrement, élégamment —, work coarsely, elegantly got up. 2 (à travailler avec soin) finished, finished off. Etiole — fig., figured stuff. 3 fig. (forme) formel. Sa haute intelligence — e dans les écoles, his lofty mind formed in the schools. Saint. 4 fig. (accoutumé) accustomed. M., homme naïf et peu — au monde, M., a plain simple man little accustomed to the world. Sic-B. Un de ces jeunes gens — s au travail par le malheur, one of those young men whom misfortune has turned to labour. Balz.

FAÇONNER, fab-so-nay, va. (from façon) 1 to make, to make up, to fashion, to shape. On a depuis façonné et poli les pierres, the stones have since been shaped and polished. Balf. 2 (enjoindre) to finish, to finish off, to figure (un vase, une tabatière, a tasse, a snuff-box) —. one etiole, to figure a stuff. 3 agri. to dress (une vigne, une terre, un champ, a vine, a piece of ground, a field). 4 fig. (former) to form, to fashion, to improve. Elle façonna leurs âmes sur la sienne, she formed their souls after her own. Lamart. Les plus irrités se laissaient — en dépit d'eux-mêmes à l'indulgence de sa pensée, the most irascible yielded in spite of themselves to the indulgence of his thought. Nod. Le commerce du monde l'a façonné, intercourse with the world has improved him. (by extension) On façonne les plantes par la culture et les hommes par l'éducation, plants are improved by cultivation and men by education. J.-J. Rouss. 5 fig. (accoutumer) to accustom. Je l'ai façonné à ma manière, I have accustomed him to my ways.

SE FAÇONNER, vr. 4 fig. (se former) to improve one's self. 2 fig. (s'accoutumer) to get accustomed, to accustom one's self. Il tâche de se — aux choses pénibles et frivoles, he endeavours to accustom himself to painful and frivolous things. Saint. Au jong depuis longtemps ils se sont façonnés, they have long been accustomed to the yoke. Rac. Ils se façonnaient le corps aux fatigues, they inured their bodies to fatigues. Lamart.

FAÇONNER, va. to be ceremonious, to make ceremonies, to stand upon ceremony. À quel bon — la-dessus ? what is the use of so much ceremony ? J. Hous.

FAÇONNER, fab-so-nay, adj. m. fem. FAÇONNÉ, precise. Une jeune nymphe de quinze ans, façonnière et coquette en perfection, a young nymph of fifteen, affected and coquettish in the extreme. Mme de Sév. C'est la plus grande façonnière du monde, she is the most formal thing in the world. Mol.

FAC-SIMILAIRE, fak-se-me-lay, adj. mf. fac-similaire.

FAC-SIMILE, fak-se-me-lay, sm. (Lat.) fac-simile.

FAC-SIMILER, fak-se-me-lay, va. to take the fac-simile. T. fac-simulant avec une patience exactitude les titres des ouvrages qui, T. taking with patient accuracy the fac-simile of the titles of the books which, Nod.

FACITAGE, fak-fazh, sm. 1 com. (entremise d'un facteur) factorage. 2 (transport) porterage. — parisiens, Paris parcels delivery Company.

FACTEUR, fak-tuhr, sm. 1 maker, manufacturer. — d'orgues, organ-builder. — de pianos, piano-manufacturer. 2 (agent) agent, factor. Le — d'un négociant, d'un banquier, the factor of a merchant, of a banker. 3 (de la poste) letter-carrier, postman. 4 arith. alg. factor.

FACTICE, fak-tees, adj. mf. 1 factitious, artificial. Pierre —, factitious stone. Eau minérale —, factitious mineral water. 2 fig. artificial, forced. Sensibilité —, pretended sensibility. Un goût — et guidé, artificial and formal taste. J.-J. Rouss. Les besoins —, artificial needs.

Barth. Une gaieté —, forced gaiety. Un enthousiasme —, enthusiasm got up. Vien. 3 Mot, terme —, idee —, bastard word, idea.

FACTIEUX, fak-syuh, adj. m. fem. FACTUEUSE, (Lat. factiosus) 1 factious. C'est un eprit —, he is of a factious turn. 2 (substantif) factious person.

FACTION, fak-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 century. Être de —, to be on sentry. Faire —, to stand sentinel, to mount guard. Être en —, to be on guard, to be upon duty. 2 (by extension) (section d'attendre, de guetter) sentry. Il y a une heure que je fais —, que je sois en — devant sa porte, I have been standing sentinel at his door this hour. 3 (parti) faction. Toot respirait alors les —, a factious spirit was felt every where. Volt.

FACTIONNAIRE, fak-syo-nayr, adj. 1 mil. (little used) private. 2 sm. (sentinelle) sentinel, sentry. Relever un —, to relieve a sentinel.

FACTORERIE, fak-to-rub-ree, FACTORE, fak-to-lee, sf. FACTORY.

FACTOTUM, fak-to-tom, sm. (Lat.) factolium.

FACTUM, fak-tom, sm. (Lat.) 1 law case, statement of a case. 2 (by extension) (disparagingly) measur.

FACTURE, fak-tur, sf. 1 com. invoice, bill, bill of parcels. Dresser une —, to make out an invoice. Acquitter une —, to settle a bill. 2 mus. composition. 3 (by analogy) (des vers, of verses) Une bonne — de vers, good versification. Couplet de —, well versified couplet.

FACTURER, fak-tù-ray, va. com. to invoice.

FACULTATIF, fak-ùl-tat-if, adj. m. fem. FACULTATIVE, 1 optional. Bref —, pope's license, dispensation. 2 (qui laisse la faculté) optional, discretionary, at pleasure. Droit —, optional right. Article —, discretionary article.

FACULTE, fah-kùl-lay, sf. (Lat. facultas) 1 faculty. La — de sentir, de voir, the faculty of feeling, of sight. Perdre l'usage de ses —, to lose the use of one's faculties. Les — de l'âme, the faculties of the soul. Les — intellectuelles, the intellectual faculties. 2 (des choses, of things) faculty, property, virtue. — astringente, astringent property. — apéritive, aperient property. 3 (aptitude) faculty, talent, ability, parts. La — de bien parler, de bien dire, the talent of speaking well. 4 (le pouvoir, le droit) faculty power. Vendre avec — de rachat, to sell with power of redemption. 5 (les biens, les ressources) means, abilities. Ses — ne lui permettent point de faire une telle dépense, his means do not allow him to go to such an expense. 6 (corps des professeurs) Faculty. La — de droit, the Faculty of law. La — de théologie, the Faculty of divinity. La — des lettres, the Faculty of letters. La — de médecine, the Faculty of medicine. absol. the faculty. Les membres de la —, the members of the faculty. On consulta la —, the faculty was consulted.

FADAISE, fad-ayz, sf. fiddle-faddle, twaddle, trifles, nonsense. Ma bile s'échauffe à toutes ces —, all this fiddle-faddle puts me into a passion. Mol. — que tout cela, that's all nonsense.

FADASSE, fad-ass, adj. mf. dull, insipid.

FADE, fad, adj. mf. 1 insipid, tasteless, savourless. Un mets —, insipid dish. Une sauce —, wish-wash sauce, sauce flat as dish-water. Une douceur —, a mawkish sweetness. fig. Se sentir le cœur —, to feel one's stomach rise. 2 fig. dull, heavy, flat. Une couleur —, a dull colour. Un teint —, a dull complexion. Une beauté —, an insipid beauty. Un discours —, a dull discourse. Des louanges —, insipid praise.

FADEUR, fad-ahr, sf. 1 (d'un mets, d'une sauce, of a dish, of a sauce) insipidity, tastelessness, rapidness. 2 fig. (des manières, de la conversation, etc.) dullness, manners, of conversation, etc.) dullness, insipidity, mawkishness. Complaisant jusqu'à la —, complaisant even to nauseousness. 3 fig. (louange fade) insipid compliments. Dire des — à une femme, to pay insipid compliments to a woman.

FAGOT, fah-go, sm. (Lat. fagot) 1 fagot. Un cent de —, a hundred fagots. — s de sarment, fagots of vine-branches. pop. L'âme d'un —, small sticks of a fagot. Prendre un air de —, to warm one's self with a fagot. prov. fig. C'est un — d'épines, on ne sait par où le prendre, he is like a bundle of thorns, one does not know where to have him; || he is like a thistle, there is no touching him. fig. Il y a — s et — s, all men are not alike: || things of the same name differ in quality. fig. Cet homme sent le —, man smells of the fagot; is suspected of heresy. fig. Cet écrit, these verses are heretical. fig. Conter des —, faire des —, to tell idle stories. Être fait, être habillé comme un —, to be frightfully dressed. 2 tech. bundle. Futailles en —, casks taken to pieces.

FAGOTAGE, fag-o-tahz, sm. 1 fagot-making. 2 (petit bois) brush-wood.

FAGOTE, ppa. of FAGOTER, feu. — E, fig. Voilà un homme bien — ! what a fright of a man ! Comme le voilà — ! what a figure he is !

FAGOTER, fag-o-tay, va. 1 to make up into fagots. 2 fig. (mal arranger) to bundle up. Qui a fagoté cela aussi ? who banded that up so ? 3 fig. (particulier) (habiller mal et avec mauvais goût) to dress frightfully. Est-il permis de — un enfant de la soif d'un chiot ? how could anybody make such a fright of a child ?

SE FAGOTER, vr. 2 fig. to dress one's self frightfully, to make a figure, a fright of one's self.

FAGOTEUR, fag-o-tuhr, sm. 1 fagot-maker. 2 fig. bungler, scribbler (de chansons, de romans, of songs, of novels).

FAGOTIN, fag-o-tang, sm. 1 monkey dressed up. 2 (by extension) valet d'opéra merry-Andrew, Jack-pudding. fig. C'est un —, he is a sorry jucker.

FAIBLE, faybl', adj. mf. 1 weak, feeble, faint. Voix —, weak, faint voice. Son pouls est très —, his pulse is very feeble. Avoir l'estomac —, la poitrine —, to have a weak stomach, a delicate chest. Je me sens encore bien —, I feel very weak still. Ce cheval est trop —, a horse is too weak. Plus — de reins, his loins are too weak. Plus — de reins, mais non pas moins glouton, weaker in the loins, but none the less gluttonous. La Font. fig. Avoir les reins —, to be unequal to the task. Dans un âge —, in tender age, in infancy. Un sexe — et timide, a weak and timid sex. 2 (des facultés intellectuelles, of intellect) weak, feeble. Notre — raison, our feeble reason. Avoir une tête —, le jugement —, intelligence —, to be weak-headed, weak-minded, of a weak intellect. Il a la mémoire très —, he has a very treacherous memory. 3 fig. (qui manque de ressources, de puissance, etc.) weak, feeble, deficient. Un état — et pauvre, a poor and feeble State. L'ennemi était plus — que nous, the enemy was weaker than we. Une armée — en artillerie, an army deficient in artillery. 4 fig. (dépourvu de talent) feeble. — C'est un écrivain — et un homme — he is a feeble and cold writer. Un écolier qui est — en histoire, a poor scholar in history. 5 (des ouvrages, de l'esprit ou de l'art) feeble, weak. Le style est la partie — de cet ouvrage, the style is the weak side of that work. Des vers —, feeble verses. Un ouvrage — de raisonnement, — de style, a work feeble as to the reasoning, the style. Un tableau — de couleur, de dessin, a painting weak in colour, in drawing. (by analogy) Voilà une — raison, an — raisonnement, un — argument, une — défense, that is a weak reason, weak reasoning, a weak argument, a weak defence. 6 fig. (qui manque de force morale) weak, indulgent. Cette mère est bien — pour ses enfants, that mother is very weak for her children. Ce bon mais — monarch, that good but weak monarch. Une âme — a weak soul. J.-J. Rouss. Une imagination sensible et, a sensitive and weak imagination. Volt. C'est un esprit —, une âme —, un cœur —, he is weak-minded, faint-hearted. C'est un homme — de caractère, he is a poor-spirited man, a milkop. scrip. L'esprit est prompt et la chair est —, the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. 7 (qui n'a pas assez de grosseur, d'épaisseur) weak. Les branches les plus — d'un arbre, the weakest branches of a tree. Ce lien est trop —, this band is too weak. La lame de cette épée est beaucoup trop —, the blade of this sword is far too weak. 8 (particul.) (d'un poste) weak. Le côté le plus — de la place, the weakest side of the place. fig. Le côté — d'une chose, the weak part of a thing. fig. Le côté — d'une personne, the weak side, the blind side of a person. Attaquer quelqu'un par son côté —, to attack a person on his weak side. Trouver, connaître le côté — d'une personne, to discover, to know the weak side of a person. Le grec est son côté —, he is deficient in Greek. 9 (peu d'un genre) small, weak, little, slender, slight, faint. Une — quantité, a small quantity. De — secours, little assistance. Volt. Un très-revenu, a very slender income. Volt. À la — leur d'une lumière éloignée, by the feeble glimmering of a distant light. J.-J. Rouss. Un son —, a faint sound. Ce café, ce thé, ce vin est —, this coffee, this tea, this wine is weak. Une — résistance, a slight resistance. Autant que mes — connaissances me permettent d'en juger, as far as my limited knowledge allows me to judge. Cela est d'un — secours, d'un — soulagement, that affords slight assistance, small relief. Cette aventure est une — consolation pour, this adventure is a small consolation for. D'Alemb. Entre la mort et la vie, il n'y a souvent qu'une nuance si —, between death and life, there is often but so faint a shade. Buff. Il ne m'en reste qu'un — souvenir, I have but a faint recollection of it. Monnaie —, light money. Poids —, light weight. 10 naot. Bâtement —, weak vessel.

FAIBLE, sm. 1 (toute personne faible) weak person. Protéger le — contre le fort, to protect the weak against the strong. Elle crut qu'il y avait peu d'honneur à humilier les —, she thought there was little honour in humbling the weak. Volt. 2 (ce qu'il y a de moins fort, dans une chose) weak part. Le — d'une machine, d'une poutre, d'une solive, the weak part of a machine, of a beam, of a joist. Le — d'une place, the weak side of a place. Franc. Le — d'une épée, the small of a sword. 3 fig. (ce qu'il y a de déficient en quelque chose) weak side, weak point. Voilà le — de la cause, that is the weak side of the case. Connaître le fort et le — d'une affaire, to know the ins and outs of an affair. 4 fig. (principal défaut) weak side, blind side, foible, weak point. C'est son — que le jeu, gaming is his weak side. T. touchait à l'un des — du petit abbé, T. touched one of the weak sides of the little abbot. St-B. Le comte d'O. avait un — que je ne dévorais pas infructueusement, the count of O. had a weak side, the discovery of which was not unprofitable to me. Le Sage. C'était de tous temps un des — du matchal, this had ever been one of the marshal's weak sides. St-B. Prendre quelqu'un par son —, to take a person by his weak side. Je confesse mon —, I own my weakness. Mol. Avoir du —, un — pour quelqu'un, to be partial to a person. Il a un — déclaré pour les S., he has an open partiality for the S. St-B. Tout le monde a naturellement un grand — pour vous, everybody is naturally very partial to you. Le Sage. 5 Du fort au —, one with another. Le fort portait le —, one with another.

FAIBLEMENT, fay-bloh-mang, adv. feebly, weakly, faintly, slightly.

FAIBLESSE, fay-blays, sf. 1 (débilité) weakness, feebleness. — des jambes, weakness in the legs. — de vue, weakness of sight. — des reins, weakness in the loins. Le sentiment de leur — les avait rendus malheureux, the consciousness of their weakness had rendered them unhappy. Barth. La — d'âge, the weakness of age. 2 (de l'intelligence, of intellect) weakness. (by analogy) La — d'un système, the weakness of a system; d'où preuve, d'un argument, d'un raisonnement, of a proof, of an argument, of a reasoning. 3 (défaillance) fainting fit, swoon. Il l'a pris une —, he had a fainting fit. Tomber en —, to fall into a fainting fit, to faint, to swoon away. 4 (manque de puissance) weakness. Cette œuvre est au-dessus de la — humaine, that work is not to be performed by human weakness. La — de l'ennemi nous était connue, we were aware of the weakness of the enemy. La — d'un parti, the weakness of a party. 5 fig. (des productions de l'esprit ou de l'art) weakness. Une grande — de conception, a great weakness of conception; d'exécution, of execution; de style, of style. 6 fig. (excès d'indulgence) weakness. Ce père est d'une — inexcusable, that father's partiality is inexcusable. J'eus la — d'écouter votre fils et de l'aider à vous tromper, I was so weak as to give ear to your son and to help him in deceiving you. Le Sage. Montrer de la —, to show weakness. Quelle — à moi d'en croire un furieux! what weakness it was on my part to believe a madman! Rac. Il a une — de femme, he is as weak as a woman. (by analogy) — de caractère, softness of temper. — d'âme, d'esprit, weakness of soul, of mind. — de cœur, de courage, faint-heartedness. Avoir de la — pour quelqu'un, St-Faible, subst. Il faut excuser la — d'une mère pour ses enfants, one must excuse a mother's partiality towards her children. 7 fig. (défaut de raison) weakness, frailty, foible, failing. Les — de l'humanité, the weaknesses of humanity. Vous êtes trop bon pour ne pas vous prêter à mes —, you are too kind not to excuse my failings. Volt. Les — du cœur, tender weaknesses. 8 (manque de grosseur, d'épaisseur, etc.) weakness. La — d'une poutre, d'un pilier, the weakness of a beam, of a pillar; d'un ressort, of a spring; d'un lieu, of a band; d'une digue, of a dike. 9 fig. (d'une chose peu considérable en son genre) weakness, smallness, slenderness. Malgré la — du nombre ils voulurent combattre, in spite of the smallness of their number they resolved to fight. La — de ses ressources, de ses revenus, the slenderness of his resources, of his income. La — de nos connaissances, the narrow limits of our knowledge. La — de son zèle, de son amitié, the lukewarmness of his zeal, of his friendship.

FAIBLIR, fay-bleer, vn. 1 to grow weak, feeble, to give way, to yield. Ce vin faiblit, this wine is getting weak. Le vent faiblit, the wind falls, abates. Le vigneur de sa plume ne faiblit jamais, his pen never loses anything of its vigour. St-B. Sa muse n'est plus la même, elle faiblit, his muse is no longer the same, it is getting weak. Cette femme vertueuse n'avait pas faibli dans ses devoirs, that strong-minded woman had not deviated from the path of duty. Lamart. On l'accusait d'avoir faibli dans cette rude journée, he was accused of having given signs of weakness in that arduous day. St-B. Il a résisté longtemps, mais il commence à —, he has resisted a long time, but he is beginning to give way. 2 mil. La première ligne des ennemis commençait à —, the first line of the enemy began to give way.

FAIENCE, fab-yangs, sf. (It.) crockery, earthenware, delft, delft-ware.

FAÏENCERIE, fab-yangs-ree, sf. 4 (établissement) pottery. 2 (marchandise) crockery, earthenware.

FAÏENCIER, fab-yang-syay, sm. fcm. FAÏENCIER, glazeman, potter, potwoman.

FAILLANT, fab-yang, ppr. of FAILLIR, adj. m. 1 jour —, at the close of day.

FAILLIR, fab-yang, v. 1 (se) to come in the place of him that is first out.

FAILLI, fab-yee, ppa. of FAILLIR, fem. —, 1 obsol. Dans quelques jours cette affaire sera faite ou —, in a few days this affair will be made or morred. 2 (qui a fait faillite) who has failed. Commerçant —, a tradesman who has failed. 3 sm. bankrupt.

FAILLIBILITÉ, fab-yee-be-le-ty, sf. fallibility.

FAILLIBLE, fab-yeebl', adj. mf. fallible. Nous sommes tous —, we are all liable to err. Un être — et borné, a fallible narrow-minded being.

FAILLIR, fab-yee, vn. irreg. JE FAUX, TU FAUX, IL FAUT, NOUS FAILLONS, VOUS FAILLER, ILS FAILLENT; JE FAILLAIS; JE FAILLIS; JE FAUDRAI, (Lat. fallere) 1 (faire quelque chose contre son devoir, contre les lois) to err, to offend, to transgress. Il est dans notre nature de —, it is in our nature to err, to fail, to do wrong. Quand le bras a failli, on en punit la tête, when the arm has offended, the head is punished. Cora. Pour empêcher l'homme de —, il ne faut pas détruire sa liberté, man's liberty must not be destroyed to prevent him from going astray. Cons. L'intention la plus pure peut quelquefois — par le résultat, the best intention may sometimes err in the result. S'il venait à — dans son entreprise, if he was to fail in his projects. Aug. Tb. 2 (errer) to mistake, to be mistaken, to err. — lourdement, to make a gross blunder. Les plus doctes sont sujets à —, the most learned are liable to error. 3 (céder, manquer) to give way, to fail. Cet édifice a failli par le pied, that building gave way at the foot. Ce cheval commence à — par les jambes, that horse's legs are beginning to fail him. Cet ami ne lui faudra pas de besoin, that friend will not fail him in case of need. Sentant son cœur —, elle baissa la tête et se mit à pleurer, feeling her heart fail her, she hung down her head and began to weep. C. Del. Son courage lui faillit bientôt, his courage soon failed him. Saint. Le cœur me faut, I feel ready to faint. 4 obsol. (manquer à exécuter, à faire) to fail. J'irai la saisir —, I will go thither without fail. 5 (manquer de, être sur le point de) to be near, to have like (to), to be well nigh. J'ai failli de tomber, à tomber, I was very near falling. Il faillit à être ministre, he was very near being a minister. Ce when qui faillit de nous arriver, à nous arriver, that misfortune which had very nearly happened to us. (impers.) Il faillit de nous arriver un grand malheur, a great misfortune had well nigh happened to us. 6 (sans la préposition, without the prep.) to be near. J'ai failli recevoir un coup de pistolet, I escaped receiving a pistol shot. Jacq. Elle (Jeanne d'Arc) fit une sortie et faillit surprendre les assiégés, she made a sally and had nearly surprised the besiegers. Mich. Une confiance qui faillit être trompée, a confidence that had well nigh been deceived. Nod. Cette fantaisie faillit lui coûter cher, that fancy had like to have cost her dear. Ab. Le capitaine faillit renverser T., the captain was very near throwing down T. Saint. J'ai failli mourir. I was nearly to die, I had like to have died. Il faillit être ministre, he was very near being a minister. L'accident qui faillit nous arriver, the accident that had nearly happened to us. (impers.) Il a failli nous arriver un grand malheur, a great misfortune nearly happened to us. T com. (faire faillie) to break, to fail, to be a bankrupt.

FAILLITE, fai-yeet, sf. com. failure, bankruptcy. Ce marchand, cette société a fait —; that tradesman, that society has failed. Etre en —, en état de —, to fail, to have failed. L'ouverture d'une —, docket. Le syndic d'une —, the assignee of a bankruptcy. Le passif, l'actif d'une —, the liabilities, the assets of a bankruptcy.

FAIM, fang, sf. (Lat. famēs) I hunger. Avoir grand —, to be very hungry. Cela fait passer la —, that beguiles hunger. La — a contrainst les assiégés de se rendre, hunger obliged the besieged to surrender. L'armée souffrait déjà de la —, the army already suffered from hunger. Mich. Mourir de —, to die of hunger; || fig. to starve. Il était dans l'abondance, et maintenant il meurt de —, he rolled in plenty, and now he is starving. (substantif. and disparagingly) C'est un meurtre le —, he is a starving, a starving wretch. (hyperb.) Mourir de —, to be extremely hungry. Donnez-moi à manger, je meurs de —, give me something to eat, for I am as hungry as a horse. — canine, See canine. fig. Crier à la —, to be ravenously hungry. prov. fig. C'est la — qui épouse le soldat, it is one beggar marrying another. La — chasse le loup hors du bois, fait sortir le loup du bois, hunger will break through stone walls. 2 fig. hunger, thirst. La — insatiable des richesses, des bonheurs, the insatiable thirst for riches, honours. Je n'avais — que de dormir, all I longed for was sleep. Ab.

FAIM-VALLE, sf. yet, hungry-evil.

FAINE, fayn, sf. (Lat. fāginus) bot. beech-mast, beech-nut. De l'huile de —, beech-oil.

FAINEANT, fay-nay-ang, adj. m. fem. — a, idle, lazy, slothful. Fr. hist. Rois —s, sly, sly kings. 2 (substantif.) idle, lazy person, sluggard, idler, drone. Un — de premier ordre, a first rate idler. De Bross.

FAINEANTER, fay-nay-ang-tay, vn. to idle. Demeurer — to remain idling. Il a fait tout le jour que —, he has idled away the whole day.

FAINEANTISE, fay-nay-ang-tiz, sf. d'indolence, laziness, sloth, slothfulness, sluggishness. Si vous savez comme la — me possède, if you knew how lazy I get. De Bross.

FAIRE, fayr, va. irreg. FAISANT; FAIT; IE FAIS, TO FAIS, IL FAIT, NOUS FAISONS, VOUS FAITES, ILS FONT; JE FAISAIS; JE FIS; JE FERAIS; JE FERAIS; FAIS; QUE JE FASSE; QUE JE FISSE. (Lat. facere) 4 (régler, engendrer, former, produire) to make, to create. Dieu a fait le ciel et la terre, God made heaven and earth. Non, le Dieu qui m'a fait, ne m'a point fait en vain, no, the God who made me, did not make me in vain. Volt. Les merveilles que Dieu a faites, the wonders that God has made. La nature est admirable dans tout ce qu'elle fait, nature is admirable in all her works. Manger mon fils l'ai-je fait à dessein qu'il s'assouvise un jour à l'aim? eat my son! have I made him that he should one day be devoured by you? La Font. (by extension) C'est un diu qui nous a fait ces loix, it is to a god we owe this life of leisure. (des choses, of things) La mer lui a fait de beaux revenus, the sea brought him in a fine income.

Une toile tendue sur on châtis fait de l'ombre aux soldats, a piece of canvas stretched on a frame procures a little shade to the soldiers. Th. Gaut. La peau du rhinocéros fait le cuir le meilleur, the skin of the rhinoceros makes the best leather. Buff. J'ai la guerre vous fit pour la bataille, war made you for the battle. V. Hag. L'enfant songeur fait un homme penseur, a dreaming child makes a thinking man. V. Hug. La pensée comme Dieu fait le monde à son image, thought like God creates the world in its own image. Lamart. Cette philosophie ne fit que des sceptiques au lieu de — des croyants, this philosophy created only sceptics instead of believers. Lamart. C'est la religion qui fait les grandes âmes, it is religion which forms great souls. Mass. prov. Qui a fait l'une a fait l'autre, they are both cast in the same mould.

2 (fabriquer, confectionner) to fabricate, to make, to construct. — un bâtiment, to build a vessel. — une machine, to construct a machine. — du pain, to make bread. — un habit, to make a coat. Les alouettes font leur nid dans les blés, larks build their nests in the corn. La Font. — du drap, de la toile, de la tapisserie, to make cloth, linen, tapestry. Une araignée qui fait sa toile, a spider that spins its web. On fait bien une chose on en veut — une autre, when a person does one thing well, he wishes to try another. Etien. (by extension) Les murailles de C. telles que le temps et les tremblements de terre les ont faites, the walls of C. such as time and earthquakes have left them standing. Th. Gaut. fig. Faisant un manteau d'ar à son ambition, covering his ambition under a golden cloak. Mass.

3 (des œuvres de l'esprit, of literary works) to make, to compose, to write. Faire un traité sur une matière, to compose a treatise on a matter. C'est décidément le seul livre qui reste à —, it is decidedly the only book that is not yet written. Nod. J'ai promis l'histoire de P., je la ferai un jour, I have promised the history of P., I will write it one of these days. Nod. — un récit, une description, to give an account, a description. Elle aimait les vers, elle en faisait et s'en faisait — par les poètes à ses pages, she was fond of poetry, she composed verses and had others made for her by the poets in her pay. St-B. — un acte, un exploit, un procès-verbal, to draw up a deed, a writ, an official report.

4 (exécuter, effectuer) to make, to execute, to perform, to work, to accomplish. Le ciel fit un miracle en sa faveur, Heaven wrought a miracle in his favour. L. ne fit qu'un bond de W. à L., L. started from W. and never stopped till he reached L. Méry. Elle faisait comme cela des grands bras, she was agitating her arms, thus. Beaum. Il voulait — un mouvement pour m'appeler, he tried to beckon to me. Nod. Son bras pendant quinze ans fit signe à la victoire, for fifteen years his arm beckoned to victory. St-B. Vous pouvez juger le havre they firent, you may guess the haven they made. Fior. Avant de — grâce vous me devez justice, before pardoning you owe me justice. Beaum. Il le croit et déjà lui fait fête, he believes him and already gives him a kind reception. La Font. J'étais entouré de moines qui n'auraient point fait de quartier, I was surrounded by monks who would have given no quarter. Nod. Vous avez fait des révolutions contre toutes les lois, you have made revolutions against all laws. Nod. Je ne vous bais pas, vous ne m'avez jamais rien fait, I do not hate you, you never did me any harm. Ab. C'est J. B. qui n'a jamais fait de mal à personne, it is J. B. who never did anything to harm any body. Nod. Vous leur fîtes, seigneur, en les croquant, beaucoup d'honneur, it was great honour you did them, my Lord, by eating them. La Font. Elle faisait force aumônes, she gave a great deal of alms. St-B. Jamais il n'osera s'y opposer. Non, mais M. osera le —, but M. will never dare to object. Nod. M. will. Beaum. Je fais quatre repas et je lis sans lunettes, I make four meals and I read without spectacles. Regn. Ces deux hommes avaient fait le même rêve, those two men had both dreamed the same dream. Nod. — la quête, to collect alms. Il n'y a rien à moi, je ne fais pas pour votre service, I would do anything in the world to serve you. Mol. Elle fit ce que bien peu de personnes eussent fait, elle ne lut pas, she did what very few women would have done, she made no opposition. St-B. Comme elle faisait fi de la vie, il lui en prêchait le soin et l'amour, as she despised life, he exhorted her to cherish and love it. St-B. Que fait l'homme ici-bas? un peu de bruit, what does man do here? below? — he makes a little noise. V. Hug. Le mari fait ses bies, the husband is seeing his harvest home. G. De. prov. fig. — ses orges, — bien ses orges, to feather one's nest. Ce que j'ai fait, Aboer, j'ai cru le devoir —, what I did, A., I thought it my duty to do. Rac. Dien fit bien ce qu'il fit, God did well what he did. La Font. Vous serez étourdi de tous les honneurs qu'on vous y fera, all the honours paid you will turn your head. M-me de Sév. A onze heures, elle me fit signe de m'en aller, at eleven o'clock, she made signs to me that I should leave. M-me de Sév. Qu'avez-vous fait pour tant de biens? what have you done in return for so many benefits? Beaum. Ce qu'il a fait, il l'a fait pour me plaire, what he did, he did to please me. Corn. Qui ne les a point faites ces réflexions? who has not made those reflections? Chén. Ce que tu fais, qui jamais le fera? who ever will do what you are doing? Moss. Quelque chose qu'ils fassent, fassions, whatever choice we may make. Méria. — la moisson, the vendange, le toin, to get in the harvest, to gather in the grapes, to make hay. — une prière, la prière, to say one's prayers. Je voudrais bien le —, une demande, I wish to request something of you. Nuss. — la lecture d'un discours, to read a speech. — une niche, to play a trick. — un barbarisme, un solecisme, to commit a barbarism, a solecism. — une incartade, une folie, un coup de tête, to play a freak, to do an act of madness, to act rashly.

(gallicisms) — usage, to make use. — parade, to make a parade, a show. Si vous faites mine seulement de, if you only offer to. Beaum. Nous ferez-vous un mot à la faveur de nous dire, but will you at least do us the favour of telling us. Beaum. Allant s'asseoir de l'autre côté de la table pour — face à son mari, going to sit down on the other side of the table to face her husband. Saint. Faisons tant pour nous rendre aimables, let us do our best to appear amiable. Montesq. Il le voit en état de — figure dans les troupes, he enabled him to make a figure among the troops. Le duc de B. ne faisait aucun compte du mauvais vouloir du roi, the duke of B. made no account of the ill-will of the king Bar. — bonne contenance, to put a good face on the matter. — une résistance, to make a resistance. — bonneur, to do honour. Que je fasse si maigre chère, I, I eat such scanty food. La Font. Elle croit qu'il semblait de croire que je ne valais son argent, she believed as he pretended to believe that I had stolen her money. Le Sage. — les yeux doux, les doux yeux, to look sweet upon a person. Sans — semblait de rien, je vais docement, without seeming to take any notice of anything, I go gently. Beaum. — patte de velours, to draw in one's claws, to put on one's gloves. — bonne mine, bon visage à quelqu'un, to look sweet on a person. — mauvaise mine, grise mine, to look sour, coldly.

(des choses, of things) to do, to be. En R. les romans de M. de Balzac faisaient loi, in R. the novels of B. were law. S^{te}-B. L'adversité fit dans un seul moment ce que tant de leçons n'avaient pu —, adversity did in a single moment what so many lessons had not been able to do. Flor. La peste faisait aux animaux la guerre, the plague made war on the animals. La Font. Les griefs dont cet écrit fait foi, the grievances granted by this writing, G. Del. L'argent que je dissipe fait fuir en vingt cabales. the money I squander is wanted in twenty hotels. Nod. La mine fit explosion, the mine exploded. Un volcan qui fait irruption, a volcano that breaks out. Cet ouvrage fait autorité, that work is an authority. Cet événement fera époque dans notre histoire, this event will mark an era in our history. Cette muraille fait la coque, this wall makes a bend. Ce tableau fait pendant à tel autre, this painting is the fellow to that one. — saillie, to jut out, to project. — des plis, to crease. M'appuyant sur S. et faisant le gros dos, leaning on S. and assuming an air of consequence. Le Sage. — des sienes, to play one's pranks. Vous avez fait des vôtres, you have been at your tricks. — quelque chose pour quelqu'un, to do something for a person. Maintenant qu'il est en place, il fera sans doute quelque chose pour sa famille, now he has a situation, he will no doubt do something for his family. (by analogy) La nature a tout fait pour lui, nature has showered all her gifts upon him. N'en rien —, to do nothing of the sort. Vous avez beau dire, je n'en ferai rien, it is in vain for you to talk, I will do nothing of the kind.

(Elliptic.) Se laisser —, to let a person do what he pleases with one. On se jeta sur lui pour le battre, il se laissa —, they fell upon him to beat him, he offered no resistance.

(Jeux de cartes, at cards) — les cartes, to gain the odd trick (at piquet). — une levée, to make a trick. — la main, — les mains, to make the trick. (au billard, at billiards) — une bille au même, to hole a ball. — un carambolage, to make a cannon. (à divers jeux, at sundry games) — tout de points, to mark so many points. — le jeu, to lay down the stakes

5 suit. (particul.) — faction, to mount guard. — la garde, to be on duty. — le guet, to keep watch. Ainsi raisonnait le lièvre, et cependant faisait le guet, the hare reasoned thus, and yet kept a sharp look-out. La Font. — la route, to go the round, to make one's round. — la revue d'une armée, to pass a review. naut. — le quart, to keep the watch, to be upon the watch.

6 (aux yeux, an acception plus générale que le n^o 4, in a wider sense than the n^o 4) to do. — no travail, to do a work. Trois jeunes Français qui faisaient de l'art et portaient de longs cheveux, three young Frenchmen who dabbled in the fine arts and wore long hair. Mery. — sa besogne, to do one's work. Il fait plus de besogne en une heure qu'un autre en deux, he does more work in one hour than another in two. Il est toute la journée à ne rien —, he spends the whole day in doing nothing. Il ne peut plus rien —, he can no longer do anything. Il n'a rien fait de toute la journée, he has done nothing all day. Qu'avez-vous fait? comment passez-vous votre temps? what have you done? how do you spend your time? Les chiffres ici! je croyais qu'on n'en faisait que chez nous, figures here! I thought they were only to be seen with us. Ab Tu ne sais rien à

— pour nous, you know of nothing for us. Ab. Moi-même que fais-je venant ici m'asseoir, what am I doing myself in sitting here? Muss. Que veux-tu qu'on fasse quand on est riche et oisif? what will you have one do when one is rich and idle? Mery. Je ne l'ai pas fait exprès, I did not do it on purpose. Pius j'en fais, moins je réussis, the more I do, the less I succeed. Flor. C'est ce que nous faisons jour et nuit, soir et matin et nous espérons que vous en ferez autant que nous, that is what we do day and night, evening and morning and we hope you will do the same. Mame de Sév. B. faisais des efforts surhumains pour échapper son désespoir, B. made superhuman efforts to conceal his despair. Merlim. Comble-moi cette onnière; as-tu fait? fill up that rut; have you done? La Font. N. ne savait trop que —, N. did not very well know what to do. Merim. — tout ce qu'on peut, to do all one can, to do one's utmost. C'est un homme qui ne trouve rien de difficile à —, he is a man who sees difficulties in nothing. Tout ce qu'il fait, il le fait bien, whatever he does, he does well. Il est tout entier à ce qu'il fait, what he does he does with a will. Dès que j'aurai fait, je suis à vous, as soon as I have done, I am at your disposal. La politique, l'intrigue ne fasse qui voudra, let them who will meddle with politics and intrigue. Beauu. Je n'ai rien à —, I have nothing to do. Que fait-il à la campagne? what is he doing in the country? J'ai tant de choses à — sur le chemin, I have so many things to do on the way. Nod. J'ai fort à — à le diriger, I have much difficulty in directing him. S'il restait seulement quelque chose à —, if there only remained something to be done. C'est un homme à tout —, he is fit for everything, he is capable of any and every thing. Je ne puis, je ne sais que — à cela, I cannot help that. Ne — que, to do but, only. Il ne fait que ce qu'on lui dit, he does only what he is told. Je ne fais ici qu'obéir, I am here only to obey; || Ne — que, to do nothing but. Il ne fait que jouer, qu'étudier, que dormir, qu'aller et venir, he does nothing but play, study, sleep, come and go; || Ne faire que croûter et embellir, SE embellir. || Ne — que, to do but, Je ne fis que le toucher et il tomba, I did but touch him, and he fell. Il n'a fait que paraître et disparaître, he did but appear and disappear. Il ne fit qu'entrer et sortir, he did but come in and go out again. Attendez-moi, je ne fais qu'aller et revenir, wait for me, I shall be back in a moment. || Ne — que de sortir, que d'arriver, que de s'éveiller, etc., to have just gone out, arrived, awakened up, etc.

7 (causer, attirer, exciter) to do, to cause, to produce. Ce remède n'a fait beaucoup de bien, this remedy has done me a great deal of good. Elle éraigait de — mal au blessé, she was afraid of hurting the wounded man. Merim. Les coups de lance ne peuvent — qu'un léger bles-sure au bateau, the blows with the lance cannot do much harm to the bull. Merim. Cela lui a fait de grands maux, de grandes douleurs, that brought on him great evils, great sorrows. Le paysier d'un blanc neigeux me fait horreur, I hold snowy-white paper in horror. Nod. Ses discours laissaient l'effet qu'il en attendait, his speech produced the effect he expected. Le Sage. Le Rhône me fait une peur étrange, the Rhone inspires me with a strange fear. M^{me} de Sév. Les longs ouvrages me font peur, long works frighten me. La Font. Forcé gens font du bruit en France, many people make a noise in F. La Font. Toutes vos menaces ne feront de bien, all your threats will be of no avail. Nod. Ce qui lui fit le plus d'honneur parut les marchands, ce fut, what did him the most honour among trade-men, was. Merim. — secie, to separate one's self from others, to start a new sect. Cela fait mal à voir, it hurts one to see that. J'ai craint que vous ne fussiez du tort à notre cause, I was afraid you would injure our cause. Merim. La lecture fait à l'esprit ce que, reading is to the mind what. S^{te}-B. Il ne fait de peine, de la peine à personne, he hurts the feelings of nobody. Cela lui a fait une affaire dans le monde, lui a fait on procès, une querelle, lui a fait beaucoup d'ennemis, that has brought him into a scrape in society, has brought on him a lawsuit, a quarrel, has raised him many enemies. — du chagrin, — peine, to grieve. — pitié, to move, to raise pity. Cette nouvelle a fait sensation dans le public, it news caused a sensation in the public. Je m'étais bien sûr que mon départ ferait du bruit, I suspected my departure would create a sensation. Montesq. (by analogy) — des jaloux, des mécontents, to create envy, discontent. — des beaux, to make happy people. fig. Jam. Cela ne fait ni froid ni chaud, it is all the same to him; || that will do neither good nor harm. prov. fig. — la pluie et le beau temps, to dispose of every thing.

8 (mettre en pratique) to do, to perform, to discharge. — ce que Dieu ordonne, to do what God ordains. Faites votre devoir et laissez — aux dieux, do your duty and leave the rest to the gods. Corn. — ses Pâques, to receive the sacrament at Easter. — gros, to eat meat. — maigre, to abstain from meat. — diète, to diet. — les Rois, to keep Twelfth-day.

9 (accomplir, achever) to perform, to go through. — la quarantaine, to perform quarantine. — son cours de droit, de médecine, to study law, physic. — son apprentissage, to learn one's trade, to serve one's time. — un noviciat, to perform one's novitiate. — une neuvaine, to perform a nine days' devotion.

10 (des fonctions, des professions, etc., of functions, of professions) to exercise, to perform. — profession d'armes, to be a soldier. — la médecine, to be a doctor. — les fonctions de maître des cérémonies, to perform the office of master of ceremonies. — le commerce, la banque, la commission, to be a tradesman, a banker, a commission-agent. — un métier, to follow a trade. cath. rel. — le diacre, le sous-diacre, to perform the office of a deacon, of a subdeacon. peint. — l'histoire, le portrait, — les animaux, to be an historical painter, a portrait-painter, a painter of animals.

11 (de ce qui s'exécute avec mouvement) to do, to make, to perform. Je n'aurai qu'en pas à — pour être aux Champs-Élysées, I shall have only a step to take to be in the Champs-Élysées. Balz. Je fais six pas dans tous les sens. I fit six steps in every direction. Lamart. Il fit deux tours dans le préau en agitant sa canne, he went round the yard twice agitating his stick. Dail. — une lièvre à pied, to walk a league. — route, to make a road. Deux fois je fis fausse route en inclinant sur le côté, I mistook twice by bearing too much on one side. Ab. — voile pour un endroit, vers un endroit, to sail towards a place. — une course, un voyage, to make a roynge. Notre bâtiment faisait tant de nœuds à l'heure, our vessel made so many knots an hour. Les astres font leur cours, the stars run their appointed course. La Font. naut. — le nord, — le sud, to stand to the northward, to the southward. — côte, Sec. côte. fig. — son chemin, See CEMIN. — beaucoup de progrès dans ses études, to make much progress in one's studies. Le mal fait des progrès, the evil goes on ground.

12 (à poser, arranger) to make, to make up. Elle filait, elle faisait le ménage comme font les autres filées, she span, she did the household-work like other young girls. Nich. — an lit, to make a bed. — sa toilette, to dress. — ses ongles, se — les ongles, to pare one's nails. — le poil, le criu de des chevoaz, to trim, to clip horses. — des terres, to work lands. — les vignes, to dress the vines.

13 (amasser) to procure, to get, to make up. Je tacherai de vous — quelque argent, I will try and get some money for you. — des provisions, — ses provisions, to lay in provisions. naat. — du bois, de l'eau, to take in wood, fresh water.

14 (gagner, acquérir) to make, to get. — une bonne recette, to make a good receipt. Ne pas — ses frais, not to cover one's expenses. — une grande fortune, to make a large fortune. (by analogy) — une bonne maison, to form a good house.

15 (de troupes, of troops) to raise. absol. — des hommes, to raise men. absol. — un régiment, to raise a regiment. — des recrues, to make recruits. (by analogy) — la maison d'un prince, d'un grand seigneur, to establish the household of a prince, of a great lord.

16 (théâtre) to act, to play. — un personnage, to act a part. — les ruis, les amoureux, to play the kings, the lovers. (by extension) — tel on tel personnage, to play such or such a part. Tandis que je faisais ce personnage, C. en jouait un autre, whilst I was playing this part, C. was playing another. Le Sage. Il crut qu'il fallait — un nouveau personnage, he thought it necessary to turn a new leaf. La Font. fig. — un sot personnage, un plat personnage, to play a silly part, an insipid part.

17 (by extension) (se donner des airs de) to pretend to be, to set up for, to play. — le grand seigneur, to put on a lordly air. — le dévot, to pretend to be pious. — le malade, to sham illness, to sham Abraham. — le mort, to pretend to be dead, to keep close. — le sourd, to pretend to be deaf, to turn a deaf ear. Mal en prend aux voleurs, he is the voleur, it turns out badly for petty thieves to play the robbers. La Font.

18 (affecter une qualité) to affect. — le généreux, le magnifique, to affect to be generous. — le gentil, to play the agreeable.

19 (se donner certains airs, prendre certaines manières) to play. Il veut — le maître ici, he wants to play the master here. — l'impudent, to give one's self impudent airs. Vous faites l'enfant; je vous dis qu'on le sait, you are foolish; I tell you they know it. Muss. — le difficile, to be very particular. — l'exigeant, to be unreasonable. Tandis que ce nigard fait le veau sur son âne, whilst the dolt lolls upon his ass. La Font.

20 (confectionner d'une certaine manière) to make. Il les a faits tous pareils, he made them all alike. Vous avez fait cela bien gros, bien long, bien mince, you have made that very big, very long, very thin.

21 (rendre, faire devenir) to make, to render, to convert. Il a fait son fils avocat, he made a barrister of his son. Te faisais mou roi, making you my king. Corn. Diantre vous eût faite ange, et Virgile deesse, Diantre would have made an angel of you, and Virgil a goddess. V. Hug. Les tribus de l'U. se feront prince un jour, the tribes of U. will one day make a prince of you. Muss. Le roi l'avait fait chevalier de la Légion d'honneur, the king had made him a knight of the Legion of honour. — quelqu'un son héritier, to make a person one's heir. Un enfant dont on ne peut rien —, a child that is unmanageable. Cette bohémienne qui en fait un bandit de brave soldat qu'il était, this gipsy girl who has changed this brave soldier as he was into a bandit. Merim. On a fait de cet ancien théâtre une salle de bal, that old theatre has been converted into a ball-room. — quelqu'un dupe, sa dupe, to make a person one's dupe. fig. Il m'offrit de — maison nette, he offered to turn away all his servants. Jacq. prov. On ne saurait — d'une buse un épervier, one cannot make a stilk pruce out of a sow's ear. prov. — de cent sous quatre livres, et de quatre livres rien, to bring one's noble to nimpence.

22 — de quelque chose une obligation, to make a thing a duty.

23 — ses délices d'une chose, to delight in a thing. Il fait toutes ses délices de l'étude, his whole delight is in study.

24 — gloire, — vanité, de quelque chose, to glory in, to take a pride in a thing. (by analogy) — un mérite de quelque chose à quelqu'un, to make a merit of a thing in a person.

25 (se servir de, employer) to do. bi. Calin, qu'as-tu fait de ton frère? Coin, what hast thou done with thy brother? Faites de cela ce que vous jugerez à propos, do what you think proper with that. Il ne sait que — de son temps, he does not know what to do with his time. Le frère de C. n'avait plus rien à — de la vie, the brother of C. had now nothing to live for. Chat. Il ne savait que — de sa coquetterie, he did not know how to look. N'annoncez que — de quelque chose, of quelque chose, not to want, to have no need, occasion for. Si vous n'avez que — de ce livre, prêtez-le-moi, if you can spare this book, lend it to me. Ce sont des bagatelles dont je n'ai que —, those are trifles I have no occasion for. Nous n'avions que — d'inviter personne, we had no occasion to invite anybody. Muss. Je n'ai que — de vous présentement, allez où vous voudrez, I don't want you now, go where you will. N'avez que —, to have nothing to do (with), not to care (for). Je n'ai que — de loi ni de ses visites, I do not care for him or his visits. N'avez que —, to have no need (of). Je n'ai que — de vos discours, I have no need of your discourse. fig. — ce qu'on veut de quelqu'un, to do what one will with a person. Ceux-là font tout ce qu'ils veulent des infortunés qui tombent entre leurs mains, these do all they please with the wretches that fall in their power. Nod. prov. fig. Faites-en des choux, des raves, make ducks and drakes of it.

26 (dire, prétendre) to give out. On le faisait mort, mais il se porte bien, they gave out he was dead, but he is in perfect health. On le fait riche, mais il ne l'est pas, he is said to be rich, but he is not.

27 (de marchandises, of goods) (demander tel prix) to sell, to charge for. Combien faites-vous cette étoffe-là? how much do you ask for that stuff? C'est une maison qu'on fait 500,000 fr., they ask 500,000 fr. for that house.

28 (accoutumer, habitude) to accustom, to inure. Les voyages l'ont fait à la fatigue, travelling has inured him to fatigue.

29 (former, façonner) to make, to form. Ce professeur fait de très-bons élèves, this professor makes very good pupils. Ce général a fait de bons officiers, this general has formed good officers. Les affaires font les hommes, business makes a man. fig. Echevins, etc., tout fait sa main, aldermen, etc., every one pockets all he can. La Font. prov. Maison faite et femme —, an old house and a young wife.

30 (composer, constituer) to make, to be, to make up. Deux et deux font quatre, two and two are four. Il vous en faut chercher cent de ma taille pour — un plat, you must look for a hundred of my size to make up a dish. La Font. L'éloge de ces dieux faisait les deux tiers de l'ouvrage, the poneyry of those gods filled up two thirds of that work. La Font. — société, to bear, to keep company. C'est le bonheur de vivre qui fait la gloire de mourir! death is glorious when it is the sacrifice of a happy life! V. Hug. Je ne ferai jamais qu'un misérable parasite, I shall never make anything but a sorry parasite. Muss. Nous faisons le sujet de leur conversation, we were the subject of their conversation. Le Sage. C'est la pensée qui fait l'homme, it is thought that makes the man. Chat. Qui fait l'oiseau? c'est le plumage, what makes the bird? it is its plumage. La Font. Des cois de rae qui feraient le bonheur d'un aquarelliste, street-corners which would delight a water-colour painter. Th. Gaut. Il fera un excellent ouvrier, he will make an excellent workman. La clarté fait le principal mérite de son style, clearness constitutes the principal merit of his style. La force du roi fait sa faiblesse, in the strength of the king lies his weakness. Montesq. Quelques pièces d'or font grand bien, a few pieces of gold do a great deal of good. Merim. Si la force faisait le droit, it might were right. J.-J. Rouss. Le crime fait la honte et non pas l'excuse, shame is in the crime, not in the scaffold. Corn. Les épisodes font corps essentiel avec le sujet, the episodes are an essential part of the subject. Nod. Ce fils fait toute la joie de sa mère, this son is his mother's joy. C'est le cœur qui fait tout, the heart is every thing. La Font. La paix fait nos souhaits, peace is the object of our wishes. La Font. prov. fig. L'habit ne fait pas le moine, it is not the cowl that makes the friar.

31 (importer, concourir) to be, to do, to make. Qu'est-ce que cela fait à la chose? what is that to the purpose? Qu'est-ce que cela fait à tout? what is that to him? Les arts ne font rien à la félicité de l'homme, the arts then go for nothing in the happiness of life? Chat. Que lui font ces faux biens qu'un faux orgueil enviet qui does he care about those false goods, the object of envy of a false pride? V. Hug. Que me fait à moi cette Troie où je cours? what do I care about Troy whether I am hastening? Rac. Que fait ce discours aux choses d'aujourd'hui? what has that discourse to do with the present circumstances? Mol. Que me font ces propos? what do I care for all that idle talk? Cela fait beaucoup plus qu'on en pense, that is more important than we imagine. Qu'est-ce que cela fait à l'imaginaire? what does that do there?

32 (suivi d'un autre verbe, followed by another verb) to make. Un remède qui fait soier, a remedy that brings on a perspiration. Fais-lui savoir promptement que, let him know immediately that. Beaum. Je vous ai fait rendre un billet à B., I contrived to send B. a letter. Beaum. Votre Grandeur permet aussi que je fasse valoir mes droits sur, your Highness also allows me to maintain my rights over. Beaum. Une chose qui fait crier miséricorde à tout le monde, a thing that excites the pity of every one. M^{me} de Sév. Les biographies le font mourir en odeur de sainteté en 1633, according to biographers he died in odour of sanctity in 1633. Nod. Oh! dit-il, j'en fais —, I take you m'en fait —, ah! I said he, I give as good as I take. La Font. Vous n'avez personne qui puisse vous — obtenir un solide emploi, you have nobody who can procure you a good situation. Le Sage. Elle me faisait prier de ne pas la voir, she sent to request me not to see her. Chat. Elle suivait avec des yeux pleins de sollicitude les mouvements qu'on faisait — à son fils, she followed with eyes full of anxiety every movement they made her son took. Chat. Assez de sois sans moi feront parler la ville, there are fools enough without me for the town to talk about. Boil. Ma loi, ce n'est pas vous qui nous le ferez voir, certainly it is not you who will show it us. Corn. Je te ferai bien me connaître avec de bons coups de bâton, a good cudgelling shall teach you to know me. Mol. — entrer, — sortir quelqu'un, to show a person in, ent. Vos scrupules font voir trop de délicatesses, you are too delicate in your scruples. La Font. Toutes mes pensées me faisaient mourir, all my thoughts drove me to despair. M^{me} de Sév. Il était bien juste que ce fat vous qui me fassiez rire après m'avoir fait pleurer, it was very just you should make me laugh after having made me cry. M^{me} de Sév. Le matin on nous avait fait — une courte prière, in the morning we were made to say a short prayer. Lamart. Un gros diamant brillait à son doigt, il le faisait jouer avec une certaine coquetterie, a large diamond shone on his finger, he displayed it with a sort of coquetry. Fa. Glus.

33 — que, to see that, to take care that. C'est à vous à — que rien ne manque, it is for you to see that nothing be wanting. Faites que je meure avant qu'il vous oublie, let me die before he forgets you. Rac. Le passage du Cranaïe, le dit qu'Alexandre se rendit maître des colonies grecques, the passage of the Cranaïa made Alexander master of the Greek colonies. Montesq. Vous, qui semez si bien, faites qu'on vous admire, you, who sows so well, show us something to be admired. Flor. C'est ce qui fait que je suis arrivé trop tard, that is why I arrived too late. Fasse le Ciel que, Heaven grant that. Pouvais-je — que cela n'arrivât pas? could I prevent that from happening? Faites, je vous prie, que cela soit bientôt terminée, pray, see that it be finished shortly. Nous ferons en sorte qu'il n'ait pas lieu de se plaindre, we will manage matters so as to leave them no room for complaint. — à savoir, to give notice.

34 Ne — que, see n° 6.
35 Ne — que, de, to have but just. See n° 6.

36 — à, — à manger, to cook. Il faut que j'aille voir on peu si ma bonne ménagère m'aura fait à souper, I must just go and see whether my good housewife has got my supper ready. Mol.

37 absol. (jeu) to deal. C'est à vous à —, it is your turn to deal.

FAIRE, vn. 4 (agir, opérer) to do — bien, to do well. — mal, to do ill. — à faire en cela comme vous auriez fait, in that he did as you would have done. J'en veux — à ma tête, il le lit et fit bien, I will follow my own bent, he did so, and did well. La Font. L'autre bête qui voulait en — à sa tête, the other animal who would have his own way. La Font. Vous êtes venu en Italie pour — comme les autres, you have come to Italy to be like every body else. Méry. Il a fait de son mieux, tout de son mieux, he has done his best. Vous n'auriez pas mieux fait, you would not have done better yourself. Il ferait mieux, je crois, de rester, I should think, he had better stay. Comment — ? what is to be done? Comment ferons-nous? what shall we do? Comment faites-vous pour vous porter si bien? how do you contrive to keep in such good health? C. Del. C'est ainsi qu'il fait de tout, that is his way with every thing. Laissez-le donc —, it shall be his to tire of embarras, let him alone, he will get out from scrape. Laissez-moi —, je veux qu'avant deux mois vous soyez capitaine, leave it to me, you shall be a captain before two months are over. Mérim. Que ne le laissez-t-on — ? why not let him act as he pleases? Laisse — le temps, ta vaillance et ton roi, leave the matter to time, to your bravery and to your king. Corn. — à qui mieux mieux, to try which should do best. Ayez soin qu'ils fassent un gens de cœur, see that they act courageously.

Corn. Il a tout fait, il a si bien fait qu'il en est venu à bout, he has left no stone unturned, he has managed matters so well that he has succeeded. Je crois — beaucoup de m'en pouvoir défendre. I think I do a great deal in resisting. Corn. Les grenouilles par leurs clamours firent tant que, the frogs by their clamour succeeded in. La Font. Sire rat accourut et fit tant par ses dents que, Mustard rat hastened and worked so well with his teeth that. La Font. Il fit tant des piels et des mains que, he exerted himself so that. La Font. Comment fait papa? il fait comme cela, how does papa do it? he does it in this way. Les beaux messieurs font comme cela, that is the way with fine gentlemen. Faisons tant que les ambassadeurs s'en aillent contents de nous, let us so order matters that the ambassadors may leave satisfied with us. Bar. Chacun était en disposition de bien —, every one was disposed to do his best. Mérim. Faites selon vos vœux, mon père, act up to your wishes, father. C. Del. Celui-ci s'excuse disant qu'il ferait que sage de garder le coin du feu, the latter begs to be excused, saying he would do wisely to keep to his chimney corner. La Font. Il vaut mieux — que dire, actions are better than words. Muss. — des armes, to fence. — d'une chose comme des choux de son jardin, to make quite free with a thing. — pour quelqu'un, to take the place of a person. C'est un tel qui fait pour moi lorsque je suis absent, it is So-and-so who takes my place when I am absent. C'est à — à lui, he is the person to have to do with. C'est à — à lui d'ordonner une fête, he is the very man to get up a fête. Avoir fort à —, to have a great deal to do, to have hard work. Avoir du savoir —, see savoir —. Prov. Comme il te fait, fais-lui, do to him as he does to you. 2 (avoir une influence, ou effet quelconque) to do, to tell. L'argent fait plus auprès de lui qu'aucune recommandation, money will tell more with him than any recommendation. Plus fait douceur que violence, mildness succeeds better than roughness. La Font. 3 absol. (des preuves, des raisons, of proofs, of arguments) to make, to tell. Ce qui fait encore pour lui, c'est que, what is still more in his favour is that. 4 (être convenable, produire un effet agréable) to look, to suit, to do. Ces deux choses font fort bien ensemble, those two things suit well together. L'or fait bien avec le vert, gold looks very well upon green. Ce tableau ne fait pas bien où il est, it ferait mieux ailleurs, this picture does not show well where it is, it would have a better effect in another place. 5 gram. to make, to become. Aimer fait au futur, j'aimerais, I shall love in the future tense. Cheval fait au pluriel, chevaux, cheval makes chevaux in the plural. 6 (se charger le ventre) to do one's needs. 7 absol. (dire) to say. Je le pensai; fit-il, I thought so, said he. J'irai avec vous, lui fit-je, I will go with you, said I to him. 8 (impère.) (indiquer l'état de l'atmosphère, etc.) to be. Il fait jour, it is daylight. Il fait beau, it is fine weather. Qui te verra passer? il fait si noir, who will see you go by? it is so dark. Muss. Les pluies qu'il fait depuis trois jours, the rain that has been falling these three days. M^{me} de Sév. Il fait sec, it is dry. Il fait de la pluie, de l'orage, it is rainy, stormy. 9 (indiquer la nature, l'état, la disposition, etc.) to be. Il fait cher vivre dans ce pays, it is dear living in this country. Il vous fait beau voir être vieux de la sorte à votre âge, you are finely tricked out for a person of your age. Mol. Il ne fait pas bon se frotter à cet homme-là, he is a dangerous man to have to do with. 10 (s'empêcher pour un verbe précédent exprimer et dont on veut éviter la répétition, used to avoid the repetition of a verb) to do. Celui-ci m'occupe autant que cent nouarques pourraient —, this one occupies me as much as a hundred nouarques could do. La Font. Je t'aimais inconstant, qu'eusses-tu fait, hilete? inconstant I have you; faithful, what should I have done? Rac. L'amour vous dit les mêmes choses, il les dit mieux que je ne fais, love tells you the same things, it tells them better than I do. La Font. Personne n'a aimé comme je fais, nobody ever loved as I do. Mol. Ceux qui savent aimer comme je fais, those who can love like me. M^{me} de Sév.

11 (Se sous-entend après vouloir, pouvoir, is often understood after vouloir, pouvoir). On ne fait jamais ni tout ce qu'on peut, ni tout ce qu'on veut, one never does all one can, nor all one will.

SE FAIRE, vpr. 1 (être fait, être produit, formé, être) to be done, to be made, to happen, to take place, to be, to turn. Des armemens se faisaient sur la côte de Boulogne, armaments were being made on the coast of B. Thiers. Si c'est une chose qui se puisse —, je vous en aurai obligation, if it is a thing that can be done, I shall be greatly indebted to you. Ce traité s'est fait secrètement, that treaty was clapt up secretly. Je crois que ce mariage ne se fera pas, I think this marriage will not take place. Si la paix se fait, if peace is made up. Quand j'ai ouï le grand bruit qui s'y faisait, when I heard the great noise that was being made. Beaum. Vous croyez que cela se fera comme cela, you imagine things are done so. Muss. Des mariages extravagants pour des palais, extravagant marriages for Parisian palaces and which are not the work of chance. Th. Gant. Une chose qui se fera dimanche et qui ne sera peut-être pas faite lundi, a thing which will be done on Sunday, and which perhaps will not be done on Monday. M^{me} de Sév. Le changement de chevaux s'est fait sans hésitation et sans perte de temps, fresh horses are put to without any hesitation or loss of time. Lamart. Les procédures se font contre nous, the affair is serious and urgent. Le Sage. Les noces se faisaient à l'ombre d'un ormeau, the wedding-feast took place in the shade of a young elm. La Font. Le temps où se faisait tout ce que dit l'histoire, the time in which all that history tells us took place. Muss. A mesure que la nuit se faisait autour de lui, il redevenait triste, in proportion as the shades of night fell round him, he became melancholy again. G. Saud. A mesure que nous avançons, la solitude se faisait, in proportion as we advanced, solitude grew round us. Th. Gant. Cela ne se fait pas deux fois, that does not happen twice. Mérim. Il prit le parti d'aller devant lui auant que — se pouvait, he made up his mind to go straight on as far as he could.

Muss. Prov. Paris ne s'est pas fait en jour, Rome was not built in a day. 2 (se créer) to make one's self. Nous ne nous sommes pas faits nous-mêmes, we did not make ourselves. Fen. 3 (prendre telle ou telle qualité, s'établir, devenir) to make one's self, to become, to grow. Fais-toi digne de tes ancêtres, make yourself worthy of your ancestors. Il se fait humble avec les grands, he becomes humble with the great. Elle s'était faite depuis plus de quinze ans la sœur hospitalière du village, she had become for more than fifteen years the sister of charity of the village. St-Marc-G. Se — riche au delà d'autrui, to grow rich at the expense of others. Pourquoi se font-ils nos amis? why do they grow familiar with us? Mich. Un enfant qui se fait grand, a child which is growing up. L'histoire ne faisait matérielle, history became material. Ph. Chas. Se — vieux, to grow old. Elle s'était faite elle-même ce qu'elle était, she had made herself what she was. G. Saud. Il s'était fait bon pour moi qu'il m'eût faite belle, for I had made myself out for me, for I had made myself smart. Muss. — à moins que tu ne préfères que je ne me fasse berger, unless you prefer my turning shepherd. V. Hug. Il se fit roi, he became a king. Se — avocat, to become a barrister. Certain renard voulant, dit-on, se — loup, a certain fox wanting, it is said, to turn wolf. La Font. 4 (faire à soi) to do, to make, to make one's self. Vous vous êtes fait mal, you have hurt yourself. On ne se fait pas un nom par là, mais on croole doucement sa vie, that is not the way to make one's self a name, but life glides away pleasantly. P.-L. Cour. Il se faisait loi-même justice à main armée, he righted himself with his own hands. Bar. Il s'était fait des amis, he had made friends. St.-B. Je me faisais plaisir de lui souhaiter sa fête, I anticipated the pleasure of wishing him many happy returns of the day. Il s'est fait tort, il s'est fait préjudice à lui-même, he has done wrong to himself; he has injured himself. Nul idéal qu'il pu se — l'homme n'a approché de; man never evoked an ideal that could enter into comparison with. Mich. Pour exprimer l'idée qu'il se faisait de son rôle, to express the idea he had of the part he had to play. St.-B. prov. fam. Se — un dieu de son ventre, Se dire. Le jeune conquérant se faisait alors la main pour ce qu'il devait accomplir ailleurs, the young conqueror was then preparing himself for what he was to accomplish elsewhere. St.-B. Ils se faisaient une fête de coucher au bivac, they anticipated the pleasure of bivouacking. Mérim. Se — scrupule, se — conscience, to do scruple to do a thing. Se — gloire, se — honneur de quelque chose, to glory in a thing. Se — un devoir de quelque chose, to make a duty of a thing. Se laisser —, to oppose no resistance. Que voulez-vous, je me suis laissé —, how could it be helped, I let them do what they pleased with me. Muss. Se — jurer, to force one's way, to cut one's way. Il n'y a qu'un parti honorable, c'est celui de se — jour, there is but one honourable course to adopt, it is that of forcing our way. Thiers. 5 (se donner comme) to pretend to be, to set up for. Il s'est fait beaucoup plus malade qu'il n'est, he pretended to be much worse than he was. Se — plus riche, plus pauvre qu'on n'est réellement, to pretend to be richer, poorer than one really is. Je suis content qu'on ne me croie ni plus beau que je ne me fais, ni, etc., I am glad they think me no better than I show myself, nor, etc. La Rochef. Un de mes amis qui se fait fort de nous mettre tous dans la troupe du prince, one of my friends who undertakes to place us all in the prince's company of actors. Le Sage. 6 (s'accoutumer) to get accustomed to, to be habituated, to get used. Se — au bruit, to get accustomed to noise. Le cheval se fait au bruit des armes, the horse gets used to the clash of arms. Buff. Se — aux exigences de quelqu'un, to get used to a person's humours. Je me fisais à l'idée d'aller passer quelques jours dans les montagnes, I grew accustomed to the idea of passing a few days in the mountains. Ab. 7 (s'améliorer, se bonifier) to improve. Ce jeune homme s'est fait depuis que je ne l'ai vu, that young man has improved since I saw him. Ce vin, ce fromage se fera, this wine, this cheese will improve. 8 réciproq. to make one another. Ils se faisaient les yeux doux, they looked sweet upon each other. Ils se faisaient tous deux beaucoup d'amitiés, they gave each other many marks of friendship. Montesq. Ils se faisaient des présents on celui qui donnait croyait toujours avoir l'avantage, they made each other presents, and he who gave always thought he had the advantage on his side. Montesq. Combien d'êtres se font une guerre éternelle! how many beings wage eternal war with each other! La Font. 9 (suivi d'un Infinitif, followed by an inf.) to make. L'autre, se faisant prier, portait comme on dit les bouteilles, he was the wanted pressing, walking gingerly, as the saying is. La Font. Le clocher de l'abbaye se fait voir de loin, the steeple of the abbey is visible at a great distance. Se — aimer, craindre, to make one's self beloved, feared. Se — dire une chose deux fois, to require to be told a thing twice. Ils se font payer leurs bêtes et se moquent de vous, they make you pay well for their beasts, and laugh at you afterwards. Mérim. Se — mourir, to make away with one's self. Un de ces livres qui se font toujours lire, one of those books which always attract readers. 10 (impers.) (être, arriver) to be. Quand tout le monde est descendu dans la rue, il s'y fait un bel embarras, when every body is in the street, it is sure to be blocked up. Montesq. Je ne sais comment il se faisait, mais les femmes nous avaient en exécution, I do not know how it was, but the women executed us. Nos. Je pouvais-il se faire qu'il voulût confier C. à des étrangers? might it not be that he wished to place C. in the hands of strangers? Muss. Il s'est fait beaucoup de fentes dans cette muraille, there are a great many chinks in that wall. Il se fit un moment de silence, there was a moment's silence. Se peut-il — que vous n'en sachiez rien? to it possible you know nothing about it? Il se pourrait — que je ne vinisse point, maybe I shall not come. Il se fait tard, it se fait nuit, it is growing late, night is coming on.

FAIRE, sm. 4 doing, making, deed, execution. Il y a loin du vouloir au —, it is far from the will to the deed. 5 fine arts. manner, style. Ce tableau est d'un beau —, d'un — large et vigoureux, this painting is finely, boldly and vigorously executed.

FAISABLE, fuh-zabli, adj. mf. 4 feasible, practicable. Cela est —, n'est pas —, that is feasible, is not feasible. 3 allowable. Cela est —, that is allowable.

FAISAN, fuh-zang, sm. orn. pheasant. — doré, golden pheasant. (adjective.) Coq —, cock pheasant. fem. Poule faisane, poule faisande, hen pheasant.

FAISANCES, fuh-zang, sf. pl. dues over and above the rent.

FAISANDEAU, fay-zang-do, sm. orn. young pheasant.

FAISANDE, ppa. of FAISANDER, fem. — E. gamy. Du gibier —, high game.

FAISANDER, fay-zang-day, vpr. to get high, to get gamy. Des perdrix qui se faisaient trop, partridges that are too gamy. (avec ellipse du pr. pers., the pers. pron. being understood) Vous avez trop laissé faisaniser ce lièvre, you have kept that hare too long.

FAISANDERIE, fay-zang-dree, sf. pheasantry. FAISANDER, fay-zang-djay, sm. pheasant-breeder.

FAISCEAU, fay-so, sm. (Lat. fascies 4) (choix liées ensemble) pile, bundle, heap, group, cluster. — d'armes, pile of arms. — de piques, de lances, bundle of pikes, of spears. Chaque chef était assis sur un — d'herbes, each chief was seated on a heap of grass. Chat. — de verges, bundle of rods, fuses. (by extension) Un — d'ouïsses marque la frontière des diverses familles, a cluster of paravents marks the limits of the different families. Méry. fig. Ce gracieux — de mes jeunes sœurs, the graceful group composed of my young sisters. Lamart. 2 anat. — de muscles, de nerfs, fascia of muscles, of nerves. 3 (by extension) (de fusils) pile. Mettre les armes, les fusils en —, to pile arms. 4 — s, pl. (à Rome) fascies. fig. Prendre les — s, to assume the consular dignity. 5 opt. — de rayons lumineux, pencil of luminous rays.

FAISEUR, fuh-zuhr, sm. fem. FAISEUSE, 1 maker door. Faïseuse de courtois, slay-maker. Cela est du bon —, de la bonne faïseuse, this is excellent workmanship. (by extension) Un — de tours, a mountie-bank. (diagrammically) C'est un — de livres, un — de vers, on — de vaudevilles, he is a book-maker, a poetaster, a play-writer. C'est un — de phrases, ce n'est qu'un — de phrases, he is a speech-maker. fig. C'est un — d'almanachs, he is weather-wise. prov. Les grands discours ne sont pas les grands — s, great cry and little wool. 2 (diagrammically) (celui qui fait ou qui dit souvent certaines choses) maker, monger. Vous êtes de grands — s de révolutions, you are great makers of revolutions. Nod. Les vastes appétits d'un — de conquêtes, the vast appetites of a conqueror. La Font. Un — de systèmes, a system-monger. Ce grand — de protestations, that great maker of protestations. Mol. — de dupes, sharper, swindler. — d'embarras, a fussy person. 3 absol. (celui qui travaille habituellement pour un autre) worker, hand. 4 absol. speculator.

FAIT, fay, ppa. of FAIRE, fem. — E. 4 (formé, fabriqué) made. Ce tailleur vend des habits tout — s, that tailor sells ready-made clothes. Un ouvrage — à la main, a work done by hand. Un dessin — à la plume, a drawing done with the pen. Ce livre est — depuis trois cents ans, this book was made three hundred years ago. Nod. Il vent que de F. l'histoire, he wants to know the history of F. Flor. Le récit en force, ce fut —, they made a merry — l'était qu'à moitié chemin et — e du côté seulement, when the work was but half done and finished on one side only. St.-B. Une boisson — e avec du jus de citron, a drink made of lemon juice. Il voulait savoir comment cela était — en dehors, he wanted to know what the inside was made of. L'océan est — de gouttes d'eau, la vie est — e de minutes, the Ocean is made of drops of water, life is made up of minutes. Lamart. Etre bien —, — à plaisir, à ravir, — à peindre, to be well made. Etre — au tour, to be beautifully shaped. Etre mal —, to be ill-shaped. Un homme bien — de sa personne, a well-made man. (by analogy) Avoir la taille bien —, avoir — e, to be well-shaped, ill-shaped. 5 mal — e, to have an ill-shaped, a handsome leg. fig. Avoir la tête mal — e, l'esprit mal — e, to be crack-brained, to be of a cantankerous disposition. prov. Ironie. Cui il rend la jambe bien — e, that is of great use to him. Comme le voilà —! what a condition he is in! how ill he looks! Comme je suis — e! what a fright I am! Beaum. Etre — comme un voleur, to have one's dress all in disorder. fig. Ainsi est — leur cœur, such are their hearts. Lamart. L'homme est ainsi —, such is man. Saint. Les maîtres sans mentir sont étrangement — s, of a truth, masters are strange people. Col. d'H. Ingrais, menteurs, c'est ainsi qu'ils sont tous — s, they are all made up of ingratitude and lies. Flor. Je ne sais donc comment le monde est —, I do not know then what the world is like. Mol. 2 (effective, accompli) made. Une question d'enfant — e au hasard, a futile question started by chance. V. Hug. Les compliments les plus flatteurs — s à haute voix furent adressés à Ce, the most flattering compliments were paid along to C. Muss. Toute réflexion il vaot mieux chasser aux perdrix, after due reflection, it is better to go a partridge shooting. Merim. Ce sera bientôt —, it will soon be done. Ainsi dit, ainsi —, so said, so done. La Font. C'est bien —, it is well done. To vas mourir aussi, et c'est bien —, you are going to die too, and it serves you right. Ab. Est-ce — ? is it done? C'est —, it is done, it is over. C'est une affaire —, it is an affair settled. C'est une chose — et à peu près jugée, it is an affair nearly settled. Nod. fig. C'est on grand pas de —, that is a great step taken. prov. Aussitôt dit, aussitôt —, no sooner said than done. Aussitôt dit que —, no sooner said than done. Ab. prov. Ce qui est — est —, what is done is done. prov. Ce qui est — n'est pas à faire, what is once done is over. prov. Cela vaut —, that is as good as done. Tenex cela —, consider it done. 3 C'est — moi de lui, de nous, etc., it is all up with me, with him, with us, etc. C'était — de la grandeur persane, there was the end of the Persian greatness. Montesq. C'en est —, it is over. 4 Cela est — pour moi, semble — pour moi, n'est — que pour moi, that is just my luck. C'est on — exprès, c'est comme an — exprès, it seems done on purpose as if it were done on purpose. 5 Etre — pour, to be fit for, to be made for. Les histoires de brigands ne sont pas — es pour les demoiselles, stories of brigands are not fit for young ladies. Ab. C'était one de ces lunettes — es pour l'Opéra, it was one of those glasses made for the Opera. Flor. Ce mystère est — pour confondre, this mystery is of a nature to perplex. Mich. Il faut mettre ces robes, elles sont — es pour cela, those gowns must be worn, they were made for that. Muss. Ce bonheur parfait, qui pour le cœur de l'homme, hélas, ne fut pas —, that perfect felicity, which, alas, was made for the heart of man, is lost. Est-ce pour ou contre an ordre si sévère? is so strict an order intended for you? Rac. Le chemin était beau, uni, égal, — pour moi, the road was fine, smooth, even, just what I wanted. Ab. Une démarche si — e pour m'étonner, a step so well calculated to astonish me. Nod. Il semble que la liberté soit — e pour le génie des peuples d'Europe, liberty seems to be suited to the genius of the nations of Europe. Montesq. Me croit-il donc — pour le servir? does he then think I am made to serve him? Il semble — pour réussir en toutes choses, he seems as though he was destined to succeed in every thing. 6 (reunda, devena) made. Jesus — homme, Christ, made man. 7 (accoutumé) accustomed. used, inured. Etre — à la fatigue, to be inured to fatigue. Je ne suis pas — à ce métier-là, I was not broken in to that trade. Les yeux et les mains des femmes — s aux petits objets, the eyes and hands of women used minute objects. 8 (habit) habit. Je n'ai pas — à tout cela, he who was not accustomed to all that. 8 Un homme —, a man grown. C'est déjà un homme —, he is already a man grown. 9 Ce fromage est —, this cheese is ripe. 10 Chose — e, n'est pas à faire, see chosen. Ce mot est —, n'est pas —, this word is received, is not received. 11 naut. Vent —, temps —, settled wind, weather.

FAIT, sm. 4 (action) deed, action, fact.
On lui impute des —s graves, serious facts are laid to his charge. C'est par des —s que je veux lui prouver mon attachement, it is by deeds that I will prove my attachment to him. Toas ses dits et ses —s, all his sayings and doings. Mich. Cela est da — d'un tel, that is so-and-so's doing. Les hauts —s, des beaux s-d'armes, great deeds, feats of arms. (in joke) Les -s et gestes d'une personne, the sayings and doings of a person, his life and actions. En venir au —, to come to the point. Au — et au prendre, to the rub —, to the scratch. Prendre quelqu'un sur le —, to take a person in the act, in the very act. Il y a on peu de malice, d'opiniâtreté, de folie dans son —, there is something malicious, obstinate, crack-brained in what he does. law. Prendre le — de quelqu'un, prendre — et cause pour loi, to take up the quarrel of a person. (dans le langage ordinaire, in common speech) Tout Paris prit — et cause pour ou contre, all Paris took up the quarrel for or against. St-B. law. Voies de —, blows, assault and battery; || violence. 2 (événement, récit) fact, event. Les —s historiques, historical facts. Le récit des —s, the narrative of facts. Une autre commère raconte à l'oreille le —, another gossip whispered the fact. La Font. Articulier des —s, to state facts. 3 (le fait dont il s'agit) the point in question, the business in hand. Debuter le —, to deduce the fact. Allons au —, to the point. Viens au —, (elliptic.) au —, come to the point. Il va droit au —, he comes to the business at once. Il est allé au —, que, it is a fact that. Question le —, put de — point of fact. du facto. (by extension) Allé au —, venir au —, to come to the point. Pourquoi tant de détours, venez donc au —, why so much circumlocution. pray come to the fact. (elliptic.) Au —, que voulez-vous? well, what do you want? Au — after all. Au —, que risûq-je? in reality, what do I risk? 4 law. —s et articles, facts. Interroger quelqu'un sur —s et articles, to question a person on the facts. Mettre en —, poser en —, to lay down as a fact. Je mets en — que, I assert that. C'est on —, cela est de —, it est de — que, it is a fact, it is a fact that. Il est de — qu'on ne m'a pas compris, it is certain that I was not understood. C'est un — à part, c'est un autre —, that is another matter, concern. Le — est que, the fact is that. Le — est que je n'en savais rien, the fact is I knew nothing about it. Pour la rareté du —, for the singularity of the thing. Etre sûr de son —, to be sure of a thing. Entendre bien son —, to know one's business well. Etre au —, to be acquainted with a thing. Mettre au —, to acquaint with a thing. Se mettre au —, to acquaint one's self with a thing. Cette jeune fille est déjà bien au — du ménage, that young girl is already a good housekeeper. 5 (chose vécue, constatée) fact. —s physiques, physical facts. —s physiologiques, physiological facts. La puissance des —s, the power of facts. L'antiquité des marionnettes est un — acquis à l'histoire, the antiquity of puppets is an historical fact. Nod. Cette théorie s'évanouit devant les —s, this theory is exploded by facts, this theory disappears in the face of facts. (ce qui est propre et convenable à que'qu'un) thing, thing required, thing that suits. Cette maison, cet emploi serait bien le — d'un tel, this house, that employment would be just the thing for Such-a-one. L'étude était son — et sa vocation, he had a decided inclination for study. St-B. L'innocence des champs est-elle votre —? does the innocence of a country life please you? La Font. L'ami du genre humain n'est point du tout mon —, the friend of mankind is not my man. Mol. Comme je vous crois son —, je vous ai proposé, as I think you will suit him, I have proposed you. Le Sage. Il jugea que cette personne était son —, he thought that person would suit him. Molière. 7 (la part qui revient à chacun) share, one's own fig. fam. Donner à quelqu'un son — to give a person his own, to pay him off.

fig. Dire à quelqu'un son —, to tell a person a piece of one's mind.

DANS LE FAIT, PAR LE FAIT, adv. loc.
in point of fact, in fact, in reality.

DE FAIT, adv. loc. 1 (en réalité) in fact, de facto. Il n'était roi que de nom, he was only a nominal king. 2 law. L'ossession de —, possession in fact, de facto. (by analogy) Gouvernement de —, government de facto. 3 (effectivement) of a truth, indeed.

— de procès, de littérature, de religion, etc., in point of lawsuits, literature, religion, etc.

SI FAIT, adv. loc. yes, I beg your pardon. Vous ne me connaissez pas ? si —, je vous connais bien, you do not know me ? I beg your pardon, I know you very well. Je crois qu'il ne l'a pas dit ; si —, il l'a dit, I think he did not say it ; yes, indeed, he did.

TOUT À FAIT, adv. quite, completely, utterly, altogether. L'ouvrage est tout à — terminé, the work is quite finished. Il est tout à — ruiné, he is utterly ruined.

2 arch. (table de plomb) ridge-lead.
F. STARDISE, fay-tar-deez, sf. obsol.
sloth, idleness, sluggishness.

FAITE, fait, sm. 1 (le comble) top, roof, pinnacle. Le — d'une maison, the top of a house, the pinnacle of a temple. 2 (by extension) summit, zenith. Le — d'une cheminée, chimney top. Une volée d'oiseaux s'abat sur le — des grands arbres, a flight of birds alight on the tops of the large trees. 3. Nod. Des plus hauts monts, mon front atteint le —, my top reaches the summit of the highest mountains. La Font. fig. Le — des honneurs, des grandeurs, the height, the summit of honours, of greatness, of glory. fig. Son adresse et son étude le portèrent tout d'un coup au —, his skill and good luck raised him all at once to the top of the ladder. Sie-B. fig. J'étais alors au — da maheur dans la vie, I was then at the climax of wretchedness in life. Jaq.

FATIGUE, fat-yay, adj. f. 1 Tired — ridge-tile, pantile. Lucarnes — sky-tiles. 2 (substantive) ridge-tile. 3 La — d'une tente, the pole of a tent. FAIX, fat, sm. burden, load, weight. Plier sous le —, to bend under the burden. Un chameau surcumbant sous le —, a camel sinking under the weight. Miel. Col. — hâtement a pris son —, this building has settled down. fig. Il s'encombe sous le — des affaires, he breaks down under the weight of business. fig. Le — du diadème, the weight of the diadem. Build poetic. Le — des ans, des amées, the weight of years. Sous le — du fardeau aussi bien que des ans, under the weight of the burden as well as that of years. La Font.

FAKIR, fah-keer. sm. See FAQUIR.
 FALAISE, fal-ayz, sf. cliff.
 FALAISEL, fal-ay-zay, m. to break against a cliff.

FALBALA, fal-bal-lab, sm. furbelow.
Robe, jupe à —, a furbelowed gown, petticoat. Rideaux à —, garuis de —s, furbelowed curtains.

FALLACE, fal-lass, sf. (Lat. fallacia) obsol. fallacy, deception.

FALLACIEUSEMENT, fal-las-syuhz-mang, adv. fallaciously, deceptively.

FALLACIEUX, fal-las-syuh, a j. m.
 fem FALLACIEUSE, (Lat. fallaciosus) falla- cious, deceitful. Esprit —, fallacim-
und. Argument —, fallacious argumen-

FALLOIR, fall-wâr, un imper. 1 FAUT; IL FALLAIT; IL FALLET; IL A FALLU; IL FAUDRA; IL FAUDRAIT; QU'IL FALLEE QU'IL FALLÔT, 1 (être de nécessité, de devoir, d'obligation, de bienveillance) mus to be necessary, should, ought, to want, to need, to be obliged. Il faut faire cela, it is necessary to do that. Il faut que tu le fasses, you must do it. Il fallait m'en laisser un, one ought to have been left me. Merim. La vie est-elle donc si charmante qu'il faille préférer tout ce bruit à une maison vide? is life so charming a thing that an empty house must be preferred to all this noise? V. Hug. Soit qu'il faille oublier ou se ressouvenir, whether it be necessary to forget or to remember. V. Hug. S'il allait — lui appliquer une désignation connue, if it were necessary to give it a name known. Saint. Dans leur ville il le faudra descendre, you must alight in their abode. V. Hug. Il faut en passer par là, it was necessary to put up with it. Put-il long comme votre garenne, il faudra bien que j'en voie la fin, were it as long as your warren, I must see the end of it. Muss. C'est Dieu qu'il faut aimer, it is God we ought to love. Malb. Il faut savoir par quels degrés elle en vint jusque-là, it should be known by what degrees she came to that point. Il faut que ce jeune homme ait eu des amis parmi les saints, this young man must have had friends among the saints. Nod. Il faut obéir à la loi, the law must be obeyed. Je ne croyais pas qu'il fallait faire cette démarche, I did not think that it was necessary to take that step. Il avait pris tous les devoirs qu'il fallait avec les gens qui auraient pu lui faire de la peine, all those who might have injured him he met half-way. Rac. Il parle plus qu'il ne faut, he speaks more than is necessary. Je saurais, s'il le faut, victime obéissante, tendre au fer de Calchus une tête innocente, I shall, if necessary, offer as an obedient victim my head to the knife of C. Rac. pop. C'est un faire le fait, it is a needs must. Il faut voir, it must be seen. Il faut voir ce que cela deviendra, we must see how that will turn out. (ou manière d'exclamation, by way of exclamation) On l'a battu, il faut voir! you should have seen how they were beaten! Ce sont de fort bonnes gens, et qui nous regardent, il faut voir, they are excellent people, and you should have seen how they received us. (by analogy) Aussi, faut-il voir! you should have seen! Il faut l'insulter, aussi faut-il voir comme on l'a traité, he offered to be insolent, and you should have seen how he was treated. C'est ce qu'il faudra voir, we shall see about that. Encore faut-il que je sache à quel m'en tenir, I must, however, know what I am to rely on. Un homme, une personne comme il faut, a well-bred man, person. C'est un homme très comme il faut, he is a very gentlemanly man. 2 (de ce dont on a besoin, de ce qui est nécessaire) must, to want, to need. Il me les fallait tous les deux, I wanted them both. Merim. Qu'il fallait peu de choses à ma réverie, what a trifle sufficed to feed my reverie. Chat. Cette grâce qu'il m'implore, c'est aujourd'hui même qu'il ne la faut, the favour I implore, I must have it to-day. Saint. Il va — bien des choses, a great many things will be necessary. Balz. Qu'enfin il fallait aux enfants le joug du dur travail, then in short, it was necessary to form children to the yoke of severe labour. V. Hug. Il n'y fallait que des jambes, all that was necessary was to have good legs. Alb. Il faut une moralité aux contes les plus vulgaires, a moral is necessary to the most vulgar tales. Nod. Il lui fallait de l'argent, it was money he wanted. C'est tout ce qu'il nous faut, that is all we want. Flor. Il fallait à Pouchinelle un socle digne de lui, Panch wanted a pedestal worthy of him. Nod. Il en fallait si peu, there was so little wanting. Nod. Il faut des torrents de sang pour effacer mes fautes aux yeux des hommes, it requires torrents of blood to wash out my faults in the eyes of men. Chat. J'ai l'homme qu'il vous faut, ce qu'il vous faut, I have the man you want, what you want. Ce sont de ces gens comme il en faut dans une réunion, they are people one must have in a party. Il comprit tout ce qu'il fallait de sang-froid, pour exceller dans l'art militaire, he understood what presence of mind was necessary to excel in the military art. Muss. Il faut des châtimens dont l'avis se fremsse, a chastisement is necessary at which the world shall shudder. Rac. 3 (de ce qu'on doit donner d'argent pour un prix, pour un salaire) must have, to want, to charge. Combien vous faut-il, que vous faut-il pour votre marchandise? how much do you charge for your goods? Il dit qu'il lui faut dix francs par jour, he said he must have ten francs a day. Il demande plus qu'il ne faut, he asks more than he ought. 4 (manquer) to want. Il s'en est peu fallu qu'il n'ait été tué, he was near being killed. Vous dites qu'il s'en faut tant que la somme n'y soit, you say that so much is wanting to make up the sum. Peu s'en est fallu que je ne vinsse moi-même, I was on the point of coming myself. Il a fini son travail ou peu s'en faut, he has finished his work or nearly so.

TANT S'EN FAUT QUE, adv. loc. so far from. — qu'il y consente, qu'on contraire, il fera tout pour l'empêcher, so far from consenting, he will, on the contrary, do his utmost to prevent it. (in joke) — qu'on contraire, quite the contrary.

FALOT, fal-o, sm. 4 (lanterne) lanternes. 2 (grand vase rempli de matières combustibles) cresset. See POT à FEU.

FALOT, adj. m. fem. —, 4 laughable, ludicrous, funny. Conte —, funny tale. 2 (substantive) funny, comical fellow.

FALOTEMENT, fal-ot-meng, adv. familiarity, comically.

FALOURDE, fal-oord, sf. large fagot.

FALQUER, fal-kay, m. man. Faire — un cheval, to make a horse make falcades.

FALQUES, falk, sf. pl. 4 uat. wash-board. 2 man. falcades.

FALSIFICATEUR, fal-se-fe-kat-ur, sm. falsifier, adulterator, deceiver.

FALSIFICATION, fal-se-fe-kah-syong, sf. falsification, adulteration, debasement. La — d'un acte, the falsification of a deed. La — du lait, the adulteration of milk.

FALSIFIER, fal-se-fyay, va. NOUS FALSIFICATIONS, QUE VOUS FALSIFIEZ, 4 (de l'écriture, etc., of writing) to falsify, to alter. — l'écriture, to alter writing. — un seing, un sceau, un cachet, to falsify a signature, a seal. — un contrat, to falsify a contract. — un texte, un passage, une date, to alter a text, a passage, a date. 2 (d'une substance, of a substance) to adulterate, to sophisticate, to debase. des métaux, to adulterate metals. — du vin, to sophisticate wine. — une dentée, to adulterate an article of food. — de la monnaie, to debase coin.

FALUN, fah-luhng, sm. falun, shell-marl.

FALUNER, fah-lu-nay, va. agri. to manure with shell-marl (une terre, a piece of ground).

FALUNIERE, fah-lu-dyayr, sf. shell-marl-pit.

FAME, fah-may, adj. m. fem. —, Elle est bien —, e, she is of good name and repute. Un homme mal —, an ill-famed man.

FAMÉLIQUE, fam-ay-lik, adj. mf. (Lat. famelicus) 1 famished, starving. Estomac —, a famished stomach. Homme —, a starving man. La — et honteuse, le-sive, starving and shameful voracity. Boile. Cette — cœliqueurine, this barren soil of the Apennines. Mich. Vie —, starving life. Mich. Visage, mine —, famished look. 2 (substantive) starving.

FANEUX, fah-muh, adj. m. fem. FAMEUX, famous, famed, celebrated, renowned, notorious, famous. Un —, a famous writer. Il en avait dans ce temps-là un grand nombre de —, at that time there were many famous ones. Le Sage. B. Avait en des plus —, B. was one of the most famous. Ste-B. La fameuse disgrâce de l'altière V., the famous disgrace of proud V. Rac. Cette ville fameuse, that famous town. Ce — voleur, that notorious thief. Une mer fameuse en naufrages, par ses naufrages, a sea famous for its shipwrecks. pop. C'est on — imbécile, he is a precious fool. Voilà une fameuse bêtise, that is famous nonsense.

FAMEUSEMENT, fah-muhz-mang, adv. famously.

FAMILIARISÉ, ppa. of FAMILIARISER, fem. —, 4 (rendre familier) familiarized, tamed. 2 (by extension) accustomed, familiarized. — des l'enfance avec le monde, familiarized with murder from infancy. Quand elle fut bien — avec les langues, elle parcourut toutes les parties de l'Asie, when she was a proficient in the languages, she travelled over every part of Asia. Lamart.

FAMILIARISEL, fam-e-lyar-e-zay, va. 4 (rare) (rendre familier avec quelqu'un) to familiarize. 2 (by extension) (acquiescer, habitude) to familiarize, to accustom. Je cherche à le — avec les objets qui l'effarouchent, I try to familiarize him with the objects that frighten him. J.-J. Rouss. — un cheval avec le bruit des armes, to accustom a horse to the noise of arms.

SE FAMILIARISER, epr. 4 (se rendre familier avec quelqu'un) to get, to grow, to become familiar. Se — avec tout le monde, to become familiar with every body. Elle ne souffrait point que les jennes dames se familiarisassent avec elle au point de, she did not allow the young ladies to, she did not free with her as to. Ste-B. Ne juraient pas devoir me — avec eux, not thinking it fit to be familiar with them. Le Sage. 2 absol. (prendre des manières trop familières) to make one's self familiar. Il se familiarise bientôt, he soon makes himself at home. 3 (by extension) (s'accommoder, s'habituer) to familiarize one's self (with). Se — avec le danger to familiarize one's self with danger. Se — avec la douleur, to become accustomed to pain. Se — avec un auteur, to be read in an author. Se — avec une langue étrangère, to become a proficient in a foreign language. Il se trouve des hommes qui se familiarisent avec leur propre grandeur, there are men who get accustomed to their own greatness. La Bruy. Se — une langue étrangère, to make a foreign language familiar to one's self. Se — un auteur, to make an author familiar to one's self. Se — le style d'un auteur, la manière d'un artiste, to appropriate the style of an author, the manner of an artist.

FAMILIARITÉ, fah-me-lyah-re-tyay, sf. (Lat. familiaritas) 1 (privative) familiarity. Il n'aime pas qu'on prenne trop de — avec lui, he does not like people to make too free with him. Prendre des airs de —, to make one's self too familiar. En user avec —, to take liberties. (by extension) Venise vécut toujours dans la — de l'Orient, there was ever an undefinable tie between Venice and the East. Th. Gaut. 2 —, pl. (manières familières) liberties.

FAMILIER, fah-me-lyay, adj. m. fem. FAMILIAR, 1 familiar, intimate. Visage —, mine familière, well known face. Quel est ce homme qui est si — avec vos ducs? who is that man on such familiar terms with your dukes? Montesq. C'est un de ses amis les plus —, he is one of his most intimate friends. Mon père, que je n'avais jamais vu si —, my father whom I had never seen so parental. Lamart. (by exten-tion) Mon rouge-gorge — qui vole librement dans mon cabinet, my familiar redbreast that flies in liberty about my study. Mich. Esprit, démon, génie — familiar. L'esprit, le démon — de Socrate, the familiar of Socrates. 2 (où il y a de la familiarité) familiar. Propos — s. familiar talk. Il a des manières un peu trop familières, his manners are rather too free and easy. Discours — language —, style —, familiar discourse, language, style. Ce tour est trop —, that turn of expression is too familiar. 3 (ordinaire) common, usual. Ce terme lui est —, this is a usual expression with him. 4 (que l'on connaît) familiar. Les traits de cette personne me sont —, the features of that person are familiar to me. Se rendre une langue familière, to become familiar with a language. L'accoutumance nous rend ainsi tout —, custom thus renders every thing familiar to us. La Foule. Quoique déjà — avec la mer, though accustomed to sea voyages. Joëq.

FAMILIER, fm, 1 (celui qui affecte la familiarité) familiar. Il fait le — avec le ministre, avec le prince, he assumes airs of familiarity with the minister, with the prince. 2 — s. pl. (ceux qui vivent habituellement avec une personne) familiaris. C'est un des — du prince, du ministre, he is one of the familiars of the prince, of the minister. Les — de la maison, the familiars of the house. 3 (en Espagne et au Portugal) Un — de l'Inquisition, a familiar of the Inquisition.

FAMILIÈREMENT, fah-me-lyar-mang, adv. familièrement, freely. Il vient — chez le baron, qui lui a rendu quelques services, he makes himself at home with the baron, who has rendered him some services. La Har. (by extension) Le marin-pêcheur s'approche — des herminiers pour les éplocher, the king-fisher approaches the cattle familiarly to pick them. B. de St-P.

FAMILLE, fah-me-yah, sf, collectif. (Lat. familia) 1 (toutes les personnes d'une même sang) family, kin, kindred, kinfolk. Avoir une nombreuse —, to have a large family. Dîner en —, to dine with one's family. Un repas, une fête de —, a family repast, a family feast. (by extension) La grande — humaine, the great human family. 2 (le père, la mère et les enfants; les enfants seulement) family. Il est traité comme une personne de la —, he is treated like one of the family. Père de —, mère de —, father, mother of a family. (des animaux, of animals) Voyez cette poule accourir avec sa petite —, see that hen hastening with her little family. Fils, enfant de —, gentleman's son, daughter. Rom. law. Père de —, head of a household. 3 point. Sainte —, Holy Family. 4 (race, maison) family. Dites-moi votre nom de —, tell me your surname. Entrer dans une —, to enter a family. D'une — obscure, of obscure parentage. La — des Lambert, the Lambert family. La — des Héradides, the race of the Heracles. Enfant de —, young man of quality. Avoir on air de —, to have a family air, a family likeness. 5 (tous ceux qui vivent dans une même maison) family, household. 6 nat. hist. (d'animaux, de plantes, of animals, plants) family, tribe. 7 gram. family. Ranger les mots par —, to arrange the words in families.

FAMINE, fam-een, sf, (Lat. fames) famine. Par un temps de —, in a time of famine. Prendre une ville par —, to reduce a town by famine, to starve out a town. (by extension) Prendre quelqu'un par —, to starve a person out, to starve him into submission. G. Crier —, to cry famine. See crier.

FANAGE, fah-azh, em. 1 (action de faner) turning of grass, hay-making. 2 (taillis, hay-maker's wages). 3 (tout le feuillage d'une plante) leaves.

FANAISON, fah-may-zong, sf, hay-time. FANAL, fah-nal, sm. pl. FANAUX, (Gr.) 1 nat. lantern, signal-light. Fanaux de combat, de route, lanternas used between the guns in time of battle; the light-rooms of a ship's magazine. 2 (feux) beacon, light-house. 2 fig. (guide) beacon.

FANATIQUE, fah-nat-ik, adj. mf. (Lat. fanaucius) 1 (aliéné d'esprit) fanatic. 2 (emporté par un zèle outre) fanatical. Prédicateur —, fanatical preacher. (by extension) Des cerveaux —, zealous. Volt. 3 (by extension) (qui se passionne à l'excès) infatuated. Être — d'une opinion, d'un auteur, to be wedded to an opinion, infatuated with an author. 4 (by extension) (des passions, etc., of passions, etc.) fanatic, fanatical, bigoted. Un zèle —, bigoted zeal. Des opinions, des doctrines —, fanatical opinions, doctrines. 5 (substantif) fanatic, zealot. Chaque secte a ses —, every sect has its fanatics. Volt.

FANATISER, fah-at-e-ay, va, to fanatize.

FANATISME, fah-at-ism, sm. 1 fanaticism. 2 (zèle outre) fanaticism. Le — de la liberté, the fanaticism of liberty. 3 (secte) fanaticism.

FANCHON, fang-shong, sf, kerchief. FANCHONNETTES, fang-sho-net, sf. pl. kind of pastry.

FANDANGO, fang-dang-go, sm. (Sp.) (danse) fandango.

FANE, fan, sf. 1 (feuilles tombées) fallen leaves. 2 (feuilles qui tiennent encore aux plantes) dend leaves. 3 gard. envelopes of the flower of anemones, ranunculus.

FANE, ppa, of FANER, fem. —, Fleur —, faded flower. (by extension) Couleur —, teint —, faded colour, complexion. fig. C'est une beauté un peu —, she is rather a faded beauty.

FANER, fah-nay, ro. 1 (tourner et retourner l'herbe d'un pré fauché) to spread, to turn the grass, to make hay. 2 (détruire) to wither. Le grand hâle fane les fleurs, great drought withers flowers. J'ai coëilli sur ma route un bouquet d'églantine, mais la neige et le vent l'ont fané sur mon cœur, I gathered on my way a nosegay of eglantine, but the snow and the winds have withered it on my heart. Muss. (by extension) (altérer l'éclat) to tarnish, to fade.

SE FANER, ppr, to wither, to fade. Quelques fleurs qu'on voit se — du matin au soir, a few flowers which are seen to fade in the course of the day. Boss. Son teint se fane, her complexion is fading. Cette couleur s'est fanée, that colour has faded. fig. Cette femme commence à se —, that woman begins to fall off. La beauté se fane, beauty fades.

FANEUR, fah-nur, sm. fem. FANEUSE, hay-maker.

FANFAN, fang-fang, sm. (to a child) duck, ducky, deary.

FANFAINE, fang-far, sf. 1 flourish, flourish of trumpets. Sonner des —, to sound a flourish. 2 trump. flourish, peal.

FANFARON, fang-fah-rong, adj. m. 1 (qui fait le brave) swaggering, blustering. Qui pourrait souffrir un âne — ? who could ever suffer a blustering ass? La Font. 2 (qui vante trop sa bravoure) bragging, boasting. 3 (in a wider sense) boasting. Il est un peu —, il est extrêmement —, he is something of a boaster, a great boaster. 4 (de l'air, des manières, of air, manners) swaggering, blustering. 5 sm. Un — de vertu, a boaster of virtues he does not possess. Un — de vice, a boaster of vice he is free from.

FANFARONNAGE, fang-far-o-nag, sf. swaggering, bluster, blustering,rodomontade, boasting. Faire des —, to brag, to boast.

FANFARONNERIE, fang-far-on-ree, sf. boasting. C'est pure —, it is all brag.

FANFRELUCHÉ, fang-freh-lsh, sf, bubble, peewee.

FANGE, fangh, sf. 1 miré, mud. (by extension) On a vu mille fois des — molles sortir des conquérants, a thousand times from the mead marshes have conquerors been seen to slink. Boil. fig. Cette — où son siècle l'avait plongé, le mire in which his age had plunged it. Volt. 2 fig. (dériv. de fange) (condition basse) damnable, low condition. Il est né dans la —, he was born on a dunghill. 3 fig. (dériv. de fange) (état d'avilissement) filth, vileness. Se traîner, crouper dans la — des vices, du vice, to wallow in the filth of vice. 4 fig. rel. (les volapés du monde) mire.

FANGEUX, fang-zhub, adj. m. fem. FANGUEUX, miry, muddy, dirty.

FANION, fah-nyong, sm. anc. banner.

FANON, fah-nong, sm. 1 (d'un tauréau, d'un bœuf, of a bull, of an ox) dew-lap. 2 (des baleines, of whales) fin, bone. 2 (d'un cheval, of a horse) fetlock. 4 (de prêtres, of priests) bannier. 5 (d'une mitre) pendant. 6 (d'une bannière, of a banner) pendant.

FANONS, fah-nong, sm. pl. surg. obsol. dressings.

FANTASIE, fang-tay-zee, sf, (Gr.) 1 absol. (imagination) fancy, imagination. 2 (esprit, pensée) fancy, idea. Oyez cela de votre —, get rid of that idea. Avoir quelque chose dans la —, to fancy something. 3 (humour) fancy, mind. Vivre à sa —, to live to one's fancy. Il a une — de voyager, he took a fancy to travelling. J'en pris tout d'abord —, I took a fancy for it from the very first. De Bress. La — du jeu, du bal lui a passé, he has got over his fancy for gaming, for dancing. Volt. 4 (goût) fancy, liking. Selon sa —, according to one's fancy. 5 (caprice) fancy, whim, humour. La — individuelle tendait à remplacer la loi, every body was inclined to take his own will and fancy for supreme law. Aug. Th. La — qui fit quitter la dictature à Sylla, etc., the whim that made S. lay down the dictatorship, etc. Montesq. Suivre ses —, to act according to one's fancy. C'est la — plutôt que le goût qui produit tant de modes nouvelles, it is fancy rather than taste that produces so many new fashions. Volt. C'est un homme plein de —, he is a very fanciful man. (by extension) Les — de la mode, the caprices of fashion. Robe, habit de —, fancy gown, coat. Objet de —, fancy article. Un magasin de —, fancy article warehouse. 6 point. Tête, portrait de —, a head, a portrait of one's own fancy. 7 point. mas. whim, voluntary, fantasia.

FANTASIA, fang-fah-zang, sf, (Ar.) fantasia.

FANTASMAGORIE, fang-tas-mag-o-ree, sf, (Gr.) 1 phantasmagoria, disolving view. 2 five arts, lit. phantas-magoria, extravaganza fancies.

FANTASMAGORIQUE, fang-tas-mag-o-rik, adj. mf. phantasmagoric.

FANTASQUE, fang-task, adj. mf. 1 fantastic, fantastical, whimsical. Homme —, whimsical man. Humeur —, capricious humour. 2 (bizarre dans son genre) fantastic, whimsical, odd. Opinion —, fantastic opinion. Ouvrage —, fantiful work.

FANTASQUEMENT, fang-tas-kub-mang, adv. (little used) fantastically, whimsically, fancifully.

FANTASSIN, fang-tas-sang, sm. foot-soldier.

FANTASTIQUE, fang-tas-tik, adj. mf. 1 fantastic, fantastical, chimerical. 2 (qui est sans réalité) fantastical.

FANTASTIQUEMENT, fang-tas-tik-mang, adv. neol. fantastically.

FANTOCCINI, fah-tot-sue-nee, m. pl. (It.) farlocini.

FANTÔME, fang-tôm, sm. (Gr.) 1 phantom, ghost, spectre. prov. C'est un vrai —, on le prendrait pour un — he looks like a ghost. 2 fig. (appearance) shadow. Ce n'était qu'un — de ministre, he was but the shadow of a minister. Volt. Un — de liberté, a shadow of liberty. Volt. Un vain — de bonheur, de gloire, etc., a vain shadow of happiness, of glory, etc. 3 fig. (chimère) chimera, phantom. Se faire des —s de rien, to make mountains of mole-hills. 4 —s, pl. school. (imagination) phantoms.

FAON, faon, sm. zool. fawn. Un — de biche, the fawn of a hind. Un — de chevreuil, the fawn of a roe. absol. (de biche, of a hind) a fawn.

FAONNER, fa-nay, vn. (d'une biche, etc., of a hind, of a roe) to fawn.

FAQUIN, fa-kang, sm. (lit.) 1 acrobat, rascal, puppy, scamp. — fleffe, arrant rascal. 2 acc. (mannequin) Turk's head.

FAQUINIERE, fa-k-en-see, sf. acrobatism, rascaldom, pippism.

FAQUIR, fa-k-ir, sm. (Ar.) fakir, fakir.

FARANDOLE, far-ang-dol, sf. (danse) farandole.

FARCE, fars, sf. 1 calm, stuffing. Faire une — à une dinde, to stuff a turkey. Des œufs à la —, hard eggs with sorrel stewed. 2 culin. (meats) cooked sorrel.

FARCE, sf. 1 (pièce de théâtre) farce. prov. fig. pop. Tirez le rideau, la — est jouée, let down the curtain, the farce is over. 2 (du comique grossier) broad comedy, low comedy. 3 fig. (tour) trick, practical joke. Faire une — à quelqu'un, to play on a person a trick. Une bonne —, a good joke. pop. N'allez pas nous faire la — de ne pas revenir, don't play us such a trick as not to come back. pop. Faire ses —s, to play one's pranks.

FARCEUR, far-suhr, sm. 1 comic actor, low comedian. (disparagingly) broad comic actor. 2 fig. (homme qui fait des bouffonneries) joker, practical joker. Alex done, — now then, old dog! —, va! you are a rum old blade; what a rum fellow he is!

FARCI, far-see, ppa. of FARCIA, fem. —e, 1 stuffed. Des œufs —s, stuffed eggs. (by extension) L'estomac de tous les chevaux est — d'une prodigieuse quantité de vers, the stomachs of all horses are filled with a prodigious quantity of worms. Buff. 2 fig. stuffed, crammed. Cet homme est tout — de grec et de latin, that man is crammed with Greek and Latin. Un écrit — d'injures, a writing brimful of abuse.

FARCIN, far-sang, sm. vet. farcy, farcin.

FARCINEUX, far-se-noh, adj. m. fem. FARCINEUX, vet. attacked by farcy.

FARCIH, far-seer, va. 1 culin. to stuff (une carpe, a carp; un dindon, a turkey). fig. — son estomac de viandes, to cram one's stomach with victuals. 2 fig. (remplir avec excès) to stuff, to cram. — la tête d'un enfant de règles inintelligibles, to cram the head of a child with unintelligible rules; un livre de grec et de latin, a book with Greek and Latin; un discours, un plaidoyer de citations, a discourse, a speech with citations.

FARD, far, sm. 1 point, rouge. Mettre du —, to paint. Elle a deux doigts de — sur le visage, she paints an inch thick. 2 fig. (faux ornements) tinsel, tarnish. 3 fig. (déguisement) deceit, guile. C'est un homme sans —, he is a man without guile; he is a plain man. Parlez-lui sans —, speak to him frankly.

FARDAJE, far-dazh, sm. naut. dun-nage.

FARDÉ, ppa. of FARDER, fem. —e, Visage —, painted face. fig. Discours —, artful discourse. prov. Temps pommelé et femme — ne sont pas de longue durée, a dappled sky and a painted woman are not of long duration.

FARDEAU, far-do, sm. 1 (faix) burden, load. Se charger d'un —, to burden one's self. Mettre bas un —, to lay down a burden. Un rotule pour vous est un pesant —, a wren is a heavy burden to you. La Font. fig. Ne vous chargez pas d'avoir une baine à soutenir, c'est un plus grand — que vous ne pensez, do not take upon you the weight of a hutred, it is a heavier burden than you imagine. M^{me} de Sev. poétique. Le — des ans, the weight of years. 2 min. mass, rocks ready to tumble to pieces. 3 brew. mash. FARDER, far-day, va. 4 (mettre du fard) to paint, to rouge. 2 fig. (donner à une chose un faux lustre) to gloss (une étoffe, a stuff). — sa marchandise, to put on gloss upon goods; to put the best uppermost. 3 fig. (déguiser) to conceal, to disguise. Un soldat qui sait mal — la vérité, a soldier who is ill able to disguise the truth. Rac. — le vice pour le rendre moins odieux, to put a gloss upon vice to render it less odious. 4 fig. (parer d'ornements faux ou affectés) to varnish. — un discours, to varnish a discourse.

SE FARDER, vp. to paint, to rouge. Une femme qui se farde, a woman that paints.

FARDER, vn. tech. (s'affaïsser) to sink, to sink in.

FARDIER, far-dyay, sm. truck (for stones).

FAIFADET, far-fad-ay, sm. hobgoblin, elf, sprite.

FAIFOUILLER, far-fou-yay, vn. to rummage. Vous avez mis tout ce linge en désordre en farfouillant dans mon armoire, you have turned all this linen upside down rummaging in my cupboard. (transitively) On avait farfouillé ses papiers, they had rummaged all his papers.

FAIBOLE, far-e-bol, sf. idle story, trifle. Vous nous contez des —s, you are telling us tales of a tub.

FARINACE, far-e-nah-say, adj. m. fem. —s, bot. farinaceous.

FAIRINE, far-e-en, sf. (Lat. farina) 1 flour, meal. — de froment, de seigle, d'orge, etc., wheat-flour, rye-flour, barley-flour. Mettre de la — de moutarde dans un bain de pied, to put flour of mustard in a foot-bath. 2 absol. (de blé, de froment) flour. Fleur de —, flour. Grosse —, meal. prov. fig. D'un sac à charbon il ne pourrait sortir de blanche —, you could not squeeze blood out of a post. fig. Gens de même —, birds of a feather. 3 (by extension) — de manioc, flour of manioc.

FARINER, far-e-nay, va. to flour, to cover with flour.

FARINET, far-e-nay, sm. one-faced die.

FARINEUX, far-e-noh, adj. m. fem. FARINEUX, 1 white with flour. 2 (qui tient de la nature de la farine) mealy. Ces pommes de terre sont très-farineuses, those potatoes are very mealy. 3 med. Dartre farineuse, a white, scurfy skin. 4 point. Coloris —, mealy, faded colour. 5 sculpt. Figure farineuse, mealy figure. 6 sm. mealy, farinaceous substance.

FARINIER, far-e-nay, sm. meal-man.

FARINIERE, far-e-nay, sf. meal-tub, flour bin.

FAR-NIENTE, far-nyay-nay, sm. (It.) far-niente.

FAROUÇHE, far-oooh, adj. mf. (Lat. ferus) 1 (des bêtes, of animals) wild, shy. 2 (by extension) (des personnes, of persons) austere, grim, stern, fierce. Humme —, austere man. Peuples —s, savage people. Sans — geolier, his grim gaoler. Nos coeurs —s, our savage hearts. J.-J. Rousse. Naturel, humeur —, sullen disposition, temper. 3 (de l'air, des manières, of the air, look, manners) grim, sullen, wild. Air —, grim look. Oeil —, fierce eye. Regard —, sullen look. Mine —, surlily countenance. Un — oiguel, a fierce pride. Un — scrupule, a rigid scruple. Rac. Un — entretien, an awful interview. Rac. 4 (peu sociable) unsociable, shy, bashful. Daus sa jeunesse, il était très —, in his youth, he was very shy. FASCE, fas, sf. her. fesse.

FASGE, far-say, adj. m. fem. —e, her. fessy.

FASCIULE, fas-se-kâl, sm. (Lat. fasciulus) 1 pharm. fascicle, fasciculus. 2 (titre de livraison) number, part.

FASCIULE, fas-se-kâl-ray, adj. m. fem. —e, bot. fasciculate, fasciculated. Racines —es, fasciculated roots.

FASCI, fas-syay, adj. m. fem. —e, nat. hist. fasciate, fasciated.

FASCINAGE, fas-se-nah, sm. fascine-making, work made of fascines.

FASCINATEUR, fas-se-nah-uh, adj. m. fem. FASCINATRICE, fascinating.

FASCINATION, fas-se-nah-syong, sf. 1 fascination. Peu à peu la — agit sur vous, by degrees you become fascinated. Th. Gaut. fig. Cette étrange — des esprits se conçoit à peine, that strange fascination of the minds is hardly conceivable. 2 (des serpents, etc., of serpents, etc.) fascination.

FASCINE, fas-se-en, sf. (Lat. fascis) fascine, fagot.

FASCINE, ppa. of FASCINER, fem. —e, Il attachait sur elle des yeux fixes et perçants, qui la tiraient comme — e à sa place, he held her rooted to the spot as if fascinated under a fixed and piercing look. G. Sand.

FASCINER, fas-se-nay, va. 4 (ensorceler) to fascinate, to bewitch. 2 fig. (tromper) to fascinate. L'intérêt particulier fascine les yeux et rétrécit l'esprit, private interest fascinates the eyes, and contracts the mind. Volt. Cette indienne me fascine les yeux par ses manières gracieuses, that Indian woman fascinates my eyes by her graceful manners. Le Sage. — des esprits, to fascinate the minds. 3 (des serpents, of serpents) to fascinate.

FASCOLE, far-zay-ol, sf. bot. phasel.

FASIER, far-zay, sm. naut. to shiver.

FASHION, fab-shuh, sf. (Eng.) neol. fashion.

FASHIONABLE, fab-sho-nabl, adj. mf. (Eng.) 1 fashionable. 2 (satisfaisant) fashionable man, woman.

FASTE, fast, sm. 1 (pompe) pomp, magnificence. Le — du trône, the pomp of the throne. Volt. Le — des grands hommes, the pomp of human grandeur. Boss. 2 (luxu) display, ostentation. Le — des gens de cour, the ostentation of courtiers. C'est un homme sans —, he is a plain, simple man. Il n'offense point les yeux par trop de —, he does not offend the sight by an excess of ostentation. Volt. Il établit un — qui détruit bientôt sa fortune, he displayed an ostentation that soon destroyed his fortune. Barth. 3 (ostentation, éclat) ostentation, display, show. Ce — de vertu ne lui plut point, that parade of virtue did not please him. Volt. Sa parole simple et sans —, his simple and unaffected language. Fen. Agir sans —, sans affectation, to act unaffectedly and without ostentation. La Bruy.

FASTES, fast, sm. pl. (Lat. fasti) 1 Rom. antiq. annals, records. 2 fig. (registres publics) records. 3 fig. (histoire) annals. Les — de l'histoire, the annals of history. Inscrire son nom dans les — de la gloire, to inscribe one's name in the annals of glory. Les — de la monarchie, the annals of monarchy.

FASTIDIEUSEMENT, fas-te-dyuh-zement, adv. tediously, irksomely.

FASTIDIEUX, fas-te-dyuh, adj. m. fem. FASTIDIEUX, (Lat. fastidiosus) tedious, irksome. Un écritain —, a tedious writer. Une comédie fastidieuse, a dull comedy.

FASTIGIE, fas-te-zhay, adj. m. fem. —e, (Lat. fastigium) bot. fastigiate, fastigiated.

FASTUEUSEMENT, fas-ti-uhz-mang, adv. pompously, ostentatiously, gorgeously.

PASTEUR, fas-tü-nb, adj. m. fem.
PASTEURISER, 1 pompous, gorgeous.
 Un homme —, an ostentatious man. 2 (ou il y a du faste) ostentatious, full of display. Pompous. Train, équipage —, pompous equipage. Douleur fastueuse, ostentatious show of grief. Eloquence fastueuse, showy eloquence.

FAT, fat, adj. m. (Lat. fatuus) 1 (impertinent, sans jugement) foppish. Cet homme est bien —, he is quite a fop. Ces gens me rendront — si vous ne trouvez pas que la chose soit déjà faite, these people will make me conceited if you do not think me so already. Jacq. 2 (a prétention près des femmes) foppish, self-conceited. Ce jeune homme est trop —, that young man is too self-conceited. 3 am. pop. cozzomb.

FATAL, fat-al, adj. m. fem. —, (Lat. fatalis) 1 fatal. Le cheveu — de Nisus, the fatal lock of N. 2 (qu'on ne peut éviter) fatal. Quand l'heure — est arrivée, when the fatal hour has arrived. Le terme —, le terme — de notre vie, that fatal term of our lives. law. adjuv. Terme —, term of grace. poetic. La barque —, the fatal bark. 3 (qui entraîne avec soi quelque suite d'événements importants) fatal. En ces —es conjonctures, in those fatal conjunctures. Voici l'instant —, this is the fatal moment. 4 (funeste) fatal. Ambition —, fatal ambition. Les mortels requrent une atteinte —, the mortals receive a fatal blow. Mass. Son impétueuse colère lui fut —, to lui-même, his impetuous anger became fatal to himself. Boss. Depuis cette —, époque, since that fatal epoch. Cet événement porta le coup le plus —, one atteinte — à son crédit, that event gave a fatal blow to his credit. 5 absol. Le coup —, the fatal blow, stroke; death.

FATALEMENT, fat-al-mänt, adv. 1 fatally. 2 unluckily. Il arriva —, one, it unluckily happened that.

FATALISME, fat-al-izm, sm. fatalism. Le paisible — de l'Orient, the quiet fatalism of the East. Th. Gaut.

FATALISTE, fat-al-ist, sm. 1 fatalist. 2 (adjectif) fatalistic.

FATALITÉ, fat-al-ité, sf. 1 fatality. Croire à la —, to believe in fatality. 2 (hyperb.) (événement fâcheux) fatality, mischance. Par une certaine —, through some mischance. La même — qui accabla la Suède, avait, etc., the same fatality that overwhelmed Sweden had, etc. Volt. Une étrange —, a strange fatality. FATIDIQUE, fat-id-ik, adj. mf. (Lat. fatidicus) fatalistic, prophetic. Le vol — des oiseaux, the fatalistic flight of birds. Le trépidé —, the fatalistic tripod. fig. L'histoire est —, history is prophetic.

FATIGANT, fat-e-gäng, adj. m. fem. —, 1 fatiguing, tiring, toilsome. Un travail —, a fatiguing work. toil. 2 (qui demande une attention pénible) wearisome, irksome. Lecture, étude —, wearisome reading, study. 3 (important) tiresome, wearisome. C'est un homme —, he is a tiresome man. Des discours —, tiresome discourses.

FATIGUE, fat-ig, sf. 1 (travail, occupation pénible) fatigue, toil, hardship. Endurer, souffrir, supporter la —, to endure, to support, to stand fatigue. Se faire à la —, to accustom one's self to fatigue. S'endurcir à la —, to inure one's self to fatigue. Les —s de la guerre, the toils of war. L'âme supportée des —s que le corps se soutient pas, the mind supports fatigues which the body cannot stand up against. Volt. Être homme de —, to be a hardy man. Un cheval de —, a working horse. Un manteau de —, a cloak of all work. Un habit de —, a working-coat. La — de la voiture, la — du cheval, the fatigue of the drive, of the ride. 2 (lassitude, fatigue, weariness). Il est malade de —, he is ill of fatigue. En un moment la veüle endormie de —, in a moment she fell asleep with fatigue. Mme de Sév. Tomber de —, to break down with fatigue, to be knocked up.

FATIGUE, ppa. of fatiguer, fem. —, 1 fatigued, tired, wearied. Être, se sentir —, to be, to feel fatigued. — de la guerre, du repos, tired of war, of rest. Des troupes —es, fatigued troops. Un cheval —, a worn-out horse. Avoir la vue —, to have one's sight fatigued. Mon bras est —, j'ai le bras —, my arm is tired. 2 agri. Terre —, improved land. 3 fine arts. Tableau —, overworked painting. Couleurs —es, faded colours.

FATIGUER, fat-e-gay, ra. (Lat. fatigare) 1 to fatigue, to tire. Il fatigua mon bras à le couronner, he wearied my arm to crown him so often. Nod. Mes domaines fatiguent mes coarsers, my estates are so fast that my steeds are wearied before they reach the limits.

2 Hug. Il fatiguait son corps outre mesure pour donner du repos à son âme, he sought to repose his mind by an excess of bodily fatigue. Muss. Loin de la —, l'étude le laissait toujours plus libre, plus allègre, far from fatiguing him, he gained fresh strength from study. Saint. Sans rompre les rangs nous fatiguons les deux lignes du triangle, without breaking our lines we harass the two sides of the triangle. Chat. La vengeance fatigue l'âme, et la mienne a besoin d'un grand calme, vengeance fatigues the mind, and mine needs the greatest calm. Volt. Si les secousses de cette semaine n'ont pas trop fatigué mon cerveau, if the shocks of this week have not unsettled my brain. Ab. Une lumière trop vive fatigue la vue, too strong a light fatigues the sight. Son oisiveté le fatigue et lui pèse, his idleness is a heavy burden to him. Il ne faut — ni son imagination, ni le public, one must not tire out one's imagination or the public. Volt. Vous me fatiguez les oreilles avec vos contes, you lull me blind. absol. Ce livre qui se laisse passer par endroits de — un peu, this book which in certain parts is somewhat tiresome. Sic-B. fig. Il fatiguait la victoire à le savoir, he went too fast for victory to follow him. Bérang. fam. — une salade, to mix a salad well. 2 fig. (important) fatigue, to tire, to worry. Du cri de ses douleurs s'il fatigue mes nuits, ye, etc., when he disturbs my nights by his cries of pain. J., etc. C. Del. Ces hommes qui sous le nom de Grecs et de Romains fatiguent sans cesse l'univers de leur souvenir, these men who under the names of Greeks and Romans weary the universe with the memorials they have left behind them. Villem. Par des vœux importants nous fatiguons les dieux, we weary the gods with importunate prayers. La Font. poetic. — le ciel de ses vœux, de ses prières, to weary Heaven with one's wishes, one's prayers. 3 agri. — un champ, on terrain, to improve a field, a piece of ground. 4 paint. sculpt. — un ouvrage, to overwork a painting, a piece of sculpture. — la couleur, to overwork the colour.

FATIGUER, on. to work hard, to fatigue one's self, to tire one's self. Il fatigue trop, he fatigues himself too much.

SE FATIGER, upr. 1 to fatigue, to tire one's self, to be fatigued, tired. Je me fatigue mutuellement à lui expliquer cela, it is in vain that I fatigue myself with explaining that to him. Mes yeux commencent à se —, my eyes are beginning to be fatigued. Il s'est vainement fatigué à poursuivre le plus petit de ses fautes, it was in vain that he strained every nerve in the pursuit of the youngest error of my fawner. Nod. 2 fig. (se débattre) to be tired, to get tired. Se fatiguera-t-il de cette occupation aussi facilement que des autres? will he get tired of this occupation as easily as the others? Saint. Je me fatigue de la répétition des mêmes idées, I am wearied of the repetition of the same ideas. Chat. (impers.) A moins qu'il ne se fatigue de vivre, unless you are weary of life. V. Hug.

FATRAS, fah-trah, sm. medley, jumble, trash, lumber. Un — de livres, de papiers, d'écritures, a litter of books, of papers, of writings. fig. Un — de paroles, a jumble of words. Un livre plein de —, a book full of trash. Ce n'est qu'un —, it is nothing but patch-work. Nos vains — de lois, our confused mass of laws. Volt.

FATUITÉ, fah-tü-é, sf. 1 self-conceitedness, conceit, conceitedness, puppyism. 2 (discours) piece of impertinence.

FATUUM, fat-üm, sm (Lat.) fate. FAUBERT, to bayr, naut. mop, swab. FAUBOURG, fo-bür, sm. 1 suburb. 2 (abusivement) Le — Saint-Germain, the faubourg St Germain. prov. fig. On y voit la ville et les —, all the world and his wife are there.

FAUCHAGE, fo-shahz, sm. mowing. FAUCHAISON, to-shay-zong, sf. mowing-time.

FAUCHE, fosh, sf. mowing-time, mowing.

FAUCHÉE, fo-shay, sf. day's mowing. FAUCHER, fo-shay, ra. 1 to mow, to mow down (de l'avoine, de l'orge, d'avoine, d'orge) les foins, hays. — les prés, to mow the meadows. fig. Ce qu'il a fauché du troupeau des humains, what he has mowed down of the human race. Muss. acc. — le grand pré, to be a galley-slave. prov. fig. La mort fauche tout, le temps fauche tout, death mows down all, time destroys every thing.

FAUCHER, on. naut. (d'un cheval, d'un cheval) to throw the forelegs sideways in walking.

FAUCHET, fo-shay, sm. agri. hay-rake. FAUCHEUR, fo-shür, sm. 1 hay-maker, mower. 2 ent. spinner, field-spider, shepherd-spider, daddy-long-legs.

FAUCHEUSE, fo-shah, sm. ent. See FAUCHER 2.

FAUCILLE, fo-see-yuh, sf. sickle, reaping-hook. Il est temps de mettre la — dans la moisson, it is time to begin harvest. prov. ironic. Cela est droit comme une —, that is as straight as a ram's horn.

FAUCILLON, fo-se-yong, sm. agri. bill-hook.

FALCON, fo-kong, sm. (Lat.) orn. falcon. Chasser avec le —, to hawk. Découvrir le —, to unhood the falcon. Lancer le —, to let loose, to let fly the falcon.

FALCONNEAU, fo-ko-no, sm. 1 anc. artill. falcon. Coup de —, falcon-shot. Balle de —, falcon ball. 2 orn. young falcon.

FALCONNERIE, fo-kou-ree, sf. 1 (art) falconry. 2 (la chasse) falconry, hawk-ing. 3 (le lieu) falconry.

FAUCONNIER, fo-ko-nyay, sm. falconer. Des gants de —, to mount a horse on the right side. anc. Grand —, grand falconer.

FALCONNIÈRE, fo-ko-nyay, sf. 1 hawking-bag. 2 (toile espèce de gibecière à l'arçon de la selle) saddle-bag.

FAUFILÉ, ppa. of faufiler, fem. —, fig. Des aiguilles avec qui j'avais été — à T., sharpeners with whom I had kept company at T. Le Sage.

FAUFILER, fo-le-ly, ra. to baste, to tack. — une jupe, to baste a skirt.

SE FAUFILER, upr. 1 (se glisser à travers la foule) to slip through, in, info. On passe, on se faufile, one passes, one slips through. C. Del. 2 fig. (s'insinuer) to ingratiate one's self with, to intrude one's self, to thrust one's self forward.

Nous n'avons pas eu de peine à nous — iel, dans le monde, we had no difficulty here, in making our way into society. De Bros. Je ne faulble bientôt avec les principaux seigneurs, I soon pick up acquaintance with the principal noblemen. Le Sage.

FAULX, fo. sf. See FAX.
FAUNE, fôn, sm. (Lat. faunus) myth. foun.

FAUNE, fo. nat. hist. fauna.
FAUSSAIRE, fo-syr, sm. forger.
FAUSSE, ppa. of FAUSSE, fem. — e, 1 bent. Ciel — e, key bent. 2 fig. warped. Ces hommes dont l'esprit est — par la révolution, those men whose minds are warped by the revolution. St-B. 3 (enfreint) broken. Promesse faite par faiblesse, — e par raison, a promise made through weakness that reason breaks. Volt.
FAUSSEMENT, fôs-mang, adv. falsely, wrongfully, untruly.

FAUSSEUR, fo-say, ra. 1 (faire plier) to bend, to dint, to force, to twist. — une lame, to bend a blade; un écanon de fusil, the barrel of a gun; — une règle de cuivre, un compas, a copper ruler, a pair of compasses. — une encreuse, to dint a encreuse. — une serrure, to force a lock. — une clef, to bend a key. 2 (by extension) (rendre faux) to strain, to warp. Cela lui a faussé la voix, that has put his voice out of tune. La lecture des romans lui a faussé l'esprit, the reading of novels has warped his mind. — le sens d'un texte, d'une loi, to strain the sense of a text, of a law. fig. G. dont les paroles de M. faussaient la situation, G. whose situation was rendered precarious by the speech of M. Lamart. 3 (enfreindre) to break, to violate, to go from. G. qui a déjà deux fois faussé sa promesse, C. who has already broken his promise twice. St-B. — son serment, sa parole, to violate one's oath, to go from one's word. On ne pourrait me reprendre d'avoir faussé ma foi, they should not be able to reproach me for having broken my faith. Mich. 4 — conjugué, to give the slip.

SE FAUSSER, ppr. 1 (se payer) to bend, to be bent. 2 (de la voix, of the voice) to get out of tune. 3 (de l'esprit, of the mind) to be warped.

FAUSSET, fo-say, sm. 4 falsetto, hand voice. Chantier en —, to sing in falsetto. Avoir une voix de —, parler d'un ton de —, to have a shrill voice, to speak in a shrill tone. L'autre l'appelant de son maître — the other calling him in a thin piping voice. Boil. 2 (d'un tonneau, of a cask) spigot.

FAUSSETÉ, fôs-tay, sf. 1 falsity, falseness. La — de ses allegations, the falsity of his allegations. A ce discours dont il ne pouvait prouver la —, at this discourse, the falsity of which he could not prove. Le Sage. — d'écriture, de date, forged writing, false date. La — du compte, the misstatement of the account. 2 (chose fausse) falsehood, untruth. 3 (duplicite) falseness, deceit. Il n'y avait en lui que —, he was made up of nothing but deceit. Cet homme est la — même, that man is falseness itself.

FAUTE, fôt, sm. 1 fault. Faire, commettre une —, to commit a fault. Réparer sa —, ses —s, to make amends for one's fault. Tomber en —, to make a slip, to fall into error. Prendre quelqu'un en —, to catch a person tripping. De ce bourg je veux punir les —s, I will chastise the faults of this town. La Font. Ils portent la peine de leurs —s passées, they pay the penalty of their past faults. Ses grandes qualités et ses grandes actions l'ont emporté sur ses —s, his great qualities and great actions have thrown his faults into the shade. Volt. Vous êtes en —, you are in fault. 2 (erreur, maladresse) fault, error, mistake, blunder.

— de langue, de grammaire, falso grammar, fault in grammar. Pour des —s d'arithmétique qu'il aura faites dans ses mémoires de dépense, for a few mistakes in calculation that he made in his account of expenditure. Le Sage. — d'orthographe, a fault of spelling, wrong spelling. — de style, fault in style. — contre la politesse, contre la bienséance, want of politeness, of propriety. — contre le goût, want of taste. Il n'y a aucune — dans son thème, there is no fault in his exercise. Faire des —s contre la vraisemblance dans une scène de théâtre, to overstep probability in a play. Une — de jugement, contre le jugement, an error in judgment. Pour commencer à réparer cette — d'attention, je te donne, as some amends for this carelessness of attention, I give you. Le Sage. En guerre comme en politique il n'y a pas de petites —s, in war as in politics, there are no trifling faults. Les plus expérimentés dans les affaires sont des —s capitales, the most experienced men of business make important mistakes. Boss. Un général victorieux n'a point fait de —s aux yeux du public, a general when victorious has committed no fault in the eyes of the public. Boss. Faire des —s au jeu, to make mistakes in playing. Ils font sur —, they committed fault after fault. Je me suis souvent trouvé en sur mes raisonnements, I have often found myself mistaken in my reasoning. J.-R. Rouss. 3 (relativement à une personne que l'on accuse) fault. Rejeter la — sur un autre, to lay the fault on another man's door. On ne peut pas lui en imputer la —, the fault cannot be imputed to him. La — en est à nous, the fault is ours. V. Hug. Ce sera bien ma — si je ne m'y retrouve pas, it will be my own fault, if I cannot find my way again. Müss. Si l'entreprise a échoué, c'est la — d'un tel, c'est par la — d'un tel, if the enterprise failed, it was the fault of So-and-so. Ce n'est pas par — que cela est arrivé, that did not happen through any fault of his. A qui la — ? à qui en est la — ? whose fault is it? Est-ce ma — à moi ? is it my fault? Is this — fault of mine ? (des choses, of things) fault. Quand il était vaincu on ne pouvait en imputer la — qu'à la fortune, when he was vanquished, the fault could only be imputed to Fortune. Flech. L'instruction par elle-même est bonne, et ce n'est pas sa —, si, elle, instruction in itself is good, it is not its fault if, etc. Laurent. C'est là — des circonstances, the circumstances must bear the blame. Ab. 4 (imperfection en quelque ouvrage) defect. 5 (manque, disette) want, dearth, scarcity. Vous n'aurez pas — de gens qui vous le demanderont, you will be in want of people to ask it of you. On eut — de blé, there was a dearth of corn. Il eût, avait — d'argent, money was scarce. Mange, et ne te fais pas —, de ce brouet ou miel, eat, and do not spare this brogue with honey. Nod. Ne vous faites — de mes services, make me as useful as you can. Reste, ami, ne te fais — de rien, remain, friend, make yourself at home. Pons. Puisque je suis venu ici pour me divertir, je ne m'en ferai pas —, since I came here for amusement, I do not mean to stir myself. S'il arrivait — de lui, s'il venait — de lui, if anything should happen to him. Faire —, to be misad, to fail. Vous n'êtes pas venu, vous nous avez fait —, you did not come, we missed you. L'argent qu'il me doit me fait bien —, I miss sadly the money he owes me. 6 (jeu de nomme, at tennis) fault. Deux —s valent quinze, two faults count for fifteen. prov. Les —s sont pour les joueurs, one player's mistake is the other's advantage.

FAUTE DE, prep. for want of. — d'une seule personne sur dix officiers de dire on mot d'anglais, as not one out of ten officers could speak a word of English. Jacq. Elle allait mourir — de trouver une personne assez dévouée pour sucer la plaie, she was about to die for want of a person sufficiently devoted to such the wound. Th. Gaut. On fait de la politesse — de mieux, one dabbles in politeness for lack of something better. St-B. Trois fautes à piston que nous aurions pas servies, — de capotes, three perfections guns that would have been of no use to us for want of perfections-caps. Ab. — de reculer, leur chute fut commune, as none of them would yield, each fell down. La Font. — de savoir un seul mot d'anglais, for want of knowing a single word of English. Aug. Th. C., — de comprendre, ne lui répondait pas, C., as she understood him not, never answered. G. Saud.

SANS FAUTE, adv. loc. without fault. J'y serai demain sans —, I shall be there to-morrow without fault.

FAUTEUIL, fo-tuh-yoh, sm. 1 arm-chair, elbow-chair. 2 fig. (place à l'académie française) academic chair. 3 absol. (la présidence) chair.

—, to fill the chair, || to be president.

FAUTEUR, fo-tuh, sm. FACTICES, fem. (Lat. factor) (in a bad part) abettor, fomenter, upholder. Les premiers —s de l'insurrection, the first fomenters of the insurrection. Aug. Th. — d'hérésie, abettor of heresy. Les — d'un crime, the abettors of a crime.

FAUTIF, fo-tif, adj. m. fem. FAUTIVE, 1 fautly, incorrect. Cet auteur est — dans ses citations, that author is incorrect in his quotations. La mémoire des vieillards est ordinairement fautive, the memory of old men is generally defective. 2 (plein de fautes) faulty.

FAUVE, fôv, adj. faul. (Lat. falvus) 4 fallow, fawn-coloured. Poul —, fawn-coloured hair. Bêtes en veau — bound in plann calf. Bêtes —s, deer. Une bête —, a fallow deer. Chasser aux bêtes —, to hunt the deer. 2 (substantif).

(la couleur) fallow. 3 (substantif) (collectif) (la bête) the deer. Il y a du — dans cette forêt, there are deer in that forest.

FAUVETTE, fo-vet, sf. oru warbler. — à tête noire, black cap.

FAUX, fo, sf. (Lat. falsus) 1 scythe. Emaucher une —, to put a handle to a scythe. Chariots armés de —, chariots armed with scythes. fig. La — impitoyable du temps, de la mort, the pitiless scythe of time, of death. 2 adv. falsely.

FAUX, adv. m. fem. FAUSSE, (Lat. falsus) 1 false. C'est —, that is false. — témoignage, false witness. On sait assez combien tous ces bruits sont —, it is well known how false those reports are. Volt.

Fausse nouvelle, false news. — serment, false oath, perjury. C'est mon aversion que les —s détails, mais j'aime les vrais, false particulars are my aversion, but I delight in the true ones. M^{me} de Sév. Fausse doctrine, false, un sound doctrine. Il est — que je vous aie dit cela, it is false that I told you that. Avoir en — air de quelqu'un, to have a sort of likeness to a person. — emploi, false statement, embezzlement. — témoin, false witness. 2 (mal fondée) false, unfounded. Il fut séduit par de fausses espérances, he was deceived by false appearances. Volt.

point d'honneur, false point of honour. Fausse honte, false shame, bashfulness. Ce moment de fausse joie, this moment of false joy, is soon and so cruelly punished. J.-J. Rouss. 3 lit. fine arts, false, jarring, grating, discordant. 4 (irrégulier) irregular. Vers —, irregular verse. her. Armes fausses, improper blazoning.

Pli, crease. 5 mus. false, discordant. Vix fausse, discordant voice. Intonation fausse, false intonation. Note fausse, note out of tune. Fausse note, false note.

Fausse corde, untuned string. Corde fausse, undueable string. 6 (qui manque d'exactitude) false, warped, unsound. Calcul — false calculation. Argument, raisonnement — false argument, reasoning. Avoir le goût — l'esprit —, le jugement —, to have a false taste, a warped mind, an unsound judgment. 7 (qui n'est pas tel qu'il doit être) false, wrong. La balle a fait ou — wound, the ball did not bound straight. Faire on — pas, to slip. Fausse position, false position. Prendre une fausse route, to take a wrong road. Faire une fausse démarche, to take a wrong step. paint. — jour, bad light, false light. — feu, missed fire. naut. Faire une fausse manœuvre, to work a ship wrongly; || fig. to make a wrong move. Faire fausse route, to alter the course; || fig. to deviate from the right course. (théâtre) Faire une fausse sortie, to make a sham exit. arith. Règle de fausse position, rule of false position. ment. Fausse couche, miscarriage. lig. Faire un — pas, to make a slip. 8 (supposé, altéré) false, spurious, counterfeit, forged. — contrat, false contract, spurious deed. — poids, false weight. — testament, forged will. Fausse signature, forged signature. Fausse date, false date. — ordre, a forged order. Fausse monnaie, counterfeit coin, base money. — mouneyeur, coiner. anc. — sel, smuggled salt. absol. A fausse enseigne, with wrong marks. fig. C'est une fausse pièce, une fausse lame, he is a mistaken friend. 9 (qui est postiche) false, counterfeit, sham, artificial. — toupet, loose. Fausse barbe, false beard. — mollet, false calf. Pierre fausse, false imitation stone. Or —, tinsel. Fausse vertu, feigned virtue. Fausse douceur, pretended mildness. — semblaient d'amitié, pretence of friendship. Fausse porte, sham-door. Fausse clef, picklock. — tent, fugitive dye. mil. Fausse porte, back-door, back-gate. fort. Fausse-bras, counter-breast work, fausse-bruy. mil. Fausse attaque, sham attack. mil. Fausse alarme, false alarm; || fig. false alarm. C'était une fausse alerte, it was a false alert. Merin. fig. — brillants, tinsel. 10 (des personnes, of persons) false. — prophète, false prophet. Il est de — devots ainsi que de — braves, there are men who put on a show of devotion as others put on a show of bravery. Mil. — ami, false friend. Qui, ma chère, c'étaient de — gen darmes, yes, dear, they were false panderers. Il s'est glissé parmi eux un — frère qui les a trahis, a false friend had crept among them who betrayed them. 11 (qui affecte des sentiments qu'il n'a pas) false, deceitful. C'est un homme —, one femme fausse, he is a false man, she is a false woman. Cœur —, false heart. Caractère —, inimicable character. prov. Être — comme un jeton, to be as false as a brass shilling. (de l'air, du visage, etc., of the face, the manners, etc.) Air —, deceitful look. Cet homme a la mine fausse, le regard —, that man has a deceitful look. 12 nat. hist. false. — grenats, false grenats. bot. — acacia, robinia. — élienier, laburnum. 13 (by analogy) — fourreau, pistol-bag. — iris, extra, incidental expenses. Fausse équerre, benel. arch. — plancher, — plafond, false roof. Un — plafond de toile, a cloth roof. naut. — pont, orlop deck, platform. gard. — bois, shark ribs. anat. Fausse côtes, costal ribs. mus. — board, chacramus, false board. priut. — titre, half, bastard title.

FAUX-FRONT, sm. pl. FAUX-FRONTS. 1 by-place, by-way. 2 hant. by-way, by-path. 3 fig. (échappatoire) subterfuge, evasion, shift.

FAUX, sm. 1 false, falsehood. Distinguer le — d'avec le vrai, to distinguish truth from falsehood. prov. Plai der le — pour savoir le vrai, to extract the truth from a person by the assertion of a falsehood. 2 law. forgery. — en écriture authentique, forgery of the writing of a public officer. — en écriture privée, forgery of the writing of a private person. Crime de —, crime of forgery. fig. S'inscrire en — contre une proposition, to enter an allegation, to undertake to prove that a proposition, an allegation is false.

FAUX, adv. falsely, false. Raisonner —, to argue falsely. Chanter —, to sing out of tune. Jurer —, to swear falsely. 4 aux, adv. loc. wrongfully. Accuser —, to accuse wrongfully. Aller à — en quelque endroit, to go to wild goose chase; || Porter à —, to be out of perpendicular. (substantif.) Ce mur est en porte à —, that wall is out of perpendicular. fig. Ce raisonnement, cet argument porte à —, this reasoning, that argument is destitute of foundation.

FAVEUR, fav-nr, sf. (Lat. favor) 1 favour, boon. Fais-moi la —, do me the favour to. La vie m'a été donnée comme une —, life was given me as a boon. Montesq. Mesurer ses —s au mérite des hommes, to grand favours according to merit. Th. Corn. Ce sont des —s du Ciel, these are favours of Heaven. (théâtre) Entrée de —, free admission, order. La pièce a obtenu au tour de —, the piece was received before its turn. fig. Les —s de la fortune, the favours of fortune. La guerre a ses —s aussi que ses disgrâces, war has its smiles as well as its frowns. Rac. 2 (marque d'amour) favour, 3 (bienveillance) favour, grace, good-will. La — des grands, the favour of the great. Ce discours lui accueilli avec une — marquée, this discourse was received with marked favour. Vous avez là — du soldat, you have the good-will of the soldier. Rac. absol. Il doit tout à la —, he owes every thing to favour. C'est une affaire de —, it is a thing that goes by favour. Volt. La — l'a pu faire, tant que le mérite, favour may have raised him there, as well as merit. Corn. La — fait rarement de bons choix, favour seldom makes a good choice. Mass. Homme de —, gens de —, a man that has risen, people that have risen through favour. Place, emploi de —, place, employment obtained by favour. 5 (credit) interest, credit. Abuser de sa —, to abuse one's credit. Être en —, en grande —, to be in credit, in great credit. 5 Trouver — auprès de quelqu'un, to find favour in the eyes of a person. Prendre —, to take. Cette marchandise, cette opinion, ce livre prend —, these goods, this opinion, that book takes. 6 S'attacher, se dévouer à la —, to devote one's self to favour. 7 (indulgence; favour. C'est un cas de —, un arrêt de —, it is a favourable case, a mild sentence. Jours de —, days of grace. 8 (urban) silk ferret.

EN FAVEUR DE, adv. loc. 1 (for the sake of, on account of). Vous l'excuserez en la —, you would excuse him for the sake of the motive. Merin. 2 (au profit de) in behalf of, in favour of. Tester, faire son testament en — de quelqu'un, to make a will in favour of a person. Il avait sa — le prévenir en sa —, he had preposessed him in his favour.

À LA FAVEUR DE, prep. under cover, under favour of. Il s'est sauvé à la — de la nuit, he escaped under cover of the night.

FAVORABLE, fav-o-rabl', adj. mf. (Lat. favorabilis) 1 favourable. Avoir un temps — un vent —, to have favourable weather, a fair wind. La fortune commençait à lui devenir —, fortune began to be favourable to him. Volt. Occasion —, favourable occasion. Endroit — pour aborder, a favourable spot for landing. Se rendre quelqu'un —, to propitiate a person. J. fut encore à leur vœux —, J. once more granted their prayers. La Font. Soyez-moi —, be favourable to me. 2 sa cause est toute —, his is quite a favourable cause. 3 (qui est à l'avantage) favourable.

FAVORABLEMENT, fav-o-rah-bloh-ming, adv. favourably.

FAVORI, fav-o-ree, adj. m. fem. —TE, (Lat. favor) 1 favourite. C'est mon motif —, it is his favourite expression. Un des sujets —s de ses paisibles entretiens, one of the favourite topics of his quiet conversations. J.-J. Rouss. Auteur —, favourite author. Couleur —te, favourite colour. Passion —te, ruling passion. La sultane —te, the favourite sultana. C'est son cheval, son chien, son oiseau —, it is his favourite horse, dog, bird. 2 (substantif.) (d'une personne, of persons) favourite. Le — d'un roi, a king's favourite. —TE, (maîtresse d'un roi) favourite. 3 (substantif.) (objet d'une prédilection) favourite. Cet acteur est le — du public, this actor is the favourite of the public. fig. Les —s de la Fortune, the favourites of Fortune. Les —s d'Apollon, the favourites of Apollo. 4 (substantif.) whisker.

FAVORISE, fav-o-ree, pp. of FAVORISER, fem. —E. Être — des dames, to be favoured by the ladies. fig. Un homme peu — de la nature, des dons de la fortune, a man towards whom nature, Fortune has been sparing of his gifts.

FAVORISER, fav-o-re-ryz, va. (from favori) 1 to favour, to befriend. Que Votre Altesse daigne agréer mes remerciements, comme elle a bien voulu — ma pitié, may your Highness please to accept my thanks, as you have been pleased to grant my prayer. Volt. Les H. favoriseront la rébellion de ses peuples, the H. favoured the rebellion of those peoples. Montesq. Les ducs de B. favoriseront ce projet, the dukes of B. favoured this project. Bar. — quelqu'un de quelque chose, to favour a person with a thing. fig. La nature l'a favorisé, he has been favoured by nature. Les ducs de B. favorisés de ses dons, nature has endowed him, not endowed him with her gifts. 2 (secondar) to favour, to aid, to assist. Le temps nous a favorisés, the weather favoured us. Si le vent nous favorise, if we have a fair wind. L'oblique nature favorise on ne peut mieux les exigences du commerce, compliant nature favours to the utmost the exigencies of commerce. Nery. Des instruments prêts à — ses dessins, instruments fit for the furtherance of his designs. Volt. Tout sembla alors — ses vœux, everything seemed to favour his wishes. Barth. L'obscurité favorisait notre fait, the darkness favoured our flight. 3 (aider à) to favour, to aid. (le développement de l'industrie, des arts, etc., the development of industry, of arts, etc.)

FAVORITISME, fav-o-re-tism', sm. favouritism.

FAYARD, fab-yar, sm. (Lat. fages) bot. beech.

FAÏENCE, FAÏENCERIE, etc., See FAÏENCE, etc.

FEAGE, fab-azh, sm. feud. law. fcoffo-vent, freehold, free tenure.

FÉAL, fab-ai, adj. m. fem. —E, pl. m. FEUX. 4 absol. trusty, liege, faithful. A nos aïeux et à leurs —, to our trusty and well-beloved. 2 absol. (substantif.) C'est moi —, c'est son —, he is my, his intimate friend.

FÉBRICITANT, fab-bre-se-tang, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 med. feverish, afflicted with an ague. 2 (substantif.) person afflicted with an intermittent fever. FÉBRIFUGE, fab-bre-fûth, adj. ra. (Lat. febris, fuge) 1 med. febrifuge, antifebrile. Une plante —, a febrifuge plant. 2 sm. febrifuge, antifebrile.

FÉBRILE, fab-bril, adj. mf. med. f-sbrie. Chaleur —, febrile heat. Pouls —, febrile pulse. Mouvement —, febrile action. (by extension) La saison pluvieuse et — le surprit dans cette occasion, the rainy and febrile season surprised him in this occasion. Lamart.

FÉCALE, fay-kal, adj. f. Matière —, feces, excrement.

FÉCES, af. pi. surg. pharm. feces, sédiment, dregs.

FÉCOND, fay-kong, adj. m. fem. —, (Lat. fecundus) 1 fruitif, fertile, prolific, teeming. fig. Et pour l'éternité la mort seule est — e, and death alone produces for eternity. C. Del. 2 (by extension) (futile) fertile, teeming. Une terre — e, a fertile land. Sol —, teeming soil. Mine — e, fertile mine; 3 fig. C'est des sources de Verreux, celle qui est la plus — e, it is one of the most fertile sources of errors. Montesq. 3 fig. (abundant) fertile, fruitful. Une ville, une famille — en grands hommes, a town, a family fertile in great men. Un siècle — en découvertes, an age fruitful in discoveries. C'est l'homme de son temps le plus — en ressources, he was the man the most fertile in resources of his time. Volt. Avoir l'esprit —, l'imagination — e, la veine — e, to have a fruitful imagination. Principe —, prolific principle. 4 (qui fertilise) génital. Les luies — et les rosées bienfaisantes, the genial rains and beneficial dew. Boss. Une chaleur douce et — e anime et fait éclore tous les germes de la vie, a mild and genial heat animates and opens all the germs of life. Boss.

FÉCONDANT, fay-kong-dang, adj. m. fem. —, fecundating, fertilizing, genial. Matière — e, fecundating matter. Principe —, fertilizing principle. Chaleur, pluie — e, genial warmth, rain.

FÉCONDATION, fay-kong-dah-syong, af. fécondation, impregnation.

FÉCONDÉ, ppa. of FÉCOND, fem. — s. Germe —, a fecundated germ. L'esprit — par la science et multiplié par le temps, the mind fecundated by science and multiplied by time. Lamart.

FÉCONDER, fay-kong-lay, va. (Lat. fecundare) 1 to fecundate, to impregnate. — un germe, to fecundate a germ. 2 (rendre fertile) to fertilize. La pluie a fécondé nos campagnes, the rain has fertilized our fields. fig. Le malheur, ami, déchire ton âme, c'est pour la —, misfortune, friend, is tearing thy soul, it is to fertilize it. V. Flug.

FÉCONDITÉ, fay-kong-le-tay, sf. (Lat. fecunditas) fecundity, fruitfulness, fertility. fig. La — de l'esprit, the fertility of the mind.

FÉCULE, fay-kül, sf. (Lat.) fecula. (de pommes de terre, de patate, de patates, of manioc).

FÉCULENT, fay-kü-läng, adj. m. fem. — s, feculent.

FÉCULENNE, fay-kül-rex sf. fecula manufactory.

FÉCULEUX, fay-kü-lub, adj. m. fem. féculense, cheu. feculous, feculent.

FÉDÉRAL, fay-day-ral, adj. m. fem. — s. (Lat. fedus) federal. Gouvernement —, federal government. Constitution — e, federal constitution.

FÉDÉRATIF, fay-day-rat-if, adj. m. fem. fédérative, (Lat. federatus) 1 fédérative. République fédérative, fédérative republic. 2 (federal) fédérative, fédérative. Gouvernement —, fédérative government.

SE FÉDÉRALISER, fay-day-rat-e-zay, vpr. to fédéralize.

FÉDÉRATION, fay-day-rab-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 federation, confederation. 2 Fr. rev. federation.

FÉDÉRÉ, fay-day-ray, adj. m. fem. — s, 1 fédérale. Les États — s, the fédérale States. 2 sm. Fr. ret. fédérale.

SE FÉDÉRER, fay-day-ray, vpr. to fédéralize.

FÉE, fay, sf. fairy. La baguette d'une —, the wand of a fairy. Contes de — s, fairy tales. fig. C'est une —, she is a fairy. C'est un ouvrage de — s, it is a work of the fairies. Travailler comme une —, to work like a fairy.

FÉER, fay-ay, va. obsol. to enchant, to charm. Nous fîmes le procès à un vieux coq en lui disant, je te fee et te refée d'être bricassée de poulet, mais, etc., we took an old cock to task, saying, I command thee to be turned into a friecasse, but alas, etc. De Bross.

FÉERIE, fay-ree, sf. 1 enchantment, fairy-art, magic power. (by extension) Cette princesse dont la — (natrelle avait ensorcelé les cœurs, that princess whose natural gifts had bewitched all hearts. S'-B. 2 (merveilleux) pantomime, fairy travagance. 3 fig. C'est une —, one vral —, it is fairyland, quite fairy-land.

FÉERIQUE, fay-rik, adj. mf. 1 fairy. Danse —, fairy dance. 2 (admirable) Danse —, 3 in spectacle —, a fairy show.

FÉINDRE, fangdr, va. irreg. FEIGNANT; FEINT; JE FEINS, TO FEINS, IL FEINT, NOUS FEIGNONS, VOUS FEIGNEZ, ILS FEIGNENT; JE FEIGNAIS, NOUS FEIGNIONS; JE FEIGNIS, NOUS FEIGNÎMES; JE FEINDRAI, NOUS FEINDRONS; JE FEINDRAIS, NOUS FEINDRIONS; FEINS, FEIGNONS; QUE JE FEIGNE; QUE NOUS FEIGNIONS; QUE JE FEIGNISSE, QUE NOUS FEIGNISSIONS, (Lat. fingere) 1 to feign, to sham, to pretend. — une maladie, to feign an illness. — de la joie, to feign joy. obsol. Feignons de n'en savoir rien, let us pretend to know nothing about it. Flor. 4 Ce bruit, feignant de s'échapper, of this noise, pretending to s'effray, Rac. Je feignis d'en avoir envie comme d'un trésor. I pretended to long for it as for a treasure. Ab. Je feignis de choisir un brio d'herbe, I pretended to choose a blade of grass. Ab. Elle feignit de s'adoucir au peu de notre faveur, she feigned to relent a little in our favour. Nod. Feignut de préparer ses crayons, il regardait, pretending to be busy with his pencils, he looked. Mery. Pourquoi — à nos yeux une fausse tristesse? why put on before us a semblance of sadness? Rac. Feignant de le regarder comme un ordre du prince, pretending to consider it as an order from the prince. Le Sage. Feignant d'être fatigué, pretending to be tired. Merim. obsol. Savoir —, to know how to dissimble. L'ouvrier vous déçut, il avait la liberté de —, the workman has deceived you, he was free to feign. La Font. Pour venir jusqu'à toi, comme toi j'ai dû —, to gain access to you, I have been obliged to dissimble, like you. C. Del. 2 (inventer) to feign, to suppose. Il feint des choses qui ne sont pas vraisemblables, he imagines things that have no likelihood in them. Ce poète a feint des héros qui n'ont jamais existé, that poet has forged heroes that never existed.

FEINDRE, vm. obsol. 1 to hesitate, to scruple. (avec la préposition à, with the prep. à) Nous feignions à vous aborder, de peur de vous interrompre, we hesitate whether to accost you for fear of interrupting you. Mol. 2 — en marchant, to limp.

SE FEINDRE, vpr. 1 to be feigned. 2 (à soi-même) to feign. I pretend to be, to imagine to one's self. Il se feignait à lui-même un peuple pour auditoire, he called up to his imagination a people for audience. Lamart.

FEINT, fang, ppa. of FEINDRE, fem. — e, a feigned, pretended, sham, counterfeit. Un mal —, a feigned illness. Une amitié — e, pretended friendship. Les larmes qu'il versait sur son cercueil étaient — es, the tears he let fall over his bier were feigned. Lamart. De — es caresses, false caresses. Une histoire — e, a fabulous story. 2 arch. Porte — e, colonne — e, fenêtre — e, etc., blind door, imitation column, blind window, etc.

FEINTE, fangt, sf. 1 feint, sham, pretence. Toute sa dévotion n'est que —, all his devotion is nothing but pretence.

Parlez sans —, speak frankly. Il en vint vingt par cette —, he took twenty with this ruse. Flor. Le succès de ma — a passé mon espérance, the success of my invention has exceeded my hopes. G. Sand. 2 fenc. finet. 3 print. friar. 4 vet. slight limp.

FEINTISE, fang-tiz, sf. obsol. feint, pretence, sham.

FÉLUSPATH, feld-spal, sm. (Ger.) min. feldspath, feldspar.

FÈLE, ppa. of FÈLER, fem. — e, cracked. Un pot — en verre —, a cracked pot, glass. fig. Poitrine — e, weak chest. Avoir la tête — e, le timbre —, to be cracked-brained. prov. fig. Les pots — s sont ceux qui durent le plus, ailing people live longest.

FÈLER, fay-lay, va. (d'un verre, d'un cristal, of a glass, of crystal) to crack.

SE FÈLER, vpr. (d'un vase, etc., of a vase, etc.) to crack, to be cracked.

FÉLICITATION, fay-le-se-tah-syong, sf. congratulation, felicitation. Lettre de —, a congratulatory letter. J'ai lui en faire mes — s, I will go and congratulate him. Recevez mes — s, receive my congratulations; I wish you joy.

FÉLICITE, fay-le-se-tay, sf. (Lat. felicitas) 1 felicity, bliss, happiness. La — éternelle, eternal felicity. Votre — me sert de consolation, your happiness serves me as a consolation. Volt. La — publique, public happiness. Volt. 2 — s, pl. blessings. Les — s de ce monde sont peu durables, the blessings of this world are of short duration.

FÉLICITER, fay-le-se-tay, va. to congratulate, to felicitate. — quelqu'un sur son mariage, to congratulate a person upon his marriage.

SE FÉLICITER, 1 ppr. to congratulate one's self. Je me félicite d'avoir fait un si bon choix, I congratulate myself on having made so good a choice. 2 recip. Les peuples se félicitent d'avoir un roi qui lui ressemble, nations will rejoice at having a king resembling him. Mass.

FÉLIN, fay-läng, adj. m. fem. —, 1 zool. feline. Espère, race — e, feline species, race. 2 fr. Des caresses — es, feline caresses. Balz.

FÉLON, fay-long, adj. m. fem. — s, — e, felon, felonious. Un vassal —, a rebellious vassal. 2 obsol. (aux) felon, treacherous. Un cœur —, a felon heart. Un regard —, a fierce look.

FÉLONIE, fay-lo-nee, sf. felony. Crime de —, felony. Atteint et convaincu de —, duly convicted of felony.

FÉLOQUE, fuh-look, sf. naat. felucca.

FÊLURE, fay-lür, sf. crack.

FEMELLE, fuh-mél, sf. 1 (des bêtes, of beasts) female. Le mâle et la —, the male and female. 2 (se dit quelquefois des femmes, quand il s'agit de succession ou de généalogie) female. 3 (in joke) female, sch. Le sont d'affreuses créatures que les — s de l'espèce humaine en ce pays, the females of the species called man are frightful creatures in this country. Jacq. Ne vous fiez point à cette femme, c'est une dangereuse —, don't trust that woman, she is a dangerous creature. 4 (adjectif) female. Un serin —, a female canary-bird. Une perdrix mâle, une perdrix —, a cock partridge a hen partridge. fig. C'est un démon —, that woman is a she-devil. Duche. —, See ocan. 5 bot. female. Un palmier —, a female palmtree.

FÉMININ, fay-me-nang, adj. m. fem. — s, 1 feminine, womanly, woman-kind. Le sexe —, the female sex, woman-kind. Les roses — es, feminine tricks. 2 (qui ressemble à la femme) feminine, womanish, effeminate. Cet homme a le visage —, that man has a womanish face. La voix —, the female voice. Bien rosser et garder racune est par trop —, to have one's revenge and to bear malice afterwards is being too much of a woman. FEMME. Les maîtresses — es, effeminate manners. 3 gram. NOM — s, feminine nouns. Genre — feminine gender. (by analogy) LA est l'article — LA is the feminine article. Terminaison — e, feminine termination. Rime — e, female rhyme. Vers — female line. & (substantiv.) gram. feminine.

FEMINISER, fay-me-ne-zay, va. gram. to render, to make feminine.

FEMME, fam, sf. (Lat. femina) 1 woman, female. Dieu tira la — de la côte d'Adam. God made the woman of Adam's rib. Une — auteur, an authoress. Une — poète, a poetess. Une vieille —, an old woman. Votre mère est une excellente —, your mother is an excellent woman. Descendant d'Auguste par les —s, a descendant of Augustus in the female line. Le pauvre esprit de — et le sec entielien! what a dull woman, and what dry conversation! Mol. La fortune est — mon cher, fortune is a woman, my dear fellow. Nuss. Après d'une reine aussi — qu'Anne d'A., with a queen so much of a woman as was Anne of A. S^{te}-B. Elle hésite, en un mot, elle est —, she hesitates, in a word, she is a woman. Rac. Bonne —, good woman; || old woman, good wife; || fam. good woman, goodly. C'est une très-bonne —, she is a very good woman. La bonne — n'en peut plus, the old woman is quite knocked up. Dites-moi, bonne —, I say, good woman. C'est une maîtresse —, she is a superior woman. — de chambre, lady's maid, waiting-maid, absol. —s, pl. women. Elle appela ses —s, she called her women. — de charge, house-keeper. — de ménage, de journée, charwoman. Sage —, midwife. fig. C'est une —, une vraie —, he has no more courage than a woman. prov. fig. Ce que — veut, Dieu le veut, a woman must have her way. 2 (celle qui est nubile) woman. La voilà bientôt —, she will soon be a woman. 3 (par opposition à fille) wife. Les —s et les filles, the wives and girls. — en puissance de mari, fem. covert. Mari et —, husband and wife. Une jeune —, a young wife. Prendre —, to take to oneself a wife, to take a wife. (by analogy) Chercher —, to seek for a wife. prov. fig. Le diable bat sa —, it ruins and the sun shines.

FEMMELETTE, fam-lel, sf. dimin. of FEMME, 1 silly woman. 2 fig. (homme faible) woman. Cet homme-là n'est qu'un —, that man is a very woman.

FEMUR, fay-mür, sm. anat. femur, thigh-bone.

FENAISSON, foh-nay-zong, sf. hay-making.

FENDANT, fang-dang, ppr. of FENDRE, sm. 1 absol. (coup) slash. 2 fig. (celui qui fait le brave) bully, Hector. Faite le —, to play the bully, to bully, to bluster.

FENDEUR, fang-duhr, sm. fem. FENDEUSE, 1 cleaver, spitter. — de bois, wood-spitter. prov. fig. Un — de saeuux, a bully. 2 tech. cleaver, slitter.

SE FENDILLEH, fang-de-yay, ppr. to split, to crack, to split. La terre balaitante se fendillait, the earth was splitting with the heat. Th. Gaut.

FENDOIT, fang-dwar, sm. cleaver.

FENDRE, fangdr, va. (Lat. findere) 1 to cleave, to split, to slit, to rive, to chop. Son hôte la menait tantôt — du bois, his possessor sometimes made it go and split wood. La Font. — on arbre, to rive a tree. — en deux, to split in two, to read asunder. — avec des ciseaux, with one cogged, to split with wedges, with an axe; avec des ciseaux, avec du canif, with scissors, with a pen-knife. — la tête d'un coup de sabre, to split the head with a sabre. Le coup de corne avait fendu le ventre du cheval, the butt with the horn had ripped up the belly of the horse. Th. Gaut. fig. Il me semble qu'on me fend la tête, it is as though my head were being split open. fig. M^{lle} de la T. dont la douleur fend les pierres, M^{lle} de la T. whose grief is heart-rendering. M^{me} de Sév. fig. Un affreux serrier de cent coups de marteau me va — la tête, a wretch of a locksmith with the continual din of his hammer will stun my ears. Boil. Un bruit — la tête, à tête —, a noise enough to stun one. Des huées et des sifflets — les oreilles, hooting and hissing enough to deafen one. Ce spectacle me fendait le cœur, était — le cœur, that sight was heart-rendering. prov. fig. — un cheveu en quatre, to split a hair. 2 (carier avec effort) to cleave, to elbow one's way through, to squeeze through. Pendant les ondes à la nage, cleaving the waves. Méry. Nous fendimes la presse et sortîmes du palais, we elbowed our way out of the crowd, and left the palace. Le Sage. Fendant la foule des domestiques empressés, rushing through the crowd of eager servants. Nod. Des haquets peints en rouge fendaient la foule, carts painted red made their way through the crowd. Th. Gaut. 3 (faire des crevasses) to crack. Il a gelé à pierre —, it is an excruciating hard frost.

FENDRE, sm. fig. to split, to burst, to break, to be ready to split, to burst, to break. La tête me fend du bruit que l'on fait, my head is ready to split with the noise they make. Le cœur me fend de le voir souffrir, it breaks my heart to see him suffer.

SE FENDRE, ppr. 1 to split, to crack, to burst, to chap. Les arbres de l'avenue criaient et se fendaient en éclats, the trees of the avenue creaked and burst into splinters. Nod. (by extension) Les eaux de la mer Rouge se fendaient en deux pour donner passage aux Israélites, the waters of the Red Sea were divided to open a passage to the Israelites. Les levres se fendaient par le grand froid, lips chap with excessive cold. fig. Il semble que mon cœur veuille se — par la mort, my heart seems ready to be rent asunder. N^{me} de Sév. (avec ellipse du pron. pers. the pers. pron. being understood) C'était des cris qui fendaient — le cœur, their cries were heart-rendering. M^{me} de Sév. Cela est — le cœur, that is heart-rendering, heart-breaking. 2 tenc. to lunge.

ENDU, fang-dü, ppa. of FENDRE, fem. — E, adjectiv. 1 Un verre —, a cracked glass. (by extension) Des livres grecs dont les pages n'étaient pas — es, Greek books the leaves of which were not cut. Nod. 2 Des yeux bien —s, large full eyes. (hyperb.) Avoir la bouche — jusqu'aux oreilles, to have a mouth reaching from ear to ear. Ce cheval a les naseaux bien —s, that horse has very large nostrils. Etien —, to be long-legged.

FENE, fayn, sf. See FALNE.

FENESTRE, fuh-nay-stray, adj. m. fem. — 1, 1 bot. fenestrate. Feuille — e, fenestrate leaf. 2 Une rampe de marbre délicatement — e, a marble balustrade of delicate open-work. Th. Gaut. 3 surc. Compressé — e, perforated compress.

FENETHRAGE, finay-trah, sm. 1 (collectif) window. 2 l'ordre, la disposition pour les jours) windows, lights.

FENÊTRE, fuh-payr, sf. (Lat. fenestra) 1 window. — à balcon, window with a balcony. Regarder par la —, to look out of the window. Passer, sauter par la —, to get out at, to jump out of the window. L'impôt des portes et des —s, door and window tax. 2 (le bois et le vitrage) window, casement. Ouvrir les —s, fermer les —s, to open to shut the windows. fig. Cette maison n'a ni portes ni —s, that house is in a tumble-down state. prov. fig. Si vous le faites sortir par la porte, il rentrera par la —, if you drive him out at the door, he will come in at the window. fig. Jeter tout par les —s, to be extravaçant. 3 anat. fenestra, aperture, opening.

FENIL, fuh-ne-yuh, sm. agri. hay-loft.

FENOUIL, fuh-noo-yuh, sm. 1 bot. fenel. 2 (la graine) fenel-seed.

FENOUILLETTE, fuh-noo-yet, sf. hort. fenel-apple.

FENOUILLETTE, fuh-noo-yet, sf. com. fenel-water.

FENTE, fangt, sf. 1 slit, chink, cleft, crack, cranny. La — de la porte, the chink in the door. Faire une —, to make a slit. Bois de —, wood to be split. 2 gard. Enter, greffer en —, to graft. 3 min. rent, cleavage.

FENTON, fang-ton, sm. tech. iron-cramp, tie.

FÉDUAL, fay-o-dal, adj. m. fem. — 1, pl. m. féduat, féduat. Seigneur — biens — seigneur lord, feudal estate. Coutumes — seigneur — seigneur customs. Droit — seigneur — seigneur right. Gouvernement — seigneur — seigneur government. Temps féduaux, seigneur — seigneur times.

FÉDUALEMENT, fay-o-dal-mang, adv. feudally.

FÉDUALITÉ, fay-o-dal-e-tay, sf. 4 feudality. 2 (le régime féodal) feudalism.

FER, fayt, sm. (Lat. ferrum) 1 iron. Mine de —, iron-ore. — fondu, — de fonte, cast iron. Fonte de —, rolled-iron. Miérai de —, iron-ore. — battu, wrought iron. — fûrgé, wrought iron. — doux, soft iron. — aigre, brittle iron. — dur, — cassant, brittle iron, short iron. Ecume de —, iron-dross. Droit sur les —s, duty on iron. 2 com. admin. — s, pl. iron. Marchand de — s, iron-monger. 3 fig. Il n'en irait du —, he would wear out iron. C'est un corps de —, he is made of iron. Une santé de —, un tempérament de —, strong constitution. Avoir une main de —, un bras de —, to have an iron hand, an iron arm. Un sceptre de —, an iron rod. C'est une tête de —, he is a most self-willed man. Âge, siècle de —, iron age. Prop. On n'est pas de —, one is not made of iron. C'est comme est roide comme une barre de —, that man is as stiff as a bar of iron; || fig. he is a bar of iron. prov. fig. Il faut battre le — pendant qu'il est chaud, See BATTE. & (d'une pique, etc.) Le — d'une lance, d'une fleche, the head of a lance, of an arrow. Lance à — émoulu, sharp-pointed lance. — d'aiguille, de lacet, lat. 5 fenc. sword. Engager le —, to engage swords. Battre le —, to fence. fig. Il y a longtemps qu'il bat le —, he is on old hand at it. 6 poetic. sword, steel, brand. Un — homicide, a homicide steel. Un court, l'air gémit, le — brille, both sides hasten, the air groans, swords glitter. Rac. Le — tue et la main déshonore, the sword kills and the hand dishonours. U. Del. Employer le — et le feu, to waste with fire and sword; || fig. to have recourse to extremities. 7 tech. Un — à friser, a curling-iron. absol. — à repasser, iron, smoothing-iron, flat iron. prov. fig. Mettre les —s au feu, to fall stoutly to work; to put the irons in the fire; || Les —s sont au feu, they are about it. 8 (d'un cheval, etc.) d'une, of a horse, etc.) shoe, horseshoe. prov. Un — qui loche, a screw loose. Mettre un — à un mulet, to shoe a horse, a mule. Prov. Cela ne vaut pas les quatre —s d'un cheval, that is not worth a fig. (iron chestnut) — d'argent, silver horseshoe — d'or, golden horseshoe. Le che-roya les quatre —s en l'air, the he lay sprawling on the ground Th. fig. Cet homme est tombé les quatre en l'air, that man fell on his back; || he was struck all on a heap — de lui tip. En — à cheval, in the form of a horseshoe. Table en — à cheval, horseshoe table. Cela fait le — à cheval, forme — à cheval, that is in the form of a hor-shoe. fort. arch. — à cheval, horse-shoe. (by extension) gard. horse-shoe. 9 — s, pl (chaînes, menottes, etc.) chains, irons. His feet were ironed. On lui mit les — s aux pieds, his feet were ironed. On le chargea de — s, he was loaded with chains. fig. Jeter quelqu'un dans les — s, le retenir dans les — s, etc., to cast, to throw a person into prison; to keep him in prison. 10 fig. (état d'esclavage, d'oppression) slavery, chains. 11 fig. (de la tyrannie de l'amour) chains.

FER-BLAUD, sm. tin, tin-plate.

FER-BLOND, sm. med. cordialgia, heart-burn.

FERBLANTIER, fayr-blâng-l'ay, sm. limman. Marchand —, limman.

FERBLANTERIE, fayr-blâng-tree, sf. tin-wares.

FÉRÉT, fay-ray, em. min. feret, iron-ore. See FERRET.

FÉRIAL, fay-ryal, adj. m. fem. — E, ferial.

FÉRIE, fay-ree, sf. (Lat. feria) 1 cath. rel. every week-day except Saturday. 2 Rom. antiq (jours de repos) — s, pl. ferie. 3 (by extension) (vacances) holidays. Pendant les — s prochaines de l'automne, during the next autumn vacations. Brosset.

FÉRIE, fay-ryay, adj. m. fem. — E, ferial. 1 jours — s, holidays.

FÉRIR, fay-ri, va. (Lat. ferire) absol. to strike. Sans coup —, without striking a blow; fig. without meeting resistance. On prit la ville sans coup —, the town was taken without striking a blow.

FÉRLE, — e, of FERLEA, fem. — E, naut. Voiles — es, furlled sails.

FÉRIER, fay-ray, va. naut. to furl (les voiles, the sails).

FERMAGE, fayr-mazh, sm. rent.

FÉRMANT, fayr-mâng, ppr. of FERMER, adj. m. fem. — E, closing. Meuble —, — à clef, piece of furniture with lock and key. A jour —, at the close of day, at dusk. A portes — es, at the shutting of the gates.

FERME, fayrm, adj. mf. (Lat. firmus) 1 firm, solid. 2 (sans chanceler, sans reculer) firm, steady. 3 à cheval, to sit firm on horseback. 4 Être — sur ses pieds, to have a firm footing. 5 Teuir le corps —, to stand firm. 6 Marcher d'un pas —, to walk with a steady step. 7 Être —, without stirring. 8 Attendre l'ennemi de pied —, to wait for the enemy resolutely; || fig. attendre quelqu'un de pied —, to be ready to receive a person. 9 Combattre de pied —, to stand one's ground, to make a stout resistance. 10 prov. fig. Être — sur ses épiers, to stand firm to one's quarters. 11 (compacte, solide) firm, stiff. 12 Le terrain est —, the soil is firm. 13 Terra firma, the main-land; (à Venise) Les nobles de terre —, the nobles of the main-land. 14 (vigoureux, fort) firm, strong, vigorous. 15 Avoir la main —, to be pliant; || to have a strong hand, a strong wrist; || Avoir la main —, to have a steady hand. (at tennis) Avoir le coup —, to play strong, to strike hard. 16 fig. Avoir le jugement —, l'esprit —, la tête —, to have a sound judgment, mind. 17 5 fine arts. vigorous, bold. 18 fig. Style —, bold style. 19 6 fig. (de la voix, etc., of the voice, etc.) steady, firm. 20 Avoir la conscience —, to have a steady conscience. 21 7 fig. (constant) steady, steadfast, firm. 22 Avoir une volonté —, to have a firm will. 23 Demeurer — dans sa résolution, to remain steady to one's resolution. 24 Avoir une — croyance, to hold a firm belief. 25 Une — espérance, a certain hope. 26 Une amitié —, a firm friendship. 27 8 fig. (particul.) (qui ne se laisse point abattre) firm, steadfast, unshaken. Le cœur — comme un roc sur terre et sur mer, with no quaking either on land or sea. Mérim. 28 Un courage —, unshaken courage. 9 exch. Achat ou vente —, obligatory purchase, sale. (by analogy) Marché —, obligatory bargain.

FERME, adv. firmly, hard, fast. Tenir quelque chose bien —, to hold something firmly. Frapper —, to strike hard. Cela tient — dans la muraille, that holds fast in the wall. fig. S'ils parlaient un peu —, ils étaient jetés à la porte de l'hôtel, if they did but speak up, they were dismissed the house. Rat. Il tient — poor telle opinion, he is steadfast to such an opinion. fig. Soutenir une chose fort et —, to deny a thing stoutly. fig. Tenir —, to hold fast, not to flinch. Deux régiments tenaient — contre une armée vicentinoise, two regiments stood their ground against a victorious army. Volt. Tenez — steady! absol. steady! Alons —, mes amis! now then, friends, steady!

FERME, sf. 1 farm. Donner, prendre à —, to let out to farm, to farm. Faire un bail à —, to let out on lease. La — des chaises d'une église, the letting out of the chairs in a church. La — des jeux, licence to keep a gambling-house. 2 anc. (des impôts, of taxes) farm. La — générale des gabelles, des aides, etc., the farm general of the tax upon salt, of the subsidies. 3 anc. (administration) farm. 3 (métairie) farm. Exploiter une —, to work a farm. 4 (habitation du fermier) farm. La cour d'une —, a farm-yard. 5 (théâtre) set piece. 6 carp. wood-work, props and supports (of a roof).

FERME, ppa. of FERMER, fem. — E. La porte n'était — e qu'un loquet, the door was only on the latch. Une ville — e, a fortified town, a town walled in. Litière — e, closed litter. Mains — es, hands shut. Les yeux — s, with one's eyes shut; || fig. blindly. Marcher les yeux — s, to walk with one's eyes shut. fig. Je signai cet acte les yeux — s, I signed that deed blindly. fig. La porte des emplois, des honneurs lui est — e, the entrance to employments, to honours is closed upon him. fig. Sa porte rustique aux chagrins est — e, grief cannot enter his rural dwelling. Andr. prov. fig. Il faut qu'une porte soit ouverte ou — e, a door must either be closed or opened. her. Couronne — e, coronet.

FÉRMEMENT, fayr-mâng-mâng, adv. 1 firmly, strongly. 2 (avec assurance) firmly, steadfastly.

FÉRMENT, fayr-mâng, sm. (Lat. fermentum) 1 ferment, leaven, yeast. 2 fig. Un — deaine de discorde, a leaven of hatred, of discord. Aug. Th.

FÉRMENTATION, fayr-mâng-tah-syong, sf. 1 fermentation, working. — spiritueuse, soide, putride, vinous, acclous, putrescative fermentation. Une substance, un liquide qui entre en —, qui se met en —, a substance, a liquid that begins to ferment. 2 fig. (des esprits, of minds) ferment. La — commença à se manifester dans Londres, the ferment began to manifest itself at London. Volt.

FÉRMÉTÉ, ppa. of FERMENTER, fem. — E, adjective. Pain —, fermented bread. Liqueur — e, fermented liquor. Bié —, fermented corn.

FÉRMETER, fayr-mâng-tay, va. 1 à ferment, to rise, to work. La pâte fermente, the dough rises. 2 fig. (s'échauffer) to ferment. Les têtes, les esprits fermentent, the heads, the minds ferment. 3 fig. (entretenir secrètement) to ferment. La haine qui fermentait dans les cœurs, the hatred that fermented in the hearts. L'esprit de rébellion fermentait sourdement, the spirit of rebellion was secretly fermenting.

FÉRMÉTISCIBLE, fayr-mâng-tays-seebl, adj. mf. chem. fermentable.

FÉRMER, fayr-may, va. 1 (clôre) to shut up, to shut down. — une chambre, to shut up a room. — une armoire, un secrétaire, une malle, une boîte, to shut up a cupboard, a scrivitor, to shut down a trunk, a box — une boutique, to shut up a shop. absol. Les marchands ferment les jours de fête, tradesmen shut up their shops on holidays. Dans notre magasin, le dimanche, on ferme à deux heures, our warehouse is shut up at two o'clock on Sundays. 2 fig. (d'un lieu où l'on suspend les travaux, les exercices, etc.) to close. — un théâtre, to close a theatre. — les tribunaux, to close the tribunals. La justice lit — son établissement, fit — ce bal, cette maison de jeu, the police closed his establishment, that ball-room, that gaming house. — un bureau, to shut an office; une boutique, a shop. 3 (des objets qui servent de clôture) to shut, to close, to fasten. — la porte, to shut the door. — la fenêtre, les contrevents, les persiennes, to shut the window, to put up the shutters, to shut the window-blinds. — une clôture, to shut a flood-gate. — la porte à la clef, au verrou, to lock, to bolt a door. A peine la porte fermait un loquet, the door was always on the latch. 1 Jan. — la porte en dedans, en dehors, to fasten the door in the inside, on the outside. — un robinet, to stop a cock. — les rideaux, to close the curtains. (by analogy) la porte sur quelqu'un, sur soi, to shut the door after a person, after one. — la porte au nez de quelqu'un, à quelqu'un, to shut the door in a person's face. Qu'on lui ferme la porte au nez, il reviendra par la fenêtre, drive it out at the door, it will come in at the window. La Fout. fig. — sa porte à quelqu'un, to shut the door against a person, to shut him out. absol. — sa porte, to deny one's self. fig. — sa porte aux mauvaises pensées, aux mauvais conseils, to resist bad thoughts, bad advice. fig. poétic. — les portes du temple de Janus, les portes de la guerre, to shut the gates of the temple of Janus. 4 absol. to close the door. On vient de —, personne ne sera plus admis, the doors are closed, there is no more admission. 5 (interdire un passage) to stop up, to block up, to obstruct, to intercept. Les neiges, les pluies ferment le passage des montagnes, the snow, the rain stop up the passage of the mountains. 1-1. Houss. Faire — des fenêtrures avec des grilles, to have bars put to a window. — un port avec une chaîne, to throw a boom across the entrance of a harbour. Un banc de sable ferme l'entrée du port, a sand-bank stops up the entrance of the harbour. Des broussailles fermaient l'entrée de la grotte, brushwood obstructed the entrance of the grotto. 6 (by extension) to bar, to hinder, to obstruct. Une armée de cent mille hommes lui fermait le passage, an army of a hundred thousand men obstructed his passage. Cependant les soldats lui ferment toute communication avec la route, in the meantime the soldiers cut off all his communication with the road. Saint. fig. — à quelqu'un le chemin des honneurs, to stop the promotion of a person. 7 (des parties dont l'écartement formait une ouverture) to close, to shut. — un sac, une bourse, to shut a bag, a purse. — la bouche, to stop a person's mouth. Lui ferma la bouche avec la main, closing his mouth with his hand. — les yeux, to close one's eyes. (by extension) Sur les cinq heures la fatigue me ferma les yeux, about five o'clock fatigue closed my eyes. Ab. — on livre, to shut up a book. — la main, to clinch the fist. — une plaie, to close a wound. fig. Les arts ont commencé à — les plaies de l'état causées par deux guerres funestes, the arts have begun to close the wounds caused by two fatal wars. Volt. — une lettre, un paquet, to close, to seal up a letter, to close a parcel. — les yeux — à une personne qui vient d'expirer, to close the eyes of a person who has just expired. fig. — les yeux de quelqu'un, à quelqu'un, to close a person's eyes; to be present at his last moments. Je croyais que tes larmes fermentaient mes yeux, et que tu recueillerais mon dernier soupir, I thought that you would close my eyes, and receive my last breath. Fer. Ne pouvoir — l'œil, n'avoir pas fermé l'œil, les yeux de toute la nuit, to be able to sleep a wink all night. fig. — les yeux, to die. Ils que he fut en ferme les yeux, on pensa, as soon as the late king was no more, it was thought. Moutess, fig. — les yeux sur quelque chose, to wink at a thing. Le peuple fermait les yeux sur la source où elle puisait, the people connived at the source it borrowed from. Barth. Le gouvernement fermait les yeux sur cet abus, the government connived at this abuse. fig. — les yeux à quelque chose, to shut one's eyes to a thing. — les yeux à la vérité, à l'évidence, à la lumière, to shut one's eyes against conviction. fig. — la bouche à quelqu'un, to stop a person's mouth, to silence a person. Cette raison, cet argument lui ferma la bouche, that reason, that argument stopped his mouth. Le respect me ferme la bouche, respect bids me be silent, seals my lips; || — la bouche à la médecine, à la calomnie, aux médisances, etc., to stop the mouth of slander, of calumny, of slanderers, etc. fig. Son cœur est fermé à la compassion, his heart is closed to compassion. — son cœur à quelqu'un, to close one's heart to a person, to be close with a person. fig. — Porelle à quelque discours, to turn a deaf ear to a discourse. Les passions fermentaient Porelle aux conseils de la modération, the passions closed the ear against the counsels of moderation. Lamart. 8 fig. (clôre) to close (une session législative, a legislative session; les débats, the debates; une liste, un registre, a list, a register). Son nom ferme la liste, his name is the last on the list. Une douzaine de chiens fermaient la marche, a dozen dogs came last. Ab. — une parenthèse, to close a parenthesis; || fig. — la parenthèse, to close the digestion. 9 (enclôre) to close, to enclose, to shut in. — une ville, un parc, un jardin, to enclose a town, a park, a garden. — de murailles, de haies, de fossés, to wall in, to hedge in, to ditch. 10 bout. — les sabords, une batterie, to let fall, to shut in the port-side. — une voile, to brace a sail in. — un pont, to lay an embargo upon the ships in a port.

FERMER, en. to shut, to close. Cela ferme à clef, that locks. Ces fenêtres ne ferment pas bien, those windows do not shut close. Les portes de la ville ne ferment qu'à telle heure, they do not shut the gates of the town till such an hour. Les bureaux ferment à quatre heures, the offices are shut at four o'clock. Les théâtres ferment le vendredi saint, the theatres are closed on Good Friday.

SERFER, vpr. to shut, to close, to be shut, closed, to close up. Cette porte se ferme d'elle-même, that door shuts itself. J'avais entendu les portes s'ouvrir et se —, I had heard the doors open and shut. Mériam. La fosse se ferma plus vite que je n'aurais voulu, pit was closed up sooner than I would have wished. Ab. Les bureaux se ferment à quatre heures, the offices shut at four o'clock. Mes yeux commençaient à se —, my eyes were beginning to close. Les fleurs de cette plante se ferment dès que le soleil paraît, the flowers of that plant close as soon as the sun appears. Cette plaie se fermait bientôt, this wound will soon close up. fig. Un cœur qui se ferme à la pitié, a heart that steals itself to pity.

FERMETÉ, fayr-muh-tay, sf. (Lat. firmitas) 1 firmness, hardness. 2 firmness, solidity. Ce poisson a le goût et la — de la sole, this fish has the taste and firmness of the sole. 3 (vigueur) firmness, strength, steadiness. La — des reins, du jarret, the strength of the loins, of the ham. — de la main, firmness in the hand. fig. — d'esprit, of judgement, etc., strength of mind, soundness of judgment. 4 fine arts. firmness. fig. — de style, boldness of style. 5 fig. (de la contenance, de la voix, etc., of the face, the voice) firmness, steadiness. Parler, repandre avec —, to speak, to answer firmly. Mètre de la —, beaucoup de — dans ses réponses, to be firm, very firm in one's answers. 6 fig. (force morale) firmness, steadfastness. — de cœur, resolution. — d'âme, de caractère, strength of soul, of character.

FERMETURE, fayr-muh-tir, sf. 1 fastening (d'une boutique, of a shop). 2 mil. shutting, closing. La — des portes, the shutting of the gates. 3 fig. closing, shutting up. La — d'un théâtre, the closing of a theatre. La — d'une boutique, the shutting up of a shop.

FERNIER, fayr-myay, sm. fem. FERNIÈRE, 1 farmer. Le — et la fermière, the farmer and the farmer's wife. 2 Le — des chaises d'une église, the contractor of the chairs in a church. — des jeux publics, the contractor for the public gaming tables. 3 anc. — général des gabelles, des aides, farmer-general of the tax upon salt, subsidies. Les —s généraux, the farmers-general.

FERNOIR, fayr-mwâr, sm. 1 clasp. Des —s d'or, des —s d'argent, gold, silver clasps. 2 carp. sculp. former, tipping chisel.

FERMURE, fayr-mûr, sf. naut. planks of a ship's side in the intervals between the walers.

FEROCE, fayr-ros, adj. mf. (Lat. feroc) 1 ferocious, fierce, wild. Les animaux —s, the wild animals. Cet animal est d'un naturel —, that animal is of a ferocious nature. fig. C'est une bête —, he is a savage beast. 2 (by extension) (des personnes, of persons) ferocious, fierce. Cœur —, a savage heart. Caractère —, ferocious character. (du regard, de l'humour, etc., of the looks, of the temper, etc.) ferocious, fierce. Un regard —, a fierce look. Une joie —, a savage joy.

FEROCITÉ, fayr-ro-se-tay, sf. (Lat. ferocitas) 1 ferocity, fierceness. La — du tigre, the ferocity of the tiger. 2 (by extension) (des personnes, of persons) ferocity, fierceness, savageness. La — de ces temps de barbarie, the ferocity of those barbarous times. Volt. Sa valeur était souillée par la —, his bravery was stained with ferocity. Volt.

FERRAILLE, fayr-ray-yuh, sf. (collektiv.) old iron. Vois si tu peux tirer parti de toutes ces —s, see whether you can turn all this rubbish to account. Nod.

FERRAILLER, fayr-ray-yay, vn. 1 to fence. 2 (chercher les occasions de se battre) to fight. C'est un mauvais sujet qui n'aime qu'à —, he is a worthless fellow that is only fond of fighting. 3 fig. (disputer) to dispute, to wrangle.

FERRAILLEUR, fayr-ray-yuhr, sm. 1 (mercenaire) dealer in old iron. 2 (breteur) fighter, budy.

FERRANDINIER, fayr-râng-de-nayay, sm. ferrandine, ferrandina weaver.

FERRANT, fay-râng, vpr. of FERRER, adj. m. Marchal —, farrier.

FERRÉ, ppa. of FERRER, fem. —E, 1 Batou —, stick tipped with iron. (catachrestes) Un cheval — d'argent, a horse shod with silver. Cette cassette est — d'or, that casket is inlaid with gold. 2 Eau —, chalybeate water. 3 Chemin —, metalled road, stoned road. 4 fig. Style —, harsh, hard style. fig. Cet homme est —, it est — à glace, that man is skilled (in), conversant (with); that man is up to the mark. prov. fig. C'est un mangeur, un avaluateur de charrettes —es, he is a fire-cater.

FERRÉMENT, fayr-mâng, sm. 1 iron tool. Les —s d'un chirurgien, a surgeon's iron tools. 2 (garantures de fer) iron-work. 3 (action) pulling the irons on.

FERRÉIL, fay-ray, ra. to bind, to mount with iron, to shoe, to tip. — un collier, to mount a collar with iron. — un bâton, to tip a stick with iron, to put a ferrule to a stick. — des roues, to case wheels. — un cheval, to shoe a horse. — un cheval des quatre pieds, le — à neut, to put four new shoes on a horse. — un cheval à glace, to rough-shoe a horse. Trois hommes ferraient une vache, qui avait l'air très-bête, three men were shoeing a cow that looked very stupid. V. Hug. — des aiguillettes, on laet, to tag. (catachrestes) — d'or, d'argent, to inlay with gold, with silver. prov. fig. Il n'est pas aisé à —, he is hard to be managed. prov. — la mule, to make the market-penny.

FERRÉL, fay-ray, sm. tag. Un — d'aiguillette, the top of a lace. prov. Je ne voudrais pas en donner un — d'aiguillette, I would not give a fig for it.

FERRÉUR, fay-rubr, sm. — d'aiguillettes, targer.

FERRIERE, fay-ryay, sf. farrier's pouch.

FERRONNERIE, fayr-ron-ree, sf. iron-foundry, iron-mongery.

FERRONNIER, fayr-ro-nyay, sm. fem. FERRONNIÈRE, iron-monger.

FERRUGINEUX, fayr-rûe-nuh, adj. m. fem. FERRUGINEUSE, 1 ferruginous. Une terre ferrugineuse, ferruginous earth. 2 chalybeate. Des eaux ferrugineuses, chalybeate waters.

FERRURE, fay-rûr, sf. 1 iron-work. La — d'une porte, the iron-work of a door. La — de ces roues n'est pas assez forte, the tires of those wheels are not strong enough. La — d'un vaisseau, the hinges of the gun-ports. Les —s d'un gouvernail, the pintles and poatings of a ship's rudder. 2 (d'un cheval, of a horse) shoeing, shoes. 3 (action) shoeing.

FERTILE, fayr-teel, adj. mf. (Lat. fertilis) fertile, fruitful. Pays —, fertile country. — en bled, en vin, fertile in corn, in wine. (by analogy) Année —, fertile year. fig. La cour de L. est esclaves —s, the court of L. fertile in slaves. Rac. Quel temps fut jamais si — en miracles! what time was ever so rich in miracles! Rac. fig. Le roi toujours — en dangereux détours, the king always full of dangerous windings. Rac. Esprit, imagination, veine —, fruitful imagination. Sujet —, matière —, fertile subject, matter.

FERTILEMENT, fayr-til-mâng, adv. (little used) fertilily, fruitfully.

FERTILISÉ, ppa. of FERTILISER, fem. —E, Les champs —s par les mains de nous autres, the fields fertilized by the hands of our forefathers. Chat.

FERTILISER, fayr-te-le-zay, ra. to fertilize.

FERTILITÉ, fayr-te-le-zay, sf. fertility, fertility, fruitfulness. La — de la terre, the fertility of the earth. Ces dernières années ont été d'une grande —, the last few years have been extremely fertile. fig. C'est un homme qui a une grande — d'esprit, une grande — d'imagination, he is a man who has a very fertile imagination.

FERU, fay-rû, ppa. of FÉRIR, fem. —E, smitten, struck. fig. Etre — d'amour, to be enamoured.

FERULE, fay-rûl, sf. 1 bot. ferule. 2 (palette) ferule. 3 (coup de ferule) stroke. fig. Etre sous la — de quelqu'un, to be under a person's thumb.

FÉRIVEMENT, fayr-vah-mâng, adv. fervently.

FÉRIVENT, fayr-vâng, adj. m. fem. —E, (Lat. fervens) 1 fervent. 2 (où il y a de la ferveur) fervent. Une — prière, a fervent prayer.

FÉRIVEUR, fayr-vuhr, sf. (Lat. fervor)

ferveur. Prier Dieu avec —, to pray to God with fervour. Il est encore dans sa première —, his fervour is not yet abated.

FESE, fays, sf. 4 rump, buttock, breech. 2 —s, pl. aut. Les —s d'un bâtiment, the tuck of a vessel.

FESE, fays-say, sf. whipping, flogging.

FESE-MATHIEU, em. pl. FESSE-MATHIEU, miser, old hunk, skin-flint.

FESSE, fays-say, vo. to whip, to flog (on enfant, a child).

FESSE, fays-say, em. fem. FESSE, fays-say, fem. fem. FESSE, fays-say, fem. fem. FESSE, fays-say, fem. fem.

FESSIER, fays-say, em. buttocks, breech.

FESSIER, adj. m. fem. FESSIER, 1 aut. gluteal. Les muscles —s, the gluteal muscles. Artère, veine fessière, gluteal artery, vein. 2 (substantif.) Le grand —, gluteus.

FESTIN, fays-tang, sm. feast, entertainment, banquet. Être toujours en —, to be always feasting. — de noces, wedding-feast. — royal, royal feast. prov. Il n'y avait que cela pour tout —, there was nothing else to eat.

FESTINER, fays-tang, vo. to feast, to entertain, to regale. Il nous festine sans cesse, he is always feasting us.

De Bross. FESTINER, em. to feast. Nous revoyons nos anciennes connaissances, nous festinons, we meet our old friends again, we feast together. De Bross.

FESTIVAL, fays-tal, adj. m. fem. —, 4 aut. Lettres —es, festival letters. 2 sm. (fête musicale) festival.

FESTON, fays-long, sm. 4 festoon. Mettre, suspendre, attacher des —s autour d'une salle de bal, to hang up festoons round a ball-room. Le pampre vert qui tombait en —s, vine-branches which fell in festoons. Fêtu 2 (ornements) festoon. 3 (broderie) festoon, scallop. Faire du —, to scallop.

FESTONNER, fays-to, vo. to festoon, to scallop (une collerette, a collar). — les bords d'une draperie, to cut the borders of a drapery into festoons. absol. Les ciseaux qui festonnent on qui découpent, scissors which festoon or cut out. Not. (by extension) Le lierre et le pampre festonnent les bords d'une coupe, the ivy and vine-branch form festoons round the rims of a goblet. Lamart.

FESTONNER, em. pop. (d'un homme ivre, of a tipsy man) to walk zigzag.

FESTOYER, fays-twa-yay, vo. See FÊTOYER.

FÊTE, fays, sf. (Lat. festum) 1 festival, 2 cath. rel. festival. Un jour de —, a holiday. Les —s reconnues par l'Eglise, the festivals of the Church. Les —s de Paques, de Noël, Easter, Christmas holiday. Les dimanches et les —s, Sundays and holidays. Les —s mobiles, the movable feasts. Il est —, it is a holiday. Garder les jours de —, to observe the holidays. La — Dieu, la — du Saint Sacrement, Corpus-Christi day. La — des morts, All-Souls day. —s fêles, —s chômées, days appointed to be kept holy. — de palais, vacation-time. — carillonnée, high festival. La — d'une personne, the patron's, the saint's day of a person. Souhaiter une bonne — à quelqu'un, to wish a person many happy returns of the day. C'est demain votre —, to-morrow is your saint's day; the anniversary of your birth-day. Le jour de sa —, his saint's day, his birth-day. La — du roi, the king's name-day. La — patronale, la — d'un lieu, d'un village, dedication-day, the village fair, statue-fair. prov. Aux bonnes —s les buns coups, the better day, the better deed. prov. fig. Devenir les —s quand elles sont venues, to be able to see a steepie in broad day-light. 3 (rejoissances publiques) festival, festivity. 4 (rejoissances privées) entertainment. Il y a point de bonne — sans lui, there is no amusement without him. Voilà les —s de mon carnaval, such were the amusements of my carnival. M^{me} de Sév. Air de —, festive appearance. fig. Il y avait une — dans son cœur, his heart was making merry. Mery. Troubler la —, to disturb the entertainment. Trouble —, mar-sport. Faire — à quelqu'un, to give a person a kind, a warm reception. Le plaisir et sa femme me tirait — la pastry-cook and his wife gave me a warm reception. Ab. Faire — à quelqu'un de quelque chose, to promise a pleasure to a person. Le frère A. qui m'avait fait d'un badillement d'ermite, brother A. who had regaled me with the hope of having a hermit's dress. Le Sage. Se faire — de quelque chose, See Faire. fig. Il ne se vit jamais à telle —, à pareille —, he never saw such a day. Mais voici bien une autre —, but now quite a different sport begins. La Font. prov. Il n'y a point de bonne — sans lendemain, the day after a holiday has some relish left. Il n'est pas tous les jours —, Christmas comes but once a year.

FÊTE, ppa. of FÊTER, fem. —, Fête —, day appointed to be kept holy. Le dimanche et le jeudi sont —s comme au collège, the Sunday and Thursday are holidays as at school. Jacq. fig. Le fameux H. est aujourd'hui l'homme —, the famous H. is the man of the day. De Bross.

FÊTER, fays-tay, vo. 1 to keep, to observe as a festival. On fête aujourd'hui tel saint, to-day is such a saint's day. fig. Une paix que fête l'univers, a peace that the universe celebrates. St-B. — quelqu'un, to wish a person many happy returns of the day; fig. to welcome a person. prov. fig. C'est un saint qu'on ne fête point, he is a man who has no interest. 2 fig. to receive with open arms, to give a kind, a warm reception.

FÊTICHE, fays-tish, sm. (Port.) 1 felich. 2 (adjectif.) felich. Les dieux —s, feliches.

FÊTICHISME, fays-le-shism, sm. felichism, felicism.

FÊTIDE, fays-teed, adj. mf. (Lat. fetidus) fetid.

FÊTIDITÉ, fays-le-de-tay, sf. fetidness.

FÊTOYER, fays-twa-yay, vo. conjug. like amuser, to feast, to entertain (ses amis, one's friends).

FÊTU, fays-tû, sm. 1 straw. Tirer au court —, to draw lots. fig. pop. Un coque —, a man with whom it is much cry and little wool. prov. Je n'en donnerais pas un —, cela ne vaut pas un —, I would not give a straw for it. Je ne donnerais pas un — de la différence, there is not a pin to choose between them. Not. 2 oro. — en-cul, tropic-bird.

FÊU, fuh, sm. 1 fire, heat. Le culte da —, the worship of fire. La nature, les propriétés da —, the nature, the properties of fire. Tirer du — d'un caillou, to strike fire out of a flint. Un glorie de —, a fire-bell. Une pluie de —, a shower of fire. Le — des volcans, the fire of volcanoes. Des —s souterrains, subterranean fire. Les —s de l'été, the heat of summer. Les —s du soleil, de la canicule, the heat of the sun, of the dog-days. fig. Le — lui sort des yeux, fire flashes from his eyes; his eyes flash fire. Faire — des quatre pieds, to exert every effort. fig. pop. N'y voir que du —, to be completely dazzled by a thing, to be unable to make out a thing. prov. fig. C'est le — et l'eau, they are fire and water. 2 (accusé) fire. Le — est à tel endroit, the fire is at such a place. Mettre le — à une maison, to set a house on fire, to set fire to a house. Le — avait pris à sa robe, her gown had caught fire. Crier au —, to cry out, fire! Courir au —, to run to the fire. Toute la ville est en —, the whole town is on fire. Etendre le —, to extinguish, to put out the fire. Cou-per le —, to cut off the fire. Mettre le — à un canon, to fire a cannon. Armes à —, fire-arms. Bonche à —, cannon. fig. Mettre un pays à — et à sang, to lay a country waste with fire and sword. (hyperb.) Il se jeterait dans le — pour lui, he would go through fire and water for him. fig. Mettre le — aux poudres, to add fuel to the flame. prov. fig. Mettre le — aux étoupes, to throw oil on the fire. (by analogy) Le — prend aux poudres, aux étoupes, the train is lighted. fig. Ces débats célèbres qui mirent le — aux imaginations françaises, those celebrated debates which fired French imaginations. Villem. Prendre —, take, to catch fire. fig. Vous prenez bien vite, you fire up directly. Muss. fig. Jeter — et flamme, to rage. fig. Jeter son —, jeter tout son —, to discharge all one's fury; fig. to spend one's fire; fig. to exhaust one's self. prov. On y court —, comme au —, it is greatly run after. Nous courrâmes à Saint-Pierre comme au —, we run to see the church of St-Peter as fast as ever we could. De Bross. prov. fig. Le — se met dans ses affaires, est dans ses affaires, his creditors persecute him unmercifully. prov. fig. absol. Le — est à telle marchandise, such an article is in vogue, is greatly run after. 3 (d'armes à feu) shot, fire, firing. Faire — sur quelqu'un, to shoot at a person. Soutenir le —, essayer le — de la place, le — du canon, de l'artillerie, to receive the fire of the place, of the guns, of the artillery. Se trouver entre deux —s, to be between two fires. De jeunes soldats qui n'avaient pas encore vu le —, young soldiers that had not yet smelt gunpowder. Il lisait une dépêche au milieu du —, he read a despatch in the midst of the fire. Lamart. — rasant, flammes —, (word of command) — fire! — rasant, running fire. — bien nourri, rolling fire. fig. Le — était son élément, le cheval son lit de repos, the fire was his element, the horse his couch. Lamart. nat. — de tribord, fire to starboard. — de bâbord, fire to larboard. Accoutumer son cheval au —, to accustom a horse to fire. Aller au —, to go to battle. Aller au — comme à la noce, to go gaily to battle. Faire long —, to hang fire; fig. to miscarry. fig. Un — roulant de saillies, etc., a quick succession of sallies, etc. Il semble sans ce — roulant d'images qu'on lise du Montaigne, this quick succession of images reminds one of M. St-B. 4 (avec un combustible) fire. Boo —, good fire. Beau —, fine fire. — de charbon, de bois, de paille, fire, cool, wood, straw fire. Elle alluma un — de mottes, she kindled a turf fire. Balz. Une brette, un charbon de —, a flake of fire, a live ember. To réchauffer —, a hot chafing dish. Faire du —, bon —, grand —, to make a fire, a good, a large fire. Faire cuire quelque chose au —, to cook something over the fire. Mettre le pot au —, to put the pot on the fire. Couvre —, garde —, See these words. Mettre le — au four, to heat the oven. Montrer une chose au —, to set a thing on the fire for an instant. Passer une chose par le —, to pass a thing through the fire. culin. Douter, to make too hot a fire for the meat. Coup de —, See coup. Prendre l'air du —, See air. pop. Prendre une poignée de —, to warm one's self. Le sursupe du —, absol. the stakes. Le — de l'enfer, hell-fire. Le — du purgatoire, the fire of purgatory. fig. Un — d'enfer, a devil of a fire, an infernal fire. Il fait chez lui un — d'enfer, in his house there is always a scorching fire; fig. war. Les ennemis faisaient un — d'enfer, the enemies kept up an infernal fire. culin. Faire griller quelque chose au — d'enfer, le mettre au — d'enfer, to broil a thug over a very hot fire. — de joie, bouffre. Faites-en les — x des ce soir, you may make bonfires this very evening. La Fout. — d'artifice, fire-works. Lance à —, match. Poi à —, fire-pot. — grégois. Greek fire. Couleur de —, flame-colour. fig. Tache de —, absol., —, tan-spot. Un jeune chien marqué de —, a tan-spotted puppy. Flur. (hyperb.) J'en mettrai ma main, les mains au —, I'll lay my hand on the block. fig. C'est un — de paille, ce n'est qu'un — de paille, it is a sudden blaze; fig. Cet amour ne sera qu'un — de paille, that love will not last; fig. Faire — et little, faire du violet, great cry and violet. Faire mourir quelqu'un à petit —, to kill a person by inches. Le — sacré, the sacred fire. Nourrir, entretenir, rallumer le — sacré des beaux-arts, to keep up, to feed the sacred fire of the fine arts; fig. Le — sacré, the sacred fire, the Prometheus fire. Ce poète est animé du — sacré, that poet has the sacred fire within him. prov. fig. Il n'est — que de bois vert, no fire, like that of youth. prov. fig. Faire — qui dure, old young and old long. Il n'y a point de fumée sans —, de — sans fumée, no smoke without fire. Mettre les fers au —, See FER. fig. Jeter de l'huile dans le —, sur le —, to throw oil upon the fire. fig. Mettre le — sous le ventre à quelqu'un, to incite a person, to urge him on. 5 med. vet. fire, caustic. Il faut appliquer le — à cette plaie, caustic must be applied to that wound. Donner le —, mettre le — à un cheval, to scar, to fire a horse. 6 (cheminée) fire, fire-place. Chambre à —, room with a fire-place. Plaque de —, back of a chimney. Garniture de —, fire-irons. Le coin du —, the fire-side. fig. Ne bouger du coin du —, not to stir from one's fire-side. N'aimer que le coin du —, to like nothing but home. (by analogy) Les plaisirs du coin du —, the pleasures of home. 7 (le feu que l'on entretient dans une cheminée) fire. Il n'a jamais de — chez lui, he has never any fire at home. — (un ménage, une famille) hearth, homestead, family. Cette ville est composée de tout de — x, that town is composed of so many families. Prov. N'avez ni —, ni lieu, —, you have neither house nor home. 9 (lueur) light, signal-light, beacon, fire. Il y avait des — x allumés sur la côte, there were beacons lighted on the coast. Je contemplant les — x réguliers des lignes romaines et les — x épars des hordes des F., I contemplated the regular fires of the Roman lines, and the scattered fires of the hordes of the F. Chat. poetic. Les — x du firmament, les — x de la nuit, the stars of the firmament, the lights of Heaven. Mes sœurs, l'onde est plus fraîche aux premiers — x du jour, sisters the wave is fresher at the first dawn of day. V. Hug. to law. (bougies) candle, light. Aucune adjudication ne peut être faite qu'après l'extinction de trois — x, nothing can be adjudged till after the burning out of three candles. 11 (théâtre) night. Cet acteur a tant pour ses — x, that actor has so much each time he plays. 12 (météore) fire, flash. L'air était tout en — pendant cet orage, the air was all on fire during that storm. — Saint-Elme, Saint Helen's fire. — follet, will-o'-the-wisp, Jack-o'-lantern. fig. La vérité semblait vilifier à ses yeux comme un — follet, the truth seemed to dance before his eyes like a will-o'-the-wisp. Saint. fig. Cette passion n'est qu'un — follet, that passion is but a flash. 13 fig. (le brillant) fire, lustre, brilliancy. Le — de ses regards, the fire of his looks. Ce diamant jette beaucoup de —, that diamond has a fine lustre. 14 fig. (inflammation) fire, heat, inflammation. Le — de la fièvre, the heat of fever. Je sens un — dans les entrailles, I feel a heat in the bowels. Le — est encore à cette plaie, that wound is still inflamed. Avoir la bouche toute en —, le palais tout en —, to have one's mouth, palate all on fire. Il avait les yeux tout en —, le — lui montait au visage, his eyes flashed fire, his face was all on fire. — Saint-Antoine, St Anthony's fire, erysipelas. 15 fig. (des sentiments, etc.) fire, ardour, life. Dans le premier — de l'espérance de réussir, in the first flush of hope of success. De Bross. Le — de la jeunesse, the fire of youth. Dans son premier — d'ambition, in the first ardour of his ambition. St-B. Une âme de —, a soul of fire. Travaillons tandis que nous avons encore du — dans les veines, let us work whilst we have still some life in our veins. Volt. Quand le premier —, quand le — de sa colère sera passé, when his first burst of anger is over. Ette de —, tout de — pour quelque chose, to be all fire for a thing. Le — de la composition, the fire of composition. (by analogy) Dans le — de l'action, in the heat of action. 16 fig. poetic. love, flame, passion. Des — x constants, constant love. 17 fig. (du style, etc.) fire, spirit. C'est un esprit tout de —, he has a fiery imagination. Des paroles de —, words that burn. 18 fig. (inspiration) fire, inspiration, ardour. Les poètes étaient animés d'un — divin, poets were animated with a divine fire. Volt. 19 fig. (sédition, etc.) flame. Le — de la guerre, the flames of war. Cet événement allait mettre le — à l'Europe, that event was about to kindle a flame in Europe.

FEU, adj. m. fem. — E, late, deceased. — mon père, my deceased father. — la reine, the late queen. Le — pape, le — roi, la — reine, the late pope, king, queen.

FEUDATAIRE, fuh-dat-ayr, s. mf. feudatory.

FEUDISTE, fuh-dist, sm. 1 feudist. 2 (adjectif.) Un docteur —, a feudist doctor.

FEUILLAGE, fuh-yazh, sm. 1 (collectif) foliage. — vert, green foliage. — touffu, thick foliage. 2 (branches d'arbres couvertes de feuilles) leaves, foliage. Un lit de —, a bed of leaves. 3 (représentation capricieuse) foliage. Damos à grands — s, damask with broad foliage.

FEUILLASON, fuh-yuh-zong, sf. bot. foliation.

FEUILLANT, fuh-yang, sm. fem. FEUT-LANTINE, feuilant, monk of the order of St Bernard.

FEUILLANTINE, fuh-yang-teon, sf. pastry made of puff-paste.

FEUILLARD, fuh-yar, sm. hoop-wood. (by analogy) — de fer, hoop-iron.

FEUILLE, fuh-yuh, sf. (Lat. folium) 1 but. leaf. La queue on le pétiole d'une —, a leaf-stalk, petiole, foot-stalk. Les nervures d'une —, the nerves, nervures, the veins of a leaf. — s de chêne, de noyer, oak, walnut-tree leaves. Un arbre bien garni de — s, qui a perdu ses — s, a leafy tree, a leafless tree. Un amas de — s séchées, a heap of dry leaves. — s de betterre, d'artichaut, de persil, white beet, artichoke, parsley leaves. — composée, compound leaf. La chute des — s, the fall of the leaf. Il mourut à la chute des — s, he died at the fall of the leaves. Vin, bois de deux — s, de trois — s, etc., wine, wood two years old, three years old, prov. Trembler comme une —, to tremble like an aspen-leaf. prov. N'aille au bois qui a peur des — s, he who is afraid of leaves must not come into a wood. 2 leaf. See DÉTAIL. Une — de rose, a rose-leaf. 3 arch. leaf. — d'acrotie, acanthus leaf. 4 (by extension) Une — de papier, a sheet of paper. (by analogy) — de parchemin, de vélin, sheet of parchment, of vellum. 5 print. (by extension) sheet. — blanche, blank sheet, white sheet. — imprimée, sheet of letter-press. Tirer une bonne —, to strike off a fair sheet. 6 (by extension) — volante, fly, loose sheet. Cet écrit n'est qu'une — volante que l'on vend dans les rues, that writing is only a broadside sold in the streets. Cela était écrit sur une — volante, it was written on a loose sheet of paper. 7 — de route, route. Deliver, donner une — de route à un soldat, to deliver a route to a soldier. 8 (by extension) (journal) paper, newspaper. Les — s publiques, the public papers. 9 (by extension) (cabinet volant) list. La — des bénéfices, the list of the livings in the king's gift, etc. (by analogy) La — des pensions, the pension-list. 10 (diverses choses-plates) sheet. — de carton, sheet of pasteboard. Partager une pièce d'acajou en — s, to rener a piece of mahogany. — d'or, d'argent, beaten gold, leaf gold, silver foil, beaten silver. — de cuivre, d'étain, de fer-blanc, coppersheet, sheet-copper, tin-foil, leaf-tin. 11 jewel. foil. 12 parties qui se détachent de certains corps en lames très-minces) scale, lamina. 13 surg. exfoliation. 14 (châssis) leaves. Un paravent de cinq — s, a five-leaved screen. Des volets de toile se repliant par — s, sheet-iron shutters folding up in leaves. Th. Gaut.

FEUILLE-MORTE, o/j. mf. 1 feuille-morte, flemot, philomet. Couleur — morte, flemot colour. Satin — morte, flemot satin. 2 sm Un beau — morte, a handsome brown colour.

FEUILLE, fuh-yay, adj. m. fem. — E, 4 bot. foliate, leafy. Les arbres sont — s — que le soleil ne saurait percer l'ombre, the trees are so leafy that the sun cannot penetrate the shade. St-B. Tige. — e, leafy stem. 2 her. leafy. 3 point. — e, foliole.

FEUILLEE, fuh-yay, sf. bower, green arbour. Danser sous la —, to dance under the greenwood tree.

FEUILLEUR, fuh-yay, vn. 1 paint. to paint foliage. 2 hort. to get leaves. Un bois d'arbricotes sauvages qui commencent seulement à —, a forest of wild apricot-trees which only begin to have some leaves. Jacq.

FEUILLET, fuh-yay, sm. 1 leaf. — d'un in-folio, folio-leaf. Tourner le —, to turn over the leaf. Sauter le —, to skip the leaf. 2 (petite partie mince dont une chose est composée) thin plate. 3 bot. gilt, gills. 4 anat. third stomach.

FEUILLETAGE, fuh-yuh-tazh, sm. pastry, puff-paste.

FEUILLETTE, ppa. of FEUILLETER, fem. — E, 1 Livre —, a book that has been perused, thumb'd. 2 Gâteau —, cake made of puff-paste.

FEUILLETER, fuh-yuh-ty, ra. 1 to turn over the leaves. Je n'ai pas lu ce livre, je n'ai fait que le —, I have not read this book, I have only skimmed it over. La boutique d'un Libraire où il feuillettait les nouveautés, a bookseller's shop where he perused the works just come out. St-B. Le marchand feuillettait no gros registre, the shopkeeper was turning over the leaves of a big register. Le Sage. fig. Comme un livre au hasard feuillettant la nature, turning over the leaves of nature at random, like those of a book. Lamart. 2 (by extension) (étudier) to turn over. Pour éclaircir cette question, il a allu — bien des livres, to clear up this question, it was necessary to turn over a great many books. fig. D'un peuple entier je feuillettai l'histoire, I perused the history of a whole people. V. Hug. Feuillettait à loisir tous les siècles passés, run through at your leisure all past ages. Buil. Sans cesse feuillettait les lois et la coutume, continually studying the written and the common law. Boil. 3 pastry. — de la pâte, to make puff-paste.

FEUILLETON, fuh-yuh-tong, sm. (d'un journal, of a newspaper) feuilleton. Le — des théâtres, the feuilleton of the theatres, the theatrical critique.

PIEFFER, fiay-fay, va. to enseof (an domaine, a domain).

FIEL, fiayl, sm. (Lat. fel) 1 gall. Amer comme —, as bitter as gall. 2 fig. gall. malice, bitterness. Répandre, vomir son —, to vent one's spleen. Tant de — entre-t-il dans l'âme des dévôts! can pious men bear so much malice! Boil. Ette sans —, n'avoir point de —, to be pigeon-livered, to bear no malice.

FIENTE, fiyang, sf. (des animaux, of animals) dung, muck. — de pigeon, pigeon-dung. — de vache, de loup, cow-dung, wolf's dung.

FIENTER, fiyang-tay, vn. (des animaux, of animals) to dung.

FIER, fiay, va. (Lat. fidere) NOTES FIONS, VOUS FIEZ, obsol. to trust, to entrust.

SE FIER, vpr. to trust (to), to confide (in), to rely (on). Se — en quelqu'un, à quelqu'un, to trust to a person. B. ne pouvait se — à personne. B. had nobody she could rely on. Aug. Th. Il ne faut se — à lui qu'à bonnes enseignes, one must be very cautious how one trusts him. De Bross. Je m'en fie à la gaieté qu'elle a fait paraître, I consider as a proof the gaiety she manifested. Le Sage. Se bant enfin à ma reconnaissance, trusting at last to my gratitude. Rac. Souvent femme varie, bien loi est qui s'y fie, a woman often changes, must trust he who trusts to her. Au oom des peuples qui s'étaient liés à lui, in the name of the peoples who had put their trust in him. Aug. Th. Se — à la discrétion de quelqu'un, to rely on the discretion of a person. Fiez-vous à lui da soit de cette affaire, trust him to manage that business. Je ne m'en fie qu'à mes propres yeux, I trust only to my own eyes. Fiez-vous après cela aux avantages de la nature, trust to natural advantages after that. Nod. Ils ne s'en faisaient pas tellement aux démarches de, etc., they did not put such trust in the steps taken by, etc. Mich. Sur l'aveoir insensé qui se bel foot must he be who counts upon the future! Rac. Les oiseaux se faisaient à elle, the birds had confidence in her. Mich. ironic. Fiez-vous-y, fiez-vous à cela, trust to that. La mer promet monts et merveilles, fiez-vous-y, the sea promises wonders, only trust to it. La fève prov. fig. Nage toujours et ne t'y fie pas, self-reliance alone will carry you through.

FIER, fiay, adj. m. fem. FIERE, 1 (antier) proud, haughty, supercilious. Une femme très-fière, a very haughty woman. Il est — envers ses inférieurs, he is proud to his inferiors. Dans ce pays la noblesse est fière et oisive, in that country the nobility is proud and idle. Vol. Elle est fière de son fils, she is proud of her son. Il est tout — d'avoir été nommé maire de son village, he is quite proud of having been appointed mayor of his village. (substantif.) Faire le —, to carry one's head high. prov. Etre — comme un Écossais, to be as proud as a Scotchman. 2 (qui a des sentiments nobles) high-spirited, lofty, lofty-minded. Âme fière, high-spirited soul. Caractère —, lofty character. Que voulez-vous, quand on aime tout de bon, on n'est pas —, there is no help for it, when one is downright in love, one has no pride left. S'-B. 3 poetic. intrepid, spirited, high-spirited, mettlesome. Courage —, intrepid courage. De — courriers, spirited, mettlesome steeds. 4 (da ton, de la contenance, of the tone, the countenance) proud. Ton —, haughty tone. Démarche noble et fière, noble and proud deportment. Oeil, regard —, proud eye, look. De — mépris, lordly contempt. Une réponse fière et lordly, a spirited and bold answer. 5 point. Touché fière, bold touch. 6 (fort) famous, precious. Un — coup de tonnerre, a famous thunder-clap. Il faut avoir un — courage pour cela, one must have a famous courage to do that. C'est une fière imprudence, one fiere étourderie, it is extreme imprudence, a most giddy trick. C'est un — homme, he is a remarkable man.

FIER-À-BRAS, sm. bully, Hector. FIEREMENT, fiay-mang, ode. 1 proudly, boldly. 2 fam. preciously, famously.

FIEITÉ, fiayr-lay, sf. 1 pride, haughtiness. Il reprenait sa hauteur et sa — dès que le péri était passé, he resumed his haughtiness and his pride as soon as the danger was over. Volt. Il avait été élevé dans une — brutale, he had been bred in a brutish pride. Fen. Battre la — de quelqu'un, to lower the pride of a person. Parler avec —, to speak proudly. La — des manières, du maintien, du regard, haughtiness of manners, of deportment, of look. 2 (élévation) spirit, loftiness, high-mindedness. Volt. — de caractère, dignity of character. La — de l'âme, high-mindedness. Volt. 3 point. — de touche, of pieceau, boldness of touch.

FIEVRE, fiayvr, sf. (Lat. febris) 1 fever. — continue, intermittente, remittente, quotidienne, continu, intermittent, intermitting, quotidian fever. — éphémère, éphémère. — tierce, quarte, double-tierce, double-quarte, tertian, quartan, double-tertian, double-quartan ague. — de rhume, fever attendant on a cold. La — jaune, the yellow fever. Ressentir un mouvement de —, to feel feverish. Accès de —, fever-fit. Le froid de la —, a cold fit. Avoir la —, to be in a fever. Trembler de —, to have the ague. Guérir la —, to cure of the fever. Seoir la —, to smell of the fever. pop. Avoir les —s, to have the ague. (interjectif.) fiau. Que la — le serre! plague on him! fig. — de cheval, violent fever. prov. fig. Tomber de — en chao mal, to leap out of the frying-pan into the fire. 2 (hyperb.) fever. L'attente de cette nouvelle me donne la —, anxiety for that news throws me into a fever. Rien que d'y penser, j'en ai la —, the bare thought of it gives me the fever. 3 (dans le style élevé) fever. Cette — de rébellion n'était point encore apaisée, that rebellious fever had not yet cooled. Les —s de l'âme sont semblables à celles du corps, the fevers of the soul resemble those of the body. Chat. Cette — de tête qu'on connut les jeunes gens, that excitement of the brain experienced by young men. Balz.

FIEVREUX, fiay-vrab, adj. m. fem. FIEVREUSE, 1 feverish. L'ays, climat —, feverish country, climate. 2 (sujet à la fièvre) feverish. Temperament —, feverish constitution. 3 (substantif) fever-patient.

FIEVROTTE, fiay-vrot, sf. (little used) slight fever.

FIFRE, feefr, sm. (Ger.) 1 fife. Jouer du —, to play on the fife. 2 (celui qui joue) fifer.

FIGE, pop. of FIGER, fem. —E, De l'huile —e, congealed oil.

FIGEMENT, feezh-mang, sm. congealment, coagulation.

FIGER, fe-zhay, va. NOTES FIGEONS; IL FIGE. (Lat. figere) to congeal, to coagulate. L'air froid fige la graisse des viandes, cold air congeals the fat of meat. On a prétendu que ce poison figeait le sang dans les veines, it has been asserted that this poison would congeal the blood in the veins.

SE FIGER, vpr. to be congealed, coagulated. fig. Malgré ses efforts pour paraître calme, Don J. sentit son sang se —, in spite of all his efforts to look composed, Don J. felt his blood curdle. Mérim.

FIGUE, fig, sf. (Lat. ficus) bot. fig. Un rabahe de —s, a basket of figs. prov. fig. Faire la —, to laugh at a person, to dare him. fam. fig. Moitié —, moitié raisin, half willingly, half by force; partly well, partly ill; half in earnest, half in jest. Ils vivent ensemble moitié —, moitié raisin, they live together on indifferent terms.

FIGURIE, fig-ree, sf. fig-orchard, fig-garden.

FIGURI, fig-say, sm. bot. fig-tree. — d'Inde, Indian fig-tree, puntia.

FIGURANT, fe-gu-rang, ppr. of FIGER, sm. fem. —E, 1 figurant, ballet-dancer, figure-dancer. 2 (personnage accessoire) supernumary.

FIGURATIF, fe-gu-rat-if, adj. m. fem. figurative, 1 figurative, typical. Plaa —, topographical plan. 2 Gr. gram. Lettre figurative, absol. figurative, characteristic.

FIGURATIVEMENT, fe-gu-rat-if-mang, adv. figuratively, typically.

FIGURE, fe-giur, sf. (Lat. figura) 1 (forme extérieure) figure, form. Une étrange — d'homme, an odd figure of a man. Il n'a pas d'homme, il n'a pas — humaine, he has not a human form. 2 (particul.) (visage) face, countenance. Un enfant d'une jolie —, a child with a pretty face. Etre bien de —, to have a handsome face. Je connais celle —-là, I know that face. Une race d'hommes de petite stature, d'une — bizarre, a small-sized, odd-featured race of men. Buff. 3 absol. fine appearance. Je n'ai point de talent, encore moins de —, I have no talent and of personal appearance still less. Flor. Sa — est désavantageuse, il est de petite taille, his shape is ungainly, he is of short stature. De Bross. 4 (by extension) (les manières, etc.) figure, appearance. Le chevalier de la triste —, the knight of the woful figure; of the rueful countenance. Je ne savais trop quelle — je devais faire, quelle — je devais prendre, I scarcely knew how to look. (by extension) Le château fait fort booe — the castle has a very handsome appearance. 5 fig. Faire —, to make, to cut a figure. Don H. ne fait plus à la cour qu'une pitoyable —, Don H. now makes but a sorry figure at court. Le Sage. 6 (représentation de certains objets) figure. —s de plantes, d'animaux, figures of plants, of animals. Publier un livre avec des —s, avec —, to publish a work with figures. 1 (by extension) J'enendis près d'un grand feu one — de matelas où je passai quelques heures, I stretched before the fire the semblance of a mattress on which I reposed a few hours. De Bross. 7 (personnage représenté) figure. — de bronze, de marbre, de pierre, bronze, marble, plaster figure. Peindre, dessiner la —, to paint, to draw academical figures. — de grandeur naturelle, figure as large as life. Demi —, semi-figure. 8 (image allégorique) figure, type. (by analogy) Le bonheur n'est qu'une — vaine des choses d'autrefois, happiness is but a vain figure of a former state. V. Hug. 9 math. figure, diagram. — plane, plane figure. — carrée, square figure. — d'âne, astrology, astrological figure. — d'âne, figure. De contredanse, figure of a country-dance. — de ballet, a figure in a ballet. 11 gram. rhet. figure, figure of speech. Une — hardie, a bold figure. —s de rhétorique, rhetorical figures. 12 aut. head, block, figure.

FIGURE, ppa. of FIGURER, fem. —E, figured. (by extension) Toutes les vertus chrétiennes étaient —es par des jeunes filles vêtues en blanc, all the christian virtues were figured by young girls clothed in white. Villon. Plan — d'une maison, d'un jardin, etc., topographical plan of a house, a garden, etc. Copie —e, exact imitation. Pierres —es, imitated stones. Dense —e, figured diamonds. Contre-point —, figurate counterpoint. Le sens — d'un mot, the figurative sense of a word. Terme —, expres-tion, phrase — 6, figurative term, expression, phrase. — 2, sm. figurative sense. Le propre et le —, the literal and the figurative sense. 3 her. figured, expressing a rimage.

FIGUREMENT, fe-gu-ray-mag, adv. figuratively.

FIGURER, fe-gu-ray, ra. (Lat. figurare) 1 (représenter par la peinture, par la sculpture, etc.) to figure, to represent. (by extension) S'ils jouaient à l'atelage, L. figurait les chevaux et M. le cocher, if they played at driving, L. represented the horses and M. the coachman. Saint. 2 (souvent) (des choses, of things) to figure, to form. 3 (représenter par un symbole) to figure. Les Égyptiens figuraient l'année par un serpent qui mord sa queue, the Egyptians figured the year by a serpent biting its tail. 4 (dans le sens mystique) to typify, to be a figure of, to shadow forth.

SE FIGURER, vpr. 1 à figure to one's self. 2 to imagine, to fancy. Je m'imaginai que Rome en fourmillait, point du tout, I fancied that there were numbers of them at Rome, and far from it. De Bross.

FIGURER, va. 1 (avoir de la convenance) to harmonize, to look, to appear. Ces deux tableaux figurent bien ensemble, those two paintings match well together. 2 (by analogy) to dance in figures. Ces danseurs ne savent pas —, those dancers do not know how to dance in figures. 3 (théâtre) to figure. 4 (faire figure) to figure, to make a figure. Cet homme-là, tel que vous le voyez, a figuré autrefois à la cour, that man, such as you see him, formerly figured at court. 5 (parallèle) to figure. Leurs noms qu'on a vus si souvent — dans les écrits des poètes, their names that have so often been seen to figure in the writings of the poets. Barth. 6 à la tête de cette ligne, figurait le peuple breton à la head of this league figured the people of Brittany. Aug. Th.

FIGURINE, fe-gu-reed, sf. dim. of FIGURE, 4 little figure. 2 paint. minor figure.

FIGURISME, fe-gu-rism', sm. figurism. FIGURISTE, fe-gu-rist, 4 sm. figurist. 2 theol. figurist.

FIL, feel, sm. (Lat. filum) 4 (du lin, du chanvre, etc., of hemp, etc.) thread. 2 (des araignées, des chevelles, of spiders, caterpillars) thread. fig. — de la vie, gossamer thread, gossamer. 3 (brins de chanvre, de lin, etc., tordus ensemble) yarn, thread. — de chanvre, de lin, hemp-yarn, flax-yarn. — retors, thread. — de caret, rope-yarn. Devenir du —, to reel off thread. Les — de la chaîne, de la trame d'une toile, warp-thread, shoot, thread of the web. — à coudre, sewing-thread. Un écheyan, un peloton de —, a skein, a ball of thread, a clew. Une aiguille de —, a needleful of thread. Un bout de —, a bit of thread. Couper de droit —, aller de droit —, to cut straight, to go straight. fig. Aller de droit —, to go right against. fam. De droit en aiguille, from one thing to another. De — en aiguille, if he conta toute la toire, one thing bringing on another, he told me the whole story. fig. Cela ne tient qu'à un —, that holds only by a thread; || La vie de man hangs only qu'à un —, the life of man hangs only by a thread; || Il ne tient qu'à un —, he hangs only by a thread. fam. Des fausses coudes de — blanc, artifices that can be seen through. fig. Le — d'Ariane, Ariadne's clew; || Cette vérité, une fois trouvée, devient pour lui le — d'Ariane, this truth once discovered, served him as a clew; || Je cherchais un — qui me dirigât dans cet immense dedale, I sought for a clew that might guide me in this immense labyrinth. fig. pteic. Le — de la vie, de nos destins, de nos

jours, etc., the thread of life, of our destiny, of our lives, etc. La Parque a tranché le — de ses jours, the fatal sisters have cut the thread of his life. (by analogy) — de coton, de laine, de soie, silk cotton-yarn, woollen-thread, yarn, silk thread. — de perles, string of beads. — à plomb, plumb-line, plumb-rule. 4 (des métaux, of metals) wire. — d'argent, silver wire. — d'archal, — de fer, iron wire. — de laiton, brass-wire. 5 (d'une épée, d'un rasoir, of a sword, of a razor) Passer au — de l'épée, to put to the sword. Donner le — à un rasoir, etc., to give an edge to a razor, etc. (by analogy) Ce couteau, ce rasoir à le —, this knife, this razor is sharp; || fig. pop. Avoir le —, to be up to it, to be up to the mark. 6 (courant de l'eau) stream, current. Suivez le — de la rivière, go down the stream of the river. La Font. fig. Aller contre le — de l'eau, to go against the stream; to go against the grain. 7 (des végétaux, of plants) grain. 8 (des viandes, of meats) flaw. 9 (dans le marbre, dans la pierre) flaw. 10 fig. (suite) thread of an affair; d'un discours, of a discourse. Renouer le — d'une intrigue, to gather up the broken threads of an intrigue. Puis suivait le — des événements, elle, etc., then followed the course of events, etc. 11 — à l'rouss. Le — des idées, the thread of ideas. Reprendre le — des événements dans un récit, to resume the chain of events in a narration.

FILAGE, fe-lazh, sm. spinning.

FILAGRANNE, fe-lag-ram, sm. See FILIGRANE.

FILAMENT, fe-lam-ang, sm. 4 bot. filament, thread. 2 anat. filament.

FILAMENTEUX, fe-lam-ang-tah, adj. m. fem. FILAMENTEUSE, bot. filamentous, filaceous.

FILANDIÈRE, fe-lang-dyart, sf. spinner, spinster. (adjective) Les sœurs —, (les Parques) the fates, the total sisters.

FILANDES, fe-lang-dr', sf. pl. 4 air-threads, gossamer. 2 (brins de la viande) strings. Une viande pleine de —, very stringy meat. 3 vet. threads, strings. 4 (petits vers) flanders.

FILANDREUX, fe-lang-drab, adj. m. fem. FILANDREUSE, stringy, thready.

FILANT, fe-lang, prpf. of FILER, adj. m. fem. —, 4 ropy. Une matière —, a ropy matter. 2 astr. Etioles —, shooting stars, falling stars.

FILASSE, fe-lass, sf. tow. De la — de lin, de chanvre, flaxen, hempen tow. fig. Ce n'est que de la —, it is nothing but string.

FILASSIER, fe-las-say, sm. fem. FILASSIERE, hemp and flax dresser.

FILATEUR, fe-lat-aur, sm. spinner, mill-owner.

FILATURE, fe-lat-ur, sf. 4 spinning-mill, mill, cotton manufactory. — de laine, de soie, silk-mill. — de coton, cotton-mill, factory. Le chef, les ouvriers d'une —, the head, the workmen of a factory. 2 (action, art) spinning.

FIL, feel, sf. 4 file, row, rank. Une longue — de gens qui vont un à un, a long file of people going one by one. Aller à la —, à —, to go one after another. Se mettre à la —, to take one's place in the file. Toute la — des derivatives, the whole file of derivatives. Th. Gaut. Prendre la — des voitures, to fall in with the other carriages. Une — de pieux, a row of stakes. Les pensionnaires se rangent en deux —, the boarders placed themselves in two rows. Baiz. fig. Tous les vices viennent à la —, it ne s'en manque guère, all come one after the other, but very few are wanting.

La Font. 2 mil. (de soldats, of soldiers) file. Serrer les —, to close the files. Par — gauche! left file! Par — droite! right file! Chel de —, file-leader. Scree-

—, last man of a file, bringer-up. Sa placeur eu serre —, to place one's self last. Les serre —, the bringers-up. 3 naut. sternmost. Etre le serre —, to be the sternmost ship. Fen de —, file-bring.

FILÉ, ppa. of FILER, fem. — 2, 1 spun. Un habit — par ses filles, a coat spun by his daughters. Fior. Les cotons —, cotton yarn. fig. Cette intrigue, cette scène est bien —, that intrigue, that scene is well conducted. Cette pièce est pleine de situations —, avec un art infini, that piece is full of situations brought about with infinite art. Le Sage. fig. Des jours — d'or et de soie, happy, golden days. 3 sm. thread. Du — d'or, clear threads. Du — d'argent, silver thread.

FILER, fe-lay, ra. 4 à spin (du lin, du chanvre, de la soie, de la laine, du coton, flax, hemp, silk, wool, cotton). — gros, to spin into a coarse thread. — fin, to spin into a fine thread. — au fuseau, au rouet, to spin with the spindle, with the spinning-wheel. — sa quenouille, to spin with the distaff. Machine à —, spinning-machine, spinning-frame. (by analogy) — des cordes à boyau, to make cut-pul.

2 (des insectes, of insects) to spin. Une araignée qui file sa toile, a spider that spins its web. Je n'y entendais d'autre bruit que celui du ver filant sa toile, I heard there no other noise than that of the worm spinning its web. Th. Gaut. fig. Ce chat file, that cat purrs. fig. — à sa corde, to take the road to the gallows.

fig. — une intrigue, une scène, une reconnaissance, etc., to bring about an intrigue, a scene, a discovery, etc. fig. (in joke) — une période, to make a period. fig. poeic. Les Parques, les destinées lui filent une belle vie, lui filent de beaux jours, etc., the fates have created for him a glorious existence. Si les Parques ne m'eussent pas filé des jours très-différents, if the fates had not destined me to a very different lot. Le Sage. Clotho prenait plaisir à spinning this wool. La Font. prov. fig. — la parait amour, to be a languishing lover. 3 tech. to wire-draw — sur soie, sugar, to cover silk, thread with wire. 3 naut. to pay out, to slip. — le câble. To wear out the cable. — du câble pour soulever l'ancre, to pay out cable to the anchor. — une manœuvre, to ease off a rope. — les écoutes, to let fly the sheets. — un navet, deux navets, trois navets, etc., to run a knot, two knots, etc. 5 — ses cartes, to play out one's cards. — la carte, to smuggle a card. 6 mus. — un son, to hold a note.

FILER, va. 4 (s'allonger en filets) to rope. 2 (couler doucement) to rope. Ce sirop, cette liqueur file, this syrup, this liquor ropes. Ce vin tourne à grow muddy, il file, this wine begins to grow muddy, it thickens. fig. — d'écarter, to be at submission, to sing small. 3 (aller l'ur après l'autre) to file off. Faire — les troupes sur un point, to send off troops to a point. Un train d'artillerie file sur M., a train of artillery was filing off toward M. Lamart. 4 (aller rapidement) to shawl, to glide. Quelques-uns filant dans un brouillard moderne la favorite du pacha, sometimes the favourite mistress of the Pasha roiled by in a modern broug-ham. Th. Gaut. L'eau bleue file comme la ficelle le long des pierres du quai, the blue water shoots by like an arrow along the quays. Th. Gaut. Regardant — d'un œil sombre les bateaux à vapeur, casting gloomy looks on the steam-boats that shot by. Th. Gaut. J'ai vu — à eau 800 roubles, quinze jours 800 roubles, in the course of a fortnight. Jacq. 5 (s'en aller) to be off. Il faut —, we must be off. 6 (jeu de brela) to risk nothing but what is necessary.

FILIERIE, fil-ree, sf. tech. rope-walk.
FILLET, fe-lay, sm. 1. thread. fig. Sa vie ne tient plus qu'à un fil. — his life hangs upon a thread. Il n'a plus qu'un — de vie, he has scarcely a breath of life in him. 2 (ce qui ressemble à un petit fil) thread. Tout s'en va par —, it all goes off in threads. 3 bot. filamenteux. 4 anat. frænum, string. Couper le —, to cut the frænum, the string of the tongue. prov. Il n'a pas le —, he is not tongue-tied. 5 (ornements longs et déliés) fillet. Convertis d'argent à —, silver forks and spoons with fillets. Re liere de veau avec —, calf binding with fillets. Le — d'une vis, the worm, the turn, the thread of a screw. 6 print. (traits) rule. — double, double rule.

maigre (thin rule). 7 print. (lames) rule. 8 fig. (d'un liquide, of a liquid) (by extension) brook, streamlet, small stream, thread. Un maigre — d'eau, a slender thread of water. Un — de vinaigre, a dash of vinegar. 9 Un — de volt, a slender voice. 10 (rets) net, snare. Tendre des —, to lay, to spread a net. Jeter le —, to cast the net. Il a pris tous ces poissons d'un seul coup de —, See coup. 11 fig. (séductions) snares, toils. Elle sut l'attirer dans ses —, she made him fall into her snares, she ensnared him. Les — du démon, the snares of the demon. Le Sage, 12 (ouvrages à mailles) net-work, netting, net. Un — de soie retentait ses cheveux, a silk net held her hair. Suspendre on — dans l'intérieur d'une voiture de voyage, to hang up netting in the interior of a travelling carriage. 13 (d'un jeu de paume) net. 14 man. snaffle, bridoon. 15 batch. calico. — de bouef, de cerf, de sanglier, chine of beef, of venison, of brown. (by analogy) — de merlan, de sole, fillets of whiting, of sole.

FILÉUR, fe-luhr, sm. fem. FILÉTESE, spinner, spinster. Filense au rouet, wheel-spinner. Filense à la quenouille, distaff-spinner. — de coton, cotton-spinner.

FILIAL, fe-lyal, adj. m. fem. — z, filial. Obéissance — e, filial obedience. Amour —, filial love. Elle fut un modèle de piété — e, she was a model of filial piety.

FILIALEMENT, fe-lyal-mang, adv. filially.

FILIATION, fe-lyab-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 filiation. 2 (degré de génération des père et mère aux enfants) filiation. — légale, time, legitimate filiation. 3 fig. (d'une abbaye, d'une église, of an abbey, of a church) affiliation. 4 fig. (adoption d'un corps par un autre) affiliation. 5 fig. (de choses) affiliation. La — des idées, the affiliation of ideas.

FILICULE, fe-le-kül, sf. bot. filicula.

FILIERE, fe-lyayr, sf. 1 tech. drawing-plate, draw-plate. Faire passer de l'or, de l'argent par la —, to draw gold, silver through the plate. 2 fig. Passer par la —, to undergo a severe trial; // Faire passer quelqu'un par toutes les —, to try a person in every manner. Une — de gens, a series of people. 2 locksmith. borail, etc., joint-gauge, screw-plate. La — et les tarauds, the screw-plate and the screw-awgs. 3 carp. pulia.

FILIFORME, fe-le-form, adj. m. bot. filiform. Fe filies — s, filiform leaves.

FILIGRANE, fe-le-gran, sm. 1 tech. filigrane, filigree. 2 (marque sur le papier) water-mark.

FILIN, fe-laing, sm. anat. cordage.

FILIPENDULE, fe-le-pang-dül, sf. bot. dropwort.

FILLE, fe-loh, sf. 4 (Lat. filia) daughter. C'est la — d'un tel, she is the daughter of such a one. Elle est — de roi, she is the daughter of a king. Ma dame votre —, your daughter. Petite —, grand-daughter. Arrière-petite —, great grand-daughter. Belle —, step-daughter, daughter-in-law. poëtic. Les —s de Mémoire, (les Muses) the daughters of Memory, the Muses, the Asion maid. Les —s d'ouïr, (les Furies) the Furies, the Eumenides. 2 tech. qu'on regarde, qu'on aime comme sa fille) daughter. Elle a trouvé dans sa nièce une — tendre et soumise, she has found in her niece a tender and obedient daughter. Ma —, (terme d'affection) daughter. La — aînée des rois de France, (l'Université de Paris) the eldest daughter of the kings of France, the University. 3 poëtic. (issue de telle ou telle race) daughter. La — des Césars, the daughter of the Cæsars. (by extension) — d'Eve, daughter of Eve. fig. La vérité est — du temps, l'admiration est souvent la — de l'ignorance, etc., Truth is the daughter of time, Admiration is often the daughter of ignorance, etc. 4 rel. nuns. Les —s du Calvaire, the nuns of Calvary. Les —s de Saint-Thomas, the nuns of St Thomas. 5 fig. (des églises, abayes, priories) dependency. Ces abbayes sont —s de Clitæux, those abbeys are dependencies of C. 6 fig. (des corps qui étaient adoptés par un autre) daughter. L'Académie de Soissons, celle de Marseille se disent —s de l'Académie française, the Academy of S., that of M. called themselves daughters of the French Academy. 7 (designe le sexe féminin) girl. Elle est accouchée d'une — she has been brought to bed of a girl. Il y a dans cette famille plus de —s que de garçons, in that family there are more girls than boys. Une petite —, a little girl. 8 (par opposition à femme) maid, maiden, spinster. Elle est encore —, she is still unmarried. — à marier, a girl of age to marry, that is marriageable. Une vieille —, an old maid. Mourir —, to die an old maid. — d'honneur, maid of honour. — de boutique, shop girl. — de chambre, waiting maid, lady's maid. — de service, house-maid, chamber-maid. absol. La —, the maid.

FILLETTE, fe-yet, sf. dimin. of FILLE, young girl, lass, maiden. Gentille, jolie —, pretty lass. prov. Bonjour luette, adieu — s, spectacles frighten away love.

FILLEUL, fe-yuhl, sm. fem. — z, god-child, god-son, god-daughter.

FILICHE, fe-losh, sf. net-work. — de soie, de fil, silk, thread net-work.

FILLOIR, fe-lwar, sm. spinning-machine.

FILON, fe-long, sm. vein. lode. Un — d'argent, d'étain, de bouille, a vein of silver, of tin, of coal. Exploiter on —, to work a vein. Les branches, les ramifications d'un —, the branches of a vein.

FILS, fe-lo, sm. 1 filius. 2 (des has de —, floss-silk stockings).

FILLOU, fe-loo, sm. 1 thief, pick-pocket. Une farce de —, a thievish trick. 2 (qui trompe au jeu) sharper, blackleg, cheat.

FILOUTER, fe-loo-tay, ra. 1 to pick pockets, to cheat. On lui avait filote sa bourse, his pocket had been picked of his purse. absol. Il passe sa vie à —, he passes his life in cheating. 2 (tromper au jeu) to cheat.

FILOUTERIE, fe-loot-ree, sf. cheat, cheating, swindling.

FILS, fees, sm. (Lat. filius) 1 son. — légitime, legitimate son. — adoptif, adoptive son. — naturel, natural son. Il a deux —, he has two sons. Qui est-ce qui se frottaient les mains pendant ce monologue, c'était le — de mon père, he who rubbed his hands during this soliloquy was my father's son. Ab. J'étais devenu si fier, que je n'étais plus le — de mon père, I had grown so proud that I was no longer my father's son. Le Sage.

C'est le — d'un tel, he is the son of Such-a-one. Simonin père et —, S. father and son. com. Un tel et —, négociants, So-and-so father and son, merchants. — de famille, gentleman's son. scrip. Le — de l'homme, (Jésus-Christ) the Son of man. Le — de la maison, the son of the master of the house. anc. — de maître, the son of a master in art, tradesman's son; // boy of talent. Petit —, grand-son. Arrière-petit —, great grand-son. Beau — step-son, son-in-law. fig. Faire le beau —, to set up for a beau; // fig. C'est on beau —, he is a dandy. fig. Il est le — de ses œuvres, he is a self-made man. La vie des hommes célèbres qui sont — de leur œuvre, the lives of celebrated self-made men. S. prov. Il est —, il est bien — de son père, he is his father's own son; he is a chip of the old block. Il n'est — de bonocré que qui ne voulait avoir fait cette action, every honest man would wished he had done the same. Il était — de bonne mère qui n'en fit faire, not a mother's son but had some made. La Foul. 2 (celui qu'on regarde ou qu'on aime comme son fils) son. L'orphelin qu'il avait protégé devint son — et son ami, the orphan that he had protected became his son and friend. Non —, (terme d'amitié) my son. (particul.) fig. Les — de Mars, (les guerriers) the sons of Mars, warriors. Les — de la victoire, the sons of victory. Les — d'Apollon, (les poètes) the sons of Apollo, the poets. Les — de l'harmonie, (les musiciens) the sons of harmony, musicians. Le — aîné de l'Eglise, (le roi de France) the eldest son of the Church, the king of France. 2 poëtic. (descendant issu de telle ou telle race, ne dans tel ou tel pays) son, offspring. Les — de saint Louis, the sons of St Louis, the French. Les — d'Alphon, the sons of Alphon, the English. Les — de l'étranger, the sons of the foreigner. fig. Le luxe est le — de la vanité, les vices sont les — de l'oisiveté, etc., luxury is the offspring of vanity, the vices are the offspring of idleness, etc. Le rêve est le — de l'opium, dreams are the offspring of opium. Nery. 4 (pour désigner le sexe masculin) boy. Elle est accouchée d'un —, she has been brought to bed of a boy. De ce mariage naquirent quatre filles et deux —, four girls and two boys were the fruit of this marriage.

FILIRANT, fil-trang, ppr. of FILTRER, adj. m. fem. — e, filtering. Fontaine — e, filter, filtering-stone.

FILTRATION, fil-trang-syong, sf. 1 filtration, filtering, percolation. 2 chem. pharum. filtration, straining. 3 anc. physiol. La — des humeurs, the filtration of the humours.

FILTRE, fil'r, sm. 1 filter, filtering-stone. 2 anc. physiol. (organe) filtering.

FILTRE, sm. See PHILTRE.

FILTRE, ppa. of FILTRER, fem. — z, Eau — e, filtered water.

FILTREUR, fil-tray, ra. 1 to filter, to strain, to percolate. absol. Pierre à —, filtering-stone, filter. 2 anc. physiol. to filter.

FILTREUR, pn. 4 (d'un liquide, of a liquid) to filter, to percolate. L'eau filtre au travers de la muraille, water filters through the wall. 2 (by extension) (de la lumière) to soften, to distil, to glimmer. Regardant les rayons du soir — à travers les feuilles, beholding the evening-rays glimmering through the leaves. Lamart. La lune laisse — entre leurs masses sombres ses rayons argentés, the moon distils its silver rays between their gloomy masses. Tb. Gant.

SE FILTREUR, ppr. to be filtered, strained, to filter. (by extension) Ils voient l'or se — dans les entrailles de la terre, they see gold filtering in the bowels of the earth. Cbat.

FILURE, fe-lür, sf. spinning.
FIN, lang, sf. (Lat. finis) 1 end, close, termination, conclusion. A —, sur la —, vers la — du jour, at the close, towards the close, the decline of the day, at eventide. Je suis à la — de mes jours, I am drawing near my end. Montesq. Ils n'attendent pas la — de la dispute, they did not wait for the end of the dispute. Saint. Attendons la — de l'affaire, let us see the end of the affair. Flor. Mais attendons la —, but let us see the end. La Font. Il voulait rester jusqu'à la — du spectacle, he wanted to remain till the end of the play. Tout prend — en ce monde, every thing comes to an end in this world. His demandant aux dieux la — de leurs calamités, they supplicated the Gods to put an end to their calamities. Vol. Discours sans —, endless discourse. Nous touchons à la — de nos peines, our troubles will soon be over. Un n'eu voit pas la —, there is no end of it. La — de la vie n'arrive que par nuances souvent insensibles, the close of life arrives but by degrees which are often imperceptible. Buff. La — du monde, the end of the world. Mettre — à quelque chose, to put an end to a thing. C'est lui qui a mis — à ce silence, it was he who broke this silence. Saint. Mettez — à vos propos, have done with your idle talk. Neuer à bonne —, to terminate happily (a thing). com. bank. — prochain, end of the present month. Faire une —, end of the next month. pop. A la —, to settle down in marriage. pop. A la —, des —, said and done. prov. La — couronne l'ouvrage, the evening crowns the work; all's well that ends well. 2 (particuli.) (mor.) end. Faire une belle, une bonne —, one mauvaise —, one — malheureuse, to die a glorious death; to make a good end, to come to a bad, to an unhappy end. Le courage d'esprit avec lequel ce prince vit sa —, the fortitude with which this prince contemplated his last moments. Vol. Il avait le pressentiment de sa — prochaine, he had a presentiment of his approaching end. Trier à la —, à sa —, to draw towards one's end. hunt. Le cerf est sur sa —, the stag is almost knocked up. Theol. Les quatre — de l'homme, the four last things, death, judgment, heaven and hell. prov. Belle vie, telle —, as they live so they die. 3 (but) end, aim, object, view. J'ai l'intention de venir à mes —, I intend to gain my ends. Mass. Je veux le découvrir la — de l'art salulaire que je professe, I will reveal to you the object of the salutary art that I profess. Le Sage. Aller, tendre à ses —, to aim at one's end. Il avait tout mis en œuvre pour arriver à ses —, he had left no stone unturned to gain his point. Saint. Vous me trompez, M., j'ignore à quelle —, mais vous me trompez, you deceive me, M., I do not know to what end, to what you deceive me. Sie-B. Ce bâton lui servait à plusieurs —, this stick answered several ends. Sie-B. Toutes mes actions se proposent une — particulière, all our actions have a peculiar end in view. Barth. Faire une chose à bonne —, à mauvaise —, to do a thing with a good, a bad intention. A ces —, à cette —, consequently, to this end, to that end. A telle — que de raison, at all events, at any rate. Je commençais donc à exercer mon ministère telle — que de raison, I therefore began, at all events, to exercise my ministry. Le Sage. law. — de non-recevoir, exception, plea in bar, dilatory plea. Alléguer, opposer une — de non-recevoir, to present a plea in bar; fig. objections. Fatigué de l'ennemie — de non-recevoir que l'administration opposait à ses réclamations, it, etc. tired with the continual objections that the administration raised to his claims, he, etc. prov. Qui veut la —, veut les moyens, if you want the end you must not stick at the means.

À LA FIN, adv. loc. at length, at last.

A la — il est convenu de tout, he at last agreed, confessed to every thing.

FIN, adj. m. fem. —, 1 (menu) fine, small. Une écriture extrêmement —, fine small writing, extremely small hand. Ce fil est bien —, trop —, this thread is very fine, too fine. Des cheveux —, comme de la soie, hair as fine as silk. Pluie —, small rain, drizzling rain. Plume —, fine pen. —es herbes, pot-herbs. Avoir la taille —, to have a slender waist. (by analogy) Avoir la jambe —, to have a taper leg. nov. fig. (subst.) —, contre — n'est pas bon à faire doubleure, diamond cut diamond. 2 (delicat) fine, delicate. Og. Diamond. —, burin —, an excellent painter, ceau —, burin —, an excellent painter, ceau —, fine coat of paint, delicate engraver. 3 (excellent) fine, delicate. Couteur —, fine fleur de farine, fine flour. Or —, argent —, fine gold, silver —, —, volier, swift sailer. Un navire —, a fast sailer. fig. — fleur de chevalerie, fine flower of chivalry. Partie —, secret party of pleasure. Le — mot, key, secret. Voilà le — mot, that is the truth of it. Le — fond, the very bottom. Au — fond de la mer, at the very bottom of the sea. Il vient du — fond de l'Asie, he comes from the utmost confines of Asia. Ea — fond de forêt, in the inmost recesses of a forest. fig. C'est une — fine, it is a good swordsmen. Il she is a sly Brigade. 4 (par opposition à faux) fine. Broderie d'or —, embroidery of fine gold. Diamant —, fine diamond. Pierre —, fine, precious stone, gem. Un portrait orné de perles —, a portrait adorned with real pearls. (substantiv.) pure metal. fig. Le — d'une affaire, the main point, the secret of an affair. Tirer le — du —, to extract the quintessence of things. Savoir le fort et le — d'un art, le — d'une science, le — du jeu, to be thoroughly acquainted with an art, a science, a game. 5 (des sens, of the senses) sharp, acute, keen. Avoir le nez —, l'odorat —, to have a good nose, to be sharp-scented. Avoir l'oreille, l'ouïe bien —, to have sharp ears. Avoir l'oreille —, to have a correct ear. Un — gourmet, a good judge of wine, a true epicure. fig. Avoir le nez —, to be sharp-witted, sagacious. 6 fig. (de l'esprit, of the mind) Avoir l'esprit —, le jugement —, le goût —, le tact —, to have a sharp wit, a discriminating judgment, a delicate taste, excellent tact. 7 fig. (by analogy) (delicacies of l'esprit) delicate, nice. Raileries —, delicate raillery. Trait —, delicate, ingenious trait. Cet acteur a le jeu court, ingenious trait. Cet acteur a le jeu spirituel, that actor's performance is delicate and witty. Une distinction très —, a very nice distinction. 8 (des personnes, of persons) shrewd, cunning, artful. C'est un homme très —, he is a very shrewd man. C'est un — malin, he is a cunning fellow, a sharp blade. C'est un diplomate de C. qui ne sont pas forts à force d'être —, these C. diplomats who are too knowing to be clever. Ea. a was too trop — pour ne pas profiter de la Font. L'épouse shrewd not to profit by. La Font. L'épouse indiscret et peu —, the indiscreet and silly wife. La Font. (de certains animaux) cunning. Un maux, of some animals) cunning. Un vieux record, mais des plus —, an old fox, but one of the most cunning. La Font. Des yeux —, un regard —, une physionomie —, etc., penetrating eyes, a shrewd look, countenance, etc. fig. C'est un — renard, he is a cunning old fox. C'est une — bête, he is a sly dog. C'est une — mouche, she is a sly gipsy. prov. Plus — que lui n'est pas bête, he is as sharp as a needle. (substantiv.) Faire le — d'une chose, to make a sly use of a thing. Faire le —, to be close about a thing. absolt. Faire le —, to finesse. Jouer au —, au plus —, to act cunningly. Un gros —, a wise man of Gotham. 9 (de ce qui est fait avec adresse, avec ruse) shrewd.

FINAGE, fe-nazh, sm. anc. law. liberties, jurisdiction.

FINAL, fe-nal, adj. m. fem. —, 1 final, last. Compte —, final account. Point —, final, last point. pop. En fin —, finally. Cause —, final cause. 2 gram. final. (substantiv.) fem. —, final syllable. 3 theol. final. Impénitence —, final impénitence.

FINALE, fe-nal, sm. mus. finale. (by analogy) — de symphonie, de sonate, finale of a symphony, of a sonata.

FINALEMENT, fe-nal-mang, adv. finally, lastly.

FINANCE, fe-nangs, sf. 1 cash, ready money. Moyennant —, in consideration of a sum paid down. A bout de —, one sachant où donner de la tête, completely out of cash, not knowing what step to make, which way to turn. Sie-B. Je voyais mes —, the state of my finances. 1 aussi, the state of my finances. 2 (l'état de fortune) money-matters. Il est mal dans ses —, he is badly off in money-matters. 3 anc. finance, fine, duty, —, pl. (de l'état) finances. Le ministre des —, the ministry of finance. Le ministre des —, the minister of finance. Inspecteur des —, receveur des —, inspector receiver of the finances. 5 —, pl. (l'art d'asseoir, de régir et de percevoir les impositions) matters of finance. 6 (by extension) finance; financiers, capitalists, moneyed men. Entrer dans —, to get a place in the treasury. C'était un homme de —, he was a financier. La Font. La haute —, great capitalists, the princes of the money-market. Ecriture de —, court-hand. Chiffre de —, Roman numerals.

FINANCIER, fe-nang-say, vn. to come down, to advance money. On le fera —, they will make him come down, fork out.

FINANCIER, va. anc. to pay a fine of.

FINANCIER, fe-nang-say, sm. 1 anc. financier. 2 moneyed man. Riche comme un —, as rich as Cræsus. fig. C'est un —, on gros —, he is a Cræsus. 3 (acteur) Cet acteur joue les —, that actor plays the financiers. 4 (celui qui sait les finances) financier.

FINANCIER, adj. m. fem. FINANCIÈRE, 4 financial. Système —, financial system. La question financière, the financial money question. Ecriture, lettre financière, court-hand. 2 culin. Vol-au-vent à la financière, vol-au-vent à la financière.

FINASSER, fe-nassay, vn. to finesse, to manoeuvre. Il ne fait que —, he does nothing but shuffle.

FINASSERIE, fe-nass-ree, sf. finess. Il ne fait que des —, he is full of cunning. J'ai agi sans finesse, ou plutôt sans —, et c'est évidemment ce qu'il y a de plus fin, I have acted without wit, or rather without artifice, and that is what is evidently most artful. Jacq.

FINASSEUR, fe-nas-say, sm. fem. FINASSEUSE, artful, sly person.

FINAUD, fe-no, adj. m. fem. —, 1 artful, sly, cunning. 2 (substantiv.) sly-boots.

FINEMENT, fin-mang, adv. 1 shrewdly, acutely. 2 (délicatement) delicately, ingeniously. Railier —, to joke delicately; to make a keen jest.

FINESSE, fe-nays, sf. 1 fineness. Ce cheveu est d'une extrême —, that hair is of extreme fineness. La — d'une toile, d'une étoffe, the fineness of linen, of stuff. 2 (de ce qui a une forme délicate et agréable) fineness, delicacy. La — des traits, the delicacy of the features. 3 (des sens, of the senses) delicacy, nicety. 4 fig. (de l'esprit, du goût, etc.) delicacy, refinement. Un esprit doux de beaucoup de —, a highly refined mind. Cette — de réflexion de laquelle dépend l'élégance du goût, that delicacy of reflection which imparts elegance of taste. St-B. 5 fig. (by analogy) ingenuity, keenness, delicacy, shrewdness, nicely, subtilty. Cela est dit, est exprimé, est tourné avec —, that is ingeniously said, expressed, turned. La — de ses railleries, the keenness of his jests. L'jugement plein de —, a very keen judgment. — de vœux, d'aperçus, penetration in the views. La — d'une distinction, the nicety of a distinction. Les écrivains qui joignent la — des idées à celle du style, writers who unite delicacy of ideas with that of style. D'Alemb. 6 fig. (by extension) la chose même qui est difficile à saisir) nicely, delicacy. Une — de langage, a nicety of the language. Les — d'une langue, d'un art, the delicacies of a language, of an art. 7 fig. absol. shrewdness, penetration. Sa physionomie exprime la — his physiognomy is expressive of shrewdness. 8 fig. (artifice) cunning, artifice, siness. Il s'avisa, de plus, d'une — de sauvages assez ingénieuse-he, moreover, he thought himself of an artifice worthy of a savage. Mérim. Faire — d'une chose, to make a mystery of a thing. Entendre — à quelque chose, to give a malicious construction to a thing. Je n'y entends pas —, I see nothing in it. 9 fig. (ruse) artifice, piece of cunning. Faire des — à quelqu'un, to play a person tricks. M. qui n'était pas au bout de ses —, remarqua, M. whose budget was not yet exhausted, remarked. Le Sage. progr. fig. Des — s'couvrent de fil blanc, shallow artifices. 10 peint. — de touche, — de ton, delicacy of touch, of tone.

FINET, fe-nay, adj. m. fem. —te, (little used) sty man, woman.

FINETTE, fe-net, sf. thin cotton tissue. FIN, fe-nec, ppa. of finir, fem. —E, adjective. 1 (achever) finished, settled, arer, ended, concluded. C'est une affaire —e, that affair is settled. Voilà qui est —, that is done with. Plus d'espoir, tout est — pour moi, no more hope, all is lost with me. Mes beaux jours sont —, my best days are passed. Boil. La journée est —, the day is over. Flor. progr. C'est un homme —, he is a ruined man, he is worn out, broken down. 2 (soigneusement achevé) finished. C'est un tableau —, it is a highly-finished painting. Elle d'aimait pas pour cela le trop —, for all that, she did not like an elaborate finish. St-B. 3 (limiter) finite. Un être —, a finite being. Le cœur de l'homme est —, the heart of man is finite. Chat. Est-ce ma faute si tout ce qui est — n'a pour moi aucune valeur, is it my fault if whatever is finite is of no value to me. Chat. Un nombre —, a finite number. 4 gram. Sens —, complete sense. Mode —, finite mood. (substantif.) Le — et l'infini, the finite and the infinite. 5 sm. (perfection) finish. Donner le — à un style, to give a finish to the style.

FINIR, fe-neer, va. (Lat. finire) 1 (achever) to finish, to end, to terminate, to put an end to. — un discours, to finish a discourse. Que n'avez-vous donc fini cette affaire des lundis? why did you not settle that affair on Monday? M^{me} de Sev. Il comptait — ses jours au sein des plaisirs, he thought of ending his life in the midst of pleasures. Méry. Comme une moissonneuse qui a fini son ouvrage, like a reaper that has finished her work. Chat. Tout à coup l'oiseau finit ses tendres sons, all at once the bird put an end to its tender song. Flor. Fluissons ce ladiage, let us put an end to this prattle. fig. Heureux ceux qui ont fini leur voyage sans avoir quitté le port, happy those who have come to the end of their voyage without leaving the harbour. Chat. absol. Je ne sais vraiment pas comment je vais —, I really do not know how I shall end. Muss. Finis-est douc, vous me faites mal, have done, you hurt me. Faites-le donc —, make him be quiet, make him give over. Savoir — à propos, to know when to leave off. — de, to have done, to give over. — de parler, to have done speaking. Ses yeux n'avaient cessé de briller dans leur orbite, his eyes had ceased shining in their orbits. Nod. Il n'avait pas fini de parler que ses ordres s'exécutèrent, he had not done speaking when his orders were executed. Nod. (by analogy) J'ai fini de tout et avec tout, I have done with every thing. Chat. Ea —, to have done with it. Nous n'en finirions pas si nous voulions tout rapporter, we should never end if we were to relate every thing. Il fallait en —, it was necessary to make an end of it. Ah. Je veux me tuer, il est temps que j'en finisse, I will kill myself, it is time to make an end of it. Mérim. Finis-en avec les créanciers, settle with the creditors. Je suis pressé d'en — avec cet homme, I am eager to have done with that man. (hyperb.) Des qu'il s'y met, il n'en finit plus, as soon as he begins, he never leaves off. 2 (perfectionner) to finish. — un tableau, to finish a painting. absol. Ce peintre finit trop, that painter finishes too elaborately. Il ne sait pas —, he does not know how to give a finish. 3 (être la fin, le terme) to end, to finish. Cette campagne finira la guerre, this campaign will end the war. L'instant qui doit — sa vie, the course of sa vie, the instant that is to end his life, the course of his life.

FINIR, vn. 1 to end, to terminate. Le combat finit faute de combattants, the fight ended for want of combatants. Cora. Ici finit le discours du vieillard, et on ne trouva pas mauvais que je finisse avec lui, here ends the discourse of the old man, and I must be allowed to end like him. Nod. Cela finit en pointe, that ends in a point. 2 (arriver à son terme) to end, to come to an end; to expire, to be out. Son bail finit à telle époque, his lease expires at such an epoch. L'hiver finissait, the winter was drawing to an end. Chat. Le monde doit — comme tout ce qui a commencé, the world is to have an end like every thing that has had a beginning. Nod. Non, son beau jour a dû — des son aurore, that my only happy day should end, end with its dawn. V. Hug. Les douleurs de l'homme ne sont pas éternelles, il faut tôt ou tard qu'elles finissent, the grief of man is not eternal, sooner or later it must come to an end. Chat. La tâche du narrateur finit donc à ce point, here then the task of the narrator ends. Aug. Th. Il crut que ses malheurs finiraient par cette aventure, he thought that this adventure would be the end of his misfortunes. La Font. 3 (avoir telle ou telle issue) to end, to turn out, to terminate, to come to an end. Voilà une aventure, mais elle ne finira pas mal, that is indeed an adventure, but it will not turn out badly. Mérim. 4 (particul.) (mourir) to end. Ainsi finit ce prince, thus ended this prince. Cette hibernienne qui le fait — par la potence, this gypsy woman who ends him with the gallows. St-B. 5 — par, to end by. Après s'être fait beaucoup prier, il a fini par y consentir, after a great deal of entreaty, he at last consented. Cette fatalité finit par produire un tel scandale, that fatality produced in the end such scandal. Nod. Cela peut — par ennuver, par déplaire, that may weary, displease in the end.

FINISSEUR, fe-ne-suhr, sm. tech. finisher.

FINLANDE, faag-làngd, sf. Finland. FINLANDAIS, faag-làngd-day, adj. and sm. fem. —E, Finlander. Une —e, a woman of Finland.

FINNOIS, fo-nwâ, adj. m. fem. —E, Finnish.

FIOLÉ, fyol, sf. (Gr.) phial, rial. FION, fyong, sm. pop. finish. Cela a du —, that has a finish about it. FIORITURES, fyio-re-tür, sf. pl. (It.) mos. graces.

FIRMAIMENT, fir-mah-màng, sm. (Lat. firmamentum) firmamnt. poetic. Les lieux du —, the stars of the firmament.

FIRMAN, fir-màng, sm. (Pers.) firman. FISC, físk, sm. 1 fisc, treasury. 2 (l'administration) treasury. Les employés du —, the clerks of the treasury.

FISCAL, físk-al, adj. m. fcm. —E 1 fiscal. Droits fiscaux, fiscal rights. Loix —es, fiscal laws. an. Procureur —, avocat —, fiscal. 2 (disparagingly) zealous in fiscal matters.

FISCALITE, físk-al-é-tay, sf. 1 absol. fiscal matters. 2 (disparagingly) exaction.

FISSIPEDE, físk-sé-payd, adj. mf. (Lat. fissipes) 1 zool. fissiped. 2 orn. fissiped. 3 sm. Les —s, the fissipeds.

FISURE, fe-sür, sf. (Lat. fissura) 1 fissure. — de la peau, fissure in the skin. 2 sarg. fissure.

FISTULE, físk-tül, sf. (Lat. fistula) surg. fistula.

FISTULEUX, físk-tül-luh, adj. m. fem. FISTULEUX, 1 surg. fistulous. Ulcère —, fistulous ulcer. 2 bot. Tige fistuleuse, fistulous stem.

FIXATION, físk-sah-syong, sf. 1 chem. fixation. 2 (action de fixer) fixing, appointing, settling. La — d'un terme pour le paiement, the appointing of a term for the payment. La — du prix de certaines denrées, the fixing of the price of certain commodities. La — des honoraires du roi, the fixing of the king's fees. Nod.

FIXE, físk, adj. mf. (Lat. fixus) 1 fixed, steady. Étoiles —es, fixed stars. Avoir la vue —, les yeux —s, le regard —, to have a steady look. Avoir le regard —, to have a fixed look. Douleur —, fixed pain. Idée —, fixed idea. 2 fig. fixed, stated, set. Un prix —, a fixed price. Vendre à prix —, to sell at fixed price. Donnez-moi une heure — un jour, fix me an hour, a day. S'asseoir à jour —, to meet on a set day. Il n'a point de demeure —, he has no regular dwelling. Un pays dépourvu de lois —, a country unprovided with regular laws. Volt. Les alliés n'avaient point de plan de campagne — et arrêté, the allies had no fixed and settled plan of campaign. Volt. Le clerc n'avait point un étac —, the clergy had no fixed slute. Monteq. Le baromètre est un heau —, the barometer is at set fair. Être à poste — dans un lieu, to be a fixture in a place. Il y aura trente ans accomplis depuis ce jour, trente ans à heure —, it will be thirty years exactly, since that day, thirty years to a minute. Nod. (by extension) Tantôt à me venger — et déterminé, sometimes fixed and resolved to revenge myself. Rac. 3 (par opposition à casuel) regular, stated. Revenu, dépense —, regular income, expense. Il reçoit une somme — tous les mois, he receives a stated sum every month. (substantif.) Le —, the regular income. 4 chem. fixed. Corps —s, fixed bodies. 5 (substantif) pl. Les —s, chem. fixed bodies; s-tr. the fixed stars. 6 mil. (commandement) — 1 eyes front!

FIXE, ppa. of fixer, fem. —E, 1 l'œil — sur la figure du moribond, with his eyes fixed on the face of the dying man. Saint. fig. J. seulle l'âme — à une pensée, I, alone, with her soul absorbed in a single idea, did not listen to T. Nod. 2 (etwih) settled, established. Avant 1625, il n'y avait point de comédiens —s à Paris, before 1625, there were no comedians established in Paris. Volt. 3 (régle, déterminé) fixed, stated, appointed. Au jour —, at the appointed day. Les frontières ne furent jamais bien —es du côté de l'Ouest, the boundaries were never well determined towards the West. Aug. Th. 4 fig. Être —, to be satisfied. Je suis bien — sur son compte, I know perfectly well what sort of a man he is.

FIXEMENT, fiks-màng, adv. fixedly.

FIXER, fiks-say, va. 1 to fix, to fasten.

— au moyen d'une vis, d'un clou, d'une épingle, to screw, to nail, to pin.

Une agrafe de diamants fixait l'agrafe de plumes de héron, a diamond clasp fastened the tuft of heron's feathers.

Th. Gaut. D. fixa les chevaux auprès de la fontaine, D. tied up the horses near the fountain.

Ab. Ses yeux, la vue, les regards sur quelqu'un, sur quelque chose, to fix one's eyes upon a person, a thing.

Fixant sur le lointain leurs yeux inquiets, with their anxious eyes fixed inquisitively on the distant horizon.

Th. Gaut. fig. — les regards de quelqu'un, to attract the looks of a person. 1 cherchait à — les regards de J. Nod, I sought to attract the notice of J. Nod.

Je vous prie de — un peu votre attention sur un escalier, I beg you will for a moment fix your attention on a staircase.

De Bross. fig. — ses idées sur le papier, to fix one's ideas upon paper.

— une chose dans la mémoire, dans l'esprit, to engrave a thing on the memory, on the mind.

2 (faire résider) to fix. Cette foule de citoyens obscurs que la chaleur des factions avait fixés dans la capitale, that crowd of obscure citizens whom the heat of factions had fixed in the capital.

Barth. 3 (établir) to fix, to establish, to take up.

La done, pour quelque temps il fixe son séjour, he therefore takes up his residence there for some time.

Ny fixa (à régler, déterminer) to fix, to settle, to determine.

Ce n'est pas eux qui fixeront le chiffre de votre rançon, it is not they who will fix the sum for your ransom.

Ab. Je ne fixai point le moment du départ, I did not fix the moment of departure.

Chat. 5 (gagner, rendre fixe) to fix. M. voulait le cœur, c'est-à-dire ce qu'il y a de plus variable dans la nature, M. wanted to fix the heart, that is to say, the most variable thing in nature.

Montesq. C'est ce qui fixe la dignité impériale dans sa maison, qui est what fixed the imperial dignity in his house.

Volt. Deux ailes de l'armée grecque commencent à — la victoire, the two wings of the Greek army begin to carry the day.

Barth. Il est bon de — ainsi les incertitudes des carieux, it is well thus to satisfy the doubts of the curious.

Volt. Le rossaire monotone qui fixait sa pensée à Dieu, the monotonous rosary that fixed her thoughts on God.

Lamart. Ne puis-je ici — ma carrière vagabonde? cannot I here terminate my wandering career?

Boil. — les goûts, les desirs de quelqu'un, to fix the tastes, the desires of a person.

— un inconstant, une coquette, to fix the affections of an inconstant man, of a coquette.

Les grands écrivains qui ont fixe notre langue, the great writers who have fixed our language.

J'ai des doutes, il faut les —, I have doubts, they must be satisfied.

Montesq. 6 fig. — l'attention, to fix the attention.

Uo plus noble objet attire notre attention, a more noble object captivated our attention.

Barth. — son attention sur quelque chose, to apply one's self to a thing.

7 fig. — les soupçons sur quelqu'un, to fix, to fasten suspicion upon a person.

(by analogy) — ses soupçons sur quelqu'un, to fix one's suspicions upon a person.

— ses vœux sur quelqu'un, sur quelque chose, to fix, to cast one's wishes upon a person, a thing.

8 chem. to fix. — le mercure, to fix mercury.

SE FIXER, fiks-say, rpr. 1 (s'arrêter) to fix, to be fixed, to settle.

Ses yeux venant se — sur le médaillon, his eyes were riveted on the locket.

Saint. Le baromètre se fixe au beau, the barometer is at set fair.

fig. Lorsqu'une langue commence à se —, when a language begins to be fixed.

Les soupçons ne peuvent se — sur nous, suspicion cannot fall on us. Se — à quelque chose, to fix upon a thing. 2

(établir sa résidence) to fix one's self, to take up one's residence, to settle, to settle down.

Vous vous fixerez pour toujours à la chaumière de J., you would fix yourself for ever in the cottage of J.

Nod. (fig. by extension) L'hirondelle ne se fixe qu'à la maison paisible, the swallow takes up its residence only in a quiet house.

Nod. fig. Il a résolu de se — et de prendre femme, he resolved to settle down and marry.

3 chem. to fix.

FIXITÉ, fiks-so-yat, sf. 1 fixedness (du regard, of the look).

2 chem. fixity.

3 fig. stability. La — réfléchit des opinions avait, etc., the deliberate stability of opinions had, etc.

Lamart. Ses idées n'ont aucune —, his ideas have no stability.

FLA, fah, em. (onomatopée) a double beat of the drum.

FLAC, fah, interj. (onomatopée) fah.

FLACCIDITÉ, fah-s-e-de-tay, sf. nat. phil. med. flaccidity, flabbiness.

FLACON, fah-koug, sm. bottle, flask.

Un — de senteur, a scent-bottle, smelling-bottle.

FLA-FLA, fah-fah, sm. fam. clup-trup, show. Faire du —, to strive at effect.

FLAGELLANT, fah-zhay-làng, ppr. of FLAGELLER, sm. flaggeller.

FLAGELLATION, fah-zhay-lah-syong, sf. 1 flagellation, scourging.

La — de Notre-Seigneur, the scourging of our Lord.

2 (tableau) flagellation. 3 (action) flagellation.

FLAGELLÉ, fah-zhay-lah, ppr. of FLAGELLER, fem.

—, (fig. extension) Teles par l'ouragan les neiges — es, as the snow lashed by the storm.

Muss. fig. Il a été vigoureusement —, he has received a severe lashing.

FLAGELLER, fah-zhay-lay, va. to flagellate, to scourge.

Pilate fit — Notre-Seigneur, Pilate caused our Lord to be scourged.

fig. Percés à jour de la bise qui nous flagelle, pierced right through by the sharp north wind which lashes us.

De Bross.

SE FLAGELLER, fpr. 1 to flagellate, to scourge one's self.

2 recipr. to scourge each other.

FLAGEOLEUR, fah-zhay-o-lay, vm. (des jambes d'un cheval, of a horse) to tremble, to give way.

Le pauvre écu dont les jambes grêles flageolaient sous une charge exorbitante, the poor ass whose thin legs trembled under an enormous burden.

Th. Gaut. (fig. extension) (de l'homme, of man) to tremble.

Des jambes qui flageolaient comme celles d'un homme ivre, legs shaky like those of a drunken man.

Balz. FLAGEOLET, fah-zhay-o-lay, sm. flageolet, flagelet.

prov. fig. Être monté sur des — s, to be spindly-shanked.

FLAGORNE, fah-zhay-o-lay, ppr. of FLAGORNER, fem.

—, E. Il aime à être —, he likes to be fawned upon.

FLAGORNER, fah-zhay-o-lay, va. to fawn upon, to flatter.

Es-tu un prince pour qu'on le flagorne? are you a prince to be flattered?

Beauv. FLAGORNER, vm. to fawn, to flatter, to flatter.

FLAGORNERIE, fah-zhay-o-lay, sf. palaver, flattery, toadyism.

FLAGORNEUX, fah-zhay-o-nuhr, sm. fem. FLAGORNEUSE, toady, toad-eater, sycophant, wheedler.

FLAGRANT, fah-ràng, adj. m. fem. —, E. flagrant.

La querelle était alors — e au sein de l'Académie, the quarrel was then flagrant in the Academy body.

Sic-B. Le fait est —, on ne peut le nier, the fact is flagrant, it cannot be denied.

— délit, the very act.

FLAIR, fah-ay, sm. hunt. scent.

FLAIRE, fah-ay, va. 1 to scent, to smell.

Les chiens flairaient la bête, the dogs scented the beast.

Uo rat, sans plus, s'abstient d'aller — autour, one rat, only one, forbears going and smelling around it.

La Font. Ces chiens rôdaient à toute heure autour du camp, l'un d'eux m'avait flairé, these dogs were passing through the camp all day, one of them had scented me.

Ab. Flairez un peu cette rose, just smell this rose.

fig. L'indécision d'un homme qui flaire le vent, the hesitation of a man who is trying to ascertain which way the wind blows.

Le Sage. 2 fig. (présentir) to smell out. Le lecteur flairant quelque aventure, the reader detecting an adventure.

Th. Gaut. Nous flairions tous un danger, we all smelt a rat.

FLAIREUR, fah-ay-rah, sm. smeller.

Un — de table, a parasite.

FLAMAND, fah-màng, adj. m. fem. —, E. 1 Flemish. 2 (substantif) Un —, a Fleming.

Une —, a Flemish woman.

3 sm. (la langue) Flemish.

FLAMANT, fah-màng, sm. orn. flamingo.

FLAMBANT, fah-màng, ppr. of FLAMBER, adj. m. feu. —, E. 1 blazing, flaming.

Les courriers de Phébus sont — es parées, Phœbus's steeds with flaming nostrils.

La Font. Aux clartés — es d'une bûcher de genévrier, by the blazing light of a sagot of juniper.

Nod. 2 her. flaming.

FLANBE, fah-màng, sf. bot. yellow water-flag.

FLANBÉ, fah-màng, ppr. of FLAMBER, fem. —, E. 1 singed. 2 fig. ruined, lost.

Cet homme est —, that man is done for. Voilà mon argent —, my money is lost.

C'est une affaire — e, that affair is knocked on the head.

FLAMBEAU, fah-màng, sm. 1 torch.

A la clarté des — x, by torch-light. poëtic.

fig. Le — du jour, le — du monde, the luminary of day, of the world; the sun.

Le — le pale — de la nuit, des nuits, the luminary, the pale luminary of night; the moon.

Les — x de la nuit, les célestes — x, the stars.

Allumer le —, les — x de l'hymen, to light the torch of hymen.

Allumer le — de la guerre, de la discorde, to light the brand, the flames of war, of discord.

2 (chandelle, chandelier) Flambeau, light, candle, candlestick.

Apportez-mes — x, light the candles.

Apportez des — x, bring in the lights.

— d'argent, de cuivre, silver, brass candlestick.

3 fig. Le — de l'expérience, de la vérité, de la science, de l'histoire, the light of experience, of truth, of science, of history.

Le — de la foi, the light of faith.

FLAMBER, fah-màng, vm. to blaze, to blaze up.

Des pins entiers flamboient de distance en distance, whole pine-trees were blazing up at regular distances.

Ab. FLAMBER, vm. 1 to pass before a fire.

— une chemise, to air a shirt.

2 culin. — un chapon, etc., to singe a capon, etc.

3 artil. — un canon, to prove a gun.

4 naut. — un vaisseau, to hoist a signal of discontent.

FLAMBERGE, fah-màng-ay-rah, sf. (in joke) sword. Mettre — au vent, to draw the sword.

FLAMBOYANT, fah-màng-bway-yay, ppr. of FLAMBOYER, adj. m. feu. —, E. 1 flaming, blazing.

Astres —, blazing stars.

Les éclairs semblaient le ciel tout —, the lightning set the sky all in a blaze.

Quatre chérubins armés d'épées — es, four cherubim armed with flaming swords.

Chat. 2 arch. flamboyant.

FLAMBOYER, fah-màng-bway-yay, vm. to blaze, to flash.

J'en suis étonné si pendant que j'étais la mœm Vésuve s'était mis —, I should have been much startled if whilst I was there the Vesuvius had begun to issue forth flames.

De Bross.

On voyait — les épées, their swords were seen flashing.

Par moments flamboyait la pale pâle éclair, now and then appeared a pale flash of lightning.

V. Hug. Des bâchers formes de meubles flamboyant dans le Carrousel, piles formed of furniture blazed up in the Carrousel. Lamart. Je vois — un reflet de cierges, I see a reflection of the wax-tapers blazing up. Th. Gaut. Toutes les fenêtres flamboyant, all the windows seemed to be in a blaze. V. Hugo. Les richesses d'Ali-baba semblaient — au fond de la boutique, etc., the riches of Ali-baba seemed to blaze in the shop of, etc. Th. Gaut.

FLAMBURES, flang-bûr, sf. pl. tech. flares in dyed stuff.

FLAMINE, dab-meên, sm. (Lat. Flamen) flamen.

FLAMME, flâm, sf. (Lat. flamma) a flame, blaze. Passer quelque chose par la —, to pass a thing over a flame. Étouffer la —, to stifle the flame. Tout a été la proie des —s, every thing has been a prey to the flames. Le maître était loué —s, the master was praised as a flame. Un volcan qui jette des —s, a volcano that throws out flames. Ces sages paroles étaient comme une — ardente qui pénétrait dans les entrailles du jeune T. Féa, these words of wisdom were like a subtle flame that penetrated to the very heart of young T. Féa. (by elevation) Ses yeux lançaient des —s, his eyes flashed fire. —s du Bengale, Bengal lights, blue lights. Les —s éternelles, les —s de l'enfer, eternal fire, hell-fire. Porter le fer et la — dans un pays, to waste a country with fire and sword. fig. Jeter feu et —, to burst out in anger. 2 fig. poetic. flamme, passion. Une amoureux flamme, an amorous flame. 3 fig. (ardent) flamme, ardour. Les ardentes —s qu'on ne le devoir, the ardent soul kindled by duty. J.-J. Rousse. 4 naut. poudant. 5 vel. fleam.

FLAMNÈCHE, flau-sykh, sf. sparck, flake.

FLAMNETTE, flâm-met, sf. 1 small flame. 2 surg. scarificator. 3 scal. la-rignon. 4 bot. a kind of exclamation.

FLAN, flang, sm. meat, plover.

FLAN, sm. poetry, custard.

FLANC, flang, sm. 1 flank, side. Un cheval qui a beaucoup de —, qui n'a guère de —, a horse that has a large, a small flank. Presser les —s de son coursier, to urge on one's steed. mil. Par le — droit! par le — gauche! to the right about! to the left about! fig. Se battre les —s pour quelque chose, to exert one's self for no purpose for a thing. fig. pop. Être sur le —, to be laid up. 2 (le ventre) womb, entrails, bowels. Le fils que ses — ont porté, the son, the fruit of her womb. Interroger le — des victimes, to interrogate the entrails of the victims. 3 (by analogy) Le — d'un vaisseau, the side of a ship. Le —, les —s d'une montagne, the slope, the sides of a mountain. 4 fort. Le — d'une bastion, the flank of a bastion. 5 war. Le — d'un bataillon, d'un escadron, the flank of a battalion, of a squadron. La première ligne de notre infanterie fut prise en —, the first line of our infantry was flanked. Volt. La colonne était attaquée à la fois de front et par les deux —s, the column was attacked at the same time in front and in each flank. Volt. Découvrir le —, prêter le — à l'ennemi, to be exposed to attack in flank; fig. Prêter le — à la critique, au ridicule, to lay one's self open to criticism, to ridicule.

FLANCONADE, flang-ko-nad, sf. fenc. flankonade.

FLANDRE, flangdr, sf. Flanders.

FLANDRIN, flang-drang, sm. Notre grand — de viconte, that tall lunkky viscount of ours. Mil.

FLANELLE, flah-nel, sf. flannel. — de santé, fine flannel. Gilet de —, flannel waistcoat. Porter de la — sur la peau, to wear flannel next the skin.

FLANEUR, flâ-nay, vn. to loiter, to saunter, to stroll, to lounge about. S'amuser à — sur les quais, to loiter about on the quays. Après avoir flâné sur le pont et remis ma montre à l'heure, after having sauntered about on the bridge, and set my watch right. Th. Gaut. Je pris mon fusil et j'allai — dans les environs, I took my gun, and went to stroll about in the environs. Chat.

FLANERIE, flân-ree, sf. stroll, lounge, saunter. Comptant sur la — pour me révéler ces mille détails, trusting I should discover these numberless details in my strolls. Th. Gaut. Les rues de Paris, encombrées de peuple, ne me permettaient plus mes —s, the streets of Paris, crowded with people, no longer allowed me to loiter. Chat.

FLANEUR, flâ-nuhr, sm. fem. FLANEUSE, loiterer, stroll, lounge, saunter, idler. Le seul, le véritable souverain de Paris, c'est le —, the only, the true sovereign of Paris is the loungeur. S'm-B.

FLANQUANT, flang-kang, ppr. of FLANQUEUR, adj. n. fem. —, fort. Angle —, bastion —, flanking angle, bastion.

FLANQUE, ppr. of FLANQUEUR, fem. —, 1 Une façade — e d'avant-corps, a façade flanked with two wings. 2 Un lièvre — de six pontets éléques, a hare flanked with six lean chickens. Boil. 3 bot. flanked, porti per saltier, flanch.

FLANQUEMENT, flang-k-mang, sm. mil. arch. flanking.

FLANQUEUR, flang-kay, va. 1 mil. arch. to flank. 2 mil. arch. to flank. 3 arch. to flank. 4 (être placé en flanc, à côté) to flank. Deux aigles grasses qui flanquaient un petit levraut d'un fumet exquis, two fat quails which flanked a small leveret of most exquisite flavour. Le Sage. 5 pop. (lancer) to throw, to pitch, to hit, to deal (to blow). Elle s'élance sa médecine par la fenêtre, she pitched her physic out of the window. — un coup de poing, un soufflet, to give a blow with the fist, a slap in the face.

SE FLANQUEUR, ppr. 1 pop. to throw one's self. Se — dans la boue, to fall in the mud. Se — par terre, to fall down, to fall on the ground. 2 recipr. Il se flanquent leurs verres à la tête, they flung their glasses at each other's head.

FLAQUE, flak, sf. — d'eau, puddle.

FLAQUEE, flak-ay, sf. fam. dash, sprinkling.

FLAQUER, flak-ay, va. to dash, to throw (de l'eau, etc., water, etc.).

FLASQUE, flask, adj. mf. 1 lank, feeble. 2 (des parties du corps) flabby. Chair —, flabby flesh. 3 fig. (du style, etc.) languid, pithless.

FLASQUE, sm. art. cheek.

FLATRER, flâ-tray, va. — un chien, to burn a dog on the forehead to prevent him from running mad.

FLATTE, ppr. of FLATTER, fem. —, 1 flattered. Mes amis les plus chers sont par moi peu —s, my dearest friends receive but little flattery from me. C. Del. fig. — par la fortune, I was pushed by Fortune. 2 (charmé) flattered, delighted, gratified. Je serais très — de vous faire les honneurs de nos nappes, I should be delighted to do you the honours of our heaths. Merim. Sa vanité était —e, his vanity was gratified. J.-J. Rousse. 3 Portrait —, flattering likeness. fig. Dans son discours, il a fait de cet homme d'État un portrait peu —, in his discourse he drew an unflattering portrait of that statesman. (by analogy) On prendrait peut-être de la jeune princesse une idée trop —e, too flattering an idea would perhaps be formed of the young princess. S'm-B.

FLATTER, flah-ray, va. 1 to flatter. L'abbé Dubois flatta son élève du côté de l'esprit, the abbé Dubois flattered his pupil's wit. Saint-Sim. Fermez l'oreille aux discours qui vous flattent, turn a deaf ear to flattering discourse. Mass.

L'ordinaire ce sont nous autres gens de lettres qui flattons les rois, generally it is we men of letters who flatter kings. Volt. Elle le flatta par les louanges les plus délicates et les plus insinuates, she flattered him with the most delicate and insinuating praise. Féa. Elle aime à s'entendre —, she is fond of hearing herself flattered. absol. Il ne sait point —, he cannot flatter. 2 point. Le peintre l'a on peu flattée, the painter has flattered her a little. (by analogy) Ce miroir flatte, that is a flattering looking-glass. 3 fig. (excesser) to flatter. Pour mettre à convert ses défauts, il couvre et flatte ceux des autres, to shelter his own failings, he shields and flatters those of others. Féa. La politesse flatte les vices des autres, et la civilité nous empêche de mettre les nôtres au jour, politeness flatters the vices of others, and civility prevents us from exhibiting our own. Montesq. 4 fig. (tromper) to flatter. Dites-moi sans me — ce que vous en semble, tell me frankly what you think of it. 5 fig. (traiter avec trop de ménagement) to treat too mildly. 6 (caresser) to caress, to stroke, to fawn upon. — un enfant, to caress a child. S'il en faut faire autant à un que l'on me flatte, if I must do as much, in order to be caressed. La Font. Calypso flatta l'Amour, C. caresses Love. Féa. Elle flattait l'oiseau, le caressait, le baisait, she stroked the bird, caressed it, kissed it. Volt. — un cheval de la main, avec la main, to stroke a horse. Le chien flatta son maître, the dog fawned upon his master. fig. Se ranger du parti que la fortune flatte, to side with the party favoured by fortune. Rac. — la corde d'un instrument de musique, to touch the string of a musical instrument gently. Le vent qui nous flattait nous laissa dans le port, the wind that favoured us left us in the haven. Rac. — le dé, to throw dice gently; fig. to flatter, to soften down. 7 (charmer) to charm, to soothe, to please, to gratify, to delight. Cette musique flatta l'oreille, this music charms the ear. Ce vin flatta le goût, this wine is pleasing to the taste. Cela flatta l'imagination, that gratifies the imagination. L'homme seul peut — un esprit généreux, a generous mind is flattered by honour alone. Rac. Suivez jusqu'à bout une ombre qui vous flatte, follow to the end a flattering shadow. La Font. absol. En fait de bonheur c'est l'exception qui flatte, an exceptional happiness is the most pleasing. Fonten. 8 (causer un vif plaisir) to gratify, to delight. Il y a une chose qui me flatte encore plus que la bonne opinion que, there is one thing which gratifies me still more than the good opinion which. Montesq. (by analogy) Tout flatte son ambition, every thing contributes to gratify his ambition. Féa. Les avantages qui peuvent — la vanité, every advantage that can gratify vanity. Barth. L'apparence d'un complot flatta plus leur orgueil, the appearance of a plot gave greater gratification to their pride. Lamart. 9 — les passions, les caprices, les goûts de quelqu'un, to flatter, to humour the passions, caprices, tastes of a person. Vous êtes dans l'erreur si vous me croyez disposé à — vos sentiments, you mistake if you think me disposed to humour your ideas. Le Sage. 10 — sa douleur, sa peine, son chagrin, etc., to soothe one's pain, trouble, grief, etc. Toujours quelque espoir flattait mes déceptions, some hope always soothed my sorrow. Rac. D'un avenir plus doux je flattaï sans misère, I soothed his misery with the hopes of better times. C. Del. 11 — quelqu'un de quelque chose, to hold out hopes of a thing to a person. La retraite presque toujours a trompé ceux qu'elle flattaï de l'espérance du repos, retirement has almost always deceived those to whom it held out hopes of repose.

SE FLATTER, vpr. 1 to flatter one's self. On n'aurait guère de plaisir si on ne se flattait jamais. one would have but little pleasure if one never flattered one's self. Sic-B. Ne nous flattons donc pas, let us therefore not flatter ourselves. La Font. Je puis dire, sans me —, que, I may say, without flattering myself, that. 2 (s'en-tretenir dans l'espérance de) to flatter one's self, to entertain hopes. Miss. L. s'était flattée de trouver des choses qui, Miss. L. had flattered herself she should find things which. MÉRIM. Je n'ose me — du bonheur de vous voir, I dare not anticipate the happiness of seeing you. VOLT. Vivre cent ans! n'en — l'an-ras-tort, et cependant, I live a hundred years! I, entertain hopes of that! I should be in the wrong, and yet. C. DEL. J'y parviendrai, je m'en flatte, I flatter myself I shall succeed. Afin que ne te flattes pas de pouvoir éblouir le sens de mes paroles, that you may not flatter yourself with being able to elude the sense of my words. NOD. Je me flatte que vous voudrez bien me permettre de, I flatter myself you will allow me to. MÉRIM.

FLATTERIE, fla-ree, sf. flattery. De toutes les —, les plus méchantes sont les meilleures, of all flattery, the falsest is the best. P. CHAS. Les princes râtés par la —, princes spoiled by flattery. FÉN. Dire quelque chose par —, to say a thing out of flattery. Parler sans —, to speak without flattery.

FLATTEUR, fla-ubr, adj. m. fem. FLATTEUSE, 1 flatterer. Des amis —, flattering friends. Un esprit, un langage —, a flattering disposition, language. Miroir —, flattering mirror. 2 (qui lèmoigne l'approbation, flattering, praising). Un murmure —, a murmur of approval. Des paroles flatteuses, complimentary terms. Il m'écrivit une lettre remplie d'éloges —, he wrote me a letter full of eulogistic flattery. VOLT. 3 (agreeable) pleasing. Un espoir —, a pleasing hope. Une flatteuse illusion, a pleasing illusion. J.-J. ROUSS. 4 (caressant) caressing, fawning. Le chien est un animal —, the dog is a caressing animal. 5 (substantif) flatterer. Le — du peuple en quoi diffère-t-il de — du roi? in what does he who flatters the people differ from him who flatters the king? Sic-B. Vous êtes un —, you flatterer, you are a flatterer.

FLATTEUSEMENT, fla-ubr-mang, adv. flatteringly.

FLATTEUX, fla-tù-uh, adj. m. fem. FLATTEUSE (lat. flatus) flatulent, windy.

FLATUOSITÉ, fla-tù-o-ze-tay, sf. med. flatulency, flatulency, windiness.

FLÉAU, fla-y-o, sm. (lat. flagellum) 1 (pour battre le bled) flail. Les laines se multipliaient sc's la rame de J. qui les frappait comme un —, the waves rushed under J's oar which struck them like a flail. NOD. 2 fig. (grande calamité) scourge. Le — de la peste, de la guerre, the scourge of the plague, of war. 3 (des personnes, of persons) scourge. Attila est appelé le — de Dieu, A. is called the scourge of God. 4 (by extension) scourge, plague. Etre le — de la société, de l'humanité, to be a plague to society, to mankind. La lecture est le — de l'enfance, reading is a plague to childhood. J.-J. ROUSS. 5 (hyperb.) plague, bore. Cet éternel bavard est un grand —, that everlasting talker is a great bore. 6 (d'une balance, of a pair of scales) beam. 7 (d'une porte cochère, of a door) door-bar.

FLECHÉ, flay-sh, sf. (Ger. flech) 1 arrow. Le fer, le bois d'une —, the head, the shaft of an arrow. Tirer une —, to let fly, to discharge, to dart an arrow. Cet objet à la forme d'un fer de —, est taillé en fer de —, that object is arrow-headed. prov. fig. Faire — de lont bois, to leave no stone unturned. prov. Ne savoir plus de quel bois faire —, to be at one's wit's end. prov. Tout bois n'est pas bon à faire —, one cannot get blood out of a post. 2 (by analogy) arrow, rotd. Elle avait une — d'or dans ses cheveux, she had a golden arrow in her hair. Des rideaux soutenus par une —, curtains supported by a rod. La — d'un lit, the arrow of a bed. 3 (dans les cartes géographiques, maps) arrow. 4 astr. arrow. 5 geom. La — d'un arc, versée sine. 6 (d'un carrosse, of a coach) arch. 7 (d'un clocher, of a steeple) spire. 8 fort. bonnet. 9 (backgammon) point. 10 — de lord, flush of bacon.

FLECHIR, flay-shee, vpr. of FLECHIR, fem. —, fig. — par ses prières, moved by his prayers. Et moi, répondit L. au moment —, and I, answered T. relenting for a moment. Lamart. Facilement — par les larmes, easily softened by tears. Lamart.

FLECHIR, flay-sheer, ra. (lat. flectere) 1 (plier, courber) to bend, to bow. Flechissant légèrement les genoux, le corps en arrière, bending slightly my knees and throwing my body backwards. Jacq. fig. Il n'y avait Aman pa — les genoux, he has never bent the knee before a Hunan. Rac. H. jamais à les a-tels n'a fléchi les genoux, I never bent the knee before thy altars. Rac. fig. Rien de chrétien ne flechissait son âme à la résignation, no Christian feeling subdued his soul to resignation. Lamart. Je flechis mon orgueil, j'allai prier P. —, I humbled my pride, I solicited P. Rac. Au nom du président B. tout flechit le genou dans cette maison, the name of president B. is held in veneration in this house. De Bross. 2 fig. to move, to touch, to soften. — les juges, to touch the judges. Se laisser — aux prières, par les prières, to relent. — le courroux céleste, to appease the celestial wrath. Flechi.

FLECHIR, en. 1 (plier) to bend, to bow, to give way, to sink. On sentait le plancher — et se relever avec une élasticité suspecte, the floor was felt to bend and spring up again with suspicious elasticity. NOD. Les brebis flechissant sous le poids de la laine, sheep bending under the weight of their wool. Flor. Nous vîmes la laïaise — et se creuser un peu, we saw the cliff giving way and bending over a little. Lamart. Sa taille majestueuse qui n'avait pas flechi sous le poids des ans, his majestic stature that had not bowed under the weight of years. NOD. Ses jambes flechirent sous le poids de son corps, his legs bent under the weight of his body. AB. Un jour fragile qui cependant le supportait sans —, a slender cane that however supported him without bending. NOD. Fais à son aspect que tout genou flechisse, make every knee bend when he appears. Rac. Il flechit tout à coup et, etc. (by extension) Les coins de sa bouche flechissaient un peu sur les bords, the corners of his mouth were turned down a little. Lamart. fig. Sa férule organisation allait —, his frail organization was about to give way. Sic-B. fig. — sous le joug, to bend beneath the yoke. 2 fig. (se soumettre) to bend, to give way, to yield, to stoop. Celui qui n'a jamais flechi devant personne, he who never bent before any one. Chat. Il faut — aux temps sans obstination, one must frankly acknowledge the power of time. MOL. 3 fig. (faiblir) to bend, to relent, to be moved, touched. Quelqu'un qui lui dit son fait et qui ne flechit pas, somebody who was plain-spoken with him, and who is not to be moved. Sic-B. Cette femme flechissait comme toute nature humaine, the solitude, that woman gave way as any human creature would have done in solitude. Lamart. D. flechissait et trahissait aux frontières, D. gave way and turned traitor at the frontier. Lamart. Il commence à —, he begins to relent. 4 fig. (relâter) to give way. La gené flechit après avoir perdu la plupart de ses généraux, the left gave way after having lost most of its generals. Lamart.

FLECHISSEMENT, flay-sh-mang, sm. 4 bending. Le — des genoux, the bending of the knees. 2 (d'une poutre, d'un mât, of a beam, of a mast) bending, giving way. fig. Le — de son corps de bataille, the giving way of his main body. Lamart.

FLECHISSEUR, flay-she-sobr, adj. m. 1 anat. Les muscles — s du bras, the flexors of the arm. 2 (substantif.) Les — du genou, the flexors of the knee.

FLECHISURE, flay-she-sûr, sf. auat. flexion.

FLEGMAGOGUE, PLEGMA-GOGUE, flég-mag-og, adj. mf. (Ger.) 1 med. phlegmagogue. 2 sm. phlegmagogue.

FLEGMASIE, flég-mah-zee, sf. See PHEGMASIE.

FLEGMATIQUE, flég-mat-ik, adj. mf. 1 med. phlegmatic, phlegmatic. D'un temperament —, of a phlegmatic constitution. 2 fig. phlegmatic, cold. Ces rhymers whose phlegmatic minds. Boil. (substantif.) C'est un —, he is a phlegmatic mind.

FLEGME, flégm, sm. (Gr.) 1 med. phlegm. 2 (pituite) phlegm. 3 fig. (qualité) phlegm. Il cabait sa violence sous un — apparent, he concealed his violence under apparent phlegm. VOLT.

FLEGMON, PLEGMON, flég-mong, sm. (Gr.) med. phlegmon.

FLEGMONÉUX, flég-mo-nuh, adj. m. fem. FLEGMONÉUSE, med. phlegmonous.

FLETRI, flay-trée, vpr. of FLETRIR, fem. —, 4 faded, withered. Fleur —, faded flower. Avoir le peau —, to have a withered skin. Des charmes —, faded charms. 2 fig. blighted, withered. Ta jeunesse sera — e avant l'herbe des prairies, thy youth will be withered before the grass of the meadow. MILLE.

Un cœur — par de longs chagrins, sorrow-blighted heart. 3 fig. blasted, dishonoured. Il est à jamais —, his reputation is blasted. 4 crim. law. branded.

FLETRIR, flay-trée, va. 4 (faner) to wither, to fade, to blight, to blast. Le vent de bise, le hale flétrit les fleurs, the north-east wind, scorching heat withers flowers. Le grand air flétrit les couleurs, the open air fades colours. Le temps flétrissait sa beauté sans loi, time impaired her beauty without depriving her of the power of pleasing. Le Sage, fig. Ma coupe touchant les lauriers craindrait de les —, my muse touching on thy laurels would fear to wither them. Boil. 2 fig. (diminuer le mérite, la pureté, l'éclat, etc.) to tarnish, to sully, to blight. C'est — la vertu que de, etc., it is tarnishing virtue to, etc. J.-J. ROUSS. Si quelque chose a flétri la vie de nos monarques, if anything has cast a stain upon the lives of our monarchs. Montesq. 3 fig. (abatire) to blight, to wither. La douleur jointe à la vieillesse avait flétri son cœur, sorrow and old age together had withered his heart. FÉN. 4 fig. (diffamer) to blast, to brand. — quelqu'un, to disparage a person. Tous les historiens trahissent le cométable du Rum de trahire, every historian brands the comestable with the name of traitor. VOLT. L'insolite et le mépris flétrissaient à jamais celui qui luyait sans combattre, insult and contempt far erasing stigmatized him who fled without fighting. Barb. — la réputation de quelqu'un, to blast the memory of a person. — l'innocence, to sully innocence. 5 crim. law. (marquer d'un fer chaud) to brand (un criminel, a criminal).

SE FLETRIR, vpr. 4 (se faner) to fade, to wither. 2 fig. (perdre son éclat, sa force) to be blighted. La fleur de mes ans ne se flétrit point dans ma mémoire, the flower of my youth will not be withered in my memory. — J. J. Rousse. Sa mémoire ne se flétrit point par le temps, time did not tarnish his memory. Boss. 3 fig. (se déshonorer) to dishonour one's self. Ne vous flétrissez pas par un vice si bas, do not dishonour yourself by so low a vice. Boil.

FLETRISSANT, flay-tre-sang, ppr. of FLETRIR, adj. m. fem. — E, dishonouring. Un arrêt —, a dishonouring sentence.

FLETRISSURE, flay-tre-sür, sf. 1 withering, fading, blight, blighting (des fleurs, des fruits, of flowers, fruits). fig. Le temps n'a pas causé la moindre — à la beauté de son teint, time has not in the least faded the beauty of her complexion. 2 fig. stain, blemish, stigma of shame. 3 crim. law. brand, stigma.

FLEUR, fluhr, sf. (Lat. flos) 1 a bloom, blossom, flower. Un arbre chargé de —, a tree loaded with blossoms. Les blés sont en —, the corn is in flower. La vigne est en —, the vine is in blossom. Un bouquet, une guirlande, une couronne de —, a nosegay, a garland, a crown of flowers. — s des champs, field-flowers. fig. Semer, jeter, répandre des — sur la tombe de quelqu'un, to make the eulogium of a person after his death. fig. Fier d'orner de — un si beau naturel, proud of cultivating such promising parts. — J. J. Rousse. prov. fig. Le serpent est caché sous les —, there is a snake in the grass. (by analogy) Couvrir de —, cacher sous des —, le bord d'un précipice, un piège, etc., to cover the brink of a precipice, a snare, etc., with flowers. 2 (by extension) (plante) flower. Planter, cultiver, arroser des —, to plant, to cultivate, to water flowers. Avoir des pots de — sur sa fenêtre, to have flowers on one's window-sill. Marché aux —, flower-market. 3 (représentation de fleurs, etc.) flower. Peindre des —, to paint flowers. Peintre de —, flower-painter. Étioffé à —, flowered stuff. — s artificielles, artificial flowers. her. — de lis, flower-de-luce. 4 fig. (temps où une chose est dans sa beauté, son éclat) flower, prime. Être dans la —, à la — de ses jours, to be in one's prime. E. dans la première — de sa jeunesse, E. in the bloom of youth. Ste-B. Mme R. encore dans toute la — de sa beauté, Mme R. still in the full bloom of her beauty. Lamart. Trente ans, c'est la — de l'âge pour un homme, —, man is at its prime at thirty. Vous êtes dans la — de l'âge, you are in the prime of life. Volt. 5 fig. poetic. (personne jeune) flower. Cette — si belle et qui fut si tôt moissonnée, that flower so beautiful and which was so soon cut down. Ce sont de tendres — qu'il faut préserver du souffle impur des vices, those are beautiful flowers which must be preserved from the impure breath of vice. 6 fig. (ornement) flower. Les — s de l'imagination, the flowers of imagination. Volt. Harangant en latin avec — et élégance, haranguing in Latin with flowery elegance. Ste-B. — s de rhétorique, flowers of rhetoric. 7 fig. (léger duvet) bloom. Des fruits qui avaient encore toute leur —, fruits which had still their bloom on them. (by analogy) Un teint d'un noir blêmeâtre avec une — sur le bord comme une prune de Monsieur, a bluish-blue complexion with a border of bloom like an Orleans plum. Th. Gaut. La — du teint, a blooming complexion. 8 fig. (lustre, éclat) flower. La beauté n'a qu'une —, beauty fades away like a flower (morally). Il manque à cette nature droite une — de tendresse, d'enthousiasme, that truthful nature is deficient in delicate tenderness, enthusiasm. Ste-B. Il a gardé pure et vierge cette — d'humanité, etc., he has preserved in all its integrity this exquisite humanity, etc. Jacq. 9 fig. (la première vue) the first of a thing, the hundred. Voilà une étoffe qu'on n'a encore montrée à personne, vous en aurez la —, that is a stuff that has been shown to nobody, you shall have the first of it. 10 fig. (ce qu'il y a de mieux) flower, best, choice. C'est la — de mes amis, he is one of my best friends. Loin d'épuiser une matière, on n'en doit prendre que la —, far from exhausting a subject, one should only take the prime. La Font. — de chevalerie, fine — de chevalerie, flower of chivalry. C'est la — de la galanterie, he is quite a lady's man, a lady-killer. fig. La — des poés, the very pink of dandies. 11 — de farine, flour. 12 — s, pl. anc. chem. flower. — s de soufre, flower of sulphur, Ros sulphuris. — s du vin, flowers of wine. Du vin sur lequel il y a des —, wine which flowers.

À FLEUR DE, prep. loc. level with, even with. Les yeux à — de l'œil, goggle-eyes. Lamart. De grands poissons à — d'eau voyageant, large fishes skimming along the surface of the water. V. Hug. L'or étoit presque à — de terre, the gold was just beneath the soil. Nod. Ce corps inhumé à — de terre, that body buried just beneath the ground. Th. Gaut. Cette médaille est à — de coin, this medal is as fresh as if it came out of the mint. Nod. tenn. La balle a passé à — de corde, the ball was near falling; || fig. Cette affaire a passé à — de corde, the thing was carried after a hard struggle.

FLEURAISSON, fluh-ray-zong, sf. bot. blooming, blossoming, efflorescence, inflorescence, florescence, flowering, flowering season.

FLEURDELISÉ, ppa. of FLEURDELISER, fem. — E, adjective. 1 branded with a flower-de-luce. 2 her. flowy.

FLEURDELISER, fluh-ray-le-zay, vv. to brand with a flower-de-luce.

FLEURE, fluh-ray, adj. m. fem. — E, her. flowy, flowered, flowy, flowy.

FLEUREUR, fluh-ray, vn. to scent. Cela fleurit bon, that smells nice. prov. fig. Cela fleurit comme baume, that promises well. fig. Sa réputation fleurit comme baume, ne fleurit pas comme baume, he has the best reputation; he has not the best reputation.

FLEURET, fluh-ray, sm. 4 (sorte de fil) Ross-silk, ferré. 2 (ruban) silk-ferré. 3 cout. — de coton, de laine, de fil, choice cotton, wool, thread. 4 fenc. foil. Je lui ai fait sauter le —, I sent the foil flying out of his hand. — dé-mouchette, foil with the button off. 5 danc. fleurit.

FLEURETTE, fluh-ray, adj. Scerleure.

FLEURETTE, fluh-ret, sf. dimin. of FLEUR, 1 flowerlet. — s des prés, flowerlets of the meadows. 2 fig. pretty things. Dire des —, to say pretty things. Conter des —, conter —, to talk gallantry, to make love-speeches.

FLEURI, fluh-ree, ppa. of FLEURIR, fem. — E, 1 flowery, blooming, blossoming, in bloom, in blossom, in flower. Arbre —, tree in blossom. Pré —, meadow in flower. Pâques — es, Palm-Sunday. poetic. La saison — e, the flowering season. 2 fig. Teint —, visage —, mine — e, florid complexion. Discours —, style —, florid discourse, style. Esprit —, a mind richly adorned. 3 paint. Couleur — e, gaudy colour.

FLEURIR, fluh-reer, vn. 1 to bloom, to blossom, to blow, to flower. fig. Sa barbe va bientôt —, his beard is beginning to sprout. 2 fig. to flourish, to thrive. Faire — l'agriculture, to promote agriculture. Boss. Il s'attache à faire — les arts, he strives to promote the arts. Nod. La contrebande y fleurit comme en Belgique, piracy flourishes there as in Belgium. V. Hug. La fabrique qui fleurit le plus à Genève est celle de l'horlogerie, the most flourishing manufacture in Geneva is that of clock-work. D'Alemb. À côté de ce sublime talent florissait l'éloquence frivole des rhéteurs, alongside of this sublime talent flourished also the frivolous eloquence of the rhetors. Villem. La royale maison sous laquelle l'Espagne florissait alors, the royal house under which Spain then flourished. Nod. Ces variétés de mendiants qui florissent sur la rive droite de l'El, these different tribes of beggars who are thriving on the right bank of the El. Jacq.

FLEURIR, va. to deck, to adorn, to ornament with flowers. Qui vous a fleuri? who gave you that nosegay, that flower? Les Grecs avaient coutume de —, the Greeks had the custom of adorning all their dwellings with flowers in the night of the first of May. Ab.

FLEURIR, ppr. to deck, to adorn, to ornament one's self with flowers. Vous ne sortirez point de mon jardin sans vous —, you shall not leave my garden without a nosegay.

FLEURISSANT, fluh-re-sang, ppr. of FLEURIR, adj. m. fem. — e, 1 blossoming, blooming, flowery. Les prés —, the flowery meadows. Un pré plein d'herbe et —, a grassy and flowery meadow. La Font. 2 fig. See FLEORISSANT.

FLEURISTE, fluh-ris-t, sm. 1 florist. G'est un —, no gardener, he is a florist, a great florist. 2 — artificiel, artificial flower-maker. 3 obsol. (peintre de fleurs) flower-painter. 4 (adjectif) Marchand, marchand —, artificial flower manufacturer. Jardinier —, flower-gardener. Jardin —, flower-garden.

FLEURON, fluh-rong, sm. 1 flower, jewel, gem. Les — s d'une couronne, the gems of a crown. Une étoffe où il y a des —, a flowered stuff. 2 fig. C'est un des plus beaux — s de sa couronne, it is one of his highest prerogatives. 3 bot. floret.

FLEURONNE, adj. m. fem. — e, 1 See FLEURON. 2 Lettres — es, letters ornamented with flowers. 3 bot. composite.

FLEUVE, fluh, sm. (Lat. fluvius) 1 river. Le bord, la rive d'un —, the side, the bank of a river. L'embouchure d'un —, the mouth of a river. Traverser, passer un — à gué, to ford a river. Descendre un —, to go down a river. Remonter un —, to go up a river. poetic, stream. fig. Un — de sang, torrents of blood. fig. Le — de la vie, the river, the stream of life. fig. Descendre gaiement le — de la vie, to sail gaily down the stream of life. fig. Sur le — des temps mollement endormi, on the stream of life supinely sleeping. V. Hug. 2 myth. river-god.

FLEXIBILITÉ, flek-se-be-le-tay, sf. flexibility, pliancy, suppleness. fig. La — de la voix, the flexibility of the voice. La — de l'esprit, du caractère, the flexibility of the mind, the pliancy of the character. (by extension) Il ne parait pas que Marie se conduisit avec la — qu'exigeait son malheur. M. does not appear to have had the pliancy required by her misfortune. Volt.

FLEXIBLE, flek-seebl', adj. mf. (Lat. flexibilis) 1 flexible, pliant, supple. Une branche —, a flexible branch. 2 fig. Voix —, flexible voice. Ce chanteur a la voix très —, that singer has a very flexible voice. 3 fig. Un caractère —, a complying temper. Esprit —, versatile capacity.

FLEXION, flek-syong, sf. 1 bending (d'un ressort, d'une poutre, of a spring, of a beam). 2 aut. flexion. La — du genou, the flexion of the knee.

FLEXUEUX, flek-süh-uh, adj. m. fem. flexuous, bent, flexuous, flexuous.

FLEXUOSITÉ, flek-sü-ö-ze-tay, sf. bot. flexuosity.

FLIBOT, fle-bo, sm. naut. fly-bowl.

FLIBUSTE, fle-büst, sf. corsair.

FLIBUSTIER, fle-büs-tyay, sm. (Eng.)

flintwater, free-booter, bucaner, bucanier.

FLIC FLAC, fik-flak, sm. 1 (onomatopée) thick-thwack, flic-flac. 2 sm. dane. flic-flac.

FLINT-GLASS, flint-glass, sm. (Eng.) flint-glass.

FLOCON, flo-kong, sm. 1 flock. — de laine, flock of wool. — de soie, flock of silk. 2 (de la neige, of the snow) flock. Il tombait de la neige par —s, a gros —s, snow fell in flakes, in great flakes. (by extension) Le vent blew jetait les —s de la fumée, the wind blew against them the flakes of smoke. Lamart. fig. Au même instant le spectre menaçant se dissipe en —s légers, at the same instant the threatening spectre dissolves in thin flakes. Nod. 3 chem. flake. 4 med. mote.

se FLOCONNER, flo-ko-nay, vpr. to form flakes, tufts. Des cheveux blonds qui se floconnent comme une vapeur, hair to which its tufts give the appearance of vapour. Nod.

FLOCONNER, ra. to form flakes, tufts. Au bord de ses joues floconnaient quelques touffes de barbe épaisse, on the borders of his cheeks were some tufts of thick beard. Th. Gaut.

FLOCONNEUX, flo-ko-nub, adj. m. fem. FLOCONNEUX, flaky.

FLOUFLON, floog-fiong, sm. (onomatopée) tol-de-rol.

FLOURAISON, flo-ray-zong, sf. See FLEURAISON.

FLORAL, flo-ral, adj. m. fem. — E, pl. m. FLORALEX, 4 bot. floral. 2 antiqueux floraux, floral games. 3 fig. Académie des jeux floraux, Academy of the floral games.

FLORALES, flo-ral, sf. pl. antique floral games.

FLORE, flor, sf. 4 myth. Flora. 2 bot. flora. La — française, the French flora.

FLORÉAL, flo-ray-al, sm. Fr. rev. Floreal (from 2 April to the 30 May).

FLORENCÉ, flo-rang-s, 1 geog. Florence. 2 sm. (taffetas) sarcelot.

FLORENCE, flo-rang-sang, adj. m. fem. — E, her. fleur-de-lis, flury.

FLORÈS, flo-rang-s, adv. loc. (lat. Fl.) Faire —, to make a figure, to flourish.

FLORIAN, flo-ryang, (J.-P.-C. or) French literary man, born 1755, died in 1794.

FLORIDE, flo-rid, s. geog. Florida.

FLORIN, flo-rang, sm. florin.

FLORISSANT, flo-re-sang, adj. m. fem. — E, flourishing, prosperous. Empire, état —, flourishing empire, state. Une jeunesse — E, blooming youth. Les lettres étaient alors —es, letters were then flourishing. Une saute — E, robust health.

See FLECHIR. (by extension) Mes mollets qui ne sont pas —es, mes mollets qui ne sont pas —es, mes mollets qui ne sont pas en good condition as my shoulders. Jacq.

FLOSCULEUSE, flo-kù-loh, adj. f. bot. flosculosus, flosculosus, floscular.

FLOT, flo, sm. (Lat. fluctus) 1 wave, billow, surge. Les —s de la mer, d'un fleuve, d'un lac, the waves of the sea, of a river, of a lake. Errer sur les —s, to be sea-tossed. Fendrez les —s, to cleave the waves. Le style de M. Villemain avance comme un —, the style of Mr. V. rolls on like a wave. St-B. fig. Les —s des passions, the waves of passion. Chat. Le — révolutionnaire, the revolutionary wave. Lamart. Chez lui le — est plus abondant, with him the stream flows on more copiously. St-B. Être à —, to be afloat. (by analogy) Mettre sa main à —, to set afloat, to set afloat again. A l'effet qu'on y vise au moyen de me mettre à — d'une manière durable, so that they take all means possible to give me the pecuniary assistance I require, and that for a long time. Jacq. (by extension) Le sang coulait à grands —s de sa blessure, the blood flowed in large torrents from his wound. (by analogy) A —s pressés, wave upon wave. A longs —s, copiously. Des —s de vin, torrents of wine. Des —s de lumière, a flood of light. Ses lèvres modelées pour jeter la parole à grands —s, his lips formed for copious utterance. Lamart.

Des —s de poussière, de lumière, clouds of dust, of smoke. Quels —s de sang portez-ils avec vous répétant? what torrents of blood have you shed for her? Rac. (hyperb.) Des —s d'encre ont coulé dans ce débat, floods of ink have been poured out in that strife. fig. Des —s de bile colorent de sa plume satirique, a shower of abuse fell from his satirical pen. poetic. Les —s d'une chevelure, d'une crinière, etc., the waving of a head of hair, of a mane. 2 fig. (toute en mouvement) billow, crowd. Contre les —s de la multitude irritée, to contain the billows of the irritated multitude. La foule l'entraînait; au premier —s, il porta vers l'entrée, au second l'en éloigna, the crowd hurried him along, one billow carried him to the entrance, another bore him away. Lamart. Fendrez les —s de la foule, to make one's way through the crowd. Les Chinois arrivèrent à —s, the Chinese arrived in crowds. Méry. Quand le — des brigands fut passé, when the swarm of brigands had passed. Mich. 3 (le flux et le reflux) tide, rising-tide, flood. Le — de la mer, the tide. Le — vient, monte jusque-là, the tide rises as far as that. — et jusant, flood and ebb, the flux and reflux. 4 (little used.) (trai de bois qui flotte) float of wood. 5 (les bûches) floating wood. (by analogy) Il y a tant de bûches à —, there are so many logs afloat. A — perdu, loose.

FLOTTABLE, flo-tah, adj. mf. floatable.

FLOTTAGE, flo-tah, sm. flottage, rafting, floating. — en train, rafting. — à bûche perdue, loose wood flottage.

FLOTTAISON, flo-tay-zong, sf. naut. water-line. Ligne de —, water-line.

FLOTTANT, flo-tang, ppr. of FLOTTER, fig. — entre la crainte et l'espérance, watering between hope and fear. Le Sage. adj. m. fem. — E, 1 floating. Des îles —es, floating islands. A. rendit l'île de Délos immobile de — e qu'elle était auparavant. A. caused the island of D., which was floating, to become fixed. Th. Gaut. Des arbres —s, floating trees. 2 (ample, onduoyant) flowing, undulating, waving. Une robe — e, a flowing dress. Un panache —, an undulating plume. 3 fig. (incertain) watering, irresolute, unsettled. Pour rendre le calme à ton esprit —, to restore calm to thy unsettled mind. Corne. D'un visir la fortune — e, the uncertain fortune of a vizier. Rac. Une assemblée — e entre l'horreur et l'admiration, an assembly fluctuating between horror and admiration. Lamart. C'est un esprit —, it is a watering mind. 4 fin. Dette — e, floating debt. 5 her. floating.

FLOTTE, flot, sf. 1 naut. fleet. Une — de cinquante voiles, a fleet of fifty sail. Une — marchande, fleet of merchantmen. 2 (bonne) buoy. 3 fish. float.

FLOTTEMENT, flot-wang, sm. war. undulation. fig. Au moment de ce — des esprits, at this moment of irresolution in the minds. Lamart.

FLOTTER, flo-tay, vn. 1 to float. On voyait — les débris du naufrage, the fragments of the wreck were seen to float. fig. Un de ces hommes qui flottent sur la tumulte jusqu'à ce qu'il les engloutisse, one of those men borne away by the tumult until they are swallowed up by it. Lamart. 2 (particul.) (du bois, of wood) to float. 3 (volteger en onduoyant) to float, to flow. Leurs cheveux flottent en arrière, their hair flowed behind. Ab. Les flammes et la fumée flottaient sur les toits du château, the flames and smoke hovered over the roof of the castle. Lamart. Au-dessus du char flottait une enseigne guerrière, above the car waved a warlike standard. Chat. Il lui semblait qu'un nuage flottait devant ses yeux, it seemed to him as if a cloud was floating before his eyes. Nod. Elle flottait dans une vapore aussi douce que l'aurore, she was wafted in a vapour as soft as dawn. Nod. (by extension) Son sein clavelin elle laissait — sa blanche main, she let her white hand run over the harspichord. Muss. Un voile de mélancolie semble — sur ce palais désert, a veil of melancholy seems to hang over this deserted palace. Th. Gaut. Dans ces alîmes flottaient des visions comme celles de J., in those abysses float visions like those of J. Chat. Deux ou trois questions flottèrent sur sa bouche, two or three questions hovered on his lips. Muss. 4 (by analogy) to flow loosely. Sa main sur ses chevaux laissait — les rênes, his hands let the reins flow loosely on the horses. Rac. Un ample paletot flottait autour de sa personne, an ample paletot flowed round his body. Ab. Leurs vêtements flottaient négligés, their garments hung loosely. Chat. 5 war. to float. 6 fig. (être emporté çà et là) to float, to fluctuate. Dans le trouble où flottent mes esprits, in the perplexity which unsettles my mind. Rac. Je laissais au hasard — ma rêverie, I gave the reins up to my imagination. Muss. Elle laissait — son ignorance dans le doute, she suffered her ignorance to remain in doubt. Lamart. 7 fig. (hésiter) to waver, to hesitate, to fluctuate. Les hommes flottent sans cesse entre de fausses espérances et des craintes ridicules, men are continually fluctuating between false hopes and ridiculous fears. Montesq. L'assemblée flottait entre les deux partis, the assembly wavered between the two parties. Lamart. Elle flotte, elle hésite, she wavers, she hesitates. Rac.

FLOTEUR, flo-tubr, sm. 1 rafisman, u-ood-floater. 2 hydr. float. 3 tech. water-gauge.

FLOTTILLE, flo-te-yub, sf. flotilla.

FLOU, floo, adv. 1 softly, lightly. point. Peindre —, to have a soft pencil. 2 (adjective) Un pinceau —, a delicate pencil. 3 (substantif) Le — du pinceau, the softness of the brush.

FLOUEH, floo-ay, ra. pop. to dupe, to cheat, to addle.

FLOUEH, floo-ree, sf. pop. cheat.

FLOUEH, floo-ubr, sm. pop. sharper, cheat, addler.

FLUANT, flù-ang, ppr. of FLUER, adj. m. fem. — E, 1 unresisting. 2 tech. knised, badly sized.

FLUATE, flù-ai, sm. chem. fluat. See FLUORIDE.

FLUCTUATION, flù-tù-ab-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 (d'un liquide, of a liquid) fluctuation. 2 med. (particul.) fluctuation. 3 (des personnes, of persons) fluctuation. La — des voyageurs n'est pas moindre, the fluctuation of people does not decrease. Jacq. 4 fig. (variation) fluctuation. La — des opinions, des sentiments, the fluctuation of opinions, of sentiments. La — des denrées, des effets publics, the fluctuations in the price of commodities, of the funds.

FLUCTUEUX, flù-tù-ab, adj. m. fem. fluctuans, (little used) fluctuating.

FLUER, flù-ay, ra. (Lat. fluere) 1 to flow, to run. 2 La mer boit et relâche, the sea ebbs and flows. 3 med. to flow, to run.

FLUET, flù-ay, adj. m. fem. — E, thin, slender, spare, delicate. Corps —, slender body. Dame délicate au corps long et —, long and slim-bodied dame uxor. La Font. Il est —, he is weakly. Nine — E, thin face. Visage —, thin face, hutchet face.

FLUIDE, flù-id, adj. mf. (Lat. fluidus) 1 fluid. Substances —s, fluid bodies, substances. Cette encre n'est pas assés —, this est trop —, this ink is not thin enough, is too thin. fig. Une parole —, a flow of words. Lamart. 2 sm. fluid. — électrique, electric fluid. — magétique, magnetic fluid.

FLUIDITÉ, flû-e-de-tay, sf. fluidity (de l'eau, de l'air, of water, of air). La — du sang, des humeurs, the fluidity of the blood, of the humours.

FLUOR, flû-or, adj. m. min. Spath —, fluor-spar.

FLÛTE, flû, sf. (lat. flûta) 1 flûte. Jouer de la —, to play on the flute. Jouer de —, flute-player, flutist, flautist. — à bec, beaked flute. — à Voignou, reed-flute. 2 fig. Il est du bois dont on fait les —s, you may turn him round which way you like. fig. pop. Être monté sur des —s, to be long-legged. prov. fig. Tojourns souvient à Robin de ses —s, early recollections ever come supermost. Ajuster ses —s, See AJUSTER. Ce qui vient de la — s'en retourne au tambour, lightly come, lightly go. 3 (orgues) Jeu de —s, flute-stop. 4 (petit pain) flûte, roll.

FLÛTE, sf. naut. store-stop. Équiper un vaisseau en —, to fit a vessel as a store-ship.

FLÛTE, flû-tay, adj. m. fem. —e, Des sons —s, fluty sounds. fig. Une voix —e, a fluty voice.

FLÛTEAU, flû-tau, sm. 4 child's pipe. 2 bot. water-potain.

FLÛTER, flû-tay, ra. (in joke) to flute. 2 fig. pop. to drink, to tipple.

FLÛTEUR, flû-tur, sm. fem. — FLÛTEUSE, disparagingly fluter, flute-player. FLÛVIAL, flû-vyal, adj. m. fem. —e, fluvial. Navigation —e, peche —e, fluvial navigation, fluvial fishery.

FLUXATILE, flû-vah-tel, adj. mf. nat. bist. fluxatile, fluxatile, fluxial.

FLUX, flû, sm. (lat. fluxus) 1 flow, flood. Le — et le reflux, the ebb and flow, flood and ebb, flux and reflux. 2 fig. flux and reflux. Dans ce — et ce reflux de succès et de pertes, in this ebb and flow of successes and losses. Voli. La fortune a son — et reflux, fortune has its ups and downs. 3 (dévotionnel) flux, flow. — de sang, — dysentérique, bloody flux. — de bouche, flow of saliva; || obsol. fig. — de paroles, flow of words. 4 chem. flux. 5 (cardis) flux.

FLUXION, flûk-syong, sf. 1 inflammation, fluxion. Avoir une — sur le visage, sur les dents, sur les yeux, to have an inflammation of the cheek, of the teeth, of the eyes. 2 med. — de poitrine, inflammation on the chest. 3 math. méthode des —s, method of fluxions.

FLUXIONNAIRE, flûk-syong-nayr, adj. m. (little used) liable to inflammation.

FOC, fok, sm. naut. jib, stay-sail. Grand —, standing jib. Petit —, fore stay-sail.

FOCAL, fo-kal, adj. m. fem. —e, (lat. focus) optic. focal. Distance —e, focal distance. focal length.

FOIERIE, fo-ayr, FOAIRE, fo-ar, sm. obsol. strow.

FOÏETAL, fû-yal, adj. m. fem. —e, foetal.

FOÏETUS, fû-yus, sm. (lat.) nat. hist. anat. fœtus, fœtus.

FOI, fwâ, sf. 1 rel. faith, belief. La — qui n'agit pas, est-ce une — sincère? is that faith sincere which is not shown in deeds? Rac. La — d'un chrétien, the faith of a Christian. Si Dieu juge la — par les œuvres, if God judge of faith by works. J.-J. ROUSS. Acte de —, act of faith. Avoir la —, to have faith. 2 (la religion) faith, belief, creed. Un article de —, an article of faith. Les lumières, le flambeau de la —, the light of faith. La — de ses pères, the faith of one's fathers. N'avoir ni — ni loi, to regard neither law nor gospel. Croire une chose comme un article de —, to believe a thing like gospel; || to believe that the moon is made of green cheese. Profession de —, profession of the faith. 3 (by extension) faith, creed. Faire sa profession de foi politique, to make a profession of one's political faith. Ma —, par ma —, faith, I faith, in faith. Jurer sur sa —, to swear upon one's faith. fig. Plaster la — dans un pays, to introduce the faith into a country. 4 (exacétude à remplir sa parole) faith, good faith. Un homme de peu de —, a man in whom little trust is to be put. Si je n'avais de leor — cet enfant pour otage, if I had not that child as a hostage of their faith. Rac. Donner un gage de sa —, to give a pledge of one's good faith. Garder sa —, to be true, to keep one's faith. Engager sa —, donner sa —, to pledge one's truth, one's faith. Je ne veux point d'une bonnette qui trahit l'amitié, la —, la confiance, I will not hear of an honesty that betrays friendship, faith, confidence. J.-J. ROUSS. Être prisonnier sur sa —, to be a prisoner on faith. Prendre quelqu'un à — et à serment, to receive a person on his word and oath. Le premier rempart de l'autorité était la — promise et la — requie, the first safeguard of authority consisted in mutual pledges of good faith. Montesq. Bonne —, good faith. Il a mis beaucoup de bonne — dans toute cette affaire, he has acted with great good faith in the whole affair. Soyez de bonne —, be sincere. Je me remets à votre bonne —, I trust to your good faith. Mauvaise —, bad faith. Être de mauvaise —, to be of bad faith. C'est mauvaise — de votre part, it is unfair of you. En bonne — de bonne —, in good faith, candidly. Laisser quelqu'un sur sa bonne —, to leave a person his own master, her own mistress. — conjugale, conjugal faith, fidelity. La — des traités, des engagements, du serment, des serments, etc., the faith, the strength of treaties, of engagements, of an oath, of oaths, etc. Promettre une chose sous la — du serment, to promise a thing on the faith of an oath. (by extension) Sur la — de, on the faith of. Sur la — de tes promesses, I presume to. J.-J. ROUSS. Sur la — d'une tradition incertaine, on the strength of a doubtful tradition. fig. Sur la — des traités, on the strength of, relying on treaties. — de gentilhomme, d'honnête homme, etc., on the word of a gentleman, of an honest man; honore bright. — de bobéme, honour among thieves. 5 (croissance) credence, credit, trust, confidence. Ajuster —, avoir — à quelque chose, aux paroles, dans les paroles de quelqu'un, to give credit to a thing, to the words of a person. Un historien digne de —, an historian worthy of credit. Il ne faut pas ajouter — aux songes, no faith must be put in dreams. 6 (preuve) witness, proof, testimony. En — de quoi j'ai signé les présentes, in witness, in testimony whereof, I have signed these presents. Faire —, to be a proof. Faire — d'une chose, to prove a thing. Ces papiers font contre lui, those papers are against him. 7 feud. law. Faire — et homage, to do, to pay fealty and homage. Homme de —, russal holding a fief.

FOIBLE et ses dérivés. See FAIBLE.

FOIE, fwâ, sm. 1 anat. liver. Inflammation du —, inflammation of the liver. Maladie de —, liver-complaint. 2 (des animaux, of animals) liver. Un pâté de —s gras, a foie gras pie. culin. — de veau à l'italienne, calfs liver à l'italienne. 3 anc. chem. — de soufre, liver of sulphur. — d'arsenic, liver of arsenic.

FOIN, fwang, sm. (lat. fenum) 1 hay. Une botte de —, a truss of hay. Meule de —, hay-stack. Grenier à —, hay-loft. Boteller du —, to bottle hay. prov. fig. Mettre du — dans ses bottes, to feather one's nest. prov. C'est chercher une aiguille dans une botte de —, it is seeking for a needle in a bottle of hay. 2 (l'herbe) hay. Couper les —s, to cut the hay. Faire sec —s, to make one's hay. La saison des —s, hay-time, hay-harvest. 3 — d'artichaut, choke of an artichoke.

FOIN, interj. obsol. plague, pest, dence. — de la vanité! — des princesses malgès, a plague on vanity! dence toke lean princesses. E. Aug. — de la messagère et de son compliment! plague on the messenger and her compliment! La Font.

FOIRE, fwâr, sf. 1 fair. De temps de —, in fair-time. Le jour de la —, the fair-day. prov. Ils s'entendent comme larçons en —, they are hand and glove together. prov. fig. pop. La — n'est pas sur le pont, there is no harry. 2 (présent) airing. Je lui ai donné sa —, I gave her a airing.

FOIS, fwâ, sf. 1 time. Une — par an, une — l'an, once a year. Plusieurs — par jour, several times a day. Je ne l'ai encore vu qu'une — on deux, I have seen him as yet but once or twice. Que de — je m'étais penché sur elle! how many times had I leaned over her! Chat. A chaque — que l'heure sonne, whenever the clock strikes. V. Hug. Toutes les — qu'on lui en parle, whenever he is spoken to about it. Combien cette pièce a-t-elle été jouée de —? how many times has this piece been played? Combien de — vous l'ai-je dit! how many times, how often have I told you! Cela est bon pour une —, for once that may pass. J'aime surtout à relire les auteurs que j'ai déjà lus nombre de —, I like above all to read over again the authors that I have already read many times. St-B. Ce bras qui tant de — a sauvé cet empire, this arm which has so many times saved the empire. Corn. C'est un homme qui ne se fait pas dire les choses deux —, he is a man to whom it is not necessary to say a thing twice. Une — n'est pas coutume, once is not a habit. Cette —, celle — ci, this time, that time. — là, that time. Je ne l'ai vu qu'une —, que cette — là, I only saw him once, I saw him but that once. Je lui ai parlé maintes —, I have spoken to him many a time. Adieu pour la dernière —, farewell for the last time. Gibb. N'en pas faire deux —, to decide at once. Y regarder à deux —, à plusieurs —, to give it more than one consideration. De — à autre, now and then, from time to time. La prochaine — la première — que vous le verrez, the next time, the first time you see him. D'autres —, at other times. A la —, tout à la —, at once, at the same time, at a time. Parler tous à la —, to speak all together. obsol. Toutes — et quantes, toles et quantes —, whenever. Toutes les — que, whenever. (elliptic.) Encore une —, pour la dernière —, etc., once more, for the last time. (hyperb.) Vingt —, cent et cent —, plos de vingt, de cent, de mille —, etc., twenty times, hundreds and hundreds of times, more than twenty, a hundred, a thousand times over and over again. Vingt —, cent —, mille — pour une, if once, twenty, a hundred, a thousand times. Je vous ai dit cela mille —, pour une, et il faut encore que je vous le répète, if I have told you that once, I have told you a thousand times, and yet I must repeat it to you over again. Une bonne —, une — pour toutes, once for all. —, once upon a time. Il y avait, il était une — un roi et une reine, there was once upon a time a king and a queen. Une — entre autres, it arriva que, once, particularly, it happened that. Une — que, dés qu'une —, lorsqu'une —, etc., when once, if once. (elliptic.) once. Une — parti, je ne reviendrai plus, once gone, I shall not come back. Une — en mouvement, it ne s'arrête plus, once in motion, he never stops. (adverbial.) Si une — je parviens à le découvrir, if ever I succeed in dis- covering it. 2 (de quantités, de nombres que l'on augmente, que l'on diminue ou que l'on compare) times. Quatre — quatre (ont seize, four times four are sixteen. J'ai fait quatre — plus de besogne que vous, I have done four times more work than you. Il est une — plus long, it is as long again. (by analogy) Fussiez-vous dix — plus laid, were you ten times uglier. Ab. poetic. O jour trois — heureux! oh! thrice happy day! Rac.

FOISON, fwa-zong, sf. abundance, plenty.

À FOISON, adv. loc. plentifully, abundantly, in abundance, plenty. La terre féconde donnait tout à — dans l'abondance du monde, the teeming earth gave every thing in plenty when the world was in its infancy. La Font. Il leur donnait du grain à —, he gave them plenty of corn. Flor. Avec l'eau que j'y mets à —, with the water that I do not spare in it. Boil. L'Afrique aura des monstres à —, Africa will have monsters in abundance. La Font. Des convulsions en font pleuvoir l'ardoise et la tuile à —, slaters and tilers shower down slates and tiles in abundance. Boil.

FOISONNER, fwa-zo-nay, vn. 1 to abound (with). Cette province foisonne en bles, foisonne en vins, this province abounds with corn, with wine. A mesure qu'il regardait la plume de colibri, elle se sent à — tellement que, etc., when he looked at the feather of colibri it began to swell so much that, etc. Nod. 2 (de certains animaux, some animals) to increase, to multiply. 3 (des vaudes, etc.) (little used) to go further.

FOL, fol, adj. m. fem. —LE, Sec rou. FOLATRE, fo-lâtr, adj. mf. 1 playful, sportive, frolicsome, wanton. 2 (de l'air, des manières, etc.) playful. Cette gaieté —, this playful gaiety. J.-J. Rousse. Jeux —, s. frolics.

FOLÂTRER, fo-lâ-tray, vn. to play, to sport, to frolic, to toy.

FOLÂTRERIE, fo-lâ-trôh-ree, sf. frolic, playful trick, playful thing.

FOLIALÈ, fo-lyah-say, adj. m. fem. —E, bot. foliacious.

FOLIAIRE, fo-lyayr, adj. mf. bot. foliacous.

FOLIATION, fo-lyah-syong, sf. bot. foliation.

FOLICHON, fo-le-shong, adj. m. fem. —NE, 1 fam. playful, wanton. frolicsome. 2 (substantif.) obsol. playful person.

FOLICHONNER, fo-le-sho-nay, vn. (little used) to play, to sport.

FOLIE, fo-le, sf. 1 madness, insanity, mental derangement, lunacy. Un accès de —, a fit of madness. Un grain de —, a dash of madness. — furieuse, raving madness. — incurable, incurable insanity. (hyperb.) Aimer à la —, to love to distraction. 2 (extravagance) folly. Vouloir tromper le ciel, c'est — à la terre, it is foolish for the earth to attempt to deceive Heaven. La Font. Quelle — de ne point songer à l'avenir! what folly not to think of the future! Son caractère n'est pas exempt de —, his character is not free from folly. Vol. Un luxe qui va jusqu'à la —, luxury that borders upon folly. Chacun veut en sagesse eriger sa —, every one endeavors to set up his folly for wisdom. Boil. 3 (gaieté vive) folly. Tous ces buveurs, joyeux enfants de la —, all those drinkers, joyous children of folly. 4 (action extravagante) folly, foolishness, act, piece of folly. Je regarde cela comme une —, I consider that as an act of folly. prov. Les plus courtes — sont les meilleures, the shortest follies are the best. 5 (exces) folly. Des —s de jeunesse, des —s de jeune homme, youthful follies. 6 (propos gais, idées bizarres) nonsense, giddy thing. Je me souviens de toutes les —s que nous avons dites. I remember all the giddy things we said. M^{re} de Sév. Il y a plaisir à vous envoyer des —s, vous y répondrez délicieusement, there is pleasure in sending nonsense to you, you send back such delightful answers. M^{re} de Sév. 7 (passion excessive) passion, hobby, folly. Ma — est de chanter les grands hommes, my hobby is to celebrate great men. Volt. C'est ma — que de vous voir, de vous parler et de vous entendre, it is my hobby to see you, to speak to you, to hear you. M^{re} de Sév. Chapelein veut rimier, c'est la sa —, C. is determined to rhyme, it is his hobby. Boil. Satisfaire toutes ses —s, to gratify all one's whims. 8 (maison de plaisance) folly. La — Beaujon, the Folly Beaujon.

FOLIE, fo-lyay, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 chem. foliated. Tarire —, foliated tartar. 2 bot. foliated.

FOLIO, fo-lyo, sm. (Lat.) 1 folio. — recto, recto, folio recto, first page. — verso, verso, folio verso, second page. In —, folio. 2 print. folio. 3 bot. foliole.

FOLIOLE, fo-lyol, sf. —, bot. foliole, foliolium, leaflet. 2 bot. foliole, foliolium.

FOLLEMET, fol-mang, adv. rashly, madly, foolishly.

FOLLET, fo-lay, adj. m. fem. —TE, 1 fam. foolish, wanton, playful. Esprit — (substantif.) —, sprite, goblin, hobgoblin, etc. Feu —, ignis fatuus, Will-o'-the-wisp, Jack-o'-lantern. 2 Poil —, down.

FOLLICULAIRE, fo-le-kū-layr, sm. (disparagingly) scribbler, pamphleteer.

FOLLICULE, fo-le-kūl, sm. 1 bot. follicle. 2 pharm. —s de sène, pod of senna. 3 anat. follicle.

FOMENTATEUR, fo-mang-tat-nbr, sm. fem. FOMENTATRICE, foment.

FOMENTATION, fo-mang-tah-syong, sf. (Lat.) in d. fomentation.

FOMENTER, fo-mang-lay, ra. 1 med. to foment. — une partie débilitee, la — avec des cataplasmes, to foment a debilitated part, to foment it with poultices. 2 (disparagingly) to feed. Ce remède fomenta le mal au lieu de le guérir, this remedy feeds the disease, instead of curing it. 3 fig. (in a bad part) to cherish, to foment. Le rapprochement des troupes fomentait les alarmes des patriotes, the approach of the troops kept up the alarms of the patriots. Lamart. Il entra à M. et y fomenta le foyer révolutionnaire, he entered M. and there stirred up the revolution. Lamart. — une querelle, one faction, one sedition, to foment a quarrel, a faction, a sedition.

FONCE, ppa. of FONCER, fem. —E, adjective. 1 (little used) (riche) rich, wealthy. Cet homme-là est —, that man is very rich. fig. (little used) Etre — to be versed. 2 (par opposition à clair) deep. Couleur —E, deep hue. Bien —, deep blue. 3 Chaises —es de crin, hair-bottomed chairs.

FONCER, fong-say, va. tech. to new bottom a cask.

FONCER, vn. obsol. to furnish funds.

FONCIER, fong-syay, adj. m. fem. fonsièrre, 1 Seigneur —, landlord. Propriétaire —, land-holder, land-owner. 2 land. Charges foncières, encumbrance on land. Reue foncière, ground-rent. 3 (relatif à un immeuble) land. Impôt —, contributions foncières, land-tax. Les riches foncières, landed property. 4 obsol. skilled, versed.

FONCIÈREMENT, fong-syayr-mang, adv. 1 (à fond) thoroughly. 2 (dans le fond) at bottom. Il est — bonnet homme, he is an honest man at bottom.

FONCTION, fong-syong-sf. 1 (action) function, duty, office. Faire les —s de sa charge, de son ministère, to perform the duties of one's office, of one's ministry. Exercer les —s épiscopales, to exercise episcopal functions. S'acquitter de ses —s, to discharge one's functions. Un grand A. y faisait la — de servir les mets, a tall A. had the charge of helping to the dishes. De Bross. La principale — de cet emploi consiste, the principal duties of that office consist. Une — publique, a public employment. Etre dans l'exercice de ses —s, to be in the exercise of one's functions. Cesser ses —s, to resign one's functions, office. 2 (des organes, of organs) function. (by analogy) Les —s de l'entendement, the functions of the mind. Faire bien toutes ses —s, to perform all one's functions well. 3 Cela fait — de, that performs the office of. Ce couvercle fait — de soupape, that cover performs the office of a valve. 4 math. — d'une quantité, function of a quantity.

FONCTIONNAIRE, fongk-syo-nayr, sm. functionary. Un — public, a public functionary.

FONCTIONNER, fongk-syo-nay, vn. to work, to go. Cette machine fonctionne bien, this machine works well.

FOND, fonz, sm. (Lat. fondus) 1 bottom. Le — d'un puits, the bottom of a well; d'une bouteille, d'un vase, of a bottle, of a vase. Le — d'une poche, the bottom of a pocket. Au — de la bouche, at the bottom of the mouth. Une maison bâtie dans un —, a house built on a low ground. Du — de l'estomac, from the bottom of the stomach. Le — des enfers, the depth of hell. Le — d'un tonneau, etc., the bottom of a cask, etc. naut. — de cale, bottom of the hold. Le fin —, the very bottom. Le fin — des enfers, the lowest depths of hell. prov. fig. Voir le — du sac, to see to the bottom of a thing. Déjeuner, diner à — de cuve, to make a plentiful breakfast, dinner. 2 (particul.) Le — de l'eau, le — de la rivière, the bottom of the water, of the river. Au — de la mer, at the bottom of the sea. Trouver le —, toucher le —, to find, to touch the bottom. Prendre —, to go in one's depth. Perdre —, to get out of one's depth. naut. bottom. Sonder le —, to heave the lead, to sound. — de vase, de sable, de gravier, de rocher, etc., muddy, sandy, gravelly, rocky bottom. — de bonne tenue, good anchor-hold. Bon —, mauvais —, good, bad bottom. 3 naut. (hauteur de l'eau) depth. Il y a vingt brasses de —, there are twenty fathoms water. Il y a grand — partout dans cette baie, there is deep water every where in this bay. Il y a —, there is ground. Il n'y a pas —, there is no bottom, no sounding. Haut —, shallow, shoal. Couler à —, un bâtiment, to sink a ship, to scuttle a ship; || fig. Couler quelqu'un à — dans la discussion, to run a person down in the discussion; to do for a person. Il s'est coulé à —, he has completely ruined himself; || Couler une matière à —, to exhaust a subject. Couler à — une affaire, to finish, to complete an affair. (intransitive.) Couler à —, to sink to the bottom. fig. C'est une mer sans —, it is a bottomless sea. 4 (terrain) foundation, ground. fig. Faire — sur quelqu'un, sur quelque chose, to rely on, to depend upon a person, upon a thing. 5 (éloigne de l'entree) further end, bottom, depth, middle, in the most recesses, remotest part. Le — d'une boutique, the further end of a shop. Le — d'une église, d'un cloître, the upper end of a church, of a cloister. Le — d'un cachot, the bottom of a dungeon. Le — d'un théâtre, the back, the back-scene of a theatre. Le — d'un bois, the depths of a forest. Dans le — des montagnes, in the most recesses of the mountains. Au fin — de l'Asie, in the remotest part of Asia. fig. Le — d'un cloître, within the walls of a cloister, a convent. fig. Du — de sa misère, etc., from the depth of his misery, etc. Mass. Le — d'un carrosse, the back of a coach. Carrosse à deux —s, don't-wheeled coach. Eu fin — de forêt, in the most recesses of a forest. 6 (opposé à l'ouverture) bottom. Le — d'une armoire, the further end of a cupboard. Le — d'une tabatière, d'un chapeau, d'un honnet, etc., the bottom of a snuff-box, the crown of a hat, the caul of a cap. Mettre des — à un pantalon, à une calotte, to put a scolding to a pair of trousers, of breeches. 7 (d'un tonneau, of a cask) bottom, head. 8 (d'un lit, of a bed) bottom. 9 (des étoffes, of stuffs) ground. Volons — d'or, à — d'argent, velvet with gold, silver ground. 10 (l'étoffe) ground. Une broderie sur an — de satin, sur un — blanc, embroidery on a satin ground, on a white ground. 11 paint, ground. 12 paint. (les plans les plus reculés) back-ground. 13 (théâtre) back-scene. Toile de —, back-scene. 14 fig. (essentiel) bottom, ground-work, basis. Veuille le — de sa doctrine, that is the basis of his doctrine. Le — de ce roman, the ground-work of this novel. Aller au — des choses, to go to the bottom of things. Un — de raison, de vérité, etc., a substratum of reason, of truth, etc. 15 law, matter. Le jugement du —, the judgment of the matter. 16 fig. (intérieur) recess, bottom, inmost recesses. La paix est au — de mon âme, peace resides within my soul. J.-J. Rousseau. Rentrez au — de votre conscience, examine well your conscience J.-J. Rousseau. Je vous parle du — du cœur, I speak to you from the very bottom of my heart. Dieu voit le — de nos pensées, God sees our inmost thoughts.

A FOND, adv. loc. thoroughly, fully, to the bottom. Traiter une matière —, to treat a subject thoroughly. Dîner à —, to dine heartily.

AU FOND, dans le FOND, adv. loc. at the bottom, in the main.

FONDAMENTAL, fong-dah-màng-tal, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 foundation, fundamental. Pierre —e, foundation stone. fig. la loi —e de l'Etat, the fundamental law of the State. Principe —, fundamental principle. 2 mus. Son —, fundamental note.

FONDAMENTALEMENT, fong-dah-màng-tal-màng, adv. fundamentally.

FONDAT, fong-dang, ppr. of FONDRE, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 melting. Une poire —e, a melting pear. 2 anc. med. dissolvent. (substantif.) User de —s, to make use of dissolvents. 3 chem. (substantif.) flux. 4 tech. (substantif.) flux.

FONDATEUR, fong-dat-nhr, sm. fem. FONDATRICE, 1 founder, m. foundress, f. Les —s des empires, des républiques, the founders of empires, of republics. Les —s des religions, the founders of religions. Volt. Colbert qu'on peut regarder comme le — du commerce, C. who may be considered as the founder of commerce. Volt. Si-Thérèse est la fondatrice des Carmélites, Si-Theresa is the foundress of the Carmelites. 2 (particul.) (celui qui a fondé quelque église, quelque monastère) founder. 3 (celui qui fonde des lits dans un hôpital) founder.

FONDATION, fong-dah-sông, sf. 1 arch. foundation, ground-work. Faire les —s d'un bâtiment, to lay the foundations of a building. Travailler aux —s, to work at the foundations. 2 (fosse) foundation. 3 fig. founding, foundation. La — de Rome, the foundation of Rome. La — d'une église, d'un convent, the founding of a church, of a convent. 4 fig. (fonds) endowment, foundation. La — d'un prix dans une Académie, the founding of a prize in an Academy. 5 De —, by right, as a matter of course. Je dîne de — chez le résident, I dine invariably with the resident. Jacq. Un dîner de —, an anniversary dinner. De Bross.

FONDÉ, ppa. of FONDRE, fem. —E, adjectif. 1 founded, built. fig. Un édifice — sur le sable, an edifice built on the sand. 2 fig. (étalé) founded, based, grounded. Toutes les unions sont —es sur des besoins mutuels, all union is based upon mutual wants. Montesquieu. Être — à croire, à dire, à faire quelque chose, to have reason, to have authority to believe, to say, to do a thing. Une personne —e de procuration, an agent acting under power of attorney. (substantif.) Un — de pouvoir, un — de procuration, an attorney. 3 fig. (légitime) well-founded. Ses conjectures ne sont pas mieux —es, his conjectures have no better grounds. Volt. Je ne sais si ce bruit est —, I do not know whether that report is well-founded. Volt.

FONDEMENT, fong-dàng, sm. (Lat. fundamentum) 1 arch. foundation, ground-work. Les —s d'un édifice, the foundations of an edifice. Ebranler, saper les —s, to shake, to undermine the foundations. poetic. (by extension) La montagne fut ébranlée jusque dans ses —s, the mountain was shaken to its very foundation. (by analogy) foundation. Les —s de la terre, de l'univers, the foundations of the earth, of the universe. fig. Jeter, établir les —s d'un empire, d'un royaume, to lay the foundations of an empire, of a kingdom; il (by analogy) jeter les —s, to lay the foundations of a religion, of a doctrine. 2 —s, ut. (fosse) foundation. 3 fig. (base) foundation, basis, reliance.

Les —s de la religion chrétienne, the roots of the Christian religion. Volt. Il n'y a point de — à faire sur son amitié, sur sa parole, no reliance can be placed on his friendship, on his word. 4 fig. (casse) grounds. Il faut que cette nouvelle ait un —, there must be some grounds for this news. Volt. O ciel! de ce discours quel est le —? Heavens! what can have given rise to this language? Rac. 5 vulg. anus, fundament.

FONDER, fong-day, va. (Lat. fundare) 1 to found, to build. — une maison sur pilotis, to build a house upon piles. — une ville, to found a town. fig. absol. Je fondais sur le sable et je semais sur l'onde, I built upon the sand and I sowed upon the wave. Lamart. 2 fig. (instituer) to found, to establish, to create. A peine Charlemagne eut-il fondé son empire qu'il fallut le diviser, C. had scarcely founded his empire when it was necessary to divide it. Montesquieu. Cette petite aristocratie fonda les colonies les plus belles, this small aristocracy founded the finest colonies. Ph. Chas. — un ordre religieux, to found a religious order. — un établissement, une grande manufacture, to found an establishment, to set up a large manufactory. Quand elle se fut mise à vouloir lui — une fortune particulière, when she had formed the plan of raising up for him a private fortune. Ste-B. Il n'en fonda pas moins, sur l'échafaud, le droit de la conscience, he nevertheless founded, on the scaffold, the rights of conscience. Mich. — une religion, une doctrine philosophique, no système, etc., to found a religion, a doctrine, a philosophy, a system, etc. absol. Ce génie ne sait pas détruire, mais —, that genius creates, but cannot destroy. Ph. Chas. (des choses, of things). Cet ouvrage fonda la réputation de cet écrivain, that work laid the foundations of that writer's reputation. 3 (particul.) to found, to endow (une église, un convent, une chapelle, a church, a convent, a chapel; un hôpital, un collège, an hospital, a college; une messe, a mass). — une bourse dans un collège, to found a scholarship in a college. (in joke) — la cuisine, to look out for belly-timber. Avant tout, il faut — la cuisine, we must first get bread to eat. 4 fig. (appuyer) to found, to ground. C'est sur vos vœux que je fonde le repos de ma vie, it is on you I rely for the happiness of the rest of my life. Volt. Sur mes faibles attraits foudrai leur délivrance, trusting for their deliverance to my feeble charms. Rac. Je pourrais — ce prologue sur gens de tous états, I might found this prologue on people of every class. La Font. Il fonda le-dessus l'achat d'une feuille de bon meilleur vin, he relied upon that for the purchase of a cask of the best wine. La Font. 5 — quelque-un de procuration, to give a power of attorney.

SE FONDRE, ppr. 1 fig. to be founded, established. La secte économique se fondait alors, the economical sect was then being founded. Ste-B. Leur ordre social se fondait sur l'état de famille, the family was the basis of their social order. Aug. Th. 2 fig. (s'appuyer) to be founded, grounded, built, based, to ground one's reasons, rights, to rely. Je ne fonde sur ce que, I take my grounds upon. Tout cela se fonde sur de faux bruits, all that is grounded on false reports. Il se fonde sur la possession, he bases his right on possession. Se — sur un article de loi, to ground one's rights on an article of the law. Se — sur son bon droit, sur son innocence, to rely upon one's right, innocence. Vivez pour la liberté qui sur vous seul se fonde, live for the liberty whose whole hope rests on you. Rac. L'unique espoir où tant d'orgueil se fonde, the only hope on which so much pride is built. Corn.

FONDERIE, fong-dree, sf. 1 (lieu) foundry, foundery. 2 (lieu où l'on fabrique certains objets avec du métal fondu) foundry, smelting-house. Une — de canon, a cannon-foundry. Une — de caractère, a type-foundry. 3 (l'art) foundry, founding, casting. 4 tech. melting-house.

FONDEUR, fong-dubr, sm. founder, caster, smelter. — de canons, de cloches, cannon-founder, bell-founder. — sur métaux, metal-founder. Maître —, master founder. — en caractères d'imprimerie, — en caractères, letter-founder.

FONDIS, fong-dée, sm. geol. giving way.

FONDOIR, fong-dwâr, sm. melting-house.

FONDRE, fongdr, va. (Lat. fondere) 1 to melt down, to melt, to smelt. — un métal, etc., to melt down a metal; un lingot, an ingot; de la cire, de la neige, to melt wax, snow — la cire, to dissolve time. Le soleil tombait d'aplomb sur l'homme et sur le chien et semblait les —, the sun's rays fell vertically on the man and dog and seemed to melt them. Lamart. fig. Des que le soleil foudra un peu nos trépassés, as soon as the sun has thawed our white frosts a little. Volt. 2 to found, to cast (une cloche, une statue, no vase, des chandeliers, a bell, a statue, a vase, candlesticks). — des caractères d'imprimerie, to found type, letters. — des balles, to cast bullets. prp. fig. — la cloche, to come to a final resolution. 3 med. to dissolve (les humeurs, the humours; une obstruction, on obstruction). 4 fig. (amalgamer) to blend, to amalgamate. — plusieurs loix en une seule, to merge several laws into one. — un ouvrage avec un autre, le — dans un autre, to blend one work with another. Il fond les intérêts privés en un centre commun, he brings private interests to bear upon one common centre. Ph. Chas. 5 fig. paint, to soften, to blend (les couleurs, les teintes, colours, tints).

SE FONDRE, ppr. 1 to melt, to be melted. Le beurre se fond aisément, butter easily melts. L'Empédocle de cire en foyer se foudit, the waxen Empedocles melted in the fire. La Font. (hyperb.) Se — en sueur, to melt with the heat. fig. On dirait que le ciel qui se foud tout en eau veuille inonder la terre, one would think that the sky which is dissolving in rain is about to flood the earth. Boil. (by analogy) Pleurez, mes yeux, et fondez-vous en eau, weep, oh my eyes, and melt away in tears. Corn. 2 fig. (s'écarter) to be melted away, to disappear, to dwindle away. Cependant l'armée se fondait peu à peu, however the army dwindled away little by little. Volt. Son corps se fond dans un nuage de dentelles et de mousseline, her body disappears in a cloud of lace and muslin. Th. Gaut. 3 fig. (morally) to melt. Sentir son cœur heart melt at the sound of a word. V. Hugo. Son cœur se fondait de joie et d'amour, his heart melted with joy and love. Méry. Tout mon cœur se fondait, my very heart melted. Chat. La pitié d'une femme qui pleure et se fond dans les gémissements, the pity of a woman who weeps and does nothing but groan. Ste-B. fam. Il s'est fondu, he is melted. 4 fig. (s'amalgamer) to blend, to fuse, to coalesce, to be blended. 5 fig. peint. (des couleurs, of colours) to be painted. Le vert des rameaux se fondait dans l'azur de la cime, the green of the branches blended with the azure. Lamart. Ses couleurs s'étaient fondues en une seule, its colours were all blended into one. Sait. (by analogy) Un sourire dont la malicieuse se fondait dans la bonté, a smile in which melancholy was blended with kindness. Lamart.

FONDRE, vn. 1 to melt. Faire — du beurre, to melt butter. La neige était tiède et fondait sous moi, the snow was tepid and melted under me. Lamart. fig. Nos jours fondent comme la neige au soleil du courtour divin, our days melt away like snow before the breath of Divine wrath. Lamart. (by extension) Cette poire fond dans la bouche, this pear melts in the mouth. (hyperb.) — en sueur, to melt with the heat. — à fond d'œil, to fall away visibly. Elle fondait tout à coup en larmes, she suddenly melted into tears. Chate. fig. — en eau, to melt, dissolve in tears, to burst into tears. fig. Tout ce qu'il tient fond entre ses mains, everything that he has, slips through his fingers. 3 fig. (s'abîmer) to sink, to fall in, to give way. La terre a fondu sous ses pieds, the earth gave way upon his feet. 3 fig. (se lancer avec violence) to burst in bas) to burst, to pounce (upon) to make a stoop (at). L'orage est près de —, the storm is ready to burst. L'angle, si vous sortez, fondra sur vos petits, the eagle, if you go out, will make a stoop at your young ones. La Font. 4 fig. (assailir) to rush, to fall. Le Gaulois fond l'épee à la main sur le jeune F., the Gaul's rushes, sword in hand, upon the young F. Chat. (by analogy) Tous les maux sont venus à la fois — sur moi, every affliction has fallen upon me at the same time. Volt.

FONDRIERE, long-dryaz, sf. 1 pit, gully. 2 (terrain marécageux) bog, quagmire, slough.

FONDRIELLES, long-dre-yuh, sf. pl. tech. sediment, grounds, dregs.

FONDS, long, sm. (Lat. fundus) 1 land, soil, ground, landed estate, landed property. Le — d'une terre, the ground of an estate. Être riche en —, to be rich in lands. — dotal, dotal landed property. absol. Biens- —, landed estate, landed property. 2 (somme d'argent) funds. Les — du Trésor, de la Banque, the funds of the Treasury, of the Bank. Le — social, capital, capital-stock. Faire en —, to set up an establishment. Appeler en —, See Appel. N'avoir point de — pour payer, to have no funds to pay with. C'est un tel qui doit fournir les —, qui doit faire les —, it is such a one who is to furnish the funds. Bailleur de —, See BAILEUR. 3 pl. (pécule ou argent) funds, cash, money. Avoir des — disponibles, to have funds unengaged. Être en —, to be in cash. Les — sont bas, the funds are low. Mes — commencent à baisser, I am beginning to be short of cash. fig. Être en — pour faire quelque chose, to be in a position to do a thing. 4 pl. — publics, funds, public funds, stocks. Speculer sur les — publics, to speculate in the funds.

Les — ont baissé, the funds have fallen. 5 (par opposition à revena) capital, principal. Jean s'en alla comme il était venu mangeant son — avec son reveu, John died as destitute as he was born spending his principal along with his income. La Font. Placer, mettre son argent à — perdu, — perdu, to sink money in an annuity. (by analogy) Donner une maison à — perdu, to sell a house and sink the capital. Vendre un bien à — perdu, to sell an estate, and sink the capital. fig. Travailler, prenez de la peine, c'est le — qui manque le moins, work, take pains, that is a never-failing capital. La Font. 6 (établissement) business. — de commerce, business. Il a un excellent — de magasin, un — bien assorti, he has an excellent stock of goods, a great variety of goods. 7 fig. (sous le rapport de l'esprit, du savoir, etc.) stock, fund, amount. Vous avez un — de raison et de courage que j'ignore, you have a stock of reason and courage that I honour. M^{me} de Sév. Un grand — de vertu, the riches of virtue. Barth. Il n'avait pas on moindre — d'affection et de sentiments, he was no less rich in affection and feeling. Ste-B. Cela prouve un grand — de savoir, un grand — d'érudition, that denotes a great stock of learning, of erudition. Un grand — de tendresse, a great share of tenderness. C. Del. Tirer quelque chose de son propre —, to strike out something new. Ce — d'indifférence subsista toujours, that vein of indifference still subsisted. Ste-B. Un — de remords et de regret lui disait, some lingering remorse and regret whispered to him. Ste-B. absol. Il a le — bon, he is good at the bottom. Le bon — de garçon que voilà! what an excellent fellow he is! Le Sage. 8 fig. (ce qu'une science, un sujet peut fournir de ressources) mine.

FONDU, long-dû, ppa. of fondre, fem. — E, 1 melted, melted. Plomb —, molten, melted lead. (hyperb.) Ses pages, ses trottinettes, tout était — de larmes et faisait fondre les autres, his pages, his trottinettes, all were melted in tears, and made the others melt too. M^{me} de Sév. 2 fig. Cette maison est — e dans telle autre, this house is engrafted upon that one. 3 fig. (dissipé) ruined, melted away. 4 Cheval —, leop-frog. Jouer au cheval —, to play at leop-frog.

FONDUE, long-dû, sf. culin. fondue. FONGIBLE, long-zhibl, adj. mf. (Lat. fungi) law, that may be replaced by a thing of the nature. FONGOSITÉ, long-go-ze-tay, sf. Surg. See FONGES.

FONGUEUX, long-guh, adj. m. fem. fongueuse, surg. fungous, excrescent, proud. Chair fongueuse, proud-flesh. Ulcère —, fungous ulcer.

FONGUS, long-gûs, sm. (Lat. fungos) surg. fungus.

FONTAINE, long-tayn, sf. (Lat. fons) 1 fountain, spring. La source, le bassin d'une —, the source, the basin of a fountain. Puiser à la —, dans la —, to draw from the fountain. Eau de —, spring water. — jaillissante, gushing fountain. Une — artésienne, an Artesian well. (by analogy) — de vin, de lait, etc., fountain of wine, of milk, etc. fig. — de jeunesse, the fountain of youth. prov. fig. Il ne faut pas dire, — je ne boirai pas de ton eau, one must never say, Fountain, I will not drink of thy water. 2 (by extension) (corps d'architecture) fountain. 3 (by extension) (vaisseau de gres, de cuivre, etc.) cistern. Le robinet d'une —, the cock of a cistern. 4 nat. phil. fountain. La — de Hieron, the fountain of Hiero. — de compression, circulating fountain. 5 (robinet) cock. La — du moult, the cock of the hog's-head. 6 — de la tête, fontanel.

FONTAINIER, long-tay-nay, sm. See FONTENIER.

FONTANELLE, long-tah-nay, sf. anat. fontanel.

FONTANGE, long-tangzh, sf. fontange. FORTE, longt, sf. 1 (action) melting, founding, casting. La — des métaux, the founding of metals. Remettre à la —, to recast. — de gâtes, melting of gold-lace. 2 (Part de mouler) founding, casting. La — d'une statue, the casting of a statue. Jeter une statue en —, to cast a statue. — en sable, sand-casting. 3 (ter fondu) cast-iron. — brute, pig iron, crude iron. — moulée, iron foundry, iron castings. Marmite de —, cast-iron pot. Tuyau de —, cast-iron pipe. Fer de —, cast-iron. 4 (composition de métaux) brass, bronze. Canon de —, cast cannon. Mortier de —, brassy mortar. Pièce de —, brass piece. 5 print. font, stock. Une — de petit-romain, de Cicéro, etc., a font of long primer, of pica. 5 print. Ce tableau est d'une belle —, the tints in this painting are well blended. 6 La — des neiges fait déborder les rivières, the melting of the snow makes the rivers overflow.

FUSTE, sf. saddl. holster.

FONTENELLE, long-tuh-nel, em. a French writer, born in 1757 died in 1757.

FONTENIER, long-tuh-nay, sm. 1 turn-cock. Maître —, master turn-cock. 2 fountain-maker, cistern-maker.

FOR, long, sm. pl. (Lat. fons) font. Les — baptismaux, les — de baptême, font. Tout en enfant sur les —, to stand sponsor for, to stand god-father, god-mother to a child; || fig. to make a person the subject of conversation.

FUR, for, sm. (Lat. forum) Le — extérieurement, the tribunal of human justice, the ecclesiastical court. Le — intérieur, spiritual tribunal; || fig. the tribunal of one's own conscience.

FORAGE, to-rash, em. tech. boring. Le — d'un canon, the boring of a cannon. Le — d'un puits Artésien, the boring of an Artesian well.

FORAIN, to-rang, adj. m. fem. — E, (Lat. foras) non-resident, alien. Marchand —, hawkier, pedlar. Chemin —, carriage way. Traite — e, duty upon imports and exports. 2 nat. Haue — e, open road.

FORK-N, for-bang, sm. pirate, free-booter, corsair. fig. Un — littéraire, a literary pirate.

FOIRÇAGE, for-sahz, sm. mint. over-weight.

FORÇAT, for-sah, sm. 1 convict. La chaîne des — s, the chain of convicts. libéré, returned convict. 2 auc. galley-slave. prov. Travailler comme un —, to slave.

FORCE, fors, sf. 1 (de l'homme, des animaux) strength, might. — physique, physical strength. — de corps, bodily strength. Le matador lui porta le coup mortel de toute la — de son bras, the matador dealt him the mortal blow with all the strength of his arm. Némis. — de reins, strength in the loins. Avoir beaucoup de —, to be very strong. Y aller de toute sa —, to put out all one's strength. Il n'a pas seulement la — de marcher, he has not even strength to walk. Crier de toute la — de ses pomons, to shout at the top of one's voice. Être saus —, to be strengthless. Il n'est point de — humaine capable de, there is no human strength capable of. L'homme a la — et la majesté, man has strength and majesty. Buff. Il marchait tout courbé, prenant la — dans le col, comme les bœufs, he walked quite bent, finding his strength in his neck, like oxen. Th. Gaut. Les — du corps, bodily strength. Les — lui manquent, his strength fails him. Vouloir faire plus que ses — s — ne permet, to go beyond one's strength. Employer, deployer toutes ses — s, to put forth all one's strength. La — de l'âge, the prims of life. La — du tempérament, the strength of the constitution. fig. N'avoir ni — ni vertu, to have neither strength nor resistance in one. A — s'égalés, a — égale, à égalité de —, de —, with equal strength. fig. Tour de —, feat of strength, fig. (de l'esprit, etc.) strength, power, intensity. Avoir une grande — de tête, to have a good head-piece. Cette — que la nuit donne à la pensée, that intensity that night communicates to the thoughts. Muss. La —, les —s de l'intelligence, the power of intellect. La nature donne la — de l'esprit comme celle du corps, nature gives strength of mind as well as strength of body. Volt. Vous êtes dans la — de l'âge et du génie, your bodily and intellectual strength have arrived at their culminating point. Volt. Un poète d'une grande — d'imagination, a poet induced with a very powerful imagination. (by analogy) La — de la mémoire, strength of memory. 3 fig. (habileté, etc.) proficiency, forwardness, skill. Ces deux écoliers, ces deux joueurs sont d'égalé —, sont de la même —, sont de même —, those two scholars, these two players are equal proficient. Vous n'êtes pas de sa —, you are not a match for him. Vous n'êtes pas de — à lutter avec lui, you are no match for him, he is more than a match for you. Cette jeune personne est d'une grande —, est de la première — sur le piano, that young lady is a great proficient, is a first-rate proficient on the piano. Je m'y opposerai de toutes mes —, I will oppose it with all my might. Nier de toute sa —, to deny most energetically. Les —s d'un parti, the strength of a party. Un enfant qui n'a de — que son cœur, a child whose whole strength lies in his affections. Mich. (ironic.) Tous écrivains de même —, all writers of the same stamp. (by extension) Votre dernier discours ne me paraît pas tout à fait de la — du précédent, your last discourse does not appear to me so forcible as the preceding one. Le Sage. 4 (d'un peuple, d'un État) strength, might, power, force. Il apprit aux Grecs le secret de leurs —s, he taught the Greeks the secret of their strength. Barb. La — militaire d'un empire, the military force of an empire. La — numérique d'une armée, the numerical force of an army; d'un régiment, d'un bataillon, etc., of a regiment, of a battalion, etc. Être en —, to muster strong. Venir en —, se présenter en —, to come, to present one's self with a powerful army. La — d'une place, the strength of a place. 5 —s, pl. (troupes d'un État, etc.) forces. Les —s de terre et de mer, land and sea forces. Les —s navales, naval forces. 6 (violence) force, violence. User de —, employer la —, to use forcible means. Opposer la — à la —, to oppose force to force. Repousser la — par la —, to repel force by force. Avoir la — en main, to be the master. L'empire de la —, the reign of force. La — publique, the police. La — armée, the armed force. — majeure, main force, superior force. C'est un cas de — majeure, it is a circumstance, a consideration outweighing every other. Lorsqu'il y a — majeure, when there is an impossibility, — est demeurée à la loi, the strong arm of law prevailed. fam. — m'est, — lui est de, etc., I am, he is absolutely obliged to. Je voudrais bien demeurer, mais — m'est de partir, I should very much like to stay, but I am obliged to set out. — lui fut d'offrir ses services à de pacifiques marchands, he was obliged to offer his services to peaceful tradesmen. Merim. Maison de —, house of correction, Bridewell. 7 fig. (fermeté d'âme, etc.) fortitude, courage, strength, energy. La — de son corps ne secondait pas celle de son âme, the strength of his body was not equal to that of his mind. Volt. N'avoir pas la — de faire quelque chose, not to have the courage to do a thing. 8 (des choses, of things) strength. carp. Jambes de —, principal rafters. 9 (propriété d'imprimer une impulsion) power, force. La — d'une machine à vapeur, the force of a steam-engine. La — de la poudre à canon, the force of gunpowder. La — d'un levier, d'un ressort, the force of a lever, of a spring. 10 (impulsion) force, impetus, propelling power. La — d'une balle, d'un boulet de canon, the impetus of a bullet, of a cannon-ball. La — d'un coup, the force of a blow. 11 (impétuosité) force, impetuously. La — de l'eau, du courant, the force of the water, of the stream. La — du vent, the force of the wind. nauf. Faire — de rames, to row with all one's might. Faire — de voiles, to crowd all sail, to set a press of sail; fig. to go at it tooth and nail. 12 (énergie) strength, intensity. La — d'un poison, d'un remède, the strength of a poison, of a remedy. La — d'un acide, the strength of an acid. Ce vinaigre n'a pas assez de —, that vinegar is not strong enough. La — de la chaleur, the intensity, intenseness of the heat, the force of heat. Si continue à geler de cette —, if it goes on freezing so hard. La — d'un mal, the intensity of a disease. fig. La — d'une passion, d'un sentiment, the intensity of a passion of a sentiment. La — de la sève, the strength of the sap. 13 (du style, etc., of style, etc.) force, vigour. Des vers pleins de — et d'éclat, verses full of vigour and brilliancy. Ce mot a beaucoup de —, that is a very forcible term. 14 (d'un raisonnement, of an argument) force, strength. 15 fig. (autorité, influence) force, power. Les lois étaient sans —, the laws were powerless. Une contume qui a — de loi, a custom that has the authority of law. La — des choses, the force of things. La — de l'exemple, de l'habitude, des préjugés, the power of example, of habit, of prejudice. Tant le naturel a de —, so strong is the natural bent. La Font. la — du sang, the force of nature. Mon épicier s'admire la — du sang, my grocer falls into admiration at the force of nature. Le Sage. 16 La — centrifuge, la — centripète, the centrifugal, centripetal force. La — de cohésion, d'attraction, the cohesive, attractive power. — intelligente, intelligent force. — aveugle, blind force. mech. — mouvante, — morte, moving, motive power. — morte, dead force, dead weight. fig. — d'inertie, vie inertie, passive resistance. 17 valait, could, force.

FORCE, adv. loc. much, a great deal of, many, a great many. On y voit — saigliers, many bours are to be seen there. Merim. Votre salaire sera — relicts, your salary will consist of a great many leavings. La Font. Il est — gens comme lui, there are many people like him. La Font. Maître tel qui traînait après lui — écoutants, master such a one who drew many bearers after him. La Font.

A FORCE DE, prep. loc. by dint of. A — de s'aggraver on peut être blâmable, wisdom may be carried to an excess. Mol. A — de bienfaits elle arbête ses droits, she acquires her rights by repeated benefits. V. Hug. A — de questions, j'apprends que, after many inquiries I learn that. Muss. A — de douleurs, il demeure tranquille, he remained quiet through excess of grief. Boil. A — de temps et de soins, la maladie revient enfin de sa pâmoison, with time and attention the patient recovers from her swoon. J.-J. Rouss. A — de faire, de prier, etc., by dint of doing, of praying, etc. A — d'y réfléchir, il se persuade que, after mature consideration he is at last convinced that. Nod. A — de euer-cher sa sûreté, if he pouvait plus la trouver, he took so many precautions for his safety that he never felt himself safe. Fén. A — de bras, by main force. A — de rames, by hard rowing.

A FORCE FORCE, adv. loc. 1 (par toutes sortes de moyens) by all means, absolutely. Il vent, à toute —, venir à bout de son entreprise, he is determined, at whatever cost, to succeed in his enterprise. A toute — elle se résolut d'imiter la nature, she resolved, by all means, to imitate nature. La Font. 2 (absolument) parlot after all, strictly speaking.

A FORCE, adv. loc. very much, extremely. Travailler à —, to work hard. DE FORCE, adv. loc. by force, forcibly. Faire entrer de — une chose dans une autre, to force one thing into another. Prendre une ville de —, to take a town by storm. De gré ou de —, by fair means or foul; willy-nilly.

PAR FORCE, A FORCE OUVERTE, DE VIVE FORCE, adv. loc. forcibly, by force. On le met par — dans une autre chambre, he was made to enter another room by main force. M^{me} de Sév. Attaquer une ville à — ouverte et la prendre de vive —, to attack a town by open force, and to take it by main force.

FORCE, ppo. of forces, fem. — e, adjectif. 1 (ouvert de force) forced, forced open, strained. La malle avait été — e, the trunk had been forced open. Ciel — e, a key forced. 2 (enlevé de force) carried. 3 (contraint) forced, obliged, compelled. Il fut — de partir, he was obliged to set out. Il est — d'abandonner le cadavre prétendu, he is compelled to abandon the pretended corpse. Merim. Le voyageur — de voir rapidement, the traveller forced to see rapidly. Th. Gaut. Le roi fut bien — de m'accepter pour intermédiaire, the king was obliged to accept of me as an intermedium. Ab. Les portes de sa prison seront bien — es de s'ouvrir, his prison-doors will be obliged to open. Saint. (by extension) Consentement —, forced consent. Emprunt —, forced loan. A marches —, by forced marches. Travaux —s, See TRAVAUX. fig. Avoir la main — e, to be compelled, not to be free; (au jeu, at cards) to be forced. 4 fig. (qui manque de naturel) forced, affected, unnatural, constrained. Attitude — e, unnatural attitude. Elle n'a rien de gauche ni de —, there is nothing about her either awkward or constrained. — Un ris, un sourire — e, forced smile. 5 fig. Style —, forced, unnatural style. Plaisanterie — e, forced joke. En allant au traic le trait de Lafare soit non pen —, if we admit that L.'s style is a little forced. St-B. 6 fine arts. (by analogy) forced, unnatural.

FORCEMENT, for-say-mang, adv. 1 perforce, by force, by compulsion. 2 fig. necessarily.

FORCENÉ, for-sub-nay, adj. m. fem. — e, 1 furious, mad. — de rage, de colère, mad with rage, anger. 2 (substantif) madman, madwoman.

FORCEPS, for-séps, sm. surg. forceps.

FORCER, for-say, va. nous forçons. IL FORÇA, 1 to force open, to break open, to strain. — on coffre, to force open a chest. La foule ouvrit la porte et en força une autre à côté, the crowd opened the door and broke open another beside it. Mich. Du sérail, s'il le faut, vuez — la porte, if necessary come and break open the doors of the seraglio. Rac. Des irrupitions violentes de la foule forçait la haie, écartaient les chevaux, violent irruptions of the crowd broke through the line, thrust aside the horses. Lamart. Condé, dont le seul nom fait tomber les murailles, force les escadrons, G., whose name alone throws down the wall, forces the squadrons. Bussy. — tons les obstacles, to break through every obstacle. — une clef, une serrure, to force a key, a lock. fig. — la porte de quelqu'un, to break in upon a person. — la consigne, to break through an order. 2 (prendre par force) to force, to take by force, to storm. — un corps de garde, to force a guard-house. — un retranchement, une barricade, to storm an intrenchment, a barricade. (by analogy) — un passage, to force a passage. — des troupes dans leur camp, dans leurs retranchements, to force troops in their camp, in their intrenchments. 3 hunt. — une bête, to hunt, to run down an animal. — un lièvre, to run a hare down. — un cerf, un daim, un chevreuil, to hunt down a stag, a deer, a roebuck. 4 (contraindre) to force, to oblige, to compel, to do violence, to constrain, to extort. Il le força à s'asseoir, he forced him to sit down. Leurs éclats de rire me forcèrent de m'éloigner, their peals of laughter compelled me to withdraw. Muss. — les ennemis à combattre, to force the enemy to fight. — son adversaire à jouer, to force one's adversary to play. Tout me força de le regretter sans cesse, everything obliged me to regret him continually. J.-J. Rousseau. Son âme est immortelle et force son corps à lui tenir compagnie, his soul is immortal and compels his body to keep it company. Ste-B. — les consciences, to force the consciences. Ne forçons point notre talent, nous ne ferions rien avec grâce, let us not force our talent, we should do nothing gracefully. La Font. — le consentement, le vote, etc., de quelqu'un, to extort the consent, the vote, etc., of a person. fig. — les respects, l'admiration, etc., to extort respect, admiration, etc. (by analogy) La façade orgueilleusement dominatrice et qui force le regard, its proudly domineering facade which forces itself into notice. Th. Gaut. — la nature, to force nature. — la voix, to strain one's voice. (by analogy) Il y a des endroits fréquents où il force le ton, he frequently forces the tone. Ste-B. — le pas, la marche, to mend, to quicken, to hurry one's pace. — un cheval, to overdrive, to strain a horse. fig. — la terre à produire, to force the earth to produce. — la main à quelqu'un, to compel a person to do a thing; il vain. Ce cheval force la main de son cavalier, this horse pulls hard. 5 (intransitively) naut. — de voiles, de rames, to crowd all sail, to row hard. 6 (jou, at cards) to play a forced card.

SE FORGER, vpr. 1 to force, to strain one's self. 2 fig. (se contraindre) to do violence to one's feelings, inclinations.

FORCES, fors, sf. pl. shears.

FORCLORE, for-klor, va. law. to foreclose.

FORCLUSION, for-klor-zhong, sf. law. foreclosure.

FORÉ, ppa. of FORER, fem. — E, Ciel — E, piped key.

FORER, for-ray, va. tech. to perforate, to drill, to bore (une cloie, un canon, un puits, a key, a gun, a well).

FORESTIER, for-rays-izay, adj. m. fem. FORESTIERE, 1 Code — code of forest laws. Lois forestières, forest law. 2

Garde —, forcer, forest-ranger. Agent —, forest agent. 3 sm. forrester, ranger.

FORET, for-ray, sf. 4 forest. Abattre une —, to fell a forest. La coupe d'une —, the cutting down of a forest. (by extension) Une — de mâts, de lances, etc., a forest of masts, of lances, etc. fig. Une — de cheveux, a thick head of hair, a shock of hair. fig. Vous étiez là dans une —, you were there in a den of thieves. 2 admin. Eaux et — s, woods and forests. La direction générale des — s, the general direction of forests. Conservateur, inspecteur des — s, commissioner of woods.

FORET, for-ray, sm. 1 tech. drill. 2 (d'un tonneau, of a cask) drill, bit, borer, gimlet.

FORFAIRE, for-fayr, va. 4 absol. to prevaricate, to forfeit. Si un jage vient à —, if a judge should prevaricate. — à l'honneur, to forfeit one's honour. 2 (transitively) feud. law. — un fief, to forfeit a fief.

FORFAIT, for-fay, sm. heinous crime. Des hommes noirs de tous les — s, men steeped in crime. Barbi.

FORFAIT, sm. contract. Traiter à —, to contract by the job. Faire — avec un architecte pour un bâtiment, to contract with an architect for the erection of a building. Vendre, acheter à —, to sell, to buy by the lump.

FORFAITURE, for-fay-tür, sf. 1 law. prevarication. 2 feud. law. forfeiture.

FORFANTERIE, for-fangt-ree, sf. 1 boasting, bragging. 2 (particul.) (sauf-ronnaie) boast, brag.

FORGE, forzh, sf. 1 (lieu) forge, iron-works. Faire aller une —, to work a forge. Il mative de — s, an iron-manufacturer, an iron-master. Les souflis d'une —, the blast of a furnace. 2 (noun) forge, smithy, smithery. 3 (particul.) (l'atelier d'un maréchal ferrail) farrier's, blacksmith's shop. — de campagne, field-forge. fig. Cet ouvrage est encore tout chaud de la —, this work is fresh from the mint.

FORCEABLE, for-zhabl', adj. mf. that may be forged.

FORGE, ppa. of FORGER, fem. — E, 1 forged. Fer —, forged bar, padded, wrought iron. 2 fig. forged. Mot —, a word coined.

FORGER, for-zhay, va. NOCS FORGERONS; IL FORGEA, 1 to forge (un fer de cheval, a horse-shoe; une épée, des armes, a sword, arms). absol. Apprendre à —, to learn forging. fig. C'était la victime qui forgeait le glaive, it was the victim that forged the sword. Lamart. 2 man. Ce cheval forge, that horse overreaches. 3 fig. (inventer) to forge, to trump up, to coin (une colonnie, une malice, a calumny, a piece of malice). On voit aura forge cent sols contes de lui, they have trumped up to you a hundred idle stories against him. Mol. Cet homme passe sa vie à — des nouvelles, that man spends his whole time in fabricating news. Barbi. Je forgeais des mots de toutes sortes, I coined words of all kinds. Ab. M. et N. se sont plu à — l'idée d'une utopie, M. and N. took pleasure in forging utopies. De Bross.

SE FORGER, vpr. to be forged. fig. Chacun porte en soi l'atelier où se forgent ses idées, every one contains within himself the laboratory of his ideas. Rivar. Se — des chimères, to frame chimeras to one's self. Se — des monstres pour les combattre, to make giants first and then to kill them. Le loup se forge une félicité qui le fait pleurer de tendresse, the wolf pictures to himself a felicity which makes him weep with tenderness. La Font.

FORGERON, forzh-rong, sm. smith, blacksmith. prov. fig. Ea forgeant on devient —, practice makes perfect.

FORGEUR, for-zhuhr, sm. 4 tech. forger (d'épées, de couteaux, de ciseaux, etc., of swords, knives, scissors, etc.). 2 fig. fam. forger, fabricator, coiner. Un — de nouvelles, un — de calomnies, a forger of news, of calumnies.

FORHUI, for-üer, m. hunt — du cor, du cornet, du hucliet, etc., to blow the horn, to wind the horn.

FORJET, for-zhay, sm. arch. jutting, projection.

FORJETER, for-zhuhr-tay, en. arch. to jut out, to project.

FORJÉTUNE, for-zhuhr-tür, arch. See FORGER.

FORLANCEUR, for-le-ngay, va. hunt. to start, to unhitch.

FORLIGNER, for-le-ngay, m. absol. to degenerate, to fall from the virtue of one's ancestors. Mol.

FORLONGER, for-long-zhay, va. 4 hunt. to run a length. 2 (particul.) (du cerf, of the stag) to get ahead.

SE FORLONGER, vpr. hunt. (du cerf, of the stag) to get ahead.

SE FORMALISER, for-mal-e-zay, vpr. to take exception, to take offence.

FORMALISTE, for-mal-ist, adj. mf. 4 formal, precise. 2 (façonnerie) formal, ceremonious. 3 sm. formalist.

FORMALITÉ, for-mal-e-tay, sf. 1 formality. 2 (cérémonie) formality, ceremony.

FORMAT, for-mah, sm. priol. size. — in-folio, folio size. — in-octavo, octavo size. Grand —, large size. Petit —, small size.

FORMATEUR, for-mah-lubr, adj. and sm. fem. FORMATRICE, createur.

FORMATION, for-mah-syong, sf. 1 (action) formation. L'antichrist qui entre dans la — des insectes qui rampent à nos yeux, the antichrist who enters into the formation of the insects that creep before our eyes. Mass. La — d'un abcès, the formation of an abscess. 2 gram. formation. 3 mil. La en bataille, forming in a battle. 4 geol. formation. 5 (l'action d'organiser) formation.

FOI(ME, form, sf. (Lat. forma) 1 form. L'éternité et l'infini, ces deux — s de Dieu, eternity and infinity, those two forms of God. Th. Gaut. 2 schol. pluri- — substantielle, substantial form. 3 chem. — gazeuse, liquide, solide, etc., gaseous, liquid, solid form, etc. 4 theol. La — d'un sacrement, the form of a sacrament. 5 gram. La — d'un mot, the form of a word. 6 (configuration) form, shape. La — d'un homme, the form of a man. Une montagne en — de cône, a conical mountain. En — de croissant, in the form of a crescent. L'ange apparaît au Tobie sous la — d'un voyageur, the angel appeared to young Tobie under the form of a traveller. Il est si défiguré qu'il n'a plus — humaine, he is so disfigured that he has nothing of the human form left. — ronde, circulaire, ovale, round, circular, oval form. Cela commence à prendre —, to become a human —, une meilleure —, that begins to assume a form, a good, a better form. absol. Le monde moderne n'a aucune notion juste de la —, the modern world has no correct notion of form. Th. Gaut. 7 — s, pl. (particul.) (contours) Un homme aux — s abieliques, a man of athletic mould. La beauté, l'élégance des — s, the beauty, the elegance of forms. 8 fig. (manière dont une chose se présente à l'esprit) form. Ce sont deux — s d'un même amour-propre, they are two forms of the same self-love. Ste-B. Tous les maux que j'avais soufferts reprenaient à mes yeux cent — s nouvelles, all the evils I had suffered rose up again before my eyes in a hundred new shapes. J.-J. Rousseau. 9 fig. (ours de style) form. Les — s oratoires, the oratorical forms. 10 fig. (mode particulier) form. Changer la — du gouvernement, to change the form of government. 11 (manière dont une chose est ou peut être faite) form. Donner au récit d'un voyage la — d'un journal, to give the form of a journal to a narration of travels. Cela pêche par la —, that is defective in the form. absol. La couleur et la — sont à l'ordre du jour, colour and form are all the fashion. Court. Je lui ai dit cela par — d'avis, I said that to him by way of advice. 12 (particul.) (certains actes) form. La — d'un acte, the form of an act. 13 (manière d'agir) form, way, course. Rechercher une fille dans les — s, en faire la demande en —, to court a girl in the usual form, to ask her in marriage in the usual forms. Faire le procès à quelqu'un dans les — s, to call a person to a thorough account. — s légales, legal forms. Défaut de —, defect in the form. En la — accoutumée, in the usual form. Sans autre — de procès.

sans aucune — de procès, without further formality. Le loup l'emporte et puis le mange, sans autre — de procès, the wolf carries it off and then eats it without further ceremony. La Font. 2601. J'ai d'ailleurs sauvé l'honneur des — s, besides I have adhered strictly to ceremony. Jacq. Pour la —, for form's sake, for fashion's sake. Faire à quelqu'un une visite pour la —, to pay a person a visit for form's sake. J'ai dit cela pour la —, I said that for form's sake. 14 absol. lav. (in opposition with fond) form. La — emporte le foud, the matter is disguised by the form. 15 — s, pl. façons de s'exprimer, d'agir, forms. Il a des — un peu rudes, mais c'est un excellent homme, he has rough ways with him, but he is an excellent man. absol. polite manners. Avoir des —, to be polite. 16 tech. (modèle d'un chapeau, of a hat) block, d'un soulier, of a shoe last, — brisée, stichers, 17 (d'un chapeau d'homme, of a hat; d'un chapeau de femme, of a bonnet; d'un soulier, of a shoe) shape, 18 print. form, thuse, 19 station mould, 20 tech. (banc garni d'étoffe et rembourré) form, scut, 21 (stalles du chœur) stall, 22 built. Un lièvre en —, a hare in her form. 23 naut. dock, 24 vet. spavin.

FORME, ppa. of FORMER, fem. — E, 1 formed, composed, 2 (façonner) formed. Avoir un goût —, to have one's taste formed, 3 (qui a pris forme) Avoir la taille bien —, to be well-shaped.

FORMEL, for-mayl, adj. m. fem. — LE, 1 formal, express, explicit. Paroles — les, verbes — s, formal words, terms. Le texte — de la loi, the precise text of the law. 2 anc. philos. Cause — le, formal cause.

FORMELEMMENT, for-mayl-mang, adv. 1 formally, explicitly, expressly, positively. Nier —, to deny positively. 2 anc. philos. formally.

FORMER, for-may, ra. (Lat. formare) 1 to form, to make. Dieu a formé l'homme à son image, God made man after his own image. Dites-moi qui a formé le monde? tell me who created the world? Barb. 2 (faire, produire) to form, to make, to complete. Les eaux avaient formé un ravin profond, the waters had formed a deep ravine. Ils formèrent le cercle autour de lui, they formed a circle round him. Notre régiment forma aussitôt le carré, our regiment immediately formed into a square. Nous commençâmes à — des danses, we began to make up dances. Le Sage. — un son, to form a sound. — une voix articulée, to utter an articulated sound. Les vaincus ne formaient plus qu'un peuple avec les vainqueurs, the conquered and the conquerors were blended into one people. Cette immense plaine d'eau que le lac forme au sein des Alpes, that immense sheet of water formed by the lake in the bosom of the Alps. J.-J. ROUSS. Les arbres formaient un berceau de cinq pieds de haut, the trees formed a bower five feet high. Volt. Ces deux objets forment un contraste frappant, those two objects form a striking contrast. 3 gram. (particul., des mots, of words) to form. — (fabriquer, etc.) to form, to make, to fashion, to shape. Glycère en formait une couronne, G. made it into a crown. Barb. — no triangle, to form a triangle. — un noëud, to make a knot. fig. — des nœuds, des liens, etc., to form ties. — (concevoir dans son esprit) to form, to frame, to devise. C. ne laissa pas à la jeunesse le temps de — des desseins, C. did not leave the mobility time la frame designs. Montesq. des vœux, des souhaits, des desirs, to form wishes. Il semblait n'avoir pas de vœux —, he seemed to have nothing to wish for. Barb. 6 (proposer) to form, to raise, to start. — une objection, to raise an objection. — une difficulté, to start a difficulty.

— opposition à un jugement rendu par défaut, to form an opposition to a judgment delivered in default. 7 (organiser) to form, to institute. — un bataillon, un escadron, un corps d'armée, to form a battalion, a squadron, an army in body, a corps d'armée. — une société, une académie, to form a society, to institute an academy. — un complot, to hatch a plot. — un siège, to lay siege. — une entreprise, to plan an undertaking. 8 (instruire, façonner) to form, to train up, to improve. Je mets à les — mon étude et mes soins, I devote my whole care and study to forming them. Rac. Il eut soin de me — l'esprit, he took care to improve my mind. Le Sage. C'est l'expérience qui forme les hommes, it is experience that forms men. — des soldats, des marins, to train soldiers, seamen. Une petite journée comme celle-ci forme bien un ambassadeur, a day's work like this is excellent in forming an ambassador. Beaum. 9 (du goût, du style, of the taste, of style) to form.

SE FORMER, vpr. 1 to be formed. Un orage se formait derrière nous, a storm was brewing, was gathering behind us. Un lac s'est formé tout à coup dans ce lieu, a lake suddenly appeared on that spot. Des rassemblements se formerent, mobs gathered together. Se — des chimères, to raise chimeras to one's self. Je craignais de m'être formé par le passé des opinions lévérales, I was afraid I had preconceived rash opinions. Nod. Une amitié qui a été promptement à se —, a friendship of rapid growth. La plupart des villes se formèrent en république, most of the towns erected themselves into republics. Volt. 2 (des mots, of words; des idées, etc., of thoughts) to be formed. 3 (se façonner) to be formed, to improve. N'est-ce pas que je me forme? am I not improving? Mercur. C'est ainsi que se forma Machiavel, it was thus that M. was formed. Vileau. 4 (prendre une forme plus parfaite) to take, to assume a form, to be formed. Les traits de son visage commencent à se —, his features begin to be formed. Sa taille se forme, her waist is taking a shape. 5 mil. to form, to draw up. Les soldats s'étaient formés sur six rangs, the soldiers had formed in six ranks. Nerim.

FORMICAIRE, for-me-kay, adj. nf. (Lat. formica, 1 cat. ant-like. 2 ant-drawing)

FORMICA-LEO, sm. See FORMIC-LEON.

FORMICANT, for-me-kang, adj. m. med. Puits —, formicating pulse.

FORMIDABLE, for-me-lah, adj. mf. (Lat. formidabilis) formidable, dreadful, terrible.

FORMIER, for-may, sm. last-maker.

FORMEUR, for-muy, ra. ven. to forward moulding.

FORMULAIRE, for-mu-layr, sm. 1

formulaire, 2 platary, formula.

FORMULE, fur-mul, sf. (Lat. formula) 1 formula, formule, formulaire, form.

La — d'un acte, the formula of a deed.

— de serment, the form of an oath.

— de droit, formula of law. Dicter une — d'apostrophe, to dictate a communion.

Je laçai à haute voix la — de, I pronounced aloud the formula of, Nod.

d'algebre, algebre, formula of, Nod.

(by extension) Il était parvenu à s'exprimer par des — s absolues, he had contrived to express himself in absolute formulas. Nod. 2 med. formula, prescription. 3 (certaines façons de s'exprimer) form, formula. — s de politesse, form, formula, formulas of politeness.

FORMULER, fur-mu-lay, ra. 1 med.

to draw up, to prescribe (un ordonnance, a prescription), 2 law, — un acte, un jugement, etc., to draw up a deed, a judgment in due form. 3 (by extension) to state, to express (ses idées, one's ideas).

Formulez vos griefs, je suis prêt à repondre, state your grievances, I am ready to answer. Barb. 4 math. to reduce to a formula.

FORNICATEUR, for-ne-kat-ur, sm.

fem. FORNICATRICE, fornicator, fornicatress.

FORNICATION, for-ne-kah-syong, sf.

(Lat.) fornication.

FORNIQUER, for-ne-kay, ra. to forni-cote.

FORPAITER, for-paytr, FORPAI-

SEIL, for-pay-say, en. ven. to feed far away from the cohort.

FORs, for, prep. absol. except, save,

but. Ils ont tous été sauvés. — un ou deux, they were all saved, except one or two. Tout se tait — les gardes, every thing is silent, save the guards. Muss.

Tout est perdu — l'honneur, every thing but honour is lost.

FOISENANT, fors-nang, adj. m. hunt.

eager, hot.

FOIT, for, adj. m. fem. — E, (Lat.

fortis) 1 strong. Un homme grand et —, a tall strong man. Un oiseau qui a l'aile —, a bird with a strong wing.

Avoir le bras —, la main —, les reins

— s, to have a strong arm, a strong hand, strong loins. Être d'une — constitution, to be of a strong constitution. prov.

C'est un homme — comme un Turc, he is as strong as a horse. 2 (épais de taille) strong, stout, vigorous, large. Un

— cheval, a big horse. (by analogy)

Avoir la jambe —, la main —, to have a stout leg, a large hand. 3 (des choses, of things) strong, heavy. De — es mu-raillies, strong walls. De la vaisselle d'argent extrêmement —, extremely heavy plate. Collee —, See COFFRE. 4 (des effets, etc., of stuffs, etc.) strong. Terre —, heavy soil. Colle —, glue. 5

(des villes, etc., of towns) strong, fortified. Ville —, fortified town. Place

—, a strong place, a stronghold. (des troupes, of troops) strong. 6 (des biés, des bois, etc., of corn, woods) strong, thick. 7 (qui a atteint un certain développement) strong, forward, stout. Ses petits étaient déjà — s, her little ones were already stout. La Font. Avant que la nitée se trouvât assez — e encore, before the brood was yet strong enough. La

Font. 8 (rude) hard, difficult. Ce cheval à la bouche —, that horse has a hard mouth, is hard-mouthed. prov. Le plus en est fait, the worst is over; the neck of it is broken. prov. La jeunesse est

— e à passer, youth is a critical season of life. 9 fig. (considérable dans son genre) considerable, great, large. Une

— e somme, a large sum. Une dépense

— e, heavy expenses. C'est une — e maison, on y fait beaucoup de dépense, it is a large establishment, the expenses are very great in it. De — études, severe studies. Lamart. Poids —, heavy weight, overweight. Mesure — e, good, full measure. Vux — e, strong, loud voice. Un plat —, très —, a copious dish. 10 fig.

(impétueux, grand) heavy, strong, high, hard, severe, serious. — e pluie, heavy rain. Gelée — e, hard frost. Il a fait une — e maladie, he has had a severe illness. — douleur, violent pain. Un pouls — et élevé, a strong high pulse.

Le coup de tonnerre lui si — que, the clap of thunder was so loud that. Méde-cine trop — e, too powerful a medicine. Le courant de cette rivière est très —, the current of that river is very strong. Nous avons en tous les jours une belle mais — e mer, we had every day a smooth but heavy sea. Lamart. Les bruits étaient si — s que, the noise became so loud that. La-

Font. (des choses morales, of moral things) strong, violent. Vous avez besoin d'émotions — s et profondes. Barb. Cela est plus — que moi, I cannot help it. 11 fig.

(sur le goût, sur l'odorat) strong. Liqueurs — es, strong liquors. Bière —, strong beer. Jamais les parfums de la plante n'avaient été plus —, never had the plant emitted a stronger perfume. Saint. Le tabac est trop —, this tobacco is too strong. Eau —, eau-fortis. See EAU. 12 fig. (particul.) (Acres) strong. Du beurre —, strong butter. Avoir l'haleine —, to have a strong breath. 13 fig. (d'un liquide, d'une couleur, etc.) of a liquid, of a colour, etc. strong, deep. Ce café n'est pas assez —, this coffee is not strong enough. Des teintes plus —es, deeper tints. 14 fig. Nourriture, alimentation —, strong food. 15 (poissans) strong, powerful. Son âme est plus —e que la joie et la douleur, his soul is proof against both joy and grief. Barth. Main —, See MAIN. 16 (bien fond) strong, cogent. Cette objection est —e et solide, this objection is strong and solid. J.-J. Rouss. Mes —es pensées, my earnest thoughts. Lamart. A plus —e raison, with greater reason. — with so much the more reason; — fortiori. 17 (du style, of style) strong, vigorous, impressive, forcible. Ses paroles douces et —es, his words were sweet and strong. — et expressive words carried away the hearts. Fern. 18 fig. (des termes, des expressions, etc., of expressions) strong, emphatic, harsh. Ce discours au peu — doit commencer à vous déplaire, this plain language must begin to displease you. La Font. L'épithète est —e, that is a strong epithet. Ce que vous dites là est au peu —, what you say is a little harsh. Cela est —, parait —, voilà qui est —, that is going too far, that is coming it rather strong. 19 fig. (habile) skilful, clever. Un élève — sur l'histoire, a pupil well read in history. Etre — sur le piano, the harp; aux échecs, au piquet, at chess, at piquet. D'autres savants encore plus — prétendent que, others still more learned pretend that. Th. Gaut. Jam. Il n'est pas —, he is not very clever, he is no great shakes. Les —es têtes du Conseil s'opposaient, the best heads of the Council smited. Mich. La raison la plus —e y succomberait, the strongest intellect would give way. Saint. Un esprit —, a free-thinker. Faire l'esprit — to set up for a free-thinker. (disparagingly) Etre — pour parler, pour pérorer, to be always ready to talk, to have plenty of tongue. 20 fig. (courageux, magnanime) strong, magnanimous, lofty. firm. La femme — de l'Ecriture, the strong woman of the Bible. Son âme était trop —e pour connaître l'envie, she had too lofty a soul to be acquainted with envy. Lamart. Je ne sais point être —e contre une tendresse si juste et si naturelle, I cannot resist tenderness so just and so natural. M^{me} de Sév. Se faire —, to undertake, to guarantee. Se porter — pour quelqu'un, to answer for a person. 21 — de, — en, strong in. Etre — des reins, to be strong in the loins. Une armée — en infanterie, — d'infanterie, an army strong in/infantry. fig. Etre — de raison, to be strong in reason, to reason forcibly. Le roi, — de mon silence, hâssa la voix d'un ton, the king, encouraged by my silence, spoke in a louder key. Ah. Etre — de sa conscience, to be strong in the support of one's conscience. Un martyr — de sa doctrine, a martyr strong in his doctrines. Mich. Un écuyer — en thèmes, a scholar who is clever in exercises. prov. par. Etre — en gueule, to have plenty of tongue.

FOR, sm. 1 strong person. Protéger le faible contre le —, to protect the weak against the strong. Les —s de la halle, market-porters. 2 l'endroit le plus fort d'une chose, strongest part, side. Le — de la bouteille, the bias of the bowl. 3 (d'un bois) thickest. 4 bent. hold. Récuser une bête dans son —, to rouse a beast in its hold. (by extension) Pour mener dans son — les brebis, to take the sheep in his den. La Font. 5 fig. (la partie la plus considérable) the greatest part, the best part. Le — de la dépense est fait, the greatest part of the expenses has already been incurred. Nous avons fait le plus — du chemin, we have gone over the greatest part of the way. 6 fig. (en quoi quelqu'un excelle) forte, skill. C'était justement le — de S., that was exactly S.'s forte. Le Sage. Il excelle dans les pièces satiriques, voilà son —, he excels in satire, in which indeed lies his principal strength. Le Sage. (by analogy) Connaître le — et le faible d'une affaire, d'un art; — au faible, See FAIBLE. 7 fig. (plus haut degré) height, depth. Point de glace dans le — de l'été, no ice in the height of summer. Boil. — de la tempête, in the height of the storm. Au plus — de la guerre, in the midst of the war. Il est dans le — de sa maladie, he is in the height of his illness. Le plus — de sa sève est épuisé, the best part of his vigour is exhausted. St-B. Au — de ses lachetés, il ne laissait pas de parler comme, in the midst of his cowardly acts, he nevertheless spoke as if. St-B. 8 mil. fort, strong-hold.

FOR, adv. 1 hard, vigorously, loud. 2 (extrêmement) exceedingly, extremely, fast, hard, a great deal, much, very. Il pleut —, it rains fast. Il gèle —, it freezes hard. Elle m'embarrassa —, she extremely embarrassed me. M^{me} de Sév. J'avais assurément été — agréable durant ce temps, I had certainly been very agreeable during that time. M^{me} de Sév. Elle était — absolue, she was extremely absolute. Bar. Je le croyais si — de mes amis, que, I thought he was so much my friend that. Montesq. Nier — et ferme, to deny flatly.

FOIRTE, for-té, adv. (It.) 1 mos. forte. 2 sm. music. forte.

FORTE-PIANO, sm. mus. piano-forte. FORTENEMENT, for-tuh-niàng, adv. 1 strongly, vigorously, firmly. 2 fig. forcibly, vigorously, strongly. Penser —, to think vigorously. Volt. Je dois travailler —, I must work hard. Volt.

FORTERESSE, for-tress, sf. fortress, stronghold. fig. La France entière n'est plus qu'une —, qui, the whole of F. is no longer but a fortress, which. Boss.

FORTIFIANT, for-te-lyàng, ppr. of fortifier, adj. m. fem. —, 1 strengthening, invigorating. 2 sm. tonic.

FORTIFICATION, for-te-fe-kah-syong, sf. 1 fortification. Abattre, raser les —s, to throw down, to rase the fortifications. 2 (l'art) fortifying, fortification. 3 (l'action) fortification.

FORTIFIÉ, ppa of fortifier, fem. —, 1 fortified, strengthened, invigorated. Il se réjouit de se sentir — par le sommeil, he rejoiced at feeling himself invigorated by sleep. Méry. Un beau naturel — par l'éducation, fine natural parts fortified by education. Volt. Les paroles ne signifient rien si elles ne sont —es par les armes, words signify nothing unless supported by arms. St-B. 2 mil. fortified.

FORTIFIER, for-te-lyay, va. NOUS FORTIFIONS. VOUS FORTIFIEZ. 1 to fortify, to strengthen, to invigorate. Le bon vin fortifie l'estomac, good wine strengthens the stomach. (morally) to strengthen, to fortify. Le temps qui fortifie les amitiés, affaiblit l'amour, time which strengthens friendship, weakens love. La Bruy. Ce voisinage lui offrit l'occasion de — sa passion pour le théâtre, this neighbourhood offered an additional stimulus to his passion for the theatre. St-B. Elle ne pouvait manquer de — près du roi le parti de M., she could not fail strengthening the party of M. in the king's mind. Mich. — une accusation, to add weight to an accusation. Il fallait — ce prince dans la résolution de soutenir la grève, it was necessary to confirm this prince in his resolution of continuing the war. Volt. 2 point. — les teintes, to strengthen the colours; les ombres et les touches, the shades. 3 (muni de fortification) to fortify (une ville, une place, un poste, an château, a town, a place, a post, a castle). — un camp, to fortify a camp.

se FORTIFIER, rpr. 1 to gather strength, to get, to grow strong, to get, to acquire strength, to be strengthened, fortified. Le corps se fortifie, the body acquires strength. Buff. fig. Le génie et le commerce se fortifient toujours quand on les encourage, genius and commerce always increase by encouragement. Volt. Le parti patriote se fortifia par degrés, the patriotic party gradually acquired strength. Aug. Th. Se — dans la vertu, dans sa résolution, to be strengthened in virtue, to be confirmed in one's resolution. 2 mil. Se — dans un poste, to fortify one's self in a post.

FORTIN, for-tang, sm. dimin. of fort, fortified, little fort.

FORTIOR, (A.) for-tyo-ree, (Lat.) a fortiori, so much the more, with stronger reason.

FORTITRER, for-te-tray, vr. hunt. Le cerf a fortité deux fois, the stag has twice shunned the place where dogs are laid.

FORTRAITRE, for-tray, adj. m. fem. —, e, mason, overworked.

FORTRAITURE, for-tray-tur, sf. mason, overworking.

FORTUIT, for-tue, adj. m. fem. —, e, (Lat. fortuitus) fortuitous, casual, chance. Evénement —, casual event. Rencontre —, a chance meeting. Cette guerre —, that fortuitous war. Mich.

FORTUITEMENT, for-tuet-màng, adv. fortuitously, casually, accidentally, by chance.

FORTUNE, for-tûn, sf. (Lat. fortuna) 1 fortune, chance, risk. La — des armes, the fortune of war. Il court — d'être un jour riche, he stands a chance of being rich one day. Courir — de la vie, to run the risk of one's life. Courir la — du pot, to take pot-luck. A la — du pot, we must take our chance. Elles daignaient danser chez nous à la — de leurs souliers, they were pleased to dance with us, regardless of luxury and comfort. A. Houss. Bonne —, good luck, a piece of good luck; il good fortune. Un homme à honnes —s, a lady-lucky, a man of intrigue. Tenter —, to try one's fortune. Certain esprit de liberté aime à chercher —, a certain independent spirit sends them forth in quest of fortune. La Font. 2 (bonheur) luck, good luck. Il est en —, il gagne ce qu'il veut, he is in luck, he wins what he will. Au mot du guet, que de notre long avait entendu, this catch-word which by chance stre wif had overheard. La Font. 3 (malheur) misfortune, peril, danger, risk. Dieu vous préserve de mal et de —, God preserve you from evil and danger. law. A ses risques, périls et —, at one's risk and peril. 4 naut. — de mer, perils of the sea, dangers and accidents of the sea. Voile de —, cross-jack-sail, square-sail. Mâts, vergues, etc. de —, jury-masts, cross-jack-sail yard. 5 (ce qui arrive on peut arriver) fortune, luck, chance. Nous courons tous deux même —, we both row in the same boat. S'attaquer à la — de quelqu'un, to strive —, to follow the fortunes of a person. On se battit avec le même courage et la même —, they fought with the same courage and the same success. Volt. Il a éprouvé l'une et l'autre —, he has experienced both good and ill fortune. O mort! viens ôrir ma — cruelle ou death! come and put an end to my cruel fate! La Font. (des choses, of things) fortune, fate. La — des États, des empires, the fortunes of states, of empires. Cette doctrine a eu des — très-diverses, that doctrine has had very chequered fortunes. Revers de —, reverse of fortune. Retour de —, turn of fortune, rizicidale. 6 (la bonne, l'heureuse chance de quelqu'un) good fortune, good luck, success. Cette rapidité de — qui avait accompagné les Français, the rapid success which had attended the French. Volt. (des choses, of things) fortune, fortune, good fortune. Il s'élève dépendant un homme qui devait rassurer la — de la France, there however rose up a man who was to restore the fortunes of F. Volt. Ouvrez, c'est la — de la France, open, it is the fortune of France. 7 (avancement) fortune. Parvenir à une haute —, to attain to a high degree of fortune. (by analogy) Avancer sa —, to advance one's fortune. Jeunesse de prince, source de belles —s, the youth of princes is the source of fine fortunes. La Bruy. Une de ces —s subites qui étonnent tout le monde, one of those sudden fortunes which astonish every body. Le Sage. Vous voyez qu'il (le Vésuve) a fait une jolie — depuis que vous n'avez ouï parler de lui, you see it has risen in the world since you last heard of it. De Bross. Homme de —, soldier de —, officer de —, man, soldier, officer of fortune. Faire —, to have great success. Les biens de la —, the gifts of fortune. prov. fig. Chacun est artiste de sa —, every man is the architect of his own fortune. 8 (état, la condition) fortune, lot, condition. Ai-je donc si haut place votre —, have I raised your fortune so high. Rac. 9 (biens, richesses) fortune, wealth. Un homme sans —, a man of no fortune. Laisser de la — à ses enfants, to leave a fortune to one's children. Quittant d'un œil mari sa — ainsi repandue, turning her sorrowful looks away from her wasted substance. La Font. Une — de cent mille francs de rente, a fortune of a hundred thousand francs income. J'ai dix francs dans ma bourse, c'est toute ma —, voilà toute ma —, c'est la toute ma —, I have ten francs in my purse, it is all my fortune. L., qui n'avait point d'argent, mais qui avait toutes les —s de la beauté, de la jeunesse, de l'esprit et de la vertu, L. who had no money, but who had all the endowments of beauty, youth, wit and virtue. A. Houss. 10 myth. fortune. fig. Les caresses, les faveurs de la —, the smiles of fortune. Quand la — nous favorise, when fortune smiles upon us. Être maltraité de la —, to endure the frowns of fortune. Les jeux, les caprices de la —, the tricks, the caprices of fortune. Brusquer la —, to tempt fortune. prov. fig. Attacher un clo à la roue de la —, to fix the wheel of fortune.

FORTUNÉ, for-tu-né, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 fortunale, happy. 2 qui donne le bonheur) happy. Union —e, happy union. Siècle —, happy age. 3 geog. lies —es, Fortunate Islands.

FORUM, for-um, sm. (Lat. forum) fig. Le journalisme, ce — universel et quotidien des passions du peuple, journalism, that universal and daily forum of the passions of the multitude. Lamart.

FORURE, for-rûr, sf. tech. bore.

FOSSE, fôs, sf. (Lat. fossa) 1 pit, hole. Daniel fut jeté dans la — aux lions, D. was thrown into the lions' den. Faire une — d'asperges, to make a trench for asparagus. — à fumer, dung hole. — à chaux, lime pit. — d'aisances, cess-pool. Basse- —, dungeon. 2 (particul.) (d'un mort, of a dead body) grave. Mettre un corps dans la —, to lay a body in the grave. fig. Être sur le bord de la —, avoir un pied dans la —, to have already one foot in the grave. fig. Un pied dans la — et de l'autre faisant des gambades, one foot in the grave, and the other kicking about. Volt. fig. Creuser sa —, to dig one's own grave. prov. fig. Mettre la clef sur la —, to waive one's right of inheritance. 3 anat. chamber. —s nasales, nasal chambers. 4 nat. — marine, creek, small haven. — aux mâts, mast-pond, place where masts are kept in salt water in a dock. — aux câbles, cable-stake.

FOSSE, fo-say, sm. ditch, trench, moat. — à fond de cuve, a ditch broader and broader from bottom to top. — revêtu, a ditch lined, faced. fig. Sauter le —, to pass the Rubicon, to cast the die. prov. Ce qui tombe dans le — est pour le soldat, what falls into the ditch is for the soldier. prov. Au bout du — la culture, a short life and a merry one.

FOSSETTE, fo-set, sf. 1 chuck-hole, chuck-pit, chuck-farthing. 2 dimple. Un menton à —s, a dimpled chin.

FOSILLE, fo-sel, adj. mf. 1 nat. hist. fossil. Du charbon —, du sel —, fossil coal, salt. Ivroie —, fossil ivory. 2 sm. fossil.

FOSSOYAGE, fo-swâ-yazh, sm. grave-digging.

FOSSOYER, fo-swâ-yaz, ra. to ditch. Faire — un pré, un champ, to have a ditch dug round a meadow, a field. Des ravins que la pioche avait fossoyés d'avantage, ravines that had been made still deeper by the pickaxe. Lamart.

FOSSOYER, fo-swâ-yuhr, sm. grave-digger, sexton. fig. Les années, ces —s invisibles, years, those invisible grave-diggers. Th. Gaut.

FOU, foo, FOL, ful, adj. m. fem. FOLLE, 1 mad, insane, distracted. Devenir —, to run mad, to become insane. Être — à lier, to be raving mad, to be stark mad. (hyperb.) Le parterre est — on ivre, ou plutôt tous les deux à la fois, the spectators in the pit are either stupid or tipsy, or rather stupid and tipsy. De Bross. Êtes vous — de faire une pareille demande? are you mad to ask me such a question? Chien —, a mad dog. fig. Être fait comme un chien —, to be ridiculously dressed, to have one's dress all in disorder. fig. Être — d'une personne, d'une chose, to be passionately fond of a person, of a thing. Cette mère est folle de ses enfants, that mother dotes on her children. prov. (hyperb.) Il m'a pensé faire devenir —, he has nearly driven me mad. 2 (simple, crédule) foolish. Que les poètes dramatiques sont —s de tuer vanité de leurs pièces! how foolish dramatic poets are, to be vain of their pieces! Le Sage. Est bien — de cerveau qui prétend, etc., he is very mad-brained who pretends, etc. La Font. 3 (des choses, of things) foolish, senseless, wild, extravagant. Fol espoir, foolish hope. Folle entreprise, senseless undertaking. Il abuse de la folle défiance qu'on a pour lui, he abuses the foolish deference observed towards him. La Bruy. Le projet était sage, mais l'exécution fu folle, the project was a wise one, but it was foolishly executed. Rayn. law. Folle enchère, See ENCHÈRE. 4 bot. Folle avoine, barren oats. 5 (excessif) excessive, prodigious. Il y avait aux courses un monde —, there was a prodigious concourse of people at the races. Il a dépensé un argent — dans cette propriété, he has laid out most extravagant sums on that property. — rire, immoderate laughter. Avoir un mal de tête —, to have a distracting headache. Folle farine, mill-dust. 6 (extrêmement gai) wanton, playful, frolicsome. Que vous êtes —! what a madcap you are! C'est une tête folle, he, she is a giddy-pated thing. Être d'une gaieté folle, to be full of fun.

FOU, sm. fem. FOLLE, 1 madman, the lunatic, m. madwoman, f. Il était plus — que les —s, he was madder than the madmen themselves. La Font. Un — furieux, a man raving mad. Un — à lier, a man stark mad. prov. Tête de — ne blanchit pas, folly has no cores that turn the hair gray. 2 (qui fait, qui dit des extravagances, etc.) madcap, mad brain, fool. C'est on —, un grand —, un vrai —, un — siffle, he is a madcap, quite a madcap, a regular madcap. Tais-tu! malice —, hold your tongue, you fool. Faire le —, to fool, to play the fool. prov. Il y a plus de —s que de sages, there are more fools than wise men. Plus on est de —s, plus on rit, the more the merrier. 3 (bouffon) fool, buffoon, jester. Faire le —, to play the fool. 4 chess. Bishop. 5 orn. gunnet, booby.

FOUACE, fwass, sf. fowace, hearth-cake.

FOUAGE, fwazh, sm. feud. fumage, hearth-money.

FOUAILLE, fwâ-yuh, sf. veu. quarry, reward.

FOUAILLER, fwâ-yaz, ra. to flog, to lash, to whip.

FOUDRE, foolr, sf. (Lat. fulgur) 1 thunder, thunderbolt, lightning. Un coup de —, a clap of thunder, a thunder-clap. La — sillonne les nues, the lightning flashes through the clouds. La — qui fut tombée à mes yeux ne m'eût pas causé plus d'effroi, a thunderbolt fallen at my feet would not have inspired me with greater terror. Chat. Nous avons vu la — serpenter au-dessous de nous, we have seen the forked lightning below our feet. Barth. Être adu lui frappé, touché de la —, to be struck with lightning. 2 metric. (souvent masc.) thunder, thunderbolt. Il lance un —, he utters a certain people perforce, he directs a thunderbolt forthwith upon a certain perfidious nation. La Font. (by extension) poetic. Les —s de la guerre, the thunderbolts of war. (hyperb.) Comme la —, avec la rapidité de la —, like a flash of lightning. Il s'élance avec la rapidité de la —, he rushes forward with the rapidity of lightning. fig. Coup de —, thunderstroke, thunderbolt. Cette nouvelle fut pour lui un coup de —, that news was a thunderstroke for him. (masc.) fig. — de guerre, grand — de guerre, thunderbolt of war. Je suis donc un — de guerre, I am then a thunderbolt of war. La Font. A. n'était pas un — de guerre, A. was not a doughty warrior. St-B. (by analogy) Vain — de parade oubliés de l'armée, vain heroes of parade, forgotten by the army. V. Hug. Un — d'éloquence, a very eloquent orator. 3 fig. (du courroux de Dieu, d'un souverain, etc.) thunder. 4 fig. Les —s de l'excommunication, the thunders of excommunication. Les —s de l'Eglise, the thunders of the Church. Les —s de l'éloquence, the thunders of eloquence. (by analogy) M. s'emparant de l'idée et la mettait en situation en lit un — oratoire, M. laying hold of the idea worked it up into an overwhelming burst of eloquence. St-B. 5 sm. (representation) thunderbolt. Un aigle tenant un — dans ses serres, an eagle holding a thunderbolt in its talons.

FOUDRE, sm. (Ger. fuder) tun.

FOUDROIEMENT, foo-drwâ-mâng, sm. thunder-striking, striking with the thunder.

FOUDROYANT, foo-drwâ-yâng, ppr. of FOUROYER, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 thunder-striking. Jupiter —, the Thunderer. 2 fig. (qui frappe avec la rapidité de la foudre) thunder-striking. Epée —e, flashing, flaming sword. (by analogy) Il marcha d'une manière —e sur Vienne, he rushed like a thunderbolt towards Vienna. Thiers. Apoplexie —e, fulminating apoplexy. 3 (qui exprime un grand courroux) fulminating, withering. Avec le regard — de la malédiction, with the fulminating look of malediction. Aud. Il lui écrivit une lettre —e, he wrote him a thundering letter. 4 (qui épouvante, startling, overwhelming). Nouvelle —e, startling news. Repouse —e, confounding answer. Ces —es paroles, these crushing words. Nod.

FOUDROIER, foo-drow-ay, ra. conj. fig. like EMPLOYER, a to strike with thunder, to thunderstrike. Jupiter foudroya les Titans, Jupiter destroyed the Titans with his thunderbolts. 2 fig. (des canons, etc., of guns, etc.) to batter, to batter down (une ville, un bastion, a town, a bastion). 3 fig. to crush, to overwhelm, to confound. 4 la rébellion, to crush rebellion. — Mhérése, to confound heresy. Foudroier avec la plume divine les difficultés que je vais te proposer, let thy divine pen annihilate the difficulties I am about to propose to you. Nontesq. Cet argument le foudroya, that argument struck him dumb. Le prophète les foudroia d'un geste impérieux, the prophet crushes them to the ground with an imperious gesture. Th. Gaut. absol. Il foudroie en public, mais il est doux comme un agneau en particulier, he thunders in public, but in private he is as gentle as a lamb. Nod.

FOUEE, fway, sf. 1 bat-fowling, low-belling. 2 oven-fire.

FOUET, fway, sm. 1 whip, horse-whip. Coup de —, lash. Faire claquer son —, to crack one's whip; || fig. to sound one's own trumpet, to be one's own trumpeter. Je faisais claquer mon — tout comme un autre. Hac. D'inner un coup de —, to give a stroke with a whip, to give a lashing. fig. Coup de stimulus, spurting. fig. art. Coup de canon tiré en plein —, a cannon-batt fired horizontally. 2 nat. hist. Le — de l'aile, the tip of the wing. 3 (petite corde) whipcord, lash. 4 (pour faire tourner un sabot) whip. 5 (coups de verges) whipping. 6 (châtiment) cat, cat o' nine tails, lash, whipping.

FOUETTÉ, ppa. of fouetter, fem. —E, 4 (by extension) whipped. Crème —, See CRÈME. Des arbres —s d'un vent de glace, trees beaten by an icy wind. V. Hug. fig. Ce pays, ce canton a été — de mauvais vents, this country has been blasted by the winds. 2 fig. (des fleurs, des fruits, etc.) thinly streaked. Une tulipe —, a streaked tulip. Des joues —es de rose, cheeks with rosy streaks. Th. Gaut.

FOUETTER, fwá-tay, va. 4 to whip. — un sabot, to whip a top. fig. On fouette les chevaux et on ne veut pas que la voiture roule, when the horses are whipped, one must not be surprised that the carriage advances. Saint. prov. Et puis fouette corcher, and off we go. 2 (by extension) to lash, to cut. Fouetter les pantalons blancs du bout de leurs hussines, lashing their white trousers with the tip of their switches. Th. Gaut. Des milliers de colombes vous fouettent la figure du vent de leurs ailes, thousands of doves cut your face with the air set in motion by their wings. Th. Gaut. Les hirondines de mer fouettaient la mer de leurs ailes blanches, the sea-swallows lashed the sea with their white wings. Lamart. Sont faire attention aux branches qui lui fouettaient la figure, without taking any notice of the branches which cut her face. Mérina. V. sortit en fouettant la porte du salon. V. went out of the drawing-room-banging the door to. Balz. La neige que la bise y fouette en flocons blancs, the snow that the north wind drives there in white flakes. Lamart. fig. Ces malices qui ajoutent au piquant et fouettent le succès, these witty insinuations which add to the interest and insure success. Sic-B. — de la crème, des œufs, to whip cream, to beat up eggs. fig. Pour tirer parti des gens de ce caractère, il faut que leur — le sang, to turn to account this sort of people, you have only to stimulate them. Beaum. 3 nat. Les volles fouettent les mâts, the sails flap back against the masts. 4 (donner le fouet) to whip, to flog (un enfant, a child). (by extension) X. fit — la mer impétueuse, X. caused a lashing to be administered to the impetuous sea. Th. Gaut. prov. Il n'y a pas là de quoi — un chat, it is a mere trifle. prov. fig. Il a bien d'autres chiens à —, he has other fish to fry. fig. Les Anglais dans l'Inde ont présentement d'autres chats à —, the English have now in India some more serious occupation. Jacq. Donner des verges pour se faire —, to pickle a rod for one's own back. — FOUETTER, va. fig. 1 (de la pluie, de la grêle) to beat, to pater. (du vent, de la grêle) to cut, to be cutting. 2 (des canons, of guns) to sweep.

FOUETTEUR, fway-tuh, sm. fem. FOUETTEUSE, whipper, flogger.

FOUGASSE, foo-gass, sf. war. fougade, fougasse

FOUGER, foo-zhay, va. hunt. to grub, to root.

FOUGERE, foo-zhay, sf. 1 fern. Lieu plein de —, a ferny place, a brake. Danser sur la —, to dance on the fern. Des verres de —, glasses. 2 absol. (particul.) drinking-glass. 3 —s, pl. bot. ferns.

FOUGUE, foo-guh, sf. 1 (mouvement violent et impétueux) fury, transport, passion. Des —s de colère brutale, bursts of British rage. Aug. Th. Conservant le sang-froid dans la —, being cool in the midst of passion. Lamart. Les humeurs étaient en —, the humours were in a state of fermentation. Le Sage. Quand la — est passée, when the fit of passion is over. 2 (ardeur) ardour, fire, heat, impetuosity, mettle, spirit, spiritedness. La — de la jeunesse, the fire of youth. Dompter la — de son caractère, to tame one's fiery temper. Voltaire. Un cheval qui a trop de —, a horse that has too much mettle. Les —s de la jeunesse, the wildness, the impetuosity of youth. 3 (particul.) (enthousiasme) fire, spirit. Ceci nous paraît de passer un peu les bornes de la — et de l'entrain, this seems to us to go beyond the limits of enthusiasm and energy. Th. Gaut. 4 nat. Mât de —, vergue de —, perroquet de —, etc., mizen top-mast, cross-jack-yard.

FOUGUEUX, foo-guh, adj. m. fem. FOUGUEUSE, furious, fiery, impetuous, wild, ardent, headlong, unruly. Cet homme est extrêmement —, he is a very fiery man. Cheval —, spirited, mettlesome horse. Esprit —, fiery mind. Passion fougueuse, virulent passion.

FOUILLE, foo-yuh, sf. excavation, digging. Faire une —, des —s, to dig.

FOUILLE, ppa. of fouiller, fem. —E, 4 searched. (by extension) J'ai payé d'audace, je n'ai point été —, I put on a bold face, I was not searched. Le Sage. 2 sunk. Une antique échouée récemment — par le ciseau du sculpteur, an antique chimney-piece richly sunk by the chisel of the sculptor. Lamart. Son visage comme — et formé de plans successifs, his face sunk as it were and formed on successive grounds. Sic-B. Les détails sont moins —s que chez B., the details are less minute than at B.'s. Sic-B. Cette draperie est bien —e, that drapery has rich folds.

FOUILLER, foo-yay, va. 1 to ransack, to rummage, to dig, to excavate, to search. — la terre, to dig the earth. — des mines d'or, d'argent, to work gold, silver mines. Il a fouillé le sol jusque dans ses entrailles, he dug the earth down to its bowels. Saint. (by extension) En vain il a des mers fouillé la pralmeur, in vain has he sounded the depths of the abyss. Moss. (by extension) Quelqu'un, to search a person. Ils n'avaient fouillé personne, they had searched nobody. Ab. (by analogy) Elle se mit à — le tiroir de la commode avec beaucoup d'avidité, she began eagerly to ransack the drawer in the chest of drawers. Th. Gaut. fig.

— une bibliothèque, to search through a library. (by extension) mil. — un baïs, to search a wood. (by analogy) Pour trouver ce phénix, les marchands d'esclaves fouillent plusieurs mois d'avance la G., to find this phoenix, the slave-merchants explore G. several months beforehand. Th. Gaut. 2 sculpt. point, to sink (le marbre, marble). 3 fig. (secuter) to pry into, to explore. Ces hommes dans la vaste science a fouillé la nature, those men whose vast learning has explored nature. Boil.

FOUILLE, vn. 4 to dig. — dans un champ, to dig in a field. — dans la terre, to dig into the earth. La taupe a fouillé la —, the mole has been digging there. 2 (chercher quelque chose en remuant, etc.) to search, to rummage, to ransack. — dans une armoire, to search in a cupboard. — au fond du coffre, jusqu'au fond du coffre, to search to the bottom of the trunk. Tenant la cassette d'une main et y fouillant de l'autre, holding the casket in one hand and searching in it with the other. Saint. — dans sa poche dans sa bourse, etc., to feel in one's pocket, in one's purse, etc. C'est ce coup qu'il faut — l'escarcelle, now is the time to loose the purse-strings. La Font. E. fouilla dans sa poche et n'y trouva rien. E. searched his pocket and found nothing in it. Balz. 3 fig. (rechercher curieusement) to search (into), to dive (into). — dans de vieilles chroniques, to ransack old chronicles. — dans l'histoire, to turn over the leaves of history. — dans les secrets de la nature, to pry into the secrets of nature. — dans le passé, dans l'avenir, to dive into the past, into futurity. — dans sa mémoire, to ransack one's memory. — dans les coeurs, to search the hearts.

FOUILLE-AC-POT, sm. pl. FOUILLE-AC-POT, pop. scullion.

SE FOUILLER, 1 ppr. to feel in one's pockets, to search one's pockets. 2 recip. to search each other.

FOUILLIS, foo-yee, sm. mess, confusion, litter. Ce charmant — d'ornementation, that charming complicated mass of ornamentation. Th. Gaut. Des pistolets dont la crosse disparaissait sous des — de perles, pistols the butt-ends of which were buried under a confused mass of pearls. Th. Gaut.

FOUINE, fwéen, sf. 1 zool. pole-cat. 2 (pour élever les gerbes) fork, pitch-fork. 3 (pour percer de gros poissons) fish-spear.

FOUINET, fwé-nay, ra. pop. to slink off, away.

FOIRH, fwéer, va. (de la terre, of the earth) to dig. Voyez-vous à nos pieds — incessamment cette maudite laie, do you see below this cursed sow furrowing away. La Font.

FOUISSEUR, fwé-suhr, adj. and sm. zool. digger.

FOULAGE, foo-lazh, sm. tech. furling.

FOULANT, foo-lang, ppr. of fouler, adj. m. fem. —E, Pompe —E, forcing pump.

FOULARD, foo-lar, sm. 4 (éttoffe) bandanna, bandanna. Un mouchoir de —, a silk handkerchief. Une robe de —, a foulard dress. 2 (mouchoir, etc.) silk handkerchief.

FOULE, fool, sf. 4 a crowd, throng, mob. Mille gens font la — au lever, pour être vu du prince, a thousand people crowd together at the levee, to be seen by the prince. La Bray. Se perdre, disparaître dans la —, to slip away, to disappear in the crowd. Il y a grande —, there is a great crowd. Cette pierre attire la —, that piece attracts, draws crowds. fig. Hier vous n'étiez qu'une —, vous êtes un peuple aujourd'hui, yesterday you were nothing but a mob, to-day you are a people. V. Hug. 2 (by extension) a great number, many. Je connais une — de personnes qui ont éprouvé la même chose, I know many people who have experienced the same thing. Je suis accablé par la — des pitiéurs. 1 am beset with a crowd of pitying. Barth. Une — de talents, numberless talents. Barth. Nous traversons une — de revines qui venaient à nous, we crossed a number of ravines that we met with on our road. Th. Gaut. Une — d'objets délicieux, a number of delightful objects. Barth. Avoir une — d'occupations, to have numerous occupations. 3 fig. (le vulgaire, etc.) mob, herd, common herd, the multitude, the rabble, mass. La — ignorante, incoastute, the ignorant, fickle mob. La — des génies médiocres, the common herd of ordinary talents. Volt. Se faire remarquer dans la —, to distinguish one's self from the multitude. 4 (l'action de fouler des draps, etc.) fullying. 5 (atelier) fullying-mill, fullery. 6 fig. obsol. (oppression) oppression.

EN FOULE, ade. loc. in a crowd, in crowds. Ils entrèrent, ils accoururent en —, they entered, they hastened in crowds. Les biens viennent en — dans cette maison, blessings are showered down upon that house. Les idées se présentent en — à mon esprit, ideas crowded into my mind.

FOULE, ppa. of FOULER, m. fem. —E, adjctiv. 1 Herbe —E, grass trodden down. Sous les pieds des chevaux cette reine —E, that queen trampled under the hooves. Rac. Les plaines —es par le passage des troupeaux, plains trodden down by the passage of cattle. Th. Gaut. 2 tech. fulled. Drap — fulled cloth. 3 sprained. Avoir le poignet, le pied —, to have one's wrist, one's foot sprained. 4 fig. oppressed, trodden, trampled under foot. La nation s'élève, le peuple est —, the nation is involved in debt, the people are trampled under foot. J.-J. Rouss. 5 hunt. beaten.

FOULÉ, foo-lay, sf. man. 1 appui. 2 —s, pl. hunt. foiling (of deer), slot (of a stag).

FOULER, foo-lay, va. 1 to tread upon, to press. — l'herbe, to tread upon the grass. — un lit, to press a bed. — la vendange, — des raisins pour en faire sortir le jus, to press grapes, to extract grape juice. fig. — aux pieds, to tread under foot, to trample on, to trample under foot. — aux pieds les vanités du monde, to trample under one's feet the vanities of this world. J'ai foulé sous les pieds remords, crainte, poudre, 1 trampled under foot remorse, fear, shame. Rac. Le dégoût le prit, il foula tout aux pieds, he was seized with disgust, he trampled every thing under his feet. Saint. — aux pieds les lois, to set the laws at naught. 2 poetic. to tread upon. Mon pied n'a pas foulé le seuil de la demeuré de l'homme, my foot has not crossed the threshold of mortal dwelling. Nod. Ne foule pas les morts d'un pied indifférent, do not tread upon the dead with careless footsteps. V. Hug. 3 fig. (opprimer) to trample under foot, to grind down, to ride roughshod over (le peuple the people). 4 (blesser en pressant sur) to sprain. (des personnes, of persons) to sprain. Cette chute lui a foulé le nerf, that fall has sprained his sinew. 6 tech. to tread, to fall, to mill (du cuir du drap, leather, cloth). 7 hunt. to beat a wood.

FOULER, vn. print. to press.

SE FOULER, vp. to sprain one's foot, hand, etc. Se — le pied, le poignet, to sprain one's foot, one's wrist. Dans cette chute, son poignet s'est foulé, in that fall he sprained his wrist.

FOULERIE, fool-ree, sf. fulling-mill, fullery.

FOULOIR, foo-lwâr, em. tech. beater, fulling-stick.

FOULON, foo-long, sm. fuller. Moulin à — fulling-mill. Terre à —, fuller's earth. Chardon à —, teasel, thistle head.

FOULQUE, fook, oar, cf. foot.

FOULURE, foo-lûr, sf. 1 sprain, strain. 2 tech. fulling, milling. 3 hunt. (des cerfs, of the stags) foiling, suece.

FOULX, foor, sm. 4 oven. — banal, parish oven. Le — d'un boulanger, d'un pâtissier, a baker's, a pastry-cook's oven. La bouche, la gueule du —, the mouth of an oven. Mettre le pain au —, to set in. Chauffer le —, to heat the oven. Donner le — trop chaud à du pain, à de la pâtisserie, to make the oven too hot for bread, for pastry. — de campagne, portable oven. Pièce de —, pastry, prov. pop. Il y fait non comme dans un —, it is as dark there as pitch. 2 (le lieu) bake-house. 3 (pour le plâtre, etc.) kiln. — à chaux, à plâtre, à briques, lime-kiln, pargel-kiln, brick-kiln. — de verrerie, glass-oven. 4 anc. (le lieu où l'on cachait ceux que l'on enroûait par force) dark room. 5 anc. (des comédiens, of actors) faire —, to give back the money; || to make a failure of it.

FOURBE, foorb, sf. 1 cheat, imposture, knavish trick. Ta —, à cet enfant, traitre, sera funeste, traitor, your imposture will be fatal to that child. Rac. La chatte détruisit par sa — l'accord, the cat, by her knavish tricks broke up the union. La Font. 2 (habitude de tromper) knavery, cheating.

FOURBE, adj. mf. 1 knavish, roguish, cheating, false, crafty. (by extension) La dissimulation de Tibère paraît plus —, the dissimulation of Tiberius appears more crafty. Volt. 2 (substantiv.) knave, rogue, cheat.

FOURBER, foor-bay, ra. to cheat, to cozen, to fake in. Il fourbe tout le monde, he cheats every body.

FOURBERIE, foorb-ree, sf. 4 (tromperie coupable) cheat, knavish trick. 2 knavery, knavishness.

FOURBIR, foor-beer, ra. (des armes, des ustensiles de cuisine, etc., of arms, of kitchen utensils) to furnish, to rub up.

FOURBISSEUR, foor-be-suhr, sm. tech. furberish, sword-cutter.

FOURBISSEUR, foor-be-sûr, sf. tech. furberishing, rubbing up.

FOURBU, foor-bû, adj. m. fem. —E, vet. founeder. Une jument —E, a founeder mare.

FOURBURE, foor-bûr, sf. vet. founeder.

FOURCHE, foorsh, sf. fork, pitchfork. — de bois, wooden fork. — de fer, iron fork. — d'étable, dung-fork. —s patibulaires, forked gibbet. —s caudines, See CADINES. Faire la —, to fork, to branch off. Ce chemin fait la —, fait une — à tel endroit, that road branches off at such a spot.

FOURCHÉ, ppa. of FOURCHER, fem. —E. 1 Avoir les cheveux —s, to have split hair. Animaux qui ont les pieds —s, cloven-footed animals. 2 anc. Pied —, claw upon cloven-footed animals. 3 he — croix —E, a cross fourche.

FOURCHER, foor-shay, vn. to fork, to branch off. Un chemin qui fourche, a road that forks. fig. La langue lui a fourché, his tongue has tripped, he has made a slip of the tongue.

FOURCHETTE, foor-shet, sf. 1 fork. Les dents de la —, the tines, the prongs of the fork. Dejeuner à la —, to take a meat breakfast. 2 fig. great eater, good eater. Louis XVIII, la première — de son royaume, aimait beaucoup, etc., Louis the XVIIIth, the best eater of his kingdom, was very fond of, etc. Brill. 3 anc. (d'un mousquet, of a musket) rest. 4 tech. fork. 5 (d'un carrosse, of a coach) prop. 6 (d'une vallette, of a fowl) breast-bone. pop. La — de l'estomac, the brisket. 7 vet. frush, frag. 8 (d'une chemise d'homme, of a shirt) sleeve-bit.

FOURCHON, foor-shong, sm. 1 prong, tine. Fourche à trois —s, a three-pronged fork. Fourchette à quatre —s, a four-pronged fork. 2 (d'un arbre) fork.

FOURCHU, foor-shû, adj. m. fem. —E, forked. Arbre —, barbe —E, a forked tree, a forked beard. (by extension) Menlou —, a forked chin. fig. Faire l'arbre —, to stand upon one's head with one's legs asunder. fig. pop. N'avoir pas la langue —E, to be plain-spoken.

FOURCON, foor-gong, sm. ran, wagon, baggage-wagon.

FOURCON, sm. poker. prov. fig. La pelle se moque du —, the pot calls the kettle black.

FOURCONNER, foor-go-nay, rn. 1 to poke, to rake. 2 (avec les pinettes) to poke. Il ne fait que —, he does nothing but poke the fire. (transitively) Le fer crochu qui fourgonne la braise, the crooked iron that stirs up the embers. Nod. 3 (fouriller) to rummage, to poke (dans un coffre, in a chest).

FOURIERISME, foor-ryay-rism', sm. philos. fourism.

FOURMI, foor-mee, sf. (Lat. formica) ent. ant. pismire. — ailée, winged ant. — noire, emmet. Œufs de —s, ant-eggs. fig. Avoir des veufs de —s sous les pieds, to be continually shifting from one place to another. fig. pop. J'ai des —s dans les jambes, I feel a tingling in my legs.

FOURMI-LION, sm. nat. bist. ant-lion, ant-cater.

FOURMILIER, foor-me-lyay, sm. 4 ent. ant-bee, ant-cater. 2 orn. ant-cater.

FOURMILIERE, foor-me-lyay, sf. 1 (heo) ant-bill. 2 (toutes les fourmis) swarm of ants. 3 fig. swarm. Une — de vers, de souris, de serpents, a swarm of maggots, of mice, of serpents. Il en viat une — (de grenouilles), there come a swarm of them. La Font.

FOURMILLEMENT, foor-me-yah-mâng, sm. tlingling.

FOURMILLER, foor-me-yay, va. 1 to swarm, to abound. Les Anglais fourmillent ici, comme je vous le disais, Englishmen, as I already wrote to you, abound here. De Bross. Toutes les espèces de gibier qui fourmillent en Corse, all the kinds of game that swarm in Corsica. Mérim. Les vers fourmillent dans ce fromage, that cheese is crawling with maggots. Un peuple de solliciteurs qui fourmille sans cesse, a perpetual swarm of solicitors. Boil. Là, la vie fourmille et pullule et bourdonne, there, every thing is swarming, teeming, buzzing. Th. Gaut. La terre semble — de vie, the earth seems to be teeming with life. Buff. 2 (by extension) to be full (of), to swarm (with). Tous ces ouvrages en vers fourmillent de beautés, all those poetical works are sparkling with beauties. Boss. La villa B. fourmille de statues antiques et modernes, the villa B. is full of antique and modern statues. De Bross. 3 (éprouver un picotement) to tingle.

FOURNAIE, foor-nay, sm. 1 baking. 2 feud. forage.

FOURNAISE, foor-nayz, sf. 4 furnace. — ardente, fiery furnace. 2 fig. (creuset) furnace.

FOURNEAU, foor-no, sm. (Lot. fornaux) 1 stove. — de cuisine, kitchen-stove. — portatif, portable stove. Marchand de —s, dealer in stove grates and kitchen ranges. 2 tech. furnace. — d'apollinaire, chemical furnace. — d'orlévre, refining furnace. — de forge, smelting furnace. — à vent, blast-furnace. Haut —, blast-furnace, high-furnace. 3 (d'une verrerie) glass-furnace. 4 (d'une mine) chamber. 5 Le — d'une pipe, the bowl of a pipe.

FOURNEE, foor-nay, sf. 1 batch. — de pain, a batch of loaves. 2 (de certaines choses, of different things) batch, baking, kiln. Une — de faïence, de chaux, de tuiles, a kiln of pottery, of lime, of tiles. 3 fig. (personnes) batch. (in joke) On annonce une nouvelle — de pains pour le mois prochain, a new batch of pears is announced for next month.

FOURNI, four-nee, ppa. of FOURNIR, sem. — E, adj. provided, stored, furnished, stocked. Une boutique bien — E, a shop well-stocked. Une bibliothèque bien — E, a well-furnished library. Une table bien — E, a well-supplied table. anc. Lance — E, a man at arms furnished at all points. 2 (donné) supplied. Ces sujets de fables qui lui étaient — s par la tradition, his subjects of fables which were supplied to him by tradition. La Font. 3 (épais) thick. Une barbe, one chevelure bien — E, a thick beard, head of hair. Ou bois bien — E, a very thick wood.

FOURNIER, four-nyaz, sm. fem. FOURNIÈRE, 4 oren-nan, oven-woman, public baker. 2 anc. journeyman-baker.

FOURNIL, four-nee, sm. bake-house. FOURNIMENT, four-ne-mang, sm. 4 powder-horn, powder-flask. 2 (d'un soldat) cross-bells.

FOURNIR, four-neer, v. 4 (pourvoir) to provide, to furnish, to supply. — l'armée de blé, de vivres, to supply the army with corn, with provisions. C'est lui qui fournit cette maison, it is he who supplies that house. (intransitively) C'est lui qui fournit dans cette maison, it is he who supplies that house. 2 (particul.) (garir) to stock, to furnish. — un magasin de toutes les marchandises nécessaires, to stock a shop with all the goods necessary. — an émet de toutes ses pièces, to furnish a case with all its pieces. 3 (procureur) to supply (with), to furnish (with), to provide (with), to procure, to find, to afford. Nous fournissons au roi du sang et des richesses, we supply the king with blood and riches. Flor. La nature ne fournissait pas moins à leurs desirs qu'à leurs besoins, nature was so liberal to their desires as to their needs. Montesq. Je vous fournirai tout ce qu'il faut pour écrire, I will supply you with writing materials. Ab. Ce roi ne leur fournit aucuns secours efficaces, that king supplied them with no effectual assistance. Aug. Th. C'est lui qui fournira les fonds nécessaires, it is he who will supply the requisite funds. — de l'ombre, to afford shade. fig. Je ne doute pas que cela ne fournisse un nouveau prétexte à la curiosité, I do not doubt but that will afford a new pretext to the curiosity. Nod. L'on ne peut plus — de jupes assez pour tant de fêles, there are no longer days enough in the year for so many festivals. La Font. Un riche F. m'a fourni le moyen de m'enrichir, a rich F. procured me the means of enriching myself. Mery. Malangue, qui ne me manque jamais dans l'occasion, a pu me — une parole, my tongue, which never fails me at a pinch, could not find a word. Le Sage. Je vous ai fourni une belle occasion de faire fortune, I have procured you a fine opportunity of making your fortune. Ab. Sa religion lui fournissait des accents plus tendres, in his religion he found more tender accents. Chat. Le vin au plus mûr fournissait des paroles, wine opened the mouths of the most taciturn. Bui. 4 law. — et faire valoir une dette, une reute que l'on a transportée à quelqu'un, to guarantee the payment of a debt, of a purchase. 5 law. admin. to produce, to put in. — ses défenses, ses griefs, to produce one's means of defence, one's charges. 6 enc. — à quelqu'un un coup d'épée, to wound a person with a sword. 7 (achever, par-faire) to make up. Il faut encore dix francs pour — la somme entière, ten francs more are wanting to make up the whole sum. 8 mau. — la carrière, to run a race.

SE FOURNIR, vpr. to furnish, to supply, to provide one's self, to deal (with). Se — des choses nécessaires, to provide one's self with the things necessary. Il se fournit d'ordinaire chez ce marchand, he generally deals at that shop.

FOURNIR, vn. 4 to supply (à la dépense, aux frais, the expenses). — à l'appointement, aux appointements, to provide the salary. 2 (suffire) to suffice. On ne saurait — à tout, one cannot meet every emergency.

FOURNISSEMENT, four-niss-mang, sm. 1 com. capital, share of capital. 2 law. share.

FOURNISSEUR, four-ne-sabr, sm. tradesman, contractor, purveyor. général de l'armée, contractor general of the army.

FOURNITURE, four-ne-tûr, fig. 1 supply, provision, supplying, furnishing, providing. Entreprendre une —, to contract for a supply. 2 obol. com. remittance. 3 — s, pl. (de tailleurs, tapissiers, etc.) trimmings. 4 (petites herbes) garnish.

FOURRAGE, foo-razh, sm. (collective.) 1 fodder, provender. — veri, grass, forage. — sec, fodder. 2 (nourriture des chevaux d'une armée) forage. 3 (by extension) (action) foraging. 4 (by extension) (troupes) foraging party. 5 artil. wood.

FOURRAGER, foo-rah-zhay, vn. to forage. — au veri, to forage for grass. — au sec, to forage for hay. fig. C'est un homme qui va fourrageant dans les livres, he is a man who compiles from the works of others.

FOURRAGER, vn. to ravage, to devastate. — tout un pays, to ravage a whole country. (by extension) — des papiers, dans des papiers, to rummage papers about. Des jeunes femmes qui fourraient les marchandises, young women who rummage among the goods. Th. Gaut.

FOURRAGERIE, foo-rah-zhayt, adj. f. agri. Plantes — s, plants fit for fodder.

FOURRAGEUR, foo-rah-zhoir, sm. forager.

FOURRE, ppa. of FOURRER, fem. — E, 1 Je ne sais où cela est, I don't know where it has got to. fig. Comment un si honnête homme se trouve-t-il — dans cette affaire? how is it that so honest a man has got mixed up in this affair? 2 furred. Habit —, gants — s, furred coat, gloves. (by extension) Un saint homme de chat, bien — gros et gras, a most devout cat, with a thick fur, and a sleek fat body. La Font. Sa Majesté — E, his furred Majesty. La Font. fig. Un innocent — de malice, a wolf in sheep's clothing. 3 coin. Langues — es, stuffed tongues. 4 Bois —, pays —, wood, country full of thickets, of brakes. 5 enc. Coup —, See coup. 6 fig. Paix — E, patched up peace.

FOURRE, sm. thicket, brake.

FOURREAU, foo-ro, sm. 4 sheath, scabbard, case, cover. — d'épée, sheath, scabbard. Tirer l'épée du —, to unsheath the sword. — de parapluie, umbrella-case. — de pistolet, pistol-case. Faux —, pistol-bag. prov. fig. L'épée, la lame use le —, the sword eats the scabbard; the mind is too active for the body. 2 anc. (robe d'enfant) frock.

FOURIER, foo-ry, va. 4 to thrust, to poke. — la main dans sa poche, to thrust one's hand into one's pocket. Il y a dans cette étoffe des trous à y — la main, there are holes in this stuff you may run your hand through. (intransitively) Je m'aperçus que les plus modérés fourraient à l'envi dans leurs poches, I perceived that the most honest were rying with each other who should pocket the most. De Bross. Diantre soit des femmes qui fourrent des épingle partout, deuce take the women who stick their pins every where. Beaum. Deux ou trois gamins essayaient de — des cailloux dans le gousset d'une fontaine, two or three young rascals tried to thrust stones into the neck of a fountain. Th. Gaut. fig. Je l'ai fourré dans notre salle basse, I have thrust him into our parlour. Rac. Il aura fourré cela dans un coin, he has put it in some corner. Fourrez ce livre avec les autres, put that book away with the others. fig. — son nez où l'on n'a que faire, to thrust one's nose where one has no business. (by analogy) — son nez partout, to thrust, to poke one's nose everywhere. fig. — tout dans son vestre, to cram every thing down. fig. — quelque chose dans l'esprit, dans la tête de quelqu'un, to beat a thing into the head of a person. 2 (by extension) to cram, to stuff. Elle lui fourre toujours à manger, she is always cramming him. Une mère qui fourre en cachette de l'argent à son fils, a mother who gives her son money secretly. (by extension) On ne sait à qui la —, they don't know whom to put her off with. 3 fig. (insérer) to cram. Il fourre toujours du Latin dans ses plaidoyers, he always crams his speeches with Latin. 4 fig. (introduire dans une maison, etc.) to fust. Vous avez eu bien tort de le — dans cette affaire, you were very wrong to mix him up in that affair. 5 (garir) to put, to line with fur. On en pourrait — plutôt deux robes qu'une, there is enough to fur two dresses rather than one. La Font. — d'hermine, de petit-gris, to put, to line with ermine, miniver.

SE FOURRER, vpr. 1 to thrust, to poke one's self, to intrude, to intrude one's self, — sous un lit, to thrust one's self under a bed. fig. Je me fourrai bien vite dans leurs groupes enplumés, I soon crept in the midst of their feathered groups. Muss. fig. Chercher quelque trou où se —, to look for a hole to creep into. Ne savoir où se —, not to know what hole to creep into. Il se fourre partout, he intrudes himself every where. Se — dans l'embarras, to get into a scrape. 2 (à souffler) to cram. Je parvins à me — dans la bouche quelques morceaux exempts de mouches, I contrived to put into my mouth a few morsels free from flies. Th. Gaut. Vous vous fourrez dans la tête mille chimères, you get into your head a thousand chimeras. 3 (des idées, etc.) of thoughts) to get. Je ne comprends pas comment cette idée s'est fourrée dans sa tête, I cannot understand how that thought got into his head. 4 (se vêtir chadellement) to clothe one's self warm.

FOURREUR, foo-ruir, sm. furrier. Marchand —, dealer in furs.

FOURRIER, foo-ryaz, sm. 4 anc. har-binger. 2 mil. quartier-master.

FOURRIÈRE, foo-ryaz, fig. 4 anc. wood-yard, wood-house. 2 (le lieu) wood-yard. 3 law. pound. Mettre un cheval, une vache, etc., en —, to pound a horse, a cow.

FOURRUÏE, foo-rûr, fig. 1 fur. — de matre zéline, d'hermine, de petit-gris, sable, ermine, miniver, etc. 2 (d'un président, d'un gouverneur, of a president, of a doctor) furred gown. 3 bet. furred gown. 4 haut. service.

FOURROYER, four-voah-pay, va. con-jug. like EMPLOYER, to lead astray, to mislead. fig. Les mauvais exemples l'ont fourvoyé, bad examples have led him astray.

SE FOURROYER, vpr. to go astray, to mistake one's way. Le loup qui s'était fourvoyé par mégarde, the wolf who had inadvertently mistaken his way. La Font. (avec ellipse du pron. pers., les pers. pron. being understood) Ces diverses routes les ont fait fourvoyer, the number of roads deceived them. fig. Il s'était fourvoyé en mauvaise compagnie, he had fallen into bad company. Ab. L'esprit de la dame se fourvoyait dans le dialogue, the lady's wit went astray in the dialogue. Sic-B. Le lecteur à travers ces allusions peut bien se —, the reader amidst these allusions may find himself amazed. Sic-B.

FOUTEAU, foo-to, sm. beech, beech-tree.

FOUTELAIE, fool-lay, sf. plantation of beech-trees.

FOYER, fwa-ray, sm. 1 (âtre) hearth, fire-side. 2 (à garder son —) to love one's fire-side. Le — d'un fourneau the hearth of a stove. 2 (dalle) hearth, hearth-stone. 3 (by extension) (d'un théâtre) green-room, lobby. Le — des acteurs, the green-room. Le — du public, the lobby, the saloon. 4 fig. — su. pl. (pays natal, demeure; home. La simplicité du triste — de D. the simplicity of the sad home of D. Nod. Revenir dans ses —, to return home. Combattre pour ses —, to fight for one's home, pour arie et focis. 5 nat. phil. focus. Le — d'un miroir ardent, the focus of a burning mirror. — de la lumière, the focus of light. fig. Le — d'une maladie contagieuse, the seat of a contagious disease. 6 (by analogy) Le — de la rébellion, the seat of the rebellion. Le cerveau, ce — des sensations, the brain, that seat of the sensations. Cette ville est le — des lumières, this town is the focus of light. (by analogy) Les protestants avaient créé partout des — d'industrie, the protestants had every where created seats of industry. Ph. Chas. G. ce — d'indulgence et de tendresse, G. that treasure of indulgence and tenderness. Saint. Les Anglais sont des — vivants de bizarreries, the English are living mines of whimsicalities. Mery. 7 surg. — purulent, purulent focus.

FRAC, frak, sm. dress coat.

FRAGAS, frak-kah, sm. (Lat. fragor) 1 crash. 2 (by extension) (bruit) crash, uproar, din. Le — du tonnerre, the crash of thunder. Un grand — d'artillerie éclata bientôt, there soon burst a loud crash of artillery. Saint. Avec un grand — on torréait tombait des montagnes, a torrent fell from the mountains with a dining noise. La Font. 3 (tonnante, dévorante) uproar, hubbub, tumult, noise. Je ne suis pas venu ici pour vivre avec tant de —, I did not come here to live in the midst of bustle. Le Sage. fig. Il avait le mouvement, le — de la passion, not pas la chaleur, he had the movement, the hurry of passion, not the heat. St-B. Si ce bâtiment ne fait aucun — dans l'esprit à première vue, c'est que, if one is not amazed the first time one sees that building, it is because. De Bross. 4 fig. Faire —, to make a noise. Cette beauté fait du — dans le monde, that beauty makes a noise in the world. 5 point. Il y a du —, un grand — dans ce tableau, dans cette composition, there is hurry, great hurry in that painting, in that composition. (by analogy) Un portrait à grand —, a gaudy, showy portrait. St-B.

FRACASSÉ, ppa. of FRACASSER, fem. —, shattered. H. voit voler en éclats son char — H. sees his chariot fly to pieces. Rac. Il eut la main — e par un éclat de bois, he had his hand shattered by a piece of wood. Merym. fig. J'aurais un trône brûlé — sans que ses elats blessassent quelques citoyens? was ever a throne shattered without its pieces wounding some citizens. Lamart.

FRACASSER, frak-assy, va. to shatter, to break to pieces. L'escarbot fracasse on son absence ses œufs, the beetle in his absence breaks her eggs to pieces. La Font. Il a fracassé toutes les porcelaines, toutes les glaces, he broke to pieces all the porcelain, all the glasses. (by extension) L'Océan fracassait ses vagues entre ses rochers, the ocean breaking its waves among its rocks. Chat.

SE FRACASSER, vpr. 1 to be broken to pieces, to be shattered. Deux ceufs volèrent lunt dans une journée le tour d'une pierre on s'y fracassait sans que, two hundred cartriages a day go round a stone or are broken against it without. Th. Gaut. 2 (à soi) to break, to shatter. Il s'était fracassé la mâchoire d'un coup de pistolet, he had shattered his jaw with a pistol-shot. Lamart.

FRACTION, frak-syong, sf. 1 breaking. 2 (portion) fraction, portion, part. 3 arith. fraction. — décimale, decimal fraction.

FRACTIONNAIRE, frak-syo-nayr, adj. mf. arith. fractional. Nombre, expression —, fractional number, improper fraction.

FRACTURE, frak-tûr, sf. 1 breaking open, breaking. — des portes, breaking open of doors. 2 surg. fracture. Reduire une —, to reduce, to set a fracture.

FRACTURE, ppa. of FRACTURER, fem. —, U os —, a broken bone.

FRACTURER, frak-tû-ray, va. surg. to break, to fracture (l'avant-bras, le crâne, the fore-arm, the skull).

SE FRACTURER, vpr. 1 to be fractured, broken. 2 (à soi) to fracture, to break.

FRAGILE, frak-zheul, adj. mf. (Lat. fragilis) 1 brittle, frail. — comme un verre, as brittle as glass. Un vase —, a frail vase. 2 fig. (qui n'est pas solide) frail, fragile. Fortune —, frail fortune. Biens —, fleeting goods. 3 fig. (sujet à tomber en faule) frail. C'est ce qui distingue l'homme — du méchant, that is what distinguishes the frail man from the wicked man. J.-J. Rouss. La nature est —, nature is frail. Sexe —, frail sex.

FRAGILITÉ, frak-zhe-le-tay, sf. 1 fragility, brittleness. La — du verre, of the porcelain, the fragility of glass, of porcelain. Comme il a l'éclat du verre, il en a la —, as it has the brilliancy of glass, so it has its fragility. Corn. 2 fig. (instabilité) fragility, instability. La — des choses humaines, the instability of human things. 3 fig. (facilité à tomber en faule) frailty. La — de notre nature, the frailty of our nature. La — humaine, human frailty.

FRAGMENT, frag-mang, sm. (Lat. fragmentum) 1 fragment (d'un os, d'une vase, d'un vase précieux, d'une statue antique, of a precious vase, of an antique statue). 2 fig. lit. fragment. 3 fig. (d'un ouvrage non terminé) fragment. — su. historiques, philosophiques, politiques, historical, philosophical, political fragments.

FRAI, fray, sm. 1 spawning. Le temps du —, the spawning time, spawning season. 2 (œufs de poisson) spawn. 3 (petit poisson) fry. 4 (altération) wear.

FRAICHEMENT, fraysh-mang, adj. 1 coolly, freshly, in the cool. 2 fig. (froideur) coolly. Accueillir — quelqu'un, to receive a person coolly. 3 fig. (recemment) lately, recently. Un des nôtres — venu de Paris, one of ours just come from Paris. J.-J. Rouss.

FRAICHEUR, fray-shahr, sf. (Lat. frigoris) 1 (de l'air, du temps, of the air, of the weather) coolness, freshness. La — de la nuit, des matinées, the coolness of the night, of the mornings. La — des bois, the coolness of the woods. Je fus frappé d'une agréable sensation de —, I was struck with an agreeable sensation of coolness. J.-J. Rouss. La — de l'eau, d'une boisson, the coolness of the water, of a beverage. La — du marbre, the coldness of marble. 2 (froideur) cool, coolness, cold, freshness. La — du soir, the cool of the evening. 3 (by extension) (douceur) chill. Gagner, avoir une —, to get, to have a chill. 4 fig. (éclat) bloom, freshness. La — du teint, the freshness of the complexion. Quoique âgé de soixante-huit ans, il conservait encore de la —, though sixty-eight years old, he was still fresh-looking. Barth. La — du coloris dans un tableau, the freshness of the colouring in a painting. La — d'un costume neuf, d'une décoration nouvelle, the freshness of a new costume, of new scenery. 5 (morally) freshness. Un cœur tout jeune conserve dans sa — et sa jeunesse, quite a youthful heart preserved in its freshness and vigour. St-B. Il y a des — de pensees d'expressions ravissantes, there is a ravishing freshness of thought and expression. St-B. 6 nat. breeze, flow of wind, cat's paw.

FRAICHR, fray-sheer, vn. naot. to freshen, to blow fresh. Le vent est sujet à — d'un moment à l'autre, the wind is liable to freshen from one moment to another. Th. Gaut. (impers.) Il fraîchit, it blows fresh. Il commence à —, it is beginning to freshen.

FRAIRIE, fray-ree, sf. merry-making. Ce looup donc étant de —, that wolf being one of a merry party. La Font.

FRAIS, fray, adj. m. fem. fraîche, 1 (médicement froid) fresh, cool. Un vent —, a cool wind. Une matinée fraîche, a fresh morning. Nuit fraîche, a cool night. Il fait un petit air —, there is a little fresh air. Avoir les mains fraîches, to have the hands cool. Cette cave est très-fraîche, that cellar is very cool. Ombrage —, cool shade. Boire d'un vin —, (adverbial.) Boire —, to drink wine cool. 2 (roid) cool, cold. 3 (récent) fresh, new-laid. Des œufs —, new-laid eggs. Donner de l'herbe fraîche à un cheval, to give fresh grass to a horse. De la marée fraîche, fresh fish. Du beurre —, fresh butter. Les traces — étaient encore toutes fraîches, the traces were still recent, fig. Des nouvelles fraîches, recent intelligence, news. Pendant que j'en ai la mémoire fraîche, toute fraîche, whilst it is still fresh in my memory. De fraîche date, of a recent date. fig. La plaie est encore fraîche, toute fraîche, the wound is still green, raw. Je sais tout — de cette lecture, that reading is still quite fresh in my memory. Il est encore tout — du collège, he has just left school. 4 (qui n'a point été salé) fresh. 5 (qui n'a point subi d'altération) fresh. fig. Quoique la chose ait eu lieu il y a longtemps, j'en ai le souvenir très —, though the circumstance happened a long time ago, it is still quite fresh in my memory. 6 (qui a de la fraîcheur) fresh, ruddy. Une jeune fille fraîche comme une rose, a young girl as fresh as a rose. Des lèvres fraîches et vermeilles, fresh and ruddy lips. Des couleurs qui sont encore fraîches, colours which are still fresh. Un costume très —, a very fresh costume. De ma vie, je n'avais entendu rien de plus — que cette petite voix, in my life I had never heard a voice that possessed greater freshness than that delicate voice. Ah, paint. Coloris —, fresh colouring. Être —, (des personnes, of persons) to be fresh, ruddy, blooming, hale. Ce vieillard est encore —, that old man is still hale. Je ne vous ai jamais vu si —, I never saw you look so well. Être — et gaillard, to be hale and hearty; || fig. pop. in a pretty condition, plump. 7 (délasse) fresh. — et dispos, hale and hearty. Nous primes des chievaux —, we took fresh horses. Troupes fraîches, fresh troops. 8 nat. Vent —, fresh breeze. Il vente beau —, bon —, grand —, etc., there is a fresh breeze, it blows a fresh gale, a strong gale. 9 (substantive) cool, coolness, freshness. Un — agréable, an agreeable coolness. Donner du —, to impart coolness. Ils dorment du —, they are sleeping in a cool place. Mery. Ne pourrai-je jamais oublier l'ombre et le —? shall I never be able to enjoy the coolness of the shade? La Font. Il ôta son paletot pour se mettre au —. He took off his coat to cool himself. Ab. Mettre du vin au —, to put wine in a cool place. Il commence à faire —, it is beginning to get cool. Il fait — il ts cool. fig. Des montagnes couvertes de neige qui faisaient aux yeux, mountains covered with snow which gave an impression of coolness to the eye. De Bros.

FRAS, fraîche, adv. recently, lately, newly. Maison toute fraîche faite, a house quite newly-built. Appartement tout — décoré, lodgings newly painted and papered. Du beurre — battu, butter just churned. Une fleur fraîche éclose, a flower freshly blown. Il est tout — relevé de sa maladie, he has but just recovered from his illness. Toujours nu-tête, rasé de —, always bare-headed, just shaved. De Bros.

FRAS, sm. pl. 4 (dépense) expense, expenses, cost, outlay, charges. Les — de la guerre, the expenses of war. Les — d'un procès d'un voyage, the cost of a lawsuit, of a journey. — locataires, — d'entretien, funeral expenses. Faire les — to pay the expenses. En être pour ses —, to lose one's time and money. Tous — faits, clear of all charges; when all is paid for. Sur nouveaux —, on a new score; || fig. Recommencer sur nouveaux —, to begin anew, over again. A ses — et dépens, at one's own expense. — et loyaux coûts, cost and charges. A — communs, at the general cost. Voyage à — communs, journey at joint expenses. A moitié de —, (elliptic) à moitié —, at half cost. Sans —, without expense, free of expense. Sans faire de —, without going to any expense. Fax —, incidental expenses. Se mettre en —, to incur expense; || fig. to go to great expense; || to give one's self great trouble. Certain renard se mit un jour en —, a certain fox one day went to great expense. La Font. fig. A peu de —, at little expense, cheaply. A moins de —, at less expense. fig. Je me vis obligé de faire les —, tous les — de la conversation, I saw myself obliged to keep up the conversation. 2 (at billiards, tennis) expenses for the house, the table.

FRASE, fraiz, sf. 4 bot. strawberry. — de bois, wild, Alpine, wood, English strawberry. — de jardin, garden strawberry. Un panier de —, a pottle of strawberries.

FRASE, sf. culin. pluck, ruffe. — de veau, calf's pluck. d'agneau, lamb's pluck. 3 (colleterie) ruff, ruff.

FRASETTE, frai-zet, sf. small ruff.

FRASIER, frai-zy, sm. bot. strawberry-bush, strawberry-plant. Plants de —, strawberries de. Fleurs de —, strawberry flowers.

FRASIL, frai-ze, sm. cinders.

FRAMBOISE, frang-hwaz, bot. raspberry.

FRAMBOISIER, frang-hwaz-zy, sm. bot. raspberry-bush, raspberry-plant.

FRAME, frai-may, sf. anc. frame.

FRANC, frang, sm. 4 franc. Une pièce d'un —, de vingt —s, a one-franc, a twenty-franc piece. 2 anc. (d'une livre tournois) franc. 3 Ao marc le —, so many shillings in the pound.

FRANC, adj. m. fem. FRANÇÉ, 4 (libre) free. En entrant en France, an esclave devient — et libre, on entering France a slave becomes free. — arbitre, free will. Avoir ses condées franches, see condées. — de toute passion, — d'ambition, etc., free from all passion, from ambition, etc. naut. — bord, planks of the bottom. 2 (exempt d'impositions) free, exempt. Etre — de toutes charges, free of all charges. anc. Ville franche, free town. Port —, free port. —s archiers, free archers. Lettre franche de port, a prepaid letter. Paquet — de port, a parcel carriage-paid. Jouer part franche, to play for the reckoning. Avoir part franche, to share in a thing without being at any expense. Franche lippée, a good meat cost free. Point de franche lippée, never a hearty meal. La Font. 3 (sincère) frank, free, open, open-hearted, plain-spoken, honest. Un homme —, a plain-spoken man, a plain dealer. Un caractère —, a sincere character. Une âme franche, an ingenious soul. fig. Un — Gaulois, a true Frenchman. Un cheval — du collier, see COLLIER. naut. Le vent est —, the wind serves well. 4 (of things) frank, sincere, open. L'aveu est —, the confession is a frank one. Parler d'un ton — et résolu, to speak in a frank and resolute tone. 5 point. sculpt. bold, free. 6 (vrai) arant, downright, true-bred, true, regular. Ce qu'il vous a dit est une franche débaite what he told you was nothing but a come off. Il parle son — patois, he speaks his true dialect. (disparagingly) Une franche coquette, an arant jilt. Une franche bête, a downright blunder. Un — Breton, un — Picard, un — Gascon, etc., a true Breton, Picard, Gascon, etc. agri. Terre franche, untied earth. 7 (complet) full, whole, clear, complete. Deux jours —, two whole days. Sauter vingt-quatre semelles franches, to leap full twenty-four feet. — carreau, throw. 8 agri. natural, ungrafted. Enter — sur sauvageon, to engraft a natural plant upon a wild stock.

FRANC-ALLET, sm. See ALLET.

FRANC-ÉTABLE (DE), adv. loc. naut. foul.

FRANC-TIEF, sm. See TIEF.

FRANC-MAÇON, sm. pl. FRANCES-MAÇONS, free-mason.

FRANC-MAÇONNERIE, sf. free-masonry.

FRANC-PARLER, sm. liberty of speaking.

Avoir son —, to speak freely, to speak one's mind.

FRANC-QUARTIER, sm. her. franc-quarter.

FRANC-RÉAL, sm. pl. FRANCES-RÉALS, hort. Franc-real.

FRANC-SALÉ, sm. allowance of salt.

FRANC-TENAGIER, sm. pl. FRANCES-TENAGIERS, free-holder.

FRANC-TILLAC, sm. naut. gun-deck.

FRANC, adv. 4 frankly, openly, freely, sincerely, plainly. Parler — à quelqu'un, to speak frankly to a person. Il le démentit — et net, tout net, he contradicted him flatly. Il me l'a dit tout —, he told me so plainly. 2 (absolument) clear, clear. Il suta le fosse —, tout —, he cleared the ditch.

FRANC, sm. fem. FRANÇOISE, 4 Fr. bist. Frank. 2 (dans le Levant) Frank. Le quartier des —s, the Frank quarter. 3 (adjectif) Frank, Frankish.

FRANÇAIS, frang-say, sm. fem. —E, 4 French. Un —, a Frenchman. Une —e, a Frenchwoman. Les —, Romains par le génie, sont Grecs par le caractère, the French, Romans by their genius, are Greeks by their character. Chat. 2 (la langue) French. Apprendre le —, to learn French. Parler le —, an hon —, to speak French, good French. fig. Entendez-vous le —? do you understand French? En bon —, in good French; plainly. Je vous le dis en bon —, I tell you plainly. La Font. 3 (adjectif) French. La langue —e, the French language, tongue. C'est à Paris qu'il faut considérer le —, parce qu'il y est plus — qu'ailleurs, it is in Paris that a Frenchman must be studied because he is more French there than any where else. Duclos. Il est encore le plus — de tous dans les vues de sa politique, he considers politics from a French point of view still more than the others. Si-B. Ce qui n'est pas clair n'est pas —, what is not clear is not French. Rivar. Colonies —es, French colonies. Cuisine —e, French cookery. fig. Cela n'est pas —, that is not French, not honourable, handsome. 4 (adverbialement) fig. Parler —, to speak plainly. Parlez-nous —, speak to us plainly. fig. Parler — à quelqu'un, to speak to a person.

À LA FRANÇAISE, adv. loc. after the French fashion. Un habit à la —, a coat after the French fashion.

FRANCATU, frang-kat-ù, sm. hort. a sort of russelin-apple.

FRANCHÈMENT, frangsh-mang, adv. 4 law. — et quittement, after-free. 3 (sincèrement) frankly, freely, openly, sincerely. Parler —, to speak frankly. A parler —, à vous parler —, je crois que, to speak frankly, to be plain with you, I believe that. 3 (librement) freely, frankly, boldly, openly. fig. Se prononcer — pour une opinion, to adopt openly an opinion.

FRANCHIR, frang-sheer, va. 4 to leap, to jump over, to clear (an fosse, une barrière, a ditch, a stile). Il franchit l'espace d'un bond, at one bound he cleared the space. Mery. Tous se précipitent en franchissant les degrés, all rush up the steps. Lamart. Des vents impétueux franchissaient le sommet des rochers, impetuous winds blew over the summits of the rocks. Barth. fig. Le premier il avait franchi la barrière de la soumission, he was the first to go beyond the bounds of submission. Volt. Je suis homme à — tous les obstacles, I am capable of surmounting every obstacle. Volt. le pas, to take a resolution.

— le mot, to speak plainly, not to mince the matter. 2 (passer hardiment) to cross, to traverse. Vous l'avez pas franchi le Rhin, you have not crossed the Rhine. Chat. J'hésitais à — le seuil, I hesitated in crossing the threshold. Chat. — les limites, the borders, to overstep the limits. fig. Aucune de ces idées nouvelles n'a franchi son seuil, none of these new ideas crossed his threshold. Th. Gaut. Le mourant que to consoles franchit, armé de ses paroles, l'ombre de l'immortalité, thy consoling words enable the dying man to step into the shade of immortality. Lamart. — les bornes du devoir, to go beyond the bounds of duty. Je ne vois aucun motif qui ait fait — à votre frère les bornes de la politesse, I cannot see the motive which induced your brother to go beyond the bounds of politeness. Muss. naut. 3 — une barre, un récif, un écueil, etc., to pass over a bar, a reef, etc.

FRANCHISE, frang-sheer, sf. 4 (immunité) franchise, exemption, immunity, liberties. Les —s d'une ville, the liberties of a town. fig. Ce style a aussi ses —s, that style has also its licenses. Si-B. 2 anc. (des ouvriers, of workmen) freedom, franchise. 3 (droit d'asile) franchises. Les —s des églises, de ambassadeurs, the franchises of churches, of ambassadors. 4 (le lieu même) franchise. 5 (sincérité) frankness, openness, sincerity, open-heartedness. Parler avec —, avec une trop grande —, to speak frankly, too frankly. Un homme plein de —, a frank spoken man. Vous voyez un exemple de la — qui règne ici, you see an example of the freedom that reigns here. J.-J. Rouss. 6 point. sculpt. boldness, freedom. 7 Marchandises admises en —, goods exempt from duty.

FRANÇOISE, frang-sik, adj. mf. France, Frankish.

FRANCAISATION, frang-se-zh-syng, sf. law. com. registering as a French ship.

FRANCAISCAIN, frang-sis-kang, sm. Franciscan.

FRANCISER, frang-se-zay, va. 10 frenchify.

SE FRANCISER, tpr. 4 to become French. 2 (little used) to become frenchified.

FRANCOISE, frang-sik, sf. Francis, battle-axe.

FRANCO, frang-ko, adv. (It.) com. free of expense. Vous recevrez ce paquet —, you will receive that parcel carriage-paid.

FRANCOLIN, frang-ko-lang, sm. orn. francolin.

FRANÇOIS, frang-swà, sm. Francis.

FRANÇOISE, frang-swàz, sf. Frances.

FRANGE, frangch, sf. fringe, rulance. — d'or, gold fringe. Rideaux à —s, fringed curtains.

FRANGE, ppa. of FRANGER, fem. —E. 1 Des rideaux —s, fringed curtains. (by extension) Les vagues détoilant leurs volutes —es d'écumé sur le rivage de l'île, the billows rolling their volutes fringed with foam on the coast of the island. Th. Gaut. 2 nat. bist. Les ailes de ce papillon sont —es, that butterfly's wings are fringed. Petales —s, fringed petals.

FRANGER, frang-zhay, ra. to fringe (une jupe, a petticoat). (by extension) Les hausses avaient frangé le bas de sa robe, the bushes had shred the hem of her dress. Ab.

FRANGER, frang-zhay, FRANGIER, frang-zhy, sm. tech. fringe-maker.

FRANGIPANE, frang-zhe-pan, sf. 4 pastry. frangipane. 2 (parfum) frangipane.

FRANGIPANIER, frang-zhe-pan-yay, sm. bot. red jasmine.

FRANK, frang, sm. See FRANG.

FRANQUE, frangk, adj. f. See FRANG, sm.

FRANQUETTE, frang-ket, sf. loc. À la boune —, most frankly, most candidly.

FRAPPANT, frab-pang, ppr. of FRAPPER, adj. m. fem. —E, striking. Un spectacle —, a striking sight. Ou portrait — de ressemblance, a striking likeness. Une vérité —, an example —, a striking truth, example. Ils donnerent des preuves —es de leur valeur, they gave striking proofs of their colour. Barib. Une circonstance assez —e out agir sur son esprit, a rather striking circumstance must have acted on his mind. S^{te}B.

FRAPPE, sf. 1 stamp. 2 print. set of matrices.

FRAPPE, ppa. of FRAPPER, fem. —E, 1 stroke. Mains —es l'une contre l'autre, clapping of hands. Être — au visage, to be struck in the face. Une cloche lugubre —e à de longs intervalles, a dismal bell tolling at long intervals. Nod. Être — du tonnerre, to be struck with lightning. Être — de quelque chose, to be struck with a thing. Être — d'apoplexie, to be struck with apoplexy. Les feuilles —es le matin par la gelée, the leaves frost-bitten in the morning. Lamart. Un homme qui a déjà été — de plusieurs condamnations, a man who has already undergone several condemnations. Il reprit connaissance, mais il se sentit — à mort, he recovered his senses, but he felt he had received his death-blow. Merim. Être — à mort, to be afflicted with a mortal disease. 2 (de la monnaie, of money) struck, coined. Une médaille bien —e, a medal well-struck. Ug. Un ouvrage — au bon coin, See coin. Vers bien —s, spirited verses. Passage, endroit bien —, a spirited passage. 3 Drap bien —, close well-wrought cloth. 4 Vin —, tired wine. 5 (by extension) (de la lumière, of light) struck. La moire de l'eau —e du soleil, the ripples of water lighted by the rays of the sun. Lamart. 6 fig. (de l'âme, of the soul, the mind) struck. Je fus vraiment — d'étonnement, I was indeed struck with astonishment. Chat. D'une égale boreur nos cœurs étaient —s, our hearts were struck with equal horror. Rac. De mes fatigues attraitis le roi parait —, the king seemed struck with my feeble charms. Rac. J'étais souvent — de la beauté des cérémonies. Barib. Avoir l'imagination —e de quelque chose, être —, to have one's imagination struck with a thing. Avoir l'esprit — d'une idée, to have one's mind struck with an idea. Être — d'une idée, to be wrapped up in an idea. 7 (substantif.) nus. fall. Le leve et le —, the rise and fall. (adjectif.) Temps —, time of the fall.

FRAPPÉMENT, frap-mang, sm. striking, smiting.

FRAPPER, frap-pay, ra. 1 to strike, to smite, to hit. — quelqu'un, to strike a person — quelqu'un avec la main, avec un bâton, to strike a person with the hand, with a stick. Cette pièce de bois l'a frappé à la tête, this piece of wood struck him on the head. Étrange mystère! m'écriai-je en frappant la table du poing, strange mystery! I exclaimed I, striking the table with my fist. Nod. On dirait que les coups de bâton vous ont frappé sur la tête, one would think the beating you received had affected your brains. Ab. La balle qui l'a frappé, the ball which struck him. Les rameurs qui frappaient en cadence les flots harmonieux, the rowers who struck in cadence the harmonious waves. Lamart. — la terre du pied, to stamp on the ground. Frappant tout à tour les hantilles l'une contre l'autre, striking by turns the bangles against each other. Merim. Un d'autour saute qui frappe en s'abattant la terre de son site, a tawny rulture, that, on nighting, beats the ground with its wing. V. Hug. Son pied frappait le sable d'un fer d'or aux cloes de diamants, pawing the sand with a golden shoe riveted with diamonds. Nod. La cloche du village frappait une beure quand, le village clock struck one when. Nod. — quelqu'un d'un poignard, d'un couteau, etc., — quelqu'un, to stab a person. Qui frappe l'air, bon Dieu! de ces lugubres cris? who rends the air good Heavens! with these dismal cries? Boil. La cloche frappe l'air de ses lugubres coups, the bell strikes the air with its dismal toll. V. Hug. Des accents inconnus, du rivage frappaient les échos, unknown accents awoke the echoes of the shore. Lamart. fig. Dieu l'avait frappé d'une infirmité propre à sa malheureuse espèce, God had struck him with an infirmity peculiar to his unfortunate species. Nod. Je sais le malheur qui a frappé votre famille, I am aware of the misfortune that has befallen your family. Merim. — quelqu'un d'un esprit de folie, to send a person a spirit of folly. d'aveuglement, to strike with blindness. d'anathème, de réprobation, etc., to anathematize, to reprobate a person. C'est le —- sur son ennemi mortel, that is striking him a deadly blow. Mol. — son coup, to strike home. — les grands coups, to have recourse to strong measures. — des coups en l'air, to beat the air. (intransitif.) Lorsque le tonnerre balise la tête pour —, when the bolt lowers its head to strike. Merim. — fort, to strike, to hit hard. — comme on soord, to beat most unmercifully. — dans la main pour conclure un marché, to strike a bargain. — sur l'épaule à quelqu'un, to strike a person on the shoulder. — des mains pour applaudir, to clap. — sur l'encolure, to strike on the anvil. L'endroit où le boulet est venu —, the place the ball struck against. Frappant de son bouclier sur la main de T., topping the hand of T. with her nosegay. Nuss. Cucumber de nous s'en fut frappant de porte en porte, each of us went knocking from door to door. Ab. — à une porte, —, to knock at a door. Quand j'allais le matin — à ta porte, tu venais m'ouvrir toi-même, when I went and knocked at your door of a morning, you used to come and open it yourself. Le Sage. Qui frappe? who knocks? L'heure venait de — à coups mesurés à la cathédrale gothique, the measured strokes announcing the hour resounded from the Gothic cathedral. Chat. fig. Est-il donc étonnant que le hasard ait tant de fois frappe si juste? is it then astounding that chance should so often be in the right? Saint.

2 absol. fig. (faire voir, amiger par one grande exaltation) à strik, to smile. La mort l'a frappé au milieu des plaisirs, death struck him down in the midst of pleasures.

Il frappa tous les premiers-nés, he smote all the first-born. Dieu l'a frappé dans tout ce qu'il avait de plus cher, God has struck him in what was dearest to him.

3 (donner une empreinte) to stamp, to strike off. — des médailles, to strike off medals. 4 — de glace, to ice. 5 (de la lumière, of light) to strike, to fall on. Les parties d'un objet que la lumière frappe, où la lumière frappe, the parts of an object on which the light falls. Une bouffée d'air, un torrent de lumière la frappèrent si soudainement que, a puff of air, a flood of light struck her so suddenly that.

Muss. (intransitif.) Le soleil d'avril frappait sur ma tête à petits coups, the April sun sent its feeble rays down on my head. Ab. 6 fig. (Des sens, de l'esprit, of the senses, of the mind) to strike. Reconnaiss la voix qui frappe ton oreille, recognize the voice which strikes thy ear. Rac. Une grande lumière frappe la vue, a great light strikes the sight. J. Jais-je poor mort frappe soudain ma vue, I. I left for dead, suddenly strikes my sight. Kac. Ces trésors viennent — ses yeux, these treasures present themselves to his view. Flor. Cette fleur dont la beauté ne frappe que mes regards, this flower whose beauty shall meet no other eye but mine. Saint. Cette odeur est trop forte, elle frappe le cerveau, that odour is too strong, it affects the brain. Je m'en tiens aux vérités lumineuses qui frappent mes yeux, I rest satisfied with the luminous truths that meet my view. J.-J. Rouss. Un bruit léger vient — mon oreille, a slight noise strikes my ears. Barib. — fortement l'esprit, to leave a strong impression on the mind. Voilà les idées qui me frappent vivement, those ideas produced a strong impression on my mind. Ph. Cbas. — d'étonnement, d'admiration, etc., to strike with astonishment, admiration, etc. — de terreur, to strike with terror.

7 law. fig. to affect. 8 naut. to fix.

SE FRAPPER, vpr. 1 to strike one's self. Se — rudement contre quelque chose, to give one's self a hard blow against a thing. Se — avec une discipline, to scourge one's self. 2 (à soi) Se — la poitrine, to strike one's breast. 3 récipro. Ils se sont frappés l'un l'autre, they struck each other. 4 fig. absol. to be impressed. C'est un homme qui se frappe aisément, he is a man whose imagination is easily affected.

FRAPPEUR, frap-ubr, sm. fem. FRAPPEUSE, striker, hitter, knocker. Esprits —s, spirit-rappers. FRASQUE, frask, sf. freak, trick. FRATER, frab-tayr, sm. (Lat.) 1 anc. surgeon's assistant. (in joke) (marvais chirurgien) sawbones. 2 (dans les troupes, sur les vaisseaux) barber. FRATELLEL, frab-tayr-nayl, adj. m, fem. —LE, 1 fraternal, brotherly. Amour —, brotherly love. Correction —le, brotherly correction.

FRATELLELLEMENT, frak-tayr-nayl-mang, adv. fraternally.

FRATERNISER, frab-tayr-ne-say, en. to fraternize.

FRATERNITÉ, frab-tayr-ne-tay, sf. 1 fraternity, brotherhood. 2 (union) fraternity. Il y a — entre ces deux hommes, there is a fraternal connection between those two men. Il s'attacha à montrer que la — de l'évangile était le plus solide appui de la — civile, he strove to prove that the fraternity of the Gospel was the most solid support of civil fraternity. Merim. d'armes, brotherhood-in-arms.

FRATRICIDE, frab-tré-sid, sm. 1 fratricide. 2 (le crime) fratricide.

FRATRE, frad, sf. (Lat. frater) 4 fraud, guile, deceit, fraudulency. Sans —, guileless. Par —, fraudulently. 2 (en matière de douanes, etc., custom house) smuggling, fraud. Faire la —, to smuggle. Etre pris en —, to be taken in the act of smuggling.

SE FRAUDER, acc. loc. fraudulently.
FRAUDER, frô-day, va. 1 absol. to deceive (quelqu'un, a person). 2 (truster) to defraud (des créanciers, creditors). 3 — les droits, absol. —, to smuggle.

FRAUDEUR, frô-dahur, sm. fem. FRAUDEUSE, defrauder, smuggler.

FRAUDULEUX, frô-dû-luh, adj. m. fem. FRAUDULEUSE, 1 fraudulent, deceitful. C'est un esprit —, he is a deceitful-minded person. 2 (fait avec fraude) fraudulent. Contrat, traité —, fraudulent contract, treaty. Banqueroute fraudulente, fraudulent bankruptcy. Banqueroutier —, fraudulent bankrupt.

FRAXINELLE, frak-se-nel, sf. bot. fraxinella.

FRAYER, ppa. of FRAVER, fem. —E, beader, traden. Chemin, sentier —, beaten road, path. Route —e, way traced out.

FRAVER, fray-ray, va. conjug. like PAYER, 1 (marquer) to pave, to trace out, to open, to prepare. — un chemin, une route, un sentier, une voie, to open a way, a road, a path. fig. — la route, le chemin, la voie à quelqu'un, to pave the way for a person. 2 (frôler, froter) to rub (against), to graze. Le cerf faye sa tête aux arbres, the hart rubs its head against the trees.

SE FRAYER, ppr. 1 to open, to trace for one's self. Se — un passage, to open one's self a passage. L. se fraye un passage à travers les épines, L. opens him- self a passage through the thorns. Mery. Se — un passage dans un fourré to open one's self a passage in a thicket. Se — un passage à travers les ennemis, to cut one's way through the enemy. 2 fig. to carve out for one's self, to pave out for one's self. Se — le chemin à une dignité, à un emploi, to open one's self a way to a dignity, to an employment. Se — le chemin des honneurs, to carve one's self out a way to honours. Se — un chemin au trône, to open one's self a way to the throne.

FRAVER, vn. 1 (des monnaies, of coins) to wear away. 2 (des poissons, of fishes) to mill. 3 fig. to associate (with), to agree. Un garçon qui fraye avec les alguazils n'est pas du tout mon fait, a fellow who has dealings for his associates is not my man. Le Sage. Elles continuent de — ensemble comme de vieux amis, they continue to associate together like old friends. Th. Gaut.

FRAVEUR, fray-yhur, sf. fear, fright, terror, dread. Trembler de —, to tremble with fright. Etre dans des —s continuelles, to be in continual dread. Les —s de la mort, fear of death.

FRAYOIR, fray-ywar, sm. naut. rub.

FRAIDINE, frak-daya, sf. prank, frolic. Navez-vous pas dans votre jeunesse fait vos —s comme les autres? did you not, in your youth, play pranks as well as others? Mol. Il leur survint assez pour voir les —s de V., he surprised them long enough to witness the wild pranks of V. St-B.

FREDON, fruh-dohng, sm. absol. trill. L'un tralne en longs —s une voix glayissante, one with a squeaking voice draws out long trills. Boil. (by extension) Pas un —, pas un cri qui s'échappe de la bande des tnoineux, not a trill, not a chirp escapes from the band of sparrows. Saint.

FREDONNEMENT, fruh-doh-mang, sm. humming.

FREDONNER, fruh-doh-nay, vn. 1 absol. to trill. 2 (chanter entre ses dents) to hum. Elle fredonne sans cesse, she is continually humming. Le bon peuple de B. allait encore fredonnant parfois entre ses dents, the good people of B. still went sometimes humming between their teeth. Nod. (transitively) — une chanson, un air, to hum a tune. (by extension) La Diane au matin fredonnait sa fanfare, the reveille giving out its flourish. V. Hug.

FREGATE, fray-gat, sf. 1 naut. frigate. 2 orn. frigate-bird, sea-swallow.

FREIN, frang, sm. (Lat. frenum) 1 (d'un cheval, of a horse) bit, bridle, curb. Un cheval qui mâche son —, qui ronge son —, a horse that plays with the bit, that chomps the bit. fig. Celui qui met son — à la fureur des hots, he who checks the fury of the waves. Rac. fig. ronger son —, to fret one's self. Mettre un — à sa langue, to bridle one's tongue. 2 naut. frenum, fillet. 3 fig. curb, check, restraint. La sûreté du genre humain semblait demander un — à des pareilles violences, the safety of mankind seemed to require a curb to such acts of violence. Volt. Mon amour ne combat plus de —, my love then threw off all restraint. J.-J. Rouss. Etre soumis au — des lois, to be submissive to the laws. Volt. Mettre un — à ses desirs, à ses passions, to curb one's desires, passions. Sans règle et sans —, tôt on tard on succombe, with no rule and with no check, sooner or later one must fall. Rac. Le rival du premier héros et le — de sa jeunesse, the rival of the first hero and a check upon his youth. Chat.

FRELATAGE, fruh-lat-azh, sm. FRELATERIE, fruh-lat-rec, sf. adulteration, sophistication.

FRELATER, ppa. of FRELATER, fem. —E, vin — adulterated wine. fig. Cela n'est point —, that is genuine. La vie — de Paris, the sophisticated Paris life. Volt.

FRELATER, fruh-lat-ay; va. (des boissons, of drinks) to adulterate, to sophisticate.

FRELATERIE, fruh-lat-rec, sf. See FRELATAGE.

FRÊLE, frayl, adj. mf. froil, feeble, weak. Un — édifice, a frail edifice. Une — barque, a frail bark. — comme un roseau, as weak as a rush. fig. C'est un — appui quelcien, he is but a frail support. Une sante —, un corps —, a weak health, a frail body.

FRÊLER, fruh-lay, vn. naut. See FRELATER.

FRELON, fruh-long, sm. 1 ant. horned-dragon. 2 bot. houx —, knee holly.

FRÉLUCHE, fruh-lûsh, sf. tuft. Bouton — à tufted button.

FRELUQUET, fruh-lû-kay, sm. coxcomb, prig, puppy.

FREMIR, fray-meer, vn. 1 (trembler d'émotion) to shudder, to tremble, to shake, to quiver. C'est à faire —, it is enough to make one shudder. Je fremissais à l'idée que mon tour allait venir, I shuddered at the idea that my turn was coming. Ah. D'où vient que mon cœur fremit d'un saint effroi? what causes my heart to shudder with awe? Rac. — d'indignation, to shake with indignation. L'armée fremit de joie en revoyant son chef, a thrill of joy ran through the army on seeing their leader again. Lamart. Un coursier qui fremit au bruit du canon, au son de la trompette, a steed that quivers at the noise of the cannon, at the sound of the trumpet. Le jeune linceux fremissait de colère, the young lion quivered with anger. Flor. Cet aspect le fit —, that aspect made him shudder. J.-J. Rouss. Cela fait — la nature, that horror-strikes nature. 2 (by analogy) (des choses) to tremble, to vibrate, to rustle. Une corde fremit quand elle est tendue subitement, a cord vibrates when it is stretched out suddenly. Son petit nez tout frémissait, his little nose quivered and rejoiced. Ab.

Les meubles qu'il décrit ont quelque chose d'animé, les tapisseries fremissent, he gives life to the furniture he describes, the tapestries rustle. St-B. Tu ne vois plus — l'aile des seraphins, thou no longer seest the seraphim agitate their wings. C. Del. Sous ses pieds délicats, déjà le flot fremit, under her delicate feet the wave is already agitated. V. Hug. Ces cloches qui fremirent de joie sur mon herceau, those bells which sent forth joyful vibrations at my birth. Chat. Le zéphir qui fremit et qui passe, the zephyr that agitates the air and passes. La Font. J'entendais — le feuillage, I heard a rustle in the leaves. 3 (d'un liquide, of a liquid) to simmer. La mer tremide, the sea boils.

FREMISSANT, fray-me-sang, ppr. of fremir. Le malin inquié se soumettait en —, the master submitted shaking with indignation. St-B. (by extension) Les flots se brisent contre les roches en —, the boiling waves dash against the rocks. —, adj. m. fem. —s, shuddering, shivering, shaking, quivering, vibrating, trembling. J. — d'impatience, J. shaking with impatience. Nod. Un coursier —, a quivering steed. Ses —es ailes, his quivering wings. V. Hug. L'airain —, the vibrating bells. Les vagues —es, the boiling waves.

FREMISSÉMENT, fray-mis-mang, sm. 1 (emotion) shudder, quivering, shaking, trembling. Je ne puis m'en souvenir sans —, I cannot recall it to my mind without a shudder. Je n'ai pour tout accueil que des —s, a shudder was my only reception. Rac. Des —s de rage, a trembling with rage. Le sentis —s, holton murmurs. 2 (semblément) trembling, shivering, tremor. 3 (de l'air, de la mer, des eaux, des vagues, of the sea, of the waters, of the waves) murmuring, rustling. Le — du feuillage, the rustling of the leaves. Les vents agitent l'air d'incurieux —s, the winds fill the air with joyful murmurs. Rac. 4 (d'une cloche, des cordes d'un instrument, of a bell, of the strings of an instrument) vibration. Le — de l'airain, the vibration of the bells. Chat.

FRÊNE, frayn, sm. bot. ash, ash-tree. Du bois de —, ash.

FRENESIE, fray-nay-zee, sf. (Gr.) 1 (égarement d'esprit, fureur violente) frenzy. Etre en —, to be frantic. Accès de —, fit of frenzy. 2 fig. frenzy, madness. Toutes les —s d'un âge le misère, all the frenzies of an age of misery. Nod. Paris se souleva, se poussa des soupirs, l'on était au point de cas, il tomba en —, Paris woke up, mildly remonstrated, they did not notice it, the town became frantic. Heiz. Sa rancune impoissante se tourna en —, his powerless rage became a frenzy. Aug. Th. Amour qui va jusqu'à la —, love amounting to frenzy. C'est une —, une véritable —, it is downright madness.

FRENETIQUE, fray-nay-tik, adj. mf. (substantif.) frantic person.

FREQUEMENT, fray-kah-mang ade. frequently, often.

FREQUENCE, fray-kangs, sf. 1 frequency. La — de ses visites m'importune, his frequent visits weary me. Ne soyez point étonné de la — de mes lettres, do not be surprised at my writing so frequently. Vol. Ses croix de meurtre devaient d'anc — effrayante, the number of those memento-crosses increased in a most frightful proportion. Th. Gaut. 2 med. La — du pouls, de la respiration, the quickness of the pulse, of the breath.

FREQUENT, fray-kang, adj. fem. —E, (Lat. frequens) 1 frequent. Nos entretiens devenaient de jour en jour plus —s, our interviews become more and more frequent every day. Barth. Rendre de —s visites, to pay frequent visits. Au jeu, les petites pertes —es sont comme les petites pluies qui gâtent bien le chemin, at play small losses are like small rain which however cuts up the road. M. de Sév. 2 med. Pools —, respiration —, quick pulse, breath.

FREQUENTATIF, fray-kàng-lat-ai, adj. m. fem. FREQUENTATIVE, 1 gram. frequentative. Verbe —, a frequentative verb. 2 sm. frequentative.

FREQUENTATION, fray-kàng-lab-syong, sf. frequenting, frequentation. La — habitude des hommes de peuple, the habitual frequenting of the common people. Lamart. — des sacrements, the frequent receiving of the sacraments.

FREQUENTE, ppa. of FREQUENTER, fem. —, Faire les lieux —s, to avoid places of resort. Ce spectacle est le plus —, that sight is the most run after. Les endroits les moins —s des humains, the spots least frequented by human beings. La Font. Eglise —e, a church numerously attended.

FREQUENTER, fray-kàng-tay, ra. 1 (banter) to frequent, to associate with, to resort to. — les gens de bien, to frequent good people. Il ne fréquente volontiers que des gens au-dessus de son âge, he takes pleasure only in the company of people older than himself. St-B. J'ai fréquenté plusieurs Anglais de distinction, I have conversed with several distinguished Englishmen. Ab. C. fréquente le monde, C. goes into society. Saint. Un lieu que devait, la déesse bizarre, — sor tout autre, a spot that must be a special place of resort for the unwhimsical goddess. La Font. Notre hôte l'avait beaucoup fréquenté antefois, our host had been formerly a frequent visitor. Ab. C. dont il fréquentait la table, rédigeait ses harangues, C. whose frequent guest he was, drew up his speeches. Lamart. 2 — les sacrements, to receive the sacraments frequently.

FREQUENTER, vtr. to frequent, to frequent the house, the society of, to associate (with), to converse (with). Il fréquente chez un tel, dans la maison d'un tel, he frequents the house of So-and-so.

FRÈRE, frayr, sm. 1 brother. S'aïmer comme deux —s, to love each other like two brothers. Partager, vivre en —s, comme —s, to share, to live like brothers. — de père et de mère, — germain, own brother. — de père, — consanguin, brother of the half-blood, brother by the father's side. — de mère — utérin, uterine brother, brother by the mother's side. Demi —, half-brother. —s jumeaux, twin brothers. — naturel, — bâtard, natural brother. — par adoption, — adoptif, adoptive brother. — de lait, foster-brother.

— d'armes, companion in arms. 2 (by extension) brother, pl. brethren. Tous les hommes sont —s en Adam, all men are brothers in Adam. Les pauvres sont nos —s, the poor are our brethren. Les officiers du plus brillant corps de l'armée anglaise me sont —s, the officers of the most dashing regiment in the English army treat me like brothers. Jacq. 3 des chrétiens, of christians. Tous les chrétiens sont —s en Jésus-Christ, all Christians are brethren in Jesus Christ. —s Moraves, Moravian brethren. 4 (titre) brother, friar. — Hilarien, friar, brother. H. Le — un tel, brother So-and-so. lai. — convers, — servant, lay-brother. 5 fig. Faux —, false brother. 6 —s pl. Les —s prêcheurs, the black friars. Les —s mineurs, the Franciscan brothers. Les —s de la charité, the charity friars.

FRESAIE, fruh-zay, sf. ora. screech-owl.

FRESQUE, fresh, sf. 1 fresco. Peindre à —, to paint in fresco. 2 (peinture) fresco, painting in fresco.

FRESSURE, fray-sûr, sf. (collective.) pluck. — de cochon, husslet, husslet. — de mouton, — de veau, sheep's, calf's pluck.

FRET, fray, sm. naut. 1 (louage d'un bâtiment) freight. 2 (le prix) freight, freightage. Payer le — d'une marchandise, to pay the freight of goods. 3 (la cargaison) freight, cargo, lading.

FRÊTER, fray-tay, ra. naut. to charter, to let to charter, to freight (un navire, a ship). — au mois, au voyage, au tonneau, to charter by the month, by the entire voyage, by the ton.

FRÊTEUR, fray-tubr, sm. naut. charterer.

FRÊTILLANT, fray-te-yàng, ppr. of FRÊTEUR, adj. m. fem. —e, lively, wriggling, frisky. Ou poisson tout —, a fish leaping alive. Fig. Il est arrivé tout —, he arrived quite brisk. Fig. Le style le plus frais, le plus vif, le plus —, the most fresh, lively, brisk style. St-B.

FRÉTILLEMENT, fray-te-yuh-màng, sm. wriggling, frisking.

FRÊTILLER, fray-te-yay, en. to wriggle, to frisk, to frisk about, to fidget. Cet enfant frétille sans cesse, that child is always on the fidget. Comme ces lézards frétillent gentiment! how gracefully those lizards frisk about! Lamart. Cette carpe est bien en vie, elle frétille encore, that carp is quite alive, it wriggles still. Le chien frétille de la queue, the dog wags its tail. prov. pop. Les pieds lui frétillent, his feet long to be in motion; || La langue lui frétille, his tongue itches to speak.

FRETIN, froh-tang, sm. 1 fry. Un carpeau qui n'était encore que —, a carp that was still but very young. La Font. 2 fig. (chose de rebut) trash.

FIETTE, fret, sf. tech. hoop.

FRETI-B, adj. m. fem. —e, ber. pretty. FRETTER, fray-tay, ra. tech. to hoop (un moule, a mold; le manche d'un outil, the handle of a tool).

FRIEUX, fruh, sm. orn. rock.

FRIABILITÉ, fre-ab-e-le-tay, sf. friability, friableness.

FRIABLE, fre-abl', adj. mf. friable, pulcrable.

FRIAND, fryàng, adj. m. fem. —e, 1 dainty, nice. Avoir le goût —, to be dainty. La chère était —e, the fare was dainty. La Font. Etre — de quelque chose, to be partial to a thing. Il est tres — de sucreries, he has a sweet tooth. Fig. Etre — de nouveautés, de louanges, de musique, etc., to be fond of novelties, of praise, of music, etc. Loups paraisits et —s de tuerie, rough-bred wolves and cager for slaughter. La Font. Notre archer, — d'un tel morceau, our archer, greedy of such a morsel. La Font. 2 (substantif.) C'est un —, une —e, he, she is a dainty person.

FRIANDISE, fryàng-deez, sf. 1 dainties, epicurism. 2 —s, pl. (socreries, etc.) dainties, goodies.

FRIBOURG, fre-boor, s. geog. Freiburg, Fribourg.

FRICANDEAU, fre-kàng-do, sm. culin. friicandeau, lorded lard. Ou — à l'oselle, a friicandeau with sorrel. — de boeuf, de lapin, etc., friicandeau of beef, of rabbit, etc.

FRIASSÉ, ppa. of FRIASSER, fem. —e, fig. pop. Cet argent est —, c'est autant de —, that money is wasted, it is so much wasted.

FRIASSE, fre-kah-say, sf. friassée. — de poulets, chicken friassée. Une — de mords de mouton, sheep's trotters friassées. (in joke) Fig. Une bonne — de pain sec, a good piece of dry bread.

FRIASSE, fre-kah-say, ra. 1 to friassée. — un poulet, one tanché, to friassée a chicken, a trench; des pommes de terre, potatoes. 2 fig. to squander away, to dissipate. Mon émerveillement dure toujours qu'il ait trouvé le secret de — huit millions, I am still lost in astonishment at his having found the secret of squandering away eight millions. Volt. FRIASSEUR, fre-kah-subr, sm. bad cook.

FRIÇHE, frish, sf. agri. waste land. EN FRIÇHE, adv. loc. waste, fallow, uncultivated. Laisser une terre en —, to let a piece of ground lie fallow. Une vigne en —, a vine undressed.

FRICOT, fre-ko, sm. pop. ragout, dish, stew. pop. Du bon —, good eating.

FRICOTER, fre-ko-tay, en. 1 pop. to live well. 2 (faire la cuisine) to cook.

FRICOTEUR, fre-ko-tubr, sm. lem. FRICOTEUSE, 1 pop. good liver. 2 (soldat qui va à la maraude) marauder, straggler.

FRICTION, frik-syong, sf. surg. friction, rubbing. Faire une —, des —s, to rub. —s sèches, —s humides, dry rubbing, wet rubbing. —s mercurielles, mercurial frictions.

FRICTIONNER, frik-syo-nay, ra. surg. to rub (one partie malade, an affected part).

SE FRICTIONNER, vpr. to rub one's self (avec une brosse, with a brush; avec une pommade, avec un liniment, with a pomatum, with a liniment).

FRIGIDITÉ, fre-zhe-i-tay, sf. 1 med. frigidity. 2 naut. frigidity.

FRIGORIFIQUE, fre-go-re-ik, adj. mf. nat. phil. frigorific.

FRILEUX, fre-lab, adj. m. fem. FRILEUSE, 1 chilly. Un homme —, a chilly man. (by extension) Du plaisir la frileuse saison, the chilly season of pleasure. Muss. Fig. Des boueux — qui se courent en gemissant, chilly birch-trees which bow their heads with a moan. Nod. Il avait l'esprit —, he had a fastidious mind. St-B. 2 (substantif.) Les —, chilly persons.

FRILEUX, sf. 1 (sorte de coiffure) a sort of head-dress. 2 zool. the red-breast.

FRIMAIRE, fre-mayr, sm. Fr. rev. Frimaire (third month of the French republican calendar from November 21 to December 22).

FRIMAS, fre-mah, sm. hoar, white frost, rime. Le temps des —, the wintry season. Tout respirait ici les rigueurs de l'hiver et l'horreur des —, every thing here spoke of the rigour of the winter and the dreary frost. J.-J. Rouss. L'uniformité blancheur des —, the uniform whiteness of the rime. Les arbutus qui pâlissent sous le poids des —, the arbutus that bent under the weight of the hoar frost. Nod.

FRIME, freem, sf. pop. pretence, sham. Il n'en a fait que la —, it is all sham. Ce n'est que pour la —, it is only a make-believe.

FRINGALE, frang-gal, sf. fit of hunger.

FRINGANT, frang-gàng, adj. m. fem. —e, smart, dapper, dashing, frisky. Avoir l'air —, to have a dashing look. Un cheval —, a frisky horse. Fig. Le geste cavalier, les défauts —s, a bold gesture, and all sorts of flippant airs. St-B. (substantif.) Fig. Ce jeune homme fait le —, that young man gives himself smart airs. Ce sont des majos qui coiffent des —es sur le Prado, then there are majos flirting with coquettes on the P. Th. Gail.

FRINGEUR, frang-gay, en. 4 absol. to frisk, to skip about. 2 (des chevaux fringants) to frisk about.

FRIOL, fre-yool, s. geog. Friuls.

FRIPE, ppa. of FRIPER, fem. —e, Des hardes —es, rumpled clothes. Livre —, a crumpled book.

FRIPIER, fre-pay, ra. 1 (chiffonner) to rumple, to crumple (ses habits, one's clothes). 2 (by extension) (gâter) to wear out, to spoil. Cet enfant fripe ses hardes peu de temps, that child wears out his clothes in a short time. 3 fig. pop. (consumer) to squander away, to dissipate. 4 fig. pop. (manger goulument) to bolt, to gobble up, down.

FRIPE-SAC, sm. 1 glutton. 2 bad cook.

SE FRIPER, vpr. 1 to be rumpled. 2 (by extension) to wear out, to be worn out.

FRIPERIE, frip-ree, sf. 1 frippery.

old clothes. Tous ses habits ne font que —, he has nothing on him but rags.
Vendre de la —, to sell old clothes.
Un marchand de —, an old clothes man.
prov. fig. Se jeter sur la — de quelqu'un, se ruér, se mettre, tomber sur sa —, to dust o person's jacket, to fall upon a person; || fig. Il ue fut pas épargné dans la conversation, on se jeta sur sa —, he was not spared in the conversation, he was pulled to pieces. 2 (le métier) braker's trade. 3 (le lieu) rag-fair, old clothes shop. 4 (le s'habiller) jamais que la —, never wear anything but old-hand clothes. Voilà on habits qui sent la —, that is a coat that smells of rag-fair.

FRIPIER, fre-pyay, sm. fem. FRIPIÈRE, 1 old clothes man, broker. 2 fig. — d'e-crits, plagiarist. Mol.

mig, guyard; un — one.
un RIPOU, fro-dong sm. fem. — Ne, I rogue, knave, cheat. Un maltre — a arch rogue. Un — Gaffe, un arnaux rogue, 2 (personne fourbe) rogue. J'ai pelle un chat un chat, et Rollet un —,
I call a spade a spade and R. a rogue.
Boil. 3 (in joke) C'est un petit —, he is a little rogue. Un — enfant, a rogue of a child. La Font. Une — ne adroite, a rogue, a gipsy. Un —, a deciver. C'est un —, un grand —, he is a great deciever. (Adjective.) roguish, knavish.
Cet homme-là est bien —, that man is a great rogue. Est-elle — ne! what a cheat
she is! 5 (adjective) (coquetry) roguish.
Une jeune fille (young girl) — a fine —, le minois — (young girl has a roguish eye, took. Un petit air —, a little roguish look.

FRIPONNÉ, ppa. of FRIPONNEN, fem.
—e, J'ai été — sur la route par des maîtres de poste, I have been cheated on the road by post-masters. B. de St-P.
FRIPONNEAU, fre-po-uo, sm. little rogue, knave, cheat.

FRIPONNER, fre-po-nay, va. 4 to cheat, to trick. — au jeu, to cheat at play. 2 (des personnes, of persons) to cheat, to take in. 3 absol. to cheat. C'est un homme qui ne fait que —, qui passe sa vie à —, he is a man who does nothing but cheat, who spends his life in cheating.

FRIPONNERIE, fre-pon-ree, sf. roguery, knavery, cheating, roguish, knavish trick, piece of roguery. Il y a de la — à cela, there is roguery in that. C'est une —, it is a piece of knavery.

FRIQUET, fre-kay, sm. orn. tree-sparrow.

FRIRE, freer, ra. irreg. JE FRIS, TU FRIS, IL FRIT; JE FRIRAI, TU FRIRAS, IL FRIRA, NOUS FRIRONS, VOUS FRIREZ, ILS FRIRONT; JE FRIRAIS, TU FRIRAIS, IL FRIRAIT, NOUS FRIRIONS, VOUS FRIRIEZ.

FINIR; LES FINIRONS; VOUS FINIREZ ILS FRAIGENT; in the 2d pers. of the imperat., FBIS, (Lat. frigere) 4 (faire cuire) to fry — des œufs, des côtes lettes, to fry eggs, chops. fig. popu-N'avoir plus de quoi —, to be ruined
 fig. Il n'y a rien à — dans cette affaire there is nothing to be gained in that affair; || prov. Il n'y a rien à —, il n'y pas de quoi — dans cette maison, there is nothing to eat in that house.

FAIRE, vn. Une sole qui frit, a sole that is frying. Le beurre qui frit dans la poêle, butter frying in the frying-pan. Faire — des côtelettes, to fry chops.

FRISE, freez, sf. geog. Friesland.
FRISE, sf. arch. frieze. — plate flat frieze. — doree, gilded frieze. (by onology) tech. (surface plate) frieze 3 (étouffe) frieze. 4 (toile) frieze. 5 war Cheval de —, cheval-de-frieze.

FRISE, ppo. of FRISER. fem. — e,
Cheveux — s, curled hair, curly hair
Des chiens — s comme des moutons dogs with curly hair like sheep. Ab.
Un enfant à tête — e et blonde, a child with fair curly hair. T. Gaut. Dia.
d'or ou d'argent — cloth of fine gold silver thread. 2 but. Chou —, white-headed, savoy cabbage. 3 (substantiv.) Un grand —, a tall frizzly-pated fellow. Merim.

FRISEUR, fer-zay, ou, s' (des cheveux, of the hair) to curl, to frizzle. — ses cheveux au fer, aux fers, avec le fer, with the fers, to curl one's hair with the curling-irons. — ses cheveux avec des papillottes, to put one's hair in pappas. Fer à... curling-iron, curling-longue. — quelqu'un, to curl a person's hair. (du poil), des boucles, of the curls, of snags. — se faire friser, to get one's hair styled (to graze), to ruffe, to brush, to skimmer along. Le vent frisait l'eau, the wind ruffled the water. La balle n'a fait que lui — la moustache, the ball did but graze his mustachio. P. frisait l'air et les canards, P. skimming through the air and along the water. La Faut. (ennus) — la corde, See CORDE. — la quarantaine, a quarantine, quinquante, six, getting over, past, or forty, fifty, etc. L'impertinent, the blab, etc., to be somewhat impudent, to be something of a cozzomb.

FRISER, vn. 1 (des cheveux, des poils, of hair, stuffs) to curl. Ses cheveux frisent naturellement, his hair curls of itself. Cela fait — les cheveux, that makes the hair curl. Un chien dont le poil frise, a dog with curly hair. (by extension) Mes cils frissent à la chaleur du feu, the heat of the fire curl'd my eye-lashes. Ab. 2 prnt. to slur.

SE FAISER, rpr. to curl, to fall into curl, to curl one's hair. Se — par boucles, to curl one's hair in ringlets. Se faire — par un coiffeur, to have one's hair curled by a hair-dresser.

FRISON, fre-zong, sm. fem. —NE, Friesian, Frieslander.

FRISOTTET, fré-zo-tay, ro. (in joke and disparagingly) to be cruel.

SE FRISOTTER, vpr. to becurl one's self.
FRISQUETTE, fris - kët. sf. print.

FRISQUETTE, ms - ket, 3/1. print cricket

PRISON, free-song, sm. 4 shivers, shivering, cold fit, cold chills, chilliness. Le — de la fièvre, a shivering fit. Le — n'a pris, I was taken with a cold shiver. (by extension) Le epidémie a pelme ride sur le — balout le a peaudans ce air de neige, a cuticle scarcely affected by the shivering of the skin in that snowy atmosphere. L'aimé. 2 figs (saisissement) shudder, shiver, shudder. Un — de terreur, a shudder of terror. J'en ai le —, I shudder at it. Sentiments doux —, de doux —, to feel a gentle emotion, gentle emotions. 3 figs (agitation légère) rustling. Au — d'une feuille il est prompt à s'effeuiller, at the rustling of a leaf, he is ready to take flight. Andr.

FRIS-ONNEMENT, fre-son-mâng, snu
1 shiver, shivering, chilliness. 2 fig shudder.

FRISONNER, fro-say-pa, ra. 1. to shiver. La fièvre va le prendre, il commence à —, he is about to have the fever; he begins to shiver. 2 (by extension) (trembler de froid) to shiver. Des cavaliers nusseins frissonnaient sous un ciel rigoureux, Numidum horsemen shivering under an inclement sky. Chat. 316. (être saisi d'un frisson) to shudder (s'effrayer). Je fus saisi de frissonner, to feel (thrill), to quake, to shudder, to feel (thrill). Je frissonnais de peur, I quaked with fear. Le Sage. Vous n'avez fait grand plaisir d'avoir frissonné de ce qu'il dit S-H., you gave me great pleasure by shuddering at what S-H. said. M^{me} de Sev. Un malheur dont la seule idée m'a fait —, a misfortune the bare idea of which makes me shudder. J.-J. Rousseau. Je frissonnai d'effroiement et de plaisir. I felt both with dread and with pleasure. Balth. fig. Il m'a donné à tout le sentiment de la vie et fait — la page elle-même, he gives feeling and life to everything and a thrill seems to run through the very page itself. St.-B. 40g. (deschoses, of things) to vibrate, to flutter.

Je viens d'entendre — les plaques de cuivre du tambour de basque, I have just heard rustle the brass plates of the tambour.
Th. Gaut. Nus banderoles incertaines frissonnaient au souffle du vent, our pen-dant streamers fluttered at the breath of the wind. V. Hugo.

FRISÉE, fré-zîr, sf. 1 curis, curling. 2 (l'état de ce qui est frisé, head-dress, curls. Avec sa — et ses jambes elle me fait l'effet de, etc., with her curis and her thin legs she reminds me of, etc. Muss. 3 (des étoffes, of stuffs), little knot, crispature.

FRIT, free, ppa. of FAIRE, fem. — E.
Poisson —, artichauts —s, fried fish, fried artichokes. fig. pop. Cet homme est
—, it is all up with that man. fig. fam.
Toat est —, all is frittered away, there is nothing left.

FRITILLARIE, fre-te-yayr, sf. bot.
fritillary.

FRIITE, fret, sf. † glass-mak. frit.

2 fritting.
FRITURE, fre-tûr, sf. 1 frying. — au beurre, frying with butter. 2 (huile, beurre) oil, butter, grease. 3 (by ex- tension) fried fish. Une huître —, a good dish of fried fish.

FRIVOLEUX, fré-vo-lé, adj. m. (Lat. trifoliosus) 1 frivolous, trifling, aimless, shallow. Des amusements —, frivolous pleasures. J.-J. Ruuss. Je n'imagine rien de si —, I cannot imagine anything more frivolous. Montèsq. Excuse —, shallow excuse. Un — espoir, a vain hope. 2 (des personnes ou de pers.) frivolous, shallow. Ce brave homme est bien — pour un vieillard, that good man is very frivolous for an old man. Nod. La nature nous a fait —, sature made triflers of us. Volt. Tête —, empty head. 3 sin. (des choses, of things) trifles. Le goût d'—, a taste for trifles, for what is frivolous.

FRIVOLITÉ, fre-vo-le-tay, sf. 1 frivolity, frivolousness, triflingness. 2 (chose frivole) trifle. Ne s'occuper que de —s to be taken up but with trifles. Il dépense en —s l'argent qu'il reçoit d'A. he spends in trifles the money he receives from A. Aug. Th.

FROC, frok, sm. coat, frock. Preudro le —, to turn monk. Quitter le —, to throw off the cowl. fig Jeter le — au orties, to throw off the cowl. (by ex tension) to renounce one's profession.

FROCARD, fro-kar, sm. (disparagingly monk.

FROLD, frwá, sm. (Lat. frigus) 1 cold coldness. Le — de l'air, de l'eau, the coldness of the air, of the water. Éprouve une sensation de —, to feel chilly. L'

— court dans ses veines, his blood running cold. La Font. Un serpent engourdi de —, a snake benumbed with cold. La Font. J'ai pris — en sortant du bal. / I took cold on leaving the ball-room. Balz. Gelede —, to freeze with cold. Il est touroide de —, he is quite stiff with cold.

 Sentir de —, to feel the cold. Tremble

Sentir du —, to feel the cold. Trembler de —, to shiver, to tremble with the cold.
Avoir — à la tête, aux mains, to have one's head, one's hands cold. Le — de la fièvre, the cold fit. Cette tête ainsi prise — de la mort, that head thus presented of the window had frozen the blood in her veins. Ste B. Elle a en des — s et de veins, St-B. Elle a eu des —s et de faiblesses qui nous ont fait croire qu'elle était passée, she had cold fits and fainting which made us believe she was dead

Mme de Sev. 82. Vous devriez bien

M^{me} de Sev. fig. Vous devriez bien en donner à ceux qui ont — au cœur, you ought to give some to those who are cold-hearted. Lamart. fig. fain. Cela ne lui est pas venu à l'esprit, what is all the good of that?

fait ni - ni chaud that is all the same to him ; ¶ Cela ve fait ni chaud ni —, that is neither here nor there ; that does not alter the matter. prov. fig. Souffler ni chaud et le —, to blow hot and cold.

(particul.) (de l'air, de la température) cold. Durant le — de l'hiver, during the cold of winter. Le — pique, it is bitter cold. Il fait un — noir, it is raw weather. Un beau —, bright cold weather. Les chaleurs de l'été y succèdent tout à coup à un — excessif, the heats of summer suddenly succeed excessive cold. Volt. Les rigueurs du —, the severity of the cold. 3 fig. (air sérieux) coldness, frigidity. Cet homme est d'un — qui glace tout le monde, the coldness of that m-n's manners freezes everybody. Elle est d'un beau —, she is an inamiable beauty. Balz. Il lui répondit avec son — ordinaire, he answered him with his usual coldness. 4 fig. Il y a du — entre eux, there is a coldness between them. 5 fig. (dans ouvrages d'esprit, of literary works) coldness.

FROID, adj. m. leu. — E, 1 cold. Pays —, cold country, climate. Temps, vent, air —, cold weather, wind, air. L'hiver a été très —, the winter has been very cold. Eau —, cold water. Avoir les main —es, to have cold hands. Le cadavre était déjà —, the body was already cold. —, émissante et presque inanimée, cold, groaning and almost lifeless. Rac. Dans son foyer — il cherche quelque étincelle du feu de la veille, in his cold hearth, he seeks for few sparks of the fire of the day before. Jan. Boire —, to drink cold. Quelque chose de — coulait dans mes veines, something chilly ran through my veins. Ah. Non sang devint aussi — que le sang d'un poison, my blood became as cold as the blood of a fish. Ah. (by analogy) Tempérament —, cold constitution. Vêtement —, cold garment. Humeurs —, king's evil, scrofula. Sueur —, cold sweat, cold perspiration. fig. Sang —, coldness. Être dans son sang —, to be cool. Être de sang —, to be quite collected. Garder son sang —, to keep one's temper. Tuer quelqu'un de sang —, to kill a person in cold blood. 2 (refroidi) cold. Tous les mets étaient —, all the dishes were cold. Le dîner est — tout —, the dinner is cold, quite cold. Dejeuner — viandes —es, a cold breakfast, cold meats. 3 (particul.) (qui sert à corriger l'excès de la chaleur animale, cold, 4 fig. phlegmatic, cold, dissipation, lukewarm, dull, frigid. C'est un homme —, he is a cold dissipation man. Point — et point jaloux, entre ces deux points-ci, neither cold nor jealous, remark these two points. La Fout. Des caractères —s et tranquilles, cold and quiet characters. J.-J. Rouss. Je l'ai trouvé bien — là-dessus, I found him very cold on that subject. On le trouvait — avec les jeunes gens de la société, he was considered cold to the young men of the society. Mérim. Un cœur —, a cold heart, cold-heartedness. Une âme —, an unimpassioned soul, dull soul. La — raison, cool reason. C'est une tête —, he has a cool head. Un esprit —, a collected mind. Ami —, lukewarm friend. Orateur —, imagination —, e, cold orator, cold imagination. (substantif.) Faire le —, to appear cold, indifferent, unconcerned. 5 fig. (by analogy) (de l'air, du ton, des discours, etc.) cold, reserved. Cet homme a l'abord —, that man is cold in his address. Avec ce ton dogmatique et dissipationnel, tone they are lively. J.-J. Rouss. Quittez cet air — et mecontent, lay aside that cold and displeased air. J.-J. Rouss. Faire — e mine à quelqu'un, to look coldly upon a person. Sa réponse fut — et réservée, his answer was cold and reserved. Que servent de —es leçons démenties par un exemple continué? what is the use of cold lessons belied by continual example? J.-J. Rouss. Battre —, See BATTRE. 6 fig. (by analogy) (des sentiments, des actions, of sentiments, of actions) cold, frigid. Son bumeur était — et sévère, his temper was cold and severe. Volt. Ma — tristesse l'agrit, my dull sadness exasperates him. J.-J. Rouss. De —es atrocités, cold-blooded atrocities. 7 fig. (des ouvrages d'esprit, of literary works) cold, dull, frigid, flat. Style —, frigid, dull style. Une — plaisanterie, a sorry joke. (by analogy) Un écrivain, un auteur —, a dull writer, author. 8 fig. peint. sculpt. cold.

A FROID, adv. loc. cold. Infuser une drogue à —, to infuse a drug cold. Teindre à —, to dye cold. fig. Faire de l'enthousiasme, de la colère à —, to get up a mock enthusiasm. Je ne sais si c'est que je lis ces choses à —, à an an d'intervalle, mais, etc., I know not whether it is because I read these things coolly, and after the lapse of a year, but, etc. Jacq.

FROIDEMENT, frwâ-mang, adv. 1 coldly. Être logé, être vêtu —, to have cold lodgings, to be thinly clothed. 2 fig. (d'une manière sérieuse) coldly. Il le reçut —, he received him coldly. 3 fig. (dans passions) coolly, calmly, dispassionately.

FROIDEUR, frwâ-dûr, sf. 1 coldness, chill, chilliness. La — de l'eau, the chilliness of water. La — du marbre, the coldness of marble. (by analogy) La — de la vieillesse, the chill of old age. fig. La — de l'âme, du caractère, the coldness of the soul, of the temper. 2 fig. (froid accueil) coldness, lukewarmness, indifference, unconcern. Il m'a reçu avec —, he gave me a cold reception. Ne vous arrêtez point à ces —s passées, do not stop at those marks of indifference that no longer exist. Rac. Les —s et les relâchements dans l'amitié ont leur cause, lukewarmness and declines in friendship proceed from some cause. La Bruy. (by analogy) La — d'un accueil, d'une réception, d'une réponse, etc., the coldness of a reception, of an answer. Il y a de la — entre eux, there is a coldness between them. Je serais bien aise de savoir ce qui vous a mis en —, I should be very glad to know the cause of your mutual coldness. M^{me} de Sév. R. est en — avec nous, c'est-à-dire avec le gouvernement, R. is on government terms with us or rather with the government. Jacq.

FROIDIR, frwâ-dêr, vu. absol. To grow, to get cold. Ne laissons pas — le dîner, let us not keep the dinner waiting. (transitivement) fig. La goutte d'eau qui froidit sa rage fut une réflexion rapide, the drop of water that cooled his rage was a rapid reflection. Balz.

SE FROIDIR, vpr. to grow, to get cold, absol. Cela se froidit, that is getting cold. See REFROIDIR.

FROIDURE, frwâ-dûr, sf. 4 (froid) coldness, cold. La — de la saison, the coldness of the season. Pour garantir les autres feuilles contre la —, to protect the other leaves against the cold. Saini. Les autres alléguant la — du climat s'en tiennent à Porto, others pleading the coldness of the climate as an excuse are true to old Port. Jacq. 2 poetic. (l'hiver) winter. Dès que l'aquilon ramène la —, as soon as the North wind brings back winter. Boil. Comme un roc en hiver par la — osé, like a rock worn out in winter by the cold. Muss.

FROISSE, pp. of FROISSE, fem. — E, Une robe —, a rumpled dress. Ce tabac est — et rompu en petits morceaux, this tobacco is bruised and broken up into small pieces. Th. Gaut. fig. Âmes sensibles qui avaient été —es par le choc des passions, sensitive souls that had been bruised by the struggles of the passions. Nol. Elle ne veut laisser sur son chemin aucun propriétaire —, the company will not leave on her way any offended landowner. Mary. Pour cette âme —, it y avait qu'un seul refuge, la vie du cloître, a cloister was the only place of refuge for this wounded soul. Aug. Th.

FROISSEMENT, frwâ-mang, sm. bruising, rampling, clashing. Des —s d'animaux qui marchent, the rustling of animals against each other in walking. Chat. Le — des battonnettes, the clashing of bayonettes. Lamart. Le — du fer contre le fer, the clashing of weapons. Lamart. fig. Le — des intérêts, the clashing of interests.

FROISSER, frwâ-say, ra. 1 to bruise. Son cheval s'abattit et le froissa dans sa chute, his horse fell down and bruised him in his fall. Aug. Th. 2 (froter fortement) to strike, to push against. — Ils descendent précipitamment l'escalier en froissant du coude le roi, they rush down the staircase elbowing the king as they passed. Le Sage. (by extension) La foule entra en froissant les grilles, the crowd entered pushing against the gates. V. Hug. L'épée froissait les raquettes étiées, the sword clashing against the clanking stirrups. V. Hug. 3 (chiffonner) to rumple, to tumble, to crease, to crumple. — du papier, to crease paper. Prenant la carte et la froissant entre ses doigts, taking the card and crumpling it between his fingers. Muss. Il froissait entre ses doigts le riche duvet du manteau, he rubbed between his fingers the rich down of the cloak. Lamart. (by analogy) — des épis, des fleurs dans la main, to crush ears of corn, flowers in one's hand. 4 fig. (blesser) to clash with, to hurt, to wound, to offend. C. de qui elle ne pouvait en rien — les goûts, C. whose taste she could offend in nothing. Balz. Il craignait de — ses collègues, Lamart. Il ne faut pas — les opinions de ceux, etc., we must not clash with the opinions of those, etc.

SE FROISSER, vpr. to be bruised, rumpled, tumbled.

FROISSEUR, frwâ-sûr, sf. bruise, rumple, crease.

FROLEMENT, frôl-mang, sm. brushing, grazing, rustling. Le — de la langue contre le palais, the contact of the tongue with the palate. Je sentis le — de sa robe, I felt her gown brushing past me. Il nous examina de si près que je sentis le — de ses moussaches, he examined us so closely that I felt a brush from his mustachios. Ah. Use par le — des vents et des pluies, worn out under the action of the winds and rains. Lamart.

FROLEH, frôl-lay, ra. to graze, to brush, to rustle. La balle lui frôla les cheveux, the ball grazed his hair. La langue frôle le palais quand on prononce l'L on le T, the tongue comes into contact with the palate when one pronounces the L or the T. Des chameaux chargés dont les flanes frôlaient les parois des maisons, loaded camels whose sides grazed against the walls of the houses. Th. Gaut.

SE FROLER, vpr. to brush, to rustle against each other. Les groupes bondissants des valseurs qui se froient en passant, the bounding group of waltzers who brush by each other. Saini.

FROMAGE, fro-mazh, sm. 4 cheese. — de Gruyère, Gruyère. — de Hollande, Dutch cheese. — blanc, cream cheese. — mou, — à la pie, soft cheese. Vivre de pain et de —, to live on bread and cheese. Ce — est d'une pâte fine, this cheese is very rich. Un morceau de —, a bit of cheese. — à la glace, — glacé, ice cheese, pork-butich. — de cochon, collared brown. priv. fig. Entre la poire et le —, at dessert. 2 (un pain, une miette) cheese. FROMAGEON, fro-mah-zhong, sm. bot. mallow.

FROMAGER, fro-mah-zhay, sm. fem. FROMAGÈRE, cheesemonger.

FROMAGER, sm. bot. silk-cotton-tree.

FROMAGERIE, fro-mah-zhe, sf. cheesecrater, cheese-dairy.

FROMENT, frô-mang, sm. (Lol. fromentum) wheat. Du blé —, wheat. Farine de pur —, wheaten flour. — locar, See ÉLEVATRE.

FRONTACÉE, fro-mang-tab-say, adj. f. bot. frumentaceus.

FRONCE, frongs, sf. gather.

FRONCE, ppa. of FRONCE, fem. —, Peau —, wrinkled skin. Les sorcils —, with a frown. Robe —, a dress gathered.

FRONCEMENT, frongs-mang, sm. wrinkling, pursing, knitting, puckering. Le — des sorcils, the knitting of the brows, frowning.

FRONCER, frong-say, va. 1 to wrinkle, to pucker, to knit, to purse. — le sorcil, the sorcils, to pucker, to knit one's brows. M. L. frongait un peu le sorcil, M. L. gave a slight frown. Merin. — les lèvres, to purse one's lips. Cela frong la peau, that wrinkles the skin. 2 (du linge, of linen) to gather, to pucker (des poignets, wrist-bands; une jupe, a petticoat).

FRONCER, vpr. to wrinkle.

FRONCIS, frong-see, sm. gather, gathering. Faire on — à une manche, à une jupe, to make a gathering in a sleeve, a petticoat.

FRONDE, frong, sf. 1 sling. Faire tourner une —, to swing a sling round. Une troupe de gens armés de —, a troop of people armed with slings. 2 sur, sling. 3 Fr. bist. Fronde. La guerre de la —, the war of the Fronde.

FRONDER, frong-day, va. 1 to sling. — des pierres, to sling stones. David frondait Goliath. David killing Goliath with a sling. De Bross. absol. S'annoncer à —, to amuse one's self with slinging stones. 2 (by extension) to hurt, to throw, to fling. Il lui fronda une assiette à la tête, he hurled a plate at his head. 3 fig. to carp at, to cast reflections (on, upon), to animadvert (on), to rail (at), to jeer (at). — le gouvernement, le ministère, to reflect on the government, the ministry. — les travers, les ridicules, to jeer at eccentricities, ridicules. Il se soaie peu qu'il fronde ses pièces pourvu qu'il y vienne du monde, he cares but little about his pieces being criticized provided they draw people to his house. Mol. Sa mission consistait à — les mauvaises manières de l'administration, his mission consisted in censuring the bad measures of the administration. Nod. Il les frondait tous sans pitié, he railed at them all without mercy. Le Sage. C'est one des raisons qui le portent à — si fort l'ignorance de ses confrères, that is one of the reasons which induce him to rail his comrades upon their ignorance. De Bross. absol. B. ce grand sceptique qui a 1. jours froué, B. that great sceptic who has railed at every thing. Nod.

FRONDER, frong-dohr, sm. 1 slinger. Il fit lancer leurs membres, par ses —, as he dedans des murs de la ville, he ordered their limbs to be thrown over the walls of the town by his slingers. Aug. Th. 2 fig. carper, animadvert, fault-finder. C'est un — déterminé, an — eternal, he is an eternal fault-finder. 3 sm. fem. frondeuse, Fr. bist. a frondeur, a frondeuse.

FRONT, frong, sm. (Lat. frons) 4 forehead, brow. Grand —, large —, large forehead. — élevé, ouvert, découvert, high, open forehead. — baissant, retreating forehead. Avoir des rides au —, sur le —, to have a wrinkled forehead. Se faire une bosse au —, to get a bump on one's forehead. 2 (by extension) countenance, face. Un — sérieux, un — sévère, a serene, a stern countenance. Il lit au — de ceux qu'un vain luxe environne, he reads in the countenances of those surrounded with vain luxury. La Font. Les Spartiates n'osent déridier leur —, the Spartians dare not give way to rejoicing. Barth. Un — de dix-sept printemps, a face of seventeen. Chat. Qui out sa se faire on — qui ne ronge jamais, that have accustomed themselves never to blush. Rac. 3 (by extension) poetic. (la tête) head. Coarber, humilier son —, to bow, to humble one's head. Lever, relever le —, to raise one's head. 4 (de certains animaux, of some animals) forehead. Le — d'un bœuf, d'un éléphant, the forehead of an ox, of an elephant. 5 fig. (impudence) boldness, impudence. Avez-vous le — de le nier? shall you have the face to deny it? De quel — osez-vous vous présenter devant moi? how dare you be so bold as to come into my presence? C'est avoir bien du —, it is being very impudent. Un — d'airain, See AIRAIN. 6 fig. (d'un bâtiment, etc., of a building, etc.) front. Faites glisser au — des toits les rayons horizontaux d'un soleil levant, let the horizontal rays of the rising sun descend on the fronts of the roofs. Nod. Le — d'un bataillon, the front of a battalion. Passer sur le — d'une troupe, to pass in front of a troop. Faire — la face, to face about. Hile. — 1 stand, front! — de bandière, See BANDIÈRE. 7 poetic. (cime) brow, summit. Un rocher qui cache son — dans les nues, a rock the summit of which is concealed in the clouds. Ce mont qui menaçait le ciel de son superbe —, that mountain that threatens Heaven with its lofty brow. La Font.

DE FRONT, adv. loc. 1 in front. Attaquer l'ennemi de —, to assail the enemy in front. fig. Heurter de — les préjugés, to shock prejudices. to run counter to prejudices. 2 (côte à côté) abreast. Un défilé où il ne peut passer que deux hommes de —, a pass in which only two men can go abreast. fig. Menant de — le travail et les plaisirs, leading a life of business and pleasure. See B.

FRONTAIL, frong-tab-yuh, sm. man. front.

FRONTAL, frong-tal, adj. m. fem. —, anat. frontal.

FRONTAL, sm. 1 sorg. frontal. 2 (instrument de torture) frontal.

FRONTEAU, frong-to, sm. 1 frontlet. 2 (des chevaux, of horses) frontal.

FRONTIÈRE, frong-tyaz, sf. 1 (limites) frontier, border, confine, limit, boundary. L'armée était sur la —, the army was on the frontier. Passer la —, to cross the frontier. fig. Les Spartiates sont, pour ainsi dire, sur les — des vertus et des vices, the Spartians are, as it were, on the confines of virtues and vices. Barth. 2 (adjectif) frontier, border. Ville —, border-town. Province —, border province.

FRONTIGNAN, frong-te-nyang, s. 1 geog. Frontignan. 2 sm. (ville) Frontignac.

FRONTISPICE, frong-tis-pees, sm. 4 (d'un édifice, of a building) frontispiece. (d'un livre, of a book) frontispiece. 3 (gravure) frontispiece.

FRONTON, frong-long, sm. 1 (d'un édifice, of an edifice) frontal, pediment. 2 haut breast-work.

FROTTAGE, froh-tazh, sm. rubbing, waxing and polishing.

FROTTE, ppa. of FROTTER, fem. —, 1 Une salle cirée, —, a room waxed and polished. 2 fig. Les ennemis ont été bien —, the enemy has had a good brushing. 3 fig. Un homme — de grec et de latin, a man with a smattering of Greek and Latin.

FROTTEMENT, froh-mang, sm. friction, rubbing. Electriser un corps par le —, to electrify a body by friction.

FROTTER, froh-tay, va. 1 to rub. — avec la main, avec les mains, to rub with the hand, the hands. — au métal avec de l'emeri, to rub a metal with emery. — deux pierres l'une contre l'autre, to rub two stones one against the other. Il avait passé la nuit à — et à médica-menter un de ses moles, he had spent the night in rubbing and doctoring one of his moles. Mérim. 2 (coudre) to rub. On lui frotta le bras avec du baume, they rubbed his arm with balm. 3 (avec de la cire, etc.) to wax and polish (des chaises, chairs; le parquet d'un appartement, the floor of an apartment). absol. Ce domestique sait —, that servant knows how to wax and polish. 4 fig. (battre) to pommel, to drub. On l'a frotté comme il faut, on l'a frotté d'importance, he has had a good drubbing. Je saurai vous les oreilles, I shall warm your ears for you. Mol.

SE FROTTER, vpr. 1 to rub one's self. See avec la main, to rub one's self with the hand. Se — en quelque partie du corps, to rub any part of one's body. Je me frottais les mains à l'idée que, I rubbed my hands at the idea that. Ab. Se frottant les mains d'un air de satisfaction, rubbing his hands with an air of satisfaction. Saint. Se — contre quelque chose, to rub one's self against a thing. Se — l'un l'autre, to rub each other. Se — l'un contre l'autre, to rub against each other. fig. Il faut que les âmes pensantes se frottent l'une contre l'autre pour faire jaillir la lumière, thinking souls must come into contact with each other that light may gush forth. Volt. fig. Se — à quelqu'un, to come into contact with a person. Rien de plus facile que de se vivre à A. sans se — aux — d'un pays, nothing easier than to live at A. without coming into contact with the inhabitants of the country. Ab. (by analogy) Quelle foule! Je n'ai garde de m'y aller —, what a crowd! I'll take care to keep clear of it. Mol. || Se — à quelqu'un, to provoke a person. Il nous conseillait d'y regarder à deux fois avant de nous — au roi des montagnes, he advised us to look twice before meddling with the king of the mountains. Ab. prov. fig. Qui s'y frotte s'y pique, touch me who dares. 2 (s'indigne) to rub one's self. Se — d'unile, to rub one's self with oil.

FROTTER, fm. to rub.

FROTTEUR, froh-otr, sm. floor waxer and polisher.

FROTTOIR, froh-wâr, sm. 1 (linge) rubber. 2 (chez les barbiers, at a barber's) shaving-rag.

FROUER, frooy, vn. hunt to peep, to pipe.

FROU-FROU, froo-froo, sm. (onomatopée) rustling. Elle entendit dans l'escaier le — d'une robe de soie, she heard on the stairs the rustling of a silk-dress. Balz.

FRUCTIDOR, frük-te-dor, sm. Fructidor, twelfth month of the French republican calendar (from August 18 to September 16).

FRUCTIFIANT, frük-te-tyang, ppr. of FRUCTIFIER, adj. fem. —, fructifying. fig. Ces industries —, es qui enrichissent les peuples, those thriving manufactures which enrich nations. Gay.

FRUCTIFICATION, frük-te-fe-kah-syong, sf. bot. fructification.

FRUCTIFIER, frük-te-tyay, vn. XOUS FRUCTIFIONS, VOUS FRUCTIFIEREZ. (Lat. fructificare) 1 to bear fruit, to be fruitful, to thrive. Le champ de son voisin fructifie et rapporte, the fields of his neighbors thrive and are fertile. La Font. 2 fig. to prosper, to profit. Faire — la parole de Dieu, to sow the word of God on good ground. Vos avis, vos leçons ont bien fructifié, your counsels and lessons have borne fruit. 3 bot. to fructify.

FRUCTUEUSEMENT, frük-te-ohz-nang, adv. with fruit, to good purpose.

FRUCTUEUX, frük-tu-uh, adj. m. fem. FRUCTUEUSE, (Lat. fructuosus) 1 fruitful. Brancheux —, fruitful branches. 2 fig. profitable, lucrative. Leur —, their profitable exile. Chat. Un emploi —, a lucrative employment.

FREGAL, frû-gal, adj. m. fem. — F. (Lat. frugalis) frugal, sparing. Un homme extrêmement —, an extremely frugal man. (by analogy) Vie — e. frugal life. Repas —, table —, frugal meal, fare.

FREGALEMENT, frû-gal-mâng, adv. frugally. Vivre —, to live frugally.

FREGALITÉ, frû-gal-e-tay, sf. (Lat. frugalitas) frugality.

FRIGIVORE, frû-zhe-vor, adj. mf. 1 frugivorous Des animaux —, frugivorous animals. 2 (substantif) —, pl. frugivorous animals.

FRUIT, frûee, sm. (Lat. fructus) 1 fruit. — ec. dried fruit. — capsulaire, capsular fruit, pod fruit. L'enveloppe d'un —, the envelope of a fruit. Le — o. noyers des chênes, the fruit of the walnut-tree, of the oak. 2 (charnu ou pulpeux) pulpous fruit. Arbre —, fruit tree. — vert, green, raw fruit. — mûr, ripe fruit. — à noyau, stone fruit. — à pépin, kernel fruit. Cet arbre porte, rapporte de bon —, that tree bears, brings forth good fruit. — à l'eau-de-vie, fruit preserved in brandy. Les — s. de la saison, the fruits of the season. Une corbeille de —, a basket of fruit. — s. rouges, strawberries, currants. fig. le — defendu, forbidden fruit. 3 (le dessert) fruit, dessert. Servir le —, to serve up the dessert. Quand on est au —, when dessert is on the table. Le — était beau, there was a fine dessert. 4 — s., pl. (tout ce que la terre produit) fruits, productions. Les — s. de la terre, the productions of the earth. 5 — s., pl. law. (les produits, les revenus) produce, product, fruits. 6 (by extension) fruit, offspring. 7 (by extension) (enfant) offspring. Il est le seul — de leur union, he is the only fruit of their union. Les — s. de cet hymen, the offspring of that hymen. 8 fig. (utilité) fruit, profit, advantage, benefit. Je n'ai retiré aucun — de cette affaire, I have reaped no benefit from that affair. Le — de ses travaux, de ses veilles, the fruit of his labours, of his nightly labours. Voudrait-on perdre le — d'un sacrifice qui a coûté si cher? should you like to lose the fruit of a sacrifice that has cost so dear? J.-J. ROUSS. Jouissons tranquillement du fruit de nos peines, let us quietly enjoy the fruit of our labours. Volt. Quel — recueillent-ils de leur grandeur? what advantage do they reap from all their grandeur? Flech. Il avait recueilli le — de son habileté, he had reaped the fruit of his skill. Bar. Lire on ouvrage avec —, to derive benefit from the reading of a work. (by analogy) Les — s. d'un travail, d'une industrie, the fruits of a labour, the produce of a manufacture. 9 fig. (l'effet, le résultat d'une cause) fruit, effect. L'on joint alors du — de sa haine, one then enjoys the fruit of one's hatred. La Bruy. Quels seront de tes soins les inutilités? — what would be the useless fruit of your points? Rac. Une parfaite tranquillité d'esprit devint le — de ma maladie, perfect tranquillity of mind followed my illness. Le Sage. Une grosse fièvre, — de mon affliction me reluit au château, a violent fever, brought on by my distress of mind, dethawed me at the castle. Le Sage. Toi tardif d'une lente vieillesse, thou, whose lofty wisdom is not the late fruit of a slow old age. Buil. Ces mesures ne tarderont pas à porter leur —, it was not long before those measures bore fruit.

FRUIT, sm. mason, batter.

FRUITE, frûee-tay, adj. m. fem. — e. oer. fruited.

FRUITERIE, frûee-tee, sf. 1 (lieu) fruit-loft, fruit-room. 2 (le commerce) fruit-trade, green-grocery.

FRUITIER, frûee-tyay, adj. m. fem. fruit-bearing, fruit-bearing. Arbre —, fruit-tree. Jardin —, fruit-garden, orchard.

FRUITIER, sm. fem. FRUITIÈRE, 1 fruiterer, green-grocer. La boutique d'un —, a green-grocer's shop. Marchand —, merchant fruiterer, green-grocer. 2 (verger) orchard. 3 (lieu) fruit-loft, fruit-room.

FRESQUIN, frûs-kang, sm. pop. Il a perdu tout son —, tout son saint —, he has lost his all.

FRUSTE, frûst, adj. mf. (Lat. frustum) defaced, worn. Médaille —, defaced medal. Coquille —, a shell worn. Un marbre —, a defaced marble. (by analogy) Ces toiles —, those defaced paintings. Nod. Des draperies assez —, draperies worn out. Tu. Gaut. fig. Le souvenir lui-même — et grossier, the remembrance itself imperfect and ill-defined. Lamart. Les batteries de J. paraissent aussi — et aussi rouillées, the batteries of J. would appear as coarse and as old-fashioned. Nod.

FRUSTATOIRE, frûs-tat-war, adj. mf. (Lat. frustratorius) law. frustratory.

FRUSTIE, pp. of FRUSTER, fem. — e. Eure — dans ses espérances, to be frustrated in one's hopes. fig. L'espérance publique — e. tout à coup par la mort de cette princesse, public hope suddenly frustrated by the death of the princess. Boss.

FRUSTER, frûs-tray, v. (Lat. frustrare) to defraud, to frustrate, to disappoint. — ses créanciers, to defraud one's creditors. Il l'a frustré de ses espérances, he has frustrated his hopes. — l'attente, l'espoir, l'espérance, les espérances de quelqu'un, to frustrate the expectations, the hopes of a person.

FUCUS, fû-lûs, sm. (Lat. fucus) nat. hist. fucus.

FUGACE, fû-gass, adj. mf. (Lat. fugax) 1 med. fugacious, fugitive, volatile, fleeting, transient, variable. Symptômes, frissons —, fugacious symptoms, shivering. 2 bot. fugacious.

FUGITIF, frû-zhe-tif, adj. m. fem. FUGITIVE, (Lat. fugitivus) 1 fugitive, runaway. Un esclave —, a runaway slave. Un criminel —, a criminal who has absconded, a fugitive from justice. 2 fig. (qui passe) fugitive, passing. La Seine à regret fugitive, the Seine hastening by with regret. Buil. La caillie fugitive, the fugitive quail. Flor. Les voiles fugitives, the fugitive sails. V. Hug. Un ombre fugitive, a passing shadow. 3 fig. (peu durable) fugitive, fleeting, transient, brief. Éclat —, transient splendour. Ce rêve est bien —, mais quand j'en sors, je me sens rafraîchi, this dream is short-lived, but when it is over, I feel calmer. Jacq. Je n'oublierai jamais ces — instants, I shall never forget these brief moments. V. Hug. Des biens —, fleeting goods. (by analogy) Les propos éphémères — comme ceux des jeunes filles, the talk was light like that of young girls. Chab. 4 fig. Pièces fugitives, stray pieces. Poésies fugitives, fugitive pieces.

FUGUE, fig. sf. (Lat. fuga) mus. fugue. Faire une —, une double —, to compose a fugue, a double fugue. fig. Faire une —, to run away from home.

FUI, fûee, pp. of FUIR, fem. — e. fled. FUIR, fûee, sf. small pigeon-house.

FUIR, fûeer, vn. irreg. FUYANT; JE FUIS, TU FUIS, IL FUIT, NOUS FUYONS, VOUS FUYEZ, ILS FUYENT; JE FUISAIS; JE FUIS; JE FUIRAI; JE FUIRAIS; FUIS; QU'IL FUIRE; QUE JE FUISSE (Lat. fugere) 1 to flee, to fly, to take flight. On ne lui reprochait jamais d'avoir fui, he will never be reproached with having fled. Chien, berger, tout fui vers le village, dog, shepherd, all fled towards the village. La Font. Fuis plutôt de ces lieux, flee these places, flee his presence. Cora. Fuyons dans la nuit infernale, let me seek the shades below. Rac. Les rois fuyaient, les rois n'étaient pas de sa taille, the kings fled, the kings were no match for him. V. Hug. Une dame espagnole fuyant de M. a moment old, o

*Spanish lady, flying from M. at the moment when Merim. Ils dissient, fuyant bien vite à leurs tanières, they said, quickly stealing off to their den. Flor. Empêcher de —, to prevent from escaping. Faire — les ennemis, to put the enemy to flight. Se trouvant dans l'impossibilité de —, finding flight was impossible. 2 fig. to elude. Je ne puis terminer avec cet homme, il fuit toujours, il ne fait que —, I cannot finish with that man, he always gives me the slip. 3 (by analogy) (des choses, of things) to fly, to glide away, to flee, to take flight, to escape. Les nuages qui fuient, the clouds that sail along. Un ruisseau qui fuit dans la prairie, a stream that glides away in the meadow. A sa voix la mer fuit, le ciel tremble, at his voice the sea shrinks back, the Heavens tremble. Rac. Nous suivions la mer qui fuyait avec nous, we followed the sea which glided on with us. Lamart. (by extension) Le pays est plat, la plaine fuit à perte de vue, the country is flat, the plain stretches out as far as the eye can reach. V. Hug. L'espace fuyait devant moi, space fled before me. Ab. L'hiver a fui, winter has fled. Quand le jour fuit, at the decline of day. Millev. Hélas! nous, le temps fuit, let us hasten, time flies. Nos beaux jours fuient rapidement, our happy days glide away rapidly. Cette succession ne peut lui —, he would not inherit. Il ne saurait lui —, that inheritance cannot escape him. 4 point. to appear at a distance. 5 fig. (du front, to recede, to retreat. Un front arrondi fuyant en arrière, a brow that recedes. Lamart. 6 (d'un vase, of a vase) to run, to leak. 7 naut. — à la lame, — devant le temps, to scud.*

FUIR, va. to fly, to fly from, to flee, to flee from, to avoid, to shun. l'ennemi, to flee from the enemy. Il contemple l'oiseau qui fuit l'oiseau, he contemplates the bird that flies from the bird. V. Hug. fig. L'homme fuit l'homme, mon fies from man. V. Hug. Il m'a donc fui sans me laisser de trace, he has then fled from me without leaving any traces. V. Hug. Il fuyait les cités, he fled from cities. La Font. Il recherchait les uns et fuyait les autres, he courted the society of some and avoided that of others. Merim. Au fond de sa cellule, il fuit ce front, ces yeux qui troubent sa prière, he buries himself in his cell to avoid the sight of that brow, those eyes which disturb his prayer. C. Del. — la mauvaise compagnie, to shun bad company. — le péril, to avoid danger. — le châtiment, to fly from punishment. Quand tu seras heureux, nous fuirons ta présence, when you are happy, we will avoid your presence. Flor. Tous les animaux terrestres fuient l'eau, all terrestrial animals shun water. Buil. Il craignait et fuyait toute occupation facheuse, he feared and shunned all troublesome occupation. Muss. Pourquoi — un éloge que vous méritiez si bien? why shrink from praise that you deserve so well? Beaum. — le vice, to shun vice. — les occasions; du péché, to keep out of the way of temptation. Fuyez les dangers de votre jeunesse, fly the dangers of your youth. Fen. Tous deux fuyaient les crâtes du sort, both fled the cruelty of fate. Muss. fig. La parfaite raison fuit toute extrémité, perfect reason avoids every extreme. Mol. La paix a fui ce séjour, peace has fled from this dwelling. Le sommeil me fuit, sleep flies my eyelids.

SE FUIR, vpr. 4 recipr. to shun, to avoid each other. 2 fig. Se — soi-même, to fly from one's self.

FUITE, fûee, sf. 1 a flight, running away, escape. Prendre la —, to take flight, to betake one's self to flight. Mettre en —, to put to flight. Il n'y avait de salut que dans la —, there was no safety but in flight. fig. La — du vice, shunning vice. La — de l'occasion, flying the occasion. La — du mal, avoiding evil. 2 fig. (délai échappatoire) evasion, shift, subterfuge. 3 fig. (des choses qui passent) flight. La — des années, the flight of time. J'ai vu sans murmurer la — de ma joie, I saw, without repining, my joy take its flight. V. Hug. 4 fig. (rare) (du front) retreat. Son buste m'a toujours frappé par la — du front, his bust always struck me by its retreating forehead. Sic-B.

FULGURANT, fûl-gû-ran, adj. m. fem. — v. fig. lightning, flashing, fulgurating. La tête de Mirabeau avait une laideur grandiose, — e, the head of M. was of imposing, fulgurating ugliness. V. Hug. Un regard —, a fulgurating look. Balz.

FULGURATION, fûl-gû-rah-syong, sf. (Lat.) chem. fulguration.

FULIGINEUX, fû-le-zhe-puh, adj. m. fem. FOLIGINEUX, (Lat. fuliginosus) fuliginous.

FULMINANT, fûl-me-nang, ppr. of FULMINER, adj. m. fem. — E, 1 fulminant, thundering. Jupiter —, the Thunderer. 2 chem. fulminating. Poudre — e, fulminating powder. Or, argent —, fulminating gold, silver. 3 (qui éclate en menaces) threatening, menacing. Ce prophète toujours — de l'ancien régime, this prophet of the old government always fulminating. Lamart. 4 fig. angry, wrathful. Lancer au regard —, to cast a furious look. Écrit —, writing full of ire.

FULMINATE, fûl-me-nat, sm. chem. fulminate.

FULMINATION, fûl-me-nah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 chem. 2 cas. law. fulmination. La — des bulles, the fulmination of the bulles.

FULMINER, fûl-me-nat, vn. (Lat. fulminare) 1 chem. to fulminate. 2 fig. to fulminate, to storm. Il fulmine étrangement contre vous, he storms against you strangely. Il est en colère, il fulmine, il tempête, he is in a passion, he is thundering and storming.

FULMINER, va. can. law. to fulminate (des bulles, bulls; une sentence d'excommunication, an excommunication). (by extension) Je fulmine au mémoire et demain je t'assigne, I publish a charge and tomorrow I summon you. Etien.

FUMAGE, fû-mazh, sm. (de l'argent filé) colouring, luckering.

FUMANT, fû-mang, ppr. of FUMER, adj. m. fem. — g, smoking, reeking, steaming, fuming. Tison —, smoking brand. Des viandes —es, smoking meat. — de sang, reeking with blood. (by analogy) — de carnage, reeking with slaughter. fig. Des lieux tout —s de carnage, spots all reeking with carnage. Volt. fig. — de courroux, de colère, fuming with anger.

FUMÉ, ppr. of FUMER, fem. — E, 1 smoked. Jambon —, langues —es, smoked ham, tongues. 2 agri. Terre bien — e, land well dunged.

FUMÉ, sm. tech. smoke-proof.

FUMÉE, fû-may, sf. (Lat. fumus) 1 smoke. Une chambre plelée de —, a room full of smoke. Deux morceaux de bois vert jetés sous se consumer, de grosses —s, two pieces of green wood threw out, without burning, a thick smoke. Chat. Les dernières —s des feux du bivouac, the last smoke from the fires of the bivouac. Lauart. La glorieuse — des batailles, the glorious smoke of battles. Lacord. Sentir la —, to smell smoke. La — des flambeaux, the smoke of the torches. La — d'une pipe, la — du tabac, the smoke of a pipe, tobacco-smoke. Noir de —, smoke-black. fig. S'en aller en —, to vanish into smoke, to end in smoke. La croisée se perdait en —, the crusade turned to nothing. Nieh. fig. fam. Il veut de la —, c'est un vendeur de —, he is a dealer in smoke. prov. fig. Il n'y a point de — sans feu, where there is a smoke, there is a flame; || Il n'y a point de feu sans —, a strong passion always betrays itself. 2 (la vapeur qui s'exhale des viandes chaudes) smoke. La — du rôti, the smoke of the roast meat. prov. fig. pop. Manger son pain à la — du rôti, to be present at an entertainment of which one does not partake. 3 (vapeurs qui s'élèvent des corps humides) reek, vapour, steam. Il se leva une — de la rivière, des marécages, a vapour rose up from the river, the marshes. fig. La — du sang qu'il demandait sans cesse lui avait porté à la tête, the reek of the blood that he was continually demanding had mounted to his brain. Lauart. 4 fig. (éboues vaines, frivoles) smoke, bubble, phantom. Cette — qu'on nomme la gloire, that bubble glory. Tout n'est que —, all is vanity. La réputation est une —, reputation is a bubble. Volt. Lorsquela — de la gloire est dissipée, when the bubble glory has burst. Buff. 5 — s, pl. (vapeurs qui montent de l'estomac au cerveau) fume. Les —s du vin, the fumes of wine. fig. Le rabattus un peu les —s de son enthousiasme en lui montrant, etc., I cooled his enthusiasm by showing him, etc. De Boss. Tous ces discours abaissent dans le moment mes orgueilleuses —s, all that language at once dissipated my dreams of pride. Le Sage. Il me montra au cerveau ne sais quelles —s de mercuriel, I know not what fumes of anger rushed up to my brain. Abt. 6 — s, pl. ven. fumets. Les —s du cerf, the fumes of the stag. Les —s de la bête, the fumes of the animal.

FUMER, fû-may, vn. (Lat. fumare) 1 to smoke. Le volcan fumait encore, the volcano smoked still. Ce bois fume beaucoup, this wood smokes very much. Cette chambre fume, cette cheminée fume, this room smokes, that chimney smokes. (impers.) Il fume dans cette chambre, it smokes in that room. 2 poetic. Fais —s les autels, to offer sacrifices. Même au pied des autels que je faisais —, j'offrais tout à ce Dieu, even before the altar, offering a sacrifice, I gave all to that God. Rac. Tous les temples ouverts fument en votre nom, all the temples are open and burn incense in your honour. Rac. 3 (exhaler des vapeurs) to reek, to smoke, to steam. Au printemps on voit les marécages —, les prés —, in the spring the marshes, the meadows, are seen to send forth vapours. Ce cheval s'est échauffé, il fume, that horse has heated himself, he is reeking. Leur sang fumait encore, their blood was still reeking. (by extension) La terre fumait encore de leur sang, the earth was still reeking with their blood. 4 fig. pop. (avoir du dépit) to fume.

FUMER, va. 1 to smoke, to smoke-dry (en jambon, des harengs, a ham, herrings). 2 (du tabac) to smoke. — une pipe de tabac, use pipe, to smoke a pipe of tobacco, a pipe; un cigare, a cigar; de la sauge, sage. absol. Il fume régulièrement, par bouffées égales, he smelt forth the smoke in regular puffs. Abt. Il ne fait que —, he does nothing but smoke. 3 agri. to dung, to manure (une terre, un champ, a field, a piece of land).

FUMER, ppr. to become smoked, smoke-fired. Mettre au jambon à la cheminée pour qu'il se fume, to put a ham in the chimney to be smoked.

FUMÉON, fûm-rong, sm. smoky bit of charcoal.

FUMET, fû-may, sm. flavour. Ce vin a un bon —, this wine has a good flavour. Le — d'un perdrix, the flavour of a partridge.

FUMETERRE, fûm-layr, sf. bot. fumitory, fumatory, fumiter.

FUMIER, fû-muir, sm. smoker.

FUMÉUX, fû-mu, adj. fem. FUMEUX, (du vin, de la bière, of wine, of beer) fumeous, fummy, heady.

FUMIER, fû-may, sm. (Lat. fumus)

1 dung, muck, manure. fig. Ce n'est que du —, it is nothing but trash. Une mare, une fosse à —, a dung pit. 2 (by extension) (toutes sortes d'engrais) dung, manure. 3 (amas) dunghill. prov. Hardi comme un coq sur son —, as bold as a cock on his own dunghill. fig. Il ne faut pas l'attaquer sur son —, he must not be attacked on his own ground. prov. Être comme Job sur son —, to be as poor as Job. prov. fig. Mourir sur son —, to die on a dunghill, in a ditch.

FUMIFUGE, fû-me-fûzh, adj. mf. smoke-preventing. Appareil —, smoke-preventer.

FUMIGATION, fû-me-gah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 chem. med. fumigation. 2 (action) fumigation. 3 (action d'exposer un corps à la fumée) fumigating, fumigation.

FUMIGATOIRE, fû-me-gat-wâr, adj. mf. med. fumigating. Boîte —, fumigating-box.

FUMIGER, fû-me-zhay, va. chem. to fumigate.

FUMISTE, fû-mist, sm. chimney-builder, chimney-doctor.

FUMIVORE, fû-me-vor, adj. mf. smoke-consuming. Appareil —, smoke-consuming apparatus.

FUMOIR, fû-mwâr, sm. smoking-room.

FUMURE, fû-mûr, sf. manure.

FUNAMBULE, fû-nang-bul, s. mf. (Lat. funambulus) rope-dancer, funambulist.

FUNEIRE, adj. mf. (Lat. funebus) 1 funeral. Pompe —, honours — s, funeral pomp, honours. Oraison —, chant — s, funeral oration, anthem. 2 fig. (lugubre) funeral, mournful, dismal, ominous. Cri —, dismal cry. Image —, mournful image. Oiseau — s, ominous birds.

FUNÉRAILLES, fû-nay-rab-yoh, sf. pl. (Lat. funeralia) funeral (sing.) obsequies (pl.).

FUNEIRAIRE, fû-nay-rayr, adj. mf. (Lat. funearius) funeral. Frais — s, funeral expenses. L'accompagnais de loin les pompes —s, I followed at a distance the funeral procession. V. Hug. Colonne —, commemorative column.

FUNESTE, fû-nest, adj. mf. (Lat. funestus) fatal, baleful, disastrous. La guerre lui a été —, war was fatal to him. Nouvelles —s, disastrous news. C'est — passion, that fatal passion. J.-J. Boss. Les —s influences de ce climat, the baleful influences of that climate. Volt. Des accidents —s se mêlèrent à ce désastre, this disaster was chequered with fatal accidents. Volt. Vous ne demetiez point cette race —, you do not belie your fatal origin. Rac. Cette disposition de l'esprit n'a rien de —, that disposition of mind has nothing fatal in it. Rod. Le renard, autre Ajax, aux volailles —, the fox, another Ajax, fatal to poultry. La Font.

FUNESTEMENT, fû-nest-mang, adv. fatally.

FUNGUS, fung-gûs, See roscos.

FUNICULAIRE, fû-ne-kû-layr, adj. mf. (Lat. funicularis) consisting of ropes.

FUNIN, fû-nang, sm. nat. white hair.

FUR, fûr, sm. Aa — et à mesure, à — et mesure, in proportion as, as soon as.

FURET, fû-ray, sm. 1 cool. ferret. 2 Chasser avec le —, chasser au —, to hunt with a ferret. 2 fig. ferreter, Pout Puy. 3 (sorte de jeu) a sort of children's game.

FURETAGE, fûr-tazh, sm. hunt. hunting with a ferret.

FURETER, fûr-layr, vn. 1 à hunt with a ferret. 2 dans une garende, to hunt in a warren with a ferret. (transitivement) une garende, un bois, un terrier, to hunt with a ferret in a warren, in a wood, out of a burrow. 2 fig. fouiller, chercher) to ferret, to rummage, to ransack. Elle se mit à — partout, she began to ferret about everywhere. Le Sage. Moi je furetais dans les coins et recoins du etc., I went on searching every corner of the etc. Th. Gaut. 3 fig.

(s'empresser à savoir des nouvelles) to pry about. Il ne fait que — partout pour savoir ce qui se passe, he does nothing but pry about to learn what is going forward. (transitively) — des nouvelles, to hunt after news.

FURETEUR, fûr-tuhr, sm. 1 ferretter. 2 fig. (celui qui fouille) ferreter. Il connaissait en — tous les magasins de bric-à-brac, he had ransacked all the curiosity-shops. Sic-B. 3 fig. (celui qui s'enquiert de tout) Paul Pry. — de nouvelles, news-hunter.

FUREUR, fû-rohr, sf. (Lat. furor) 1 (folie furieuse) fury, rage, frenzy. Entrer en —, to get into a fury, in a rage. (hyperb.) C'est un homme extrême en toutes choses, il aime et il hait jusqu'à la —, he is extreme in every thing, he loves to distraction and hates to madness. Avec —, furiously. Faire —, to be in rage, in fashion. Ce châteleur fait — that singer is all the rage. 2 (extrême colère) fury, rage, anger. Être transporté de —, to be transported with fury. Voilà ce qui me jeta dans des accès de — et de rage qui m'agitèrent par degrés jusqu'au désespoir, this is what threw me into fits of fury and rage which agitated me by degrees till they drove me to despair. J.-J. Rousseau. L'indignation et la — sont encore peintes sur son visage, indignation and fury are still painted on his face. Féu. Pendant qu'il assouvissait leur —, whilst he was glutting their rage. Volt. Sa tendresse se changea tout à coup en —, her tenderness was suddenly converted into rage. Le Sage. 3 (la colère de Dieu) wrath. 4 (des animaux, of animals) fury, rage. Un lion en —, a lion in a rage. 5 fig. (des choses, of things) fury. La — de la tempête, the fury of the tempest. La — des fûts, the fury of the waves. Rac. La — de la guerre civile était nourrie par, the fury of the civil war was fed by. Volt. La — des flammes, the fury of the flames. 6 (passion demeurée) passion, mania. Il la — du jeu, he has a passion for gaming. La — de rimer, the mania of rhyming. 7 (habitude importune) madness, rage. Il a toujours la — de se mêler des affaires des autres, he is always seen upon meddling with things which do not concern him. La — de ceux qui veulent avoir de l'esprit, c'est de faire des livres, the passion of those who set up for wits, is to write books. Montesq. 8 (transport) fury, transport, enthusiasm. — prophétique, prophetic fury. — bachique, bacchical enthusiasm. — maritale, marital fury. Une sainte — s'empara de lui, a holy fury took possession of him. 9 —s, pl. (transports frénétiques) fury, transport, rapture, acts of fury. Les —s de l'amour, du désespoir, the transports of love, of despair. Les —s d'Orésie, the transports of Orestes. Recoulaus sa vengeance aux —s de la haine, recognize her vengeance by the transports of your daughter. Rac. Sauveteux des ses —s, save us from his fury. De poétiques —s, poetical frenzy. (by extension) Les —s de la guerre civile, the throes of civil war.

FURIBOND, fû-re-bong, ad. m. fem. —e, (Lat. furibundus) 1 passionné. 2 (dont les traits, les gestes, etc., annoncent une grande colère) furious, wild. Il vint à nous tout —, he came to us all in a passion. Des yeux —s, furious-looking eyes. Ou regard —, on visage — on air —, a furious look, face, air. 3 (substantif.) furious person.

FURIE, fû-ree, sf. (Lat. furia) 1 (fureur) fury, rage. Entrer en —, to get into a fury, to become furious, to get into a rage. Quand sa — sera passée, when his fury is over. 2 (d'un animal, of an animal) rage. 3 (de certaines choses, of certain things) fury, wildness, rage. La — de la tempête la — des vents, the fury of the tempest, of the winds. 4 (ardeur) fury, ardour, impetuosity. C'est une nation qui va au combat avec —, it is a nation that goes to battle with fury. La — française, the « furia française ». 5 (l'état le plus violent d'une chose) fury, heat, height. Dans la — du combat, de la mêlée, il arriva que, in the heat of the fight, it happened that Dans la — de la fièvre, in the height of the fever. 6 myth. Fury. Les trois —s, the three Furies. fig. Ce créancier est comme une — attachée à ses pas, that creditor is like a Fury continually dogging him. 7 fig. (by allusion) (femme extrêmement méchante) fury. C'est une —, une vrate —, une — d'enfer, she is a fury, a true fury, one of the furies of hell.

FURIEUSEMENT, fû-ryub-mang, adv. 1 furiously. 2 fig. (prodigieusement) prodigiously, tremendously. Il est — grand, he is prodigiously tall. Être — riche, to be tremendously rich. Elle est — laide, she is frightfully ugly.

FURIEUX, fû-ryab, adj. m. fem. furieuse, (Lat. furiosus) 1 (en fureur) furious (ad), mad (ad), raging. Devenir —, to get, to grow, to become furious. Le peuple — demandait la mort du tyran, the people in a fury demanded the death of the tyrant. Lion —, fierce, raging lion. Taureau —, mad bull. 2 (qui exprime la fureur) furious, fierce. Gestes —, furious gestures. Cris —, furious cries. 3 (impétueux) furious, ardent, impetuous, raging, fierce. Combat —, furious fight. Vent —, fierce wind. Tareut —, raging torrent. Tempête furieuse, furious tempest. (morally) Une passion rendue furieuse par les obstacles, a passion goaded to madness by obstacles. J.-J. Rousseau. L'ambition aveugle et furieuse, blind and furious ambition. 4 (excessif) prodigious, tremendous. 5 (substantif) madman.

FURILLES, fû-rôl, sf. pl. fiery exclamations.

FURONCLE, fû-rongkû, sm. med. (Lat. furunculus) furuncle, boil.

FURTIF, fû-rûl, adj. m. fem. FURTIVE, (Lat. fortivus) furtive, stealthy, stolen, surreptitious. Entrer d'un pas —, to steal in. Un regard —, a stealthy look. Une œillade furtive, a stolen glance. —s copies furtives de ces mémoires, a surreptitious copy of those memoirs. Sic-B. (by analogy) Une main furtive, a hidden hand.

FURTIVEMENT, fû-rûv-mang, adv. furtively, stealthily, by stealth.

FUSAIN, fû-zang, sm. 1 bot. spindle-tree, prick-wood. 2 Crayon de —, charcoal-pencil. Esquisse au —, sketch with charcoal.

FUSAROLLE, fû-zar-ol, sf. arch. fusarole.

FUSEAU, fû-zo, sm. 1 spindle. (particul.) Le — des Parques, the fatal Sisters' thread. prov. fig. Avoir des jambes de —, to be spindle-shanked. Ses jambes de —, his spindle-shanks. La Font. 2 (pour la dentelle, etc.) distaff, bone, bobbin. Dentelle au —, bone-lace, bobbin-lace. 3 tech. bobbin, leaf of pinion, arle.

FUSEE, fû-zay, sf. 1 (le fil qui est autour du fuseau) spindleful. prov. fig. Demêler une —, to unravel an intrigue. 2 pr. rocket. — volante, sky-rocket. Jeter des —, to let off rockets. — à serpenteaux, honorary rockets. La baguette d'une —, the stick of a rocket.

fig. Une — d'éclats de rire, peals of laughter. Th. Gaut. Ces émérites ne passaient encore que pour les — d'un esprit qui s'amuse, those eccentricities were considered merely as the freaks of a mind seeking amusement. Sic-B. Les notes s'épanouissaient en —s dans le chant du rossignol, the nightingale poured forth a bright sparkling stream of song. V. Hûg. 3 harol fusée. 4 vet. fusée.

FUSELÉ, fûz-lay, adj. m. fem. —e, 1 spindle-shaped, slender. Colonne —e, spindle-shaped column. Doigt —, taper finger. 2 her. fuselé.

FUSER, fû-zay, m. to fuse, to melt.

FUSIBILITÉ, fû-ze-he-le-yat, sf. fusibility.

FUSIBLE, fû-zeebl', adj. mf. fusible.

FUSIFORME, fû-ze-form, adj. mf. bot. fusiform, spindle-shaped. Racine —, fusiform root.

FUSIL, fû-zee, sm. 4 (briquet) steel. Pierre à —, gun-flint. Batta le —, to strike a light, to strike fire. 2 obsol. (batterie) hammer. 3 (by extension) gun. — de chasse, fowling-piece. — de munition, musket. — à deux coups, double-barrelled gun. Le canon, le bois, le fût, la crosse, la platine d'un —, the barrel, the stock, the screw-plate, of a gun. Ce — porte loin, this gun carries a great distance. La portée d'un —, the range of a gun. — à piston, percussion-gun. — à vent, air-gun. 4 (pour aisoir les couteaux) steel.

FUSILIER, fû-ze-yay, sm. fusileer, fusiliere.

FUSILLADE, fû-ze-yad, sf. firing, discharge, volley of musketry.

FUSILLER, fû-ze-yay, va. to shoot. Il en fit — cinq, he caused five to be shot. (by extension) Je viens voir si les gendarmes auront bientôt fui de — les camarades, I come to see whether the gendarmes will be long before having done exchanging shots with your comrades. Ab.

SE FUSILER, vpr. recipr. to shoot each other, to fire at each other.

FUSION, fû-zyong, sf. 1 (fonte) fusion, melting. Mettre de l'or en —, to melt gold. 2 fig. fusion, blending. Les effets de la — actuelle des peuples, the effects of the present fusion of nations. Ph. Chas. La — de deux systèmes, the blending of two systems. Cette — complète des deux idiomes, that complete blending of the two idioms. Ang. Th. La — des deux partis, the fusion of the two parties.

SE FUSIONNER, fû-zyo-nay, vpr. fig. to fuse, to blend.

FUSIONISTE, fû-zyo-nist, adj. mf. coalitionist.

FESTE, fûst, sf. nant. obsol. foist, kind of galley.

FUSTIE, fûs-tay, sm. bot. fustie.

FUSTIGATION, fûs-te-gah-yong, sf. (Lat.) fustigation, whipping, scourging.

FUSTIGER, fûs-te-zhay, va. (Lat. fustigare) to whip, to scourge, to flog. Faire — un esclave, to have a slave whipped. fig. Si B. a fustigé plus d'une passion, if B. has slashed more than one fault. Sic-B.

SE FUSTIGER, vpr. to whip, to scourge one's self.

FÔT, fû, sm. (Lat. fustis) 1 (d'un fusil, etc., of a gun) stock. (by analogy) Le — d'un rabot de menuisier, the stock of a plane. 2 arch. shaft. Le — d'une colonne, the shaft of a column. (by analogy) Le — d'un candelabre, the shaft of a candelabrum. (by extension) Les —s blanchissants des hêtres, the whitening trunks of the beech-trees. Nod. Les —s des jours du rivage, the stems of the rushes on the shore. Nod. 3 (tonneau) cask. Du vin qui sent le —, wine that tastes of the cask. 4 mot. stock.

FUTAIE, fû-tay, sf. wood of lofty trees, forest-trees, timber-trees. Deux —, forest of half-grown trees. Bois de haute —, See bois.

FUTAILLE, fû-tab-yuh, sf. 1 cask, barrel. — en botte, staves. Double —, double barrel. 2 (collectif.) casks.

FUTAINÉ, fû-tay, sf. fustian.

FUTE, fû-tay, adj. m. fem. —e, 1 crafty, sly, deep, cunning. Une petite fille bien —e, a sly little girl. — malin, a cunning dog. 2 her. fute.

FUTELE, fû-tay, sf. tech. joiner's gully.

FUTILE, fû-teel, adj. mf. (Lat. inutilis) futile, trifling, worthless, trivial, flimsy.

(des personnes, of persons) futile, useless, trifling.

FUTILITÉ, fû-tîl-e-tay, sf. (Lat. futilitas) 1 futility, triviality, worthlessness. La — d'esprit, futility of mind. 2 (chose futile) futility, trifles. S'attacher à des —s, to give one's self up to trifles. La journée se passe en —s, the day is passed in trifling. Volt.

FUTUR, fû-tûr, adj. m. fem. —e. (Lat. futurus) future. On verra chez les races —es, it will be seen in future races. La Font. Les dangers présents et —s, dangers present and future. L'incertitude des choses —es, the uncertainty of future things. Le — mariage, the intended marriage. Les —s époux, les —s conjoints, the husband and wife that are to be. Le — époux, la — épouse, the intended husband, the intended wife. (substantiv.) Le —, la —e, the bridegroom, the bride. Son —, sa —e, his intended, her intended. Son beau-père —, his future father-in-law. Son gendre —, his future son-in-law. FUTUR, sm. 1 (avenir) future, futurity. 2 gram. future. — antérieur, — passé, future anterior, past future tense. 3 log. — contingent future contingent. (in common speech) C'est un — contingent, it is a future contingent.

FUTURITION, fû-tû-re-syong, sf. (futurition).

FUYANT, fûee-yang, ppr. of fuir. adj. m. fem. —e. 1 La —e proie, the prey that was escaping. La Font. fig. L'image —e qu'on oseait reflète dans l'onde en la traversant de son vol, the fleeting image reflected in the water by a bird when flying over it. G. Sand. Ces matières si légères et —es, those matters so light and fleeting. Ste-B. poetic. fig. L'heure —e où Dieu nous laisse vivre, the fleeting hour that God spares us. La Font. 2 paint. vanishing, tapering. Les parties —es d'un tableau, the tapering parts of a painting. Une fresque bien —e, a fresh receding wall. 3 fig. Front —e, tapering scale. 4 (substantiv.) tapering part.

FUYARD, fûee-yar, adj. m. fem. —e. 1 apt to take flight, easily scared. Animaux —s, scarful creatures. 2 fugitive. La proie —e, the fugitive prey. V. Hug. fig. Ombres —es, fleeting shadows. Muss. 3 (substantiv.) fugitive. 4 (substantiv.) absol. deserter, fugitive.

G

G, zbay, sm. seventh letter of the alphabet.

GABARE, gab-ar, sf. 1 lighter. 2 mil. boat, transport, transport-ship, store-ship. 3 fish. drag-net.

GABARIN, gab-ar-ay, sm. 1 lighter-man. 2 (portefaix) porter.

GABARIN, gab-ar-ee, sm. naut. model. Le — d'un vaisseau, draught, model, mould, frame-timber of a ship.

GABELAGE, gab-lazh, sm. 1 time for drying salt. 2 (marque) excise mark on the salt.

GABELER, gab-lay, va. — du sel, to dry salt in the stores of the excise-office.

GABELEUR, gab-labr, sm. gabelle.

GABELLE, gab-yl, sf. 1 anc. gabelle. gubel, duty on salt. Les sides et —s, the aids and gabelles. Pays de —, provinces in which a duty on salt was levied. Frauder la —, to defraud the excise on salt; fig. to dispense with the performance of an obligation. 2 acc. (le grenier) salt-store, salt-magazine.

GABELOU, gab-loo, sm. pop. excise-man.

GABIER, gab-yay, sm. naut. top-man.

GABION, gab-yong, sm. mil. gabion.

GABIONNER, gab-yoy, va. to cover with gabions (anc. batterie, a battery).

GÂCHE, gâch, sf. 1 (d'une serrure, of a lock) staple. 2 (bouée de fer) staple.

GÂCHER, gâ-shov, va. 1 to murther (du plâtre, du mortier, plaster, mortar.)

— serré, to temper hard. 2 fig. to bungle, to botch, to make a mess of. Vous avez gâché cet ouvrage, you have made a bungling piece of work. J'ai sollement gâché ma vie à, I have frittered away my life in. E. Aug.

GÂCHETTE, gâ-shet, sf. 1 armour.

tumbler. 2 (d'une serrure, of a lock) follower.

GÂCHIER, gâ-shahr, sm. 1 mason's labourer, hodman. 2 fig. pop. bungler, botcher. 3 fig. pop. (qui vend à vil prix) underseller.

GACHEUX, gâ-shoub, adj. m. fem. gacheux, splashy, muddy, miry, sloppy.

GACHIS, gâ-shée, sm. 1 mess, slop. 2 fig. mess, pickle. Vous voilà dans un beau —, you are in a nice pickle.

GADÉ, gad, sm. ich. gadus, cod-fish.

GADOU, gad-wâr, sm. night-man.

GADOUÉ, gad-oe, sf. night-suit.

GÂLELIQUÉ, gab-yl-ik, 1 adj. mf. Gaclic 2 (substantiv) Gaclic.

GAFFE, gaf, sf. anat. bout-hook, gaff.

GAFFER, gaf-fay, va. naut. to hook.

GAGE, gâzh, sm. 1 pledge, pawn.

Mettre en —, to pawn, to pledge. Prêter sur —, to lend money on pawn. La vaisselle du roi son maître était en — chez les trenciers, the plate of the king his master was in pledge with his creditors.

Bar. — de combat, gage. Le — du combat, the gage. (by analogy) Voici mon —, et ce gant vous jure, here is my gage, and this glove defies you.

C. Del. fig. Demeurer pour les —s, to pay for the others; || to be left for the reckoning. 2 (by extension) (meuble, immeuble qui assure le paiement d'une dette) pledge, guarantee, security. 3 (little games) forfeit. Donner un —, to give a forfeit. Jouer au — touché, to play at forfeits. 4 (ce que dans une contestation on met en main tierce) stake.

5 fig. (garant) pledge, token, testimony. Cette alliance devint le — de la paix, this alliance became a guarantee of peace.

L'argent et l'or, ces —s d'échange, doivent être des mesures invariables, silver and gold, those tokens of exchange, ought to be of an invariable standard. Volt.

Nul ne pouvait contester les —s données par lui à la cause royale, none could call in question the proofs given by him of his loyalty. Ph. Chas. Votre valeur m'est an — du succès, I read success in your valour. Son portrait, doux — de sa loi, his portrait, sweet token of his fidelity. V. Hug. La première victoire fut un — de beaucoup d'autres, the first victory was a promise of many others.

6 —s, pl. (salaire) wages, hire. Les —s d'un domestique, d'une servante, the wages of a man-servant, of a maid-servant.

Gagner de gros —s, to get high wages. Il continua de vivre au —s du roi de France, he continued to be on the civil list of the king of France. Aug. Th.

Se mettre au — de quelqu'un, to hire one's self out to a person. (sometimes) Les —s d'un capitaine de navire, d'un matelot, the salary of the captain of a ship, the wages of a sailor. (sometimes sing.)

Le — de chaque homme fut réglé, the salary of every man was settled. Bar. A —s, hired, in the pay. Le fils du comte, the son of the conqueror assembled the knights in his pay. Aug. Th. L'antiquaire avait des pleureurs à —s, the antiquaire had hired mourners. Lamart. Notre soudeur à —, our welder. Casser aux —s, See CASSER. 7 —s, pl. anc. salary.

GAGE-MORT, sm. See MORT-GAGE.

GÂGE, ppa. of GAGER. fem. —e, it seems qu'il soit — pour faire telle chose, one would think he was paid to do such a thing.

GAGER, gâzh-ay, ra. NOUS GAGEONS; IL GAGEA, NOUS GAGÈMES; (Lat. vades) 1 to lay, to bet, to wager. Eh bien! gageons tous deux à quel pins tôt aura dégarni ses épaules, well! let us both bet which of us will the soonest have laid his shoulders bare. La Font. Ce celui qui a gâgé contre moi détorner tout son cours, let him that has betted against me turn aside its tributary affluents. La Font. Gageons quelle ne sait pas ce qu'elle vient de faire, I'll lay a wager she does not know what she has just done. Muss. J'ai gâgé que je boirais toute la mer, non pas les fleuves, I betted that I would drink up the whole sea, not the rivers. La Font. Je gâge ma tête à couper, I'll lay my life on't. — une discrétion, to bet a forfeit at the discretion of the winner. (elliptic) Gâge que si, gâge que non, I lay it is, I lay it is not. 2 (donner des gâges) to hire, to give wages to.

GÂGELLE, gâzh-ubr, sf. law. Saisie —, distress.

GÂGELIER, gâzh-ubr, sf. 1 wager, bet. Faire une —, to lay a wager. fig. Sontenir la —, to go through with a thing. fig. Cela ressemble à une —, one would think it was done for a wager. 2 (la chose gâgée) wager.

GÂGISTE, gâh-zhist, sm. 1 person hired, supernumerary. — de théâtre, supernumerary on a theatre. 2 (de la musique d'un régiment) supernumerary.

GÂGNABLE, gab-yabl, adj. mf. La partie n'est pas —, the game is not to be won.

GAGNAGE, gab-ayzh, sm. pasturage-grazing, pasture land.

GAGNANT, gab-ayang, ppr. of GAGNER. adj. m. fem. —e. 1 winning. Le comète —, the winning number. Carte —e, winning card. 2 (substantiv.) winner.

GÂGNÉ, ppa. of GAGNER. fem. —e, 1 C'est autant de —, it is so much gained. Donnez-le, own one's self beaten. Je vous donne —, I give it up. Cause —e, See CAUSE. fig. Avoir ville —e, to carry the day. Grier ville —e, to cry out victory. 2 fig. won. La reine fut surtout —e par le mariage de son frère, what won the queen above all was her brother's marriage. Bar. Il fut — par la promesse faite d'avance de, he was won by the pro- appartement —, cheerful room, apartment. Vert —, light green. fig. Avoir le vin —, to be merry in one's cups. Être un peu —, to be a little flustered. Propos, couplet —, merry talk, merry tale. 3. bot. Cheval —, a horse without saddle or bridle. 4. mus. allegro. 5 (adverbial). merrily, gayly. —, —, dansez, amusez-vous, now then dance with a will, amuse yourselves. Berang.

GAIA, gah-yak, sm. bot. guaiacum. GAIENT, GAIENT, gay-mang, adv. 1 gayly, cheerfully, blithely, merrily. Vivez tous sainement et —, it n'y a que cela de bon, keep up your health and spirits all of you, there is nothing else worth having. Volt. Alter —, to go along merrily. Chanter —, to sing merrily. 2 (de bon cœur) cheerfully, willingly, readily. Faire — quelque chose, to do a thing cheerfully. Aller — au combat, to go cheerfully to the fight. Aller —, to go at a good pace.

GAITE, GAITE, gay-tay, sf. 4 gaiety, cheerfulness, liveliness, mirth, merriment, glee, spirits. Avoir de la —, to be merry. Perdre toute sa —, to be, quite low-spirited. Être d'une — folle, to be full of fun. J'ai retrouvé ma —, I have recovered my spirits. Volt. Tout se tournait en — et en plaisanterie, every thing became a subject for mirth and jesting. Volt. —, jamais le roi ne marqua plus de — que la veille du combat, never did the king appear more cheerful than on the eve of the fight. Volt. Avoir de la — dans son style, to have a lively style. Vous l'avez offensé de — de cœur, you have wantonly offended him. 2 (paroles, actions) bit of fun. Get ouvrage de jeunesse n'est qu'une — fort innocente, this youthful production is but a very innocent freak of the fancy. Volt. 3 man. Ce cheval a de la —, that is a mettlesome horse.

GAILLARD, gab-yar, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 (gai) jovial, merry, jolly. Une humeur —E, a jovial temper. Une mûse —E, a jolly muse. 2 (des discours, etc.) of speeches, etc. free. 3 (déliré) hearty, fresh. Frais et —, hale and hearty. Las! pour un trépassé, vous êtes bien —, why! for a dead man how hearty you are. Mol. — Corbeau disait en le couvant des yeux, master Raven said with his eyes riveted upon him. La Font. Nos — s pélerins, our jolly pilgrims. La Font. 4 (little used) (in a bad part) thoughtless. 5 (entre deux vins) elevated. 6 obsol. (des choses, of things) spirited. Il attaqua lui seul trois hommes l'épée à la main, c'est —, he attacked alone three men sword in hand, that was spirited. 7 Vent — air —, fresh, cool wind. 8 (substantif) jolly, merry fellow, blade. C'est un —, he is a jolly fellow. C'est un — vigoureux, déterminé, he is a vigorous determined dog. Voyez-vous, le petit —! what a sly little dog! 9 fem. —E, gay woman. GAILLARD, sm. naut. castle. Le — d'avant la fore-castle. Le — d'arrière, the quarter-deck.

GAILLARD, gab-yard, sf. auc. (danse) guilder.

GAILLARDE, sf. print. bourgeois. GAILLARDEMENT, gab-yar-dang-mang, adv. 4 merrily, jollily. 2 (légèrement) boldly, rashly.

GAILLARDE, gab-yar-deez, sf. 1 sprightliness, frolic. Ce n'est qu'une —, it is but a frolic. 2 (propos) free, wanton language.

GAILLET, gab-yay, sm. bot. cheese-vicnel.

GAIENT, gay-mang, adv. See GAIENT.

GAIN, gang, sm. 4 (bénéfice) gain, profit, winnings. Entrer avec quelqu'un dans une affaire à moitié de — et de pertes, to go halves with a person in an affair. Tuer du — de quelque chose, to make a profit of a thing. Vivre de son —, to live by one's winnings. Faire un — de mille francs sur une marchandise, sur une affaire, to get a thousand francs by a commodity, by an affair. C'est un — tout clair, it is all clear profit. Être en —, to gain, to be a gainer. Jouer sur —, to play with one's winnings. L'amour du —, love of lucre. La réputation qu'il a d'être avarié au —, the reputation he has of being greedy for gain. J.-J. Rouss. Ils faisaient l'oisiveté, détestaient — s illicites, they shun idleness, abhorred unlawful gain. Montesq. Se retirer sur —, to go off with one's winnings. 2 (succès) gaining, gain, successful issue. Le — de la bataille, the gaining of the battle; d'un procès, of a lawsuit. (at play) Le — d'une partie, of the game. — de cause, See cause. law. — s nuptiaux, — s de mariage, portion of the survivor.

GAINE, gayn, sf. 4 (d'un couteau, etc.) of a knife, etc. (étui) sheath, case, scabbard. La — d'une paire de ciseaux, the sheath of a pair of scissors; d'un poignard, of a poniard. Mettre dans la —, to sheathe. Remettre dans la —, to return to the scabbard. 2 arch. terminat. 3 bot. sheath. 4 anat. sheath.

GAINEUR, gay-byay, sm. sheath-maker, case-maker.

GAISER, sm. bot. Juncus-aree.

GAITE, gay-tay, sf. See GAITE.

GALA, gal-lah, sm. 1 (fête) gala. Un jour de —, a gala-day. Un habit de —, a gala-dress. La cour est en —, it is birth-day of court. Il entend de la rue les — s qui se font au palais de S., he hears from the street the festivity going forward in the palace of S. Mich. 2 (repas splendide) banquet.

GALAMMENT, gal-lah-mang, adv. 4 (de bonne grâce) handsomely, gracefully. 2 (d'une manière galante) gallantly, courtteously. 3 (avec goût) tastefully, elegantly. S'habiller —, to dress elegantly. 4 (habilement) skilfully, cleverly.

GALANT, gal-lang, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 (civil, sociable) (has no feminine in this acception) honest, gentlemanlike. C'est un — homme, on peut se fier à lui, he is an honest man — homme, you have acted like a gentleman — Vous êtes un — homme d'avoir fait ce que je vous ai demandé, I take it kind of you to have done what I asked you. 2 (qui cherche à plaire à une femme) gallant, polite, courteous. C'est un homme —, fort —, he is a lady's man, quite a lady's man. Se montrer — pour une dame, envers une dame, avec une dame, to behave politely to a lady. Avoir l'humour —E, l'air —, les manières —es, to have a gay humour, gallant air, manners. Discours — style —, gallant discourse, style. Femme —E, woman of gallantry. Intrigue —, gallantry. 3 (élegant) genteel, elegant. 4 (substantif) gallant, wooer, sweetheart, lover. Faire le — auprès des dames, to be all attention to the ladies. Vert —, brisk spark. 5 (substantif) obsol. sharp fellow. Notre — s'avisa de telle ruse, our blade contrived himself of such a trick. (feminine, galante) sly creature, pisp. Le galante fit rûdre lui, the sly creature few well. La Font.

GALANTEUR, gal-ang-ree, sf. 4 obsol. gallantry, politeness. 2 (emprunts pour les femmes) gallantry, coquetry, attentions. Faire profession de —, to be a professed admirer of the fair sex. La — française, French politeness. 3 (propos flatteurs) compliments. Dire des —s, to pay gallant compliments. 4 (petits présents) present.

GALANTIN, gal-ang-lang, sm. dangler.

GALANTINE, gal-ang-len, sf. culin. — de volaille, galantine of fowl.

GALANTISER, gal-ang-le-zay, va. obsol. — des dames, to be dangling about the ladies.

GALAXIE, gal-ak-see, sf. (Gr.) astr. galaxy, milky way.

GALBANUM, gal-bal-nom, sm. galbanum.

GALBE, galb, sm. 1 arch. eulasis, swelling, sweep, curve (d'une colonne, d'un vase, of a column, of a vase). 2 (by extension) (du visage, of the face) contour. Ses traits, dessinés avec toute la régularité du — grec, his features possessed all the regularity of the Greek contour. Nod. Ce — heureux et riant (de Polichinelle) that happy and smiling face. Nod.

GALE, gal, sf. 1 med. itch. pop. Être mechant comme la —, to be a very demon. 2 vet. (des moutons, of sheep) scab; (des chiens, of dogs) mange. 3 (des végétaux, of plants) scurf.

GALE, sm. bot. gale, hog-myrtil.

GALEASSE, GALEACE, gab-lay-ass, sf. sm. naut. galeas, galena.

GALÉ, gab-lay, sf. print. galley.

GALÉA, gab-lay-gab, sm. bot. galega, goat's-rue.

GALÉNE, gal-layn, sf. min. galena.

GALÉNIQUE, gal-lay-nik, adj. mf. med. galenic, galenic.

GALÉNISME, gab-lay-nism, sm. med. galenism.

GALÉNISTE, gab-lay-nist, sm. med. galenist. (adjectif) Médecin —, a galenist physician.

GALEOPSIS, gal-ay-op-sis, sm. (Gr) bot. galeopsis.

GALERE, gab-layr, sf. 4 naut. galley, row-galley. L'éprou d'une —, the prow of a galley. Les forçats d'une —, galley-slaves. — capitaine, captain, admiral's galley. prov. fig. C'est une —, come what may. — prov. fig. C'est une —, une vraie —, it is terrible drudgery. Qu'al-lait-il faire dans cette —? what business had he there? Mol. 2 —s, pl. (peine) galley.

GALERIE, gal-ree, sf. 4 gallery. — vitrée, gallery with a glass roof. — de tableaux, de peinture, picture gallery, portrait gallery. La — du Louvre, the gallery of paintings of the L. La — de Florence, the Florence gallery. prov. fig. Ce sont ses —s, that is his custom-ary walk. Des fossés du château faisant leuis —s, taking the moats of the castle for their favourite resort. Flor. Le por-tail de la C. est une magnifique — de la C. est une magnifique, the portal was the ornaments imaginable, the portal of the C. is a splendid assemblage of all sorts of ornaments. De Brass. 2 fig. (col-lection de portraits) gallery. 3 (corridor) lecture de portraiture) (jeu de paume, tennis) gallery, lookers-on. Faire juger un coup dans la —, par la —, to submit a stroke to the decision of the lookers-on. La — ne lui est pas favorable, the spec-tators are not on his side. 5 (réunion de personnes qui en regardent d'autres) company, spectators. Consulter la —, to consult the lookers-on. 6 fig. (le monde) the public. Je ne me soucie point d'amuser la —, I do not care to amuse the public. 7 (dans les théâtres) gallery. Premières —s, secondes —s, first, second galleries. 8 — d'église, church gallery. Faire une — dans le fossé, to make a gallery in the ditch. 11 min. adit, drift.

GALÉNIEN, gal-lay-tyang, sm. galley-slave, convict. — prov. Souffrir comme un —, mener une vie de —, to lead a dog's life. Travailler comme un —, to drudge like a galley-slave.

GALÈNE, gal-ayrn, sf. north-westerly wind.

GALET, gab-lay, sm. 1 pebble. 2 (collectif) shingle. 3 (jeu) shovell-board.

GALETA, gal-tah, sm. 4 gallet, attic. 2 fig. hole.

GALETTE, gal-lét, sf. 1 (gâteau) ga-llette, cake. 2 naut. biscuit.

GALEUX, gal-uh, adj. m. fem. ga-leuse, 4 itchy, scabby, mangy. Biebia galeuse, a scabby sheep. prov. Éviter, fuir une personne connue une brebis galeuse, to shun a person as a scabby sheep. prov. fig. Il ne faut qu'une brebis galeuse pour gâter tout un troupeau, one scabby sheep is enough to spoil a whole flock. 2 (by extension) (des arbres, des plantes, of trees, plants) scarify. 3 (substantif). Un —, a man infected with the itch.

GALHAUBAN, gal-o-bâng, sm. naut. back-slay. —s de perroquet, top-gallant-mast back-slays.

GALIMAFREE, gal-e-mah-fray, sf. galimafree, hatch-patch.

GALIMATIAS, gal-e-mat-yah, sm. nonsense, gibberish. — double, sheer nonsense.

GALION, gal-yong, sm. naut. galloon.

GALIOTE, gal-yot, sf. 4 naut. galiot. — à bombes, bomb-ketch. 2 (long bateau couvert) boat, bark.

GALIPOT, gal-e-po, sm. galipot, Burgundy pitch.

GALLE, gal, sf. bot. 4 gall, gall-nut. 2 (particul.) (d'un chêne) oak-apple, oak-gall.

GALLICAN, gal-le-kâng, adj. m. fem. —e, 1 le rit, l'Église —e, the Gallican rite, the Gallican church. 2 (substantif). Gallican.

GALLICISME, gal-le-sism', sm. 1 gallicism. 2 (façon de parler de la langue française) gallicism.

GALLINACE, adj. m. fem. —e, orn. galinaceous.

GALLINACÉS, gal-le-nah-say, sm. pl. orn. gallinaceans.

GALLIQUE, gal-lik, adj. m. chem. gallic. Acide —, gallic acid.

GALLIQUE, adj. m. Gallic, Gallician. Poésies —s, Gallic poetry. Les peuplades —s, the Gallic tribes.

GALLOIS, gal-lwâ, adj. m. fem. —e, 1 Welsh. 2 (substantif.) Welshman, Uue —e, a Welshwoman.

GALLON, gal-long, sm. gallon. Un — de bière, a gallon of beer.

GALOCIE, gal-osh, sf. 4 galoch. 2 elops. 3 fig. Menton de —, long peaked chin.

GALON, gal-long, sm. 4 lace. Un habit tout chamarré de —, convert de —, a coat trimmed out with lace. Chapeau bordé d'un — d'or, hat bordered with gold-lace. (cri de Paris) Vieux habits, vieux —s old clothes! prov. Quand on prend du —, on n'en saurait trop prendre, as well be hanged for a sheep as a lamb.

2 (particul.) insignes of corporal and sergeant in the French army. 3 tape.

GALONNE, ppa. of GALONNER, fem. —e, Un habit galonné sur toutes les coutures, a coat laced all over the seams.

Un chapeau —, a laced hat. Il est tout —, he is laced all over.

GALONNET, gal-o-nay, va. to lace (un habit, a coat).

GALOP, gal-o, sm. 4 gallop. Le grand —, full gallop. Le petit —, hand gallop. Un cheval qui va au —, qui va bien le —, a good galloper. Aller le — le petit, le grand —, to gallop, to canter. Mettre un cheval au —, to set a horse galloping. Un temps de —, a gallop. fig. Chassez le naturel il revient au — what is bred in the bone must come out in the flesh. La Font. fig. Aller, courir le —, le grand —, to gallop, to run on. fig. Il allait le grand —, je n'ai pu rien entendre de son discours, he ran on so fast that I could hear nothing of his speech. fig. pop. Il s'en va le grand —, he is going to his last home. prov. fig. S'en aller le grand — à l'hôpital, to go to rack and ruin. 2 (danse) gallop. 3 (Pair) gallop. 4 fig. pop. (réprimande) reprimand. Donner un — à quelqu'un, to take a person to task.

GALOPADE, gal-o-pad, sf. 4 galloping. Faire une —, to put on a gallop.

2 (espace parcouru en galopant) gallop. D'ici là il n'y a qu'une —, from here to that place there is only a gallop.

GALOIFER, gal-o-pay, rn. 1 to gallop. Nous avons galloifé pendant une heure, we galloped an hour. La route galloifait sur la route d'Orléans avec ses chevaliers, the queen galloped on the Orleans road with her knights. Bar. 2 fig. (faire beaucoup de démarches) to run about. Il a gallopfé par toute la ville pour cette affaire, he has been running all over the town for that affair. 3 fig. (marcher, parler, lire avec précipitation) to run on. Pourquoi — ainsi? lisez plus posément! why do you run on so? read more slowly! 4 dace, to gallop, to dance the gallop.

GALOPIER, va. 1 to gallop. — un cheval, to gallop a horse. 2 fig. (poursuivre) to run after, to pursue. Il l'a gallopfé longtemps, he has been running after him a long time. 3 fig. pop. La peur le gallopfé, fear set him off. La haine le gallopfé, the fever set him off.

GALOPIN, gal-o-iang, sm. 1 errand-boy. 2 (dans les maisons royales, in the king's household) scullion. 3 (disparagingly) urchin, rogue, imp.

GALOCUBET, gal-oo-bay, sm. mus. galoubet.

GALUCHAT, gal-li-shah, sm. dog-fish skin. — à gros grains, coarse-grained dog-fish skin. — à petits grains, close-grained dog-fish skin. Une gaine de —, a sheath of dog-fish skin.

GALVANIQUE, gal-van-ik, adj. mf. nat. phil. galvanic. Fluide —, galvanic fluid.

GALVANISME, gal-vau-ism', sm. 4 nat. phil. galvanism. 2 (l'agent invisible) galvanism.

GALVANOPLASTIE, gal-vau-o-plas-tee, sf. (Gr.) galvanoplasty.

GALVAUDER, gal-vo-day, va. 1 absol. to abuse. 2 (deranger) to tumble, to throw. — sa fortune, to unsettle one's fortune.

GAMBADE, gâng-bad, sf. gambol. Faire une —, des —s, to play gambols. prov. fig. Payer en —s, to pay in excuses; to shuffle off.

GAMBADER, gâng-bad-ay, rn. to gambol, to frolic about.

GAMBILLER, gâng-be-yay, rn. fam. to kick about, to fidget.

GAMBIT, gâng-bee, sm. chess. gambit.

GAMELLE, gâng-mayl, sf. wooden porringer, bowl, platter. Être à la —, monger à la —, to mess together. Nous désirions tous deux faire — commune, we wished to mess together. Jacq.

GAMIN, gab-nang, sm. 4 pop. boy, urchin, young vagabond. Le — de Paris, the Parisian boy, the little Parisian black-guard. Faire le —, to be boyish. 2 (adjective.) boy. Comme vous êtes —! what a boy you are!

GAMINE, gab-meen, sf. pop. little girl.

GAMINER, gam-e-nay, rn. to be boyish, girlish.

GAMINERIE, gam-een-ree, sf. boy's trick.

GAMME, gam, sf. 4 mus. gamut, scale. Vous s'amirez la riche — que descendent et remontent sans cesse les sept cloches de Saint-Eustache, you admire the rich scale run up and down by the seven bells of St. E. V. Hug. fig. Toute la — des joies de la nature, the complete circle of nature's joys. Lamart. — chromatique, chromatic scale. prov. fig. Changer de —, to alter one's tone. fig. Changer à quelqu'un sa —, to rate a person. fig. Ou lui a bien chanté sa —, he has caught it finely. fig. Être hors de —, to be at one's wit's end. Mettre quelqu'un hors de —, to disconcert a person, to put a person to a nonplus. 2 (by extension) (des couleurs, of colours) scale.

GANACHE, gan-ash, sf. 4 lover jaw. fig. Être chargé de —, avoir la — pesante, épaisse, to be a blockhead, to be thick-headed, thick-skulled. 2 fig. (personne) blockhead. Cet homme n'est qu'une —, that man is only a numskull.

3 sort of easy arm-chair.

GAND, gâng, s. geog. Ghent.

GANGE, gângz, sm. geog. Ganges.

GANGLION, gâng-glyong, sm. 1 anat. ganglion. 2 surg. ganglion.

GANGLIONNAIRE, gâng-gle-yo-nay; adj. mf. ganglionic.

GANGLIONEUX, gâng-gle-yo-nay, adj. fem. —e, ganglionic, ganglial.

GANGRENE, gâng-gray, sf. (Lat. gangræna) 1 gangrene, mortification. 2 fig. cancer corruption.

GANGRENEUX, ppa. of GANGRENER, fem. —e, Bras —, an arm mortified. fig. Avoir la conscience, l'âme —e, to have a cankered conscience, soul.

se GANGRENER, gâng-grub-nay, rpr. to gangrene, to mortify.

GANGRENEUX, gâng-gray-nuh, adj. m. fem. GANGRENEUX, gangreneous.

GANGUE, gâng-guh, sf. min. gangue, veinstone.

GANSE, gângs, sf. 4 gimp, edging, cord twist. — de soie, silk twist. 2 (d'une boutonnière) loop. — de diamants, d'acier, diamond, steel loop.

GANT, gâng, sm. glove. —s d'homme, man's gloves. —s de femme, woman's gloves. —s de chevreau, kid gloves. —s à deux boutons, gloves with two buttons. —s glacés, kid gloves. Une paire de —s, one dozzaine de paires de —s, a pair of gloves, a dozen pair of gloves. —s de peau, skin gloves. —s de fil, de soie, thread, silk gloves. —s de Suède, Swede gloves. —s fourrés, fur gloves. — d'oiseau, hawking glove. fig. Jeter le —, to throw down the glove, the gauntlet. Ramasser, relever le —, to take up the glove, the gauntlet. prov. L'amitié passe le —, excuse my glove, prov. fig. Être souple comme un —, to be as supple as a glove. fam. Vous n'en avez pas les —s, you have not the priority in it. Se donner les —s de quelque chose, to take credit to one's self for a thing. Je me suis donné les —s de refuser la plus pittoresque des vice-royautés, I made a merit of having refused the most charming vicereignty. Jacq.

GANTELEÉ, gângt-lay, sf. bot. fox-glove, throat-wort.

GANTELET, gângt-lay, sm. 4 gauntlet, gauntlet. Jeter le —, to signify de défi, to throw the gauntlet in defiance. 2 surg. glove-bandage, 3 tech. hand-leather.

GANTER, ppa. of GANTER, fem. —e, Être toujours bien —, to be always well gloved. Avoir une main —e et l'autre nue, to have only one glove on.

GANTER, gâng-tay, ra. 1 to glove. Une personne difficile —, a person hard to glove. 2 (intransitivement) Ces gants gantent bien, those gloves fit well.

se GANTER, rpr. 1 à lui on n'a ses gants, 2 fig. Vos mains se gantent de hâle, one's hands are sunburnt. Th. Gaut.

GANTERIE, gângt-ree, sf. glove-making, glove-trade.

GANTIER, gângt-tyay, sm. fem. GANTIERE, glover, glove-maker.

GARANCE, gâng-ang, sf. bot. 1 madder. 2 (rouleur) madder-colour. Une étoffe teinte en —, a stuff dyed red. 3 (adjective.) madder-coloured, red. Drap —, red, madder-dyed cloth. Pantalon —, red, madder-dyed trousers.

GARANCER, gâng-ang-say, ra. il GARANGA; sous GARANCONS, to madder (une étoffe, a stuff).

GARANT, gar-ang, sm. fem. —e, (Eng. warrant) 4 guarantee, voucher. Ces hommes doivent lui servir de —s de la tranquillité de A., these men are to be answerable to him for the tranquillity of A. Aug. Th. La Suède s'est rendue —e du traité, Sweden guaranteed the treaty. fig. La raison est-elle —e de ce que fait on set? is reason answerable for the actions of a fool? La Font. 2 law. (celui qui se rend caution surety, warrantor. Se rendre — de quelqu'un, se rendre — d'une dette, to become surety for a person, for a debt. Se porter pour — d'un autre, to vouch for another. Prendre pour — to take as a guarantee. 3 law. (celui qui garantit la propriété) guarantee, surety. 4 fig. (autorité) authority, vouch. Il cite pour — tel historien, tel philosophe, he cites for his authority such an historian, such a philosopher. D'où vous vient cet avis? quel est votre —? where did you have that news from? who is your authority? La Font. Monsieur, je vous suis — qu'il dévore, Sir, I pledge my word to you that he devours. Beaum. 5 (des choses, of things) (garantie, sûreté) pledge, security. La religion, même fautive, est le meilleur — que les hommes puissent avoir de la probité des hommes, religion, even when false, is the best security men can have for the probity of men. Montesq. Les applaudissements ne sont pas toujours un sûr — de la bonté d'un ouvrage, applause is not always a sure proof of the goodness of a work. Volt.

GARANTIE, pp. of GARANTIR, fem. — e, 1 guaranteed. 2 (protegé) protected, screened, secured. Voilà une créature bien peu — e et en grand hasard, that is a creature but badly protected and greatly exposed. Mich. Leurs membres sont à peine — s du froid par un morceau d'étoffe, their limbs are scarcely screened from the cold by a piece of stuff. Ph. Chas. Batins des vents, un peu — s pourtant par la done, beaten by the winds, though somewhat protected by the sands. Mich. 3 (substantif.) law. guaranteed.

GARANTIE, gar-ang-te, sf. 1 (from garant) guarantee, warranty. Prendre une pendule avec — pour deux ans, to sell a time-piece warranted for two years. Vendre quelque chose sans —, to sell a thing unwarranted. Breveté sans — du gouvernement, patented without the guarantee of the government. Subliger à —, to guarantee. Etre tenu à —, à la —, to be required to guarantee. — formelle, — simple, formal, simple guarantee, security, guarantee. 2 (sûreté) security, pledge. Parmi les otages enlevés pour — de l'exécution des ordonnances, among the hostages carried off as pledges of the execution of the ordinances. Bar. Il veut des — s plus sûres, he wants better security. Donner des — s pour l'avenir, to give pledges for the future. Il a de la gaieté, du naturel, il aime aussi Molière, ce sont là des — s, he is cheerful, simple, he is also fond of M., these tell in his favour. Se-B. 3 admin. Direction des assays-office. 4 — des fonctionnaires publics, security of public officers. 5 — individuelle, individual security.

GARANTIR, gar-ang-teer, va. (from garantir) (se rendre garant) to guarantee, to warranty, to warrant. — si vous voulez, to be security for a debt. Si vous voulez — G., votre parole me suffira, if you will be bound for G., your word will be sufficient for me. Balz. N. et la Suisse garantissent des forces proportionnées, N. and Switzerland guaranteed proportionate forces. Lamart. La France a garanti cet emprunt, France guaranteed that loan. — en traité entre puissances, an cheval de traité defunct, to warrant a horse sound. Celui qui m'a vendu ces rasoirs les garantit de Londres, he who sold me those razors warranted them from London. 2 (des choses, of things) (rendre sûr) to guarantee, to vouch for. — Qui me garantit que vous serez plus sage à l'avenir? who will answer for it that you will be wiser for the future? 3 (affirmer, certifier) to warrant, to vouch (for), to answer (for), to pledge one's self. Je ne garantis point cette métamorphose, on can doubt, I do not vouch for the truth of that metamorphosis, it is a doubtful point. La Font. Je peux te — une part honorable dans ma succession, I can pledge myself to you for an honourable part in my inheritance. Nod. 4 law. to shield, to warrant. — quelqu'un de toutes poursuites, to shield a person from all pursuit; d'une éviction, from an ejection. 5 (mettre à l'abri) to protect, to shelter, to shield, to secure. Les paupères servent à — les yeux, the eye-lids serve to protect the eyes. Buff. Des tentes les garantissent des ardeurs du soleil, tents sheltered them from the heat of the sun. Barb. Une nouvelle police pour — les Saxons des insultes des soldats, a new police to protect the Saxons from the insults of his soldiers. Volt. Je prie Dieu qu'il vous garantisse de tous ces maux, I pray God to shield you from all these evils. M^{me} de Sév. — la paillardise, cette fièvre enthoustiasme lui semblait un devoir, to preserve his continence from that enthusiastic fever seemed to him a duty. Ph. Chas. Ce sang qui tant de fois garantit vos moralités, that blood which so many times protected your walls. Corn.

SE GARANTIR, vpr. to preserve, to shelter, to screen one's self. Se — du froid, to screen one's self from the cold; du soleil, from the sun. Se — des préjugés, to keep clear of prejudices. Comment se — aujourd'hui de ces cruautés réfléchies? how could one now be preserved from these cold-blooded cruelties? Barb. Pour se — des assassins qu'un petit prince d'A., to protect himself from the assassins that a little prince of A. Montesq. Il avait à se — de l'exactitude froide et de la simplicité affective, he had to preserve himself from cold punctuality and affected simplicity. Oiler.

GARBURE, gar-bür. sf. colin. soup of cabbage and bacon.

GARGE, gars, sf. pop. strumplet.

GARGETTE, gar-sei, sf. navet. gosket. — de ris, points, rice-lines. Donner des coups de —, to give stripes with a rope, to give the rope's-end.

GARÇON, gar-song, sm. 1 (par opposition à Fille) boy. Petit —, little boy. Lorsque j'étais tout petit —, when I was a little boy. Jeune —, lad. Grand —, tall, big boy. Qui pourrait croire qu'une mère qui a trois — s, who could believe that the mother of three sons. M^{me} de Sév. Elle a un grand — de 20 ans, she has a grown-up lad of twenty. 2 (jeune homme) lad, young man, fellow, man. Un grand — comme vous, un — de votre âge ne devrait pas se conduire ainsi, a big boy like you, a lad of your age ought not to behave so. C'est un fort bon —, he is a very good fellow. Un beau —, un joli —, a handsome fellow, a good-looking fellow. Mon —, vous n'êtes pas assez prudent, my lad, you are not prudent enough. Les — s de la noce, the bridesmen. fani. Mon —, voulez-vous me faire une commission? my lad, will you do an errand for me? Brave —, good fellow. Vous êtes un brave — d'être venu, you are a capital fellow to have come. Pareil au mauvais —, to ruffie it. fig. Etre mieux comparé qu'un —, to be a mere nothing compared with a person. fig. ironic. Beau —, joli —, pretty fellow. Vous vous avez —, you are in a nice mess now. 3 (celui bachelier, single man. Rester —, to remain single. Il veut mourir —, he intends to die a bachelor. Un vieux —, an old bachelor. Menage de —, bachelor's rooms, bachelor's housekeeping. Deyeuner, dîner de —, bachelor's breakfast, dinner. Faire vie de —, mener vie de —, to lead a bachelor's life. 4 (ouvrier) journeyman. — tailleur, journeyman tailor. — menuisier, journeyman joiner. 5 (celui qui sert les marchands, waiter.) shopboy, shopman, assistant, waiter. — épicière, grocer's assistant. Etre — chez un marchand de vin, to be the potboy at a wine-merchant's. Les — s d'un restaurant, d'un café, the waiters in a tavern, in a coffee-house. Le jaillir n'a point d'autres — s que les domestiques de la maison, the gardener has nobody to help him but the servants of the house. J. Rouss. Appeler le —, to call the waiter. — de magasin, warehouse-man. — de bureau, — de caisse, See BUREAU, CAISSE. Voilà pour le —, that is for the waiter. N'oubliez pas le —, please remember the waiter. (chez le roi, in the royal household) — s de la chambre, — s de la garde-robe, pages of the backstairs. 6 naut. — de bord, younker.

GARÇONNET, gar-so-nay, m. Jouer avec les garçons) to romp.

GARÇONNET, gar-so-nay, sm. little boy.

GARÇONNIER, gar-so-nay-er, sf. romp, hoiden, tom-boy.

GARDE, sf. 4 (action) guard, keeping, safe-keeping, care, custody. Il se trouble la — de M., I trust the keeping of M. to you. Ab. Il avait la — du roi et celle de l'ennemi du roi, he had the custody of the king and of the king's enemy. Mich. Princesse assurée-vous, je le prends sous ma —, Princess, compose yourself, I take him under my charge. Rac. La — et la tutelle de, the care and guardianship of. Avoir la — d'une bibliothèque, d'un magasin, to have the keeping of a library, of a warehouse. Il confia ses enfants à la — d'un vieux serviteur, he intrusted his children to the keeping of an old servant. Son chien, inquiet d'une si longue —, his dog, uneasy about such a long watching. Laonar. Ces légions distribuées pour la — des frontières, those legions distributed for the defence of the frontiers. Boss. Avoir, prendre, recevoir une chose en —, to have, to take, to receive a thing in keeping. Etre en la — de quelqu'un, to be in the keeping of a person. Frais de —, expenses of keeping. Etre de bonne —, to be careful. Il y a vingt ans que j'ai ces rasoirs; vous voyez que je suis de bonne —, there had these razors these twenty years; you see I am a careful man. 2 (protection) protection. A la — de Dieu, in God's hands. Dieu vous ait en sa —, en sa sainte —, en sa sainte et digne —, God preserve you in his holy keeping; may God have you in his safe and holy keeping. 3 (des fruits, of fruits) Etre de bonne —, être de —, etc., to keep well. Poires de —, warden pear. 4 (corps de troupes) guard. — impériale, Imperial guard. Entrer dans la —, to enter the guards. — impériale à pied, à cheval, Imperial foot-guards, horse-guards. La vieille —, the old guard. — d'honneur, guard of honour. — nationale, — municipale, national, municipal guard. 5 (guet) guard. Faire la —, to be upon guard. Il est bien est de bonne —, that is care, heed, to beware, la mind, to be careful (of), to look (to). Prenez — qu'on ne vous trompe, qu'on ne vous surprenne, take care you are not deceived, surprised. Je le déposai au fond de ma boîte eu prenant — de ne pas me surprendre, I placed it at the bottom of my box, taking care not to overlook myself. Ab. On le tromperait, s'il n'y prend —, he will be deceived if he does not mind. Prenez — à cet enfant, take care of that child. Il passait, en effet, sans avoir pris — à rien, he went by, in fact, without noticing any thing. Nod. Prenez donc —, vous allez tout renverser, do take care, you will upset every thing. Prenons — à nous après le gain d'une bataille, let us mind what we are about after the winning of a battle. La Font. (elliptic.) mil. — à vous! attention! Prendre — à un son, à un dernier, to be careful of a halfpenny, of a farthing. Se donner de —, se donner —, to take care not to, to beware (of). Nui, je m'en do-nerais bien de —, I should take great care not to. Monteq. N'avoir — de faire une chose, to be far from doing a thing; to be unable, unwilling to do a thing. Ils n'ont — de critiquer ses livres, they are far from criticizing these books. Monteq. Quelque exactes que soient ses descriptions, il s'aï — de les copier, however exact his descriptions may be, I have no wish to copy them. Mich. —, pl. Être sur ses —, se mettre, se tenir sur ses —, to be on one's guard. 6 (de soldats, etc.) guard. Être de —, to be on guard, on duty. Monter, descendre la —, to mount guard, to come off guard. Officier de —, officer on guard. (des pages, of pages) waiting. Ce page était de —, that page was in waiting. 7 (soldats) guard. Relayer la —, to relieve the guard. Et la — qui veille aux barrières du Louvre, et le guard keeping watch at the barriers of the Louvre. Malh. Changer la —, to relieve the guard. La — montante, the relieving guard, soldiers going on guard. La — descendante, the relieved guard, soldiers coming off guard. (elliptic.) La — 1 guard. Crier à la — 1 to shout for the guard. Corps de —, body of guards; || guard-house, guard-room. Grande —, grand-guard, main guard. Avancée, advanced guard, out-guard, outpost. 8 loc. guard, ward. Se mettre en —, se tenir en —, to fall into guard. Être en —, to be upon one's guard. Être hors de —, to be off guard. (elliptic.) En —, parry, guard. fig. Se mettre en —, se tenir en —, être en —, to be on one's guard. Être en — contre la séduction, to be on one's guard against seduction. M. dut se mettre en — lui-même par un mémoire, M. was obliged to be ready to defend himself by a memoir. Sic. — B. fig. Être hors de —, to be off one's guard. 9 (d'une épée, etc., of a sword, etc.) hilt. — à coquille, bucket-hilt. Enfoncer l'épée jusqu'à la —, to plunge the sword up to the hilt. fig. Monter une — à quelq'un, to rate a person soundly. prov. S'en donner jusqu'aux —, to take one's fill of pleasure. 10 (at cards) low card, guard. fig. Avoir toujours — à carreau, never to be at a loss. 11 —, pl. looksmith, ward. Les — de la serrure, the wards of the lock. 12 lock, fly-leaf.

CARDE, am. 1 (garden) keeper, warden. — des archives, keeper of the records. — de la bibliothèque impériale, keeper of the Imperial library. — des sceaux, keeper of the seals. Le — des sceaux, ministre de la justice, the keeper of the seals, minister of justice. (by analogy) Le — des sceaux de la chancellerie de telle cour, the keeper of the seals of the Chancellor's office at such a court. — magasin, warehouse-man. anc. — des monnaies, warden of the mint. anc. — marteau, hammer-keeper. (in joke) Notaire — note, notary. — champêtre, rural constable. — de bois, — bois, — forestier, forester. — général des forêts, — général, forester, ranger. — à cheval, horse-guard. — vente, wood-merchant's agent. — chasse, game-keeper. — pêche, water-bailiff. — côtes, coast-guards, guard-ship, sea-fencibles. (adjective.) Capitaine — côte, coast-guard-captain. Vaisseau — côte, guard-ship. 2 — salle, pl. — salle, fencing master's assistant. 3 fem. (femme qui garde les malades, nurse, sick-nurse). — malade, nurse. 4 (ceux qui sont chargés de garder une personne) guards. — du commerce, sheriff's officers, bailiff. — clioume, pl. — clioume, conic-keeper. 5 (homme armé faisant partie de la garde du roi, etc.) guard. — du corps, life-guards, body-guards. Capitaine des —, captain of the guards. Le régiment des —, the regiment of guards. absol. Les —, fem. les — françaises, the French guards. Le régiment des — suisses, absol. Les — suisses, the regiment of Swiss guards.

Les tent —, the "cent-guards". — royal, — municipal, royal, municipal guard. Des —, s royaux, des —, municipaux, royal, municipal guards. (by analogy) Un — française, a garde-française. — national, national guard. — de la marine ou — marine, midshipman, naval cadet.

GARDE, ppa. of garder, fem. — E. Qui croirait que le secret eût été —, et qu'on n'ait jamais rien su? who would believe that the secret had been kept, and that nothing was ever known. Boss. La vérité mal — e dans la mémoire des hommes, truth ill preserved in the memory of men. Boss. Nous sommes — s nuit et jour, we are guarded night and day. Ab. Proportion —, toute proportion —, in proportion. (at cards) Roi —, dame —, king, queen guarded. prov. fig. Quand chacun fait son métier, se mêle de son métier, les vaches sont bien — es, en sont mieux — es, let every one mind his own business, let the cobbler stick to his last.

GARDER, gar-daj, ra. 1 (conserver une chose) to keep, to preserve. Dans la chaleur on ne peut — la viande, meat cannot be kept in sultry weather. De cette manière on garde des raisins pendant tout l'hiver, in that manner grapes are preserved the whole winter. 2 (retenir) to keep, to preserve, to keep back. Les gens sages gardent ce qu'ils ont, wise people keep what they have. Nod. N'osant — pour lui seul des si vastes domaines, not daring to keep for himself such vast domains. Aug. Th. Les riches gardent tout leur or, the rich therefore kept their gold. Mass. Il avait l'espoir de — les places qu'il pourrait prendre en P., he had hopes of keeping the places he might take in P. Mich. Charon d'eux gardait ses trésors sous chevet de son lit, every one of them kept his treasures at the head of his bed. Ab. Ils ont gardé ce qu'ils vous avaient pris, they have kept what they had taken from you. Ab. — copie d'une lettre, d'un acte, to keep the copy of a letter, of a deed. Je garde cela pour moi, I keep that back for myself. — le pouvoir, to keep the power. (des personnes, of persons) — près de soi, to keep near one. Puisqu'on ne peut vous — seulement aujourd'hui, partez, since we cannot keep you even one day, farewell. Beaum. Qui sait si pour sauver son peuple, il ne vous gardait pas? who knows whether he did not preserve you that you might save his people? Rac. Je ne ferai pas la faute de vous — malgré vous, I shall not commit the blunder of keeping you in spite of yourself. Ab. 3 — la chambre, — le lit, la maison, to keep one's room, one's bed, the house. La peur que vous avez eue et qui vous a forcé à — le lit, the fright you had and which obliged you to keep your bed. M^{me} de Sév. (by extension) Cet enfant est bien malade, vous ne pourrez le —, that child is very ill, you will not be able to save it. — la prison, — les arêtes, to be in prison, under arrest. — les rangs, to keep the ranks. — la fièvre, — un rhume, to keep the fever, a cold. bunt. Ces chiens gardent le change, those dogs keep close to the scent. 4 (des choses, of things) (conserver, retenir) to keep, to preserve. Les arceaux surbaissés gardaient un peu de nuit, the arched arches were somewhat dark. Lamart. fig. Les passions les plus vives gardent encore le saint caractère de la vertu, the most lively passions still preserve the sacred stamp of virtue. J.-J. Rousse. 5 (des choses morales) to keep, to preserve, to entertain, to keep up. — ses habitudes, to keep one's habits. Tout ce que son esprit gardait de force, il le reportait sur, he brought the whole strength of his mind to bear upon. Ph. Chas. Ceux qui ont contemplé la S. en gardent l'esprit frappé, those who have contemplated S. keep its remembrance. Mich. La nature en tout temps garde ses premiers droits, nature at all times preserves its primitive rights. Cora. Il le pria de ne lui — aucune racontine, he begged him to bear him no ill-will. Bar. J'avais peine à — mon sérieux, I could scarcely refrain from laughing. — sa gravité, to preserve one's gravity. Il lui garde une haine implacable, he entertains an implacable hatred against him. Il est des vérités que le sage doit — comme un dépôt, there are truths that the wise man must preserve as a trust confided to him. Barth. Volez-vous que l'enfant garde sa forme originelle, will you have the child preserve its original form. J.-J. Rousse. — ses vices, to keep one's vices. — le souvenir de quelque chose, to preserve the remembrance of a thing. — les apparences, to preserve, to keep up appearances. — son rang, to keep up one's rank. — un secret, to keep a secret. Il ne sait rien — pour lui, he can never keep his own counsel. L'antiquité garde ses secrets avec un soin jaloux, antiquity keeps her secret with jealous care. Ab. 6 (observer) to keep, to observe. — les commandements de Dieu, to keep God's commandments. Lui et les siens gardaient en tout temps fidèle paix au roi d'Angleterre, he and his household at all times faithfully remain in peace with the king of England. Aug. Th. Qu'il te souvienne de — ta parole, remember to keep thy word. Corn. J'ai gardé une mesure que, selon toutes les apparences, on ne gardera pas avec moi, in that I kept bounds which in all probability will not be kept with me. Chai. — les bienséances, to keep within the bounds, limits, rules of decorum. La France était fondée pour la justice qu'on y gardait, France was praised for its regular administration of justice. Bar. Que tous les Juifs pendant ces trois jours gardent un jeûne austère, let all the Jews during these three days keep a strict fast. Rac. Vous gardez en silence inévitable, you keep an inflexible silence. J.-J. Rousse. Vous sentiez combien il eu coûte de — le silence avec quelq'un, etc., you feel how painful it is to remain silent with a person, etc. Volt. La bouche garde le silence pour écouter parler le cœur, the lips are mute that the heart may be heard. M^{me}. — la foi des traités, to keep the faith of treaties. 7 (continuer d'employer) to keep. J'ai gardé ma cuisinière, I have kept my cook. Je ne vous engage pas à — votre tailleur, I do not advise you to keep your tailor. 8 (conserver, réserver) to keep for, to reserve for, to hold in store. (for) to keep back. Il faut — cela pour demain, that must be kept for to-morrow. Je vous ai gardé une chambre commode, I have reserved for you a convenient room. Je vous garderais un place près de moi, I will keep a place for you near me. Il faut lui — quelque chose pour son dîner, you must put by something for his dinner. Gardait pour moi-même une juste rigueur, remaining justly severe to myself. Boil. Gardez ret argent pour votre voyage, keep that money for your journey. Je garde pour une autre fois mille bagatelles qui ne seraient pas de saison aujourd'hui, I keep back for another time a thousand trifles which would be unseasonable now. M^{me} de Sév. Il lui gardait un châtiment terrible, he held in store for him a terrible chastisement. Quel trésor le Dieu bon nous garde! what a treasure D.ine Goodness reserves for us. V. Hüg. Peut-être l'aveu me gardait-il encore un retour de bonheur, perhaps the future had hap-piness in store for me. Lamart. fig. Votre cœur a gardé peu de place au feu de l'amour, your heart has but little room left for the flames of love. J.-J. Rouss. fig. La — à quelqu'un, la lui — bonne, See BONNE. prov. Vous ne savez pas ce que Dieu vous garde, ce que la fortune vous garde, you do not know what God reserves for you, what Fortune reserves for you. prov. fig. — une poire pour la soif, to provide against a rainy day. 9 (veiller à la conservation de) to look after, to take care of, to attend to, to watch over, to guard, to mind. — un enfant, to look after a child. Je lui ai donné ma montre à — I gave him my watch to take care of. Je vais sortir un moment, veuillez — ma place, I am going out for a moment, please to keep my place for me. — les bois, to guard the forests. Je garde l'âne, on plûtôt l'âne me garde quand les enfants n'y sont pas, I take care of the ass, or rather the ass takes care of me when the children are not there. L'autrui. Il veut que je garde ses femmes, je les garderai avec fidélité, he wants me to keep his women, I will do so faithfully. Montesq. Il fallait bien que quelqu'un restât pour la maison, somebody was obliged to remain at home to mind the house. Merim. — les bois, — les vignes, to guard the forests, the vines. — la chassie, to preserve the game. — un magasin, to mind a shop. Ce chien garde bien la maison, this is a good house-dog. — les gages, les enjeux, to be stake-holder. fig. En donner à — à quelqu'un, to give to a person, to impose upon a person. prov. fig. — le mulet, to dance attendance, to be kept waiting. — les manteaux, to stand sentinel, to be a looker-on. 10 (d'un malade, of a sick person) to tend, to nurse, to take care of. Ils se mirent à — le malade à tour de rôle, they undertook to nurse the patient by turns. Balz. 11 (d'un troupeau, of a flock) to tend, to keep (les moutons, sheep) les vaches, the cows). Certaines P. qui gardent les dindons, some P. who keep the turkeys. La Font. prov. fig. Bonhomme, garde ta vache, good man, have an eye. 12 (des prisonniers, of prisoners) to guard. — des prisonniers à vue, not to let prisoners out of one's sight. En mon absence je garderai les prisonniers, you will guard the prisoners during my absence. Ab. 13 (défendre, protéger) to guard, to defend, to protect. Ce que Dieu garde est bien gardé, they are safely kept who are in God's keeping. Un ange garde ton sommeil, an angel guards thy sleep. V. Hug. 14 (préservir, garantir) to preserve (from), to safeguard. La graisse qui défend la balaine du froid ne la garde nullement d'aucun choc, the fat that protects the whale against the cold does not in any way preserve it from any shock. Mich. Dieu me garde d'un pareil malheur, God preserve me from such a misfortune. Dieu vous garde! God preserve you! God bless you! Dieu vous garde de mal, God preserve you from evil. Dieu vous en garde, Dieu m'en garde, God forbid. 15 (d'un roi, etc., of a king, etc.) to guard. Toutes ces troupes étaient chargées de — le roi, it was the duty of all these troops to guard the king. Barth. 16 (d'un poste, etc., of a post) to guard (un retranchement, des lignes, an intrenchment, lines). On fit — les posts, the bridges were guarded. Bar. GARDE-BOÛTQUE, sm. pl. GARDE-BOÛTQUE, old shop-keeper. GARDE-CHAÎNE, em. tech. pl. GARDE-CHAÎNE, chain-guard. GARDE-CROTTE, sm. pl. GARDE-CROTTE, splash-board. GARDE-CORPS, sm. pl. GARDE-CORPS, naut. rail, hand-rail, life-line, men rope, swiftener of a capstern. GARDE-FEU, sm. pl. GARDE-FEU, fender, fire-guard. GARDE-FREIN, sm. pl. GARDE-FREINS, brakesman. GARDE-FOU, sm. pl. GARDE-FOUS, roil, hand-rail, parapet, life-line, swiftener of a capstern.

GARDE-MANCHE, sm. pl. GARDE-MANCHE, half-sleeve.

GARDE-MANGER, sm. pl. GARDE-MANGER, 1 (lieu) pantry, battery, larder. 2 (petite armoire) safe.

GARDE-MEUBLE, sm. pl. GARDE-MEUBLES, lumber-room. Le — de la couronne, the crown furniture repository.

GARDE-NOBLE, sf. law. garde-noble.

GARDE-ROBE, sf. pl. GARDE-ROBES, 1 wardrobe. 2 (by extension) (des habits, etc.) wardrobe. (by analogy) La — d'un acteur, the wardrobe of an actor. (chez le roi) Grand-maitre de la —, master of the king's wardrobe. 3 water-closet.

GARDE-ROBE, sf. bot. southern-wood, lavender.

GARDE-TEMPS, sm. nat. phil. See CHRONOMÈTRE.

GARDE-VUE, sm. pl. GARDE-VUE, shade. Porter un — vue, to wear a shade.

SE GARDER, vpr. 1 (se conserver) to keep. Ses fruits ne se gardent pas, those fruits will not keep. 2 (soi-même) to guard one's self. Les Allemands étaient gens prudents qui se gardaient, the Germans were prudent people who guarded themselves. Bar. Il fut ordonné que les Parisiens se garderaient eux-mêmes, it was decreed that the Parisians should guard themselves. Bar. 3 (prendre garde) to beware, to take care, to take heed not, to guard against, to forbear (to), to be careful not (to). Il les exhorta à bien se — de trop grever leurs sujets, he exhorted them to be very careful not to burden their subjects. Bar. Se — du serin, to guard against the evening damp. Gardez-vous du soleil, keep out of the sun. Il se garde bien d'habiter une contrée où, he takes good care not to live in a country where, 19. Clas. Ce prince évoque l'avenir à son conseil, et se garde de la décider, this prince evokes the affair before his council and takes care not to decide it. Volt. Gardez-vous bien de tomber, mind you don't fall. Elle s'en serait bien gardée, she would have been sure not to do it. Gardez-vous d'offenser cet homme, beware of offending that man. (avec ellipse du pron. pers., the pers. pron. being understood) Gardez-vous, gardez, take care not (to), mind (to), refrain (from). Gardez qu'une voyelle à courir trop hâte, beware lest a vowel in too sudden haste. Buis. Gardez qu'avant le coup votre dessein n'échappe, take care that your design be not known. before the blow is struck. Rac. Gardez sur votre vie d'ouvrir, open not, upon your life. La Font. Gardez bien qu'un esprit de la route des cieus ne détournie votre âme, beware lest a spirit should cause your soul to deviate from the path of Heaven. V. Hug.

GARDEUR, gar-duhr, sm. fem. GARDEUSE, keeper. — de cochons, de vaches, swineherd, cowherd. Gardeuse de diadons, one who tends the turkeys.

GARDIEN, gar-dyaan, sm. fem. — ne, 1 guardian. Le coq, ce — du sommeil, the cock, that guardian of sleep. V. Hug. Il était le — des droits de la couronne, he was guardian of the rights of the crown. Villen. (adjectif.) Ange —, guardian angel; il fig. Vous êtes mon ange —, you are my guardian angel. 2 (celui qui garde quelque chose) keeper, guardian. 3 law. bailiff's man, broker's man, possession man. On l'a établi —, on l'a établi — ne des meubles, des scellés, he, she was intrusted with the care of the furniture, the seals, etc. (adjectif.) Lettre de garde — ne, bill of indictment. 4 (dans les couvents de religieux de saint François) superior. Le père —, the pater-guardian.

CARDON, gar-dong, sm. ich. roach. prov. Être frais comme un —, to be as sound as a roach.

GARE, gar, imperat. of the verbe GARE, 1 (employed as an interjection) mind! take care! beware! look out. Crier —, to give warning. —, — look out! look out! — de la, clear the way there! — devant, make way before! — dessous, take care below! — l'eau, take care below! — la bombe, look out for a squall! 2 hunt. loo. 3 (pour avertir du châtiment) beware. — le fouet, beware of the whip! — le bâton, beware of the stick, the rod! 4 (pour avertir de la frappe) beware of the blow. 5 (pour marquer l'appréhension) look out, beware. Si vous faites cela, — les conséquences, if you do that, look out for the consequences. Jusqu'à présent il a résisté, mais — qu'il ne cède, till now he has resisted, but it will be a great chance if he does not yield.

GARE, sf. 1 (sur les rivières) basin. 2 railw. terminus, station, platform. — s d'arrivée et de départ, terminus, pl. termini. — d'évitement, shunting, siding, turn-out. Chef de —, station-master.

GARENNE, gar-ayn, sf. 1 (lien) warren. Lapin de —, warren-rabbit. — fermée, — privée, enclosed warren. 2 (in a wider sense) an. warren.

GARENNIER, gar-ay-nayr, sm. warren-er.

GARER, gar-ay, va. to moor in a dock (un bateau, a boat). — un train de bois, to secure a float of wood.

SE GARE, vpr. 1 (des bateaux, of boats) to keep out of the way, 2 (by extension) (se préserver de quelque chose) to get out of the way (d'un fœd, of a madman; d'une voiture, of a carriage).

GARGANTUA, gar-gang-tuah, sm. fig. (homme vorace) cormorant. C'est un — qu'on ne peut assouvir, he is a cormorant that nothing can satisfy. Vien.

SE GARGAISER, gar-gar-e-zay, vpr. to gargle. Se — la gorge, to gargle one's throat.

GARGARISME, gar-gar-ism', sm. (Gr.) 1 (liqueur) gargarium, gargle. 2 (action) gargling.

GARGOTAGE, gar-got-azh, sm. pop. ill-dressed victuals.

GARGOTE, gar-got, sf. 1 (petit cabaret) cook-shop. 2 (disparagingly) (endroit où l'on mange mal) cook-shop.

GARGOTER, gar-go-tay, vn. 1 to frequent low eating-houses, vile-houses. 2 pop. (boire et manger malproprement) to eat and drink in a slovenly manner.

GARGOTIER, gar-go-tyay, sm. fem. GARGOTIÈRE, 1 keeper of a cook-shop. 2 (disparagingly) bad cook.

GARGOUILLE, gar-goo-yad, sf. pop. gargouillade.

GARGOUILLE, gar-goo-yoh, sf. gargyle, water-spout. Le — d'une gouttière, the spout of a gutter.

GARGOUILLEMENT, gar-goo-yuh-mang, sm. rumbling, grumbling (in the bowels).

GARGOUILLER, gar-goo-yay, vn. 1 pop. (barboter dans l'eau) to dabble, to paddle. 2 pop. (produire un gorgouillement) to cause a grumbling.

GARGOUILLES, gar-goo-ye, sm. gringling, splashing.

GARGOUSSE, gar-goos, sf. artil. cannon cartridge. Charger à —, to load with cartridge.

GARGOUSSIER, gar-goo-syay, sm. naut. cartridge-box.

GARGUE, gar-gig, sf. pop. (terre inutile) waste.

GARITE, gar-it, sf. naut. top-brims, top-rims.

GARNEMENT, gar-nub-mang, sm. scump, scope-prime. C'est un franc —, he is a regular scamp. C'est un mauvais —, he is a good-for-nothing fellow.

GARNI, gar-nice, ppa. of GARNIR, fem. — e, lined, provided, set off. Avoir la bourse bien — e, the gousset bien — to have one's purse, one's pocket well lined. Notre sac aux provisions était bien —, our bag was crammed with provisions. Le Sage. Nids —s de paille, nests lined with straw. — de fer, set in iron. Une botte —e de diamants, a box set off with diamonds. Des salles spacieuses —es les sièges, spacious rooms provided with seats. Barth. Chocorotte —e, sauerkraut with garnish. Lit —, bedding. Chambre —e, furnished room. Hôtel —, lodging-house. Maison —e, private lodging-house. law. Plaidier main —e, plaidier la main —e, les mains —es, to be at law for what one is in possession of, to have nine points of the law. La Coor solfissimment —e de pairs, the Court containing a sufficient number of peers. her. Epée —e, garnished sword. 2 absol. (tondu) bushy. Les cils des papillères sont longs et —s, the lashes of the eye-lids are long and bushy. Buff.

GARNI, sm. furnished lodging.
GARNIR, gar-neer, ra. 1 (fournir) to provide, to stock, to fit up, to furnish, to set out. — une boutique, la —e, to furnish a shop, to stock it with goods. — une bibliothèque de livres, to stock a library with books. — un buffet de vaisselle, to set out a sideboard with plate. Il garnit tous les alentours de gens de guerre, he filled the whole neighbourhood with soldiers. Bar. Il fit — de canons le rempart, he caused the rampart to be provided with cannon. — une place de guerre, to provide a fortified town. — des faoteils, un canapé, etc., to stuff arm-chairs, a sofa, etc. — une épée, to put a hilt to a sword. 2 (des choses que l'on joint à une autre comme accessoires, etc.) to trim, to set off, to mount, to garnish, to line. — une robe de dentelle, to trim a dress with lace; — un chapeau de fleurs, a bonnet with flowers. — un portrait de diamants, to mount a portrait with diamonds. — de persil une pièce de bœuf, to garnish a piece of beef with parsley. — de trottoirs rue nue, on quai, to line a street, a quay with foot-panels. Faire — une porte de bourrelets, to have padding put to a door. 3 (des choses qui font le complément, etc.) to adorn, to embellish, to fit up. Les cheveux qui garnissent le derrière de la tête, the hair which covers the back of the head. 4 (occuper) to fill. Une foule de curieux garnissaient les deux côtés de la route, a crowd of curious people lined both sides of the road. De nombreux vaisseaux garnissaient le port, numerous vessels filled the port. 5 (renforcer) to line, to trim. — des bas, to run stockings at the heel; — un chapeau, to trim a hat, to line its inside. — une robe, une jupe, to trim a dress, a petticoat.

SE GARNIR, rpr. 1 (se moirer) to provide, to furnish, to stock one's self. 2 (se remplir) to fill.

GARNISAIRE, gar-ne-zayr, sm. bailiff's man, possession man.

GARNISON, gar-ne-zong, sf. 1 (collectif) garrison. Teuir — dans une ville, to keep garrison in a town. Ville de —, garrison town. 2 (ville) garrison. Mariage de —, unsuitable match. 3 (pour contraindre à payer, etc.) bailiff's man, possession man. Mettre — chez un contribuable, to put a bailiff's man at a taxpayer's.

GARNITURE, gar-ne-tür, sf. 1 furniture, ornaments, mounting, setting. La — d'une chambre, the furniture of a room. Une — de cheminée, chimney ornaments. Un portrait qui a une — de diamants, a portrait which has a diamond setting. Une — de chemise, de robe, the trimming of a shirt, of a dress. 2 voc. (d'un habit, d'une coiffure, etc.) of a coat, a head-dress, etc.) set. 3 culin. garnish. — de champignons, de persil, washroom, parsley garnish. 4 (pour reauforcer) tining, running at heels. Mettre une — à des bas, to run stockings at the heels. La — d'un chapeau, the lining of a hat. 5 (assortiment) set. Une — de dentelles, a set of lace-trimmings. Une belle — de porcelaines, a fine set of porcelain. 6 print. furniture.

GAROU, gar-oo, sm. obsol. sorcerer, wizard. See LOUP-GAROU.

CARON, sm. bot. epurge-laurel.
GARROT, gar-o, sm. withers. Le — d'un cheval, the withers of a horse. Ce cheval a été blessé sur le —, that horse has been hurt in his withers, has been wither-wrung; || fig. Cet homme est blessé sur le —, that man's reputation has been injured.

GARROT, sm. packing-stick, garrot.
GARROTTER, gar-o-tay, ra. to pinion, to bind. fig. — quelqu'un, to tie down a person.

GARS, gar, sm. boy, lad.
GARS, gar-üs, sm. Elisir de —, elixir of Garus.

GASCOGNE, gas-ko-nyuh, sf. (Gr.) geog. Gascony.

GASCON, gas-kong, sm. fem. —NE, 1 (habitant) Gascon. Une gasconne, a woman of Gascony. 2 fig. (fanfaron) gascon, boaster, bragger, braggart. 3 (adjective) Gascon. Humeur —de, gascon-adding bent. Accent —, Gascon accent.

GASCONISME, gas-ko-nism', sm. Gasconism.

GASCONADE, gas-ko-nad, sf. gasconade, boast, brag, rant. Dire, faire des —s, to gasconade.

GASCONNER, gas-ko-nay, sm. 1 to speak with a Gascon accent. 2 to gasconade, to brag, to boast.

GASPILLAGE, gas-pe-yazh, sm. waste, wasting, squandering.

GASPILLER, gas-pe-yay, ra. 1 to waste, to spoil, to throw into disorder. — des papiers, to waste paper. — du linge, to spoil linen. 2 (dissiper) to squander (les trésors de l'Etat, the treasures of the State). Aucun ne gaspille les produits du vol, none squanders the produce of the theft. Ab. fig. — son temps, to waste one's time; to trifle away one's time.

GASPILLEUR, gas-pe-yuhr, sm. fem. CASPILLEUSE, waster, squanderer, spend-thrift.

GASTER, gas-tayr, sm. (Gr.) med. abdomen, stomach.

GASTRALGIE, gas-tral-zhee, sf. (Gr.) med. stomach-ache.

GASTRIQUE, gas-trik, adj. mf. 1 anat. med. gastric. Arteres —s, nerfs —s, gastric arteries, nerves. Liqueur, suc —, gastric juice. 2 sf. med. La — inférieure, la — supérieure, the lower, the upper gastric.

GASTRITE, gas-trit, sf. med. gastritis. — aiguë, — chronique, acute, chronic gastritis.

GASTRO-ENTERITE, gas-tro-äng-tay-ris, sf. med. gastro-enteritis.

GASTRONOME, gas-tro-nom, sm. gastronomer.

GASTRONOMIE, gas-tro-no-mee, sf. (Gr.) gastronomy.

GASTRONOMIQUE, gas-tro-no-mik, adj. mf. gastronomic.

GASTROGRAPHIE, gas-tro-raf-ee, sf. (Gr.) sorg. gastrography.

GASTROFOMIE, gas-tro-to-mee, sf. (Gr.) sorg. gastrotomy.

GATE, ppd. of GÄTER, fem. —E, 1 Froit —, spoiled fruit. Trouvaid-on au logis quelque chose de —, on s'en pouvait, etc., if anything was found spoiled in the house, the fault was found, etc. La Funt. fig. Quand le goût a été — par des nouveautés et des hardiesse bizarres, when the taste has been spoiled by fantastical novelties and innovations. Boss. Un peuple — par une liberté excessive, a people spoiled by excessive liberty. Fen. Une morale légèrement —e, a somewhat doubtful morality. St-B. Enfant —, spoiled child. 2 fig. (substantif) ils (ont) bon marché de la nature saine, ils opèrent volontiers sur le — et le facile, nature in its healthy state they hold but cheap, they prefer writing on what is tainted and factitious. St-B.

GATEAU, gä-to, sm. 1 cake. — feuilleté, puff. — de riz, rice-cake. Le — des Rois, twelfh-cake, twelfh-night cake. f. bartager le —, to go halves. prov. fig. Avoir part au —, to have a share in the profits. 2 sculpt. cake. 3 — de miel, honeycomb.

GÄTER, gä-tay, ra. 1 (détériorer, endommager, to spoil, to taint. La nielle a gâté les blés, the blight has spoiled the corn. La pluie a gâté les chemins, the rain has spoiled the roads. Le tailleur a gâté votre habit, the tailor has spoiled your coat. Votre enfant gâté tout ce qu'il touche, your child spoils all he touches.

J.-J. Rouss. La lecture continue gâté la vue, continual reading spoils the sight. Si la nourriture est gourmande, intemperante, elle aura bientôt gâté son lait. If the nurse is gluttonous and intemperate, she will soon have spoiled her milk. J.-J. Rouss. Tout au travers ils se jetèrent, gâtèrent tout, they ran across it in every direction and spoiled every thing. La Font. fig. L'âge a gâté la main à cet écrivain, à ce chirurgien, age has spoiled that writers', that surgeon's hand. 2 fig. (des choses morales, etc.) to spoil, to mar. Je pourrais tout — par de plus longs récits, I might spoil every thing by a longer narration. La Font. Ces jeunes gens qui n'ont pas eu le temps de recueillir la gloire et qui l'ont gâtée, those young men who have not had time to reap laurels and who have spoiled them. Villen. Je gâtai ma pièce pour leur plaisir, I marred my piece to please them. Volt. Il nous gâtéra tout le plaisir de la traversée, he will spoil for us all the pleasure of the passage.

Merim. La fortune aveugle a tout gâté, elle n'en fait jamais d'aveugle, blind Fortune has spoiled every thing, it is always the way with her. Nod. Cela gâtait son affaire, that put a spoke in his wheel. La Font. — les affaires, to spoil one's affairs. Ses vices et sa légèreté gâtèrent tout, his vices and levity spoiled every thing. Bar. — le métier, to spoil the trade. — quelqu'un dans l'esprit d'un autre, to disserve a person in the mind of another. 3 (salir, tacher) to spoil. Ne gâtez pas votre robe, mind you do not spoil your dress. fig. — du papier, to waste paper, to scribble. fig. C'est un homme qui a gâté bien du papier dans sa vie, he is a man who has done a deal of scribbling in his life. 4 fig. (être trop indulgent, etc.) to spoil, to pet. — un enfant, to pet a child. Cette tendresse de sa mère aurait gâté Sophie, this tenderness of her mother's would have spoiled Sophia. Lamart. Vous êtes trop bon pour vos domestiques, vous les gâtez, you are too kind to your servants, you spoil them. 5 fig. (des mœurs, etc., of manners, etc.) (corrompre) to corrupt, to deprave. Des professions inutiles, dont plusieurs ne servent qu'à corrompre et — les mœurs, useless professions, several of which only serve to corrupt and deprave the morals. J.-J. Rouss. — l'esprit, to corrupt the mind.

GÄTE-BOIS, sm. pl. GÄTE-BOIS, pop. bungling carpenter or joiner.

GÄTE-ENFANT, sm. pl. GÄTE-ENFANTS, a person that spoils children.

GÄTE-MÉTIER, sm. pl. GÄTE-MÉTIER, spoil-trade.

GÄTE-PAPIER, sm. pl. GÄTE-PAPIER, scribbler.

GÄTE-PÂTE, sm. pl. GÄTE-PÂTE, 1 bad pastry-cook, bad baker. 2 fig. bungler.

GÄTE-SAUCE, sm. pl. GÄTE-SAUCE, lam. sorry cook.

SE GÄTER, rpr. 4 to spoil, to be spoiled, to taint. Ces fruits se sont gâtés, those fruits have spoiled. La viande se gâte vite dans la chaleur, meat soon taints in hot weather. Le temps se gâte, the weather is breaking up. 2 fig. (des mœurs, etc., of manners, etc.) to become depraved, corrupt. Il s'est bien gâté, he has become greatly depraved. (à soi) to spoil. Elle se faisait pour elle-même, pour ne pas se — le souvenir d'une bonne action, she did it for her own sake, not to spoil the recollection of a good action. St-B.

GATERIE, gât-ree, sf. fond indulgence.

GATEUR, gâ-lubr, sm. fem. CATEUSE, spouler, waster. Les grand-mères sont des gâteuses d'enfants, grandmothers are spoulers of children.

GAUCHE, gôsb, adj. mf. 1 left. Le côté —, the left side. La main —, the left hand. L'œil —, the left eye. A main —, on the left-hand. (des animaux, of animals) left. Le pied — d'un cheval, the left foot of a horse. 2 (d'un bâtiment, d'une armée, etc.) left. L'aile — d'un bâtiment, the left wing of a building; d'une armée, of an army. Le flanc — d'un bataillon, d'un peloton, the left flank of a battalion, of a platoon. 3 (d'une rivière, of a river) left. La rive — d'une rivière, the left bank of a river. 4 (d'un tableau, etc., of a painting) left. Le côté —, la partie — d'un tableau, the left side of a painting. 5 (d'une assemblée délibérante) left. Le côté — de l'assemblée, the left side of the assembly. Siéger au côté —, to sit on the left side. 6 (de travers) crooked, ill-shaped. 7 (sans grâce) awkward, clumsy, ungainly, unhandy. Ce grand garçon est bien —, that big boy is very awkward. Un air, un maintien —, a bashful air, deportment. Des manières —, awkward manners. Un compliment —, an awkward compliment. 8 (maladroite) awkward. Cet homme est — à tout ce qu'il fait, that man is awkward in all he does. Une réponse —, an awkward answer.

GACHE, sf. left, left side, left-hand side. S'asseoir à la — de quelqu'un, to sit at the left hand of a person. Pour arriver à cet endroit, il faut prendre sur sa —, sur la —, get to that place, you must turn to the left. La — d'une armée, the left wing of an army. Il couvrit sa — d'un marais, he covered his left with a marsh. La — d'un tableau, the left side of a painting. Ecrire un nombre à la — d'un autre, to write a number on the left side of another. Un membre de la —, a member of the left. fig. scrip. Que votre — ne sache point ce que fait votre droite, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth.

À GAUCHE, adv. loc. on the left, at, to the left. Tourner à —, to turn to the left. Aller de droite à —, to go from right to left. fig. Donner à —, to be in the wrong way. fig. Prendre une chose à —, to take a thing wrong.

À DROITE ET À GAUCHE, adv. loc. to the right and left. Frapper à droite et à —, to hit out to the right and left. Prendre à droite et à —, to take on all hands.

GAUCHEMENT, gôsb-mâg, adv. awkwardly, clumsily.

GACHER, gô-shay, adj. m. fem. GACHÈRE, 1 left-handed. Être —, to be left-handed. 2 (substantif.) Un —, une gachère, a left-handed man, woman.

GACHERIE, gôsh-ree, sf. 1 awkward action, thing, clumsy action, thing, blunder. J'ai fait une — en cloignant b., I made a blunder when I sent away B. Beaum. 2 (manque d'aisance) awkwardness, clumsiness.

GAUCHIR, gô-sheer, vn. 1 to turn aside. 2 fig. (ne pas agir, ne pas parler avec franchise) to shaggle, to dodge. 3 build. carp. to warp.

GAUCHISSEMENT, gô-shis-màng, sm. build. carp. warping.

GAUDE, gôd, sf. bot. weld, dyer's weed.

GAUDE, sf. hosty-pudding.

SE GAUDIR, gô-deer, vpr. to rejoice, to mock (at), to laugh (at). Se — de quelqu'un, to make game of a person.

GAUDIOLE, gô-dre-yol, sf. course, broad jest.

GAUFRE, gôfr, sf. 1 (rayon de miel) honeycomb. 2 (pâtisserie) waffle. 3 fig. Être la — dans une affaire, to be the victim in an affair.

GAUFRE, gô-fray, ra. tech. to guffer, to emboss, to crimp, to figure (du drap, du velours, cloth, velvet).

GAUFREUR, gô-fruër, sm. gufferer.

GAUFRIER, gô-fre-yay, sm. 1 waffler.

2 tech. guffering-iron.

GAUFRIÈRE, gô-frûr, sf. tech. guffering, figuring.

GAULE, gôl, sf. anc. geog. Gaul.

GAULE, sf. 1 (perche) pole. 2 (bous-sine) switch.

GAULER, gô-lay, ra. to beat with a pole. — un pommier, on noyer, to beat an apple-tree, a walnut-tree. — des pommes, des noix, des châtaignes, etc., to knock down apples, walnuts, chest-nuts, etc.

GALLIS, gô-lee, sm. 1 woods and forests. small wood. 2 ven. small wood, small branches.

GALLOIS, gô-lwâ, sm. fem. —, 1 (habitant) Gaul. Une —, a Gaulish woman. fig. C'est un vrai —, un bon —, he is a plain honest man, a true Gaul. 2 (langage) Gallic, old French. (adjectif.) Tournure, expression —, old turn, expression. En bon —, in good, in plain French. Cela veut dire en bon —, that means in good French. St-B. 3 (adjectif.) Prohibit —, old-fashioned prohibit. Franchise —, rough frankness. Avoir les manières —es, to have rough honest manners.

GAUPE, gôp, sf. pop. (disparagingly) strut, trollop.

SE GAUSSER, gô-say, vpr. pop. to make fun (of), to banter, to jeer (at). Il se gaussait de tout le monde, he bantered every body.

GAUSSERIE, gôs-ree, sf. mockery, banter.

GAUSSEUR, gô-suhr, sm. fem. Gausseuse, 1 mocker, banterer, jeerer. 2 (adjectif.) mocking, bantering, jeering.

GAUTHIER, gô-tyay, sm. Walter.

GAYON, gâ-yong, sm. pop. throat.

GAYOTTE, gâ-yot, sf. 1 (air) garot. 2 (dague) garot.

GAYAC, gâ-yac, sm. See CALAË.

GAZ, gâz, sm. 1 (tout fluide sériforme) gas. — oxygène, oxygen gas, déphlogisticeled air. — hydrogène, hydrogen gas. — azote, nitric gas. Des — déléteries, deleterious gases. 2 absol. gas, carburéted hydrogen gas. Eclairer au —, to light with gas. Eclairage au —, gas-lighting. Ce conduit de —, a gas-pipe. B. —, gas-light, gas-burner, burner. GAZE, gâz, sf. gaze. — de soie, silk gaze. — d'argent, silver-gauze.

GAZÉFIER, gâz-zay-e-fay, ra. chem. to gasify.

SE GAZÉFIER, vpr. to gasify, to turn to gas.

GAZÉIFORME, gâz-zay-e-form, adj. mf. chem. gasiform.

GAZELLE, gâz-ell, zool. gazelle.

GAZER, gâz-zay, ra. 1 to cover with gauze. 2 fig. to veil, to gloss over. absol. Gazer, gazet un peu, a little more decency.

GAZETIER, gâz-tyay, sm. 1 gazetteer. (adjectif.) La gent gazetière, the newspaper folks. Muss. 2 anc. newsman, news-vender.

GAZETIN, gâz-tang, sm. (little used) little gazette.

GAZETTE, gâ-zet, sf. 1 (journal) gazette. — politique, littéraire, political, literary gazette. Lire la —, les —, to read the papers. 2 (personne) news-monger. C'est une vraie —, he is quite a quidnunc.

GAZEUX, gâ-zuh, adj. m. fem. — gazeux, chem. gaseous. Fluide —, gaseous fluid. Substance —, gaseous substance. Limonade —, gaseous lemonade.

GAZIER, gâ-zay, sm. 1 tech. gauze-maker, gauze-weaver. 2 gas-fitter.

GAZOMÈTRE, gâ-zo-maytr, sm. 1 chem. gasometer. 2 (appareil) gasometer.

GAZON, gâ-zong, sm. 1 bot. grass. — anglais, English grass. 2 —, pl. (mottes de terre couvertes d'herbes) sod, turf.

GAZONNEMENT, gâ-zon-màng, sm. turf-ing.

GAZONNE, gâ-zonne, fem. —, 1 Uu parterre —, a grass-plot, a green-sward.

GAZONNER, gâ-zo-nay, ra. to turf, to sod. — un bastion, to turf a bastion. — les bords d'un bassin, to sod the edge of a basin.

GAZOUILLEMENT, gâ-zoo-yuh-màng, sm. warbling, chirping, twittering, babbling, prattle, murmuring. Le — des oiseaux, the warbling of birds. Le — des ruisseaux, the babbling of streams.

GAZOUILLEUR, gâ-zoo-yay, ra. 1 (des oiseaux, of little birds) to warble, to twitter, to chirp. Il devenait près de moi, souriant de plaisir, rite et —, came back smiling with pleasure, to laugh and prattle with me. V. Hing. 2 (des petits ruisseaux, of riuicula) to babble, to prattle, to murmur.

GAZOUILLES, gâ-zoo-yee, sm. absol. warbling, murmuring.

GEAI, zhay, sm. orn. Jay. prov. fig. C'est le — paré des plumes du paon, it is the daw in the peacock's feathers.

GEANT, zhay-ang, sm. fem. —, 1 giant. Taille de —, stature de —, a giant's stature. La guerre des —, contre les dieux, the war of the giants against the Gods. On voit à la foire une —, a gantless is to be seen at the fair; || Gs. Alter, marcher à pas de —, to advance with giant strides. 2 (by extension) (des animaux, of animals) giant. L'éléphant, ce — des animaux, the elephant, that giant among animals. 3 (adjectif.) giant-like. Son armure —, his gigantic armour. V. Hing. Arbre —, gigantic tree.

GEHENNE, zhay-ayu, sf. (Heb.) scrip. Gehenna.

GEIGNANT, zhay-nyàng, ppr. of GEINDRE, adj. m. fem. —, whining.

GEINDRE, zhàngdr, vn. conjug. like FEINDRE, to moan, to whine. Il ne fait que —, he does nothing but moan. Elle gémit continuellement, she is always whining.

GEINOIR, sm. baker's foreman.

GELATINE, zhay-lat-èn, sf. gelatine. Du bouillon de —, gelatine bouillon. Tablettes de —, portable souse.

GÉLATINEUX, zhay-lat-uh, adj. m. fem. gelatinous, gelatinous, gelatinous.

GEL, ppa. of GELER, fem. —, 1 frozen. Il se les pieds —-en Russie, his feet were frozen in Russia. La gelée — par la nuit, the soil hardened by the night frost. L'amar. 2 (hyperb.) (très-froid) J'ai les pieds, les mains —-s, my feet, my hands are frozen with cold. Je suis —, I am frozen.

GELÉE, zhuh-lay, sf. 1 frost. Une forte —, a hard frost. — blanche, white frost, hard frost. prov. La — n'est bonne que pour les ebeux, frost is good for nothing but cabbages. 2 (de viande, etc., of meat, etc.) jelly. — de veau, jelly stock, calf's foot jelly. 3 (de certains fruits, of fruits) jelly. — de groseille, currant jelly, jam. — de pommes, apple jelly. 4 — au rhum, rhum-jelly.

GELER, zhuh-lay, ra. 1 to freeze. 2 (des arbres, etc., of trees, etc.) endormir, to freeze. Comme la bise qui gèle une fleur au printemps, like the cold north wind that freezes a flower in the spring. Lamart. Des hivers longs et après avoir gelé les blés, long and severe winters ad frozen the corn. Lamart. 3 (hyperb.) a freeze. Voilà une porte qui nous gèle, we are frozen with the draught from that door. Vous avez les mains si froides que vous ne gèlez, your hands are so cold that you freeze me, fig. Cet homme gèle ceux qui l'abordent, that man gives people a freezing reception.

GELIN, sm. 1 to freeze. Les doigts, les pieds lui ont gelé, his fingers, his feet were frozen, frost-bitten. L'eau parfois gèle à nos cheveux, the water sometimes freezes on our hair. Nich. 2 (hyperb.) to freeze. Que faites-vous ici? Vous le voyez, je gèle, what are you doing here? You see, I am freezing. Flor. En attendant que j'aille — si haut, le printemps me cuit dans les plaines, before I run the risk of dying with cold on the mountains, I am roasted alive in the plain with the heat of the spring. Jacq. 3 (impers.) to freeze. Il gèle très-fort, it freezes very hard. 4 Il gèle à pierre fendre, there has been a hard frost.

GELIF, zhay-lif, adj. m. fem. CÉLIVE, woods and for. split by the frost. Pierre gelive, stone split by the frost.

GELINE, zhuh-lén, sf. acc. ora. hen. GELINOTTE, zhh-le-not, sf. oru. pulch. — de bois, hazel-hen.

GÉLIVRE, zhay-le-vür, sf. woods and for. Cet arbre à des —, this tree has been cracked by the frost.

GÉMAILLÉ, zhay-mo, sm. pl. 1 astr. Le signe des —, the sign of the Gemini. 2 myth. Castor and Pollux, fig. (jumeaux) Ces deux hommes étaient liés de l'éloge, those two men were the twins of the panegyric. La Font.

GÉMINÉ, zhay-me-nay, adj. m. fem. — 2, 4 law. Commandements —, arrêtés —, 2 iterated commands, decrees. 2bot. Feuilles —, geminate leaves.

GEMIR, zhay-meer, vn. (Lat. gemere) 1 to groan, to moan, to wail, to mourn, to bewail, to lament, to bemoan. — de douleur, to groan with pain. fig. Sur les malheurs de la France éplorée, gémissait la muse sacrée, the sacred muse bewailed the misfortune of F. in tears. V. Hug. Quelque chose à gémir dans ton cœur, thy heart goes forth a wail. Mass. 2 fig. to groan. Une partie de la nation gémissait sous le poids des impôts les plus rigoureux, a part of the nation groaned under the weight of the most burdensome taxes. — sous la tyrannie, sous le joug, to groan under tyranny, under the yoke. Les autres gémissent dans une pauvreté extrême, the others groaned in extreme poverty. Montesq. 3 fig. (être péniblement affecté d'une chose) to lament, to bewail, to deplore. Tout en gémissant d'avoir une femme si désagréable, whilst lamenting his lot in having so disagreeable a wife. Ph. Chas. En vain les chefs gémissaient, ils ne pouvaient rien empêcher, the chiefs lamented in vain, they could prevent nothing. Bar. Il gémir de votre erreur, he laments your error. Il en gémir au fond du cœur, he inwardly groans over it. — sur les pêcheurs, to mourn over sinners. — de ses péchés devant Dieu, to groan over one's sins before God. 4 (de certains animaux, of some animals) to coo. 5 (by extension) de choses inanimées, of inanimate things) to groan, to moan. L'enclume gémir sous le marteau, the anvil groans under the hammer. Des dalles qui n'avaient pas gémir sous le passage d'une roue, flagstones that had not groaned under the passage of a wheel. Nod. Le vent gémir dans les forêts, the wind moans in the forest. 6 fig. (d'une chose qui s'effaïsse sous le poids d'une autre) to groan. Il fait — les coquins sous le poids de son corps, he makes the cacklers groan under the weight of his body. poetic. La terre gémir sous ses pas, the earth groans under his footsteps. (in joke) Faire — la presse, to make the press groan.

GEMISSANT, zhay-me-sang, ppr. of GEMIR, adj. m. fem. — 2, groaning, moaning, mournful.

GÉMISSÉMENT, zhay-mis-mang, sm. 1 groan, moan. Le — des blessés, des mourants, the groans of the wounded, of the dying. Un long —, a long groan. A peine a-t-il la force nécessaire pour annoncer par des — les souffrances qu'il éprouve, he has scarcely strength sufficient to give vent to his sufferings in groans. Buff. Penser des —, to utter groans. Un bruit immense de —, qui ne pouvait se comparer à rien, an immense rumour of groans that could not be compared with any thing. Nod. 2 Le — de la colonne, the cooing of the dove. 3 fig. (plainte) groan. Il tire de son cœur de profonds —, he utters heavy groans. Fen. 4 fig. poetic. (murmure) groaning, moaning. Le sourd — des forêts, the hollow murmur of the forest.

GEMINATION, zhay-mah-syong, sf. (Lat.) gemmation, budding.

GEMME, zhay-m, adj. mf. (Lat. gemma) min. Des pierres —, precious stones. Du sel —, rock salt.

GÉMONIES, zhay-mo-nee, sf. pl. antiq. gemonies. Son cadavre fut traîné aux —, his dead body was dragged to the gibbet.

GÉNAL, zhay-nal, adj. m. fem. — 2, (Lat. genal) anat. of the cheeks.

GÉNANT, zhay-nang, ppr. of GÈNER, adj. m. fem. — 2, troublesome, annoying, inconvenient, irksome. Il est bien doux, pas —, he is very gentle, never in the way. Merim. C'est — pour madame qui reçoit beaucoup de monde, it is inconvenient for my mistress who receives a great deal of company. Merim. Ce sera pourtant bien — quelquefois, it will, however, be very inconvenient sometimes. Balz.

GÉNGIVE, zhag-siv, sf. (Lat. gingiva) gum. Affaïrni la —, to strengthen the gums. Avoir les — enflées, to have swollen gums.

GENDARME, zhàng-darm, sm. 1 ancient arm. 2 gendarme. — à pied, — à cheval, foot, horse gendarme. fig. C'est un —, au vrai —, she is a dragon, a virago, a termagant. C'est un beau —, he is a fine horseman. 3 (billettes qui sortent du feu) spark. 4 (certains points dans les diamants) flaw.

se GENDARNER, zhàng-dar-may, ppr. to fly out, to fire up, to fly into a passion. Assez caugh, dit-il, voyant E. près de se —, enough of that, said he, seeing E. ready to fly out. Balz. Votre esprit se gendarme toujours contre ce qu'on dit, you have a temper that is always ready to fly out at whatever is said. Moi. Il n'y a pas de quoi se tant —, there's nothing to fly into such a passion about.

GENDARMERIE, zhàng-darm-ree, sf. (collectif.) 1 anc. light-horse, the horse of the king's household. 2 gendarmery. — départementale, departmental gendarmery. — à pied, à cheval, foot, horse gendarmery.

GENDRE, zhàngdr', sm. (Lat. gener) son-in-law.

GÈNE, zhayn, sf. (from gêhenne) 1 absol. (torture) torture, rack. 2 absol. (by extension) (violence) torture. 3 (le ce qui met à l'étroit) constraint, uneasiness. Ces souliers me mettent à la —, these shoes pinch me. Il y a un peu de — dans la respiration, there is some difficulty in breathing. 4 (embarras) inconvenience. 5 fig. (contrainte) uneasiness, embarrassment, constraint. La — perpétuelle où vous tenez vos élèves, the perpetual constraint under which you keep your pupils. J.-J. Rouss. Il eût été pour nous une — continue, he would have been a perpetual annoyance to us. Jacq. Il quitta cette éducation domestique où il était à la —, he renounced this domestic education which kept him under restraint. St-B. Les colonies contiennent à jour de leur droit sans —, the colonies continued to enjoy their right unrestrainedly. Torq. Être sans —, to make free. Il est sans —, votre Anglais, your Englishman does not stand on ceremony. Merim. Il est tout à fait sans —, he makes himself quite at home. (by analogy) C'est un monsieur sans —, he is a gentleman who does not stand upon ceremony. Se donner la —, se mettre l'esprit à la — pour quelque chose, to torment one's self about a thing. 6 fig. (pénurie d'argent) straitened, narrow circumstances. Être dans la —, to be rather hard up.

GÈNÉ, ppa. of GÈNER, fem. — 2, Être — dans ses souliers, to be pinched in one's shoes. Nous étions bien — dans cette voiture, we were very much cramped in that coach. (by extension) Air —, constrained air. Taille —, pinched waist. Avoir la respiration —, to breathe with difficulty. fig. Les citoyens étaient sans cesse — par des lois singulières, the citizens were continually incommoded by singular laws. Montesq. Il ne croit pas que la grandeur souveraine doive être —, he does not think that sovereign greatness ought to be under restraint. Montesq. Être —, to be uneasy, uncomfortable.

GÉNÉALOGIE, zhay-nay-al-o-zhee, sf. genealogy, pedigree.

GÉNÉALOGIQUE, zhay-nay-al-o-zhik, adj. mf. genealogical. Table —, arbre —, genealogical tree.

GÉNÉALISTE, zhay-nay-al-o-zhist, sm. genealogist.

GÈNER, zhay-nay, va. 1 to incommode, to cramp, to pinch, to be too tight, to impede. Mon soulier me gêne, my shoe pinches me. L'habit le gêneait sous les bras, my coat was too tight under the arms. Ab. Les pesantes armures gênaient tous leurs mouvements, the heavy armours impeded all their movements. Bar. Pourvu marcher à peine, tant leur riche toison les gêne, clogged with their thick fleece, they can scarcely walk. Flor. 2 (by extension) (embarrasser) to impede, to obstruct. Cela gêne la circulation du sang, that impedes the circulation of the blood. 3 (by extension) (causer quelque embarras chez une personne) to disturb, to inconvenience, to put out of the way. Ce voisinage ne vous gênera pas, this neighbourhood will not disturb you. Ab. Il ne gênerait en rien M. le colonel, car, he would not in the least inconvenience the colonel, for. Merim. 4 fig. (tenir en contrainte) to embarrass, to lay restraint on, to put restraint on. Un gendarme leur commerce par des prohibitions, a restraint was laid on their commerce by prohibitions. Aug. Th. Elle leur donnait le moyen d'entrer en France et de — la pays, she furnished them with the means of entering France and disturbing the country. Bar. N'allons point les — d'un soin embarrassant, let us not impose upon them the restraint of an embarrassing task. Ilac. Je vous conseille, sans — en rien votre liberté, de, etc., I advise you, without laying any restraint on you, to, etc. Nod. La rime gêne souvent les poètes, poets often find an obstacle in the rhyme. En vous gênant un peu, vous pourrez tous tenir sur cette banquette, by squeezing a little, there is room for all of you on this bench. 5 fig. (réduire à une certaine pénurie d'argent) to straiten. Cette dépense va me — beaucoup, this expense will make me very short of cash.

se GÈNER, ppr. 1 to inconvenience one's self, to put one's self to inconvenience. 2 fig. (se contraindre) to be under restraint, to stand upon ceremony. Il ne se gêne pour personne, he is a man who likes to take his ease; he puts himself out of the way for nobody. Elle ne s'est point gênée pour lui dire ce qu'elle pen-rail, she made no ceremony of telling him what she thought. ironic. Ne vous gênez pas, make no ceremonies. 3 fig. (se mettre dans la gêne) to strain one's self.

GENERAL, zhay-nay-ral, adj. m. fem. — e, pl. m. GÉNÉRAL, (Lat. generalis) 1 general. Deuil —, general mourning. L'intérêt —, the general interest. Des ordonnances —es, general ordinances. Montresq. Des maximes —es, general maxims. J.-J. Rouss. Parler, répondre en general généraux, to speak, to answer in general terms. 2 (joint ou non d'office, de dignité, etc.) general. Officier —, general officer. Procureur —, attorney-general. Avocat —, solicitor-general. Receveur —, receiver-general.

GÉNÉRAL, sm. pl. GÉNÉRAL, 1 general. — d'armée, general of an army. — de division, general of division. — de brigade, brigadier general. 2 rel. general. Le — des dominicains, the general of the dominicans. 3 log. general.

EN GÉNÉRAL, adv. loc. 1 in general, generally. Eu — et en particulier, in general and in particular. On peut dire eu — que, it may be said in general that. 2 fig. in general, generally. In the main, for the most part. Eu —, les méchants ne prospèrent pas, in general, the wicked do not thrive.

GÉNÉRAL, zhay-nay-ral-lab, sm. 1 (dignité) generalship. 2 (temps) generalship. 3 (dans un ordre religieux) generalship.

GÉNÉRALE, zhay-nay-ral, sf. mil. general. Battre la —, to beat the general. La — bat, the general is beating.

GÉNÉRALEMENT, zhay-nay-ral-mang, adv. generally, in general. — parlant, generally speaking.

GÉNÉRALISATION, zhay-nay-ral-e-zab-syong, sf. generalization, generalizing.

GÉNÉRALISER, zhay-nay-ral-e-zay, va. 1 to generalize (une idée, un principe, une méthode, an idea, a principle, a method). absol. Notre esprit est naturellement porté à —, our minds are naturally inclined to generalize. 2 math. nat. phil. to generalize.

GÉNÉRALISSIMO, zhay-nay-ral-e-sim, sm. generalissimo.

GÉNÉRALITÉ, zhay-nay-ral-e-lay, sf. (Lat. generalitas) 1 generality. 2 (le plus grand nombre) the generality, the greater part. La — des hommes, most men. 3 — s, pl. (cas qui n'ont pas un rapport précis au sujet) generalities, general remarks. Des — s banales, trite, general remarks. 4 anc. generalship. — de Paris, the generalship of Paris.

GÉNÉRATEUR, zhay-nay-rat-nhr, adj. m. fem. GÉNÉRATRICE, (Lat. generator) 1 general, generating. fig. Principe —, generating principle. 2 geom. generating. GÉNÉRATIF, zhay-nay-rat-il, adj. m. fem. GÉNÉRATIVE, generating.

GÉNÉRATION, zhay-nay-rat-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 theol. la — éternelle du Verbe, the eternal generation of the Word. 2 (les descendants) generation. La — de Noé, the generation of Noah. (disparagingly and in joke) Lui et toute sa —, he and his whole generation. 3 (chaque filiation) generation. De — en —, from generation to generation. Son empire ne passa pas la quatrième —, his empire did not extend beyond the fourth generation. Boss. 4 (la réunion de tous les hommes qui vivent dans le même temps) generation. Les — s des hommes s'écoulent comme les ondes d'un fleuve rapide, the generations of men pass away like the waters of a rapid river. Feu. Les — s futures, future generations. 5 (l'espace de trente ans) generation. 6 (in a wider sense) (production) generation (des plantes, des métaux, of plants, minerals). 7 fig. (de certaines choses qui passent les unes des autres) generation. La — des sons, the generation of sounds. La — des idées, the order of ideas. 8 geom. generation.

GÉNÉREUSEMENT, zhay-nay-ruh-mang, adv. 1 generously. 2 (libéralement) generously, handsomely, liberally, bountifully. 3 (vaillamment) gallantly, courageously.

GÉNÉREUX, zhay-nay-rub, adj. m. fem. GÉNÉREUX, (Lat. generosus) 1 generous. Cœur, caractère —, generous heart, temper. 2 (des choses, of things) generous. Action généreuse, generous action. Parole généreuse, generous language. Vos généreuses bontés, your generous kindness. J.-J. Rouss. Mort généreuse, glorious death. Conseil —, generous advice. 3 (libéral) generous, liberal, bounteous, bountiful. Sa main généreuse, his bountiful hand. fig. Via —, generous wine. poétic. Sol —, terre généreuse, grateful soil, land. 4 (de quelques animaux, of some animals) noble. Un — coursier, a noble steed. 5 (substantif.) Faire le —, to be generous, to make a show of generosity.

GÉNÉRIQUE, zhay-nay-rik, adj. mf. generic. Terme —, nom —, generic term, name.

GÉNÉROSITÉ, zhay-nay-ro-ze-lay, sf. 1 generosity. La — de son caractère, the generosity of his character. Il agit ainsi par pure —, he acted thus out of pure generosity. 2 (libéralité) generosity, liberality. Des actes de —, acts of generosity.

GENES, zhay-n, a. geog. Genoa.

GENOIS, zhay-gwa, adj. and sm. fem. — e, Genoese. Une — e, a Genoese woman.

GENÈSE, zhob-nay-z, sf. (Gr.) bi. Genesis.

GÉNÉSIAQUE, zhay-nay-zyak, adj. mf. phil. Genesis.

GÉNÉSIS, zhay-nay-zik, adj. mf. did. genetic.

GENESTROLLE, zhob-nays-trol, sf. bot. dyer's broom, dyer's weed, genista tinctoria.

GENET, zhob-nay, sm. bot. broom. — d'Espagne, rush-broom. Balai de —, broom.

GENET, sm. zool. (cheval) genet, genetle. jennet. Un — d'Espagne, a genet.

GENETTE, zhob-net, sf. zool. genetle, genet.

GENETTE (à la), adv. loc. Aller à cheval à la —, to ride with short stirrups. Les Turcs vont à cheval à la —, the Turks ride short.

GENEVRIER, zhob-nay-vryay, sm. bot. juniper, juniper-tree.

GENÈVE, zhob-nay-s, a. geog. Geneva.

GENÉVOIS, zhaya-vooa, adj. and sm. fem. — e, Genevan. Une — e, a woman of Geneva.

GENIE, zhay-nee, sm. (Lat. genius) 1 (esprit, démon) genius, familiar, demon, spirit. C'est votre bon — qui, etc., it was your good genius that, etc. Un génialin —, an evil genius. 2 (d'un lieu, etc.) genius loci. — tutélaire, tutelary genius. Le — de la France, the genius of France. Le — de la nature, the genius of nature. 3 (le génie, the genius of painting, poetry, music, etc.) 3 (génies, etc.) genius. Évoquer les — s, to call up genius, propensity. S'abandonner à son —, to give one's self up to one's inspiration. Avoir du — pour les affaires, to have a genius for business. (disparagingly) Son — le porte à mal faire, he is bent upon mischief. Le — d'une langue, the genius of a language. Le — des Français est de saisir le côté ridicule des choses les plus sérieuses, the genius of the French consists in a lively perception of the ridiculous side of the most serious things. Volt. 6 (qualité des esprits supérieurs) genius. Un homme de — a genius, a man of genius. L'essor, le feu, l'enthousiasme du —, the flight, the fire, the enthusiasm of genius. Ces deux hommes déploient les ressources de leur —, those two men displaying the resources of their genius. Volt. Une petite étincelle de —, a slight spark of genius. 7 (disparagingly) genius, mind, intellect, parts. — étroit, narrow mind. Pauvre —, weak intelligence. Petit —, inferior parts. — médiocre, middling parts. 8 (celui qui a du génie) genius. Cet homme est un beau —, un — supérieur, that man is a fine genius, a superior genius. Quelques — s du temps d'Elisabeth avaient, etc., some geniuses of the time of Elizabeth had, etc. Volt. Je me trouvais au milieu des plus beaux — s de la Grèce, I found myself in a circle of the finest geniuses of Greece. Barb. Ce n'est pas un —, c'est un pauvre —, etc., he is no genius; he will not set the Thames on fire. 9 (l'art de fortifier, d'attaquer, de défendre une place) engineering. Le corps du —, le —, the engineers. Le — militaire, military engineering. Le — maritime, maritime engineering.

GENÈVE, zhob-nay-vry, 1 a bot. juniper. 2 (la graine) juniper-berry. 3 (liqueur) gin, holland.

GENÈVE, zhay-niss, sf. zool. heifer.

GÉNITAL, zhay-ne-tal, adj. m. fem. — e, genital.

GÉNITIF, zhay-ne-tif, sm. (Lat. genitivus) gram. genitive, possessive, genitive case, possessive case.

GÉNITURE, zhay-ne-lûr, sf. (Lat. genitura) absol. offspring, progeny. La mère épaisait sa chère —, the mother soothing her darling. La Font. (by extension) Les hirondelles aiment leur —, swallows love their offspring. Buff. Au filon Dieu donna —, God granted young ones to the owl. La Font.

GENOPE, zhay-nop, sf. naut. seizing, lashing.

GENOU, zhob-noo, sm. 1 (Lat. genu) kneecap. Avoir les — x en dedans, to be knee-kneed. Embrasser les — x de quelqu'un, to clasp the knees of a person. Mettre nu —, mettre les — x en terre, to kneel on one's knees, to kneel down. Fléchir le —, les — x devant quelqu'un, See FLECHIR. Plier le —, to bend the knee. Ses — x tremblants se dérobèrent sous elle, her trembling knees sank under her. Fen. A — x, on one's knees, kneeling. Être à — x, to be kneeling, to kneel down prior, to be on one's knees, to kneel down for prayer. (elliptic.) A — x, monsieur, down on your knees, Sir. — x devant, to prostrate one's self at the feet of a person. fig. throw one's self at the feet of a person. fig. C'est coming to lay her sorrows at your feet. Cora. fig. Demander une chose à — x, la demander à deux — x, to beg a thing on one's knees, with bended knee. Être à — x devant quelqu'un, to be on one's knees before a person. fig. Il a été et sera toujours à — x devant le pouvoir, he always was and ever will be a sycophant. 2 (de quelques animaux, of some animals) kneecap. Le — du cheval, du chameau, de l'éphant, the knee of the horse, camel, elephant. 3 mech. ball joint socket.

GENOUILLE, zhob-noo-yayr, sf. 1 kneecap. 2 boot-top. Bottes à —, top-boots. 3 tech. kneecap.

GENOYFÈRE, zhay-no-vay-fang, sm. rel. canon of St Genereux.

GENRE, zhàng, sm. (Lat. genus) 1 genus. pl. genera. 2 nat. hist. (particul.) (collection, groupe d'espèces) genus. 3 (espèce) species. Divers — s de plantes, several species of plants. Le — humain, the human species, mankind. 4 (manière, kind, sort, mode, description, way. U — de vie dont il ne s'est plus écarté, new mode of living from which he never deviated. Barb. Nouveau — d'études, new mode of study. J.-J. Rouss. Marchaudises de tous les — s, de tout — goods, wares of every description. La nature forme toujours des hommes en tout — de talent, nature always forms men of every kind of talent. Volt. Cela est excellent dans son —, that is excellent in its way. Le — de plaisanterie qui l'avait fait réussir dans les madrigaux, that style of pleasantry which had had success in his madrigals. Volt. 5 (good) fashion, taste, style. Ve's ne connaissez pas le bon —, you don't know what is genteel. Cette parure est d'un nouveau —, that set of jewels is after a new fashion. ironie. Le grand —, the extreme fashion. Se donner un —, to give one's self airs. Quel —! what a turn-out! 6 (des écrivains, des artistes, of writers, artists) style, way. Ce peintre travaille dans le — de l'Albaque, that painter paints after the manner of A. 7 litt. bon arts. (partie, division) style, kind. Tous les —s sont bons hors le — ennuyeux, all kinds of style are good, except a tedious one. Boll. Le — comique, the comic style. Le — tragique, the tragic style. 8 absol. peint. genre. 9 was. genus. — diatonique, chromatique, — euharmonique, diatonic, chromatic, enharmonic genus. 10 gram. gender. 11 physiol. Le — nerveux, the nervous system.

GENS, zhàng, s. pl. (Lat. gens) (the adj. and part. that precede gens are in the feminine, those that follow this word are masculine) 1 (personnes) people, folks, persons. Ce sont de fines —, they are cunning people. Les — qui ont faim sont si insouviants, hungry people are so insinuating. Nod. Les — qui dînent sont si polis, people who dine are so polite. Nod. Quelle farce vont jouer ces —-là? what joke are those people going to play? La Font. Parmi ce que de — sur la terre nous sommes, among us all such as we are. La Font. Etant de ces —-là, qui, etc., being one of those folks, who, etc. La Font. Des — qui pensent bien, right-thinking people. — de cœur, high-spirited people. Des — de qualité, people of quality. Des — de rien, low people. Les — de la ville, townpeople, townsfolk. Des — de la campagne, country-people. — de pied, people walking on foot. De Brass. Ce sont de honnes —, they are good people. Les vieilles — sont soupçonneuses, old people are suspicious. Ce sont les meilleures — du monde, they are the best people in the world. (when gens is preceded by an adjective of both genders, rocs is masculine) Tous les honnêtes —, all honest folks. Tous les habiles —, all skilful people. (when the adj. that precedes is fem., toutes is used) Toutes les vieilles —, all old folks. (tous is masc. if gens is followed by an epithet or any other determinative word) Tous les — sensés, pieux, raisonnables, all sensible, pious, reasonable people. Tous les — de bien, all good people. Tous — d'esprit et de mérite, all intelligent and deserving people. Il y a — et —, people are not all alike. Se connaître en —, to be a good judge of people. Bêtes et —, man and beast. prov. Il n'y a ni bête ni —, there is neither man nor beast. 2 (preceded by a numeral adj.) people. Il y vint quatre pauvres —, there came four poor people. Ces quatre frères étaient quatre braves —, those four brothers were four honest people. Mille —, des milliers de —, etc., a thousand people, thousands of people. 3 (noting a profession) Les — de robe, lawyers, gentlemen of the long robe. Les — de lettres, men of letters, literary men. Les — d'affaires, people of business. Les — de pied, de cheval, foot-soldiers, horse-soldiers. — d'armes, men at arms. 4 (ceux d'un) people. Nos — ont battu les ennemis, our people have beaten the enemy. 5 (personnes d'une même société) company, society, party. 6 anc. (d'aus les ordonnances, etc.) persons. Les — du roi, the king's men. 7 (les domestiques) attendants, servants.

GENT, zhàng, sf. 1 (nation, race) nation, tribe. poetic. La — qui porte le turban, the race that wears the turban. Vive la — qui fend les airs! long live the feathery tribe! La Font. La — qui porte crête, the fowl tribe. La Font. La — montagnarde, the ovine race; || fig. the imitative race. La — chienne, the canine race. La Font. 2 pl. Le droit des gens, the law of nations.

GENT, adj. m. fem. —E, obsol. pretty. GENTIANE, zhàng-syan, sf. bot. gentian.

GENTIL, zhàng-te, adj. m. 1 (pafen) gentile. 2 sm. gentile.

GENTIL, adj. m. fem. —LE, pretty. Un — enfant, a pretty child. Des manières —les, pleasing manners. Ce bijou est —, that is a pretty jewel. Uoe chanson fort —le, a very pretty song. (substantive) Faire le —, to play the agreeable. ironie. Vous faites là un — personnage, an — métier, you cut a pretty figure in this business, a pretty trade you are driving. ironie. Vous êtes un — personnage, un — garçon, un — compagnon, you are a pretty fellow.

GENTILHOMME, zhàng-te-yom, sm. pl. GENTILHOMMES, 1 noble, nobleman, gentleman. — de campagne, country gentleman. Faire le —, to play the fine gentleman. Simple —, private gentleman. Vivre en —, to live like a gentleman. 2 (particul.) (homme noble qui s'attachait à un prince) gentleman. 3 (titre) gentleman. Premier — de la chambre, first gentleman of the chamber. — ordinaire, gentleman of the king's bed-chamber in ordinary.

GENTILHONNERIE, zhàng-te-yom-ree, sf. (disparagingly) nobility, gentility. GENTILHONNIERE, zhàng-te-yom-yeer, sf. country squire's house.

GENTILITÉ, zhàng-te-le-tay, sf. 1 (collective) Heathendom. 2 (la profession d'idolâtrie) paganism, heathenism, gentilism.

GENTILLATRE, zhàng-te-yatr, sm. (in joke and disparagingly) lordling, country squire.

GENTILLESSE, zhàng-te-yays, sf. 1 prettiness, gracefulness. La — d'un enfant, the prettiness of a child. Avoir de la — dans l'esprit, dans les manières, to have an elegant turn of mind, to have pretty ways, manners. Cette — de style, that prettiness of style. J.-J. Rousseau. 2 (saillies) pretty things. On prend mon esprit toutes ces —s? how does my brain invent such witty things? Mol. 3 (loors de souplesse) pretty tricks. 4 ironie. (malice) prank, pretty trick. 5 obsol. pretty knock-knack, toy, trinket.

GENTIMENT, zhàng-te-màng, adj. pretty gracefully. (in joke) Vous voilà — accommodé, you are in a pretty mess.

GENTLEMAN, zhàng-tloh-nan, sm. (Eng.) gentleman.

GENFLEXION, zhay-nûf-lek-syong, sf. genflexion.

GÉOCENTRIQUE, zhay-o-sàng-trik, adj. mf. astr. geocentric, geocentral.

GÉODÉSIE, zhay-o-day-zee, sf. (Gr.) 1 geodesy, 2 land-surveying.

GÉODÉSIQUE, zhay-o-day-zik, adj. mf. geodesic, geodesical, geodetic, geodetical.

GÉONOSIE, zhay-og-no-zee, sf. (Gr.) nat. hist. geognosy.

GÉOGRAPHIE, zhay-o-graf, sm. geographer. Ingénieur —, geographical engineer, hydrographer.

GÉOGRAPHIE, zhay-o-graf-ce, sf. (Gr.) 1 geography. Une carte de —, a map. — astronomique, astronomical geography. 2 (traité) geography.

GÉOGRAPHIQUE, zhay-o-graf-ik, adj. mf. geographic, geographical.

GÉOLÈGE, zho-lazh, sm. gool-fee, gooter's fees.

GÉOLÈ, zhol, sf. 1 gool, jail, prison. 2 (la demeure du géolier) gooter's lodge. GÉOLIER, zho-lay, sm. gooter, jailer. GÉOLIERE, zho-layr, sf. gooter's wife.

GÉOLOGIE, zhay-o-lo-zhee, sf. (Gr.) nat. hist. geology.

GÉOLOGIQUE, zhay-o-lo-zhik, adj. mf. nat. hist. geological.

GÉOLOGUE, zhay-o-log, sm. nat. hist. geologist.

GÉOMANCE, zhay-o-màngs, GÉOMANCIE, zhay-o-màng-se, sf. (Gr.) geomancy.

GÉOMANCIEN, zhay-o-màng-syang, sm. fem. —NE, geomancer.

GÉOMÉTRAL, zhay-o-may-tral, adj. m. fem. —E, geometrical, geometrical.

GÉOMÉTRÉMENT, zhay-o-may-tral-màng, adv. geometrically.

GÉOMÈTRE, zhay-o-may-tr, sm. 1 geometer, geometrician. Arpenteur —, surveyor. 2 math. mathematician. fig. L'éternel —, the great Designer.

GÉOMÉTRIE, zhay-o-may-tree, sf. (Gr.) 1 geometry. 2 (traité) geometry.

GÉOMÉTRIQUE, zhay-o-may-trik, adj. mf. geometrical, geometric. Proportion —, geometrical ratio. Esprit —, methodical mind. (by analogy) Exactitude —, mathematical exactness.

GÉOMÉTRIQUEMENT, zhay-o-may-trik-màng, adv. geometrically.

GÉORAMA, zhay-o-rai-mah, sm. (Gr.) georama.

GEORGES, zhorzh, sm. George.

GEORGIE, zhay-or-zhee, sf. Georgia.

GEORGIEN, zhay-or-zhyang, adj. sm. fem. —SE, Georgian.

GEORGIQUE, zhay-or-zhik, adj. mf. (little used) georgic.

GEORGIQUES, zhay-or-zhik, sf. pl. Georgics. Les — de Virgile, the Georgics of Virgil.

GÉRANIUM, zhay-rah-nyuhm, sm. bot. geranium.

GERANT, zhay-ràng, ppr. of GÉRER, sm. fem. —E, 1 manager (d'une société de commerce, of a company). Le — d'un journal, the editor of a newspaper. La —e d'un bureau de tabac, tobacconist. 2 (adjective) managing. Procureur —, managing agent.

GERBE, zhayrb, sf. 1 sheaf. Lier des —s, to bind sheaves. fig. — d'ean, wheat-sheaf, fig. 2 ppr. fig. — de feo, gerbe. (by analogy) L'orage secouait sa forêt desirs, the storm dashed forth its forked flames. V. Hug. 3 (pour la dîme) tithe-sheaf.

GERBE-E, zhayrb-say, sf. bundle of straw not well thrashed.

GERBER, zhayrbay, v. 1 to make up into shoes. 2 (des pièces de vin) to pile upon each other.

GERBOISE, zhayrb-hoaz, sf. zool. jerboa, jumping-house.

GERCE, zhayrs, sf. ent. wood-louse.

GERCE, ppa. of GERGER, fem. —E, Avoir les lèvres —es, to have chapped lips. L'écorce de cet arbre est toute —e, the bark of that tree is full of cracks.

GERCEMENT, zhayrb-suh-màng, sm. cracking, crack, chapping.

GERCER, zhayrb-say, va. NOUS GERCEONS; 1 GERÇA; 1 to chap. Le froid, la bise gercent les lèvres, the cold, bleak winds chap the lips, the hands, the face. 2 (by extension) (de la terre, du bois, etc.) to crack. (de l'earth, wood, etc.) to crack.

SE GERCE, vpr. 4 to chap. Les lèvres se gercent à la grande gelée, the lips chap by the cold weather. 2 to crack. La terre se gerce, the earth cracks.

GERCER, en. to chap, to crack.

GERÇURE, zhayrb-sûr, sf. 1 chap. 2 (by extension) (de la terre, du bois, des ouvrages de maçonnerie, etc.) of earth, woods, buildings, etc.) crack.

GÉRER, zhay raj, va. JE GÈRE, ILS GÈRENT, to manage, to administer. — un domaine, un établissement, to administer a domain, to manage an establishment. — une tuelle, to manage the estate of a word.

GERAULT, zhayr-to, sm. orn. gerfalcon, gerfalcon.

GERMAIN, zhayr-mang, adj. m. fem. — E, 1 german, first. Cousin —, cousine — e, cousin german, first cousin. Issu de —, cousin issa de —, second cousin, cousin once removed. fig. Ces animaux sont — s du regard, these animals resemble faces in their cunning tricks. La Font. 2 law of the whole blood, german, own. L'ères — s, own brothers. (3 substantif.) — s, pl. own brothers, own sisters; brothers, sisters of the whole blood.

GERMANDÉE, zhayr-mang-drak, sf. bot. germander.

GERMANIUE, zhayr-man-ik, adj. m. Germanic. Droit —, Germanic law.

GERMANISME, zhayr-man-ism', sm. germanism.

GERME, zhayr-m', sm. (Lat. germes) 1 physiol. nat. hist. germ. Le — d'un œuf, the germ, the cradle of an egg. 2 bot. (l'ovaire) germ, germ. 3 (du blé, of corn; du gland, of the acorn, etc.) germ. 4 (d'une racine hultube) sprout, shoot. 5 (d'une graine, etc.) sprout, shoot. 6 fig. (le principe) germ, seed. Les — s de la vie, d'une maladie, the germs of life, the seeds of a disease. 7 (en parlant de choses morales) germ, seed, cause. Cette circonstance fut une fresh cause of dissension. Aug. Th. Ces — s de haine, these germs of hatred. Bar. On devait déjà reconnaître en lui le — d'un grand homme, already must have been recognized in him the dawn of a great man. Volt. Nous apportons le — des passions en naissant, we bring with us into the world the germs of our passions. Barth.

GERME, ppo. of GERME, fem. — E, adjectif. Du bié —, des oignons — s, sprouting corn, sprouting onions.

GERMER, zhayr-may, vn. 1 to shoot, to sprout, to germinate. Le bié commence à —, the corn is beginning to shoot. fig. Le chûne voit — ses glands autour de lui, il n'en est pas ainsi des enfants des hommes, the oak sees its acorns spring up around it, it is not so with the children of men. Chat. 2 fig. (se développer) to spring up. Ce sont ses leçons qui ont germé dans mon cœur, it is his lessons which have fructified in my heart. Chat. Mes souvenirs germaient dans mon âme échauffée, my recollections sprang up in my excited soul. V. Hug. (impers.) Daus tout berceau il germe une tole, every cradle opens a grave. V. Hug.

GERMINAL, zhayr-me-nal, sm. Germinal (seventh month of the French republican calendar, from March 21 to April 19).

GERMINATION, zhayr-me-nah-syong, sf. (Lat. bié, germination. fig. Dien a mis ce prix là — de ses dessein sur l'homme, God has set this price on the ripening of his views on man. Lamart.

GIROFLE, zhayr-rol', sm. See GIROFLEE.

GERONDIF, zhayr-rong-deef, sm. gram. gerund.

GERONTE, zhayr-rongt, sm. (Gr.) 1 antiq. Spartan senator. 2 fig. dolard.

GERZEAU, zhayr-zo, sm. bot. wild fenel-flower, nigella.

GÉSIR, zhayr-zy, sm. gizzard.

GÉSINE, zhayr-zeen, sf. obsol. confinement, lying-in, child-bed. Etre en —, to be lying-in, to be in the straw. La Font.

GÉSIN, zhayr-zeen, m. See GIR.

GÉSSE, zhays, sf. bot. her rich, tare. 2 (semence) chickling-witch.

GÉSTATION, zhayr-lah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 Rom. antiq. (exercice) gestation. 2 physiol. gestation.

GESTE, zhayst, sm. (Lat. gestas) 1 gesture, action, sign. Avoir le — beau, uoble, aise, to have fine, noble, easy action. Encourager de la voix et du —, to encourage with the voice and gesture. Exprimer par le —, to express by signs. 2 (mouvement) gesture, movement, motion. Faire un — de la main, to wave one's hand, to make a sign with the hand. Il me désigna d'un — magnifique le ciel, la mer et le pays, with a magnificent gesture he pointed out to me the sky, the sea and the country. Ab. Ils savent tous que d'un — je peux changer le cabinet, they all know that with a sign I can change the cabinet. Ab. Si vous faites le moindre —, vous êtes fini, if you but stir a limb, you are a dead man.

GESTES, zhayst, sm. pl. obsol. achievements, exploits, doings, deeds. Les diis et — des anciens, the words and deeds of the ancients. (in joke) Les faits et — d'une personne, the sayings and doings of a person.

GESTICULATEUR, zhays-le-kü-lat-ahr, sm. gesticulator.

GESTICULATION, zhays-te-kü-lah-syong, sf. gesticulation.

GESTICULER, zhays-te-kü-lay, vn. to gesticulate. Il parlait très-haut et gesticulait beaucoup, he spoke very loud and used many gestures. Aug. Th. Il recommandait à marcher en gesticulant d'une façon singulière, he resumed his walk using singular gestures. Muss.

GESTION, zhays-tyong, sf. management, administration.

GIBBEUX, zhe-bub, adj. m. fem. gibbeux, (Lat. gibbosus) gibbous, gibbose, convex.

GIBBOSITÉ, zhe-bo-ze-yat, sf. med. nat. hist. gibbosity, gibbousness.

GIGIERIE, zhib-syayr, sf. 1 a scrip. pouch. 2 (d'un chasseur, of a sportsman) game-pouch, game-pocket. 3 (d'un escamoteur, of a juggler) bag. Tour de —, sleight of hand trick. 4 (d'un écuyer, of a school boy) catched.

GIBELTE, zhib-yat, sm. tech. gimlet, gimbel. prov. fig. pop. Avoir un coup de —, to be crack-brained.

GIBELIN, zhib-lin, sm. Ghibeline.

GIBELOTTE, zhib-lot, sf. culin. stewed rabbit.

GIBERNE, zhe-bayrn, sf. cartridge-box.

GIBET, zhe-bay, sm. 1 gibbet, gallows. Attacher à un —, to gibbet. Pendre au —, to hang on a gibbet. prov. Le — n'est que pour le malheureux, it is only your poor devils that are hanged. 2 (fourches patibulaires) gibbet.

GIBIER, zhe-hyay, sm. game. Une pièce de —, a head of game. — à plumes, wild fowl. Meau —, small game. fig. — de patience, gallows-bird, gall-bird.

GIBOULE, zhe-bou-lay, sf. shower. — de mars, April showers.

GIBOYER, zhe-hwä-yay, vn. to go a hunting, a shooting. Arquebuse à —, fowling-piece.

GIBOYER, zhe-bwä-yuh, sm. (little used) hunter, sportsman.

GIBOYEUX, zhe-bwä-yuh, adj. m. fem. giboyeuse, abounding in game.

GIFLE, zhib', sf. pop. slap, box on the ear.

GIGANTESQUE, zhe-gang-taysk, adj. mf. 1 gigantic. Taille —, gigantic stature. — s, pl. (d'arbres de derrière du cheval) hind legs. 3 — s, pl. pop. (in joke) (d'une personne, of a person) legs. 4 (d'une robe, of a dress) branches — s, shoulder of mutton cleets, bishop's sleeves.

GIGOTTE, ppo. of GIGOTTE, fem. — E, adjectif. 1 man. Un cheval bien —, a strong-limbed horse. 2 ven. Un chien bien —, a strong-limbed dog.

GIGOTTER, zhe-goh-tay, m. 1 (d'un lievre, etc., of a hare, etc.) to kick about. 2 (d'un enfant, of a child) to kick about, to fidget.

GIGUE, zheeg, sf. 1 (air) jig. 2 (dause) jig.

GIGRE, sf. pop. leg.

GILET, zhe-lay, sm. 1 waistcoat. Un — de velours, a velvet waistcoat. 2 (sorte de camisole) waistcoat. — de flanelle, flannel waistcoat.

GILLE, zheel, sm. 1 clown. Jouer les rôles de —, (elliptic.) Jouer les — s, to play the clown. 2 (homme qui a l'air d'un niais) ninny. C'est un —, un vrai —, he is a ninny, a regular ninny. pop. Faire —, to run off, to scamper away.

GIMBLETTE, zhang-biet, sf. ring biscuit.

GINGAS, zhang-gä, sm. (toile de fil) ticking, ticken, tick.

GINGEMBRE, zhang-zhangbr', sm. bot. ginger.

GINGUET, zhang-gay, adj. m. fem. — E, 1 weak, scanty, poor. fig. Espirit —, frivolous mind. 2 (substantif) weak wine.

GINSENG, zhang-sang, sm. bot. ginseng.

GIRAFE, zhe-raf, sf. 1 zool. giraffe, camelopard. 2 asit. giraffe, camelopard.

GIRANDE, zhe-rang, sf. 1 girande. 2 pyr. girande, bouquet.

GIRANOLE, zhe-rang-dol, sf. 1 pyr. giranole. 2 (chandelier) giranole, chandelier. 3 jewel. (de diamants, of diamonds) sprig. 4 hot. chara.

GIRASOL, zhe-rab-zol, sm. 1 min. girasol. 2 bot. girasole.

GIRATOIRE, zhe-rab-twär, adj. mf. gyral, rotatory.

GIRAUMONT, zhe-ro-mong, sm. bot. kind of pumpkin.

GIROFLE, zhe-rof', sm. bot. clove. Huile de —, oil of clove. Clou de —, clove.

GIROFLÉE, zhe-ro-flay, adj. f. Canelle —, clove-bark.

GIROFLEE, sf. bot. 1 gilly-flower, stock. 2 (les fleurs) gilly-flower.

GIROFLIER, zhe-ro-flay, sm. bot. clove-tree.

GIRON, zhe-rong, sm. 1 imp. bosom. fig. Le — de l'Église, the pale of the Church. 2 arch. trave. 3 her. gyron.

GIRONNE, zhe-ro-nay, adj. m. her. gyron.

GIROUETTE, zhe-roo-ayt, sf. 1 weather-cock, rook. fig. C'est une —, he is a weather-cock. fig. Tourner à tout vent comme une —, to turn at every breath of wind like a weather-cock. 3 nat. rane.

GISANT, zhe-zang, ppo. of GÉSIR, adj. m. fem. — E, Un cadavre — dans la pousière, a corpse lying in the dust. Ceux-là — sur la paille, the former lying on the straw. Nad. (substantif.) Ce dernier soutint que le — irait voir ses aïeux, the latter maintained that the pient would go and see his forefathers. La Font.

GISEMENT, zhe-sang, sm. 1 nat. bearing. 2 min. bearing.

GIT, zhe, third pers. of the neuter verb être, only used as follows, GISANT; GISE, NOTIS GISEONS, VOUS GISEZ, ILS GISENT; JE GISE, TU GISES, IL GISE, NOUS GISEONS, VOUS GISEZ, ILS GISENT, 1 to lie. Sous la bannière de Bourgogne gisait un autre de ses fils, under the banner of Burgundy lay another of his sons. Bar. Tous deux gisent sur l'herbe, both lie on the grass. La Font. E. abattue gisait sur la cauceuse, E. dejected, was lying on the sofa. Balz. L'endroit où gisait le cadavre en terre, the spot where the dead body was lying in the ground. La Font. Les feuilles qui gisaient dans le bois solitaire, the leaves lying in the solitary wood. V. Hug. (by extension) Le portefeuille où gisaient tant de titres de livres, the portfolio in which lie so many titles of books. Nad.

fig. Une tombe où gisent ses vertus et ses illusions, a grave in which lie buried his virtues and illusions. V. Hug. Cl-glt, here lies. 2 naut. La côte gît nord et sud, east and west, etc., the coast lies north and south, east and west, etc. 3 fig. to lie. Tout gît en cela, the whole turns upon that. prov. fig. C'est là que gît le lièvre, there lies the difficulty.

GITE, zbert, sm. 1 (le lieu) home. lodging. Un corps s'en allait tristement s'emparer de son dernier —, a corpse was going mournfully to take possession of its last abode. La Font. N'avoir point de —, assuré, to have no settled home. 2 (lieu où couchent les voyageurs) lodging, halting-place. 3 (d'un lièvre, of a hare) form, seal. Un lièvre en son —, sougeait, a hare in its form was musing. La Font. (by analogy) Cet homme ressemble au lièvre, il vient mourir au —, that man is like the hare, he comes to die at home. 4 (d'un moulu, of a mill) neither millstone. 5 min. deposit, bed, locality.

GITE, zhe-ty, adj. m. fem. —, housed. Le cardinal de F. est — on ne peut plus mal, the cardinal of F. has but sorry accommodation. De Boss. C'est des lions les prisonniers d'Etat le plus mal — à mon gré, to my mind he is the worst of all the State prisoners. De Boss. Le lièvre était — dessous un maître chéon, the hare was squatting under a huge cabbage. La Font.

GITER, zhe-ty, vn. to lodge. SE CITER, vpr. pop. to lodge. Les chats cherchent à se — dans les lieux les plus chauds, cats seek to lodge in the warmest places. Buff.

GIVRE, zbevr', sm. hoar frost, rime. GIVRE, sf. her. snake, serpent.

GLABRE, glabr', adj. mf. (Lat. glaber) bot. Tige, feuille —, glabrous stem, leaf.

GLACANT, glah-sang, ppr. of GLACER, adj. m. fem. —, freezing, icy, chilling. Une bise —, icy north wind. fig. Un abord —, freezing manners.

GLACE, glass, sf. (Lat. glacies) 1 ice. 1) a gelé à —, it has frozen till there is ice. 1) a bien gelé, la — porte, it has frozen hard, the ice bears. Glisser sur la —, to slide on the ice. Briser, rompre la —, to break the ice. Rafferchir l'eau, le vin avec de la —, to refresh water, wine with ice. Boire à la —, to drink iced. 2) romage à la —, iced cheese. Les —s du pôle, the polar ices. Ferrer des chevaux à la —, to have a stony heart. fig. L'homme est de —, a bad verities, man is all ice to truths. La Font. (by analogy) Quand je suis tout de feu, d'où vous vient cette —? when I am all fire, how is it that you are all ice? Rac. fig. poetic. Il ne sent plus le froid ni les —s de l'âge, old age no longer chills nor freezes him. Boil. L'âge dans mes arrets a fait cooler sa —, age has distilled its ice into my nerves. Corn. prov. fig. Rompre la —, to break the ice. 2 (d'un thermomètre, of a thermometer) freezing-point. 3 fig. De —, cold, icy. Recevoir quelqu'un avec un visage de —, avec un air de —, to give a cold reception to a person. 4 (sorte de rafraîchissement) ice, ice-cream. — à la vanille, vanilla ice-cream. Prendre une —, to take an ice. 5 (pour miroirs, etc.) glass, plate-glass, looking-glass. — de Venise, Venetian glass. Cooler une —, to cast plate-glass. Etamer une —, to silver a mirror. 6 (miroirs) glass, looking-glass. 7 (d'une voiture, of a coach) glass-window. 8 (dans un diamant) flaw.

GLACE, ppa. of GLACER, fem. —, v. adjectif. 1 iced, glazed. Eau —, iced water. Marrons —, iced chestnuts. Gants —, glazed gloves. Taffetas —, shot silk. bot. Plante —, (substantif) —, ice-plant. 2 (très-froid) icy, frozen. Vos mains sont —es, your hands are frozen. Les cimes —es des montagnes d'Afrique, the frozen summits of the African mountains. Buff. fig. Cœurs —s que ceux-là, stony hearts are those. C. Del. fig. poetic. La main —, les mains —es de la mort, the icy hand of death. 3 fig. (qui déconcerne) freezing, chilling, frigid. Abord —, chilling aspect. Réponse —, chilling answer.

GLACER, glah-say, va. 1 to freeze, to ice. (by extension) L'hiver a quitté la plaine, qu'il lui glaçait encore, winter has left the plain which it froze but yesterday. V. Hug. fig. — le sang, to make one's blood run cold. Cette idée me glaça le sang, that idea made my blood run cold. Nos. 2 (by extension) (causer un froid très-vif) to freeze. Il tombait une pluie qui nous glaçait. Il tombait une pluie qui nous glaça. 3 (by extension) poetic. (faire perdre la chaleur) to freeze, to chill. L'âge a glacé ma main, age has chilled my hand. Ph. Chas. fig. Un cœur que les ans ont glacé, a heart chilled with age. 4 fig. (déconcerter) to freeze, to chill. Une politesse et une grâce qui glaçent le lecteur, a politeness and grace that chill the reader. Ph. Chas. Quel effroi vous glace? what horror chills you? Rac. La terreur a glacé les esprits, the mind is chilled with terror. Bérth. Le cri de Télémaque glace d'épouvante les ennemis, the cry of Telemachus chills the enemy with fear. Fén. Cet orateur a un débit qui glace, that orator has a chilling delivery. 5 point. to glaze. 6 colin. — des confitures, — des pâtes, etc., to ice sweetmeats, cakes, etc. — des viandes, to glaze meats. 7 dress-mak. — une doublure de taffetas sur une étoffe, to stitch down a silk lining upon a stuff.

SE GLACER, vpr. 1 to freeze. 2 fig. Tout mon sang dans mes veines se glace, all my blood runs cold. Rac. Sa langue dans sa bouche à l'instant s'est glacée, his tongue immediately cleared to the roof of his mouth. Rac.

GLACER, vn. to freeze. GLACEUX, glah-sub, adj. m. fem. CLACEUX, jewel. sawy, having flaws.

GLACIAL, glah-syal, adj. m. fem. —, icy, frozen, glacial, frigid. Vent, air —, icy wind, sharp, biting wind. Mer —, Frozen sea. Zone —, frigid zone. fig. Air —, réception —, cold looks, cool reception.

GLACIALE, glah-syal, sf. hot. ice-plant. GLACIER, glah-syal, sm. ice-maker.

GLACIER, sm. glacier. —s, pl. Les —s de la Savoie, the glaciers of Savoy.

GLACIERE, glah-syal, sf. ice-house. fig. Cette chambre, cette salle est une —, une vraie —, that room is an ice-house, a very ice-house.

GLACIS, glah-see, sm. 1 (talus) glacis (d'un étang, of a pond). fort. Le — de la contrescarpe, le —, the glacis. Le — d'une place, d'une forteresse, the glacis of a place, of a fortress. arch. — de corniche, glacis of a cornice. 2 paint. glazing.

GLACON, glah-song, sm. piece of ice, block of ice, icicle. Avoir les mains froides comme un —, to have one's hand as cold as ice.

GLADIATEUR, glah-dyah-thnr, sm. (Lat. gladiator) gladiator. Un combat de —s, a fight of gladiators.

GLAIEUF, glah-yubl, sm. bot. gladiolus, corn-flag.

GLAIEU, glayr, sf. 1 glair. 2 (le blanc de l'œuf) glair, white of an egg.

GLAIHER, glay-ray, va. hook-bind. to glair.

GLAIREUX, glah-ruh, adj. m. fem. GLAIREUX, glairy.

GLAISE, glayz, sf. (Lat. glis) 1 clay, loam. 2 (adjectif.) Terre —, clay loam, potter's earth.

GLAISER, glay-zay, va. to clay, to loam (un bassin de fontaine, the basin of a fountain; des terres, grounds).

GLAISEUX, glay-znb, adj. m. fem. GLAISEUX, clayey, loamy. Une terre glaiseuse, a loamy soil.

GLAISIÈRE, glay-zyayr, sf. clay-pit, loam-pit.

GLAIVE, glayy, sm. (Lat. gladius) 1 poetic. sword, steel, blade. scrip. Celui qui frappera du —, périra par le —, they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

fig. Le — spirituel, the spiritual sword. fig. Le — de la parole, the weapon of words. 2 fig. (de combat) sword. 3 (droit de vie et de mort) sword. Le — des lois, de la justice, the sword of the law, of justice.

GLANAGE, glah-nazb, sm. gleanings. GLAND, glang, sm. (Lat. glans) 1 hot. acorn, mast. bot. — de terre, earth-nut. nat. hist. — de mer, acorn, acorn-fish, acorn-shell. 2 (ouvrage de fil, etc.) tassel. 3 (de rideaux, de draperies, etc., of curtains, of draperies, etc.) tassel. 4 Des —s de botte, boot-tassels.

GLANDE, glangd, sf. (Lat. glandula) 1 anat. gland. 2 (tumeurs) gland. 3 bot. gland.

GLANDÉ, glang-day, adj. m. fem. —, 1 vet. glandered. 2 her. accorned.

GLANDEE, glang-day, sf. crop of acorns, of masts. Aller à la —, to go acorning.

GLANDELAIRE, glang-dü-layr, adj. mf. anat. glandular, glandulous.

GLANDULE, glang-dül, sf. anat. glandule.

GLANDULEUX, glang-dü-lub, adj. m. fem. GLANDULEUX, anat. glandular, glandulous. Tissu —, glandulous tissue.

GLANE, glan, sf. 1 glean, gleanings. 2 (de poires, d'oignons, of pears, of onions) cluster, rope.

GLANEI, glah-nay, va. 4 to glean. — son champ, to glean one's field. 2 fig. to glean. Nous ne faisons guère que — après les anciens, we do but glean after the ancients.

GLANEUR, glah-nubr, sm. fem. GLANEUSE, gleaner.

GLANURE, glah-nür, sf. gleanings, gleanings.

GLAPIR, glah-peer, vn. 1 to yelp. 2 fig. (d'une personne, of a person) to scream, to squeak.

GLAPISSANT, glah-pe-sang, ppr. of GLAPIR, adj. m. fem. —, yelping, screaming, squeaking. Un ton —, a shrill tone. Une voix —, a squeaking voice. Boil.

GLAPISSEMENT, glah-pis-mang, sm. 1 yelp, yelping. 2 fig. (des personnes, of persons) scream, squeaking.

GLAS, gla, sm. knell. Le — de la cloche monastique, the tolling of the monastic bell. Chat. Le — funèbre, the funeral knell.

GLAUCONE, glô-kom, sm. med. glaucoma.

GLAQUE, glôk, adj. mf. glaucous, sea-green. Vert —, glaucous green.

GLEBE, glayb, sf. (Lat. gleba) 1 glebe, soil. 2 feud. law. glebe, soil. Serfs de la —, hind. Droit de —, droit annexé à la —, rights of the soil. 3 poétique. (champ) ground. 4 (motte de terre) clod.

GLENE, glayn, sf. (Gr.) anat. glene, socket.

GLENOIDALE, glay-no-e-dal, adj. f. anat. glenoidal.

GLENOIDE, glay-no-eed, adj. (Gr.) anat. glenoid.

GLËTE, glet, sf. (Germ.) tech. litharge.

GLISSADE, gle-sad, sf. (action) slide, slip. Faire une —, to have a slide, to make a slip.

GLISSANT, gle-sang, ppr. of GLISSER, 1 Ce pas (de danse) se fait en —, that step is made with a slide — dans un air qui n'est pas un air, gliding through an atmosphere which is not one. Chat. La lumière en — à travers cette forêt, the light filtering through this forest. Ab. 2 adj. m. fem. —, slippery. Le chemin, le pavé est fort —, the road, the pavement is very slippery. Il y a du verglas, il fait —, the rain freezes as it falls, it is slippery walking. fig. L'heure était — e et critique. Lamart. La faveur des rois est —, the favour of kings is uncertain. La Font. fig. C'est un pas —, le pas est — it is a delicate step. fig. La cour est un terrain —, the court is slippery ground. fig. Ce n'est pas que ce ne soit un des endroits les plus — s de son affaire, it is not however one of the least delicate points of his affair. M^{me} de Sév.

GLISSÉ, gte-say, sm. (dance) glissé. GLISSEMENT, gliss-mang, sm. (little used) sliding, slipping.

GLISSER, gte-say, sm. 1. to slip, to slide. Une larme glissait le long de sa face, a tear stole down her cheek. Nod. Elle sentit sur son épaule nue — le souffle du matin, she felt the passing breath of the morning air on her naked shoulder. V. Hag. Soit que le coup eût glissé sur l'os du crâne, whether the blow had only grazed his skull. Ab. Des pignons délabrés où glisse par moments un lézard au soleil, the dilapidated gable-ends, out of which peeps now and then a lizard to bask in the sun. Muss. — sur la glace par amusement, to slide upon the ice to amuse one's self. (by extension) Ses habits, trop larges glissaient de ses épaules, his clothes too wide slipped from off his shoulders. Lamart. — des mains, to slip through one's fingers, to slip one's hands; fig. — des mains à quelqu'un, to slip through a person's fingers. 2. (du pied, of the foot) to slip. — sur le pavé, to slip on the pavement. Il fait du verglas, on glisse, the rain freezes as it falls, it is slippery walking. Le cheval manqua du pied, glissa sur la terre et tomba, the horse missed his footing and fell. Muss. Le pied lui glissa et il tomba, his foot slipped and he fell. prov. fig. Le pied lui a glissé, his foot slipped, he made a slip; fig. Prenez garde que le pied ne vous glisse, mind you don't make a slip. 3. fig. (passer légèrement sur quelque sujet) to pass (over), to glide (over), to glance (at). L'orateur a glissé sur ce fait, the orator passed over this fact. Si l'on ne glissait pas là-dessus, on serait toujours en larmes, if one were to stop at that, one would always be in tears. M^{me} de Sév. 4. fig. (des choses morales) to make little or no impression. Ses remontrances n'ont fait que — sur lui, his remonstrances made no impression on him.

GLISSER, va. 4. to slip. Il lui glissa une pièce de cinq francs dans la main, he slipped a five franc piece into his hand. — sa main dans la poche de quelqu'un, to slip one's hand into a person's pocket. Il faut que j'aille — un mot dans l'oreille de H., I must go and whisper a word into H.'s ear. Ab. Elle venait à chaque instant lui — quelques mots d'intelligence, she came at each moment to whisper a few friendly words in his ear. Lamart. fig. — une clause dans un contrat, to slip a clause into a contract. 2. fig. (insinuer dans les esprits) to insinuate, to introduce.

SE GLISSER, va. 4. (se coudre doucement) to slip, to steal, to creep, to crawl. T. qui l'aperçut, se glisse entre deux saules, T. who perceived her, slipped between two willows. La Font. fig. Nous sentions une langueur délicieuse se — dans nos âmes, we felt a delightful languor stealing over our souls. Barth.

Une infinité d'abus se glissent dans tout ce qui passe dans la main des hommes, a multitude of abuses creep into whatever passes through the hands of men. Montesq. (impers.) Il s'y glisse de bonne heure d'excellents conseils, much excellent advice has early found its way into it. S^{te}-B. Il s'est glissé beaucoup de fautes dans cet ouvrage, a great many faults have crept into that work.

GLISSEUR, gte-say, sm. slider.

GLOBE, glob, sm. (Lat. globus) 1. globe. Le — de la terre, le — terrestre, the terrestrial globe. Le — bleu-clair des prunelles, the light blue globe of the eye. Lamart. Un — de métal, a globe of metal. Les — célestes, the heavenly orbs. 2. absol. (la terre) the terrestrial globe. Faire le tour du —, to make a voyage round the globe. Notre —, le — que nous habitons, our globe, the globe that we inhabit. 3. (particul.) (boule d'or) tut.

GLOBULAIRE, glo-bû-layr, sf. bot. globularia, madwort.

GLOBULE, glo-bûl, sm. dimin. globule. Des — s d'eau, globules of water. Les — s du sang, the globules of blood.

GLOBULEUX, glo-bû-luh, adj. m. fem. GLOBULEUX, 1. globular, globulous. 2. (qui a une forme ronde) globular, globulous, globosus.

GLOIRE, gwar, sf. (Lat. gloria) 1. glory. Aimer la —, to love glory. Une ample moisson de —, an ample harvest of glory. L'amour de la —, love of glory. Il était offensé d'avoir été exposé à perdre sa —, he was offended at having been exposed to lose his glory. Bar. Le Français aime le péril parce qu'il y trouve la —, the Frenchman loves peril because he finds glory in it. Chat. Il y a de sa —, my glory is at stake. Cora. Tout à coup il découvrit que cette — qui glorie se suddenly discovers that this glory is mere vanity. Ph. Chas. La — militaire, military glory. La — littéraire, literary glory. Je ne veux pas avoir la — d'une expédition où je me tiendrai à l'écart, I will not have the glory of an expedition in which I took no part. Bar. Le premier achevait ses jours de — dans une riche chaïsne, the first was ending his glorious career in a rich mansion. Chat. Lui, tient la gageure à peu de —, he thinks there is little glory to be won by the wager. La Font. Il avait sa petite — dans son petit cercle, he had his little share of glory in his little circle. Ph. Chas. Être la — de son pays, de son siècle, to be the glory of one's country, of one's age. Dirc. publier quelque chose à la —, to publish a thing to the glory of a person. Tout l'univers le sait, the whole universe knows it, you glory in it yourself. Rac. Se faire — de quelque chose, to boast of, to glory in a thing, to make it one's boast. 2. (honneur qu'on rend à Dieu) glory. — soit à Dieu, glory be to God. 3. (splendeur) glory. Venez dans mon palais vous y verrez ma —, come to my palace, there you will see my glory. Rac. 4. (in a bad part and little used) glory, pride, vanity. Vaine —, vain-glory. Fausse —, false glory. 5. (lucutude) glory. 6. paint. glory, aureola. 7. sculpt. glory, aureola. 8. (théâtre) glory. 9. (arabes) halo, halo of glory.

GLOIREMENT, glo-ryuh-mang, adv. gloriously.

GLOIREUX, glo-ryuh, adj. m. fem. GLORIEUX. (Lat. gloriatus) 1. glorious. Moi, fils inconnu du plus — père, I, unknown son of a most glorious father. Rac. Voilà le fruit — de la patience romaine, that is the glorious fruit of Roman patience. Boss. Quelle récompense plus glorieuse pouvais-je recevoir de mes travaux, what more glorious recompense could I receive for my labours? Chat. La glo-rieuse douleur de la salute, the glorious grief of the saint. Chat. Une mort glorieuse, a glorious death. Volt. Un — capitaine, a glorious captain. Celui-ci — d'une charge si belle, the latter proud of a noble a burden. La Font. 2. (des saints, etc., of the saints, etc.) glorified, blessed. theol. Corps —, a glorified body. 3. (plein de vanité) conceited, vain-glorious. Cette nature prudente et glorieuse, that prudent and vain-glorious disposition. S^{te}-B. (substantif.) conceited person, boaster, braggart. prov. Il fait bon battre un —. See BATTRE.

GLORIFICATION, glo-re-to-kah-sion, sf. glorification (des élus, of the elect).

GLORIFIER, glo-ro-fay, va. (de Dieu) to glorify, to give glory to. Un enfant même est écouté dans le chœur qui le glorifie, even a child is listened to in the chorus which sings thy glory. Lamart. Comme le cèdre altier, l'herbe me glorifie, as the blade of grass glorifies me as well as the lofty cedar. Lamart. Dieu glorifie les saints, God glorifies the saints. (by extension) On glorifie la France dans son intelligence, France is honoured for its intelligence. Lamart.

SE GLORIFIER, vpr. 1. to glory (in), to plume, to pique one's self (on), to boast (of). Y. paraît s'excuser plus que se — de ses opinions, Y. appeared to apologize for his opinions rather than pride himself upon them. Lamart. J. J. dont je me glorifie d'être l'élève, J. J. whose pupil I pride myself on being. Balz. Elle ne laisse pas de se — de les avoir eus, she is however proud of having given birth to them. Montesq. Ma famille se glorifie de compter des —, parmi ses ancêtres, my family plumes itself on counting C. among its ancestors. Mérim. 2. Se — dans, to glory (in). Dieu se glorifie dans les saints, God glories in his saints. Un père se glorifie dans ses enfants, a father glories in his children.

GLORIOLE, glo-ryol, sf. dimin. of gloire, vanity, vain-glory. P. par pure — persistait à s'en passer, P. out of mere vanity, persisted in doing without it. S^{te}-B.

GLOSSÉ, gloz, sf. (Gr.) 1. gloss. 2. (commentaire) gloss, comment. 3. (petit ouvrage de poésie) parody. 4. fig. (réflexions) reflection, comment.

GLOSSER, gloz, va. of gloss, fem. — E, Bible gloss, bible with notes.

GLOSSER, gloz-ay, va. 4. to gloss. 2. fig. (donner du mauvais sens) to carp at, to find fault with.

GLOSER, va. fig. to carp (at), to find fault with. Il glose sur tout, he finds fault with every thing. Une troisième troupe trouve encore à —, a third company finds something else to criticize. La Font.

GLOSEUR, glo-zuhr, sm. fem. GLOSEUSE, carper, fault-finder.

GLOSSAIRE, glo-sayr, sm. 1. glossary. 2. (simple vocabulaire) vocabulary.

GLOSSATEUR, glo-sat-uhr, sm. glossator, glosser, glossist.

GLOSSITE, glo-sil, sf. (Gr.) med. glossitis.

GLOSSOPÈTE, glo-so-paytr, sm. (Gr.) nat. hist. glossopeter, bl. glossopetra.

GLOTTE, gloi, sf. (Gr.) anat. glottis.

GLOUTIER, gloo-glo-ay, sm. (des dindons, of turkeys) to gobbler.

GLOUGLOU, gloo-gloo, sm. gurgling, gurgle (de la bouteille, of the bottle).

GLOUME, gloom, sf. bot. glume, husk, chaff.

GLOUSEMENT, gloos — mang, sm. (d'une poule, of a hen) clucking.

GLOUSSEL, gloo-say, vn. (d'une poule, of a hen) to cluck.

GLOUTRON, gloot-rong, sm. bot. burdock.

GLOUTON, gloo-ton, adj. m. fem. — NE, 1. voracious, gluttonous. Pour moi, satisfaisant mes appétits — s, for my part indulging my ravenous appetites. La Font. fig. L'âne me — de plaisir, a soul greedy of pleasure. M^{me} de Mot. 2 (substantiv.) glutin. 3 (substantiv.) zool. glutin, wolferene.

GLOUTONNEMENT, gloo-ton-màng, adverb. gluttonously, greedily. Manger —, to eat greedily.

GLOUTONNERIE, gloo-ton-ree, sf. gluttony, greediness.

GLU, glù, sf. lime, bird-lime. fig. Je trouve le style de G. détestable et cependant je ne laisse pas de m'y prendre, comme à de la —, I find G.'s style a very bad one and yet I am always seduced by it. M^{me} de Sév. fig. Il avait envie de partir, à ce qu'il dit, mais les courtisans ont bien de la — autour d'eux, he longs to depart, at least he says so, but courtiers stick so much to the court. M^{me} de Sév.

GLUANT, glû-àng, ppr. of GLUIER, adj. m. fem. —E, limy, sticky. Avoir les mains —es, to have sticky hands.

GLUAU, glû-o, sm. pl. GLUAUX, lime-wood.

GLUER, glû-ay, ra. 4 to lime. 2 (poisser) to make sticky.

GLUI, glûee, sm. ppe-straw.

GLUME, glûm, sf. bot. glume, husk, chaff.

GLUTEN, glû-tân, sm. 1 nat. hist. gluten. 2 (de la farine, of meat) gluten.

GLUTINATIF, glû-te-nah-tif, adj. med. glutinative.

GLUTINEUX, glû-te-nob, adj. m. fem. glutineux, glutinous.

GLYCERINE, glie-say-reen, sf. chem. glycerine.

GLYCONIEN, glie-to-nyang, GLYCONIQUE, glie-to-nik, adj. m. (Gr.) ven. glyconian, glyconic.

GLYPHIQUE, glip-tik, sf. (Gr.) glyptic.

GNOME, gnôm, sm. (Gr.) gnome.

GNOMIQUE, gno-mik, adj. mf. (Gr.) gnomie, gnomical.

GNONON, gno-mong, sm. (Gr.) astr. gnomon.

GNOMONIQUE, adj. mf. gnomonic, gnomonical.

GNOSTIQUE, sf. gnomonics.

GNOSTICISME, gnos-te-sism', sm. gnosticism.

GNOSTIQUES, gnos-tik, sm. pl. (Gr.) Gnostics.

GO (TOUR NE), go, adv. loc. freely, without ceremony. Il est entré tout de —, he went in without any ceremony.

Cela va tout de —, that meets with no obstacle.

GOBBE, gob, sf. gobbet, poison-ball.

GOBELET, gob-lay, sm. 1 gobbet. 2 (chez le roi) buttery. Officier du —, officer of the buttery. 3 (pour escamoter) cup. Jouer de —s, juggler, thimble-rigger; || fig. cheat, trickster. (by analogy) Jouer des —s, to cheat, to trick.

GOBELINS, gob-lang, sm. pl. the Gobelines (tapestry and carpet-manufactory at Paris). Tapiserie des —, Gobelin tapestry.

GOBELOTTER, gob-lo-tay, vn. to tittle. Aimer à —, to be fond of tittling.

GOBER, go-bay, vn. 1 to swallow down, to gulp down, to gobble up. — une bulle, to bubble up one's eulogy. Des serpents qui avalent un boeuf sans s'en rendre compte, serpents which gulp down an ox with no more ado than we swallow an egg. Jacq. Une grue qui les gobe à son plaisir, a crane that gobbles them up at her leisure. La Font. fig. Flattez-les, ils gobeont l'appât, flatter them, they will swallow the bait. La Font. prov. fig. — des mouches, to trifles one's time away. fig. — du temps, to trifles one's time away. 2 (goître légèrement) to swallow down. Il gobe les louanges les plus grossières, the most fulsome flattery goes down with him. 3 fig. (s'emparer de quelqu'un) to nab.

GOBE-MOUCHES, sm. 1 orn. fly-catcher. 2 bot. fly-trap. 3 fig. nippy, gull. 4 fig.

(celui qui s'occupe de bagatelles) trifle. se GOBER, pr. to gobble, to swallow. Ils jurèrent qu'ils ne se gobeiraient leurs petis, they swore not to gobble each other's young ones. La Font.

se GOBERGER, go-bay-zhay, pr. 1 to laugh at, to baulter, to jeer (at). 2 (se divertir) to amuse one's self. 3 (prendre ses aises) to take one's ease.

GOBERGES, go-bayzh, sf. pl. 1 cross-bars of a bedstead. 2 tech. venturing stick.

GOBET, go-bay, sm. 1 gobbet, mouthful. fig. Prendre un homme au —, to nab a man. 2 (espèce de cerise) cherry.

GOBETER, go-bay, ra. mason. — un mur, to plaster the joints of a wall.

GOBEUR, go-buâr, adj. m. fem. comest. swallower, gobbler, gulper. Celui qui le premier a pu l'apercevoir en sera le —, he who saw it the first will be the swallower. La Font.

GODAILLER, go-dab-jay, vn. pop. to tittle.

GODEFROI, god-frwâ, sm. Godfrey.

GODEFUREAU, god-lû-ro, sm. com-comb. fop.

GODNET, god-no, sm. puppet, juggler's puppet, Jack in the box. (disparagingly) Il est fait comme un —, he is a regular Punch.

GODER, go-day, vn. to create, to pucker.

GODET, go-day, sm. 4 cup, mug, horn. 2 (pour élever de l'eau) trough. 3 (choses en forme de godet) cup.

GODICHE, go-disb, adj. mf. 1 awkward, gawky, ungainly. 2 (substantiv.) simpleton, awkward person.

GODICHON, go-de-shong, sm. fem. —E, fam. simpleton, ninny.

GODILLE, go-de-yuh, sf. scull.

GODILLER, go-de-yay, vn. naut. to scull.

GODILLEUR, go-de-yahr, sm. sculler.

GODIVEAU, go-de-vô, sm. culin. force-meat-pie.

GODRON, god-rong, sm. 1 obsol. round plait. 2 tech. godroon, chasing of the edge. 3 scull, carp. godroon.

GODRONNÉ, ppa. of GODRONNER, fem. —E, 1 Vaisselle —E, plate wrought on the edges. 2 bot. Penille —E, repand leaf.

GODRONNER, god-ro-nay, ra. to godroom (de la vaisselle d'argent) plate.

GOELAND, go-ay-lâng, sm. orn. gull, sea-gull.

GOLETTE, go-ay-let, sf. naut. schooner.

GOENON, go-ay-mong, sm. sea-weed.

GOGAILLE, go-gah-yuh, sf. pop. merry-making.

GOGO (A), go-go, adv. loc. in clover, plentifully. Vivre à —, to live in clover.

En avoir à —, to have in abundance.

GOGUENARD, gog-nar, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 jeering, bantering. Un homme —, a banterer. Avoir l'esprit —, to have a jeering temper. 2 (substantiv.) banterer, jeerer, scoffer.

GOGUENARDER, gog-nar-day, vn. to jeer, to banter. La nuit venue, nous voilà tons à —, night being come, we all began to crack jokes. Ham.

GOGUENARDERIE, gog-uâr-dree, sf. bantering, jeering, jeer.

GOGUETTES, go-gayt, sf. pl. fam. merry stories, merry things. Être en —, to be merry.

GOGFRE, gwaogfr', sm. gormandizer, glutton.

GOGFRER, gwang-fray, vn. pop. to gormandize, to gultle.

GOGFRERIE, gwang-frub-ree, sf. gormandizing, gulting.

GOITRE, sm. goitre, wen.

GOITREUX, gwa-trub, adj. m. fem. goitreux, 1 goitrous. 2 (atteint du goitre) goitrous. 3 (substantiv.) L'n —, a goitrous person.

GOLFE, golf, sm. geog. gulf. Petit — small gulf.

GONNE, gom, sf. gum. — de cerisier de prunier, gummy nostrils. — arabique, gum Arabic. — copal, gum copal. — élastique, India rubber, gum elastic.

GOMME-GUTTE, sf. gomolog, gum gutta.

GOMME-RÉSINE, sf. pl. GOMMES-RÉSINES, gum-resin.

GOMME, ppa. of GOMMER, fem. —E, adjectiv. Taibles —, gummed taibles.

GOMMER, go-may, va. to gum (de la toile, linen cloth; une couleur, a colour).

GOMMEUX, go-muh, adj. m. fem. GOMMEUX, 1 gummy, gummy. 2 (qui seol de la nature de la gomme) gummy.

GOMMIER, go-may, sm. bot. gum-tree.

GOMPHOSE, gong-foz, sf. (Gr.) anat. gomphosis.

GOND, gong, sm. hinge (d'une porte, of a door). prov. fig. Faire sortir, mettre quelqu'un hors des —s, to exasperate a person. Avez-vous juré de me mettre hors des —s? do you purpose to exasperate me? Sand.

GONDOLÉ, gong-dol, sf. (It.) 1 gondola. 2 (pour boire) gondola.

GONDOLIER, gong-do-lyay, sm. gondolier.

GONFALON, gong-fah-long, GONFALON, gong-fah-nong, sm. (It.) gonfalon, gonfalon.

GONFALONNIER, gong-fab-lo-nyay, GONFALONNIER, gong-fah-no-nyay, sm. gonfalonnier.

GONFLE, ppa. of GONFLER, fem. —E, Ventre —, swollen belly. Avoir les yeux —s, to have swollen eyes. (by extension) Les narines —es, the nostrils distended. Mém. Son cœur était — de saiglots qu'elle cherchait à retenir, her heart was bursting with sobs that she endeavored to repress. Noû. fig. Être — de la bonne opinion qu'on a de soi-même, to be puffed up with self-conceit.

GONFLEMENT, gong-fuh-màng, sm. swelling, inflation, distension (d'estomac, of the stomach).

GONFLEUR, gong-fay, va. 1 to swell, to inflate, to distend. — un ballon avec du gaz hydrogène, to fill a balloon with hydrogen gas. Un pigeon qui gonfle sa gorge, a pigeon that swells out its throat. Comme des caux que la sève n'a pu tarier n'a pas la force de — like veins that the sap somewhat exhausted has not been able to swell. Lamart. (by extension) L'orgueil gonflait ses puissantes narines, pride distended his powerful nostrils. V. fig. Une outre velue gonflait son large ventre après d'une coupe de cuivre rouge, a hairy goat-skin bag swelled out beside a red brass cup. Ab. 2 (de l'estomac, etc.) to distend, to puff, 3 fig. to puff up. Sa fortune l'a gonflé d'orgueil, his fortune has puffed him up with pride.

SE GONFLER pr. to swell. (by extension) Dans un cois une source limpide se gonflait silencieusement dans sa coupe rustique, in a corner a limpid spring silently swelled up in its rustic bed. Ab. fig. — d'orgueil, to be puffed up with pride.

GONFLER, va. to swell.

GONIN, go-nang, sm. knave, rogue, deep fellow. pop. C'est un maître —, he is a deep fellow, an arrant rascal.

GONIOMETRE, go-nyo-maytr', sm. (Gr.) min. goniometer.

GONIOMETRIE, go-nyo-may-tree, sf. math. goniometry.

GONG, gong, sm. gong.

GORD, gor, sm. fishing-net fixed with poles.

GORDIEN, gor-dyang, adj. m. See NORDIEN.

GORET, go-ray sm. 1 (in joke) young pig, porker. 2 fig. pop. dirty fellow.

GORGE, gorzh, sf. 1 throat. Tenir quelqu'un à la —, to hold him to the throat, to seize him by the throat. Mettre, tenir le pied sur la — à quelqu'un, to have one's foot on the throat of a person; || fig. to hold a pistol, a knife, a poniard to a person's throat. Couper la — à quel-

qu'un, to cut a person's throat. Couper la — à qui s'en soit si bien! I cut the throat of such a good singer! La Font. Se couper la — l'un à l'autre, to fight a duel together. Se couper la — avec quelqu'un, to fight a duel with a person. Gou. Couper la — à quelqu'un, to ruin a person, to be the ruin of a person. Gg. Tendre la —, to hold out one's throat, to present one's throat. Gg. Tenir quelqu'un à la —, to hold a person by the throat. Gg. Prendre quelqu'un à la —, to take, to seize a person by the throat. (by analogy) Avoir le poigard, le couteau sur la —, to have the poniard, the knife at one's throat. 2 (des animaux, of animals) throat. Pigeon à grosse —, pouter pigeon. 3 (d'une femme, of a woman) neck, bosom. 4 (by extension) (d'une chemise) neck. 5 (le gosier) throat. Le nœud de la —, Adam's apple. Mal de —, sore throat. Des fruits après qui prennent à la —, harsh fruits that rasp the throat. Ce ris ne passe pas le nœud de la —, that is a forced laugh. obsol. Il en a menti, il a menti par la — he has lied in his throat. Rire à — de-ployée, to spit one's sides with laughing. mos. Chantier de la —, to sing from the throat. Gg. Faire rentrer à quelqu'un les paroles dans la —, to make a person cut his words. pop. Rendre —, to disgorge; || fig. to disgorge. hawk. — chade, hawk's fee. Prétend qu'elle en fera — chade et carée, pretends she will have it all to herself to feast upon. La Font. || obsol. prov. Gg. Faire — chade de quelque chose, to regale one's self with a thing. Gg. Faire des — chades de quelque chose, to jeer at a thing. 6 (l'ouverture) mouth, aperture, orifice. La — d'une cloche, the mouth of a bell. La — d'une cheminée, the orifice of a chimney. 7 fort. gorge. 8 (passage) pass, strait, defile. Les — des Alpes, the passes of the Alps. 9 arch. gorge. 10 La — d'une poulie, the groove of a pulley. 11 La — d'un bassin à barbe, the neck of a barber's basin. 12 (pour les estampes, etc.) roller. GORGE-DE-PIGEON, adj. invar. 1 éhot, shot-coloured. Une robe —de-pigeon, a shot-coloured dress. 2 sm. Le —de-pigeon, shot-colour.

GORGE, ppa. of GORGER, feui. —E, 1 Quand ils furent bien —s de vin et de viandes, when they were well gorged with wine and meats. (by extension) Les canons tout —s de mitraille, the guns loaded to the muzzle with grape-shot. V. Hng. Gg. Ils sont —s d'or et d'argent, they fall in wealth. 2 vet. Ce cheval a les jambes —es, that horse has his legs swollen with humors. 3 her. gorged.

GORGÉE, gor-zhay, sf. draught, mouthful, gip. Il dégustait son café à petites gorgées, he sipped his coffee. Ab. Deux —s de boisson, two mouthfuls of brath.

GORGÈRE, gor-zhay, ra. nous GORGÈONS, 11 GORGÈA, 1 to gorge (with). 2 Gg. to gorge (with), to glut (with). On les a gorgés de biens, they were gorged with wealth.

SE GORGER, vr. to gorge one's self (de boire et de manger, with eating and drinking). Les mulâtres poissons avalent le frai, se gorgent de lait, the smallest fishes swallow the spawn, gorge themselves with milk. Mich. Ils ont conservé la funeste habitude de se — d'raisine, they have retained the fatal habit of gorging themselves with grape jam. Balz. Gg. Les soldats se gorgèrent de botin, the soldiers gorged themselves with booty. Gg. Il se gorge de vapeurs, he sucks in vapours. La Font.

GORGÈTTE, gor-zhub-ret, sf. obsol. gorgel.

GORGÈRINE, gor-zhub-rang, sm. 1 gorgel. 2 arch. gorgerin, colarim.

GORGONE, sf. myth. Gorgon.

GOSIER, go-zyay, sm. 1 throat, swallow. On os lui demeurait bien avant au

—, a bone stuck deep in her throat. La Font. Gg. Avoir le — pavé, to have one's throat paved. Gg. Avoir le — sec, to be thirsty. 2 (canal par où sort la voix) throat. Le — d'un oiseau, a bird's throat. Gg. Cette femme a un beau —, no — de rossignol, that woman has the voice of a nightingale.

GOTH, go, s. and adj. m. 1 Goth, Gothic. Un —, a Goth. 2 Gg. barbarian.

GOTHIQUE, go-lik, adj. mf. 1 Gothic. 2 (hors de mode) Gothic, old-fashioned. Manières —s, old-fashioned manners. 3 sm. Gothic. 4 sf. calligr. La —, old English.

GOUACHE, gwâsh, sf. 1 water-colours. Peindre à la —, to paint in water-colours. 2 (by extension) water-colour painting.

GOUDRON, goo-droong, sm. tar. Eau de —, tar-water.

GOUDRONNÉ, goo-dro-nay, ppa. of goudronner, fem. —E, Toile —E, tarpaulin. Eau —E, tar-water.

GOUDRONNER, goo-dro-nay, va. to tar, to pay with tar.

GOÛET, gway, sm. bot. arum, wake-robin, cuckoo-pint.

GOUFFRE, gootr', sm. 1 gulf, abyss, pit. Gg. Le — de l'éternité, the gulf of eternity. Le — éternel de l'oubli, the eternal gulf of forgetfulness. Volt. 2 Gg. gulf. Paris est un —, Paris is a gulf. (by analogy) Cet homme-là est un —, that man is a gulf. 3 fig. Un — de maux, an abyss of woes. La Font.

GOUGE, goozh, sf. tech. gouge.

GOÛJAT, sm. 1 sac. soldier's servant. 2 hodman. 3 blackguard.

GOÛJON, goo-zhong, sm. 1 ich. gudgeon. 2 tech. dowel, iron-pin.

GOÛLE, gool, sf. female vampire.

GOÛLER, goo-lay, sf. mouthful. Ce maudit animal vient prendre sa —, that cursed animal comes for his share. La Font. prov. Gg. Brebis qui bêle perd sa —, the noisy ewe eats less carrion.

GOULET, goo-lay, sm. 1 obsol. (d'une bouteille, of a bottle) neck. 2 (by analogy) (d'un port, etc., of a harbour, etc.) narrow entrance.

GOULETTE, goo-let, sf. See GOULETTE.

GOULOT, goo-lo, sm. neck.

GOULOTTE, goo-lot, sf. arch. water-channel.

GOULU, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 gluttonous, greedy. 2 (substantif) glutton.

GOULMENT, goo-lit-mang, adv. gluttonously, greedily. Manger —, to eat greedily.

GOUPILLE, goo-pe-yuh, sf. tech. pin.

GOUPILLON, goo-pe-yong, sm. 1 (asperoir) aspergillum, holy-water sprinkler. 2 tech. battle-brush.

GOURD, goor, adj. m. fem. —E, benumbed. Avoir les mains —es, to have one's hands benumbed. fig. Il n'a pas les mains —es, he is light-fingered; he is grasping.

GOUARDE, goord, sf. (Sp.) (monnaie) piaster.

GOURDE, sf. (Lat.) bot. gourd.

GOURDIN, goor-daung, sm. pop. cudgel, club, thick stick.

GOURGADINE, goor-gang-deen, sf. street-walker.

GOURGANE, goor-gan, sf. bot. Mayagadine.

GOURGOURAN, goor-goo-rang, sm. Indian silk.

GOURNADE, goor-mad, sf. cuff, fist-cuff, punch. Alors ils se querellent, se donnent des —s, then they quarrel, come to blows. Th. Gant.

GOURMAND, goor-mang, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 gluttonous, greedy. gard. Branches —es, off-shoots, suckers. 2 (substantif) glutton. 3 (substantif) (gastro-nome) gastronomist.

GOURMANDER, goor-mang-day, ra. 1 to reprimand, to chide, to rebuke harshly, to reprove. Il gourmanda le moine de n'avoir point encore suivi l'exemple de, he reproved the monk for not having yet followed the example of. Lamart. Ils avaient gourmandé la mollesse de leur parti, they had sharply rebuked the tumescence of their party. Lamart. fig. La plume à la main je gourmande les vices — with my pen I rebuke vice. Boil. C'est Neptune en courroux qui gourmande les dots, it is angry N. who chides the wares. Boil. 2 man. — un cheval, to check a horse, to use him roughly with the bit.

GOURMANDISE, goor-mang-deez, sf. gluttony, greediness.

GOURME, goorm, sf. vet. strangles. Gg. Jeter sa —, to sow one's wild oats.

GOURME, ppa. of GOURMER, fem. —E, fig. Etre —, to be sick.

GOURNER, goor-may, ra. 1 to curb (an cheval, a horse). 2 (battre) to thump, to punch, to cuff.

SE GOURMER, vr. to fight, to pommel each other. Ils semblaient sur le point de se — sur leur tribunal, they seemed ready to come to blows on the bench. Mich.

GOURMET, goor-may, sm. 1 judge of wine, wine-taster. 2 (by extension) epicure.

GOURMETTE, goor-miet, sf. man. curb, curb-chain. fig. Rompre sa —, to break loose.

GOUSSANT, goo-sang, GOUSSAUT, goo-so, sm. 1 man. thick-set horse. 2 (adjectif) Un cheval —, a thick-set horse.

GOÛSSE, goos, sf. 1 bot. pod, shell, husk, cod. 2 de pois, pea-cod, pea-shell. — d'ail, a clove of garlic. — de vanille, a vanilla pod. 3 —s, pl. arch. honey-suckle.

GOÛSSET, goo-soy, sm. 1 arm-pit. 2 (d'une chemise) gusset. 3 (d'un pantalon, etc.) fob, watch-pocket. fig. Avoir le — bien garni, to have one's pockets well lined. 4 (petite console) bracket.

GOÛT, goo, *sm. 1 taste. Avoir le — bon, le — fin, to have a good, delicate taste. Avoir le — dépravé, to have one's mouth out of taste. Cela plaît au —, chatouille le —, flatte le —, that pleases, tickles, flatters the palate. 3 (savour) Taste, savour, relish. Cela a un petit —sâlé, that taste is rather salt. Une sauce de bœuf —, a rich sauce, a high-seasoned sauce. 4 (odeur) smell. 4 (appétence des aliments) relish, taste. 5 fig. (faculté de sentir) taste. Délicatesse de —, delicacy of taste. L'auteur du bon —, the dæmon of taste. Volt. 6 fig. absol. good taste. Manquer de —, to be deficient in taste. 7 (le sentiment agréable qu'on a de quelque chose) taste. Il ne faut point disputer des —s, there's no accounting for tastes. C'est une affaire de —, that depends upon the taste. 8 (l'inclination) taste, liking, inclination. Le — de la solitude et de la retraite, a relish for solitude and retirement. La Bruy. J'achève de perdre le — que j'avais pour le travail, I completely lost the taste I had for work. Ph. Chas. 11 me semble que ma sœur a du — pour un jeune T., methinks my sister has taken a liking to a young T. Montesq. On le voit se repaître du malheur — qu'il avait pour le jeu, we see him repent his unfortunate inclination for gaming. St-B. Ils prenaient — au chat et à la poésie, they took a liking to singing and poetry. Aug. Th. Je n'ai de — qu'à ox pleurs que to me vois répandre, I find no pleasure but in the tears you see me shed. Rac. Faire une chose par —, to do a thing from taste, from inclination. 9 mus. Notes de —, graces. 10 (la manière dont une chose est faite, etc.) taste, style, manner. Voilà une plaisanterie d'assez mauvais —, that is a joke that smacks of vulgarity. 11 obsol. (grâce, agrément) taste. 12 (un ouvrage fait avec —, a work done with taste, tastefully done. 12 (manière d'un auteur, etc.) style, manner*.

GOUTÉ, ppa. of GOUTER, fem. — E. fig. Mous — de la foule, less relished by the multitude. Lamart. Ce prince a été ici fort —, this prince was very much liked here. D'Alemb. Ce projet n'ayant pas été —, this project not having been approved of. Barin.

GOUTER, goo-tay, va. 1 to taste, to relish. Il s'yale s'assise —, he swallows without tasting. 2 (vérifier —, savor, etc.) to taste. 3 (par l'odorat) to smell. Goutez bien ce tabac, just try this snuff. 4 fig. (approuver) to approve of, to relish. L'âne qui goûtait fort l'autre façon d'aller, the ass who relished a good deal the other mode of travelling. La Font. Quelques raisons que tu puisses donner, mon cœur ne les goûtera jamais, whatever reasons you may allege, my heart will never assent to them. Montesq. Je ne sais si le public goûtera cette histoire, I do not know how the public will like this story. Ab. Pour — les vers ou la musique, it faut, etc., to enjoy poetry and music it is necessary, etc. Volt. En recevant les lettres de P. et tout en les goûtait pour leur délicatesse infinie, in receiving the letters of P. and whilst relishing their infinite delicacy. S.-B. (des personnes, of persons) to like. Les dames ne voos ont pas encore bien goûtée, the ladies have not yet appreciated you. M^m de Sév. 5 fig. (gouverner, ressembler) to taste. Le meilleur moyen de — avec calme les plaisirs du dehors, the best means of quietly tasting pleasures abroad. S.-B. Ce loud assompt que goûtent quelquefois les misérables, that heavy sleep that sometimes falls upon the wretch. Chat. — le plaisir de la pêche, to enjoy the pleasures of angling. Chaque jour lui faisait — la vie comme on goûte la dernière heure de félicité qui va finir, every day brought with it that enjoyment of life which is felt when the last hour of felicity is near its close. Lamart.

GOUTER, vn. 1 to taste. Voulez-vous — à notre vin, de notre vin? will you taste our wine? 2 (par l'odorat) to smell. Goutez de ce tabac, try this snuff. 3 fig. (éprouver) to try, to make a trial of. Une fois que l'on a goûté de la vie de Bohème, on est sûr sans cesse, an unsettled artistic life has continual attractions for him who has once tried it. Pl. Chas.

GOUTER, vn. to lunch.

GOUTER, sm. luncheon, lunch.

GOUTTE, goot, sf. 4 drop. Ce vin se conservera non jusqu'à la dernière —, this wine will keep to the very last drop. Le poison donne de l'huile par —, the poison gives off drops. Mich. Des — de pluie commencent à tomber, drops of rain were beginning to fall. Les — d'une sneur penible brulent sur son front, a painful sweat stood in beads on his forehead. Chat. Mère — unpressed wine. (hyperb.) Tant qu'il me restera une — de sang dans les veines, je vous défendrai, as long as I have a drop of blood in my veins, I will defend you. fig. Il n'a pas une — de sang dans les veines, he has not a drop of blood in his veins. prov. Ces deux personnes se ressemblent comme deux — d'eau, those two persons are as like as two peas. prov. hg. C'est une — d'eau dans la mer, it is a drop in the ocean. 2 (petite quantité) drop, dram. Prenez une — de vin, take a drop of wine. absol. Une —, a drop of brandy. 3 pharm. minim, drop. 4 — s. pl. pharma. (remèdes) drops. 5 tech. assaying drop. 6 arch. drop, gutta. 7 (adverbial.) Ne voir —, n'entendre —, to hear, to see nothing at all. Je ne vois — dans votre cœur, I can't make out what your sentiments are. M^m de Sév. Un espèce de dialecte auquel je n'entends —, a sort of dialect of which I cannot make out a single word. D. Bross.

GOUTTE à GOUTTE, adv. loc. drop by drop. (hyperb.) Il versera le sang de ses veines — à —, I will have his heart's blood drop by drop. Ab.

GOUTTE, sf. med. gout. Avoir la — aux pieds, aux genoux, aux mains, aux bras, to have the gout in the feet, knees, hands, arms. — sciatique, sciatica, hip-gout. — sereine, drop serene, gutta serena, amaurosis.

GOUTTELETTE, goot-let, sf. dimin. (little word) little drop.

GOUTTEUX, goo-tuh, adj. m. fem. goutteux, 4 gouty. 2 (substantif) gouty person.

GOUTTIÈRE, goo-tysyr, sf. 1 gutter, spout. 2 — s. pl. (by extension) roofs, house-tops. 3 (d'un carrosse, of a coach) cornice. 4 book-binding fore-edge. 5 hunt. groove. 6 anat. groove. 7 bot. Creusé en —, grooved, channelled.

GOUVERNAIL, goo-vayr-nab-yuh, sm. 1 helm, rudder. Etre au —, to be at the helm. Le — d'une chaloupe, the rudder of a long-boat. La barre du —, the tiller. La quene, merveilleux —, est aussi la principale rame, the tail, a wonderful rudder, is also the principal oar. Mich. 2 fig. (d'un Etat) helm.

GOUVERNANTE, goo-vayr-dangt, sf. 1 governor's lady. 2 (femme qui a le gouvernement d'une province, etc.) governess. 3 (d'enfants, of children) governess. 4 (d'un homme vieux, d'un célibataire) house-keeper.

GOUVERNANTS, goo-vayr-dangt, sm. pl. rulers, governors. Les — et les gouvernés, the governors and the governed. Chat.

GOUVERNE, goo-vayra, sf. com. guidance, government, rule. Cette lettre vous servira de —, this letter will serve you for your guidance. Sans lui raconter pour sa — l'histoire de, without telling him as a warning the story of. Ab. Pour ta —, ne me refuse pas ce modeste titre d'écuyer, it est de rigueur, in future, do not forget to direct your letters, a Victor Jacquemont Esq^r —, it is indispensable. Jacq.

GOUVERNER, ppa. of GOUVERNER, fem. —E, 4 ruled, governed. L'homme est — par des lois invariables, man is ruled by invariable laws. Montesq. Les marées ne sont-elles —-es que par la lune et le soleil? are not tides subject to other influences beside those of the sun and moon? Mich. César — par mes conseils, the emperor governed by my counsels. Rac. 2 (substantif) — s. pl. the governed.

GOUVERNEMENT, goo-vayr-nuh-mang, sm. 1 government, management, rule, sway. Il fit un discours sur le — de l'Etat, he made a discourse on the government of the State. Bar. Dans le cours d'un long —, in the course of a long government. Montesq. Le — d'une barque, the steering of a boat. Avoir quelque chose en son —, to have the management of a thing. 2 absol. the government of States. La science du —, the science of government. 3 (la constitution d'un Etat) government. Le — d'un seul, autocracy, government exercised by a single person. 4 (ceux qui gouvernent) government. 5 (la charge de gouverner) government. 6 (la ville, le pays) government. 7 (l'hôtel) government-house.

GOUVERNER, goo-vayr-nay, va. 1 to govern, to manage (un vaisseau, an navire, une barque, a ship, a boat). — des chevaux, to manage horses. Il (l'impie) semblait à son gré — le tonnerre, he seemed to be master of Heaven's thunder. Rac. Il me tardait de savoir comment notre père avait gouverné ce terrible hiver, etc., I longed to hear how our father had supported this cold winter, etc. Jacq. (des vaisseaux, of vessels) to steer. absol. — à la lame, to steer a ship by the sea. — au plus près, to steer a ship close to the wind. Ce bâtiment, ce bateau gouverne bien, gouverne mal, that vessel, that boat answers the helm, does not answer the helm. prov. fig. — bien sa barque, to know what one is about; to manage one's business properly. 2 (régir avec autorité) to govern, to rule. Ils n'appellent le prince A. à les — que pour, they called for prince A. to govern them only to. Ang. Th. Il gouverne avec le même génie sa famille, sa cour, son Etat, he rules with the same genius his family, his court, his dominions. Montesq. C'est au père à — ses enfants, it is for a father to bring up his children. fig. — ses passions, to govern one's passions. Ce n'était pas R. qui gouvernait sa vie, c'était sa passion, R. was not master of his actions, he was led away by his passions. S.-B. absol. Le roi règne et ne gouverne pas, the king reigns and does not govern. 3 (avoir grand crédit) to govern, to rule, to sway, to lead, to bias. Un homme sage ni ne se laisse —, ni ne cherche à — les autres, a wise man neither suffers himself to be biased nor does he seek to bias others. La Brov. — les esprits, to sway the minds of men. 4 (avoir l'administration) to direct, to manage, to govern, to rule. Depuis plus de vingt ans il gouvernait tout en France, for more than twenty years every thing in France was under his control. Bar. C'est elle qui gouverne tout le ménage, it is she who is the mistress. 5 (administrer avec épargne) to husband. 6 (des enfants, des malades) to take care of, to attend to. 7 gram. to govern.

SE GOUVERNER, typ. 4 (d'un peuple, etc.) to govern, to rule one's self. Il semble ici que les familles se gouvernent toutes seules, families here seem to require no control. Montesq. 2 (se conduire) to be governed, ruled. Le roi qui dorénavant ne se gouvernait plus que par ses conseils, the king who henceforth was only ruled by his advice. Bar. 3 (tenir une conduite bonne ou mauvaise) to behave, to conduct one's self.

GOUVERNEUR, goo-vayr-nahtr, sm. 4 governor. 2 Le — de la banque de France, the governor of the Bank of France. 3 (d'un jeune prince, etc.) governor, tutor.

GOYAVE, go-yay, sf. bot. guava.

GOYAVIER, go-yav-yay, sm. bot. guava.

GRABAT, grab-hah, sm. pallet, truckle-bed, stumpy-bedstead. prov. Etre sur le —, to be on a sick bed, to be miserably poor.

GRABUGE, grab-bûzh, sm. quarrel, squabble, wrangling. Quel —! what a mess! Jacq.

GRACE, grâs, sf. (Lat. gratia) 1 grace, favour. Faire une chose par —, to do a thing for mercy's sake. Faites-moi la — de, do me the favour to. Par la — de Dieu, by the grace of God. Goup de —, See corr. com. Jours de —, days of grace. Trouver — aux yeux de quelqu'un, devant les yeux de quelqu'un, devant quelqu'un, to find grace, favour in a person's sight, in his eyes. Réciter en —, être remis en —, to be restored to favour. Bonnes —s, good graces. Il est dans les bonnes —s du prince, he is in the good graces of the prince. 2 (pardon, indulgence) pardon, forgiveness, mercy, indulgence. Que son extrême jeunesse lui fasse trouver — auprès de vous, let his extreme youth procure for you, let him find — to a consideration, I forgive him for thy sake. Le Sage. elliptic. —, —! pity! pardon! Faire — à quelqu'un, to do a favour to a person, to favour, to befriend, to excuse. ironic. Vous me faites là une belle —! a great favour you do me by that! Faire — à quelqu'un d'une chose, to forgive, to remit, to spare a person a thing. 3 (d'une peine) pardon. A l'obtenir sa —, he has obtained his pardon. Se pourvoir en — auprès du roi, to sue for the king's pardon. Crier —, to cry mercy.

Lettre de —, charter of pardon. 4 theol.
grace. An de —, See AN. 5 (remerciements) thanks. Je vous rends —, je vous rends mille —s, I return you thanks, a thousand thanks. (elliptic.) — à Dieu, — au ciel, thank God, thank Heaven. — à son courage et à sa prudence, nous sommes sauvés, thanks to his courage and prudence, we are saved. Ironie. — à votre égoïsme, ie, thanks to your selfishness, — à leur négligence, thanks to their negligence.
6 —s, pl. (prière) grace. Dire ses —s, to say one's grace. 7 (dans les personnes et dans les choses) grace, gracefulness.
La —, plus belle encore que la beauté, grace still more lovely than beauty. La Font. La dause donnait de la — à tous ses mouvements, dancing gave gracefulness to all her motions. Barth. Elle parlait pêtée de —s et de talents, she seems to be made up of graces and accomplishments.
Volt. Danser, marcher, se pré-senter de bonne —, de mauvaise —, to dance, to walk, to present one's self gracefully, ungracefully. 11 (bonne —, mauvaise —) à faire telle chose, it well becomes him, it ill becomes him to do such a thing.
Un geste, un sourire plein de —, a most graceful gesture, smile. Cet habit, ce vêtement n'a point de —, that coat, that garment is not graceful. Les —s du style, de la diction, the graces of style, of diction. Ironie. Vraiment, vous avez bonne — de prétendre que, indeed, you are a pretty fellow to pretend that. De bonne —, de mauvaise —, with a good grace, with a bad grace. 8 tech. Les bonnes —s d'un lit, the head-curtains of a bed. 9 myth. pl. Graces. (by analogy) Les jeux, les ris et les —s suivaient partout les innocentes bergères, the sports, the smiles and Graces everywhere accompanied the innocent shepherdesses. Feb. 10 (titre) Grace. Sa — le duc de, his Grace the duke of.

DE GRACE, adv. loc. pray. De —, secoutez-moi, pray, help me. Modérez-vous, de —, pray, calm yourself.
GRACIABLE, grab-syabî, adj. mf. law.
pardonable.
GRACIER, grab-syabî, va. law. to pardon.
GRACIEUSEMENT, grab-syabî-mang,
adv. graciously, kindly, gracefully.
GRACIEUSER, grab-syabî-zay, va. 1 to give marks of kindness to. Les voilà qui m'environnent, qui nie gracieuser, then they surround me, show me marks of kindness.
Le Sage. 2 (intransitively) to show one's graces. S'avançant en gracieuser, stepping forward, and displaying his graces.
Saint.

GRACIEUSERÉTÉ, grab-syabî-zay, sf. 1
graciouslyness, kindness, courtesy, civility.
Il m'a fait mille —s, he was extremely polite to me. 2 (gratification) gratuity, acknowledgment.

GRACIEUX, grab-syuh, adj. m. fem. enjoying, graceful, pleasing. Visage —, pleasing countenance. Ce peintre a le pinceau —, that painter has a graceful pencil. 2 (poli) gracious, courteous. 3 law. Jurisdiction gracieuse, voluntary jurisdiction.

GRACILITÉ, grab-se-le-tay, sf. shrillness (of the voice); slenderness (of the limbs). Th. Gaut.

GRADATION, grab-dah-syong, sf. (Lat.)
1 graduation. La — de la lumière, the gradation of light. 2 rhet. climax. 3 paint. gradation. 4 paint. sketch. (mise en relief) gradation. 5 arch. gradation.

GRADE, grab, sm. (degree) rank, grade. 2 (dans les universités) degree.
Acquérir, prendre des —s dans l'Université, to graduate, to take one's degrees in the University.

GRADE, grab-day, adj. m. Un militaire
—, a non-commissioned officer.

GRADIN, grab-dang, sm. 1 step, shelf.
2 (dans un amphithéâtre, etc.) bench, seat, gradin, gradines. 3 gard. —s de gazon, steps cut out in the grass.

GRADUATION, grab-dah-syong, sf. 1 graduation (d'un thermomètre, of a thermometer). 2 tech. —, chambre graduée, drying-house.

GRADUE, ppa. of GRADUER, fem. —E,
1 (d'une carte, of a map) graduated. 2 graduated, progressive. Cours de thèmes
—s, progressive course of exercises. 3 chem. Fea —, a gradual fire. 4 Chambre
—e, See GRADUATION. 5 (substantif) graduate. Les —s de l'Université, the graduates of the University.

GRADUEL, grab-dû-ayl, adj. m. fem.
—LE, 1 gradual. 2 Psalms —s, gradual psalms. 3 (substantif) gradual. 4 (substantif) (livre) gradual.

GRADUELLEMENT, grab-dû-ayl-mang,
adv. gradually.

GRADUER, grab-dû-ay, va. 1 to graduate (un thermomètre, un baromètre, a thermometer a barometer). — une carte de géographie, to graduate a map. 2 (augmenter par degrés) to graduate. 3 (conférer des degrés) to graduate. Se faire — en théologie, to graduate in Divinity.

GRAILLEMENT, grab-yuh-mang, sm.
hoarseness.

GRAILLER, grab-yay, vn. hunt. to sound the horn for the dogs.

GRAILLON, grab-syuh, sm. broken-meat, scraps. Gôûti de —, odeur de —, taste, smell of burnt fat. Cela sent le —, that has a smell, a taste of burnt grease.

GRAIN, grab, sm. (Lat. granum) 1 (de froment, de l'orge, etc.) grain. Poulets dans le —, corn-fed chickens. fig. pop. Être dans le —, to be on the road to fortune.

shol. —s, pl. corn. La récolte des —s, the corn-harvest. Le commerce des —s, the corn-trade. Battre, serrer les —s, to thresh, to house the corn. Gros —s, white, and rye. Menus —s, spring-corn.
2 (de certaines plantes, de certains arbris-seaux) grain, berry. Un — de raisin, a grape. — de montarde, a grain of mustard seed. — de genévrier, a juniper berry. 3 (by analogy) bead, grain. Les —s d'un collier d'ambre, the beads of an amber collar. — de chapelet, bead of a chaplet.
Un — d'encense, a grain of incense. 4
(by analogy) (petites parties de certains amais ou monceaux) grain. — de sabbie, de blé, d'orge, de mil, de sel, de poudre à canon, grain of sand, of corn, a barleycorn; a grain of millet, of salt, of gunpowder. —s d'or, gold-sand. — de lin, grains of pure silver. fig. Il n'y a pas un — de sel dans cet ouvrage, there is not a stroke of wit in that work. 5 fig.
(un peu) grain. N'avoir pas un — de bon sens, un — de jugement, etc., not to have a grain of good sense, of judgment. Qui n'a dans la tête un petit — d'ambition? 7 who is without a spark of ambition? La Font. Lui disant, non sans un — d'ironie, saying to him, not without a touch of irony. St-B. Ce clerc ne savait — de philosophie, that taper knew nothing of philosophy. La Font. Il avait dans le propos quelque — du ton du XVIII^e siècle, he had in his conversation something of the tone of the XVIIIth century. St-B. Avoir un — de folie dans la tête, also. Avoir un —, to be a little crack-brained. Dans le vrai, B., avait un petit — dans la tête, to tell the truth, B. was rather crazy.

St-B. 6 (de certaines étoffes, etc., of some stuffs) grain. Ce papier est d'un — d'orge, toile, liège — d'orge, de — d'orge, à d'orge, toile, nappy linen. 7 (des pierres, des métaux, etc., of stones, metal) grain.
8 — de petite vérole, a peck-mark. 9
(averse) shower. 10 vant. — de vent, squall, black cloud. 11 anc. metrol. grain.
12 — de beauté, mole. 13 (soierie) Gros
—, gros grain.

GRAINE, grabay, sf. seed. — de lai-tue, d'épinards, de pavots, lettuce, spinach, poppy seed. Des plantes montées en —, plants run up to seed. Frange, épaulette, glad à — d'épinards, See ÉPINARDS. fig.
C'est une mauvaise —, he is a sad dog,
a bad lot. fig. Cette fille monte en —, that girl grows an old maid. prov. fig.
pop. C'est de la — de nuis, it is only fit to catch flies with.

GRAINETTE, grabay-tyay, sm. See CHA-NETIER.

GRAINIER, grab-yay, sm. fem. CHAI-
NIÈRE, retail seedsman, seedswoman.

GRAISSAGE, grab-sach, sm. (action) greasing.

GRAISSE, grabays, sf. 1 grease, fat, dripping, kitchen-stuff. Une tache de —, a spot of grease. fain. La — ne l'empêche pas de courir, be Pétouffe pay, he is not overencumbered with fat. fig. C'est un peloton de —, he is a lump of fat. Ce vin tourne à la —, this wine is getting oily.
2 scrip. La — de la terre, the fat of the land; || fig. the richest part of the soil.

GRAISSER, grab-say, va 1 to grease (des bottes, des souliers, boots, shoes).
fig. pop. — le couteau, to eat meat. — les épaules à quelqu'un, to cudgel a person. prov. fig. — ses bottes, to get ready to set out. — la patte à quelqu'un, to bribe a person. Un plaideur dont l'affaire allait mal, a suitor whose cause was going badly, rubbed the poor creature. Rac. — le marteau, to fee the porter. On s'entr'ait pas chez nous sans le porter. — le marteau, no one was admitted into our house without first fering the porter.
Rac. 2 (souiller de graisse) to grease.
3 (rendre sale et crasseux) to dirty.

GRAISSEUR, grab-say, adj. m. fem.
graissey, fatty, greasy.

GRANÉ, grab-mayn, sm. (Lat.) bot.
grass.

GRAMINÉE, grab-mayn, adj. f. bot.
gramineal, gramineous, grassy, gramin-aceous.

GRAMINÉES, sf. pl. graminæa.

GRAMMAIRE, grab-mayr, sf. 1 (l'art) grammar. Faire une faute de —, to make a fault in grammar. fig. L'art a sa — comme il a sa poésie, art itself has its rules as well as its poetry. A. Mouss. 2 (livre) grammar, grammar-book.

GRAMMAIRIEN, grab-mayr-tyang, sm.
4 grammarian. 2 (chez les anciens) grammarians.

GRAMMATICAL, grab-mat-e-kal, adj.
m. fem. —E, grammatical.

GRAMMATICALEMENT, grab-mat-ekal-mang, adv. grammatically.

GRAMMATISTE, grab-mat-ist, sm.
grammatist.

GRAMME, grab, sm. (Gr.) gramma
(15.4325 gr. troy).

GRAND, grab, sm. m. fem. —E, (Lat. grandis) 1 tall, long, large, great. Un homme —, a tall man. Une — femme, a tall woman. See ne 8. 2 (chez les femmes) avoir de —s jambes, de —s pieds, de —s cheveux, to have long legs, large feet, long hair. Marcher à —s pas, to stride along.
Avoir les yeux —s et bien fendus, to have large full eyes. Un homme de — taille, a man of lofty stature. Une — plaine, an extensive plain. La place
St-Marc est aussi — que d'ici à de-main, the place St-Marc would reach from here to Jericho. De Bross. Je n'ai pas — comme mon chapeau de fonds de terre, the crown of my hat would cover all the land I have. Montecq. Cette lie est fort —e, that is a very large island. Le — chemin, the high way, the high road. Un — village, a large town. Celui qui voit l'insecte et pour qui tout est —, he who sees the insect and in whose eyes all things are great. Lamart. Le — Océan, the Atlantic. Les —s Indes, the East Indies. station. — aigle, — raisin, See

AGLE, RAISIN. fig. Ouvrir de — s'en, to elure. 2 (par comparaison) Il est plus — que vous, plus — de toute la tête, he is taller than you, taller than you by a whole head. Ce tron n'est pas si — que l'autre, this hole is not so large as the other. Ce vase est trop —, that vase is too large. fig. Avoir les yeux plus — que le ventre, to have one's eyes bigger than one's belly. 3 (qui a pris, qui prend de la croissance) grown-up. Des enfants déjà — s, grown-up children. Elle est déjà — e fille, she is now a great girl. Vous voilà déjà — garçon, you are now a big boy. Quand tu seras plus —, tu auras au fossil, when you are a bigger boy, you shall have a gun. Quand vous serez plus —, c'est-à-dire moins sages, when you grow older, that is, more perturbed. V. Hog. (des animaux, etc., of animals) Ce jeune chien est déjà —, that puppy is grown-up now. Le bois commence à devenir —, that wood is beginning to grow up. Les blés sont déjà — s, the corn is already high. Une — personne, a grown-up person. Les enfants imitent volontiers les — personnes, children are fond of imitating grown-up persons. 4 (marquant qu'une chose dépasse un peu la mesure ordinaire) good, full. Il y a une — e lieue d'ici là, it is a good league from here. Je vous ai attendu deux — e heures! I waited for you two full hours! N'archer à — ees journées, to travel by long stages. 6 (in a wider sense) great, heavy, long, grand. Porter de — s fardeaux, to bear heavy burdens. Ecrire une — e lettre, to write a long letter. Avoir une — e fortune, to have a large fortune. Faire une — e dépense, to go to great expence. Donner un — dîner, to give a grand dinner. — e vilesse, great rapidity. Son — courage l'a mis au-dessus des — es fortunes, his great courage raised him above great fortunes. Fen. Leur mollesse était si — e que, their effeminacy was so great that. Boss. Un — talent, a great talent. Il n'avait rien de — qu'une sottise fiévre, he had nothing in a great proportion but a foolish pride. Boil. T. dont le — nom toujours grandit, T. whose great name is still growing in greatness. V. Hog. Nulle peine n'était pour ce crime assez — e, no punishment was heavy enough for that crime. La Font. O joies de la religion, que vous êtes — es, mais que vous êtes terribles! Oh! joys of religion, how great you are, but how terrible! Chat. Il est parti, à mon — regret, he is gone to my great regret. — vent, high wind. — incendie, great fire. Je ne vois pas — mal à cela, I do not see much harm in that. Sans me demander pardon de la liberté — e, without begging my pardon for the liberty he took. Ab. Un — amour, a violent passion. Une — e haine, a violent hatred. Je ne mérite pas une faveur si — e, I do not deserve so great a favour. La Font. Le mal n'est peut-être pas si — e que nous le croyons, the evil is not perhaps so great as we think. Ab. Avoir une — e poissance, to have great power, influence, reputation. Être en — e vénération, to be in great veneration. Être d'une — naissance, to be of high birth. — jour, broad day-light. Il fait — jour, quand je le réveillai, it was broad day-light when I awoke him. Examiner une étoile su — jour, to examine a star by broad day-light. fig. — jour, open day. Il craint le — jour, he fears the light of day. fig. Le — jour de la publicité, the full blaze of publicity. auc. — s jours, a general and extraordinary session. — conseil, high court. Le — air, See AIR. Faire une chose de — cœur, See CŒUR. Ils sont — s amis, they are great friends. — merci, much obliged, many thanks. fig. De — s mots, big words. prov. Aux — s maux les — remèdes, desperate diseases require desperate remedies. 6 (en grande quantité) much, a great deal of, many. Il n'a pas — argent, he has not much money. Hier il n'y avait pas — monde au spectacle, yesterday there were not many people at the play. Le — monde le fatigue, high life fatigues him. — es eaux, high flood. fig. Nager en — e eau, to tire in clobber, to be on the road to fortune. 7 (important) great, grand, main. Le jour d'une bataille est un — jour pour le général, the day of a battle is a grand day for the general. Son — dessein a été, his great design was. La Bruy. C'est avoir fait un — pas dans la finesse que de, it is a great piece of cunning to. La Bruy. Le — point c'est d'obtenir le consentement du père, the main point is to obtain the father's consent. alch. Le — œuvre, the philosopher's stone. 8 (des personnes au-dessus des autres) great, grand. Un — homme, a great man. Être — en naissance, on mérite, en autorité, to be of high birth, of great merit, authority. Un — officier de la couronne, a grand-officer of the crown. Un — personnage, a great personage. Une — e dame, a great lady. Un — roi, a prince, a great king, a great prince. Rien — nous rend si — s qu'une — e douleur, nothing makes us so great as a great affliction. Muss. Un — médecin, a great physician. On doit étudier les ouvrages des — s maîtres, one should study the works of great masters. Le — Cornéille, the great Corneille. (disparagingly) great. Un — sot, a great fool. Un — criminel, a great criminal. Trancher du — seigneur, to put on a lordly air. absol. Trancher du —, to talk big. 9 (courageux, noble) great, grand, lofty. — dans l'adversité par son courage, great in adversity by his courage. Flech. Il n'y a que les — s cœurs qui sachent combler il y a de gloire à être bon, none but great minds know what glory there is in being good. Fen. Une âme espagnole encore plus — e que folle, a Spanish soul greater still than bold. La Font. Déployer un — caractère, to display a noble character. Il n'avait et ne pouvait insuier rien de —, he had no grandeur and could not inspire any thing great. Villem. — Dieu! Great God! fig. Promettre, jurer sur ses — s dieux, to promise, to swear by all that is good, sacred. 10 (surmon de quelques princes, etc.) great. Alexandre le —, Alexander the Great. 11 (titre de certains dignitaires, etc.) grand. — maître de l'Université, grand-master of the university. — chancelier de la Légion d'honneur, grand chancellor of the Legion of Honour. — chambellan, lord chamberlain. (by analogy) — prêtre, high priest. — e prêtresse, high priestess. absol. Monsieur le —, the master of the horse. 12 Le — Mogol, the emperor of Mogul. Le — duc de Toscane, the grand-duke of Tuscany. (by analogy) Le — duc de Toscane, the grand-duchy of Tuscany. — maître de Malte, grand master of Malta. — prieur de France, grand prior of France. — officier de la Légion d'honneur, grand-officer of the Legion of Honour. — croix, grand-cross of the Legion of Honour. 13 (devant un substantif féminin qui commence avec une consonne) A grand-peine, to feed well, to feast. Il ne donna pas grand'chose, he did not give much. Balz. La grand'chambre, the great room, principal court of justice. Il héritiera de sa grand'mère, he will inherit of his grandmother, of his great aunt.

GRAND-MÈRE, s. grandmother. — mère paternelle, paternal grandmother, grandmother by the father's side. — mère maternelle, maternal grandmother, grandmother by the mother's side. pop. Mère-grand, granny, grandmother.

GRAND-ONCLE, sm. great-uncle.

GRAND-PÈRE, sm. grandfather, grand-sire.

GRAND-TANTE, sf. great-aunt.

GRAND, sm. grand, great man. — d'Espagne, grandee. Vous s'êtes offrés à les yeux quelque — de ma cour, see whether your eyes meet any noble of my palace. Rac. S'attacher à un —, to court a great man. 2 absol. grand. Il y a du — dans cette action, there is something noble in this action. 3 (des pensées, du style) grand, great. 4 prov. Du petit au —, by comparing great things with small ones.

EN GRAND, adv. loc. 1 at full length, full sized. Se faire peindre en —, to have one's portrait taken at full length. 2 Faire une chose en —, l'extérieur en —, to do a thing on a grand scale, to execute it on a grand scale. 3 Travailler en —, to work on a grand scale. fig. Penser, agir en —, to think, to act nobly, grandly. 4 LA GRANDE, adv. loc. absol. grandly. Vivre à —, to live like a prince.

GRANDELET, grand-ly, adj. m. fem. — te, dimin. of GRAND, absol. pretty tall, tallish.

GRANDEMENT, grand-mang, adv. 1 grandly, nobly, handsomely. Il a fait — les choses, he has done the handsome thing. 2 (beaucoup) greatly, extremely. Vous vous trompez —, you are greatly mistaken. Vous avez — raison, you are quite right.

GRANDESSE, grang-days, sf. grandness.

GRANDEUR, grang-dubr, sf. 1 greatness, length, height, size, magnitude, extent. Cela est de la — d'un mètre, that is a meter long. La — d'un parc, d'un édifice, the extent of a park, the size of an edifice. Il est de ma —, he is of my size. Beaum. Sa distance me fait juger de sa —, its distance gives me an idea of its size. La Font. Un héritage dont la — n'est pas à dédaigner, an inheritance too valuable to be disdained. La Font. fig. Regarder quelqu'un du haut de sa —, to look down upon a person. 2 math. magnitude, quantity. 3 (considérable en son genre) greatness, magnitude, grandeur. Des armées dont la — paraît fabuleuse tant elle est énorme, armies the incalculable strength of which appears fabulous, so enormous it is. Boss. La — d'une entreprise, the greatness of an undertaking. La — d'une perte, d'un sacrifice, the greatness of a loss, of a sacrifice. La — de courage, the greatness of courage. C'est la — de mon sujet d'être renfermé dans une vie toute chrétienne, the grandeur of my subject consists in its being contained in a purely christian life. Flech. 4 (puissance, majesté) greatness, grandeur. La —, les — s de Dieu, the greatness of God. La — des rois, the greatness of kings. Les causes de la — et de la décadence des Romains, the causes of the greatness and decline of the Romans. (by analogy) Abattu par les — s de la religion, cast down by the grandeur of religion. Chat. 5 absol. (in a more restrictive sense) grandeur. Retournez vers le roi, aidez-le à supporter les misères de la —, return to the king, assist him in supporting the miseries of grandeur. Fen. Les — s humaines, human grandeur. L'éclat, le néant des — s, the splendor, the nothingness of grandeur. Être ne dans le sein des — s, to be born in the midst of greatness. Volt. 6 fig. (élévation) grandeur, greatness. — d'âme, greatness of soul, magnanimity. Les hommes ne font pas toujours de grandes choses avec —, men do not always accomplish grand things with grandeur. Ph. Chas. J'aimais malgré moi cette — dans le crime, I admired in spite of myself this grand-deur in crime. Ab. Il a on air de — qui impose, he has an imposing air of grandeur. 7 (titre d'honneur) Grace. Il a suivi les ordres de Votre —, he has carried out the orders of your Grace. C'est un parfum de bouquet que ta — respire, your Grace smells a perfume of bouquet. Le Font.

GRANDIOSE, grând-dyoz, adj. mf. (It.) 1 grand. 2 sm. grandeur. Il voulait se conduire avec ce — qui a signalé C., he tried to exhibit that grandeur that distinguished C. Villem. Le — de l'expression, the grandeur of the expression. Lamart.

GRANDI, grând-dee, pp. of GRANDIR, fem. —E, fig. M^{me} du B. —e par le favoritisme pèrit par un favori, M^{me} du B. who had risen through favoritism, perished by a favourite. Lamart.

GRANDIR, grând-deer, vn. (from grand) to grow, to grow up, to spring up, to increase. Il en varie les applications à mesure que son élève grandit, he varies the application of it as his pupil grows up. St-B. D'un autre côté la petite grandissait, on the other hand the little one was growing up. Nod. Ces pluies n'ont fait — le blé, those rains have made the corn spring up. fig. Ton jeune laurier grandira sous mes pleurs, thy youthful laurels shall flourish under my tears. Villem. fig. Leur réputation à tous deux est allée en grandissant au 18^e siècle, the reputation of both of them went on increasing in the 18th century. St-B. La tolérance a grandi dans tous les cœurs, tolerance has struck deep root in every heart. Ph. Chas. L'erreur grandit comme un géant, error grows up like a giant. V. Hug. Leurs noms, jusqu'alors obscurs, allaient — avec les malheurs de la patrie, their names, till then obscure, were to acquire notoriety by the misfortunes of their country. Lamart. La puissance de l'argent avait grandi à côté de celle des titres, the power of money had increased by the side of that of titles. Villem.

GRANDIR, va. to make taller. to lengthen. Sa maladie l'a grandi, his illness has made him taller. Partout où le couchant grandit l'ombre des chênes, wherever the setting sun lengthens the shadow of the oaks. V. Hug. fig. La distance grandit tout prestige, distance lends enchantment to the view. La Font. Ils pouvaient — leurs espérances au proportion des faits, they could feed their hopes increase in proportion to the facts. Lamart. Faire de S. une victime populaire, c'est été le —, to make a popular victim of S. would have been increasing his importance. Ph. Chas. Ce fut ce qui perdit sa vie, mais ce qui grandit sa mémoire, that blighted his existence, but immortalized his memory. Lamart. S'attacher à cet homme qui les grandissait en grandissant par eux, to attach themselves to that man who raised them whilst rising by their means. Lamart.

SE GRANDIR, vpr. to make one's self taller. fig. Elles se grandissent de toutes leurs peccates et deviennent sublimes, all their little weaknesses make them greater, and raise them to the sublime. Balz. GRANDISSIME, grând-de-seem, adj. mf. very great.

GRANGE, grângez, sf. barn. GRANIT, gran-nee, sm. 1 granité. De roclies de —, rocks of granite. Une colonne de —, a granite column. 2 (consecratory) sort of ice.

GRANTIELLE, grau-e-tel, adj. granitic-like.

GRANITIQUE, gran-e-tik, adj. mf. granitic, granitific. Roche —, granitic rock.

GRANIVOIE, gran-e-vor, adj. mf. 1 zool. granivorous. 2 zool. sm. granivorous.

GRANULAIRE, gran-û-layr, adj. mf. min. granular.

GRANULATION, gran-û-lah-syong, sf. 4 (opération) granulation. 2 —s, pl. meal. granulation.

GRANULER, gran-û-lay, va. to granulate.

GRANULEUX, gran-û-luh, adj. m. fem. GRANULEUX, 1 granulous, granular. 2 med. granular.

GRAPHIQUE, graf-ik, adj. mf. 1 graphic, graphical. 2 (qui a rapport à l'écriture) graphic, graphical.

GRAPHIQUEMENT, graf-ik-mang, adv. graphically.

GRAPHOMÈTRE, graf-o-maytr', sm. (Gr.) graphometer.

GRAPIN, grab-pang, sm. See GRAPPIN.

GRAPPE, gray, sf. 1 (du raisin) bunch. Une — de raisin, a bunch of grapes. Vin de —, unpressed wine. artill. — de raisin, grape-shot. prov. fig. Mordre à la —, to bite at the hook, to swallow the bait. 2 (by extension) (tout assemblage de grains, de fleurs, etc.) bunch, cluster.

— de groseille, bunch of currants. — de lierre, cluster of ivy-berries. Cet arbre porte son fruit par —s, that tree bears its fruit in clusters. (by analogy) Des —s de breloques sur le ventre, clusters of charms dangling on his belly.

Th. Gaut. 3 vet. grab, wart.

GRAPILLAGE, grab-e-yazh, sm. gleaming, plunder, pickings.

GRAPILLER, grab-e-yay, vn. (from grapper) 1 to glean. 2 fig. (in a bad sense) to pick up, to scrape up. Il n'y a plus à —, there is no more pickings to be had.

Il va grappiller partout et sur tout, he scrapes together every thing he can lay his hands on. (transitively) Il a grappillé quelque chose dans cette affaire, he has picked up something in that affair.

GRAPILLEUR, grab-e-yûir, sm. fem. GRAPILLEUSE, 1 grape-gleaner. 2 fig. pilferer.

GRAPILLON, grab-e-yong, sm. dimin. little bunch.

GRAPIN, grab-ang, sm. naut. 4 grapple, grappling. 2 (instrument de fer) grapple, grappling-iron. Lancer le —, to cast the cogges. Jeter le — dans les cordages d'un navire, to cast the grappling-iron in the rigging of a ship.

fig. Jeter le —, mettre le —, son — sur quelqu'un, to hook a person.

GRAS, grâ, adj. m. fem. —se, 4 fat. Corps —, fat body. 2 (qui a beaucoup de graisse) fat. Être gros et —, to be fat and lusty. Oie —se, fat goose.

Viande —se, fat meat. absol. Le bœuf —, the prize ox. (adverbial.) Avoir la langue —se, parler —, to speak thick. fig. pop. Sortir bien —, sortir fort d'un emploi, d'une affaire, to leave a place with some fine pickings. fig. Duruir la —se matinee, to sleep it out.

Cheval à la vue —se, this horse is dim-sighted, wall-eyed. prov. fig. Tuer le veau —, to kill the fatted calf. En seiez-vous, will he be any the better for it? 3 (des mets) fat. Ce bœuf est trop —, this beef is too fat, too rich. prov. fig. Faire ses choux — de quelque chose, See choux. 4 (des mets qui consistent en viande, qui sont préparés avec de la viande) meat. Bouillou —, broth. Jour —, flesh-day. Les jours —, shore-day. Le jeudi —, le dimanche —, le lundi —, le mardi —, Shore-Thursdays, Thursdays, Shrove-Monday, Shrove-Tuesday.

5 (sali de graisse) greasy. Cheveux —, greasy hair. 6 (by analogy) De l'huile —se, greasy, thick oil. De l'encre —se, thick ink. Fromage —, soft cheese. (adverbial.) Pain cuit —, heavy bread. Figues —ses, Turkey figs. Le pavé est —, the pavement is greasy, slippery.

Terre —se, heavy land. Terres —ses, rich, fertile ground. fig. Nos vieux champs — du sang étranger, our old fields, fat with the blood of our foes. Muss.

De — pâturages, fat pasture land. 7 point. Peindre —, avoir le piceau —, to paint thick. Couleur —se, thick colour. 8 (substantif) (les parties grasses de la viande) fat. Le — et le maigre d'un jambon, the fat and the lean of a ham. Le — de la jambe, the calf of the leg. Iliz au —, Rice soup. 9 Temps —, hazy weather. 10 (substantif) (with catholics) flesh, meat. Servir en — et en maigre, to serve up flesh and fish. Manger —, faire —, to eat meat, flesh.

GRAS-BOURLE, sm. culin. tripe.

GRAS-FOND, GRAS-FONDURE, sm. art. vet. molten grease. vet. Ce cheval est mort de —-lunula, that horse died of molten grease.

GRASSEMENT, grâs-mang, adv. Vivre —, to live handsomely. Payer récompenser —, to pay, to reward handsomely.

GRASSET, grâ-say, adj. m. fem. —re, rather stout.

GRASSETTE, grâ-set, sf. bot. butterwort.

GRASSEYEMENT, grab-say-yuh-mang, sm. isip. tisp.

GRASSEYER, grâ-say-yay, vn. to tisp.

GRASSOUILLET, grâ-soo-yay, adj. m. fem. —re, plump. Sa face vieillotte et —le, her plump old-looking face. Balz.

GRATERON, grat-rong, sm. bot. goose-grass, lovenam. scratch-weed, catch-weed, cleavers.

GRATICULER, grat-e-kû-lay, vn. paint. to square.

GRATIFICATION, grat-e-fa-kah-syong, (Lat.) sf. gratuity, present.

GRATIFIER, grat-e-fayr, va. xos GRATIFIER, vous GRATIFIER. Lat. gratificare) 1 to bestow, to confer, to favour, to oblige. Il aime à — ceux qui le servent, he likes to oblige those who serve him.

Montesq. J'ai fait l'ouverture du corps, ce qui me parait avoir beaucoup gratifié les vivants qui, etc., I made the autopsy of the body to the great satisfaction of the living, who, etc. Jacq. Vous récompensez et gratifiez les bons, you reward and favour the good. Bar. Souffrir la vkrte, puisque tu n'as point de quoi — un menteur, endure truth since you cannot pay for a lie. Beaum. (by extension) Je vais vous — de ce qui peut combler les desirs de l'homme, I will confer on you what would satisfy to the utmost the desires of man. Nod. 2 ironic. Interdire tout à propos quelque chose à quelqu'un) to ascribe, to attribute.

GRATIN, grat-ang, sm. 4 burned part. Le — du rû, the burned part of rice. 2 culin. gratin. Merlan, sole au —, whitening, sole gratin.

GRATINER, grat-e-nay, va. culin. to grate.

GRATIOLE, grat-yol, sf. bot. hyssop.

GRATIS, grat-ang, adv. (Lat.) 1 gratis, free of cost, for nothing. Spectacle —, free admission to the theatre. Ce medecin traite les pauvres —, that physician attends the poor for nothing. Encore étai-il probable que nous serions délires —, besides it was probable we should be delirated gratis. Ab. absol. fig. Dire une chose —, to advance a thing gratuitously. 2 (substantif.) Le public des jours de —, the public on days of free admission.

GRATITUDE, grat-e-tud, sf. (Lat.) gratitude. Donner des —s, marques de sa —, de —, to give marks of one's gratitude, of gratitude. Suezes assuré de ma —, be assured of my gratitude.

GRATULEUX, grat-luh, adj. m. fem. GRATULEUX, itchy.

GRATIELLE, grat-ell, sf. itching, rash.

GRATTER, grat-ray, va. 1 to scrape, to scratch (une muraille, a wall). — des souliers avec un couteau pour en enlever la crotte, to scrape off the dirt from shoes with a knife. — à une porte, to scratch at a door. fig. — le papier, le parchemin, to write upon paper, parchment. 2 (avec les ongles) to scratch. — on ô il démange, to scratch where it itches. fig. l'épaulé à quelqu'un, to ingratulate one's self with a person. prov. Troup — cult, trop parler tout, you may hurt yourself by scratching too much or talking too much. prov. fig. — quelqu'un ô il lui démange, to come over the blind side of a person. 3 (des animaux, of animals) to scratch. Soutenu on voit un taureau — la terre du pied, a bull is often seen — paw the ground. Merim. (hyperb.) J'aimerais mieux — la terre avec mes ongles, I had rather dig the earth with my finger-nails. Balz. GRATTE-CUL, sm. bot. hip.

GRATTE-PAPIER, sm. quilt-drier.
SE CHATYER, vpr. 4 to scratch one's self. Se — on ô il démange, to scratch one's self where it itches. Un chien qui se gratte, a dog that scratches itself. prov. fig. pop. Qui se sent galeux, se gratte, if any fool thinks the cap fits him, let him put it on. 2 (à soi) to scratch. Le bandit se gratta la tête et jeta un regard oblique, le bandit scratched his head, and cast a look askance. Merim. 3 (frotter la partie où il démange) to scratch, to rub one's self. 4 recipr. to scratch each other. fig. Ces âmes, non contents de s'être ainsi grattées s'en allèrent l'un l'autre se prêter, those asses not satisfied with having flattered each other in this manner, went and cried each other up. La Font.

GRATTOIR, grab-iwâr, sm. 4 scratching-knife. 2 tech. scraper.

GRATUIT, grab-tûee, adj. m. fem. —E, gratuitous, free of cost. Leçons —es, gratuitous lessons. Consultations —es, gratuitous consultations. Ecole —e, free school. Don —, free gift, benevolence. fig. Supposition —e, gratuitous supposition.

GRATUITÉ, grab-tûee-lay, sf. libel.

grace, free gift.
GRATUITEMENT, grab-tûee-mâng, 1 gratuitously, gratis. Il lui a donné cela —, he gave him that for nothing. Traiter un malade —, to attend a patient gratis. 2 fig. gratuitously.

GRATIFIER, grab-at-yay, sm. rubbish-carrier.

GRATIFIER, grab-at-if, adj. m. fem.
gratifier, méd. duv.

GRATVS, grab-ab, sm. pl. See CRA-VVS.

GRAVE, grab, adj. mf. (Lat. gravis) 4 heavy. Les corps —s, heavy bodies. 2 fig. sérieux grave, serious, solemn. Un homme —, a grave man. Il est — dans ses discours, he is serious in his discourse. (by analogy) (du maintien, etc.) grave, sedate. Mue —, grave look, solemn countenance. Tou —, grave tone. 3 (by extension) Pensées —s, grave thoughts. (substantif.) l'asser du — au doux, to pass from grave to gay. Boil. 4 fig. (de l'autorité) weighty. 5 fig. (important) grave, serious, gricous. Faute —, grievous fault. Le cas est —, the case is a serious one. 6 fig. (sévère) severe. Peine —, severe penalty. 7 fig. (dangereux) severe, grievous, serious. Maladie —, severe illness. 8 (des sons, of sounds) deep, low. La voix de ce chanteur est assez belle dans les cordes —s, that singer has a tolerably fine voice in the low notes. (substantif.) Passer de l'aigu au —, du — à l'aigu, to pass from sharp to flat, from flat to sharp. 9 gram. Accent —, grave accent.

GRAVÉ, ppa. of GRAVER, fem. —e, engraved. Un livre orné d'un titre —, a book embellished with an engraved title-page. Avoir le visage — de petite verole, être tout — de petite verole, to be deeply pitted with the small pox. La sottise est comme une petite verole. B. s'était guéri de la maladie universelle; il en était resté très-peu —, folly is like the smallpox. B. had been cured of the universal disease; he had retained very few marks of it. St-B. fig. Son portrait tel qu'il est resté — an fond de ma mémoire, his portrait such as it remains deeply engraved on my memory. Ad. Cette noble passion est bien toujours —e dans leurs cœurs, that noble passion is for ever engraved on their hearts. Montsq.

GRAVELÉE, grab-lay, adj. f. tech.
Cendre —, pearl-ashes.

GRAVELEUX, grab-lub, adj. m. fem.
GRAVELEUX, 1 (qui est mêlé de gravier) gravelly, gritty. 2 med. containing gravel. 3 (qui est sujet à la gravelle) affected with gravel. (substantif) person afflicted with the gravel. 4 fig. (des propos) broad.

GRAVELLE, grab-ay, sf. med. gravel.
GRAVEMENT, grab-mâng, adv. 1 gravely, seriously, earnestly. 2 mus. grave, andante.

GRAVER, grab-ay, ra. (Gr. γράφω) 1 to engrave (une inscription, an inscription; une planche de cuivre, a copper-plate). — sur des agates, sur des pierres précieuses, to engrave on agates, on gems. — en relief, to carve in relief. fig. Ses rides sur son front gravaient tous ses exploits, all his deeds were engraved in wrinkles on his brow. Rac. Pourquoi la mort n'aurait-elle pas gravé sur le front sa victime les secrets d'une autre vie? why should not death have engraved on the brow of its victim the secrets of another life? Chab. 2 — en taille-douce, to engrave in copper. — sur le cuivre à l'eau-forte, to engrave in copper. — à l'eau-forte, to etch. — sur bois, to engrave in wood. — à la manière noire, to engrave in mezzotint. — de la musique, to engrave music; une médaille, une monnaie, a medal, a coin; des caractères d'imprimerie, type. 3 fig. — quelque chose dans l'esprit, dans la mémoire, dans le cœur, to engrave a thing on the mind, the memory, the heart.

SE GRAVER, vpr. fig. to be engraved, to be impressed, to be imprinted (on). Que vos exemples se gravent dans la mémoire de vos élèves, let your examples be engraved on the memory of your pupils. J.-J. Rouss.

GRAVER, grab-ubr, sm. engraver.
— en pierres fines et en médailles, gem and medal engraver. — en caractères d'imprimerie, letter-cutter. — sur métaux, engraver on metals. — en taille-douce, à l'eau-forte, sur bois, copper engraver, etcher, carter. — à la manière noire, mezzotint-engraver.

GRAVIER, grab-yay, sm. 4 gravel.
2 med. gravel.

GRAVIR, grab-er, en. 4 (grimper) to climb up, to clamber. — contre un rocher, sur des rochers, to climb up a rock, rocks. (transitivement) — une muraille, un retranchement, to scale a wall, an intrenchment. 2 (monter avec effort) to climb, to ascend. (transitivement) — une côte, to ascend a slope. — une pente escarpée, on sentier, to climb up a steep slope, a path.

GRAVITATION, grab-e-lab-syong, sf.
nat. phil. gravitation. Les lois de la —, the laws of gravitation.

GRAVITÉ, grab-e-lay, sf. (Lat. gravitas) 4 gravity. Centre de —, centre of gravity. 2 fig. (qualité) gravity, graveness. J'eus beaucoup de peine à garder ma —, I could scarcely keep my gravity. — de mœurs, gravity of manners. — de style, gravity of style. 3 fig. (importance des choses) gravity, weight. 4 (d'un son, of sounds) lowness, depth.

GRAVITER, grab-e-lay, en. nat. phil.
to gravitate.

GRAVOIS, grab-voah, sm. pl. 4 rubbish of plaster. 2 (les menus débris d'une muraille) rubbish.

GRAVÈRE, grab-ûr, sf. 4 (l'art) engraving. — sur bois, sur pierres fines, wood-engraving, carving, gem, seal-engraving. — en taille-douce, à la manière noire, copper engraving, mezzotint-engraving. 2 (l'ouvrage) engraving. 3

(estampe) engraving, print, cut. — avant la lettre, a proof engraving.

GRE, grab, sm. 4 (volonté) will. Récits qui mènent à son — les cœurs et les esprits, narrations that lead away the minds and hearts as he pleases. La Font. Deux démons à leur — partageant notre vie, two demons divide our lives at their will and pleasure. La Font. fig. Erreur sur les mœurs — des vents et des flots, ad — de la tempête, to wander over the seas at the mercy of the winds and waves, of the tempest. Tout réussit au — de nos desirs, every thing succeeds to our heart's content. Noû. 2 (particul.) will, inclination, free-will. Il y est allé de son —, de son bon —, contre son —, he went there of his own free-will, against his will. Il le fera de — ou de force, he shall do it by fair means or foul. Bon —, mal —, willing or unwilling, by fair means or foul. 3 (gout, sentiment) taste, liking, mind. Le saug à votre — coule trop extollement, according to your, blood is not shed freely enough. Rac. Avoir quelque chose en —, to take a thing in good part. (des personnes, of persons) Le duc l'avait si fort en —, the Duke had taken so strong a liking to him. Bar. (by analogy) Prendre en —, to receive with resignation. Savoir —, savoir bon —, beaucoup de —, savoir mauvais —, peu de — à quelqu'un, to take it kindly, unkindly, of a person. Je souffrais pour elle un martyr dont elle ne me saura jamais —, I suffered for her a martyrdom that she will never thank me for. Ab. Je vous conjure de ne lui savoir encore mauvais — de son change-ment, I conjure you not to be displeased with him on account of this change. St-B. L'univers leur sait — du mal qu'ils ne font pas, the Universe is thankful to them for the evil they do not commit. La Font. Sachons-leur — d'avoir voulu nous en-lever, let us take it kindly of them that they endeavored to sore us. Ab. D'où vient qu'il se sent si bon — d'être au monde, how is it that he is so pleased with himself for being in this world. Montesq.

DE GRÉ À GRÉ, adv. loc. by mutual agreement, by private contract. Des rentes et des services établis de — à —, revenues and services fixed by mutual agreement. Aug. T. Marché fait de — à —, a bargain concluded by private contract.

GREBE, graby, sm. orn. grebe.
GREEC, graby, sm. fem. GRECQUE, 4
(habitant) Greek. Une grecque, a Greek woman. 2 rel. Greek. 3 (langue) Greek. Le — ancien, ancient Greek. Le — moderne, modern Greek. prov. fig. Passe cela, c'est du — pour moi, except that, it is Hebrew to me. 4 (adjectif) Greek, Grecian.

À LA GRECQUE, adv. loc. after the Greek fashion.

GRÉCISER, grab-se-zay, en. to grecize.

GRECOLE, graby, sf. fret, fret-work.

GREDIN, grab-dîng, sm. fem. —e, 4 obol. beggar. 2 fig. scamp, blackguard.

GREDS, sm. shag, lap-dog.

GREDINERIE, grab-dîen-ree, sf. obsol. beggary. De Bros.

GREEMENT, grab-mâng, sm. 1 want.
rigging. (by analogy) Le — d'un mât, d'une vergue, d'une chaloupe, the rigging of a mast, of a yard, of a long-boat. 2 (l'action de gréer) rigging.

GRÉER, grab-ay, va. want. to rig. (by analogy) — un mât, une vergue, to rig a mast, a yard.

GRÉER, grab-ubr, sm. rigger.

GREFFE, graby, sm. clerk's office.
Droit de —, clerk's fees.

GREFFE, sf. 1 agri. gard. graft, scion.
2 (opération) grafting. — en fente, en dûle, en couronne, en écusson, slip, flute, crown, shield, grafting. — en approche, par approche, grafting by approach, inarching.

GRIFFER, grab-yay, va. agri. gard. to graft. — en écusson, en approche, to bad, to inoculate, to iney, to inarch, to graft by approach. fig. Un tronc vif où la société greffe ses passions, a vile trunk, on which society grafts its passions. V. Hug. Elle (la troupe de Ronsard) parvient à — sur la tige française quelques locutions grecques, they succeed in grafting on the French stock some Greek idioms. Ph. Chas.

SE GREFFER, vpr. to be grafted.

GREFFEUR, gray-fuhr, sm. grafter.
GREFFIER, gray-fyur, sm. clerk. fig. fem. greffière, la greffière, greffière patiente qui fait semblant de régner sur les mots qu'elle entrecroise, grammar, that patient registrar which makes a show of reigning over the words that it registers. Ph. Chas.

GREFFOIR, gray-fwâr, sm. grafting-knife.
GRÈGE, grayzh, adj. f. Soie —, raw silk.

GRÈGEAIS, gray-zhâ, adj. m. Feu —, Greece, wild fire.

GREGOIRE, gray-gooâr, sm. Gregory.
GREGORIEN, gray-go-ryang, adj. m. fem. —NE, Gregorian. Calendrier grégorien, Gregorian calendar. Année —ne, Gregorian year. Chant —, Gregorian chant.

GRÈQUE, grayg, sf. obsol. broches, politiqassins. fig. Tier ses —, to run away. La Font.

GRÊLE, grayl, adj. m. 1 slender, slim. De stature plutôt —, et un peu courbée en avant, of rather slim stature, and somewhat bent forward. Lamart. 2 quat. Intestins —s, enlaid intestines. Muscles —s, terres-muscles. 3 (de la voix) shrill. Forçait sa petite voix — et douce, straining her small shrill voice. Nod. Les cris continuaient tellement —s et cassés, the cries continued so shrill and cracked. Nod. Ton —, shrill tone. (substantif.) Sonner du —, to produce sharp sounds, to sound the highest tone.

GRÊLE, sf. hail. Les charbons rouges tombaient —, autour de moi, the red-hot coals fell like hail-stones around me. Ab. fig. Une — de traits, de balles, de boulets, etc. a shower of arrows, of bullets, of balls, etc. fig. Une — de coups, a shower of blows.

GRÊLE, ppa. of GRÊLER, fem. —E, adjective. 1 ravaged by hail. Ce propriétaire a été —, that man's property has been devastated by hail; || fig. Cet homme a été —, that man has met with great misfortunes; || G. a l'air bien —, G. looks very shabby. De Bruss. Cette maison a l'air bien —, this house appears very dilapidated. De Bruss. 2 fig. pitted with the small pox.

GRÊLETT, gray-lay, v. impers. 1 to hail. fig. A qui le grêle sur la tête, ont l'univers sensible l'empêché et orage, he on whom misfortunes fall thinks the laws of nature are reversed. Montesq. 2 (transitivement) fig. (à leur par grêle) cut up, to ravage by hail. prov. — sur le persil, to break a butterfly on the wheel; 3 (intransitivement) fig. J'essayai de recapituler tous les événements qui avaient grêlé sur ma tête, I endeavored to recapitulate all the accidents by which I had been assailed. Ab. GRELIN, gray-loug, sm. naut. warp, small cable, tow-line.

GRELON, gray-loug, sm. hail-stone.
GRELOT, gruli-h, sm. 1 bell. — de cuivre, d'argent, brass, silver bell. fig. Attacher le —, to bell the cat. 2 bot. Fleurs en —, bell-shaped flowers.

GRILOTTER, gruh-lô-yay, va. to shiver with cold. Grelottait de tous ses membres, shivering all over. Nod. Les grenadiers grelottaient sous leurs armes, the grenadiers shivered under their arms. Lamart. GRIEMAL, gray-nyal, sm. liturg. gre-nat.

GRENIL, gray-meel, sm. bot. gromill, gromwell.

GRENADE, gruh-nad, sf. 1 bot. pomegranate, 2 mil. grenade. 3 (ornement militaire) grenade.

GRENADIER, gruh-nad-yay, sm. 1 bot. pomegranate-tree. 2 (soldat) grenadier.

— 3 theat. horse-grenadier.
GRENADE, gruh-nad-yay, sf. 1 anc. grenade-pouch. 2 amour. sling-ring.

GRENADILLE, gruh-nad-e-yuh, sf. bot. grenadilla, passion-flower.

GRENADIN, gruh-nad-ang, sm. colon. small fricanneau.

GRENADINE, gruh-nad-zen, sf. (étioffe) grenadine.

GRENAILLE, gruh-nah-yuh, sf. 1 small shot. 2 (rebus de graine) tailings.

GRENAT, gruh-nah, sm. ulm. garnet.

GRENAUT, gruh-no, sm. ich. gurnet.

GRENETERIE, grayn-tree, sf. seed-trade, corn-chandlery.

GRENETIER, grayn-tyay, sm. fem. GRENETIERE, 1 corn-chandler, seedsman, seedswoman. 2 anc. officier au grenier à sel comptroller of the salt magazine.
GNETIST, grayn-tee, sm. 1 (des moutures, of medals) milled edge. 2 mint. (pointon) punchon, punch, stamp.

GRENETTES, gruh-nel, sf. pl. French Assignon berries.

GRENIEU, gruh-nyay, sm. 1 granary, loft. — 2 blé, corn-granary. — 3 foin, hay-loft. — s publics, — d'abondance, public granaries, store-houses. — à sel, public magazine of salt. fig. pop. C'est un — à coups de poing, he is a quarrelsome fellow that always gets a thrashing. prov. fig. C'est du blé en —, it is as good as ready money. 2 (by extension) lumber-room, garret, attic. prov. fig. Aller du — à la cave, de la cave au —. See cave. 3 fig. granary. La Sicile est le — de l'Italie, Sicily is the granary of Italy. Notre —, la Beauce, n'est plus qu'une forêt, our granary, B. is nothing but a forest now. Mich. 4 (des grains, etc.) lodging, cargo.

GRENOUILLE, gruh-noo-yuh sf. 1 erp. frog. 2 print, frog.

GRENOUILLE, gruh-noo-yuh, sf. 1 marsh, fen. 2 (disparagingly) damp hole.

GRENOUILLET, gruh-noo-yuh, sm. bot. Solomon's seal.

GRENOUILLETTE, gruh-noo-yet, sf. 1 bot. crow-foot, butter-up, ranunculus palestis. 2 med. ranula.

GRENU, gruh-nû, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 (des blés, seigles, etc.) corned, full of corn. 2 nat. hist. grainé. Huile —, clotted oil.

GRES, gray, sm. 1 sandstone. 2 (sorte de poterie) stone, stone-ware. Pot de —, stone-pot.

GRESIL, gray-zeel, sm. sleet.

GRESILLEMENT, gray-ze-yuh-mang, sm. shriveling, shrivelling-up, shrinking.

GRESILLER, gray-ze-yay, v. impers. Il gresille, it sleet.

GRESILLER, va. to shrivel, to shrivel up.

GRESSE, grays-ree, sf. 1 (collectif) sandstone work. 2 (pois, etc.) stone-ware. 3 (la roche) sandstone quarry.

GRÈVE, grayv, sf. 1 strand, beach. 2 La —, la place de —, (à Paris) the Grève.

3 fig. strike, turn-out. Faire —, se mettre en —, to strike.

GRÈVE, ppa. of GRÈVER fem. —E, Nod. fortune a encore été — par ton éducation, par tes voyages, your education, your travels have also eaten into our fortune. Lamart. Immeuble — d'hypothèques, a house encumbered with mortgages. La. Etre — de substitution, to be heir of entail. (substantif.) Le —, the heir of entail.

GREYER, gruh-vay, va. 1 to wrong, to aggrieve, to injure. 2 (élargir) to burden, to encumber. Les impôts qui grevaient le pauvre peuple, the taxes with which the poorer classes were burdened. Bar. (by extension) Les pertes de lundi vont — notre budget, Monday's losses will swell our budget. Ab.

GRIANNEAU, gre-yah-no, sm. orn. young grouse.

GRIBLETTE, gre-blet, sf. broiled force-meat.

GRIBOUILLAGE, gre-hoo-yazb, sm. doub, scrawl.

GRIBOUILLER, gre-hoo-yay, sm. to doubt, to scrawl.

GRIBOUILLETTE, gre-hoo-yet, sf. (jeu) scramble, scrambling.

GRIÈCHE, gre-yayzh, adj. m. 1 bot. Orive —, prickly nettle. 2 ora. Pie —, speckled magpie; fig. shrew, vizen.

GRIEF, gre-yayf, adj. m. fem. enrêvé, (in a bad part) grievous. Un mal d'aventure fort — au bout de l'index, a very bad whitlow at the end of the forefinger. Nod.

CHIEF, sm. 1 injury, wrong. C'était un nouveau — dont le duc de B. avait à se plaindre, it was a fresh injury that the duke of B. had to complain of. Bar. 2 (sujet de plainte) grievance. J'ai plusieurs —s contre lui, I have several causes of complaint against him.

GRIÈVEMENT, gre-yayv-mang, adv. grievously, seriously.

GRIÈVETE, gre-yayv-tay, sf. enormity.

GRIFFADE, gre-fad, sf. 1 scratch. 2 hawk. clawing.

GRIFFE, grif, sf. 1 claw. 2 extremity of the paws. Toucher entre les —s d'un lion, to fall under a lion's paw. La — d'un chat, d'un tigre, the claws of a cat, of a tiger. Le chat lui a donné un coup de —, the cat gave him a scratch. fig. Donner un coup de — à quelqu'un, lui donner de la —, to speak ill of a person. 3 fig. (domination) clutches. Je suis sous sa —, I am in his clutches. 4 stamped signature. Tous les exemplaires de cet ouvrage sont revêtus de la — de l'éditeur, all the copies of this work bear the signature of the publisher. 5 gard. offset.

GRIFFER, gre-yaf, va. 1 hawk. to claw. 2 (donner un coup de griffe) to scratch. Quand on le grondait, je griffais les sœurs, when she was scolded, I scratched the sisters. Chat. Le chat l'a griffé, the cat has scratched him.

GRIFON, gre-fong, sm. 1 orn. griffin. 2 (animal fabuleux) griffin. 3 (espèce de chien) griffon.

GRIFONNET, gre-fô-nazh, sm. scrawl, scribble.

GRIFONNET, gre-fô-nay, ro. 1 to scrawl, to scribble. Je griffonnai mon nom comme je pus, I scribbled my name as well as I could. Ab. 2 fig. (composer) to scribble. 3 (dessiner grossièrement) to rough-draw.

GRIFONEUR, gre-fô-nulir, sm. scrawler, scribbler. (disparagingly) (d'un auteur) scribbler.

GRIGNON, gre-nyong, sm. hard crust.

GRIGNOTER, gre-nyo-tyay, va. 1 to nibble. (transitivement) L'habitué qu'elle avait de — une gousse d'ail par friandise, the habit she had of nibbling a clove of garlic as a dainty. Ab. 2 fig. pop. to get some pickings out of a thing.

GRIGNOTIS, gre-nyo-tee, sm. engrav. dotted lines.

GRIGOU, gre-goo, sm. curmudgeon, miserly hunk. C'est on —, un franc —, he is a curmudgeon, a regular curmudgeon. Il vit comme un —, he lives like a miserly hunk.

GRILL, gre, sm. gridiron. Côtelettes de mouton rôties sur le —, broiled mutton chops. La queue du —, the handle of the gridiron. fig. Etre sur le —, to be on tenter-hooks, to be in a stew.

GRILLADE, gre-yad, sf. 1 broiling. 2 (viandes grillées) slices of broiled meat.

GRILLAGE, gre-yayzh, sm. roasting. 2 wirework, grating. 3 arch. frame.

GRIFFE, gre-yuh, sf. 1 bars. 2 (dans le parlour des religieuses) grating. 3 absol. (le parlour) grated parlour, grating. 4 (dans une église de religieuses) grating. 5 (cloître) palisades, iron grate, iron-rails, iron railing. 6 (d'un fourneau) grate. — de feu, grate. 7 her. grating. 8 (paraphe) grating. 9 tennis-grill.

GRILLÉ, ppa. of GRILLER, fem. —E, 1 Des côtelettes —es, broiled chop. Les vignerons ont été —es, the vines have been scorched. (hyperb.) Nous étions —s par le soleil, we were scorched by the sun.

GRILLE, ppa. of GRILLER, fem. —E, Fenêtre —e, grated window. Loner une loge —e, a box, to hire a close box at the opera.

GRILLER, gre-yay, ra. 1 to broil, to toast. 2 (de l'action du feu) to burn, to scorch. 3 (de la chaleur du soleil) to scorch, to parch. 4 (hyperb.) to scorch, to roast. Le soleil nous grillait, the sun scorched us.

GRILLER, vpr. to be scorched, burnt up.

GRILLER, rn. 1 to broil. Faites — ces côtelettes, broil these chops. 2 fig. to long, to desire earnestly. Je grille de vous embrasser, I long to embrace you. Volt. J'ai un tel renom à L., que tout le monde grille de me voir, I have got such a reputation at L. that they are all thirsting after my coming. Jacq. L'une grille déjà de couter la nouvelle, one of them is already burning with impatience to tell the news. La Font. — d'impatience, absol. —, to burn with impatience.

GRILLER, ra. 1 to grate, to rut in, off. Il faut — la fenêtre de ce cabinet, that closet-window must be grated. 2 — one fille, to shut a girl up in a convent.

GRILLET, gre-yay, sm. GRILLETTE, gre-yet, sf. her. hawk's bell.

GRILLETTE, gre-yuh-lay, adj. m. fem. —E, her. belled.

GRILLON, gre-yong, sm. ent. cricket.

GRIMAÇANT, gre-mah-say, vpr. of GRIMAÇER, 1 grinning, grimacing. Figure —e, grimacing face. 2 full of creases.

GRIMACE, gre-mas, sf. 1 grimace, a wrinkle. Un homme qui faisait des —s de pitié, a man who was making ugly faces, as if he were possessed. Montesp. Faire la — à quelqu'un, to grin at a person, to make faces, mouthe at a person; fig. to look sour. fig. (des choses, of things) Faire la —, to cease, to pucker. Cet habit, ce collet fait la —, this coat, this collar puckers. 2 fig. (feinte) sham, show, grimace, humbug. Ce qu'il fait, ce n'est que par —, what he does is nothing but a sham. 3 (bolle) pincushion wafer-box.

GRIMAÇER, gre-mah-say, rn. 1 to grimace, to make faces, wrinkle faces. 2 (de l'expression de la physionomie) to be distorted. fig. Là du moins si le mot grimace, la chanson s'en accommode, there, at least, if the word is forced, the song helps it out. St-B. 3 fig. (des habits, des études, etc., of dresses, stufts) to pucker.

GRIMAÇIER, gre-mah-syay, adj. m. fem. GRIMAÇIÈRE, 1 that makes grimaces, wrinkle faces. 2 (by extension) affected, stammering, faulx. 3 fig. (hypocrite) hypocritical. 4 (substantif) humbug.

GRIMAUD, gre-mo, sm. 1 anc. urchin, brat. 2 (by extension) A preuve que vos trois —s ont lâché pied, more by token that your three humpriffs shirked off. Saint. 3 (méchant cervin) scoldier. Mol.

GRIMAUD, adj. m. fem. —E, (des enfants, of children) cross, peevish. Un enfant — si violent, si —, a gesture so cross, so angry. Balz.

GRIME, greem, sm. 1 (disparagingly) urchin, brat. 2 (au théâtre) doltard. Jouer les —s. (adjectif.) Jouer les pères —s, to play the doltards.

GRIMER, gre-may, vpr. (théâtre) to paint wrinkles in one's face.

GRIMOIRE, gre-mwair, sm. 1 conjuring book. fig. pop. Savoir le —, to entre le —, to know what one is about, to be up to snuff. 2 fig. jargon, gibberish. Sans tant de fatras, de —s, travaillons, without so much balderdash and jargon let us set to work. La Font.

GRIMPANT, grang-pay, ppr. of GRIMPER, adj. m. fem. —E, Cet animal —, that climbing animal. La Font. bot. Plante —e, creeping plant, creeper.

GRIMPER, grang-pay, rn. 1 to climb, to climb up, to clamber. A ces mots, sur un arbre, il grimpe bel et bien, at these words, he straightly climbs up a tree. La Font. Le plus sage parti eût été de — sur l'une ou l'autre rive, the wisest course would have been to clamber up one of the banks. Ab. (transitivement) Un petit cheval tarare selle, brûlé, prêt à me — sur les montagnes, a little tartar horse all saddled and bridled, and ready to take me up the mountains. Jacq. 2 (des animaux, of animals) to climb. 3 (des plantes, of plants) to creep. Cette vigne a grimpé jusqu'au premier étage, that vine has crept up to the first story. fig. Les maisons semblaient — contre le roc et se suspendre aux flancs des collines, the houses seem to creep along the rock, and to hang on the sides of the hills. Lamart. 4 fig. (monter avec peine) to clamber up. Je n'aurais pas grimpé jusque chez toi, I should not have clambered up to your rooms. Ab.

GRIMPEREAU, grangp-ro, sm. orn. creeper.

GRIMPEURS, grang-puhr, sm. pl. orn. climbers.

GRINCEMENT, grangs-mang, sm. gnashing, grinding. scrip. Des pleurs et des —s de dents, weeping and gnashing of teeth.

GRINÇER, grang-say, ra. 1 — les dents, to gnash, to grind. Cela me fait — les dents, that sets my teeth on edge. 2 (intransitivement) — des dents, to gnash one's teeth.

GRINGOLÉ, grang-go-lay, adj. fem. —E, her. snake-headed.

GRINGOTTER, grang-go-tay, rn. 4 (des petits oiseaux, of little birds) to warble. 2 (transitivement) — un air, to hum an air.

GRLOTTE, gryot, sf. hort. agriot, black cherry.

GRLOTTE, sm. min. a sort of speckled marble.

GRUOTIER, gre-yo-tyay, sm. hort. agriot-tree, black-cherry tree.

GRIPPE, grip, sf. 4 absol. whim, hobby. 2 fam. Se prendre de — contre quelqu'un, to take a dislike to a person. A continuer vous me prendrez en —, If I were to go on so you would take me in dislike. Jacq. 3 med. influenza.

GRIPPE, ppa. of GRIPPER, fem. —E, 4 seized. Comme elles l'avaient dit, la bête fut —e, as they had said, the animal was seized. La Font. 2 Ette —, to have the influenza.

GRIPPER, gre-pay, ra. 1 to seize, to lay hold of, to snatch up. Le chat grappe-fromage, the cheese-stealing cat. La Font. 2 (by extension) pop. (derover) to steal, to purloin. 3 pop. — quelqu'un, to nab a person.

GRIPPE-SOÜ, sm. pl. GRIPPE-SOÜ, 1 anc. rent-collector. 2 pop. skin-flint.

SE GRIPPER, vpr. 4 (des études, of stufts) to shrivel, to shrivel up, to shrink. 2 (se prévenir sans raison) to take a dislike.

GRIS, gre, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 gray, grey. Yeux —, gray eyes. Un homme à barbe —e, a gray-bearded man. Ette tout —, to be quite gray. Papier —, grey paper, brown paper. Il fait un temps —, it falls a —, it is cloudy weather. Via —, pale wine. fig. Faire —e mine à quelqu'un, to give a person a black look. Et faire voir des —es à quelqu'un, to play a person all kinds of tricks. Patrouille —e, night patrol. 2 tipsy. Ette —, un peu —, to be tipsy, flustered. 3 pilkt. Lettre —e, a flourished letter gris, sm. (couleur) gray, grey. — blanc, grayish. (adjectif.) Couleur — d'opale, pearl-gray. Étiole — de lin, gruelin stuff. Habit — brun, brown-gray stuff. fig. Si les pensées d'y sont pas tout à fait noires, elles y sont au moins — brun, if my thoughts there are not quite black, they are at least gloomy. Ma de Sév. 2 Vert-de —, verdigris. 3 zool. Petit —, miniver.

GRISAILLE, gre-zah-yuh, sf. 1 comateu. 2 (pour faire des perruques) grizzly hair.

GRISAILLER, gre-zah-yay, ra. to paint gray.

GRISATRE, gre-zitr adj. ms. grayish. Par un temps — d'automne, one gloomy day in autumn. Chat GRISER, gre-zay, ra. 1 to intoxicate, to make tipsy. 2 (des liqueurs, etc.) to intoxicate, to make tipsy, drunk, to fuddle.

SE GRISER, vpr. to get drunk, tipsy, intoxicated, fuddled.

GRISÉ, gre-zay, sm. orn. young gold-finch.

GRISSETTE, gre-zet, sf. 1 gray-gown. 2 (jeune fille) grisette.

GRISOLLER, gre-zo-lay, rn. to corol.

GRISON, gre-zong, adj. m. fem. —E, 4 gray, hoary. Poil —, gray hair. (substantif.) Un homme tirait sur le —, a man whose hair was turning gray. La Font. 2 (substantif) gray-beard. 3 (substantif) anc. epy dressed in gray. 4 (substantif) pop. ass. L'âner et le fient à l'éponge raison, Grizzle and his driver followed the example of the sponge. La Font.

GRISONNANT, gre-zo-nang, ppr. of GRISONNER, adj. m. fem. —E, Un lieutenant de cavalerie aux moustaches —es, a cavalry lieutenant with grizzled moustaches. Pb. Chas.

GRISONNER, gre-zo-nay, rn. to get gray, to turn gray. Moi qui ai grisonné là derrière vos pères, I who have grown gray, standing there behind your fathers. Nod. (by extension) Déjà le blanc matin fait — l'ombre, the morning light already turns the shadows gray. Nuss. Un habit noir que le temps faisait —, a black coat that was growing gray with age. Pb. Chas.

GRISOU, gre-zoo, sm. 1 fire-damp. Explosion de —, fire-damp explosion. 2 (adjectif.) Le feu —, fire-damp.

GRIVE, greov, sf. orn. thrush. Être soûl comme une —, to be as tipsy as a thrush in a vineyard.

GRIVÈLE, griv-lay, adj. m. fem. —E, speckled.

GRIVELER, griv-lay, ra. to embezzle, to pilfer.

GRIVELER, rn. to embezzle, to pilfer.

GRIVOIS, gre-vois, sm. fem. —E, 1 fam. jovial fellow. 2 (adjectif.) fam. jolly, gross.

GRÖENLAND, gro-ang-lang, sm. Greenland.

GRÖENLANDAIS, gro-ang-lang-day, adj. m. fem. —E, Greenland. (substantif.) Greenlander.

GROG, gro, sm. (Eng.) grog.

GROGNARD, gro-nyar, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 grumbling, growling. 2 (substantif.) grumbler, growler. 3 (substantif.) (particul.) old soldier of the first French empire.

GROGNEMENT, gro-nyoh-mang, sm. 1 grunt. (by extension) (des animaux, of animals) growl, snarl, growling. 2 fig. (des personnes, of persons) grumbling, growling.

GROGNER, gro-nyay, ra. 1 to grunt. (by extension) Le chien s'étendit au pied d'un rocher en grognant entre ses dents, the dog stretched himself out at the foot of a rock, and gave a low growl. Ab. 2 fig. (des personnes, of persons) to grumble, to growl. — entre les dents, to mutter.

GROGNEUR, gro-nyuhr, adj. m. fem.

croqueuse, 1 grumbling, growling. 2 (substantiv.) grumbler, growler.

GROGNON, gro-nyon, adj. vif. 1 grumbling, growling. 2 (substantiv.) Laissez la cettie vieille —, let that grumbling old woman alone.

GROIN, groo-ang, sm. snout.

GROLLE, grol, cf. Sec. REUX.

GROMELER, grom-lay, in. to mutter, to grumble. Que gromelles-tu entre tes dents ? what are you muttering between your teeth ? Nod.

GRONDANT, groong-dang, ppr. of GROUNDER, adj. m. fem. —, 1 grumbling, roaring, scolding. (by extension) Les notes graves et —es de sa parole, the deep hollow tones of his voice. Lamart.

GRONDE, ppa. of GROUNDER, fem. —, E. Celui qu'elle aime le mieux est le mieux —, him whom she is the fondest of she scolds the most. St-B.

GRONDEMENT, groong-mang, sm. (du tonnerre, of the thunder) rumbling, roaring, roar.

GROUNDER, groong-dang, in. 1 to grumble, to mutter. Elle gronde pourtant, mais d'une gronderie qui n'est qu'à elle, she scolds however, but in a way peculiar to herself. St-B. 11 gronde contre vous, he is scolding at you. Qui n'a quelquefois grondé hors de saison ? who has not had ill-timed fits of grumbling ? V. Illog. 2 (des animaux, of animals) to growl. 3 (des choses, of things) to roar, to rumble, to thunder. L'orage grondait toujours, the storm was still roaring. Nod. J'entends — le canon, I hear the roar of the cannon.

GROUNDER, va. to scold, to chide, to rebuke.

GRONDERIE, groong-ree, cf. scolding, chiding.

GROUNDER, groong-dang, adj. m. fem. GROUNDEUSE, 1 scolding, chiding, grumbling. Humeur grondueuse, scolding temper. 2 (substantiv.) grumbler, scolder.

GIORDIN, groong-dang, sm. ich. gurnard, gurnet.

GROS, gro, adj. m. fem. —, 1 big, stout, thick, large. Un — homme, a stout man. —, votre, big belly. Les —es dents, the double teeth. Il est à peine une batterie qui pour elle soit trop —se à aviser, there is scarcely any flattery, however coarse, that she would not gulp down. St-B. Elle qui n'était pas —se eu tout comme un œuf, she who was not, like her self in all, bigger than an egg. La Font. Le glandier qui n'est pas — comme mon petit doigt, the acorn which is not so big as my little finger. La Font. Des cigarettes —ses comme le doigt, cigarettes as thick as one's finger. Ab. (d'un animal, of an animal) Faire le — dos, to set up its back ; || fig. to assume an air of consequence. priet De —ses lettres, de — caractères, large type, large print ; (by analogy) — canon, great canon ; — romain, great primer ; Cicéro — œil, pica with a large eye. arch. Les —s murs d'un bâtiment, the principal walls of a building. fig. Cet homme est — comme un bœuf, that man is as big as an ox. Il a plus d'esprit qu'il n'est —, he is as full of wit as an egg is full of meat. Toucher la —se corde, to come to the main point. 2 (gonfle accidentellement) swelled, swollen, swum, big. Les rivières étaient —es, the rivers were swollen. Mich. Avoir les yeux — de larmes, to have one's eyes swollen with tears, swimming in tears. naut. La mer est —se, the sea is swelled. naut. — temps, strong weather, foul, squally weather. fig. Le cœur — de sentiments, et de souvenirs, the heart full of feeling and remembrances. Lalwart. fig. Avoir le cœur —, to have one's heart full. Le cœur — de soupçons, with the heart ready to burst. Muss. Un passe — du même avenir, a past pregnant with the same future. V. Hug. Cette année 1762 me paraît —se de grands évé-

ments, this year 1762 appears to me to be big with great events. D'Alemh. 3 (d'une femme enceinte) pregnant, big with child, in the family-way, gone. 4 (par opposition à fin) coarse, thick, heavy. — fil, coarse thread. —se toile, coarse linen. Avec ses —s habits de paysanne, with her coarse peasant's dress. Mich. —soulèr, thick, heavy shoes. — pain, coarse bread. — vin, heavy wine. —se viande, butcher's meat — vert, — bleu, etc., cabbage green, dark blue. fig. 11 affecte l'expression large et pleine, un pen —se, he affects a broad full style, somewhat coarse. St-B. fig. N'avoir qu'un — honneur, to have nothing but plain good sense. — rire, loud laugh. — mots, —s, || hard words, high words. Anx —ses paroles on en vient, they come to high words. La Font. — juron, big oath. —ses vérités, self-evident truths ; || home truths. 5 (considérable) large, heavy, great. 1 Une —se rivière, a large river. Une —se somme d'argent, a large sum of money. Faire une —se dépense, to spend a great deal. Joner — jeu, to play high, desp. —se réparation, heavy repair. —se voix, rough voices. Faire la —se voix, to speak gruff. —pêche, great sin. Un — rhume, a bad cold. Faire une —se maladie, to be seriously ill. —se querelle, great quarrel. fig. Jouer — jeu, to risk very much. 6 (riche) rich, great. Un — marchand, a rich merchant. —B qui est le plus —s allié de mon hôte, B. who is the most important of the allies of my host. Jacq. Les parents du loap, — messieurs, l'ont fait apprendre à lire, the relations of the wolf, who were great folks, had him taught reading. La Font.

GROS, sm. 1 trunk, body, main body, greatest part, chief part. Le — de l'arbre, See ARBRE. Pendant le — de la chaleur, when the heat was at its highest degree. De Bross. Le — de la cour était pendant tout cela 2, the principal part of the court was in the meantime at. St-B. Avant que le — de leur armée ait pu venir à leur secours, before their main body could come to their assistance. Bar. Un — de cavalerie, d'infanterie, de fantassins, etc., a body of cavalry, of infantry, of foot-soldiers. Pour tout le — du monde, cela est vrai, for most people that is over. Nua de Sér. 2 (par opposition à détail) wholesale, principal part. Le — de la besogne, the principal part of the business. 3 (par opposition à casuel) fixed revenue, income. 4 (par opposition à distribution) revenue, income. 5 (druité) full on wine sold by wholesale. 6 anc. (poids) dram, drachm, eighth part of an ounce. Un — d'argent, a drachm of silver. Un — de sole, a dram of silk. 7 — de Naples, — de Tours, gros de Naples, program.

chos, adv. much, a great deal. Il y avait — à gagner avec lui, there was much to be gained with him. Ab. (jeu, at cards) Coucher —, to play high. prov. fig. Il y a — à parler que, it is ten to one that chos (ten), adv. loc. 1 (de marchandises) wholesale. Marchand en —, wholesale dealer. Faire le commerce en —, to carry on a wholesale trade. 2 (d'une affaire, etc.) in sum and substance, in general, in a summary way. La ville ne m'a pas plu en — autant que d'autres, upon the whole the town did not please me as much as many others. De Bross. GROS (TOUT EN), adv. loc. pop. in all. De GROS EN GROS, adv. loc. fig. roughly. Je levai de — en — une carte du terrain. I took a hasty sketch of the place. De Bross.

gros-BEC, sm. pl. gros-BECs, ora. gross-beak, grosbeak.

GIOS (A.-J., baron), a French painter, born in 1771, died in 1835.

GROSILLE, gro-zay-juh, sf. bot.

currant. — rouge, red currant. — blanche, white currant. —s confies, currant jelly. — à maquerane, — verte, gooseberry, green gooseberry.

GROSILLIER, gro-zay-jay, sm. bot. currant-bush, tree ; gooseberry-bush, tree. — noir, black currant-bush, tree.

GROSSE, grôss, sf. gross. com. 1 Une — de soie, a gross of silk. 2 gross, twelve dozen. Vendre à la —, to sell by twelve dozen.

GROSSE, cf. 1 callig. left-hand. 2 law. (d'un contrat, etc., of a deed, etc.) engrossed copy, engrossment. 3 La — d'un procès-verbal, the copy of an official report.

GROSSEIRE, grôss-ree, sf. 1 tech. iron-ware, ironmongery. 2 (commerce en gros) wholesale.

GROSSESSE, grôss -saze, sf. pregnancy.

GROSSEUR, gro-subr, sf. 1 bigness, thickness, size. La — d'une personne, d'un arbre, d'une boule, the size of a person, of a tree, of a bowl. Une haquette de la — du petit doigt, a stick of the thickness of the little finger. Elle se travaille pour égaler l'animal en —, she swells herself out to attain the size of the animal. La Font. 2 (tumour) swelling.

GROSSI, grôss, ppa. of GROSSIR, sm. —s, swollen. Raison —s, grapes swelled out. Des travaux qui des torrents —s arrêtent les ravages, works which stop the ravages of the swollen torrents. La Font. Ces dettes —es par les intérêts, those debts swelled by the accumulation of interest. fig. Le tumulte — par les cris de la faim, the tumult heightened by the cries of hunger. Lamart.

GROSSIER, gro-syay, adj. m. fem. GROSSIÈRE, 1 coarse, thick, gross. Elle a les traits —s, she has coarse features, she is coarse-featured. 2 (des aliments, of food) coarse, homely, gross. 3 (qui n'est pas délicatement fait) coarse, clumsy, rough. Ebanche imparfaite et grossière, rough draft. 4 fig. (rad) unpolished, boorish, rude, homely, uneducated, unfined. Des dehors —s, homely exterior. Language —, coarse, homely language. 5 (malhonnête) unmannered, unannexer, unpolite, rude. Un — personnage, a rude, vulgar fellow. (substantiv.) a rude, vulgar person. 6 fig. (morally) gross. Erreur, faute grossière, gross error, fault. Ne donner qu'une idée grossière de quelque chose, etc., to give but a very imperfect idea of a thing.

GROSSIÈREMENT, gro -syaiz-mang, adv. rudely, coarsely, fig. Parier, répondre —, to speak, to answer rudely. 2 law. imperfectly, in a summary way.

GROSSIÈRETE, gro-syaiz-tay, sf. 1 coarseness. La — d'une étoffe, d'un drap, d'une toile, the coarseness of a stuff, of a piece of cloth, of linen. La — des traits, the coarseness of the features. 2 fig. (rude) rudeness, roughness. La — d'un peuple barbare, the rudeness of a barbarous people. Les temps de —, the times of rudeness. 3 (impolitesse) rudeness, impoliteness. 4 (parole, action) rude, impolite word, action. 5 fig. (morally) (d'une erreur, d'une illusion, of an error, of an illusion) grossness.

GROSSIR, gro-seer, ra. (from gross) 1 to swell, to increase, to make larger, bigger. Un ruisseau que la marée montante avait grossi, a stream that the rising tide had swollen. Ang. Th. Approche et viens — notre joyeuse troupe, come and swell the number of our merry band. Muss. De leurs dépouilles enfus grossissent vos trésors, increase your treasures with their spoils. Rac. De nouveaux bourgeois viennent — la dépopulation. Br. Elle se réjouissait presque d'un malheur qui devait — sa dot, she almost rejoiced at a misfortune which was to make her portion greater. Ab. 11 a pris un habit qui le grossit, qui lui grossit la taille, he has taken a coat which makes his waist appear larger. 2 (faire paraître gros) to magnify. Lannette qui grossit les objets, glass which magnifies objects. 3 (exagérer) to magnify. Ils veulent que l'hérétique qu'ils prennent à ces choses les grossisse à vos yeux, they wish you to take such an interest in those things as to make them appear of more importance in your eyes. Montez. D'immenses richesses que l'imagination cupide grossissait encore, immense riches that a grasping imagination made still greater. Villem. Les G. grossissaient ces figures sans y croire, the G. magnified those figures without believing in them. Lamart. — sa voix, to speak in a gruff voice.

SE GROSSIR, prp. to become, to grow, to get bigger, larger, to increase, to swell, to magnify. Leur bande se grossissait en route de tout ce qu'elle rencontrait de laborieux, the husbandmen they met on the road came to increase their band. Aug. 1b. Le rassemblement se grossissait de tous ces hommes, all these men swelled the crowd. Lamart.

GROSSIR, en. to become, to get, to grow slower, larger, bigger, to swell, to increase, to magnify, to grow thicker, to thicken. Je trouve que vous avez bien grossi depuis un an, I find you have grown much slower within the last year. Les raisins grossissent à vue d'œil, grapes swell visibly. Pendant que l'armée des princes grossissait à C., whilst the army of the princes was growing larger at C. Lamart. Les pas du peuple inquiet, qui à chaque instant grossissait sous leurs fenêtres, the footsteps of the anxious multitude which at every moment grew denser under their windows. Lamart. Aller en grossissant, to go on increasing. Il vit l'orage qui grossissait de tous les côtés, he saw the storm which thickened on all sides. Volt. prov. fig. La pelote grossit, the snow-ball increases the further it rolls.

GROSSISSEMENT, gro-sis-mang, sm. magnifying.

GROSSO MODO, gro-so-mo-do, adé. loc. fam. summarily.

GROSSOYER, gro-swà-yay, ea. conjug. Like EMPLOYER, to engross (one obligation, one contract, one obligation, a contract).

GROTESQUE, gro-tesk, adj. mf. 1 (bizarre) grotesque. (laustant) —, pi. grotesque figuré. 2 fig. (ridicule) grotesque, queer, odd. 3 sm. lit. fine arts. grotesque. 4 sm. (danseur bouffon) grotesque dancer.

GROTESQUEMENT, gro-tys-kah-mang, adé. grotesquely.

GROTTE, groi, sf. (It. grotta) grotto, grot.

GROUILLANT, groo-yang, prp. of GROUILLER, adj. m. fem. —, stirring, crawling. Ils sont en vie et tout —, se vous assure, they are alive and kicking. I assure you. Ph. Chas. Tout — de vers, de vermine, crawling with maggots and vermin.

GROUILLEMENT, groo-yub-mang, sm. grumbling, rumbling (des intestins, of the bowels).

GROUILLER, groo-yay, ra. 1 pop. to stir. 2 (du ventre, of the belly) to grumble. 3 (tourmenter) to swarm, to crawl.

GROUIN, groo-ang, sm. See GROIN.

GROUP, group, sm. com. bag of money.

GROUPE, group, sm. 1 sculpt. paint. group. 2 (certain nombre de personnes) group, knot. Un — de dormeurs, a group of sleepers. (by extension) Il représente à merveille dans son —, cette bourgeoisie, in his group, he depicts with great fidelity those middle-classes. St-B. 3 (réunion d'objets) group, cluster, clump. Plu-sieurs — d'îles, several groups of islands. Un — d'arbres, a clump of trees.

GROUPER, groo-pay, ra. 1 paint. sculpt. to group. 2 arch. — des colonnes, to group columns. 3 (réunir) to group together. — les mots par famille, to group words together by families. — les faits, les exemples, to group together analogous facts, examples. (by extension) L'offensive grogna les factions, factions unite to attack. Lamart.

SE GROUPER, prp. to crowd, to gather, to group, to group together. Ses filles se groupaient toutes en ce moment autour d'elle, her daughters at that moment all gathered round her. Lamart. Ils se groupaient sur les marches de la tribune, they crowded together on the steps of the tribune. Lamart.

GROUPE, en. paint. sculpt. to group. GRAU, grô-o, sm. 4 bot. meal, oatmeal, grits, groats. — d'avoine, d'orge, de froment, oatmeal, barley meal, wheat meal. 2 (bouillie, tisane) gruel. 3 Pain de —, fine wheat bread.

GRUE, grû, sf. (Lat. grus) 1 orn. crane. Une bande de —, a flight of cranes. fig. Con de —, long neck. prov. fig. Faire le pied de —, to dance attendance. pop. to stand kicking one's heels. 2 fig. (plais) simpleton, goose. 3 astr. the crane.

CRUE, sf. (machine) crane. GUERIE, grû-rec, sf. anc. law. wood-mote.

GRUGER, grû-zhay, ra. 1 to crunch, to crunch, to scratch (des croûtes, du sucre, crusts, sugar). 2 (in joke) to eat up. P., fort grugement, ouvre l'huître et la gruge, P. very gravely opens the oyster, and gobbles it up. La Font. fam. — quelqu'un, to pluck a person, to lie upon a person. On nous mange, on nous gruge, we are eaten up, plundered. La Font.

GRUNE, grûm, sf. woods and forests. uncut timber.

GRUNEAU, grû-mo, sm. clot, lump. Des — de sang, clots of blood. Une bouillie pleine de —, pap full of lumps.

SE GRUNELEUR, grûm-lay, prp. to clot. GRUNELEUX, grûm-leh, adj. m. fem. GRUNELEUSE, a clotted, clotty. Sang —, clotted blood. 2 (by extension) rough. Bols —, rough wood.

GRUYER, grû-yay, adj. m. fem. GRUYÈRE, a like a crane. Faisan —, crane pheasant. 2 hawk. Faucon —, hawk for the crane.

GRUYER, adj. m. 1 anc. Seigneur —, a lord having certain claims on the wood of his fassal. 2 anc. chief forester, warden of a forest.

GRUYÈRE, grû-yayr, sm. gruyère cheese.

GUANO, gûah-no, sm. guano.

GUÉ, gay, sm. ford. Passer la rivière à —, to ford the river. fig. Sonder le —, to feel the pulse, to throw up a feeler.

GUEABLE, gay-abt, adj. mf. fordable. GUEBRES, gaybr, sm. pl. Guebres, Guebres.

GUEDE, gayd, sf. bot. wood, dyer's wood, pastel.

GUEUER, gay-day, ra. obsol. to cram, to stuff.

SE GUEUER, prp. obsol. to cram, to stuff one's self.

GUEER, gay-ay, ra. — on cheval, to water a horse. — do liège, to wash linen.

GUELFE, gaylf, sm. Gueff, Gueff.

GUENILLE, guh-ne-yub, sf. 1 rag. fig. C'est profaneur le nom de livres que de le donner à ces — s barboillées de noir, it is profaning the name of book to apply it to those rags besmeared with black. Nod. 2 (by extension) (hardes vieilles) rag, tatter. 3 fig. rag, piece of rubbish. Le corps, cette —, the body, that piece of rubbish. Nol.

GUENILLON, guh-ne-yong, sm. dimin. little rag.

GUENIPE, guh-nip, sf. 1 pop. slut, sluttern. 2 drab.

GUENON, guh-nong, sf. 1 zool. pouched monkey. 2 vulg. (femelle du singe) she-monkey. 3 fig. (femme très-laide) fright, ugly woman. Un visage de —, an ugly face. 4 fig. drab.

GUENCHE, guh-nish, sf. young she-monkey. fig. C'est one — coiffée, she is an ope in petticoats.

GIEPE, gayp, sf. ent. wasp. fig. Une taille de —, a very slender shape.

GUEPIER, gay-pay, sm. 4 wasp's nest. prov. fig. Tomber, donner dans le —, dans on, to fall into a nest of horns. (by analogy) Ne vous engagez pas dans cette affaire, c'est un vrai —, don't engage in that affair, it is a regular nest of horns. 2 orn. bee-eater.

GUERDON, gay-dong, sm. anc. guerdon, reward, recompense.

GUERDONNER, gay-don-nay, ea. obsol. to guerdon, to reward, to recompense.

GUERE, poetic. GUERES, gayr, adé. 1 little, but little, not over, but few. Ils se sont — moins terribles aux amis qu'aux ennemis, they are scarcely less dreaded by their friends than by their foes. Mich. Pardonnerez cela n'arrive —, to pardon! that happens but seldom. La Font. Ce vin n'est — bon, this wine is not over good. — on ne peut — en dire plus de mal que je n'en pense, you cannot say much more harm of it than I think. Ph. Chas. Il ne s'en est — fallu, it had nearly happened. La guerre ne dura —, the war was but a short one. 2 (saivi de que, followed by que) scarcely, hardly. Je ne vois — que lui qui soit capable de faire cela, I see scarcely any one but him capable of doing that. Ce mot ne s'emploie —, n'est — employé que dans cette phrase, that word is but little used, is only used in this phrase.

GUERET, gay-ray, sm. 1 fallow land. 2 poetic. feld.

GUERI, gay-rec, ppa. of GUÉRIR, fem. —, a recovered. Lorsqu'il fut — de ses blessures, when he was cured of his wounds. 2 (des maladies, of illness) cured. Il est — de son ambition, he is cured of his ambition. Nous en devrions être — s de nos jours, we ought to be cured of it now-a-days. St-B.

GUERIDON, gay-re-dong, sm. round table, stand.

GUÉRIR, gay-reer, ra. 1 to cure, to heal. Il va jusqu'à leur faire croire qu'il les guérit en les touchant, he even goes so far as to make them believe he cures them by touching them. Montesq. Vous êtes docteur, vous devez me —, you are a doctor, you ought to cure me. Ab. Ses caresses me guériront, her caresses will cure me. Balz. La plante guérit — elle son homme? did complaining ever cure a man? La Font. absol. L'art de —, the art of healing, leechcraft. 2 (des maux, des maladies, of illness) to cure. — la fièvre, to cure the fever. Je guérirai vos écorchures, I will cure your excoriations. Ab. fig. Le trépas vient tout —, death is a sure remedy for all. La Font. fig. — les maux de l'état, to remedy the evils of the State. 3 fig. (des maux du cœur, de l'esprit, of misapplication) to cure. C'est qui ne guérit ni le malade de son mal, ni le médecin de son ignorance, a thing which neither cures the patient of his disease, nor the physician of his ignorance. Montesq. Si cela pouvait le — de son indiscretion, if that could but cure him of his indiscretion.

SE GUÉRIR, prp. to cure one's self, to get cured, healed, to be cured, healed, to recover. Sugez seulement — vous —, think only of getting well again. des maux, des maladies, of illness) to be cured. fig. Heureux pays, où les blessés du cœur se guérissent avec des pièces de cinq francs, happy country, in which the wounds of the heart are cured with five franc pieces. Ab.

GUÉRIR, ra. 1 to recover, to get cured.

ans compter quelques blessés qui ne guériront pas, without reckoning a few wounded who will not recover. Ab. 2 (des maux, des parties malades) to heal up, to get cured, to get well again. fig. On ne guérit point de la peur, fear is not to be cured. Tu n'es que immortelle, et ton cœur va —, thy soul is immortal, and thy heart will find a cure. Muss.

GUÉRISON, gay-re-zong, sf. 1 (de la suite) recovery. 2 (des maux, des maladies) of illness cure.

GUÉRISABLE, gay-re-sabl', adj. mf. curable.

GUERITE, gay-reet, sf. 1 sentry-box. prov. fig. Gagner la —, to scamper away, to run off. 2 (d'une maison) watch-tower.

GUERRE, gayr, sf. 1 war, warfare. La — de trente ans, the Thirty years' war. Les lois de la —, the laws of warfare. Le droit de la —, military men.

Place de —, fortified place. Ministre de la —, war-minister. Un grand homme de —, a great warrior. Faire la —, to make war. Avoir la —, to be at war.

Nom de —, a borrowed name, nickname. Petite —, desultory warfare, guerilla warfare; I shall fight, mimic warfare.

— civile, — intestine, civil war, intestine broils. — sainte, holy war. — d'extermination, — à outrance, war of extermination, war to the knife. fig. Cela est de bonne —, that is fair. prov. fig. La — nourrit la —, war feeds itself.

À la — comme à la —, one must take things as they come. 2 (l'art militaire) the art of war.

Get homme est toujours en — avec ses voisins, that man is always at war with his neighbours. Cette — de plume dura longtemps, that paper war lasted a long time. fig. Déclarer, faire la — aux abos, aux préjugés, to declare war against abuses, prejudices. Les éléments se font la — les uns aux autres, the elements wage war against each other. fig. Faire la — à quelqu'un, to tease, to plague a person. Faire la — aux mots, to criticize words. Faire la — à l'œil, to take measures according to the emergency of affairs. Elle finit, de — lasse, par consentir à jurer, at length, quite tired out, she consented to take an oath. Mich.

poetic. Faire la — aux habitants du désert, to make the forest. prov. fig. Qui terre a —, he who has land, has warfare. 4 (des animaux, of animals) war. Les animaux entre eux ont — de tout temps, animals are always in a state of war with each other. La Fout.

GUERRIER, gay-ryay, adj. m. fem. GUERRIÈRE, 1 warlike, martial. 2 (propre à la guerre) warlike, martial. Humeur guerrière, warlike disposition. Courage —, martial courage. 3 (substantif) warrior. 4 (substantif) poetic warrior.

GUERROYANT, gay-ryà-yàng, ppr. of GUERROYER, adj. m. fem. — 2, Humeur —, fighting temper.

GUERROYER, gay-ryà-yay, vn. to war, to make, to wage war. Il commence à — contre les navires turcs, he began to make war upon the Turkish ships. Ab. Ce n'est pas pour se nourrir uniquement qu'il guerroye, he does not make war merely for the sake of procuring food. Mich.

GUERROYEUR, gay-ryà-yuhr, sm. warrior.

GUET, gay, sm. 1 watch. Avoir l'œil —, to have the eye on —, to be on the watch. On avait mis des gens au —, people were set to be on the look-out. La Fout.

Notre lievre dépendant faisait le —, our hare however was on the watch. La Fout. Ce chien est de très-bon —, that dog keeps very good watch. 2 obsol. (surveillance) watch. 3 acc. (soldat) watch. anc. (troupe) — 2 pied, the watch on foot. — 3 cheval, the horse-patrol, the mounted patrol. 5 Mot du —, watch-word.

GUET-APENS, sm. 1 ambush, lying in wait, trap, felony. 2 fig. (trap, foul play).

GUÊTRE, gaytr', sf. gaiter. fig. Laisser ses — quelque part, to lay one's bones somewhere. fig. pop. Tirer ses —, to scamper away, to run off.

GUÊTRER, gay-tray, va. to gaiter. se GUÊTRER, ipr. to gaiter one's self, to put on one's gaiters.

GUÊTTER, gay-lay, va. (from guet) 1 to watch, to be on the watch for. Ce dernier guettait à toute heure les poules d'un fermier, the latter was at every moment on the watch for a farmer's chickens. La Fout. 2 fig. (attendre au passage, etc.) to wait for, to lie in wait for. Ils sont presque tous au rivaige à — une proie, they are almost all on the shore waiting for a prey. Mich. Un chat qui des longtemps le guettait au passage, a cat which had long been lying in wait for him La Fout. Il y passa ses jours, guettant l'occasion, he spent his days there watching for an opportunity. Bar.

GUÊTEUR, gay-tubr, sm. naut. signal-man, look-out.

GUILLARD, guh-lar, sm. fem. — 2, 1 pon. bawler. 3 tech. furnace-mouth.

GUËLE, guhl, sf. (Lat. gula) 1 mouth, jaws. La — d'un chien, the mouth of a dog; d'un crocodile, d'un requin, etc., the jaws of a crocodile, a shark, etc. — béante, open mouth, mouth wide open. 2 pop. (disparagingly) des personnes, of persons' mouth. Avoir la — fendue jusqu'aux oreilles, to have a mouth that stretches from ear to ear. fig. Certain babillent à la — affamée, a certain hungry boaster. Boil. prov. pop. Être fort en —, to have the gift of the gab. Une fille suivante, un peu trop forte en —, a waiting maid with too great a gift of the gab. Mol. pop. fig. Venir la — enflée, to come with one's winking confidence. 3 (by analogy) La — d'un four, the mouth of an oven; d'une croche, of a picher. Charger un canon jusqu'à la —, to load a gun up to the muzzle. 4 bot. Fleur, corolle en —, labiated flower, corol. 5 arch. — droite, gula recta, cymatium. — reversée, gula inversa. 6 ven. Chasser de —, to give tongue.

GUËLE BÊE, sf. water-fall.

GUËLE DE LOUP, sf. bot. dragon flower.

GUËLLE, guh-lay, sf. large mouthful.

GUËLER, guh-lay, vn. 1 vulg. to bawl. 2 (transitivement) hant. (d'un levrier, of a greyhound) to take up.

GUËLES, guhl, sf. ber. gulas.

GUËSAILLE, guh-zah-yuh, sf. pop. low set, set of beggars, raffra, rabble.

GUËSAILLER, guh-zay-yay, vn. pop. to beg.

GUËSANT, guh-zàng, ppr. of GUËSER, vn. m. fem. — 2, obsol. begging.

GUËSARD, guh-zar, sm. beggar, blackguard.

GUËSE, guhz, sf. 1 pig-iron, sow. Fer en —, pig-iron. 2 (at billiards) Être en —, avoir de la —, to be moshed by the post.

GUËUSER, guh-zay, vn. 1 to beg. 2 (transitivement) — son pain, to beg one's bread. Qui partout va guëusant de Feneens, who goes cringing for flattery. Mol.

GUËSERIE, guh-zee, sf. 1 beggary, destitution. 2 (mendicité) mendicity, mendicancy. 3 fig. rubbish, trash.

GUËUX, guh, adj. m. fem. GUËUSE, 1 distitue. C'est une famille fort guëuse, it is a very destitute family. prov. Être — comme un peintre, être — comme un rat d'église, comme un rat, to be as poor as a church-mouse. 2 (qui n'a pas de quoi) poor, beggarly, needy. 3 (substantif) beggar, mendicant. fig. A vous parler net, la Provence est une — parfumée, to speak candidly, Provence is a perfumed tatterdemalion. De Bross. Les —, sont des gens heureux, beggars alone are happy men. Bérang. 4 (substantif) (coquin) escamot, rascal, black-guard.

GUI, ghee, sm. bot. mistletoe.

GUICHET, ghee-shay, sm. 1 wicket. gale. Les — du Louvre, the gates of the Louvre. fig. Être pris au —, to be caught in the act of escaping. 2 (porte d'une armoire, d'un buffet) door. 3 (petite ouverture dans une porte) little window. — grille, grating.

GUICHETIER, gheesh-tyaz, sm. turn-key.

GUIDE, gheed, sm. 1 guide. Prends un — fidèle, take a faithful guide. Rae. fig. Le sentier que j'avais pris n'était pas un — bien sûr, the path I had taken was not a very sure guide. Ab. Payer les —, payer les — doubles, to pay the position, to pay the position double. 2 war. (particul.) — guide. 3 Fr. mil. guide. 4 mil. flagman. 5 fig. (qui donne des instructions) guide. 6 fig. (ce qui dirige) guide. — Condamnant la folie à servir de — à l'amour, condemning folly to serve as a guide to love. La Fout. 7 (titre de certains ouvrages) guide.

GUIDE, sf. reün. Conduire à grandes —, to drive four in hand.

GUIDER, ghee-day, ra. 1 to guide, to lead. fig. — à la gloire, to lead to glory. 2 (des choses, of things) to guide. 3 (diriger, gouverner) to manage, to lead, to drive, to steer. Mes yeux sont faibles, je peux à peine — ma plume, my eyes are weak, I can hardly guide my pen. Ph. Chas. Elle lui fit prendre la croix et lui saisit la main comme pour la —, she made him take the cross, and seized his hand as if to guide it. Muss. fig. Se laisser — par la raison, to suffer one's self to be guided by reason.

GUIDE-ÂNE, sm. 4 (pour l'ordre des fêtes, etc.) guide-book. 2 (en général) guide-book.

se GUIDER, ipr. 1 to guide one's self. 2 (se diriger) to guide one's self, to be guided. Me guidant sur le son des cloches dans la nuit, guiding myself by the sound of the bells in the dark. Lamart. fig. Se — d'après les conseils de quelqu'un, to be guided by the advice of a person.

GUIDON, ghee-dong, sm. 1 guidon. 2 (personne) guidon, standard-bearer, cornet. 3 (la charge) cornet. 4 (pour l'alignement) field-colours. 5 naut. broad pendant. 6 (manuel) guide. 7 mus. direct. 8 — de renvoi, reference.

GUIGNARD, ghee-nyar, sm. orn. dolterel.

GUIGNAU, ghee-nyau, sm. build. trimmer.

GUIGNE, ghee-nyuh, sf. hort. black-heart cherry.

GUIGNER, ghee-nyay, vn. to cast a sidelong glance, to leer. — de l'œil, to peep with the eye. — d'un œil, to peep with one eye.

GUIGNER, va. 1 to steal a look at, to look askance. V. cligna de l'œil en regardant Mlle L. V. leered at Mlle L. Balz. Guignant de l'œil son cher comptoir qu'il a vendu à un autre, stealing a look at his dear counter that he has sold to another. Ph. Chas. 2 fig. (former quelque dessein sur quelqu'un, etc.) to have in view, to have in one's eye. Il y a longtemps qu'il guigne cette héritière, he has long had that heiress in his eye. Il guigne cet emploi, he has that employment in view.

GUIGNER, va. to peep, to leer. J'ai guigné par un trou, I peeped through a keyhole. De Bross.

GUIGNIER, ghe-nyay, sm. hort. black-heart cherry tree.

GUIGNON, ghee-nyong, sm. bad luck. Croquant à son mauvais sort à jouer du —, believing in his ill-luck. St-B. B. Jouer du —, to have a run of bad luck.

GUIGNOLET, ghee-nyo-lay, sm. cherry brandy.

GUIGNONANT, ghee-nyo-nang, adj. m. fem. — se. pop. vexing, provoking.

GUILLAGE, ghee-yazh, sm. brew. working, fermenting.

GUILLAFNE, ghee-ydm, sm. 1 William. 2 (sorte de rabot) rebate-plane, rabbet-plane, rubbit-plane.

GUILLETNET, ghee-yuh-may, sm. inverted comma.

GUILLEMETER, ghee-yuh-muh-lay, to mark with inverted commas.

GUILEMOT, ghee-yuh-bo, sm. orn. guilemot.

GUILLER, ghee-yay, sa. brew. to work, to ferment.

GUILLERET, ghee-yuh-ray, adj. m. fem. — TE. 1 sprightly, brisk, lively, slight. L. devint tout — à l'idée que, L. became quite merry at the idea that. Ab. U petit homme de 25 ans, rond et —, a fat little active man of 25 years of age. Ab. L'âme enfermée dans un cœur souffrant n'est pas —te, the soul enclosed in an ailing body cannot be cheerful. Jacq. 2 (des discours, of discourses) light.

GUILLIER, ghee-yuh-ree, sm. chirping.

GUILLACHER, ghee-yo-shay, va. to engine-turn (une latabière, a snuff-box).

GUILLACHIS, ghee-yo-shee, sm. guillock, engine-turning.

GUILLOTINE, ghee-yo-teen, sf. 1 guillotine. 2 Fenêtre en —, sash-window.

GUILLOTINER, ghee-yo-te-hay, va. to guillotine.

GUIMAUVE, ghee-mov, sf. bot. marsh-mallow. Pâte de —, sirop de —, marsh-mallow paste, syrup.

GUIMBARDE, ghee-hard, sf. 1 fan. 2 (instrument de musique) Jew's harp.

GUIMBERGE, gang-bayrbz, sf. arch. hanging ornament.

GUIMPE, gang, sf. wimple, stomacher.

GUINDAGE, gang-dazh, sm. hoisting, swaying up.

GUINDANT, gang-làng, ppr. of GUINDER, sm. naut. hoist.

GUINDÉ, ppa. of GUINDER, fem. — E. 1 hoisted. Il consentait d'être en place publique — la hant au cou, he consented to be hung up in the public place with a rope round his neck. La Font. 2 fig. Cet auteur est —, that author is stiff. Style —, high-flown style, bombast. Cet homme est toujours —, that man is always upon stilts. Un air de gravité —, qui ne lui était pas naturel, an air of formal gravity unusual in him. Aug. Th. Meurs —es, prim manners. Th. Gant.

GUINDER, gang-day, va. 1 to hoist, to lift, to raise. — un fardeau, to hoist a burden. 2 naut. — un mât de hune, de perroquet, to sway up a top-mast, a top-gallant-mast. 3 fig. (de l'esprit, of the mind) to strain, to force.

SE GUINDER, ppr. 1 to hoist, to lift, to raise one's self up. Lui se guinda sur ses talles, he stood on tip-toe. La Font. Par une échelle nous nous guindons au sixième étage, by means of a ladder we raise ourselves up to the sixth story. Montesq. Il aide le colonel à se — sur le pont, he helped the colonel to hoist himself up on deck. Mérim. 2 fig. to be strained, forced. La nature humaine ne s'y dégoûte et ne s'y guinde en rien, there human nature takes no disguise nor is it ever forced. Ste-B. Il s'humaine bien vite après s'être un instant guindé sur ses pieds, he comes round quickly after a little coyness. De Bross.

GUINÉE, ghee-nay, sf. 1 geog. Guinea. 2 (monnaie) guinea. 3 (sorte de toile) long cloth.

GUINGAN, gang-gang, sm. gingham.

GUINGOIS, gang-gwà, sm. crookedness. se. GUINGOIS, adv. loc. crookedly, awry. Cette chambre est toute de —, that room is all awry. Il marche de —, he waddles. fig. Avoir l'esprit de —, to be cross-grained. Tout va moins de — que je ne craignais, things go on less crookedly than I feared. Jacq.

GUINGUETTE, gang-gheut, sf. 1 tea-garden. 2 fig. (petite maison de campagne) box, country box.

GUIPICHE, ghee-pür, sf. guipure, gimp. — de fil, de soie, thread, silk lace.

GUIRLANDE, gheer-làngd, sf. 1 garland, wreath. 2 (choses imitant des festons) garland, wreath. Les —s de jambons et de saucisses qui se déroulaient, the strings of hams and sausages which were unrolled. Ab. La — de fumée de nos bateaux à vapeur, the wreaths of smoke from our steam-boats. Ph. Chas. 3 paint. sculpt. encarpus, belt. 4 naut. breast-hook, fore-hook.

GUISE, ghee-z, sf. way, manner, fancy, humour. On s'étonna de voir aller en cette — l'animal leot, et sa maison, they were astonished at seeing this slow animal go along so, carrying his house about with him. La Font. Il m'a promis de me laisser agir à ma —, he promised me to let me have my own way. Balz.

Je traite les affaires à ma —, I transact business the way I think proper. Ab. Afin que son avant en fût plus à sa —, that her lover might be more to her fancy. La Font.

EN CEISE DE, prep. loc. by way of.

GUIRE, ghee-lar, sf. guitar.

GUITARISTE, ghee-tar-ist, sm. guitar-ist, guitar-player.

GUMENE, gû-mayn, sf. her. cable.

GUSTATIF, gûs-lah-lif, adj. m. anat. gustatory. Nerf —, gustatory nerve, the nerve of gustation.

GUSTATION, gûs-lah-syong, sf. gustation.

GUTTE. See GOMME-GUTTE.

GUTTURAL, gût-lû-ral, adj. m. fem. — E. pl. m. CUTTURAL, (Lat. guttur) 1 anat. med. guttural. 2 (qui vient du gosier) guttural. Sons gutturaux, guttural sounds. 3 — E. (lettres) guttural.

GYMNASE, zhim-dazh, sm. (Gr.) 1 antiq. gymnasium. 2 (chez les modernes) gymnasium.

GYMNASIARQUE, zhim-nab-zyark, sm. antiq. gymnasiarch.

GYMNASTE, zhim-nast, sm. antiq. gymnast.

GYMNASTIQUE, zhim-nas-tik, sf. gymnastics. École de —, gymnasium.

GYMNIQUE, zhim-nik, adj. mf. (Gr.) antiq. gymnical, gymnical. Combats —s, gymnical games.

GYMNIQUE, sf. antiq. gymnical.

GYMNOSOPHISTE, zhim-no-so-fist, sm. (Gr.) gymnosophist.

GYMNOSPERNE, zhim-nos-payrm, adj. mf. (Gr.) bot. gymnospermous.

GYMNOSPERMIE, zhim-nos-payr-mee, sf. (Gr.) bot. gymnospermia.

GYNANDRIE, zhe-nàng-dree, sf. (Gr.) bot. gynandria.

GYNECÉE, zhe-nay-say, sf. (Gr.) 1 antiq. gynecium. 2 (maintenant) women's workshop.

GYNECOCRATIE, zhe-nay-lo-krah-see, sf. (Gr.) gynocracy.

GYPAETE, zhe-pah-ayt, sm. (Gr.) orn. lammergeyer.

GYPSE, zhips, sm. (Lat. gypsom) gypsum.

GYPSEUX, zhip-suh, adj. m. fem. gypseus, gypseous.

GYRATOIRE, zhe-rat-wâr, adj. mf. See CIRATOIRE.

GYROMANCIE, zhe-ro-màng-see, sf. (Gr.) gyromancy.

GYROVAGUE, zhe-ro-vag, sm. monk-errant.

H

H, asb, sf. and m. eighth letter of the alphabet. Une —, an h.

(L'H est aspirée dans les mots précédés d'un 'h'. H is aspirate in the words preceded by an asterisk.)

HA, zh, interj. ha! ah! —! vous voilà donc! ah! you are there, are you!

HABEAS CORPUS, ah-bay-ass-kor-pûs, sm. (Eng.) habeas corpus.

HABILE, ah-beel, adj. mf. (Lat. habilis) 4 clever, skilful, able, learned. Vraiment, je ne me savais pas si —, really, I did not think myself so clever. Sand. Le plus — l'emporte à la longue, the most skilful wins in the long run. Bar. Un — avocat, an able advocate. — à profiter des circonstances, skilful in turning circumstances to account. Saint. 3 (à bad part) clever, sharp. Un — coquin, a clever rascal. 3 pop. (diligent) quick, sharp, expeditious. 4 law. able, competent, qualified (à contracter mariage, to contract marriage; à succéder, to inherit). 5 fig. eager in the pursuit of one's interest. 6 (substantif.) clever fellow. Ce n'est pas que je ne me sois lié à C. avec les —s du genre, at C. I have made connection with the ablest men of the trade. Jacq.

HABILEMENT, ah-beel-màng, adv. skilfully, cleverly.

HABILETÉ, ah-beel-tay, sf. (Lat. habilis) skill, cleverness, talent. Il a beaucoup d'—, he is very skilful. Il avait débuté par ce qu'il appelait l'—, et l'— avait échoué, he had begun by being what he called sharp, and his sharpness had not succeeded. Sand.

HABILITÉ, ah-be-le-tay, sf. law. competency, being qualified.

HABILITER, ah-be-le-tay, va. law. to qualify (un mineur à contracter, a minor to contract).

HABILLAGE, ah-be-yazh, sm. 4 trussing, dressing. 2 (de la morue à Terre-Neuve, of codfish) curing.

HABILLE, ppa. of HABILLER, fem. — E. dressed. Les cochers qui étaient —s de vert disputaient le prix à ceux qui étaient —s de bleu, the coachmen who were dressed in green disputed the prize with those who were dressed in blue. Montesq. — comme la derrièrre gravure de mode, dressed in the extreme of fashion. Ab. Il était ce soir-là — avec élégance, he was elegantly dressed that evening. Mérim. Toutes deux étaient —es de noir, both were dressed in black. Sand. Quelques mannequins d'artisans — s à l'ancienne mode, some puppets of working men dressed after the ancient fashion. Tb. Gout. (by extension) Tandis que le petit quadrupède — des son premier jour, rampe, marche déjà. l'oiseau, etc., whilst the little quadruped has a covering on from its very first day, and already creeps, walks, the bird, etc. Mich. Habit — dress coat. fig. Il y a des sottises bien — es, comme il y a des sottis bien vêtus, silly stuff is sometimes well disguised, just as silly people are sometimes well clad. Chamf.

HABILLEMENT, ab-e-yoh-mang, sm. 4 clothes, clothing, dress, raiment, garments. Magnifique —, magnificent dress. Révêlements-nous d'— s conformes à l'horrible fête, let us put on garments suitable to the horrible ceremony. Rac. absol. — le tête, head-piece. 2 admin. clothing (des troupes, of troops).

HABILLER, al-be-yah, ra. 1 to dress (on enfant, a child). Il n'est pas encore achevé d'—, he has not done dressing y. t. fig. — quelqu'un de toutes pièces, to play a person a trick; 1 to abuse a person. 2 (pourvoir d'habits) to clothe (les pauvres, the poor; des troupes, troops). 3 (faire des habits to make clothes (for), to work (for). absol. Ce tailleur habille bien, that tailor makes a good fit. 4 (by analogy) (d'un peintre, d'un sculpteur, of a painter, a sculptor) to dress. 5 (in a bad part) to dress out, to give a dress. (by analogy) Il n'est point de crime, enfin, qu'on n'habille en vertu, in short, there is no crime which cannot assume an appearance of virtue. Régis. Nous ne faisons que varier ces choses et les — diversément, we do but introduce variety into these things, and give them a different dress. St-B. 6 (de l'effet que font les vêtements) to suit, to fit, to become. absol. Cette étoffe habille bien, that stuff makes a very becoming dress. (by extension) Une grande couturière a dit: il n'y a que le no qui habille, a great dress-maker has said: when unwadorned, adorned the most. Merim. 7 (by extension) (revêtir, envelopper) to clothe, to cover, to wrap up. La nature compassante les habille bientôt, leur accorde quelque verdure, compassionate nature soon covers them, grants them a little verdure. Mich. Ses vers iron font l'épicière — le sucre et la cannelle, his poetry will go to the grocer's to wrap up sugar and cinnamon in. Boil. Elle trouva bien p as bonnie d'— son visage, she found it much more delicate to paint her face. Mme de Sév. fig. Souvent l'habille en vers ne s'élève prose, 1 often turn a piece of biting prose into verse. Boil. 8 (de certains animaux, of some animals) to skin (on mouton, on lapin, a sheep, a rabbit) — du poisson, de la vaille, to gut and scale fish, to draw scales.

S'HABILLER, rpr. 1 to dress, to put on one's clothes. fig. Des bassines de coivre dans lesquelles les amandes s'habillaient de chemises de sucre, brass basins in which the almonds wrapped themselves up in a coat of sugar. Tb. Gaut. 2 (de la manière dont une personne s'habille) to dress one's self. Leur fils qui s'habille à la française, their son who dresses after the French fashion. Abil. Il s'habille en berger, he dresses himself as a shepherd. La Font. G. s'habillait de blanc parce qu'il était noir, G. dressed himself in white because he was black. Abil. 3 (se pourvoir d'habits) to find one's self in clothes, to get one's clothes. Il s'est habillé tout de neuf, he has a brand new suit of clothes.

HABILLEUSE, ab-e-yoh-z, sf. (théâtre) dresser.

HABIT, ah-bee, sm. 1 (vêtement) garment, raiment, clothes, dress. — d'homme, men's clothes. — de femme, women's clothes. — de ville, town dress, suit. — habillé, dress coat. — de matin, morning dress. — d'Arlequin, de Polichinelle, patch-work dress. L'— militaire, military dress. L'— bourgeois, plain clothes. L'— ecclésiastique, the cloth. Son même air! son même — de lin! his very air! his self-same linen garb! Rac. Différent d'honneur, de langage, d'esprit et d'—, différent in temper, mind, language and dress. La Font. Marchand d'—, de vieux — s, old-clothes man. — s sacerdotaux, sacerdotal garments. fig. Sous les — s du men-onge, nous offre la vérité, offers us truth in the garb of falsehood. La Font. absol. Prendre l'—, to turn monk (by analogy) Porter l'—, to wear the gown. Quitter l'—, to throw off the coat. Prise d'—, pronunciation of one's rous. prov. fig. L'— ne fait pas le moine, the coat does not make the friar. 2 (particul.) coat. — noir, black coat. Le collet, les manches, les pans, les poches, la doublure d'un —, the collar, sleeves, skirts, pockets, lining of a coat. — de cheval, riding habit, riding coat. Mettre un —, changer d'—, to put on a coat, to change one's coat.

HABITABLE, ab-e-tabl' adf. mf. inhabitable, habitable. L. la plus — ville du monde, L. the pleasantest town in the world to live in. Mery.

HABITACLE, ab-e-takl' sm. (Lat. habitaculum) 1 habitation, abode, dwelling. L'— du Très-Haut, the dwelling of the Most High. Unbourg était autour, — d'empies, it was surrounded by a small town, the dwelling of the ungodly. La Font. 2 naut. binnacle.

HABITANT, ab-e-tang, ppr. of HABITER, sm. 1 inhabitant, resident, inmate. La terre ne demande ici qu'à enrichir les — s, mais les — s manquent à la terre, the earth here is but too ready to enrich the inhabitants, but inhabitants are wanting. Fen. Pays vide d'— s, uninhabited country. Volt. poetic. Les — s des forêts, les — s de l'air, les — s des eaux, de l'onde, the denizens of the forests, of the air, of the water. Les — s de l'Olympe, the gods of Olympus. 2 (dans une colonie) colonist, planter. 3 (adjectif.) law. absol. residing, dwelling.

HABITATION, ab-e-tah-spong, sf. 1 habitation. 2 (des animaux, of animals) haunt, abode. 3 law. Droit d'—, right of habitation. 4 (domicile) habitation, abode, dwelling, dwelling-place residence. 5 (dans une colonie) plantation. 6 (établissement) settlement.

HABITER, ab-e-tay, va. (Lat. habitare) 1 to inhabit, to live, to reside, to dwell in, to inhabit a spot. Vos parents, où sont-ils? Ils habitent Paris, where are your parents? They reside in Paris. Ph. Chas. Je vois d'ici la chambre que mon père habitait, I recollect the room in which my father lived. Ph. Chas. Mon frère avait vendu l'héritage paternel, et le nouveau propriétaire ne l'habitait pas, my brother had sold the family estate, and the new owner did not reside on the spot. Chat. Les peuples qui habitent l'Asie, the nations that inhabit Asia. Dans l'heureux climat que l'habite, in the happy climate in which I dwell. Barth. 2 (des animaux, of animals) to inhabit. 3 fig. La paix habite ce séjour, peace has taken up its abode there.

HABITER, va. to inhabit, to live, to reside, to dwell. J'ai habité jadis parmi les pères, I formerly lived among the fathers. Chat. fig. L'illusion seconde habite dans mon sein, pleasing poetry has its abode in my heart. A. Chén. fig. Il n'avait pas pénétré ni habité à loisir dans cette âme aimable, he had neither penetrated into that lovely disposition, nor taken up its quiet abode there. St-B.

HABITUDE, ab-e-tud, sf. 1 (Lat. habitus) habit, use, wont, custom. Je m'étais fait de votre présence une si douce —, your presence had grown into so agreeable a habit with me. Sand: L'héroïsme devint une — de l'âme, heroism became a habit of the soul. Lamart. Cela se tourne en —, that grows into a habit. Selon l'— da pays on allait rejoindre, etc., according to the custom of the country, they were about to answer, etc. G. Sand. Avoir l'— du cheval, to be accustomed to riding. Quand on a —, comme vous, l'— du grand air, when one is in the habit, like you, of being in the open air. Ab. Prendre, perdre l'— de faire une chose, to fall into the habit, to lose the habit of doing a thing. C'est un homme d'—, he is a man of routine. fig. C'est un animal d'—, he goes by clock work. (by analogy) V. dans l'— de la vie était tranchant, V. in his ordinary intercourse was peremptory. St-B. Dans l'—, il est de la langue de Mercier, his style is in general that of M. St-B. med. — du corps, the constitution of the body. (by analogy) Son — était plutôt triste que pensive, his natural bent was sad rather than pensive. St-B. Après nous l'avoir montré avec vérité dans sa personne et dans son —, ordinaire, after faithfully exhibiting him to us in his person and usual attitude. St-B. prov. fig. L'— est une autre —, une seconde —, use is a second nature. 2 (connaissance) acquaintance. Une longue — en paix les maintenait, a long acquaintance kept up peace between them. La Font. Mes — s sont à la ville, je suis d'une santé délicate, I am town-bred, my health is delicate. Ab.

HABITUDE, adf. loc. usually.

HABITUE, ppa. of HABITER, fem. — E, 4 Prêtre —, (substantif.) —, a priest that has leave of the incumbent to officiate with him. 2 (substantif.) Les — s d'un café, the frequenters of a coffee-house. Les — s de l'orchestre, the frequenters of the orchestra.

HABITUEL, ab-e-tu-ayl, adf. m. fem. — LE, habitual, usual, customary. theol. Grâc. — le, habitual grace.

HABITUELLEMENT, ab-e-tu-ayl-mang, adf. habitually, usually.

HABITUE, ab-e-tu-ay, va. to habituate, to accustom, to inure. Il faut — de bonne heure les enfants à l'obéissance, children must be early accustomed to obedience. — son corps à la fatigue, to support the cold and the heat, to inure one's body to fatigue, to accustom it to support cold and heat.

S'HABITUE, rpr. to accustom one's self, to become, to grow, to get accustomed. S'— au bien, to accustom one's self to virtue. Celui-là seul peut dire qu'il sait vivre, qu'il s'est habitué à souffrir, he alone can say he knows how to live, who has been accustomed to suffer. Nod.

HABLER, hab-blai, ru. (Sp. hablar) to crack, to bounce, to romance, to boast, to brag.

HABLERIE, hab-blub-ree, sf. bragging, boasting, bouncing. Sans nous faire accuser de —, without being suspected of boasting. Tb. Gaut.

HABLEUR, hab-blubr, sm. fem. BABELLEUX, bragger, boaster, bouncer.

HACHE, hash, sf. 1 axe, hatchet. La — d'un sapeur, a sapper's axe. — à main, hatchet. — d'armes, see ARMES. fig. Cet ouvrage est fait à coups de —, that work is clumsily, roughly done. fig. Avoir un coup de — à la tête, avoir un coup de —, on petit coup de —, to be a little cracked. fig. Il a le coup de —, he is rather cracked. Mul. 2 ruse. Ce livre est imprimé en —, this book is printed on two columns of unequal length. 3 (land-surveying) Cette pièce de terre fait — sur telle autre, this piece of ground is locked in that, overlies that.

HACHÉ, ppa. of HACHER, fem. — E, 4 Viande —, mince meat. (by extension) Mes blés ont été — s par la grêle, my corn has been cut up by the hail. 2 draw. engrav. Cette estampe est bien — e, that print is well hatched. 3 fig. Style —, a satirical style.

* HACHER, bah-shay, ra. 4 to chop, to chop up (do veau, real; de la paille, straw). — menu, to mince, to cut small, to chop fine. 2 (cooper maladroitement) to mangle, to hack. 3 (by extension) to cut up, to cut to pieces. La grêle a haché jusqu'au bois des vignes, the hail has cut up even the wood of the vines. 4 (hyperb.) — quelqu'un en pièces, le — en morceaux, to cut a person to pieces (by analogy). Vous le ferez — on le hachera, qu'il ne céderait pas, were you to cut him to pieces, he would not give in. 5 draw. engraver. to hatch.

HACHE-PAILLE, sm. pl. HACHER-PAILLE, chaff-cutter.

* HACHERETTE, bash-ro, sm. small axe.

* HACHETTE, bash-shet, sf. dimin. of HACHE, hatchet.

* HACHIS, bah-she, sm. cullin. hash, mince-meat. Da gigot en —, hashed leg of mutton. — de carpe, hashed carp.

* HACHOIR, bash-wär, sm. 4 chopping-block. 2 (grand couteau) chopping-knife. 3 (hache-paille), chaff-cutter.

* HACHURE, bash-ür, sf. 1 draw. engraver. hatching. 2 her. hatching.

* HAGARD, hag-ar, adj. m. fem. — E. 1 haggard, wild. Avoir les yeux —, le visage —, to have haggard eyes, a haggard face. Des mégères — es qui coisient le dîner, haggard wives who cook the dinner. Th. Gaut. 2 hawk. hunt. Faucon —, a haggard, haggard-hawk.

HAGIOGRAPHE, azh-yo-graf, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 hagiographer. 2 (substantif) hagiographer.

* HAHÀ, bah-ah, sm. ha-ha, haw-haw.

* HAHE, bah-ay, interf. hunt. wate there!

* HAL, bah-ec, ppa. of bair, fem. — E, hated. Qui vit — de tous ne saurait longtemps vivre, the object of all men's hatred cannot live long. Cora.

* HAIE, hay, sf. 4 hedge. — vive, quick-set hedge. — morte, sèche, dead wood. 2 fig. (de personnes, of persons) line, row. Entre une double — de serviteurs, between two rows of servants. Jacq. Une garde suisse qui se met en — d'un côté seulement d'étant pas assez nombreuse pour, etc., a Swiss guard which line one side of the road only, on account of their not being numerous enough for, etc. de Bross. Former la —, Border la —, to stand on a line on both sides.

HAIE, sf. agri. bearn.

* HAIE, bah-ec, interf. gee-ho. —, gee-ho. obsol. prov. fig. Et — au bout, something over and above.

* HAILLON, bah-yong, sm. rag, tatter. Songeons, qu'auz nous voyons au malheureux, non à ses —, mais à son air humilié, when we see an unfortunate wretch, let us think not of his rags, but of his humiliated look. Chat. fig. Cette langue bizarre où les —s de la pensée se mêlaient au clinquant des mots, that strange language in which confused ideas were mingled up with the tinsel of words. Lamart.

* HAINE, bayo, sf. 4 hatred, hate, odium. Avoir de la — pour quelqu'un, contre quelqu'un, to feel hatred towards a person. Les —s particulières cédèrent à la — générale, private hatred was absorbed in the general odium. Volt. Elle me prit en — précisément parce que, she took an aversion to me precisely because. J.-J. Rouss. 2 (des choses, of things) hatred, aversion, abhorrence. Avoir de la — pour le vice, to feel hatred towards vice. J'ai pour les procès une — telle que, I hold lawsuits in such abhorrence that. Prendre la vie en —, to loathe life.

EN HAINE DE, prep. out of hatred to.

* HAINEUX, bay-nuh, adj. m. fem. hateful, spiteful, malignant, malicious. Le soldat normand, plus tranquille, devint moins violent, moins —, the Norman soldier, more sedate, became less violent, less malicious. Aug. Th. Aime haineuse, malignant soul.

* HAIR, bah-eer, ra. irreg. HAÏSSANT; HAÏ; JE HAÏS, TO HAÏS, IL HAÏT, NOUS HAÏSSONS, VOUS HAÏSSEZ, ILS HAÏSSENT; JE HAÏSSAIS; JE HAÏNAÏ; JE HAÏRAIS; HAÏS; QUE JE HAÏSSE, 4 to hate. J'aime encore plus Cinnâ que je ne haïs Auguste, I love Cinnâ still more than I hate Augustus. Cora. Il n'aime personne, mais il haït bien, he loves nobody, but he is a good hater. A. Houss. Rome, enfin, que je haïs, parce qu'elle l'honore, Rome, in fine, that I hate because it honours thee. Cora. Elle les haïssait comme asinapettes, she hated them as asinapettes. Aug. Th. Ils ne les ont point haïs de cette haine violente que, they did not hate them with that violent hatred which. Aug. Th. Tel dans le foud de l'âme et vous craint et vous haït, Such-a-one at the bottom of his soul fears and hates you. Boil. Ils servirent le roi G. qu'ils haïssaient à la mort, they served king G. whom they mortally hated. Aug. Th. absol. Ils sont fâcheux et obséquieux comme des gens qui haïssent et qui tremblent, they are obsequious flatterers like people who hate and tremble. Aug. Th. Je haïssais alors, car la souffrance irrita, I hated then, for suffering irritated. Heg. Mor. 2 (avoir de l'éloignement) to hate, to dislike. Je haïs les gens cérémonieux, I hate ceremonious people. Je haïs les querelles de toute nature, I hate disputes of every kind. Sand. Volontiers gens boiteux haïssent le logis, lame people don't like staying at home. La Font. Je haïs les appartements qui ressemblent à des boutiques de bric-à-brac, I dislike apartments which resemble old-curiosity shops. Sand. Que j'ai toujours haï les pensées du vulgaire! how I have always hated the thoughts of the vulgar! La Font. R. a des vertus que je ne puis —, R. has virtues that I cannot hate. Cora. Ce qu'il haïssait de l'état social, c'était, what he hated in the social state, was. Lamart. — le vice, to hate vice. B. dans son bon temps ne haïssait pas non plus le champagne, B. in his merry days did not dislike Champaign either. Ste-B. — le travail, to hate work. Voilà de longs détails, mais on ne les haït pas des personnes que l'on aime, those are minute particulars, but they are not unpleasing of persons one loves. Mœ de Sév. 3 (des choses dont on reçoit quelque incommodité) to dislike. — le froid, to dislike cold. — le chaud, l'humidité, to dislike heat, damp weather.

* HAIRE, bav. sf. hair-shirt.

* HAÏSSABLE, bah-e-sahl, adj. mf. hateful, odious. Le sage s'attache à rendre le vice —, the wise man aims at rendering vice hateful. Ste-B.

* HALAGE, bah-lazh, sm. towage, towing. Chemin de —, towing-pull.

* HALBRAN, bah-brang, sm. orn. teal, young wild duck.

* HALBRENE, bah-broh-nay, adj. m. fem. — E, 1 hawk. ragged feathered. 2 fig. obsol. fatigued.

* HALÉ, bah, sm. sunburning. Le grand —, the scorching heat.

* HALÉ, ppa. of HALER, fem. — E, Des bateaux —s, towed boats.

* HALÉ, ppa. of HALER, fem. — E, sunburnt, tanned. Que dirail-on au bal de la cour, si on me voyait — comme un paysan? what would they say at the court ball, were I to be seen with a face as brown as a herry? Ab. Avoir le teint, le visage —, to have one's complexion, face sunburnt. Sa jolie main était — comme une pièce de satin rose qui serait restée en étalage pendant trois mois d'été, her pretty hand looked as sunburnt as a piece of pink satin left in a shop window during three summer months. Ab.

HALEINE, ah-layn, sf. (Lat. anhelitus) 1 breath, wind. Avoir l' — mauvaise, to have foul breath. Avoir l' — douce comme un enfant, to have as sweet a breath as a child. Son — me brûle le visage, his breath burns my face. Chat. Prendre —, to take breath. fig. Laisse-moi prendre — afin de le louer, let me take breath that I may praise thee. Cora. R. a pris — en vous le racontant, R. has taken breath whilst relating it to you. Cora. C'est assez patir, prenons un peu d' —, enough said, let us take a little breath. Boil. Donner — à son cheval, to make a horse take breath. maug. Un cheval gros d' —, a roser. — de vent, breath of air, wind. poëtic. L' — des vents, the breath of the winds. Des vents les brayantes —s, the loud roar of the winds. Boil. Le pavillon de France se déroute sous les —s harmonieuses du matin, the flag of France is unfurled under the harmonious breath of the morning. Chat. 2 (la faculté de respirer) breath. Perdre —, to get out of breath. C. accourut hors d' — pour s'opposer à cette demande, G. hastened breathless to oppose this demand. Aug. Th. Reprendre son —, to recover one's breath; || fig. to take breath, breathing-time. Une surface plane me permit de reprendre — et de me reposer un peu, a plane surface allowed me to recover my breath, and repose myself a little. Ab. fig. Faire des discours, tenir des discours à perte d' —, to make long-winded speeches. 3 (la faculté d'être en certain temps sans respirer) breath, wind. Réciter. débiter une tirade, etc., tout d'une —, to recite, to repeat a speech without stopping to take breath. Boire un grand coup tout d'une —, to drink a long draught. Un tout petit ruisseau, on géant altéré le boirait d'une —, a very small stream, a thirsty giant would drink it all up at a draught. Hég. Mor. 4 fig. Tout d'une —, without stopping, at a stretch. Cette ascension ne se faisait pas d'une —, this ascension was not accomplished without stopping more than once. Mich. Cora. —, shortness of breath. Avoir l' — courte, to be short-winded. Affaire, ouvrage de longue —, important affair. C'est un récit de longue —, that is a long-winded narration. La Font.

EX HALEINE, adv. loc. in practice, in exercise, in breath. Il chantait en marchant pour se tenir en —, he sang in walking to keep himself in practice. Ab. Ces petites affaires-là tiennent la vieillesse en —, et repoussent l'enfant, those little affairs are a diversion to old age, and drive dull care away. Volt. Mettre, tenir un cheval en —, to put, to keep a horse in working order. fig. Tenir quelqu'un en —, to keep a person in play. Être en —, to be in the right mood, to be on the alert.

HALENEE, ah-loh-nay, sf. breath, whiff.

HALENER, ah-loh-nay, ra. 4 to smell the breath of a person. 2 (des effets, of dogs) to get scent of. 3 fig. obsol. See PLAISIR.

* HALER, hâ-lay, ra. 4 naut. to tow, to haul, to heave, to track. — un cotage, une manœuvre, to bouse. — une bouée à bord, to haul in the buoy; des cacons dedans, guns. — à la cordelle, to tow. — un bateau, to tow a boat, to track a boat. 2 (exercer) to tow (on, upon, at). — les chiens après quelqu'un, to set dogs upon a person.

SE HALER, vpr. naut. SE — dans le vent, to haul the wind.

* HALER, ra. to bera, to tan, to brown (le teint, the complexion).

SE HALER, vpr. to become, to get sunburnt.

* HALETANT, bah-lang, ppr. of HALETER, adj. m. fem. — E, fig. — après les ombrages des bois, pausing for the shade of the woods. Chat. Tout — à force d'avoir couru, breathless with running. (by extension) Ce vent destructeur pousse en — une baleine bûnière et brûlante, this destroying wind bursts out in puffs a hot damp breath. Chat.

* HALETEIL, hal-tay, m. IL BALETTE, IL BALETTIER, to pant, to pant for breath, to puff, to gasp.

* HALEUÏ, hâ-labr, sm. hauler, tracker. HALÉTIQUE, al-yuh-tik, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 halutic. 2 sf. halutiques.

HALITEUX, al-e-tû-uh, adj. m. fem. HALITUËSE, (Lat. halitus) halituous.

* HALLE, hal-ah, sm. market-dues. * HALLALI, hah-lah-lee, sm. ven. who-hoop.

* HALLE, hal, sf. market. — aux blés, corn-market. — corn-exchange. — aux draps, aux cuirs, woollen-market, leather-sellers' hall. L'usage des —, Billings-gate language.

* HALLEBARDE, hal-hard, sf. halberd. * HALLEBARDIER, hal-har-dyaz, sm. halberdier.

* HALLIER, hah-lyaz, sm. thicket. Un — épais, thick bushes.

HALIER, sm. (from halle) 1 (gardien) market-keeper. 2 (marchand) market-man.

* HALUCINATION, al-lû-se-nah-syong, sf. (Lat.) med. hallucination.

* HALLUCINE, ppa. of HALUCINER, fem. —E, 1 (by extension) hallucinated. Ce derviche avec sa figure —e, that dervish with his beatified countenance. Th. Gaut. 2 (substantif) person given to hallucinations.

* HALLUCINER, al-lû-se-nay, va. neol. to hallucinate. fig. Ils hallucinent l'imagination complaisante des princes par des transitions, they deluded the willing imagination of those princes by transitions. Lamart.

* HALO, hah-lo, sm. 1 astr. halo. 2 (by analogy) (du sein, of the bosom) arçolo, halo.

* HALOIR, hah-lwâr, sm. drying-room. * HALOT, hah-lo, sm. rabbit-burrow.

HALOTECHNIE, ah-lo-tek-nee, sf. (Gr.) chem. halotechnia.

* HALTE, halt, sf. (Ger.) 1 halt. Faire —, to halt. fig. Jacques fit — à son récit, J. made a break in his narration. Didier. 2 (by extension) (lieu) halt, halting-place. — de chasse, resting-place. 3 war. halt. Peloton, —! platoon, stand! — la! stop! fig. stop! hold! stop! there!

* HALTER, hal-tay, va. to halt. make halt. Lord B. halte toujours le dimanche, Lord B. always halts on a Sunday. Jacq.

* HALTÈRE, hal-tayr, sm. (Gr.) dumb bell.

* HALURGIE, hah-lûr-zhee, sf. (Gr.) chem. halurgy.

* HALURGIQUE, hah-lûr-zhik, adj. mf. halurgic.

* HAMAC, hah-mak, sm. hammock.

* HAMAURYADE, am-ad-ryod, sf. (Gr.) myth. homadryad.

HAMBORGE, âng-boor, s. 1 geog. Hamburg. 2 (tonneau) hamburg.

* HAMEAU, hah-mo, sm. hamlet.

* HAMEÇON, am-song, sm. hook, fish-hook. Prendre du poisson à l'—, to take fish with a fishhook. Lorsque le poisson mord à l'—, when the fish takes the bait. prov. fig. Mordre à l'—, to take the bait.

* HAMPE, hâmp, sf. 1 (d'une hallicharde, etc.) staff, handle. La — d'un évêcillon, d'un refoulon, the handle of a sponge, of a rammer. (by analogy) La — d'un pinceau, the handle of a brush. 2 bot. scape.

* HAN, hâng, sm. (Ar.) a sort of caravansary.

HAN, sm. (onomatopie) hugh.

* HANAP, hah-nap, sm. obol. goblet, large cup.

* HANCHE, hângsh, sf. 1 hip, haunch. Avoir de grosses —s, to have large hips. Le commandant s'appuyait de la — sur sa canne, the commander leaned his hip on his cane. Saint. fig. Être, se mettre sur la —, to swagger. Il était fort sur la — et passait pour un brave, he swaggered, and was considered a fighting man. St. Sim. 2 man. haunch, quarter. Mettre un cheval sur les —s, to tire a horse. 3 nat. quarter.

HANEANE, an-ban, sf. bot. cent-bane.

* HANGAR, hâng-gar, sm. shed, cart-hovel.

* HANNETON, han-tong, sm. 1 ent. cockchafer, maybug. fig. Il est étourdi comme un —, he is as giddy as a gosse.

* HASE, sf. (Ger.) — teutonique, Hanse Yours.

* HANSEATIQUE, hâng-say-at-ik, adj. mf. Hanseatic.

* HANSIÈRE, hâng-syayr, sf. nat. See HASSIÈRE.

* HANTER, hâng-tay, ra. 1 to haunt, to frequent. En voyant leur neveu — ces petites gens, on seeing their nephew frequent the society of those homely people. Sand. — les savants, to seek the society of the learned. 2 (des lieux, of places) to frequent, to follow. Quatre animaux divers hantaient le tronç porteur d'un pin, four different animals frequented the rotten trunk of a pine-tree. La Font. Sur les lieux ombrages que l'on avait hantés, on the shady places that we had frequented. St.-B.

fig. Cette suave apparition ne s'est jamais de l'imagination de M., this gentle apparition was always present to the imagination of M. Ph. Chas. prov.

Dis-moi qui tu hantes, et je te dirai qui tu es, birds of a feather flock together.

HANTER, m. to frequent. — chez quelqu'un, to frequent a person.

* HANTISE, hâng-lez, sf. obol. (in a bad part) frequenting, intercourse. Cette voix qu'il tenait de sa première — dans les cafés, this voice which he had got from his early frequentation of coffee-houses. St.-B.

* HAPPE, hap, sf. 1 tech. arte-treced. 2 (crampion) cramp, cramp-iron.

* HAPPELOURDE, hap-loord, sf. 1 false gem, imitation stone, paste. 2 fig. obol. empty pop. 3 fig. (cheval) old hack.

* HAPPEÏ, hap-pay, va. 1 (d'un chien, of a dog) to snap, to snap up. (by analogy) Avez que le poisson ne tombe, la frégate le happe au passage, before the fish can fall, the sea-swallow snaps it up. Mich. Pour — le voyageur au passage, to lay hands upon the passing traveller. Th. Gaut. 2 fig. (saisir) to catch, to nab. Il voulait, dans l'espoir de — l'héritage, he wanted, in hopes of laying hold of the inheritance. G. Del.

* HAPPE-CHAIR, sm. pl. HAPPE-CHAIR, 1 anc. (disparagingly) baillif. 2 greedy person.

* HAQUENÉE, hâk-nay, sf. obol. ambling nag. fig. pop. C'est nue grande —, she is a tall gawky woman. prov. fig. Aller sur la — des cordeliers, to go on foot with a stick in one's hand.

* HAQUET, hah-kay, sm. dry.

* HAQUETIER, hah-tyaz, sm. dryman.

* HARANGUE, har-âng-guh, sf. 1 harangue, speech, oration. La tribune aux —s, the rostrum. 2 (discours ennuyeux) lecture. Tire-moi du danger, tu feras après à —, help me out of danger, you will give your lecture afterwards. La Font.

* HARANGUER, har-âng-gay, va. to harangue, to address. N'aurais-tu pas voulu qu'on me haranguât sous un dais de feuillage? should you have liked me to be harangued under a canopy of foliage? Sand. Neurs et va-t-en de ce pas — les sœurs glandieuses, dic, und go straightways, and make your speeches to the fatal sisters. La Font. Du haut de l'imperiale il les harangua, he harangued them from the roof of the carriage. Merim.

HARANGUËN, m. 1 to harangue. Aux

Polonais qui haranguaient en latin, elle, to the Poles who were making speeches in Latin, she. St.-B. Quelquefois elle haranguait aux Cordeliers, sometimes she harangued at the club of the Cordeliers. Lamart. 2 (avec emphase) to speechify.

* HARANGUEUR, har-âng-guhr, sm. 1 haranguer, orator. 2 (in a bad part, and in joke) speech-maker, speechifier. 3 fig. (un grand paroleur, preacher, lecturer).

* HARAS, har-ah, sm. (Lat.) 1 stud. 2 (juments avec leurs étalons) stud. Cheval de —, stud-horse.

HARAS, har-ah, sm. See ARA.

* HARASSÉ, ppa. of HARASSER, fem. —E, adjectif. harassed, wearied, tired out. Des troupes —es, harassed troops. Cheval —, overworked horse. fig. Avoir l'esprit —, to have a wearied mind.

* HARASSEMENT, har-ass-mâng, sm. harassing, wearying out.

* HARASSER, har-ass-say, va. to harass, to weary, to tire out.

* HARCELE, ppa. of HARCELER, leased, annoyed. Sans peine d'être — sans répit par ces créanciers officieux, with the risk of being worried to death by these well-meaning creditors. Th. Gaut.

* HARCELER, har-sub-lay, va. to harass, to torment, to tease, to annoy, to plague. — quelqu'un d'un, to have a conversation, to tense a person in conversation. On harcelait l'homme heureux et en crédit, they worried the successful and influential man. St.-B. Un avorton de monche en cent lieux le harcèle, an abortion of a gnat stings him in a hundred places. La Font. (by extension) Il se fit l'organe de ces basses passions qui harcelent l'homme supérieur, he made himself the mouthpiece of those low passions which torment the superior man. Lamart. G., que la conscience harcelait on pen, G. whose conscience tormented him a little. Balz. — les ennemis, to harass the enemy.

* HARCELEMENT, har-say-mâng, sm. harassing, teasing.

* HARDE, hard, sf. hunt. 1 herd (de cerfs, de daims, of stags, deer). 2 hunt, leach.

* HARDER, har-day, ra. haul, to leash six by six or four by four.

* HARDES, hard, sf. pl. clothes, wearing apparel. De vieilles —, old clothes.

* HARDI, har-dee, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 bold, fearless, daring. Être — comme un lion, to be as bold as a lion. Deux d'entre eux plus — on plus mécontents, two of them bolder or more discontented. Sand. Sauf à être plus — on plus indiscret sur quelque point, reserving to be bolder or more indiscreet on some point. St.-B. Un naturel vif et —, a lively and daring disposition. Fen. — à l'homme —, fearless in, rash in. Le race d'hommes —s au danger, a race of men fearless in danger. Guiz. Être — à parler, to undertake, to be bold in speaking, in undertaking. Un traitre qui n'est qu'à m'offenser, a traitor who is only just in offending me. Rac. C'est on — joueur, he is a bold player. 2 (ferme) bold. Avoir la mine —e, the countenance —e, to have a bold look. 3 (insolent) bold, forward, impudent. Elle fille qui l'air —, a forward-looking girl. Manières —es, forward manners. 4 (des choses, of things) bold, daring. Action —e, bold action. Le mot est —, the word is a bold one. 5 (des opinions, etc., of opinions, etc.) bold, fearless. 6 (dans les ouvrages d'esprit) bold. Pensée —e, bold thought. 7 (franc) bold. Dessin —, bold drawing. fig. C'est une plume —e, it is a plume —e. Il a plume est —, he has a bold pen. 8 (des certains ouvrages de l'art) bold. 9 Un escatier, un clocher —, a bold staircase, steeple.

HARDI, interj. courage. Là, —, théa à faire un effort généreux, now there, courage, try and make one bold effort. Mol.

* HARDIESSE, har-dyaz, sf. 1 bold- ness, hardness, fearlessness. Avoir de la —, to be bold. Il faut montrer la vérité avec — à la postérité, truth should be held up to posterity boldly. Volt. 2 (té-méraire) rashness, boldness, forwardness, impudence. Quelques termes de l'art, beaucoup de —, a few technical terms, a good stock of impudence. La Font. 3 (licence) liberty. Excusez si je prends — à — de, excuse the liberty I take of. 4 (des choses faites ou dites hardiment) boldness. Une réponse d'une granité —, a very bold answer. 5 (du style, des expressions, of style) boldness. La — des pensées, boldness of thought. 6 (exécution hardie) boldness. Une — de déssion toute byzantine, a true Byzantine boldness of design. Th. Gaut. 7 (des ouvrages de l'art) boldness. 8 lit. fine arts. boldness, license.

* HARDIMENT, har-de-màng, adv. 1 boldly, fearlessly, impudently. Parler —, to speak boldly. 2 (sans hésiter) boldly, freely. 3 (sans crainte de se tromper) boldly.

* HAREN, har-aym, sm. (Ar.) 1 harem. 2 (les femmes) harem.

* HARENG, har-àng, sm. herring. — fraiche, fresh herring. — salé, cured, pickled herring. — blanc, fresh herring. — saur, — sauret, red herring. — pec, — en caque, barrelled herring. La pêche des —, herring-fishery.

* HARENGAISON, har-àng-gay-zong, sf. 1 herring-season. 2 (la pêche) herring-fishery.

* HARENGERE, har-àng-zhay, sf. fish-woman, fish-fag. C'est une —, she is a ternaigot, a virago.

* HARENGEUX, har-nyoh, adj. m. fem. HARENGEUX, 1 morose, cross, peevish, crabbed, cross-grained, curlious. 2 (des animaux, of animals) snarling, vicious. Chien —, snarling dog.

* HARICOT, har-e-ko, sm. bot. kidney bean, French bean. — s'grimpeaux, scarlet runners. — s'naïus, dwarf-kidney beans. 2 (semence) bean, haricot bean. Fève de —, haricot, kidney-bean. — s'verts, French beans. 3 culin. — de mouton, haricot.

* HARICOTER, har-e-ko-tay, vn. 1 obsol. to break up in small pieces. 2 (fig. pop. (speculer) to job, to peddle.

* HARICOTEUR, har-e-ko-tayr, sm. pop. jobber, peddler.

* HARIDELLE, har-e-dayl, sf. jade.

* HARLE, harl, sm. orn. goosander, merganser.

* HARMONICA, ar-mo-ne-kah, sm. harmonica, musical glasses.

* HARMONIE, ar-mo-nee, sf. (Gr.) 1 harmony. L'— des instruments, the harmony of instruments. 2 mus. harmony, harmonics. Cours, leçons d'—, course, lessons of harmony. 3 (ensemble d'instruments à vent) harmony. 4 mus. Table d'—, sounding-board. 5 (du langage, du style, of language, of style) harmony. — imitative, imitative harmony. 6 (fig. harmony, keeping. L'— de l'univers, the harmony of the universe. Il règne ici la plus belle — de couleur, the most beautiful harmony of colour prevails here. Dider. L'— des pouvoirs, the harmony of powers. Je ne pouvais acheter une maison plus en — avec mes goûts, I could not buy a house more in harmony with my taste. Ph. Chas. 7 (fig. (des personnes, of persons) (concorde) harmony, concord, union.

* HARMONIER, har-mo-nyay, ra. veol. to reduce to harmony. Des travaux de défense que les aïeux d'avaient pas encore eu le temps d'—, works which years had not yet had the time to assimilate with the rest. Th. Gaut.

* HARMONISER, vr. to be in harmony, keeping. L'intérieur s'harmonisait parfaitement au néglex poétique de cet humble extérieur, the interior was in perfect keeping with the poetical negligence of the humble exterior. Balz. Son nez était un peu furt, mais il s'harmoniait avec une bouche d'un rouge de minium, the nose was rather large, but it was in keeping with a mouth as red as minium. Balz.

* HARMONIEUSEMENT, ar-mo-nyah-màng, adv. harmoniously.

* HARMONIEUX, ar-mo-nyuh, adj. m. fem. HARMONIEUX, harmonious. Chant —, harmonious singing, song. Vers —, harmonious verses. fig. Former un tout —, to form an harmonious whole. Couleurs —, friendly colours.

* HARMONIQUE, ar-mo-nik, adj. mf. 1 mus. harmonic, harmonical. Marche —, harmonical progression. 2 acoustic. harmonie, harmonical. Echelle —, harmonic scale. Proportion —, harmonic proportion. Sons —, harmonic sounds. 3 sm. harmonics.

* HARMONIQUEMENT, ar-mo-nik-màng, adv. harmonically.

* HARMONISER, ar-mo-ne-zay, vr. to be in harmony, in keeping, to harmonize. Le nez s'harmonisait pas mal avec cet uniforme, the nose was in pretty good keeping with that uniform. Th. Gaut.

* HARMONISTE, ar-mo-nist, sm. harmonist.

* HARNACHÉ, ppa. of HARNACHER, fem. —, L'un cheval bien —, a horse well harnessed. fig. Comme le voilà —! how tricked out you are!

* HARNACHEMENT, har-nash-màng, sm. 1 harnessing, harness, trappings. 2 fig. ridiculous dress.

* HARNACHER, har-nah-shay, va. 1 to harness (des chevaux, horses) 2 fig. to trick out.

* HARNACHER, vpr. fig. to trick one's self out.

* HARNAIS, har nay, sm. 1 (l'équipage d'un cheval de selle) trappings, harness-trappings. 2 (particul.) (des chevaux de carrosse, de charette) harness. 3 (by extension) Cheval de —, cart-horse. 4 obsol. tackle, paraphernalia.

* HARNOIS, har-nooà, sm. anc. poetic. harness, armour. Savez-vous dormir en plein champ le — sur le dos, can you sleep in the open field with your armour on your back. Boil. fig. Endosser le —, to enter the army; to put on the canonicals; the uniform. fig. (in joke) S'échauffer en son —, to grow warm in talking of a thing.

* HARO, har-o, sm. anc. hue and cry. Faire — sur quelqu'un, to raise the hue and cry against a person. Clameur de —, hue and cry. fig. Aussili le — populaire fut-il terrible, the cry of public reprobation was therefore terrible. Ph. Chas. fig. A ces mots on cria — sur le bandet, at these words they all cried down with the donkey. La Font.

* HARPAION, ar-pah-gong, sm. 1 Harpagon. 2 fig. miser.

* HARPE, harp, sf. 1 harp. Pincer de la —, jouer de la —, to play on the harp. — bohemie, Eolian harp. 2 mason. tooth-bridge. 3 anc. (pout-levis) a sort of draw-bridge.

* HARPE, har-pay, adj. m. fem. —, ven. Un lévrier bien —, a greyhound well-shaped.

* HARPER, har-pay, va. (little used) to gripe, to grasp, to clutch. Nod.

* SE HARPER, vpr. lam. to grapple one another.

* HARPER, vn. maa. to have the string-halt.

* HARPIE, har-pee, sf. (Gr.) 4 myth. Harpy. 2 fig. harpy. 3 fig. (femme acariâtre) shrew, vixen, scold, hell-cat.

* SE HARPIER, har-pay, vpr. to quarrel, to bicker. Cette fille et la B. se harpièrent au sujet de D. that girl and la B. were bickering about D. Haulil.

* HARPISTE, har-pist, smf. harpist, harper.

* HARPOIN, har-pong, sm. harpoon.

* HARPONNER, har-po-nay, va. to harpoon (une baleine, a whale).

* HARPONNEUR, har-po-nulir, sm. harpooner.

* HART, har, sf. 1 withe, band (of a nagot). 2 (la corde dont on étrangle les criminels) rope, halter. Il sera guilloté, la — au cou, he will be strung up with a halter round his neck. La Font. A peine de la —, under pain of the halter.

* HASARD, hab-zar, sm. 1 hazard, chance. Le — voulait que la dernière goutte vint tomber dans mon verre, it happened by chance that the last drop fell into my glass. Ab. Le — n'abandonne jamais ceux qui s'abandonnent à lui, chance never abandons those who trust to it. Mery. Beaucoup de hardiesse, do — quelqefois, tout cela courrait, a great share of boldness, chance sometimes, all that concurred. La Font. Le — c'est maître du monde, chance, that master of the world. Volt. Un coup conduit par le —, a stroke guided by hazard. Mass. Dire l'œuvre, dire l'effet du —, to be the work, the effect of chance. Il y a bien du — à la guerre, chance plays a great part in war. St-B. Mettre peu de chose au —, to trust little to chance. Montesq. Il se laissa aller au — des compagnies et des camaraderies, he was always ready to join with friends and companions. St-B. Pourquoi mettre au — en voulant tout gagner? why run the chance by trying to gain all? Corn. Ce sera un grand — si telle chose arrive, it will be a great chance if such a thing happens. Nos victoires sont des — si glorieux, qui nous honorent sans nous sauver, our victories are glorious strokes of fortune which brings us glory, but do not save us. Lamart. Jeu de —, a game of chance, of hazard. fig. En vérité, tout est un jeu de — dans ce monde, ou peu s'en faut, indeed, every thing in this world is hap-hazard or next to it. Volt. fig. Corriger le —, to assist fortune. Meuble de —, livre de —, second-hand piece of furniture, book. Trouver un bon —, to find a good bargain. 2 (pétil) chance, hazard, risk, danger. Courir le — de, to run the chance, the risk of. To fais meilleure chère avec moins de —, you live better with less risk. La Font. Ma vie et mon amour sont deux courants —, my life and love are both endangered. Rac. Il lui dit, ad — d'un semblable refus, camarade. La Font. Il ne court point de — he runs no risk. 3 poetic. — s, pl. chances, hazards. Les — de la guerre, the chances of war. Les — de la bataille de la vie, the chances of the battle of life. A. Hous. La vertu la plus ferme évite les —, the firmest courage avoids running into needless peril. Corn. Ils devaient protéger la famille royale contre les — de la route, they were to protect the Royal family against accidents on the way. Lamart.

* AD HASARD, adv. loc. at random, at a venture. Ils partirent seuls et comme au —, they set out alone, and at a venture as it were. Lamart. Un délicieux livre est une promenade au —, an interesting book is like a walk taken at random. Ph. Chas. Il ne sait pas jouer, il jette ses cartes au —, he does not know how to play, he throws down his cards at random. Parler, répondre au —, to speak, to answer at random. J'avais au — quelque alle de poulet, I swallowed at a venture a wing of a chicken. Boil.

* A TOUT HASARD, adv. loc. at all hazards, at all risks, at all events.

* PAR HASARD, adv. loc. by chance. Si, par —, vous veniez à le rencontrer, if you should happen to meet him.

* HASARDE, ppa. of BASARDER, fem. —, adjective. 1 Propos —, hazardous remarks. Quelques expressions rather lively et —, some expressions rather lively and bold. St-B. Les plaisanteries —, es devaient naturellement déplaire à, pippant jokes were calculated to displease, etc. Ph. Chas. 2 (difficile à justifier) hasardous. Il faut faire la part des idées — es, allowance must be made for some rash ideas. S^{te}-B. 3 Gigit —, hated leg of mutton.

*HASARDEI, hah-zar-day, ra. 1 to hazard, to risk, to venture (son argent au jeu, one's money at play). On hasarde de perdre en voulant trop gagner, grasp all, lose all. La Font. Souffrez que je considère et ce que je hasarde et ce que je poursuis, allow me to consider both what I risk, and what I aim at. Cora. Trop heureuse pour lui de — vos jours, too happy to risk your life for him. Rac. Une entreprise qu'il n'eût pas fallu —, an enterprise that ought not to have been tried. Volt. prov. fig. — le paquet, to take the chance of it. 2 (des propositions, des opinions, etc.) to hazard, to venture. Je n'ai pas été fâché de passer pour distrait, cela m'a fait — bien des négligences qui m'auraient embarrassé, I was not sorry to pass for being of an absent turn of mind, that made me venture upon many acts of negligence that would have embarrassed me. Montesq. — une motion, to venture upon a motion. — une plaisanterie, to risk a joke.

SE HASARDER, vpr. to risk, to hazard, to risk, to venture one's self. Ce général se hasarde trop, that general risks himself too much. Ce qu'on peut dire sans se —, c'est que, what one may freely say is that. S^{te}-B. Les périls où il se hasarde, the dangers to which he exposes himself. Je ne me hasarde à le dire qu'à la suite de M. G., I only venture to say it after Mr. G. S^{te}-B.

*HASARDEUSEMENT, hah-zar-duh-z-mang, adv. hazardously.

*HASARDEUX, hah-zar-duh, adj. m. fem. HASARDUEUSE. 1 bold, venturesome, rascalsome. Les rimoux, venturous rhymers. Boil. 2 (périlleux) hazardous. Une entreprise hasardeuse, a perilous enterprise.

*HASE, haz, sf. zool. doe-hare, doe-rabbit.

HAST, ast, sm. Arme d'—, See ARMES. HASTAIRE, as-tayr, sm. (Lat. hastarius) antiq. spearman, pikeman, javelinman.

HASTE, ast, sf. (Lat. hasta) 1 antiq. spear, pike, javelin. 2 munis. (particul.) spear.

*HASTÉ, has-tay, adj. m. fem. — E, bot. hastate, hastated.

*HATE, hât, sf. haste, hurry. Il se plaint à T. de la — des heures, he complains to T. of the rapidity with which time flies. La Font. Donnez-moi de l'argent au plus vite, car j'ai —, give me some money quickly, for I have no time to spare. Regn. Avoir —, avoir une grande —, avoir grande —, avoir extrêmement —, to be in a hurry, in a great hurry. J'ai — d'en finir, I am in a hurry to have done with it. Faire —, to make haste.

AVEC HÂTE, EN HÂTE, adv. loc. in haste. Faire quelque chose à la —, to do a thing in haste.

À LA HÂTE, adv. loc. hastily, hurriedly. *HATER, hâ-tay, va. 1 to hasten, to hurry, to quicken, to urge on. Nous bâtons notre départ, we hastened our departure. — la maturité des fruits, to force fruit. — les fruits, to hasten the fruit. Il craignait d'avoir par imprudence hâté sa mort, he was afraid he had through imprudence hastened his death. Saint. Je retournai à T. pour — l'exécution de leur promesse, I returned to T. to hasten the execution of their promise. Saint. — le pas, to quicken, to mend one's pace. Nos deux vainqueurs hâtaient le pas, our two victors hastened on. Sand. 2 (faire dépêcher) to push on, to hurry on. Hâtez un peu ces gens-là, nous sommes pressés, push those people on a little, we are in a hurry. — la besogne, to forward a work; to get on with a work. Mes vœux hâteront peut-être l'arrivée de ces lettres, dont je suis affamé, may be my wishes will hasten the arrival of those letters I am longing for. Jacq. Faire — le dîner, to get the dinner on.

SE HÂTER, vpr. to hasten, to make haste. Les Tars, lents pour toutes les actions de la vie, ne se hâtent que pour la mort, the Turks, slow for every action of life, are in a hurry only to bury their dead. Th. Gaut. Les serviteurs se hâtèrent de placer derrière la chaise de poste, la malle de M., the servants hastened to place M.'s trunk behind the post-chaise. Sand. Il se hâta du mieux qu'il put de réveiller les serviteurs, he made the greatest haste he could to wake up the servants. Sand. Hâtons-nous aujourd'hui de jouir de la vie, so that we may serons demia? let us hasten to enjoy life to-day, who knows where we shall be to-morrow? Rac. Hâtez-vous de rompre les cordes infâmes, make haste to break those infamous cords. Nod. Ne vous hâtez pas trop de l'accuser de faiblesse, do not be too precipitate in accusing him of weakness. Saint.

*HÂTEUR, hâ-tuhr, sm. — de la bouche du roi, overseer of the roast meat of the king's household.

*HÂTIER, hah-tyay, sm. spit-rack.

*HÂTIF, hâ-tif, adj. m. fem. HÂTIVE, 1 early. Frait —, early fruit, hastings. Pois —, early peas, hastings (by analogy). Croissance hâtive, sudden growth. Fleurs hâtives, early flowers. 2 (in a wider sense) precocious, forward. Le développement du corps ne doit pas être trop —, the development of the body ought not to be too precocious. Les esprits — s ne sont pas toujours ceux qui réussissent le mieux dans la suite, precocious intelligences are not always those which thrive the best in the long run.

*HÂTIVEAU, hâh-te-vo, sm. t hort. hastening-pears. 2 bot. (pois hâtifs) hastings, early peas.

*HÂTIVEMENT, hah-tiv-mang, adv. early.

*HÂTIVETÉ, hah-tiv-lay, sf. (little used) (des fruits, des fleurs, of fruits, flowers) earliness, forwardness.

*HAUBANS, ho-bang, sm. pl. naut. shrouds. Les grands —s, —s du grand mât, the main shrouds. —s de mizaine d'artimon, de hune, etc., fore, mizen-top, top-gallant shrouds.

*HAUBERGEON, ho-bayr-zhong, sm. dimin. small hauberk. prov. fig. Maille à maille se fait le —, little strokes fell great oaks.

*HAUBERT, ho-bayr, sm. hauberk. fend. haub. Fiefs de —, feudures of knight's service.

*HAUSSE, hâs, sf. 1 lift, piece. Mettre une — à des souliers, to put a new lift to shoes. 2 fig. bank, rise. La — des effets publics, the rise of stocks. Les fonds tendent à la —, sont à la —, sont en —, stocks are rising. Jouer à la —, to speculate on a rise; pop. to be a bull.

*HAUSEMENT, hâs-mang, sm. 1 rising, lifting, shrug. Faire en — d'épaules, to shrug up one's shoulders. fig. (little used) Le — des monnaies, the rising of the price of coin. 2 (little used) Le — du prix des denrées, the rising of the price of commodities.

*HAUSSEL, hâs-say, sm. (from haut) 1 to raise (une maraille, a wall). Faire une maison d'un étage, to raise a house a story higher. On haussa le parterre pour faire une salle de bal, they covered over the pit to make a ball-room. De Bross. 2 (lever en baut) to raise, to lift (le bras, la jambe, the arm, the leg). Haussez-le d'un cran, raise it a notch higher. (particul.) — les épaules, to shrug up one's shoulders. Cela fait — les épaules, it is enough to make one sick. — les épaules de pitié, de mépris, to shrug up one's shoulders with pity, contempt. Madame S. haussait furieusement les épaules, Mrs. S. shrugged her shoulders indignantly. Ab L. haussa l'épaule par un geste moqueur, L. shrugged his shoulder with an ironical gesture. Saint. fig. — le cœur, — le courage à quelqu'un, to raise the courage of a person. prov. pop. — le coude, to tipple. 3 (de la voix, du son, of voice, sound) to raise. Après quelques instants, haussant un peu la voix, after a few moments, raising his voice a little. La Font. — une guitare, an instrument of music, to raise the tone of a guitar, of a musical instrument. fig. — le ton, to raise the voice, to carry it high. fig. — d'un ton, to assume a loftier tone. 4 fig. (augmenter) to raise, to increase. — la paye du soldat, les gages d'un domestique, to raise the pay of soldiers, the wages of a servant. — les impôts, to raise the taxes. — la monnaie, le prix des monnaies, to raise the price of coin. 5 mar. — un vaisseau, to raise a vessel.

HADUSSE-COL, sm. pl. HADUSSE-COLS, gorgel. SE HAUSSEUR, vpr. 1 Se — sur la pointe des pieds, to stand on tip-toe. Se haussant le thorax par un mouvement plein d'orgueil, throwing out his chest with a motion full of pride. Balz. fig. Sans se — pour paraître grand, sans s'abaisser pour être civil et obligent, without abasing himself to appear greater, without abasing himself to appear civil and obliging. Boss. Je ne voudrais pas, moi, pour me — d'un cran, prendre ma liberté, etc., I would not, to rise a peg, sell my liberty, etc. C. Del. prov. fig. C'est un homme qui ne se hausse ni se baisse, nothing puts that man out of temper. 2 Cela se baisse et se hausse à volonté, that can be lowered and raised at will. 3 Le temps se hausse, the weather is clearing up.

HATSEUR, ra. 1 to rise. Le rivièr a haussé beaucoup depuis hier, the river has risen since yesterday. Avoir une épaule qui hausse, to have one shoulder higher than the other. fig. — d'un cran, to rise a peg. 2 fig. (des prix, etc.) to rise. Le prix de toutes les denrées a bien haussé depuis une dizaine d'années, the price of every commodity has greatly risen within the last ten years. 3 fig. part. Les actions haussent, the shares rise. Le change n'a pas haussé, the rate of exchange is no higher.

*HAUSSIÈRE, ho-syayr, sf. naut. hawsers.

*HAUT, ho, adj. m. fem. — E, (Lat. altus) 1 high, lofty. Une — montagne, a high mountain. Un mur — de dix pieds, a wall ten feet high. Un géant plus — qu'une tour, a giant taller than a tower. G. — e comme une pinne, G. no bigger than a pint pot. De Bross. Un chapeau — de forme, a high-crowned hat. Il a le front — et découvert, he has a large open forehead. Être de — stature, de — taille, to be of a tall stature. Cet animal est — de jambes, that animal has long legs. — de plafond, high ceiling. Arbres à —, trees with tall, trees with lofty trunks. Les arbres qui ont une haute cime, —, laiteux. See FUTAIR —, haits, lofty canopy. — sieux, high places. naut. Ce bâtiment est — de bord, that vessel has very high sides. mar. Vaisseau de — bord, ship of the line; ship of war of two or three decks. 2 (une chose qui est au-dessus d'une autre) high, upper, elevated. Le plus — étage d'une maison, the highest story of a house. Loger dans une chambre — e, to live in a room high up. Les — es voiles d'un vaisseau, the main sails of a ship. Le plus — point, the highest point. pop. Il n'est plus de bonne heure, le soleil est déjà très —, it is not early, the sun is already high (by analogy). L'aigle a le vol très —, the eagle flies very high. Les oiseaux de — vol, high flying birds. Buff. fig. Prendre un vol trop —, to soar too high. La ville —, the high town. fig. Le crêpe est —, L'ent fait laide. fig. Mettre le carme bien —, to be very exacting. 3 (indique la partie d'un pays éloigné de la mer) upper. Le — pays, the upper country. La —, l'Egypte, Upper Egypt. 4 géog. Les —es Alpes, les —es Pyrénées, the Upper Alps, the Upper Pyrenees (mountains and departments of France). Le — Rhin, la — Loire, etc., the Upper Rhine, the Upper Loire, etc. (rivers and departments of France). 5 Le — bout d'une chambre, le — bout d'une table, See bout. 6 (relevé) uplifted, upraised. Marcher courir sur son adversaire l'épée —, la lance —, to rush upon one's adversary with sword, with spear uplifted. Marcher la tête —, to carry one's head high, to hold up one's head. Un cheval qui porte la tête —, a horse that carries his head high. fig. Il peut aller partout la tête —, he can hold up his head wherever he goes. Il entra dans le monde la tête — et sur le pied du génie, he entered the world carrying his head high and on the footing of genius. Si-B. Le chevalier se présenta la visière —, the knight presented himself with his visor raised. Tapissérie de —, tapisserie de lisse, See lisse. her. Epée —, upright sword. man. Tenir la bride — à un cheval. See manne. fig. Tenir la main — à quelqu'un, to keep a tight hand over a person; fig. Tenir la main — e dans une affaire, to be difficult as to the conditions of an affair. 7 (profond) high, deep. L'eau est fort — e en cet endroit, the water is very high in that place. Les eaux sont —, la rivière est —, the waters are high, the river is swelled. Les —es marées, spring tides. La marée, la mer est —, it is high water. La mer est —, the sea is rough. La — mer, the open sea. Gagner la — mer, to stand off to sea. 8 mus. high. Ton —, high tone. Sons —, high sounds. Le ton de l'orchestre est trop —, n'est pas assez —, the tone of the orchestra is too high, not high enough. (by analogy) (des instruments, of instruments) high. 9 (de la voix, of the voice) loud. Avoir la voix —, le verbe —, to have a loud voice, a loud tone of voice. Réciter, lire à — voix, à — e et intelligible voix, to repeat, to read in a loud and distinct voice. Jeter, pousser les —s, to raise an outcry; to set up a scream. Messe —, grand, high mass. fig. Nous n'avons jamais eu ensemble une parole plus — e que l'autre, there has never been a cross word between us. fig. Jeter, pousser les —s, to raise an outcry. fig. Prendre le — ton, le prendre d'un ton —, sur un ton —, sur le — ton, to carry it high, to assume a high tone. fig. Etre — en parole, avoir le verbe —, to talk very big. 10 fig. (supérieur) high. Posséder une qualité à un — degré, to possess a quality in a high degree. Parvenir aux plus —es dignités, to rise to the highest dignities. Une — naissance, high birth. —s fonctionnaires, high functionaries. Une personne de — rang, de — parag, de la — e valeur, a person of high rank, of the first order. De —es fonctions, high office. La — e magistrature, the Bench. La — e administration, the chief administration. A des partis plus —s Rodrigue peut prétendre, Rodrigue may lay claim to match higher than that. Cornélie —es classes de la société, the upper classes of society. On voit des hommes tombés d'une — e fortune, men are seen to fall from the pinnacle of fortune. La Bruy. Acquiescer une — e considération, to join great consideration. Il sont bien déçus de cette — e estime où ils étaient autrefois, they have lost much of that great esteem they formerly possessed. Volt. La — e opinion qu'ils ont d'eux-mêmes, the high opinion they entertain of themselves. Barth. Ces conceptions sont —es, those are lofty conceptions. Barth. — e pitié, great pity. — e protection, powerful interest. — e justice, high justice. — et très-puissant seigneur, high and mighty lord, very high and mighty lord. Très — et très-puissant prince, très — e et très-puissante princesse, most high and mighty prince, princess. (substantif.) Le Très —, the Most High. diplom. Les —es puissances contractantes, the high contracting powers. absol. —es puissances, high mightinesses. La chambre —, the Upper House. Les —es sciences, the higher branches of learning. Les —es classes d'un collège, the upper forms of a grammar-school. Le — style, the grave style. Température —, high temperature. — e pression, high-pressure. Machine à vapeur à — e pression, a high-pressure steam-engine. Etre — en couleur, to be of a ruddy complexion. C'est un cadet de — appétit, he is a sharp-set young fellow. —es cartes, court-cards. — prix, high price, great value. — e paye, extra pay. cou. Les blés, les cafés, les vins, etc., sont —s, the corn, the coffees, the wines, etc., are high. (by analogy) bank. Le change est —, les fonds sont —, the exchange is high, the funds are high. Des la plus — e antiquité, from the remotest antiquity. fig. Emporter quelque chose de — e lutte, to carry a thing with a high hand. 11 fig. (in a bad part) excessive, grievous, heinous. — e injustice, grievous injustice. — e trahison, high treason. 12 fig. (fier) proud, haughty. Le Sage était trop vieux pour travailler, trop — pour demander, Le Sage was too old to work, too proud to solicit. Si-B. BAUT, sm. 1 (élévation) high, height, elevation. Cette tour a tant de pieds de —, this tower is so many feet high. Tomber de son —, to fall full length; fig. Il est tombé de son — quand on lui a dit cela, he was quite amazed when they told him so. fig. Il y a du — et du bas, des —s et des bas dans la vie, there are ups and downs in life. L'admirer-vous pas comme notre vie est mêlée de —s et de bas? do you not admire how checkered is our existence? Volt. 2 (le faite) top, uppermost end. Le — d'un clocher, the top of a steeple. Ne voilà redescendu des —s, charmé de mon excursion, here I am come down from the mountains, delighted with my excursion. Jacq. Il choisit pour assise le — d'un pin, he chose for his abode the top of a pine. La Font. Il est tombé du — de la maison en bas, he fell from the top of the house. Le canon tirait de — en bas, the canon fired down from above. Du — de la colline, from the top of the hill. Barth. Du corps, the superior part of the body. Le — d'une feuille de papier, d'une page, d'un tableau, the top of a sheet of paper, of a page, of a picture. Vers le —, towards the top. fig. Il a voulu abdiquer au plus — de sa gloire et de sa puissance, he wanted to abdicate when at the highest point of his glory. Ab. Mr. S., gourmand 30 plus — de l'échelle, Mr. S., a first rate epicure. Brill. Sav. Prendre le — du pavé, to take the wall. fig. Pour leur céder le — du pavé en littérature, to give them literary precedence. Si-B. priot. — de casse, See casse. mus. La voix de ce chanteur est belle dans le —, this musician has a fine voice in the high notes. fig. Crier du — de sa tête, to scream at the top of one's voice. fig. Les brigands chantaient du — de leur tête, the robbers were singing us loud as they could. Ab. Traiter quelqu'un du — en bas, de — en bas, to treat a person with contempt. Regarder quelqu'un du — de sa grandeur, to despise a person. prov. fig. Gagner le —, to run away. Le galeux gagne

au —, the blade takes to his legs. La Font. 3 —s, pl. naut. the upper works of a ship. BAUT, adv. 1 highly, high, loud, big, proudly, boldly. Etre — perché, — moule, to be perched aloft. Elle leva si — la tête qu'il me sembla, she raised her head so high, that I thought. Ab. Le coop est parti de plus —, the shot came from higher up. Plus —, above. Ainsi qu'il a été dit plus —, as has been said above. Etre pendu — et court, See court. prov. — le pied, let us be off (by analogy) Faire — le pied, to decamp, to be off. (substantif.) Un — le pied, a scamp, a scapegrace. man. Mener un cheval — la main, to hold in a horse tight. fig. — la main, with a high hand. Il l'a emporté — la main sur tous ses concurrents, he carried it with a high hand over his competitors. Cet homme le porte —, that man is very proud. 2 fig. Ai-je donc si — placé votre fortune...? have I raised you so high...? Rac. Reprendre une chose de plus —, one's history de plus —, to go back in a story. 3 (d'un ton intelligible) loudly, distinctly. Vous ne parlez pas assez —, you do not speak loud enough. Parlez plus —, (elliptic) plus —, speak louder. Crier très —, to shout. fig. Parler —, le prendre —, très —, to talk big. Penser tout —, to think aloud. Parler — et clair, to speak plainly and clearly. 4 mus. Vous l'avez pris trop — en commençant, you began a pitch too high. Ce violon n'est pas monté assez —, that violin is not high enough. 5 (Jeu de cartes, cards) Couper —, to play a high card. EN BAUT, 13-BAUT, adv. loc. up, above, upwards. Aller, monter en —, to go upstairs. Regarder en —, to look up. Le choc est parti d'en — de là —, the shot came from above. Je viens d'en —, I come from upstairs. Par en —, upwards. Recevoir le jour par en —, to be lighted from above. Tirer en —, pointer en —, to pull up, to shove up. Là —, above, in heaven. D'en —, from above, from heaven. EN BAUT DE, prep. at the top of. Il est tout en — de la maison, he is at the top of the house. Ecrivez cela en — de la page, write that at the top of the page. PAR BAUT, adv. loc. upwards. Par — et par bas, upwards and downwards. BAUT ET BAS, adv. loc. obsol. entirely, fully. BAUT-À-BAS, sm. obsol. pedlar, hawker. BAUT-À-BAUT, sm. hunt. halloo, hoo-up, blowing a call, a recheat. BAUT-DE-CAUSSE, ou HAUT-DE-CAUSSES, sm. obsol. breeches. HAUTE-CONTRE, sf. pl. HAUTES-CONTRE, 1 mus. counter-tenor. 2 (personne) counter-tenor. HAUTE-COUR, sf. high court of justice. HAUTE-CHAÎLE, sf. pl. HAUTES-CHAÎLES, mus. obsol. upper tenor. HAUT-FOND, sm. naut. See BAS-FOND. HAUT-LE-CORPS, sm. pl. HAUT-LE-CORPS, 1 bound, skip. 2 fig. start. Cette proposition lui fit faire un — le-corps, that proposal made him start. HAUT-PENDU, sm. naut. thunder-cloud. * HAUTAIN, ho-long, adj. m. fem. —, haughty, overbearing, supercilious. Un enfant —, a haughty child. J.-J. Rousseau. Elle se montrait fort —, she showed a great deal of pride. Pl. Chas. Leur audace —, their lofty audacity. Rac. Avoir l'air —, la mine et les manières —, to have a haughty air, look, manners. Il a des termes tout à la fois civils et —s, his expressions are at once civil and haughty. La Bruy. * HAUTAINEMENT, ho-tyn-mang, adv. haughtily. * HAUTOIS, ho-boo, sm. 4 hautboy. prov. Jouer du —, to fell lofty trees 2 (personne) hautboy. * HAUTEMENT, hôt-mang, adv. fig.

boldly, freely, resolutely. Il ne le dissimula point, il le dit —, he did not dissimble the matter, he spoke out boldly. Je lui ai dit — ses vérités, I openly taxed him home.

*HAUTESSE, ho-tays, sf. highness.

*HAUTEUR, ho-tuhr, sf. 1 height (d'une montagne, d'un clocher, of a mountain, of a steeple). Un mur, une palissade à d'appui, a wall, a palisade breast-high. Un arbre qui a 50 pieds de —, a tree which is 50 feet in height. Un mur de 20 pieds de —, a wall 20 feet high. De la — d'un mètre, a meter in height. Les eaux se sont élevées à une — considerable, the waters have risen to a considerable height. La — de la marée, the height of the tide. Tomber de sa —, to fall at full length. 2 (l'élevation d'un corps) height. La — des nuages, at the height of the clouds. 3 astr. altitude, elevation, height. L'prendre la — du soleil, prendre — to take the altitude of the sun. Etre à la — d'une île, d'une ville, etc., to be off an island, a town, etc. 4 (profondeur) depth. La mer n'avait que tant de brasses de —, the sea was only so many fathoms deep. Ce bataillon était à six, sur six de —, that battalion was six deep. 5 (colline) height, hill, eminence, elevation, rising ground. 6 fig. height, elevation. La — de ses conceptions, the elevation of his ideas. Ces soins domestiques qui la faisaient descendre des — de son Plutarque, the household cares which brought her down from her intercourse with the heroes of P. Lamart. Le style doit être à la — du sujet, the style ought to be equal to the subject. Etre à la — de quelqu'un, to be equal to a person. Etre à la — du siècle, not to be behind one's age. Etre à la — des connaissances, des idées actuelles, to keep pace with the learning, the ideas of the day. (by analogy) Elle n'est pas à la — de sa position, she is not equal to her position. Saud. 7 fig. (fermeté) (little used) spirit, firmness. L'ambassadeur soutint les intérêts de son maître avec beaucoup de —, the ambassador supported the interests of his master with great spirit. 8 fig. (in a bad part) (arrogance) haughtiness, superciliousness. Excusez-moi, dit-il avec une certaine —, excuse me, said he, somewhat haughtily. Ab. La haine s'augmenta par là — avec laquelle, —, the hatred increased in consequence of the haughtiness with which, etc. La Rochef. 9 fig. —, pl. (actions, paroles arrogantes) haughty actions, words, haughty ways, manners. Je ne puis supporter ses —, I cannot put up with his haughty ways.

*HAUTURIER, ho-tû-ryay, adj. m. fem. HAUTURIÈRE, anc. noun. Piloté —, sea pilot, pilot who directs his course by celestial observations. Navigation hauturière, trip, sailing navigation.

*HAYE, hâv, adj. m. fem. emaciated. Il était horriblement —, he was horribly wan. Sa face — et plombée, his wan and lead face. Nod. fig. Une terre — et nue, a drear and naked soil. Chat.

*HAVIR, bâ-ver, ra. culin. to scorch (de la viande, meat).

SE HAVIR, vpr. to scorch. HAVIR, vn. to scorch.

*HAYÈRE, hâv', anc. naut. hard-bour, haven, port. 2 (port) harbour.

HAYÈRE-SAG, sm. pl. HAYÈRE-SAC, 4 (d'un soldat, of a soldier) haversack, knapsack, kit. 2 (d'un ouvrier, of a workman) wallet.

*HAYE (LA), hâv, sf. geog. the Hague.

*HÉ, hâv, interj. 1 hey! hallo! hallo! 1 ! l'ami, hallo! hallo! old fellow! 2 (pour avertir de prendre garde) hey! 3 (pour témoigner de la commiseration) alas. —! pauvre homme, que je vous plains! alas! poor man, how I pity you! 4 (pour marquer du regret) alas! —! qu'ai-je fait? alas! what have I done!

5 (pour exprimer quelque étonnement) ah! —! bonjour, ah! good morning. —! qu'il what! 6 (marque une sorte d'adhésion, d'approbation) well! well! 1 —! je ne dis pas non, well! well! I don't say I won't.

*HEAUME, hôm, sm. obsol. helmet, helm.

HEBDOMADAIRE, ayb-do-mah-dayr, adj. mf. (Gr.) weekly. Journal, recueil —, weekly journal, collection.

HEBDOMADIER, ayb-do-mah-dyay, sm. the canon, the priest whose week it is to officiate.

HÉBE, ay-bay, sf. myth. Hebe.

HEBERGER, ay-hayr-zhay, va. to harbour, to entertain, to lodge. C. n'a rien gagné à l'— pendant quatre ans, C. was not the better for having lodged him for four years. Ab. Ayant appris que C. hébergeait des Européens honnêtes, having heard that C. took honest Europeans as boarders, Ab.

HEBÉTÉ, ppa. of HEBÉTER, fem. —, 4 ditt. H. — de peur et de vin. Il stupid with wine and fright. Lamart. (by extension) Tous mes sens étaient —s par la fatigue, all my senses were dulled with fatigue. Ab. 2 (substantiv.) dullard, dolt, blockhead.

HEBETER, ay-hay-tay, va. to stupefy, to dull, to besot, to hebetate. (by extension) L'amour est une maladie qui hébète singulièrement ses malades, love is a malady which singularly dulls the faculties of its patients. Ab.

S'HEBETER, vpr. to become stupefied, dull.

HEBRAÏQUE, ay-brah-ik, adj. mf. Hebrew, Hebraic. Langue —, Hebrew language.

HEBRAÏSANT, ay-brah-e-zâng, sm. Hebraist, hebraician.

HEBRAÏSME, ay-brah-ism', sm. hebraism.

HEBREU, ay-bruh, sm. 1 Hebrew. 2 (langue) Hebrew. fig. Ce que vous dites est de l'— pour moi, vous me parlez —, what you say is Hebrew to me, you are talking Hebrew to me. 3 (adjectif.) Hebrew, hebraic.

HÉCATÉ, ay-kat, sf. myth. Hecate.

HÉCATOMBE, ay-kah-longh, sf. (Gr.) hecatomb.

HECTARE, ayk-tar, sm. (Gr.) hectare, 2 acres, 4 roods, 35 perches.

HECTIQUE, ayk-tik, adj. mf. (Gr.) med. Fievre — essentielle, hectic fever.

HECTISIE, ayk-tee-zee, sf. med. consumption.

HECTOGRAMME, ayk-to-gram, sm. (Gr.) hectogramme, 3.5273 oz. avoirdupois.

HECTOLITRE, ayk-to-litr', sm. (Gr.) hectolitre, 2.75 bushels, 22 gals.

HÉLÈRE, ay-zheer, sf. (Ar.) Hegira.

HELDQUE, ay-dûk, sm. 1 (Hungarian foot-soldier) 2 anc. (en France) a kind of footman.

*HEIN, hang, interj. hey! eh! Voulez-vous, —? will you, eh? —, que dites-vous donc-là? eh! what are you saying there?

HÉLAS, ay-lass, interj. 4 alas! l'ack! adieu! —! que devienrions-nous? alas! what will become of us? 2 (substantif.) sigh, complaint, moan. Il fit de grands —, he sighed most piteously.

HÉLENE, ay-layn, sf. Helen, Ellen.

*HÉLER, hay-lay, va. je hèle, il hèle. JE HÉLERAI, vaut. to hail, to speak (un navire, a ship). On nous hèle, we were spoken. (by extension) On hèle à grands cris le jeune homme, they called the young man with loud cries. Ph. Chas.

SE HÉLER, vpr. to hail each other.

HELIANTHE, ay-lyângt, sm. (Gr.) sunflower.

HELIAQUE, ay-lyak, adj. m. (Gr.) astr. heliac.

HÉLICE, ay-liss, sf. (Gr.) 4 geom. spiral. Un escalier en —, a spiral staircase. 2 mech. screw. Frégate à —, screw-frigate. 3 arch. helix. 4 conch. helix.

HELICON, ay-le-kou, sm. Helicon. fig. Il est au sommet de l'—, il est au bas de l'—, he is a great poet, he is a poetaster.

HELIOCENTRIQUE, ay-lyo-sâng-trik, adj. mf. (Gr.) heliocentric.

HELIOSCOPE, ay-lyo-kop, sm. (Gr.) astr. helioscope.

HELIOTROPE, ay-lyo-trop, sm. (Gr.) 4 bot. heliotrope. 2 bot. heliotrope, turnsole. 3 (pierre précieuse) heliotrope, loadstone. 4 (adjectif.) Plantes —, heliotrop plants.

HELIX, ay-lik, sm. (Gr.) anat. helix.

HELBÉBORE, ay-lay-bor, sm. See ELLÉBORE.

HELLENE, ay-layn, sm. Hellen, Greek.

HELLENIQUE, ay-lay-nik, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 Gr. antiq. Hellenic. 2 La langue —, Hellenic. (substantif.) L'—, Hellenic.

HELLENISME, ay-lay-nism', sm. Hellenism.

HELLÉNISTE, ay-lay-nist, sm. 4 Hellenist. 2 (érudit) Hellenist.

HELMINTHES, ay-mângt, sm. pl. (Gr.) zool. intestinal worms.

HÉLOSE, ay-loz, sf. (Gr.) med. helos.

HELVETIE, ay-lay-vay-sec, sf. geog. Helvetia.

HELVÉTIEN, ay-lay-vay-syang, adj. m. fem. —NE, Helvetic, Swiss. (substantif.) Swiss.

HELVÉTIQUE, ay-lay-vay-nik, adj. mf. Helvetic.

*HEN, hayn, interj. hem! —, —, venez ici, hem! hem! come here.

HÉNATITE, ay-mat-it, sf. (Gr.) 4 min. hematite. 2 (adjectif.) hematitic.

HÉNATOCELE, ay-mat-o-sayl, sf. (Gr.) surg. hematocoele.

HÉNATOSE, ay-mat-oz, sf. (Gr.) physiol. hematosis.

HÉMÉROCALLE, ay-may-ro-kal, sf. (Gr.) bot. hémérocallis, day-lily.

HÉMI, ay-mee, (Gr.) demi, demi, semi, half.

HÉMICYCLE, ay-me-sikl', sm. (Gr.) 4 semi-crocle, hemicycle. 2 arch. hemicycle.

HÉMIONE, ay-myon, sf. zool. hemion.

HÉMINE, ay-meen, sf. (Gr.) antiq. heming.

HÉMIPLÉGIE, ay-me-play-zhee, HÉMIPLÉXIE, ay-mee-plek-sée, sf. (Gr.) med. hemiplegia, hemiplexy.

HÉMIPTÈRES, ay-mip-tayr, adj. and sm. pl. (Gr.) ent. hemiptera.

HÉMISPHERE, ay-mis-fayr, sm. (Gr.) 1 hemisphere. Notre —, our hemisphere. 2 anat. Les —s du cerveau, the hemispheres of the brain.

HÉMISPHERIQUE, ay-mis-fayr-rik, adj. mf. hemispheric, hemispherical.

HÉMISTICHE, ay-mis-tish, sm. (Gr.) hemistich.

HÉMOPTOÏQUE, ay-mop-to-ik, adj. mf. (Gr.) med. afflicted with hemoptysis.

HÉMOPTYSIE, ay-mop-te-zee, sf. (Gr.) med. hemoptysis.

HÉMORRAGIE, ay-mo-razh-ee, sf. (Gr.) med. hemorrhage. — cérébrale, effluvia of the brain.

HÉMORRHOÏDAL, ay-mo-ro-id-e-dal, adj. mf. fem. —, 4 med. hemorrhoidal. 2 hemorrhoidal. 3 sf. —e, hemorrhoida! artery.

HÉMORROÏDES, ay-mo-ro-id, sf. pl. (Gr.) med. hemorrhoids, piles.

HÉMOSTATIQUE, ay-mos-tatik-ik, adj. mf. (Gr.) 4 med. hemostatic. 2 sm. hemostatic.

HÉNÉCAGONE, ang-day-kag-on, adj. mf. (Gr.) 4 geom. hénécagon. 2 sm. hénécagon.

HÉNÉCASYLLABE, ang-day-kah-se-lab, adj. mf. (Gr.) 4 hénécasyllabic. 2 sm. Un —, a hénécasyllabic.

*HENNE, hay-nay, HINNÉ, heu-nay, sm. henna.

*HENNIR, hah-neer, vn. to neigh. Un cheval qui hennait après l'avoine, a horse neighing for his oats.

* HENNISSANT, bah-ne-sang, ppr. of hennir, adj. m. fem. — E. neighing.
* HENNISSEMENT, bah-nis-mang, sm. neigh, neighing. Le — des chevaux, the neighing of horses.

HÉPAR, ay-par, sm. (Gr.) chem. hepar, liver.

HEPATIQUE, ay-pat-ik, adj. m. f. (Gr.) med. anat. hepatic, hepatic.

HÉPATIQUE, sf. bot. 1 hepatic. 2 bot. (espèce d'aéonome) liver-wort.

HÉPATITE, ay-pat-it, sf. (Gr.) med. hepatitis, inflammation of the liver.

HÉPATITE, sf. min. hepatic, liver-stone.

HEPTACORDE, ay-hep-kord, sm. (Gr.) mus. 1 heptachord. 2 (système de son) heptachord.

HEPTAGONE, ay-tah-gon, adj. m. f. (Gr.) 1 geom. heptagonal. 2 sm. heptagon. 3 sm. fort. heptagon.

HEPTAMERON, ay-tah-may-rong, sm. (Gr.) heptameron.

HEPTANDRIE, ay-tang-dree, sf. (Gr.) bot. heptandria.

HÉRALDIQUE, ay-ral-dik, adj. m. f. heraldic. Science —, heraldry.

* HÉRAUT, hay-ro, sm. herald. — d'armes, herald at arms. fig. J'ai servi de — à sa gloire, I was the harbinger of his glory. Rac. fig. Le — du printemps (russe) lui demanda la vie, the herald of spring begged him for his life. La Font.

HERBACÉ, ay-bah-say, adj. m. fem. —, bot. herbaceous.

HERBAGE, ay-bazh, sm. 1 herbage. Vivre d'—, to live on herbage. 2 (Herbe des prés) pasture, grass. 3 (parcell.) (pre) pasture-land, meadows.

HERBAGER, ay-bah-zhay, sm. grazier.

HERBE, ayrb, sf. (Lat. herba) 1 bot. herb. — médicinale, medicinal herb, simple. — potagère, pot-herb. Potage aux —, vegetable soup. Salade d'—, herb salad. Arracher, détruire les mauvaises —s, to pull up the weeds. Ce cheval noir, prendra deux ans aux —s, that horse will be two years old next grass. prov. fig. Il a marché sur quelque mauvaise —, he has had something to put him out. prov. Méchante — mauvaise — crott tojars, ill weeds grow apace. 2 (collectif.) grass. — nouvelle, new grass. — sèche, dry grass. Ou brin d'—, a blade of grass. Le cheval qu'à l'— on avait mis, the horse that had been sent to grass. La Font. Blé en —, sown in —, etc., corn, oats in the blade. fig. L'— sera bien courte, s'il ne trouve de quoi brouter, it will go hard, but he will pull up a living. prov. fig. Manger son blé en —, See blé. Employer toutes les —s de la Saint-Jean, to leave no stone unturned. C'est son avocat en —, no doctor en —, etc., he is a future barrister, physician 3 (in composition) — aux chapeitiers, — de la coqueure, — à la coqueure, yarrow. — aux chats, cat-mint. — aux chaoures, erysimum, hedge-mustard. — aux coqueux, clematis. — au pauvre homme, hyssop. — aux verres, tansole. — aux perles, gromit, gray-mill.

HEIBELLER, ay-bay-yay, vn. huet. (d'un sauglier, of a boar) to graze.

HEIBÉT, ay-bay, ra. to grass-bleach (de la toie, des cheveux, etc., linen, hair, etc.)

HEIBETTE, ay-bet, sf. dimin. of HERBE, greensward. Danser sur l'—, to dance upon the greensward.

HERBEUX, ay-bah, adj. m. fem. HERBEUXE, gras-y. Clairière herbeuse, grassy glade. Allées herbeuses, alleys full of grass. Jacq.

HEIBIET, ay-byaz, sm. 1 herbol, herbarium. 2 (by extension) (estampes) contenant des figures de plantes) herbol. — artificiel, artificial herbol. 3 absol. (du bout, etc. of oxen, etc.) rumen, paunch.

HEIBINE, ay-byazt, sf. herb-woman.

HERBIVORE, ayr-be-vor, adj. m. f. (Lat. herba, voro) 1 zool. herbivorous. Les animaux —s, herbivorous animals. 2 (substantif.) Les —s, the herbivora.

HERBORISATION, ayr-bo-re-zah-syong, sf. 1 herborization. 2 (d'une pierre herborisée) herborization, arborization.

HERBORISÉ, ayr-bo-re-zay, adj. m. fem. — E. See ARBORISÉ.

HERBORISER, ayr-bo-re-zay, vn. to herborize.

HERBORISEUR, ayr-bo-re-zohr, sm. herborizer.

HERBORISTE, ayr-bo-rist, sm. 1 (little used) herborist, herbalist. 2 (celui qui vend des simples) herborist.

HERBU, ayr-bu, adj. m. fem. — E. grass-grown, grassy.

HERCULE, ayr-kul, sm. (Lat.) 1 myth. Hercules. 2 fig. (homme fort) Hercules. Être fort comme un —, to be of herculean strength. Être taillé en —, to be of herculean frame. 3 aste. Hercules.

* HÈRE, hayr, sm. (Germ. her) (disparagingly) fellow, wretch. La Font. C'est un pauvre —, he is a poor devil.

HÈRE, sm. (jeu de cartes) here.

HERÉDITAIRE, ay-ray-de-tayr, adj. m. f. (Lat. hereditarius) 1 hereditary. Biens —s, hereditary estates. 2 (des charges, des offices, etc., of functions, titles, etc.) hereditary. La pairie était — dans cette famille, the peerage was hereditary in that family. Titre —, hereditary title. 3 (par opposition à électif) hereditary. Royaume —, hereditary kingdom. Couronne —, hereditary crown. (by analogy) Empereur —, hereditary emperor. Chambre —, House of Peers. 4 (de ceux qui ont conservé le titre) hereditary. 5 fig. (des maladies, of illness) hereditary, family. Maladie —, hereditary disease. Mal —, hereditary, family disorder. 6 fig. (by analogy) hereditary. Un neveu du fameux X. qui me prouva bien fort que la science n'est pas —, a nephew of the celebrated N. who quite satisfied me that science is not transmitted by inheritance. De Bross. La dévotion et le courage sont — dans cette famille, piety and courage are hereditary in that family. Ab. Haine — hereditary hatred.

HERÉDITAIREMENT, ay-ray-de-tayr-mang, adv. hereditarily.

HERÉDITÉ, ay-ray-de-tay, sf. (Lat. hereditas) 1 law. inheritance. Accepter, renoncer à l'—, to accept, to renounce the inheritance. 2 absol. hereditary right. 3 anc. (relativement à un office) hereditary transmutation. 4 (biens) inheritance.

HERESTARCHE, ay-ray-zark, sm. (Gr.) herestarch.

HERÉSIE, ay-ray-zee, sf. (Gr.) 1 heresy. Aljurer l'—, to abjure heresy. Enseigner, semer une —, to teach, to sow heresy. prov. Il ne fera point d'—, he is no conjurer; he will not set the Thames on fire. 2 (by extension) (doctrine) heresy. — littéraire, literary heresy.

HERÉTICITE, ay-ray-le-se-tay, sf. theol. heretical nature, heresy.

HERÉTIQUE, ay-ray-tik, adj. m. f. 1 heretical. Proposition —, heretical proposition. 2 (des personnes, of persons) heretical. 3 (substantif.) heretic.

* HÉRISSE, ppa. of HÉRISSEUR, fem. — E. adjective 1 rough. Ses cheveux —s par le peigne, et poudrés à blanc, with hair raised upright by the comb and powdered. Lamart. Poil —, bristling hair. fig. C'est un homme —, toujours —, he is a man whose back is always up. fig. C'est n'être pas au savant — que l'aimable H., the amiable H. was not a rough pedant. Sic-B. fig. Sous une enveloppe rude et parfois — e, il y avait un cœur, under a rough and sometimes ruffled envelope there was a heart. Sic-B. (by analogy) L'érudition est — dans les uns et agréable dans les autres, erudition is repulsive in some and attractive in others.

D'Alemb. 2 (by analogy) (garni de certaines choses) bristling, covered, thickset, beset. Un pays — de montagnes, a country covered with mountains. Mérim. Cette côte est — d'écaëils, that coast is bristling with rocks. Volt. Un bataillon — de piques, a battalion bristling with pikes. Le mention — d'une barbe rare et érissonnante, the chin bristling with a thin grizzled beard. Th. Gout. poëtic. L'hiver — de glaçons, winter bristling with ice. fig. Sa tristie vie toute — e de fautes, his sad existence crowded with faults. P. Chas. La vie est — e d'épines, life is beset with thorns. Volt. Un homme — de grec, de latin, a man bristling with Greek and Latin. Le Sage. 3 bot. prickly.

* HÉRISSEUR, hay-re-say, ra. 1 (des animaux, of animals) to bristle up, to erect, to set up. Le lion hérissé sa crinière, quand il est irrité, the lion bristles up his mane, when he is irritated. Les petites serines hérissent et dressent leurs plumes pour s'en mieux couvrir, the little canaries bristled up their feathers, to conceal themselves. Nod. 2 (by analogy) to arm, to cover, to lard. Les piquants qui hérissent la tige du rosier, the prickles which arm the stalk of a rose-bush. Les sapins qui hérissent les flancs du P., the firs which cover the sides of P. Ab. Il voit au milieu du jour des batteries — les pentes, he sees in the middle of the day the slopes bristling with batteries. Lamart. fig. Il faudrait pour cela — notre texte d'une foule de mots tures, for that it would be necessary to lard our text with a number of Turkish words. Th. Gout.

SE HÉRISSEUR, ppr. 1 absol. to bristle, to bristle up. Ce sanglier, ce coq est furieux, il se hérissent, that wild boar, that cock is furious, he bristles up. 2 (des cheveux, du poil, of hair) to stand on end, erect. D'une suite horrible leurs cheveux se hérissent, their hair stood erect with sudden horror. Boil. Des coursiers attentifs le crin s'est hérissé, the hair of the attentive steeds stood on end. Rac. (elliptic.) La vision qui révéla Job au milieu de la nuit et fit — le poil de sa chair, the vision that awoke J. in the middle of the night and made the hair of his flesh stand up. Chat. 3 (se couvrir) to bristle, to be armed, covered. 60,000 balonnettes dont la plaine se hérissa, 60,000 bayonets which bristle the plain. Saint. Ces champs incultes se hérissent d'épines, those uncultivated fields are covered with thorns. Je me hérissais de scorpions, I steel myself with objections. Montesq. 4 fig. to get angry, to grow wrath. La réponse n'arrivait pas, la plus saine partie de la cour commençait à se — no answer arrived, the most sober part of the court began to grow wrath. S-Sim.

* HÉRISSEUR, hay-re-seong, sm. 1 zool. hedge-hog, wechin. 2 mech. canting-wheel, spur-wheel, sprocket-wheel. 3 war. herisson.

* HÉRISSEMENT, hay-re-so-mang, adj. m. fem. — E. ber. crouching.

HERITAGE, ay-re-tazh, sm. 1 inheritance, heritage. Recueillir l'— de ses pères, to succeed to the estate of one's fathers. Il recueillit l'— de ses compagnons, he inherited from his companions. Ab. Quelques babioles qui me sont veuues d'—, a few trites that have been left me. Nod. Faire un —, to acquire an inheritance. fig. Abandonnant à la terre l'— de ses sueurs, giving up to the earth the fruit of his labours. Chat. prov. Fig. Promesse de grand n'est pas —, the promises of the great are no inheritance. 2 fig. inheritance. Mon travail est mon seul —, my sole riches, labour is my only inheritance, my only riches. Sand. 3 (immeuble) estate, family estate. scrip. Les meubants n'auront point de part à l'— église, à l'— du Seigneur, the wicked shall have no share in the inheritance of Heaven, of the Lord.

HERITIER, ay-re-tay, m. 1 to inherit, to be heir (to). Il est juste que le fils hérite de son père, it is just a son should inherit from his father. Il doit — de son oncle, he is to be his uncle's heir. 2 (devenir propriétaire par voie de succession) to come (into) to be heir (to), to succeed (to). Un ignorant hérita d'un manuscrit qu'il porta, an ignorant man became heir to a manuscript which he carried. La Font. fig. Sa fille hérita de toutes les éparges de ce cœur si riche et si sensible, her daughter inherited all the tendernesses of this highly gifted heart had treasured up. St-B. Il a hérité de la gloire de ses ancêtres, he has inherited the glory of his ancestors. Vous hériteriez de sa puissance, you will succeed to his power.

HÉRITIER, ro. to inherit. fig. Il n'a rien hérité de son frère, he has inherited nothing from his brother. C'est une manie which I inherited from my father, Jaques. Elle avait hérité de sa race patriarcale l'amour des vieilles institutions, she had inherited from her patriarchal race a love for old institutions. Ph. Chas.

HÉRITIÈRE, ay-ro-tyay, em. fem. HÉRITIÈRE, (Lat. heres) 4 heir (to), inheritor (of). — naturel, légitime, lawful heir. — testamentaire, heir at law, devisee. — onvser, sole heir. — par et simple, unconditional heir. — présomptif, heir presumptive, heir apparent. — en ligne droite, en ligne collatérale, heir in a direct line, in a collateral line. Il est — d'un tel, he is heir to such a one. L'— est généralement reconnaissant et libéral, the heir is generally grateful and liberal. the heir is generally grateful and liberal. Nod. — bénéficiaire, sous bénéfice d'inventaire, one that inherits without liability to debts beyond amount of assets. Se porter — pour —, to claim to be heir. 2 (relativement à la chose dont on hérite) heir. — d'une grande fortune, heir to a great fortune. L'— présomptif de la couronne, the heir apparent to the crown, the heir presumptive to the crown. 3 fig. heir. Il voulait avoir un — de son nom, he wanted to have a heir to his name. — des talents de son père, heir to his father's talents. 4 (enfant) heir.

HÉRITIÈRE, ay-re-tyay, sf. heivress.
HERMAPHRODITE, ay-rat-ro-dit, sm. (Gr.) 1 hermaphrodite. 2 adj. nf. (des animaux, of animals) Animal —, hermaphrodite animal. 3 bot. Fieurs — s, hermaphrodite flowers.

HERMES, ay-mes, sm. (Gr.) sculpt. Hermes, Mercury's head.

HERMETIQUE, ay-mey-tic, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 alch. hermétique, hermetic. 2 arch. Colonne —, Hermes.

HERMETIQUEMENT, ay-may-tik-mang, adv. 4 chem. nat. publ. hermetically. 2 (by extension) hermetically. Un vase — fermé, a vase hermetically closed. fig. La vie turque — fermée, the Turkish life so strictly concealed. Th. Gaut.

HERMINE, ay-meyn, sf. 1 zool. ermine. 2 (fourrure) ermine. 3 her. ermine.

HERMINÉ, ay-mey-nay, adj. nf. fem. — e, her. ermined.

HERMINETTE, ay-mey-net, sf. See HERMINETTE.

HERMITAGE, ay-mey-tazh, sm. See HERMITAGE.

HERMITE, ay-mit, sm. See HERMITE.

HERNIAIRE, hay-nayr, adj. nf. surg. hernial. Bandage —, truss.

HERNIE, hay-noy, sf. surg. (Lat. hernia) 4 hernia, rupture. — abdominale, hernia ventris. 2 vulg. (abdominale) hernia. — étranglée, strangulated hernia.

HERNIER, hay-nayr, sm. naut. crow-bolt stick.

HERNIOLE, hay-niol, sf. hnt. ruy-lure-wort.

* HERNUTES, hay-nüt, sm. pl. Moravian brethren.

HERODIENS, ay-ro-dyang, sm. pl. Herodians.

HEROÏ-CONIQUE, adj. mf. heroï-comic, serio-comic. Poème —, comique, heroï-comic poem.

HEROÏDE, ay-ro-id, sf. heroïc epistles.
HEROÏNE, ay-ro-éon, sf. heroine. L'— d'un conte, d'un roman, d'une pièce, de théâtre, etc., the heroine of a tale, of a novel, of a play, etc.

HEROÏQUE, ay-ro-ik, adj. mf. 1 heroic, heroidal. Vertu —, heroic virtue. Un acte —, an heroic action. Barth. Tant d'—s facultés ne sont pas anéanties, so many heroic faculties are not annihilated. J.-J. Rouss. Ma sensation ne fut pas — à son aspect, I felt nothing heroic about me at the sight of him, he frightened me. Ph. Chas. 2 (des personnes, of persons) heroic. C'est une femme —, she is an heroic woman. (by analogy) Ame —, heroic soul. 3 Age —, siècles, temps —, heroic ages. 4 Poésie —, heroic poetry. Vers —, heroic verse. 5 med. most powerful, efficacious. Remède —, efficacious remedy. fig. Il fallait de plus —s remèdes, more powerful remedies were necessary. St-B.

HEROÏQUEMENT, ay-ro-ik-mang, adv. heroically.

HEROÏSME, ay-ro-ism', sm. heroism Un acte, on trait d'—, an act, a trait of heroism. Porter la vertu jusqu'à l'—, to carry virtue to heroism. Dans l'histoire comme dans la vie, il y a des —s équivoques, in history as in life, there are acts of doubtful heroism. Ph. Chas. — de générosité, heroism of generosity.

HERON, hay-rong, sm. orn. heron. Un faucon dressé pour le —, a falcon trained for flying the heron. Voler le —, to fly the heron.

* HERONNEAU, hay-ro-no, sm. dimin. of heron. orn. young heron.

* HERONNIER, hay-ro-nayr, adj. m. fem. HERONNIÈRE, hawk. heron-like. Faucon —, falcon trained for flying the heron. Oiseau —, a heron-shaped bird. fig. fam. Coiffe heronnière skinny thigh.

* HERONNIÈRE, hay-ro-nayr, sf. heronry.

* HEROS, hay-ro, sm. (Gr.) antiq. 1 hero. Les — de la Fable, the heroes of the Fable. 2 (ceux qui se distinguent par une valeur extraordinaire, etc.) hero. Il mourut en —, he died like a hero. Il fit de tous ses soldats autant de —, he made so many heroes of all his soldiers. Loin de nous les — sans humanité, away with heroes without humanity. Boss. 3 (in a wider sense) hero, model, pattern. Se comporter en —, to behave like a hero. En — généreux, H. n'abusa pas de son triomphe, like a generous hero. H. did not abuse his triumph. Sand. 4 Le — d'un poème, d'un roman, d'une pièce de théâtre, etc., the hero of a poem, romance, play, etc. fig. Vous êtes son —, you are his hero, his type.

HERPES, ayrp, sf. pl. — marines, things thrown on the coast by the sea.

HERPES, ayr-pays, sm. (Gr.) med. herpes, letters.

* HERSAGE, hayr-sazh, sm. harrowing.

* HERSE, hayrs, sf. 1 harrow. 2 (d'un château, etc.) portcullis, herse. 3 (dans les églises, in churches) triangular candle-stick.

* HERSE, pp. of HERSER, fem. — e, her, with a herse.

* HERSER, hayr-say, va. to harrow (un champ, a field).

* HERSEIN, hayr-sobr, sm. harrower.

HÉSITANT, ay-ze-tang, pp. of HÉSITER. adj. m. fem. — e, hesitating, wavering. Sa voix enrouée et — e, his hoarse and faltering voice. Fén. L'Europe monarchique — e et divisée, monarchical Europe hesitating and divided. Lamart. L'Assemblée encore — e en ressentit le contre-coup, the assembly still hesitating felt the counter-blow. Lamart. fig. La bataille sembla gagnée ou — e, devant N., the battle seemed won or undecided before N. Lamart.

HÉSITATION, ay-ze-tah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 hesitation, faltering. Réciter sans —, sans la moindre —, to repeat without hesitation, without the least hesitation. Parler, répondre avec —, to speak, to answer, with hesitation. 2 (doute) hesitation. Mouvement d'—, hesitating gesture.

HÉSITER, ay-ze-tay, sm. (Lat. hesitare) 1 to hesitate, to pause, to falter (dans ses réponses, in one's answers). S'il hésitait dans ses formules, il n'hésitait pas dans ses actes, if he hesitated in his expressions, there was no hesitation in his acts. Aug. Th. (Étre incertain) to hesitate, to waver. Pendant que les gardiens du trésor hésitaient, whilst the guardians of the treasure hesitated. Aug. Th. J'ai longtemps hésité à te faire cette confidence, I long hesitated whether I should confide this to you. J.-J. Rouss. Après avoir hésité un instant sur le parti que j'avais à prendre, after a moment's hesitation as to the course I had to pursue. Chat. R. hésitait maintenant à entrer, R. now hesitated to enter. Chat. Puisque vous exposez sans — et de gaieté de cœur une vie qui ne vous appartient pas, since you unhesitatingly and wantonly expose a life that is not yours. Sand. Je n'hésitais plus sur les termes de la capitulation, I hesitated now but on the terms of capitulation. Nod. Il n'y a pas à — la-dessus, there is no room for hesitation. (by extension) Il n'est pas de croyance si folle qui ne trouble et n'hésite à de certains moments, there is no belief, however firm, which does not, at certain moments, waver and hesitate. V. Hug.

HÉTÉROCLITE, ay-tay-ro-klit, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 gram. heteroclitic, heteroclitic, heteroclitical, heteroclitous. 2 fig. (hazarde) ridiculous, whimsical, odd, fantastic. Mine —, odd look. So tonnaire —, his whimsical figure. Ph. Chas. Son latin était dur, bizarre, his Latin was hard, whimsical, unmonal. St-B. C'est un homme fort —, he is a very odd man. 3 fig. (qui s'écarte des règles ordinaires de l'art) anomalous, irregular. Un bâtiment —, an irregular building.

HÉTÉRODOXE, ay-tay-ro-doks, adj. mf. (Gr.) theol. heterodox.

HÉTÉRODOXIE, ay-tay-ro-dok-sec, sf. theol. heterodoxy.

HÉTÉROGÈNE, ay-tay-rh-zhyn, adj. mf. (Gr.) heterogeneous, heterogenous, dissimilar. Corps composé de parties —, body composed of heterogeneous parts. fig. L'nn société formée d'éléments —, a society formed of heterogeneous elements.

HÉTÉROGÉNÉITE, ay-tay-ro-zhay-ay-e-tay, sf. heterogeneity.

HÉTÉROSCIENS, ay-tay-ras-tyang, sm. pl. (Gr.) geog. heteroscians.

HÉTMAN, ay-man, sm. (Russ.) — des Cosaques, hetman of the Cossacks.

* HETRE, haytr, sm. bot. beech, beech-tree. Bois de —, beech. Bûche de —, log of beech.

HEU, uh, interj. 1 alas I lackaday! anc. (interrogation) hey! Elle est fille d'Albert —, I de qui, si t'en vas plain? she is Albert's daughter. Hey! whose, do you say? Mol. 3 anc. (dans un sens admiratif) ah! voilà ce que c'est que d'avoir étudié! ah! what a thing it is to have studied! Mol.

heu, sm. naut. hoy.

HEUR, uhr, sm. obsol. luck, good luck, good fortune. Tout l'— que j'espère est de vous obéir, I wish for no higher fortune than that of obeying you. Cora. Il n'y a qu'— et malheur dans ce monde, chance is every thing. Tant d'— et tant de gloire, so much happiness and glory. Cora.

HEURE, uhr, sf. (Lat. hora) 4 hour. Une — et demi, an hour and a half.

Une demi- —, half an hour. Un quart d'heure, a quarter of an hour. Un intervalle d'une —, an hour's time. Deux —s entières, deux grosses —s, deux bonnes —s, deux mortelles —s, two good, full, mortal hours. Faire tant de lieues par —, à l'—, to go over so many leagues an hour. Il lui fut enjoint de sortir de la ville dans les vingt-quatre —s, he received orders to leave the town within the four-and-twenty hours. Vous prenez d'— en —, de demi- — en demi- —, une collerette de cette po- tion, you will take every hour, every half-hour, a spoonful of this potion. Son sup- plice fut de toutes les — pendant deux ans, her torment was hourly for two years. Lamart. Si vous avez une — de temps à perdre, venez la passer avec nous, if you have an hour to throw away, come and pass it with us. Vous avez encore plus d'une — de chemin, vous avez encore une — de chemin, you have another hour's walk. — de grâce, quart d'— de grâce, an hour's grace, a quarter of an hour's grace. N'avez pas une — à soi, never to have an hour to one's self. (by analogy) N'avez pas une — de repos, de relâche, not to have an hour's repose, rest. D'— en —, d'— à autre, d'une — à l'autre, from one hour, minute, moment to another. Prendre un ouvrier, un homme de peine, un fâché, un cabriolet à l'—, to take a workman, a porter, a hackney-coach, a cab, by the hour. Être à l'—, to be employed by the hour. Toutes nos —s sont com- plètes, all our days are numbered. cath. liturg. Les prières de quarante —s, (clitip- tie.) Les quarante —s, the prayers of forty hours. fig. Passer un mauvais quart d'—, to pass a bad, a disagreeable time. Avoir de bons et de mauvais quarts d'—, to be un- even-tempered. poét. La fuite des —s, the flight of the hours. L'onde en coulant, avertis qu'on se bâte et que l'— nous quitte, the water gliding on warns us to hasten, and that time is leaving us be- hind. V. Hug. prov. fig. Le quart d'— de Rabelais, settling-time, trying-time. 2 (relativement aux divers moments du jour) hour, time, d'clock. Quelle — est-il ? what d'clock is it ? Dites-moi l'— qu'il est, tell me what d'clock it is. J'aime à vous entretenir à toute —, I like to con- versate with you at any time. M. de Sév. Il n'est pas loin de deux —s, it is not far from two d'clock. Il faut vous lever tous les jours à six —s du matin, you must rise every morning at six d'clock. Être sujet à l'—, to be tied to time. A deux —s de nuit, at two o'clock in the night. A deux —s du jour, at two o'clock in the after- noon. law. À l'— de midi, at noon. A deux —s, à trois —s de relevée, at two, at three o'clock in the afternoon. Attends, va l'— avancée, considering the lateness of the hour. À cette —, at the present moment. À l'— qu'il est, à l'— où je vous parle, at the present moment, at present. Cela d'est plus la mode à l'— qu'il est, that is no longer the fashion. — indue, un- seasonable, late hours ; || unseasonable hour. Rentrer à l'— indue, to return home very late, to keep bad hours. Bonne —, right moment. Voici la bonne — pour faire telle chose, this is the right mo- ment to do such a thing. — favorable, — propice, favorable, propitious moment. Mauvaise —, bad, unlucky moment. Arriver à la bonne —, to come at the right moment ; just in time. ironic. Vous venez à une belle —, à belle —, it est belle — pour venir ; la belle — pour arriver, a pretty hour this is to come. 3 (donnée par une horloge, etc.) d'clock, clock. Il est ne — quarante minutes à ma montre, is twenty minutes to two o'clock by my watch. L'— vient de sonner, the clock has just struck. L'horloge a sonné une —, the clock has struck one. Avancer l'—, retarder l'—, to put the clock on, to put the clock back. Mettre une montre à l'—, to set a watch. Prendre l'—, to set one's clock, one's watch right. prov. fig. Chercher midi à quatorze —s, to look for a knot in a butruth. 4 (signes d'un cadran) hour, time. 5 (moment indiqué pour une affaire, etc.) hour, time. Prendre une —, to appoint an hour. À l'— dite, at the time appointed. 6 (moment où l'on fait habituellement quelque chose) time, hour. Il est — de dîner, it is time to dine. Il a ses —s de toilette comme une femme, he has his hours of dressing like a woman. La Broj. L'— de la messe, church-time. Aox —s de repas, at meal-times. Il vivait de régime et mangeait à ses —s, he kept a diet, and ate only at stated hours. La Font. Il a du style, de la verve à ses —s, he has both style and spirit at certain moments. Ph. Chas. (by analogy) Il voulait obéir à son — et non à l'— de ses ennemis, he wished to bide his own time, not that of his enemies. Lamart. 7 (des divers moments de la journée) hour, time, moment, minute. Il passe des —s, entières à rien faire, he spends whole hours in doing nothing. Il a de bonnes et de mauvaises —s, he has his good and bad fits. Il ne peut disposer d'un mo- ment, toutes ses —s sont prises, he cannot dispose of a moment, all his time is taken up. —s de loisir, —s perdues, leisure hours. Faire quelque chose à ses —s, dérober, to do a thing at one's odd mo- ments. 8 liturg. —s canonicales, canonical hours. Les petites —s, the lesser hours. Livre d'—s, absol. —s, primer, prayer-book. pop. Une paire d'—s, a primer. 9 (in a wider sense) (moment, époque) time, period, moment. Pour lui — du regret de survivre était venue, he had come to regret having survived. Sié-B. M. profita de cette — de répit pour, M. profited by this momentary respite to. Saud. L'— fatale approche, the fatal moment is approaching. J'ai vu l'— que, at one moment I was afraid lest. fig. C'est un homme, un aul de toutes les —s, he is a man, a frikad, one is always happy to see ; who is eter ready to oblige. Dernière —, dernière, — suprême, last mo- ments, dying moments. Il touchait à sa dernière —, his last hour was at hand. Fén. 10 absol. le temps, le moment où quelque chose doit arriver à quelqu'un time, hour, turn. Vous voulez être dé- puté, monsieur, attendez encore un peu, votre — n'est pas encore venue, you wish to be a deputy, sir, wait a little longer. (le moment de la mort) hour. 11 (particul.) (le moment d'une grande maladie, son — n'était pas encore venue, he has recovered from a serious illness, his hour had not yet come.

DE BONNE HEURE, adv. early, betimes, soon. Se lever de bonne —, to rise early, betimes. Venez de bonne —, come early. Il est encore de bonne —, it is early yet. (by analogy) Venez une autre fois de meilleure —, come earlier another time. Il est de trop bonne — pour dîner, it is too early to dine. Il est venu d'assez bonne —, he came rather early. Ces arbres fleurissent de bonne —, those trees blossom early. Il y a des naturels violents dont la ferocité se développe de bonne —, there are violent dispositions the ferocity of which is early developed. J.-J. Rouss.

À LA BONNE HEURE, adv. loc. A well and good, that's right. Vous le voulez : à la bonne —, je ne m'y oppose pas, you are decided : well, as you please, I have no objection. 2 (marquant l'indiférence) so be it, as you please. 3 tout. À la bonne —, very well.

TOUT À L'HEURE, adv. loc. by and by, presently, just now. Je suis à vous tout à l'—, I shall be at your disposal presently. Vous disiez tout à l'— que, you were saying just now that.

SEN L'HEURE, adv. loc. immediately, directly, forthwith. Allez-y sur l'—, go thither immediately. obsol. Tout sur l'—, immediately.

POUR L'HEURE, adv. loc. for the present moment, for the present, at present. Je n'en ai point pour l'—, I have none for the present moment.

HEUREUSEMENT, adverb. a. fr. 1 happily, fortunately, luckily, successfully. Être né —, to be born fortunate. Dans l'homme — né, le sentiment précède la réflexion, in a man born with a happy natural disposition sentiment precedes reflection. Nod. Vivre —, to live happily. Jouer —, to be a lucky player. 2 (var bonheur) luckily, fortunately. J'étais in- quiet de son retard, — il arriva, I was uneasy at his being so late, fortunately, he arrived. — le chagrin augmenta mon mal, ce qui l'occupa, fortunately grief increased my affliction, which diverted it. Sié-B. — pour lui, je ne l'ai pas ren- contré, fortunately for him, I did not meet with him. — vous voulez ! luckily, here you are ! 3 (favorablement) hap- pily, favourably. Il est point d'État aussi — siime pour, there is no state so happily situated for. Rayn. 4 (des choses de l'esprit, of things of the mind) happily, felicitously. Cela est — exprime, that is a felicitous expression, happily ex- pressed.

HEUREUX, (m) — rah, adj. m. fem. heureux, (from heur) 1 happy. J'étais le plus — des hommes et des naturalistes, I was the happiest of men and naturalists. Ab. Les mortels sont-ils — ? ce n'est pas mon avis, the dead then are happy ? that is not my opinion. La Font. Il rend sa femme très-heureuse, he makes his wife very happy. — comme on est, as happy as a fool. Sié-B. Vous me rendez — quand vous m'écrivez, you make me happy when you write to me. Volt. Il n'est — qu'après de vous, he is happy only when with you. B. si — d'avoir une composition à écrire. B., so happy to have a composition to write. Ph. Chas. J'étais — de vivre, je ne voyais partout que des amis, life for me was happiness, I saw none but friends around me. Ab. — l'homme des champs, s'il connaissait son bonheur, happy the country man, if he did but know his happiness. G. Sand. Trop —, si je pouvais lui plaire, too happy, could I please him. On est — de penser que, one is happy in the thought that. L'empire chinois, bien plus — que l'Inde, etc., the Chinese empire more happy than India, etc. Volt. (particul.) Il ne touche que 78 francs par mois, et ses parents ne sont pas —, he only re- ceives 78 francs a month, and his parents are not in good circumstances. Ab. Être — comme un roi, to be as happy as a king. prov. Est — qui croit l'être, he is happy who thinks himself to be so. 3 (de la condition, de l'état, etc.) happy, for- tunate, prosperous. Il jouit d'un sort très- —, he is in very good circumstances. Ce temps, cet — temps où, that time, that happy time when. Buil. Je vous souhai- te des journées remplies et heureuses, I wish you long and happy days. Volt. Mener une vie heureuse, to lead a happy life. Une heureuse vieillesse, a happy old age. 3 (favorisé de la fortune) happy, lucky, successful. Il est né —, he was born lucky. Être — dans son commerce, to be fortunate in trade. Être — au jeu, to be lucky at gaming. Il est — en tout, he is lucky in every thing. (by extension) Le crime — fut just et cessa d'être crime, successful crime was just and ceased to be a crime. Boil. 4 (qui rend fortuné, favorable, avantageux) happy, favourable, blissful, lucky. — sorti, happy lot. Le Japon ne fut pas plus — à cet homme que, he had no better luck in Japan than he. La Font. O jour, trois fois — ! oh ! three happy day ! Rac. Sejour —, happy abode, blissful abode. Coup —, lucky stroke, throw. C'était une occasion heureuse manquée, it was a favourable opportunity lost. Volt. C'est —, c'est fort — pour lui, it is lucky, very lucky for him. C'est une heureuse rencontre, it is a lucky meeting. Choix —, happy choice. Ironie. C'est rés —, c'est fort —, it is very lucky indeed. fig. Avoir la main heureuse, I have a lucky hand; || to be lucky. J'ai la main heureuse et le m'engage à t'apporter les oreilles du major, I have a lucky hand, and I undertake to bring you the major's ears. Sand. fig. Avoir la main heureuse, to be in luck. 5 (qui réussit) happy, prosperous, successful, safe. La traversée, la navigation fut très-heureuse, le passage, le voyage was very prosperous. Heureuse tentative, successful attempt. — retour, safe return. Notre trajet fut —, we had a prosperous voyage. Barth. 6 (de quelque chose de fâcheux qui n'a pas eu de mauvaise suite) lucky. Un coup —, a lucky blow. C'est une chute heureuse, it is a lucky fall. J'ai une véritable joie que cette petite aventure ait pris un tour si —, I am truly delighted that this little adventure has turned out so happily. Mm de Sév. 7 (qui annonce la prospérité) happy, auspicious, favourable, promising. Un — présage, a happy omen. Les apparences les plus heureuses couvraient les plus grandes calamités, the most favourable appearances concealed the greatest calamities. Volt. Avoir la physionomie heureuse, to have a prepossessing countenance. 8 (in a wider sense) (excellent) happy. Son — naturel ne laisse presque rien à l'éducation, his happy disposition left scarcely anything for education to do. Fén. Un enfant né avec d'heureuses dispositions, a promising child. Jouir d'une heureuse santé, to enjoy good health. Il a la mémoire heureuse, he has a happy memory. D'heureuse mémoire, of blessed memory. 9 (bien imaginé) happy, felicitous. Cette idée est heureuse et sage, that idea is a happy and wise one. Volt. Cette page heureuse par laquelle il prend sa place entre V. et A. Ch., that finely written page which assigns him a place between V. and A. Ch. St-B. Un — choix de mots, a happy choice of words. Il a fait beaucoup de vers —, he has written many fine lines. Volt. 10 (des personnes, of persons) happy. Les femmes sont heureuses dans le choix des termes, women are happy in the choice of their terms. La Bruy. 11 (substantif) happy. Faire des —, to spread happiness around one. Ce commerce clandestin se faisait à la porte du riche et de l'—, this clandestine commerce was carried on at the doors of the rich and happy Chat. Les — du jour, the favourites of the day. Les — du siècle, the great ones of the earth. On le citait comme un des — de la terre, he was cited as one of the happy ones of this world. Saint.

* HEURT, huir, sm. 1 shock, collision, knock. Un — survient, adieu le char, there comes a shock, farewell the chariot. La Font. Malgré quelques —s et quelques mauvais pas, in spite of a little bumping and jolting. La Font. Les —s, les chocs lui (à l'oiseau) sont saufs, he is protected against collisions. Mieux. 2 (la marque que le coup a laissée) mark of a blow, bruise.

HEURTE, pp. of HEURTER, fem. —e, 1. et 2. et his Hungarians attacked in front by B. Saint. fig. Gardez qu'une voyelle... ne soit d'une voyelle en son chemin —, take care lest one vowel strike against another in its way. Boit. 2 paint, sculpt. Dessin —, harsh design. Contours —s, harsh contours. 3 (by analogy) (du style, of style) harsh.

* HEURTER, huir-tat, va. 1 to strike, to knock, to hit against, to run against. Tantôt nous sommes prêts de — des sauvages endormis, sometimes we almost stumble over sleeping savages. Chat. A chaque instant mon pied heurtait un fragment de machoire, at every moment, my foot struck against the fragments of a jaw. Th. Gaut. Ce vaisseau a heurté l'autre, this vessel fell foul of the other. 2 fig. (offenser) to offend, to hurt, to shock, to run counter to. On ne peut agir ainsi sans — beaucoup de gens, one cannot act thus without offending many people. Je ne voudrais point — vos idées, I should not like to shock your ideas Ab. Il n'osait — de front mon sentiment, he durst not run counter to my sentiment. J.-J. Rouss. Cela heurte la raison, that shocks reason. Ces rapports heurteraient nécessairement les passions, these reports would necessarily irritate the passions. Lamart. — les préjugés, to run counter to prejudices. Il s'aperçoit trop tard qu'il a heurté la grande idole populaire, he recognizes too late that he has offended the popular idol. St-B.

SE HEURTER, vpr. 4 (se cogner contre) to run against, to strike, to knock, to hit against, to clash. Quoiqu'on le chemin soit fort obscur, il ne l'est pas au point de se —, though the road is dark, it is not enough to knock one's self. De Bruss. Se — la tête contre un mur, to knock one's head against a wall. fig. Elle aurait trouvé un autre ordre d'idées sans aller se — contre l'écueil où elle a péri, she would have found another order of ideas without dashing against the rock on which she perished. St-B. fig. Le héros de roman s'était heurté contre la réalité et s'y était brisé, the hero of romance had come into collision with the reality, and was dashed to pieces. St-B. Il s'arrêta tout à coup comme s'il se fût heurté contre un mur, he stopped all at once as if he had struck against a wall. Balz. 2 recip. to come into collision, to run against, to jostle each other, to clash together. Les troupes se heurtaient et se bécotaient avec confusion, etc., the troops were running against each other and fighting in tumult, etc. Barth. Des vagues qui se heurtent, waves dashing against each other. Les idiomes rustiques repirent le dessus et se heurtèrent avec les idiomes des vainqueurs, the country idioms came up again and clashed with the idioms of the conquerors. St-B.

HEURTER, va. 1 to strike, to knock, to hit against. — de la tête contre la muraille, to knock one's head against the wall. Un d'eux heurtait du pommeau de son sabre à la porte d'une boucherie, one of them knocked with the pommel of his sabre against the gate of an inn. Th. Gaut. 2 absol. (frapper à la porte) to knock, to rap. I. heurte, se nomme, tempête et crie, I. knocks at the door, declines his name, swears and storms. Montesq. On avait beau — et mûter son chapeau, la porte était close, it was in vain for people to knock and to bow to me, the door remained closed. Rac. fig. — à toutes les portes, to try every means, to leave no stone unturned.

* HEURTOIR, huir-twair, sm. absol. knocker.

HEXAÈDRE, ayg-zah-zydr', adj. mf. (Gr.) geom. 4 hexahedral. 2 sm. hexahedron.

HEXAGONE, ayg-zah-gon, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 geom. hexagonal. 2 sm. hexagon. 3 sm. fort. hexagon.

HEXAMÈTRE, ayg-zah-maytr', adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 Gr. Lat. versil. hexameter. 2 sm. hexameter.

HÉXANDRIE, ayg-zahg-dree, sf. (Gr.) bot. hexandria.

HI, HI, he-hee, interj. ha! ha!

HIATUS, e-yah-tüs, sm. (Lat.) hiatus.

* HIBOU, he-buo, sm. orn. owl. fig. C'est un —, un vrai —, he is a moper, an old moper.

* HIC, hik, sm. (Lat.) rub. Voilà le —, there's the rub. Le — de l'aventure fut que nos chevaux refusèrent absolument de nous mener plus loin, the worst of the adventure was that our horses refused positively to take us any further. De Bross.

HIDALGO, e-dal-go, sm. (Sp.) hidalgo. * HIDEUSEMENT, he-duiz-mant, adv. hideously, frightfully, horribly, dreadfully, shockingly.

* HIDEUX, he-doh, adj. m. fem. n. euse, hideous, frightful, horrible, dreadful, shocking. Un monstre —, a frightful monster. Cela était — à voir, it was a hideous sight. (morally) L'égoïsme fait des hommes sans éducation et sans bon naturel les êtres les plus — dans l'ordre social, selfishness makes men without either education or kindness the most hideous beings in society. Nod.

HIE, hee, sf. 1 (pour enfoncer le pavé) bedie, paving-stone, rammer. 2 (pour enfoncer les pilotes en terre) ram.

HIEBLE, yayhl, sf. hol. danewort, dwarf-elder, wall-wort.

HIER, e-yat, adv. (Lat. heri) 1 yesterday. Il n'est parti que d'—, he only set out yesterday. — matin, au matin, yesterday morning. Avant —, the day before yesterday. D'— en huit, en quinze, etc., yesterday week, fortnight. 2 fig. (d'une époque indéterminée) yesterday. Pour moi, vos succès sont d'—, it seems to me it was only yesterday you were so handsome. Balz. Il n'est que d'— dans cette place, he was but lately appointed to that situation.

* HIÉARCHIE, hi-yar-shee, sf. (Gr.) 1 hierarchy. La — celeste, the heavenly hierarchy. La — des anges, the hierarchy of angels. 2 (dans l'ant. ecclésiastique) hierarchy. 3 (by extension) (de toute sorte de pouvoirs, de rangs, etc.) hierarchy.

* HIÉRARCHIQUE, hi-yar-shik, adj. mf. hierarchicall, hierarchic.

* HIÉRARCHIEMENT, hi-yar-shik-mant, adv. hierarchicallly.

* HIÉRIQUE, hi-yar-ik, adj. mf. (Gr.) hieratic.

* HIÉROGLYPHE, yay-ro-glif, sm. (Gr.) hieroglyph, hieroglyphic.

* HIÉROGLYPHIQUE, yay-ro-gle-fik, adj. mf. hieroglyphic, hieroglyphical.

* HIÉRONIQUE, yay-ro-nik, adj. mf. (Gr.) antiqu. 1 hieronic. 2 (substantif) hieronic.

* HIÉROPHANTE, yay-ro-fangt, sm. (Gr.) antiqu. hierophant.

HILARE, e-yar, sm. Hilary.

HILARANT, e-lah-rant, adj. m. fem. —e, m. n. exultant, laughing.

HILARITÉ, e-lar-e-yat, sf. (Lat. hilaritas) 1 hilarity, cheerfulness. 2 (gaîté subite) laugh, laughter. Ce qui causait son —, je ne l'ai jamais su, what provoked her mirth, I never learned. Ab. — bruyante, loud laughter.

* HILE, heel, sm. (Lat. hiliun) bot. hi'un (d'une fève, d'un haricot, of a bean, a haricot).

* HIPIATRIQUE, ip-pyat-rik, sf. (Gr.) did. veterinary medicine.

* HIPPOCENTAURE, ip-po-sang-tor, sm. (Gr.) hippocentaur.

* HIPPOCRAS, sm. See HYPOCRAS.

* HIPPOCRÈNE, e-po-krayn, sf. (Gr.) Hippocrene. fig. Il a bu des eaux de l'—, he has drunk of the waters of Hippocrene, he has a talent for poetry.

* HIPPODROME, e-po-drom, sm. (Gr.) hippodrome, horse-course.

* HIPPOGRIFE, e-po-grif, sm. (Gr.) hippogriff. Cet — de fer et d'acier qu'on appelle une locomotive, that hippogriff of iron and steel except a locomotive. Th. Gaut.

* HIPPOLITHE, e-po-lit, sf. (Gr.) vet. hippolith.

* HIPPOLYTE, e-po-lit, sm. Hippolytus.

* HIPPOMANE, ip-po-man, sm. (Gr.) hippomane.

* HIPPOPOTAME, e-po-po-tam, sm. (Gr.) zool. hippopotamus.

* HIRONDELLE, e-rong-dayl, sf. (Lat.

hirou) 1 orn. swallow. — de mer, sea-swallow. prov. fig. Une — ne fait pas le printemps, one swallow does not make a summer. 2 min. Pierre d'—, swallow-stone.

HISPIDE, his-pid, adj. mf. (Lat. hispidus) bot. tige —, hispid stem.

HISSE, ppa. of hissen, fem. —, M. acquitté fut — dans les bras de quatre hommes. M. acquitted was hoisted up into the arms of four men. Lamart. Tiens-toi pour averti que tu seras — demain à l'arbre le plus élevé, be sure that to-morrow thou shalt dangle from the highest tree. Nod.

HISSEUR, he-say, ra. to hoist, to hoist up, to haul out, up, to raise. naol. — une voile, to hoist a sail. naot. — son pavillon, to run up one's flag. Pour le faire — beau et bien à l'angle de la place, to hang him in downright earnest at the angle of the place. Nod. (by extension) Il crachait une syllabe au fond de sa poitrine, la hissait péniblement sur sa langue, he took a syllable from the bottom of his chest, and painfully hoisted it up to his tongue. Mery.

SE HISSEUR, vpr. to hoist one's self, to raise one's self. Le roi aidé de D. se hissa péniblement sur sa selle, the king aided by D. hoisted himself painfully into his saddle. Ab. En me hissant sur ses épaules, je le nourris outrageusement, in getting up upon his shoulders I bruised them dreadfully. Ab. fig. Chaque mesure a l'air pour se — au haut de la montagne, de mettre le pied sur la tête de celle qui la précède, each hovel seemed as if it would raise itself to the top of the mountain by placing its foot on the one preceding it. Tb. Gaut.

HISTOIRE, ees-twâr, sf. (Lat. historia) 1 history. L'— littéraire d'une époque, the literary history of an epoch. Raconter l'— d'un personnage célèbre, to relate the history of a celebrated person. A toutes les époques de notre —, at every period of our history. 2 (récit) history, story, tale, idle story. Il me conta l'— de sa vie, toute son —, he gave me the history of his life, his whole history. Je veux vous conter une petite —, I will tell you a little story. Une plaisante —, a merry tale. C'est une —, ce sont des —, it is a story, those are stories. — que tout cela, that is all nonsense. Le plus beau de l'—, the best of the story. fig. C'est mon que vous contez-là, voilà mon —, you are relating my very history. (by analogy) Cet homme a fini misérablement, c'est l'— de tous les joueurs, that man made a wretched end of it; it is the story of all gamblers. Voilà bien une autre —, that's quite another story. Voilà bien des —, what a fuss. 3 absol. (les ouvrages, les faits) history. Professeur d'—, professor of history. La philosophie de l'—, the philosophy of history. La muse de l'—, Clio. A ce que dit l'—, as the story goes, from historical accounts, according to history. 4 Tableau d'—, historical painting. 5 (par opposition à la Fable) history. 6 (des choses naturelles) — naturelle, natural history.

HISTORIÉ, ppa. of HISTORIER, fem. —, storied, embellished, adorned. Bible —, e, bible embellished with engravings. Les marbres —s des versets du Coran, marble tablets ornamented with verses from the Koran. Th. Gaut.

HISTORIEN, ees-to-ryang, sm. 1 historian. 2 (celui qui se borne à raconter les faits) historian.

HISTORIER, ees-to-ryay, va. to adorn, to embellish.

HISTORIETTE, ees-to-ryet, sf. dimin. of HISTOIRE, story, tale.

HISTORIOGRAPHIE, ees-to-ryo-graf, sf. historiography.

HISTORIQUE, ees-to-rik, adj. mf. 1 historical. Dictionnaire —, historical name. Dictionnaire. Nom —, historical name. Cela est —, that is historical, it is a fact. Les temps —s, historical times, the historical ages. 2 sm. (narration) history. Quoique je me sois borné au seul —, though I confined myself to a mere narration. De Bross.

HISTORIQUEMENT, ees-to-rik-mang, adv. 1 historically. 2 (par opposition à faiblement) historically.

HISTRION, ees-tryong, sm. 1 antiquarian. 2 (disparagingly) player, stage-player.

HIVER, e-vayr, sm. 1 winter. Dans la rigueur de l'hiver, in the cold of winter. Les longues soirées d'—, the long winter evenings. Froids d'—, winter frosts. Semestre d'—, winter season. war. Quartier d'—, winter quarter; || (le lieu) winter-quarters. poetic. fig. L'— de l'âge, l'— de nos ans, the winter of age, old age. 2 (relativement au froid) winter. L'— se fait sentir, the winter makes itself felt. L'— est tardif, the winter is late. prov. fig. Mi-Mai, queue d'—, in mid-May, the tail of winter. 3 poetic. winter. Il comptait déjà soixante —s, he already reckoned sixty winters.

HIVERNAGE, e-vayr-nazh, sm. 1 naut. winter-season. 2 (port) winter-harbour. Un bon —, a good winter-harbour. 3 agri. winter-fallowing.

HIVERNAL, e-vayr-nal, adj. m. fem. —, (little used) wintry.

HIVERNER, he-vayr-nay, va. 1 (des troupes, etc., of troops, etc.) to winter. 2 (transitivement) agri. — les terres, to winter, to fallow lands.

SE HIVERNER, vpr. to inure one's self to cold.

*HO, ho, interj. 1 ho! he! —! venez un peu ici, ho! come this way. 2 (marque d'étonnement, l'indignation) oh! —! que me dites-vous là oh! you don't say so!

*HOBREAU, boh-ro, 1 hobby. 2 fig. (disparagingly) country-squire, country gentleman.

*HOC, hok, sm. (sorte de jeu) hoc. Jouer au —, to play at hoc. Etre — to be taken. fam. Cela lui est —, he is sure of that. Que n'es-tu monté, car tu me serais —, why are you not a sheep, you should be mine. La Font.

HOC (adv. adv. loc. (Lat.) for that, to the purpose. C'est une chose ad —, it is just the thing for that. Yuteur ad —, guardian expressly appointed for the purpose.

HOCA, ho-kah, sm. (jeu) hoca. Jouer au —, to play at hoca.

HOCHE (Lazare), hosh, sm. a French general, born in 1768, died in 1797.

*HOCHE, sf. (particul.) notch. Faire une —, to cut a notch.

*HOCHEMENT, hush-mang, sm. toss, shake. — de tête, a toss of the head.

*HOCHEPIED, hosh-pyay, sm. hawk. heron-hawk.

*HOCHEPOT, hosh-po, sm. culin. hotch-potch, hotch-pot.

*HOCHEQUEUE, hosh-koh, sm. ora. wag-tail.

*HOCHEUR, ho-shay, va. 1 to shake, to toss, to wag. — un prunier pour en faire tomber les prunes, to shake a plum-tree to make the plums fall. — le mors, — la bride à un cheval, to shake the bit, the bridle of a horse. fig. — le mors, — la bride à quelqu'un, to rouse a person. Il bocha la tête comme pour témoigner que, he tossed his head as if to testify that. Nod. On lui demanda s'il était b. il bocha la tête, he was asked whether he was B. he shook his head. Lamart. Ah dame! répliqua C. en hochant la tête, oh well! replied C. tossing his head. Saad. 2 (intransitivement) man. to shake the bit.

*HOCHEUR, ho-shay, sm. 1 coral, rattle. Un — de corail, a child's coral. 2 fig. Mes laques et mes grès, tous ces —s de l'homme envies par l'enfant, my china and my earthen ware, all those toys of manhood envied by the child. V. Rug. prov. fig. Il y a des —s pour tout âge, there are toys for every age.

*BOGNER, ho-nay, va. pop. (little used) to grumble, to whine.

HOILL, oodr, sm. law. heir. Ses —s et ayants cause, his heirs and assigns.

HOIRIE, ood-ree, sf. law. inheritance.

*HOLA, ho-lah, interj. holla! holla! —! quelqu'un, holla! house.

HOLA, ad. 1 holla, holla. 2 sm. in-rar. Mettre le —, mettre les —, to put a stop to a quarrel.

*HOLLANDE, ho-lângd, sf. geog. Holland.

*HOLLANDAIS, ho-lâng-day, adj. m. fem. —, 1 Dutch. 2 (substantif) Dutchman, Dutchwoman. 3 (la langue) Dutch.

*HOLLANDER, ho-lângd, va. to harden (quills).

HOLOCAUSTE, o-lo-kost, sm. (Gr.) 1 holocaust, burnt-offering. 2 (la victime) sacrifice. 3 (en général) sacrifice.

HOLOGRAPHE, adj. mf. See OTOGRAPHE.

*HOMI hom, interj. hum!

*HONARD, ho-mar, sm. crust. lobster.

HOMBRE, onghr, sm. 1 ombre. Jouer à l'—, to play at ombre.

HONELIE, o-may-lee, sf. (Gr.) 4 homily. 2 absol. (du bréviaire) homily. 3 fig. (disparagingly) homily, sermon.

HONÉOPATHIE, sm. See MÉDÉOPATHIE.

HOMER, o-mayr, sm. Homer.

HONÉRIQUE, o-may-rik, adj. mf. 1 homeric, homeric. 2 (sometimes) (parisien d'Homère) Homeric. Et Despreaux l'—, and D. the Homeric. La Font.

HOMICIDE, o-me-sid, 1 mf. 1 homicide, murderer, manslayer. Tout l'Érèbe entendit cette belle — s'excuser au berger, all Erubus heard that beautiful murderer make excuses to the shepherd. La Font. (by extension) Jérusalem, cité perfide des prophètes divins malheureuse —, Jerusalem, perfidious city! wretched murderer of the divine prophets. Raz. fig. Etre — de soi-même, to kill one's self. 2 (adjectif) poetic. homicidal, murderous, killing. Son bras —, his murderous arm. Un fer —, a murderous steel. Des regards —, killing looks. 3 (meurtre) homicide, murder. Chez les Germains, on exécutait l'— en donnant une certaine quantité de bétail, among the Germans, homicide was expiated by giving a certain number of cattle. Montesq. — involontaire, manslaughter.

HOMICIDEUR, ho-me-se-day, va. obsol. to kill, to slay.

HOMMAGE, o-mahz, sm. 1 feud. law. homage. Rendre l'—, to do, to pay homage. — lige, lige-homage. 2 fig. (soumission) homage, respect. Adresser des —s à la divinité, to pay homage to the Divinity. Tout rendait — à sa gloire, all paid homage to his glory. Volt. Etre entouré d'—s, to be the object of universal respect. Offrir, présenter ses —s, to pay one's respects. 3 (outrage) present.

HOMMAGE, o-mah-zhay, adj. m. fem. —, feud. law. held by homage. Terro —, homage-land.

HOMMAGER, o-mah-zhay, sm. feud. law. homager. (adjectif) Vassal —, vassal holding by homage.

HOMMASSE, o-mass, adj. mf. (disparagingly) masculine, manlike. Cette femme a le visage —, la taille —, that woman has a man's face, shape.

HOMME, om, sm. (Lat. homo) 1 man, pl. men. Les diverses races d'—s, the different races of men. Tous les —s sont égaux devant la loi, all men are equal before the law. Attester quelque chose devant Dieu et devant les —s, to call God and man to witness to the truth of a thing. Les —s du Midi, the men of the South. L'— est un être raisonnable, man is a rea-amable being. DAFF. (de Jésus-Christ) Le Fils de Dieu s'est fait —, et dans l'Evangile, il s'appelle lui-même le Fils de l'—, the Son of God was made man, and in the Gospel he calls himself the Son of Man. Jésus-Christ est —Dieu, Christ is God and Man. Les —s de couleur, men of colour. Il n'y a tête d'— qui ose entreprendre de faire telle chose, there is not a man that dares undertake to do such a thing. — vivant, — qui vive, nul — n'oserait, etc., not a man alive who durst, etc. scrip. Les enfants des —s, the children of men. bi. NOUVEL —, — nouveau, the new man. L'— intérieur, the inner man, the carnal man. 2 (relativement aux passions, etc.) man. Avoir un cœur d'—, to have the heart of a man. Dans ce bien de l'— dans ce qu'il fait, dans ce qu'il dit, neither his actions nor his words show that he has quite put off the old man. 3 (individu d'une espèce masculine) man. Il y avait beaucoup d'—s et peu de femmes, there were many men and few women. Une armée de cent mille —s, an army of a hundred thousand men. Un gros —, a big, a stout man. — marié, a married man. Jeune —, young man. — brave, brave man. C'est un — sans façon, he is a man without any ceremony, a plain man. C'est un pauvre —, un plaisant —, he is a poor fellow, a ridiculous man. C'est une bonne tête d'—, une bonne pâte d'—, he is a good sensible man, a good sort of a man. Brave —, worthy man. C'est le dernier des —s, he is the worst of men. Un honnête —, a polite, civil man. Un honnête —, an honest man. Un — nouveau, a new man, a fresh man, an upstart. On ne sait quel — vous êtes, we cannot make you out. C'est un — fort intérieur, he is a man of a very contemplative mind. Bon —, good man. C'est un — de mérite et un très-bon —, he is a man of merit and a very good man. Un bonhomme, See BONHOMME. fig. Un grand —, a great man. Les grands —s de l'antiquité, the great men of antiquity. Être mis au rang des grands —s, to be placed in the rank of great men. 4 — de guerre, soldier. — de lettres, man of letters. — de peine, porter. — de génie, man of genius. — de naissance, de grande naissance, man of noble extraction, of very high birth. — de peu, man of low condition. — de rien, man of no family. — de volonté, volunteer. Je te crois on trop — de bien, I think you are too honest a man. La Font. C'est un — d'une grande sagesse, he is a man of great good sense. — du monde, man of the world. Le savant et l'— du monde lironet cet ouvrage avec plaisir, the learned man and the man of the world will read this work with pleasure. — de pied, foot-man. anc. — d'armes, See ARMÉ. Un bon — de cheval, un bel — de cheval, See CHEVAL. Un — de sac et de corde, See CORDE. auc. — d'affaires, See AFFAIRE. — des bois, man of the woods, wild man, orang-outang. fig. L'—s sent son — de qualité, that smacks of the man of quality. Mol. fig. — de paille, man of straw. 5 (by analogy) man, creature. Il était l'— de l'instinct, he was the creature of instinct. Si-B. Je fus l'— du jour, I was the lion of the party. De Bross. Il devait lui on tard être l'— de l'Angleterre, he must sooner or later have been the creature of England. Cbat. C'était l'— des intrigues tortueuses, he was the man for dark manœuvres. Ph. Cbas. Il veut être, avec David, l'— selon le cœur de Dieu, he wishes to be, like D., the man after God's own heart. Boss. 6 (joined to an infin. or a subst. by the prep. à) man. Vous devez savoir si je suis — à violer des serments aussi sacrés, you ought to know whether I am a man to violate oaths so sacred. Mery. C'est un — à tout, he is fit for every thing. C'est un — à pendre, he is a man fit for hanging. C'est un — à parveoir aux premières places, he is a man capable of attaining the highest dignities. 7 (avec les adj. poss., with possess. adj.) man. C'est mon —, he is my man, the man for my money. Si vous pensez ainsi, vous n'êtes pas mon —, if that is your way of thinking, you are not my man. Je suis votre —, I am your man. (in joke) Vous avez bien trouvé votre —, you have found your man. Rassemblez vos —s, muster your men. L'— doct il s'agit, the man in question. Mon — était déjà parti, my man was off already. N'aurait pas trouvé son — où il l'avait laissé, not having found his man where he had left him. Notre — ne se le fit pas dire deux fois, our man did not require to be told twice. (by analogy) C'est un babile spadassin qui ne manque jamais son —, he is a skilful duellist who never misses his man. Cette maladie emporte bientôt son —, that disease soon carries off the patient. 8 pop. (mar) man, husband, old man. 9 feud. law. man. — lige, liege man. — de maison, mortman, of mortmain. —s du roi, king's men. (by extension) Il est l'— d'un tel, he is So-and-so's man. 10 absol. man. Se montrer —, to show one's self a man. C'est un — que cet —là, he is a man every inch of him. 11 absol. (celui qui s'est parvenu à l'âge de virilité) man. C'est un — fait, he is a man grown. Il se fait — he is growing up a man.

HOMŒOPATHIQUE, o-mo-sâog-trik, adj. mf. (Gr.) æt. homœopathic.

HOMŒOPATHE, o-may-o-pat, sm. homœopathist. (adjective.) Médecin —, homœopathist doctor.

HOMŒOPATHIE, o-may-o-pat-ee, sf. homœopathy.

HOMŒOPATHIQUE, o-may-o-pat-ik, adj. mf. homœopathic.

HOMŒOPATHIEMENT, o-may-o-pat-ik-mang, adv. homœopathically.

HOMOGENE, o-mo-zhain, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 homogeneous, homogeneal. 2 homogeneous.

HOMOGÉNÉITÉ, o-mo-zhain-é-tay, sf. homogeneity, homogeneity, homogeneity.

HOMOLOGATION, o-mo-lo-gah-syong, sf. law, homologation, confirmation.

HOMOLOGUE, o-mo-log, adj. mf. (Gr.) geom. homologous, o-mo-log, adj. mf. (Gr.)

HOMOLOGUER, o-mo-lo-gay, ra. law. to homologate, to approve, to confirm (one sentence arbitrale, ou avis de parents, the decision of an arbiter, the chancellor's decree in regard to a minor).

HOMONYME, o-mo-neem, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 gram. homonymous. 2 (substantif.) homonyme, homonym. 3 (des personnes, of persons) namesake.

HOMONYME, o-mo-ne-mee, sf. gram. homonymy.

HOMOPHONIE, o-mo-to-nee, sf. (Gr.) homophony.

* HON, hong, interj. hum! Mol.

* HONCHETS, hong-shay, sm. pl. (jen) bones.

* HONGRE, hongr', adj. m. 1 Cheval — gelding. 2 (substantif.) gelding.

* HONGRIER, hong-gray, va. — on cheval, to geld a horse.

* HONGRIE, hong-gree, sf. geo. Hungary.

* HONGROIS, hong-grooh, sm. fem. —, 1 Hungarian. 2 (langue) Hungarian.

* HONGROYEUR, hong-grooh-yuhr, sm. tanner of Hungary leather.

HONNETE, o-net, adj. mf. (Lat. honestus) 1 honest, upright, virtuous. C'est un — homme, he is an honest man. Six ans d'une vie — et régulière, six years of an honest and regular life. J.-J. Rouss. obsol. — homme, a gentleman. — s gens, honest people. — femme, — fille, honest, modest woman, girl. Famille —, — fa-milite, honest family. — garçon, honest fellow. ironic. — fripon, honest rogue. — usurier, honest usurer. prov. Il y a des —s gens, il y a d'— gens partout, honest people are to be found every where. 2 (bicusé) handsome, becoming, proper, seemly, decent, fair. Je lui ai conseillé cette marche qui m'a paru sage et —, I advised him to this step which appeared to me a wise and proper one. Volt. Maintien —, becoming deportment. Le régal fut fort —, the entertainment was a very handsome one. La Font. Excuse —, pretexte, refusal. —, etc. Fair excuse, pretence, refusal, etc. Un don — à faire est toujours — à recevoir, a gift proper to be made is always proper to be received. J.-J. Rouss. Prix —, fair price. Récompense —, handsome reward. Longueur —, proper length. (by analogy) Cela est d'une longueur, d'une grosseur —, that is long, thick enough. — aisance, fortune, —, decent fortune. Naissance —, condition —, creditable birth, condition. Famille —, respectable family. Habit —, decent coat. (by analogy) Équipage —, decent equipage. Faire une dépense —, to spend handsomely. 3 (poli) civil, polite. Avoir l'air —, les manières —, to have a polite air, manners. C'est un homme fort —, he is a very polite man. 4 (substantif.) obsol. (ce qui est moral) honesty, uprightness. L'—, l'utile et l'agréable, the honest, the useful, and the agreeable. D. chez qui l'— emportait sur les tendances de son parti, D. in whom honourable principles were stronger than the tendency of his party. Lamart.

HONNEMENT, o-net-mang, adv. 1 honestly, uprightly, virtuously, becomingly, properly, suitably, handsomely, decently, fairly, civilly, politely. 2 (suffisamment) handsomely, fairly. C'est — vendu, it has fetched a fair price. 3 ironic. (beaucoup) very. Elle est — laide, she is ugly enough in all conscience.

HONNÊTETÉ, o-net-tay, sf. (Lat. honestas) 1 honesty, uprightness, probity, integrity. L'— des principes, the integrity of his principles. 2 (bienséance) propriety, decorum, decency. Blesses les règles de l'—, to offend against the rules of decorum. 3 (civilité) civility, politeness. Il n'a pas en l'— d'aller le voir, he has not had the politeness to go to see him. Les voies de la douceur et de l'—, gentle and polite means. J.-J. Rouss. C'est l'— même, he is politeness itself. 4 (acte de civilité) attention. Faire à quelqu'un mille —s, toutes les —s imaginables, to lavish attention on a person, to show a person all possible attention. 5 (manière d'agir) obligingness. 6 (présent) present, acknowledgment. 7 (chasteté) decency, modesty, propriety.

HONNEUR, o-nubr, sm. (Lat. honor) 1 honour. L'—s ven en est dû, je ne pouvais pas moins, the honour of it is due to you, I could do no less. Corn. Quel — n'était dû qu'à mon bras, to my valor alone belonged that distinction. Corn. On doit dire à l'— de ce prince, he must be said to the honour of this prince that. Vous seul soutenez l'— des lettres, you alone support the honour of literature. Volt. — aux braves! honour to the brave! Il n'y a ni —, ni profit à cela, there is neither honour nor profit in that. Champ d'—, field of honour. Mourir au champ —, to die on the field of honour. Mourir au lit d'—, to die on the bed of honour. Être en —, to be in honour, credit. Faire — à son siècle, a son pays, à sa famille, etc., to do honour, credit, to be an honour, a credit to one's age, country, family. On a dit d'un homme célèbre qu'il faisait — à l'humanité, it has been said of an illustrious man that he did honour to mankind. De Bross. Faire — à sa naissance, to do honour to one's birth. (by analogy) Il faut être jeune pour Lire — à son médecin, one must be young to be a credit to one's physician. Volt. Faire — à ses affaires, to see engagements, to pay one's way, to meet one's engagements. Faire — à une lettre de change, à sa signature etc., to do honour to a bill of exchange, to one's signature. Faire — à quelqu'un d'une chose, to give a person credit for a thing, to attribute, to ascribe to a person the honour of a thing. Se faire — de quelque chose, to take to one's self the credit of a thing. Tenir —, to deem it a point of honour; to esteem it an honour. Être l'— de son siècle, de son pays, de sa famille, etc., to do honour to, to be the honour of one's age, country, family. Croiyant voir en toi l'— de la Castille, thinking I saw in thee the honour of C. Corn. Un rossignol est à lui seul l'— du printemps, a nightingale is of itself the honour of the spring. Lamart. Brillante sur matige et l'— du jardin, shining on my stem and the ornament of the garden. A. Chén. 2 (la réputation) honneur, credit. Ménager, sauver l'— de quelqu'un, to preserve, to save the honour of a person. Il perdu d'— celui que de mon fils j'ai fait le gouverneur, he has ruined the honour of him whom I had appointed governor to my son. Corn. Faire réparation d'—, to make an apology. Il y va de votre —, your honour is at stake. Touche cette joue à qui tu rends l'—, touch this cheek whose honour thou hast restored. Curn. Piquer d'— une personne, to put a man upon his mettle. Se piquer d'—, to think one's honour engaged, to make it a point of honour. Il est très délicat sur le point d'—, he is too delicate upon the point of honour. Il s'est fait sur cela un point d'—, he has made it a point of honour. (jeu, at play) La partie d'—, the rubber, the conquering game. Ne jouer que pour l'—, do not play for l'—, to play for love. 3 (probité) honneur. C'est un homme d'—, he is a man of honour. Un homme plein d'—, a most honourable man. L'— lui est plus cher que la vie, honour is dearer to him than life. Montesq. Manquer à l'—, to forfeit one's honour. Les lois de l'—, the laws of honours. Les maximes du faux — qui ont fait périr tant de monde parmi nous, the maxims of false honour which have destroyed so many from among us. Boss. 4 (par manière de serment) Sur l'—, sur mon —, on, upon my honour. Foi d'homme d'—, absol. d'—, upon my honour. D'—, je vous le promets, I promise you upon my honour. En —, indeed. Parole d'—, word of honour. Ma parole d'—, parole d'—, upon my honour, upon my word. prov. En tout bien et en tout —, en tout bien et en tout —, with the most honourable intentions. 5 (chasteté des femmes) honneur. C'est une femme d'—, she is a woman of honour. 6 (démonstration extérieure de respect, etc.) honneur. Il faut rendre — à qui lui appartient, à qui il est dû, honour to whom honour is due. Nous décernâmes des — à sa mémoire, we awarded honours to his memory. Barth. Vous serez si étourdie des — qu'on vous fera, your head will be so turned with the honours paid you. Mme de Sév. Voulez les — à qui triomphe, to award the honours of a triumph. Porter — et respect, to give, to pay honour and respect. Le roi fait — à votre age, the king honours your age. Curn. ironie. Vous me croyez capable d'une telle action, vous me faites bien de l'—, vous me faites là un bel —, c'est beaucoup d'—, c'est trop d'—, que vous me faites, you think me capable of such an action, that is doing me a great honour, it is a great honour you pay me. —s funébres, funeral honours. Les —s de la sépulture, les —s suprêmes, etc., the funeral honours, the last honours, funeral obsequies. War. Oténir les —s de la guerre, to obtain the honours of war.

Garde d'—, guard of honour. Place d'—, place of honour. Sabre d'—, sword of honour. Légion d'—, Legion of Honour. La croix d'—, the cross of the Legion of Honour. Dame d'—, see DAME. Fille d'—, maid of honour. Conseiller d'—, see CONSEILLER. Les —s du Louvre, the honours of the Louvre. Les —s de l'église, the honours of the church; || church preferment. absol. Les —s, the honours. (à certains jeux de cartes, at cards) Les —s, the honours, court-cards. Faire les —s d'une maison, to do the honours of a house. Je vous vois très-bien faire les —s de votre maison, I see you doing very well the honours of your house. Mme de Sév. fig. Faire les —s d'uné personne, etc., to show off a person. Ne faisons pas si légèrement les —s, de notre esprit, let us not make so light a show of our wit. Nod. Horace, en faisant les —s de lui-même, n'a-t-il pas dit? has not Horace, when talking of himself, said? St-B. Il fait les —s de sa propre personne pour mieux l'enhardir et l'attirer à lui, he talks about himself to inspire her with greater boldness and to draw her to him. St-B. Faire — à un repas, to do honour to a repast. pop. Sauf votre —, saving your presence. (en Angleterre) Votre —, your Honour. prov. A tous seigneurs tous —s, à tout seigneur tout —, honour to whom honour is due. 7 (jointed to on infin. or a subst. by the prep. en) (grâce, faveur) honour. Je ne lui fis pas l'— d'un regard, I did not honour him with a look. Ab. 8 (par compliment) honour. Lorsque j'aurai l'— de vous voir, when I have the honour of seeing you. Faites-moi l'— de me dire, do me the honour of telling me. J'ai, Monsieur, l'— d'être, I have, Sir, the honour to be. 9 —s, pl. (dignité) honour, dignity. Aspirer aux —s, to aspire to honours. Vous voilà parvenu au comble des —s, you are raised to the highest honours. Volt. Être élevé aux —s, to be raised to honours. prov. Les —s changent les mœurs, honours change manners.

HONNI, ho-neé, ppa. of HONIR, fem. —E, Il est — partout, he is scorned at everywhere. Souvent la vertu est — par le vice, virtue is frequently an object of scorn to vice. Nod. — soit qui nial y pense, evil be to him that evil thinks. * HONNIR, ho-neér, va. to disgrace, to scoff at, to retille, to treat with scorn. HONORABLE, o-no-rabl', adj. mf. (Lut. honorabilis) 1 honorable. Être dans un poste —, to be in an honourable situation. Profession —, honourable profession. Une paix —, an honourable peace. Volt. Une — vieillesse, an honourable old age. J.-J. Rouss. 2 (qui mérite d'être honoré) honourable, respectable. Il appartient à une famille —, he belongs to an honourable family. 3 parliam. Mon — collègue, my honourable colleague. 4 (qui tient une bonne maison) honourable, respectable. C'est un homme très —, fort —, he is a very respectable man. (by analogy) Tenir une maison —, to keep a respectable house. 5 aue. — homme, gentleman. 6 Amende —, See AMENDE.

HONORABLEMENT, o-no-rabl'-blum-mang, adv. 1 honourably, respectfully. 2 (d'une manière splendide) magnificently, splendidly. HONORAIRE, o-no-rayr, adj. mf. 1 honorary. 2 (qui porte un titre honorifique) honorary. HONORAIRES, o-no-rayr, sm. pl. 1 (d'un avocat, of an advocate) retainer, fee. 2 (d'un médecin, of an cure, of a physician, of a priest) fees.

HONORE, ppa. of HONORER, fem. —E, adjectif. 4 honored. Il ne suffit pas d'une femme mariée d'être honorée, il faut encore qu'elle soit —e, it is not sufficient for a married woman to be honest, she must also be honored. J.-J. Rouss. — de l'affection de cette jeune femme rare, having the honour of being esteemed by this young woman of rare merit. Saint. J'aurais du moins en la consolation d'être — de vos lettres, I should have had at least the consolation of being honoured with your letters. Volt. 8 (dans une lettre, in a letter) honoured. Mon — confrère, my honoured brother.

HONORER, o-no-rayr, ac. (Lat. honorare) 1 to honour. — Dieu, to honour God. Il faut — la Divinité et ne la venger jamais, the Divinity must be honoured and never avenged. Montesq. — son père et sa mère, to honour one's father and mother. C'est ainsi que le roi honore le mérite, it is thus that the king pays honour to merit. Rac. C'est lui que je prétends — aujourd'hui, it is he whom I intend to honour to-day. Rac. — la mémoire de quelqu'un, to honour the memory of a person. 2 (avoir beaucoup d'estime) to esteem highly, to pay honour. Vous avez un fonds de raison et de courage que j'honore, you have a stock of reason and courage that I honour. Mme de Sév. 3 (faire honneur à) to do honour, credit (to). (à faire honneur (to) to do honour. Je suis à honneur (to). De pareils sentiments vous honorent, such sentiments do you honour. Saud. Elle honore son sexe, she is an honour to her sex. 4 (accorder comme une grâce) to honour. Il qui ne m'avait pas honoré d'une visite depuis que, H. who had not honoured me with a visit since, etc. Ah. J'ose espérer que vous voudrez bien m'— de votre clientèle, I trust you will honour me with your custom. Saud. Je suis extrêmement sensible au souvenir dont vous voulez bien m'—, I am deeply grateful for the kind remembrance you honour me with. Volt. Votre confiance m'honore autant qu'elle m'est chère, the confidence you repose in me is as honourable as it is dear to me. Volt.

s'HONORER, spr. 1 to do one's self honour, to honour one's self. Il s'est honore comme roi et comme fils par sa réserve respectueuse, he did himself honour as a king and a son by his respectful reserve. St-B. 2 (se faire honneur d'une chose) to glory (in), to take a pride (in), to consider, to deem it an honour. Ces beaux tems où les rois s'honorèrent du nom de fainéants, those famous times when kings gloried in the name of sluggards. Boil.

HONORES (an), o-no-rays, (Lat.) loc. honorary.

HONORIFIQUE, o-no-re-ik, adj. mf. 1 honorary. Titre —, honorary title. 2 ac. honorary. Droits —, honorary rights. 3 (substantif.) titles, dignity. Vous le trouvez froid à l'abord, assez occupé de l'—, you will find him at first sight cold, rather quettitious about his titles. De Bross.

* HONTE, hongt, sf. 1 shame. J'ai — de sa conduite, I am ashamed of his conduct. J.-J. Rouss. La — le retient, shame keeps him back. N'avez-vous pas —, vous qui êtes d'un état grave de me faire dire tant de folies? are you not ashamed, you a grave man by profession to make me say such nonsense? De Bross. Une mauvaise — me tenait en suspens, bashfulness held me in suspense. Fea. Les vancus se retirèrent acablés de — et de douleur, the vanquished withdrew overwhelmed with shame and grief. Barth. Sa famille a — de lui, his family is ashamed of him. Faire — à quelqu'un, to put a person to shame, to the blush. Faites-lui —, il le mérite bien, make him ashamed of himself, he well deserves it. Faites-lui — de sa paresse, make him ashamed of his idleness. fig. Avoir perdu toute —, to be lost to all shame, to have lost all sense of shame. 2 (deshonneur) shame, disgrace, scandal, reproach, discredit. Essayer la — d'un refus, d'une disgrâce, to be shamed by a refusal, to undergo a disgrace. Il lava la — de son pays dans le sang des Turcs, he washed out his country's disgrace in the blood of the Turks. Vol. Regarder comme une —, to hold it a disgrace. Etre la —, faire la — de sa famille, etc., to be the disgrace of, a disgrace to one's family.

* HONTEUSEMENT, hong-tuhz-mang, adv. shamefully, disgracefully.

* HONTEUX, hong-tah, adj. m. fem. MONTREUSE, 1 ashamed, abashed. — un regard qu'on ne pût avoir pris, looking as foolish as a fox taken in by a hen. La Font. Tout autre eût été — moi ne l'étais pas, any other but he would have been abashed, but he was not. Lamart. 2 (timide) bashful, shy, sheepish. Il a l'air —, bien, he looks shy, very shy. Pauvres —, poor people who are ashamed to beg. 3 (qui cause de la honte) shameful, disgraceful, scandalous, discreditable. Une mort telle que tu mérites est honteuse, a death such as that which you have in view is disgraceful. J.-J. Rousseau. 4 (substantif.) bashful people. prov. Il n'y a que les — qui perdent, nothing ask, nothing have.

* HOPITAL, o-pe-tal, sm. (Lat. hospitalis) 1 hospital. Les médecins d'un —, the physicians of an hospital. — militaire, military hospital. — ambulatoire, field hospital. Vaisseau —, hospital ship. fig. Prendre le chemin de l'—, to be on the road to ruin; to go to the dogs. Il sera dans peu réduit à l'—, he will soon be brought to the workhouse. Mettre quelqu'un à l'—, to beggar a person; to send him to the workhouse. fig. C'est un —, it is an infirmary. 2 auc. (hospice) almshouse, asylum.

* HOQUET, ho-kay, sm. hiccup, hiccough. Avoir le —, to have the hiccup, to hiccup. Faire passer le —, to stop the hiccup. De temps en temps on — formidablement soulevait ce grand corps, from time to time a formidable hiccup heaved this huge body. Ab. — de la mort, death-sob.

* HOQUETON, hok-tong, sm. 1 hoqueton. Porter le —, to be a yeoman. 2 (la casaque de paysan) hoqueton. Il endosse un —, he puts on a hoqueton. La Font. 3 (by extension) l'archer) yeoman.

* HORAIRE, o-ray, adj. m. horary. * HORDE, bord, sf. 1 horde Des — de barbares, hordes of barbarians. 2 (by extension and disparagingly) Une — de brigands, a horde of brigands.

* HOKION, ho-ryoug, sm. usbol. thump, blow. Il a reçu un vilain —, he has received an ugly blow.

* HORIZON, o-re-zong, sm. (Gr.) 1 astr. geom. horizon. Prendre la hauteur d'un astre sur l'—, to take the altitude of a star. Le soleil est à l'—, the sun is on the horizon. 2 (dans les arts assés) horizon, view. Un — borné, a limited horizon. On apercevait une voile à l'—, a sail was descried on the horizon. 3 fig. horizon. L'— politique se rebrunit, the political horizon is darkening. Les —s indéfinis que l'ère nouvelle ouvrait à l'humanité, the indefinite horizons that the new era opened to humanity. Lamart. Des —s d'enthousiasme et d'espérance que les peuples attendent pendant des siècles, horizons of enthusiasm and hope that nations have been expecting for ages. Lamart. 4 point. horizon.

* HORIZONTAL, o-re-zong-tal, adj. m. fem. —E, horizontal. Ligne —e, horizontal plan. l'an —, horizontal plan.

* HORIZONTALLEMENT, o-re-zong-tal-mang, adv. horizontally.

* HORLOGE, or-lozh, sf. 1 clock. L'— d'une église, d'un palais, a church-clock, the clock of a church, of a palace. L'— avance, the clock is too fast. Quelle heure est-il à l'—? what time it is by the clock? L'— sonne une heure, the clock is striking one. L'— retarde, the clock is too slow. — détraquée, clock out of order. La sonnerie de l'—, the striking part of the clock. Le timbre d'une —, a clock-bell. Le cadran de l'—, a clock-dial. — solaire, sun-dial. — de sable, hour — glass. — d'eau, water — clock, clepsydra. 2 bot. — de Flore, table of the time at which certain flowers open.

* HORLOGER, or-lo-zhay, sm. fem. HORLOGÈRE, clock-maker, watch-maker.

* HORLOGERIE, or-lozh-ree, sf. 1 (art) clock and watch-making, horology. Les ouvrages d'—, clock-work. 2 (ouvrages) clock-work. Faire le commerce de l'—, to deal in clocks and watches.

* HORMIS, hor-mee, prep. except, excepting, but, save, saving. Un intrépide marin qui s'effraye de tout — du danger, an intrepid seaman who startles at every thing except at danger. Mery. Tout était en eux, — ce que les hommes font nous sommes, they had every thing, except what men place before every thing at the present day. La Font. Tout y est entre — tels et tels, all went in, except divers.

* HOROGRAPHIE, o-ro-graf-ee, sf. (Gr.) See GNOMONIQUE.

* HOROSCOPE, o-ros-kop, sm. (Gr.) 1 horoscope, nativity. Tirer, faire l'— de quelqu'un, to cast a person's nativity. 2 fig. horoscope. Je vais dresser votre —, I will tell you your fortune.

* HORREUR, or-ruhr, sm. (Lat. horror) 1 horror, horridness, horrible thing. Frémir d'—, to shudder with horror. Je detournai les yeux d'— et de pitié, I turned away my eyes with horror and pity. J.-J. Rousseau. Je vis l'— se peindre sur son visage, I saw horror painted on his face. Barthe. Il vous fait — comme à moi, he inspires you with horror as he me. Le papier d'un blanc neigeux me fait —, snowy-white paper inspires me with abhorrence. Nod. J'ai — de le dire, the mention of it fills me with horror. L'— de la mort, l'— du supplice ébranla son courage, the horror of death weakened his courage. (hyperb.) Cela fait —, est à faire —, that is frightful, frightfully ugly. C'est une —, what a fright. C'est une belle —, it is an awful sight. Pi! l'—! what a horrible thing! 2 (détestation) horror, dread, abhorrence. Cette — du sang et de la mort qui tient à la nature humaine, that abhorrence of blood and death inherent in human nature. Saint. Elle avait — du sang, she abhorred the sight of blood. Si-B. Avoir, prendre une chose en —, to hate the sight of a thing. Etre en — à quelqu'un, to be in abhorrence by a person. Il nous croit en — à toute la nature, he thinks we inspire all nature with horror. Rac. C'est l'— du genre humain, it is the object of abhorrence of mankind. 3 (saisissement) awe, dread. Avec quelle sainte et poétique — j'errai d'— ces vastes édifices I wandered about in those vast edifices! Chate. 4 (de certains objets) horror. L'— d'un cauchemar, the horrors of a dream. C'était pendant l'— d'une profonde nuit, it was during the horror of a deep night. Etre l'— d'un homme, to have a horrible sight! L'— d'un supplice, the horrible of an execution. fig. Il comprit alors toute l'— de sa situation, he then comprehended all the horror of his situation. 5 —s, pl. (choses horribles) horrors. Les —s de la guerre, the horrors of war. Les —s de la mort, the horrors of death. 6 (énormité d'une mauvaise action) enormity, horror, heinousness. Poussée à bout par l'— de son procédé, driven out of patience by her horrible way of proceeding. M^{me} de Sév. 7 (chose atroce, etc.) horrible, horrid thing. Est-il possible que de telles —s se commettent dans un siècle comme le nôtre, is it possible that such horrid things can be done in an age like ours. Ab. 8 (particul.) —s, pl. (choses déshonorantes) shocking things.

* HORRIBLE, or-reeb', adj. mf. (Lat. horribilis) 1 (qui fait horreur) horrible, horrid, frightful. Laidier —, horrible ugliness. Cela était — à voir, that was frightful to look at. 2 (très-mauvais) Les chemins sont —s, the roads are horrible. Il faisait on temps —, it was horrid weather. 3 (extrême) horrid, dreadful, extreme, exceeding. Il a fait une — face, he has committed a dreadful fault. Faire une — dépense, to spend —.

* HORRIBLEMENT, or-re-blub-mang, adv. 1 horribly, horridly, frightfully, shockingly. 2 (excessivement) extremely, horribly, dreadfully. Il a souffert —, he has suffered horribly.

* HORRIPILANT, or-re-pe-lang, adj. m. fem. —E, horrifying. Des choses —es, horrifying things. De Bross.

* HORRIPILATION, or-re-pe-lab-syong, sf. med. horripilation.

* HORS, hor, prep. 1 out, beyond. — de la ville, out of the town. Trouvant un chien — du village, finding a dog out of the village. La Font. N. était pour le moment — du royaume, M. was for the moment out of the kingdom. Si-B. — de l'eau, out of the water. — d'ici, — de là, in other respects, otherwise. Etre — de la portée du canon, to be beyond the reach of cannon shot. Parler — de son rang, to speak out of one's turn. Un domestique qui est — de condition, a servant out of place. René vivait en lui-même et comme — du monde qui l'environnait, R. lived within himself, and as if out of the pale of the world that surrounded him. Chat. Adieu, j'en suis —, adieu de l'en train, farewell. I am out, try and get out too. La Font. Je hais les pièces d'éloquence — de leur place, I hate unreasonable displays of eloquence. La Font. (elliptic.) — d'ici, away out of my sight. — d'ici, polisson, begone, blackguard. — de page, to be free; fig. to be one's own master. Se mettre — de page, to emancipate one's self. (substantif.) L'— de page, reward, law. Mettre — de cour, etc. Se cour. Mettre — de cause, See CAUSE.

(is employed sometimes without DE) beyond. Il loge — barrière, he lives beyond the barrier. Mettre quelqu'un — la loi, to outlaw a person.

2 fig. Etre — de son bon sens, to be beside one's self. Il est — de sens, nous courons après lui, he is beside himself, we are running after him. Chat. Ce que j'avance n'est point — de propos, what I advance is not out of its place. La Font. Avez-vous juré de me mettre — des gonds? have you sworn to exasperate me? Si-B. Sa joie si réelle n'était pas pour cela à tout propos, ni — de saison, his joy so frank was not for all season. Si-B. Qui n'a que quelques jours de saison? who has not sometimes given an unnecessary talking? V. Hög. Tout ce qui est beau dans Milton est — de pair, what is fine in Milton is so beyond all comparison. Si-B. Le cœur d'E. est — de son pouvoir, the heart of E. is beyond the reach of his power. Cora. Vices, passions, vertus, tout y est — de ligne, vices, passions, virtues every thing there is on the grandest scale. Lamart. Oh courrez-vous ainsi tout pâle et — d'haleine, where are you running so pale and breathless. Rac. — d'embaras, out of the scrape. — de danger, de péril, out of danger, of peril. A ce rire — de propos, elles eurent qu'elles avaient deviné elles une personne idiote, at this laughter, without any cause, they thought they had before them some idiot. Aug. Tu. Etre — de la question to be beside the question, out of the question. Tout est — de prix, everything is extravagantly dear. Être — de soi, to be beside one's self. Cela le met — de lui, that sets him beside himself. Ce malade est — d'affaire, See AFFAIRE. Voilà un habit qui est tout à fait — de service, that coat is quite worn out. Nous voilà — de l'hiver, we are now out of winter. 4 (excepted) except, excepting, save. — ce seul intérêt nous nous renfermons dans un silence absolu, except for that single cause, we shall wrap ourselves up in complete silence. Lamart. — la vie, qu'avions-nous à perdre ? except life, what had we to lose ? Chât. Aucun bruit ne se faisait entendre — je ne sais quelle harmonie lointaine, no noise was heard save an indistinct and distant harmony. Chât. — pour son fils et sa fille, c'était déjà comme s'il n'eût jamais été, except for his son and daughter, it was already as if he had never been. Chât. 5 (followed by DE or QUE) unless, excepted. Le poète — de chez lui, — de son œuvre, n'est qu'un homme qui passe, the poet when not employed with poetry, is but an ordinary man. A. Hous. — de le battre, il ne pouvait le traiter plus mal, unless he had beaten him, he could not treat him worse. Il avait suivi les maximes de R., — qu'il eût suivi la cruauté des supplices, he had followed the maxims of R., except that he had banished the cruelty of the executions. La Rochef.

BUS-OŒUVRE, sm. pl. BONS-D'ŒUVRE, 1 arch. outwork, 2 lit. fine arts. fig. episode, digression. On supprima des — d'œuvre et des longueurs, on cut off tirades, the episodes and tedious passages being cut out, it formed three volumes. St-B. 3 colin. side-dish.

HORTENSE, or-tang-s, cf. Hortense.

HORTENSIA, or-tang-syah, sm. bot. hydrangea.

HORTICOLE, or-te-ko, adj. mf. horticultural.

HORTICULTEUR, or-te-kül-tür, sm. horticulturist.

HORTICULTURE, or-te-kül-tür, sf. horticulture.

HOSPICE, os-pees, sm. (Lat. hospitium) 1 hospice, hospitium, convent, monastery. L' — do mont Saint-Bernard, the monastery of Mount St. B. 2 anc. (particul.) hospitable house. Donner l' — à quelqu'un, to harbour a person. 3 (maisons de charité pour les pauvres, etc.) hospital, almshouse. Les — civils, the civil hospitals. — des enfants assistés, foundling-hospital.

HOSPITALIER, os-pe-tal-yay, adj. m. fem. hospitalier, 1 hospitable. O dieux —, que vois-je ici paraitre ! O hospitable gods what have we here ! La Font. Un peuple doux et —, a gentle and hospitable people. 2 (de certains ordres militaires) hospitable. (substantif.) Les —, the hospitaliers. anc. hospitalier. Religieuses non-puilières, sisters of charity. 3 poetic. (d'un lieu) hospitable. Demeuré hospitalier. a-ile —, hospitable abode, refuge.

HOSPITALITÉ, os-pe-tal-e-tay, sf. (Lat. hospitalitas) 1 hospitality. Pratiquer l' —, to practise hospitality. Volt. Donner l' — à quelqu'un, to welcome a person. J'accepte ton —, I accept your hospitality. Ab. 2 (dans certaines abbayes) hospitality. 3 anc. Droit d' —, right of hospitality.

HOSPODAR, os-po-dar, sm. hospodar. L' — de Valachie, the hospodar of Wallachia.

HOSTIE, os-te, sf. (Lat. hostia) 1 (victime offerte à Dieu) offering, victim. 2 poetic. (victime) victim. De tous les combattants a-t-il fait des — ? he has made victims of all the combatants ? Corn. Lette seconde — est digne de la rage, L' second victim is worthy of thy rage. Volt. Du célèbre courroux tous furent les —, all fell victims to celestial wrath. La Font. 3 (by extension) cath. rel. host, consecrated wafer.

HOSTILE, os-teel, adj. mf. (Lat. hostilis) 1 hostile, inimical. Entreprise —, hostile action, undertaking. 2 (by extension) (contraire) hostile, adverse. On aurait dit que L. eût un parti pris et qu'il fût —, one would have said that L.'s mind was made up, and that he was hostile. St-B. La Chambre hante dont l'attitude était —, the Upper House whose attitude was hostile. Ph. Chas.

HOSTILEMENT, os-teel-mang, adv. hostilely.

HOSTILITÉ, os-te-le-tay, sf. (Lat. hostilitas) 1 hostility. Commettre des —, des actes d' —, to commit hostilities, deeds of hostility. 2 (disposition) hostility. (by extension) L' — des bourgeois des villes contre les paysans de leur banlieue, the hostility of the townfolks against the peasants in their neighbourhood. De Tocq.

HÔTE, ô, sm. fem. HÔTESSE, (Lat. hospes) 1 host, landlord, m. hostess, landlady, f. L' — du Grand Cerf, the landlord of the Great Stag. Table d' —, table d'hôte, ordinary. Tenir table d' —, to keep on ordinary. Manger à table d' —, to eat at an ordinary. prov. fig. Il est l' — et l'hôtelier, he is the factorum. Qui compte sans son —, compte deux fois, See COMPTE. 2 (celui qui vient loger dans une hôtellerie, etc.) lodger, guest. 3 obsol. (propriétaire) host, guest. 4 (toute personne qui donne l'hospitalité ou qui la reçoit) host, guest. On vous rappellera que vous avez été l' — d'H. et lui, you will be reminded that you have been H.'s guest and mine. Ab. prov. Il n'y en a point de plus foule que l' —, he who makes up a pic-nic party has the worst time of it. poetic. fig. Il eût pour — les souris, he had anxiety for his companion. La Font. Peu de beaux corps — d'une belle âme, few handsome bodies lodging noble souls. La Font. prov. Bon visage d' —, smiling looks of a host. 5 (by extension) (des animaux, of animals) guest, visitor, inhabitant. 6 poetic. fig. denizen. Vous êtes le phénix des —, you are the Phoenix of the denizens of the wood. La Font.

HÔTEL, o-tayl, sm. 1 mansion. absol. anc. (la maison du roi) king's palace, king's household. Maître d' —, majordomo, house steward. Premier maître d' — du roi, de la reine, majordomo, purveyor of the king's, of the queen's household. 2 anc. (d'un président) hotel. 3 anc. — abbatial, abbot's house. 4 L' — des Invalides, the hotel of the Invalids. L' — du ministre des finances, the hotel of the minister of finances. — Dieu, Hôtel-Dieu (hospital). — de ville, Town-hall, Mansion-house. 5 (pour les voyageurs, for travellers) hotel, inn. Tenir un —, on — garni, to keep an hotel, a furnished lodging-house. Le maître d'un —, inn-keeper, landlord of an inn.

HÔTELIER, o-tub-l-y, sm. fem. hôtelière, 1 hotel-keeper, landlord, landlady of an inn. 2 (dans quelques abbayes) steward.

HÔTELLERIE, o-tayl-ree, sf. 1 hotel, inn. 2 (particul.) apartments for the reception of strangers.

HÔTESSE, o-tays, sf. See HÔTE.

HÔTTE, hot, sf. 1 basket, dossier. Porter la —, to carry a basket on one's back. La — d'un chiffonnier, a rag-patcher's basket. — poissée, pitched basket to carry wine from the wine press to the casks. 2 (de cheminée) funnel.

HÔTTEE, ho-tay, sf. basket full. — de pain, basket full of bread. — de vin, hamper of wine.

HÔTTEUR, ho-tür, sm. fem. hôteuse, basket-carrier.

HÔTBLON, ho-blom, sm. bot. hop, hops. Lucifur du —, to galch. hops.

* HOUBLONNER, hoo-blo-nay, ra. to hop, to put hops in (de la bière, beer).

* HOUBLONNIÈRE, hoo-blo-nay, sf. bot. hop-garden, hop-ground, hop-yard, hop-field.

* HOUE, sf. hoo, agri. hoe.

* HOUER, hoo-ay, ra. agri. to hoe. (intransitivement) Ce vigneron ne lait que — toute la journée, this vine-dresser does nothing but hoe all day long.

* HOUILLE, hoo-yuh, sf. coal, pit-coal, sea-coal. Mine de —, coal-mine. Brûler de la —, to burn coal. Un bâteau de —, collier, lighter.

* HOULLER, hoo-yay, adj. m. fem. houillière, geol. coal. Terrains —, coal-fields. Dépôt —, coal-deposit, coal-series. Bassin —, coal basin.

* HOUILLETTE, hoo-yay, sf. coal mine, coal pit, colliery.

* HOUILLEUR, hoo-yuhr, sm. collier, pitman.

* HOULLEUX, hoo-yuh, adj. m. fem. houilleux, geol. coal.

* HOULAN, hoo-lang, sm. See UHLAN.

* HOLLE, hool, sf. 1 haut. swell. Grosse —, great swell. 2 (d'une mer agitée) billow, surge.

* HOULETTE, hoo-let, sf. 1 crook, fig. Porter la —, to be a shepherd. Depuis le sceptre jusqu'à la —, from the king to the peasant, 2 gard. trowel. 3 tech. spatula, founder's scoop.

* HOULEUX, hoo-luh, adj. m. fem. houleux, naut. swelling, rough. Mer houleuse, rough sea.

* HOUPER, hoo-pay, ra. hunt. to whoop, to hoop, to shout.

* HOUPPE, hoop, sf. 1 tuft. La — d'un bonnet carré, the tuft of a square cap. Une — à poudrer, a powder-puff. Mettre des — à des chevaux de carrosse, to tuft coach-horses. 2 nat. hist. — de poils, tuft of hair. 3 anat. — s nerveuses, nervous expansion.

* HOUPPELANDE, hoop-langd, sf. great coat.

* HOUPPER, hoo-pay, ra. to tuft, to comb (de la laine, wool).

* HOIR, hoo-rah, sm. See HUIRAA.

* HOCRAILLER, hoo-rah-yay, sm. hunt. to hunt with bad hounds.

* HOCRAILLIS, hoo-rah-yee, sm. hunt. pack of bad hounds.

* HOUBRADE, hoo-dab, sm. 1 mason. rough-wall, gugging. 2 (la première couche de gros plâtre), lath-work.

* HOURDIS, hoo-dée, sm. See HOURDAGE.

* HOURET, hoo-ray, sm. ven. bad hound.

* HOURI, hoo-ree, sf. (Ar.) houri.

* HOURQUE, hoo-rah, sf. naut. hawk.

* HOUURA, hoo-rah, sm. 1 hurrah, huzzes. 2 (attaque subite) sudden attack accompanied with hurrahs. Nous eûmes à essuyer trois — des Cossques, we had to withstand three sudden attacks of the Cossacks.

* HOURVARI, hoo-var-ee, sm. 1 hunt. cry to call back the hounds. 2 fam. (grand bruit) uproar.

* HOUSARD, hoo-zar, sm. See HUSARD.

* HOUSEAUX, hoo-zo, sm. pl. obsol. spatterdashes. prov. fig. Laisser ses — quelque part, to leave one's bones somewhere. Le pauvre, ce coup, y laissa ses —, the poor thing, this time, left his bones there. La Font.

* HOUSPILLER, hoo-s-pay, ra. 1 to maul, to mob, to pull about. fig. On bait d'être houspillé par la fortune, we hate to be ill-treated by fortune. Mme de Sév. 2 fig. to cut up, to lash.

SE HOUSPILLER, vpr. recip. to worry, to maul each other, to abuse one another.

* HOUSSE, hoo-sah, sm. dusting.

* HOUSSE, hoo-say, sf. (lieu) hollygrove.

* HOUSSARD, hoo-sar, sm. See HUSARD.

* HOUSSE, hoo-s, sf. (Lat. ursa) 1 spirit of humanity. Volt. 4-s, pl. lit. humanités.

HUMBLE, uhng-bli, adj. mf. (Lat. humilis) humble, meek. Il était — et doux de cœur, he was meek and lowly in heart. (substantif) Dieu résiste aux superbes et donne sa grâce aux —s, God resists the haughty and bestows his grace on the humble. 2 (qui porte trop loin la différence) humble, low mean. Vous avez devant vous jume F., le plus — de vos serviteurs, you have before your eyes F., the humblest of your servants. Sand. Votre très — serviteur, votre très — servante, your very humble servant. 3 (des choses, of things) (qui marque du respect) humble. Faire une — prière, to make an humble prayer. Rendre de très —s grâces, to give the most humble thanks. 4 (modeste) humble. D'—s vertus, humble virtues. 5 fg. (qui a peu d'élevation) humble, lowly. L'— violette, the lowly violet. Dans mon — retraite, in my humble retreat. 6 fg. (médiocre) humble. Le sort le plus —, the humblest lot.

HUMBLEMENT, uhng-bloh-mang, adv. 1 with humility. 2 (avec soumission) humbly. Demander — pardon, to beg pardon humbly. Je vous salue très —, my most humble service to you. 3 (modestement) humbly.

HUMECTANT, ô-mek-tang, ppr. of HUMECTER, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 humidive, humectant, moistening. 2 sm. Prendre des —s, to take refreshing things.

HUMECTATION, ô-mek-tah-syong, sf. humidification, moistening.

HUMECTÉ, ppa. of HUMECTER, fem. —E, damp, wet, moistened. Ses feuilles —es et froissées, the leaves damp and bruised. Saint. Je déposai la fleur, —E des larmes du matin, sur la tête d'elle, I placed the flower wet with the morning dew, on the head of A. Chat. La terre, ainsi rafraîchie et —E, the earth, thus refreshed, and moistened. J.-J. Rousseau.

HUMECTER, ô-mek-tay, ra. (Lat. humectare) 1 to moisten, to wet, to bedew. La rosée humecte la terre, the dew moistens the earth. Si je n'avais pas eu soin de l'— de temps en temps, elle serait morte, if I had not taken care to water it now and then, it would have perished. Saint. Des larmes humectaient ses paupières, her eye-lids were wet with tears. 2 (des personnes, of persons) (rafraîchir) to refresh, to moisten, to wet.

S'HUMECTER, vpr. 1 to be moistened, bedewed. 2 (à soi) to refresh one's self. S'— la poitrine, to moisten one's inside. pop. S'— le gosier, to wet one's whistle.

HUMER, hô-may, ra. to suck up, in, down, to sup up, to inhale. Ces êtres d'une apparence farouche humaient leur café avec une placidité étonnante, these fierce looking beings were swallowing their coffee with an astonishing composure. Th. Gaut. — un œuf, to suck up an egg. — le vent, — le brucialard, etc., to suck in the wind, the fog, etc. Levant leurs mufles baveux pour — l'air, raising their slavered muzzles to suck in the air. Th. Gaut. (by extension) — l'odeur des mets, to inhale the odour of the dishes. Car, dit C., humant une prise de café, for, said C., snuffing up a pinch of snuff. Balz. (by extension) Quelques tortues homant le soleil, a few tortoises basking in the sun. Th. Gaut.

HUMERAL, ô-may-ral, adj. m. fem. —E, anat. humeral.

HUMERUS, ô-may-rûs, sm. (Lat.) anat. humerus.

HUMEUR, ô-mubr, sf. (Lat. humor) 4 humor. Cela met les —s en mouvement, that stirs up the humours. 2 vulg. (des humeurs du corps) humor. — acre, acid humor. Être plein d'—s, to be full of humours. —s froides, scrofula, king's evil. 3 fg. disposition d'esprit) humor, disposition, temper. Avoir une — atrabilaire, one — melancholic, to be of a splenetic, melancholy temper. Son — était froide et sévère, his disposition was cold and severe. Volt. Être d'— douce, d'— égale, d'— chagrine, etc., to be of a gentle disposition, to be of a morose disposition, etc. Le désir de voir, l'— inquisite l'emportèrent enfin, his wish to see the world, his restless soul triumphed at last. La Font. Son — est aimable quoiqu'elle ait quelque chose de brusque et de sec, he is of a pleasant disposition though there is something abrupt and dry in it. M^{me} de Sév. Les Saxons avaient une — indomptable, the S. were untamable. Montesq. Être en — de faire quelque chose, to be in a humor to do a thing. Être d'— à faire quelque chose, to be of a temper to do a thing. 4 absol. bad humor. Cette femme a toujours de l'—, that woman is always in a bad humor. Elle ne put s'empêcher de trouver l'— de son mari quelque peu ridicule, she could not help thinking her husband's ill-humor was rather ridiculous. Sand. Prendre de l'— to get out of temper. Il ne pensait pas sans — au ménage du musicien, it was not without ill-humor that he remembered the musician and his wife. Sand. 5 fantaisie) whim, fancy, caprice. Chacun a ses —s, every one has his caprices.

HUMIDE, ô-meed, adj. mf. (Lat. humidus) 1 poetic. watery, humid, liquid. L'— élément, the watery way. Les —s plaines, l'— sein de l'onde, l'— empire, the sea, the briny plains. 2 (imprégné d'eau) humid, wet, damp, moist. Un lieu —, a damp spot. Du linge —, damp linen. Elle a encore les yeux —s de larmes, her eyes are still moist with tears, qu'elle moist with tears. L'hiver a été fort —, the winter has been a very wet one. (substantif.) Je bois à votre santé au vert de punch. Pour ébaïsser l'—, I drink your health in a glass of punch, to keep out the wet, for I am so-a'ded through. Jacq. 3 sm. anc. nat. soil. moisture, wet. 4 med. l'— radical, the radical moisture.

HUMIDEMENT, ô-mid-mang, adv. in a damp place.

HUMIDITÉ, ô-me-de-tay, sf. humidity, moisture, dampness, wateriness. L'— de la terre, of the air, the dampness of the earth, of the air.

HUMILIANT, ô-me-lyang, ppr. of HUMILIER, adj. m. fem. —E, humiliating. Quelque — qu'il fût pour lui de supplier un homme qui venait de lui faire in-ulte, however humiliating it was for him to entreat a man who had just insulted him. Aug. Th.

HUMILIATION, ô-me-lyah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 humiliation, abasement. 2 mortification) humiliation, mortification.

HUMILIE, ppa. of HUMILIER, fem. —E, Elle se sentait —E de l'humiliation de la royauté en France, she felt herself humbled by the humiliation of royalty in France. Lamart. Rene releva du sein de C. sa tête —E, R. raised from C.'s bosom his humbled head. Chat. On se sent — pour ce qu'on appelle talent ou génie de penser que, one feels a sort of humiliation for what is called talent or genius, when one thinks that. Ste-B.

HUMILIER, ô-me-lyay, va. (Lat. humiliare) 1 to humiliate, to humble, to mortify, to cast down, to abase. Dieu humilie les superbes, God humbles the proud. Même quand il vous instruit, il n'est point éparpille par sa fache de vous — ou par, even when he instructs you, he is not sorry perhaps to humble you a little. Ste-B. Cette réflexion l'humilia plus encore que les aberrations de l'histoire, this reflection humbled him still more than the aberrations of history. Saint. Cela n'humilie personne, it is humiliating for nobody. Sand. Il leur reprocha durement d'avoir humilié le drapeau de la monarchie, he reproached them harshly with having brought contempt on the flag of monarchy. Lamart. 2 rel. — son cœur, son esprit devant Dieu, to humble one's heart, one's mind before God.

S'HUMILIER, vpr. 1 to humble, to abase one's self, to stoop. Il vient ployer le genou et s'— à ses pieds, he comes to bend the knee and humble himself at his feet. Nod. Trop fier pour s'— devant le gouverneur, too proud to stoop to the governor. Sait. Au pieds de l'Éternel, je viens m'—, I come to humble myself at the feet of the Eternal. Rac.

HUMILITÉ, ô-me-le-tay, sf. (Lat. humilitas) 1 humility, humbleness, meekness, lowliness. 2 (déférence) humility.

HUMORAL, ô-mo-ral, adj. m. fem. —E, med. humoral. Vice —, humoral vice.

HUMORISME, ô-mo-rism', sm. med. humorism.

HUMORISTE, ô-mo-rist, adj. mf. 1 peevish, cross. 2 (des médecins) Médecin —, humorist. 3 (substantif) (qui a souvent de l'humour) peevish, cross person. 4 (substantif) (celui qui a de l'humour) humorist. C'était un —, ce qu'on appelle en France un original, he was a humorist, what in F. is called an eccentric man. Sand. 5 (substantif) (médecin humoriste) humorist.

HUMOUR, ô-moor, sm. (Eng.) humor HUMUS, ô-mûs, sm. (Lat.) mould. *HUNE, hûn, sf. naut. top. Les —s d'un navire, the top of the masts of a ship. Mât de —, top-mast. Grande —, main-top — de misaine, fore-top — d'artimon, mizen-top.

*HUNIER, hû-nay, sm. naut. top-sail. Grand —, main top-sail. Petit —, fore top-sail.

*HUPPE, hûp, sf. 1 orn. lapwing, hoopoe, hoopoe. 2 (la touffe de plumes) tuft. La — d'une alouette, the tuft of a lark.

*HUPPE, hû-pay, adj. m. fem. —E, 4 (des oiseaux, of birds) tufted, crested Alouette —E, tufted lark. 2 fg. (riche) high, topping, tip-top, clever. Un héros des plus —s, a crack hero. La Font. Combien en a-t-on vu, je dis des plus —s, a souffler, etc., how many have been seen, and of the best, blowing, etc. Rac. prov. fg. Les plus —s y sont pris, the sharpest are taken in.

*HUIE, hûr, sf. head. Une — de sanglier, a boar's head. La — d'un saumon, the hie of a salmon. fg. Il a une vilaine —, he has a nasty head of hair. fg. Ayant courage, intelligence et belle — outre cela, possessing courage, intelligence, and to crown all a fine head. La Font.

HURHAU, See see.

*HURLEMENT, hûr-loh-mang, sm. 4 (do loup, du chien, of the wolf, the dog) howl, howling. 2 (de l'homme, of man) howl, howling, yell, yelling, shriek. La troupe consternée en poussa vers le ciel des —s affreux, the dismayed band sent up frightful howls towards Heaven. Rac. Un long — sortit de cette multitude, the multitude sent forth a loud yell. Th. Chas. (by extension) La création désolée poussait des —s de douleur, disconsolate creation uttered shrieks of pain. Nod. Au — des bois se brisaient au-dessous d'elle, at the foot of the woods breaking below her. Ph. Chas.

*HURLER, ôr-lay, m. 1 (des loups, des chiens, of wolves, dogs) to howl. Le chien se mit à —, the dog began to howl. Ab. prov. fg. Il faut — avec les loups, when you are at Rome you must do as they do at Rome. 2 (des personnes, of persons) to howl, to shriek, to yell. Les blessés et les malades hurlaient ensemble, the wounded and the sick howled together. Ab. — de rage, to howl with rage. 3 (hyperb.) to belloat to howl.

* HURLUBERLU, hû-lû-bayr-lû, sm.
hurlubérain person.

* HUSSARD, hû-sar, sm. 4 (cavalier hongrois) hussar. 2 (corps de cavalerie légère) hussar. 3 (adjectif.) Cooper les crins d'un cheval à la hussarde, to cut the mane of a horse after the hussar fashion. prov. Vivre à la —, to live by plunder.

* HUTTE, hût, sf, hut, cabin. La — d'un berger, a shepherd's hut, hovel. Des —s de sauvages, huts of savages.

* SE "HUTTER, hû-tay, vpr. to make a hut, cabin, hovel.

* HUZZA, hû-zah, interj. huzza.

HYACINTHE, yah-sangt, sf. (Gr.) 1 bot. hyacinth. 2 min. hyacinth. 3 pharo. Confection d'—, confection of hyacinth.

HYADES, e-yad, sf. pl. (Gr.) astr. hyades. poétic. Les tristes —s, les froides —s, the sad Hyades, the cold Hyades.

HYBRIDE, e-brid, adj. mf. (Gr.) 4 (des plantes, of plants) hybrid. 2 (substantif.) hybrid.

HYDATISME, e-dat-ism', sm. (Gr.) med. hydatism.

HYDRAÛGUE, e-drag-ûg, adj. mf. (Gr.) 4 hydragogical. 2 (substantif.) hydragogue.

HYDRATE, e-drat, sm. (Gr.) chem. hydrate.

HYDRATÉ, e-drat-ay, adj. m. fem. —, chem. hydrated.

HYDRAULIQUE, e-dro-lik, adj. mf. (Gr.) 4 hydraulic. Machine —, hydraulic machine. Orgue —, hydraulic organ. 2 (substantif.) hydraulics.

HYDRE, e-drûr', sf. (Gr.) 4 hydra. 2 myth. L'— de Lerne, the hydra of Lerna. 3 fig. hydra. L'— des factions, the hydra of factions. Les vices, —s, reissant sans cesse dans les coeurs, vices, hydra continually springing up afresh in the heart. La Font. 4 astr. hydra.

HYDROCELE, e-dro-sayl, sf. (Gr.) med. hydrocele.

HYDROCEPHALE, e-dro-say-fal, sf. (Gr.) med. hydrocephalus, dropsy of the brain.

HYDROCHLORATE, e-dro-klo-rat, sm. (Gr.) chem. hydrochlorate, murate.

HYDROCHLORIQUE, e-dro-klo-rik, adj. mf. (Gr.) chem. hydrochloric.

HYDROCOTYLE, e-dro-ko-teel, sf. (Gr.) bot. hydrocotyle, penny-wort.

HYDRODYNAMIQUE, e-dro-de-nam-ik, sf. (Gr.) hydrodynamics.

HYDROGÈNE, e-dro-zhayn, sm. (Gr.) chem. 1 hydrogen. (adjectif.) Gaz —, hydrogen gas. — carboné, sulfuré, etc., hydrogen gas sulphuretted hydrogen. 2 (pour l'éclairage) gas hydrogen gas.

HYDROGÈNE, e-dro-zhay-nay, adj. m. fem. —, chem. hydrogenised.

HYDROGRAPHE, e-dro-graf, sm. hydrographer.

HYDROGRAPHIE, e-dro-graf-ee, sf. (Gr.) hydrography. Carte d'—, chart.

HYDROGRAPHIQUE, e-dro-graf-ik, adj. mf. hydrographic, hydrographical.

HYDROLOGIE, e-dro-lo-zhe, sf. (Gr.) hydrology.

HYDROMEL, e-dro-mayl, sm. (Gr.) hydromel, mead, methglin.

HYDROMÈTRE, e-dro-maytr', sm. (Gr.) hydrometer.

HYDROMÉTRIE, e-dro-may-tree, sf. (Gr.) hydrometry.

HYDROMÉTRIQUE, e-dro-may-trik, adj. m. hydrometric, hydrometrical.

HYDROPHOBIE, e-dro-fob, adj. mf. (Gr.) med. 4 hydrophobia. 2 s. mf. (particul.) ceux qui sont atteints de la rage person affected with hydrophobia.

HYDROPHOBIE, e-dro-fob-ee, sf. (Gr.) med. hydrophobia. 2 (la rage même) hydrophobia.

HYDROPIQUE, e-dro-pik, adj. mf. (Gr.) 4 med. dropsical. 2 (substantif.) dropsical person.

HYDROPSIS, e-dro-pe-zee, sf. (Gr.)

4 med. dropsy — de poitrine, dropsy of the chest, water on the chest. — de la tête, des yeux, etc., dropsy of the head, eyes, etc. 3 (du bas-ventre) dropsy.

HYDROPEUMATIQUE, e-dro-puh-mat-ik, adj. mf. (Gr.) chem. hydropeumatis.

HYDROSCOPE, e-dros-kop, sm. (Gr.) bietonist.

HYDROSCOPE, e-dros-kop-ee, sf. (Gr.) 4 bietonism. 2 hydromancy.

HYDROSTATIQUE, e-dros-tat-ik, sf. (Gr.) 4 hydrostatics. 2 (adjectif.) hydrostatic, hydrostatical. Balance —, hydrostatic balance.

HYDROSULFATE, e-dro-sûl-fat, HYDROSULFURE, e-dro-sûl-fûr, sm. (Gr.) chem. hydrosulfate, hydrosulphur.

HYDROSULFURIQUE, e-dro-sûl-fû-rik, adj. mf. chem. hydrosulphuric.

HYDROTHERAPIE, e-dro-tay-rap-ee, sf. (Gr.) med. hydrotherapy, water-cure.

HYDROTHERAPIQUE, e-dro-tay-rap-ik, adj. mf. med. hydrotherapy.

HYDROTHORAX, e-dro-to-raks, sm. (Gr.) med. hydrothorax, dropsy of the chest.

HYDRURE, e-drûr, sm. chem. hydrurel.

HYEMAL, e-yay-mal, adj. m. fem. —, (Lat. hyems) hyemal. Plantes —es, hyemal plants. Montagnes —es, hyemal mountains. B. de St-B.

HYÈNE, e-yayn, sf. (Gr.) zool. hyena.

HYGIÈNE, e-zhayn, sf. (Gr.) hygiene.

HYGIENIQUE, e-zhay-nik, adj. mf. hygienic.

HYGROMÈTRE, e-gro-maytr' sm. (Gr.) nat. phil. hygrometer.

HYGROMÉTRIE, e-gro-may-tree, sf. (Gr.) nat. phil. hygrometry.

HYGROMÉTRIQUE, e-gro-may-trik, adj. mf. (Gr.) nat. phil. hygrometric, hygrometrical.

HYMEN, e-mayn, HYMÈNE, e-may-nay, sm. (Gr.) 1 hymen. 2 poétic. fig. (mariage) hymen, union, mariage. fig. Toile l'année n'est qu'un — du printemps et de l'automne qui, etc. the whole year is but a union of spring and autumn which, etc. Féu.

HYMÉNOPTÈRE, e-may-nop-tayr, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 hymenopteral. 2 (substantif.) ent. L'ordre des —s, the order of the hymenoptera, hymenopters.

HYMNE, ecum, sm. (Gr.) 4 hymn. 2 antiq. (prière) hymn. 3 sf. cath. rel. hymn. Une belle —, a fine hymn.

HYOÏDE, yo-ïd, adj. and sm. (Gr.) anat. L'os —, the hyoid bone.

HYOALLAGE, e-pol-lazh, sf. (Gr.) gram. hyoallage.

HYPERBATE, e-payr-bat, sf. (Gr.) gram. hyperbaton.

HYPERBOLE, e-payr-bol, sf. (Gr.) 4 rhet. hyperbole. Je vous le dis sans —, I tell you plainly. 2 math. hyperbole.

HYPERBOLIQUE, e-payr-bo-lik, adj. mf. 4 hyperbolic, hyperbolic. 2 exaggerating. 3 math. hyperbolic, hyperbolic.

HYPERBOLIQUEMENT, e-payr-bo-lik-nang, adj. hyperbolically.

HYPERBOÏQUE, e-payr-bo-ray, adj. mf. (Gr.) hyperboic, far north.

HYPERBOÏEN, e-payr-bo-ray-ang, adj. m. fem. —, hyperboic.

HYPERCRITIQUE, e-payr-kre-tik, sm. (Gr.) neol. hypercritic.

HYPERTROPHIE, e-payr-tro-tee, sf. (Gr.) med. hypertrophy (du cœur, of the heart).

HYPETHIE, e-paytr', adj. and sm. (Gr.) arch. hypethral.

HYPOPTIQUE, ip-no-tik, adj. mf. (Gr.) med. hypnotic.

HYPOPTISME, ip-no-tism', sm. (Gr.) med. hypnotism.

HYPOCONDRE, e-po-kongdr', sm. (Gr.) 4 anat. hypocondria. 2 (personne) hypocondriac.

HYPOCONDRIQUE, e-po-kong-dryak, adj. mf. 4 med. hypocondriac, hypocondriacal. 2 (atteint d'hypocondrie) hypocondriac, hypocondriacal. 3 (substantif.) C'est un —, he is a hypocondriac.

HYPOCONDRIE, e-po-kong-dree, sf. (Gr.) 4 med. hypocondria, hypocondriasis. 2 (by extension) hyp, spleen, vapours.

HYPOCRAS, e-po-kras, sm. (Gr.) hipocras.

HYPOCRISIE, e-po-kre-zee, sf. (Gr.) hypocrisy. (by extension) Cette adresse dictée par l'— de la peur, this address dictated by the hypocrisy of fear. La-mart.

HYPOCRITE, e-po-krit, adj. mf. (Gr.) 4 hypocritic, hypocritical. 2 (des manières, des actions, etc.) hypocritical. 3 (substantif.) hypocrite.

HYPOCRITÉMENT, e-po-krit-mang, adv. hypocritically.

HYPOGASTRE, e-po-gastr', sm. (Gr.) anat. hypogastrum.

HYPOGASTRIQUE, e-po-gas-trik, adj. mf. (Gr.) anat. hypogastric.

HYPOGÉE, e-po-zhay, sm. (Gr.) arch. hypogeum, pl. hypogaea. (adjectif.) Temple —, hypogeum, subterranean temple.

HYPOGLOSSIE, e-po-gloss, adj. and sm. (Gr.) anat. hypoglossal, hypoglossic.

HYPOSTASE, e-pos-taz, sf. (Gr.) 4 theol. hypostasis. 2 med. hypostasis, sediment.

HYPOSTATIQUE, e-pos-tat-ik, adj. mf. (Gr.) theol. hypostatic, hypostatical.

HYPOSTATIQUEMENT, e-pos-tat-ik-mang, adv. theol. hypostatically.

HYPOTHÈSE, e-po-tay-nûz, sf. (Gr.) geom. hypothec.

HYPOTHÈCAIRE, e-po-tay-kayr, adj. mf. law. on, of mortgage. Créancier —, mortgagee. Dette —, mortgage debt.

Inscription —, registry of mortgage.

HYPOTHÈCAIEMENT, e-po-tay-kayr-mang, adv. law. with, by mortgage, relatively to mortgage.

HYPOTHÈQUE, e-po-tayk, sf. (Lat. hypotheca) law. mortgage. Avoir — sur un immeuble, to have a mortgage on an estate, on a house. Un bien chargé, grevé d'—, on estate deeply mortgaged.

HYPOTHÈQUE, e-po-tayk, sf. (Lat. hypotheca) law. mortgage. Avoir — sur un immeuble, to have a mortgage on an estate, on a house. Un bien chargé, grevé d'—, on estate deeply mortgaged.

HYPOTHÈQUE, e-po-tayk, sf. (Lat. hypotheca) law. mortgage. Avoir — sur un immeuble, to have a mortgage on an estate, on a house. Un bien chargé, grevé d'—, on estate deeply mortgaged.

HYPOTHÈQUE, e-po-tayk, sf. (Lat. hypotheca) law. mortgage. Avoir — sur un immeuble, to have a mortgage on an estate, on a house. Un bien chargé, grevé d'—, on estate deeply mortgaged.

HYPOTHÈQUE, e-po-tayk, sf. (Lat. hypotheca) law. mortgage. Avoir — sur un immeuble, to have a mortgage on an estate, on a house. Un bien chargé, grevé d'—, on estate deeply mortgaged.

HYPOTHÈQUE, e-po-tayk, sf. (Lat. hypotheca) law. mortgage. Avoir — sur un immeuble, to have a mortgage on an estate, on a house. Un bien chargé, grevé d'—, on estate deeply mortgaged.

HYPOTHÈQUE, e-po-tayk, sf. (Lat. hypotheca) law. mortgage. Avoir — sur un immeuble, to have a mortgage on an estate, on a house. Un bien chargé, grevé d'—, on estate deeply mortgaged.

HYPOTHÈQUE, e-po-tayk, sf. (Lat. hypotheca) law. mortgage. Avoir — sur un immeuble, to have a mortgage on an estate, on a house. Un bien chargé, grevé d'—, on estate deeply mortgaged.

HYPOTHÈQUE, e-po-tayk, sf. (Lat. hypotheca) law. mortgage. Avoir — sur un immeuble, to have a mortgage on an estate, on a house. Un bien chargé, grevé d'—, on estate deeply mortgaged.

HYPOTHÈQUE, e-po-tayk, sf. (Lat. hypotheca) law. mortgage. Avoir — sur un immeuble, to have a mortgage on an estate, on a house. Un bien chargé, grevé d'—, on estate deeply mortgaged.

HYPOTHÈQUE, e-po-tayk, sf. (Lat. hypotheca) law. mortgage. Avoir — sur un immeuble, to have a mortgage on an estate, on a house. Un bien chargé, grevé d'—, on estate deeply mortgaged.

HYPOTHÈQUE, e-po-tayk, sf. (Lat. hypotheca) law. mortgage. Avoir — sur un immeuble, to have a mortgage on an estate, on a house. Un bien chargé, grevé d'—, on estate deeply mortgaged.

HYPOTHÈQUE, e-po-tayk, sf. (Lat. hypotheca) law. mortgage. Avoir — sur un immeuble, to have a mortgage on an estate, on a house. Un bien chargé, grevé d'—, on estate deeply mortgaged.

HYPOTHÈQUE, e-po-tayk, sf. (Lat. hypotheca) law. mortgage. Avoir — sur un immeuble, to have a mortgage on an estate, on a house. Un bien chargé, grevé d'—, on estate deeply mortgaged.

HYPOTHÈQUE, e-po-tayk, sf. (Lat. hypotheca) law. mortgage. Avoir — sur un immeuble, to have a mortgage on an estate, on a house. Un bien chargé, grevé d'—, on estate deeply mortgaged.

HYPOTHÈQUE, e-po-tayk, sf. (Lat. hypotheca) law. mortgage. Avoir — sur un immeuble, to have a mortgage on an estate, on a house. Un bien chargé, grevé d'—, on estate deeply mortgaged.

HYPOTHÈQUE, e-po-tayk, sf. (Lat. hypotheca) law. mortgage. Avoir — sur un immeuble, to have a mortgage on an estate, on a house. Un bien chargé, grevé d'—, on estate deeply mortgaged.

HYPOTHÈQUE, e-po-tayk, sf. (Lat. hypotheca) law. mortgage. Avoir — sur un immeuble, to have a mortgage on an estate, on a house. Un bien chargé, grevé d'—, on estate deeply mortgaged.

HYPOTHÈQUE, e-po-tayk, sf. (Lat. hypotheca) law. mortgage. Avoir — sur un immeuble, to have a mortgage on an estate, on a house. Un bien chargé, grevé d'—, on estate deeply mortgaged.

HYPOTHÈQUE, e-po-tayk, sf. (Lat. hypotheca) law. mortgage. Avoir — sur un immeuble, to have a mortgage on an estate, on a house. Un bien chargé, grevé d'—, on estate deeply mortgaged.

HYPOTHÈQUE, e-po-tayk, sf. (Lat. hypotheca) law. mortgage. Avoir — sur un immeuble, to have a mortgage on an estate, on a house. Un bien chargé, grevé d'—, on estate deeply mortgaged.

HYPOTHÈQUE, e-po-tayk, sf. (Lat. hypotheca) law. mortgage. Avoir — sur un immeuble, to have a mortgage on an estate, on a house. Un bien chargé, grevé d'—, on estate deeply mortgaged.

HYPOTHÈQUE, e-po-tayk, sf. (Lat. hypotheca) law. mortgage. Avoir — sur un immeuble, to have a mortgage on an estate, on a house. Un bien chargé, grevé d'—, on estate deeply mortgaged.

HYPOTHÈQUE, e-po-tayk, sf. (Lat. hypotheca) law. mortgage. Avoir — sur un immeuble, to have a mortgage on an estate, on a house. Un bien chargé, grevé d'—, on estate deeply mortgaged.

ICI

I, e, sm. the ninth letter of the alphabet. 1. Droit comme un —, as straight as an arrow, bolt upright. —, fig. Il faut avec cet homme mettre les points sur les —, with this man one must be scrupulously exact.

1. in chemistry is an abbreviation of iodine.

IAMBE, e-angb, sm. (Gr.) † lit. (piéd) iambus. 2 lit. (vers) iambic. 3 lit. (adjectiv.) iambic.

IAMBIQUE, e-ang-bik, adj. mf. iambic. 1b., 1b1d., abbreviations of ibidem.

IBERIDE, e-bay-reed, sf. bot. iberis, candy-tuft.

IBERIE, e-bay-ree, sf. geog. Iberia.

IBIS, e-bis, sm. orn. ibis.

1 IBERIAN, 2 (adjectiv.) Iberian.

IBERIQUE, e-bay-rik, adj. mf. geog. Iberic.

IBIDEM, e-be-daym, adv. (Lat.) ibidem.

IBIS, e-bis, sm. orn. ibis.

1 ICAQUIER, e-kak-yay, sm. bot. icacoree.

ICARE, e-kar, sm. myth. Icarus. fig. Les ailes d'—, the wings of Icarus.

ICELUI, e-suh-ice, adj. and pron. m. fem. icelle, pl. iceux, m.; icelles, f. law. this, that, the said.

ICHNEUMON, ik-nuh-mong, sm. † zool. ichneumon. 2 est. ichneumon. (adjectiv.) Mueche —, ichneumon-fly.

ICHOGRAPHIE, ik-no-graf-ee, sf. (Gr.) arch. ichnography.

ICHOGRAPHIQUE, ik-no-graf-ik, adj. mf. ichnographic, ichnographical.

ICHOR, e-kor, sm. (Gr.) med. ichor.

ICHOREUX, e-ko-rub, adj. m. fem. ichoreous, med. ichorous.

1 ICHTHYOLITE, ik-te-o-lit, sm. (Gr.) min. ichthyolite.

1 ICHTHYOLOGIE, ik-te-o-lo-zhee, sf. (Gr.) nat. hist. ichthyology.

1 ICHTHYOLOGIQUE, ik-te-o-lo-zhik, adj. and a. mf. (Gr.) ichthyological.

1 ICHTHYOLOGISTE, ik-te-o-lo-zhist, sm. (Gr.) ichthyologist.

1 ICHTHYOPHAGE, ik-te-o-fazh, adj. mf. (Gr.) ichthyophageous.

1 ICHTHYOPHAGE, sm. ichthyophagist.

1 ICHTHYOSAURE, ik-te-o-zör, sm. (Gr.) zool. ichthyosaurus.

ICI, e-see, adv. (Lat. hic) 1 (en ce lieu-ci) here, hither, in this place. Je voudrais bien qu'il fût —, I should like to have him here. Venez —, come here, come hither. Vous savez quel sujet conduit — leurs pas, you know the cause that brings them here. Rac. N'approchez pas d'—, do not come near this place. D'—, hence, from hence, from this place. Sortez d'—, get out from here. D'— là, nous comptons une lieue, from here to there we reckon it is a league. Quand je serai loin d'—, when I am far from here, many miles hence. Hors d'— out from here! out hence! out! out with him, with you! Par —, this way. Par —, monsieur, this way, sir. Il a passé par —, he has passed by here. Pries d'—, hard by, near here, heretofore. (elliptic.) (to call a dog) —, come here. 2 (noting a difference between places) here. — il y a une montagne, et là une plaine, here is a mountain, and there a plain. 3 (dans une énumération, noting circumstances) now, at one time. — il pardonne, là il punit, at one time he forgives, at another he punishes. 4 (dans ce pays-ci, etc.) here, in this country. On est plus sage à Londres qu'—, people are wiser in London than in this country. Les biens sont loin de nous, et les maux sont —, good is far from us, evil is here. Volt. 5 (d'un livre, d'un discours, etc., of a book, of a speech, etc.) here. — un plus grand objet se présente à ma pensée, here a more important subject presents itself to my thoughts. Boss. Vous étudiez jusqu'—, you will learn down to there.

IDÉ

ici, adv. in this moment, now. Revenez demain, d'— là j'aurai arrangé votre affaire, come and see me to-morrow, by that time I shall have settled that business of yours. Je parlerais d'— à demain là-dessus, I could speak on this subject from now until to-morrow. M^{me} de Sév.

ICI-BIS, adv. loc. here below, in this world. Les choses, les affaires d'—, the things, the concerns of this world. Tous les biens d'— sont passagers, all worldly goods are but transient. Rego.

1 ICOCLAN, e-ko-clang, sm. icoglan.

1 ICONOCLASTE, e-ko-no-klast, sm. (Gr.) † 1 iconoclast, image-breaker. 2 (adjectiv.) iconoclast.

1 ICONOGRAPHIE, e-ko-no-graf, sm. (Gr.) iconography.

1 ICONOGRAPHIQUE, e-ko-no-graf-ee, sf. (Gr.) iconography.

1 ICONOGRAPHIQUE, e-ko-no-graf-ik, adj. mf. iconographic.

1 ICONOLÂTRE, e-ko-no-lâtr, sm. (Gr.) iconolâtr.

1 ICONOLOGIE, e-ko-uo-lo-zhee, sf. (Gr.) iconology.

1 ICOSAÈDRE, e-ko-zab-aydr, sm. (Gr.) geom. icosahedron.

1 ICOSANDRIE, e-ko-zang-dree, sf. bot. icosandria.

1 ICTÈRE, ik-tayr, sm. (Gr.) med. icterus, jaundice.

1 ICTÉRIQUE, ik-tay-rik, adj. mf. (Gr.) † med. icteric, icterical. 2 (qui est affecté de l'ictère) icteric, icterical.

ID., abbreviation of IDEM.

1 IDEAL, e-day-al, adj. m. fem. —, † ideal, imaginary. Un ordre de choses purement —, a purely ideal order of things. J. de Mais. Le héros de ce roman est un personnage —, the hero of this novel is an imaginary personage. Les monnaies —es se multiplient avec excès, fictitious money is increasing excessively. Volt. 2 (aussi parlait que l'esprit peut le concevoir) perfect, ideal. Beau —, the ideal of perfection, the beau ideal. Beauté, perfection —e, ideal beauty, perfection. Formes —es, imaginary forms. Ce bien — que toute âme désire, that ideal good that every soul desires. Lamart.

1 IDEAL, sm. ideal. L'— de la vertu, the ideal of virtue. absol. L'—, the supreme ideal of beauty. L'— est l'objet de la contemplation passionnée de l'artiste, the ideal is the object of the artist's passionate contemplation. Coos.

1 IDEALISER, e-day-al-e-zay, ra. (Gr.) to idealize.

1 IDEALISME, e-day-al-ism, sm. (Gr.) idealism.

1 IDEALISTE, e-day-al-ist, sm. idealist.

1 IDÉE, e-day, sf. (Gr.) † (notion) idea, notion, conception. Une — claire, a clear idea. L'— du juste et de l'injuste, the knowledge of right and wrong. L'— du rouge, the idea of red. L'origine, le développement, la génération des —s, the origin, the development, the generation of ideas. L'— que vous attachez à ce mot est fautive, the meaning you attach to this word is false. Vous ne sauriez vous faire l'— des difficultés qu'il a eu à surmonter, you cannot form an idea of the difficulties he had to overcome. Ces ouvrages donnent la plus haute — de la puissance des Romains, those works give the grandest idea of the power of the Romans. Montesq. On ne peut se former l'— des corps sans celle de l'espace, bodies cannot be conceived as existing without space. Cela peut vous en donner une —, that can give you an idea of it. Les hommes ont tous à peu près les mêmes —s de ce qui est à la portée de tout le monde, all men form nearly the same ideas of whatever is within ordinary comprehension. Volt. J'en avais conçu une haute —, I had conceived a lofty idea of it. (hyperb.) On n'a pas d'— de cela, one has any idea of that. On n'a pas d'— d'une telle insolence, one never heard of such insolence. 2 (types éternels des choses) idea, archetype. Les —s de toutes choses sont en Dieu, the origin of all ideas is with God. Les —s de Platon, the ideas of Plato. 3 (souvenir) recollection. Cela m'en a rappelé l'—, that brought it back to my mind. Le temps en a complètement effacé l'— dans mon esprit, time has completely effaced its recollection from my memory. 4 (pensée, opinion, idea, opinion, thought) Une belle, une grande, une noble —, a beautiful, a grand, a noble idea. — mère, primitive idea. C'est lui qui m'a donné l'— de faire cela, it was he who gave me the idea to do that. Changer d'—, to alter one's mind. Quelle sottise! — what a foolish idea! Ma première — avait été de, my first idea had been to. Plein de cette —, I was full of that idea he wanted to. C'est une — heureuse, that is a good idea. Suivre le fil de ses —s, to follow the thread of one's ideas. Avoir des —s tristes, to have melancholy ideas. C'est un partisan des —s nouvelles, he is a partisan of the new doctrines. Cela lui brouillait toutes les —s, that confused all his ideas. On trouve dans cet ouvrage beaucoup d'—s ingénieuses, originales, that work contains a number of ingenious, original ideas. Mettre ses —s sur le papier, to commit one's ideas to paper. Puisque c'est votre — d'y aller, allez, since you think right to go there, go. Faites à votre —, do according to your fancy. — fixe, a fixed idea. 5 (d'une production des arts, etc., invention) idea, invention. L'— de ce tableau est gracieuse, the idea of that picture is pleasing. Il n'y a point d'—s dans cet ouvrage, there is no originality in that work. Cet artiste, cet auteur manque d'—s, that artist, that author is wanting in imagination. 6 lit. fine arts. sketch, outline. C'est une première —, it is a first sketch. Il en a jeté l'— sur le papier, he committed a sketch of it to paper. (in a bad part) Ce n'est qu'une première —, qu'une — informée, it is only a first outline, an incomplete sketch. 7 (vision chimérique) airy notion, odd conceit, fancy. Vous croyez qu'il veut se marier, quelle —! I think that he means to marry; what idea! Il veut donner ses —s pour choses réelles, he wants to make his cies pass for realities. Quelle — avez-vous là? what whim is that? 8 (la pensée, l'imagination) idea, mind. On ne peut lui ôter cela de l'—, one cannot get that out of his head. Ce songe, Hydaspe, est donc sorti de son —, then, this dream, Hydaspes, is gone out of his mind. Rac. Je ne sais ce qu'il a dans l'—, I don't know what he has in his head. Il me revient en —, à l'— que, it occurs to me, it occurs to my mind that. Avoir dans l'— que, to have an idea that. Se mettre dans l'— que, to take it into one's head that.

IDÉ

IDEA, e-dem, adv. (Lat.) ditto. (by abbreviation) do.

IDENTIFICATION, e-dang-te-fe-kab-syong, sf. identification.

IDENTIFIÉ, e-dang-te-fyay, va. to identify.

IDENTIFIER, vpr. to identify one's self, to become identified, to identify.

IDENTIQUE, e-dang-tik, adj. mf. identical, identical, the same.

IDENTIQUEMENT, e-dang-tik-mang, adv. identically.

IDENTITE, e-dang-te-tay, sf. (Lat.) 1 identity. Il y a — parfaite entre ces deux choses, there is a perfect sameness between these two things. 2 law, identity. Établir l'— d'un condamné, to establish the identity of a convict.

IDEOGRAPHIE, e-day-o-graf-ee, sf. (Gr.) ideography.

IDEOGRAPHIQUE, e-day-o-graf-ik, adj. mf. ideographic.

IDEOLOGIE, e-day-o-l-zhee, sf. (Gr.) ideology.

IDEOLOGIQUE, e-day-o-lo-zhik, adj. mf. ideologic.

IDEOLOGUE, e-day-o-log, sm. (Gr.) ideologist.

IDES, eed, sf. pl. (Lat.) ides.

IDIOCRASE, e-uyo-kraz, sf. idiocrasy, idiosyncrasy.

IDIO-ELECTRIQUE, e-uyo-ay-lek-trik, adj. mf. (Gr.) idioelectric.

IDIONE, id-yon, sm. (Gr. ἰδιόων) 1 idiom, language. Les pensées prennent la teinte des —, thoughts take the tinge of languages. J.-J. Rousseau. 2 (by extension) (dialecte) idiom, dialect. L'— gascon, l'— provençal, the Gascon, the Provençal idiom.

IDIOPATHIE, e-uyo-pat-ee, sf. (Gr.) 1 med. idiopathy. 2 (morally) idiopathy.

IDIOPATHIQUE, e-uyo-pat-ik, adj. mf. med. idiopathic.

IDIOSYNCRASIE, e-uyo-sang-krah-zee, sf. (Gr.) med. idiosyncrasy.

IDIOT, e-uyo, adj. m. fem. — E. 1 (atteint d'idiotisme) idiotic, idiotish. Cet enfant est —, that child is an idiot. (by extension) Ils portent sur leurs traits — les signes de la misère morale, they bear on their idiotic countenances, the signs of moral wretchedness. Thiers. 2 (by extension) (stupide, imbécille) silly, senseless. 3 (substantif) idiot, fool. C'est un pauvre —, he is a poor idiot, a natural fool.

IDIOTISME, e-uyo-tism, sm. (Gr.) 1 med. idiocy, idiotism. 2 gram. idiom, idiomism. C'est un plaisir d'entendre ces — pittoresques régner sur le vieux territoire du centre de la France, it is a pleasure to hear those picturesque idioms prevailing in the ancient territory of the centre of France. G. Sand.

IDOLE, id-odan, adj. mf. obsol. fit, proper (for).

IDOLÂTRE, e-do-lâ-tré, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 (du culte) idolatrous. Sacrifices —, pagan sacrifices. 2 fig. extremely fond of, idolatrous. Il est — de cette femme, he is — that woman to idolatry. L'amour-propre aveugle nous rend — de nous-mêmes, blind self-conceit makes us idolize ourselves. Fénelon. 3 sm. idolater, m. idolatress, f. idolist.

IDOLÂTRIE, e-do-lâ-tray, vn. (Gr.) to idolatry, to worship idol. —, c'est rendre les honneurs divins à la créature, to idolatry is to pay divine honours to the creature. Boss.

IDOLÂTRER, va. to idolize, to dote on, upon. Il idolâtre cette femme, he idolizes that woman.

S'IDOLÂTRER, vpr. 1 (reflect.) fig. to idolize one's self. 2 (reciproq.) fig. to idolize each other.

IDOLÂTRIE, e-do-lâ-tree, sf. (Gr.) 1 idolatry. 2 fig. idolatry. Aimer jusqu'à l'—, to love even to idolatry, to idolize.

IDOLE, e-dol, sf. (Gr. ἰδωλον) 1 idol. — d'or, de bois, golden, wooden idol. fig. Il se tient là comme une —, he is as motionless as an image. ironic.

C'est une —, une vraie —, she has no more life in her than a statue, she is as senseless as a dummy. 2 fig. idol, god. Cet enfant est l'— de sa mère, that child is the idol of its mother. Il y a longtemps que les hommes font leur — de la gloire, men have long made glory their idol. Mass. 3 fig. (personne à laquelle on prodigue les honneurs, les louanges, etc.) Il est l'— du jour, he is the idol of the moment.

IDOMÉNÉE, e-do-may-nay, sm. Idomenes.

IDOMÉE, e-di-may, sf. geog. Idumaea.

IDOMÉE, e-di-may-aug, adj. and sm. fem. — NE. Idumæan.

IOYLE, e-dil, sf. (Gr. ἰδύλλω) idyl.

IBLE, See PÉRIÈRE.

IF, fig. sm. 1 bot. yew, yew-tree. — commun, common yew. 2 (pour illuminations) pyramidal illumination lamp-stand.

IGNACE, e-nyas, sm. 1 Ignatius. 2 bot. Fève de St —, Ignatius's bean.

IGNAME, e-nyam, sf. bot. yam.

IGNARE, e-nyar, adj. mf. 1 illiterate, ignorant, greatly ignorant. 2 (substantif) C'est un —, he is an ignorant man.

IGNÉ, ig-nay, adj. m. fem. — E. 1 igneous. 2 (produit par l'action du feu) ignigenous.

IGNICOLE, ig-ne-kol, adj. mf. and sm. ignicolist.

IGNITION, ig-ne-syong, sf. (Lat.) ignition. En —, ignited.

IGNOBLE, e-nyobl, adj. mf. ignoble, mean. Expressions —, low expressions.

Avoir l'air —, to be low in appearance.

Des sentiments —, grovelling ideas. (by analogy) Il se cachait dans un — réduit, he hid himself in a filthy den.

IGNOBLEMENT, e-nyo-bluch-mang, adv. ignobly.

IGNOMINIE, e-nyo-me-nee, sf. (Lat.) ignominy, disgrace. Plongé dans un abîme d'—, plunged in a gulf of ignominy. J.-J. Rousseau. Une robe de pourpre et d'—, a robe of purple and ignominy. Mass. Souffrir de grandes —, to suffer unchord of disgraces.

IGNOMINEUSEMENT, e-nyo-me-nyuh-mang, adv. ignominiously, shamefully.

IGNOMINEUX, e-nyo-me-nyuh, adj. m. fem. ignominious, ignominiously, shamefully.

IGNORANCE, e-nyo-rang-mang, adv. (rare) ignorantly, unknowingly.

IGNORANCE, e-nyo-rangs, sf. (Lat. ignorantia) 1 ignorance. Croupir dans l'—, to wallow in ignorance. J'étais dans l'— de ce qui se passait, I was ignorant of what took place. (by extension) Il y a des — sans remède, celles du cœur, certain blunders are irremediable, those of the heart. Mich. Prétendre cause d'—, to plead ignorance. 2 (fautes grossières) blunder, error, mistake.

IGNORANT, e-nyo-rang, adj. m. fem. — E. 1 ignorant, illiterate. Elle est — au dernier point, she is ignorant to the greatest degree. (by extension) Une navigation timide et —, ignorant and timid navigation. C. Del. 2 (qui ignore certaines choses) ignorant (of), unacquainted (with). Sans cesse — de nos propres besoins, nous demandons au ciel ce qu'il nous faut le moins, ignorant of our own wants, we are continually importuning Heaven for what we require the least. Boil. prov. J'en suis aussi — que l'enfant qui vient de naître, I know no more of it than the child unborn.

IGNORANT, sm. fem. — E. ignorant, unlearned person. Ignorant woman. fam. ignoramus. Un franc —, un — bête, a perfect dunce. Faire l'—, to pretend ignorance.

IGNORANTIN, e-nyo-rang-tang, adj. m. 1 rel. Frère —, ignorantin friar. (substantif) l'—, an ignorantin friar.

IGNORANTISME, e-nyo-rang-tism, sm. neol. ignorantism.

IGNORANTISSIME, e-nyo-rang-tis-seem, adj. mf. most ignorant.

IGNORE, e-oyo-rang, ppa. of IGNORER, adjective. fem. — E. unknown. Il vit du monde, he lives unknown to the world.

IGNORER, e-nyo-ray, va. (Lat.) 1 to be ignorant of, not to know, to ignore, to be unacquainted (with). J'ignoreis qu'il fut parti, I was quite unaware that he had left. 2 (des premiers principes des sciences) to be ignorant of the rudiments of science. Il ignorait son erreur, he was unconscious of his error. Vous n'ignorez pas que les grâces de la cour se font ordinairement attendre, you know full well that we generally wait a long time for the favours of the court. Le Sage, absol. On croit qu'il y a de la honte à douter et à —, people think there is some shame in doubting and being ignorant. Roll. — les hommes, not to know the world. (intransitif) C'est un homme qui n'ignore de rien, this man knows every thing. 2 poetic. Elle ignore toujours l'imposture, she was always innocent of imposture.

S'IGNORER, vpr. S'— soi-même, not to know one's self.

IGUANE, e-guahn, sf. zool. iguana.

IL, il. pron. of the 3^e pers. fem. ELLE, (Lat. illa) 1 (des personnes ou personnes) he, she, not you, he, does not come. Tu n'as est — venu? is thy son come? Viendra-t-il? will he come. Alors, dit-il, je résous d'agir, then, said he, I resolved to act. Oh est — le traitre? where is the traitor? — eût été bien à plaindre celui qui, etc., he who, etc., would have been very much to be pitied. Chate. Est — barbare? how barbarous he is! 2 (des choses, of things) It. Ce fruit est — bon? is this fruit good? Ce projet doit — échouer, were this project to fail. 3 (impers.) it, there. — pleut, it rains. Neigera-t-il? will it snow? Qu'en soit ainsi, be it so. Quel qu'— en soit, be it as it may. Toujours est — certain que j'étais excusable, it is nevertheless certain that I was excusable. — fallait du courage pour, it required boldness to. — Au est — vrai, yet it is certain — faut que vous sachiez, you must know. — y a des hommes qui, there are men who, — fut un temps où nous n'étions pas riches, there was a time when we were not rich. — est arrivé des nouvelles importantes, important news has arrived. Qu'est — besoin de tant de mots? to what purpose are so many words? Quelle beate est —? what o'clock is it?

ILÉ, eel, sf. (Lat. insula) 1 geog. island, isle. Les habitants d'une —, the inhabitants of an island. — s'avant le vent, sous le vent, the Leeward Islands. — du vent, the Windward Islands. 2 absol. —, pl. (l'archipel du Mexique) West Indies. Il fit un voyage aux —, he went on a voyage to the West India islands.

ILÉ DE FRANCE, sf. 1 geog. Isle of France (ancient province). 2 Mauritius.

ILÉON, e-lay-ang, ILÉUM, e-lay-ahm, sm. (Gr.) anat. ileum, intestineum.

ILES, eel, sm. pl. anat. haunches. On des —, haunch-bone.

ILÉUM, e-lay-om, See ILÉON.

ILÉUS, e-lay-üs, sm. (Gr.) med. iliac passion, ileus.

ILIADÉ, e-l'ad, sf. (Gr.) Iliad.

ILIACQUE, e-l'ay, adj. mf. (Gr.) anat. il'ac. Os —, haunch-bone. Passion —, il'ac. passion.

ILION, ILIUM, e-le-om, sm. (Gr.) anat. haunch-bone.

ILLEC, il-lek, adj. (Lat.) absol. there. Retenez bien qu'— est son manoir, beor in mind his manor is there. Volt.

ILLEGAL, il-lay-gal, adj. m. fem. —, (Lat.) illegal, unlawful.

ILLEGALEMENT, il-lay-gal-mang, adv. illegally, unlawfully.

ILLEGALITÉ, il-lay-gal-e-tay, sf. illegality, unlawfulness.

ILLEGITIME, il-lay-zhe-teem, adj. mf. 1 illegitimate. Un enfant —, a spurious, bastard, an illegitimate child. 2 (imiste) unlawful, unreasonable, unjust. Desir —, unlawful desire.

ILLEGITIMEMENT, il-lay-zhe-teem-mang, adv. illegitimately, unlawfully.

ILLEGITIMITÉ, il-lay-zhe-le-mey, sf. illegitimacy, unlawfulness. L'— de sa naissance, the illegitimacy of his birth.

ILLETTRÉ, il-lay-tray, adj. m. fem. —, illiterate, unlettered.

ILLICITE, il-le-sit, adj. mf. illicit. Des assemblées —, unlawful assemblies. Employer tous les moyens licites ou — pour arriver à la renommée, to use all means licit or illicit to attain fame. Vieu.

ILLICITEMENT, il-le-sit-mang, adv. illicitly.

ILLIMITÉ, il-le-mey, adj. m. fem. —, illimited, unbounded, unconfined.

ILLINOIS, il-le-nooä, sm. geog. Illinois.

ILLISIBLE, il-le-zihl', adj. mf. 1 illegible, unreadable. Avoir une écriture —, to write an illegible hand. 2 fig. unreadable. Pourquoi ces hommes n'ont-ils écrit que d'— ouvrages? why have these men written only unreadable works? La Harp.

ILLISIBLEMENT, il-le-ze-bih-mang, adv. illegibly.

ILLOGIQUE, il-lo-zhik, adj. mf. illogical.

ILLOGIQUEMENT, il-lo-zhik-mang, adv. illogically.

ILLUMINATEUR, il-lü-mé-nat-ür, sm. illuminator.

ILLUMINATIF, il-lü-mé-nat-iv, adj. m. fem. illuminative, illuminative.

ILLUMINATION, il-lü-mé-nah-syong, sf. 1 illumination. L'— de la terre par le soleil, the lighting of the earth by the sun. 2 (pour une fête) Faire une — dans un palais, to illuminate a palace. fig. illumination, inspiration.

ILLUMINE, il-lü-mé-nay, sm. fem. —, fig. illuminate.

ILLUMINEI, il-lü-mé-nay, ra. 1 (éclairer) to light, to light up. fig. Mirabeau illuminait quelquefois l'entretien par des éclairs d'éloquence, sometimes M. enlightened the conversation with flashes of eloquence. Lamart. 2 (faire des illuminations) to illuminate. On ordonna d'—, an order was given to illuminate. 3 fig. to enlighten, to illumine. Cette loi souveraine inspira Zoroastre, illumina Solon, that sovereign law inspired Zoroaster, and enlightened S. Volt.

ILLUMINER, pr. to be illuminated.

ILLUMINISME, il-lü-mé-nism', sm. illuminationism.

ILLUSION, il-lü-zhong, sf. 1 illusion. — d'optique, optical illusion. Se faire — à soi-même, to delude, to deceive one's self. 2 not. delusion. Ce sont des — du démon, they are the wiles of the evil one. 3 (imaginings) chimeriques) illusion, delusion. Cela dissipa toutes ses —, that destroyed all his illusions. 4 (songs, etc., qui flattent l'imagination) illusion, delusion, vision.

ILLUSIONNER, il-lü-zho-nay, ra. neol. to delude, to illude one's self.

ILLUSOIRE, il-lü-zoöre, adj. mf. illusory, illusory, delusive, delusory.

ILLUSOIREMENT, il-lü-zoöre-mang, adv. illusorily, delusively.

ILLUSTRATION, il-lüs-trah-syong, sf. 1 illustration, celebrity, illustriousness. Les victoires qui contribuèrent à l'— de son règne, the victories which contributed to make his reign illustrious. 2 (d'une famille, of a family) marks of honour. 3 (particul.) (réputation) lustre, celebrity. C'est une famille noble, ancienne, mais sans —, it is a noble and ancient but obscure family. Acquérir de l'—, to become celebrated. 4 neol. (personnage illustre) celebrity. 5 —, pl. (éclaircissements) illustration, explanation, elucidation. 6 (figure, gravure) illustration.

ILLUSTRE, il-lüst'r, adj. mf. (Lat.) 1 illustrious. Un nom —, an illustrious name. Les rois, ces —, the kings, those illustrious ungrateful creatures. Volt. 2 (substantiv.) fam. illustrious man. C'est un des — de son temps, he is one of the celebrities of his day.

ILLUSTRE, ppo. of ILLUSTRER, adj. mf. fem. —, illustrated. Ouvrage —, illustrated book.

ILLUSTRER, il-lüs-tray, ra. (Lat.) 1 to shed a lustre over, to render, to make illustrious. 2 poetic. to illustrate. 3 (order de gravures) to illustrate.

ILLUSTRE, tp. to render one's self illustrious.

ILLUSTRISME, il-lüs-tré-seem, adj. mf. most illustrious.

ILLYRIE, il-le-ree, sf. geog. Illyria.

ILLYRIEN, il-le-ryang, adj. and sm. fem. —, Illyrian.

ILOT, e-lö, sm. geog. islet.

ILOTE, e-lot, sm. (Gr.) Helot.

ILOTISME, e-lo-tism', sm. (Gr.) Helotism.

ILS, il, pl. of IL, they, See IL.

IMAGE, e-mazh, sf. 1 (représentation d'un objet en peinture, sculpture, etc.) image. Cette statue est l'— d'un grand homme, this statue represents a great man. fig. fam. C'est une belle —, she is an image, a prov. Sage comme une —, as quiet as a statue. 2 absol. (objet d'ou culte religieux) —s, pl. les —s des faux dieux, the images of the false gods. Briser, abattre les —s, to break into pieces, to throw down the images. Une — de la Vierge, an image of the Virgin Mary. 3 (testampe) picture. — en taille d'écu, copper-plate. Livre d'—s, picture-book, toy-book. Marchand d'—s, image-render, print-seller. 4 (resemblance) image. Dieu a fait l'homme à son —, God made man after his own image. Cet enfant est l'— de son père, this child is the very image of his father. fig. Sans la science, la vie est oue — de la mort, life without knowledge is an image of death. Mol. 5 (représentation d'un objet dans une glace, etc.) mage. Voir son — dans l'eau, to see one's reflection in the water. 6 (représentation dans l'esprit) image. Ils retrouvent dans la retraite les —s dangereuses des plaisirs, they find again in retirement the dangerous images of pleasure. Mass. 7 (idée) image, ideu. Se faire une — de quelque chose, to make a thing to one's self. 8 fig. (description) image, picture. Opposer l'— des combats au tableau de la vie pastorale, to oppose the image of combat to a picture of pastoral life. 9 (métaphore) image. Cela fait —, there is an image in it. Le désir voilé ne parlait qu'en —s, the hidden desire was expressed only by images. Lamart. L'— est le voile matériel d'une idée, an image is the material veil of an idea. Marm.

IMAGE, e-mazh-ay, adj. m. fem. —, neol. full of images.

IMAGER, e-mazh-ay, sm. fem. IMAGÈRE, image-render, print-seller.

IMAGERIE, e-mazh-ree, sf. image-trude, picture-trade.

IMAGIER, e-mazh-yay, sm. absol. image painter.

IMAGINABLE, e-mazh-e-nabl', adj. mf. imaginable. Cela est-il —? is that to be imagined?

IMAGINAIRE, e-mazh-e-nayr, adj. mf. 1 imaginary, fancied. Ceux qui ont perdu un bras sentent la douleur dans leur bras —, those who have lost an arm feel a pain in their imaginary arm. Malebr. Espaces —s, the realms of fancy. fig. Être, voyager, se perdre dans les espaces —s, to be, to travel, to lose one's self in the realms of fancy. Malade —, a man who fancies he is ill. Mol. 2 alg. imaginary. 3 sf. alg. imaginary quantity. Faire évanouir l'—, to eliminate the imaginary quantity.

IMAGINATIF, e-mazh-e-nat-iv, adj. m. fem. IMAGINATIVE, (Lat.) imaginative. Un homme fort —, a man full of imagination. Faculté, puissance imaginative, imaginative faculty. 2 (substantiv.) Les —s vous éblouissent par la richesse de leurs métaphores, imaginative men dazzle you by the richness of their metaphors. Corm.

IMAGINATION, e-mazh-e-nah-syong, sf. 1 imagination, fancy. Avoir l'— vive, riante, sombre, to be of a lively, a playful, a gloomy imagination. Cela n'existe que dans votre —, that only exists in your imagination. Mon — troublée ne me représentait que des objets confus, only confused objects appeared to my troubled mind. J.-J. Rousse. 2 lit. fine arts. imagination, conception. Cette génie et cette travail stérile accablent tout le feu de son —, such inspiration and fruitless labour would damp all the warmth of his imagination. Fen. On voit partout dans ses ouvrages le bon sens paré des fleurs de l'—, in his works good sense is everywhere set off by the flowers of the imagination. Volt. 3 (des ouvrages d'esprit, of literary works) imagination. Votre lettre est pleine d'esprit et d'—, your letter is full of wit and imagination. Vol. 4 (choses imaginées) conceit, ideu. Pourquoi comptons-nous sur nos —s comme sur des choses réelles? why do we rely upon our ideas as upon real objects? Bourd. Mille —s pittoresques, a thousand gay conceits. V. Hug. 3 (crayonne peu fondue) fancy, ideu. Une pare —, a mere idea. 6 (fantaisie bizarre) odd conceit. Se repaître d'—s, to indulge in odd fancies.

IMAGINATIVE, e-mazh-e-nat-iv, sf. (Lat.) imaginative faculty. J'ai l'— aussi bonne en effet que personne qui vive, my imagination is as sound as that of any one living. Mol.

IMAGINER, e-mazh-e-nayr, ra. 1 to imagine, to conceive. On ne peut rien — de plus surprenant, it is not possible to imagine anything more surprising. Il imagine qu'il en viendra à bout, he thinks he shall succeed. Le Sage. Rome n'imaginait point qu'elle pût être si elle ne commandait pas. Rome did not imagine she could exist without commanding. Montesq. 2 (inventer) to imagine, to contrive. Celui qui imagina la navette l'emporte furieusement sur celui qui imagine les idées innées, the inventor of the shuttle greatly surpasses the inventor of innate ideas. Volt. Pour réussir, j'ai imaginé de m'y prendre de telle manière, in order to succeed I have formed the idea of acting in such a manner. absol. Je touche à l'âge où Pao cesse d'—, I am approaching the age in which inspiration abandons us. Volt.

S'IMAGINER, pr. to imagine, to fancy to one's self. Les choses n'arrivent jamais comme on se les imagine, things never happen as we fancy they will. M. de Sév. Il s'imaginait être un grand docteur, he imagined himself to be a great doctor. Imaginez-vous que je suis votre père qui arrive, et répondez-moi fermement, imagine that I am your father who comes, and answer me resolutely. Le Sage.

IMAN, e-màng, sm. (Ar.) Iman.

IMAHET, e-mah-ray, sm. hospital in Turkey.

IMBECILE, ang-hay-sil, adj. mf. 1 imbécile, feeble. Il devient —, he is entering his dotage. — de corps et d'esprit, imbecile in body and mind. (by extension) Ils traitent une vieillesse et misérable, they drag out a wretched old age. Volt. 2 (hyperb.) foolish, silly, imbecile. Il faut être bête —, poor, one must be very silly to. Quel air —! how idiotic in appearance!

IMBECLE, sm. 4 idiot. 2 fool, simpleton. fam. oaf, ninny. Tais-toi, —, hold your tongue, simpleton. Cet — de Charles qui vient lui dire que, that fool of a C. who has just told him that.

IMBECILEMENT, ang-bay-sil-màng, adv. foolishly, with imbecility.

IMBÉCILLITÉ, ang-bay-sil-le-lay, sf. 1 imbecility. Tomber dans l'—, to become imbecile. 2 (hyperb.) stupidity, foolishness. Cet homme est d'une — rare, that man is uncommonly stupid.

IMPERBE, ang-bayrb, adj. mf. 1 beardless, without a beard. 2 (disparagingly) (très-jeune) raw.

IMBIER, ang-be-bay, va. (Lat.) to drench, to soak (in), to imbue (with). Le serpent devint imbibé sa proie de sa salive, the boa constrictor covers its prey with saliva. Lacép.

IMBIBER, vpr. to imbibé, to drink. fig. Je m'imbibe de l'inle, I am trying to get a thorough knowledge of India. Jacq.

IMBIBITION, ang-be-be-syong, sf. imbibition.

IMBRICATIONS, ang-bre-kah-syong, sf. pl. arches, imbrications.

IMBRICQUE, ang-bre-kay, adj. v. nat. hist. fem. —, imbricated.

IMBROGLIO, ang-bro-lyo, sm. (It.) 1 intricacy, confusion. 2 lit. imbroglia.

IMBU, ang-bu, ppa. of the obsolete verb IMBOIRE, fem. —, fig. imbued (with). — de bons, de mauvais principes, imbued with good, bad principles.

IMITABLE, e-me-tabl, adj. mf. imitable.

IMITATEUR, e-me-tat-ur, adj. m. fem. imitator. 1 imitative, mimicking. Esprit — imitative mind. N'attendez rien du peuple —, expect nothing from imitative people. La Font. Le singe est né pour être —, the monkey was born to be an imitator. Volt. 2 (substantive) imitator. 3 (ambivalent) (qui imite la manière, le genre d'un autre) imitator, follower.

IMITATIF, e-me-tat-il, adj. m. fem. imitative, imitative. Harmonie imitative, imitative music.

IMITATION, e-me-lah-syong, sf. 4 imitation. Se proposer l'— des grands hommes, to try to imitate great men. 2 lit. fine arts. imitation. Les arts d'—, the arts of imitation. 3 (elliptic.) L'— de Jésus-Christ, absol. L'—, the Imitation of Christ.

A L'IMITATION DE, prep. loc. in imitation of.

IMITER, e-me-tay, va. 1 to imitate, to mimic, to take off. Imitons son exemple, let us imitate his example. absol. Dieu a créé, l'homme imite, God has created, man imitates. Buff. Ce papier peint imite le velours, those paper-hangings imitate velvet. — les manières, la voix de quelqu'un, to imitate a person's manners, voice. — l'écriture, la signature d'une personne, to imitate a person's handwriting, signature. 2 (prendre la conduite d'une personne pour modèle) to take pattern upon. 3 fine arts. to imitate. 4 (d'un écrivain, d'un artiste, of a writer, of an artist) to imitate.

IMMACULÉ, im-mak-il-lay, adj. m. fem. —, e. immaculate, spotless. L'—e Conception, the Immaculate Conception, IMMANENT, im-mah-nàng, adj. m. fem. —, e. immanent, inherent.

IMMANUELE, im-màng-zhahl', adj. mf. unteable.

IMMANUABLE, im-màng-kabl', adj. mf. infallible.

IMMANUABLEMENT, im-màng-kab-luh-màng, adv. infallibly, for certain, certainly.

IMMARCESSIBLE, im-mar-says-sibl', adj. mf. un fading, immarcescible.

IMMATÉRIALITÉ, im-mat-ay-ryal-e-tay, sf. immateriality, immateriality.

IMMATÉRIEL, im-mat-ay-ryal, adj. m. fem. —, le. immaterial.

IMMATÉRIELLEMENT, im-mal-ay-ryal-màng, adv. immaterially.

IMMATRICULATION, im-mat-re-kù-lah-syong, sf. matriculation.

IMMATRICULE, im-mat-re-kùl, sf. 4 matricule, matriculation. 2 (d'un huissier, of an usher) enrolment.

IMMATRICULER, im-mat-re-kù-lay, va. to matriculate, to enrol.

IMMÉDIAT, im-may-dyab, adj. m. fem. —, e. immediate.

IMMÉDIATEMENT, Cause —, immediate cause. Action —, direct action. 2 (sans intermédiaire) proximate. Successeur —, next successor. Vassal —, direct vassal.

IMMÉDIATEMENT, im-may-dyab-màng, adv. immediately. Mon champ est — après le sien, my field comes next to his.

— après, directly after.

IMMEMORAT, im-may-mo-ràng, adj. m. fem. —, e. unimodal.

IMMÉMORIAL, im-may-mo-ryal, adj. m. fem. —, e. immemorial. Depuis on temps —, from time immemorial, time out of mind. (by extension) Habitants immémoriaux de cette vallée du Liban, the immemorial inhabitants of this valley of Lebanon Lamart.

IMMENSE, im-màngs, adj. mf. 1 immense, unbounded, immeasurable, infinite. 2 (d'une très-grande étendue) immense, unbounded. De la mer l'— solitude, the immense solitude of the ocean. Mery. 3 (by extension) (très-considérable en son genre) immense. Une somme —, an immense sum. La bonté de Dieu est —, the goodness of God is infinite.

IMMENSEMENT, im-màng-say-màng, adv. immensely, immeasurably.

IMMENSITÉ, im-màng-se-tay, sf. (Lat.) immensity, unboundedness, boundlessness. 2 (très-vaste étendue) immensity. L'— de l'univers, the immensity of the universe. 3 (by extension) (de ce qui est très-considérable en son genre) immensity. Il y a en France une — de petites propriétés rurales, there is in France a vast number of small rural estates. Tocq. L'— de la miséricorde de Dieu, the boundlessness of God's mercy.

IMMERGER, im-mayr-zhay, va. NOTES

IMMERGER, IL IMMÉRGE, to immerge.

IMMERGER, vpr. to be immerged.

IMMERITE, im-may-re-tay, adj. m. fem. —, e. neol. unmerited.

IMMERSION, im-mayr-syong, sf. 4 immersion. Baptiser par —, to baptize by immersion. 2 astr. L'— de la lune dans l'ombre de la terre, the immersion of the moon in the earth's shadow.

IMMEUBLE, im-mobbl', adj. mf. real.

Diens —, s. real estate.

IMMEUBLE, sm. real estate. — par destination, personal estate which from its use becomes real estate.

IMMIGRATION, im-me-grah-syong, sf. immigration. Nod.

IMMIGRER, im-me-gray, vn. to immigrate.

IMMINENCE, im-me-nàngs, sf. imminence, impending, nearness.

IMMINENT, im-me-nàng, adj. m. fem. —, e. imminent, impending, impending.

S'IMMISER, im-mis-say, vpr. NOTES

S'IMMISER; SE M'IMMISER, (Lat.) 4 to intermeddle, to interfere, to thrust (into), to meddle (in, with). Il s'est immiscé dans cette querelle sans y être ap-peté, he interfered in this quarrel without being appealed to. Beaum. 2 law S'— dans une succession, to enter upon an inheritance.

IMMIXTION, im-miks-tyong, sf. 1 law. entering upon an inheritance 2 intermeddling, interference. L'— de l'Y-tat dans la propriété, the interference of the State in property. Lamart.

IMMOBILE, im-mo-bil, adj. mf. 1 immovable, motionless. 2 fig. unmovable, unshaken.

IMMOBILIER, im-mo-be-lyay, adj. m. fem. IMMOBILIERE, 4 law. real, of real estate. Succession immobilière, succession to real property. Droit —, freehold right. 2 law. (qui a pour objet on immeuble) Saisie immobilière, execution of real property.

IMMOBILIER, sm. absol. real estate.

IMMOBILISATION, im-mo-be-le-zah-syong, sf. law. realization.

IMMOBILISER, im-mo-be-le-zay, va. law. to realize.

IMMOBILITÉ, im-mo-be-le-tay, sf. 1 immobility, immovability, immovableness. Il est dans un état d'— complète, he is in a state of complete immobility. fig. L'— des noms au milieu de la variété des faits, the permanency of names amidst the diversity of facts. Guiz. 2 (inaction) impassibility, inactivity.

IMMODÉRÉ, im-mo-day-ray, adj. m. fem. —, e. immoderate, intemperate.

IMMODÉRÉMENT, im-mo-day-ray-màng, adv. immoderately.

IMMODESTE, im-mo-dest, adj. mf. 1 immodest. 2 (des choses, of things) immodest, indecent.

IMMODESTEMENT, im-mo-days-tuh-màng, adv. immodestly, indecently.

IMMODESTIE, im-mo-days-tee, sf. 1 immodesty. 2 (manque de pudeur) indecency. L'— dans les discours, impurity of language. L'— des regards, wanton looks.

IMMOLATION, im-mo-lah-syong, sf. (Lat.) immolation.

IMMOLER, im-mo-lay, va. 4 to immolate, to sacrifice. — une victime, to sacrifice a victim. Si ma fille vient, je consens qu'on l'immole, if my daughter come, I consent to her being immolated. Rac. — rel. Jésus-Christ est la victime qui a été immolée pour le salut des hommes, Jesus-Christ is the victim who was sacrificed for the salvation of mankind. fig. — quelqu'un à sa rage, to sacrifice a person to one's rage. 2 fig. (ruiner, perdre) to sacrifice. — quelqu'un à sa haine, to sacrifice a person to one's hatred, ambition. C'est à ses beautés que je vois — toutes mes volontés, I will immolate all my will to these beauties. Cora. 3 poetic. to slay, to slaughter. 4 fig. to make jokes, to rail at a person. — quelqu'un, to hold up a person to ridicule.

S'IMMOLER, vpr. 4 to immolate one's self. rel. Sur cet autel où Jésus-Christ s'est tant de fois immolé pour nous, upon this altar, on which Jesus-Christ so often gave his life for us. 2 (sacrifier sa fortune, sa vie) S'— pour la patrie, to sacrifice one's self for one's country. S'— au bien public, to expose one's self for the public welfare. 3 fig. (in joke) Je m'immole, I resign myself. Il s'est immolé de bonne grâce, he bore, he stood the joke very well.

IMMONDE, im-mongd, adj. mf. (Lat.) unclean.

IMMONDICE, im-mong-dis, sf. dirt, filth.

IMMORAL, im-mo-ral, adj. m. fem. —, e. immoral.

IMMORALITÉ, im-mo-ral-e-tay, sf. immorality. Un homme d'—, a revolting, a man of revolting immorality.

IMMORTALISER, im-mor-tal-e-zay, va. to immortalize.

IMMORTALISER, vpr. to immortalize one's self. Il fait s'— soi-même pour — les autres, to immortalize others, we must immortalize ourselves. Vaug.

IMMORTALITÉ, im-mor-tal-e-tay, sf. (Lat. immortalitas) 4 immortality. 2 dans le souvenir des hommes immortal-ity. Aller à l'—, to make one's way to immortality.

IMMORTÉL, im-mor-tayl, adj. m. fem. — LE, 1 immortal undying. Dans sa douleur Calypso se trouvait malheureuse d'être —le, in her grief Calypso considered herself unhappy for being immortal. Féu. 2 poetic. immortal, everlasting. Le trône — de Dieu, the everlasting throne of God. 3 fig. (d'une très-longue durée) everlasting, endless. Une haine —le, an eternal hatred. Un monument —, an everlasting monument. 4 fig. (dont la mémoire durera toujours) immortal, everlasting. S'acquérir une gloire —le, to acquire an everlasting glory. 5 (substantif) immortal. L'Olympe, séjour des —s, the Olympus, the abode of the immortals. 6 fam. Les quarante —s, the forty immortals (the forty members of the French Academy).

IMMORTELE, im-mor-tayl, sf. bot. everlasting, immortal-herb.

IMMORTIFICATION, im-mor-te-fe-kab-syong, sf. immortalification.

IMMORTIFIE, im-mor-te-fyay, adj. m. fem. — E, immortalized.

IMMUABLE, im-mu-abl', adj. mf. immutable, unchangeable, unalterable.

IMMUTABLEMENT, im-mu-ab-loh-mang, adv. immutably.

IMMUNITÉ, im-mu-ne-tay, sf. (Lat. immunitas) immunity. — s ecclésiastiques, immunities of the clergy.

IMMUTABILITÉ, im-mu-lab-e-le-tay, sf. immutability.

IMPAIR, ang-par, adj. m. fem. — E, 1 odd, uneven. Années —es, odd years. 2 sf. bot. terminal foliole of certain leaves.

IMPALPABLE, ang-pal-pabl', adj. mf. impalpable.

IMPANATION, ang-pan-ab-syong, sf. theol. impanation.

IMPARDONNABLE, ang-par-do-nabl', adj. mf. unpardonable. Une faute —, an unpardonable fault.

IMPARFAIT, ang-par-fay, adj. m. fem. — E, 4 imperfect, unfinished. Laisser son ouvrage —, to leave a work unfinished. 2 (incomplete) incomplete. Guérison —e, an imperfect cure. Livre —, an incomplete book. 3 gram. imperfect. 4 (substantif) imperfect, imperfect tense.

IMPARFAITEMENT, ang-par-fay-mang, adv. imperfectly.

IMPARYSYLLABIQUE, ang-par-e-sil-lab-ik, adj. mf. (Gr.) gram. imparsyllabic.

IMPARTABLE, ang-par-tabl', IMPARTAGEABLE, ang-par-tazh-abl', adj. mf. (little used) indivisible, im-partible.

IMPARTIAL, ang-par-syal, adj. m. fem. — E, impartial, unbiased.

IMPARTELEMENT, ang-par-syal-mang, adv. impartially.

IMPARTIALITÉ, ang-par-syal-e-tay, sf. impartiality. Juger une opinion avec —, to judge an opinion with impartiality.

IMPASSE, ang-pass, sf. 4 blind alley, cul-de-sac. 2 fig. difficult position without issue, entanglement. 3 whist. finesse.

IMPASSIBILITÉ, ang-pas-se-be-le-tay, sf. impassibility, impassibleness, undis-turbance. — stoïque, a stoical immov-ableness.

IMPASSIBLE, ang-pas-sibl', adj. mf. 4 impassible, impassive. 2 (by extension) (qui reste maître de lui) impassible. Il se montra — au milieu des plus atroces tourments, he was impassible in the midst of the most execrating tortures.
(by extension) Jamais personne n'avait surpris les secrets de son âme sur son — visage, his impassible countenance never betrayed the secrets of his heart. G. Sand.

3 fig. impassive. Un juge —, an impassive judge.

IMPASSIBLEMENT, ang-pas-se-bloh-mang, adv. impassively, undisturbedly.

IMPATIENTEMENT, ang-pas-yab-mang, adv. impatiently. Neron souffrit — la mort de Narcisse, Nero impatiently bore the death of Narcissus. Ric. Supporter — la contrainte, to be impatient of restraint.

IMPATIENCE, ang-pas-yangs, sf. 1 impatience. L'— dans les douleurs, impatience under sufferings. L'— que lui cause la contradiction, his impatience of contradiction. Faire un mouvement d'—, to make a gesture of impatience. Témoiguier de l'—, to show impatience. Attendre avec —, to wait impatiently. Il a une grande —, il est dans une grande — de vous voir, he is most impatient to see you.
(by extension) Elle avait les —s de la jeunesse, she had the eagerness of youth.
Lamaré. 2 —s, pl. pop. (sorte d'irritation nerveuse) fidgets. Avoir des —s dans les jambes, to have the fidgets in one's legs. Cela me donne des —s, that gives me the fidgets.

IMPATIENT, ang-pas-yang, adj. m. fem. — E, 1 impatient, restless. 2 patient, anxious, eager (for, to). Plus —s de renommée qu'avidés d'instruction, more impatient for renown than desirous of instruction. Maury. Il est — de partir, he is impatient to set off. 3 impatient of.
L'esprit humain est — des obstacles, the human mind is impatient of opposition.
Guz. poetic. — du joug, du frein, impatient of the yoke, of restraint.

IMPATIENTANT, ang-pas-yang-tang, adj. m. fem. — E, tiresome, provoking, irksome, wearisome.

IMPATIENTER, ang-pas-yang-tay, vtr. to put out of patience, to make impatient, to tease, to tire.

IMPATIENTER, vpr. to grow, to get impatient, to lose patience. Il s'impatientait de ce délai, he was impatient at this delay. To s'impatienter de savoir où l'en veux venir, you are impatient to know what I am aiming at. J.-J. Rousseau.

IMPATRONISER, ang-par-ro-ne-zay, vtr. to set up for a master, to make one's self at home, to get a footing. C'est une chose aussi qui scandalise de voir qu'un inconnu cède à s'impatronise, it is downright scandalous to see a perfect stranger exercise such authority in a family. Mol.

IMPAYABLE, ang-pay-rabl', adj. mf. 4 that cannot be paid too highly, priceless. 2 fig. worth any money, capital.
C'est, à mon sentiment, un endroit —, in my opinion the passage is admirable.
Mol.

IMPECCABILITÉ, ang-pek-kab-e-le-tay, sf. theol. impeccability, impeccancy.

IMPECCABLE, ang-pek-kabl', adj. mf. 4 theol. impeccable. 2 (incapable de faillir) infallible.

IMPÉNÉTRABILITÉ, im-pay-nay-trab-e-le-tay, sf. impenetrability. fig. L'— des conseils de Dieu, the inscrutableness of the ways of God.

IMPÉNÉTRABLE, ang-pay-nay-trabl', adj. mf. 4 1 impenetrable, impenetrable. — à la lumière, impenetrable to light. Une crainte — aux coups du mousquet, an obscure impenetrable to musket-balls. Un bois, une forêt —, an impenetrable wood, forest. 2 (particul.) (des corps, of bodies) impenetrable. 3 fig. impenetrable, unfathomable, inscrutable. Le cœur de l'homme est —, the heart of man is inscrutable.

IMPÉNÉTRABLEMENT, ang-pay-nay-trab-e-le-tay, adv. impenetrably, impenetrably.

IMPÉNÉTRABLEMENT, ang-pay-nay-trab-e-le-tay, adv. impenetrably, impenetrably.

IMPÉNÉTRABLEMENT, ang-pay-nay-trab-e-le-tay, adv. impenetrably, impenetrably.

IMPÉNÉTRABLEMENT, ang-pay-nay-trab-e-le-tay, adv. impenetrably, impenetrably.

IMPÉNÉTRABLEMENT, ang-pay-nay-trab-e-le-tay, adv. impenetrably, impenetrably.

IMPÉNÉTRABLEMENT, ang-pay-nay-trab-e-le-tay, adv. impenetrably, impenetrably.

IMPÉNÉTRABLEMENT, ang-pay-nay-trab-e-le-tay, adv. impenetrably, impenetrably.

IMPÉNÉTRABLEMENT, ang-pay-nay-trab-e-le-tay, adv. impenetrably, impenetrably.

IMPÉNÉTRABLEMENT, ang-pay-nay-trab-e-le-tay, adv. impenetrably, impenetrably.

IMPÉNÉTRABLEMENT, ang-pay-nay-trab-e-le-tay, adv. impenetrably, impenetrably.

IMPÉNÉTRABLEMENT, ang-pay-nay-trab-e-le-tay, adv. impenetrably, impenetrably.

IMPÉNÉTRABLEMENT, ang-pay-nay-trab-e-le-tay, adv. impenetrably, impenetrably.

IMPÉNÉTRABLEMENT, ang-pay-nay-trab-e-le-tay, adv. impenetrably, impenetrably.

IMPÉNÉTRABLEMENT, ang-pay-nay-trab-e-le-tay, adv. impenetrably, impenetrably.

IMPÉNÉTRABLEMENT, ang-pay-nay-trab-e-le-tay, adv. impenetrably, impenetrably.

IMPÉNÉTRABLEMENT, ang-pay-nay-trab-e-le-tay, adv. impenetrably, impenetrably.

IMPÉNÉTRABLEMENT, ang-pay-nay-trab-e-le-tay, adv. impenetrably, impenetrably.

IMPÉNÉTRABLEMENT, ang-pay-nay-trab-e-le-tay, adv. impenetrably, impenetrably.

IMPÉNÉTRABLEMENT, ang-pay-nay-trab-e-le-tay, adv. impenetrably, impenetrably.

IMPÉNÉTRABLEMENT, ang-pay-nay-trab-e-le-tay, adv. impenetrably, impenetrably.

IMPÉNÉTRABLEMENT, ang-pay-nay-trab-e-le-tay, adv. impenetrably, impenetrably.

IMPÉNÉTRABLEMENT, ang-pay-nay-trab-e-le-tay, adv. impenetrably, impenetrably.

trab-loh-mang, adv. (little used) impenetrably.

IMPÉNITENCE, ang-pay-ne-tangs, sf. impenitence, impenitency. — finale, final impenitence. Mourir dans l'— finale, to die impenitent.

IMPÉNITENT, ang-pay-ne-tang, adj. m. fem. — E, impenitent. Mourir —, to die impenitent.

IMPENSES, ang-pangs, sf. pl. law. expenses, charges.

IMPÉRATIF, ang-pay-rat-if, adj. m. fem. IMPÉRATIVE, 4 commanding, imperative. Vous prenez un ton bien —, you assume a very imperative tone. 2 law. Loi, disposition imperative, absolute law, command. 3 gram. imperative. Le mode
—, the imperative mood.

IMPÉRATIF, sm. gram. imperative mood, imperative. Un verbe à l'—, a verb in the imperative mood.

IMPÉRATIVEMENT, ang-pay-rat-iv-mang, adv. imperatively.

IMPÉRATOIRE, ang-pay-rat-oar, sf. bot. masterwort.

IMPÉRATRICE, ang-pay-rat-rees, sf. empress.

IMPERCEPTIBLE, ang-pay-rat-tibl', adj. mf. imperceptible (to), unperceptible.

IMPERCEPTIBLEMENT, ang-pay-rat-tibl-mang, adv. imperceptibly.

IMPERDABLE, ang-pay-rat-dabl', adj. mf. that cannot be lost.

IMPERFECTION, ang-pay-rat-fek-syong, sf. 1 imperfection, imperfection. 2 (défaut) imperfection, blemish. L'homme votre être parfait, et si se voit plein d'—s, man wishes to be perfect, and sees himself full of imperfections. Pasc. 3 book-sell. waste.

IMPERFORATION, ang-pay-rat-for-rab-syong, sf. imperforation.

IMPERFORÉ, ang-pay-rat-for-ray, adj. m. fem. — E, imperforate, imperforated.

IMPERIAL, ang-pay-rat-ryal, adj. m. fem. — E, 1 imperial. Sa Majesté —e, His, Her Imperial Majesty. Eau —e, imperial water. 2 bot. Couronne —e, absol. —e, crown imperial.

IMPIÉRIALE, sf. 4 (jeu de cartes, a game of cards) impériale. 2 (d'un carrosse, etc., of a coach) roof, outside. Prendre l'—, to go outside. Mouter sur l'—, to get up outside. 3 arch. imperial. 4 (bouquet de herbe au meuble) tuft.

IMPIÉRIEMENT, ang-pay-rat-ryal-mang, adv. imperially.

IMPIÉRIAL, ang-pay-ryo, sm. pl. 1 imperial troops, imperialists. 2 imperial ministers.

IMPIÉRIEUSEMENT, ang-pay-ryuh-mang, adv. imperiously.

IMPIÉRIEUX, ang-pay-ryuh, adj. m. fem. IMPÉRIEUX, 4 imperious. Femme im-
pé-rieuse, peremptory woman. Esprit, ton, geste, air —, domineering spirit, imper-
ious tone, action, air. Humeur im-
pé-rieuse, domineering temper. poetic. (des animaux, des choses, of animals and things) lordly, overbearing. L'aigle —, the lordly eagle. 2 fig. imperious, urgent.

IMPIÉRIEUX, ang-pay-ryuh, adj. m. fem. IMPÉRIEUX, 4 imperious. Femme im-
pé-rieuse, peremptory woman. Esprit, ton, geste, air —, domineering spirit, imper-
ious tone, action, air. Humeur im-
pé-rieuse, domineering temper. poetic. (des animaux, des choses, of animals and things) lordly, overbearing. L'aigle —, the lordly eagle. 2 fig. imperious, urgent.

IMPIÉRIEUX, ang-pay-ryuh, adj. m. fem. IMPÉRIEUX, 4 imperious. Femme im-
pé-rieuse, peremptory woman. Esprit, ton, geste, air —, domineering spirit, imper-
ious tone, action, air. Humeur im-
pé-rieuse, domineering temper. poetic. (des animaux, des choses, of animals and things) lordly, overbearing. L'aigle —, the lordly eagle. 2 fig. imperious, urgent.

IMPIÉRIEUX, ang-pay-ryuh, adj. m. fem. IMPÉRIEUX, 4 imperious. Femme im-
pé-rieuse, peremptory woman. Esprit, ton, geste, air —, domineering spirit, imper-
ious tone, action, air. Humeur im-
pé-rieuse, domineering temper. poetic. (des animaux, des choses, of animals and things) lordly, overbearing. L'aigle —, the lordly eagle. 2 fig. imperious, urgent.

IMPIÉRIEUX, ang-pay-ryuh, adj. m. fem. IMPÉRIEUX, 4 imperious. Femme im-
pé-rieuse, peremptory woman. Esprit, ton, geste, air —, domineering spirit, imper-
ious tone, action, air. Humeur im-
pé-rieuse, domineering temper. poetic. (des animaux, des choses, of animals and things) lordly, overbearing. L'aigle —, the lordly eagle. 2 fig. imperious, urgent.

IMPIÉRIEUX, ang-pay-ryuh, adj. m. fem. IMPÉRIEUX, 4 imperious. Femme im-
pé-rieuse, peremptory woman. Esprit, ton, geste, air —, domineering spirit, imper-
ious tone, action, air. Humeur im-
pé-rieuse, domineering temper. poetic. (des animaux, des choses, of animals and things) lordly, overbearing. L'aigle —, the lordly eagle. 2 fig. imperious, urgent.

IMPIÉRIEUX, ang-pay-ryuh, adj. m. fem. IMPÉRIEUX, 4 imperious. Femme im-
pé-rieuse, peremptory woman. Esprit, ton, geste, air —, domineering spirit, imper-
ious tone, action, air. Humeur im-
pé-rieuse, domineering temper. poetic. (des animaux, des choses, of animals and things) lordly, overbearing. L'aigle —, the lordly eagle. 2 fig. imperious, urgent.

IMPIÉRIEUX, ang-pay-ryuh, adj. m. fem. IMPÉRIEUX, 4 imperious. Femme im-
pé-rieuse, peremptory woman. Esprit, ton, geste, air —, domineering spirit, imper-
ious tone, action, air. Humeur im-
pé-rieuse, domineering temper. poetic. (des animaux, des choses, of animals and things) lordly, overbearing. L'aigle —, the lordly eagle. 2 fig. imperious, urgent.

IMPIÉRIEUX, ang-pay-ryuh, adj. m. fem. IMPÉRIEUX, 4 imperious. Femme im-
pé-rieuse, peremptory woman. Esprit, ton, geste, air —, domineering spirit, imper-
ious tone, action, air. Humeur im-
pé-rieuse, domineering temper. poetic. (des animaux, des choses, of animals and things) lordly, overbearing. L'aigle —, the lordly eagle. 2 fig. imperious, urgent.

IMPIÉRIEUX, ang-pay-ryuh, adj. m. fem. IMPÉRIEUX, 4 imperious. Femme im-
pé-rieuse, peremptory woman. Esprit, ton, geste, air —, domineering spirit, imper-
ious tone, action, air. Humeur im-
pé-rieuse, domineering temper. poetic. (des animaux, des choses, of animals and things) lordly, overbearing. L'aigle —, the lordly eagle. 2 fig. imperious, urgent.

IMPIÉRIEUX, ang-pay-ryuh, adj. m. fem. IMPÉRIEUX, 4 imperious. Femme im-
pé-rieuse, peremptory woman. Esprit, ton, geste, air —, domineering spirit, imper-
ious tone, action, air. Humeur im-
pé-rieuse, domineering temper. poetic. (des animaux, des choses, of animals and things) lordly, overbearing. L'aigle —, the lordly eagle. 2 fig. imperious, urgent.

IMPIÉRIEUX, ang-pay-ryuh, adj. m. fem. IMPÉRIEUX, 4 imperious. Femme im-
pé-rieuse, peremptory woman. Esprit, ton, geste, air —, domineering spirit, imper-
ious tone, action, air. Humeur im-
pé-rieuse, domineering temper. poetic. (des animaux, des choses, of animals and things) lordly, overbearing. L'aigle —, the lordly eagle. 2 fig. imperious, urgent.

IMPIÉRIEUX, ang-pay-ryuh, adj. m. fem. IMPÉRIEUX, 4 imperious. Femme im-
pé-rieuse, peremptory woman. Esprit, ton, geste, air —, domineering spirit, imper-
ious tone, action, air. Humeur im-
pé-rieuse, domineering temper. poetic. (des animaux, des choses, of animals and things) lordly, overbearing. L'aigle —, the lordly eagle. 2 fig. imperious, urgent.

IMPIÉRIEUX, ang-pay-ryuh, adj. m. fem. IMPÉRIEUX, 4 imperious. Femme im-
pé-rieuse, peremptory woman. Esprit, ton, geste, air —, domineering spirit, imper-
ious tone, action, air. Humeur im-
pé-rieuse, domineering temper. poetic. (des animaux, des choses, of animals and things) lordly, overbearing. L'aigle —, the lordly eagle. 2 fig. imperious, urgent.

IMPIÉRIEUX, ang-pay-ryuh, adj. m. fem. IMPÉRIEUX, 4 imperious. Femme im-
pé-rieuse, peremptory woman. Esprit, ton, geste, air —, domineering spirit, imper-
ious tone, action, air. Humeur im-
pé-rieuse, domineering temper. poetic. (des animaux, des choses, of animals and things) lordly, overbearing. L'aigle —, the lordly eagle. 2 fig. imperious, urgent.

IMPIÉRIEUX, ang-pay-ryuh, adj. m. fem. IMPÉRIEUX, 4 imperious. Femme im-
pé-rieuse, peremptory woman. Esprit, ton, geste, air —, domineering spirit, imper-
ious tone, action, air. Humeur im-
pé-rieuse, domineering temper. poetic. (des animaux, des choses, of animals and things) lordly, overbearing. L'aigle —, the lordly eagle. 2 fig. imperious, urgent.

IMPIÉRIEUX, ang-pay-ryuh, adj. m. fem. IMPÉRIEUX, 4 imperious. Femme im-
pé-rieuse, peremptory woman. Esprit, ton, geste, air —, domineering spirit, imper-
ious tone, action, air. Humeur im-
pé-rieuse, domineering temper. poetic. (des animaux, des choses, of animals and things) lordly, overbearing. L'aigle —, the lordly eagle. 2 fig. imperious, urgent.

IMPIÉRIEUX, ang-pay-ryuh, adj. m. fem. IMPÉRIEUX, 4 imperious. Femme im-
pé-rieuse, peremptory woman. Esprit, ton, geste, air —, domineering spirit, imper-
ious tone, action, air. Humeur im-
pé-rieuse, domineering temper. poetic. (des animaux, des choses, of animals and things) lordly, overbearing. L'aigle —, the lordly eagle. 2 fig. imperious, urgent.

IMPERSONNELLEMENT, ang-pay-so-nay-màng, adr. gram. impersonally.

IMPÉTINEMENT, ang-pay-te-nah-màng, adr. impetuously.

IMPERTINENCE, ang-pay-te-nhangs, sf. 4 impertinence, sauciness. Il vous sied bien d'avoir l'— de refuser un mari de ma main, it will become you to have the impertinence to refuse a husband of my choosing. Volt. 2 (contre le bon sens) impertinence, impertinent thing, nonsense, silliness, extravaçant, silly thing. 3 (parole, action offensante) impertinence, impertinent word, thing. Trêve donc, je vous prie, à vos —s, now, I beg, a truce to your impertinence. Mol.

IMPÉTINENT, ang-pay-te-nhangs, adj. m. fem. —E, 4 impertinent, senseless, extravaçant, silly. L'— auteur! l'ennuyeux écrivain qu'un impertinent author! what a tedious writer! Boil. 2 (des personnes, of persons) impertinent, unbecoming. Il serait trop — à moi de vous parler si longtemps de moi-même, it would be too impertinent of me to talk to you so long of myself. Volt. 3 (offensant) impertinent, saucy, pert, malapert. Elle est bien —e d'avoir dit cela, she is very impertinent to have said so. 4 (des paroles, des actions, of words, actions) impertinent. 5 law. Fait, acte —, irrelevant fact, action. 6 (substantif) an impertinent man, a saucy fellow, impertinent creature, saucy-loz, jackanapes. L'— crémence où le fin finit, impertinence is near akin to fatuity. La Bruy.

IMPÉTRABILITÉ, ang-pay-tür-bah-bah-e-tay, sf. impetrability.

IMPÉTRABLE, ang-pay-tür-bah-bah, adj. mf. impetrable.

IMPÉTRABLEMENT, ang-pay-tür-bah-bah-lah-màng, adr. impetrably.

IMPÉTIGO, ang-pay-te-go, sm. med. impetigo.

IMPÉTRABLE, ang-pay-trah-bi, adj. mf. impetrable.

IMPÉTRANT, ang-pay-tràng, sm. fem. —E, law. grantee.

IMPÉTRATION, ang-pay-trah-syong, sf. law. impetration.

IMPÉTRER, ang-pay-tray, va. law. to impetrate.

IMPÉTUEUSEMENT, ang-pay-tü-nh-màng, adr. impetuously.

IMPÉTUEUX, ang-pay-tü-nh, adj. m. fem. impetuous, impetuous. Un vent —, a wild wind. Les mouvements du lion sont fort —, the movements of the lion are very impetuous. Buff. fig. Que les passions impétueuses rendent les hommes enfants! what children impetuous passions make of men! J.-J. Rousseau.

IMPÉTUEOSITÉ, ang-pay-tü-o-ze-tay, sf. 4 impetuousity, impetuousness. L'— du vent, the wildness of the wind. 2 fig. impetuousity, vehemence. L'— de son humeur, the impetuousity of his temper. (by extension) J'aime bien à ne pas me mêler dans ses —s, I do not like to interfere with his impetuous fits. M^{me} de Sév.

IMPIE, ang-pee, adj. mf. 4 impious, ungodly, godless. (by extension) Il osa porter sur eux des mains —s, he presumed to lay impious hands on them. Rac. 2 (contraire à la religion) impious. Discours —s, impious language. 3 (substantif) impious man, ungodly.

IMPIÉTÉ, ang-pay-tay, sf. 4 impiety, impioussness, ungodliness, godlessness. Rompez tout pacte avec l'—, refrain from all dealings with the ungodly. Rac. 2 (des discours, des actions, of discourses, of actions) impiety. 3 (action, parole) impiety. Faire, dire des —s, to do, to utter impieties.

IMPITOYABLE, ang-pe-tood-yah-bi, mf. unpitiful, merciless, pitiless, relentless, unrelenting. (by extension) Un usage sévère et —, a severe and unyielding countenance. Boil. Outre que c'est un pater —, it ne laisse pas de se répéter, besides being an unconscionable talker, he is always saying the same thing over and over again. Le Sage.

IMPTOYABLEMENT, ang-pe-tood-yah-lah-màng, adr. unpitifully, mercilessly, pitilessly, relentlessly.

IMPLACABLE, ang-plak-ah-bi, adj. mf. implacable. Une haine —, an implacable hatred.

IMPLANTATION, ang-plang-tah-syong, sf. planting, implantation.

IMPLANTE, ppa. of IMPLANTER, fem. —E, adjective. implanted.

IMPLANTER, ang-plang-tay, va. to plant, to implant.

IMPLANTER, vpr. to grow (in, on, upon) to be planted. Le gui s'implante sur le chêne, mistletoe grows upon oak trees.

IMPLEXE, ang-pleks, adj. mf. implex.

IMPLICATION, ang-ple-kah-syong, sf. 4 law. implication. 2 schol. philos. contradiction.

IMPLICITE, ang-ple-sit, adj. mf. 4 implicit, implicitely. Volonté —, an implied will. 2 rel. Foi —, implicit faith. (by extension) Il a une foi — dans tout ce qu'il dit, he has an implicit faith in all that he says.

IMPLICITEMENT, ang-ple-sit-màng, adr. implicitly.

IMPLIQUER, ang-ple-kay, va. (Lat. implicare) 1 to implicate, to involve. quelque'un dans un crime, to implicate a person in a crime. On nous implique dans des erreurs capitales, we are involved in capital errors. Boss. 2 (des choses qui en font supposer d'autres) to imply. Cela implique contradiction, it implies contradiction. absol. Cela implique, it implies that dire que, it implies that, it implies that.

IMPLORER, ang-plo-ray, va. (Lat. implorare) to implore, to beseech, to crave, to call for. Ce Dieu tutélaire ne sera pas en vain imploré par mon père, this tutelary God will not be in vain invoked by my father. Rac. — la mort, to call for death. — son pardon, to crave forgiveness. Des prisonniers implorèrent la pitié et la bonne foi de leurs assassins, prisoners implore the compassion and good faith of their murderers. Boss. — le bras secourable, to call for secular help.

IMPOLI, ang-po-lee, adj. m. fem. —E, 4 impolite, unpolite, uncivil, uncorrectness. 2 (substantif) an unpolite, an uncivil man.

IMPOLIMENT, ang-pol-e-màng, adv. impolitely, unpolitely, uncivilly.

IMPOLITESSE, ang-pol-e-tays, sf. 4 uncivility, impoliteness, uncorrectness. Je suis indigné de son — grossière envers moi, I am indignant at his want of correctness towards me. Volt. 2 (des actions, des paroles, of actions, of words) uncivility, rudeness. L'— de ce procédé, the uncivility of such a proceeding. 3 (action, parole) incivility, impolite act. Faire une — à quelqu'un, to be unpolite to a person.

IMPOLITIQUE, ang-pol-e-tik, adj. mf. impolitely.

IMPOLITIQUEMENT, ang-pol-e-tik-màng, adv. impolitely.

IMPONDERABLE, ang-pong-day-rab-bi, adj. mf. nat. phil. imponderable, imponderous.

IMPOPULAIRE, ang-pop-ü-layr, adj. mf. unpopular. Lois —s, unpopular laws. Prince —, unpopular prince.

IMPOPULARITÉ, ang-pop-ü-lar-e-tay, sf. unpopularity.

IMPORTANCE, ang-por-tàngs, sf. 4 importance, consequence. L'— de la question que l'on agit, the importance of the question discussed. J.-J. Rousseau. Avoir de l'—, to be of consequence. C'est sans —, that is of no consequence. Il est d'une grande — pour moi, it is very important for me. Attacher, mettre de l'— à une chose, to consider a thing as important. Je n'ai attaché aucune —, I think nothing of that. 2 (autorité) importance, consequence. Le besoin d'— était sa faiblesse, the desire of importance was his weakness. Lmart. Un homme d'—, an eminent man, a man of importance. (in a bad part) Faire l'homme d'—, to set up for a man of importance. Se donner des airs d'—, to look consequential. Il a de l'— comme un marquis, he is as conceited as a churchwarden. Scrr.

IMPORTANCE, adj. loc. adverbially, heartily, famously, at a high rate. Je le dirai à ma tante qui vous grondera d'—, I will tell my aunt of it, and she will give you a good scolding. Scrr.

IMPORTANT, ang-por-tàng, adj. m. fem. —E, 4 important, weighty. Cela n'est pas fort —, it is unimportant, not of great consequence. Cette affaire est fort —e, that is a very important matter. Il est — que vous le fassiez, it is important that you should do it. 2 (qui a de l'autorité) important, of importance, of consequence. Il a su se rendre —, he knew how to make himself important.

IMPORTANT, sm. 4 (essentiel) the important part, the main point, the chief point. 2 (homme vain) conceited man, man of consequence. Faire l'—, to set up for a man of consequence. Un grain d'esprit et une once d'affaires de plus qu'il n'en entre dans la composition du sülstant, fait l'—, add one grain of sense and one ounce of business to the composition of the coxcomb, and you have the consequential man. La Bruy. 3 (adjectif) Leur ton — et décisif, their peremptory and consequential tone. M^{me} de Main.

IMPORTATEUR, ang-por-tat-nhr, sm. importer.

IMPORTATION, ang-por-tah-syong, sf. 4 custom. importation. Droit d'—, import-duty. Prime d'—, bounty on importation. Commerce d'—, import trade. Rôle d'—, contents of a ship's cargo. 2 (marchandises) —s, pl. imports.

IMPORTER, ang-por-tay, va. custom. to import.

IMPORTER, vn. 1 to import, to be of importance, to be of consequence, to concern, to matter, to be material, to signify. Cela ne lui importe en rien, that is no matter to him. En quoi cela peut-il lui —? what does that signify to him? Ce sont des choses qui ne m'importent guère, those are things I don't care for. Cela importe peu, that matters little. Que vous importe? what matters, what matters it to you? what is that to you? Qu'importe de mauvaises plaisanteries? what do such sorry jokes signify? 2 (impers.) it imports. Il importe à la sûreté publique, pour la sûreté publique, it is of importance to the public safety, it concerns the public safety. Il m'importe grandement, extrêmement, to me that. Il lui importe beaucoup de faire ce voyage, that journey is of the highest consequence to him. 3 (interrogatif, and negativ.) Que m'importe? c'est le mot le plus familier à un ignorant, what does it matter to me? is the usual expression of a fool. J.-J. Rousseau. Hélas! sans la santé que m'importe un royaume? alas! what signifies to me a kingdom without health? Qu'importe? what does it signify? what matters it? what of that? Il importe peu, peu importe que ce soit lui ou vous, it matters little whether it be he or you. Pas toujours, mais qu'importe? Il importe si bien que, de tous vos repas, je ne veng, etc., not always, but what of that? It is so important that I will have none of your remarks, etc. La Font. Que se soit lui ou toi, il n'importe, peu importe, whether it is he or thou, signifies but little. N'importe, never mind, no matter, it is of no matter. N'importe qui, no matter who. N'importe quoi, no matter what. N'importe où, no matter where, any where. N'importe comment, no matter how, any how. J'y périrai, n'importe, I shall perish, no matter.

IMPORTUN, ang-por-tung, adj. m. fem. —, importunate, troublesome, intrusive. Des créanciers —s, troublesome creditors. Jam. duns. C'est le rôle d'un sot d'être —, a blockhead's lot is to be importunate. La Bruy. Il est — par ses questions, he is troublesome with his questions. 2 (des choses, of things) troublesome, tiresome, irksome, intrusive. Un bruit, un vent —, a troublesome noise, wind. Une cloche —, a troublesome bell. Une visite —, an intrusive visit. L'— bavardage d'un fâcheux, the tiresome talk of a bore. Souvenirs —s, painful recollections. 3 sm. troublesome person.

IMPORTUNEMENT, ang-por-tū-nay-mang, adv. importunately, troublesomely.

IMPORTUNER, ang-por-tū-nay, ra. 1 to importune, to be troublesome, to pester, to trouble, to annoy, to incommoder. Je crains de vous —, I fear I am intruding. J'espère que je ne serai pas importuné de ses visites, I hope I shall not be pestered with his visits. Mes amis ont trop soin de moi, j'en suis importunée, my friends take too much care of me, they weary me. M= de Sév. 2 fig. poetic. — les dieux, the ciel des ses prières, de ses vœux, to importune the gods, Heaven with one's prayers, with one's desires. 3 (des choses, of things) to trouble, to annoy, la importune. Les fréquentes visites m'importunent, frequent visits disturb me. Mon arc, mes javelots, mon char, tout m'importune, bow, javelin, chariot, every thing worries me. Rac.

IMPORTUNITE, ang-por-tū-né-tay, sf. importunity.

IMPOSABLE, ang-po-zahl', adj. mf. imposable, taxable, liable to taxation.

IMPOSANT, ang-po-zang, vpr. of IMPOSER, adj. m. fem. —, 1 imposing, commanding. Un air —, an imposing air. 2 (des choses qui éblouissent l'âme) Un spectacle —, an imposing spectacle. Une cérémonie —, an imposing ceremony. 3 Force —, an imposing force. Le prince mit son pied des forces —es, the prince raised imposing forces.

IMPOSE, vpr. of IMPOSER, fem. —, 1 imposed, laid on, etc. Etre — à tant, to be taxed at so much. 2 (substantif.) taxpayer. Les plus haut —s, the highest tax-payers.

IMPOSER, ang-po-zay, ra. (Lat. imponere) 1 — les mains, to impose hands. fig. — an nom, to confer a name. 2 fig. (prescrire, indiger) to impose, to lay on. C'est un sacrifice que l'honneur et la raison vous imposent, it is a sacrifice to which honour and reason compel you to submit. J.-J. Rouss. Le jong que la nature lui impose, the yoke imposed on him by nature. J.-J. Rouss. Il est une bien-séance que le monde même nous impose, there is a propriety that even the world forces upon us. Mass. Silence, to impose, to order silence. fig. — silence aux passions, to control the passions. fig. — silence aux médisances, to stop the mouth of scandal. fig. Il faut — silence au mensonge, falsehood must be silenced. 3 (des tributs, etc.) to assess, to tax. — un ribot sur une province conquise, to impose a tribute on a conquered province. — un pays, une commune, to tax a country, a parish. — quelqu'un à tant, to rate a person at so much. 4 (contraindre à accepter) Il voulait nous — ses créatures, he wanted to thrust his creatures upon us. Je ne prétends pas vous — mon opinion, I do not wish to impose my opinion on you. 5 — du respect, to command respect. Sa figure impose le respect, his person commands respect. absol. Il y a dans quelques femmes un esprit éblouissant qui impose, there is in some women a dazzling display of wit which imposes. La Bruy. Ces braves ne peuvent — qu'à des âmes faibles, those bravados can have influence but on weak minds. Je la voyais environnée de son époux et de ses enfants; ce cortège m'imposait, I saw her surrounded by her husband and children; this spectacle overpowered me. J.-J. Rouss. 6 Etre —, to impose upon, to deceive. Ne le croyez pas, il en impose, do not believe him, he is imposing on you. 7 absol. (imputer à tort) to impute. 8 print. to impose.

S'IMPOSER, vpr. to impose upon one's self, to force upon one's self. S'— une tâche, to set one's self a task.

IMPOSITION, ang-po-ze-syong, sf. 1 rel. (des mains, of the hands) imposition. 2 fig. (d'un nom, of a name) imposition. 3 fig. (d'une peine, d'un tribut, etc., of a penalty, of a tax, etc.) assessment. 4 absol. (contribution) imposition, tax, impost. 5 print. imposing.

IMPOSSIBLE, ang-pos-se-he-le-tay, sf. impossibility. Il est de toute — de le faire, there is no possibility of doing it, it is quite impossible to do it. Mettre quelqu'un dans l'— de faire quelque chose, to make it impossible for a person to do a thing. Vous connaissez mieux que moi les possibilités et —s présentes, you know better than I do what is and what is not possible at the present time. M= de Sév. — physique, physical, natural impossibility. — morale, moral impossibility.

IMPOSSIBLE, ang-pos-sihl', adj. mf. 1 impossible. Il n'y a rien d'— à Dieu, with God nothing is impossible. Il est — qu'une chose soit et ne soit pas en même temps, it is impossible that a thing should be and should not be at the same time. A qui sait bien aimer rien n'est —, nothing is impossible for love to perform. Corn. 2 (by extension) impossible. Il lui est — de rester longtemps chez lui, it is impossible for him to remain long at home. 3 (substantif.) impossibilities. Je ne puis faire l'—, I cannot do impossibilities. Tenter l'—, to try impossibilities. On exécute rien quand on veut l'—, we achieve nothing when we attempt what is impossible. A Chen. Réduire quelqu'un à l'—, to require of a man what it is impossible for him to perform. (Hyperb.) Je ferais l'— pour vous, pour lui, for you, for him I would overcome impossibilities. fig. Gagner l'—, perdre l'—, etc., to gain a great deal, to lose enormously. prov. A l'— qui n'est tenu, there is no doing impossibilities.

PAR IMPOSSIBLE, adv. loc. against all probability.

IMPOSTE, ang-post, sf. arch. impost.

IMPOSTEUR, ang-pos-tuhr, sm. 1 impostor. 2 (adjectif.) deceitful. Un éloge —, an unmerited eulogium.

IMPOSTURE, ang-pos-tür, sf. 1 imposture, cheat, imposition. 2 (calomnie) imposture, slander, calumny. 3 (hypocrisie) imposture, deception, delusion. 4 fig. (des choses qui font illusion) delusion, illusion.

IMPÔT, ang-po, sm. 1 tax, duty. — foncier, land-tax. — sur le revenu, income-tax. Mettre un — sur quelque chose, to lay a tax on. Accabler d'—s, to over-tax. Le luxe est un — que la vanité paye à l'industrie, luxury is a tax which vanity pays to industry. 2 absol. admin. (des impôts en général) taxes, taxation. L'assiette de l'—, the assessment of the taxes.

IMPOTENCE, ang-po-tang, sf. med. impotence, impotency.

IMPOTENT, ang-po-tang, adj. m. fem. —, 1 impotent. Il est — d'un bras, he has lost the use of an arm. (by analogy) Un bras —, a powerless arm. 2 (substantif.) impotent person.

IMPRATICABLE, ang-prat-e-kahl', adj. mf. 1 impracticable, unfeasible. Ce projet est beau, mais il est —, that is a splendid project, but it is impracticable. 2 (où l'on ne peut passer) impracticable, impassable. 3 (inhabitable) uninhabitable. 4 fig. unpracticable, unmanageable, untractable.

IMPRÉCATION, ang-pray-kah-syong, sf. 1 imprecation. Charger quelqu'un d'—s, faire des —s contre quelqu'un, to load a person with imprecations. 2 rhet. imprecation.

IMPRÉGNÉ, ang-pray-oyay, ra. s'imprégné, TO IMPRÉGNÉ, IL IMPRÉGNÉ. 1 to impregnate. 2 fig. to imbue. La France normande a imprégné de son génie le génie observateur et analytique de l'Angleterre, Normandy has imbued with its genius for narrating the observing and analytical genius of England. Ph. Chas.

S'IMPRÉGNÉ, vpr. to become impregnated, to imbibe, to be imbued with. fig. Ces pensées s'imprégnèrent toutes d'un charme mystérieux, all these thoughts were imbued with a mysterious charm. G. Sand.

IMPRÉXABLE, ang-prob-nabl', adj. mf. imprégnable.

IMPRESARIO, ang-pray-sar-yo, sm. (It.) imprario.

IMPRESCRITIBILITÉ, ang-prays-krip-te-he-le-tay, sf. imprescriptibility.

IMPRESCRITIBLE, ang-prays-krip-tihl', adj. mf. imprescriptible, undefinable.

IMPRESSION, ang-pray-syong, sf. 1 impression, stamping, impress, mark. print. L'— d'un cachet sur de la cire, the impression of a seal on wax. 2 (d'une gravure, d'une étoffe, of an engraving, of a stuff) impression. 3 print. impression, printing. Belle —, fine impression. Faute d'—, erratum, misprint, error of the press. Frais d'—, printing expenses. 4 (édition) edition, impression. Ancienne —, an old edition. 5 (d'une chose sur un corps) impression. L'— que les couleurs font sur la vue, the impression which colours produce on the sight. Les —s de la douleur, du plaisir, the impressions of pain, of pleasure. 6 (effet) impression, trace. Sa goutte lui a laissé quelque — de douleur, his gout has left him some traces of pain. 7 —s, pl. fig. impressions. Les premières —s sont ordinairement les plus durables, first impressions are generally the most lasting. Il y a des —s fondues dont on ne revient pas, there are certain baful impressions from which the mind never recovers. Volt. Les romans font beaucoup d'— à Paris, novels make a great impression at Paris. J.-J. Rouss.

IMPRESSIONNABILITÉ, ang-prays-yo-nab-e-le-tay, sf. neol. impressibility.

IMPRESSIONNABLE, ang-prays-syo-nabl', adj. mf. neol. impressionable.

IMPRESSIONNER, ang-prays-syo-nay, ra. neol. to impress. Cette mort prématurée a vivement impressionné la capitale, that premature death deeply affected the capital. Arag.

S'IMPRESSIONNER, vpr. to be affected.

IMPREVOYANCE, ang-pray-vood-yang, sf. imprudence.

IMPREVOYANT, ang-pray-vood-yang, adj. m. fem. —, imprudent.

IMPREVU, ang-pray-vù, adj. m. fem. —, unforeseen. Dépenses —es, contingencies.

IMPRIMÉ, vpr. of IMPRIMER, printed, sm. print, printed document, printed paper.

IMPRIMER, ang-pre-may, ra. 1 to impress, to imprint, to stamp (on, upon). — un sceau sur de la cire, to impress a seal upon wax. fig. Cette action imprime à sa mémoire une honte éternelle, that action stamps his memory with eternal shame. 2 (où l'impression à l'encre noire ou en couleur) to print. — en taille-douce, to print from a copper-plate. — des calendes, des toiles, to print china, calicoes. 3 print. (d'un livre, etc., of a book) to print. Faire — un ouvrage, to have a work printed. On imprime correctement chez cet éditeur, this printer is remarkable for his correctness. Se faire —, to appear in print, to set up for an author. Qui diantre vous pousse à vous faire —? who the deuce incites you to appear in print 9 Mol. 4 (publier par la voie de l'impression) to publish. 5 fig. (dans l'esprit, etc., in the mind, etc.) to impress. Ces lieux solitaires imprimèrent à mon esprit un recueillement religieux, the loneliness of the spot impressed my mind with religious meditation. Volt. — une grande terreur à quelqu'un, to strike a person with great terror. — du respect, to command respect. 6 fig. (du mouvement, etc.) to communicate, to give motion to. — le mouvement à un corps. Cette découverte imprimait aux idées une direction nouvelle, this discovery gave a new direction to the ideas of men. 7 palet. to prime the cloth. 8 house-paint. to stain.

s'IMPRIMER, vpr. 4 to be printed, impressed, stamped. Leurs pas s'imprimaient sur la neige, their steps were imprinted in the snow. 2 print. (d'un livre, etc., of a book, etc.) to be printed. 3 fig. (dans l'esprit, etc.) to be imprinted, impressed.

IMPRIMERIE, ang-pro-im-ree, sf. 1 printing. L'— est l'explosion continuelle de la pensée humaine, printing is a continual explosion of human thought. Larmart. 2 (collectiv.) printer's tools. Acheter une —, to purchase a printing office. 3 (établissement) printing office, printing-house. — lithographique, lithographic printing.

IMPRIMEUR, ang-pre-muhr, sm. 1 printer. — en taille-cuivre, copper-plate printer. — lithographe, lithographic printer. — libraire, printer and publisher. — sur étoffes, printer. 2 (ouvrier) press-man. Ouvrier —, journeyman printer. Apprenti —, printer's boy. 3 (by extension) tout ouvrier qui travaille dans une imprimerie printer, stainer.

IMPROBABLE, ang-pro-babl', adj. mf. improbable, unlikely.

IMPROBATEUR, ang-pro-bat-uh-r, adj. m. fem. improbatrice, disapprobatory, of disapprobation. 2 (substantif.) disapprover.

IMPROBATION, ang-pro-bah-syong, sf. disapprobation. Elle gardait son — et son sens pour les fautes éclatantes, she reserved her disapprobation and contempt for glaring faults. Sand.

IMPROBITE, ang-pro-be-tay, sf. improbity.

IMPRODUCTIF, ang-pro-dük-tif, adj. m. fem. improductive, unproductive, barren.

IMPRODUCTIVEMENT, ang-pro-dük-tiv-mäng, adv. improductively.

IMPROMPTU, ang-prongp tü, sm. (Lat.) 1 impromptu, extempore. Le dîner était un —, the dinner was an impromptu. (adjectif.) Un concert —, an extempore concert. 2 (épipramme, etc.) impromptu. Il fait des — sur tout, he makes impromptus on every thing. Un — fait à loisir, a premeditated impromptu. (adjectif.) Des vers —, impromptu lines.

IMPROPRE, ang-prop'r, adj. mf. (Lat.) improper.

IMPROPREMENT, ang-pro-pruh-mäng, adv. improperly.

IMPROPRIÉTÉ, ang-pro-pre-yay-tay, sf. impropriety.

IMPROUVER, ang-pro-vay, ra. (Lat. improbare) to disapprove.

IMPROVISATEUR, ang-pro-ve-zat-uh-r, sm. fem. improvisatrice, improvisator, ad. improvisatrice, i.

IMPROVISATION, ang-pro-ve-zah-syong, sf. 1 improvisation. 2 (des vers, etc., of verses, etc.) extempore.

IMPROVISER, ang-pro-ve-zay, ra. 1 (d'un poète, of a poet) to improvise, to extemporize. 2 (d'un musicien, d'un orateur, of a musician, of an orator) to improvise, to extemporize, to speak extempore. 3 (transitif) (sans préparation et sur-le-champ) to extemporize, to improvise, to get up impromptu. — des vers, an discours, to deliver extempore lines, to speak extempore. — un bai, on concert, to get up a ball, a concert at a moment's notice. Les gouvernements qu'on improvise ne durent pas, the governments got up impromptu do not last long.

IMPROVISÉ (à l') ang-pro-vist, adv. loc. unexpectedly, unawares. Par donnez-moi de venir vous rendre visite à l'—, I beg your pardon for calling upon you unexpectedly. Ser.

IMPRUDENCEMENT, ang-prü-dam-mäng, adv. imprudently, unwarily, unadvisedly.

IMPRUDENCE, ang-prü-dängs, sf. 1 imprudence, unweariness, indiscretion. Il était d'une grande —, he was very imprudent. —, babil et sottise vanité et vaine curiosité ont ensemble étroit parentage, there is a close relationship between giddiness, tattling, silly vanity and idle curiosity. La Font. Hélas! quelle est mon —! alas! how imprudent am I! Rac. 2 (action) imprudent thing, folly, indiscreet action. Je vous ai raconté mes — et mes fautes, I have related to you my follies and faults. J.-J. Rousse.

IMPRUDENT, ang-prü-däng, adj. m. fem. — 1 imprudent, unwary, heedless, indiscreet. 2 (des actions, des discours, of actions, speeches) imprudent, foolish. 3 (substantif.) imprudent person.

IMPUBÈRE, ang-pü-bayr, adj. mf. 1 in the age of impuberty, impubescent, adolescent. 2 (substantif.) person under age, in the age of impuberty.

IMPUDEMENT, ang-pü-dam-mäng, adv. impudently, shamelessly, brazenly.

IMPUDENCE, ang-pü-dängs, sf. 1 impudence, shamelessness. C'est de la dernière —, that is extremely impudent. Ah! que ton — excite mon courroux! ah! I cannot bear your impudence any longer! Rac. 2 (action, parole) impudence, impudent act, thing.

IMPUDENT, ang-pü-däng, adj. m. fem. — 1 impudent, shameless, brazen. 2 (substantif.) impudent man, impudent creature, impudent fellow. Pourquoi ne viendrez-vous pas, madame l'—? why do you not love me, Mrs. Malapert? Mol.

IMPUDEUR, ang-pü-duh-r, sf. 1 immodesty, indecency. 2 (effronterie) impudence, shamelessness.

IMPUDICITE, ang-pü-de-se-tay, sf. 1 immodesty, unchastity. 2 (action) immodest act.

IMPUDIQUE, ang-pü-dik, adj. mf. 1 immodest, unchaste. 2 (de tout ce qui blesse la chasteté) impure, wanton. 3 (substantif.) C'est un —, he is a lewd man.

IMPUDIQUEMENT, ang-pü-dik-mäng, adv. immodestly.

IMPUGNER, ang-püg-nay, ra. to impugn.

IMPUISSANCE, ang-püce-säng, sf. 1 impotence, impotency, powerlessness. Il est dans l'— de vous servir, he is unable to serve you. (by extension) Exposez souvent à Dieu vos besoins, vos faiblesses et vos —, often expose to God your wants, your weakness and impotence. Boss. 2 med. impotence, impotency.

IMPUISSANT, ang-püce-säng, adj. m. fem. — 1, 2 impotent, powerless. 3 (des choses, of things) inefficient, fruitless. 3 med. impotent. (substantif.) impotent, powerless man.

IMPULSIF, ang-pül-sif, adj. m. fem. impulsive, impulsive.

IMPULSION, ang-pül-syong, sf. 1 impulse. Une légère —, a slight impulse. Force d'—, impulsive force, power. 2 fig. impulse. Les sciences ont reçu dans notre siècle une — rapide, sciences have received a rapid impulse during our century. Céder aux — d'une volonté étrangère, to yield to the impulse of a stranger's will. Suivre l'— de son cœur, to follow the dictates of one's own heart.

IMPUNEMENT, ang-pü-nam-mäng, adv. 1 with impunity. Faire quelque chose —, to go unpunished. Il ne faut pas faire tout ce qu'on peut faire —, we must not do all we are at liberty to do with impunity. St-Evr. 2 (sans préjudice) without inconvenience, disadvantage.

IMPUNI, ang-pü-nee, adj. m. fem. — 1, unpunished.

IMPUNITÉ, ang-pü-ne-tay, sf. impunity.

IMPUR, ang-pür, adj. m. fem. — 1, 4 impure, unclean. 2 fig. impure, unchaste.

IMPURETÉ, ang-pür-tay, sf. 1 impurity, foulness. L'— de l'air, the impurity of the air. 2 fig. impudicity, uncleanness.

IMPUTABLE, ang-pü-tabl', adj. mf. 4 imputable, chargeable (on). 2 fin. chargeable, to be deducted from.

IMPUTATION, ang-pü-tah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 imputation. 2 fin. deduction.

IMPUTE, ang-pü-tay, va. (Lat. imputare) 1 to impute, to ascribe. — à crime, à faute, to impute as a crime, as a fault. — à oubli, à négligence, etc., to impute to forgetfulness, to negligence, etc. 2 fin. to deduct, to charge. 3 theol. to impute.

IN, ang, prefix (Lat.) 1 signifying in, into, as: INDIURE, INFLUER, INCORPORER. 2 negative or privative, as: INABORDABLE, INACCESSIBLE, INACTION, INCRIER.

IN-DIX-BOIT, adj. pl. IN-DIX-BOIT, 1 decimo-octavo, octo-decimo. 2 (substantif.) decimo-octavo volume, eighteenmo, 18mo.

IN-DOUZE, adj. pl. IN-DOUZE, 4 duodecimo, in twelves. 2 (substantif.) duodecimo, twelve, 12mo.

IN-FOLIO, adj. pl. IN-FOLIO, 4 folio. 2 (substantif.) folio, folio-volume.

IN-PLANO, adj. and sm. p. print, book-selling. Le format — plano, plano size.

IN-PROPTO, See IMPROPTO.

IN-QUARTO, adj. and sm. pl. IN-QUARTO, quarto.

IN-SEIZE, adj. mf. 4 in-sixteens. 2 (substantif.) sixteen, 16mo.

IN-TRENTE-DEUX, adj. mf. and sm. in-thirty-two, in 32mo.

IN-TRENTE-SIX, adj. mf. and sm. in-thirty-six, in 36mo.

IN-VINT-QUATRE, adj. mf. 4 in-twenty-four. 2 (substantif.) twenty-four.

INABORDABLE, e-nab-or-dabl', adj. mf. 4 inaccessible, unapproachable. Cette partie de la côte est —, this part of the coast is inaccessible. 2 (by extension) Les bureaux de la comédie sont —, tant la foule est grande, the crowd is so great that the ticket office of the theatre is unapproachable. 3 fig. (d'une personne, of a person) inaccessible.

INACCESSABLE, e-nak-sep-tabl', adj. mf. unacceptable.

INACCESSIBLE, e-nak-sas-sibl', adj. mf. 4 inaccessible. Un rocher —, an inaccessible rock. fig. Les hauteurs — de la science, the inaccessible heights of science. 2 inaccessible, unapproachable. Un roi — aux hommes l'est aussi à la vérité, a king inaccessible to men, is also inaccessible to truth. Fen. 3 fig. inaccessible, insensible. — à la peur, to fear, to the pitié, inaccessible to fear, to love, to pity. Il oppose à l'amour un cœur —, he opposes an inaccessible heart to love. Rac.

INACCOMMODABLE, e-nak-lo-mo-dabl', adj. mf. not to be settled, not to be made up.

INACCOMODABLE, e-nak-kor-dabl', adj. mf. 4 qu'on ne peut mettre d'accord, irreconcilable. 2 qu'on ne peut octroyer ungrantable.

INACOSTABLE, e-nak-kos-tabl', adj. mf. inaccessible, unapproachable.

INACOUTUME, e-nak-koo-tü-may, adj. m. fem. — 1, 2, unaccustomed, un-used, unusual.

INACHIEVE, e-nash-vay, adj. m. fem. — 1, unfinished, incomplete, unachieved.

INACTIF, e-nak-tif, adj. m. fem. inactive, inactive, sluggish.

INACTIION, e-nak-syong, sf. inaction.

Être dans l'—, to be inactive. Tirer une personne de son —, to rouse a person from his inaction.

INACTIVITÉ, e-nak-te-ve-tay, sf. inactivity.

INADMISSIBILITÉ, e-nad-mis-se-be-le-tay, sf. inadmissibility.

INADMISSIBLE, e-nad-mis-sibl', adj. mf. inadmissible.

INADVERTANCE, e-nad-vayr-tangs, sf. 1 inadvertence, inadvertency, heedlessness. Par —, from inadvertency, inadvertently. 2 (action, faute) oversight. Il faut avouer que je suis l'homme aux —s, I must confess I am a very inadvertent man, Volt.

INALIÉNABILITÉ, e-nal-yay-nab-e-le-tay, sf. inalienability.

INALIÉNABLE, e-nal-yay-nabl', adj. mf. inalienable.

INALIABLE, e-nal-yabl', adj. mf. 1 (des métaux, of metals) that cannot be altered. 2 fig. inappreciable.

INALTERABLE, e-nal-yay-rab-e-le-tay, sf. inalterability, unchangeableness.

INALTÉRABLE, e-nal-yay-rabl', adj. mf. unalterable, inalterable, unchanging. fig. Il est d'une humeur, d'une gaieté —, his humour, his humour is invariable. Une gloire —, an unchangeable glory. M^{re} de Staël. Les états jouissent d'un bonheur —, the elect enjoy unalterable felicity.

INAMISSIBILITÉ, e-nam-is-se-be-le-tay, sf. inamissibility.

INAMISSIBLE, e-nam-is-sibl', adj. mf. inamissible.

INAMOVIBILITÉ, e-nam-o-ve-be-le-tay, sf. irremovability.

INAMOVIBLE, e-nam-o-vibl', adj. mf. 1 irremovable. 2 (des emplois à vie) irremovable, for life.

INANIMÉ, e-nan-e-may, adj. m. fem. —, 1 inanimate. Les êtres —s, the inanimate creatures. Ce n'est plus qu'un corps froid et —, it is now but a cold inanimate body. 2 fig. inanimate, inert, lifeless. Il me parut avoir un air — qui ne lui était pas ordinaire, he seemed to have an inanimate look which was unusual for him. Le Sage.

INANITÉ, e-nan-e-tay, sf. (Lat. inanimatus) 1 emptiness, vacuity. 2 —s, pl. sf. inutilities. Ce siècle est prêt à se fonder en —s politiques, this century is on the point of disappearing in political inutilities. Lamart.

INANITION, e-nab-ne-syong, sf. inanition, starvation. Mourir d'—, to starve with hunger. Tomber d'—, to be faint with hunger.

INAPPRÉCIABLE, e-nap-ayr-suh-val', adj. mf. unperceivable, imperceptible.

INAPÉRÇU, e-nap-ayr-sû, adj. m. fem. —, unperceived, unseen.

INAPPETENCE, e-nap-pay-tangs, sf. med. inappetence, inappetency.

INAPPLICABLE, e-nap-le-kabl', adj. mf. inapplicable, inapposite.

INAPPLICATION, e-nap-le-kah-syong, sf. inapplication. Il est d'une — que rien ne peut corriger, nothing can correct his inapplication.

INAPLIQUÉ, e-nap-le-kay, adj. m. fem. —, inad. inapplicable, inapposite.

INAPPRECIABLE, e-nap-ray-syabl', adj. mf. 1 inappreciable. 2 (qu'on ne saurait trop estimer) invaluable, inappreciable, priceless.

INAPPUÏTE, e-nap-te-tûd, sf. inaptitude, unaptness, unfitness.

INARTICULÉ, e-nar-te-kû-tay, adj. m. fem. —, inarticulate. Il tomba la face contre terre en poussant des sons —, he fell down flat on the ground uttering inarticulate sounds. G. Sand.

INASSOUVI, e-nas-soo-vee, adj. m. fem. —, unsatiated, unquenched, unslaked, unglad. Les incontentements d'ambition —e de M. de T., the discontentments of Mr. de T.'s unsatiated ambition. Lamart.

INATTAQUABLE, e-nat-ak-abl', adj. mf. 1 unassailable. 2 fig. unassailable.

INATTENDU, e-nat-ang-tûd, adj. m. fem. —, unperceived.

INATTENTIF, e-nat-ang-tif, adj. m. fem. INATTENTIVE, inattentive, unmindful.

INATTENTION, e-nat-ang-syong, sf. inattention. C'est pure —, it is mere inattention.

INAUGURAL, e-no-gû-ral, adj. m. fem. —, inaugural, inauguratory. Discours —, inaugural address.

INAUGURATION, e-no-gû-ral-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 inauguration. 2 (by extension) d'une statue, the inauguration of a statue. Discours d'—, inaugural speech.

INAUGURER, e-no-gû-ray, va. (Lat. inaugurare) to inaugurate.

INCA, INCAS, ang-kah, sm. Inca.

INCAIGUER, ang-kag-ay, va. ubol. to beard, to snap one's fingers at.

INCALCULABLE, ang-kal-kû-labl', adj. mf. 1 incalculable. 2 (by extension) innumerable.

INCAMÉRATION, ang-kah-may-rab-syong, sf. incameration.

INCAMÉRER, ang-kah-may-ray, va. to incamorate.

INCANDESCENCE, ang-kang-days-syong, sf. incandescence. Barre de fer chauffée jusqu'à l'—, a bar of iron heated to incandescence.

INCANDESCENT, ang-kang-days-syng, adj. m. fem. —, incandescient.

INCANTATION, ang-kang-tah-syong, sf. (Lat.) incantation.

INCAPABLE, ang-kap-abl', adj. mf. 1 incapable (of), unfit (for), unable (for to). Il est — de se tenir debout, he is unable to stand upright. Ma mémoire et ma tête affaiblies me rendent presque — de tout travail, my enfeebled memory and weak head render me almost unfit for labour of any kind. J.-J. Rouss. 2 (qui n'a pas la capacité, le talent) incapable. Il est absolument — d'exercer un emploi, he is absolutely incapable of exercising any occupation. 3 absol. (malhabile) without capacity. C'est un homme —, he is a man of no capacity. 4 (qui n'est pas d'un caractère à faire quelque chose) incapable. Il est — de lâcheté, he is incapable of cowardice. Il est — de mentir, he is incapable of lying. 5 (de tout ce qui n'a pas les qualités pour quelque chose) unfitted. Cet arbre est — de porter de bon fruit, this tree is unfitted for bearing good fruit.

INCAPACITÉ, ang-kap-as-e-tay, sf. 1 incapacity, incapability, inability, unaptness, unfitness. Il est d'une — telle que, he is of such an incapacity that. — de travail, incapacity of working. 2 law. incapacity, disqualification. Être frappé d'—, to be under a disqualification, to be disqualified.

INCARCÉRATION, ang-kar-sayr-ab-syong, sf. law. incarceration.

INCARCÉRER, ang-kar-say-ray, va. law. to incarcerate.

INCARNADIN, ang-kar-nad-ang, adj. m. fem. —, 1 incarnadine. 2 sm. incarnadine colour.

INCARNAT, ang-kar-nah, adj. m. fem. —, 1 flesh-red, flesh-coloured. 2 poetic. rosy. 3 sm. flesh-colour, carnation-colour.

INCARNATION, ang-kar-nab-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 incarnation. 2 rel. absol. Le mystère de l'—, the mystery of the incarnation.

INCARNÉ, ppa. of INCARNER, adjective. fem. —, incarnate. fig. C'est un diable —, he is a devil incarnate. Cet homme est le vice —, that man is vice incarnate.

INCARNER, ang-kar-nay, vp. to become incarnate, to assume the human nature.

INCARTADE, ang-kar-tad, sf. 1 insult, sally, blowing up. 2 —s, pl. (extravagance) prank, folly, freak.

INCENDIAIRE, ang-sang-ayay, sm. 1 incendiary. 2 fig. revolutionist, incendiary. C'est un —, he is a revolutionist. (adjective.) Un écrivain —, a seditious writer. 3 (adjective) fig. incendiary. Discours — incendiary discourse.

INCENDIE, ang-sang-dee, sm. (Lat.) 1 fire. Il y a un grand —, there has been a great fire. En cas d'—, in case of fire. L'— d'une maison, d'une ville, the burning of a house, the conflagration of a city. Pompe à —, fire-engine. Compagnie d'assurances contre l'—, fire-office. prov. fig. Il ne faut qu'une étincelle pour allumer un grand —, a spark is sufficient to kindle a great fire. 2 fig. conflagration. L'— des idées nouvelles, the conflagration of new ideas. Lamart.

INCENDIÉ, ppa. of INCENDIER, fem. —, 1 adjective. burnt, burnt down, set on fire. 2 (substantif) sniffer by the fire.

INCENDIER, ang-sang-ayay, va. (Lat. incendere) to burn, to burn down, to set fire to, to fire.

INCERTAIN, ang-sayr-lang, adj. m. fem. —, 1 uncertain, unsure, doubtful. Nouvelle —, doubtful news. 2 (variable) uncertain, unsettled. Temps —, unsettled weather. 3 (qui n'est pas fixé) undetermined. À une époque —, at an undetermined period. 4 (des personnes, of persons) uncertain, wavering. Être — de ce qu'on doit faire, to be uncertain as to what is to be done. Du choix d'un successeur, Athènes —, undetermined in the choice of a successor, Athens. Rac. 4 (substantif) (ce qui est douteux) the uncertain, uncertainty.

INCERTAINEMENT, ang-sayr-layn-mang, adv. (little used) uncertainly.

INCERTITUDE, ang-sayr-te-tûd, sf. 1 uncertainty, incertitude, doubtfulness. Il est dans l'— de partir qu'il doit prendre, he is uncertain as to what course he should pursue. L'— est le tourment des sots, irresolution is the torment of fools. Lemer. 2 (du caractère, etc., of the temper) uncertainty. L'— habituelle de ses opinions, the habitual uncertainty of his opinions. 3 (de tout ce qui est susceptible de doute) incertitude. L'— du temps, the uncertainty of the weather.

INCESSAMMENT, ang-says-suh-mang, adv. 1 immediately, directly, forthwith. Je vous conseille de sortir — de cette ville, I advise you to leave this town immediately. Le Sage. 2 (sans cesse) unceasingly, incessantly.

INCESSANT, ang-says-sang, adj. m. fem. —, unceasing, incessant.

INCESSIBILITÉ, ang-says-se-be-le-tay, sf. law. inalienableness.

INCESSIBLE, ang-says-sibl', adj. mf. law. untransferable.

INCESTE, ang-sayst, sm. (Lat.) 1 incest. 2 (personne) incestuous person.

INCESTUEUSEMENT, ang-says-tû-uhz-mog, adv. incestuously.

INCESTUEUX, ang-says-tû-uh, adj. m. fem. INCESTUEUSE, 1 incestuous. 2 incestuous. Amour —, incestuous love. 3 (substantif) incestuous person.

INCHOATIF, ang-ko-ah-tif, adj. m. fem. INCHOATIF, gram. 1 inceptive, inchoative. 2 (substantif) inceptive verb.

INCIDEMENT, ang-se-dam-ang, adv. incidentally.

INCIDENCE, ang-se-dangs, sf. geom. nat. phil. incidence, incidency. Angle, point d'—, angle, point of incidence.

INCIDENT, ang-se-dang, sm. 1 incident. Un heureux — l'a tiré d'affaire, a fortunate incident extricated him from his embarrassment. 2 lit. incident. Des —s habilement ménagés, incidents skillfully brought about. 3 law. incident. 4 (chicanerie) difficulty. Il ne faut point sur cela faire d'—, we must not raise difficulties concerning that. Boss.

INCIDENT, adj. m. fem. —, 1 law. incidental, incident. 2 gram. incident.

3 optic. Rayon —, incident ray.

INCIDENTER, ang-se-dang-tay, vn. 1 law. to raise incidents. 2 fam. to raise difficulties. Ne cherchez point à — sur cette vérité, do not endeavour to raise difficulties concerning this truth. Boss.

INCINERATION, ang-se-nay-rab-syong, sf. chem. incineration.

INCINERER, ang-se-nay-ray, ra. J'INCINÈRE, to INCINERER, inc. chem. to incinerate.

INCIRCONCIS, ang-seer-kong-see, adj. m. fem. — E. 1 uncircumcised. 2 fig. rel. unmortified. 3 (substantif.) uncircumcised.

INCIRCONCISION, ang-seer-kong-se-syong, sf. fig. uncircumcision.

INCISE, ang-seez, sf. gram. incidental phrase.

INCISÉ, ppa. of INCISER, fem. — E. adjectif. bot. incise, cut.

INCISER, ang-se-zay, ra. (Lat. incidere, incisum) 1 to incise, to make an incision in. 2 hort. to tap (un arbre, a tree). 3 med. to resolve.

INCISIF, ang-se-zie, adj. m. fem. INCISIVE, 1 med. incisive, sharp. Remèdes — s., incisive remedies. (substantif.) Dents incisives, incisive teeth, cutters. (substantif.) Les incisives, incisive teeth, cutters. 3 fig. cutting. La prose incisive et perruque de Molière, the cutting, nervous prose of Molière. Th. Gaut.

INCISION, ang-se-zyong, sf. (Lat.) incision, incisure.

INCITANT, ang-se-lang, adj. m. fem. — E. 1 med. inciting. 2 (substantif.) stimulant.

INCITATION, ang-se-lab-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 incitation, incitement, inducement. Il a cédé à l'— d'autrui, he yielded to another's instigation. 2 med. incitation.

INCITE, ang-se-lay, ra. (Lat. incitare) to incite (to), to instigate, to urge on.

INCIVIL, ang-se-vil, adj. m. fem. — E. 1 uncivil, impolite. 2 (des manières, etc.) rude, etc., of manners, of actions, etc.) rude, impolite.

INCIVILEMENT, ang-se-vil-mang, adv. uncivilly, impolitely.

INCIVILITÉ, ang-se-ve-le-tay, sf. (Lat. incivilitas) 1 incivility. 2 (action, etc.) rudeness, impoliteness. Faire une — à quelqu'un, to behave rudely to a person. Il m'a fait toutes sortes d'—s, he has behaved uncivilly to me in every way.

INCIVIQUE, ang-se-vil, adj. mf. unpatriotic.

INCIVISME, ang-se-vism', sm. incivism.

INCLENCE, ang-klay-mang, sf. 1 inclemency, unmercifulness. 2 fig. (du temps, des saisons, of the weather, of the seasons) inclemency.

INCLEMENT, ang-klay-mang, adj. m. fem. — E. inclement, unmerciful. fig. Un ciel —, an inclement sky.

INCLINAISON, ang-kle-nay-zong, sf. (Lat.) 1 inclination. L'— du terrain facilite l'écoulement des eaux, the declivity of the land facilitates the drainage. 2 math. inclination.

INCLINANT, ang-kle-nang, adj. m. goom. Cadra —, incliner.

INCLINATION, ang-kle-nang-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 inclination, bow, stooping, stoop. Une — de tête, an inclination, a stooping of the head. Il se contentait de faire à coeux-ci une légère — de tête, he was satisfied with merely nodding to these. Le Sage. 2 about. Verser par —, to pour out by inclining. 3 fig. (peu-être) inclination, propensity. Avoir de l'— pour le plaisir, to have an inclination to pleasure. Je commençai à combattre mes —s et à vivre en garçon d'honneur, I began to resist my propensities and live like an honest man. Le Sage. Faire une chose contre son —, to do a thing against one's inclination. 4 fig. (affection) inclination, attachment. Avoir une — pour quelqu'un, to feel an attachment for a person. Mariage d'—, love-match. (by analogy) Avoir une —, to have an attachment. Je ne veux point forcer ton —, I will not force thy inclination. Mol. 5 fig. (personnalisée) passion, attachment. Cette demoiselle est son —, this young lady is his lady-love. N'auriez-vous point quelque secrète — avec qui vous souhaiiez que votre père vous mariât, have you not some secret lover you would like your father to marry you to? Mol. 6 (des choses, of things) passion, fancy. Le jeu est son —, his passion is gaming.

INCLINÉ, ppa. of INCLINER, fem. — E. inclined. Plan —, inclined plane. Se tenir —, to stand stooping.

INCLINER, ang-kle-nay, ra. (Lat. inclinare) 1 to incline. — un vase pour verser le liquide qu'il renferme, to incline a vase to pour out the liquid it contains. fig. Les joissances matérielles inclinent l'âme vers la mollesse, material pleasures incline the mind to effeminacy. Portal. fig. Le vent berçait et inclinait à rêver, the wind lulled, and inclined one to rêver. Did. 2 (courber) to bow, to stoop. — le corps, la tête, to incline, to bow the head, the body. fig. Un nom illustre m'incline volontiers, I willingly incline to an illustrious name. Lamart.

INCLINER, vn. 1 to incline, to lean. fig. La victoire incline de ce côté, the victory inclines to that side. 2 fig. to incline, to be inclined, to lean. — à un avis, poor on avis, to be inclined to follow an opinion. J'incline vers la campagne, not pour la campagne, mais pour la solitude, I am disposed to fire in the country, not for the sake of the country, but for the sake of solitude. Chat. 3 (de l'aiguille aimantée) to dip.

INCLINER, ppr. 1 to incline. 2 (se courber) to bow, to bend. S'— profondément devant quelqu'un, to bow down, to stoop down to the ground before a person. 3 absol. fig. to bow down. L'Asie entière s'inclinait devant ce conquérant, the whole of Asia bowed down before this conqueror.

INCLUS, ang-klu, adj. m. fem. — E. 1 enclosed. Ci —, herein inclosed. Le billet ci —, the note here inclosed. 2 absol. (substantif.) inclosed letter, inclosure.

INCLOSIVEMENT, ang-klu-ziv-mang, adv. inclusively, inclusively.

INCORCIBLE, ang-ko-ayr-sibl', adj. mf. incorerible.

INCORCITO, ang-ko-nye-to, adv. (It.) 1 incognito. 2 sm. incognito. Garder l'—, to preserve one's incognito.

INCORCERANCE, ang-ko-ayr-rang, sf. incoherence, incoherency. fig. L'— des idées, the incoherency of ideas.

INCORCERENT, ang-ko-ayr-rang, adj. m. fem. — E. incoherent, incoherently. fig. Ces idées sont —es, those ideas are incoherent.

INCOCLEUR, ang-ko-lor, adj. mf. colourless, uncoloured.

INCUMBER, ang-kong-bay, vn. (Lat. incumbere) to be incumbent (on), to be the duty of INCUMBUSTIBILITÉ, ang-kong-hus-te-be-lay, sf. incumbustibility, incumbustibility.

INCUMBUSTIBLE, ang-kong-hus-tibl', adj. mf. incumbustible.

INCUMENSURABILITÉ, ang-kom-mang-su-rab-e-le-tay, sf. incumensurability, incumensurableness.

INCUMENSURABLE, ang-kom-mang-su-rabl', adj. mf. goom. incumensurable.

INCUMMODE, ang-ko-mod, adj. mf. 1 incommodious, inconvenient, uncomfortable. 2 (qui cause) irksome, tiresome. Y a-t-il rien de plus — que le faste? can any thing be more irksome than pomp? J.-J. Rouss. 3 (importun) troublesome.

INCUMMODE, ppa. of INCUMMODER, fem. — E. adjectif. 1 disturbed, inconvenienced, troubled. 2 naot. Un bâtiment —, a ship in distress. 3 indisposed, unwell.

INCOMMODÉMENT, ang-ko-mod-ay-mang, adv. inconveniently, uncommodiously, uncomfortably, unhandily.

INCOMMODER, ang-ko-mod-ay, ra. (Lat. incommodare) 1 to inconvenience, to inconvenience, to discommode. J'ai peur de vous —, I am afraid of being troublesome. La moindre chose l'incommode, the least thing discommodes him. 2 (relativement à la fortune) to put to inconvenience, to put about. Cette dépense l'incommode, that outlay will inconvenience him. 3 (des choses, of things) to interrupt, to intercept. Il faut couper ces arbres qui incommode la vue du château, the trees which interrupt the view of the mansion must be cut down. 4 (rendre on peu malade) to render indisposed, unwell, to inconvenience. Ce petit excès m'a incommode, this little excess has rendered me unwell.

S'INCOMMODER, ppr. to put one's self to inconvenience. Est-ce la mode que l'on aille à l'aise et menier s'incommode? is it the fashion for the miller to put himself to inconvenience that his donkey may go at his ease? La Font. Il s'est beaucoup incommode par cette dépense, he has been put to great inconvenience by this expense.

INCOMMODITÉ, ang-ko-mo-de-tay, sf. 1 inconvenience, inconvenience, incommodiousness, incommodity. 2 (little used) (relativement à la fortune) embarrassment. 3 (indisposition) indisposition, infirmity, ailure. Le maréchal de Richelieu était encore plus vexé par ses —s que par son âge, Marshal de R.'s infirmities made him still older than he really was. Reiz. 4 naot. Signal d'—, signal of distress.

INCOMMUNICABLE, ang-ko-mu-ne-kabl', adj. mf. incommunicable.

INCOMMUTABILITÉ, ang-ko-mu-lab-e-le-tay, sf. law. incommutability, incommutableness.

INCOMMUTABLE, ang-ko-mu-labl', adj. mf. law. incommutable, not to be disposed of, incommutable.

INCOMPARABLE, ang-kong-par-ab', adj. mf. incomparable, peerless, matchless, unmatched. ironie. Il est —, he has not his match.

INCOMPARABLEMENT, ang-kong-par-ab-lub-mang, adv. incomparably, far beyond comparison. — plus grand, larger by far.

INCOMPATIBILITÉ, ang-kong-pat-be-le-tay, sf. 1 incompatibility, inconsistency. — d'humeur, incompatibility of temper. 2 (relativement aux fonctions publiques) incompatibility. (by analogy) Il y a — que le père et le fils soient juges dans le même tribunal, it is incompatible for a father and son to sit as judges in the same court.

INCOMPATIBLE, ang-kong-pat-ibl', adj. mf. incompatible, inconsistent.

INCOMPÉTENCE, ang-kong-pay-tah-mang, adv. incompetently.

INCOMPÉTENCE, ang-kong-pay-tang, sf. incompetency, incompetency.

INCOMPÉTENT, ang-kong-pay-lang, adj. m. fem. — E. 1 law. incompetent. 2 incompetent.

INCOMPLÉT, ang-kong-play, adj. m. fem. incomplet, 1 incomplete. 2 bot. Fleur incomplète, a flower wanting in certain organs.

INCOMPLÈTEMENT, ang-kong-playt-mang, adv. incompletely.

INCOMPLEXE, ang-kong-pleks, adj. mf. incomplex.

INCOMPRÉHENSIBILITÉ, ang-kong-pray-ang-se-be-le-tay, sf. incomprehensibility, incomprehensibility, inconceivableness.

INCOMPRÉHENSIBLE, ang-kong-pray-ang-sibl', adj. mf. 1 incomprehensible. 2 (d'une chose très-difficile à comprendre) incompréhensible. 3 (d'une personne dont on ne peut expliquer la conduite, etc.) inconceivable.

INCOMPRÉHENSIBLE, ang-kong-prays-se-be-le-tay, sf. incomprehensibility.

INCOMPRÉHENSIBLE, ang-kong-prays-sib'l, adj. mf. incomprehensible.

INCOMPRIS, ang-kong-prce, adj. m. fem. —E, neol. unapprehended.

INCONCEVABLE, ang-kongs-yabl', adj. mf. 1 inconceivable. 2 (hyperb.) incomprehensible.

INCONCILABLE, ang-kong-se-lyabl', adj. mf. 1 irreconcilable. 2 (des personnes, de personnes) irreconcilable.

INCONDUITE, ang-kong-düet, sf. misbehaviour, misconduct.

INCONGRU, ang-kong-grü, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 incongruous, unseemly, unbecoming, unsuitable. 2 gram. incongruous, ungrammatical. 3 (de ce qui n'est pas convenable) unbecoming. 4 (in joke) (des personnes, de personnes) uncomely.

INCONGRUITÉ, ang-kong-grü-e tay, sf. 1 gram. impropriety, incongruity. 2 (faute contre le bon sens) impropriety.

INCONGROMENT, ang-kong-grü-mäng, adv. incongruously, improperly.

INCONNU, ang-kö-nü, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 unknown. 2 (il ne vous est pas —, he is not unknown to you. Qui êtes-vous? me dit-il, you traits ne me sont pas —, who are you? said he, your features are not unknown to me. Le Sage. 2 math. Quantité —E, (substantiv.) —E, the unknown quantity. 3 (qu'on n'a pas encore éprouvé) unaccustomed. Éprouver un trouble —, to feel an unaccustomed perturbation.

INCONNU, sm. fem. —E, 1 unknown, unknown person. Une jeune —E, an unknown girl. 2 absol. L'—, the unknown. Aller du connu à l'—, to proceed from the known to the unknown.

INCONSEQUENCE, ang-kong-say-kängs, sf. 1 inconsistency. Tout peut se soutenir, excepté l'—, every thing can be defended, except inconsistency. Mirab. 2 chose que l'on dit, que l'on fait sans réflexion) inconsistent thing. Il fait toujours des —s, (he is always inconsistent with himself.

INCONSEQUENT, ang-kong-say-käng, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 inconsistent. Il était — dans sa pitié comme dans sa haine, he was as inconsistent in his pity as in his hatred. Lamart. 2 (by analogy) (des choses, de choses) inconsistent. Propos —s, inconsistent remarks. Cette femme est bien —E, this woman is very inconsistent. 3 (substantiv.) inconsistent man.

INCONSIDÉRATION, ang-kong-se-day-rab-syong, sf. inconsiderateness, inconsideration, incautiousness.

INCONSIDÉRABLE, ang-kong-se-day-ray, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 inconsiderate, thoughtless, heedless, incautious. 2 (by analogy) (des choses, de choses) inconsiderate. Action —E, thoughtless action. 3 (substantiv.) inconsiderate person.

INCONSIDÉRÉMENT, ang-kong-se-day-ray-mäng, adv. inconsiderately, thoughtlessly, heedlessly, incautiously.

INCONSISTANT, ang-kong-sis-täng, adj. m. fem. —E, inconsistent.

INCONSOLABLE, ang-kong-so-labl', adj. mf. inconsolable, inconsolable.

INCONSOLABLEMENT, ang-kong-so-lab-lab-mäng, adv. inconsolably, disconsolately.

INCONSTANT, ang-kongs-lab-mäng, adv. inconstantly, unsteadily.

INCONSTANCE, ang-kongs-tängs, sf. 1 inconstancy, unsteadiness, fickleness, mutability. 2 le tel n'aurait l'autre jour de l'— prodigieuse des Français sur leurs modes, I spoke to you the other day of the wonderful fickleness of the French in their fashions. Montesq. 3 (l'action de changer) inconstancy. 3 (des choses, of things) inconstancy, instability, variability. L'— des saisons, the inconstancy of the seasons. L'— du temps, the unsteadiness of the weather. L'— et la vanité des choses humaines, the instability and vanity of human affairs. Fixant de ses vœux l'— fatale, Phédre depuis longtemps ne craint plus de rival, fixing the fatal inconstancy of his wishes, for a long time past Phædra has not feared a rival. Rac.

INCONSTANT, ang-kongs-täng, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 constant, unsteady, fickle, mutable. 2 en amour, inconstant in love. Oh! combien l'homme est —! oh! how inconstant is man! La Font. 2 (des choses, of things) inconstant, unsteady, changeable. Toutes les choses d'ici-bas sont —es, all things here below are changeable. 3 (substantiv.) an inconsistent, a fickle person.

INCONSTITUTIONNALITÉ, ang-kongs-te-tü-syo-nal-e-tay, sf. neol. unconstitutionality. Thiers.

INCONSTITUTIONNEL, ang-kongs-te-tü-syo-nal, adj. m. fem. —LE, unconstitutional.

INCONSTITUTIONNELLEMENT, ang-kongs-te-tü-syo-nal-mäng, adv. unconstitutionally.

INCONTESTABLE, ang-kong-tays-tabl', adj. mf. incontestable, incontrovertible, unquestionable, indisputable.

INCONTESTABLEMENT, ang-kong-tays-tab-lab-mäng, adv. incontestably, indisputably, unquestionably.

INTESTÉ, ang-kong-tays-tay, adj. m. fem. —E, uncontested, unquestioned, undisputed.

INCONTINENCE, ang-kong-te-nängs, sf. 1 incontinence, incontinuity. 2 med. — d'urine, incontinuity of urine.

INCONTINENT, ang-kong-te-näng, adj. m. fem. —E, incontinent.

INCONTINENT, adv. forthwith, immediately, out of hand.

INCONVENANCE, ang-kong-vängs, sf. 1 impropriety, unbecomingness, indecorousness, unseemliness. 2 (action) impropriety, unseemly act. Quelle —! how very improper!

INCONVENANT, ang-kong-väng, adj. m. fem. —E, improper, unbecoming, unseemly, indecorous.

INCONVENIENT, ang-kong-vay-nyäng, sm. inconvenience, inconvenience. Il n'y a pas d'— à cela, there is no inconvenience in that. La colère offre cet —, passion offers this inconvenience. Je n'y vois, je n'y trouve pas d'—, I see no inconvenience in that. Cela va lui attirer de fâcheux —s, that will expose him to great inconveniences. L'esprit de conversation a quelquefois l'— d'altérer la sincérité du caractère, a turn for conversation has sometimes the disadvantage of diminishing the sincerity of the character. M. de Stael.

INCONVERTIBLE, ang-kong-vayr-tibl', adj. mf. unconvertible.

INCORPORALITÉ, ang-kor-po-ral-e-tay, sf. (Lat.) dogm. incorporeity.

INCORPORATION, ang-kor-po-rab-syong, sf. (Lat.) incorporation. L'— des pays conquis dans la république de Rome, the incorporation of the conquered countries into the Roman republic. Montesq.

INCORPOREL, ang-kor-po-ray, adj. m. fem. —LE, 1 incorporeal, incorporeal. 2 law. Les choses —es, incorporeal things.

INCORPORER, ang-kor-po-ray, va. (Lat.) incorporate. 1 to incorporate. — une substance avec une autre, to incorporate one substance with another. fig. Plusieurs des lois anciennes furent incorporées dans le nouveau code, several of the ancient laws were incorporated in the new code. 2 (de corps politiques, militaires) to embody. 3 (le pays, etc.) to annex.

INCORPORER, vpr. to incorporate, to become embodied. fig. Les richesses s'attachent et pour ainsi dire s'incorporent à notre cœur, riches cling to the heart, and are as if were incorporated with it. Boil.

INCORRECT, ang-kor-rekt, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 incorrect. 2 (d'un écrit, d'un écrit) inaccurate.

INCORRECTION, ang-kor-rek-syong, sf. 1 incorrectness. 2 (endroit incorrect) inaccuracy.

INCORRIGIBILITÉ, ang-kor-re-zhe-be-le-tay, sf. 1 incorrigibility, incorrigibility.

INCORRIGIBLE, ang-kor-re-zhibl', adj. mf. incorrigible.

INCORRUPTIBILITÉ, ang-kor-rüp-te-be-le-tay, sf. 1 incorruptibility, incorruptibility. 2 fig. incorruptibility. L'— de ce juge, the incorruptibility of this judge.

INCORRUPTIBLE, ang-kor-rüp-tibl', adj. mf. 1 incorruptible. 2 fig. incorruptible. 3 (Du juge —, an incorruptible judge. 4 Il était d'une probité —, he was of an incorruptible probity.

INCRASSANT, ang-kas-säng, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 med. incrasative. 2 sm. incrasative.

INCREDIBILITÉ, ang-kay-de-be-le-tay, sf. incredibility, incredibility.

INCREDULE, ang-kay-dü, adj. mf. 1 incredulous, unbelieving. 2 rel. unbelieving. Le matin — on est dévot le soir, unbelieving in the morning, one is devout in the evening. Andr. 3 (substantiv.) incredulous person, unbeliever.

INCREDULITE, ang-kay-dü-e-tay, sf. (Lat. incredulitas) 1 incredulity, incredulity, unbelief. 2 (manque de foi) unbelief.

INCŒRE, ang-kay-ray, adj. m. fem. —E, increate, increated, uncreated. La sagesse —E, the uncreated Word.

INCRIMINER, ang-kre-me-nay, va. to incriminate.

INCROYABLE, ang-kroöd-yabl', adj. mf. 1 incredible, past all belief. Cela me paraît —, that seems to me incredible. 2 (hyperb.) incredible. 3 (substantiv.) absol. incredible. 4 anc. (substantiv.) Un —, an incredible, a beau.

INCROYABLEMENT, ang-kroöd-yab-lab-mäng, adv. incredibly, beyond all belief.

INCROYANCE, ang-kroöd-yängs, sf. neol. unbelief, Chat.

INCRUSTATION, ang-krü-tah-syong, sf. 1 incrustation. 2 (de quelques corps lorsqu'ils séjournent dans l'eau) far, sediment.

INCŒSTE, ppa. of incruster, fem. —E, adjective, incruited, inlaid. fig. Caractère — d'une ambition extrême, a character made up of ambition. St-Sim.

INCŒSTER, ang-krü-tay, va. (Lat. incrustare) to incrust, to inlay (with).

INCŒSTER, vpr. 1 to be incruited, inlaid, fig. Dangeau s'incrustait des goûts de Louis XIV, the mind of D. had imbibed the tastes of Louis XIV. St-Sim. 2 (des choses qui adhèrent fortement à la surface d'une autre) to sur.

INCUBATION, ang-kü-bal-syong, sf. (Lat.) incubation.

INCUBE, ang-küb, sm. 1 incubus. 2 the nightmare.

INCULPABLE, ang-kül-pabl', adj. mf. (rare) chargeable. J.-J. Rouss.

INCULPATION, ang-kül-pah-syong, sf. crimination, accusation.

INCULPE, ang-kül-pay, ppa. of inculper, adjective, fem. —E, incupulated. 2 (substantiv.) L'—, the accused person. INCULPER, ang-kül-pay, va. to inculpate.

S'INCULPER, vpr. refl. to inculpate one's self. 2 recipr. to inculpate each other.

INCULQUER, ang-kül-kay, va. (Lat. inculcare) to inculcate, to impress.

S'INCULQUER, vpr. to be impressed. Les proverbes s'inculquent facilement dans la mémoire, proverbs impress themselves easily on the memory.

INCULTE, ang-kùt, adj. mf. 1 uncultivated, untilled, unploughed. 2 fig. unpolished, rude, uneducated. C'est domage de laisser son esprit —, it is a pity to leave his mind uneducated. Mme de Sév.

INCULTURE, ang-kùl-tùr, sf. inculture.

INCUNABLE, ang-kù-nab'l, adj. mf. Edition —, incunable edition.

INCURABILITÉ, ang-kù-rab-e-le-tay, sf. incurability.

INCURABLE, ang-kù-rab'l, adj. mf. 1 incurable. fig. Passion —, incurable passion. 2 (substantif.) incurable. 3 (by extension) Les —, (suspice) hospital for the incurable.

INCURIE, ang-kù-ree, sf. (Lat. incuria) carelessness, negligence, heedlessness. (by extension) Heureux qui voit couler ses jours dans la mollesse et l'—, happy he whose days glide away in indolence and indifference. Volt.

INCURIOSITÉ, ang-kù-ryo-zé-tay, sf. incuriosity.

INCURSION, ang-kùr-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 incursion, inroad. 2 (by extension) (voyage) excursion, expedition. Les —s de nos savants dans cette contrée, the expeditions of our scientific men to that country. fig. Il a fait quelques —s dans le domaine de la science, he has made some excursions in the domain of science.

INCUSE, ang-kù-z, adj. f. (Lat. incus) 1 sunk. 2 (substantif.) Une —, a medal struck in creux.

INDE, INDES, ang'l, sf. geog. India. Les —s orientales, the East Indies. Les —s occidentales, the West Indies. Coq d'—, turkey-cock. Poule d'—, turkey-hen. La Compagnie des —s, the East India Company.

INDE, sm. geog. (neuve) Indus.

INDE, sm. (bleu) indigo blue.

INDEBROUILLABLE, ang-day-broo-yabl', adj. mf. inextricable, that cannot be unravelled.

INDECEMENT, ang-day-sah-màng, adv. indecently.

INDECEANCE, ang-day-sàngs, sf. 1 indecency, immodesty, unseemliness, indecorum. 2 (action, parole) indecency.

INDECENT, ang-day-sàng, adj. m. fem. —, indecent, indecorous, unseemly.

INDECHIFFRABLE, ang-day-che-trabl', adj. mf. 1 undecipherable. 2 (by extension) (difficile à lire) undecipherable. 3 (embrouillé, etc.) inextricable, obscure, intricate. 4 fig. (des personnes, de personnes) incomprehensible, impenetrable. Il était — comme une énigme hiéroglyphique, he was as impenetrable as a hieroglyphical enigma. Balz.

INDECIS, ang-day-see, adj. m. fem. —, 1 undecided, undetermined, indecisive. Question —, undecided question. 2 (difficile à distinguer) uncertain, doubtful, indeterminate. Les traits de cette figure sont —, the features of this face are not sufficiently marked. fig. Les formes de son intelligence vagues et —, the vague and uncertain forms of his intelligence. 3 (douteux, incertain) doubtful. La victoire lui longtemps —, the victory was for a long time uncertain. 4 (irrésolu) irresolute, wavering, undecided. Je suis encore — sur ce que j'ai à faire, I am still uncertain as to what I have to do. Sa figure — attestait la fluctuation de ses idées, his irresolute countenance attested the fluctuation of his mind. Lamart.

INDECISION, ang-day-se-zyong, sf. indecision, irresolution. Être dans l'—, to be undecided.

INDECLINABILITÉ, ang-day-kle-nab-e-le-tay, sf. indeclinableness.

INDECLINABLE, ang-day-kle-uabl', adj. mf. indeclinable.

INDI-COMPOSABLE, ang-day-kong-po-zabl', adj. mf. indecomposable.

INDECROITABLE, ang-day-krot-abl',

adj. mf. 1 (rare) that cannot be brushed, cleaned. 2 fig. untractable, clownish.

INDEFECTIBILITÉ, ang-day-lek-e-be-le-tay, sf. indefectibility. L'infaillibilité et l'— de l'Eglise, the infallibility and indefectibility of the Church.

INDEFECTIBLE, ang-day-lek-teeb'l', adj. m. indefectible.

INDEFINI, ang-day-le-nee, adj. m. fem. —, 1 indefinite. Espace, nombre —, indefinite space, number. L'homme tend à une perfection —, man aims at unlimited perfection. Chal. 2 gram. indéfinie. Prétérit, passé —, perfect tense.

INDEFINIMENT, ang-day-le-ne-màng, adv. indefinitely.

INDEFINISSABLE, ang-day-le-ne-sabl', 1 adj. mf. indefinable, undefinable. 2 fig. (des choses, de things) Une sensation —, an indefinable sensation. 3 fig. (des personnes, de persons) indéfinable. De toutes les femmes, les Parisiennes sont les plus —, of all women those of Paris are the most undefinable. Balz.

INDELEBLE, ang-day-lay-bil, adj. mf. indelible. fig. Le baptême imprime on caractère —, baptism impresses an indelible character.

INDELIBÉRÉ, ang-day-le-bay-ray, adj. m. fem. —, edeliberate.

INDELICAT, ang-day-le-kah, adj. m. fem. —, edelicate. Cela est très — de sa part, it is very indelicate of him, of her.

INDELICATEMENT, ang-day-le-kat-màng, adv. indelicately.

INDELICATESSE, ang-day-le-kat-ays, sf. 1 delicacy. 2 (procédé indelicat) indelicacy. Une paille — est impardonnable, such indelicacy is unpardonable.

INDEMNÉ, ang-denn, adj. mf. (Lat.) indemniifié. Reudre quelqu'un —, to indemnify a person.

INDEMNISER, ang-denn-ne-zay, ra. to indemnify (for), to make good. Il faut l'— des pertes qu'il a souffertes, he must be indemnified for the losses he has sustained. fig. Son dévouement m'indemnise de tous mes soins, his devotedness compensates me for all my care.

S'INDEMNISER, vpr. to indemnify one's self.

INDEMNITÉ, ang-dayn-ne-tay, sf. (Lat.) indemnity. — de route, travelling-expenses, marching-allowance.

INDEPENDANCE, ang-day-pàng-dàng, adv. 1 independently. 2 outre, par-dessus) beyond, in addition to. — de ces deux variétés, it is in addition to these two varieties. Balz. 3 independently. there are others. Balz. 4 qui pourra vous en arriver, independently of what may be the result for you.

INDEPENDANCE, ang-day-pàng-dàngs, sf. 1 independency, independence (of). Vitre dans l'—, to live independent. 2 (des nations, of nations) independence. 3 Le goût de l'—, the taste for independence. Un esprit d'—, a spirit of independence.

INDEPENDANT, ang-day-pàng-dàng, adj. m. fem. —, independent. L'âme d'Esop se maintint toujours libre et — de la fortune. Esop always preserved his mind free and independent of fortune. (des choses qui n'ont point de rapport avec une autre) independent of. 3 absolu. —. Une âme libre et —, a free and independent life. 4 (qui a une indépendance de personne) independent. Esprit —, an independent mind. 5 sm. hist. Independent.

INDES, sf. pl. See INDE.

INDESCRIPTE, ang-days-krip-tibl', adj. mf. indescribable.

INDESTRUCTIBILITÉ, ang-days-trük-te-be-le-tay, sf. indestructibility.

INDESTRUCTIBLE, ang-days-trük-tibl', adj. mf. indestructible.

INDETERMINATION, ang-day-tayr-me-nab-syong, sf. indeterminateness.

INDETERMINÉ, ang-day-tayr-me-nay, adj. m. fem. —, 1 indeterminate. Le nombre —, an indeterminate number. 2 fig. absol. (irrésolu) irresolute. 3 math. Problèmes —es, indeterminate problems. Quantités —es, indeterminate quantities.

INDETERMINEMENT, ang-day-tayr-me-nay-màng, adv. indeterminately.

INDEVOT, ang-day-vo, adj. m. fem. —, 1 indervot. 2 (du ton, des manières, of the ton, the manners) irreverent. Parler d'un ton —, to speak irreverently. 3 (substantif.) Indevotul person.

INDEVOTEMENT, ang-day-vot-màng, adv. indervotul.

INDEVOIATION, ang-day-vo-syong, sf. indevoation.

INDEX, ang-déks, sm. (Lat.) 1 index. L'— d'un livre, index. 2 (à Rome) — expurgatoire, index expurgatory. fig. Mettre une chose à l'—, to forbid, to interdict, a thing. 3 (doigt) index, forefinger. (adjectif.) Le doigt —, index. 4 mech. index. Plaque à —, index-plate.

INDICATEUR, ang-de-kat-nhr, sm. (Lat. indicator) 1 indicator, informer. 2 (l'index) index. (adjectif.) Le doigt —, the forefinger. 3 mech. indicator. — de niveau, floating gauge. 4 (titre de certains ouvrages) guide. — des chemins de fer, railway line tables.

INDICATIF, ang-de-kat-if, sm. (Lat. indicativus) 1 gram. indicative. Mettre à l'—, to put in the indicative. 2 (adjectif.) Le mode —, the indicative mood.

INDICATION, ang-de-kah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 indication, information. Sur son —, by his information. 2 (renseignement) indication. 3 (ce qui indique quelque chose) sign, indication, mark. 4 med. indication.

INDICE, ang-diss, sm. (Lat. indicium) 1 indication, token, sign, mark. Léger —, slight token, mark. C'est un signe de mort, it is a sign of death. Les juges regardent ce — comme une certitude, the judges consider this presumptive evidence as a certainty. Volt. 2 naut. landmark. 3 (little used) index.

INDICIBLE, ang-de-sibl', adj. mf. unspeakable, unutterable, inexpressible.

INDICTION, ang-dik-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 convocation (d'un concile, d'un synode, of a council, of a synod). 2 chronol. indiction.

INDIEN, ang-dyang, adj. and sm. fem. —, Indian.

INDIENNE, ang-dyayn, sf. printed calico, chintz.

INDIFFEREMENT, ang-de-fay-rah-màng, adv. 1 indifferently, with indifference. 2 (sans distinction) indifferently, equally. Le coq chante — la nuit et le jour, the cock crows by day and by night indifferently. Bull.

INDIFFERENCE, ang-de-fay-ràngs, sf. (Lat. indifferentia) 1 indifference, unconcern, unconcernedness, recklessness. On s'élève — à la ville dans une — grossière des choses rurales, the inhabitants of cities grow up in gross indifference of rural things. La Bruy. — en matière de religion, indifference in religious matters. 2 (d'une personne qui n'est point sensible à l'amour) indifference. Etre, vivre dans l'—, to be, to live in a state of indifference. Il ne la voit pas avec —, he does not look upon her with indifference.

INDIFFÉRENT, ang-de-fay-ràng, adj. m. fem. —, 1 indifferent, immaterial. Tout ce qui n'intéresse pas la personne morale est —, whatever does not concern man as a moral being is indifferent. Cous. 2 (dont on ne se soucie point) immaterial. Cela m'est —, I don't care, that is immaterial to me, it is no object to me. 3 de peu d'intérêt) without interest. Nous en parlons que de choses —, we are talking only of things of no interest. 4 (qui n'a pas plus de penchant pour une cause que pour une autre indifférent. 5 (qui n'est point touché de quelque chose) indifferently, unconcerned. Il reste — à tout ce qui se passe, he is unconcerned at all that is going on. Prendre un air —, to assume a look of unconcern. 6 absol. indifférent. 7 (qui n'est pas sensible à l'amour) indifferently, cold. Vous avez trop aimé pour ne pas devenir —, you have loved too much not to grow indifferently. J.-J. Rousse. 8 (substantif) indifferently person.

INDIGENCE, ang-de-zhangs, sf. (Lat. indigentia) 1 indigence, neediness, want. Être dans l'—, to live in indigence, to be in neediness. 2 absol. (les indigents) the indigent, the needy. Secourir l'—, to relieve the indigent. 3 fg. poverty. — d'idées, poverty of ideas.

INDIGÈNE, ang-de-zhang, adj. mf. 1 indigenous, native. 2 (substantif) indigene, native.

INDIGENT, ang-de-zhang, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 indigent, needy, poor. 2 fg. poor. D'une doctrine —e balt on culte — comme elle, from a stunted doctrine spring forth forms of worship not less stunted. Lamen. 3 sm. indigent person. Les —s, the indigent, the needy.

INDIGESTE, ang-de-zhest, adj. mf. 1 indigestible. 2 (non digéré) undigested. 3 fg. (des ouvrages d'esprit) indigested, undigested, crude.

INDIGESTION, ang-de-zhangs-tyong, sf. (Lat. indigestio). Se donner une —, to get an indigestion.

INDIGÈTE, ang-de-zhayt, adj. mf. of the country.

INDIGNATION, ang-de-nyah-syong, sf. (Lat. indignation). Être rempli d'—, to be full of indignation.

INDIGNE, ang-de-nyuh, adj. mf. (Lat. indignus) 1 unworthy, indignant. Je serais — de sa faveur, I should be undeserving of his favour. — de vivre, unworthy to live. Corn. Toute autre place qu'on trône eût été — d'elle, any place but a throne would have been unworthy of her. Boss. Une faute — de pardon, a fault unworthy of pardon. 2 law. disqualified. (substantif.) Les enfants de l'—, the children of the person disqualified. 3 (titre que l'on se donne par humilité) Un tel, capucin —, Such-a-one, unworthy capuchin. 4 (qui n'est pas seant) unworthy. Une telle conduite est — d'un homme d'honneur, such conduct is unworthy of a man of honour. 5 absol. worthless, shameful, vile, mean, infamous. Traiter d'une manière —, to treat with indignity. C'est une conduite —, such conduct is infamous. La peur avait glacé mes —s soldats, fear had chilled the blood of my life soldiers. Rac. 6 (substantif) unworthy person, worthless wretch.

INDIGNE, pp. of INDIGNER, fem. —E, adjective. Indignant. Elle en fut —E, she was indignant at it. Le Turc, — qu'on osât violer la trêve, the Turk, indignant that they should dare to break the truce. Vol.

INDIGNEMENT, ang-de-nyuh-mang, sf. unworthiness, shamefulness, wretchedly, infamously.

INDIGNER, ang-de-nyah, va. (Lat. indignari) to revolt, to rouse the indignation of, to make, to render indignant.

INDIGNER, rpr. to be indignant, to be angry with, to be exasperated. Il s'indignait et s'indignait que la majesté royale put encourir de si grossiers affronts, he was astonished and indignant that royal majesty could be exposed to such insults. Guiz.

INDIGNITÉ, ang-de-nye-tay, sf. (Lat. indignitas) 1 unworthiness, worthlessness. L'— du pécheur, the unworthiness of the sinner. 2 (merchandise) baseness. L'— de cette action, the baseness of that action. 3 (action indigne) insult, indignity. Commettre, faire des —s, to commit an indignity. C'est une —, it is an indignity. 4 (affront) indignity, affront, contumely. On lui a fait mille —s, a thousand contumelies were heaped upon him. Je n'ai mérité ni cet excès d'honneur, ni cette —, I deserved neither this excessive honour nor this indignity. Rac.

INDIGO, ang-de-go, sm. 1 indigo. 2 bot. indigo-plant. 3 (by extension) (colour) indigo colour.

INDIGOTERIE, ang-de-got-ree, sf. indigo-manufactory.

INDIGOTIER, ang-de-go-tyay, sm. bot. indigo-plant, indigo-tree. — des lodes, East Indian indigo.

INDIQUE, pp. of INDIGUER, fem. —E, appointed, indicated. Au lien —, at the appointed place. À l'heure —E, at the appointed hour.

INDIGUER, ang-de-lay, va. (Lat. indicare) 1 to indicate, to point, to point to, to show. — do doigt, to point out. 2 (faire connaître) to indicate, to inform of, to direct. Il nous a indiqué votre maison, he directed us to your house. Indiquez-lui son avocat, direct him to a good barrister. 3 (assigner) to appoint, to indicate. — les causes d'un phénomène, to show the causes of a phenomenon. — une assemblée, to appoint a meeting. 4 (être l'indice) to indicate, to be indicative of, to betoken, to bespeak. La fumée indique le feu, there is no smoke without fire. 5 fine arts. to indicate. 6 fg. (by analogy) (des ouvrages d'esprit) to describe. 7 med. to indicate. La prostration des forces indique les stimulants, prostration of strength indicates the use of stimulants.

INDIRECT, ang-de-rekt, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 indirect. fg. Critique —E, an indirect criticism. Avis —, indirect warning. 2 gram. Régime —, indirect regimen. 3 law. Avantage —, indirect advantage. 4 Contributions —es, the excise, indirect taxes.

INDIRECTEMENT, ang-de-rek-tuh-mang, adv. fg. indirectly.

INDISCIPLINABLE, ang-de-se-ple-nab, adj. mf. indisciplineable.

INDISCIPLINE, ang-de-se-pleen, sf. indiscipline.

INDISCIPLINÉ, ang-de-se-ple-nay, adj. m. fem. —E, undisciplined.

INDISCRÉT, ang-dis-kray, adj. m. fem. indiscreet, 1 indiscreet, inconsiderate. Le Français est plutôt — que coulant, a Frenchman is often indiscreet rarely confiding. Ray. 2 (des choses, of things) indiscreet. Des paroles indiscrettes, inconsiderate language. Curiosité indiscrette, indiscreet curiosity. 3 (qui ne sait point garder le secret) indiscreet. Un amant —, an indiscreet lover. Des regards —s, tell-tale eyes. 4 sm. indiscreet person, tattler, tell-tale.

INDISCRÈTEMENT, ang-dis-krayt-mang, adv. indiscreetly, inconsiderately.

INDISCRÉTION, ang-dis-kray-syong, sf. 1 inconsiderateness. Ne serait-ce point une — de vous demander quelle peut être votre affaire? might I, without indiscretion, ask you what is your business? Mol. 2 (action indiscrette) indiscretion. Faire une —, des —s, to commit an indiscretion, indiscretions.

INDISPENSABLE, ang-dis-jang-sab, adj. mf. 1 indispensable. Affaire —, an indispensable affair. 2 (nécessaire) indispensable. L'air et l'eau sont —s à la vie de l'homme, air and water are indispensable to the life of man.

INDISPENSABLE, sm. anc. (petit sac) reticule.

INDISPENSABLEMENT, ang-dis-pang-sab-tuh-mang, adv. indispensably.

INDISPONIBLE, ang-dis-po-nib, adj. mf. that cannot be disposed of.

INDISPOSÉ, pp. of INDISPOSER, adjective. m. fem. —E, indisposed, unwell.

INDISPOSER, ang-dis-po-zay, va. 1 to indi pose (against, towards), to make disinclined (towards). 2 to render, to make indisposed, unwell.

INDISPOSITION, ang-dis-po-ze-syong, sf. 1 (incommodité légère) indisposition. 2 (little used) (disposition peu favorable) indisposition, dislike.

INDISSOLUBILITÉ, ang-de-so-lù-be-le-tay, sf. indissolubility, indissolubleness. L'— d'un engagement, the indissolubility of an engagement.

INDISSOLUBLE, ang-de-so-lù-bi, adj. mf. indissoluble. fg. Union —, indissoluble union.

INDISSOUBLEMENT, ang-de-so-lù-biuh-mang, adv. indissolubly.

INDISTINCT, ang-dis-tangk, adj. m. fem. —E, indistinct.

INDISTINCTEMENT, ang-dis-tangk-tuh-mang, adv. 1 indistinctly. 2 (sans distinction) indistinctly, indiscriminately, promiscuously.

INDIVIDU, ang-de-ve-dù, sm. (Lat. individuum) 1 individual. Le genre, l'espèce et l'—, the genus, the species, and the individual. 2 (des personnes, of persons) individual. Le caractère dominant de l'—, the prevailing characteristic of barbarity is the independence of the individual. Guiz. 3 (disparagingly) fellow. fam. C'est un — qui m'a déjà trompé, that fellow has already deceived me. 4 (in joke) Avoir soin de son —, to take care of number one.

INDIVIDUALISER, ang-de-ve-dù-al-e-zay, va. to individualise, to individualize.

INDIVIDUALISME, ang-de-ve-dù-al-ism, sm. individualism.

INDIVIDUALITÉ, ang-de-ve-dù-al-e-tay, sf. individuality. La prédominance de l'—, the predominance of individuality. Guiz.

INDIVIDUEL, ang-de-ve-dù-ai, adj. m. fem. —LE, 1 individual. 2 (qui concerne chaque personne, ou une seule personne) individual. Traités des garanties —es, a treatise on individual guarantees. Les pétitions adressées aux chambres doivent être —es et non collectives, the petitions presented to the houses of Parliament must be individual, and not collective.

INDIVIDUELLEMENT, ang-de-ve-dù-ai-mang, adv. 1 individually. 2 (chacun en particulier) individually.

INDIVIS, ang-de-vee, adj. m. fem. —E, undivided. Propriétaire —s, parcener, joint-tenant.

PAR INDIVIS, adv. loc. undivided, jointly.

INDIVISEMENT, ang-de-ve-zay-mang, adv. law. in parcenary, pro indiviso.

INDIVISIBILITÉ, ang-de-ve-ze-le-le-tay, sf. indivisibility.

INDIVISIBLE, ang-de-ve-zib, adj. mf. indivisible.

INDIVISIBLEMENT, ang-de-ve-ze-luh-mang, adv. indivisibly.

INDIVISION, ang-de-ve-zyong, sf. law. parcenary, joint-tenancy.

INDOCILE, ang-do-sil, adj. mf. 1 indocile, unteachable. Un caractère, un esprit —, an indocile character, spirit. — à son joug, fatigued de ta loi, intractable to thy rule, weary of thy law. Rac.

INDOCILITÉ, ang-do-se-le-tay, sf. indocility, indocibleness.

INDO-EUROPÉEN, ang-do-uh-ro-payang, adj. m. fem. —NE, Indo-European.

INDOLEMMENT, ang-do-lah-mang, adv. indolently.

INDOLLENCE, ang-do-langs, sf. (Lat. indolentia) 1 indolence, laziness, sloth, sluggishness. Cet enfant est d'une — qui désespère, the indolence of this child is disheartening. 2 (caractère, état d'une personne indifférente) indolence. On prend souvent l'— pour la patience, indolence is often mistaken for patience. Retz.

INDOLENT, ang-do-lang, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 indolent, sluggish, slothful, lazy. 2 (indifférent) unimpassionable. 3 med. indolent. 4 (substantif) indolent, slothful person. fam. lagger.

INDOMPTABLE, ang-dong-tabi, adj.

indomitable, untamable. 2 fig. inamable, unmanagable, ungovernable. us on sort de la dépendance, plus ou moins passions —, the less dependent we are, the more ungovernable we render our passions. Boss.

INDOUMPTÉ, ang-dong-tay, adj. m. fem. —E, 4 untamed. 3 (surieux) wild. Ou taurau —, a wild bull. 3 fig. untamed, unsubdued, unbroke, unconquered. Le Parthe —, the unsubdued Parthian. Rac. Un courage — fait on les grands héros ou les grands criminels, unsubdued courage makes men either great heroes or great criminals. Volt.

INDOSTAN, ang-dos-tang, m. geog. Hindostan.

INDOU, ang-doo, sm. geog. Hindoo.

INDU, ang-dû, adj. m. fem. —E, undue, unreasonable. Il débuta par quelques excès sur l'œuvre — e de sa visite, he began by apologizing for the unreasonable hour of his visit. Merim.

INDUBITABLE, ang-dû-be-tabl', adj. mf. indubitable, beyond doubt.

INDUBITABLEMENT, ang-dû-be-tab-luh-mang, adv. undoubtedly, indubitably.

INDUCTIF, ang-dûk-tif, adj. m. fem. inductive, inductive.

INDUCTION, ang-dûk-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 (little used) instigation, inducement. 2 log. induction, implication. Raisonnement par —, to argue by implication. 3 (consequence) induction. Tirer une — d'une proposition, to draw an inference, an induction from a proposition. 4 nat. phil. induction. Électricité par —, induced electricity.

INDUIRE, ang-dûer, va. conj. like CONDUIRE, (Lat. inducere) 1 to induce, to incite, to prevail on. Aucun succès ne l'a jamais induit à ne pas tenter de mieux faire, no success ever induced him not to attempt to do better. Vite! — en erreur, to err, to lead astray, to mislead. 2 (conclusion, infer) to infer, to draw an inference from.

INDULGENCE, ang-dûl-zhôngs, sf. (Lat. indulgentia) 1 indulgence, allowance. Avoir de l'— pour quelqu'un, to have indulgence, to make an allowance for a person. Le fond de l'amour c'est l'—, c'est le pardon, the basis of love is indulgence and forgiveness. V. Hug. Je crois pouvoir compter sur votre —, I think I can rely upon your indulgence. 2 cath. rel. indulgence. — plénier, plenary indulgence. fig. Gagner, mériter les —s, les —s pléniers, to deserve plenary indulgences.

INDULGENT, ang-dûl-zhông, adj. m. fem. —E, indulgent. Un père —, an indulgent father. Chacun est toujours — pour soi-même, every one is ever indulgent to himself. Boil. Mur-le —E, indulgent morals.

INDULT, ang-dûlt, sm. (Lat. indultum) insult, insult.

INDULTAIRE, ang-dûl-tayr, sm. who has the power of presenting to benefices.

INDUMENT, ang-dû-mang, adv. unduly, unlawfully.

INDURATION, ang-dû-rab-syong, sf. med. induration.

INDUSIE, ang-dû-zee, sf. bot. indusium.

INDUSTRIALISME, ang-dûs-tre-yal-ism', sm. industrialism.

INDUSTRIE, ang-dûs-tree, sf. (Lat. industria) 1 skill, ingenuity, dexterity. Il n'a pas assez d'— pour en venir à bout, he has not skill enough to perform that. In Quiconque s'est senti un peu d'— à embrasser les métiers de brodeur, de ciseleur, whoever felt he had a little ingenuity became an embroiderer, an engraver, etc. Volt. (in a bad part) Vivre d'—, to live by one's wits. fig. Chevalier d'—, swindler, shark. 2 (profession mécanique, mercantile) trade. Cette petite — lui donne de quoi subsister, that little business enables him to gain a livelihood. 3 (arts, mécaniques et manufactures en général) arts and manufactures, trade and manufactures, industry. L'— française, French trade and manufactures. L'— est la conquête de la nature, arts and manufactures are the conquest of nature. Mich. Exposition des produits de l'—, exhibition of manufactured articles, exhibition. Palais de l'—, Exhibition building.

INDUSTRIEL, ang-dûs-tre-yal, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 industrial, manufacturing, manufacturing. Les arts —s, industrial, mechanical arts. École —le, technological institution. Enseignement —, polytechnic institution. 2 (qui provient de l'industrie) of arts and manufactures. 3 (substantif) manufacturer.

INDUSTRIEUSEMENT, ang-dûs-tre-yuh-mang, adv. ingeniously, skilfully.

INDUSTRIEUX, ang-dûs-tre-yuh, adj. m. fem. industriouse, ingenious, clever.

INDUTS, ang-dû, sm. pl. (Lat. indutus) cath. rel. indut.

INDUVIE, ang-dû-vee, sf. bot. induvie.

INÉBRANABLE, e-nay-brang-labl', adj. mf. 1 invariable, unshaken. 2 fig. (constant) unshaken, immovable, steady, resolute. 3 (qu'on ne peut faire changer de dessein, etc.) immovable. Now part est pris, je suis —, my resolution is taken, I am immovable. 4 fig. (morally) fixed. Sa résolution est —, his resolution is fixed.

INÉBRANABLEMENT, e-nay-brang-lab-luh-mang, adv. immovably, steadily, resolutely.

INÉDIT, e-nay-dee, adj. m. fem. —E, inédit, unpublished.

INEFFABILITÉ, e-nay-fab-e-le-tay, sf. ineffableness, unspeakableness.

INEFFABLE, e-nay-fabl', adj. mf. ineffable, unspeakable, unutterable.

INEFFABLEMENT, e-nay-fab-luh-mang, adv. ineffably, unspeakably.

INEFFACABLE, e-nay-fas-sabl', adj. mf. indelible, ineffaceable. fig. Un souvenir —, an ineffaceable recollection.

INEFFICACE, e-nay-fe-kas, adj. mf. inefficient, ineffective, inefficacious, ineffectual, unavailing.

INEFFICACITÉ, e-nay-fe-kas-e-tay, sf. inefficiency, inefficiency, ineffectualness, unavailableness.

INEGAL, e-nay-gal, adj. m. fem. —E, pl. m. INÉGAL, 4 unequal. Ces deux tours sont —es en hauteur, those two towers are of unequal height. 2 fig. Deux personnes de condition —E, Two persons of unequal position. 3 (rude) uneven, rough. 4 (qui n'est pas uniforme) irregular. Marcher d'un pas —, to walk with an uncertain step. fig. Conduite avec un —, the play of that actor is very variable. 5 fig. (des personnes, of persons) of an uncertain, wavering disposition. Ou homme — n'est pas un seul homme, ce sont plusieurs, a man of an uneven, wavering temper is not one man, but several. La Bruy. Écrivain —, unequal writer.

INÉGALÉMENT, e-nay-gal-mang, adv. unequally, unevenly.

INÉGALITÉ, e-nay-gal-e-tay, sf. 4 inequality. L'— de deux figures, the inequality of two figures. — d'âge, inequality of age. fig. Avoir de l'— dans le caractère, to be uneven-tempered. Tout le monde sait à quel point chez les Anglais la liberté politique s'accorde avec —s sociales, every body knows that in England political liberty is compatible with social inequalities. Aop. — de style, d'esprit, d'humeur, inequality of style, of wit, of humour, 2 (irregularity) unevenness, inequality. Les —s d'un terrain, the unevenness of ground. fig. Son style est plein d'—s, his style is very unequal. Il y a quelque chose de piquant dans les —s des femmes, there is something piquant in the unevenness of a woman's temper. St-Evr.

INÉLEGANCE, e-nay-lay-gangs, sf. inelegance, inelegancy.

INÉLEGANT, e-nay-lay-gang, adj. m. fem. —E, inelegant.

INÉLIGIBILITÉ, e-nay-le-zhe-be-le-tay, sf. ineligibility.

INÉLIGIBLE, e-nay-le-zhibl', adj. mf. ineligibile.

INÉNARRABLE, e-nay-nar-abl', adj. mf. unutterable, unspeakable.

INEPTE, e-nept, adj. mf. (Lat. ineptus) 1 inept, unfit, unapt, unsuitable. 2 (sot, absurde) silly, foolish, dull.

INEPTIE, e-nep-see, sf. (Lat. ineptia) 1 silliness, folly. 2 folly, foolishness. Il ne débute que des —s, he talks but nonsense.

INEPUISABLE, e-nay-pûe-zabl', adj. mf. inexhaustible, (by extension) Cette mine est —, this mine is inexhaustible. fig. Cet homme a on fonds de science —, that man has an inexhaustible fund of science.

INERME, e-nayrm, adj. mf. bot. inermous, inerm.

INERTE, e-nayrt, adj. mf. (Lat. iners) 1 inert. La matière —, inert matter. 2 fig. inert, sluggish, dull.

INERTIE, e-nayr-see, sf. (Lat. inertia) 1 inertia, inertness. Force d'—, vis inertia. Il rencontre dans la nation une force d'— qui neutralisa toutes ses mesures, the inertness he encountered in the nation neutralized all his measures. 2 fig. inertness, sluggishness. Cette incroyable —, that incredible inertness that produces self-neglect. Buff.

INESPÉRÉ, e-nays-pay-ray, adj. m. fem. —E, un hoped for, unexpected.

INESPÉRÉMENT, e-nays-pay-ray-mang, adv. beyond all hopes, unexpectedly.

INESTIMABLE, e-nays-te-mabl', adj. mf. inestimable, invaluable, priceless.

INEVITABLE, e-nay-ve-tabl', adj. mf. inevitable, unavoidable, unshuntable. La mort est —, death is inevitable. Buff.

INEVITABLEMENT, e-nay-ve-tab-luh-mang, adv. inevitably, unavoidably.

INEXACT, e-nayg-zakt, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 inexact, inaccurate, incorrect. Calcul —, inaccurate calculation. 2 (des personnes, of persons) incorrect. Copiste —, an incorrect copyist.

INEXACTEMENT, e-nayg-zak-tuh-mang, adv. inaccurately, incorrectly.

INEXACTITUDE, e-nayg-zak-te-tûd, sf. 1 inexactness, incorrectness, inaccuracy. Il est d'une grande — à remplir ses devoirs, he is of great inexactness in the performance of his duties. 2 (fautes, errors) inaccuracy.

INEXCUSABLE, e-neks-kû-zabl', adj. mf. 1 unjustifiable, undefensible, unwarrantable. 2 (des personnes, of persons) inexcusable.

INEXÉCUTABLE, e-nayg-zay-kû-tabl', adj. mf. impracticable, unachievable, infeasible, inexecutable.

INEXÉCUTION, e-nayg-zay-kû-syong, sf. inexecution, non-performance.

INEXERGÉ, e-nayg-zayr-say, adj. m. fem. —E, inexercised.

INEXIGIBLE, e-nayg-ze-zhibl', adj. mf. not due, undue.

INEXORABLE, e-nayg-zo-rabl', adj. mf. inexorable, unrelenting, relentless, unyielding. Le rigide et — ministre de la justice, the rigid and inexorable minister of justice. Boss. — à votre roi et à tous vos plus tendres amis? neither the entreaties of your king nor those of your dearest friends can move you? Féa. Une — sévérité, an inexorable severity.

INEXORABLEMENT, e-nayg-zo-rab-luh-mang, adv. inexorably.

INEXPIÉRIENCE, e-neks-pay-ryangs, sf. inexperience. L'— du monde est cause de bien des fautes, inexperience of the world is the cause of many faults. L'E-et d'innocence et d'—, the state of innocence and inexperience. B. de St-P.

INEXPERIMENTÉ, e-neks-pay-ré-mang-tay, adj. m. fem. — E, inexperienced, unpractised, unskilled, inexperienced.

INEXPABLE, e-neks-pyall, adj. mf. — merisable, untonable.

INEXPLICABLE, e-neks-ple-kahl, adj. mf. 4 inexplicable, unaccountable. 2 (étrange) inexplicable, incomprehensible. Sa conduite est —, his conduct is inexplicable.

INEXPLORE, e-neks-plo-ray, adj. m. fem. — E, unexplored, unsearched. Les régions —es du cœur de l'Australie, the unexplored regions in the interior of Australia. Ph. Chas.

INEXPLOISABLE, e-neks-plo-zibl, adj. mf. inexplosive.

INEXPRIMABLE, e-neks-pre-mahl, adj. mf. inexpressible, unspeakable, unutterable.

INEXPUABLE, e-neks-pug-nahl, adj. mf. inexpugnable, impregnable. Une chaîne de fer — fermait l'entrée du port de Byzance, an impassable iron chain closed the entrance of the harbour of Byzantium. Villem.

INEXTENSIBLE, e-neks-tang-sibl, adj. mf. not extendible, not extensible.

INEXTINGIBLE, e-neks-tang-guehl, adj. mf. inextinguishable, unquenchable, unquenched. fig. Soif —, unquenchable thirst. fig. Rire —, irrepressible laughter.

INEXTRICABLE, e-neks-tre-kabl, adj. mf. inextricable.

INEXTRICABLEMENT, e-neks-tre-kab-luh-mang, adv. inextricably.

INFAILLIBILITÉ, ang-fah-ye-he-le-tay, sf. 1 infallibility, infallibleness. 2 (impossibilité d'erreur) unfallingness.

INFAILLIBLE, ang-fah-yeehl, adj. mf. 1 infallible, unerring. Tu cours à la perte —, thou rushest to thy infallible destruction. Rac. 2 (qui ne peut errer) infallible. C'est du goût — arbitre, he is an infallible arbiter of taste. C. Del.

INFAILLIBLEMENT, ang-fah-ye-hluh-mang, adv. infallibly, unerringly.

INFAISABLE, ang-fah-zabl, adj. mf. unfeasible.

INFAMANT, ang-fah-mang, adj. m. fem. — E, infamous, infamous.

INFAMATION, ang-fah-mah-syong, sf. (Lat.) anc. crim. law. infamy.

INFAME, ang-fah, adj. mf. (Lat. infamia) 1 infamous. Il y a des châtiements qui rendent —s, there are chastisements which render one infamous. 2 (honteux) infamous. Action —, infamous action. La flatterie est un commerce — entre la bassesse et la vanité, flattery is an infamous commerce between baseness and vanity. Maim. 3 (hyperb.) (malpropre, sale) filthy, nasty. Un taudis —, a squallid dog-hole. 4 (substantif) infamous wretch, infamous person.

INFAMIE, ang-fah-mee, sf. (Lat. infamia) 1 infamy. Note d'—, infamous stain. Note d'—, to brand with infamy. L'— de la personne peut faire juger de l'— de la chose, the infamy of the person enables us to judge of the infamy of the thing. Montesq. 2 (d'une chose infame) infamy. 3 (action vile) infamy, scandalous action. 4 —s, pl. (paroles injurieuses) infamous things, contumelies. Dire mille —s à quelqu'un, to call a person scandalous names.

INFANT, ang-fang, sm. (Sp.) infante.

INFANTE, ang-fang, sf. (Sp.) 1 infanta. 2 fam. ironic queen, beauty. Vous voilà princesse, — de ma vie! here you are princess, queen of my heart! Rén. 3 (in a bad part) Il m'est ordonné d'arrêter ces —s, I have an order to arrest these women. Le Sage.

INFANTERIE, ang-fang-tee, sf. (It. infanteria) mil. infantry. foot. — légère, light infantry. — de ligne, infantry of the line. Fusil d'—, firelock, musket. Sabre d'—, infantry-sword, pike's sword. Un soldat d'—, a foot soldier. Vingt mille hommes d'—, twenty thousand foot, bayonets. Officier d'—, officer of foot. Régiment d'—, infantry-regiment.

INFANTICIDE, ang-fang-te-seed, sm. (Lat. infanticidium) 1 infanticide, child-murder. 2 (persone) infanticide. 3 (adjectif) infanticidal. Une mère —, an infanticidal mother.

INFATIGABLE, ang-fat-e-gahl, adj. mf. indefatigable, unwearyed, untiring. Un homme —, an indefatigable man. Il s'occupait avec un zèle — de tout ce qui était nécessaire, he was unwearyed in attending to every thing necessary.

INFATIGABLEMENT, ang-fat-e-gahl-luh-mang, adv. indefatigably, unwearyedly.

INFATUATION, ang-fah-tü-ab-syong, sf. infatuation.

INFATUE, ppa. of INFATUE, fem. — E, infatuated, infatuated.

INFATUER, ang-fah-tü-ay, va. (Lat.) to infatuate (with).

INFATUEUR, rpr. to become infatuated (with), to dote (on, upon).

INFECOND, ang-fay-koug, adj. m. fem. — E, barren, infecund, infertile, unfruitful. fig. Esprit —, barren mind.

INFECONDITÉ, ang-fay-koug-de-tay, sf. infecundity, barrenness, unfruitfulness.

INFECT, ang-fekt, adj. m. fem. — E, infectious, tainted, foul, stinking. Haleine — e, foul breath.

INFECTÉ, ppa. of INFECTER, fem. — E, infected, tainted (with). L'air en est —, the very air is polluted by it. Rac.

INFECTER, ang-fek-tay, va. (Lat. inficere, infectum) to infect, to corrupt. Ce marais infecte l'air, that marsh infects the air. Toute source infectée infecte ses ruisseaux, an infected source infects the streams flowing from it. Rac. fig. L'intérêt et la vanité m'ont jamais infecté son cœur, interest and vanity have never corrupted his heart. Mass.

INFECTER, rpr. to become infectious, infected.

INFECTION, ang-fek-syong, sf. 1 infection, stench, stink. 2 (corruption) infection. Les maladies produites par —, the diseases caused by infection.

INFÉODATION, ang-fay-o-dah-syong, sf. anc. inféodation, enf. offment.

INFÉODÉ, ppa. of INFÉODER, fem. — E, 4 anc. enfeoffed. Dîmes —es, impropriated tithes. 2 fig. inlured. Être — to procure, to govern, to be a mere tool of government.

INFÉODER, ang-fay-o-day, va. anc. to enfeoff.

INFÉODER, rpr. fig. to enfeoff, to inlure one's self.

INFÉRÉ, ang-fay-ray, va. l'INFÉRÉ, TO INFÉRÉ, IL INFÈRE, ILS INFÈRENT, (Lat. inferre) to infer (from), to deduce, to conclude (from).

INFÉRIEUR, ang-fay-ryuhr, adj. m. fem. — E, 4 inferior, lower, nether. Les membres —s, the lower members. The nether limbs. La partie —e d'un édifice, the lower part of a building. La mâchoire —e, the lower jaw. Lèvre —e, underlip. 2 anc. geog. Lower. La Germanie —e, Lower Germany. La mer —e, the Tuscan sea. Département de la Seine-Inferieure, de la Loire-Inferieure. D. partement of the Lower Seine, of the Lower Loire. (clippé.) La Seine-Inferieure, la Loire-Inferieure, the Lower Seine, the Lower Loire. 3 fig. inferior, lower. Cet écrivain est quelquefois — à lui-même, this author is sometimes inferior to himself. Les eunuques étaient —s en infanterie, the enemy's infantry was inferior to ours. Nous les regardons comme d'un ordre — au nôtre, we consider them of an inferior order to our own. Boss. 4 (des choses, de things) inferior. Ces marchandises sont d'une qualité fort —e, these goods are of a very inferior quality. Son mérite est

— au vôtre, his merit is beneath your own. Tribunal —, inferior court. 5 (dans un collège, in a school) Classe —e, lower form. 6 (substantif) inferior. Evier quelcon, c'est s'avouer son —, to enter a person is to acknowledge one's self to be his inferior. Les —s doivent respect aux supérieurs, inferiors owe respect to their superiors.

INFÉRIEUREMENT, ang-fay-ryuhr-mang, adv. below.

INFÉRIORITÉ, ang-fay-ryo-re-tay, sf. inferiority. L'— du nombre, inferiority in number. — de rang, de talents, inferiority of rank, of talents.

INFERNAL, ang-fay-ral, adj. m. fem. — E, 4 infernal. Esprit —, infernal spirit. 2 fig. (qui annonce beaucoup de méchanceté) infernal, hellish. Complot —, hellish plot. Machine —e, infernal machine. 3 fig. (d'un grand bruit, of a great noise) infernal, tremendous. Un bruit —, an infernal noise. 4 chem. Pierre —e, caustic stone.

INFERTILE, ang-fay-til, adj. mf. 4 infertile, barren. 2 fig. unfruitful, barren.

INFERTILITÉ, ang-fay-te-le-tay, sf. infertility, barrenness, unfruitfulness.

INFESTER, ang-fay-tay, va. (Lat. infestare) to infest (with), to harass, to plague. Les brigands infestaient les grandes routes, the roads were infested with bands of highwaymen (by extension) Les souris infestent cette maison, that house is swarming with mice. Les mauvaises herbes infestent nos champs, our fields are overrun with weeds.

INFIDÈLE, ang-fay-day, adj. mf. 1 disloyal, faithless, unfaithful. Un ami —, an unfaithful friend. Être — à sa parole, not to be faithful to one's word. Elle dit comment il devint —, she related how he came to desert her. Fior. Il faut se croire aimé pour se croire —, a person must think he is loved to think himself unfaithful. Rac. 2 (d'un employé, etc., of functionaries, etc.) unfaithful. 3 fig. (des choses, of things) faithless, deceitful, treacherous. La fortune lui devint —, fortune left him. 4 (iuxact) unfaithful, inaccurate. Un rapport —, an inexact account. Une glace —, an unfaithful mirror. Portrait —, unfaithful likeness. Avoir une mémoire —, to have a treacherous memory. 5 (qui n'a pas la vraie foi) infidel, unbeliever.

INFIDÈLE, s. mf. 1 faithless man, woman, faithless person. J'ai été absent dix-huit mois, il m'en faut pas tant pour faire one —, I have been away for eighteen months, which is more than sufficient time to make a woman faithless. Camp. 2 (qui n'a pas la vraie foi) infidel.

INFIDÈLEMENT, ang-fay-day-mang, adv. 1 faithlessly, unfaithfully. 2 (inexactement) inaccurately, untruly.

INFIDÉLITÉ, ang-fay-day-le-tay, sf. 4 faithlessness, unfaithfulness, infidelity. 2 (manque d'exactitude, de vérité) faithlessness, deceitfulness. L'— d'un traducteur, d'un récit, d'un historien, the inaccuracy of a translator, of an account, of an historian. L'— de la mémoire, the unfaithfulness of memory. 3 (inexactitudes) inaccuracy. Il y a beaucoup d'—s dans ce livre, there are many inexact things, inaccuracies in this book. 4 (acte d'infidélité) infidelity, unfaithfulness. Les femmes qui aiment pardonner sont plus aisément les grandes inidécisions than little infidelities. La Rochef. Ce domestique a commis des —s, that servant has been guilty of a breach of trust. 5 (état de ceux qui ne sont pas dans la vraie religion) infidelity.

INFILTRATION, ang-fil-trah-syong, sf. 1 infiltration. 2 med. infiltration.

INFILTRÉ, ppa. of INFILTRER, adj. m. fem. — E, med. infiltrated, infiltrated.

INFILTRER, ang-fil-tray, vpr. 1 to infiltrate. 2 med. to infiltrate, to diffuse itself.

INFINE, ang-fim, adj. mf. lowest, meanest, basest.

INFINITE, ang-fe-me-tay, sf. neol. nothingness, nihilty, baseness. L'— des conditions, the baseness of conditions. A. Dum.

INFINI, ang-fe-nee, adj. m. fem. —, 1 infinite, boundless, unbounded. La bonté de Dieu est —, the goodness of God is infinite. 2 (by extension) infinite, endless. Un espace —, une durée —, an infinite space, an endless duration. 3 (qui ne doit point avoir de fin) infinite. La gloire — est des élus, the infinite glory of the elect. 4 (hyperb.) (très-considérable) infinite. Je l'ai attendu un temps —, I waited for him an immense time. 5 (inoubliable) infinite, numberless. Je vous ai des obligations —es, I am infinitely obliged to you. Il y avait un monde — dans cette assemblée, there was a vast crowd of people at that assembly.

INFINI, sm. 1 infinite, infinite. L'homme est un néant à l'égard de l'—, man is nothing compared to infinity. Pasc. 2 math. infinite quantity.

À L'INFINI, loc. adv. infinitely, ad infinitum, without end, endlessly.

INFINIMENT, ang-fe-ne-mang, adv. 1 infinitely, without end. 2 (extrêmement) infinitely, immensely. Les — petits ont un orgueil — grand, the more insignificant people are, the greater is their pride. Volt. 3 math. Quantité — petite, infinitely small quantity.

INFINITÉ, ang-fe-ne-tay, sf. 1 infinity, infiniteness, infinitude. 2 (un très-grand nombre) infinity, infinite number, a world. Une — de gens, a host of people. Une — d'accidents peuvent toujours tarir quelques sources de la condamnation de Paris, an infinity of accidents may at any time obstruct the sources whence Paris derives the commodities it consumes. Fonten.

INFINITESIMAL, ang-fe-ne-tay-ze-mal, adj. m. fem. —, infinitesimal. Calcul — infinitesimal calculus.

INFINITIF, ang-fe-ne-tif, sm. (Lat.) 1 gram. infinitive mood, infinitive. Mettre à l'—, to put in the infinitive mood. 2 (adjectif.) gram. Le mode —, the infinitive mood.

INFIRMATIF, ang-feer-mat-if, adj. fem. INFIRMATIVE, (Lat.) infirmative, annulling, making void.

INFIRME, ang-feerm, adj. mf. 1 infirm, feeble, frail, weak. 2 (substantif.) infirm person. 3 fig. feeble-minded. Le péché a rendu l'homme —, sin has rendered man infirm of mind.

INFIRMER, ang-feer-may, v. 1 to invalidate, to annul. — une preuve, an témoignage, to invalidate a proof, an evidence. 2 law. — un jugement, une décision, to reverse a judgment, a sentence.

INFIRMERIE, ang-feerm-ree, sf. infirmary, hospital. Salle d'—, ward of an infirmary.

INFIRMIER, ang-feer-may, sm. fem. infirmier, nurse.

INFIRMITÉ, ang-feer-me-tay, sf. 1 infirmity. 2 fig. infirmity, failing. Faisons au moins l'aveu de son —, let us at least acknowledge his failing. Boil.

INFLAMMABLE, ang-flah-mabl', adj. mf. inflammable, combustible. Gaz —, inflammable gas.

INFLAMMATION, ang-flah-mah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 inflammation. 2 fig. inflammation. 3 med. — da poumon, etc., inflammation of the lungs, etc.

INFLAMMATOIRE, ang-flah-mat-oat', adj. mf. inflaming, inflammatory.

INFLECTI, ppa. of INFLECTIR, fem. —, E, inflected.

INFLECTIR, ang-flay-sheer, vo. optif. to inflect.

INFLECTIR, vpr. nat. pbil. to be inflected, to bend.

INFLEXIBILITÉ, ang-flek-se-be-le-tay, sf. inflexibility, inflexibleness. fig. L'— de son caractère, the inflexibility of his character.

INFLEXIBLE, ang-flek-sibl', adj. mf. 1 inflexible, unbending. L'éléphant a le cou court et presque —, the neck of the elephant is short and almost inflexible. Buff. 2 fig. inflexible. — aux prières, inflexible to entreaties. Une constance —, inflexible constancy.

INFLEXIBLEMENT, ang-flek-se-blh-nang, adj. inflexibly.

INFLEXION, ang-flek-syong, sf. 1 inflection, bending. 2 optif. inflection. Point d'—, point of inflection. 3 (dans la voix) inflection, modulation. Le corbeau a un grand nombre d'—s de voix, the raven has a great many modulations of voice. Buff.

INFLIGER, ang-fe-zhay, va. NOTS INFLIGEONS, L'INFLIGEA, to inflict, to impose, — une amende à quelqu'un, to fine a person, to impose, to set a fine on a person. Le juge prononce les peines que la loi inflige, the judge pronounces the penalties that the law inflicts. Montesq.

INFLIGER, vpr. to impose on one's self.

INFLORESCENCE, ang-flor-ays-sangs, sf. bot. inflorescence.

INFLUENCE, ang-flu-ang-sy, sf. (Lat. influentia) 1 influence. Les animaux éprouvent comme l'homme les —s du ciel et de la terre, animals feel like men the influence of the sky and earth. Buff. L'— da langage sur les idées, the influence of the language on the ideas. L'— des passions, the influence of the passions. 2 (autorité) influence, sway, bias. Avoir une grande — sur quelqu'un, to possess great influence over a person; to go a great way with a person. Il exerceit sur eux une — bien supérieure à celle de leur famille, he possessed far greater influence over them than their own family did. Balz.

INFLUENCER, ang-flu-ang-say, vo. NONS INFLUENÇONS, L'INFLUENÇAIS, (Lat.) to influence, to sway, to bias. Il s'est laissé — par eux, he suffered himself to be influenced by them.

INFLUENT, ang-flu-ang, adj. m. fem. —, influential. Des personnes —es, influential characters.

INFLUENZA, ayo -dd-aynd-zah, sf. (It.) med influenza.

INFLUER, ang-flu-ay, vn. (Lat. influo) 1 to influence, to have an influence (on, upon, over). fig. L'électricité influe sur la végétation, electricity exercises an influence on vegetation. fig. Les premières habitudes influent même sur les animaux, early habits have an influence even upon animals. B. de St-P. 2 (des personnes, of persons) to have influence. Un tel influe beaucoup dans la détermination que l'on a pris, the influence of Such-a-one has great weight in the resolution taken.

INFORMATION, ang-for-mah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 law. inquiry, inquest, information. 2 (recherches pour s'assurer d'une chose) inquiry. Aller aux —s, prendre des —s, to make inquiries about.

INFORME, ang-form, adj. mf. 1 shapeless, rude, formless. Les sauvages n'ont pour demeures que des huttes —s, savages have only rude huts for habitations. Port. fig. Des essais —s, rude essays. 2 law. informal.

INFORMÉ, ppa. of INFORMER, fem. —, informed, apprized, aware. Mal —, misinformed, uninformed. Nous en avons été —s, we have had notice of it.

INFORMÉ, sm. law. inquiry, investigation. Après plus ample —, after further inquiry. Renvoyer une affaire jusqu'à plus ample —, to remand a case for further inquiry; to adjourn a cause in order to obtain further evidence.

INFORMER, ang-for-may, va. (Lat. informare) to inform, to apprize of, to acquaint with, to make known to.

INFORMER, vn. law. to inform, to institute an inquiry, to take an information, to take an inquest.

S'INFORMER, vpr. to inquire about, after, to ask for, after. Je m'en suis informé, I inquired about it. Vous êtes-vous informé de sa santé? have you inquired how he, she is? M'étant informé après de quelques voyageurs dignes de lui, having inquired of certain travellers worthy of credit. Buff.

INFORTUNE, ang-for-tun, sf. (Lat. infortunium) 1 misfortune, infelicity, unhappiness. 2 (revers de fortune) misfortune. J'envisage les —s d'une si grande reine, I consider the misfortunes of so great a queen. Boss.

INFORTUNE, ang-for-tu-nay, adj. m. fem. —, 1 unfortunate, unhappy, unlucky, wretched. 2 (substantif.) miserable wretch, wretched, poor person.

INFRACTEUR, ang-frok-tuhr, sm. infractor, infringer.

INFRACTION, ang-frok-syong, sf. (Lat.) infraction, infringement.

INFRACTIONNABLE, ang-frang-she-sabl', adj. mf. insuperable.

INFRACTUEUSEMENT, ang-frok-tu-uhz-mang, adv. fruitlessly, unfruitfully, unprofitably.

INFRACTUEUX, ang-frok-tu-uh, adj. m. fem. INFRACTUEUX, 1 unfruitful. 2 fig. fruitless, unfruitful, ineffectual, unavailing, bootless. La négociation fut infructueuse, the negotiation was fruitless. Beaum.

INFUS, ang-fu, adj. m. fem. —, E, (Lat. infusus) inborn, innate. ironic. fam. Il croit avoir la science —, he fancies he was born with learning.

INFUSER, ang-fu-zay, va. (Lat. infundere) to infuse, to steep. — à froid, à chaud, to make a cold, a warm infusion.

S'INFUSER, vpr. to become infused, to infuse. (elliptic.) Laisser infuser le thé, to let the tea draw. Faire infuser, to infuse.

INFUSIBLE, ang-fu-zibl', adj. mf. infusible.

INFUSION, ang-fu-zyong, sf. (Lat.) 1 infusion. 2 (liqueur) infusion. Une — de camomille, an infusion of camomile. 3 (de certaines qualités surnaturelles) infusion.

INFUSOIRES, ang-fu-zoot', sm. pl. 1 nat. hist. infusoria, infusories. 2 (adjectif.) Vers —s, infusory animalcules.

INGAMBE, ang-gangb', adj. mf. (It.) nimble, brisk, light-footed.

S'INGENER, ang-zhay-nyuh, vpr. (from Lat. ingenium) to contrive, to set one's wits to work. C'est surtout à la guerre qu'il faut s'—, it is in war especially that we need invention. Nod.

INGENIEUR, ang-zhay-nyuh, sm. engineer.

INGENIEUR, militaire, military engineer. — civil, civil engineer. — géographe, topographical engineer. — de la marine, naval engineer. — mécanicien, machinist. — des mines, mining engineer. — des ponts et chaussées, engineer for bridges and roads. L'art de l'—, engineering.

INGENIEUSEMENT, ang-zhay-nyuhz-mang, adv. ingeniously, cleverly.

INGENIEUX, ang-zhay-nyuh, adj. m. fem. INGENIEUX, 1 ingenious, clever. 2 (des choses, of things) ingenious, shrewd, witty, happy. Cette comparaison est ingénieuse, this is an ingenious comparison. 3 (qui met de l'adresse à se faire quelque chose) ingenious. — à se tourmenter, ingenious in the art of self-tormenting. Les fermiers étaient devenus tous les jours plus — à soustraire leurs dents, the farmers had grown every day more ingenious in withholding their provisions. Thiers.

INGENU, ang-zhay-mé, adj. m. fem. — E, ingenious, candid, artless.

INGÈNE, em. fem. — E, 1 ingenious person. Une — e, an artless maiden. Elle était bonne actrice et pour telle connue; c'est de là que lui vient ce maintien d'— e, she was a good actress and celebrated as such; hence her assumption of artlessness. E. Aug. 2 (theatre) Jongleres — es, to play the parts of artless girls. 3 Rom. law. (né de parents libres) ingenious, free man.

INGÈNÛTÉ, ang-zhay-née-tay, sf. (Lat. ingenuitas) 1 ingenuousness, frankness, fairness. 2 — s, pl. (theatre) parts of artless girls.

INGÈNEMENT, ang-zhay-né-mang, adv. 1 ingenuously, artlessly. 2 (franchement) openly, frankly.

INGÈRENCE, ang-zhay-rang, sf. (from ingere) meddling, interference.

S'INGÈRER, ang-zhay-ray, vpr. 3^e INGÈRE, il s'INGÈRE, (Lat. ingere) to meddle, to interfere, to tamper (with). Qu'il ne s'ingère pas d'oser écrire encore des lettres, let him not presume to write any more letters. Mol.

INGESTION, ang-zhay-syong, sf. med. ingestion.

INGOUVERNABLE, ang-goo-vayr-nab', adj. mf. unrulable, ungovernable. Une — malice, an uncontrollable spirit of malice. Villem.

INGRAT, ang-grah, adj. m. fem. — E, 1 ungrateful, unthankful, thankless, ingrate. Jehu d'un ouhul trop — a payé les bienfaits, Jehu requited kind acts with too ungrateful a forgetfulness. Rac. 2 fig. ungrateful, barren, unproductive. Terre — e, ungrateful land. Ils ont semé leur grain en terre — e, they have sown their seed in an ungrateful soil. Boss. Étude — e, unproductive study. Travail — e, ungrateful work. 3 lit. unpromising, barren, very poor. Le vers — e ne peut tout exprimer, it is not in stubborn verse to render all. Andr. 4 (substantif), ingrate, ungrateful, unthankful, thankless person, ungrateful wretch, ungrateful fellow.

INGRATITUDE, ang-grat-e-lôd, sf. ingratitude, unthankfulness, thanklessness. Trait, acte d'— piece of ingratitude. Payer d'— to repay with ingratitude. L'— est la mère de tout vice, ingratitude is the mother of every vice. La Font.

INGRÉDIENT, ang-gray-dyàng, sm. (Lat. ingrediens) ingredient.

INGRIE, ang-gree, sf. geog. Inghia.

INGÉRISSEABLE, ang-gay-re-sab', adj. mf. incurable.

INGÉRAL, ang-gée-nal, adj. m. fem. — E, (Lat. ingenuus) avat. inguinal.

INGURGITER, ang-gür-zhe-tay, ra. (Lat. ingurgitare) to ingurgitate, to ingulph.

S'INGURGITER, vpr. to ingurgitate.

INHABILE, e-nab-el, adj. mf. 1 unskilled, unpractised. Riches — s à tout, vides de sens commun, rich people unfit for anything whatever, void of common sense. Mol. 2 law. unqualified, incompetent. — a tester, unqualified to make a will.

INHABILETÉ, e-nab-il-tay, sf. unskillfulness, inability, incompetency, unfitness, unfitness for.

INHABILITÉ, e-nab-e-lr-tay, sf. law. unfitness, incapacity, disability, non-ability (for).

INHABITABLE, e-nab-e-tabl', adj. mf. uninhabitable.

INHABITE, e-nab-e-tay, adj. fem. — E, uninhabited, tenanted.

INHALANT, e-nal-ang, adj. m. fem. — E, physiol. inhaling.

INHALATION, e-nal-ab-syong, sf. (Lat.) physiol. inhalation.

INHALER, e-nal-ay, va. to inhale.

INHARMONIE, e-nar-mo-nee, sf. want of harmony, inharmony.

INHARMONIEUX, e-nar-mo-nyuh, adj. m. fem. inharmonious, inharmonious.

INHARMONIEUSEMENT, e-nar-mo-nyuh-mang, adv. inharmoniously.

INHERENCE, e-nay-rang, sf. inherence, inherency.

INHERENT, e-nay-rang, adj. m. fem. — E, Lat. inherent.

INHIBER, e-ne-bay, va. (Lat.) law. to inhibit, to forbid.

INHIBITION, e-ne-be-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 law. inhibition. 2 et défense sont faites à toutes personnes, all persons are inhibited and forbidden.

INHOSPITALIER, e-nos-pe-tal-ray, adj. m. fem. inhospitalier, inhospitable.

La façon inhospitalière, dont on l'avait reçu, the inhospitable manner in which he had been received. Volt. Terre inhospitalière, an inhospitable country.

INHOSPITALITÉ, e-nos-pe-tal-e-tay, sf. inhospitality, unhospitalableness.

INHUMAIN, e-nô-mang, adj. m. fem. — E, inhuman, cruel. fac. Beauté — e, cruel beauty.

INHUMAINE, sf. cruel woman, cruel fair one.

INHUMAINEMENT, e-nô-mayn-mang, adv. inhumanly.

INIMICITÉ, e-nô-man-e-tay, sf. 1 inhumanity. Il y a de l'— a cela, that is rather cruel. 2 (acte inhumain) act of inhumanity.

INHUMATION, e-nô-mab-syong, sf. inhumation, interment, burial. Aucune — ne sera faite sans une autorisation de l'officier de l'état civil, no interment shall take place without the authorization of a public officer.

INHUMER, e-nô-may, va. (Lat. inhumer) to inhumate, to inter, to bury.

IMAGINABLE, e-ne-mab-e-nab', adj. mf. 1 imaginable, unimaginable. 2 (substantif) C'est pour moi le comble de l'— que cette monstrueuse ignorance, this gross ignorance passes my comprehension. Jacq.

IMITABLE, e-ne-me-tabl', adj. mf. imitable.

INIMITÉ, e-ne-me-tyay, sf. (Lat. inimicitia) 1 enmity, ill-will, aversion, antipathy. 2 (by extension) (des animaux, of animals) aversion.

ININTELLIGIBLE, e-nang-tay-le-zbihi', adj. mf. unintelligible.

INIQUE, e-nik, adj. mf. (Lat.) iniquitous, unrighteous.

INIQUEMENT, e-nik-mang, adv. iniquitously.

INIQUETÉ, e-ne-ke-tay, sf. 1 iniquity, unrighteousness. 2 (acte d'injustice) iniquity, piece of iniquity. Commettre des — s, to commit iniquities. Il était venu tout exprès à Paris pour consumer son — e, he had come to Paris on purpose to consummate his iniquity. Vol. 3 (la corruption des mœurs) iniquity, wickedness. L'— du siècle, the wickedness of the age. 4 — s, pl. iniquities. N'entrez-tu que la voix de nos — s? dost thou hear but the voice of our iniquities? Rac. 5 fig. scrip. Boire l'— comme l'eau, to drink in iniquity like water.

INITIAL, e-ne-syal, adj. m. fem. — E, 1 initial. 2 nat. phil. Vitesse — e, initial velocity.

INITIALE, sf. initial. Mettre ses — s, to put one's initials, to initiat.

INITIATEUR, e-ne-syat-ur, sm. fem. INITIATEUR, neol. apostle, instructor. La république est l'initiatrice des peuples, a republic imparts education to the nations. V. Hug.

INITIATION, e-ne-syah-syong, sf. (Lat.) initiation.

INITIATIVE, e-ne-syat-iv, sf. 1 initiative. Prendre l'— to, to take the initiative, to be the first to do a thing. 2 (droit de faire le premier certaines propositions) initiative. Droit d'— right of initiative.

INITIÉ, e-ne-syay, ra. nous INITIIONS, vous INITIEZ, (Lat. initiare) 1 to initiate.

— quelqu'un aux mystères, to initiate a person into the mysteries. 2 (by extension) (d'une religion quelconque) to initiate.

— quelqu'un dans une compagnie, dans une société, to initiate a person into a corporation, into a society. 3 fig. (mettre au fait) to initiate. La nature semblait l'avoir initié à ses secrets, nature seemed to have initiated him into her secrets.

INJECTER, ang-zhay-tay, va. (Lat. injectare) 1 to inject. 2 anat. to inject.

S'INJECTER, vpr. to be injected.

INJECTION, ang-zhay-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 injection. 2 (liquide) injection. 3 tech. injection, jet. 4 Troir à — injection slide Robinet d'— injection cock. 4 anat. injection.

INJONCTION, ang-zhongk-syong, sf. (Lat.) injunction. Faire une — a quelqu'un, to enjoin a person, to lay an injunction on a person. Il fut nommé à un commandement de place, avec — expresse de se rendre sur-le-champ à son poste, he was appointed to command a fortress, with strict injunctions to repair to his post immediately. Didi.

INJOCABLE, ang-zhuo-abl', adj. mf. that cannot be played, acted. Volt.

INJURE, ang-zhur, sf. (Lat. injuria) 1 injury, wrong, mischief. Réparer une — to, to repair an injury. Faire — to, to wrong, to offer injury to. Plus l'offenseur est cher, plus on ressent l'— the de la peine de l'offenseur, the more the insult is felt. Rac. Vous ne lui feriez pas l'— de le croire capable d'une telle action; pourquoi lui faire l'— de le soupçonner? you would not do him the injury to believe he is capable of such an action, why then do you do him the injury to suspect him? Féa. Faire une — a quelqu'un, to insult a person. 2 fig. L'— à temps, les — à temps, de l'air, des saisons, the inclemency of the weather, of the air, of the seasons. Ma santé, si robuste contre les fatigues et les — s de l'air, ne peut résister aux intempéries des passions, my health so strong against fatigues and the inclemencies of the weather, cannot stand the destructive workings of the passions. J.-J. Rousse. L'— à temps, l'— à temps, the wear and tear of time. Les — s du sort, the sorrows of fortune. 3 (parole offensante) insult, high word, abuse. Charger d'— s, to load with abuse. Dire des — s à quelqu'un, to abuse a person, to call a person names. Dire, se dire de grosses — s, to insult grossly a person, to abuse grossly each other.

INJURIER, ang-zhu-ryay, ra. nous INJURIONS, vous INJURIEZ, (Lat. injuriari) to abuse, to revile.

S'INJURIER, vpr. recipr. to abuse, to revile each other.

INJURIEUSEMENT, ang-zhu-ryabz-mang, adv. insultingly, injuriously, revilingly, abusively.

INJURIEUX, ang-zhu-ryuh, adj. fem. INJURIEUX, 1 injurious, insulting, abusive. Un discours — an abusive speech. 2 fig. poetic. injurious, wrongful, hurtful.

INJUSTE, ang-zhust, adj. mf. 1 unjust, wrongful. Une fausse justice — et cruelle! how unjust and cruel is justice! Marm. 2 (contraire à la justice, etc.) unjust. 3 (substantif) unjust man. 4 (substantif) absol. wrong. La distinction du juste et de l'— the, the distinction between right and wrong.

INJUSTEMENT, ang-zhus-luh-mang, adv. unjustly, wrongfully.

INJUSTICE, ang-zhus-tiss, sf. 1 injustice, wrong-doing. 2 (acte d'injustice) injustice, act of injustice, unjust deed. Commettre une — envers quelqu'un, to wrong, to do an injustice to a person. Ils crièrent qu'on leur faisait —, they complained loudly of being treated with injustice. Volt.

INISIBILE, ang-le-zib'l. See ILLISIBLE.

IN NATURALIBUS. See NATURALIBUS.

INNAVIGABLE, in-nav-e-gabl', adj. inavigable.

INNÉ, in-nay, adj. m. fem. —E, innate, inborn, inbred. Idées —es, innate ideas. Le désir — du bien-être, the natural desire of comfort.

INNVATION, in-nay-vab-syong, sf. physiol. innervation.

INNOCENCEMENT, e-no-sah-mang, adv. 1 innocently, harmlessly, innocently, innocently. Le plus — do moins, as innocently as possible. 2 (naïvement) sillily, foolishly. Il vint — raconter la sottise qu'il avait faite, he sillily came and related the foolish thing he had done.

INNOCENCE, e-no-sangs, sf. (Lat. innocentia) 1 innocence, guiltlessness, innocence. On a reconnu son —, they have acknowledged his innocence. 2 (état, qualité) innocence. Adam fut créé dans un état d'—, Adam was created in a state of innocence. Avec son air d'— elle n'a trompé, she took me in with her innocent looks. L'— de la colombe, the innocence of the dove. L'âge d'—, the age of innocence. fig. rel. La robe d'—, the robe of innocence. fig. Dépouiller sa robe d'—, to lose one's innocence. 3 (trop grande simplicité) innocence, artlessness, silliness. Il est d'une grande —, he is very innocent, very artless.

INNOCENT, e-no-sang, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 innocent, guiltless, not guilty. Il est — da crime dont on l'accuse, he is innocent of the crime with which he is charged. (substantif.) Condamner l'—, to condemn the innocent. 2 (qui ne veut point d'une mauvaise intention) guiltless. C'est une action fort —e, it is a very guiltless action. 3 (cadiode) innocent. Quel nombreux essaim d'—es heautes! what a numerous swarm of innocent beauties! Rac. C'est une âme —e, un cœur —, he is an innocent soul, heart. (substantif.) Une jeune —e, an innocent young person. 4 (by analogy) pure. Mener une vie —e, to lead a pure life. Jeux —s, innocent games. 5 (qui ne nuit point) innocent, harmless, innocuous, innocuous. Un remède — a harmless remedy. 6 (simple) innocent, artless, simple.

INNOCENT, sm. fem. —E, 1 innocent. Ces pauvres petits —s, those innocent little things. Le massacre des —s, the massacre of the Innocents. La fête des —s, Innocents' day. 2 (esprit faible) simpleton, innocent. Faire l'—, to counterfeint, to pretend, to sham innocence. C'est le plus grand — que j'aie jamais connu, he is the greatest simpleton I ever knew. Volt. 3 —s, pl. (pigeons nouveaux) qu'on sert à table) young pigeons. Une tortue d'—s, a pie of young pigeons.

INNOCENT, sm. Innocent, Innocentus.

INNOCENTER, e-no-sang-tay, va. to find not guilty, to discharge, to acquit.

INNOCEITE, in-no-ké-tay, sf. innocuousness, innocuousness, harmlessness.

INNOBRABLE, in-nong-brabl', adj. mf. innumerable, numberless, countless.

INNOBRABLEMENT, in-nong-brab-luh-mang, adv. (little used) innumera- bly.

INNOVÉ, in-no-may, adj. m. fem. —E, unnamed, nameless.

INNOVÉ, in-no-mé-nay, adj. fem. —E, anat. innominatum.

INNOVATEUR, in-no-vat-ubr, sm. fem. innovator, innovator.

INNOVATION, in-no-vah-syong, sf. (Lat.) innovation.

INNOVER, in-no-vay, rm. (Lat. innovare) 1 to innovate, to introduce novelties. Dante est un génie studieux autant que créateur, il innove et il imite, Dante was as much a studious as an inventive genius, he innovates and imitates. Villem. 2 (transi- tir.) Il ne faut rien —, innovations should be avoided.

INNOBSEVATION, e-nob-sayr-vab-syong, sf. inobsevation, non-obsevation, inobsevation, breach. L'— des traités, the non-obsevation of treaties.

INNOBSEVÉ, e-nob-sayr-vay, adj. m. fem. —E, unobseved, overlooked, unnoticed. Que de faits —s! how many facts yet unnoticed! Cov.

INNOCEPTE, e-no-ké-pay, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 unoccupied, unemployed. 2 (des choses, of things) vacant, empty.

INNOCELEUR, e-nok-é-lit-ubr, sm. fem. inoculation, med. inoculator.

INNOCELEUR, e-nok-é-lah-syong, sf. 1 med. inoculation. 2 absol. (de la peste vérole) inoculation.

INNOCELEUR, e-nok-é-lay, va. (Lat. inoculare) 1 to inoculate. — la petite vérole, to inoculate with the matter of small pox. 2 absol. to vaccinate, to ingraft. — une personne, to vaccinate a person. Se faire —, to get vaccinated.

S'INNOCELEUR, rpr. to be inoculated.

INNOCEUR, e-nod-or, adj. mf. 1 odor- ous, inodorous. Fleurs —, inodorous flowers. 2 Cabinet —, water-closet.

INNOFFENSIF, e-no-fang-sif, adj. m. fem. inoffensive, inoffensive.

INNOFFICIEUX, e-no-fes-tuh, adj. m. fem. inofficious, law, inofficious.

INNOFFICISITE, e-no-fes-syo-ze-tay, sf. law, inofficious quality.

INNOVATION, e-nong-dah-syong, sf. (Lat.) inundation, overflow. 2 fig. inunda- tion, deluge. L'— des barbares, the inundation of barbarians. 3 fig. Des —s de paroles on l'on se trouve noyé, a deluge of words in which one is drowned. M^{me} de Sév.

INNOVÉ, ppo. of INNOVÉ, m. fem. —E, 1 overflowed, inundated. Tout le pays est —, the whole country is under water. 2 fig. overrun. Le pays est — de soldats, the country is overrun with soldiers.

S'INNOVÉ, rpr. to deluge one's self.

INNOVÉ, e-nong-day, va. 1 to over- flow, to inundate, to deluge. 2 (hyperb.) (mouiller beaucoup) to deluge, to drench, to wet all over. La pluie nous inondait, the rain deluged us. Les pleurs inon- daient son visage, her face was bathed in tears. 3 fig. (d'une grande multitude, of a crowd) to overrun, to over- spread. Une multitude immense inonda la plaine, an immense crowd overran the plain. Barth. 4 fig. (morally) to fill, to overwhelm. Il y a des heures où la poésie nous inonde, there are times when the heart overflows with poetry. G. Sand. 5 fig. (de certaines choses répandues avec profusion) to deluge. Le public est inondé de mauvais écrits, the public is surfeited with worthless writings.

INNOVÉ, e-no-pe-nay, adj. m. fem. —E, unexpected, unlooked for, unforeseen.

INNOVEMENT, e-no-pe-nay-mang, adv. unexpectedly.

INNOVEMENT, e-no-pe-nay-mang, adj. m. fem. —E, inopportune, unseasonable, unfit, ill-timed, mistimed, timeless.

INNOVEMENT, e-nop-por-ti- nay-mang, adv. inopportunately.

INNOVEMENT, e-nop-por-ti-ne-tay, sf. inopportune, unseasonableness.

INNOVÉ, e-nop-gu-ik, adj. mf. inorganic, inorganic, inorganicized.

INNOVÉ, e-nop-ee, adj. m. fem. —E, unheard, unheard of. Il est — que pa- reille chose soit jamais arrivée, it is un- heard of that such a thing should have happened. Sa conduite est —e, his conduct is unprecedented.

INNOVÉ, e-nok-se-dabl', adj. mf. inoxidable.

INNOVÉ, See PACE.

INNOVÉ, See PARTIEUS.

INNOVÉ, See PETTO.

INNOVÉ, ang-kal-e-fyabl', adj. mf. unqualifiable.

INQUART, ang-kar, sm. chem. quarta- tion.

INQUIET, ang-kyay, adj. m. fem. in- quiete, (Lat. inquietus) 1 inquiet, anxious, uneasy. Elle est inquiète de ne pas rece- voir de nouvelles, she is uneasy at re- ceiving no news. Je suis très — sur son compte, I am very anxious about him. Elle a l'air inquiète, she looks uneasy. 2 (des passions, etc.) of passions, etc.) anxious, restless. Une inquiète curiosité, a restless curiosity. Son chagrin l'ar- rache de son lit, his anxious sorrow drags him from his bed. Rac. 3 (de ce qui mar- que de l'inquiétude) anxious. Des regards —s, anxious looks. 4 (qui ne peut se tenir en repos) inquiet, restless. C'est un esprit brouillon et —, he is a man of a rest- less and uneasy disposition. fig. Une inquiète ambition le domine, he is de- voured by a restless ambition. 5 (d'un malade, of a patient) restless. Le malade a été fort inquiet la nuit, the patient has been very restless all night. Sommeil —, troubled sleep.

INQUIETANT, ang-kyay-tang, adj. m. fem. —E, disquieting, alarming, trouble- some.

INQUIÊTEUR, ang-kyay-tay, va. s'in- quiete, to inquiet; 1 to inquiet; 2 to disturb, to disquiet, to make uneasy. Que cela ne vous inquiete pas, let not that make you uneasy. L'aveu de l'inquiète et le présent le frappe, the future disquiets and the present affects him. Rac. 2 (trou- ble) to disturb, to annoy, to molest, to disquiet. — l'ennemi, to harass the enemy. 3 (troubler dans la possession) to disturb, to molest.

S'INQUIÊTEUR, rpr. 1 to make one's self uneasy, to concern one's self, to trouble one's self. De quoi vous inquietez-vous? what are you uneasy about? C'est un homme qui s'inquiète d'un rien, the least thing makes him uneasy. Votre zèle pour moi s'est trop inquieté, your zeal for me has caused you too much uneasiness. Mol. La femme pressée de loin l'inconscience de l'homme et s'en inquiète, women have an early presentiment of man's incon- science which fills them with uneasiness. J.-J. Rouss. Je m'inquiète peu de votre colère, I care but little for your anger. Je m'en inquiète fort peu, I care little about it, that won't disturb me.

INQUÊTEUR, ang-kyay-tud, sf. (Lat. inquietudo) 1 disquiet, disquietude, uneasiness, concern. Ette dans l'—, to be uneasy. J'ai des —s extrêmes de votre pauvre frère, I am extremely anxious about your poor brother. M^{me} de Sév. Un air d'— remplaça le sourire qui était sur ses lèvres, an air of anxiety took the place of the smile on her lips. Scri. D'où vien- nent ces —s? whence proceeds this uneasiness? N'en ayez point d'—, don't be uneasy about it. Tirer quelqu'un de l'—, to relieve a person from uneasiness. Me voilà hors d'—, now I am easy again. 2 (inconscience d'homme) rest- lessness. 3 med. restless. Le ma- lade a passé la nuit dans de grandes —s, the patient has passed the night in great restless. 4 —s, pl. (petites douleurs qui donnent de l'impudence) pains. Avoir des —s dans les jambes, to have pins and needles in one's legs.

INQUISITEUR, ang-ke-ze-tabr, sm. in- quisitor. Grand —, Grand inquisitor.

INQUISITION, ang-ke-ze-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 inquisition, inquiry. La point d'eti- quette, point d'—, médiane et tracé- sière, there, no etiquette, no slanderous, annoying inquisition. S-M. Gir. 2 anc. (tribunal) inquisition.

INQUISITORIAL, ang-ke-ze-to-ryal, adj. m. fem. —E, inquisitorial.

INSAISSISSABLE, ang-say-ze-sabl', adj. mf. 1 not seizable. 2 law. not to be dis- trained. 3 fig. unconceivable, imperceptible.

INSALUBRE, ang-sal-ubr', adj. mf. insubrious, unwholesome, unhealthy.

INSALUBRITÉ, ang-sal-ù-bre-tay, sf. insalubrity, unwholesomeness, unhealthiness.

INSANITÉ, ang-san-e-tay, sf. (Lat. insanitas) insanity.

INSATIABILITÉ, ang-sab-syab-e-le-tay, sf. insatiableness. fig. — de gloire, thirsting after glory.

INSATIABLE, ang-sab-syabl', adj. mf. insatiable, insatiate. fig. Avarice —, insatiable avarice.

INSATIALEMENT, ang-sab-syab-lub-mang, adv. insatiably.

INSCRIPTIBLE, ang-s-krip-tibl', adj. mf. geom. inscrutable.

INSCRIPTION, ang-s-krip-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 inscription. L'Académie des — et belles lettres, the Academy of inscriptions and belles-lettres. — funéraire, epitaph. 2 (indication) writing, written word. 3 (action) inscription. 4 fin. — sur le grand livre de la dette publique, money in the public funds, stock-receipt. Avoir mille francs de rentes en — sur le grand-livre, to have a thousand francs income in the French stocks. 5 law. — de faux, allegation of forgery. 6 hypothécaire, registry of mortgage. — maritime, maritime inscription. 6 schol. term. Prendre ses —, to keep one's terms. Il lui manque encore une —, he has one more term to keep.

INSCRIRE, ang-kreer, ra. irreg. conj. like ÉCRIRE, (Lat. inscribere) 1 to write in, upon, to enter, to register. — dans ses tablettes, to write down, to put in one's pocket-book. Les visiteurs inscrivent leur nom sur un registre, visitors write their names down in a book. Vous êtes-vous fait — ? Have you had your name set down? fig. — son nom au temple de la gloire, to inscribe one's name in the temple of glory. 2 (mettre une inscription) to inscribe (on, in). 3 geom. to inscribe.

INSCRIRE, ppr. 4 to write down, to put down one's name, to inscribe one's name. 2 law. S'— en faux, to plead the falsity of; || (by extension) to dispute the truth of, to prove the contrary. Il s'inscrivit en faux contre lui, malgré toute la vénération qu'il lui portait, he disputed the truth of what he alleged, notwithstanding the veneration in which he held him. Did.

INSCRIT, ppa. of INSCRIRE, fem. —, inscribed, put down, entered, booked, enrolled.

INSCRUTABLE, ang-trù-tabl', adj. mf. inscrutable, unsearchable.

INSCU (à l'). SE INSCU.

INSECTE, ang-sekt, sm. ent. insect.

INSECTIVORE, ang-sek-le-vor, adj. mf. nat. hist. insectivorous.

INSENSE, ang-sang-say, adj. m. fem. —, 1 insane, mad. Rendre —, to madden. 2 (hyperb.) foolish, mad, insensate, destitute of sense. Écoutez-vous, madame, une foule — ? Madam, do you mind a roaring mob? Rac. 3 (des choses, of things) senseless, unreasonable, foolish, insensate. Il sait mes ardeurs — es, he knows my wild passion. Rac. 4 (substantif) madman, m. madwoman, f. lunatic, insane person, maniac, fool. Courir comme un —, to run like a madman. Ce serait agir en —, it would be acting like a madman.

INSENSIBILITÉ, ang-sang-se-be-le-tay, sf. 1 insensitivity, insensibility, unfeelingness. Le chloroforme produit l'—, chloroform produces insensibility. 2 (moral) insensibility, unfeelingness. L'— aux reproches est la marque de l'endurcissement, insensitivity to reproaches denotes hardness of heart. L'— à la vue des misères est dureté, insensitivity at the sight of misery is hard-heartedness. Vauven.

INSENSIBLE, ang-sang-sibl', adj. mf. 1 insensible. Les végétaux paraissent —, plants appear to be devoid of feeling. 2 (qui ne sent point l'impression d'un objet) insensible. Être — au froid, to be insensible to cold. 3 (morally) unfeeling. Ce qui nous rend — aux maux des autres, c'est, etc., what makes us insensible to the sufferings of others, is, etc. Boss. Il est aisé d'être ferme, quand on est —, it is easy to be steadfast, when one is unfeeling. M^{re} de Staël. 4 (imperceptible) insensible, imperceptible. Le mouvement de l'aiguille d'une horloge est — à l'œil, the motion of the hand of a clock is imperceptible to the eye. La fin de la vie arrive par nuances souvent —, the close of life comes on by degrees frequently imperceptible. Buff.

INSENSIBLEMENT, ang-sang-se-bloh-mang, adv. insensibly, imperceptibly.

INSEPARABLE, ang-say-par-abl', adj. mf. 1 inseparable. 2 (des personnes, of persons) inseparable. Ils sont devenus —, they have become inseparable. 3 (substantif) Ce sont deux —, they are two inseparable friends.

INSEPARABLEMENT, ang-say-par-abl-luh-mang, adv. inseparably, indissolubly.

INSÉRER, ang-say-ray, ra. (Lat. insere) 1 to insert, to set, to put. 2 (by extension) — dans un journal, to insert in a public paper.

INSÉRER, ppr. to be inserted.

INSERMENT, ang-say-mang-tay, adj. m. (little used) ussurance.

INSERTION, ang-say-syong, sf. (Lat.) 4 insertion. 2 not. hist. insertion. Point d'—, point of insertion.

INSIDIEUSEMENT, ang-se-dyuhz-mang, adv. insidiously.

INSIDIEUX, ang-se-dyuh, adj. m. fem. insidious, insidious.

INSIGNE, ang-se-syuh, adj. mf. (Lat. insignis) 1 signal, notorious, arrogant, egotistic. C'est une — fausseté, it is a notorious falsehood. Quel — triomphe au l'arrant rogne ! Le temps, cet — laron, time, that egregious thief. La Font. 2 (de quelques églises, of some churches) remarkable.

INSIGNE, sm. ensign, token, badge. Les — royaux, the royal insignia.

INSIGNIFIANCE, ang-se-nye-syàngs, sf. insignificance, insignificance.

INSIGNIFIANT, ang-se-nye-syàng, adj. m. fem. —, 1 fig. insignificant. Propos —, small talk. 2 (des personnes, of persons) insignificant. Une physionomie —, an insignificant physiognomy.

INSINUANT, ang-se-nù-àng, ppr. of INSINUER, adj. m. fem. —, 1 insinuating, insinuating, wheedling. 2 (des manières, des discours, of manners, etc.) insinuating. Un air doux et — lui attirait l'estime et la confiance, his mild and insinuating air attracted esteem and confidence. Fléch.

INSINUATION, ang-se-nù-ab-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 insinuation. Mazarin avait de l'esprit, de l'—, de l'enjouement, M. was witty, insinuating and humorous. Renc. 2 (discours insinuant) insinuation, innuendo, hint. 3 rhet. insinuation. 4 law. registry.

INSINUER, ang-se-nù-ay, ra. 4 to insinuate, to introduce. 2 fig. to insinuate, to intimate, to hint, to insinuate, to insinuate. Insinuez-lui cela doucement, hint that to him slightly. 3 law. to register.

INSINUER, ppr. 1 to insinuate, to creep, to steal (into). fig. L'espérance insinueait peu à peu dans mon âme, insensibility hope crept into my heart. La vérité insinuait par des moyens si doux, truth was insinuated in so gentle a manner. Boss. 2 (des personnes, of persons) to insinuate one's self, to worm one's self, to wind one's self. A la cour, on se glisse, on s'insinue, at court, one creeps, one winds one's way. P.-L. Cour. S'— dans l'esprit de quelqu'un, dans ses bonnes grâces, etc., to insinuate one's self into the mind, into the good graces of a person, etc.

INSIPIDE, ang-se-peed, adj. mf. 1 insipid, unsavoury, aourless, tasteless. Rien n'est plus — que les premiers fruits et légumes. J.-J. Rouss. 2 fig. insipid, dull, unsavoury. Et toute sa grandeur me devient —, all my greatness has no charm for me. Rac. (des personnes, of persons) insipid.

INSIPIDITÉ, ang-se-pe-de-tay, sf. 1 insipidity, insipidness, tastelessness, unsavouriness. 2 fig. insipidity, dullness. L'— de ce prince, the insipidity of that prince. (by extension) Les fables de l'antiquité sont mêlées de beaucoup d'—, the fables of antiquity are mixed with much that is insipid. Volt.

INSISTANCE, ang-sis-tàngs, sf. persistence, urgency.

INSISTER, ang-sis-tay, rn. (Lat. insistere) 1 to insist, to persist, to be insistent. Il insiste à demander telle chose, he insists on asking for a certain thing. 2 (appuyer sur quelque chose) to dwell, to insist. Je n'insisterai pas sur ce point, I will not insist on that point.

INSOCCIABLE, ang-so-syab-e-le-tay, sf. unsociability, insociableness.

INSOCCIABLE, ang-so-syabi', adj. mf. unsociable, unsocial.

INSOLATION, ang-sol-ab-syong, sf. (Lat.) did. insolation.

INSOLENT, ang-so-lah-mang, adv. insolently, impertinently, saucily.

INSOLENCÉ, ang-so-làngs, sf. (Lat.) insolentia) 1 insolence, sauciness. Avec —, insolently. Cela est de la dernière —, this is the height of insolence. 2 (orgueil offensant) insolence. 3 (action, parole insolente) impertinence, pertness, insolent thing, piece of insolence. La juste punition de ses — et de ses perfidies, the just punishment of his insolence and perfidy. Boil.

INSOLENT, ang-so-làng, adj. m. fem. —, 4 insolent. 2 (de l'air, des manières, des discours, etc.) saucy, pert. Ses discours — s'mont m's l'esprit en feu, her saucy language has worked me up into a passion. Mol. 3 (orgueilleux) insolent, supercilious, overbearing. Quant aux gens —, c'est no grand soulagement de rire à leurs dépens, as for insolent people, it is a great relief to laugh at their expense. Volt. 4 (de l'air, des discours, etc.) insolent, impertinent. 5 (substantif) insolent person, pert fellow, insolent creature, saucy-box, malapert. Mademoiselle l'—, Miss Impudence.

INSOLITE, ang-so-lit, adj. mf. unusual, unwonted.

INSOLUBILITÉ, ang-so-lit-be-le-tay, sf. insolubility, insolubleness. fig. L'— d'un problème, the insolubility of a problem.

INSOLURLE, ang-so-labl', adj. mf. 4 chem. insoluble. 2 fig. insoluble.

INSOLVABILITÉ, ang-sol-vab-e-le-tay, sf. insolvency.

INSOLVABLE, ang-sol-vabl', adj. mf. insolvent.

INSOMNIE, ang-som-nee, sf. (Lat. insomnias) sleeplessness, wakefulness, want of rest, insomnia. Avoir de fréquentes —, to be tormented with sleepless nights.

INSONDABLE, ang-song-dabl', adj. mf. unathomable, unathomable, fathomless.

INSOCCIANCE, ang-so-syàng, sf. carelessness, heedlessness, regardlessness, unconcern. Être d'une extrême —, to be extremely careless. L'— de la jeunesse, the thoughtlessness of youth. Scrib. La Fontaine était dans la plus grande — de ses affaires, La Fontaine was extremely careless of his own interests. Legouv.

INSOCCIAN, ang-soo syàng, adj. m. fem. —, careless, heedless, regardless, mindless. Il paraissait aussi — de l'avenir qu'il l'avait été de sa vie, he seemed as regardless of the future as he had been of his life. Lamart.

INSOUCIEUX, ang-sou-syuh, adj. m. fem. INSOUCIEUX, neol. careless, untended with care. C'était le seul temps — de sa vie, it was the only time of his life untended with care. Balz.

INSCOMIS, ang-sou-mee, adj. m. fem. — insubmis, unsubmitive, intractable. INSCOMMISSION, ang-sou-mee-syong, sf. insubmission.

INSOUTENABLE, ang-sout-nabl, adj. mf. 1 untenable, undefensible, unsustainable. 2 (qu'on ne peut supporter) insupportable, intolerable, unbearable. La plus légère douleur déconcerte leur félicité et leur est —, the slightest pain discomposes their felicity and is insupportable to them. Mass.

INSPECTEUR, ang-pek-tay, co. (Lat. inspicere) to inspect, to survey, to supervise.

INSPECTEUR, ang-pek-tuhr, sm. 1 inspector, surveyor, overseer, superior, visitor, viewer. — général, inspector general. 2 mil. — aux revues, inspecting officer of troops. 3 fin. — des finances, inspector of finances. 4 — des contributions directes, surveyor of taxes. 5 woods and for. — des forêts, surveyor of woods and forests.

INSPECTION, ang-pek-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 inspection, view, sight. 2 La première —, at first sight. mil. Faire l'— d'un corps de troupes, to inspect, to survey a body of troops. mil. Passer à l'—, to be inspected, to undergo an inspection. 2 (fonction, soin) inspection, survey, oversight. 3 (place, emploi) inspection, surveyship.

INSPIRATEUR, ang-pe-rat-ubr, adj. m. fem. INSPIRATRICE, inspiring. 1 La liqueur inspiratrice des joyeux propos, liquor inspiring jovial talk. La Font. 2 anat. Muscles —, inspiratory muscles.

INSPIRATION, ang-pe-rat-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 inspiration, suggestion. C'est par votre — que j'ai agi, I have acted on your suggestion. 2 (la chose inspirée) inspiration, idea. Je vous dois cette —, I am indebted to you for this inspiration. 3 (des sentiments, etc., of feelings, etc.) inspiration, idea. J'ai eu une bonne —, I have had a good idea. Les —s du génie, the inspirations of genius. Cette idée m'est venue comme par —, that idea struck me as if by inspiration. 4 absol. inspiration. J'attends le moment de l'—, I am waiting for the moment of inspiration. Volt. L'—, c'est le rapide éclat de la pensée, inspiration, the rapid flash of thought. St-B. 5 physiol. inspiration, inhaling.

INSPIRE, pph. of INSPIRER, fem. — E, 4 inspired. Je fus bien —, that was a happy idea of mine. 2 (substantiv.) person inspired.

INSPIRER, ang-pe-ray, va. (Lat. inspirare) 1 to inspire. C'est un sentiment que la nature inspire, it is a feeling inspired by nature. Il n'y a rien de bon, ni de droit, ni de noble que je ne tienne d'— à mon fils, there is nothing good, just, and noble but I endeavour to instil it into my son's mind. M^{me} de Sév. — de l'amour, love, respect. 3 (conseiller) to advise. A cette conduite du prince, on reconnut le ministre qui l'inspirait, in this conduct of the prince might be recognised the minister by whom he had been advised. C'est la charité qui l'inspire, it is charity that suggests it. 3 (de ceux qui reçoivent des lumières suraffectuelles) to inspire. C'est le Saint-Esprit qui l'a inspiré, it is the Holy Spirit which has inspired thee. Les poètes disent que les Muses les inspirent, the poets say that their inspiration comes from the Muses. 4 mod. to inhale. — de l'air dans les pommus d'un ocyé, d'un enfant nouveau-né, to breathe into the lungs of a drowned person, of a newborn child.

S'INSPIRER, vpr. to be inspired. Si le peintre s'inspirait d'autre chose, ce n'est pas de l'Evangile, if the painter thought for inspiration elsewhere, it was not in the Gospel. Mich.

INSTABILITÉ, ang-sab-e-le-tay, sf. instability, unsteadiness. fig. L'— de la fortune, the instability of fortune.

INSTALLATION, ang-sal-lah-syong, sf. installation, instalment.

INSTALLÉ, ppa. of INSTALLER, fem. — E, installed.

INSTALLER, ang-sal-ay, va. 4 to instal. 2 (établir en droit) to instal. On les a installés dans leur nouveau logement, they have been installed in their new lodgings.

S'INSTALLER, vpr. to settle, to establish, to locate one's self. S'— dans un fauteuil, to instal one's self in an arm-chair. Ces longues banquettes ont le monde s'installa en parures coquettes, the row of benches on which the fashionable world sat gaily dressed. Barth. fig. Amour dans son cœur s'installa, love settled in her heart. V. Hug.

INSTANT, ang-sah-mang, adv. correctly, urgently, instantly.

INSTANCE, ang-sang, sf. (Lat. instantia) 1 entreaty, instance. Avec —, correctly. Faire — auprès de quelqu'un, to entreat, to use entreaty with a person. Faire de grandes —s, to make earnest entreaties. Il voulait d'abord faire des façons, mais enfin il se rendit à mes —s, he required pressing at first, but he at last yielded to my entreaties. Le Sage. 2 law, demand, suit. Reprise d'—, reviver. Faire valoir une —, to obtain judgment in a suit. Former une —, to commence a law-suit. Première —, first instance. Il perdit son procès en première —, he lost his suit in first instance. Tribunal de première —, court of first instance. Juge de première —, judge of the inferior court. 3 schol. new argument.

INSTANT, ang-sang, adj. m. fem. — E, 4 (pressant) urgent, earnest, pressing, instant. 2 (immédiat) instant, imminent.

INSTANT, sm. instant, moment, trice. En —, in a trice. D'un — à l'autre, every moment. En cet —, at this instant. Notre existence est un point, notre durée un —, notre globe un atome, our existence is a point, our duration an instant, our globe an atom. Volt. Dans le même —, in the same moment. Au même —, in the same instant. Dès l'— que, on the instant that. (elliptic.) Un —, a moment. L'n — l ne partez pas sans moi, a moment do not go without me.

A CHAQUE INSTANT, à TOUJOURS INSTANT, adv. loc. every moment, instant.

À L'INSTANT, DANS L'INSTANT, adv. loc. instantly, instant, at the instant, immediately. J'arrive à l'— tout à l'—, I shall be back in a moment.

INSTANTANÉ, ang-sang-tan-ay, adj. m. fem. — E, instantaneous.

INSTANTANÉMENT, ang-sang-tan-ay-mang, adv. instantaneously.

INSTAR DE (A L'), ang-sar, loc. (Lat.) like, in imitation of.

INSTAURATION, ang-to-rab-syong, sf. (Lat.) instauration.

INSTIGATEUR, ang-te-gah-ubr, sm. fem. INSTIGATRICE, instigator, inciter, abettor.

INSTIGATION, ang-te-gah-syong, sf. (Lat.) instigation, incitement, enticement, abetment. Il a fait cela à l'— d'un tel, he has done that at the instigation of such a person.

INSTIGUER, ang-te-gay, va. (Lat. instigare) (little used) to instigate, to incite, to entice (to), to abet.

INSTALLATION, ang-te-lah-syong, sf. (Lat.) installation.

INSTILLER, ang-sé-lay, va. (Lat. instillare) to instill.

INSTINCT, ang-sang, sm. (Lat. instinctus) 1 instinct. Par —, instinctively. La nature a donné aux animaux l'— de leur propre conservation, nature has given to animals the instinct of self-preservation. Buff. 2 (de l'homme, of man) instinct. Lutez avec votre volonté contre vos —s, oppose your will to your instincts. Al. Dum. L'— d'équité et de pitié, the instinct of equity and pity. Lamart.

INSTINCTIF, ang-sang-tif, adj. m. fem. instinctive, instinctive.

INSTINCTIVEMENT, ang-sank-tiv-mang, adv. instinctively.

INSTITUTEUR, ang-sé-té-ay, va. (Lat. instituire) 1 to institute, to establish. 2 law. — no heritier, to appoint a successor to an estate. 3 (établir en charge) to appoint, to ordain. — un juge, no notaire, to appoint a judge, a notary.

INSTITUT, ang-sé-té, sm. (Lat. institutum) 4 (ordre religieux) institute. 2 (titre de certaines sociétés savantes) institute. 3 L'—, (in France) Institut. 4 (lieu) Institut. 5 — s, pl. Institutes.

INSTITUTES, ang-sé-té, sf. pl. (Lat. institutioes) 4 law. Les — de J., the institutes of J. (by extension) Les — du droit français, the institutes of French law. 2 absol. (de Justinien) institutes.

INSTITUTEUR, ang-sé-té-ubr, sm. fem. INSTITUTEUR, 4 instituteur, 3 (précipiteur) teacher, tutor. Une habile institutrice, a clever teacher. (by extension) La mère est le premier maître de son enfant, a mother is the first teacher of her child. B. de St-P. Les premiers et plus sûrs —s de l'homme sont la douleur et le plaisir, man's first and surest teachers are pleasure and pain. Nod. 3 (qui tient une pension, une école, etc.) schoolmaster, schoolmistress, f. — primaire, teacher in a primary school.

INSTITUTION, ang-sé-té-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 institution. Tout ce qui est d'— humaine, whatever is of human institution. 2 law. — d'héritier, appointment of a successor. 3 (choses instituées) institution.

Il faut des —s aux sociétés, comme il faut un lit aux flux, societies must rest upon institutions, as the ocean on a bed. Lamart. Les écoles sont des —s utiles, schools are useful institutions. 3 (éducation) institution, education. 4 (maison d'éducation) boarding-school, academy, seminary, school. — de jeunes gens, academy for young gentlemen. — de jeunes demoiselles, seminary for young ladies. Le chef d'une —, head of a school, of an academy.

INST-UCTEUR, ang-s-trük-ubr, sm. (Lat.) 4 instructor. 2 (adjectif) instructing. Capitaine —, drill captain. 3 Juge — examining magistrate.

INSTRUCTIF, ang-s-trük-tif, adj. m. fem. INSTRUCTIVE, instructive. Ce livre est fort —, this book is very instructive.

INSTRUCTION, ang-s-trük-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 instruction, tuition, education. Le ministre de l'— publique, the minister of public instruction. — primaire, supérieure, elementary, university education. 2 (savoir) instruction, learning. 3 (éducation) attainment, information. Acquérir de l'—, to acquire knowledge. Un homme qui a beaucoup d'—, a man of great attainments. 4 of great information. 3 (leçon préceptuelle) precept, lesson, instruction. Les —s salutaires de ses prédicateurs évangéliques, the salutary precepts of its evangelical preachers. Fléch. — pastorale, pastoral letter. 4 (connaissance sur certains faits qu'on ignore) instruction, direction, information. Je vous demande cela pour moi —, I ask you that for my own information. 5 — s, pl. (explications) instruction, direction. J'irai prendre vos —s sur l'affaire dont vous m'avez chargé, I will call on you for instructions respect-entente understanding, collusion. Ils sont d'— pour vous tromper, they are in accord to deceive you. Ententeur des —s avec les ennemis, to hold intercourse with the enemy. Avoir une double —, to be in communication with both parties. 3 (substantive, personne spirituelle) intelligence. Dieu est la souveraine —, God is the sovereign intelligence. Les —s célestes, the celestial intelligences. L'homme est une — servie par des organes, man is an organic intelligence. Le Bon.

INTELLIGENT, ang-tel-le-zhâng, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 intelligent. L'âme est une substance —e, the soul is an intelligent substance. 2 (qui a beaucoup d'intelligence) intelligent, clever. 3 (qui a beaucoup d'habileté) versed, learned.

INTELLIGIBLE, ang-tel-le-zhûbî, adj. mf. 1 audible. Parler à haute et — voix, to speak in a loud and audible voice. 2 (àisé à comprendre) intelligible, plain. L'art de parler d'une manière —, the art of speaking intelligibly. La Bruy. 3 schol. (par opposition à réel) intellectual.

INTELLIGIBLEMENT, ang-tel-le-zhûb-ming, adv. 1 audibly. 2 intelligibly.

INTÉMPÉRANCE, ang-tang-pay-rângs, sf. 1 intemperance, insobriety. 2 (by extension) intemperance. — d'étude, excess of application. fig. (by analogy) — de langue, flippancy of tongue. — de plume, an intemperate pen.

INTÉMPÉRANT, ang-tang-pay-râng, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 intemperate. 2 (substantive) intemperate person.

INTÉMPÉRE, ang-tang-pay-ray, adj. m. fem. —E, intemperate.

INTÉMPÉRIE, ang-tang-pay-ree, sf. (de l'air, des saisons, etc.) of the weather, of the seasons, etc.) intemperateness, intemperance, inclemency.

INTÉMPÉRISTE, ang-tang-pays-tif, adj. m. fem. intemperate, unseasonable, untimely, ill-timed.

INTÉMPÉRISTEMENT, ang-tang-pays-tiv-mang, adv. unseasonably, out of season.

INTENDANCE, ang-tang-dang, sf. 1 management, superintendence, government. 2 (de certaines fonctions publiques) intendancy. L'— des bâtiments, the intendancy of public buildings. — militaire, commissariat. 3 (temps) intendancy. 4 (district) intendancy. 5 (résidence) intendant's house.

INTENDANT, ang-tang-dang, sm. 1 steward. 2 (fonctionnaire) intendant, surveyor. — des bâtiments, surveyor of buildings. — militaire, commissary of stores. anc. — des finances, commissioner of the treasury.

INTENDANTE, ang-tang-dang, sf. intendant's wife.

INTENSE, ang-tang, adj. mf. 1 dil. intense. Un froid —, une maladie —, an intense cold, a severe illness. 2 mus. Un son —, a sharp sound.

INTENSITÉ, ang-tang-se-lay, sf. nat. phil. intensity, intenseness. L'— de la lumière est en raison du nombre de ses particules, the intensity of light is in proportion to the number of its particles. Arag.

INTENTER, ang-tang-lay, va. (Lat. intentare) law, to enter. — une accusation contre quelqu'un, to bring a charge, to bring forward an action against a person. — un procès contre quelqu'un, to bring an action against a person, to sue at law a person.

INTENTION, ang-tang-syong, sf. (Lat. 1 intention, intent, purpose, design, mind). Avoir —, avoir l'— de faire quelque chose, to have an intention to, to intend to do a thing. Si j'ai fait cela, c'est bien contre moi —, if I did that, it was quite unintentionally. Quelle a été l'— du législateur? what was the intention of the legislator? Dieu est juge de mon —, God is judge of my intentions. La droiture, la pureté des —s, the honesty, the purity of the intentions. Avec —, on purpose, intentionally.

Sans —, without purpose, unintentionally, undesigually. Il l'a fait à bonne —, he did it with a good intent. Faire une chose à l'— de quelqu'un, to do a thing on account of a person. Faire des prières, donner des aumônes, etc., à l'— de quelqu'un, to offer prayers, to give alms for the sake of a person. Direction d'—, direction of the intention; || (by extension) Il n'y a rien qu'on ne prétende justifier par la direction d'—, there is nothing one may not attempt to justify by wringing the purity of one's intention. 2 (volonté) L'— de votre père est que vous partiez, your father's intention is that you should leave. Agir contre les —s d'une personne, to oppose the designs of a person. Le roi lui a fait savoir ses —s, the king has made known to him his intentions. Telle est l'— du fondateur, such was the intention of the founder.

INTENTIONNÉ, ang-tang-syo-pai, adj. m. fem. —E, Bien —, well-intentioned, well-meaning. Mal —, ill-intentioned, evil-minded.

INTENTIONNEL, ang-tang-syo-nayl, adj. m. fem. —E, law. intentional, intended. L'accusé fut absous sur la question —le, the accused was declared not to have acted with intention.

INTERCADENCE, ang-tayr-kad-angs, sf. adm. intercadence, subsidiary, irregularity.

INTERCADENT, ang-tayr-kad-ang, adj. m. fem. —E. (Lat.) med. subsidiary.

INTERCALAIRE, ang-tayr-kal-aye, adj. mf. 1 intercalary, intercalat. 2 (dans les ballades, etc.) in ballads, etc.) Vers —s, burlesque.

INTERCALATION, ang-tayr-kal-ah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 intercalation. 2 (by extension) (d'écrits, of writings) insertion, interlining, interpolation.

INTERCALER, ang-tayr-kal-ay, va. (Lat. intercalare) 1 to intercalate. 2 (by extension) (d'écrits, of writings) to insert, to interpolate.

INTERCEDER, ang-tayr-say-day, va. (Lat. intercedere) to intercede.

INTERCEPTER, ang-tayr-say-day, va. (Lat. interceptare) 1 to intercept. — les rayons du soleil, to intercept the sun's beams. 2 (par surprise) to intercept. — une lettre, to intercept a letter.

INTERCEPTION, ang-tayr-say-syong, sf. (Lat.) interception.

INTERCESSEUR, ang-tayr-says-suhr, sm. interceder, intercessor, mediator.

INTERCESSION, ang-tayr-says-syong, sf. (Lat.) intercession, mediation.

INTERCOSTAL, ang-tayr-kos-tal, adj. m. fem. —E, anat. intercostal.

INTERCURRENT, ang-tayr-kû-ràngt, adj. f. ued. Maladies —es, intercurrent maladies.

INTERDICTION, ang-tayr-dik-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 interdiction, interdiction, prohibition. 2 (d'un fonctionnaire, of functionaries) interdiction. 3 crim. law. — des droits civils, civils et de famille, privation of the exercise of civic, civil, and family rights. 4 law. (d'un fou, etc., of a madman, etc.) interdiction. Demande en —, petition of lunacy.

INTERDIRE, ang-tayr-deer, va. vous interdisez, the rest of the verb conjugated like DIRE, (Lat. interdiceré) 1 to forbid, to interdict, to prohibit, to inhibit. Les médecins lui interdisent le vin, the doctors forbid him wine. Cet ordre cruel, qui m'avait interdit l'approche de Pauline, that cruel command which had forbidden me to approach the altar. Rac. La loi des Juifs a interdit l'usage de la chair du lièvre comme celle du cochon, the Jewish law forbade the use of the flesh of the hare as well as that of swine. Buff. — le feu et l'eau à quelqu'un, to interdict a person of fire and water. 2 fig. (des choses, of things) to deprive. Une affaire imprévue m'a interdit ce plaisir, an unforeseen affair deprived me of that pleasure. 3 (d'un fonctionnaire, of functionaries) to interdict, to suspend. 4 (d'un ecclésiastique, of priests) to interdict. 5 (priver de la disposition de ses biens, etc.) to interdict. Peu s'en fallut que ses proches ne le fissent — comme dissipateur, his relations were very near having him interdicted, as a spendthrift, of the management of his estate. Dû 5 (troubler) to amaze, to stupefy, to abash, to confound, to puzzle. L'arrivée d'un étranger suffisait pour l'—, the coming of a stranger was sufficient to put him out of countenance. Did.

S'INTERDIRE, vr. To forbid one's self. Il s'interdit tous les plaisirs, he deprives himself of all pleasures.

INTERDIT, ang-tayr-de, ppa. of INTERDIRE, fem. —E, 1 forbidden, prohibited. Il vous est —, de, you are forbidden to. Cet espoir m'est —, I am forbidden this hope. 2 (étonné) abashed, amazed, puzzled, astonished. Demeurer —, to stand abashed. Vous changez de couleur et semblez —, you change colour and seem amazed. Rac. 3 (substantive) person interdicted.

INTERDIT, sm. law. interdict. Frapper d'—, mettre en —, to lay under an interdict. fig. L'Angleterre voulait pouvoir frapper d'— des pays entiers, England wanted to lay whole countries under an interdict. Thiers.

INTÉRESSANT, ang-tayr-ray-sang, adj. m. fem. —E, interesting.

INTÉRESSÉ, *ppa. of INTÉRESSER, fem. —E, adjective, 1 interested, concerned (in) Être — à une chose, à faire une chose, to be interested in a thing, in doing a thing. Être — dans une affaire, to be interested, to have a share in an enterprise. Chacun est — à le tromper, every one has an interest to deceive him. 2 (trop attaché à ses intérêts) self-interested, selfish. Les hommes de général sont —s, et ainsi ils sont injustes, men are generally selfish and consequently unjust. Boss. 3 (morally) interested. Vues —es, interested views. Motif —, selfish motive. 4 (substantive) interested party, concerned party. Je suis ou des —s dans cette affaire, I am one of the parties concerned in that affair.*

INTÉRESSER, ang-tayr-ray-say, va. (Lat. interesse) 1 to interest. On l'a intéressé dans cette affaire, dans cette entreprise, they gave him an interest in that affair, in that enterprise. 2 (donner quelque chose à quelqu'un pour le rendre favorable à une affaire) to purchase the interest of a person. Cette affaire ne saurait se faire sans lui, il faut l'—, that affair cannot be accomplished without him, he must be interested in it. 3 (être de quelque importance pour quelqu'un) to interest, to concern. En quoi cela vous interesse-t-il? what manner does that concern you? 4 (des choses, of things) to interest, to concern. Cela interesse mon honneur, my honour is concerned in it. 5 fig. urg. to injure. 6 (inspirer de l'intérêt) to interest. J'ai acquis hier la certitude que vous l'intéressiez vivement, yesterday I acquired the assurance that you deeply interested him. Rac. absol. Sa physiionomie interesse, his countenance awakens an interest. 7 (fixer l'attention) to interest. Son récit commençait à m'—, his story was beginning to interest me. absol. Cette pièce de théâtre m'intéresse point, that play has no interest. Le gros jeu m'intéresse, le petit jeu m'intéresse —, le grand jeu m'intéresse, a small one is scarcely so. 8 — le jeu, to stake money on the game.

S'INTÉRESSER, vr. 1 to interest one's self. Il s'est intéressé dans cet entreprise, he has taken an interest in that enterprise. 2 (prendre intérêt) Je m'intéresse à cette affaire comme si c'était la mienne propre, I take an interest in that affair as if it concerned me. Mais intérêts-nous toujours l'un à l'autre, let us always take an interest in each other. Mes de Deff. Personne ne s'intéresse à personne, no one is interested in another. Balz.

INTÉRÊT, ang-tay-ray, sm. 1 interest. — public, public weal. — particulier, private interest. Il avait un grand — à s'y rendre, he had a great interest in going there. Veiller sur —s de quelqu'un, to watch over the interests of a person. Prendre, embrasser, soutenir, abandonner, trahir les —s de quelqu'un, to take up, to embrace, to support, to abandon the interests of a person. Il faut le prendre par son —, you must take him by his interest. Il est de votre —, it n'est pas de votre — d'en user comme vous faites, it is in your interest, against your interest, to act as you do. C'est l'— de votre fortune, de votre gloire, de votre santé qui me fait parler ainsi, it is the concern for your fortune, your glory, your health, that causes me to speak thus. J'ai — que cela soit ainsi, I have an interest in its being so. Mettre quelqu'un hors d'—, to indemnify a person. Avoir un — dans une société, dans une entreprise, etc., to have an interest in a company, an enterprise, etc. 2 absol. (sentiment) interest. La plupart des gens ne se conduisent, ne se gouvernent que par l'—, most people are guided, are influenced by their interests only. C'est l'— qui le guide, it is interest which guides him. 3 (d'un capital, of funds) interest. — à cinq, à six pour cent par an, interest at five, six per cent per annum. Cet argent porte —, that money bears interest. Tirer l'— de l'—, to obtain interest on interest. — assurée, warranted interest. — simple, simple interest. — composé, compound interest. — légal, legal interest. Prêt à —, a loan at interest. Prêter, mettre, placer de l'argent à —, to lend, to place, to invest money at interest. L'— court, les —s courent depuis le jour de la demande, the interest runs, the interest dates from the day on which the application was made. 4 law. Dommages et —s, damages. — civils, civil interest. 5 (qui nous fait prendre part à ce qui regarde une personne) interest. Il m'inspire beaucoup d'—, on tends —, on vif —, he excites in me much interest, a tender, a lively interest. Prendre — à quelqu'un, to take an interest in a person. Témoignages, marques d'—, proofs, marks of interest. Prendre — à la joie, à l'affliction de quelqu'un, to take an interest in the joy, in the affliction of a person. Prendre — à une affaire, to take an interest in an affair. 6 (curiosité) interest. Faire battre l'— dans l'âme des spectateurs, to excite interest in the minds of the spectators. Captiver l'— to captivate the interest. J'ai lu cet ouvrage avec un vif —, I have read that work with a lively interest. 7 (attrait) interest. Cette histoire est pleine d'—, this tale is full of interest. Sa conversation a de l'— et du charme, his conversation is both entertaining and pleasing.

INTERFÉRENCE, ang-tay-ray-rangs, sf. optic. interference.

INTERFOLIÉ, ang-tay-ro-fay, NOUS interfoliatus, VOUS interfoliatus, va. book-seal, to interleave, to interfoliate.

INTÉRIEUR, ang-tay-ryuhr, adj. m. fem. — (Lat.) inner, interior, inward, internal. Les parties —es de la terre, the interior parts of the earth. La structure —e du corps, the inward structure of the body. Le commerce —, inland trade.

Mer — e, inland sea. 2 (de l'âme, of the soul) La paix — e, internal peace. L'homme —, the inner, the inward man. La vie — e, the inward life. Être fort —, to be a very meditative man.

INTÉRIEUR, sm. 1 interior, inside, inner part. L'— d'une église, d'une voiture, the inside of a church, of a coach. L'en cri partit de l'— de la maison, a cry was heard from the interior of the house. 2 paint. Tableau d'—, domestic scene. 3 absol. (d'un pays) inland. Homme Ministre de l'—, minister for the Home-Department. 4 fam. l'— d'une personne, the home of a person. N'avoir pas d'—, to be without a home. Se plaire dans son —, to like one's home. 5 fig. (ce qu'il y a de plus caché) secret. Il connaît l'— de cette famille, he knows the private affairs of that family. 6 (des pensées, etc., of thoughts, etc.) Dieu seul connaît l'—, God alone knows the heart of man. Plus l'— se corrompt, plus l'extérieur se compose, the more the heart is corrupted, the more durable the countenance is. J.-J. Rouss. 7 (d'une diligence, of a stage-coach) inside. Prendre une place d'—, to take an inside place.

INTÉRIEUREMENT, ang-tay-ryuhr-mang, adv. 4 internally, inwardly, within. 2 (de la conscience, etc., of conscience) inwardly.

INTERIN, ang-tay-rim, sm. (Lat.) 1 interim. Par —, ad. interim. 2 (action de gouverner, etc.) interim. Faire l'—, to administer ad. interim.

INTERINAIRE, ang-tay-re-mayr, adj. mf. ad. interim.

INTERJECTION, ang-tay-zhek-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 gram. interjection. 2 law. — d'appel, lodging of an appeal.

INTERJETÉ, ang-tay-zhub-tay, ru. conjug. like jeten, law. — appel, to lodge an appeal.

INTERLIGNE, ang-tay-le-nyoh, sm. space between two lines. Ecrire dans l'—, en. —, to interline.

INTERLIGNE, sf. print. space, lead.

INTERLIGNER, ang-tay-le-nyay, va. print. to lead.

INTERLINEAIRE, ang-tay-le-nyay-ayr, adj. mf. 1 interlinear, interlineal, interlinear. 2 Traduction. —, interlinear translation.

INTERLOBULAIRE, ang-tay-lob-f-layr, adj. mf. anat. interlobular.

INTERLOCUTEUR, ang-tay-ro-kù-tuhr, sm. 1 interlocutor. 2 (by extension) (qui converse avec un autre) interlocutor.

INTERLOCUTION, ang-tay-ro-kù-syong, sf. (Lat.) interlocution.

INTERLOCUTOIRE, ang-tay-ro-kù-toor, adj. mf. 4 law. interlocutory. 2 sm. interlocutory.

INTERLOPE, ang-tay-ro-p, sm. 4 interloper. 2 adj. mf. intrusive, contraband.

INTERLOQUEUR, ang-tay-ro-lay, va. (Lat. Interloqui) 1 law. to award an interlocutory, a judgment. 2 (embarrasser) to nonplus, to put out of countenance.

INTERMÈDE, ang-tay-mayd, sm. (Lat. intermedius) 1 (théâtre) interlude, intermède. 2 chem. intermediate.

INTERMÉDIAIRE, ang-tay-may-dyayr, adj. mf. intermediary, intervening.

INTERMÉDIAT, ang-tay-may-dyah, adj. m. fem. — e, 1 intermediate. 2 (substantif) medium. sm. 1 intermedium. 2 (entre) intermediate.

INTERMINABLE, ang-tay-me-nabi', adj. mf. interminable, unceasing, never ending. L'amour avec ses —s causeries, love with its interminable chats. Balz.

INTERMISSION, ang-tay-me-syong, sf. (Lat.) med. intermission. Sans —, unintermittingly. Il y a eu quelque — à son mal, there has been some intermission in his malady.

INTERMITTENCE, ang-tay-mit-tangs, sf. 1 med. intermission. 2 (rare) intermission. 3 (à des —s d'ardeur et de découragement, he has alternate fits of ardour and discouragement. St-B.

INTERMITTENT, ang-tay-mit-tang, adj. m. fem. — e, 4 med. intermittent. Fievre — e, intermittent fever. Pouls —, intermittent pulse. Type —, intermittent characteristic. 2 Fontaine, source — e, intermittent jet, source.

INTERMIXION, See IMMIXION.

INTERMUSCULAIRE, ang-tay-r-mûs-kûl-ayr, adj. mf. anat. intermuscular.

INTERNAT, ang-tay-nah, sm. 4 boarding-school. 2 (dans un hôpital, in an hospital) house-surgeon's employment.

INTERNATIONAL, ang-tay-nah-syonal, adj. m. fem. — e, international.

INTERNE, ang-tay-n, adj. mf. 1 internal. Élève —, boarder. 2 (d'un hôpital, in an hospital) house-surgeon. 3 anat. inward. La face du crâne, the inward part of the skull. 4 patrol. inward. Douleur — inward pain. 5 philos. inward. 6 (substantif) boarder. 7 (substantif) house-surgeon.

INTERNER, ang-tay-nay, va. polit. com. to relegate into the interior.

INTERNER, vn. polit. to be relegated in the interior of the country.

INTERNONCE, ang-tay-nongs, sm. (Lat. internuntius) internuncio.

INTEROSSEUX, ang-tay-o-sub, adj. m. fem. interosseus, anat. interosseal, interosseous.

INTERPELLATION, ang-tay-pel-lah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 interpellation, summons, call. Sur l'— de signer, on being called on to sign. 2 fam. question.

INTERPELLER, ang-tay-pel-lay, va. (Lat. interpellare) 1 to summon, to request. L'huissier l'ayant interpellé de signer, il déclara ne point savoir, the clerk of the court having summoned him to sign his name, he declared he could not write. 2 (summer de répondre) to summon. Je vous interpelle de dire la vérité, I call on you to declare the truth. 3 fam. to assert. Il m'interpella d'une manière assez incivile, he questioned me in a rather uncivil manner. 4 Interpelle votre conscience, I appeal to your conscience. 5 à parliament, put a question to.

INTERPOLATEUR, ang-tay-po-lit-uh, sm. (Lat.) interpolator.

INTERPOLATION, ang-tay-po-lah-syong, sf. (Lat.) interpolation.

INTERPOLE, ang-tay-po-lay, va. (Lat. interpolare) to interpolate.

INTERPOSE, ppa. of INTERPOSER, fem. — e, 4 Négocier par personnes —es, to negotiate through the medium of others. 2 law. Personne — e, intermediary person.

INTERPOSER, ang-tay-po-zay, ru. (Lat. interponere) to interpose. fig. — son autorité, to interpose one's authority.

INTERPOSER, vpr. to interpose one's self.

INTERPOSITION, ang-tay-po-ze-syong, sf. (Lat.) 4 interposition. L'— de la lune entre le soleil et la terre, the interposition of the moon between the sun and the earth. 2 law. — de personne, personal interposition. 3 (intervention) l'— de l'autorité du roi, the interposition of the king's authority.

INTERPRÉTATIF, ang-tay-pray-tat-if, adj. mf. fem. INTERPRÉTATIF, interpretative.

INTERPRÉTATION, ang-tay-pray-tah-syong, sf. (Lat.) interpretation, construction. Fausse —, misinterpretation, misconception. On donne à tous vos discours une mauvaise —, a bad construction is put on all your observations.

INTERPRÈTE, ang-tay-pray-t, s. mf. (Lat. interpretes) 1 interpreter. Cet écrivain grec n'a pas encore trouvé de meilleur —, that Greek author has not yet found a better interpreter. 2 (truchement) interpreter. — de la Porte, interpreter, dragoman to the Sublime Porte. 3 (qui éclaircit le sens d'un auteur, d'un discours) interpréter. L'Eglise est la seule — sûre de l'écriture Sainte, the Church is the only safe interpreter of Scripture. Cet — a mal entendu, a mal expliqué ce passage, that interpreter has wrongly understood, badly explained that passage. 2 (qui a charge de faire connaître les intentions de quelqu'un) interpréter. Soyez l'— de mes sentiments, be the interpreter of my sentiments. fig. La parole d'est plus l'— du cœur, speech is no longer the interpreter of the heart. Mass. 5 (celui qui explique ce que préseige quelque chose) augur. — du vol des oiseaux, augur of the flight of birds.

INTERPRETER, ang-tayr-pray-tay, vo. (Lat. interpretare) 1 to interpret, to explain. 1 Les Septante ont interprété l'Ancien Testament, the Seventy interpreted the Old Testament. 2 (expliquer) to interpret, to read. Comment interprétez-vous ce passage? how do you interpret that passage? — one loi, to interpret a law. 3 (expliquer par induction) to interpret. Est-ce à vous — ma pensée? is it for you to interpret my idea? — les songes, to interpret dreams. 4 (prendre en bonne ou en mauvaise part) to put a good, a bad construction on. C'est l'ordinaire des malheureux d'— toutes choses sinistrement, the unhappy usually put an inconspicuous construction on all things. La Foul.

S'INTERPRETER, vpr. 1 to be interpreted. Les clauses d'une convention doivent s'— les unes par les autres, the clauses of a convention ought to explain each other. 2 to be badly understood. Et c'est souvent à mal que le bien s'interprète, and good is often misinterpreted. Mal. Cette action peut s'— en bien, s'— en mal, s'— en mauvaise part, this action may receive a favourable, an unfavourable explanation, may have a bad construction put on it.

INTERREGNE, ang-tayr-tay-nynh, sm. (Lat. interregnum) 1 interregnum, interregnum. 2 (des États gouvernés par d'autres que par des rois) interregnum.

INTERROGANT, ang-tay-ro-gang, adj. gram. of interrogation. Point —, note of interrogation.

INTERROGATEUR, ang-tay-ro-gat-ubr, sm. fem. INTERROGATRICE, interrogatrix.

INTERROGATIF, ang-tay-ro-gat-if, adj. m. fem. INTERROGATIVE, gram. interrogative, interrogatory.

INTERROGATION, ang-tay-ro-gah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 question, interrogation. Faire des —s à quelqu'un, to ask questions of, to put questions to a person. 2 rhet. interrogation. 3 gram. Point d'—, interrogation, note of interrogation.

INTERROGATOIRE, ang-tay-ro-gat-obair, sm. 1 examination. 2 (procès-verbal) interrogatory.

INTERROGER, ang-tay-ro-zhay, va. znous INTERROGONS; INTERROGÉE, (Lat. interrogare) 1 to question, to interrogate (upon), to ask questions of. 2 schol. to examine. — un candidat, to examine a candidate. 3 fig. to consult. — son miroir, to consult one's mirror. — l'histoire, to consult history. Des victimes vous-même interrogez le flanc, consult the entrails of the victims yourself. Rac.

S'INTERROGER, vpr. 1 (reflect.) to examine one's self, to examine one's own heart. 2 (reppir.) to question, to interrogate each other.

INTERROI, ang-tay-rood, sm. INTERREX.

INTERROMPRE, ang-tay-roop, va. conjug. like rompre, (Lat. interrompere) 1 to interrupt, to break, to break off, to break on, upon. On a fait une digue pour le cours de la rivière, a dam was constructed to divert the course of the river. fig. — un discours, to interrupt a speech. Ces événements interrompirent nos travaux, those events interrupted our labours.

N'interrompez pas son sommeil, do not disturb his sleep. Il interrompit le cours de ses contemplations, he interrupted the course of his contemplations. Fléch. Allons, il est écrit qu'il viendra toujours m'—, what a nuisance! I am fated to be continually interrupted by him. Sci. — quelqu'un dans ses prières, to disturb a person in his prayers. On a interrompu l'orateur au milieu de son discours, the speaker was interrupted in the midst of his speech. Sans vous —, pardon me for interrupting you. 2 law. — la possession, — la prescription, — la péremption, to interrupt the possession, the prescription, the péremption.

S'INTERROMPRE, vpr. 1 to interrupt one's self, to stop. Il s'interrompit au milieu de son récit, he stopped in the midst of his recital. L'orateur s'interrompit tout à coup, the speaker suddenly stopped.

INTERROMPU, ang-tay-rong-pu, ppa. of INTERROMPRE, fem. — E. 1 interrupted, stopped. Sommeil —, broken sleep. Propos —, desultory talk. Jouer aux propos —, to play at cross purposes. 2 bot. Epi —, a stalk with clusters of flowers at intervals.

INTERROMPTEUR, ang-tay-rup-tohr, sm. interruptor.

INTERRUPTION, ang-tay-rup-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 interruption. Sans —, without interruption, uninterrupted, uninterruptedly. Eprouter des —s, to meet with interruptions. A Venise, le bruit des rames est l'unique — au silence général, at Venice, the noise of the oars is the only interruption of the general silence. Mme de Staël. 2 (action d'interrompre) interruption.

INTERSECTION, ang-tayr-sek-syong, sf. 1 anat. intersection. 2 geom. Point d'—, intersection.

INTERSTICE, ang-tayr-stis, sm. (Lat. interstitium) 1 interstice. 2 nat. phil. interstices. Les —s d'un corps, the interstices of a body.

INTERTROPICAL, ang-tayr-tro-pe-kal, adj. m. fem. —, intertropical.

INTERVALLE, ang-tayr-val, sm. (Lat. intervallum) 1 interval, distance. 2 — de temps, space of time. Tant d'années d'—, so many years' interval. Par —s, at intervals. Dans l'—, in the mean time. 3 mus. interval. — de tierce, de quarte, interval of a third, of a fourth.

INTERVENANT, ang-tayr-vuh-nang, ppr. of INTERVENIR, adj. m. fem. — E. 1 intervening. 2 law. (substantif.) intervening party.

INTERVENIR, ang-tayr-vuh-neer, vn. (Lat. intervenire) 1 to interfere, to intervene (in). 2 law. (dans un procès, in a lawsuit) to interpose, to become a party. 3 (se rendre médiateur) to interpose, to be a mediator. 4 (interposer son autorité, etc.) to interpose. 5 law. (impers.) (des jugements, etc., of judgments, etc.) Il intervient plusieurs arrêts, several judgments were given in the course of the affair.

INTERVENTION, ang-tayr-vuh-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 intervention, interference, interposition. L'— a été reçue, the intervention has been accepted. Cela nécessite l'— de la force armée, that rendered necessary the intervention of the armed force. Non —, non-intervention. 2 law. com. — a protêt, acceptance of a bill after protest.

INTERVERSION, ang-tayr-vayr-syong, sf. (Lat.) inversion.

INTERVERTIR, ang-tayr-vayr-teer, va. (Lat. intervertere) to invert, to reverse, to change.

INTESTAT, ang-tayr-tah, adj. nif. intestate. Hériter ab —, to inherit an intestate's estate. Hériter ab —, the heir of one who died intestate.

INTESTIN, ang-tayr-tang, adj. m. fem. —, 1 intestine. fig. Guerre — e. intestine war. 2 med. Fièvre — e. internal fever.

INTESTIN, sm. anat. intestine. — grêle, small intestines. Gros —s, large intestines. Les —s, entrails.

INTESTINAL, ang-tayr-te-nal, adj. m. fem. — E. anat. intestinal. Le tube —, the intestinal tube. Vers intestinaux, intestinal worms.

INTIMATION, ang-te-mah-syong, sf. (Lat.) notification, notice.

INTIME, ang-teem; adj. mf. (Lat. intimus) 1 inward. Connaître la nature — d'une chose, to know the inward nature of a thing. 2 fig. intimate. Laisson —, intimate connection. Avoir des relations —s avec quelqu'un, to have intimate relations with a person. 3 (morally) intimate. J'en ai l'— conviction, I am convinced of it in my heart. 4 (substantif.) La raison en était au plus — de ses réflexions, the queen was buried in thought. Al. Dum. Dans l'— de la volonté de Dieu, in the most intimate will of God. Pasc. 5 fig. Ami —, intimate friend. Ils sont très —s, they are very intimate. 6 (substantif.) C'est son —, he is his intimate friend.

INTIME, ppa. of INTIMER, fem. — E. (substantif.) law. appeal.

INTIMEMENT, ang-teem-mang, adv. 1 intimately, closely. 2 fig. intimately. Ils sont unis —, they are intimately connected. 3 fig. — persuadé, — convaincu, intimately persuaded, convinced.

INTIMER, ang-te-may, va. (Lat. intimare) 1 to notify, to enjoin. L'ordre lui fut intimé, he was enjoined. 2 law. to give legal notice of. 3 (appeler en justice) to appeal. — on conseil, to appoint the place and time for a council to meet, to assemble.

INTIMIDATION, ang-te-me-dah-syong, sf. intimidation.

INTIMIDER, ang-te-me-day, va. to intimidate, to frighten, to abash.

S'INTIMIDER, vpr. to be, to become intimidated. Il ne s'intimide pas facilement, he is not easily intimidated.

INTIMITÉ, ang-te-me-day, sf. 1 intimacy, closeness, close connection. 2 (liaison) intimacy. Ces deux personnes vivent ensemble dans la plus grande —, these two persons live together in the greatest intimacy.

INTITULE, ppa. of INTITULER, fem. — E. 1 entitled. 2 (substantif.) L'— d'un acte, d'un jugement, the title of an act, of a judgment.

INTITULER, ang-te-le-lay, va. (from Lat. in, titulus) 1 to entitle. Comment cette pièce est-elle intitulée? what is the title of that play? 2 law. — un acte, to put the title to a document.

S'INTITULER, vpr. to entitle one's self, to take the title of, to call one's self.

INTOLÉRABLE, ang-to-lay-rab, adj. mf. 1 intolerable, insufferable, unbearable. 2 (qu'on ne peut tolérer) intolerable.

INTOLÉRANCE, ang-to-lay-ran, sf. (Lat. intolerantia) intolerance. La raison est le préservatif de l'—, reason is the preservative against intolerance. J.-J. Rousseau.

INTOLERANT, ang-to-lay-rang, adj. m. fem. — E. 1 intolerant. 2 (substantif.) Les —s, the intolerant.

INTOLERANTISME, ang-to-lay-rang-tism, sm. intolerance.

INTONATION, ang-to-nah-syong, sf. 1 intonation. 2 (l'action de mettre un chant sur le ton dans lequel il doit être) intonation. Faire l'— d'un chant, to intonate a song. 3 (by extension) intonation. Sa voix, même dans les —s les plus familières, dénotait l'habitude du commandement, even the most familiar intonations of his voice denoted the habit of command. Al. Dum.

INTOXICATION, ang-tok-se-kah-syong, sf. (from Lat. in, toxicum) intoxication.

INTRADOS, ang-trah-do, sm. arch. intrados.

INTRADUISIBLE, ang-trad-de-zib', adj. mf. untranslatable.

INTRAITABLE, ang-tray-lab', adj. mf. 1 untractable, untractable, unmanageable. 2 (substantive) S. était —, il trouvait tout mauvais. S. was untractable, he disapproved of every thing. 3 (dérivable) unreasonable. Il est — sur ce point, he is unreasonable on that point.

INTRAMUROS, ang-trah-mi-ròs, adv. de. (Lat.) within walls.

INTRANSITIF, ang-trang-ze-tif, adj. m. fem. intransitive, gram. intransitive.

INTREPIDÉ, ang-tray-peé, adj. mf. 1 intrepid, undaunted, doubtless. 2 (d'une personne, etc., of persons, etc.) undaunted. Un solliciteur —, an undaunted petitioner.

INTREPIDEMENT, ang-tray-peé-mang, adv. intrepidly, undauntedly.

INTREPIDITÉ, ang-tray-pe-de-tay, sf. intrepidity, undauntedness, doubtlessness. Il a fait preuve d'—, he has given proof of his intrepidity.

INTRIGANT, ang-tre-gang, adj. m. fem. —, 1 intriguing, meddling. Il est — comme tous les diables, he is as intriguing as the devil. Le Sage. 2 (substantive) intriguer. A Paris, tous les gens importants sont menés par —, they are led by some intriguing woman of their society. M^{me} de Gir.

INTRIGUE, ang-treeg, sf. (from intriguer) 1 intrigue. Un homme d'—, an intriguing man. Vivre d'—, to live by one's wits. Les — de la cour, du cabinet, the intrigues of the court, of the cabinet. 2 lit. (d'une pièce de théâtre, of a play) intrigue, plot. L'— se noue, the plot thickens. 3 (incident fâcheux) embarrassment, scrape. Me voilà hors d'—, now I am out of that scrape. 4 (commerce secret de galanterie) intrigue, adventure. Friandise de l'— et tendre à la fleuriste, eager for an intrigue, and ready to listen to flattering tales. Nol INTRIGUÉ, ppa. of INTRIGUER, fem. —, 1 puzzled, perplexed. 2 (d'une pièce de théâtre) plottéd.

INTRIGUER, ang-tre-gay, va. (Lat. intricare) 1 to puzzle, to perplex. 2 (théâtre) to lay the plot. Il intrigait ses pièces comme les Espagnols, he laid the plots of his plays after the manner of Spanish authors. Volt.

INTRIGUER, vn. to intrigue, to form plots. S'INTRIGUER, ppr. to intrigue. S'— partout, to creep in everywhere.

INTRINSEQUE, ang-traeg-sek, adj. mf. intrinsic, intrinical. Valeur —, intrinsic value.

INTRINSEQUEMENT, ang-trang-sek-mang, adv. intrinsically.

INTRODUCTEUR, ang-tro-dük-tohr, sm. fem. INTRODUCTIVE, introducer. — des ambassadeurs, master of the ceremonies.

INTRODUCTIF, ang-tro-dük-tif, adj. m. fem. INTRODUCTIVE, law. introductory, preparatory.

INTRODUCTION, ang-tro-dük-syong, sf. (Lat. introduction. Lettre d'—, letter of introduction. L'— d'un ambassadeur après du roi, the presentation of an ambassador to the king. 2 lit. L'— d'un personnage dans un roman, the introduction of a personage in a novel. 3 fig. (à une science, etc.) introduction; à la physique, introduction to natural philosophy. 4 fig. (discours préliminaire) introduction. 5 (d'une chose dans une autre) introduction. L'— d'une sonde, the introduction of a probe. fig. L'— d'une coutume, d'une marchandise, the introduction of a custom, of goods. fig. L'— d'un mensonge, the introduction of falsehood. Pasc. 6 law. L'— d'une instance, the first process of a lawsuit.

INTRODUIRE, ang-tro-düer, va. conj. like CONDUIRE. (Lat. introducere) 1 to introduce, to show in. — un ministre étranger auprès d'un prince, to usher a foreign minister into the presence of a prince. On m'introduisit, I was shown in. 2 (dans un lieu, dans une société, etc.) to introduce. Il vous a introduit chez un tel, he has introduced you to Such-a-one. Il veut que ma lettre l'introduise auprès de vous, he wishes my letter to introduce him to you. M^{me} de Sév. 3 lit. (dans un dialogue, dans une pièce de théâtre, etc.) to introduce. — un personnage, sur la scène, to introduce a character on the stage. 4 (une chose dans une autre) to introduce, to put, to thrust. — des marchandises, to introduce, to import goods. L'ouverture était assez grande pour qu'on pût y — la main, the opening was large enough to put one's hand in. 5 fig. (faire adopter) to introduce. — une nouvelle mode, un nouveau traitement, to introduce a new fashion, a new treatment. Il ne voulait — dans ses États ni les mœurs turques, ni les persanes, mais les nôtres, it was not his wish to introduce into his dominions the manners of the Turks or Persians, but ours. Volt. 6 fig. (causer) to occasion, to cause. — le désordre, la confusion, to occasion disorder, confusion.

S'INTRODUIRE, ppr. 1 to introduce one's self (to), to find one's way (into), to get in. Il s'introduisit par la fenêtre, he got in by the window. fig. Certaines gens faisant les empressés s'introduisoient dans les affaires, some people putting on a show of zeal intermeddled with every thing. La Font. 2 (des choses, of things) to introduce itself, to be introduced, to be brought on, to enter, to penetrate, to slip in, to creep in. L'air qui s'introduit dans les poumons, the air which penetrates into the lungs. fig. Rechercher comment les idées s'introduisent dans l'esprit, to search how the ideas are introduced into the mind.

INTRODUIT, ang-tro-düé, ppa. of INTRODUIRE, introduced, shown in.

INTROÏT, ang-tro-it, sm. (Lat. introitus) cath. rel. introit.

INTROMISSION, ang-tro-mis-syong, sf. (Lat.) intromission.

INTROMISSION, ang-tro-ne-zah-syong, sf. of INTROMISSION.

INTROMISE, ang-tro-ne-zay, va. 1 rel. to enthrone. 2 fig. fam. to praise, to laud.

S'INTROMISE, ppr. fig. fam. to push one's self forward.

INTROUVABLE, ang-tro-ouvab', adj. mf. undiscoverable, that cannot be found.

INTRUS, ang-trü, ppa. of the obsolete verb S'INTRUS, adj. m. fem. —, 1 intruded. 2 (by extension) (d'une personne qui sans droit s'est introduite dans quelque chose, etc.) intruded. Il s'est — dans cette intellie, he has intruded himself into that guardianship. 3 Un évêque —, a bishop not legally appointed. (substantive) Celui-là est le vrai titulaire, l'autre est l'—, this one is the real titular, the other is the intruder. 4 (substantive) (by extension) intruder. Sur moi, sur vos enfants, une — s'empare, over me, over your children an intruder prebails. E. Aug.

INTRUSION, ang-trü-zyong, sf. intrusion.

INTUITIF, ang-tü-e-tif, adj. m. fem. intuitive. philos. theol. intuitive.

INTUITION, ang-tü-e-syong, sf. intuition. philos. Vérité d'—, an intuitive truth. (by extension) L'amour a ses —, comme le génie a les siennes, love has its intuitions as well as genius. Balz.

INTUITIVEMENT, ang-tü-e-tiv-mang, adv. theol. intuitively.

INTUMESCENTE, ang-tü-mays-sangs, sf. med. intumescence.

INTUSSUSCEPTION, ang-tüs-süs-sep-syong, sf. intussusception, intussusception.

INULE, e-nü, sf. bot. inula.

INCLINE, e-nü-leen, sf. chem. incline.

INCUSITE, e-nü-ze-lay, adj. m. fem. —, unusual, unused, not in use.

INUTILE, e-nü-teel, adj. mf. 1 useless. Un travail, une peine —, useless work, trouble. Voilà bien des paroles —, all those arguments are unavailing. Il est — d'essayer, it is useless to try. Lui parler est le plus qu'—, to talk with him would have been worse than useless. 2 (dont on ne se sert pas) useless. Un meuble —, a useless piece of furniture. Laisser quelqu'un —, not to employ the talents of a person.

INUTILEMENT, e-nü-teel-mang, adv. uselessly, to no purpose, in vain.

INUTILITÉ, e-nü-te-le-tay, sf. 1 uselessness, inutilité, unprofitableness. On a reconnu l'— de cette machine, the uselessness of that machine has been admitted. Il s'est aperçu de l'— de ses visites, he perceived the fruitlessness of his visits. 2 (défaut d'emploi) unscrupulousness. Laisser un homme dans l'—, not to use a person's services. 3 —, pl. useless things, impertinencies, trifles.

INVAINC, ang-vang-kü, adj. m. fem. —, unvanquished. Ton bras est — et non pas invincible, your arm has not yet been vanquished, but it may be. Corn.

INVALIDE, ang-val-éed, adj. mf. 1 infirm, invalid. 2 mil. disabled. 3 naut. disabled. 4 fig. law. Acte —, invalid act.

INVALIDÉ, ppa. of INVALIDER, 1 invalid, pensioner. 2 (in Paris) (hôtel) Les —, s. hospital for disabled soldiers, sailors, hospital for invalids, the Invalids.

INVALIDEMENT, ang-val-id-mang, adv. invalidly.

INVALIDER, ang-val-e-day, va. law. to invalidate, to quash.

INVALIDITÉ, ang-val-e-de-tay, sf. law. invalidity.

INVARIALIBILITÉ, ang-var-yab-e-le-tay, sf. invariableness, unalterableness.

INVARIABLE, ang-var-yab', adj. mf. 1 invariable, unchangeable, unalterable. La loi est une —, faith is one and unchangeable. Pasc. 2 gram. invariable.

INVARIABLEMENT, ang-var-yab-lu-mang, adv. invariably, unchangeably.

INVASION, ang-vah-zyong, sf. (Lat. invasio). L'— de l'Angleterre par Guillaume le Conquérant, the invasion of England by William the Conqueror. Ce ne fut pas une certaine — qui perdit l'empire, ce furent toutes les —, no particular irruption caused the fall of the empire, it was the result of them all. Montesq. Guerre d'—, invasive war. fig. L'— du mauvais goût, the irruption of bad taste. 2 med. invasion.

INVECTIVE, ang-vek-tiv, sf. (from Lat. invective) invective. Se répandre en — contre quelqu'un, to run on, to inveigh against a person. S'empporter en —, to indulge in invectives, to get in a run of invectives. Son maître vous saisi contre lui un torrent d'—, his master discharged a shower of invectives against him. Did.

INVECTIVER, ang-vek-te-yay, va. to inveigh against, to rail at, on, against.

INVENDABLE, ang-vang-dab', adj. mf. unsalable.

INVENDU, ang-vang-dü, adj. m. fem. —, unsold.

INVENTAIRE, ang-vang-tay, sm. (Lat. inventarium) inventory. Dresser un —, to take, to draw up an inventory. Faire l'— d'une succession, to draw up the inventory of a succession. Faire l'— d'un magasin, to take stock. Faire —, to take the inventory. Sous bénéfice d'—, See BÉNÉFICE. 2 anc. sale by auction.

INVENTÉ, ppa. of INVENTER, fem. —, invented, forged, contrived. Je ten veux dire un trait assez bien —, I will tell you something of him that is not so very bad. Boil.

INVENTER, ang-vang-tay, va. (Lat. inventire) 1 to invent, to find out, to contrive. — un instrument, to invent an instrument, — un moyen, un expédient, to contrive a means, a plan. Les animaux ne inventent et ne perfectionnent rien, animals neither invent nor improve any thing. Buff. prov. Il n'a pas inventé la poudre, he is no conjurer; he will not set the Thames on fire. 2 (supposer) to invent, to contrive, to forge, to frame.

INVENTEUR, ang-vang-tuhr, sm. fem. INVENTRICE, inventor, contriver. Dénit soit l'— de l'épître, praised be the inventor of writing. And.

INVENTIF, ang-vang-tik, adj. m. fem. INVENTIVE, inventive, quick at contrivance. Homme, an inventive man. Esprit —, an imaginative mind.

INVENTION, ang-vang-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 invention, inventive faculty. Ce poète, ce peintre n'a point d'—, this poet, this painter has no invention. Ils joignent à la valeur l'esprit l'—, they join wit and invention to valour. Boss. 2 (action d'inventer) invention, contrivance. L'— de l'imprimerie, the invention of the art of printing. Cela est-il de votre — ? is this of your contriving? Necessité est mère de l'—, necessity is the mother of invention. Brevet d'—, patent. 2 robot. invention. 3 cath. rel. invention.

INVENTORIER, ang-vang-to-ryay, va. VOUS INVENTORIEZ, to inventory, to take an inventory of, to catalogue.

INVERSABLE, ang-vayr-sabl', adj. mf. that cannot be overturned, upset.

INVERSE, ang-vayrs, adj. mf. (Lat. inversus) 1 inverted, inverse. En sens —, in the contrary direction, reversely, the wrong way. 2 (substantif.) Faire l'—, to do the reverse. Faites l'— de ce que vous avez fait, do the reverse of what you have done. J'étais justement l'— de ce que Charles X pensait de moi, I was just the reverse of what Charles X thought me to be. Chat. 3 log. inverse. 4 math. L'— d'une proportion, the inverse of a proportion. 5 nat. phil. reversed.

INVERSION, ang-vayr-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 gram. inversion. 2 mil. inverted order.

INVERTÉBRÉ, ang-vayr-lay-bray, adj. m. fem. —, 1 nat. hist. invertebrate, invertebrate. 2 (substantif.) Les —s, the invertebrates.

INVESTIGATEUR, ang-vays-te-gat-uh, sm. fem. INVESTIGATRICE, 1 investigator, inquirer. 2 (adjectif.) investigating, investigative, inquiring.

INVESTIGATION, ang-vays-te-gah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 investigation, inquiry. Mes premières études ont été consacrées à l'— et à l'analyse philosophique des langues vivantes, my first studies were devoted to the investigation and philosophical analysis of modern languages. Nod. Poursuivre ses —s, to pursue one's investigations. 2 gram. L'— du thème, the investigation into the root of a verb.

INVESTIR, ang-vays-teer, va. (Lat. investire) 1 to invest (with). — d'un fief, to enfeoff. 2 (by extension) mettre en possession, to invest. Il l'investit de toute l'autorité nécessaire pour faire exécuter ces mesures, he invested him with all the authority necessary for executing those measures. 3 mil. to invest (une ville, un camp, a town, a camp).

INVESTISSEMENT, ang-vays-tis-mang, sm. investment.

INVESTITURE, ang-vays-te-tür, sf. investiture.

INVETÉRÉ, ppa. of S'INVÉTÉRER, fem. —, inveterate. Une maladie, une haine —, an inveterate illness, hatred.

S'INVÉTÉRER, ang-vay-tay-ryay, vpr. 1 S'INVÉTÉRER; 2 S'INVÉTÉRER, (Lat.) 1 to become inveterate, (elliptic.) Laisser invétérer, to allow to become inveterate. 2 fig. to become inveterate.

INVINCIBLE, ang-vang-sihl', adj. mf. invincible, insuperable, unconquerable. Ce prince est —, that prince is invincible. fig. Cette imprudence a mis on obstacle — à votre fortune, this indiscretion has put an insurmountable obstacle in the way of your fortune. St-Evr. Argument —, an unvincible argument. Ignorance —, insurmountable ignorance.

INVINCIBLEMENT, ang-vang-se-bluh-nang, adv. invincibly, insuperably, unconquerably.

INVOLABILITÉ, ang-vyol-ab-e-le-lay, inviolability, inviolableness.

INVOLABLE, ang-vyol-abl', adj. mf. 1 inviolable. La personne du roi est —, the person of the king is inviolable. Un asile —, a sacred asylum. 2 (qu'on ne viole point) sacred. C'est on homme dont la parole est —, he is a man whose word is sacred.

INVOLABLEMENT, ang-vyol-ab-luh-mang, adv. inviolably.

INVISIBILITÉ, ang-vo-ze-be-le-lay, sf. invisibleness, invisibleness.

INVISIBLE, ang-vo-zibl', adj. mf. 1 invisible. 2 fig. not to be seen. Il n'affectait point de se rendre — aux étrangers, he did not make a point of withholding himself from foreigners. Volt. Cet homme est —, on ne le trouve jamais chez lui, that man is invisible, he is never at home. Devenir —, to become invisible. Cette montre était tout à l'heure sur cette table, elle est devenue —, that watch was on the table a moment ago, it has now disappeared.

INVISIBLEMENT, ang-vo-ze-bluh-mang, adv. invisibly.

INVITATION, ang-ve-tah-syong, sf. (Lat.) invitation. — à dîner, invitation to dinner. Je n'ai pas reçu d'—, I have had no invitation. Se rendre à une —, to comply with, to accept an invitation. Refuser une —, to decline an invitation.

INVITATOIRE, ang-ve-tat-oör, sm. cath. liturg. invitatory.

INVITÉ, ppa. of INVITER, fem. —, 1 invited. 2 (substantif.) person invited, guest.

INVITER, ang-ve-tay, va. (Lat. invitare) 1 to invite, to bid. — à dîner, to invite to dinner. Nous avons invité du monde, we have invited company. Je vais chez qui ne me plaît, et non chez qui m'invite, I go where I am pleased, not where I am invited. Pons. 2 (engager, porter à) to invite. On l'invite à s'expliquer, il persiste à se taire, they urged him to explain his thought, but he persists in his silence. Je vous invite à vous calmer, I beg of you to calm your self. 3 fig. (des choses, of things) to allure, to tempt. Le beau temps nous invite à la promenade, the fine weather tempts us out.

S'INVITER, vpr. 1 refl. to invite one's self. 2 recipr. to invite each other.

INVOCATION, ang-vo-kah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 invocation. Cette chapel de l'— de tel saint, this chapel is under the invocation of such a saint. 2 (d'on poète, of a poet) invocation.

INVOLONTAIRE, ang-vo-long-tayr, adj. mf. involuntary.

INVOLONTAIREMENT, ang-vo-long-tayr-mang, adv. involuntarily.

INVOLUCELLE, ang-vo-lü-sayl, sm. bot. involucel.

INVOLUCRE, ang-vo-lük'r, sm. bot. involucere.

INVOLUTION, ang-vo-lü-syong, sf. involution.

INOQUER, ang-vo-kay, va. (Lat. invocare) 1 to invoke, to call upon, to call on. — Dieu à son aide, to call upon God for assistance. Invoque-moi un jour de la détresse, call upon me in the day of trouble. — le secours, to call on, to appeal for the assistance, the aid of a person. scrip. — le nom de Dieu, du Seigneur, to call upon the name of God, of the Lord. 2 fig. to appeal to, to plead, to invoke. La loi qu'ils invoquent s'élève contre eux, the law they appeal to goes against them. Ray.

INVAISEMBLABLE, ang-vray-sang-blahl', adj. mf. unlikely, improbable.

INVAISEMBLABLEMENT, ang-vray-sang-blahl-luh-mang, adv. unlikely, improbably.

INVAISEMBLANCE, ang-vray-sang-blangs, sf. 1 unlikelyhood, improbability. 2 (chose invraisemblable) improbability, unlikely thing. Nous souffrons les —s des historiens, we bear with the improbabilities of historians. Nod.

INVULNERABLE, ang-vül-nay-rabl', adj. mf. invulnerable. fig. Être — aux traits de la médisance, to be invulnerable to the shafts of slander.

IODATE, e-o-dat, sm. chem. iodate.

IODE, e-o-d, sm. (Gr.) chem. iodine.

IODEX, e-o-doh, adj. m. chem. iodous.

IODIQUE, e-o-dik, adj. mf. chem. iodic.

IODURE, e-o-dür, sm. chem. iodide, ioduret.

IOLOTHE, e-o-lit, sm. min. iolite.

IONIE, e-o-nee, sf. geog. lonia.

IONIEN, e-o-ne-ang, adj. m. fem. —, lonic. Les Ions —, the lonian isles. Mode —, the lonian manner. Le dialecte —, (substantif.) l'—, the lonian dialect.

IONIQUE, e-o-nik, adj. mf. lonic. arch. L'ordre —, the lonic order.

IOTA, e-o-tab, sm. (Gr.) 1 iota. 2 fig. iota, jot, little. Je copie textuellement et sans changer un —, I copy textually without changing an iota.

IOTACISME, e-o-tas-ism', sm. (Gr.) iotacism.

IOULER, e-o-lay, va. and vn. mus. to sing in the Swiss, in the Tyrolean manner.

IPCACUANA, e-pay-kak-fau-ah, sm. (Per.) 1 bot. ipacacuanha. 2 pharm. ipacacuanha.

IPHIGÉNIE, e-fe-zhay-nee, sf. iphenigia.

IPSO FACTO, ip-so-fak-to, adv. loc. (Lat.) ipso facto, by the act itself.

IRASCIBILITÉ, e-ras-be-le-lay, sf. neol. irascibility, irascibleness.

IRASCIBLE, e-ras-sibl', adj. mf. irascible.

IRATO (ab), adv. loc. (Lat.) in a passion.

IRE, ecr, sf. (Lat. ira) obsol. ire. De Bross. Ce spectacle l'émue et redouble son —, this sight provokes him, and redoubles his rage. La Font.

IRENÉE, e-ray-nay, sm. Irenæus.

IRIDÉE, e-re-day, sf. pl. bot. iridaceæ.

IRIDIUM, e-re-dyom, sm. chem. iridium.

IRIS, e-ris, sm. (Gr.) 1 Iris, rainbow. (by extension) Cette lunette est mauvaise, elle produit on — très-marqué, this glass is bad, it produces a very marked iris. 2 anat. iris. 3 bot. iris, orris. — des marais, flag. — d'Allenague, German iris. — poudre d'—, powdered iris-root. Vart d'—.

IRISATION, e-re-zah-syong, sf. iridescence.

IRISÉ, e-re-zay, adj. m. fem. —, iridated.

IRITIS, e-re-tis, sf. med. iritis.

IRLANDAIS, ecr-lang-day, adj. m. fem. —, 1 Irish. 2 (substantif.) Irishman.

— Irish woman. 3 sm. (langue) Irish.

IRLANDE, ecr-langd, sf. geog. Ireland. Nouvelle —, New-Ireland.

IRONIE, e-ro-nee, sf. (Gr.) irony.

IRONIQUE, e-ro-nik, adj. mf. ironical, ironic.

IRONIQUEMENT, e-ro-nik-mang, adv. ironically.

IROQUOIS, e-ro-kooz, sm. fem. —, 1 geog. Iroquois. 2 fig. kind, loon, peasant.

IRACHÉTABLE, ecr-rash-tahl', adj. m. irreducible.

IRRADIATION, ecr-rad-yah-syong, sf. nat. phil. irradiation.

IRRADIÉ, ecr-rad-yay, vn. nat. phil. to irradiate.

IRRAISONNABLE, ecr-ray-zon-abl', adj. mf. irrational.

IRRATIONNEL, ecr-ray-syou-yl, adj.

m. fem. —LE, † irrational. 2 math. irrational, surd.

IRREALISABLE, eer-ray-al-e-zabl', adj. mf. (little used) infeasible. Perfection —, unattainable perfection.

IRRECONCILIABLE, eer-ray-kong-se-lyabl', adj. mf. irreconcilable, un-reconcilable.

IRRECONCILIABLEMENT, eer-ray-kong-se-lyabl-loh-màng, adv. irreconcilably.

IRREDUCIBLE, eer-ray-kù-zabl', adj. mf. unimpeachable, unexceptional, unobjectionable.

IRREDUCTIBILITÉ, eer-ray-dùk-te-be-le-ray, sf. irreducibility.

IRREDUCTIBLE, eer-ray-dùk-tihl', adj. mf. 1 chem. irreducible. 2 surg. irreducible. 3 alg. irreducible.

IRREFLECTI, eer-ray-lay-she, adj. m. fem. —, inconsiderate, unguarded, heedless, rash, thoughtless, unadvised.

IRREFLEXION, eer-ray-lok-syong, sf. thoughtlessness, rashness, want of reflection, inconsiderateness, unadvisedness.

IRREFORMABLE, eer-ray-for-mabl', adj. mf. irrefractable, irrefragable.

IRREFRAGABLE, eer-ray-frag-abl', adj. mf. irrefragable, incontestable.

IRREGULARITÉ, eer-ray-gùl-ar-e-ray, sf. 1 irregularity. 2 l'état où est un prétre irrégulier) irregularity.

IRREGULIER, eer-ray-gù-lay, adj. m. fem. irrégulier, 1 irregular. Ce bâtiment est —, this building is irregular.

Conduite irrégulière, irregular conduct. 2 (de ce qu'est pas symétrique) irregular. 3 Corps de forme irrégulière, a body of an irregular form. Mouvement —, irregular movement. Vers —, irregular verses. 3 bot. Fleurs, corolles irrégulières, irregular flowers, corols. 4 (morally) orderless. Esprit —, orderless mind. 5 law irregular.

IRREGULIÈREMENT, eer-ray-gù-lay-màng, adv. irregularly.

IRRELIGIEUSEMENT, eer-ray-le-zhyzh-màng, adv. irreligiously.

IRRELIGIEUX, eer-ray-le-zhyzh, adj. m. fem. irreligieux, 4 irreligious, ungodly. 2 (des choses, of things) irreligious. Acte —, irreligious act.

IRRELIGION, eer-ray-le-zhyong, sf. irreligion, irreligiosity, ungodliness.

IRREMÉDIABLE, eer-ray-may-dyabl', adj. mf. irremediable, irremediable. fig. Une faute —, an irremediable fault.

IRREMISSE, eer-ray-mis-sibl', adj. mf. irremissible, unardonable.

IRREMISSIBLEMENT, eer-ray-mis-se-bloh-màng, adv. irremissibly.

IRREPARABLE, eer-ray-par-abl', adj. mf. irrepairable, irrepairable.

IRREPARABLEMENT, eer-ray-par-abl-loh-màng, adv. irrepairably, irrepairably.

IRREPREHENSIBLE, eer-ray-pray-àng-sibl', adj. mf. irreprehensible, irreproachable, blameless.

IRREPREHENSIBLEMENT, eer-ray-pray-àng-sibl-loh-màng, adv. irreprehensibly, blamelessly.

IRREPROCHABLE, eer-ray-pro-shabl', adj. mf. irreproachable, irrefutable, unexceptionable. C'est un homme —, he is an unexceptionable man. Sa vie est —, his life is irreproachable. Témoin —, ir-reproachable witness.

IRREPROCHABLEMENT, eer-ray-pro-shabl-loh-màng, adv. irreproachably, ir-reproachably, unexceptionably.

IRRESISTIBLE, eer-ray-zis-tibl', adj. mf. irresistible, irresistible.

IRRESISTIBLEMENT, eer-ray-zis-te-bloh-màng, adv. irresistibly, resistlessly.

IRRESOLU, eer-ray-to-lù, adj. fem. —, irresolute, undetermined, unsteady, wavering.

IRRESOLUMENT, eer-ray-to-lù-màng, adv. irresolutely, unsteadily.

IRRESOLUTION, eer-ray-to-lù-syong, sf. irresolution, irresoluteness. Être dans l'—, to be in doubt, to stand shilly-shally.

IRRESPECTUEUX, eer-rays-pek-tù-oh, adj. fem. IRRESPECTUEUX, disrespectul.

IRRESPONSABILITÉ, eer-rays-pong-sab-e-le-ray, sf. neol. irresponsibility.

IRRESPONSABLE, eer-rays-pong-sabl', adj. mf. irresponsible. Une assemblée — et souveraine, an irresponsible and sovereign assembly.

IRRÉVERENCEMENT, eer-ray-vay-rab-màng, adv. irreverently.

IRRÉVÉRENCE, eer-ray-vay-ràngs, sf. 1 irreverence. Comme avec — parle des dieux ce maraud, how irreverently this scoundrel speaks of the gods. Mol. 2 (actions, paroles) irreverent actions, language.

IRRÉVÉRENT, eer-ray-vay-ràng, adj. m. fem. —, disrespectful.

IRRÉVOCABILITÉ, eer-ray-vok-ab-e-le-ray, sf. irrevocability, irrevocableness, irrevocableness.

IRRÉVOCABLE, eer-ray-vok-kabl', adj. mf. irrevocable, irrevocable.

IRRÉVOCABLEMENT, eer-ray-vok-kabl-loh-màng, adv. irrevocably, irrevocably.

IRRIGATEUR, eer-re-gat-ùr, sm. 1 agri. watering-engine. 2 injection-pump.

IRRIGATION, eer-re-gat-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 agri. irrigation. 2 med. irrigation.

IRRITABILITÉ, eer-re-lah-e-le-ray, sf. irritability.

IRRITABLE, eer-re-labl', adj. mf. 1 physiol. irritable. Les fibres musculaires sont —, the muscular fibres are irritable. 2 (de la disposition à éprouver très-vivement les impressions) irritable. Il est d'un tempérament fort —, he is of a very irritable temperament. 3 (susceptible) irritable, irascible. L'homme — s'enflamme au moindre mot, the least word puts an irritable man into a passion. Le Sage.

IRRITANT, eer-re-làng, ppr. of IRRI-TER, adj. m. fem. —, 1 law. irritant, rendering null and void, annulling. 2 med. irritant. 3 (substantif) irritant.

IRRITATION, eer-re-lah-syong, sf. (Lat.) irritation. fig. Il fallait laisser à l'— des parties le temps de s'apaiser, it was necessary to leave time for partly irritation to subside. Scrib.

IRRIITÉ, ppa. of IRRI-TER, fem. —, 1 irritated. Avoir l'air —, to look angry. 2 fig. poetic. Le fleuve — franchit ses rivages, the angry river overflown its banks. 3 med. irritated.

IRRI-TER, eer-re-lay, ru. (Lat. irritare) 1 to irritate, to anger, to chafe, to make angry, to provoke, to exasperate, to fret, to goad. Mes attentions l'irritent, my attentions irritate him. J.-J. Rousseau. fig. Vous faites tout au monde pour — ma patience, you do all you can to ruffle my patience. Empis. 2 fig. to irritate, to heighten, to increase. — la fièvre, the malady, to irritate, to heighten a fever, to increase an illness. — l'appétit, to sharpen the appetite. N'importe, parlez, vous ne faites qu'— ma curiosité, no matter, out with it, you only excite my curiosity. Le Sage. 3 med. to irritate, to chafe. 4 (d'une simple excitation) to excite. Cela m'irrite les nerfs, that excites my nerves.

S'IRRI-TER, vpr. 1 to grow, to get angry, to get irritated, to chafe. fig. La mer s'irrite, commence à s'—, the sea chafes. 2 fig. to get irritated, to increase. Mon amour s'irritait par les obstacles, obstacles inflamed my love. Toutes ses passions émus s'irritaient et s'éveillaient, all his passions roused grow angry and excited. Boss. Comme un enfant l'amour s'irrite et pleure de s'être irrité, like a child love gets angry and cries at being so. Flor. 3 med. to get irritated.

IRRORATION, eer-ro-rab-syong, sf. (from Lat. irrorare) did. irroration, bedewing.

IRRUPTION, eer-rùp-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 irruption. Les ennemis firent une — dans telle province, the enemy made an irruption into such a province. fig. L'esprit d'égalité a fait — dans les classes inférieures, the spirit of equality has permeated the lower orders. Virey. 2 (by extension) (d'un fleuve, etc., of a river, etc.) irruption. La mer Rouge a été formée par une — de l'Océan dans les terres, the Red Sea has been formed by an irruption of the Ocean into the land. Buff.

ISAC, e-zab-ak, sm. Isaac.

ISABELLE, e-zab-ayl, sf. Isabel.

ISABELLE, adj. mf. 1 Isabel-coloured, light-bay. Couleur —, light-bay colour. 2 sm. a light bay horse. Voilà un bel —, there is a handsome light-bay horse. — brun, a brown bay. — foncé, a dark bay.

ISAGONE, e-zag-ou, adj. mf. (Gr.) geom. isagone.

ISAIÉ, e-zah-ai, sm. Isaiah.

ISARD, e-zar, sm. zool. chamois of the Pyrenees.

ISAURIE, e-zor, sf. Isaura.

ISCHION, is-ke-ong, sm. (Gr.) anat. ischium.

ISCHIRÉTIQUE, is-kù-ray-tik, adj. mf. med. ischurctic.

ISCHURIE, is-kù-ree, sf. (Gr.) med. ischury.

ISÈRE, e-zayr, sf. geog. Isère (a river and department in France).

ISIAQUE, e-zo-ak, adj. mf. antiq. isiac.

ISIDORE, e-zo-ror, sm. Isidorus.

ISLAM, is-lam, sm. Islam.

ISLAMISME, is-lam-is-m, sm. Islamism.

ISLANDAIS, is-làng-day, adj. m. fem. —, e, geog. Icelandic, Iceland.

ISLANDAIS, sm. fem. —, 1 Icelandic. 2 (langue) Icelandic language.

ISLANDE, is-làng, sf. geog. Iceland.

ISMAËL, is-mah-ayl, sm. Ishmael.

ISOCELE, e-zo-sayl, adj. m. (Gr.) geom. isosceles.

ISOCHRONIE, e-zo-kron, adj. mf. (Gr.) mech. isochronal, isochronous.

ISOCHRONISME, e-zo-kro-nis-m, sm. (Gr.) mech. isochronism.

ISOCRATE, e-zo-krat, sm. Isocrates.

ISOLANT, e-zo-làng, ppr. of ISOLER, adj. m. fem. —, nat. phil. insulating.

ISOLATEUR, e-zo-lat-ùr, sm. nat. phil. insulator.

ISOLATION, e-zo-lah-syong, sf. nat. phil. insulation.

ISOLÉ, ppa. of ISOLER, fem. —, e, adjectif. 1 isolated, insulated, detached. Colonne —, statue —, isolated column, statue. 2 mil. alind. Homme —, soldier —, man, soldier, unattached to any corps. 3 (solitaire) lonely, lone. Une maison —, a detached house. 4 fig. isolated. Vivre —, to live apart. La nature n'a point fait l'homme un être —, nature has not made man a solitary being. B. Const. 5 nat. phil. insulated, isolated.

ISOLEMENT, e-zol-màng, sm. (fr.) 1 loneliness, isolation. Cet état d'— lui est pénible, this state of isolation is painful to him. Vivre dans l'—, to live in retirement. 2 arch. insulation. 3 nat. phil. insulation.

ISOLEMENT, e-zo-lay-màng, adv. separately.

ISOLER, e-zo-lay, va. 1 to isolate, to insulate, to detach. fig. On l'isola de ceux qui, etc., he was isolated from those persons who, etc. 2 Isoler mon existence des faits de l'histoire, I detach my own existence from the facts of history. G. Saut. 2 nat. phil. to insulate.

S'ISOLER, vpr. fig. to live lonely, apart, to avoid society. Le plus méchant des hommes est celui qui s'isole le plus, the most wicked of men is he who shuns society the most. J.-J. Rousseau.

ISOLUIR, e-zo-luir, sm. nat. phil. insulating staid.

ISOMORPHE, e-zo-morf, adj. mf. (Gr.) chem. isomorphous.

ISOMORPHIE, e-zo-mor-fce, sf. ISOMORPHISME, e-zo-mor-fis-m, sm. (Gr.) chem. isomorphy, isomorphism.

ISOSCELE, e-to-sayl, See isosceles.
ISOTHERME, e-to-lyrm, adj. (Gr.)
nat. phil. isothermal.

ISRAËL, is-ra-yil, sm. Israel.

ISRAËLITE, is-ra-yil-lit, s. mf. 4 Israëlite. prov. C'est un bon —, he is a sincere guiltless man. 2 (adjective) Israëlitic, Israëliti. Culte —, Jewish worship.

ISSU, is-sù, ppa. of the obsolete verb issir, fem. —, descended, sprung, issued (from). — du sang des rois, sprung from the blood of kings. Cousin — de germain, second cousin.

ISSUE, is-sù, sf. 1 issue, outlet. Les — d'une ville, d'une maison, the outlets of a town, of a house. 2 (passage, ouverture) issue. Donner — à la faimée, to let out the crowd. Cette eau n'a pas d'—, this water has no issue. fig. Il fallait que par quelque —, l'inquiétude ardente de sa nature se fit jour, some issue was necessary for the violent restlessness of his nature. Rémas. 3 fig. (événement final) issue, event, end. Nous attendons l'— de la guerre, we await the issue of the war. Il faut voir quelle — aura cette affaire, what the termination of this affair will be must be seen, is to be seen. 4 fig. (moyen) issue, way out. Je ne trouve point d'— à cette affaire, I do not see any way out of this affair. 4 batch, offal, garbage. 5 —E, pl. (son, recoupe) refuse grain.

À L'ISSUE DE, prep. on leaving, at the end of. À l'— du dîner, when dinner was over.

ISTHME, istm', sm. (Gr.) 1 geog. isthmus. 2 anat. thyroid gland.

ISTHMIEN, ist-me-ang, adj. m. fem. —NE, isthman.

ISTHMIQUE, ist-nik, adj. mf. antiq. isthmian. Jeux —s, isthmian games.

ISTRIE, is-tree, sf. geog. Istria.

ITAGUE, e-tag, sf. naut. runner. Fausse —, preventer type.

ITALIANISER, e-tal-yan-e-zay, va. to italianize.

ITALIANISME, e-tal-yan-ism', sm. Italicism, Italianism.

ITALIE, e-tal-ee, sf. geog. Italy.

ITALIEN, e-tal-yang, adj. m. fem. —NE, 1 Italian. 2 sm. Italian. 3 (langue) Italian. 4 À l'—ne, in the Italian fashion. 5 —s, pl. (particul.) Italian opera (in Paris).

ITALIQUE, e-tal-ik, adj. mf. 1 Italian. 2 print. italic. 3 (adjectif) italic. Imprimer en —s, to print in italics.

ITEM, e-taym, adv. 1 item, also, likewise. J'ai donné tant pour ceci, — pour cela, I have given so much for this, ditto for that. 2 sm. (article de compte) item. En premier —, firstly. 3 fam. Voilà l'—, that is the main point.

ITERATIF, e-tayr-at-if, adj. m. fem. iterative, law, iterative, repeated.

ITERATIVEMENT, e-tayr-at-iv-mang, adv. law, repeatedly.

ITHAQUE, e-tak, sf. geog. Ithaca.

ITHOË, e-tos, sm. ethics. On voit partout chez vous l'— et le pathos, your language is interlarded with crabbéd Greek words. Mol.

ITINÉRAIRE, e-te-nay-rayr, sm. (Lat. itinerarium) 1 itinerary. 2 (by extension) guide-book. — de Suisse, Swiss guide-book. 3 (adjectif) itinerary. Mesure —, itinerary measure.

IULE, e-ù, sm. 1 bot. julus. 2 ent. julus, galley-worm.

IVRE, ev, IVETTE, e-vel, sf. bot. iva.

IVOIRE, e-voair, sm. (Lat. ebur) 1 (de l'éléphant) ivory. — vert, raw ivory. — végétal, vegetable ivory. Morceau d'—, piece of ivory. Noir d'—, ivory-black.

poetic. Un cou d'—, an ivory neck. 2 (de certains autres animaux) ivory.

IVOINIER, e-vooir-yay, sm. tech. ivory-worker.

IVRAIE, e-vray, sf. bot. lare. fig. Séparer l'— d'avec le bon grain, to separate the tares from the wheat. fig. Le respect humain, cette — de toutes vertus, the fear of the world, that blemish of all virtues. St-H.

IVRE, evr', adj. mf. (Lat. ebrius) 1 intoxicated, inebriated, tipsy, in liquor. Sans être jamais absolument —, il était presque toujours gris de vin, though he was never absolutely drunk, he was almost always flushed with wine. J.-J. Rouss. Être — mort, to be dead-drunk. fig. — de sang, thirsting for blood. 2 fig. drunk, intoxicated. — de joie, d'amour, intoxicated with joy, with love. Un cœur — de gloire, a heart panting for glory. Lebr.

IVRÉE, e-vray, sf. geog. Ivrea.

IVRESSE, e-vress, sf. 1 drunkenness, intoxication, inebriation. Être plongé dans l'—, to be steeped in drunkenness, to be quite drunk. 2 fig. intoxication, rapine, inebriety. L'— de la vérité est plus terrible que l'— de l'erreur, the enthusiasm of truth is more terrible than that of error. Lamart. 3 fig. (enthousiasme poétique) frenzy, enthusiasm.

IVROGNE, e-vro-nyah, adj. mf. (from ivre) 1 drunken. 2 (substantif) drunkard, tippler, toper. Querelle d'—s, drunken quarrel.

IVROGNER, e-vro-nyay, vn. to carouse, to lase. Cela est-il beau d'aller — toute la nuit? is it not shameful to go and tittle so all night? Mol.

IVROGNERIE, e-vro-nyah-ree, sf. 1 drunkenness, tippling. 2 —s, pl. (action de s'enivrer) drunkenness. Cette femme a beaucoup à souffrir des —s de son mari, that woman leads a wretched life from the drunkenness of her husband.

IVROGNESSE, e-vro-nyess, sf. pop. drunkard, drinking gossip.

IXIA, ik-syah, sf. bot. ixia.

IXION, ek-syong, sm. myth. Ixion.

IXODES, ik-sod, sm. pl. ent. ixodes, ticks.

J

J, zbee, sm. the tenth letter of the French alphabet, j. J is an abbreviation for JEAN, JACQUES, JOSEPH, JULES, JÉSUS.

JA, zhab, adv. (Lat. jam) absol. already. — n'est besoin de conter sa vaillance, to recount his deeds of prowess were useless. Chaul.

JABRU, zhab-e-rù, sm. orn. jabru.

JABLE, zhab', sm. coop. groove.

JABLER, zhab-lay, va. coop. to groove.

JABLOIRE, zhab-loair, sf. coop. notcher, notching-tool.

JABOT, zhab-o, sm. 1 (d'oiseaux, of birds) crop, crop. fig. pop. Se remplir le —, to cram, to stuff. 2 (de chemise) frill. pop. Faire —, to make a show of linen; || fig. to look big, to strut, to plume one's self.

JABOTER, zhab-o-tay, vn. lam. to shatter, to jabber, to gabble.

JACAMAR, zhab-aw-ar, sm. orn. jacamar.

JACANA, zhab-an-ab, sm. orn. jacana.

JACASSER, zhab-as-say, vn. 1 (de la pie, of magpies) to chatter, to jabber. 2 lam. to prattle.

JACEE, zhas-ay, sf. bot. knopwood.

JACENT, zhas-ang, adj. m. fem. —E, (Lat. jacens) law, in abeyance.

JACHÈRE, zhas-ayr, sf. (from Lat. jacere) 1 agri. fallow. Terre en —, to lie fallow, fallow land. Être en —, to lie fallow. Laisser en —, to let lie fallow. 2 (la terre même) fallow land. C'est nœ —, it is fallow land.

JACHERER, zhas-ay-ray, va. (Lat.) agri. to fallow.

JACINTHE, zhas-angt, sf. bot. jacinth, hyacinth.

JACOB, zhab-kob, sm. bi. Jacob.

JACOBÈE, zhab-ko-bay, sf. bot. ragwort, groundsel.

JACOBIN, zhab-ko-bang, sm. fem. —E, 1 (religieux) Jacobine. 2 Fr. bist. Jacobin.

JACOBINE, zhab-ko-bin, sf. orn. Jacobine.

JACOBINISME, zhab-ko-be-nism', sm. Fr. bist. jacobinism.

JACOBITE, zhab-ko-bit, sm. Eng. bist. Jacobite.

JACOBUS, zhab-ko-bûs, sm. anc. (monnaie) Jacobus.

JACONAS, zhab-o-nah, sm. jaconet.

JACQUART (s. n.), zhab-kar, sm. 1 a celebrated French inventor, born in 1752, died in 1834. 2 tech. Netier à la —, Jacquart loom.

JACQUE, zhab, sm. ferkin, jacket.

JACQUERIE, zhab-ree, sf. Fr. bist. Jacquerie, rising of the French peasants in 1358.

JACQUES, zhab, sm. 1 James, Jem. 2 Fr. bist. (paysan révolté) Jacques.

JACQUOT, zhab-ko, sm. 1 Jack. 2 pop. parrot.

JAGTANCE, zhab-tang, sf. (Lat. jacontia) boasting, boast, jactancy.

JAGULATOIRE, zhab-à-lat-loair, adj. f. Oraison —, ejaculatory prayer.

JABE, zhab, sm. min. jade, hip-stone.

JADIS, zhab-dis, adv. (Lat. jam jam) 1 in times of old. absol. of yore, whilom. On n'aime plus comme on aimait —, we no longer love as people loved in times of old. M. Desh. 2 (adjectif) —. Au temps —, in days of yore. La Font. Les bonnes gens du temps —, the good folks of olden times.

JAGUAR, zhab-à-ar, sm. zool. Jaguar, American tiger.

JAÏET, zhab-yay, See JAIS.

JAÏLLIR, zhab-yeer, vn. (Lat. jaulari) 1 to quash, to spout, to spirl, to spring up, to leap up. L'oude, en des canaux pressée, s'échappe et jaillit avec force élanée, the water driven out with force, spouts up in close columns. G. Del. Une vive lumière jaillit tout à coup à nos yeux, a bright light suddenly flashed upon our eyes. (by extension) Les jeunes ormes ont un feuillage qui jaillit dans tous les sens comme une pièce d'artifice qui éclate, young elms shoot out their foliage like exploding fire-works. V. Hg. fig. Du sein de l'obscurité où il a vécu il jaillira une gloire, from the midst of the obscurity in which he has lived there will burst forth a glory. B. de St-P. fig.

La lumière jaillit du choc des opinions, truth is struck out from clashing opinions. fig. Il faut que les âmes pesantes se traitent l'une contre l'autre pour faire — la lumière, to strike out truth, reflecting minds must be brought into contact. Volt. Faire —, to spirit, to spirit out, to strike out, to splash. Nous faisons — des jets d'eau des montagnes, we make jets of water spirit out of the mountains. B. de St-P. Muses — une fontaine du rocher, Muses caused water to flow from a rock. Ce cheval a fait — de la bone en galopant, that horse has thrown up the mud in galloping.

JAILLISSANT, zhal-yé-sang, ppr. of JAILLER, adj. m. fem. —, gushing, spirling, spouting, splashing. Des fontaines —es, flowing springs. Flor.

JAILLISSSEMENT, zhab-yis-mang, sm. gushing, spirling, spouting, splashing.

JAIS, zhay, sm. (Gr.) 1 min. jet. Noir comme —, as black as jet. 2 (jeint de diverses couleurs) bugle. Du — blanc, white bugle.

JALAGE, zhal-azh, sm. feud. tax on wine retailed.

JALAP, zhal-ap, sm. 1 bot. jalap. 2 pharm. Racine de —, jalap-root.

JALE, zhal, sf. large bowl.

JALÉ, zhal-yé, sm. obsol. pebble, pebble-stone. Arbalète à —, stone-bow.

JALON, zhal-on, sm. 1 tech. stake, staff. 2 fig. landmark, beacon. Les maximes morales sont comme des — placés sur la route de la vie, moral maxims are like landmarks planted on the road of life. Nod.

JALONNEMENT, zhal-on-mang, sm. staking out.

JALONNER, zhal-on-nay, 4 va. to mark out, to stake out, 2 mil. — une ligne, une direction —, to mark out a line, a direction, with stakes. 3 fig. to mark out. Ces savants jalonnèrent la route pour ceux qui viendraient après eux, these scholars marked out the road for those who should come after them.

JALONNEUR, zhal-on-uh, sm. mil. marker.

JALOUSE, zhal-oo-zay, va. (from jalousie) to be jealous of, to envy.

SE JALOUSE, vpr. to be jealous of each other. Dans la vie militaire comme dans la vie civile on se jalouse, amongst military men as amongst civilians we find mutual jealousy. Thiers.

JALOUSIE, zhal-oo-zee, sf. (Gr.) 4 jealousy. Par —, out of jealousy. Convoier de la —, prendre de la —, to conceive a sentiment of jealousy. Les petites — marquent une âme basse, poltry jealousies indicate an ignoble mind. Fénel. — de métier, professional jealousy. 2 (des animaux, of animals) jealousy. 3 (en amour) jealousy. Sa femme lui donne beaucoup de —, his wife gives him much cause for jealousy. Les tourments de la —, the torments of jealousy. 4 (inquiétude qu'un prince, qu'un État donne à d'autres par sa puissance) uneasiness, ambrage. Les troupes que levait ce prince donnaient de la — à tous ses voisins, the raising of troops by that prince excited the uneasiness of the neighbouring countries. 5 (contrevent) blind, Venetian blind. 6 bot. Fleur de —, sweet William.

JALOUS, zhal-oo, adj. m. fem. JALOUS, (Gr.) 1 jealous. Il est — de votre gloire, he is jealous of your glory. Regarder d'un œil —, avec des yeux —, la prospérité d'autrui, to look with a jealous eye, with jealous eyes, on the prosperity of others. 2 (en amour) Cet homme est — de sa femme, this man is jealous of his wife. Etre — comme un tigre, to be as jealous as a tiger. (by analogy) Transport —, jealous fits, fits of jealousy. Sa jalouse fureur veut me sacrifier, his jealous fury will by my ruin. Corn. 3 theol. Le Dieu —, a jealous God. 4 fig. (qui fait obstacle aux desirs) envious. Un vole jalous dérobe ses charmes à tous les yeux, an envious veil shrouds her charms from every eye. 5 (furt attaché) jealous, emulous. Etre — de sa réputation, to be jealous of one's reputation. 6 (très-désireux) anxious. Il est — de lui plaire, he is anxious to please him. 7 naot. crank, rolling. 8 (des berlines, etc., of coaches) leaning on one side. 9 (sabbatier) jealous person, jealous man, jealous woman. Les —, the jealous. Faire des —, to make many people jealous. La langue du — bérut tout ce qu'elle touche, the tongue of the jealous nun blasts every thing it lights upon. Boss. prov. Il ne dort non plus qu'un —, he can no more sleep than a jealous man.

JANAÏQUE, zhal-mah-ik, sf. geog. Jamaica.

JAMAIS, zhab-may, adv. (Lat. jam magis) never. Je ne l'ai — vu, I have never seen him. Il n'est presque — chez lui, he is scarcely, hardly ever at home. Ne dites — de mal de personne, never speak ill of anybody. Un homme qui ne se trompe —, a never-failing man. C'est un sujet de rire ou l'on s'en eut —, it is a subject of laughter, or there never was one. Rotr. Avez-vous été à Rome? —, have you been to Rome? Never. Elle m'est plus chère que —, she is more to me than ever dear to me. 2 (elliptic) ever. Avez-vous — vu? have you ever seen? C'est le meilleur homme qui ait — vécu, he is the best man that ever lived. — père, en effet, fut-il plus outragé? truly, was ever a father more outraged? Rac. Je sens plus que — la difficulté de mon entreprise, I more than ever feel the difficulty of my enterprise. Boil. A —, for ever. Dieu soit béni à —, God be ever blessed. Pour —, for ever. La mort égale pour — toutes les conditions différentes, death equals for ever all the various conditions of men. Boil. 3 (substantif) never. —, an grand — je ne ferai cela, never, never, will I do that.

JAMBAGE, zhàng-bazh, sm. (from jambe) 1 arch. jamb. — de pierre, jamb-stone. — de cheminée, the side piece of a fire place. Le — d'une porte, door-post. 2 (des lettres, of letters) down stroke.

JAMBE, zhàngb, sf. (It. gamba) 1 anat. leg. Avoir les —s grosses, carées, cangneuses, to have big, short, crooked legs. Avoir la — bien faite, bien tournée, to have a well formed leg. Avoir les —s arquées, to be bandy-legged. L'os de la —, the shin-bone. Avoir mal à la —, to have a sore leg, a bad leg. Il se tenait devant le feu les —s écartées, he was standing with his legs asidre before the fire. — de cà, — de là, with legs asidre. Flor. Avoir les —s croisées, to sit cross-legged. Etre haat sor —s, to have long-legs. — de bois, wooden leg; Il (by extension) wooden-legged man. C'est un vieux invalide, un — de bois, he is an old pensioner with a wooden leg. Aller, courir à toutes —s, to run, to put out one's best leg. Avoir de bonnes —s, les —s bonnes, to have good legs. fig. N'avoir plus de —s, to be dead beat, tired. Renouveler ses —s, to be set on one's legs again. (hyperb.) Je lui promets un bras et —s, I will give him a good cudgelling. fig. Cooper bras et —s, to reduce the pretensions of a person. Prov. Prendre ses —s à son cou, to take to one's heels. Prov. Avoir ses —s de quinze ans, to have one's young legs still. Prov. pop. Il a la — tout d'une venue comme la — d'un chien, his legs are of one size like those of a dog. Prov. fig. Cela ne lui rend pas la — mieux faite, that does not better his position. Jurer quel-qu'un par-dessous —, par-dessous la —, to have no difficulty in getting the better of a person. 2 (de certains animaux, of some animals) thigh. La — d'un cheval, d'un boeuf, the leg of a horse, of an ox. Les — de devant, les —s de derrière d'un cheval, d'un chien, the fore legs, the hind legs of a horse, of a dog. — de cerf, the fore-part of the leg of deer. 3 build. — de force, principal rofter. — sous poutre, basing-stone. 4 naut. sheep-shank. — de chien, spur. 5 (d'un compas, etc., of a pair of compasses) foot. JAMBE, zhàng-bay, adj. m. fem. — Etre bien, mal —, to have good, bad legs.

JAMBETTE, zhàng-bet, sf. 4 (conteau) clasp-knife. 2 build. jamb. 3 naut. timber of the head.

JAMBIER, zhàng-byay, adj. m. fem. JAMBIÈRE, 1 anat. of the leg. 2 (substantif) tibialis.

JAMBIÈRE, zhàng-byay, sf. anc. grease. JAMBON, zhàng-hong, sm. ham. Une tranche de —, a slice of ham. — non fumé, green ham. — de Bayonne, smoked ham.

JANBONNEAU, zhàng-bo-no, sm. gammon, knuckle of ham.

JANBOISE, zhàng-bo-zyay, sm. hot. jamrosade, rose-apple-tree.

JAN, zhàng, sm. tricktable table. Faire son petit —, faire son grand —, to play one's left hand table, one's right hand table. — de rector, outer table.

JANISSAIRE, zhas-e-sayr, sm. (Turk) janizary.

JANÉNISME, zhàng-say-nism', sm. Jansenism.

JANÉNISTE, zhàng-say-nist, sm. Jansenist.

JANTE, zhàngt, sf. tech. felt, felted.

JANVIER, zhàng-vay, sm. (Lat. januaris) January. Le premier —, the first of January. Cela est lien en —, that took place in January.

JAPON, zhap-on, sm. 1 geog. Japan. 2 (porcelaine) Japanese china, Japan.

JAPONAIS, zhap-on-ay, adj. and sm. fem. —, Japanese.

JAPONER, zhap-on-ay, va. tech. to japon.

JAPPÉMENT, zhap-mang, sm. gelping, yelp, yapping (de petits chiens, of puppies). JAPPER, zhap-pay, m. (de petits chiens, of puppies) to bark, to yelp.

JAQUE, zhak, sf. coat. — de mailles, mail.

JAQUELINE, zhak-leen, sf. Jacqueline.

JAQUEMART, zhak-mar, sm. anc. jack. Prov. Etre armé comme on —, to be armed like a scarecrow.

JAQUERIE, See JAQUETRIE.

JAQUETTE, zhak-et, sf. (dimin. of JAQUE) 1 jacket. 2 (d'enfants, of children) petticoat. Des enfants à la —, children in petticoats.

JAQUIER, zhak-yay, sm. bot. bread-tree.

JARDIN, zhar-dang, sm. garden. — fleuriste, flower-garden. — potager, kitchen-garden. — anglais, d'agrément, pleasure-ground. — botanique, botanical garden. — des Plantes (à Paris) Jardin des plantes, zoological garden. Prov. Vous en faites comme des choux de votre —, See choux. Prov. fig. Jeter une pierre, des pierres dans le — de quelqu'un, See pierre. 2 fig. garden. La Touraine est le — de la France, the province of Touraine is the garden of France.

JARDINAGE, zhar-de-nazh, sm. 1 gardening. 2 (collectif) (parties d'un terrain) garden-ground. 3 (plantes potagères) garden-stuff, vegetables.

JARDINER, zhar-de-nay, vu. to garden.

JARDINET, zhar-de-nay, sm. small garden.

JARDINEUSE, zhar-de-nazh, adj. f. tech. (d'émeraudes, of emeralds) spotty.

JARDINIER, zhar-de-nay, sm. fem. JARDINIÈRE, 1 gardener. — fleuriste, flower-gardener. 2 (qui entend bien la culture, etc.) (little used) gardener.

JARDINIERE, zhar-de-nyay, sf. 1 flower-stend. 2 culin. Côtelette à la —, murten chaps à la jardinière. 3 (coudre) low raffie.

JARDONS, zhar-dong, sm. pl. vet jades.

JARGON, zhar-gong, sm. 1 jargon, gibberish. 2 (de langues étrangères) lingo. 3 (particulier à certaines gens) slang. Le — du beau monde, fashionable cant. Le — des couillues, theatrical slang. Votre petit — de galanterie me choque, your nonsensical jargon of gallantry offends me. Mariv. Le mystérieux — de la médecine, the mysterious cant of doctors. La Bruy.

JARGONS, sm. tech. (diamant) jargoon.

JARGONNER, zhar-gonay, v. 1 fam. to talk jargon, gibberish. 2 fam. (transitiv.) Qu'est-ce qu'il jargonnet? what are they jabbering?

JARNAC, zhar-nak, sm. Coup de —, a treacherous blow.

JARNI, zhar-nee, interj. zookers! sounds!

JAROSSE, zhar-oss, JAROUSSE, zhor-oss, sf. agri. reech.

JARRE, zhar, sf. (Sp. jarro) jar.

JARRET, zhar-ray, sm. (Cell. garr) 1 anat. ham, hock, hough. Avoir le — souple, to have a supple leg. Tendre le —, to strain one's legs. Être ferme sur ses —, to stand firm on one's legs; || fig. to stand unmoved; || fig. to put a good face on the matter. 2 (des animaux à quatre pieds, of four-footed animals) hock, hamstring. 3 butch. — de veau, knuckle of veal. — de bœuf, shin of beef. 4 arch. projection, protuberance, unevenness.

JARRETE, ppa. of JARRETER, adjective, fem. — 2, 1 gartered. 2 vet. close-hocked, hoof-bound. 3 arch. protuberant.

JARRETER, zhar-tay, va. to put garters. SE JARRETER, vpr. to put one's garters on.

JARRETIÈRE, zhar-tyar, sf. 1 garter. — 2 élastiques, elastic garters. Attacher ses —, to tie up one's garters. L'ordre de la —, the order of the Garter.

JARS, zhar, sm. orn. gander. fig. pop. Il entend le —, he knows what is what, he is a cunning fellow.

JAS, zhar, sm. naut. stock.

JASER, zhar-zay, va. and vn. (It. gazzia) 1 to chatter, to babble, to prattle, to twaddle. Le soir, après de ma bougie, elle passait à petit bruit, in the evening, with my candle, she would prattle softly. V. Hug. 2 (dire ce qu'on devait leur cacher) to tattle, to blab. 3 (y exécution) to chatter. prov. — comme une pie, comme une pie borgne, to chatter like a magpie, a blind magpie.

JASERAN, zhar-ang, sm. acc. mail.

JASERIE, zhar-rec, sf. faw. chatter, chat, twaddle, tittle-tattle.

JASERON, zhar-rong, sm. tech. braid.

JASEUR, zhar-zhur, sm. fem. JASEUSE, 1 chatterer, prattler, babbler, chatterbox, gossip. 2 (homme en iseret) blab, tatter.

JASMIN, zhar-mang, sm. 1 bot. jasmine, jessamine. 2 d'Espagne, Cutchumam jasmine. 2 min. Fleur de —, jessamine. Huile de —, oil of jessamine.

JASME, zhar, sm. (Gr.) min. jasper.

JASPÉ, ppa. of JASPER, fem. — 2, jasperated, jaspery. Marbre —, green marble.

JASPER, zhar-pas, va. to marble.

JASPURE, zhar-por, sf. marbling.

JATTE, zhat, sf. (Lat. gahata) 1 bowl, pan, porringer. Une — de punch enflammé, a bowl of blazing punch. V. Hug. 2 fig. Cul-de —, a cripple who drags himself along in a bowl.

JATTLE, sf. a bowl full. Une — de lait, a bowl of milk.

JAUGE, zhozh, sf. 1 gauge. Avoir la —, être de —, to be standard measure. 2 (verge pour mesurer la capacité des futailles) gauging rod. Mesurer avec la — to gauge. 3 (futaille servant d'échantillon) standard cask. 4 (ue fontainiers) water-gauge.

JAUGEAGE, zho-zhazh, sm. 1 gauging. 2 (droit) gauging dues.

JAUGER, zho-zhay, va. NOUS JAUGEONS; IL JAUGENT, to gauge.

JAUGEUR, zho-zhur, sm. gauger.

JACMIÈRE zho-myayr, sf. naut. helm-pori.

JAUNATRE, zho-nâtr, adj. mf. yellowish.

JAUNE, zhôn, adj. mf. (It. giallo) 1 yellow. — comme un roing, comme de l'or, as yellow as a quince, as a quince. Il a le teint —, he is of a sallow complexion, he looks yellow. Le fleuve —, the Yellow-River. 2 med. Fievre —, yellow fever.

JAUSS, sm. 1 yellow. — pâle, pale yellow. — foncé, dark yellow. — brun, yellowish brown. — rouge, red-yellow. Le — ne va pas aux brunes, yellow does not become a dark complexion. Tirer sur le —, to be yellowish. 2 (matière servant à colorer) yellow, yellow-dye. — de Naples, Naples yellow. — de chrome, imperial yellow. — indien, purrée. 3 — d'œuf, yolk of egg, yolk.

JAUNET, zho-nay, sm. 1 bot. buttercup, gold-cup. 2 pop. (monnaie d'or) yellow-bay.

JAUNIR, zho-neer, va. to colour yellow, to yellow. Le soleil jaunit les moissons, the sun ripens the corn. La triste froideur jaunit noire verdure, the dreary frost turns the verdure yellow. J.-B. Rouss.

JAVIER, va. to grow, to turn yellow, to get, to become yellow. Son teint jaunît et sa santé s'altéra de plus en plus, his cheek grew wan, and his health declined more and more. B. de St-P.

JAUNISSANT, zho-ne-sang, ppr. of JAVIER, adj. m. fem. — e, yellow, ripening. La moisson — e, the yellowing, the golden harvest. Dans ces prés — s to vois la fleur languir, thou seest the flower languishing in these yellow meadows. Lamart.

JAUNISSE, zho-nis, sf. med. jaundice, yellows.

JAUNOIR, zho-nooir, sm. orn. yellow ouzel.

JAYA, zhav-a, sf. geog. Jura.

JAYANAIS, zhav-an-ay, adj. and sm. fem. — e, Juranese.

JAVART, zhav-ar, sm. vet. quilter.

JAVEAU, zhav-o, sm. woods and for. an allusion deposit.

JAVELAGE, zhav-lazh, sm. agri. swathling.

JAVELER, zhav-lay, va. JE JAVELLE; JE JAVELLERAI, agri. to make into swaths, into shears, to sheaf, to windrow.

JAVELER, va. agri. to make in swaths.

JAVELEUR, zhav-lhur, sm. one who puts corn into swaths.

JAVELINE, zhav-lin, sf. (Lat. jaculum) javelin.

JAVELLE, zhav-ayl, sf. 1 swath, sheaf. Mettre du blé, de l'avoine en — to make up sheaf, oats in bundles. 2 (de sarrasin) bundle, sheaf, barin. 3 chem. Eau de —, eau de Javelle (chlorine in solution with water).

JAVELOT, zhav-lo, sm. (Lat. jaculum) a short javelin.

JAYET, zhav-yay, sm. See JAIS.

J.-B., abbreviation for JEAN-BAPTISTE.

J.-C., abbreviation for JESUS-CHRIST.

JE, zhozh, pers. pron. I. Ai —? here I? — dis et — dirai toujours, I say, and always will say. Moi, j'ai blessé quelqu'un, fis — tout étonné, I have wounded somebody, cried I, all amazed. Mul. Aussi le lui ai — rien dit, so I said nothing to him. — Peut-être ira —, peut-être n'ira —, perhaps I shall go, perhaps not. Fusses — au bout du monde, were I at the extremity of the world. — Vois, — suis — crois — suis désolée, I see, I know, I believe, I am undecided. Corn Aussi puis — vous assurer, thus I can assure you. — ne sais quoi, I don't know what. (substantiv.) Un — ne sa's quoi, a something I do not know what.

Je, abbrev. for JESUS, jun., junior.

JEAN, zhang, sm. John. St —, St John. La St —-Baptiste, the festival of St John the Baptist. Chevalier de l'ordre de St —, knight of St John. — sans Terre, John Lackland. fam. — Lapin, Jack rabbit. La Font. — fam. — farine, booby, silly fellow, head-doddly. JEANNE, zhan, 1 wife, Joan, Jenny. — d'Arc, Joan of Arc.

JEANNETTE, zhan-tet, sf. 1 Janet, Jenny. 2 tech. spinning-jenny.

JEANNETON, zhan-tong, sf. June, Jenny.

JERUSALEM, zhar-zul-sym, sf. 1 geog. Jérusalem. 2 fig. the catholic church. 3 fig. La — céleste, the heavenly city.

JECTISSES, zhek-tis, adj. f. pl. 1 Terres —, made up ground, loose soil. 2 mason. Pierres —, stones small enough to be laid by hand.

JÉHOVAH, zhay-o-vah, sm. J-horah.

JÉJUNUM, zhay-zhu-nom, sm. (Lat.) anal. jejunum.

JÉRÊTE, zhek-tay, sm. Jephthah.

JÉRÉMIADE, zhay-ray-mad, sf. jeremiade. Voilà-t-il pas de vois —? come, none of your jeremides? Mul. Faiseur de — s, croaker.

JÉRÉMIE, zhay-ray-mee, sm. Jeremias, Jeremy.

JÉRÔME, zhay-rôm, sm. Jerome, Hieronymus.

JÉROSE, zhay-roz, sf. bot. rose of Jericho.

JÉSUCITE, zhay-zu-tet, sm. jesuit. — de robe courte, lay jesuit.

JÉSUITESSE, zhay-zu-tess, sf. jesuitess.

JÉSUITIQUE, zhay-zu-tik, adj. mf. jesuitic.

JÉSUITIQUEMENT, zhay-zu-tik-mang, adv. jesuitically.

JÉSUITISME, zhay-zu-tism', sm. jesuitism.

JESUS, zhav-zh, sm. 1 Jesus. — Christ, Jesus-Christ. Un enfant —, an image of the infant Jesus. Un enfant — en cire sous sa cage de verre, a wax image of the infant Jesus in a glass case. Baiz. 2 Papier nom de —, papier —, royal paper.

JET, zhav, sm. (Lat. jactus) 1 throw, cast, toss, throwing, casting. Le — d'une pierre, a stone's cast, the throwing of a stone. Un — rapide, a rapid throw. Le — des bombes, the flight of shells. — de pierre, a stone's throw. A un — de pierre, within a stone's throw. Armes de —, Sse ARMES. — de marchandises, the throwing overboard of goods. Le — d'un flet, the cast of the net. Acheter le — d'un flet, to buy a haul of fish. 2 paint. Le — d'une draperie, the folds of a drapery. Des draperies d'un beau —, drapery in elegant folds. 3 (fonderie) cast, casting. Cette statue equestre est d'un seul —, this equestrian statue is of one cast. 4 fine arts. lit. Cette pièce de vers a été faite d'un seul —, this piece of poetry was written off at a stroke. On croirait que Fenelon a produit le Télémaque d'un seul —, one might suppose Fenelon's Télémaque to be the work of a single effort. Naury. Ce n'est qu'un premier —, it is only a first sketch. Le premier — d'un ouvrage, the first outline of a work. Ce premier — restait à peu près tel qu'il était sorti de son génie, this first sketch remained with little alteration such as his genius had dictated it. Chate. 5 (d'un liquide, d'une lumière, etc., of a liquid, of a light jet, of gas, spirit, stream. — d'eau, jet d'eau, jet, — fig. — de lumière, sudden ray of light. fig. Un — de sang, a stream of blood. La Dame en ses brillants s'élançait dans les airs, the flame with a sudden blaze shoots into the air. Deill. Les premiers —s de la lumière naturelle ne coloraient que les points les plus élevés du paysage. the first rays of dawn tinged only the most elevated points of the landscape. A. de Vigny. 6 rur. écon. — d'abeilles, swarm of bees. 7 agri. shoot. Arbre d'un seul —, tree of a single shoot. Une canne d'un seul —, a cane of a shoot. absol. Voilà un beau —, that is a beautiful cane. 8 naut. — de voiles, set of sails. 9 tech. Premier —, priming of the boiler. — de condensation, — d'eau, condensing jet. 10 [arêtes que laisse le moule sur la pièce fondue] break. 11 [chabroun de brasseur] lade-pail. 12 gas. cock-spur burner. 13 [ouverture pour les matières en fusion] runner, gale-hole. 14 baw. [courroie] jess.

ou PREMIER JET, adv. loc. at the first effort.

JETÉ, zhuh-tay, sm. danc. jeté.
JETÉE, zhuh-tay, sf. 1 pier, jetty, breakwater. 2 [pour rendre on mauvais chemin plus praticable] cawsey, causey.
JETÉ, zhuh-tay, va. JETANT; JETÉ; JE JETTE, tu JETTES, IL JETTE, nous JETONS, vous JETEZ, ILS JETTENT; JE JETAIS; TU JETAIS; IL JETTAIT; JE JETTERAIS; JETTE, JETONN, JETEZ; QUE JE JETTE; QUE JE JETASSE, 1 à throw, to cast, des avent. naut. — to throw, to fling stones. — en l'air, to throw up, to toss, to toss up. — par la fenêtre, to throw out of the window. — quelque chose de haut en bas, to throw a thing from top to bottom. fig. Un bienfait qu'on vous jette laisse votre âme à l'aise avec le bienfaiteur, a service flung to you leaves no feeling of obligation towards the benefactor. C. Del. fig. Cours, jette aux vents l'enlui, run, cast care to the winds. C. Del. — on ébale, on manteau, etc., sur ses épaules, sur les épaules de quelqu'un, to throw a shawl, a mantle on one's shoulders, on the shoulders of a person. Ce vêtement, cette draperie, etc., est jetée avec grâce, avec élégance, etc., this garment, this drapery is thrown with grace, elegance, pait. — une draperie, to throw a drapery. naut. — l'ancre, to cast the anchor. See avant. naut. — le plomb, la sonde, to throw a lead, to take soundings. — ses cartes, to throw down one's cards. fig. — une chose à la tête de quelqu'un, to press on a person something not asked for. — une marchandise à la tête, to offer goods at a great sacrifice. fig. — de la poudre aux yeux, See avant. le froc aux urties, to throw off the coat. fig. — le grappin sur quelqu'un, See avant. Je jetai mon bonnet par-dessus les nuages. See moulin. fig. — on voile sur quelque chose, to throw a veil over a thing. — quelqu'un dans un cachot, dans les fers, to throw a person in prison. — des hommes, des munitions, des vivres, etc., dans une place, to introduce men, ammunition, provisions into a place besieged. hawk. — le faucon, to fly the falcon. prov. fig. — son plomb sur quelque chose, to have an eye upon something. — le manche après la cognée, See avant. — sa langue aux chiens, See chien. fig. S'il disait, s'il faisait telle chose, il ne se serait pas bon à — aux chiens, if he said, if he did such a thing, he would have every one against him. fig. — de l'huile sur le feu, to embitter a quarrel. 2 fig. [mettre, placer] to throw, to place. — les bras autour du cou de quelqu'un, to throw one's arms round the neck of a person. Seul au milieu des nations, le Seigneur m'a jeté comme une herbe arrachée, God has cast me, abandoned among the nations, like a plant torn up by the roots. Lamart. Quelle ardeur inquiète pârni vos ennemis en aveugle vous jette? what restless ardour throws you blindly among your enemies? Racé. Il prétendait qu'on avait jeté on sort sur son troupeau, he maintained that a spell had been thrown over his flock. — on coup d'œil sur quelqu'un, sur quelque chose, to keep an eye on a person, on a thing. —

on regard, des regards de compassion sur une personne, to cast a look, looks of compassion on a person. — les yeux sur quelqu'un, sur quelque chose, to turn one's attention on a person, on a thing, to make choice of a person. — l'effroi, l'épouvante dans une maison, dans le camp, to spread terror in a house, in a camp. — dans l'inquiétude, to cause une easiness. Une erreur de fait, jette un bonnase dans le ridicule, an error in point of fact reduces a wise man to ridicule. La Bruy. Ce mot jette quelque obscurité dans la phrase, this word readers the sentence somewhat obscure. — de l'odieux sur une action, to cast odium on an action. — des soupçons dans l'esprit de quelqu'un, to excite suspicions in the mind of a person. — les fondements d'un édifice, to lay the foundations of an edifice; || fig. — les fondements d'un empire, etc., to lay the bases of an empire, etc. — un pont sur une rivière, to throw a bridge over a river. Le sort en est —, See sort. print. — un blanc, to leave a blank. fig. — son dévolu sur quelqu'un, sur quelque chose, See dévolu. 3 [pousser avec violence, to throw, to drive. — un homme par terre, to throw down a man. Les vents nous jettent sur les écueils, the wind drowns us on to the rocks. fig. Les tourmentes politiques les avaient jetés hors de leur patrie, political troubles had forced them to leave their country. naut. — son navire à la côte, to run one's ship ashore. fig. — une maison, un mar, etc., par terre, to pull down a house, a wall. — bas, to throw down. 4 [jeter, envoyer, lancer hors de soi] to give, to yield, to raise, to drive. Cette fontaine jette beaucoup d'eau, this fountain yields much water. Cette lampe jette beaucoup de lumière, jette un éclat très-vif, this lamp gives much light, a very brilliant light. Une montagne qui jette des feux, a mountain that emits fire. — des larmes, to shed tears. — un soupir, on cri, to heave a sigh, to raise a cry. fig. — les hauts cris, See cri. fig. Il a jeté tout son venin, he has done his worst. Cet homme jette un vilain coton, See coton. — son feu, tout son feu, See feu. — feu et flamme, to fret and fume. 5 med. (des ulcères, etc., of ulcers, etc.) to discharge. Cet abcès jette du pus, that abscess discharges pus. absol. Sa plaie commença à —, his wound began to discharge. 6 (des chevaux, of horses) Ce cheval jette la gourme, une fausse gourme, that horse has the strangles, the bastard strangles. 7 (des mouches à miel, of bees) to swarm. 8 (des arbres, des plantes, of trees, plants) to sprout. Cette vigne a jeté bien du bois, this vine has a great many shoots. absol. Les arbres commencent à —, the trees begin to put forth their shoots. — de profondes racines, to take deep root. fig. Get abas avait jeté de si profondes racines qu'il était bien difficile de l'extirper, this abuse was so deeply rooted that it was very difficult to extirpate. fig. Ce cerf jette sa tête, this stag is casting his horns. 9 absol. (calculer avec des jetons) to calculate with counters. Jetez ces sommes-là, count up those sums. 10 (fonderie) to cast. — une figure, une statue en bronze, to cast a figure, a statue in bronze. — en moule, to cast in a mould.
SE JETER, vpr. 1 to throw one's self, to leap, to spring, to rush. Se — dans un poits, to throw one's self into a well. Se — par la fenêtre, to throw one's self out of the window. Un animal qui se jette sur sa proie, an animal which springs upon its prey. fig. Se — au cou de quelqu'un pour l'embrasser, to clasp a person around the neck to embrace him. Il se jeta au milieu des ennemis, he rushed into the midst of the enemy. fig. Le chancelier se jeta dans l'éloquence pour adoucir ses coups, the chancellor displayed all his eloquence in hopes of mitigating our attacks. fig. Il begaya, se jeta sur des généralités, he stammered and then turned the conversation upon generalities. S'-Sim. fig. Se — dans la dévotion, to turn devotee. Ce fleuve, cette rivière se jette dans telle autre, etc., this stream, this river falls into such another. Se — sur quelque chose, to fall upon a thing. fig. Se — à la tête de quelqu'un, See tête. 2 (se réfugier précipitamment en quelque endroit) to rush. Il se jeta dans le thickest of the wood. fig. Se — dans un couvent, to retire to a convent. 3 naut. Se — à la côte, to run on shore. 4 fig. Cela ne se jette pas en moule, that is not so easy as you imagine.

JETON, zhuh-toog, sm. 1 counter. — de présence, presence-mark. prov. Faux comme un —, false as a brass shilling.

JEU, zhuh, sm. (lat. lucus) 1 game, sport, play. Les — de l'enfance, children's play. — x de société, parlour games. Jouer à de petits —, x, play at forfeits. Il a dit cela par manière de —, he said that in play. On ne veut pas lui faire de mal, ce n'est qu'un —, no one wishes to hurt him, it is only in play. — x d'esprit, witticisms, witty conceits. — x de maies, See main. C'est on rude —, it is a serious affair. Prendre quelque chose en —, to take a thing as a joke. Cela passe le —, cela est plus fort que le —, that is beyond a joke. Ce n'est qu'un —, that is only child's play. Les plus grandes difficultés ne sont qu'un — pour lui, the greatest difficulties are nothing to him. Se faire on — de quelque chose, to make a game of a thing. — x de mots, witticisms, puns, etc. fig. C'est on — à se rompre le cou, les jambes, etc., it is a dangerous game. Le — lui plait, he likes it. Ce n'est pas on — d'enfant, ce n'est pas — d'enfant, it is a serious affair. — de la nature, a freak of nature. C'est on — du hasard, it is a work of chance. Le —, les — x de la fortune, the freaks of fortune. — poétic. Les — x de la scène, theatrical representations. poétic. fig. Les — x sanglants de Mars, the bloody games of war. Ce sont — x de prince qui ne plaisent qu'à eux qui les font, absol. Ce sont — x de ceux qui les prince's games which please only the player. 2 — x, pl. myth. Les — x, les ris et les grâces, the sports, the smiles and the graces. 3 (amusements soumis à certaines règles) game, play. — x de cartes, games at cards. — x d'adresse, — de billard, games of address, billiards. 4 (surtoit des cartes, des dés, of cards, of dice) game. La passion du —, the passion for gaming. Heureux, malheureux au —, lucky, unlucky at play. Perdre au —, to lose at play. Gagner au —, to win at play. Le — lui ruina, gaming has ruined him. Académies de — x, — x public, public gaming houses. Maison de —, gaming house. Les banquiers d'une maison de —, the keepers of the bank in a public gaming house. La ferme des — x, the farming of a public gaming establishment. Tenir un —, to keep a gaming table. Tenir le — de quelqu'un, to play for another person. Mettre au —, to stake. L'argent qui est sur le —, sur —, the money which is staked on the game; || Tenir —, to continue to play with a person who is losing. Ouvrir le —, to open the game. Fermer le —, to close the game. (aux cartes, at cards) Entrer en —, to be one's turn to play; || fig. to be one's turn to do a thing. D'entrée de —, from the beginning of the game; || fig. from the first. Se piquer au —, to continue with obstinacy to play although losing; || fig. to hold out, to persist. Jouer bon —, bon argent, See argent. (by extension) — x de bourse, stock-exchange speculations. fig. Mettre quelqu'un en —, to involve a person in an affair. prov. fig. Le — ne vaut pas la chandelle, See chandelle. 5 (manière de jouer) the game.

Jouer le —, to play the game. fig. C'est son —, that is his best move. fig. C'est un homme qui sait bien son —, he is a man who knows what he is about. 6 (des cartes qui viennent à chacun des joueurs; les points qu'on amène aux dés) the hand, the game. Avoir une carte de trop dans la main. — to have a card too many in one's hand. — Il lui est venu beau —, bien du —, he has got a good hand. Voilà mon — sur la table, there are my cards on the table. Montrez votre —, show your cards. Avoir — sûr, to have safe cards. 11 message, il conduit bien son —, he plays his cards well. fig. Donner beau —, faire beau — à quelqu'un, to give a person a favourable opportunity. (by analogy) Avoir beau —, to have a safe opportunity. Perdre à beau —, to lose with good cards. 7 (manière de jouer) Avoir le — serré, to have a careful manner of playing; fig. (au tric-trac, backgammon) Le — de ce joueur est serré, est pressé, he plays so as to impede his own game. fig. Jouer à — sûr, to be sure of success. fig. Cacher son —, to conceal one's designs. prov. fig. A beau —, beau retour, See RETURN. Faire voir beau — à quelqu'un, to get the better of a person. Faire bonne mine à mauvais —, S.E. MINE. Si on le lache, on verra bien son —, he is not to be attacked with impunity. 9 (mise) the stakes. Jouer gros —, petit —, to play heavily, to play a small stake. Faire le —, to place the stakes. J'y vais do —, je suis du —, (elliptic.) I'en suis, I play the sum staked. Jouer —, Jouer à —, See JOUER. fig. Jouer gros —, jouer naïf à se perdre, to risk one's reputation, one's fortune. prov. fig. Tirer son épingle du —, See ÉPINCER. 10 (jeu de paume, tennis) game. fig. Être à deux de —, to be quits. 11 (by extension) (lieu) ground. Un — de paume, a tennis ground. Un — de boules, a bowling green, alley. 12 (by extension) Un — d'échecs, a set of chessmen. Un — de cartes, a pack of cards. 13 naut. Un — de voiles, a set of sails. Un — d'aviron, a set of oars. 14 — x, pl. antiq. games. Les — x olympiques, olympian games. — x de prix, prize games. — x floraux, floral games. 15 anc. (manèment des hautes armes) exercise. Le — de la hallebarde, halberd exercise. 16 (façon de faire des armes) play. Son — est de porter en avant, his way is to thrust in parrying. Je sais son —, I know his method. 17 (manière de jouer d'un instrument de musique) execution. Avoir le — beau, le — brillant, le — large, bardi, to have a fine, brilliant, bold execution. — d'orgues, organ. Le — de voix humaine, le — de flûte, le — des trompettes, etc., the voice, flute, trumpet notes in an organ. Le plein —, the full tone. anc. — de viole, a set of viols. fig. C'est le vienx —, it is the old method. 18 (d'un comédien, of an actor) acting. Il a le — noble, he has a dignified style of acting. — de théâtre, dumb show, bye play. prov. C'est on — bien joué, it is a well executed intrigue. 19 (de certains ouvrages d'art) play. Le balancier de cette horloge n'a pas assez de —, the pendulum of this clock has not play enough. 20 point. Il y a do — dans cette composition, there is life in this composition. 21 tech. Le — d'un ressort, the play of a spring. Le — d'une machine, the working of a machine. Le — des différentes parties d'une machine, the motion of the different parts of a machine. fig. Le — des passions humaines, the working of the human passions. 22 hydr. — d'eau, the play of waterworks.

JEUDI, zhu-di-dee, sm. (Lat. Jovis dies) Thursday. — gras, Shrove-Thursdays. prov. pop. La semaine des trois —, to-morrow never comes; when two Sundays come together; when two black Mondays come together.

JEUN (A), zhueng, adv. loc. (Lat. jeunus) fasting. Je suis encore à —, I have not yet broken my fast.

JEUNE, zhuun, adj. mf. (Lat. juvenis) 4 young, youthful. — homme, young man, young gentleman, lad, youngster. — s'ens, young people, young folks. — demoiselle, — personne, young girl, young lady. Plas — de deux ans, younger by two years. Les — s'ens sont — s et n'ont pas toute la prudence qu'il leur faudrait, young people are giddy, and have not all the prudence they should have. Mol. 2 (substantif) youth, young person; pl. 2 young people. 3 (marivauds, vieillards) young people. 4 (marivauds, vieillards) voir ces — s mourir, repent thee, old man! behold the youths that die! La Font. — s de langue, cursors for the Oriental languages. 3 (par rapport aux emplois, etc.) young. Il est trop — pour un emploi si important, he is too young for so important an office. 4 (ce qui appartient à un homme jeune) youthful, young. De — s desirs, youthful desires. Le — âge, childhood, youth. Dans mon — âge, in my youth. — s ans, — s années, — saison, youth. Dans mon — temps, in my youth. Cette couleur est —, this colour is young, gay. Cette couleur est trop pour vous, that colour is too young for you, fig. Une — barbe, a youth. 5 (par opposition à aîné) younger. Clark —, marchand de chevaux. Clark junior, horse-dealer. 5 (par opposition à ancien) Pline le —, Pliny the younger. 6 (by extension) (qui a encore de la jeunesse) young. Il ne vieillit pas, il est toujours —, he does not grow old, he is always young, youthful. Il a le visage aussi — que s'il n'avait que vingt ans, his face is as youthful as if he were but twenty. Avoir encore le goût —, les goûts —, to have still youthful tastes; to have still a colt's tooth left. 7 (étourdi) young. Mon bica, qu'il est —, heavens! what a green-horn he is! 8 (des animaux, of animals) young. 9 (des arbres, des plantes, of trees, of plants) young. 10 adim. young, recent, new.

JÉUNE, zhuun, sm. (Lat. jejunium) 1 fast, fasting. — Ordonner un — public, — solennel, an expiation of quelque crime, to solemnize a public fast, a solemn fast in expiation of some crime. Rompre son —, to break one's fast. 2 cath. rel. fast. 3 (toute abstinence d'aliments) fast, fasting. Un trop long — ruine la santé, too long fasting ruins the health. 4 fig. (privation) fast. Nous avons été jusqu'ici dans un — effroyable de divertissements, we have till now been dreadfully weaned of all pleasure. Mol.

JEUNEUN, zhuun-mang, adv. ven. just. Un cert de dix cors —, a slog just turned of ten years.

JEUNER, zhuu-uy, vn. 4 to fast. Il jeûne tous les samedis, he fasts every Saturday. 2 (manger peu, ne point manger) to fast. C'est un avaré qui fait — s domestiques, he is a miser who starves his servants. Il est trop replet, il faut le faire — pour le guérir, he is too stout, he requires fasting to bring him down. 3 fig. to fast. Il y a plus de six mois que je n'ai pu aller au spectacle, c'est trop longtemps —, I have not been able to go to the play these last six months, it is too long a fast.

JEUNESSE, zhuu-nays, sf. (Lat. juvenes) 1 youth. Durant la —, in youth. Dans sa première —, in early youth. Les fautes, les égarements de la —, the faults, the errors of youth. Il fut une — étourdie, once — folle, he led an extravagant life when young. Avoir un air de —, to have a youthful look. (adverbial) De —, from one's youth. Je sais cela de —, I have known that from my infancy. prov. fig. — est forte à passer, est difficile à passer, youth is hard to pass. 2 (collectif) (ceux qui sont jeunes) youth, young people, young folks. Enseigner la —, to teach youth. prov. Si — savait, si vieillesse pouvait, if youth had experience, and old age ability. 3 (collectif) de l'âge de vingt à trente ans) young people, young folks. Il y avait à ce bal bien de la —, there were a great many young folks at that ball. (sometimes for the male sex only) youths, lads. On arma toute la —, all the young men were furnished with arms. 4 pop. (jeune fille) girl, lass. C'est une —, une jolie —, she is a young girl, a pretty lass. 5 (des animaux, des arbres, of animals, of trees) youth.

JEUNET, zhuu-nay, adj. fem. — TE, very young.

JEUNEUR, zhuu-nuhr, sm. fem. JEUNEUSE, faster.

JOAD, zho-ad, sm. Joas.

JOAILLERIE, zho-à-yuh-ree, sf. (from joyau) 1 jewellery, jewelry, jeweller's business. 2 (marchandises) jewellery.

JOAILLER, zho-à-yay, sm. fem. JOAILLIERE, jeweller.

JOBARD, zho-bar, sm. fam. simpleton, ninny, fool.

JOBARDIERE, zho-bar-dree, sf. fam. simpleton's trick.

JOCKEY, zho-jay, sm. (Eng.) jockey. Casaque de —, jockey-coat.

JOCKEY-CLUB, sm. jockey-club.

JOCKO, jo-ko, sm. zool. chimpanzee.

JOCHISSE, jok-riss, sm. 4 nunny. Je ne l'aimerais point, s'il faisait le —, I should not love him, if he were a ninny. Mol. 2 (valet niais) simpleton.

JOHN-BULL, dzhon-bool, sm. (Eng.) John Bull.

JOIE, zho-à, sf. 1 joy, mirth, gladness. Pour avoir de la — il faut être avec les gens réjouis, to be joyful, we must be with merry people. M^{re} de Sév. Etre en —, to be joyful. Cris de —, shouts, cries of joy. Donner, causer de la — à quelqu'un, to rejoice a person. Coucher de —, to overjoy, to fill with joy. Pleurer de —, to weep for joy. Être ravi, transporté de —, ivre de —, to be overjoyed, mad with joy. Transport de —, transport of joy. Mouvement de —, joyful emotion. Tressailler de —, to be transported with joy. Ne pas se sentir de —, to be rap, to be beside one's self with joy. See SENTIR. Nager dans la —, See NAGER. Pousser des cris de —, to shout for joy. Feu de —, bonfire, See FEU. Etre à la — de son cœur, to be glad at heart. Faire la —, être la — de quelqu'un, to be the delight of a person. Elle est ma —, she is my joy. O mon fils, o ma —, O l'honneur de mes jours! O son, O joy, O honour of my days! CORN. Se donner à cœur — de quelque chose, fully to enjoy a thing. 2 (gaie, humor) gaiety, joy, mirth. Cet homme est toujours en —, that man is always merry. La — bruyante des convives, the noisy mirth of the guests. 3 — s, pl. (plaisirs) joys. Chaque jour a ses plaisirs et ses — s, every day has its pleasures and its joys. Nous vivons tous pour vieillir et pour voir les déceptions envahir chacune de nos — s, we all of us live to grow old, and see deceptions invade each of our joys. G. Sand. Le sourire de l'espérance et les — s célestes, the smile of hope and celestial bliss. Chat. 4 Une fille de —, a prostitute.

JOIGNANT, zho-à-yang, pp. of JOIN-DR, adj. m. fem. —, 1 contiguous, adjacent, adjoining, next (to). 2 prep near.

JOINDRE, zho-à-yang, va. irreg. JOIN-ANT; JOINTE; JOINS, NOUS JOIGNONS; JE JOIGNAIS; NOUS JOIGNIONS; JE JOIGNEIS; JE JOINDAIS; JE JOINDRAIS; JOINS; QUE JE JOIGNE; QUE JE JOIGNEISSE. (Lat. jungere) 1 to join. — deux planches avec des chevilles, to nail two boards together. — en coussant, to sew together. — les mains, to join, to clasp hands. prov. fig. Avoir de la peine à — les deux bouts de l'année, à — les deux bouts, See BOU.

 3 (ajouter) to join, to add. Il a joint ces deux jardins, he has thrown those two gardens into one. On est tenu de — à sa réclamation les pièces qui constatent, etc., it is necessary to join to one's demand the documents establishing, etc. Joignez à cela que, add to which. — les intérêts au capital, to add the interest to the principal. 3 gram. — an mot à un autre, to join one word to another. 4 (unir, allier) to join, to unite, to connect. — l'utilité à l'agréable, to unite the useful and the agreeable. Qu'à la haine bientôt ils ne joignent l'adorable, lest ere long they should join audacity to hatred. Rac. 5 (se réunir à) to join with, to meet with. — l'armée, to join the army. Un détachement de l'armée de K. était près de nous —, a detachment of K's army was on the point of joining us. Chat. 6 (atteindre) to join, to overtake, to come up with. — quelqu'un, to meet with a person. Si one lois je puis le —, je lui parlerai comme il faut, if I can once meet with him, I'll talk to him as he deserves.
 JOINDRE, rn. to join. Cette porte ne joint pas bien, this door does not shut close. Faire —, to join.

SE JOINDRE, vp. 1 à join, to be contiguous, to adjoin. L'endroit où ces deux choses se joignent, the place at which those two things join. Cette rivière va se — à telle autre, en tel endroit, that river falls into such another, at such a place. Eu lui se joignaient les qualités les plus opposées, in him were united the most opposite qualities. Me sera-t-il permis de me — à vos vœux? may I be allowed to join in your prayers? Rac. Ils furent anéantis pour s'être joints à A., they were completely destroyed for having joined with A. Montesq. Il se lancera par une fenêtre plutôt que de se laisser — par quelqu'un qui a un visage ou un tou de voix qu'il désapprouve, he would leap out of a window, rather than let any one, whose face and tone of voice he dislikes, approach him. La Bruy. Ils se joignent en tel endroit, they met at such a place. Depuis huit jours que nous sommes à Paris l'un et l'autre, nous n'avons pu nous — une seule fois, we have been a week at P. ris, and we have not been able to meet once.

JOINT, zhooang, vp. de JOINDRE, fem. — e, joined, joint, joined. A mains — es, with clasped hands. A pieds — es, close-legged. Le travail, — à la gaîté, souffre et surmonte toutes choses, labour, joined with cheerfulness, supports and overcomes every thing. Bern.

CI-JOINT, (remaiis masculine when the noun that follows is not preceded by the article, or when it is the first word of the sentence) here inclosed, here annexed, herewith joined. La lettre ci-jointe, the inclosed letter. Vous trouverez ci-joint copie de sa lettre, you will find herewith a copy of his letter.

JOINT QUE, JOINT À CE QUE, JOINT À CELA QUE, conj. loc. added to which, besides which.

JOINT, sm. 1 joint. — de l'épaule, joint of the shoulder. Trouver le —, to find the joint; || fig. to hit upon the best means. 2 tech. (des pierres, des pièces de menuiserie, etc.) joint.

JOINTE, zhooang-tay, adj. m. fem. — e, vet. jointed. Cheval court —, long-short-jointed, long-jointed horse.

JOINTEE, zhooang-tay, sf. two hand-fuls.

JOINTIF, zhooang-tif, adj. m. fem. jointive, arch. carp. jointed.

JOINTOUMENT, zhooang-tood-mang, sm. mason. gromet.

JOINTOYER, zhooang-tood-yay, ra. mason. to gromet.

JOINTURE, zhooang-tür, sf. 1 anat. joint. Toutes les —s du corps, all the joints of the body. Au-dessus de la — above the joint. Il avait des douleurs dans les —s, he had pains in the joints. 2 tech. joint. Ces deux pierres sont si bien ajustées, qu'on ne peut apercevoir là —, those two stones are so well adjusted that the joint is not to be seen. fig. Si on ose hasarder ce terme, les —s de son âme avec son corps furent ébranlées, if I may use the expression, the ties that bound his body and soul together were loosened. St-Sim.

JOI, zhon-lee, adj. fem. — e, 1 pretty, handsome, nice. Un — enfant, a pretty child. Elle est plus — e que belle, she is more pretty than handsome. — garçon, pretty fellow; || ironic. nice lad. Vous venez du cabaret, vous voilà — garçon, you come from the ale-house, you are in a pretty state; || Il a dissipé son bien, il s'est lui — garçon, he has squandered away his property, he is in a pretty mess. Que vous êtes — ! que vous me semblez beau! how pretty you are! how handsome you look! La Font. C'est une — condition que celle de — femme, Fonten. fig. C'est un — sujet, he is a promising young man. Le tour est —, the trick is a pretty one. 2 (avantageux) good. Le voilà maintenant dans une très — e position, he is now in a good situation. 3 (digne d'être vu, appréciée) fine. Ce militaire a fait une — e action à tel siège, that soldier performed a fine action at such a siege. 4 ironic. (d'une personne, d'une chose, d'une chose, d'une chose) pretty. Cela est — de se faire attendre, a pretty thing of you to keep others waiting.

JOI-BOIS, sm. bot. mezereum.

JOI, sm. pretty. Le beau est au-dessus du —, handsome is superior to pretty. Le — de l'affaire est que, the best of the thing is.

JOLIET, zho-lyay, adj. m. fem. — TE, rather pretty, comely.

JOLIMENT, zho-le-mang, adv. 1 prettily, nicely. 2 ironic. prettily, finely. J'ai — arrangé le drôle, I gave it finely to the fellow. 3 (beaucoup) soundly. Vous vous êtes — trompé, you have made a famous mistake.

JOLIVETÉ, zho-liv-tay, sf. 1 anc. knick-knack. 2 (gentillesces d'un enfant) pretty thing.

JONC, zhong, sm. 1 bot. rush. Natte de —, rush-mat, hassock. Canne de —, rattan. Une touffe de —s, un bunch of rushes. 2 bot. (de quelques autres plantes) rush. — deor, water gladiolus. — marin, sea-rush. 3 absol. (canne) Droit comme un —, as straight as an arrow. 4 (sorte de bague) plain ring.

JONCHÉE, zhong-shay, sf. 1 strewing, strewment, strewed flowers, herbs. Faire une — d'herbes et de fleurs, to strew with herbs, with flowers. (by extension) La principale — fut donc des principaux rats, the slaughtered therefore were principally the chiefstains of the rats. La Font. 2 (sorte de fromage) cream-cheese in a rush-basket.

JONCHER, zhong-shay, ra. 1 to strew, to bestrew. 2 fig. to strew, to scatter. Il ne tombe qu'après avoir jonché la terre de cadavres entassés, he does not fall before having strewed the ground with heaps of dead bodies. Aug. Th.

JONCHETS, zhong-shay, sm. pl. spillikins, jack-straws, See BONGHETS.

JONCIER, zhong-syay, sm. bot. rush-broom.

JONCINELLE, zhong-se-nayl, sf. bot. pipe-root.

JUNCTION, zhongk-syong, sf. (Lat.) junction, joining. Il opéra sa — avec la noblesse bourgeoise, he effected his junction with the Burgundian nobility. II. Mart. La — de deux rivières, deux chemins, the meeting of two rivers, of two roads.

JONGLER, zhong-glai, vn. (Lat. jocalari) (little used) to juggle. fig. Il jongle avec l'alexandrin plus habilement qu'un équilibriste indien, he juggles with alexandrine verses more cleverly than an Indian equilibrist. Th. Gaut.

JONGLERIE, zhong-gloh-ree, sf. 1 juggle, juggling. 2 fig. juggle, trick. Je ne suis pas la dupe de ses —s, I am not the dupe of his tricks.

JONGLEUR, zhong-gloh-r, sm. 1 juggler. Tour de —, legendeum. fem. La danse et les tours de force d'une jongleresse, the dancing and feats of strength of a female juggler. Vilet. 2 fig. juggler. Je connais ces —s à front besugite, I know these jugglers with their jesuitical faces. M.-J. Chén.

JONQUE, zhongk, sf. naut. junk.

JONQUILLE, zhong-ke-yuh, sf. 1 bot. jonquil. 2 (fleur) jonquil.

JORAM, zho-ran, sm. Jechoram.

JOSEPH, zho-zayf, sm. 1 Joseph. 2 (adjectif) Papier —, silber-paper.

JOSEPHINE, zho-zayf, sm. Josephus.

JOSEPHINE, zho-zav-fcen, sf. Josephine.

JOSIAS, zho-zyass, sm. Josiah.

JOSUË, zho-zu-yay, sm. Joshua.

JOITEREAUX, zhot-r, sm. pl. naut. checks, ribs.

JOUIL, zho-ay-yuh, See jas.

JOUILLEUR, zho-ah-yay, rn. fam. to play merely for amusement, to play for a trifle.

JOUBARD, zho-barh, sf. bot. house-leek, stone-crop. — des toits, common house-leek. Petite —, white stone-crop.

JOUE, zhoo, sf. (Lat. gena) 1 cheek. Avoir les —s vermeilles, roses, to be ruddy-cheeked. Il a la — enflee, his cheek is swelled. Laver. Donner sur la —, cover the face. — à quelqu'un, to slap the face of a person. Tendre la —, to offer one's cheek. Coucher en —, to level one's musket at, to take aim at (elliptic). En —, see, present fire || fig. Coucher en —, to aim at. Quel équipage pour une femme qui met en — un parti de cent mille écus, what an equipage for a woman who is setting her cap at a man worth a hundred thousand crowns. Danc. fig. Avoir les —s cousues, to be lantern-jawed, hollow-cheeked. 2 (d'un cheval, d'une horse) cheek. 3 naut. cheek. Ce vaisseau a la — forte, that vessel is strong in the bow. 4 tech. Les —s d'une embrasure, the cheeks of an embrasure. 5 rail. — de coussinet, cheek of a chair.

JOUEE, zhoo-ay, sf. arch. reveal.

JOUEUR, zhoo-ay, vn. JOUEUR; JOÛÉ; JE JOUE, NOUS JOUONS; JE JOUAI, NOUS JOUÂMES; JE JOUEAI, NOUS JOUÂMES; JE JOUEAIS, NOUS JOUIONS; JOÛEZ; QUE JE JOUE, QUE NOUS JOUIONS; JE JE JOUASSE, (Lat. jociari) 1 to play. Les enfants aiment à —, children are fond of play. Vous jouez un peu rudement, vous m'avez blessé, you play rather roughly, you have hurt me. Un petit garçon qui joue avec un cheval de bois, a little boy playing with a wooden horse. Ce cheval joue avec son mors, that horse plays with his bit. fig. — sur le mot, sur les mots, to play upon the word, upon words. fig. — avec sa vie, avec sa santé, to risk one's life, one's health. 2 fig. (se mettre en danger de) to risk. Vous jouez à vous casser le cou, you risk breaking your neck. 3 (s'occuper à un jeu quelconque) to play. — à Colin-maillard, à la main chaude, to play at blind man's buff, at hot cockles. — aux échecs, aux trictrac, aux cartes, au billard, to play at chess, backgammon, cards, billiards. — à quitta ou double, — quitta ou double, See QUITTE. II joue bien, mais il joue de malheur, he plays well, but he has no luck. — mal, to play badly. Mon frère va — avec vous, my brother is going to play with you. On ne donne plus à — dans cette maison, there is no more playing in that house. Il ne sait pas —, he does not know how to play. absol. to play. (in joke) Ne — que pour l'honneur, ne. fig. — que l'honneur, to play for love. fig. — au plus sûr, to play the safest game. — au fin, au plus fin. See FIN. — de bonheur, de malheur. See BONHEUR, MALHEUR. — à qui perd gagne, to play at he who loses wins. — de son reste, See RESTE. — au roi dépeillé, to be plucked. prov. Il jouerait les pieds à l'eau, he is a thorough gambler. 4 (d'un coup au jeu) to play. Trier au sort à qui jouera le premier, to draw lots who shall play first. 5 (à certains jeux de cartes) Faire —, to name the suit. — sans prendre, to play without taking. 5 (avec le nom de l'espèce de monnaie qu'on met au jeu) to play. — aux écus, aux louis, to play crowns, louis. 6 (à certains jeux de cartes, à cards) avec le nom de la couleur dans laquelle on joue) to play. — eu carreau, en cœur, to play diamonds, hearts.

7 (se servir de l'instrument nécessaire pour tel au jeu) to play. — avec une raquette, to play with a racket. (billsards) — de queue, to play with a cue. — des gobelets, to juggle. — des bâtons, to romp. — de l'espadon, to fight with the back-sword, to handle the quarter-staff. (by analogy) fig. pop. — des jambes, to take to one's heels. — de la poche, to draw one's purse-strings. — du ponce, to lay down one's money. — des couteaux, to fight with swords. fig. — de la promette, to ogle, to leer.

8 (by extension) d'un instrument de musique) to play. — du violon, de la harpe, de la flûte, to play on the violin, the harp, the flute. Il joue dans le goût, dans la manière d'un tel, he plays after the manner of Such-a-one. 9 tech. (de ressorts, de machines, etc.) to play. Ce ressort joue en sens inverse de l'autre, this spring plays in a contrary direction to the other. 10 (à voir l'aisance et la facilité du mouvement) to play. Ce ressort joue bien, ne joue point, this spring plays well, does not play well. Cette serrure ne joue pas bien, this lock does not play well. fig. Faire — toutes sortes de ressorts, to leave no stone unturned, to set every engine in motion. 14 (des cascades, des jets d'eau, etc.) to play. On fit — les eaux, they set the waters playing. (transitiu.) On a joué les eaux, the waters were made to play. 12 (d'une mine, etc.) to explode. La mine joua, the mine exploded. Faites — la mine, le canon, spring the mine, fire the gun. Faire — une pompe, des pompes, to set the engine, the engines playing.

JOUEUR, va. 4 (d'un jeu, d'une partie de jeu, d'un coup au jeu, etc.) to play. — une partie, to play a game. — un coup, to take a hit. — le piquet, to play at piquet. — un cent de piquet, to play a hundred points at piquet. — une carte, to play a card. Il fallait — cœur, you ought to have played hearts. — le jeu, to play the game. — un jeu, to play a game. (au jeu de paume, at tennis) — une balle, to play a ball. (au piquet, at piquet) — bien les cartes, to play the cards well. fig. — bien son jeu, to play one's cards well. 2 (de ce que l'on a joué au jeu) to play. — un jeu d'enfer, to play deep. — à tant la partie, to play so much a game. fam. Il jouerait jusqu'à sa chemise, he would play away the shirt on his back. — gros jeu, to play high, deep; fig. to run great risks. — sa vie, to risk one's life. 3 (littie used) — quelqu'un, to play with a person. fig. — quelqu'un, to deceive, to take in, to make a fool of a person. — quelqu'un par-dessous main, par-dessous la jambe, See JAMBE. prov. fig. — une pièce, un tour à quelqu'un, to play a person a trick. 4 (d'un air, d'un morceau de musique, etc.) to play, to perform. — un air, to play an air. — une ouverture à grand orchestre, to play an overture with a full band. — un air sur le violon, sur le piano, to play an air on the violin, on the piano. 5 (d'une pièce de théâtre, d'un rôle) to play, to perform. — une comédie, une tragédie, to play a comedy, a tragedy. On jouait to play a comedy, a tragedy. On jouait Andromaque, ther play'r Andromache. C'est lui qui joue les amoureux, it is he who plays the lover's parts. absol. Ce comédien joue fort bien, that actor is a good performer. — la comédie, to be an actor. absol. Cet acteur a cessé de —, that actor has left the stage. (by extension) fig. — la comédie, to play, to act a part. fig. — la douleur, la surprise, etc., to feign grief, surprise, etc. — tel rôle, to play such a part. Le prétendu mariage eut lieu, on tel jour le rôle de Prêchete, the sham marriage took place, Such-a-one played the part of the priest; fig. — un rôle, to play a part. Il vit qu'il jouait le rôle de dupe, he plainly perceived that he was playing the part of a dupe. 6 (des choses personnelles) to play, to perform. Le rôle que joue la mémoire dans les opérations de l'entendement, the part performed by memory in the operations of the understanding. — un petit personnage, to play an under part, to do all the dirty work. 7 (railler quelqu'un) to ridicule, to hold up to ridicule. Nolière a joué les faux dévots, M. ridiculed devotees. 8 (d'une chose qui imite une autre) to imitate. Cet étouffe joue la soie, that stuff looks like silk.

SE JOUER, vpr. 1 to play, to sport. Cet enfant se joue avec tout ce qu'on lui donne, that child makes a plaything of every thing that is given him. Mais voyez donc ces petites comme elles se jouent, but do look at these girls, romping. 2 (de l'oiseau) Des oiseaux qui se jouent dans le feuillage, birds sporting in the foliage. 2 poetic. (des choses, of things) to play, to sport, to wanton. Un roseau qui semble se —, qui se joue dans la prairie, a stream that seems to sport in the meadow. fig. Il se joue de toutes les difficultés, he laughs at every difficulty; fig. Se — de quelque chose, to laugh (at), to mock, to make a mockery (of), to deride. C'est un homme sans foi, il se joue de ses engagements, he is an unprincipled man, he makes light of his engagements. 3 (disposer arbitrairement) to play. Se — de la vie des hommes, to throw away the lives of men. Faire quelque chose en se jouant, to do a thing with the greatest ease. 4 fig. Se — le quelqu'un, to laugh at a person, to sport with a person. Ne voyez-vous pas qu'on se joue de vous? don't you see they are laughing at you? Ce chat se joue de la souris qu'il a prise, the cat plays with the mouse it has taken. La fortune se joue des hommes, Fortune sports with mankind; fig. Se — de quelqu'un, to make a fool of a person. Il m'a longtemps fait des promesses, il se jouait de moi, he long gave me promises, he made a fool of me. 5 fig. Se — à quelqu'un, to meddle with a person. Ne vous jouez pas à lui, il n'entend pas raillerie, don't meddle with him, he does not understand joking. fig. Ne vous jouez pas à cela, ne vous y jouez pas, don't meddle with that. 6 law. Ce seigneur peut se — de son fief, that lord may easily part with his fief.

JOUEUR, zhoo-roo, sm. (littie used) bad player.

JOUEUR, zhoo-ay, sm. 4 a plaything, toy. 3 (by extension) (choses avec lesquelles jouent les animaux) plaything. Tout sert de — aux jeunes animaux, every thing is a plaything for young animals. 3 fig. (personne dont on se moque) laughing-stock, sport. Prendre pour —, to make sport of. Ce malheureux prince était le — d'une femme sans pudeur, that unfortunate prince was the sport of a shameless woman. Feo. 4 fig. (des vents, etc., of winds, etc.) sport. Ils furent ce que nous sommes, poussière, — du vent, they were what we are, dust, the sport of every wind. Lamart. (morally) Nous brillons tour à tour, — d'un lot espoir, by turns we shine, the sport of vain hope. V. Hug. 5 man. small chain. 6 naut. (de l'ancre) iron plate.

JOUEUR, zhoo-ur, sm. fem. JOUEUSE, 1 JOUEUR. Un rôle —, une rude joueuse, a rough player. fig. C'est on rude —, he is a rough customer. 2 (qui joue à un jeu où il y a des règles) player. — de paume, de triquet, player at tennis, at backgammon. Un beau, un bon, un mauvais —, a good-tempered, an ill-tempered player. Ah! c'est un beau —, ah! he is a good player. C. Del. prov. fig. La balle cherche le —, va au —, (elliptic.) Au bon — la balle, la balle au —, the ball comes to the player, the ball to any one. — de gobelets, juggler, buffoon. — de marionnettes, showman. — d'instrument, performer. — d'orgue, organ player. — de violon, violinist, fiddler. 4 absol. gambler, gambler. Ne donnez point votre fille à ce jeune homme, c'est un —, do not give your daughter to that young man, he is a gambler. — de profession, professed gambler. 5 (à la bourse) speculator, stock-jobber. — à la hausse, bull. — à la baisse, bear.

JOUFFLU, zhoof-flu, adj. m. fem. — E, 1 chubby, chub-faced. 2 (substantiv.) chubby-cheeked fellow, woman, blowze.

JOUG, zhoog, sm. (Lat. jugum) 1 yoke. Mettre, atteler an —, to yoke. Ôter le —, to unyoke. 2 fig. yoke. S'arracher du —, to throw off the yoke. Secouer le —, to shake off the yoke. Les nœuds — sons mon — enfant ont pris leur pli, the people at length are moulded to my yoke. V. Hug. Le — de la servitude, the yoke of bondage. Le — de la loi, the fetters of the law. Le — du mariage, the yoke of matrimony. 3 Rom. bist. Faire passer une armée sous le —, to make an army pass under the yoke.

JOUIR, zhoor-ess, vn. (Lat. gaudere) 1 to enjoy, to possess. — d'une terre, d'un emploi, d'une pension, to enjoy an estate, to hold an office, to receive a pension. — des droits civils, des droits politiques, to enjoy civil, political rights. Il est majeur, il jouit de son bien, he is of age, he is in possession of his property. absol. Vous m'avez vendu votre terre, faites-moi —, you have sold me your estate, let me enter upon possession. — dans un sens plus étendu) to enjoy, to possess, to be in the enjoyment of. — d'une bonnête aisance, to be in easy circumstances. — de la considération publique, to enjoy public consideration. — d'une bonne santé, to enjoy good health. — d'un immense crédit, to possess immense credit. La réputation dont cet ouvrage a si longtemps joui, the reputation in which that work has so long been held. 3 (des animaux, des choses, of animals, of things) to enjoy, to possess. Les animaux qui jouissent de la faculté de, the animals possessing the faculty of. 4 (profiter d'une chose) to enjoy. Savoir — de sa fortune, to know how to enjoy one's fortune. — du monde, du plaisir du monde, to enjoy the world, the pleasures of the world. absol. Hâtez-vous de —, le temps est court, hasten to enjoy, for time is brief. M. de l'embarras de quelqu'un, to enjoy the embarrassment of a person. 5 — de quelqu'un, to enjoy the company of a person.

JOUISSANCE, zhoor-ess-ans, sf. 4 enjoyment, fruition, possession. La — d'un droit, the possession of a right. Entrer en —, to enter on possession. Pleine et entière —, full and entire possession. Il m'a de son jardin cède la —, he has given up to me the enjoyment of his garden. C. Del. 2 fin. — de telle époque, payment of interest from such an epoch. 3 (plaisir) enjouement, gratification, delight. Pour lui ce travail est une —, for him it is a labour of love. Godéer de nobles —s, to taste noble enjoyments.

JOUISSANT, zhoo-e-zàng, ppr. of joir, adj. m. fem. —e, enjoying. law. Majeur usant et — de ses droits, a person who has attained his majority, and who is in the full exercise of his rights.

JOUIOU, zhoo-zhoo, em. fam. playing, toy.

JOUR, zhour, sm. (It. giorno) 1 day, day-light. light. Le — et la nuit, day and night. Au point du —, at peep of day, at day-break, at break of day. A l'aube du —, at dawn. Il faisait à peine petit —, it was scarcely day-light. Il avait le — dans les yeux, he had the light in his eyes. Le — vient d'en haut, the light comes from above. Demi- —, twilight. Percé à —, bored through. Cet édifice, cette maison est à —, tout à —, that building, that house has neither doors nor windows. (by analogy) Broderie à —, open-work embroidery. Points à —, open stitches. 2 poetic day, light. Voir le —, to be born. Mettre au —, to give birth to. Ceux à qui je dois le —, the authors of my being. Perdre le —, to die. fig. Voir le —, to see day-light. Il y a bien des années que ce meuble n'a vu le —, it is many years since this piece of furniture saw day-light. 3 (de la publication des ouvrages d'esprit) to appear, to come out. Ce livre n'a vu le — qu'après la mort de son auteur, that book did not come out till after the death of its author. fig. Mettre au livre, un ouvrage au —, to publish a book, a work. Mettre une chose au —, au grand —, to bring a thing to light. Cet homme craint le —, that man shuns publicity. Le grand — de la publicité, le grand — de l'impression, the broad day-light of publicity. fig. Clair comme le —, as clear as the sun. fig. Il est clair comme le — que c'était la son intention, it is evident that that was his intention. C'est le — et la nuit, they are as different as day from night. Brûler le —, to shut out day-light. Il est — chez lui, chez elle, he, she is up, stirring. Il est petit — chez lui, chez elle, he, she is just up. prov. Elle est belle comme le —, she is as handsome as the day. 3 (loute autre clarté) light. Le — artificiel que donnent les bougies, les lampes, the artificial light given by wax-lights, lamps. Le faible demi- — que la lune répand sur les objets, the sober light reflected on objects by the moon. 4 fig. light. Rien n'est plus propre à jeter du — sur ces questions, nothing is better calculated to throw a light on those questions. L'Evangile fit luire on — nouveau, the Gospel shed forth a new light. 5 (la manière dont un objet est frappé par la lumière) light. Ce tableau devrait être placé dans un autre —, that picture requires being placed in another light. Mettre une chose à —, dans un — convenable, to set a thing in its true light. Faux —, false light, bad light. Mettre quelque chose dans son —, to set a thing in the light. 6 fig. light. Il me présenta la chose sous un — si avantageux que j'acceptai sa proposition, he set the thing before me in so favourable a light that I fell in with his proposal. 7 paint. light. Dans ce tableau le — vient d'en haut, le — vient de là côté, in that painting the light comes from above, from such a side. 8 —s, pl. paint. Savoir bien mêler les —s et les ombres, to be skilful in the blending of lights and shades. Des — de reflet, reflected light. 9 (le mètre, ouverture, etc.) aperture, opening, window. Tirer du — d'un certain côté, to make a window on a certain side. 40 law. — de coutume, a lawful light, according to law. — de servitude, light of obligation. — de souffrance, borrowed light. 11 (ouvertures) opening, gap. Ces planches ne sont pas bien jointes, il y a du —, they are not closely joined, there is an opening between them. Il y a de grands —s dans cette muraille, des —s à passer la main, there are large openings in that wall, large enough to pass one's hand through. Se faire —, to force one's way, to cut one's way, to break through. fig. Tôt ou tard la vérité se fait —, sooner or later truth comes to light. 12 fig. (facilité, mélangé) means, way. Si je vois — à cela, if I can see any way to do that. Je vois — à le servir, I perceive a means of serving him. 13 (espace de temps) day. Travailler tout le —, to work all day long. Prendre — pour faire telle chose, to fix upon a day to do a thing. Je l'attends de — en —, I am expecting him every day. Le — de Pâques, Easter Sunday. C'est mon habit de tous les —s, it is my every day dress. 14 (par rapport à la saison, etc.) day. Un — de printemps, a spring day. Un — de beau temps, a fine day. Un — pluvieux, a rainy day. — astronomique, astronomical, apparent, solar day. Les beaux —s, the fine days; fig. the days of prosperity, the sunny days, best days. 15 (by analogy) Les —s gras, flesh-days, shrove-tide. Un bon —, a high festival. Pop. Faire son bon —, to receive the sacrament. —s de barbe, shaving days. — de médecine, doctor's day. Prendre le — de quelqu'un, to choose a person's day. Un beau —, one fine day, some fine day. fig. Un beau —, il prit la fuite, one fine day he took to flight. Tous les —s, every day. Gagner sa vie au — la journée, to live by the day. Être à son dernier —, to be at one's last gasp, hour. Jusqu'à son dernier —, till the day of one's death. 16 com. Se mettre à —, to be in order, to be posted up. Être à —, to be in order, to be posted up. —s de faveur, —s de grâce, See FAVEUR, GRÂCE. 17 hist. Grands —s, high days. 18 scrip. L'ancien des —s, the Ancient of days. fig. Mourir plein de —s, to die full of days. fig. Le saint du —, the idol of the day. Le goût du —, the taste of the day. (by analogy) Un homme du —, a man of the day. La curiosité du —, the curiosity of the day. Mieux. Mettre quelqu'un à tous les —s, to be too free with a person. Se mettre à tous les —s, to put on one's every day clothes, to be an every-day man. Faire du — la nuit, to turn day into night. Prov. Bon —, bonne œuvre, the better day, the better deed. 19 fig. (on temps plus ou moins long) day. La vie de l'homme n'est qu'un —, man's life is but a span. 20 —s, pl. (d'une certaine époque, etc.) days, time. Aux premiers —s du monde, in the early ages of the world. Les —s de notre enfance, the days of our childhood. Elle a connu des —s meilleurs, she has known better days. 21 —s, pl. (la vie, l'existence) life. Sauver les —s d'une persécution, to save a person's life. Ils coulaient en paix leurs —s, their days glided on peacefully. Flor.

JOURNAL, zhoor-nal, adj. m. pl. journal, 4 (little used) Livre —, papier —, journal, diary. 2 sm. Tenir un —, to keep a diary. — nautique, sea-journal. Il a commencé un — de sa vie, he has begun a diary of his life. Balz. — du siège de, journal of the siege of. 3 (gazette, etc.) newspaper, paper, journal. — quotidien, — hebdomadaire, daily, weekly paper. Article de —, newspaper article. Rédacteur de —, editor of a newspaper. Le — des Savants, the Journal des Savants. — d'annonces, advertiser. — (à l'annonce mesure agraire) acre.

JOURNALIER, zhoor-nal-yaj, adj. m. fem. JOURNALIÈRE, 2 (inégal) variable, changeable, fickle, unsteady. Son esprit est —, his talent is irregular.

Le sort — des armes, the fickle fortune of arms. Mass.

JOURNALIER, sm. fem. JOURNALIÈRE, day-labourer. m. charwoman, l.

JOURNALISME, zhoor-nal-ism', sm. journalism.

JOURNALISTE, zhoor-nal-ist, sm. Journalist, writer of journals, newspaper writer.

JOURNÉE, zhoor-nay, sf. 1 day. Toute la —, all the day long. Il a bien employé la —, he has made good use of his time. La — fut très-belle, nous n'eûmes pas une goutte de pluie, it was a very fine day, we had not a drop of rain. Employer la —, to make an excellent day's work of it. Qui emploie sa — fait bien des choses, he that improves the day will do much. Volt. Toute la saignée, the live-long day. fig. Vivre au jour la —, See JOUR. 2 (travail d'un jour) day's work, day-labour. Un bonnie de —, a day-labourer. Il travaille la —, he works by the day. La —, d'un ouvrier, a day's work. Ce sont des gens de —, they are journeymen, labouring people. fig. Mentir la —, to be a confirmed liar. 3 (salaire) day's wages, day's work. Elle gagnait de bonnes —s qu'elle rapportait à la maison, she earned good wages which she brought home. St-M. Gir. 4 (chevin fait en un jour) day's journey. A petites —s, by short, easy stages. A grandes —s, by forced marches. 5 (bataille) day. La — d'Austerlitz, the day, the battle of A. Dans cette terrible —, le sort sembla vouloir décider du sort de ce prince, in that awful day, Heaven seemed as if it would decide the fate of that prince. Boss.

JOURNELLEMENT, zhoor-nayl-màng, adv. daily, every day.

JOUE, zhoot, sf. 1 jaunt, till. — sur l'eau, boat-jaunt. fig. Combattre en champ clos aux —s de barreau, to contend in forensic struggles. Boil. — oratoire, oratorical tilt. Amp. 2 (d'animaux, of animals) fight, fighting. — de coqs, cock-fight.

JOUTER, zhoo-tay, vn. 1 to jaunt, to tilt. Faire — des coqs, des caillies, to make cocks, quails fight. 2 fig. to argue, to enter the lists, to wrestle.

JOUTEUR, zhoo-tuhr, sm. tilter, jouster. C'est un rude —, he is a hardy champion. fig. Ce problème mit de nouveau les trois vigoureux —s en présence, this problem once more brought the three redoubtable champions in presence of each other. Arag.

JOUVENCE, zhoo-vàngs, sf. (Lat. juvenens) youth. La fontaine de —, fountain of youth.

JOUVENCEAU, zhoo-vàngs-o, sm. youth, stripling. Trois —s, enfants du voisinage, three lads of the neighbourhood. La Font.

JOUVENCELLE, zhoo-vàng-sel, sf. anc. lass, damsel.

JOUXTE, zhookst', prep. obsol. See APPRÈS.

JOYAL, zhov-yal, adj. m. fem. —e, (has no pl. masc.) jovial, jolly, merry. Humeur —e, jovialness.

JOYALITÉ, zhov-yal-e-tay, sf. jovialness, merriment. Leur brutale —, their coarse merriment. Mich.

JOYAU, zhoo-yo, sm. pl. —x, 1 jewel. Les —x de la couronne, the crown jewels. 2 law. Bagues et —x, rings and jewels.

JOYEUSE, zhoo-zuhz, sf. Joyeuse (sword of Charlemagne).

JOYEUSEMENT, zhoo-zuhz-màng, adv. joyfully, joyously, merrily, cheerfully, gladly.

JOYEUSÉTE, zhoo-zuhz-tay, sf. jest, joke.

JOYEUX, zhoo-zuh-yuh, adj. m. fem. JOYEUSE, (from joie) 1 joyous, joyful, merry, blithe, blithely, mirthful. J'en suis très- —, I am very glad of it. Mener une vie joyeuse, mener joyeuse vie, to lead a merry life. Bande joyeuse, merry band. 2 (qui exprime la joie) joyous, joyful, merry, gladsome. Des cris, des chants —, joyful shouts, songs. 3 (qui rend joyeux) glad, joyful, gladsome. Joyeuses nouvelles, glad tidings. Une chanson joyeuse, a merry song. 4 Le droit de — avènement, tax imposed upon the king's accession to the throne.

JUBARTE, zhù-bart, sf. zool. oryxal.

JUBB, zhù-bay, em. (from Lat. jube) read-off. prov. ôg. Venir à —, to truckle, to come to terms.

JUBILAIRE, zhù-be-layr, adj. mf. 1 of jubilee. 2 (jubilé) Docteur —, doctor of fifty years' standing.

JUBILATION, zhù-be-luh-syong, sf. (Lat.) jubilation, merriment, feasting. Avoir un air de —, to have a merry-making face. Il a conservé sa gaieté et son visage de —, he has preserved his cheerfulness and holiday-face. M^{me} de Sev.

JUBILÉ, zhù-be-layr, em. (Lat. jubileus) 1 jubilee. 2 cath. rel. jubilee. 3 (adjective) of fifty years' standing. Docteur —, doctor of fifty years' standing.

JUBILER, zhù-be-layr, em. neol. to make merry. Il jubilaît au milieu de bagarres d'enfants, he made merry amidst the brawls of children. Chat.

JUCHÉ, ppa. of JUCHER, fem. —, 1 at root, rooting, perching. 2 vel. Cheval —, a horse whose pastern joint is too forward.

JUCHER, zhù-shay, vn. to root, to perch.

SE JUCHER, vpr. 1 to root, to perch. 2 fig. pop. to perch. Où est-il allé se —? where is he gone to perch himself?

JUCHOIR, zhù-shoair, em. root.

JUDA, zhù-dah, em. geog. Judah.

JUDAIQUE, zhù-dah-ik, adj. mf. Judaïque. Pierre —, Jew-stone.

JUDAIQUEMENT, zhù-dah-ik-mang, adv. judaically.

JUDAÏSER, zhù-dah-e-zay, vn. to judaize.

JUDAÏSME, zhù-dah-ism, em. judaism.

JUDAS, zhù-dah, sm. 1 Judas. 2 fig. Judas. C'est un —, an villain —, he is a Judas, a disgusting traitor. prov. fig. Baiser de —, kiss of Judas, treacherous kiss. 3 (petite ouverture) peep-hole.

JUDEE, zhù-day, sf. 1 geog. Judæa. 2 bot. Arbre de —, Judæa-tree.

JUDELLE, zhù-del, sf. ora. coat.

JUDICATUM SOLVI, zhù-de-kat-uhm-sol-vee, (Lat. loc.) law. Caution —, judicatum solvi.

JUDICATURE, zhù-de-kat-ür, sf. (from Lat. judicare) judicature, magistracy. La — est une espèce de sacerdoce, magistracy is a sort of sacerdotal office. Flech.

JUDICIAIRE, zhù-de-syayr, adj. mf. 1 judicial, judiciary. 2 (qui se fait en justice, etc.) Conseil —, judicial adviser. 3 anc. Combat —, ordeal. 4 rhet. Genre —, judicial style. 5 Astrologie —, judicial astrology.

JUDICIAIRE, sf. fam judgment.

JUDICIAIREMENT, zhù-de-syayr-mang, adv. judicially.

JUDICIEUSEMENT, zhù-de-syahz-mang, adv. judiciously, discreetly, sensibly.

JUDICIEUX, zhù-de-syah, adj. m. fem. judicious, 1 judicious, sensible. Il est fort —, he is very judicious. 2 (fait avec jugement) judicious. Ce discours est peu —, that is an injudicious discourse.

JUGE, zhùzh, sm. (Lat. iudex) 1 judge. Dieu est le souverain —, God is the sovereign judge. Les jurés se sont —s que l'on fait, the jury is a judge of the fact only. 2 (magistrat) judge, justice. — équitable, upright judge. — compétent, competent judge. Récuser un —, to except to a judge. — en dernier ressort, judge without appeal. — d'appel, judge of appeal. Premier —, en première instance, judiciary. — de paix, justice of the peace. Grand —, Lord chief justice. — d'un tribunal de commerce, judge of a tribunal of commerce. — d'instruction, See INSTRUCTION.

— commissaire, judge appointed referee by the court. — naturel, natural judge.

3 (pour prononcer sur un différend) judge, umpire. Faire l'office de —, to be a judge.

4 (by extension) (capable de juger d'une chose) Vous êtes bon —, mauvais — en cela, you are a good, a bad judge of that.

Se faire, s'établir, se constituer — de quelque chose, de quelque chose, to set up as a judge over a person, of a thing. prov.

De fou —, bricre sentence, a fool's bolt is soon shot. 5 fig. La raison est le — en dernier ressort, reason is a judge without appeal. St-Sim.

Les seurs sont quelquefois des —s bien trompeurs, the sisters are frequently deceived in their judgments. 6 scrip. Le livre des —s, absol. les —s, the Book of Judges.

JUGE, ppa. of JUGER, fem. —, 1 judged, deemed, put to trial, law. La chose —, final judgment, the sentence of the court. Jugement passé en force de chose —, a decision that has become law. Bien —, mal appelé, right sentence, wrong appeal. Mal —, bien appelé, wrong sentence, right appeal. 2 (substantif). Le bien —, right sentence.

JUGEMENT, zhùzh-mang, sm. 1 law. judgment, sentence. Le prononcé d'un —, the sentence. — définitif, final judgment. — par défaut, judgment by default. — arbitral, award. Rendre un —, to give judgment, to pass judgment, to sentence. Appeler d'un —, to appeal from a judgment. Informer, cesser, déclarer nul un —, to quash a judgment. Mettre quelque chose —, to bring a person to trial. Estre en —, to appear in court. La femme ne peut ester en — sans l'autorisation de son mari, a woman cannot appear in court without the authorization of her husband. 2 (particul.) — de Dieu, judgment. 3 — dernier, the judgment-day, the day of judgment, doomsday. Le — universel, le grand —, le — final, the final, last judgment. absol. Le —, the judgment. Le jour du —, the day of judgment. 4 (acte de l'entendement) judgment. Toute comparaison entre deux objets produit nécessairement un —, any comparison between two objects necessarily produces a judgment. Dider.

Faire faux —, to make a false judgment. 5 (avis, opinion) judgment, opinion. Je me rends à votre —, I fall in with your views. 6 Porter, donner son — sur quelque chose, to give one's judgment on a thing. Le — de l'histoire, the judgment of history. Asseoir, fonder son — sur, to ground one's judgment on. 6 (morally) judgment. Vous pensez mal de votre prochain, vous en faites de mauvais —s, des —s téméraires, you judge ill, rashly of your neighbour. 7 (faculté) judgment. Il a le — bon, le — solide, le — sain, he has a good, solid, sound judgment. Former le — à un jeune homme, to form the judgment of a young man.

JUGER, zhù-zhyr, ra. ROTS JACKONS; JS JUGEALIS, (Lat. judicare) 1 to judge, to try, to pass sentence. — un procès, to try a law-suit. — contre droit et raison, to decide unjustly. — une personne, to try a person. On l'a jugé à mort, sentence of death was passed upon him. — par contumace. See CONTUMACE. (by analogy) Dieu viendra — les vivants et les morts, God will come to judge the quick and the dead. prov. fig. — sur l'étiquette du sac, See ÉTIQUETTE. 2 (décider comme étant choisi comme arbitre, etc.) to judge. Jugez-mous, je vous prie, judge between us, I beg. Un coup difficile à —, a vote, a stroke difficult to decide upon. Regardez-nous jouer, vous jugerez des coups, watch our game, you shall be judge of the move. 3 absol. to judge. Dès que l'enfant est en état de raisonner et de —, as soon as the child is able to reason and judge. 4 (avoir un avis sur une personne) to judge, to give one's opinion on. Vous jugez cet homme trop sévèrement, you judge that man too severely. — un ouvrage, un tableau, une pièce de théâtre, to judge a work, a painting, a theatrical piece. — des gens sur l'apparence, sur la mine, to judge of people from their appearance, their looks. — saluement des choses, to form a sound judgment of things. (by analogy) L'œil juge des couleurs, the eye judges of colours.

3 — de (décider du défaut ou de la perfection de quelque chose) to judge of. Il juge bien de la poésie, de la peinture, he is a good judge of poetry, of painting. Il juge mal de ces sortes de choses, il ne s'y connaît point, he is a bad judge of those kinds of things, he knows nothing about them. 6 — de (décider eu bien ou en mal du mérite d'autrui, etc.) to judge. Bien —, mal — de quelqu'un, to judge well, ill of a person. absol. Jugez équitablement, judge uprightly. — d'autrui par soi-même, to judge of others by one's self.

7 (conjecturer) to judge, to guess, to fancy. Si j'en juge par ce premier essai, nous réussirons, if I may judge from this first trial, we shall succeed. Il n'est pas difficile de — ce qui en arrivera, it is not difficult to guess what will be the issue of it. 8 (eu jeu de paume, tennis) — la balle, to judge the ball, to stand umpire. 9 (être d'avis) to judge, to deem, to think. Si vous jugez qu'il puisse remplir cette mission, if you think him able to fulfil this mission. Le parti que vous jugez le meilleur, le courrez you think best. 10 (s'imaginer) to fancy, to imagine. Vous jugez, vous pouvez bien — qu'il en fut pas fort content, you may well imagine that he was not highly satisfied with it. Jugez quelle fut ma joie, think what joy was mine.

SE JUGER, vpr. 1 to be tried. Son procès se jugera demain, his lawsuit will come on to-morrow. 2 (se croire) to judge, to think one's self. Vous en jugez-vous capable? do you think yourself capable of it. 3 recipr. se judge each other. Ils se jugèrent faits l'un pour l'autre, they deemed themselves made for each other.

JUGEUR, zhù-zhür, em. fem. JUGEUSE, (little used) judge. Elle était souverainement jugeuse, she was a thorough carriller. Balz.

JUGOLAIRE, zhù-gù-layr, adj. mf. (Lat. jugularis) anat. jugular.

JUGOLAIRE, sf. 1 anat. jugular. 2 (d'an shako, etc.) chin-strap.

JUGULER, zhù-gù-layr, re. (Lat. jugulare) 1 neol. to jugulate. 2 fig. fam. to bother a person.

JUIF, zhüif, adj. m. fem. juive, (Lat. judæus) 1 Jewish, Hebrew. Il est —, he is a Jew. 2 sm. fem. juive, Jew, Hebrew. Le — errant, the wandering Jew; || fig. C'est le — errant, he is the wandering Jew. 3 (disparagingly) C'est un vrai —, he is a regular Jew. prov. Être riche comme un —, to be mighty rich.

JUILLET, zhüic-yar, em. (Lat. Julius) July. La mi —, the middle of July.

Le 3 —, the 3d of July.

JUN, zhüang, em. (Lat. junius) June. La mi —, the middle of June. Le 20 —, the 20th of June.

JUIVE, zhüiv, See JUIVE.

JUIVERIE, zhüiv-ree, sf. 1 Jewry. 2 (sm. (marché usuraire) Jew's bargain Jew's trick.

JUJUBE, zhù-zhùb, sf. 1 bot. jujub, jujube. 2 pharm. Pâte de —, jujube paste.

JUCBIER, zhù-zhù-byay, em. bot. jujube.

JULE, zhüi, See JULI.

JULEP, zhù-layp, em. (Pers. joulab) pharm. julep.

JULES, zhüi, em. 1 Julius. 2 (monnaie) Julo, Giulio.

JULIE, zhü-lee, sf. Julia.

JULIEN, zhū-lyang, sm. Julian JULIENNE, zhū-lyan, adj. f. Année —, Julian year. Période —, Julian period.

JULIENNE, sf. 1 calui. julienne soup, vegetable soup. Potage à —, vegetable soup. 2 bot. damers violet, rocket.

JULIETTE, zhū-lyet, sf. Juliet.

JUMART, zhū-mar, sm. (from jumeat) zool. jumart.

JUNEAU, zhū-mo, adj. fem. JUVELLE,
(Lat. gemellas) 1 twin, twin-born. Frères
—, x, twin brothers. Sœur jumelle, twin sister. 3 (des animaux, etc., of animals, etc.) twins. Deux chœux —, x, two twin dogs. Deux lits —, x, two beds exactly alike. 3 bot. Prune jumelle, twin plum.
4 anat. Muscles —, x, (substantiv.) —, x, twin muscles. Artères, veines jumelles, nervs —, x, twin arteries, veins, nerves.
5 (substantiv.) twin. Elle accoucha de deux —, x, she gave birth to twins. C'est un —, he is a twin.

JUMELLE, zhū-mayl, adj. m. fem. — E.
her. gemelled.

JUMELER, zhū-mayl, ra. nant. to fish
(a mast).

JUMELLES, zhū-mayl, sf. pl. 1 carp. side-beams. 2 tech. checks, sheers, side-pieces. 3 naut. fish. fish-front. 4 her.
gemelles. 5 optic. double opera-glass.

JUMENT, zhū-mang, sm. zool. mare.
— poulainière, brood mare. prov. fig.
pop. Jamais coup de pied de — ne lit mal à cheval, a woman's blow never gave a black eye.

JUNIE, zhū-nee, sf. Jania.

JUNON, zhū-nong, sf. myth. Juno.

JUNTE, zhūngst, sf. (Sp.) junta.

JUPE, zhūp, sf. (It. giubba) 4 peticoton —, de dessous, under-petticoat.
Il quitte si peu ma — qu'il m'ennuie, he is so tied to my apron-string that I am tired of him. Balz. 2 (d'une robe, of a dress) skirt.

JUPIN, zhū-pang, sm. myth. Jupiter.

JUPITER, zhū-pe-tayr, sm. 4 myth.
Jupiter, Jove. 2 astr. Jupiter. 3 alch.
Jupiter.

JUPON, zhū-pong, sm. (from jupe) petticoat.

JURA, zhū-rah, sm. geog. Jura (chain of mountains, and a department in France).

JURANDE, zhū-ràngd, sf. 4 warden-ship. 2 (collectiv.) (le corps des jures) body of wardens.

JURASSIQUE, zhū-ras-sik, adj. mf.
geol. of the Jura mountains.

JURAT, zhū-rah, sm. anc. alderman, warden of trade, Jurat.

JURATOIRE, zhū-rat-oar, adj. mf.
law. Caution —, juryoral caution.

JURE, ppa. of JURER, fem. — E, 4 sworn. Eueuini —, sworn enemy. 2 (adjectiv.) sworn. Chirurgien —, sworn surgeon. — crieur, sworn crier. 3 (adjectiv.) (dans les corps d'artisans) sworn.
Les maîtres —s, the wardens. (substan-tiv.) La visite des —s, the visit of the wardens.

JURE, sm. jurymen, juror. Les —s, the jury. Liste des —s, panel. Dresser la liste des —s, to impanel the jurymen.
Messieurs les —s, the gentlemen of the jury. Jugement par —s, trial by jury.

JUREMENT, zhū-mang, sm. (Lat. iuramentum) 1 oath, swearing. Saint-Pierre renia Je-us Christ avec —, St Peter denied Christ with an oath. Boss. 2 (blasphème) oath, curse. Faire d'horribles —s, to swear dreadful oaths. Que de —s dans le jeul how many oaths in gaming!
Pasc.

JURER, zhū-raj, ra. (Lat. jurare) 4 to swear. Dieu en vain to se jureras, thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain. Il jure son Dieu, sa foi que, he swears by God, upon his faith, that. 2 (certifier) to swear. Ma bouche mille fois lui jure le contraire, a thousand times my mouth swears the contrary. Rac.
3 (blasphemer) to swear, to blaspheme.

Il ne fait que — le nom de Dieu, he does nothing but curse and swear. 4 (s'en-gager par serment) to swear. — la paix, to swear peace. Vous jarez de dire la vérité, you swear to tell the truth. 5 (résoudre fermement une chose) to swear.
— la perte de quelqu'un, to swear a person's ruin.

JURER, en. 4 to swear. J'en jurerai.
I dare swear, I will take my bible oath upon it. — sur les saints Évangiles, to take one's bible oath. Vous étiez la coqueluche, elles ne juraient que par vous et sur votre parole, you were their darling, they swore by you, they had faith but in you. La Bruy. Il jure sur son honneur, he swears on his honour. prov.
Il ne faut — de rien, let us swear no oaths about it. 2 (faire des serments) to swear. On ne croit pas ceux qui ju-rent tant, they who are always ready to swear are not to be believed. 3 (blasphemer) to swear, to utter oaths. — comme un trouper, comme un charretier, to swear like a trooper, — entre ses dents, to mutter on oath, oaths. Les voilà qui déteste et jure de son mieux, he curses and swears with all his might.
La Font. 4 fig. to jar (with), not to harmonize, to clash. Le vert jure avec le bleu, green does not match with blue.
Une vieille plaisanterie de trente ans jure trop avec mon âge, an old joke of thirty years' standing clashes a little too much with my age. Volt. 5 fig. mus. to jar, to grate, to clash. Un violon qui jure sous l'archet, a violon screeching under his fiddlestick. Viol.

se JUREA, rpr. recipr. to swear to each other.

JUREUR, zhū-rur, sm. swearer.

JURI, sm. See JUR.

JURIDICTION, zhū-re-dik-syong, sf.
(Lat.) 4 jurisdiction. — laïque, ecclésiastique, secular, ecclesiastical jurisdiction. Degré de —, degree of jurisdiction. Le premier, le second degré de —, jurisdiction of inferior, of higher Courts.
2 (ressort) venue, fig. Cela n'est point de voire —, that does not fall under your cognizance. 3 (corps de judicature) magistracy.

JURIDICTIONNEL, zhū-re-dik-syo-nayl,
adj. fem. —le, jurisdictional.

JURIDIQUE, zhū-re-dik, adj. mf. (Lat.)
juridical, judicial.

JURIDIQUEMENT, zhū-re-dik-mang,
adv. juridically, judicially.

JURISCONSULTE, zhū-ris-kong-sült,
sm. (Lat. jurisconsultus) jurisconsult, lawyer.

JURISPRUDENCE, zhū-ris-pri-dangs,
sf. (Lat. jurisprudentia) 4 jurisprudence.
Il entend la —, he is a good lawyer. Termes de —, law terms. 2 (principes de droit) jurisprudence, law. — commer-ciale, commercial law. — criminelle, criminal jurisprudence. 3 (manière dont les tribunaux jugent habituellement) statute law, precedents.

JURISTE, zhū-ris-t, sm. (from Lat. juris) jurist.

JURON, zhū-rong, sm. 4 oath. 2 (onte espèce de jurement) oath. Lacher un —, un gros —, to rap out on oath, a tremendous oath.

JURY, zhū-ree, sm. (Eng.) 1 jury.
Les membres du —, the jurymen. Faire partie du —, to be on the jury. Former la liste du —, to impanel the jury. Chef du —, foreman of the jury. — d'accusa-tion, grand jury. — de jugement, common, petty jury. 2 (by extension) board, jury, committee. Le — de l'Exposition des produits de l'industrie et des beaux-arts, the jury of the Exhibition of the products of Industry and Art.

JUS, zhū, sm. (Lat.) juice (de citrons, d'herbes, of lemons, of herbs). — de viande, gravy. colin. Des œufs an —, eggs in gravy. — de réglisse, Spanish licorice. prov. Le — de la vigne, le — de la treille, the juice of grapes, wine.

JUSANT, zhū-zang, sm. naut. ebb-tide, ebb.

JUSQUE, zhūsk, prep. (Lat. usque) 4 to, as far as, till, until, up to, down to,
as much as, as high as. Depuis la Loire jusqu'à la Seine, from the L. to the S.
Il alla jusqu'en Afrique, he went as far as Africa. Depuis Pâques jusqu'à la Pentecôte, from Easter to Pentecost. On n'avait point vu cela jusqu'à cette heure, jusqu'à, jusqu'à présent, that had never been seen till now. Jusqu'à quel temps, jusqu'à quand suffrirez-vous que, how long will you suffer that. Lisez ce livre jusqu'à la dixième page, jusqu'à on bout, read this book as far as the tenth page, to the end, through. Jusqu'à revoir, till our meeting again, good bye, till our next meeting.
Jusqu'à concurrence de cette somme, up to that amount. Jusqu'à nouvel ordre, till further orders. Il y a des marmites qui pesent jusqu'à vingt livres, there are dormice that weigh as much as twenty pounds. Buff. (takes s sometimes before a vowel) Jusques au ciel, up to Heaven, to the skies. Jusqu'à quand, jusques à quand, how long. 2 (nating excesses) even, very. Franklin fut l'objet d'une vérita-ble ovation — parmi les courtisans.
F. was the object of a real ovation even among the courtiers. Mign. Tous les pères, jusqu'aux plus graves jouent avec leurs enfants, all fathers, even the most serious, play with their children. Il n'est pas jusqu'aux valets qui ne s'en mêlent.
the very servants take a part in it.

jus-qu'à ce que, conj. loc. till, until.
Combattre à outrance jusqu'à ce que la mort suive, to fight desperately till death ensue. Buff. Jusqu'à ce que cela soit fait, till that be done.

JUSQU'ANE, zhūs-kyam, sf. (Gr.) bol.
hyascymmus. — noire, henbane.

JUSSON, zhūs-syong, sf. (Lat.) anc. command.

JUSTAUCORPS, zhūs-to-kor, sm. jer-kin. — de cuir, buff-coat, leather-jerkin.

JUSTE, zhūst, adj. mf. (Lat. justus) 4 equitable, just, right. Un arrêt, une sentence —, a just sentence. Il est — que vous le dédommiez, it is just you should make him amends. Ce que vous demandez n'est pas —, your claim is not just. Pour le bien de l'État tout est — en na roi, all a king's acts are just when useful to the state. Corn. 2 (fonde) just, allowable, fair, legitimate. Je respecte une douleur si, I respect so just a grief. De —s espérances, lawful hopes. 3 (des personnes, of persons) just, righteous. Sois — et tu seras heureux, be just and thou shalt be happy. J.-J. Rouss. (exclamativ.) — Dieu! — ciell righteous heavens! 4 (qui observe exactement les devoirs de la religion) just, upright. Il était — et craignait Dieu, he was upright, and fearing God. (substantiv.) Oien le protecteur du —, God the protector of the righteous man. Le séjour, la demeure des —s, the abode, the dwelling of the just. 5 (des choses, of things) just, exact. Balance, poids —, just scale, exact weight. Calcul —, correct reckoning. Avoir une idée — de quelque chose, to have a just idea of a thing. Cette montre, cette pendule, etc., est —, that watch, that time-piece is right. prov. Cela est — comme de l'or, that's exact weight. 6 (qui a le caractère de la justesse) just, true, sound. Cette pensée est plus brillante que —, that thought is more brilliant than just. Reflexion, observation —, sound reflection, observation. 7 (qui apprécie bien) good, correct, judicious, sound. Avoir l'oreille —, le coup d'œil —, to have a good ear, to be clear-sighted. C'est un esprit très —, he has a sound understanding. 8 (d'une arme de trait) true. Ce fusil est très —, that gun is very true. 9 (trop court, trop étroit) tight, straight. Ce tailleur n'a fait mon habit bien —, that tailor has made my coat too tight.

JUSTE, sm. L'homme a l'idée du beau, du grand, du —, du vrai, man possesses the idea of the beautiful, the sublime, the just, the true. Roll.

JUSTE, adv. 1 exactly, accurately, rightly. Viser, tirer —, to aim well, to be a good shot. Il raisonne —, he reasons rightly. Chanter —, to sing in tune. Deviner —, to guess right. Apprécier les circonstances, to appreciate the circumstances rightly. Dû, prop. Être chaussé trop —, to have shoes too tight. 2 (précisément) just, precisely, even. Vuila tout — l'homme qu'il nous faut, that is exactly the man we need. Mol. N'est-ce pas là ce que vous me demandez? —, is not that what you want? Exactly. —, à temps, just in time. Tout — comme je sortais, just as I was going.

AD JUSTE, adv. loc. exactly, just, precisely, accurately. Dites-m'en le prix au —, au plus —? tell me the price exactly, to a farthing. Savez-vous au — le nombre des candidats? do you know the exact number of the candidates?

JUSTE, sm. Justus.

JUSTEMENT, zhūs-tuh-màng, adv. 1 justly. 2 (précisément) just, precisely. Bon! voici mon homme —, well! here is the very man. Mol.

JUSTESSE, zhūs-layss, sf. justness, exactness, accuracy, correctness, nicely, propriety, appositeness. Cette balance est d'une grande —, those scales are very accurate. La — de la voix, the justness of the voice. La — des sons, the justness of the sounds. La — d'une idée, of an reasoning, the correctness of an idea, of a course of reasoning. 2 (by analogy) justness, accuracy. La — de l'oreille, the justness of the ear. La — du coup d'œil, the accuracy of glance. La droiture du cœur est la source de la — de l'esprit, uprightness of heart is the source of rectitude of mind. J.-J. Rousseau. 3 (manière de faire une chose avec exactitude, etc.) precision, justness, exactness, propriety. Il joue du violon avec beaucoup de —, he plays on the violin with great precision. Il pense avec beaucoup de —, he thinks with great propriety.

JUSTICE, zhūs-tiss, sf. (Lat. justitia) 1 justice. Ce prince gouverne avec —, that prince rules with justice. Chacun le sien c'est —, every one his own, is nothing but fair. Iles actes de —, acts of justice. — commutative, commutative justice. — distributive, distributive justice. 2 (hon droit) justice. Ne complex pas tant sur la — de votre cause, do not rely so much on the justice of your cause. J'ai la — de mon côté, I have justice on my side. 3 (pouvoir de récompenser, de punir) justice. La — divine, divine justice. La — humaine, human justice. Le garde des sceaux, minister of justice. Le — keeper of the seals, minister of justice. La — aura son cours, justice will take its course. Les magistrats chargés par le souverain d'exercer la —, de rendre la — aux peuples, the magistrates charged by the sovereign to administer justice to the people. Avoir — d'un juge, to obtain justice of a judge. Faire — de quelqu'un, to do justice on a person. On a fait — de ces brigands, justice has been done on these bandits; il fig. those rascals have been treated as they deserve. Faire — de quelque chose, to do justice on a thing; il fig. La comédie fait — des ridicules et des travers de la société, comedy does justice on the ridicules and caprices of society. Dêni de —, denial, refusal of justice. 4 (action de reconnaître le droit de quelqu'un, etc.) justice. Faire — à quelqu'un, to do justice to a person. Demander, obtenir —, to demand, to obtain justice. Se faire rendre —, to obtain justice. (by analogy) Il n'y a plus de —, il n'y a pas de — en ce pays, there is no longer any justice, there is no justice in that country. N'y a-t-il donc plus de —? is there then no more justice? Se faire — à soi-même, to take the law into one's own hands. abs. Se faire —, to do one's self justice. Rendre — à quelqu'un, to do justice to a person, to give to a person his due. Rendre — au mérite, au courage de quelqu'un, to do justice to the merit, to the courage of a person. 5 (les tribunaux, les magistrats) justice, courts, law, judges. Les gens de —, the officers of justice. Déferer quelqu'un à la —, to give a person up, to deliver a person over, up to justice. Un homme repris de —, a returned convict. Le garde des sceaux est le chef de la —, the keeper of the seals is the head of the law. Gens de —, officers of justice. 6 (juridiction) justice, jurisdiction. — civile, civil justice. — criminelle, criminal justice. — de paix, justice of the peace. — seigneuriale, seigniorial justice. Haute —, high justice, jurisdiction. Moyenne —, middle justice, jurisdiction. Basse —, low justice, jurisdiction. 7 (rectitude que Dieu met dans l'âme par ses grâces) justice, righteousness. Persévérer dans la —, to persevere in righteousness. 8 (observation exacte des devoirs de la religion) justice. Des œuvres de — et de charité, works of justice and charity.

JUSTICIAIRE, zhūs-te-syah', adj. mf. 1 amenable, under the jurisdiction of. 2 (substantif.) one under the jurisdiction of a court.

JUSTICIER, zhūs-te-syah, va. to execute. JUSTICIER, sm. 1 a lover, guardian of justice. Graud —, Antonin eut avec Numa quelques traits de ressemblance, a great love of justice, Antonin resembled Numa in many respects. Chat. 2 (adjectif.) justiciary. 3 anc. justiciary. fig. Les gens de goût sont les hauts —s de la littérature, men of taste are the supreme arbiters of literature. Sic-B.

JUSTIFIABLE, zhūs-te-fah', adj. mf. justifiable, warrantable. Sa conduite n'est pas —, his conduct is unjustifiable.

JUSTIFIANT, zhūs-te-fyang, ppr. of JUSTIFIER, adj. m. fem. —E, theol. justifying.

JUSTIFICATIF, zhūs-te-fe-kat-if, adj. m. fem. JUSTIFICATIVE, justificative, pro- batory. Le mémoire est accompagné des pièces justificatives, the memoir are annexed proofs and illustrations. Les pièces justificatives d'une histoire, the proofs and illustrations of a history.

JUSTIFICATEUR, zhūs-te-fe-kat-uh'r, sm. tech justifier.

JUSTIFICATION, zhūs-te-fe-kah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 justification. Il sera reçu, admis en —, he will be allowed to justify himself. Ce mémoire contient ma —, this memorial contains my justification. 2 (preuve de quelque chose) proof. La — d'un fait, the proof of a fact. 3 print justification.

JUSTIFIER, zhūs-te-fyay, va. NOTES JUSTIFIERS, VOUS JUSTIFIEZ, (Lat. justificare) to justify. — la mémoire de quelqu'un, to clear, to vindicate the memory of a person. 2 (des actions, des paroles, of actions, of words) to justify. Vous me sauriez — on tel procédé, you cannot justify such proceedings. 3 (faire qu'une chose soit juste) to justify. Il justifie, par sa conduite, la sévérité qu'on déploierait contre lui, he justifies, by his conduct, the severity manifested towards him. 4 (faire voir qu'une chose n'était point fautive) to justify. On disait que ce conseil était dangereux, mais l'événement l'a justifié, it was said that this counsel was dangerous, but the event has justified it. 5 (montrer la vérité de ce qu'un allégué) to justify, to prove. — un fait, to prove a fact. Je justifierai qu'il n'en est rien, I will prove that it is no such thing. 6 law. — de quelque chose, to prove a thing. 7 (donner la justice intérieure) to forgive, to justify. Dieu l'a justifié par sa miséricorde, God has forgiven him by his mercy. 8 print, to justify. — une ligne, to justify a line. abs. Cet ouvrier justifie avec exactitude, that workman justifies very true.

SE JUSTIFIER, ppr. 4 to be justified, to justify, to clear one's self. 2 Se — d'une accusation, to clear one's self of a charge. Veuillez m'entendre jusqu'au bout, vous vous justifierez après, si c'est possible, be pleased to listen to all I have to say, afterwards you will justify yourself, if you can. V. Hug.

JUSTIN, zhūs-tang, sm. Justin.

JUSTINE, zhūs-leen, sf. Justina.

JUSTINIEN, zhūs-leen-syang, sm. Justinian.

JUTE, zhūt, sf. bot. jute.

JUTEUX, zhū-tuh, adj. m. fem. JUTEUSE, juicy.

JUVEIGNEUR, zhū-vay-nyahr, sm. anc. younger brother endowed with an appanage.

JUVÉNILE, zhū-vay-nil, adj. m. fem. —E, juvenile, youthful. Ses yeux brillaient d'un éclat —, his eyes shone with youthful lustre. Scri.

JUVENILITÉ, zhū-vay-ne-le-tay, sf. (Lat.) juvility.

JUXTAPOSÉ, zhūks-tah-po-zay, va. (Lat. juxta, ponere) to juxtaposit.

SE JUXTAPOSER, ppr. to be juxtaposited, to place one's self in juxtaposition.

JUXTAPPOSITION, zhūks-tah-po-ze-syong, sf. nat. pl. juxtaposition.

K

K, kah, sm. K, eleventh letter of the alphabet used only in foreign words.

É, abbreviation, in chemistry, of kalium; in metrology, of kilogramme, kilomètre.

KABOUL, kah-ool, sm. geog. Cabul.

KABYLE, kah-bel, adj. and s. mf. Kabylia.

KABYLIE, kah-e-lee, sf. geog. Kabylia.

KADI, See CADU.

KAINÇA, kah-ang-kah, KAINÇA, kah-ang-sah, sm. but. caïnca-root.

KAKATOES, kah-kat-oo ays, sm. orn. cockatoo.

KALÉIDOSCOPE, kal-ay-e-dos-kop, sm. (Gr.) optic. kaleidoscope.

KALI, kal-ee, sm. bot. kali.

KALIUM, kal-yom, sm. chem. kalium.

KALMOCK, kal-mock, sm. 1 geog. Kalmark. 2 (étioffe) kalmark.

KAMICHI, kam-e-shee, sm. orn. kamachi, horned screamer.

KAMTSCHADELS, kam-tshad-al, sm. pl. inhabitants of Kamtschatka.

KANTSCHATKA, kam-isbat-kah, sm. geog. Kamtschatka.

KAN, kang, sm. 1 khan, kan, kam. 2 (Hec) khan.

KANDJAR, kang-dhar, KANDJIAR, kang-due-ur, kandjiar (sort of pontiard).

KANGEROO, KANGUROU, kang-gu-roo, sm. zool. kangaroo, kangaroo.

KANTIEN, kang-tyang, adj. and s. m. em. —NE, philos. Kantian.

KANTISME, kang-tism', sm. philos. kantism.

KAOLIN, kah-o-lang, sm. min. kaolin.

KARABÉ, See CARABÉ.

KARAT, See CARAT.

KARATA, kar-rat-sh, sm. bot. karata.

KAROLINGIEN, kar-ro-lang-zhyang, sm. hist. Carolingian.

KERMESSE, sf. See KERMESE.

KARPATHE, kar-pat, sm. geog. Carpathian.

KATAKOUA, sm. See KAKATORS.

KEEPSAKE, sm. (Eng.) keepsake.

KEPI, kay-pee, sm. (Ger.) kepi.

KERMES, kay-mess, sm. nat. hist. kermes.

KERMESSE, kay-mess, sf. parish festival.

KETMIE, kel-mee, sf. bot. Syrian malow.

KHALIFE, See CALIFE.

KHAN, See KAN.

KILO, ke-lo, sm. abbrev. for kilogramme, kilo, two pounds.

KILOGRAMME, ke-lo-gram, sm. (Gr.) kilogram (about 2,20485, avoirdupois, 2,679543 liv. Troy, or 15,434 grains).

KILOLITRE, ke-lo-litr', sm. (Gr.) kilolitre (320,097 galleons, or 3,439 quarters).

KILOMETRE, ke-lo-metr', sm. (Gr.) kilometre (1093,633 yards or 546, 8165 fathoms, or 0,6214 mile). — carré, square kilometre (0,3681 square mile).

KILOMETRIQUE, ke-lo-may-trik, adj. mf. kilometric.

KININE, ke-neen, sf. See QUININE.

KINO, ke-no, sm. pharm. kino. Résine —, kino.

KIOSQUE, kyo-k, sm. (Tur.) kiosk.

KIRSCH, KIRSCH-WASSER, kirsch-ooz-sahr, sm. (Ger.) kirsch-wasser.

KLEPHTE, sm. See CLEPHTE.

KNOUT, knoot, sm. 1 knout. 2 (foet) knout.

KOLBACK, See COLBACK.

KOPECK, ko-pek, sm. (Ru.) copek.

KORAN, ko-rang, sm. (Ar.) Koran, Alcoran.

KOUAN, koang, sm. bot. chowan, carmine-wood, green worm-seed.

KREUTZER, kroi-zayr, sm. (German coin) kreutzer.

KRUOMETRE, kroi-o-metr', sm. (Gr.) nat. phil. kruometer.

KURCHIS, kurt-shees, sm. pl. (Pers.) Kurthis.

KYMRIQUE, kim-rik, adj. mf. (Cell.) Cymmeric.

KYR ELLE, ke-ryel, sf. (Gr.) 1 (little used) litany. 2 fig. file, list, string. Une longue — d'enfants, a long string of children.

KYSTE, kist, sm. (Gr. κύστις) anat. cystis.

KYSTIQUE, kis-tik, adj. mf. surg. cystic.

KYSTOTONE, KYSTOTOMIE, etc., See CYSTOTONE, CYSTOTOMIE.

L

L, ayl, sf. and sm. L, the twelfth letter of the alphabet.

L, abbreviation for LOUIS, LEGIEN, for LIEUE, and for LIVRE. L. in Roman cypher stands, for fifty.

L', contraction of LE, or LA. 2 is an euphonic letter in L'ON.

LA, art. f. See LE.

LA, pronom. relatif. See LE.

LA, lab, adv. 1 there, thither. Mettez — ce livre, put this book there.

C'est — qu'il demeure, it is there that he lives. Halte! —, stand, hold, stop there.

2 (noting a place different from that where one is) there. Allez-vous-en —, je vous attendrai là, do you go there, I will wait for you here. D'ici —, nous comptons deux heures, we reckon two leagues to that place from here.

Démarquez —, et d'approchez pas d'ici, stay there, and do not come near here. 3 (noting time) then. Revenez demain, d'ici —, j'aurai arrangé votre affaire, return to-morrow, by which time, I shall have settled your business. 4 (noting a difference of places) there. Le peintre avait rassemblé dans un même tableau plusieurs objets différents: — une troupe de bucheaux, ici un groupe de jeunes gens; — un sacrifice, ici une réunion de philosophes, the painter had brought together in one picture several different objects: there, a troop of bucheaux, here a group of young men; there, a sacrifice, here, an assembly of philosophers. 5 (joined to some adverb indicating a place) — haut, up there, upstairs, above stairs. — bas, down there, yonder. — dessus, thereupon, upon that, over that. — dessous, under there, under that, underneath. 6 (joined to a demonstr. pron. or a subj. to determine it more precisely) Celui —, that one. En ce temps —, at that time. Cette femme —, that woman. Quel discours est-ce —? what language is that? 7 (redundantly) C'est — one belle action, that is a fine action. Vous avez fait — une belle affaire! you have made a pretty thing of it! 8 (expletive) Vous savez-vous de ce grand homme se —, qui venait si souvent chez moi autrefois! do you remember that tall spare man who came so often to my house formerly? 9 (after some verbs) S'en tenir —, to content one's self with a thing, to take up with it. En rester —, to stop there.

DE LA, adv. loc. 1 thence, from thence, from there. De — au village, il y a deux cents pas, from there to the village, there are two hundred steps. Otez-vous de —, stand away from there. 2 (du temps, of time) from that, after that. A quelques jours, à quelques heures de —, a few days, hours, after that. 3 (morally) by that, from that, thence. De — sont venues les guerres civiles, thence arose civil wars. Que voulez vous inférer de —? what will you infer from that? 4 absol. (sometimes employed with) De — que cet homme a quelque tort, we see that that man has some fault, because he has been somewhat in the wrong.

DES LA, or DELA, prep. See DELA.

DÈS LA, adv. loc. 1 anc. from that time. 2 anc. (cela étant) therefore.

PAR LA, adv. loc. 1 by there, that way. Allez par —, go that way. Passez, prenez par —, take that way. 2 (morally) by that, by that means, that way. Par —, vous êtes sûr de réussir, by that means, you are sure of succeeding. Qu'entendez-vous par —? what do you mean by that?

PAR-CI, PAR-LÀ, adv. loc. 1 here and there. 2 (diverse reprises) now and then. See ci.

ÇA ET LÀ, adv. loc. here and there, hither and thither, this way and that way, to and fro. See ÇA.

JUSQUE-LÀ, adv. loc. so far, as far as that, to that place. Reculer jusque —, to retreat as far as that. 2 (jusqu'à ce temps) till then. Venez à deux heures, je vous attendrai jusque —, come at two o'clock, I will wait for you till then. 3 (morally) so far. Vous avez poussé jusque — la patience, you have had so much patience as that.

LA LA, lab-lab, interj. 1 —, rassurez-vous, il n'y a rien à craindre, come, come, be easy, there is nothing to be feared. 2 adv. so, so. Avez-vous bien dormi? —, have you slept well? So, so.

LA, lab, sm. mus. la, A. Entonner le —, to sound the A. — diète, 4 rharp. Donner le —, to give the A.

LABARUM, lab-bar-om, sm. (Lat.) Rom. antiq. labarum.

LABBE, lab, sm. orn. gate.

LABEUR, lab-ulir, sm. (Lat. labor) 1 labour, toil. Vivre de son —, to live by one's work. Tous les hommes ont leur —, soit du corps, soit de l'esprit, all men have their labour, either of body or mind. Lamen. Ces terres sont eu —, those are ploughed lands. 2 print. book-work.

LABIAL, lab-yal, adj. m. fem. —e, (from Lat. labia) 1 anat. Muscle —, labial muscle. 2 gram. Lettre —e, (substantive) —e, labial letter. 3 law. Offre —e, declaration of an offer to do a thing.

LABIÉ, lab-yay, adj. m. fem. —e, 1 bot. labiate, labiated. 2 sf. labiate plant. —s, labiate.

LABIÉ, lab-ee, adj. f. Mémoire —, labile memory.

LABORATOIRE, lab-bo-rat-oir, sm. laboratory. fig. Le grad — de la civilisation du monde, the great foundation of the civilization of the world, Goiz.

LABORIEUSEMENT, lab-bor-yuh-zé-mang, adv. laboriously, toilsomely.

LABORIEUX, lab-or-yuh, adj. m. fem. laborieuse, 1 laborious, industrious, hard-working. 2 (des choses, of things) laborious, toilsome, hard, painful. Après une journée laborieuse, le sommeil me gagne, after a day's labour sleep comes over me. J.-J. Rouss. La diction de C. est pure, mais laborieuse, the language of C. is pure, but laboured. Chat.

LABOUR, lab-oor, sm. (Lat. labor) 1 agri. tillage, tith, husbandry. Il faut donner un seul —, deux —s à cette terre, a dressing, two dressings must be given to that land. Cette pièce de terre est en —, that piece of ground is ploughed. 2 geog. Terre de —, Terra di Lavoro.

LABOURABLE, lab-oo-rabl', adj. mf. arable. Terre —, arable land, plough land.

LABOURAGE, lab-oo-rash, sm. 1 husbandry. Il a quitté le — pour le commerce, he has left farming for trade. 2 le travail du laboureur tillage, tilling, ploughing.

LABOURÉ, ppo. of LABOURER, fem. —e, ploughed, ploughed up. Ge. Nos lunes doivent être —es, aussi bien que nos terres, our minds must be cultivated, as well as our fields. Balz.

LABOUREUR, lab-oo-ray, em. (from Lat. laborare) 1 to plough, to till. — la terre, to till the ground. — des vignes, le pied d'un arbre, to dress vines, to dig about the foot of a tree. absol. to plough with oxen. — 2 deux, à trois charrues, to employ two, three ploughs on a farm. 2 (by analogy) Les taupes ont labouré tout mon jardin, the moles have turned up all my garden. (by extension) Une houle presque constable laboura ces rades et coupa les ancres, an almost continual swell reigns in up these roadsteads, and snaps the anchors. Lamart. fig. Comme un vaisseau qui laboura les vagues, like a ship that ploughs the waves. Chât. 3 man. Ce cheval laboura le terrain, this horse stumbles. 4 naut. L'ancre laboura le fond, the anchor drags. Notre vaisseau laboura, our ship ploughed with her keel. 5 fig. (avoir beaucoup à souffrir) to toil and moil. 6 fig. pop. — la vie, to have a hard life of it.

LABOUREUR, lab-oo-rubr, sm. husbandman, tiller, ploughman.

LABRE, labr', sm. 1 ich. wrasse. 2 ent. labrum.

LA BRUYÈRE (JEAN DE), lab-rû-yayr, sm. a French author and moralist, born in 1616, died in 1696.

LABYRINTHE, lab-e-rangt, sm. (Gr.) 1 labyrinth, maze. Les détours d'un —, the windings, turnings of a labyrinth. 2 fig. maze. Il est engagé dans un — facheux, he is entangled in an intricate maze. Le — de la métaphysique, the maze of metaphysics. Volt. Un — d'embarras, de difficultés, a maze of obstacles, of difficulties. Boss. 3 gard. labyrinth, ornamental maze. 4 anat. labyrinth of the ear.

LAC, lak, sm. (Lat. lacus) geog. lake.

LACÉDÉMONNE, lab-say-day-mon, sf. geog. Lacedæmon.

LACÉDÉMONIEN, lab-say-day-mon-nyang, adj. and sm. fem. —NE, Lacedæmonian.

LACÉPEDE (ÉTIENNE DE LAVILLE, cl^o DE), lab-say-payd, sm. a French naturalist, born in 1756, died in 1835.

LACER, lab-say, v. nous LACONS, JE LACE, 1 to lace. — un corset, to lace a pair of stays. — une femme, to lace a woman. 2 naut. — la voile, to lace, to attach the sail.

SE LACER, vp. 1 to lace one's self. 2 to be laced.

LACÉRATION, lab-say-rah-syong, sf. law. laceration.

LACÉREUR, lab-say-ray, va. (Lat.) JE LACÈRE, TU LACÈRES, IL LACÈRE, to lacerate.

LACÉRON, sm. See LAITERON.

LACET, lab-say, sm. (from lars) 1 lace. — de corset, stay-lace. — de bottines, boot-lace. Machine à —s, braid-machine. Passer un —, to put in a lace. Serrer un —, to tighten a lace. Fermer un —, to tag a lace. 2 (pour prendre les pèdrix, etc.) spring, noose. 3 —s, pl. fig. (piège) snare, toils. La dialectique tend des —s aux faibles, dialectics set snares for the weak. Boss. Te voilà tombé à ton tour dans les —s de Cupido, there you are, in your turn, caught in Cupid's snares. Le Sage. 3 (en Turquie) boustrik, 4 tech. (d'une serrure) a lock's rivet. 5 railw. (d'une locomotive) a locomotive. Mouvement de —, tail-motion.

LÂCHE, lâsh, adj. mf. (Lat. laxus) 1 loose, slack, laz. Corde —, slack, laz rope. Tissu —, loose texture. César porta la ceinture furt —, Cæsar wore a very loose girdle. La Har. Toile, drap, étoffe —, flimsy linen, cloth, stuff. 2 Ventre —, lax bowels. 3 Temps —, faint weather. fig. Style —, loose style. 4 fig.

(qui manque de vigueur) loose, remiss. Cet ouvrier est — au travail, he is a very idle workman. Vie — et efféminée, indolent and effeminate life. 5 (poltion) cowardly, faint-hearted, dastardly, craven, recreant. — qui vent mourir, courageux qui veut vivre, he is a coward who would die, a brave man who would live. Rac. 6 (qui n'a que des sentiments vils) cowardly, unworthy. C'est être bien — que l'abandonner son ami, it is very cowardly to abandon one's friend. 7 (des actions honteuses) base, mean. Mon cœur ne peut souffrir de — trahison, my heart cannot endure base treachery. Regn.

LÂCHE, sm. coward, dastard, recreant.

LÂCHÉ, ppa. of LÂCHER, fem. —E, 1 slackened, loosened. fig. Le mot est —, the word is out. 2 fine arts. fig. (mollement) sluggishly, slothfully, loosely, weakly. Écrire —, to write loosely. 3 (honteusement) cowardly, dastardly, recreantly. S'enfuir —, to run away cowardly. Il souffrit — cet affront, he meanly put up with that affront.

LÂCHER, lâ-shay, va. (Lat. laxare) 1 to loosen, to slacken. Cette corde est trop tendue, lâchez-la un peu, that cord is too tight, slacken it a little. Il faut — ce corset qui est trop serré, these stays are too tight, they must be loosened. 2 Cet aliment lâche le ventre, that article of food relaxes the bowels. 3 man. — la bride, la main à un cheval, SE LÂCHER, MAIN. 4 (à certains jeux de cartes, at cards) — la main, to let go. fig. — la main, — le pied, SE MAIN, PIED. 5 (laisser aller) to let go, to loose, to let loose, to turn loose, to set free, to release. Il tenait cela dans la main, il l'a lâché, he held that in his hand, he let it go. — un prisonnier, to release a prisoner. — un oiseau, to let a bird go. fig. — un livre, on pamphlet dans le public, to publish, to send forth a book, a pamphlet.

— prise, SE PRENDRE. — les chiens, to slip, to eat on, the dogs. Comme un chasseur ses chiens, je lâche mes bandits, as a hunter slips his dogs, so I let loose my bandits. V. Hug. 6 hawk. — l'autour, l'épervier, to let fly the goshawk, the hawk. 7 fig. — une personne après une autre, to set one person after another.

— les buissons après un débiteur, to set the bailiffs after a debtor. — la bonde d'un étang, to open the sluice of a pond. — une écluse, to open a lock. — les eaux, to unpen the water. — le robinet d'une fontaine, to turn on the cock of a fountain. Ce malade lâche tout sous lui, that patient cannot retain fig. — une parole, — un mot, to drop a word. — un coup de fusil, un coup de pistolet, etc., to discharge, to fire, to fire off a gun, a pistol, pop. — un coup, to give a blow. 8 (jeu de paume, tennis) — la balle, to let the ball go.

SE LÂCHER, vp. 1 to loosen, to slacken, to get loose. Un fusil qui se lâche, a gun that goes off. 2 fig. to give loose to one's tongue. SE — en propos injurieux contre, etc., to give utterance to abusive language against, etc.

LÂCHER, vn. to go off, to slacken, to loosen, to grow loose, to slip. Si ce fusil vient à — vous blesserez quelqu'un, should that gun go off, you would hurt somebody.

LÂCHÈTE, lâsh-tay, sf. 1 cowardice, dastardiness, faint-heartedness. Le chemin du vice est la —, the road to vice is faint-heartedness. J.-J. Rousse. Il a montré bien de la —, he displayed great cowardice. 2 (action basse) cowardly act, dastardly act.

LÂCHINÉ, lâs-e-nyay, adj. m. fem. —E, bot. laciniate, jagged.

LÂCIS, lah-see, sm. (Lat. laqueus) 1 net-work, plaiting. 2 anat. plexus. Le — des nerfs, the net-work of the nerves.

LACONIE, lak-o-nee, sf. geog. Laconia.

LACONIEN, lak-o-nyang, adj. and sm. fem. —NE, Laconian.

LACONIQUE, lak-o-nik, adj. mf. (Gr.) laconic, laconical.

LACONIQUEMENT, lak-o-nik-mang, adv. laconically.

LACONISME, lak-o-nism', sm. (Gr.) 1 laconism, laconicism. 2 (du langage, du style, of language, style) laconism.

LACRYMAL, lak-re-mal, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 anat. lacrymal. Glande —, lacrymal gland. 2 surg. Fistule —, fistula lacrymalis.

LACRYMATOIRE, lak-re-mat-onr, sm. 1 Hom. anct. lacrymatory. 2 (adjective) lacrymatory. Urne, vase —, lacrymatory urn, vase.

LÂCS, lâ, sm. (Lat. laqueus) 1 string. 2 pour prendre des oiseaux, anctois, 3 fig. snare, toil. Elle le retient dans ses —, she holds him in her toils. On lui a tendu des —, snares have been laid for him. 4 — d'amour, love-knot, amoret. 5 tech. laches, springs.

LACTANE, lak-tang, sm. Lactantius.

LACTATE, lak-tat, sm. chem. lactate.

LACTATION, lak-tah-syong, sf. (Lat.) lactation.

LACTÉ, lak-tay, adj. m. fem. —E, (Lat. lacteus) 1 med. Diète —, milk diet. 2 anat. Vaisseaux —, lacteal vessels. 3 astr. Voie —, milky way.

LACTIQUE, lak-tik, adj. mf. chem. lactic.

LACTOMÈTRE, lak-to-metr', sm. chem. lactometer.

LACUNE, lak-fîn, sf. (Lat. lacuna) 1 gap, break, blank. Dieu ne laisse point de — dans ses desseins, God leaves no gap in his designs. Goiz. 2 bot. lacuna. 3 anat. lacuna.

LACUNETTE, lak-fî-net, sf. fort. lacunette.

LACUSTRAL, lak-fs-ural, adj. m. fem. —E, lacustral.

LACUSTRE, lak-âstr', adj. mf. (from Lat. læcus) nat. hist. lacustrine.

LADISLAS, lad-is-las, sm. Ladislaus.

LADRE, ladr', adj. mf. 1 lepreux. Un homme —, a leprous man. Pourreau —, measly pig. 2 fig. (insensible) insensible, dull, thick-skinned. 3 fig. (avare) stingy, shabby, niggardly, scurvy.

LADRE, sm. 1 leper. 2 fig. curmudgeon, niggard, churl. Eh vrai — il tous jours veça, he has always lived like a very churl. Mol. Un — vert, a skinflint.

LADRÈRE, lad-rêr-re, sf. 1 leprosy. 3 (des cochons, of pigs) miasles. 3 fig. (avarice) stinginess, shabbiness, niggardliness, churlishness.

LADY, lay-dee, sf. (Eng.) lady.

LAERCE, lay-ays, sm. Laertius.

LAERTE, lay-ayt, sm. Laertes.

LAETARE, lay-lâ-ray, sm. rath. liturg. Dimanche de —, Sunday of Laetare.

LA FONTAINE (JEAN OE), lah-fong-tayn, sm. a French fabulist, born in 1621, died in 1695.

LAGONYS, lag-o-mis, sm. (Gr.) zoöl. rai-hare.

LÂGÔPÈDE, lag-o-payd, em. (Gr.) orn. lagopus, white grouse.

LÂGOPHTALMIE, lag-of-tal-mee, sf. (Gr.) lagophthalmus.

LÂGUNE, lag-fîn, sf. (It.) lagoon, lagune.

LA HAYE, lah-ay, sf. geog. the Hague.

LAI, lay, adj. m. fem. —E, (Gr.) 1 lay, laical. Frère —, seür —E, lay brother, lay sister. Moine —, lay monk, oblat. 2 (substantif) layman.

LAI, sm. anc. lit. lay.

LAÏC, SE LAÏQUE.

LAÏCHE, lâysh, sf. bot. scdge. — des sables, sand-sedge.

LÂID, lay, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 ugly, ill-looking, plain, unsightly, ill-favoured. — comme le péché, come une cheuille.

as ugly as sin, as a lood, as a devil. Esopé était difforme et — de visage. Esop was deformed and ugly. La Foot. fig. C'est un — magot, he is an ugly baboon. prov. Il n'y a point de —es amours, one's mistress is never ugly. 2 (des animaux, of animals) ugly. Voilà une — bête, an — animal, what an ugly beast, animal. 3 fig. (de tout ce qui est désagréable à voir) ugly, disagreeable. Cette maison est fort —e, that is a very ugly house. Le temps est —, the weather is disagreeable. 4 (morally) unwholesome, improper, naughty. Ce que vous faites-là est bien —, that is very improper of you. LAIO, sm. fem. —e. 1 ugly fellow, ugly creature. Il courtise la —e et la belle, he courts both the ugly and the beautiful. La Foot. 2 sm. (des choses, of things) the ugly, what is ugly.

LAIDEMENT, lay-môg, adv. (Little used) unwholesomely.

LAIDERON, lay-long, sf. ugly creature, fright. Mlle C. est une — assez pignante, Miss C. is a plain but engaging sort of girl. Volt.

LAIDEUR, lay-dohr, sf. 1 ugliness, ill-featuredness, unwholesomeness, plainness. Que la beauté de ton œil efface la — de ta figure, let the beauty of your mind obliterate the plainness of your face. Balz. Il y a des — qui ne sont pas désagréables, a plain-featured face is not always without its charms. 2 (morally) unwholesomeness, deformity. J'ai vu la vice dans toute sa —, I there witnessed evil in all its deformity.

LAIDR, lay-deer, rn. old for ENLAIDR. Je crains de voir votre visage affreusement —, I am afraid to see your face grow frightfully ugly. Mol.

LAIE, lay, sf. 1 anc. forest. Saluz-Germain en —, St. Germain in the forest. 2 woods and for. path, lane.

LAIE, sf. wool, wild sow.

LAINAGE, lay-nazh, sm. 1 woollen-stuff, woollens. 2 (toison des moutons) fleece, wool. 3 (apou) teasing, raising, routing.

LAINÉ, layn, sf. (Lat. lana) 1 wool. — d'agneau, lamb's wool. — de Berlin, Berlin wool. — courée, de cardie, short wool. stapled wool clothing wool. — longue, — de peigne, — à peigner, long wool, coming wool. — mère, back wool, spine wool. — mélié, mixed wool. — morte, felt wool, mortling. — grasse, — en suint, wool in grease. — de toison, fleece. Mouton bien convert, bien fourni de —, a very woolly sheep. De — woollens. Etouffe pore —, all-wool stuff. Ballot de —, wool-pack. Filature de —, wool-spinning factory. Bêtes à —, sheep. prov. fig. Se laisser manger la — sur le dos, to be patient as a sheep. 2 (laine filée) worsted. Bas de —, worsted stockings. Ecaveau, flocon, pelotte de —, hank, flock, ball of wool. 3 (des nègres, of negroes) wool. 4 bot. wool.

LAINER, lay-nay, ra. tech. to tease.

SE LAINER, rpr. tech. to be teased.

LAINIERE, layn-ree, sf. (collectif.) com. woollens, woollen goods.

LAINIER, lay-nuhr, sm. fem. LAINIESE, tech. teaseler.

LAINIEUSE, lay-nuhz, sf. tech. (machine) gig.

LAINÉUX, lay-nuh, adj. m. fem. LAINIEUX, 1 woolly, fleecy. 2 bot. woolly, lanated.

LAINIER, lay-nay, sm. 1 anc. com. wool-stapler. 2 (ouvrier en laine) wool-worker.

LAIQUE, lah-ik, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 laic, laical, lay. Une personne —, a lay person. Habit —, lay dress. 2 (substantif.) layman.

LAIRD, layr, sm. (Sc.) laird.

LAIS, lay, sm. 1 woods and for. standard. 2 law. allusion. — et relais de la mer, derelictions.

LAISSE, lays, sf. (Lat. laxus) 1 leash, leash, slip. Tirer en —, to keep in the leash. Mettre en —, to leash. Mener en —, to lead by a string, in a leash. Une — de lévriers, a leash of greyhounds. 2 (d'un chien seul) string, leash. Mener son chien en —, to lead one's dog by a string, in a leash. fig. Mener quelqu'un en —, to lead a person by the nose. 3 (de chapeau, of hats) hat-string.

LAISSEES, lay-say, sf. pl. bunt. leesses.

LAISSER, lay-say, ra. 1 (quitter) to leave. Il a laissé son fils à Paris, he has left his son in P. Je l'ai laissé seul chez lui, I left him alone in his house. — une place de guerre mal pourvue, la — en bon état, to leave a fortified town in a poor state, in a good state. J'ai laissé votre père en bonne santé, I left your father in good health. — quelqu'un loin de soi, loin derrière soi, to leave a person far behind one. 2 (ne pas emmener, ne pas emporter) to leave. Il a laissé son fils avec son précepteur, he left his son with his tutor. Laissez-les votre manieau, leave your cloak here. 3 (oublier de prendre avec soi) to leave, to leave behind. Il a laissé sa montre dans son cabinet, he left his watch in his study. 4 (mettre en dépôt) to leave. — une chose en dépôt, to deposit a thing. — une chose au soin, à la discrétion, à la prudence, etc., de quelqu'un, to leave a thing to the care, discretion, prudence, etc., of a person. 5 (donner une chose à quelqu'un pour qu'il la remette à un autre) to leave. Je ne l'ai point trouvé chez lui, j'ai laissé votre lettre à son domestique, I did not find him at home, I left your letter with his servant. 6 (ne pas ôter) to leave. Il laisse son enfant en nourrice, he leaves his child out at nurse. Pourquoi laissez-vous si longtemps cela chez moi? why do you leave that so long at my house? 7 (ne pas déplacer) to leave, to let alone. Laissez-moi auprès du feu, leave me near the fire. Laissez ces livres sur mon bureau, let those books alone on my desk. 8 (by extension) — un champ en friche, to let a field lie fallow. — un ouvrage imparfait, to leave a work imperfect. — une chose intacte, to leave a thing untouched. fig. — quelqu'un dans la passe, to leave a person in the lurch. — quelqu'un dans l'embarras, dans le danger, dans la misère, to leave a person in distress, danger, misery. Dieu laissa-t-il jamais ses enfants au besoin, did God ever desert his own children Rac. 9 — quelqu'un en paix, en repos, le — tranquille, to let a person alone. Laissez-moi donc, do let me alone. Laissez-moi, leave me alone. Laissez le monde comme il est, leave the world as it is. — quelqu'un en son particulier, SE PARTICULIER. — quelqu'un maître d'une chose, to leave a person master of a thing. — un ouvrier sans ouvrage, to leave a workman without work. — à l'abandon, SE ABANDON. — en blanc, SE BLANC. man. — la bride sur le cou à un cheval, SE BRIDE. 10 (ne pas détruire) to leave. Les voleurs lui ont laissé son habit, lui ont laissé la vie, the robbers left him his coat, his life. Les ennemis ont brûlé le village et n'ont laissé que l'église, the enemy burnt the village and left nothing standing but the church. Ils ont tout mangé, ils n'ont rien laissé, they have eaten up, spent every thing, they have left nothing. Ne — que les quatre murailles, to leave nothing but the bare walls. 11 (abandonner) to leave. Cette rivière a laissé son ancien lit, that river has left its former bed. — un chemin, une maison, etc., à droite, sur la droite, to leave a road, a house, etc., to the right. fam. Laissez-le pont ce qu'il est, do not mind him. — quelqu'un pour mort, to leave a person for dead. Cette marchandise est à prendre on —, SE PRENDRE. fig. Il y a à prendre et à — dans cette affaire, dans cette entreprise, SE PRENDRE. Je vous laisse à penser, SE PENSER. — quelque chose, — beaucoup à dire, à faire, to leave something, much to be said, done. — à désirer, to be unsatisfactory.

(by analogy) Ne pas — de, ne pas — que de, not to cease, not to leave off, to discontinue. Malgré leur brouillerie, il n'y a pas laissé que de lui écrire, though they have fallen out, yet he writes to him for all that. Il est pauvre, mais il ne laisse pas d'être bonnet homme, he is poor, but he is however an honest man. Il ne laisse pas que de gagner beaucoup à ce marché, he however gains a great deal by that bargain. Cette proposition ne laisse pas d'être vraie, que d'être vraie, that proposition is nevertheless true. Cela ne laisse pas d'être embarrassant, d'étonner, que d'être embarrassant, of astonishing, that is however embarrassing, astonishing.

Laissez que, let. Laissez que je vous réponde, let me, suffer me, allow me to answer you.

fam. Laissez donc, nonsense. fam. Laissez tranquille, don't tell me. fam. (elliptic.) Laissez, laissez, enough. Laissez, ma bru, laissez, ne venez pas plus loin, enough, step-daughter enough, don't come any farther. Mol.

— des poils, des plumes en quelque endroit, to leave hair, feathers in a place; || fig. — des plumes, to be plucked. — des traces, des vestiges, to leave traces, vestiges. 12 (substantif.) Avoir le prendre et le —, to have the choice. 13 (passer sous silence) to omit, to pass over, to leave out. Je laisse une infinité d'autres preuves, d'autres détails, I pass over an infinity of other proofs, particulars. Laissons cela, let us have done with that. 14 (céder) to leave, to give up. Je lui en laisse le profit. I leave him the profit of it. — une chose à un certain prix, à bon compte, SE COMPRE. — le champ libre à quelqu'un, SE CHAMP. 15 (léguer) to leave, to bequeath. Il a laissé des legs à tous ses amis, he left legacies to all his friends. Il a laissé par testament sa bibliothèque à son frère, he left in his will his library to his brother. 16 (des personnes, des choses qui ayant été à quelqu'un subsistent après sa mort) to leave, to leave behind. Il laisse une femme et des enfants, he leaves a wife and children. — de grands biens après sa mort, to leave great wealth after one's death. — plusieurs ouvrages manuscrits, to leave several manuscript works. 17 (by analogy) Il a laissé une bonne, une mauvaise réputation après lui, he has left a good, a bad reputation behind him. 18 (de l'impression qui reste de quelque chose, etc.) to leave, to leave behind. Cette liqueur laisse un bon goût, un mauvais goût, that liquor leaves a good, a bad taste behind it. Sa conduite avait laissé des soupçons sur son compte, his conduct had brought him into suspicion. 19 (followed by an infinitive) to let, to permit, to allow, to suffer. Je l'ai laissé sortir, I let him go out. — tomber ce qu'on a dans les mains, to drop what one has in one's hands. Laissez jouer ces enfants, let those children play. — faire, — dire, SE FAIRE, DIRE. fig. — voir sa pensée, to let one's thoughts be seen. fig. — tout aller, SE ALLER. bunt. — courre, SE COURRE.

SE LAISSER, rpr. to let one's self, to allow, to suffer one's self. Se — tomber, to fall, to get a fall. Se — mourir de faim, to starve. Se — gouverner, conduire, mener, to suffer one's self to be led. fig. Se — mener par le nez, to suffer one's self to be led by the nose. Se — aller, to give away. Se — mourir, to die. Se — battre, to suffer one's self to be beaten. Se — dire des injures, to allow one's self to be insulted. Se — pénétrer, to let one's self be seen through. fig. Ce livre, cet ouvrage se laisse lire, that is a readable book, work. fam. Cela se laisse manger, that is eatable.

LAISSER-ALLER, sm. S.e ALLER.

LAISSER-PASSER, sm. pass. permet for transit.

LAIT, lay, sm. (Lat. lac) 1 milk. — de femme, de vache, d'aïeuse, woman's, cow's, ass's milk. Café au —, milk and coffee. Être au —, to be confined to milk-diet. Jeune —, new milk. Vieux —, old milk. Fièvre de —, milk-fever. Dent de —, milk-tooth. Frère, sœur de —, foster-brother, foster-sister. — répandu, overflow of milk. Vache à —, milk cow. Il fig. milk cow. Cet bonhomme a fait de vous une vache à —, that man is always coaxing money out of you. Mûl. Veau de —, cobson de —, sucking calf, sucking pig. Petit —, clair, whey. — de beurre, butter-milk. — coupé, milk and water. S'empporter comme une soupe au —, See soupe. fig. Sucrer avec le —, une doctrine, etc.. See SUCRER. Garder une dent de —, See DENT. Il avale cela doux comme —, he swallows it down gladly. prov. (hyperb.) Il est si jeune que si on lui tordait le nez, il en sortirait encore du —, he is still so young that if you were to squeeze his nose milk would ooze out. prov. fig. Bouillir du — à quelqu'un, to delight a person. 2 (by analogy) (d'un œuf, of an egg) white, 3 (colin. — de poule, malted egg, egg-flop. 4 (de certaines plantes, of some plants) milk. — de coco, coco-milk. 5 (de certaines liqueurs artificielles, of some liqueurs) milk. — d'amande, milk of almonds. 6 chem. — de chaux, lime-water. — de soufre, milk of sulphur.

LAITAGE, lay-lazh, sm. (collectiv.) milk-diet, milk-food.

LAITANCE, lay-langs, LAITE, layt, sf. soft roc, milk.

LAITE, lay-lay, adj. m. fem. — sf. soft-roc. Poisson —, miller, prov. fig. Poule —, a chicken-hearted fellow.

LAITERIE, lay-ree, sf. 1 dairy, dairy-house. 2 com. milk shop.

LAITERON, lay-ron, sm. bot. sow-thistle.

LAITEUX, lay-luh, adj. m. fem. LAITEUSE, 1 milkly, 2 (by analogy) milk-coloured. Liqueurs laiteuses, milkly liquors. Verre —, milkly glass. Suc —, milkly juice. Cette opale est laiteuse, that opal is milkly.

LAITIEU, lay-tyay, sm. 1 milk-man. 2 tech. slug, dross.

LAITIEUE, lay-tyay, sf. 1 milk-woman, milk-maid. 2 C'est une bonne —, it is a good milk cow. 3 fam. Cette nourrice est une bonne —, that nurse has a great deal of milk. (adjectiv.) Vache —, milk cow.

LAITON, lay-tong, sm. (Celt. laetwen) brass. — noir, latten-brass. — de fonte, cold-brass. Fil de —, brass-wire.

LAITEU, lay-ti, sf. bot. lettuce. pot-mée, cabbage-lettuce. — cultivée, garden-lettuce. — romaine, cos-lettuce.

LAIZE, layz, sf. width (of manufactured stuff).

LAMA, lah-mah, sm. (Hind.) 1 lama. 2 zool. lama.

LAMANAGE, lam-an-azh, sm. naut. harbour piloting.

LAMANEUR, lam-an-uh, sm. naut. harbour pilot. (adjectiv.) Pilote —, harbour pilot.

LAMANTIN, lang-ang-tang, sm. zool. lamantin, manatee.

LAMBEAU, lang-bo, sm. 1 zool. shred. Son habit est tout en —x, s'en va en —x, par —x, his coat is all in tatters, is falling into rags. Il y a laissé un — de son habit, he left there a piece of his coat. 2 (de chair, of flesh) shred, bit. Et vous vous pariguez les —x de sa chair, and you shared the shreds of his flesh. V. Hug. 3 fig. shred, scrap. Un homme s'éteint, et —x par —x s'en va, a man withers away, and vanishes inch by inch. V. Hug. Les —x de son luxe passé, the ruins of his past splendour. Méry.

LAMBEU, lang-bayl, sm. her. label.

LAMBIN, lang-bang, sm. fem. —E, 1 dawdler, trifter. 2 (adjectiv.) dawdling, trifling.

LAMBINER, lang-bd-nay, en. fam. to dawdle to trifle.

LAMBOURDE, lang-boord, sf. 1 carp. summer-tree. 2 mason. soft stone.

LAMBREQUINS, lang-bruh-kang, sm. pl. 1 her. mantle. 2 arch. scallup.

LAMBRIIS, lang-bree, sm. (Lat. ambri-ces) 1 lining. Ce — est de marbre de diverses couleurs, that lining is of marble of different colours. — d'appui, plastering. 2 (d'un grenier, d'une salle, etc., of a garret, of a hall) wainscot, roof, ceiling. 4 (by extension) poetic. De vastes —, de riches —, large, rich dwellings. Je ne dormirai point sous de riches —, I will not sleep under rich canopies. La Font. Les célestes —, the canopy of heaven.

LAMBRISSE, lang-bre-sazh, sm. lining, wainscoting.

LAMBRISSE, ppa. of LAMBRISSE, fem. —E, wainscoted. Chambre —, garret.

LAMBRISSEUR, lang-bre-say, ro. to line. — de bois les murs d'une chambre à coucher, to wainscot the walls of a sleeping-chamber. — de marbre, de plâtre, to line with marble, with plaster.

LAMBRUCHE, lang-brüsh, LAMBRUSQUE, lang-brüsk, sf. bot. wild vine.

LAME, lam, sf. (Lat. lamina) 1 plate, sheet. — de cuivre, brass-plate. 2 9s, pl. (pour étoffes, etc.) flattened wire, foil. 3 (d'une épée, of a sword) blade. — évidée, blade hollowed out. fig. C'est une bonne —, he is a good swordsman. fig. Une fine —, a cunning jade. prov. fig. La — use le fourreau, See FOURREAU. 4 (by analogy) blade. — de sabre, de poignard, de fleurit, blade of a broadsword, poniard, foil. — de canif, de rasoir, blade of a penknife, razor. — à deux tranchants, two-edged blade. Couteau d'argent, silver-bladed knife. Je lui plongeai la — de mon poignard dans la gorge, I thrust the blade of my dagger into his throat. Al. Dum. 5 naut. wave, billow. La — est courte, we have a short sea. — longue, a long sea. Aller bon à la —, to head the sea. S'élever en fortes —, to rise in billows mountain-high. Entre-deux de grosses —s, See ENTRE-DEUX. A chaque — d'eau qui s'engageait dans le canal, at each sea that rolled into the channel. B. de S-P. 6 weav. reed, slay. 7 nat. hist. lamina. 8 — à canon, barrel. 9 (d'un ressort, of a spring) winding.

LAMÉ, lam-ay, adj. m. fem. —E, — d'argent, d'or, worked with silver-wire, gold-wire.

LAMELLE, lam-ayl, sf. (Lat. lamella) lamina.

LAMELLE, lam-ayl-lay, adj. m. fem. —E, nat. hist. lamellate.

LAMELLEUX, lam-ayl-luh, adj. m. fem. LAMELLEUSE, nat. hist. lamellated, lamellur.

LAMENTABLE, lam-ang-lahl, adj. mf. 1 lamentable, rueful. 2 (qui porte à la pitié) lamentable. Ces histoires de morts —s, tragic, these histories of woeful and tragical deaths. Boil.

LAMENTABLEMENT, lam-ang-lah-luh-mang, adv. lamentably, ruefully.

LAMENTATION, lam-ang-lah-syong, sf. (Lat.) lamentation, lamenting, bewailing, wailing. Se répandre en —s, to burst out into lamentations. Les —s de Jérémie, the lamentations of Jeremiah.

LAMENTER, lam-ang-tay, va. 1 to lament, to bewail, to bemoan. Il lamente la vie et la mort du duc de R., he mourns the life and death of the Duke of R. Chat. 2 ironic. (by extension) — tristement une chanson bacchique, to sing ruefully a bacchic song. Boil.

LAMENTER, vn. 1 to whine, to whimper, to groan, to mourn for. 2 absol. (little used) La houlte lamentait, the howl screeched mournfully. Chat

SE LAMENTER, vpr. to lament, to mourn, to bewail, to moan. Vous vous lamentez sur ce pauvre chevalier, you lament for the poor chevalier. M^{me} de Sév.

LAMENTIN, See LAMANTIN.

LAMIE, lam-ec, sf. 1 zool. white shark. 2 antig. (être fabuleux) Lamia.

LAMIER, lam-yay, sm. bot. archæagel, dead-nettle.

LAMINAGE, lam-e-nazh, sm. tech. flattening, laminating, rolling.

LAMINER, lam-e-nay, va. to flatten, to laminate, to roll.

LAMINEUR, lam-e-nulr, sm. tech. flattener, roller.

LAMINOIR, lam-e-noolr, sm. flattening-mill, rolling-mill.

LAMPADAIRE, lang-pad-ayr, sm. (Gr.) 1 antiqu. torch-bearer. 2 (lustre) lamp-post.

LAMPADISTE, lang-pad-ist, sm. (Gr.) antiqu. lampadist.

LAMPAS, lang-pass, sm. 1 (étouffe) lampass. 2 vet. lampass. 3 pop. Humecter le —, to wet one's whisker.

LAMPE, lang, sf. (Gr.) 1 lamp. — de bureau, desk-lamp. — à double courant d'air, air-lamp. — Carcel, Carcel lamp. — solaire, solar lamp. — à modérateur, moderator lamp. — de sûreté, safety-lamp. — à souder, soldering-lamp. — à esprit-de-vin, spirit-lamp. fig. prov. Il n'y a plus d'esprit dans la —, there is no more oil in the lamp. prov. fig. Il ne faut pas mettre la — allumée sous le boisseau, you must not light a candle, and put it under a bushel. 2 arch. Cul-de-—, pendant, bracket. 3 priest. Cul-de-—, tail-piece.

LAMPEE, lang-pay, sf. pop. damper, trimmer.

LAMPER, lang-pay, va. (Lat. lambere) pop. to swallow up, to gnaw.

LAMPÉRON, lang-prong, sm. tech. socket, wick-holder.

LAMPION, lang-pyong, sm. 1 fire-pot, illumination-lamp. 2 (d'église) church-lamp.

LAMPISTE, lang-pist, sm. lamp-maker, lamp-setter.

LAMPOURDE, lang-poord, sf. bot. burdock, clot-bur.

LAMPRIILLON, lang-pre-yong, sm. ich. small lamprey.

LAMPROIE, lang-prood, sf. ich. lamprey.

LAMPSANE, lang-psan, sf. bot. nipplewort.

LAN, lang, sm. naut. yaw. Faire des —s, to yaw.

LANÇAGE, lang-sazh, sm. naut. launching of a vessel.

LANCASTRE, lang-kast-r, sm. geog. Lancaster.

LANCE, langs, sf. (Lat. lancea) 1 lance, spear. Le bois, le fer de la —, the staff, the head of the lance. La poignée, le tronc de la —, the handle, the shaft of the lance. Tenir la — en arrêt, to hold the lance in the rest. Cocher, baisser la —, to couch, to rest, to lower the lance. Il l'abatit d'un coup de —, he unhorsed him with a single stroke of the lance. — brisée, broken lance. — à outrance, — à fer emoulu, sharp lance. — courtoise, blunt lance. — mousse, frétée, mornée, blunted lance. man. La main de la —, the right hand. Le pied de la —, the right foot. fig. Coup de —, blow with a lance. prov. fig. Rompre une —, rompre des —s pour quelqu'un. See ROMPRE. prov. fig. Le royaume de France ne peut tomber de — en quenouille, the kingdom of France never falls to women. prov. Il est venu, il est retourné à pied sans —, he came, he returned on shank's mare, he walked it. 2 mil. lancer. L'armée était composée de 3,000 —s, the army contained 3,000 lam- elle. Mourir de —, to die of a decline, d'estomac, weakness of stomach. 2 (abattement physique et moral) languor. Une secrète et douce — s'emparait de moi, a secret and gentle languor stole over me. Fénel. M^{me} de L. avait une — dans l'esprit qui avait ses charmes, M^{me} de L. had a languishfulness of mind that had its charms. Metz. fig. Il y a de la — dans cet ouvrage, the style of this work is very languid. 3 —s, pl. debility, weakness. Je suis retombé dans toutes les —s de mon âge, I have relapsed into all the feebleness of my age. Volt.

LANGUEYER, lang-gay-yay, va. to examine the tongue of a hog to see if he has the measles.

LANGUEYEUR, lang-gay-yuhr, sm. examiner of hogs' tongues.

LANGUI, lang-glee, ppa. inv. of LANGUIR, languished.

LANGUIER, lang-ghyay, sm. hog's tongue smoked.

LANGUIR, lang-gher, rn. (conjugated with avoir) (Lat. languere) 1 to languish, to pine, to droop, to decline, to linger. Il ne fait que —, he is pining away. Le renard languit lorsqu'il n'a pas sa liberté, the fox languishes when he has not his liberty. Buff. 2 (souffrir de la continuité d'un supplice, etc.) to languish. On le fit — dans de cruels tourments, they made him languish in cruel tortments.

de soif, de faim, to languish, to languish with thirst, hunger, in misery. 3 fig. to pine away, to droop. — d'amour, to pine away for love. Nous ne faisons plus que — après notre départ, we do nothing but pine for our departure. M^{me} de Sév. — dans l'attente d'un bien, to languish in expectation of something good. 4 fig. (des végétaux, de plants) to wither. Dans ces prés jouissants, à vois la fleur —, in these ripening meadows you see the flower wither. Lamart. La nature languit, toutes choses languissent pendant l'hiver, nature languishes, every thing languishes during the winter. 5 fig. (manquer de force) to droop, to flag, to be languid. Son style languit, his style flags. Ce sont ces petites misères qui font — la plupart de nos comédies, these petty failings cause most of our comedies to flag. Volt. La conversation languissait, the conversation flagged.

Les nouvelles languissent, there is no interesting news. Les affaires languissent, business is dull. L'affaire languit, the affair is spun out.

LANGUISSAMMENT, lang-ghé-sah-mang, adv. languidly, languishingly, droopingly, piningly.

LANGUISSANT, lang-ghé-sang, ppr. of LANGUIR, adj. m. fem. —e, 1 languid, languishing. 2 (des choses, of things) weak, slack, dull. Santé —e, declining health. Le commerce est —, trade is dull. 3 lit. Style, discours —, languid style, discourse. Des vers froids et —s, cold spiritless verses. 4 (languor) languishing. Regards —s, languishing looks.

LANICE, lan-ces, adj. s. e. noun.

LANIER, lan-jay, sm. ora. tanner, tanneret.

LANIÈRE, lan-yayr, sf. (from Lat. laniera) 4 thong. 2 mout. lanierd.

LANIFIÈRE, lan-e-fayr, adj. mf. (from Lat. lana, ferre) nat. hist. laniferaus.

LANIGÈRE, lan-e-chayr, adj. mf. (from Lat. lana gerere) nat. hist. lanigerous.

LANISTE, lan-ist, sm. Rom. antiq. lanista.

LANQUENET, lang-s-kuh-nay, sm. Ger. 1 auc. lansquenet. 2 (jeu) lansquenet.

LANTERNE, lang-layrn, sf. (Lat. lanterna) 1 lantern. — soeurde, dark lantern. 2 nat. phil. — magique, magic lantern. fig. C'est une — magique, une vraie — magique, it is a true magic lantern. 3 arch. (lourde) lanterna. 4 arch. (cage vitrée) skylight. 5 arch. (loge) secret seat. 6 mech. lantern, lantern-wheel.

7 artil. — à mitraille, canister of grape-shot. — à canon, gun-ladle. 8 (pour allumer le gaz) flash-pipe. 9 lech. (boudinoir) stubbing-machine. 10 mint. glass-case. 11 fig. —s, pl. nonsense, stuff, trash. Voilà bien des —s, ma fille, here is a deal of nonsense, child. M^{me} de Sév. prov. Il veut faire croire que des vessies sont des —s, he wants to make us believe the moon is made of green cheese.

LANTERNER, lang-layrn-nay, rn. fom. to dally, to trifle. De Bros.

LANTERNER, ra. 1 to fool, to put off, to amuse. Comme vous nous lanternez, how you do trifle with us. Al. Dum. 2 absol. to talk nonsense. Je ne sais ce qu'il me vient — tous les jours, every day he comes and buzzes in my ear some foolish thing or other.

LANTERNERIE, lang-layrn-nab-ree, sf. 1 dallying, trifling. C'est une — et une faiblesse qui m'empêche d'aller à V., my dawdling and shilly-shallying prevented me from going to V. M^{me} de Sév. 2 (l'aise) nonsense, idle stories. De Bros.

LANTERNIER, lang-layrn-nayr, sm. 1 lantern-maker. 2 lamp-lighter. 3 fig. (homme irrésolu) trifler, dawdle. 4 fig. (diseur de vains prairer, gossip, driveler.

LANTIPONNAGE, lang-te-pou-on-zh, sm. pop. nonsense, stuff. Que de — l what rigmarole! Mol.

LANTIPONNER, lang-te-pou-on-zh, rn. 1 pop. to talk nonsense, to talk stuff. Ne lantiponnez pas davantage et confessez, etc., come, don't tell us any more nonsense, but confess, etc. Mol. 2 (transitiv.) Que me vient-il —? what stuff is he talking to me?

LANTUILLU, LANTURELU, lang-tür-lü, interj. fan. fiddletick, fudge.

LANGINEUX, lah-nu-zhe-nuh, adj. m. fem. LANGINEUSE, 1 did. lanuginous. 2 bot downy.

LAODICEE, lah-o-de-say, sf. (Gr.) Laodicee.

LAON, lang, s. geog. Laon (a town in France).

LAPER, lap-ay, rn. (Lat. lambere) to lap.

LAPER, ra. to lap up, to lick up. Le rôgne eut lapé e tout en un moment, the dog had licked it all up in a moment. La Font.

LAPEREAU, lap-ro, sm. zool. young rabbit, cony.

LAPIDAIRE, lap-e-dayr, adj. mf. lapidary. Style —, lapidary style. fig. Une sorte d'empreinte —, dure et arrêtée comme dans la vieillesse, a kind of stony stamp hard and inflexible as in old age. Lamart.

LAPIDAIRE sm. jewel. lapidary.

LAPIDATION, lap-e-dah-syong, sf. (Lat. lapidation, stoning).

LAPIDIER, lap-e-dayr, va. (Lat. lapidare) 1 to stone, to pelt to death. 2 (assailir de pierres) to pelt with stones. 3 (hyperb.) Vous n'en ancienne tésse qui me fera — un jour, that is my old argument that will cause me to be stoned some day. M^{me} de Sév.

LAPIDIFICATION, lap-e-de-fe-kah-syong, sf. lapidification.

LAPIDIFIER, lap-e-de-fayr, va. NOUS LAPIDIFIONS, VOUS LAPIDIFIEZ, to lapidify. SE LAPIDIFIER, vpr. to lapidify.

LAPIDIQUE, lap-e-de-lik, adj. mf. lapidifical.

LAPIN, lap-aug, sm. fem. —e, (from Lat. lepus) zool. rabbit, cony. — de garçonne, wild rabbit. — mâle, buck-rabbit. — domestique, tame rabbit, cony. Beau sur un coucou, to sit by the side of the coachman on a passenger-ran. prov. pop. Il est brave comme un —, he is as fine as a pucier, prov. pop. Il court comme un —, he is as swift as an arrow.

LAPINE, lah-pin, sf. zool. doe rabbit.

LAPIS, lah-pees, LAPIS LAZULI, lah pees-laz-ü-lee, sm. (Lat.) lapis lazuli.

LAPITHES, lah-peet, sm. (Gr.) Lapithe.

LAPLACE (simon, marquis de), lap-las, sm. Laplace, a French mathematician, born in 1749, died in 1827.

LAPON, lap-on, sm. fem. —KE, 1 Laplander. 2 (adjectif) Lapland.

LAPONIE, lap-o-nee, f. geog. Lapland.

LAPSE, laps, sm. (Lat. lapsus) lapse. — de temps, lapse of time.

LARS, ad. m. fem. —E, — el relaps, fallen back to heresy.

LAQUAIS, lak-ay, sm. lackey, footboy, footman. J'ai l'habit d'un — et vous en avez l'âme, I wear a lackey's dress, you have the soul of one. V. Illeg. Meutir comme un —, to be a confirmed liar.

LAQUE, lak, sf. 1 lac. (adjectif.) Gomme —, gum-lac. 2 min. lake.

LAQUE, sm. 1 lacker. 2 (by extension) (meuble) lackered ware.

LAQUEDIVES, lak-deev, sf. geog. the Laccadive Islands.

LAQUER, lak-ay, ra. to lacker.

LAQUEUX, lak-nuh, adj. m. fem. LAQUEUX, of the colour of lac, of the nature of lac.

LARAIRE, lar-ayr, sm. Rom. antiq. lararium.

LARCIN, lar-saog, sm. (Lat. latrocinium) 1 theft, larceny, pilfering. Faire, commettre un —, to commit a larceny, to pilfer. 2 (chose dérobée) theft, stolen goods, spoils. 3 (pris dans un auteur) plagiarism, literary theft. 4 fig. poetic. Faire un doux —, to steal a kiss.

LARD, lar, sm. (Lat. laridum) 1 bacon. Tranche de —, slice of bacon, rasher. Une omelette au —, an omelet with bacon. prov. Il est vilain comme — jaune, he would skin a pint. prov. pop. Faire du —, to sleep one's self fat. Être gras à —, to be as fat as a hog. 2 (by analogy) de la baleine, etc., of whales blubber.

LARDER, lar-day, ra. 1 to lard. absol. Un rôti seur qui larde bien, a cook who lards well. 2 fig. — quelqu'un de coups d'épée, to pink, to riddle a person with sword-strokes. — quelqu'un d'épigrammes, de hivers, to lampoon, to gibe a person. — ses discours, ses écrits, de citations, etc., to interlard one's speeches, one's writings with quotations, etc. 3 auct. to thum.

LARDOIRE, lar-doar, sf. larding-pin.

LARDON, lar-dong, sm. 4 rusher, lardon. 2 fig. gibe. La marmaille les poursuivait de gais —s, a troop of brats ran after them with merry jeers. Berang. 3 barol. pallet.

LARE, lar, sm. (Lat. lar, laris) 1 Rom. antiq. lare, Les —s, les dieux —s, the lars, household gods. 2 poetic. Les —s, fire-side, paternal house, home, hearth, Lares and Penates. Un rat des —s paternels un jour se trouva seul, a rat tired of being cooped up at home. La Font.

LARGE, larzh, adj. mf. (Lat. largus) 1 broad, wide, large. Avoir cent pieds de —, to be a hundred feet broad. Trois pieds de — sur six pieds de long, three feet wide by six feet long. Des souliers —s, large shoes. Un homme — des épaules, a broad-shouldered man. Un cheval — du devant, a broad-chested horse. Une blessure, a large wound. Une — base, a broad basis. fig. Avoir la conscience —, to have an accommodating conscience. prov. fig. Faire du cuir d'autrui une — courtoise, to be free of another man's purse. 2 fig. large. Donner à un mot un sens plus —, to give a wider signification to a word. Avoir des idées —s, to have enlarged views. Des pouvoirs très —s, very extensive powers. Je vous fais une — concession, I make you a great concession. 3 anc. (libéral) liberal generous. 4 lit. fine arts. grand.

LARGE, sm. 1 (largeur) breadth, width. 2 naut. offing. Le navire vient le —, the ship keeps her offing. Vient de —, sea-breeze. Vers le —, offward. Prendre, gagner le —, to stand off to sea, to stand for the offing, to sheer off. La mer vient du —, the waves are driven by a sea-breeze. fig. Prendre le —, gagner le —, to run away.

LARGE, adv. largely, grandly. Peindre —, to paint grandly. Mon cheval va —, trop —, my horse goes too wide.

AN LARGE, adv. loc. 4 naut. in the offing. Bord au —, off on end. Au —, I sheer off. Pousser au —, to shore off. Au — d'un port, off a harbour. Porter au —, to bear off from the land. 2 (spaciously) spaciously. Être logé au —, to be at easy quarters. fig. Être au —, to be at one's ease. I have elbow room. fig. Je suis riche — me voilà au —, I am rich, now I am well off. La Bruy.

AO LONG ET AO LARGE, adv. loc. both in length and width, far and wide. S'étendre au long et au —, to stretch out on all sides.

EN LONG ET EN LARGE, de LONG EN LARGE adv. loc. to far, backwards and forwards, up and down.

DU LONG ET DU LARGE, adv. loc. famously, of all sorts. Donnons-en à ce fourbe et du long et du —, let us beat the rogue soundly. Mol.

LARGEMENT, larch-mang, adv. 1 largely, abundantly, copiously. Boire —, to drink copiously. Vivre —, to live well. User — de ses pouvoirs, to go to the full extent of one's powers. Peindre, dessiner, composer —, to paint, to draw, to compose grandly.

LARGESSE, lar-zhess, sf. largess, liberality, bounty. Faire des —, to be liberal. Pibées de —, largess money.

LARGEUR, lar-zhoir, sf. 1 breadth, width. La — d'un fossé, d'une rue, the width of a ditch, of a street. La — d'un chemin de fer, the width of a railway. Cette toile a tant de —, this linen is so much in width.

LARGO, lar-go, adv. (It.) ma. largo. LARGUE, lar-g, adv. ma. vent. I am, leading wind. Ecoute —, flowing sheet.

LARGUE, adv. naut. large.

LARGUE, sm. See LARGE, sm.

LARGUER, lar-gay, ra. naut. to let fly, to loosen, to let go. — une voile, to loosen a sail. — l'artimon, to smite the mizen. Largue le lo! I up tacks and sheets! LARGUER, ra. naut. to bear away, to bear up, to be split.

LARIDON, lar-e-dong, sm. obsol. sculthion. La Font.

LARIGOT, lah-re-go, sm. 4 anc. fute. 2 (d'orgue, of an organ) the shrillest flute stop. prov. pop. Boire à tire —, to drink hard, to tipple.

LARIX, See MELÈZE.

LARME, lar-m, sf. (Lat. lacryma) 1 tear. Il m'en conjura la — à l'œil, les —s aux yeux, he entreated him with tears in his eyes. Répandre, verser des —s, to shed tears. Les —s lui en sont venues aux yeux, tears started in his eyes. Le visage baigné, mouillé de —s, the face bathed in tears, wet with tears. —s de joie, de tendresse, de fureur, tears of joy, of tenderness, of fury. Être touché, attendri jusqu'aux —s, to be touched, moved to tears. (hyperb.) Un ruisseau, un torrent de —s, a stream, a flood of tears. Nous avons ri aux —s de l'histoire, we laughed to tears at the story. Le Sage. J'ai des chants pour toutes les gloires, des —s pour tous les malheurs, I have songs for every glory and tears for every distress. C. Del. Avoir recours aux —s, to have recourse to tears. fam. Avoir toujours la — à l'œil, to have always tears in one's eyes. Avoir le don des —s, to have tears at command. fig. Pleurer à chaudes —s, être tout en —s, fondre en —s, se nuyer dans les —s, to shed bitter tears, to melt into tears, to be drowned in tears. B. m'a fait pleurer les chaudes —s, B. has caused me to shed bitter tears. M^{me} de Sév. fig. S'abreuver de —s, vivre dans les —s, vivre de —s, to do nothing but weep. Sécher, essuyer ses —s, to dry, to wipe one's tears. fig. Essuyer les —s de quelqu'un, to console a person. fig. Mêle ses —s à celle de quelqu'un, to mingle one's tears with those of a person, to share in the affliction of a person. prov. fig. —s de crocodile, crocodile's tears. 3 (petite quantité de vin, etc.) drop. 4 (suc de certaines plantes, etc.) tear. Les —s de la vigne, du sapin, the tears of the vine, of the fir-tree. 5 pharm. Manne en —s, manna in flakes. 6 —s de cerf, tear. 7 nat. phil. —s bataviques, glass-drops, Rupert's drops. — de verre, glass-tear. d'essai, assaying drop. —s volcaniques, volcanic drops. 8 bot. — de Job, Job's tear.

LARMIER, lar-may, sm. 4 arch. larmier, corona, drip, eaves, coping.

LARMIERES, lar-mayr, sf. pl. zool. lachrymal pit (of the stag).

LARMIERES, lar-mayr, sm. pl. vet. temples of the horse.

LARMOIEMENT, lar-mood-mang, sm. 4 watering of the eyes. 2 med. epiphora.

LARMOYANT, lar-mood-yang, ppr. of LARMOYER, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 weeping, tearful, in tears. 2 (qui fait verser des larmes) deleful, to be wept over, tragical. Le comique —, pathetic comedy. (substantif.) Le mélange du comique et du —, a mixture of the comic with the pathetic.

LARMOYER, lar-mood-yay, vn. to shed tears, to weep, to cry.

LA ROCHEFOUCAULD (FRANÇOIS, duc de), lah-rosh-fou-ko, sm. a French moralist, born in 1613, died in 1680.

LARION, lah-rong, sm. fem. —NESSE, (Lat. larion) 1 thief, robber. — d'honneur, alousier, ravaisher. Mol. prov. fam. Donner la bourse à garler au —, fig. Le temps, cet insigne — time, that notorious thief. La Font. prov. Ils s'entendent comme —s en foire, See FOIRE, prov. fig. L'occasion fait le —. See OCCASION. 2 geog. les des —s, the Ladrones. 3 print. bib. 4 book-bind. dog's ear.

LARIONNEAU, lah-roo-o, sm. dimin. of LARION, pifferer.

LARVE, larv, sf. ent. larra, larve.

LARVE, lar-vay, adj. m. fem. —E, med. larvated.

LARVES, larv, sf. pl. Rom. antiq. larvæ.

LARYNGE, lar-ang-zhay, adj. m. fem. —E, anat. laryngeal.

LARYNGIEN, lar-ang-zhyang, adj. m. fem. —NE, anat. laryngeal, laryngean.

LARYNGITE, lar-ang-zhit, sf. med. laryngitis.

LARYNGOTOMIE, lar-ang-go-to-mee, sf. (Gr.) sorg. laryngotomy.

LARYNX, lar-ang-kas, sm. (Gr.) anat. larynx.

LAS, las, interj. alas.

LAS, lah, adj. m. fem. —SE, (Lat. lassus) 1 weary, tired. — de travailler, tired of working. 2 (dégouté) weary, tired, wearied. — de la vie, weary of life. — de se faire aimer, he wants to be loved, he is weary of gaining love, he aims at being feared. Rac. fig. Faire quelque chose de guerre —se, to be worried into doing a thing. prov. pop. Un — d'aller, a lazy fellow, a lazybones.

LASAGNE, laz-ah-nysh, sf. (It.) broad vermicelli.

LASCIF, las-sif, adj. m. fem. LASCIVE, 1 lascivious, wanton, lustful. 2 (des choses, of things) lascivious, wanton. Une danse lascive, a lascivious dance.

LASCIVEMENT, las-siv-mang, adv. lasciviously, wantonly, lecherously.

LASCIVETÉ, las-siv-laf, sf. lasciviousness.

LASSANT, lah-sang, ppr. of LASSER, adj. m. fem. —E, wearying, wearisome, tiring, tiresome. Cette plaisanterie est —e à la fin, this jest grows wearisome in the end. E. Aog.

LASSÉ, ppa. of LASSER, fem. —E, wearied, tired. Cœur — d'espérance, heart weary of hope. Muss.

LASSER, las-say, va. 1 to weary, to tire. absol. Cette sorte de danse lasse beaucoup, that kind of dance is very tiring. 2 (morally) to weary, to tire, to tire out. Quelque vieux, je suis homme à — votre attente, though old, I am the man to tire out your expectations. C. Del. 3 (ennuier) to weary, to tire. Les honneurs fatiguent l'homme, les plaisirs le lassent, honours fatigue men, pleasures weary them. Muss.

SE LASSER, ppr. 1 to tire, to get tired, to be wearied, to get weary. Le terre ne se lasse jamais de répandre ses biens sur ceux qui la cultivent, the earth is never weary of pouring its blessings on those who cultivate it. Féu. Sa miséricorde à la fin s'est lassée, his mercy at last is wearied out. Rac. On se lasse de tout, one gets tired of every thing.

LASSERET, las-ray, sm. tech. small gimlet.

LASSITUDE, lah-se-tid, sf. 4 weariness, lassitude. Tomber de —, to be ready to fall from very weariness. 2 (par suite d'une mauvaise disposition de santé) weariness, lassitude. J'ai des —s dans les jambes, I feel great weariness in my legs. 3 (ennui) weariness.

LASSO, las-so, sm. lasso.

LAST, last, sm. (Ger.) last (about 4000 lbs, applied to various quantities of merchandise, a last of flax is 47 cwt.; of wool 4363 lbs; of grain on the continent 44 quarters).

LASTING, las-tang-guh, sm. (Eng.) stuff, lasting.

LATANIÉ, lat-an-ay, sm. bot. Palmyra palm.

LATENT, lat-ang, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 latent. 2 nat. phil. Chaleur —, latent heat. 3 vet. vic. —s, latent vices. 4 med. Maladies —es, latent diseases.

LATERAL, lat-ay-ral, adj. m. fem. —E, lateral.

LATERALEMENT, lat-ay-ral-mang, adv. laterally.

LATÈRE (à), lat-ay-ray, adv. loc. Légat à —, legate a latere.

LATICLAVE, lat-e-klay, sm. Rom. antiq. laticlave.

LATIN, lat-ang, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 Latin. La langue —e, the Latin tongue, language. Mut —, Latin word. Dictionnaire grec et —, Greek and Latin dictionary. Un thème —, a Latin exercise. fig. Le pays —, the University. Cela sent le pays —, that smells of the university. Le quartier — (à Paris), the quartier Latin. 2 rel. L'Eglise —e, le rit —, the Latin church, the Latin rite. 3 naut. Voile —e, lateen sail.

LATIN, sm. 4 Latin. Composer, écrire en —, en bon —, to compose, to write in Latin, in good Latin. Parler —, to speak Latin. fig. Ce que nous avons dit serait à — pour vous, what we have said would be Greek to you. Balz. Tous vos gens sont à —, all your look-worn. Mol. fig. Il est au bout de son —, he is quite at a loss, in a fix, at a stick-fast. fig. Un docteur est alors au bout de son —, a doctor then is at his wit's end. Boil. Il y a des gens après qui on perdrait son —, there are some people not worth troubling one's self about. Scri. prov. pop. Da — de cuisine, dog-Latin. 2 (personne) Latin.

LATINISER, lat-e-ne-zay, va. to latinize.

LATINISME, lat-e-nism, sm. latinism.

LATINISTE, lat-e-nist, sm. latinist.

LATINITÉ, lat-e-ne-lay, sf. (Lat.) latinity, latin. Basse —, low Latin.

LATITUDE, lat-e-tûd, sf. 4 geog. latitude. — nord, sud, north, south latitude. Au cinquantième degré de —, at the fiftieth degree of latitude. 2 astr. latitude. — boréale, Northern latitude. 3 (by extension) (climatic) latitude, climate. 4 fig. latitude, extent. On laisse une grande — à la liberté personnelle, considerable latitude was left to personal liberty. Guiz.

LATOMIE, lat-o-mee, sf. (Gr.) anliq. laticine.

LATONE, lat-on, sf. (Gr.) myth. Latona.

LATRIE, lat-ree, sf. (Gr.) Culte de — latry, worship paid only to God.

LATRINES, lat-reen, sf. pl. (Lat.) privy.

LATTÉ, lat, sf. lath.

LATTER, lat-ay, va. to lath. absol. — à claire voie, to lath in open-work.

— à lattes jointives, to lath closely.

LATTIS, lat-tis, sm. lath-work.

LAUDANUM, lu-dau-ou, sm. pharm. laudanum.

LAUDATIF, lo-dat-if, adj. m. fem. laudative, laudatory.

LAUVES, lûd, sf. pl. (Lat.) cath. liturg. lauds.

LAURE, lor, sf. Laura.

LAUREAT, lo-ray-ah, adj. m. 4 laureate. 2 (by extension) (dans un concours académique, etc.) laureate. (scolast.) Un jeune —, a young laureate. 3 (by extension) (des poètes pensionnés) poet-laureate.

LAURENCE, lo-rangs, sf. Laurlencia.

LAURENT, lo-râng, sm. Lawrence.

LAUREOLE, lo-ray-ol, sf. bot. spurge laurel.

LAURIER, lo-ryay, sm. (Lat. laurus) 4 bot. laurel, bay-tree. — cerise, cherry-laurel.

— rose, rose-bay, oleander. — d'Apollon, sweet bay-tree. — camphrier, camphor-tree. — brose, rose-laurel.

— épineux, butcher's-rose. Baie de —, bay-berry. Couronne de —, laurel-wreath.

— aurole-crown. 2 fig. —, laurels, victory. Méritiez les —s qui vous sont réservés, win the laurels that await you. Boil.

Etre chargé de —s, to be loaded with laurels. Cueillir des —s, moissonner des —s, to gather laurels. Se reposer sur ses —s, to rest satisfied with the laurels one has won.

LAUROSE, lo-roz, sf. bot. rose laurel.

LAVABO, lav-sho, sm. (Lat.) 4 cath. rel. lavabo. 2 (linge) napkin, towel. 3 (meuble) wash-hand stand.

LAVAGE, lav-azh, sm. 1 washing.

Le — du minéral, the washing of ore. — des laines à dos, fleece-washing.

— du fer-blanc, scouring of sheet-iron. — à la cuve, lossing. 2 (trop grande quantité d'eau répandue pour laver) slop. 3 (aliment, breuvage où il y a trop d'eau) wash-washy stuff, slop. Vous avez fait trop d'eau dans ce vin, ce n'est que du —, you have put too much water in that wine, it is nothing but slop. 4 (beverages pris en trop grande quantité) slops, drench.

LAVANDE, lav-ângd, sf. bot. lavender.

— Huile de —, lavender oil.

LAVANDIER, lav-âng-dyay, sm. anc. gentleman of the eury chamber (of the king's household).

LAVANDIERE, lav-âng-dyay, sf. 4 washerwoman, laundress. 2 oru. waf-tail.

LAVARET, lav-or-ay, sm. ich. guinaid, guinaid, lacret.

LAVASSE, lav-ass, sf. 4 (little used) shower. 2 fam. pou. Cette soupe ne vaut rien du tout, ce n'est qu'une —, que de la —, that soup is good for nothing, it is mere dish-water.

LAVATÈRE, lav-at-ayr, sf. bot. lavatera.

LAVÉ, ppi of LAVEN, fem. — E. adj. lavé, washed. Couleur —, faint colour. Cheval de nuit bai —, light bay horse.

LAVEMENT, lav-màng, sm. 4 wash- ing. — des pieds, washing of the feet. 2 injection, enema.

LAYER, lav-ay, va. (Lat. lavare) 1 to wash. — la vaisselle, to wash up the dishes and plates. Pierre — à sink-stone. La pluie a bien lavé la rue, the rain has washed the street well. absol.

(avant le repas) Ne voulez-vous pas —? won't you take a wash? Donner à — à quelqu'un, to give a person water to wash. Ce fleuve lave les murs de telle ville, that river washes the walls of such a town.

— un livre, les feuilles d'un livre, to wash a book, the leaves of a book. — du papier, to wash paper. 2 — un dessin, to lute, to colour. fig. — la tête à quelqu'un, See tête. Je m'en lave les mains, See mains. 3 fig. — one tache. — quelqu'un d'une tache, to wipe out a stain; to clear a person of a stain. fig. — ses péchés avec ses larmes, to wipe away one's sins with one's tears. fig. — une injure, to outrage dans le sang de quelqu'un, to wash out an insult, an outrage in the blood of a person.

SE LAYER, rpr. Se — le visage, les mains, to wash one's face, one's hands. fig. Se — d'un crime, to clear one's self of a crime.

LAVETTE, lav-ell, sf. dish-cloth, dish-cloth.

LAVURE, lav-ùhr, sm. fem. LAVENSE, washer. — de vaisselle, scullion. — de minéral, buddler.

LAVINE, lav-e-nee, sf. Luvinia.

LAVIS, lav-ee, sm. wash. Dessin fait au —, dessin au —, drawing washed in.

LAVOIR, lav-ouâr, sm. 1 wash-house. — public, lavatory, public baths and wash-houses. 2 — de cuisine, scullery. 3 tech. rubbing-board. 4 min. buddle.

LAVOISIER (ANTOINETTE-LARENT), lav-ooz-zay, sm. a French chemist, born in 1743, died in 1794.

LAVURE, lav-ùr, sf. 4 dish-water. — de vaisselle, hog-wash, draft. 2 tech. (d'un livre, of a book) sizing. 3 tech. (de l'or et de l'argent, of gold and silver) washing. 4 (parcelles d'or et d'argent) sweepings.

LAVXATIF, lak-sat-if, adj. m. fem. laxative. (from Lat. laxare) 4 med. laxative. 2 sm. laxative.

LAYER, lav-yay, va. 1 (une forêt) to lay out a road. 2 (une pierre) to heap.

LAVETIER, lav-yuh-tyay, sm. box-maker, trunk-maker. — emballleur, packing-case-maker.

LAVETTE, lav-yayt, sf. 4 drawer. 2 (coffret, small-box. 3 (d'enfant, of children) baby-linen.

LAVEUR, lav-yuhr, sm. a person that lays out paths in a wood.

LAZAGNE, See LASAGNE.

LAZARE, laz-ar, sm. Lazarus.

LAZARET, laz-ar-ay, sm. lazaret, lazaretto, lazare-house.

LAZARILL, See LAPIS.

LAZARON, laz-zar-o-day, sm. pl. LAZARONI. (It.) lazaroni.

LAZZI, lad-zee, sm. pl. LAZZI. (It.) 1 pantomime. 2 (by extension) buffonery, jest.

L. C., abbreviation for LIEGE CARREE.

LE, lub, art. m. fem. la, pl. LES (LE is contracted in AO; DE LE in DU, DE LES in DES; À LES in AUX) (Lat. ille) 4 the. — soleil, the sun. La lune, the moon.

— premier janvier, the first of January. Les pauvres, the poor. Philippe — Hardi, Philip the Bold. — père, la mère et les enfants, the father, mother and children. Ils ont toutes choses, les bonnes et les mauvaises, they exaggerate every thing, good or bad. J.-J. Rousseau. La plus grande et la plus importante chose du monde, the greatest and most important thing in the world. Pascal. La semaine prochaine, next week. L'année passée, last year. — mont Cenis, mount Cenis. — dieu est servi, tea is served. Vers les dix heures du matin, about ten o'clock in the morning. V. Hug. 2 (not translated before the names of countries in the sing.) La France, France. L'Angleterre, England. La Turquie, Turkey. 3 (not translated when the subst. is employed in a general sense) La jalousie est une passion funeste, jealousy is a fearful passion. L'argent est rare, money is scarce. 4 (employed distributively a.) Huit sous la douzaine, four pence a dozen. A tant — mettre, so much a pair. Deux fois la semaine, twice a week. 5 (without an ordinal number) the. Il est payé à la semaine, he is paid by the week. 6 (with a superlative) See plus. 7 (not translated when addressing a person) L'ami, crois-moi, rentre chez toi, friend, believe me, go home.

LE, pers. pron. fem. la, pl. LES, EUX (Lat. ille) 4 him, her. (des choses, of things) il, pl. them. Aimez —, love him. Je — vis et je l'aimai, I saw him and I loved him. Voyez — à son retour, see him on his return. Ramenez — à son devoir, bring him back to his duty. Rendez — moi, give it me back. Faites — moi savoir, inform me of it. Je n'ose pas — leur dire, I dare not tell them. Je — vois et je — crois, I see and believe it. 2 (with voici, voilà) he, she, it. — voici, here he is. 3 (representing an adj., a verb.) so. Ces villes ont été des ports et ne — sont plus, these cities have been ports and are so no longer. Volt. Serez-vous ici à temps? Je l'espère, shall you be here in time? I hope so. Je ne suis pas artiste, mais je voudrais l'être, I am not an artist, but I wish I were one. Vous n'êtes pas mon maître, vous ne — serez jamais, you are not my master and never shall be. Ceux qui sont amis de tout le monde ne — sont de personne, every man's friend is no man's friend. Barth. Comme je vous l'ai dit, as I told you. Il est moins heureux que vous ne — croyez, he is not so happy as you think. Êtes-vous son frère? Je — suis, are you his brother? I am. Nous devons défendre l'honneur de nos parents quand nous — pouvons sans injustice, we ought to defend the honour of our parents when we can do so without injustice.

LE, lay, sm. breadth. Demi —, half a breadth.

LEANS, obsol. See CÉANS.

LECHE, laysh, sf. slice. Une — de pain, a slice of bread.

LECHÉ, ppa. of LÉCHER, fem. — E, 4 licked. fig. fam. On ours mal —, an unlicked cub. 2 fig. finished, laboured, elaborated.

LECHERIE, laysh-frit, sf. dripping-pan.

LÉCHER, lay-shay, va. 1 LÉCHER, LIS LÉCHENT. (Gr.) 1 to lick. — un plat, to lick a dish. prov. — l'ours, to spin out a cause. Les avaient assez léché l'ours, they had been long enough about it. La Font. 2 paint. fig. to finish, to elaborate. (des ouvrages d'esprit, of literary works) to finish.

SE LÉCHER, rpr. to lick one's self. On s'en léche les doigts, c'est à s'en — les doigts, one can lick one's fingers after it. prov. pop. Il n'a qu'à s'en — la barbe, he may long for, but he shall not have a taste of it.

LÉCHÉ-DOITS (A), adv. loc. just enough to taste.

LEÇON, lub-song, sf. (Lat. lectio) 1 lesson, lecture. — de droit, de médecine, de littérature, lesson in law, medicine, literature. — d'arabe, lesson of Arab. Ce professeur a commencé, a repris hier ses —s, that professor began, recommenced his lessons yesterday. Faire des —s publiques, to read public lectures. prov. Il en ferait —, des —s, he could teach it. 2 (de toutes sortes d'arts) lesson. Donner, prendre des —s de musique, d'écriture, la leçon, to take music-lessons, fencing-lessons. 3 (by extension) (conseils) lesson.

Jasqu'au — matin, till the next morning. Du soir au —, over night. Qui du soir au — sont pauvres devenus, who became poor in the space of one night. La Font. Quels tristes — s laisse le bal folâtre! what sad to-morrows leaves the wanton ball V. Hlog. prov. Ne remets jamais au — ce que tu peux faire aujourd'hui, never put off till to-morrow what can be done to-day. Le d'une bataille, the day after a battle. prov. Il n'y a pas de bonne fête sans —, no good feast without a morrow.

LENDOINE, lang-dor, s. mf. pop. hum-drum.

LENIFIER, lay-ne-fay, ou, nous LÉNIFIERS, vous LÉNIFIEZ, (Lat.) to lenify, to assuage.

LENITIF, lay-ne-tif, adj. fem. LÉNITIVE, 1 pharm. lenitive, lenient, 2 (substantif) lenitive, fig. Cette nouvelle agréable fut un grand — à sa douleur, that agreeable piece of news was very soothing to his grief.

LENT, lang, adj. m. fem. — e, 1 slow, sluggish. Il est — dans tout ce qu'il fait, at tout ce qu'il fait, he is slow in whatever he does. — à parler, à écrire, slow in speaking, in writing. Le plus — à promettre est toujours le plus facile à tenir, those who are the slowest to promise are always the most faithful to perform. J.-J. Rouss. 2 by analogy Avoir un esprit —, to be slow-minded. med. Une fièvre — e, a slow, a low fever. Une démarche — e, a slow step. Avoir une parole — e, to be slow of speech. fig. L'action — e du temps, the slow action of time.

LENTE, langt, sf. nit.

LENTEMENT, langt-mang, adv. slowly, sluggishly. prov. Hâte-toi —, hasten slowly.

LENTEUR, lang-tohr, sf. 1 slowness, sluggishness, slowness, tardiness. Il met beaucoup de — à tout ce qu'il fait, he is very slow in whatever he does. Agir, parler avec —, to act, to speak slowly. Cette — affectée dans les discours, this affected slowness in speaking. Hamlet. Les — s, à la fin, lassent ma patience, the delays in the end exhaust my patience. Lanart. 2 fig. slowness, sluggishness, dullness. Avoir une grande — d'imagination, one grande — d'esprit, to be very dull of imagination, to be very dull-minded. 3 (l'une pièce de theatre, etc., of a play, etc.) slowness.

AVEC LENTEUR, adv. loc. slowly.

LENTICULAIRE, lang-te-lù-lay, adj. mf. lenticular.

LENTICULE, lang-te-lù-lay, adj. m. fem. — e, lenticular.

LENTIFORME, lang-te-form, adj. mf. lenticular, lentiform.

LENTILLE, lang-te-yoh, sf. (Lat. lens) 1 lent. 2 plat de duck-wood. 3 (graines) lentil. — d'eau, dish of lentils. 3 fig. (tache de rousseur) lentigo, freckle. 4 oculif. lens. 5 (de pendule) bob.

LENTISQUE, lang-tisk, sm. bul. lentiscus, lentisk, mastic-tree.

LEON, lang-ong, sm. Leon.

LEONCE, lang-ong, sm. Leontius.

LEONIE, lay-on-nee, sf. Leonia.

LEONIN, lay-on-nang, adj. m. fem. — e, lion-like. Sa Majesté — e, his majesty the Lion. La Font. 2 fig. leonine. Société — e, an unequal society, in which e stronger has the best share. Une politique — e, policy in which the advantage is all on one side. 3 (de certains vers latins) leonine.

LEONTODON, lay-ong-to-dong, sm. bul. leontodon, lion's-tooth.

LEONORE, lay-on-ore, sm. bot. motherwort.

LEOPARD, lay-o-par, sm. (Gr.) zool. leopard.

LÉPANTE, lay-pangt, sf. geogr. Lepanto.

LÉPAS, lay-pas, sm. couch. lepas, 4upet.

LEPIDE, lay-peed, sm. Lepidus.

LEPIDIER, lay-pe-doy, sm. bot. pepper-wort.

LEPIDOTÈRE, lay-pe-dop-tayr, sm. (Gr.) 1 zool. lepidoter. 2 (adjectif.) lepidoter.

LEPRE, laypr, sf. (Gr.) med. leprosy. fig. Guérir des préjugés la — héréditaire, to cure the hereditary leprosy of prejudice, bias.

LÉPREUX, lay-prab, adj. m. fem. LÉPREUX, 1 leprosy. 2 (substantif) leper.

LEPROSERIE, lay-pro-zee, sf. hospital for the leprosy.

LEQUEL, lay-kay, adj. relat. conj. m. fem. LAQUELLE, D'QUEL, DE LAQUELLE; AQUEL, à LAQUELLE; PL. LESQUELS, LESQUELLES; DESQUELS, DESQUELLES; AUXQUELS, AUXQUELLES, 1 (regimen) whom, which, that. C'est un homme auquel je vous réponds, he is a man whom I will answer to you for. C'est une condition sans laquelle je ne consentirai à rien, it is a condition without which I will consent to nothing. Vous avez des habitudes auxquelles il faut renoncer, you have habits that you must leave off. 2 (nominative) who, which, that. Il y a une édition de ce livre, laquelle se vend fort bon marché, there is an edition of this work, which is sold very cheap. 3 law. (en style de pratique, etc.) which. On a lu le mémoire de sa réclamation, laquelle sollicite un dégrèvement, the memorial of his claims in which he solicits a reduction, has been read. 4 (interrogative) which. — aimez-vous le mieux des ces deux tableaux? which of those two pictures do you like best? 5 (celui, celle qui, etc.) which, that, which. Parmi ces états, voyez laquelle vous plairait le plus, among these states, see which pleases you most.

LEROT, lay-ro, sm. zool. garden-dormouse, garden-squirrel.

LES, art. def. pl. See LE.

LES, relat. pl. See LE.

LE SAGE (ALAIN REXÉ), luh-sazh, sm. a French author, born in 1668, died in 1747.

LESE, layz, — majesté, high treason. Crime de — majesté humaine, de — majesté divine, high treason. (by allusion) Crime de — humanité, de — nation, crime of high treason against humanity, the nation. Eu desobéissant son médecin, vous commettez un crime de — faculté, by disobeying the physician, you commit a crime of high treason against the learned faculty.

LESEUR, lay-zay, ra. JE LÈSS, to LÈSSER, (Lat. ledere) 1 to injure. 2 to wrong, to hurt. 2 sng. to injure.

LÉSINANT, lay-zé-mang, ppr. of LÉSINER, adj. m. fem. — e, stingy.

LÉSINE, lay-zeen, sf. (lt. lesina) stinginess, niggardiness, churlishness. La honteuse — shamefull stinginess. Boil.

LÉSINER, lay-ze-mang, vn. to be stingy, to pinch. Pour celui qui sur tout pince, lesine, rogne, for him who in every thing is pinching, grudging, sparing. Bours.

LÉSINERIE, lay-zeu-ree, sf. 1 stingy thing, act. Faire des — s, to skin a pint. 2 (vice) stinginess, niggardiness.

LÉSION, lay-zyong, sf. (Lat. lasio) 1 injury, wrong, damage, hurt. 2 med. injury, lesion, hurt. — organique du cœur, du poulmon, organical disease of the heart, of the lungs.

LÉSNE, lays, See Laisse.

LESSIVAGE, lay-se-vazh, sm. tech. steeping in lye.

LESSIVE, lay-siv, sf. (Lat. lixivum) 1 lye, buck. 2 (action) washing, lyeing, wash. Faire la —, to wash, to buck. 3 (linge) wash, dirty lye. J'ai donné ma — à laver, I have sent my linen to the wash. 4 (toute sorte d'eau détersive) wash. 5 chem. lye, washing. fig. Il a fait une —, une forte —, he has lost a great deal. 6 chem. lizivum.

LESSIVER, lay-se-vay, ra. 1 to wash, to buck. 2 chem. to lizivuate.

LESSIVEUR, lay-se-vuhr, sm. fem. lessiveuse, wash.

LEST, lest, sm. (Ger. last) 1 naut. ballast. Le navire est parti, est retourné sur soo —, the ship has set out, has returned in ballast. 2 (by analogy) (des ballons, of balloons) L'ether du —, to throw out ballast.

LESTAGE, lays-tazh, sm. ballasting.

LESTE, lest, adj. mf. (lt. lesto) 4 nimble, brisk, smart. 2 (en pas être gêné dans ses mouvements) light, smart. Ces troupes sont bien — s, those are very smart troops. Un équipage —, a light equipage. 3 (des vêtements, of clothes) light. L'habit est vraiment — et des plus à la mode, the coat is indeed smart, and in the height of fashion. Regu. 3 fig. (adroit, prompt) clever, — en affaires, clever in business. 5 fig. (in a bad part) indecorous, free. C'est un homme — dans ses propos, he is very free in his talk. 6 fig. (des choses inusitées) unbecoming, improper. Une conduite —, improper conduct.

LESTEMENT, lays-toh-mang, adv. 4 nimbly, smartly, briskly. 2 fig. (avec docilité et promptitude) skilfully, cleverly. Il s'est tiré — de ce mauvais pas, he got out of that scrape cleverly. 3 fig. (in a bad part) unbecomingly, improperly.

LESTER, lays-lay, va. want to ballast.

SE LESTER, ppr. l'estomac, to lay, to take in provisions. fig. Il y a des têtes qui se lèstent jamais, some heads are never right. Aime de l'év.

LESTEUR, lays-luhr, sm. 1 naut. ballast-bat, ballast-lighter. 2 (adjective.) Bateau —, ballast-lighter.

LESTRIGON, lays-tre-gong, sm. antiqu. poetic. Lestrignon.

LETHARGIE, lay-tar-zhee, sf. (Gr.) 1 lethargy. Tomber en —, to fall into a lethargy. 2 fig. Il est plongé dans une —, he is plunged in a shameful lethargy.

LETHARGIQUE, lay-tar-zhik, adj. mf. 1 lethargic, lethargical. Etat, repos, sommeil —, lethargic state, repose, slumber. 2 fig. Aime —, lethargic, stupid.

LETHE, lay-de, sf. (Gr.) myth. Lethe. fig. Le fleuve du —, the river Lethe. Les eaux du —, the waters of Lethe; oblivion.

LETHIFÈRE, lay-te-fayr, adj. mf. (Gr.) lethiferous.

LETTRE, laytr, sf. (Lat. littera) 1 letter. Un enfant qui commence à connaître ses — s, à assembler ses — s, a child that is beginning to know his letters, to put his letters together. Écrire un mot en toutes — s, to write a word at full length. Écrire un nombre en toutes — s, to write a number at full length. fig. Dire, écrire une chose en toutes — s, to say, to write a thing plainly. 2 (lettres dominicales, numeral letters. — dominicales, numeral letters. — dominicales, Sunday letters. Estampe, gravure avant la —, print engraving before the letter. Estampe après la —, print after the letter. fig. Cela devrait être écrit, imprimé, gravé en — s d'or, that ought to be written, printed, engraved in golden letters. fig. Ses actions sont écrites en — s de sang dans l'histoire, his actions are written in history in letters of blood. Vous êtes un sot en trois — s, you are a downright fool, my son. Mol. prov. fig. Cet homme est écrit sur mon livre en — s rouges, that man has a bad name with me. 2 (relativement à la forme) letter. — cursive, courante, running-hand. — bâtarde, ronde, française, court-hand, round-hand. Le plein, le délié, les jambages, le corps, la queue d'une —, the thick stroke, the up-stroke, the down-strokes, the body, the tail of a letter. 3 print. letter. — capitale, capital letter. — italique, italis letter. — du bas de casse, letter of the lower case. Lever la —, to pick up the letters. — grise, historée, flourished letter. — monée, mounted letter. — initiale, initial letter. — absolu. privat. type. Nous n'avons plus de —, tout a été employé, we have no more type, all has been employed. La — manque, there is a scarcity of type. 5 (relativement au son) letter. — sibilante, sibilant. — liquide, liquid letter. 6 (sens littéral) letter. scrip. La —, me, mais l'esprit vivifie, the letter quicketh, but the spirit quicketh life. S'en tenir à la —, to go no further than the letter. A la —, au pied de la —, literally. Il ne faut pas prendre cette phrase, cette expression, à la —, au pied de la —, that phrase, that expression must not be taken literally. fig. A la —, to the letter, literally. Cela est vrai à la —, that is literally true. Aider à la —, to help the letter; || fig. to add a little of one's own. Ce qu'il veut dire n'est pas clair, il faut aider à la —, his meaning is not very clear, the sense must be supplied. 7 (épiètre) letter. Le dessus, l'enveloppe, la suscription d'une —, the direction, envelope, superscription of a letter. Entretenir un commerce de — avec quelqu'un, to keep up a correspondence with a person. — en chiffres, ciphered letter. — circulaire, circular letter. — de marque, letter of marque. — de crédit, letter of credit. fig. — close — a secret. — de service, letter of service. — de créance, letter of credit. — de crédit. Il a des — de créance sur Hambourg, he has letters of credit on Hamburg. — de récréance, letters of recall. — de change, bills of exchange. — de voiture, way-bills. 8 diploma. — patentes, letters patent. 9 pl. (certains actes qui s'exécutent sous le sceau de quelque autorité) letters. — s de prétrise, letters of orders. — s de bourgeoisie, letters conferring the freedom of a city. — s apostoliques, rescripts, bulls, briefs. 10 — s, pl. (connaissances que procure l'étude) letters. Un homme de — s, a man of letters. Les geus de — s, men of letters. La république des — s, the republic of letters. Ce prince aime, cultive, protège, fait fleurir les — s, that prince loves, cultivates, protects learning, causes it to flourish. Les belles — s, the belles-lettres, polite learning. 11 (particul.) Les saintes — s, the Holy writ.

LETTRE, lay-tré, adj. m. fem. — e, (Lat. litteratus) lettered.

LETTRE, sm. 1 lettered man. — s I vous êtes l'élite des générations, ye men of letters! you are the heads of every generation. V. fig. 2 (en Chine) La classe des — s, the class of the lettered.

LETTRE, lay-trin, sp. print. heading. mark of reference, superior letter.

LEUCADIE, luk-kad, sp. geog. Leucadia.

LEUCITE, luk-sit, sp. min. leucite.

LEUCORRÉE, luk-ro-ray, sp. (Gr.) med. leucorrhœa.

LEUCITES, luktré, sm. geog. Leuctra.

LEUDE, loud, sm. feud. great vassal, feud,thane.

LEU, lay, pers. pr. plur. m. 1 them, to them. Vous devez obéir, you must obey them. Donnez — en, give them some. Faites — couper les cheveux, have their hair cut. 2 (des choses inanimées, of inanimate things), them, to them. Ces murs de terrasse sont mal faits, on ne — a pas donné assez de talus, those earth-works are badly thrown up, they are not sloped enough.

LEUR, auj. poss. mf. pl. LEURS, 1 their. Les enfants doivent du respect à — s parents, children owe respect to their parents. Les hommes sensés préfèrent — devoir à — s plaisirs, sensible men prefer their duty to their pleasures. 2 (des choses inanimées, of inanimate things) L'hiver ôte à nos campagnes tout — agiment, winter strips the country of all its charms. 3 (à eux) Le —, la —, les — s, theirs. Les gens sages conservent — s amis, et les fous perdent les — s, wise men preserve their friends, and fools lose them. 4 (à eux) (des choses inanimées, of inanimate things) their. Mes oranges ont perdu — s feuilles, my orange-trees have lost their leaves. 5 Le —, sm. sing. (ce qui est à eux, etc.) theirs. Qu'ils gardent ce qu'ils ont, je ne veux rien da —, let them keep what they have, I will have nothing of theirs. 6 Les — s, subst. pl. their relations, family, friends. Ils travaillaient pour eux et pour les — s, they work for themselves and their families.

LEURRE, luhr, sm. (Lot. lorum) 1 sport, lure, decoy. Oiseau de —, decoy-bird, decoy-duck. 2 fig. lure, decoy. Le grand — des hommes, c'est l'avenir, the future is the great lure of men. Poulen.

LEUTRE, luh-ré, ra. 4 à lure. 2 fig. to lure, to decoy, to allure (with). Jamais il ne nous leura de la liberté de la presse, he never ensnared us with any hopes of a free press. P.-L. Cour.

SE LEUTRE, tp. fig. Se — d'un vain espoir, to lull one's self with vain hopes.

LEVAIN, luh-vang, sm. (from lever) 1 leaven. — de bière, geast, barm. 2 (pour la pâte) Faire un — du —, to raise the dough. 3 (by extension) (des hommes, of men) remains. 4 fig. (mauvaise impression que le péché laisse dans l'âme) leaven. Se défaire du vieux — du péché, to get rid of the old leaven of sin. 5 fig. (germes de certaines passions violentes) leaven. Un paissant — des passions religieuses, a powerful leaven of religious passions. Nich. Je n'ai pas le moindre — dans le cœur sur tout cela, all that has not left the least leaven in my mind. Volt. — de haine, de discorde, leaven of hatred, of discord.

LEVANT, luh-vang, ppr. of LEVER, adj. m. rising. Soleil —, sun-rise, sun-rising.

LEVANT, sm. 1 east. Du — au couchant, from east to west. Le — d'été, the direction of sun-rise in summer. Le — d'hiver, the direction of sun-rise in winter. 2 geog. Levant. Le commerce du —, the trade of the Levant.

LEVANTIN, luh-vang-tang, adj. and sm. lev. — e, geog. Levantine.

LEVANTINE, lay-vang-teng, sf. (étioffe) levantine.

LEVÉ, ppa. of LEVER, fem. — e, raised. 1 Aller partout tête — e, le front —, to look the whole world in the face. Voter par assis est —, to vote by sitting and standing. Etre —, to be up. fig. Prendre quelqu'un au pied —, See PIED. 2 (substantif) sm. rise.

LEVÉE, luh-vay, sf. 1 (action de lever, de recueillir, etc.) gathering, crop. La — des fruits lui appartient, the gathering of fruits belongs to him. 2 (des impôts, etc., of taxes, etc.) raising, levying. 3 (de soldats, etc., of soldiers, etc.) levy. La — de 1815, the levy of 1815. 4 mil. La — d'un siège, the raising of a siege. law. La — du scellé, the removal of the seal. Faire la — d'un corps, d'un cadavre, to remove a corpse, a dead body. surg. La — de l'appareil, the removing of a dressing. — de boucliers, raising of bucklers; || fig. rising in arms. 5 tailor. dress-mak. cutting off. 6 (jeu de cartes, at cards) trick, odd trick. Il n'a pas encore fait une —, he has not got a trick yet. 7 (poste aux lettres) distribution. Il y a plusieurs — s par jour à ce bureau, there are several distributions in a day at that office. 8 (des lettres qu'on retire à chaque levée) collection. La — de cinq heures, the five o'clock collection. 9 (élévation de terre, etc.) embankment, causeway. La — de la Loire, the embankment of the Loire. 10 (d'une séance, etc., of a sitting, etc.) breaking up, rising. 11 naut. Couples de —, principal timbers (of a ship).

LEVER, luh-vay, to. JE LÈVE, TO LÈVES le LÈVE; JE LEVERAI, JE LEVERAIS, (Lat. levare) 1 to raise, to lift up. Levez cela plus haut, raise that higher. Cela est si pesant qu'on ne saurait le — de terre, that is so heavy that it cannot be raised from the ground. — la tête, to raise, to lift up one's head. — les épaules, to shrug up one's shoulders. fig. C'est à faire — les épaules — la toile, le rideau, to raise the curtain. J'en leverais la main, I could take my oath of it. — la main, — le bâton, — le sabre sur quelqu'un, to lift up one's hand, a cudgel, a sabre against a person. — les yeux au ciel, to raise one's eyes towards Heaven. — les yeux sur quelqu'un, to cast one's eyes on a person. fig. Il n'ose pas — les yeux, he dares not look up. — le pied, to scamper away. See PIED. — le coude, See COUDE. fig. — la crête, See CRÊTE. fig. — la tête, to lift up, to hold up one's head. fig. — l'éteffard, See ÉTENDARD, prov. fig. Cela lève la paille, that carries the day. 2 (redresser une personne ou une chose qui était penchée ou couchée) — un enfant sur ses pieds, un malade sur son séant, to lift a child up on its feet, to raise an invalid up. — le pont-levis d'un château, to raise the draw-bridge of a castle. (intransitif.) Faire — un lievre, faire — des perdrix, to start a hare, to spring a covey of partridges. fig. — le lievre, to find an expedient. 3 (ôter, enlever) to lift up, to raise, to remove, to take off. — le couvercle d'une marmite, to lift up the lid of a pot. Il faut — deux pieds de cette terre avant de trouver le tuf, two feet of this ground must be taken up before coming to the tuf. — le scellé, to take off the seals. — le masque — à quelqu'un dans un bal, to raise a person's mask at a ball; || fig. to unmask, to take off the mask. — le siège d'une place, to raise the siege of a place. Ce général a levé le camp, that general has broken up the camp. Ces troupes n'ont levé le piquet, those troops have retired precipitately. — la garde, — la sentinelle, to relieve the guard, the sentry. — la séance, to break up the meeting. fig. — une difficulté, un empêchement, un obstacle, des doutes, un scrupule, to remove a difficulty, a hindrance, an obstacle, doubts, a scruple. — les defenses, to remove the prohibition. — l'interdit, l'excommunication, to take off the interdict, the excommunication. — la cousigne, to revoke orders. 3 naut. — la lettre, to pick up letters. 3 print. — l'ancre, to weigh anchor. 6 agri. — on arbre, une plante, une motte, to remove a tree, a plant, a clod. 7 (tricot, backgammon) to raise. 8 Ucu de caries, at cards — les cartes, — la main, to win the trick. 9 tailor. dress-mak. (couper une partie sur un tout) — deux aunes de drap pour faire un habit, to cut off two ells of cloth to make a coat. 10 butch. culin. (des animaux servant à nourrir et dont on coupe un membre) — un aloyau, une cuisse, une aile de poulet, to cut off a sirloin, to carve a leg, a wing of a chicken 11 (recueillir, ramasser) — les fruits d'une terre, to gather the fruits of an estate. — des soldats, une armée, to raise, to levy soldiers, an army. — un corps, to take up, to remove a dead body, a corpse. — un corps saint, to disinter the body of a person reputed a saint. — un enfant, to dress a child. law. — un arrêt, une sentence, to take a copy of a decree, of a sentence. — un acte chez un notaire, to take the copy of an act at a notary's office. — le plan d'une place, de quelque lieu, to take the plan of a place. 12 — boutique, to set up a shop. — ménage, to set up house-keeping.

LEVER, tn. 1 agri. to come up, to spring up, to rise. Les blés commencent à —, the corn is beginning to come up. 2 (de la pâte qui ferme) to rise.

SE LEVER, vpr. 1 to rise, to arise, to get up. Se — de son siège, to rise from one's seat. Quand il entra, on se leva pour lui faire honneur, when he entered, the company rose to do him honour. Se — de table, to rise from table. 2 Se — pour une proposition, to rise against a proposition. 3 absolu. Se —, to rise, to get up. Il se leva de bon matin, he is up early rising. prov. fig. Il faut se — de bon matin pour l'attrapper, one must rise early to overreach him. 4 (du soleil, des astres, etc.) of the sun, etc., to rise. Le soleil en tel mois se lève à telle heure, the sun in such a month rises at such an hour. Le jour se lève de bonne heure dans ce mois-ci, it is day-light very early this month. Le vent se lève, the wind rises.

LEVER, sm. 4 getting up, rising. Il faut aller chez lui à l'heure de son —, you must go to see him at the moment of his rising. 2 (d'un souverain, of a sovereign) levee. Le —, the levee. 3 Le — du soleil, le — des étoiles, the rising of the sun, of the stars. Le — de l'aurore, day-break. 4 (théâtre) Le — de la toile, le — du rideau, the rise of the curtain.

LEVER-NEU, sm. eath. rel. elevation, raising of the host.

LEVATHAN, lay-vyah-dog, sm. scrip. L'athlan.

LEVIER, lub-vyay, sm. 1 tech. lever. — corde, bent lever. — en croix, cross-lever. — droit, straight lever. — à roulettes, roller lever. 2 artill. — d'abata, skidding-lever. — de pointage, hand-spike. — à balancier, beam-lever. — de fer, iron-crow, crow-bar. 3 railw. — de mise en marche, starting lever. — de renversement, reversing gear. 4 hydrau. lique, hydraulic lever. Bras de —, arm of the lever. Point d'appui de —, fulcrum of the lever. — d'une balance, beam. — d'horloger, adjusting-tool. 5 fig. lever. Le plus puissant de tous les —s, c'est la volonté, the most powerful of all levers is the will. A. Dum.

LEVIS, adj. Pont —, see pont.

L VITE, lay-vit, sm. (Heb.) Levite.

LÈVITE, sf. (sorte de vêtement) great coat, surcoat.

LEVITIQUE, lay-ve-tik, sm. Leviticus.

LEVTRAHER, lub-vro-day, va. fig. to harass, to dodge.

LEVRAUT, lub-vro, sm. zool. levet.

LEVRE, layvr, sf. (Lat. labrum) 1 lip.

La — supérieure, the upper lip. La — inférieure, the lower lip. Grosse —, blubber-lip. Se moure les —s, to bite one's lip. Prononcer du bout des —s, to lip. fig. Il le dit des —s, mais le cœur n'y est pas, his lips say it, but he does not mean it. Rire du bout des —s, to give a faint laugh. Je Pavais sur le bord des —s, I had it at my tongue's end. fig. Avoir le cœur sur les —s, see cœur.

fig. Avoir la mort sur les —s, see mort.

fig. Se moure les —s de quelque chose, to repent having done a thing. 2 bot. lip. 3 (d'une plaie, of a wound) lip. 4 tech. lip, brim, brink.

LEVRETTE, lub-vret, sf. zool. greyhound bitch.

LEV RTTE, lub-vrub-tay, adj. m. fem. —e, shaped like a greyhound.

LEVRIER, lay-vryay, sm. 1 zool. greyhound, harrier. 2 fig. ferret.

LEVIRON, lub-vrong, sm. zool. young greyhound.

LEVRE, lub-vfr, sf. 4 tech. yeast, baw. 2 (de lard, of bacon) skin, seaward.

LEXICOGRAPHIE, lek-se-ko-graf, sm. (Gr.) 1 lexicographer. 2 (by extension) that of science of lexicography lexicographical.

LEXICOGRAPHIQUE, lek-se-ko-graf-ee, sf. Gr. lexicography.

LEXICOGRAPHIQUE, lek-se-ko-graf ik, adj. m. lexicographic, lexicographical.

ENCYCLOPÉDIE, lek-se-ko-to-zhe, sf. lexicology.

LEXICOLOGIQUE, lek-se-ko-lozh-ik, adj. m. lexicological, lexicologic.

LEXICOLOGUE, lek-se-ko-log, sm. lexicologist.

LEXIQUE, lek-sik, sm. (Gr.) lexicon.

(adjective) Manuel —, lexicon.

LEYDE, layd, sm. 1 geog. Leyden. 2 chem. Bouteille de —, Leyden-jar, Leyden-phial.

LEZ, lay, adv. (Lat. ad latos) o'isol.

near, by. Le Plessis —Tours, Plessis near Tours.

LEZARD, lay-zar, sm. erp. lizard. Petit —, newt. — d'eau, water-cf.

LEZARDE, lay-zard, sf. crack, crevice, rent, chink.

LEZARDE, adj. m. fem. —e, cracked, chinky.

LEZARDER, lay-zar-day, va. to crack, to crevice.

SE LEZARDER, vpr. to crack, to chink.

LIAS, le-ay, sm. min. lias. Pierre de —, Portland stone.

LIASON, ley-zong, sf. 1 tech. joint, joining, binding. 2 fig. (ce qui lie les parties d'un discours) connection. — dans les idées, connection in the ideas. — des idées, connection of ideas. La — des scènes dans cette tragédie, the continuity of the scenes in that tragedy. 3 fig. (des affaires, of business) connection. Il n'y a pas de —, de rapport entre ces deux affaires, there is no connection between those two affairs. 4 fig. (entre les personnes) connection, tie of acquaintance, d'amitié, d'intérêt, tie of relationship, bond of friendship, interest. Avoir une — intime avec quelqu'un, to be intimately connected with a person. 5 fig. — pl. (accointances) Je lui ai fait sentir le danger de ses —s, I made him aware of the danger of his connections. 6 calligr. up stroke, hair-stroke. 7 mas. binding, binding-note, slur. 8 culin. thickening. 9 gram. connective. 10 mason. mortier. Maçonnerie en —, bound masonry.

LIAISONNER, lay-zo-nay, va. mason. to bind, to point.

LIANE, lyau, sf. bot. tropical bindweed.

LIANT, le-yang, ppr. of LIER, adj. m. fem. —E. 1 pliant, supple. De deux ressorts la —e souplesse, of two springs the pliant flexibility. Volt. 2 fig. pliant, supple, lithe, easy. B. qui avait l'esprit, supple et —, B. who had an easy content mind. Le Sage. Elle était —e et familière, she was easy and familiar. J. J. Rousseau.

LIANT, sm. fig. pliability, pliability, pliancy, liveness, mildness, softness.

LIANT, sm. dans le commerce de la vie, to be affable, compliant in the intercourse of life. Si on pouvait lui donner de —, if one could make him more gentle.

Desin.

LIARD, lyar, sm. liard (half a farthing). N'avoir pas un —, n'avoir pas le —, to be penniless. Je n'en donnerais pas un —, I would not give a farthing for it. (hyperb.) Il courrait on — en quatre, he would skin a fint.

LIARDER, lyar-day, va. 1 to club together. 2 (by analogy) (hésiter) to pay farthing by farthing.

LIARDIER, lyar-duhr, sm. fem. LIA-ocesse, him, higgler, chafferer.

LIAS, see lias.

LIASSE, lyass, sf. 1 file, bundle.

Mettre en —, to file. 2 (napiers d'affaires et de procédure) file.

LIBAN, le-bang, sm. geog. Libanus, Lebanon.

LIBATION, le-bal-syong, sf. (Lat.) anti-q. libation. Les païens faisaient des —s en l'honneur de leurs dieux, the Pagans poured out libations in honour of their Gods. Lam. Faire des —s, to drink hard.

LIBELLE, le-bayl, sm. libel.

LIBELLÉ, le-bayl-lay, ppa. of LIBELLER.

1 libelled, drawn up. 2 sm. the convict of a deed.

LIBELLER, le-bayl-lay, va. 1 law. to word, to draw up. 2 fin. — un mandement, une ordonnance, to draw up a writ, an ordinance.

LIBELLISTE, le-bayl-list, sm. libeller.

LIBELLULE, le-bayl-lil, sf. ent. libellula, dragon-fly.

LIERRE, le-bayr, sm. (Lat.) bot. liber.

LIBERA, le-bay-rah, sm. bot. plant. LIBERA, (Lat.) rath. rel. libera.

LIBÉRABLE, le-bay-rabi, adj. m. n. lib. admin. that may be liberated, discharged.

LIBÉRAL, le-bay-ral, adj. m. fem. —E, pl. m. libéraux. 1 liberal, unsparing. — envers les gens de mérite, liberal towards deserving people. La nature lui a été —e de ses dons, nature has been liberal to him of her gifts. Il a l'honneur, l' inclination, l'âme —e, he is of a generous temper, he is liberal-minded. Etre — de louanges, to be lavish of praise. Main —e, liberal hand. Arts libéraux, liberal arts. Éducation —e, liberal education. 2 favorable à la liberté) liberal. Une politique —e, liberal policy. 3 (substantive) liberal.

LIBÉRALEMENT, le-bay-ral-mang, adv. 1 liberally. Donner —, to give liberally. 2 (d'une manière favorable à la liberté) liberally. Penser —, to think liberally.

LIBÉRALISME, le-bay-ral-ism, sm. liberalism.

LIBÉRALITÉ, le-bay-ral-e-lay, sf. 1 liberality. Exorcer sa — envers quelqu'un, to be liberal to a person. 2 dom. liberality, donation, gratuity. Il faisait une infinité de —s que personne ne savait, he spent much upon gifts unknown to all. M^{me} de Sév.

LIBÉRATEUR, le-bay-rat-rhr, sm. fem. LIBÉRATRICE, 1 liberator, deliverer. Le — de la pensée est le premier des —s, he that frees our thoughts is the first of deliverers. La Har. O mort, — celeste! oh! Death, heavenly deliverer! Lamart. 2 (adjective) liberating, delivering.

LIBERATION, le-bay-rah-syong, (Lat.) 4 discharge, release. La — l'état, the discharge of the national 2 mil. admin. discharge, liberation.

LIBÈRE, ppa. of LIBÉRER, fem. liberated, freed, released. Forcé — chargé de retour en convict.

LIBÈRE, le-bay-ray, va. JE LIBÈRE, libère, vpr. 1 to free, to release one's self. 2 (s'acquitter) to clear one's self, to pay off, to acquit one's self of.

LIBERTÉ, le-bay-ray, sf. (Lat.) 1 liberty, freedom. — entière, absolue, illimitée, entire, absolute, unbounded liberty. 2 (libre arbitre) liberty. 3 — naturelle, natural liberty. — civile, civil liberty. — politique, political liberty. — de conscience, liberty of conscience. — des cultes, religious freedom. — de penser, liberty of thought. — d'écrire, liberty of writing. — de la presse, liberty, freedom of the press. — individuelle, individual liberty. — du commerce, liberty of trade. — des mers, liberty of the seas. 4 (par opposition à servitude) liberty, freedom. Donner la — à un esclave, à un nègre, to give liberty to a slave, a negro, to manumit a slave. 5 (par opposition à captivité) liberty. Il était prisonnier de guerre, on l'a laissé en — sur parole, he was a prisoner of war, liberty was given him on parole. Donner la — à un oiseau, to set a bird at liberty. On a mis ce prisonnier en —, that prisoner was set at liberty. 6 (par opposition à contrainte) liberty, freedom. Parler, agir en —, vee —, to speak, to act freely. On joint l'âme grande — dans cette maison, great liberty is enjoyed in that house. 7 (indépéndance de caractère, d'état, etc.) liberty. Il ne se met à la suite de personne, il s'agit trop de — he binds himself to no one, he is too fond of his own freedom. 8 (l'état d'un cœur libre) liberty. Cette femme lui a fait perdre sa —, that woman has enslaved him. — de langage, liberty of language. — d'esprit, liberty of mind. 9 (manière d'agir) liberty, freedom. Agir avec une bonhôte —, to act with decent freedom. Il prend beaucoup de — avec ses supérieurs, he makes very free with his superiors. J'ai pris, je prendrai la — de faire telle chose, I have taken, I shall take the liberty of doing such a thing. Demander la —, to beg leave. Je vous demande la — de vous écrire, I take the liberty of writing to you. 10 (aisance dans les mouvements du corps, etc.) liberty. Il a une grande — d'action, de mouvement, de langue, de parole, he has great liberty of action, motion, language, speech. Il fait tout avec beaucoup de — et de grâce, he does every thing with much freedom and grace. 11 (des choses inanimées, of inanimate things) liberty, ease, play. Ce ressort n'a pas assez de —, ne joue pas avec assez de —, that spring has not play enough, does not play easily enough. 12 — s, pl. franchises liberty, franchise, immunity. Les — du commerce, the liberties of commerce. Les — de l'Eglise gallicane, the liberties of the Gallican church.

EN LIBERTÉ, adv. loc. freely, at liberty. Parler, agir ro —, to speak, to act freely.

LIBERTICIDE, le-bayr-te-seed, adj. mf. liberticide, destructive of liberty.

LIBERTIN, le-bayr-tag, adj. m. fem. -e, 1 libertine, licentious, rakish, wanton. Cet homme mène une vie —, that man leads a dissolute life. 2 flighty, fickle. Imagination —, flighty imagination. J'ai l'esprit — et je n'aime pas à traduire, I have a flighty mind, I do not like to translate. Volt. Jusqu'au posses- rez-vous votre honneur —, how far will you carry your riotous humour. Corn. 3 (d'un enfant, d'un écolier dissipé, of a scholar) idle. 4 (qui fait profession de n'avoir point de religion) free-thinking.

LIBERTIN, sm. fem. -e, 1 libertine, rake. 2 (enfant, écolier dissipé) idler. 3 (celui qui fait profession de n'avoir point de religion) free-thinker.

LIBERTINAGE, le-bayr-te-nanz, sm. 1 debauchery, rakishness, wantonness, licentiousness, libertinism. Vivre dans la —, to lead a licentious life. 2 anc. (en matière de religion) free-thinking. 3 — d'esprit, d'imagination, flightiness. Voyez un peu où me porte le — de ma plume, just see what it is to write at random. M^{me} de Sév.

LIBERTINER, le-bayr-te-nay, rn. 1 to lead a rakish, a licentious life. 2 (d'un enfant, d'un écolier) to be an idler.

SE LIBERTINER, vpr. to be rakish.

LIBIDINEUX, le-be-de-nuh, adj. m. fem. LIBIDINEUX, (little used) libidinous.

LIBRAIRE, le-brayr, sm. bookseller. — éditeur, bookseller and publisher. Imprimeur —, printer and bookseller.

LIBRAIRIE, le-brayr-ee, sf. 1 book-selling, book-trade. 2 (magasin) book-seller's shop. 3 anc. (bibliothèque) library.

LIBRATION, le-brayr-syong, sf. (Lat.) astr. libration.

LIBRE, lebr', adj. mf. (Lat. liber) 1 free. L'homme est né —, man is born free. L'homme a sou — arbitre, man has his free will. prov. Les volontés sont —, our wills are free. 2 (par opposition à servile) free. C'est un homme de condition —, he is a freeman. — de sa personne, master of one's person. 3 (par opposition à captif) free, at liberty. Il était prisonnier, mais à présent il est —, he was a prisoner, but now he is free. 4 (indépendant) free. Il est —, et ne dépend de personne, he is free and de- pends on nobody. — comme l'air, as free as air. 5 (qui n'est pas marié) free, single. 6 (des Etats, of States) free.

Lin Etat —, a free state. Un peuple —, a free people. Gouverner des hom- mes —, to govern free men. Villes —, free towns. 7 (qui n'enrouve aucune contrainte, aucune gêne) free. On est fort — dans cette maison, one is quite at home in that house. 8 (licencieux, indiscret) free. Il est trop — dans ses paroles, he is too free in his words. 9 (locutions)

Les suffrages ne sont pas — dans cette assemblée, the votes are not free in that assembly. Le commerce est — dans ce pays, trade is free in that country. La presse est — dans ce pays, the press is free in that country. Les mers sont —, the seas are free. Les passages, les chemins sont —, the passages and the roads are free. Espace —, open space. Avoir ses entrées — chez quelqu'un, avoir — accès, — accès auprès de quelqu'un, to have free access to a person. Avoir son temps —, to be master of one's time. Etre —, to be disengaged, at leisure. Avoir le cœur —, to have one's heart free. N'avoir pas l'esprit —, not to have one's mind free. Vers —, verses of unequal metre. Traduction —, free translation. Papier —, unstamped paper. 10 — de, (before a verb) free from, exempt from. — de soins, — de crainte de passion, free from care, fear, passion. — de, (before a verb) free to. Vous êtes — d'accepter ou de refuser, you are free to accept or to refuse. Il vous est — d'accepter ou de refuser, you are free to accept or to refuse. — à vous de sortir ou de rester, you are free either to go out or to remain. fig. Avoir le champ —, to have things one's own way. Laisser à quelqu'un le champ —, to let a person have his way, to have things his own way. 11 (qui a de la facilité, de l'aisance) free, unconstrained. Il est — dans sa taille, he is of a free and easy shape. Avoir une contenance —, un air —, to be unconstrained in one's manners. 12 (des choses inanimées, of inanimate things) free. Cette roue, ce ressort, cette pièce est — dans ses mouvements, that blade, that spring, that piece plays easily. Avoir la voix —, la parole —, to have an easy utterance. 13 med. Tenir le ventre —, to keep the body open.

A L'AIR LIBRE, adv. loc. in the open air.

LIBREMENT, le-brub-mang, adv. freely.

LIBRETTO, le-bray-to, sm. pl. LIBRETTI, (It.) libretto.

LIBYE, le-bee, sf. geog. Libya.

LICE, lees, sf. 1 list. Entrer dans la —, en —, to enter the lists. 2 fig. (de discussions, etc., of discussions) lists. Il est sorti vainqueur de la —, he came off conqueror. 3 fig. lists, arena, field. Le harreau est une — ouverte au talent oratoire, the bar is an arena open to oratorical talent.

LICE, sf. zool. bitch-hound.

LICE, sf. See Lisse.

LICENCE, le-sang, sf. (Lat. licentia) 1 anc. licence, leave. 2 (pour exporter ou pour vendre) licence. 3 (dans les facultés de théologie, de droit, etc.) licentiate's degree. 4 (liberté trop grande) liberty. C'est un homme qui prend des —, qui se donne de grandes —, s, he is a man who takes liberties, who gives himself great liberties. 5 (liberté excessive) licentiousness. Arrêter, réprimer la — du peuple, des soldats, to repress the licentiousness of the people, of the soldiery. 6 poetic. — poétique, poetical licence. Une heureuse —, a happy licence. 7 paint. sculp. licence. 8 arch. licence. 9 mus. licence.

LICENCIÉ, ppa, of LICENCIER, fem. -e, adj. and sm. licentiate.

LICENCIEMENT, le-sang-se-mang, sm. mil. disbanding, reduction.

LICENCIER, le-sang-se-ay, ro. Noms

LICENCIATIONS, VOUS LICENCIEZ, mil. to disband, to reduce.

SE LICENCIER, vpr. fig. to take liberties, to be bold. Il se licencia de la garder les soirs pendant le jeu, he made bold to keep her in the evening during the game. S^t-Sim.

LICENCIEMENT, le-sang-syuh-z-mang, adv. licentiously, dissolutely.

LICENCIÉUX, le-sang-syuh, adj. m. fem. LICENCIÉE, licentious, dissolute.

LICET, le-sayt, sm. (Lat.) permit.

LICHEN, le-kayn, sm. bot. lichen. — d'Islande, Iceland moss.

LICITATION, le-se-tay-syong, sf. (Lat.) sale by auction (of co-proprietors' property).

LICITE, le-sit, adj. mf. licit, allowed, allowable.

LICITEMENT, adv. licitly.

LICITER, le-se-tay, ra. (Lat. licitari) to sell by auction (the property of co-proprietors).

SE LICITER, vpr. to be sold by auction.

LICOL, See Licon.

LICORNE, le-korn, sf. anc. unicorn. — de mer, sea-unicorn.

LICOU, le-koo, LICOL, le-ko, sm. halter, head-collar. Licou à une longe, à deux longues, halter with one tether, two tethers. Attacher un cheval avec son licou, to tie a horse with his halter.

LICTEUR, lik-tubr am. (Lat. licitor) Rom. antiq. licitor.

LIE, le, sf. (Lat. limas) 1 drops, lees. — de vin, wine-lees, wine-dregs. — d'huile, oil-dregs. absol. De la —, dregs, lees. fig. Buire le calice jusqu'à la —, to drink the cup to the dregs. 2 fig. La — du peuple, the dregs of the people.

LIE, adj. (Lat. laetus) anc. Faire élire —, to feed well, to lead a merry life. La Font.

LIE, ppa. of LIER, fem. -e, 1 tied. On l'a mené pieds et poings —, he was brought bound hand and foot. 2 collu. Une sauce bien —, a well-thickened sauce. 3 Des lettres mal —, badly joined letters. 4 mus. notes —, tied, slurred notes. fig. Ces pensées ne sont point —, these are in no connection between these thoughts. Un discours bien —, a coherent discourse. 5 fig. bound, tied, united. Ils sont — d'une étroite amitié, they are linked together in the closest bonds of friendship. Ma fortune est — à la vôtre, my destiny is bound up with yours. Je suis — par ma promesse, I am bound by my promise. Voilà la partie bien —, the lieo pris, l'heure marquée, the party was well arranged, the place appointed, the hour assigned. M^{me} de Sév. 6 Joiner en parties —, to play rubbers. Avoir les mains —, to play rubbers. Avoir les mains —, to play rubbers.

LIEGE, le-ayzh, sm. 1 bot. cork, cork-tree. 2 (corce) cork. — fossile, fossil cork. Semelle de —, cork-sole. Bouchon de —, cork.

LIEGE, sf. geog. Liege.

LIEN, le-ang, sm. (Lat. ligamen) 1 band. — d'acier, iron band. — de fer, a band of iron. 2 (d'un prisonnier, of a prisoner) bonds, bands. Etre dans les —, to be in bonds. Briser, rompre les —, to break one's bonds, one's ties. 3 fig. (dépendance) bonds, shackles, trammels. — religieux, religious engagement. fig. Traîner son —, to drag a chain after one. 4 fig. (ce qui attache) bond, tie. Le — du mariage, the marriage bond. Le — de la chair et du sang, the ties of flesh and blood. Je lui suis attaché par les —, les plus forts, les plus étroits, I am attached to him by the strongest bonds. 5 law. Double —, double tie. 6 artil. — de fusée, side-strap. — de jante, fire-clip. — de rais, spoke gripe.

LIENTERIE, le-ang-lay-ree, sf. (Gr.) obsol. patbol. lenterie.

LIENTERIQUE, le-ang-lay-rik, adj. mf. obsol. patbol. lenteric.

LIER, le-ay, ro. NOUS LIIONS, VOUS

LIEZ (Lat. ligare) 1 to bind. — un fagot, une botte de foin, une gerbe de blé, to bind a faggot, a truss of hay, a sheaf of wheat. — avec un cordon, to bind with a string. — un homme à un arbre, to tie a man to a tree. Vous liez cela trop lâche, you tie that too loosely. (hyperb.) C'est un fou à un quelq'un. (hyperb.) fig. — les mains à la langue, to tie a person's hands. 2 faire un nœud to tie, to tongue-tie. 3 faire un nœud to tie, — les cordons de ses souliers, to tie one's shoe-strings. 3 (joindre ensemble, to bind, to join, to connect. — les lettres, to join the letters. 4 cultiver. — une sauge, to thicken a sauce. 5 mus. — des notes, to slur notes. fig. — les idées, les propositions, les parties d'un discours, to connect ideas, propositions, the parts of a discourse. — une partie de promenade, de divertissement, to form a party for walking out, a party of pleasure. Il a bien lie, mal lie la partie, he has taken his measures well, badly. — amitié avec quelqu'un, to contract friendship with a person. — conversation, commerce, société avec quelqu'un, to enter into conversation, to establish a correspondence, to make the acquaintance of a person. 6 fig. (des personnes, of persons) (attacher, unir) to bind, to connect. L'amitié, l'intérêt les avaient liés, friendship, interest had connected them. 7 fig. (des personnes, of persons) (astreindre, obliger) to bind, to bind down. Les paroles, les contrats lient les hommes, words, contracts bind men. — et délier, to bind and loose.

SE LIER, repr. 1 to mix, to blend together, to combine, to thicken, to be connected (with), to bear (upon). Ces ingrédients ne peuvent pas se —, those ingredients cannot mix. fig. Les scènes de cette pièce se lient mal entre elles, the scenes in that piece are badly connected. Le fait que vous racontez se lie à une aventure dont j'ai connaissance, the fact you mention is connected with an adventure that came to my knowledge. 2 cultiver. Il faut ramener cette sauce jusqu'à ce qu'elle se lie, that sauce must be kept stirring till it thickens. 3 fig. Se — par un serment, par un vœu, to bind one's self by an oath, a vow. 4 fig. (des personnes, of persons) to become acquainted, connected, intimate. Je me suis lié avec eux, I became acquainted with them. Ils se sont liés dès qu'ils se sont connus, they got intimate as soon as they had made each other's acquaintance.

LIERNE, le-ayin, sf. arch. roil.

LIÈRE, le-ayr, sm. (Lat. hedera) bad. ivy. — grimpant, tree ivy. — terrestre, ground ivy, etc-hoof.

LIÈSE, le-ays, sf. (Lat. lœtitia) anal. joyfully, merriment. Vivre en joie et en lièse, to lead a joyful and merry life. Aux noces d'un tyran tout un peuple en —, at the marriage of a tyrant a whole nation in mirth. La Fout.

LIEU, le-uh, sm. (Lat. locus) pl. — x, 1 place. spot. Tout corps occupe un —, everything occupies a place. — est dans un —, every body occupies a place. 2 (pris absolument) place. C'est le plus beau — du monde, it is the finest place in the world. C'est son — natal, it is his native place. 3 (par rapport à la discussion) place. Un — d'assemblée, de récréation, a place of meeting, of recreation. Mettre une chose en — sûr, en — de sûreté, to put a thing in a safe place, in a place of safety. Le — saint, le saint, the holy place. Les saints — x, the holy places. — de sûreté, place of safety. — de plaisance, country-seat. — de franchise, — d'asile, place of refuge. — x d'aisances, — x, privy, necessary, water-closet. 4 (endroit désigné, indiqué) spot. Quand je serai sur le —, when I am on the spot. Se transporter sur les — x, to convey one's self to the spot. 5 (les différentes pièces d'une maison, etc.) premises. État des — x, état de —, inventory of fixtures. Réparer les — x, to repair the premises. voir. N'avoit-il feu ni —, to have neither house nor home. 6 pron. locus. 7 astr. point. 8 (place, rang) place, turn, room, stand. anc. Il tient le premier —, he stands in the first place. law. Chaque créancier viendra en son —, each creditor will come in his turn. Être an — et place de quelqu'un, to be in the room and stand of a person. En premier —, en second —, en troisième —, en dernier —, in the first, second, third, last place. Tenir — de, to stand instead of, to supply the place of. 9 (maison, famille) family, birth, extraction. Cette personne vient de bon —, est de bon —, that person is of a good family. Il s'est allié en bon —, he has married into a good family. Il sent le — d'un il vient, he gives tokens of his origin. Bas — low extraction. J'ai appris cela de bon —, je tiens cela de bon —, cette nouvelle vient de bon —, I had that from good authority. On a parlé de vous en bon —, you were spoken of in good company. (endroit, temps convenable pour dire, pour faire quelque chose) place. Ce n'est pas ici le — de parler de cela, le — de disputer, this is not the place to speak about that, to dispute. Ce n'est ni le temps ni le —, it is neither the time nor the place. 11 fig. (moyen, sujet, occasion) room, occasion, reason, cause. Nous verrons s'il y a — de vous servir, we shall see if there is an occasion to be of service to you. J'ai — de me plaindre de votre conduite à mon égard, I have reason to complain of your conduct towards me. Dites-moi — de vous obliger, show me how I can oblige you, give me an opportunity of obliging you. Avoir —, to take place. 12 (d'un livre, of a book) place. 13 rhet. — x communs, — x oratoires, common-places, small talk.

AU LIEU de, prep. 1 instead of, in lieu of. Cet officier servira au — de tel autre, this officer will serve instead of such a one. 2 (noting opposition, difference) instead of. Au — de secourir son ami, il l'a abandonné, instead of helping his friend, he deserted him.

AU LIEU q'ue, conj. whereas. Il eroit se tirer d'affaire au — que visiblement il s'enfonçait de plus en plus, he hopes to get clear of his difficulties, whereas he is evidently sinking deeper into them. Al. Duu.

LIEU, le-yub, sf. (Celt. leach) league (the French astronomical or common league is 4850 yards; the legal or posting league 4263 yards; the marine league, 6076 yards). Trois mille — s, three thousand, three wearisome leagues. Le Sage — de poste, posting league. — de pays, country league. — marine, marine league. — carree, square league. Une — à la ronde, a league round; || (in a wider sense) Ce bruit a été entendu une — à la ronde, this report has been heard a mile round. (hyperb.) fig. Il n'écoute pas, il est à mille — s d'ici, he listens to nobody, he is a thousand miles off. (hyperb.) fig. Sentir quelqu'un d'une —, to know a person is coming miles off. J'ai senti d'une — la proposition qui vient de nous faire, I saw what he was driving at long before he came out with the proposition he has just made us. Il sent son tripon d'une —, he looks like a rogue. prov. fig. Être à cent — s, à mille — s d'une chose, n'en pas approcher de cent — s, de mille — s, to be far off, out.

LIEUR, le-ur, sm. (from lier) agri. binder.

LIEUTENANCE, le-uh-tuh-nangs, sf. mil. lieutenancy.

LIEUTENANT, lyuh-tuh-nang, sm. 1 mil. lieutenant. — général, lieutenant-general. — colonel, lieutenant-colonel.

— en premier, first lieutenant. — en second, second lieutenant. Sous —, ensign. — de vaisseau, lieutenant of a man-of-war. — civil, civil-lieutenant (a police-officer). 2 hist. — général du royaume, lieutenant-general of the kingdom.

LIEUTENANTE, lyuht-nängt, sf. anc. Madame la — civile, the civil-lieutenant's lady.

LIEVRE, lyayvr, sm. (Lat. lepus) 1 zool. hare. Mettre un — en pâte, to make a hare-pie. Un râble de —, the back of a hare. prov. Peureux comme un —, as fearful as a hare. Avoir un bec de —, être bec de —, See bec. fig. Lever le —, to start the subject. prov. Il a une mémoire de —, c'est une mémoire de — qui se perd en courant, he has a very short memory. prov. fig. Il ne faut pas courir deux — s à la fois, qui court deux — s à la fois n'en prend aucun, one must not have too many irons in the fire. fig. C'est la que gli le —, that is the main point. 2 astr. Le —, the hare.

LIGAMENT, le-gah-mäng, sm. anat. ligamen, ligament.

LIGAMENTEUX, le-gah-mäng-tuh, adj. m. fem. LIGAMENTEUSE, 1 anat. ligamental, ligamentous. 2 bot. stringy.

LIGATURE, le-gar-ür, sf. (Lat. ligatura) 1 surg. ligature. Faire la — d'une artère, to tie an artery. 2 (pour une lumeur) ligature. 3 (d'une saignée) ligature. 4 print. ligature.

LIGE, leczh, adj. mf. liege. Homme —, liege-man. Hommage —, homage liege. Fief —, fief —, vassalage.

LIGNAGE, le-nyah, sm. (collectif.) lineage, progeny. Haut —, high birth.

LIGNAGER, le-yah-yoh, sm. person of the same lineage, kinsman.

LIGNAGER, adj. anc. law. Retrait —, reumption.

LIGNE, le-nyth, sf. (Lat. linea) 1 line. — droite, courbe, straight, curve line. Deux — s parallèles, two parallel lines. — perpendiculaire, verticale, horizontale, oblique, circulaire, perpendiculaire, vertical, horizontal, oblique, circular line. Une — spirale, a spiral line. Tirer une — d'un point à un autre, to draw a line from one point to another. — équinoxiale, equinoctial line. absol. Passer, couper la —, to cross the line. — méridienne, meridian line. — de foi, fiducial line. Haut. — d'eau, water-line. — de dénivation, line of denervation. Aller quelque part en — droite, to go somewhere straight, in a straight line. fig. C'est un homme qui a toujours marché sur la même —, qui s'est tracé une — dont il ne s'est jamais écarté, he is a man who has always followed the same line, who has laid himself out a path from which he has never swerved. fig. Suivre la — du devoir, de l'honneur, to tread the path of duty, of honour. fig. Être, marcher sur la même —, to go abreast, to hold the same rank. fig. Être en première —, mettre en première —, to be placed, to place in the first rank. fig. Être hors de —, to be beyond comparison. 2 (de la main) La — de vie, line of life. 3 mar. — de la voile, line of the roll. 4 absol. line. 5 paint. sépint. line. La — de composition d'un tableau, the line of composition of a painting. 6 arch. line. 7 writ. line. Il y a tant de mots à chaque —, et tant de — s à chaque page, there are so many words to each line, and so many lines to each page. Mettre un mot, un passage à la —, to begin a new line with a word, a passage. Écrire hors —, mettre hors —, tirer une somme hors —, to write, to set a sum in the margin. Mettre en — de compte, tirer en — de compte, to take into account, to carry to account, to charge. 8 (ce qui est écrit dans une ligne) line. Il n'y a pas dans cet ouvrage une — qui soit correcte, there is not in that word a single line correct. Je vous enverrai deux — shall soon prevent de mon arrivée. I shall drop you a line to apprise you of my arrival. 9 (des maçons, etc., of masons) line. Tirer une muraille à la —, une muraille en —, droite, to make a wall in a straight line. Marquer le bois à la —, to mark timber with a line. Planter des arbres à la —, to plant trees in a straight line. 10 (pour pêcher) line, fishing-line; rod. Pêcher à la —, to angle. — dormante, dead line. 11 (corderie) line. — de sonde, sounding line. 12 war. line. La — appuyait sa droite au village, et sa gauche au pied de la montagne, the line rested its right on the village, and its left at the foot of the mountain. Se porter sur la —, to bear upon the line. Entrer, rentrer en —, se mettre en —, to fall, to fall back into line. Rompre la —, to break the line. Forcer la —, to go too much forward. Refuser la —, to stand too much behind. — de direction, line of direction. — d'opération, line of operation. 13 (d'une armée, of an army) line. L'armée était rangée sur trois —s, the army was drawn up, encamped in three lines. — pleine, full line. Marcher en —, to march in a line. Troupe de —, troop of the line. absol. (collectif) La —, the line. 14 (tactique navale) line. — de combat, line of battle. — du pas près, close-haul'd line. Vaisseau de —, ship of the line. 15 fort. line. Travailler aux —s, to work at the lines. 16 fort. (soit d'ouvrages de fortifications) line. —s continues, continued lines. —s d'approche, lines of approach. —s de contre-approche, lines of counter-approach. —s de circonvallation, lines of circumvallation. —s de communication, lines of communication. —s parallèles, parallel lines. — de défense, — de frontière, lines of defence. — de douanes, the custom's frontier. 17 — télégraphique, telegraphic line. 18 (dixième partie d'un ponce) line. 19 géom. line. — directe, droite, collatérale, masculine, féminine, direct, collateral, male, female line. Les héritiers en — collatérale, the collateral heirs. LIGNEE, le-nyay, sf. lineage, progeny, offspring, issue. La — de princes que lui avait donnée sa première femme, the line of princes his first wife had given him. Boss Liguineine —, marking. La Font. LIGNETTE, le-nyet, sf. tech. thread, twine. LIGNEUL, le-nyuhl, sm. tech. cobler's thread. LIGNEUX, le-nyuhl, adj. m. fem. ligneux, (Lat. ligneus) not ligneous. LIGNITE, le-nyet, sm. min. lignite. LIGUE, le-guh, sf. (from Lat. ligare) league. — défensive, defensive league. — offensive, offensive league. — former une —, to make, to form a league. 2 absol. Fr. ligue. Du temps de la Ligue, in the time of the league. 3 (complot) league, confederacy. Ce grandcrivain eut bien de la peine à se défendre contre la — de ses ennemis, that great writer had hard work to defend himself against his enemies who were leagued together. LIGIER, le-gay, ra. (from ligae) to unite in a league. SE LIGIER, vpr. to league. Il se liguait avec les mécontents, he joined the party of the malcontents. Liguez-vous saintement pour le bien mutuel, unite yourselves sacredly for your mutual good. C. Del. LIGULU le-gubr, sm. fem. LIGULES, Fr. lil. leaguer. LIGULE, le-gul, sf. bot. ligula. LIGULE, le-gul, adj. m. fem. —E, bot. ligulate, ligulated. LIGURIEN, le-gu-ree, sf. geog. Liguria. LIGURIEN, adj. m. fem. —E, Ligurian. LILAS, le-lah, sm. (Sp.) 1 bot. lilac

2 (adjectif.) lilac. Une robe —, a lilac dress. LILIACÉ, le-lyah-say, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 bot. lilaceous. 2 (substantif.) Une —, a lilaceous plant. LILIPUTIEN, le-le-pu-syang, adj. and sm. fem. —E, Liliputian. LILLE, le-el, sf. geog. Lille, Liste (a town in France). LIMACE, le-mas, sf. (Gr.) 1 nat. hist. slug, naked snail. 2 mech. water-screw. LIMACON, le-mah-song, sm. 1 nat. hist. snail. — des jardins, garden snail. 2 anat. cockle. 3 mech. cockle. 4 arch. Escalier en —, cockle-stairs, winding staircase. LIMAILLE, le-mah-yuh, sf. filings, file-dust, limature. LIMANDE, le-mangd, sf. 1 ich. dab. 2 naut. parcelling. LIMANDEI, le-mang-day, ra. naut. to parcel. LIMAS, See LIMACE. LIMBE, langb, sm. 1 astr. limb. 2 bot. limb. 3 math. limb. 4 mech. limb. LIMBES, langb, sm. pl. theol. limbo, limbus. LINE, leem, sf. 1 tech. fil. — douce, straight fil. — sourde, dead fil. — plate, flat fil. — à couteau, knife-fil. Tailleur de —, fil-cutter. Coup de —, fil-stroke, touch of the fil. fil. La — du chagrin vous use comme moi, the cancer of grief erodes you as well as me. Mirab. — douce, smooth fil. 2 fig. (des ouvrages d'esprit, of literary works) fil. Passer, repasser la — sur un ouvrage de prose, de poésie, to polish, to repolish a work of prose, of poetry. Donner le dernier coup de — à un ouvrage, to give the finishing stroke to a work. LINE, sf. hori. line. LINER, le-may, ra. 1 to fil. 2 fig. to polish, to finish off. Le style trop liné perd de son vigueur, an over-finished style loses somewhat of its force. Balz. SE LINER, vpr. 1 to be filed. 2 fig. to be frayed. LINCUL, le-muhr, sm. filer. LINCUSE, le-muhz, sf. mech. filing-machine. LINIER, le-myay, sm. zool. time-hound, blood-hound. fig. — de police, police officer, spy, blood-hound. Ces —s de justice, these blood-hounds of justice. Le Sage. LIMITATIF, le-me-tat-if, adj. m. fem. LIMITATIVE, limitarian, limiting. LIMITATION, le-me-tah-syang, sf. limitation. LIMITE, le-mil, sf. (Lat. limes) 1 lim. bound, boundary. — d'un champ, landmark. La rivière sert de — à ma propriété, the river is the boundary of my estate. 2 —s, pl. limits. Étendre les —s d'un Etat, to extend the limits of a country. Les —s naturelles de la France, the natural boundaries of France. 3 (morally) bounds, limits. Son ambition est sans —, his ambition is unbounded. LIMITE, ppa. of LIMITER, fem. —E, limited, restrained. fig. Congé —, limited leave of absence, furlough. LIMITÉI, le-me-tay, ra. (Lat. limitare) 1 to limit, to bound, to stint. 2 fig. (du prix, etc.) to limit, to confine. On ne lui a point limité le temps de son voyage, no limit has been set to the time of his journey. 3 (morally) to limit. Il ne peut souffrir qu'on limite son pouvoir, he cannot suffer limits to be set to his power. SE LIMITER, vpr. 1 to be limited. 2 to confine one's self. LIMITROPIE, le-me-trof; adj. mf. geog. bordering upon. LIMON, le-mung, sm. (Lat. limos) 1 slime, ooze. 2 fig. clay. On dirait que Dieu l'a pétri d'un autre — que moi, one would say God has formed him of a different clay from me. Dail. LIMON, sm. 1 (de voiture) shaft, side. 2 (descalier) notch-board, carriage

LIMON, sm. hort. lime, lemon. LIMONADE, le-mo-nad, sf. lemonade — gazeuse, effervescent lemonade. LIMONADIER, le-mo-nad-ya, sm. fem. LIMONADIERE, coffee-house keeper. LIMONEUX, le-mo-nuh, adj. m. fem. LIMONEUSE, stinky, muddy. Essuyant à ces mots sa barbe limoneuse, wiping as he spoke his stinky beard. Bail. LIMONIER, le-mo-nyay, sm. thill-horse, shaft-horse, off-wheeler. LIMONIER, sm. hort. lime-tree. LIMONIERE, le-mo-nyay, sf. 1 (brancard de voiture) shafts. Affût à —, galloper-carriage. 2 carriage with shafts. LIMOSINAGE, le-mo-te-nuh, sm. tech. ashlar-work. LIMOUSIN, le-moo-zang, sm. 1 geog. (a province of France) Limosin. 2 (maçon) rough-winter. LIMOUSINE, le-moo-zin, sf. carter's coat. LIMPIDE, lang-peed, adj. mf. limpid. fig. Son style est devenu moins —, his style has become less clear. Ste-B. LIMPIDITE, lang-pe-de-ty, sf. limpidness, limpidity. LIMURE, le-mür, sf. 1 fling. 2 (l'état d'une chose flingée) fling. Cette tabatière est d'une — parfaite, that snuff-box has been perfectly well filed. 3 (limaille) (little used) filings. LIN, lang, sm. (Lat. linum) 1 bot. flax. Graine de —, linseed, flax-seed. absol. Farine de graine de —, linseed-meal. Huile de —, linseed-oil. Fil de —, linen-yarn. 2 (toile de lin) colour. Gris de —, gridelin, gridelin colour; || (adjectif.) gridelin. LINAIRE, le-nayr, sf. bot. toad-flax. LINGANGE, le-nangzh, sm. geog. Leinang. LINGEUL, lang-sohl, sm. (Lat. linteo-lum) shroud, winding-sheet. Envelopper d'un —, to wrap, to bind in a shroud, to shroud. fig. Le silence est le — du passé, silence is a winding-sheet to the past. Lamar. LINAIRE, le-nay-ayr, adj. mf. 1 linear. Dessin —, linear design. 2 bot. Feuille —, linear leaf. LINEAL, le-nay-al, adj. m. fem. —E, lineal. LINGEMENT, le-nay-ah-mög, sm. lineament, feature. (morally) Les —s d'un discours, the outlines of a speech. Buff. LINGARD, lang-gar, sm. weav. warp-thread (to replace the broken ones). LINGE, — langzh, sm. (Lat. lintum) 1 linen. — sale, dirty linen. — fin, fine linen. Blanchisseuse de — fin, blanchisseuse de fin, clear-starcher. — de corps, body-linen. — de lit, bed-linen. — de table, table-linen. (particul.) Mettre du — blanc, to put on clean linen. 2 (more-cloth) linen, cloth. — à bobbe, shaving-cloth. prov. Il n'a pas plus de force qu'un — mouillé, he is as weak as water. LINGERIE, lang-zhay, sm. fem. lingerie, ready-made linen dealer. LINGERIE, langz-ree, sf. 1 ready-made linen warehouse. 2 (marchandises) linen goods. 3 (dans les hôpitaux, etc.) linen room. LINGOT, lang-go, sm. 1 ingot, wedge. Or, argent en —, bullion. 2 (chasse) slug. 3 print. ingot. LINGOTIERE, lang-go-lyayr, sf. tech. ingot-mould. LINGUAL, lang — gäl, adj. m. fem. —E, 4 anat. lingual. 2 gram. lingual. LINGUALE, lang-gä-si, sf. gram. linguist. LINGUE, lang-guh, sf. ich. ting. LINGUISTE, lang-gü-ist, sm. linguist. LINGUISTIQUE, lang-gü-is-ik, sf. linguistics. LINIER, le-nyay, adj. m. fem. LINIERE, flax. Industrie linière, flax-husbandry. LINIERE, le-nyayr, sf. flax-grond. LINIMENT, le-pe-mang, sm. pharm. liniment

LIENNÉE (CHARLES), le-nay, sm. Linnæus, a celebrated Swedish naturalist, born in 1707, died in 1778.

LINNÉE, sf. but. linnaea.

LIONOMPE, le-nongpi, sm. obsol. veil of lawn.

LIONON, le-nong, sm. (étouffe) lawn.

LINOT, le-no, sm. LINOTTE, le-not, sf. ord. linnet, fig. C'est une tête de —, he/she is hare-brained. prov. fig. pop. Simer la — le, to drink hard.

LINTEAU, lang-to, sm. tech. lintel.

LION, lyong, sm. fem. —NE, 1 zool.

lion. Le rugissement d'un lion, the roaring of a lion. fig. C'est un —, he is as bold as a lion. Se défendre comme un —, to defend one's self like a lion. C'est une —ne, she is as comely as a lioness. prov. fig. Coutré la peau du renard à celle du —, to join the fox's cunning to the lion's strength. prov. A l'ongle on connaît le —, by the sample one may judge of the piece. Partage du — la lion's share.

La part du —, See part. 2 bot. Pied de —, lion's foot. Queue de —, lion's tail.

3 fig. (dandy) lion. Le — du jour, the lion of the day. 4 nat. hist. — martin, sea-lion. 5 astr. lion, leo.

LIONCEAU, lyong-so, sm. zool. lionet, lion's cub, whelp.

LIPOGRAMMATIE, le-po-graam-mat-ee, sf. (Gr.) phil. lipogrammaty.

LIPOGRAMMATIQUE, le-po-graam-mat-ik, adj. mf. (Gr.) lipogrammatic.

LIPÔME, le-pôm, sm. (Gr.) med. adipose wen.

LIPOTHYMIÉ, le-po-le-mee, sf. (Gr.) med. lipothymia.

LIPPE, lip, sf. (Ger.) fam. thick lip.

fam. Faire sa —, faire une grosse —, une vilaine —, to pout.

LIPPE, le-pay, sf. 1 anc. fam. mouthful. 2 (repas) meal. Point de franche —, point à la pointe de l'épée, no good meals free of cost, all at the point of the sword. La Font. C'est un chercheur de franchises —, he is a spunger.

LIPITUDE, le-pe-tid, sf. med. lipititude.

LIPPU, le-pû, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 fam. blubber-lipped. 2 em. fam. blubber-lip.

LIGATION, le-kôa-syong, sf. (Lat.) chem. eliquation, ligation. Pièces de —, liques.

LIQUEFIABLE, le-kay-fyabl', adj. mf. that may be liquefied.

LIQUEFIANT, le-kay-fyang, ppr. of LIQUEFIER, adj. m. fem. —E, liquefying.

LIQUEFACTION, le-kay-fak-syong, sf. (Lat.) liquefaction.

LIQUEFIER, le-kay-fay, ra. nons LIQUEFIER, vous LIQUEFIEZ, (Lat. liquefacere) to liquefy.

se LIQUEFIER, to liquefy.

LIQUEUR, le-kahr, sf. (Lat. liquor) 1 liquor. 2 (boisson obtenue par la distillation) liquor. — furte, strong cordial.

— douce, liqueur. Vin de —, sweet wine. Ce vin a trop de —, that wine is too sweet. poetic. La — bachique, wine. — s rafraîchies, refreshing syrups.

LIVIDAMBAR, le-ke-dang-bar, sm. bot. liquidambar.

LIQUIDEUR, le-ke-dat-nur, adj. and sm. liquidator.

LIQUIDATION, le-ke-dab-syong, sf. liquidation. — d'une société de commerce, liquidation of a partnership in trade.

LIQUIDE, le-keed, adj. mf. (Lat. liquidus) 4 liquid. Metal —, liquid metal. Conflures —s, liquid conflus. 2 poetic. Le — enivre, the element, the watery element. 3 gram. Consonnes —s, liquids. 4 fig. (de bien, d'argent, of property, of money) clear. Quarante mille écus d'argent sec et —, forty thousand crowns in clear and ready money. Regn.

LIGURE, sm. 1 liquid. 2 (boissons spiritueuses) liquor. 3 med. liquid.

LIQUIDER, le-ke-day, ra. 1 to liquidate. — une succession, to liquidate a succession. 2 — son bien, to liquidate one's property.

se LIQUIDER, rpr. to liquidate, to pay one's debts, to wind up one's affairs.

LIQUIDITE, le-ke-de-tay, sf. liquidity, liquidness.

LIQOREUX, le-ko-rub, adj. m. fem. LIQOREUSE, lascious, sweet.

LIQORISTE, le-ko-rist, sm. liquer-manufacturer, spirit-dealer.

LIRE, ler, ra. irreg. LISANT; LU; JE LIS, to lire, to lit, nouns LISANS; JE LISAIS; JE LUS, vous LûTES, ils LURENT; JE LIRAI; LIS QUE JE LISE; QUE JE LISSÉ; (Lat. legere) 1 to read. Apprendre à —, to learn to read. — tout bas, tout haut, à haute voix, to read low, aloud, out. — couramment, to read fluently. 2 (prononcer à haute voix) to read. Il lit bien le lit mal, he reads well, badly. Il nous a lu un long discours, he read us a long discourse. 3 (pour son instruction on pour son amusement) to read. Quoiconque a beaucoup lu, a beaucoup aussi retenu, whoever has read much has learned much. La Font. — une lettre, un billet, un avis, to read a letter, a note, a notice. fig C'est un ouvrage qu'on ne peut —, it is a work that is not readable. Ce livre, cet ouvrage se laisse —, that book, that work is interesting. 4 — la musique, to read music. 5 (d'un livre qu'un professeur explique) to read. Quel auteur vous lit-on dans votre classe? what author do they read in your class? 6 (comprendre) to read, to understand. — un parole pas l'anglais, he does not speak English, but he can read it easily enough. 7 fig. (pénétrer quelque chose d'obscur ou de caché) to read. — dans la pensée, dans le cœur, dans les yeux de quelqu'un, to read in a person's thoughts, heart, eyes. — dans les astres, dans l'avenir, to read the stars, to read in the future.

se LIRE, rpr. to be read.

LIRE, sf. (It.) lira (an Italian coin, about 10 s.).

LIRON, SE LÉROT.

LIS, lis, sm. 1 bot. lily. Tige de —, stalk of a lily. Pianté de —, lily. 2 (la fleur) lily. La blancheur des —, the whiteness of the lily. 3 fig. Teint de —, teint de — et de rose, complexion of lilies. 4 complexions of lilies and roses. poetic. Les — de son teint, de son visage, the fairness of her complexion, of her face. 5 her. Fleur de —, fleur-de-lis, flower-de-luce. Fleur de — d'or, d'argent, gold, silver, flower-de-luce. 6 poetic. Les —, anc. (la France), the lilies (France). Siège, être assis sur les fleurs de —, to sit as a judge. 5 (marque) Fleur de —, flower-de-luce.

LISBONNE, lis-bon, sf. geog. Lisbon.

LISÈRE, le-zay-ray, sm. 4 piping. 2 (rale) border.

LISERON, liz-rong, LISERET, liz-ray, sm. bot. bind-weed, convolvulus.

LISNET, le-zay, sm. bot. bind-weed.

LISSETTE, le-zet, sf. Lizzie.

LISEUIT, le-zuhr, sm. fem. LISEUSE, reader. — de romans, novel reader.

LISEUSE, le-zuhr, sf. tech. reading-machine.

LISIBLE, le-zibl', adj. mf. legible. fig. Ce n'est pas —, that is not readable.

LISBLEMENT, le-ze-bluh-mang, adv. legibly.

LISIÈRE, le-ze-ayr, sf. (Lat. liciam) 1 list, selvage. 2 (by extension) (pour enfants) leading-strings. Mener un enfant à la —, to keep a child in leading-strings. fig. Nos erreurs sont nos —s, our errors are our leading-strings. Volt. L'avait mis les généraux à la —, L. had kept the generals in leading-strings. St. Sim. prov. fig. Il sera toujours à la —, he will always be led by the nose. 3 fig.

(d'une province, etc., of a province, etc.) border, extremity, skirt, verge, outskirts. La —, les —s d'un bois, d'une forêt, de la verge, the skirts of a wood, of a forest. Nec sur la — des bois, born on the skirts of a wood. Mich.

LISOIR, le-zoar, sm. tech. body-bolster, rider, transom-spring.

LISSAGE, le-sazh, sm. tech. (de la poudre, of gunpowder) glazing.

LISSE, lis, adj. mf. (Gr.) smooth, sleek, glossy. Canon —, smooth-bored barrel. Une étaille —, glossy stuff. Colonne —, plain column.

LISSE, sf. manual, warp. Fil à —s, head-thread. Tapissérie à haute, de haute —, haute —, high warp. Tapissérie à basse, de basse —, basse —, low warp. 2 aut. rail, ribbon. — de vilord, woist rail. — de plat-bord, upper channel wale. Se PRECÉTER.

LISSER, lis-say, ra. 1 to smooth, to gloss, to glaze. — la poudre, to glaze the powder. Machine à —, smoothing-machine. 2 weav. to sley.

LISSETTE, lis-sayt, sf. weav. lifting cords, cools.

LISSOIR, lis-sooir, sm. 4 smoothing-stone, polisher, burnisher, glazing barrel. 2 (endroit) smoothing room.

LISTE, list, sf. (It. lista) 1 list, roll. On a fermé la — des jurés, the jury has been impanelled. Dresser la — des morts et des blessés après une bataille, to make a return of the killed and wounded after a battle. 2 électorale, electoral list. 2 (des chasses, of things) list. Ce livre-là n'était pas dans ma — sur ma —, that book was not in my list. — civile, civil list.

LISTEL, lis-tel, sm. fillet, listel, list.

LISTON, lis-tong, sm. her. scroll.

LIT, lee, sm. (Lat. lectus) 1 bed. Dresser, tendre un —, to make up, to put up a bed. Le devant, les pieds, le chevet, la rueille du —, the front, feet, head, side of the bed. — nuptial, nuptial-bed. — de parade, bed of state, bed for ornament, for show. — de repos, couch, sofa. — de sangle, folding-bed. — de camp, camp, field-bed. — de veille, nurse's bed, pallet. Lis font — à part, they have separate beds. Ils ne font qu'un —, they sleep in the same bed. fam. Aller du — à la table et de la table au —, to go from bed to table, and from table to bed. Garder le —, ne pas quitter le —, to keep one's bed. — de la mort, au — de mort, sur son — de mort, to be on one's death-bed. A son — de mort, See mort. fig. — de misère, straw. fig. — de douleur, sick bed. 2 (le bois) bedstead. Un — de bois de noyer, d'acajou, a walnut, a mahogany bedstead. Monter, démonter un —, to put up, to take down a bedstead. Un — de fer, an iron bedstead. 3 (le tour du lit) bed-hungings. Un — de danois, d'indienne, damask, ebnis bed-hungings. 4 (les matelas) bed, bedding. Un bon —, a good bed. Un — bien ouï, one's bed. Faire le —, to make the bed, a bed. Défaire, découvrir, bassiner un —, to turn down a bed, the bed-clothes. prov. fig. Comme on fait son — on se couche, See coucher. 5 (by extension) Un — de gazon, de verdure, a turf, grassy bed, a bed of verdure. Fr. hist. — de justice, bed of justice, throne of justice; II (séance) bed of justice, sittings in parliament, court of judicature. Le roi tint ce jour-là son — de justice, the king that day held his bed of justice. 6 fig. (mariage) bed. Les enfants du premier —, du second —, the children of the first, of the second bed. 7 (by analogy) (d'une rivière, etc., of a river) bed, channel. 8 aut. Le — du vent, the wind's eye. — du courant, main stream. 9 tech. Le — d'un banc de pierre dans la carrière, d'une assise dans une construction de pierre, a bed of stone in a quarry, the bed of a course in a stone building. 10 fig. (couché) bed. Un — de famille, de terreiro, a bed of dung, mould.

LITANIES, le-tan-ee, sf. pl. (Gr.) 1 cath. lit. litanies. Dire les —s, to say the litanies. 2 fig. (sing.) endless story. Il nous a fait une longue litanie de ses plaintes, he gave us a long-winded story of his complaints.

LITEAU, le-to, sm. 1 strips 2 join. ledge, border 3 hant. (du loop, of wolves) lair.

LITEE, le-tay, sf. bunt. haunt, lair.

LITERIE, lit-ree, sf. bedding. Nagasim de —, bedding warehouse.

LITHARGE, le-lahrz, sf. (Gr.) chem. litharge.

LITHARGÈ, le-tahr-zhay, LITHARGÈRE, le-tahr-zhe-ray, adj. m. fem. —E, adulterated with litharge.

LITHIASIE, le-iyah-zee, sf. (Gr.) med. lithiasis.

LITHIUM, le-tyom, sm. chem. lithium.

LITHIUMCHROMIE, le-to-kro-mee, sf. (Gr.) lithochromy.

LITHIUMCHROMIQUE, adj. mf. (Gr.) lithochromical.

LITHOCOLLE, le-to-kol, sf. (Gr.) tech. lithocolle.

LITHOGRAPHIE, le-to-graf, sm. (Gr.) lithographer. Imprimeur —, lithographic printer.

LITHOGRAPHIQUE, le-to-graf-ee, sf. 4 lithography. 2 (épreuve) lithograph. 3 (by extension) (atelier) lithographic printing-office.

LITHOGRAPHIER, va. to lithograph.

LITHOGRAPHIQUE, adj. mf. lithographical, lithographic. Pierre —, lithographic stone.

LITHOLOGIE, le-to-lo-zee, sf. (Gr.) lithology.

LITHOLOGUE, sm. lithologist.

LITHOTRIPTIQUE, adj. mf. and sm. (Gr.) lithotriptic.

LITHOPHAGE, adj. mf. and sm. (Gr.) 1001 lithophagous.

LITHOPHYTE, le-to-fit, sm. (Gr.) min. lithophyte.

LITHOSPERME, le-to-spayrm, sm. (Gr.) bot. lithospermum, gromil.

LITHOTOME, le-to-tom, sm. (Gr.) surg. lithotome.

LITHOTOMIE, le-to-to-mee, sf. (Gr.) surg. lithotomy.

LITHOTOMISTE, le-to-to-mist, sm. (Gr.) surg. lithotomist.

LITHOTRIPTIE, le-to-tre-see, sf. (Gr.) surg. lithotripsy.

LITHOTRIPTIQUE, le-to-tre-tik, adj. mf. (Gr.) surg. lithotriptic.

LITHUANIE, le-tuah-nee, sf. geog. Lithuania.

LITHUANIEN, adj. and sm. fem. —NE, Lithuanian.

LITIÈRE, le-tyayr, sf. 4 litter. Faîtes bonne — à ces chevaux, let those horses have a good litter. Ce cheval est sur la litière, that horse is in the draw rack. prov. fig. Être sur la —, to be in one's bed. Faire — d'une chose, to be proud of a thing, to squander a thing away. 2 lhom. autic. (sorte de voiture) litter.

LITIGANT, le-te-gant, adj. m. fem. —E, (Lat. litigans) litigant.

LITIGE, le-tizh, sm. (Lat. litigium) 1 law. litigation, contest. 2 (dans le langage ordinaire) contestation.

LITIGIEUX, li-te-zhe-uh, adj. mf. fem. litigious, 4 litigious. Le point —, the disputable point. Etien. 2 (qui se plait dans les contestations) disputatious.

LITISPENDANCE, le-tis-pang-daw, sf. (from Lat. litis, pendere) acc. lawg. pecuniacy.

LITORNE, le-torn, sf. litorn.

LITOTE, le-toi, sf. (Gr.) rhet. litote.

LITRE, leetr, sm. (Gr.) litre (an unit of measures of capacity in the French metrical system, 1,76 pint.)

LITAC, sf. mourning hangings (round a church).

LITRON, le-trong, sm. litron (a measure of about 1,44 pint.)

LITTÉRAIRE, lit-tay-rayr, adj. mf. literary. Le monde —, the literary world.

LITTÉRAIREMENT, lit-tay-rayr-mang, adv. literarily.

LITTÉRAL, lit-tay-ral, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 literal. Traduction, version —E, literal translation, version. Cet homme est trop —, that man takes things too much in a literal sense. 2 fig. Grand-déers —es, algebraical magnitudes. 3 (de la langue grecque, arabe) literal.

LITTÉRALEMENT, lit-tay-ral-mang, adv. literarily. Traduire —, to translate literarily. — il ne savait où donner de la tête, he literally did not know where to lay his head. Balz. La crinière des chevaux balaye — le sable, the manes of the horses literally sweep the sand. Lamart.

LITTÉRALITÉ, lit-tay-ral-e-tay, sf. literalness.

LITTÉRATURE, lit-tay-rat-nbr, sm. literary man, pl. literary men, literati. Il est — jusqu'au bout des ongles, he is crery inch a writer. Th. Le Cl.

LITTÉRATURE, lit-tay-rat-ür, sf. 4 literature. Cours de —, course of literature. 2 (connaissance des règles, des matières littéraires) knowledge of literature. N'avoir pas de —, to have no knowledge of literature. 3 (d'une nation, etc.) literature. Les —s étrangères, foreign literature.

LITTORAL, lit-to-ral, adj. m. fem. —E, coast, sea-shore, littoral. Oiseaux littoraux, shore birds. Plantes —es, plants of the coast.

LITTORAL, sm. coast, sea-shore. Le — de la France, the coasts of France.

LITUELLE, sf. bot. pond-weed, shore-weed.

LITURGIE, le-tür-zhee, sf. (Gr.) liturgy.

LITURGIE, le-tür-zhik, adj. mf. liturgical.

LITURGISTE, le-tür-zheest, sm. liturgist.

LITUS, le-tüs-üs, sm. (Lat.) Rom. 20-tiq. lituus.

LUIRE, le-ür, sf. 1 rope, carl-rope. 2 —s. pl. naut. gammonings. Les —s du beaupré, the gammonings of the bowsprit.

LIVABLE, le-vad-ee, sf. geog. Livadia.

LIVARDE, le-ward, sf. naut. sprit. Voile à —, spritsail.

LIVÈCHE, le-vaysh, sf. bot. lorage.

LIVIDE, le-veed, adj. mf. (Lat. lividus) livid. La jalousie au teint pâle et —, pale and livid jealousy. Volt.

LIVIDITÉ, le-ve-de-tay, sf. lividness.

LIVIE, le-vee, sf. Livia.

LIVONIE, le-vo-nee, sf. geog. Livonia.

LIVONIEN, le-vo-nyang, adj. and sm. fem. —NE, Laponian.

LIVOIRNE, le-voorn, sf. geog. Leghorn.

LIVRAISON, le-vray-zong, sf. (from livrer) 4 com. delivery. Il a fait —, il a reçu — de tant de pièces d'étoffes, he has delivered, received so many pieces of stuff. Il avait promis de fournir tant de tonnes de vin; mais quand ce vint à la —, he had promised to supply so many barrels of wine, but when the moment of effecting the delivery came, 2 bookseller.

LIVRE, levr, sm. (Lat. libri) 1 book. — manuscrit, manuscript. — imprimé, printed book. — broché, relié, bien relié, bien battu, stitched, bound, well-bound, well-beaten book. — doré, marbré sur tranchée, gilt-edged, marble-edged book. Les feuilles, les feuillets, les pages, la couverture, la tranchée, le dos, le tranchée-üle, le signet, les coins d'un —, the leaves, pages, cover, edge, back, head-band, marker, corners of a book. — in-folio, a folio volume. — in-quarto, a quarto volume, a 4to. — in-octavo, an octavo, an 8vo. — in-douze, in-seize, in-trente-deux, etc., a duodecimo, 12mo, a decimo-sexto, 16mo, a thirty-two, 32mo. — en feuilles, book in sheets. — dépareillé, odd volume. Collationner un —, to collate a book. 2 (registre) book. — de compte, account-book. — de dépense, book of expenditure. — de recette, receipt-book. — de caisse, cash-book. — de cuisine, cookery-book. Il tient ses —s en partie double, he keeps his books by double entry. Un bon teneur de —, a good book-keeper. Être porté, être sur le —, d'un marchand, to be in a tradesman's books. — journal, journal, day-book. — de raison. — d'extrait, grand —, ledger, absolt. Le grand —, the grand-livre, the Great-Book of the Public Debt. — blanc blank book. Le — d'or, golden book, livre d'or, prov. fig. Être écrit sur le — rouge, être sur le — rouge, to be badly noted. 3 (d'un ouvrage d'esprit formant au moins un volume) book. Un — plein d'érudition, a book full of erudition. Le titre, l'index, la table d'un —, the title, index, table of a book. — d'assortiment, book belonging to a bookseller's miscellaneous stock. — de fonds, book of the bookseller's own publication. Commencer, achever un —, to begin, to finish a book. Mauvais —, bad book. —s élémentaire, elementary book. —s classiques, classical books. —s de bibliothèque, books for reference. —s d'église, religious books. — de prières, prayer-book. —s de dévotion, religious books. Parler comme un —, to speak like a book. —s sacrés, —s canoniques, sacred, canonical books. fig. Le —, le grand — de la nature, the book, the great book of Nature. Le — du monde, the book of the world. (in the theologie language) Être écrit dans le — de vie, to be written in the Book of Life. Cela était écrit dans le — du destin, that was written in the Book of Fate. Prov. N'avoir jamais mis le nez dans un —, to have never looked in a book. fig. Ouvrir un —, to devour les —s, to devour a book, books. fig. S'écher, plier sur les —s, to pore on books. prov. fig. J'y réussirai ou j'y brôlerai mes —s, I will succeed or know the reason why. 4 (partie d'un ouvrage) book. Les vingt quatre s de l'Iliade, the twenty-four books of the Iliad.

À LIVRE OUVERT, adv. loc. at sight Lire la musique à — ouvert, to read music at sight. Traduire on auteur à — ouvert, to translate an author at sight.

À L'OUVERTURE DU LIVRE, adv. loc. on opening the book.

LIVRE, sf. (Lat. libra) (poids) pound Une — de fer, de viande, a pound of iron, of meat. Une — et demie, a pound and a half. Vendre, acheter à la —, to sell, to buy by the pound. Une demi —, half a pound. Il porterait cent —s pesant, cent pesant, he could carry a hundred weight.

LIVRE, sf. (monnaie de compte) livre, pound. Avoir dix mille —s de rente, to have ten thousand francs a year. acc. Au sou, au marc la —, so many shillings in the pound. — sterling, pound sterling. prov. fig. Faire de cent sous quatre —s, et de quatre —s rien, to bring one's noble to miscepance.

LIVRE, ppa. of LIVRER, fem. —E, delivered, delivered up. Être — à soi-même, to be left to one's self, to be undirected.

LIVRÉE, le-vray, sf. 4 livery. Habit de —, livery coat. Laquais en grande, en petite —, lackey in full, in undress livery. Prendre, porter, quitter la —, to take, to wear, to throw aside the livery. Gens de —, lackeys. La — de la nuece, la — de la mariée, the wedding-favours. fig. La —, les —s de la misère, de la servitude, de la faveur, the livery of misery, servitude, favour. 2 (collective) livery men. Toute la — du prince accourut au bruit, all the livery men of the prince Assisted at the noise. 3 (collective.) (tous les laquais en général) livery-servants. La — se mutina, all the livery-servants mutinied.

LIVRE, le-vray, ra. (Lat. liberare) 1 to deliver, to give up (to). — de la marchandise to deliver goods. — une bataille, See BATAILLE. (aux dës, à dier) — chance, to throw a main. fig. — un manuscrit, un ouvrage à l'impression, to give a manuscript, a work to be printed. prov. fig. Tel rend qui ne livre pas, great promises are not always great performers. 2 fig. (des personnes, of persons) to deliver, to give up, to hand over, to deliver up, over. — un compable à la justice, aux mains, entre les mains de la justice, to deliver a culprit up into the hands of justice. fig. Je vous livre cet homme-là pieds et poings liés, I place that man completely at your disposal. Je vous livre cet homme-là marié, avant qu'il soit pen, I'll answer for it that man will shortly be married. Si vous avez besoin de lui dans telle affaire, je vous le livre, if you want him in any business, I place him at your disposal. 3 (par trahison) to betray to deliver over. — une ville, to surrender a town. Judas livra Notre-Seigneur aux Juifs, Judas betrayed Our Lord into the hands of the Jews. 4 (à exposer), to give up, over, to yield, to devote. — une ville au pillage, to give up a town to pillage. — les vœux au vent, to set sail. — au bras scélérat, to deliver over to the secular army || fig. to abandon. 5 hunt. — le cerf aux chiens, to start the stag, and lay on the dogs. 6 fig. — à, to betray, to give up to. — ses secrets à un imprudent, to trust one's secrets to an imprudent man. — son cœur aux passions, to give up one's heart to the passions.

SE LIVRER, vpr. 1 to give one's self up (to), to indulge (in), to apply one's self to give way (to), to devote one's self (to). Se — à la joie, à la douleur, to give one's self up to joy, to grief. Se — tout entier à un genre d'occupation, to devote one's self entirely to one kind of occupation. 2 Se — à quelque-une, to trust, to confide one's self to a person. absol. Quand Napoléon se livrait, il était entraîné, in his moments of abandon, was most captivated. C'est un homme qui ne se livre pas, he is a man very reserved. 3 (at several games) Je me suis livré, I have laid my game open.

LIVRET, le-vray, sm. 1 certificente book. 2 (des ouvriers, etc., of workmen, etc.) service book. 3 (à la caisse d'épargne) savings-bank book. 4 (des soldats, of soldiers) account book. 5 (d'ordres, order book, 5 arith. multiplication-table. 6 See LIBRETTO. 7 (catalogue de musée) catalogue.

LIXIVATION, lix-se-ve-ah-syong, sf. (Lat. chem. lixivation)

LIXIVILL, lix-se-ve-syl, adj. m. fem. — chem. lizial.

LIZIER. See PERIZ.

LL. AA. abbreviation of Leurs Altesces.

LL. MM. abbreviation of Leurs Majestés.

LOBE, lob, sm. (Gr.) 1 anat. lobe. — du cerveau, lobe of the brain. — de l'oreille, car-lap. 2 bot. lobe. — s séminal, — s, seminial lobes. 3 arch. cusp.

LOBE, lo-bay, adj. m. fem. — E, bot. lobate, lobated.

LOBELLE, lo-bar-lee, sf. bot. lobelia. — cardinale, cardinal-flower.

LOBULÉ, lo-bul, sm. anal. lobule.

LOCAL, lo-kal, adj. m. fem. — E, (Lat. localis) 1 local. Les gouvernements locaux, local governments. Thiers. Memoire — e, local memory. 2 point. Colleur — e, local colour. lit. (by extension) Colleur — e, appearance, look of reality.

LOCAL, sia. locality, place, room, premises.

LOCALISATION, lo-kal-e-zah-syong, sf. neol. localization.

LOCALISER, lo-kal-e-zay, ra. neol. to localize.

LOCALITÉ, lo-kal-e-tay, sf. 1 locality, place. 2 (lieux) locality. Connaitre les — s, to be acquainted with the localities.

LOCATAIRE, lo-kat-yrt, s. mf. (from Lat. locare) h'eer, leasee, lodger. Principal —, tenant. Sous- —, under-h'eer, under-lessee.

LOCATIF, lo-kat-if, adj. m. fem. locative. Réparations locatives, tenant's repairs. Vau or locative, telling value. Risque —, tenant's risk.

LOCATION, lo-kah-syong, sf. (Lat. hiring, letting, leasing, renting. Prix de —, letting price. Sous- —, under-lease. (théâtre) Bureau de —, box-office.

LOCATIS, lo-kal-ees, sm. fam. hack, hackney.

LOGI, lob, sm. (Eng.) naot. log. Ligne de —, log-line. Table de —, log-board. Livre de —, log-book. Journal de —, log-board. Jeter le —, to heave the log.

LOCHE, lo-sh, sf. ich. loach, loche.

LOCHEIR, lo-shay, rn. (d'un fer à cheval, of a horse-shoe) to be loose. J'en-tends un fer qui loche, See FER. Avoir toujours quelque fer qui loche, to have always a screw loose somewhere.

LOCHEIR, See LOCHEIR.

LOCHEES, lo-she, sf. pl. (Gr.) med. lochia.

LOCINAX. See LAMANEUR.

LOCOMOBILE, lo - ko - mo - beel, sf. locomobile.

Loc. mobile, adj. mf. locomobile. mach. Machine —, locomobile engine.

LOCOMOTEUR, lo-ko-mo-tuhr, adj. m. fem. locomotive, locomotive.

LOCOMOTIF, lo-ko-mo-tif, adj. m. fem. locomotive, locomotive. Force locomotive, locomotive power. Machine locomotive, —, locomotive engine.

LOCOMOTION, lo-ko-mo-syong, sf. (Lat.) locomotion. J'avais le goût de l'indépendance et de la —, I had an independent and roving disposition. G. Sand.

LOCOMOTIVE, lo-ko-mo-tiv, sf. railw. locomotive.

LOCU LAIRE, lok-ü-layr, adj. mf. bot. locular.

LOCULEUX, lok-ü-lub, adj. m. fem. loculeuse, loculous.

LOCUSTE, lo-küst, sf. 4 antiq. Locust. 2 bot. locust.

LOCUTION, lo-üg-syong, sf. (Lat.) expression, manner of speaking, mode of speech, term. Gredier sur la tête française quelques — s grecques, to graft some Greek terms upon the French stock. P. B. Chas.

LOCUTOIRE, lok-ü-tooir, sm. locutory (in which monks were allowed to converse).

LODS, löz, sm. pl. feud. law. — et ventes, lord's due.

LOF, lof, sm. (Eng.) naot. loof, luff, weather-side. Aller, venir au —, teur le —, to luff. Virer — pour —, to tack, to keep in the weather-gage. — au — luff, loy, luff? — pour — l tack about — tout? luff all!

LOIEN, loi-fay, rn. naot. to luff.

LOGARITHME, log-ar-tiu, sm. (Gr.) math. logarithm. Table de — s, table of logarithms.

LOGARITHMIQUE, lo-gar-it-mik, adj. mf. math. logarithmic, logarithmical.

LOGARITHME, sf. logarithmic, logarithmic curve.

LOGE, lozh, sf. (It. loggia) 1 cell. Cet hermite s'est fait une petite —, that hermit has made himself a little cell. 2 (d'un concubine lodge. 3 (galerie, portique en avant-corps, gallery. 4 (dans les foires) booth. 5 (dans les salles de spectacle) box. — s grillées, cloze boxes — s de l'avant-scène, boxes in front of the stage. Ouvreuse de —, box opener.

Premières, secondes, troisièmes — s, first, second, third tier of boxes. — s décon-vertes, open boxes. Avoir une — à un spectacle, to have a box at a theatre. Con-pon de —, box-ticket. Jour de —, box-night. prov. fig. Être aux premières — s, to have a capital place. 6 — s, pl. (by extension) (les spectateurs) boxes. Et les — s d'applaudir, and the boxes began to applaud. 7 (des acteurs, of actors) dressing-room. 8 fig. (assemblée de francs-maçons) lodge. 9 (pour les fous) cell. 10 (dans les mémoires) den. (by extension) La — d'un chien, the kennel of a dog. 11 (dans un buffet d'orgues) lodge. 12 bot. locumment.

LOGÉ, vpr. of LOGER, fem. — E, Être —, to be lodged. Être — fort commodément, to have very commodious lodgings. Être — crampé for lodging. fig. Il en est — là, he has come to that. Nous en sommes — s là, that is what we have come to. ironic. Nous voilà bien — s! we are in a pretty mess!

LOGEABLE, lo-zhabl, adj. mf. inhabitable, inannable.

LOGEMENT, lozh-nang, sm. 1 lodging. Je voudrais bien trouver un — pour la nuit, I should like to find a lodging for the night. Où est son —? where are his lodgings? Avoir son — au rez-de-chaussée, to live on the ground-floor. Le — d'un concierger, d'un jardinier, a portier, a gardien lodge. — garni, furnished lodgings. Il y a beaucoup de — dans cette maison, there is a great deal of room in that house. 2 (pour le roi et pour les personnes de sa suite) lodgings. Faire les — s de la cour, to prepare lodgings for the court. 3 (des soldats qui sont en marche) quartering, quarters. Billet de —, billet. 4 war. Les assiégés ont fait on — sur la contrescarpe, sur la demi-lune, etc., the besiegers have made a lodgment on the counterscarp, on the half-moon, etc.

LOGER, lozh-ay, ra. 1 to lodge, to dwell. Voilà la maison où il loge, that is the house he lodges in. — chez soi, chez un de ses amis, en hôtel garni, en garni, to live at home, to lodge with a friend, to be in a lodging-house. prov. fig. — à la belle étoile, to sleep in the open air. 2 fig. (morally) sent. duell. Toutes les passions, sensuelles logent dans ces corps éphémères, every sensual passion has taken up its abode in those effeminate bodies. J.-A. Rousse.

LOGER, ra. 1 to lodge. On l'a bien logé, they have given him good lodgings. Il y a de quoi — tout le régiment, there is room enough for a whole regiment. fig. Il lui logea une balle dans la tête, he sent a bullet through his head. prov. fig. — le diable dans sa bourse, to have an empty purse. 2 fig. (morally) to lodge, to harbour.

SE LOGER, vpr. 1 to lodge, to take lodgings. Il s'est logé dans un hôtel garni, he has gone into a lodging-house. fig. surg. La balle s'est logée dans telle partie, the bullet has fixed itself in such a part. 2 (disposer, arranger, decreter un appartement) to lodge one's self. Il vient de dépenser beaucoup d'argent pour se —, he has just spent a great deal of money for his lodgings. Il s'est logé fort bien, very commodiously, he has made himself a very comfortable lodging. 3 (se bâtir une maison) to lodge one's self. Il s'est logé très-agréablement à la campagne, he has made himself very agreeable lodgings in the country. 4 war. Se — sur la contrescarpe, sur la demi-lune, to make a lodgment upon the counterscarp, upon the half-moon.

LOGETTE, lo-zhet, sf. little lodge, little cell.

LOGEUR, lo-zhur, sm. fem. LOGEUSE lodging-house keeper.

LOGICIE, log-zhe-syang, sm. fem.

— NE, 1 logician. 2 (élève de la classe de logique) student of logic

LOGIQUE, lo-zhik, sf. (Gr.) 1 (science) logic. L'édifice de la —, the fabric of logic. Barth. 2 (traité) logic. 3 (sens droit) logic. Il manque de —, he wants logic. 4 (raisonnement) logic. fig. La — du cœur, des passions, the logic of the heart, of the passions. 5 acc. (dans les collèges) logic classes.

LOGIQUE, adj. mf. logical, logic. Votre raisonnement n'est pas —, your argument wants logic.

LOGIQUEMENT, lo-zhik-màng, adv. logically.

LOGIS, lo-zhee, sm. (from loger) 1 habitation, house, dwelling. Le maître de —, les valets, tout dormant, the master of the house, the servants, all were asleep. La Font. L'animal chassé du paternel —, the animal driven from the paternal home. La Font. Un — où lui-même il n'entrât qu'en rampant, an abode that he himself could only get into by creeping. La Font. Corps de —, main building; || detached building. fig. Il n'y a plus personne au —, his senses are quite gone. La folle du —, imagination, fancy. 2 (la maison de celui qui parle, hom.) On m'attend au —, they are waiting for me at home. 3 (hôtellerie) inn, lodging. Bon — à pied et à cheval, entertainment for man and beast. 4 war. Marechal des —, quarter-master; || (at court) marshal, harbinger. prov. fig. Il va, il est allé marquer les —, he is going, he is gone to kingdom come.

LOGOGRIFFE, lo-go-grif, sm. (Gr.) logorhynch.

LOGOMACHIE, lo-go-mash-ee, sf. (Gr.) logomachy.

LOI, loô, sf. (Lat. lex) 1 law. Citer allégué, interpréter une —, to cite, to allege, to interpret a law. Le préambule, le texte d'une —, the preamble, the text of a law. Cela a passé en —, a force de —, that has become a law. La — divine, the divine law. bi. La — ancienne, absol. la —, the old law. Les docteurs de la —, See DOCTEUR. Voilà la — et les prophètes, this is the law and the prophets. Les — humaines, human laws. La — des nations, the law of nations; national, international law. Les — de la guerre, the laws of war, law of arms. — constitutionnelle, constitutional law. La — de l'État, la —, the law of the State, the law. Notre — l'est connue, tu sais ce qu'elle prescrit, you know the law, you know what it bids you do. Flor. — politiques, political laws. — organiques, organic laws. — civiles, — criminelles, civil, criminal laws. — pénale, — fiscale, penal, fiscal laws. — bursale, money edict. — somptuaire, sumptuary law. — martiale, martial law. La — du talion, les talions, the law of retaliation. Homme de —, lawyer. N'avoir ni loi, ni —, to have neither honour nor honesty. fig. Faire —, to be law. Se faire une — de quelque chose, to make a law of a thing, to make a point of a thing. Faire, donner, dicter, imposer la —, to give laws, to give the law. prov. Nécessité a point de —, necessity has no law. prov. fig. Ce que je vous dis, c'est la — et les prophètes, what I tell you is as true as Gospel. 2 (in a wider sense) law. Tous les êtres ont leurs —, all created beings have their laws. Montesq. L'homme comme être physique est gouverné par des — invariables, man, as a physical being, is governed by invariable laws. Montesq. La mer a ses limites et des —, the sea has its limits and its laws. Buff. Les — de l'attraction, du mouvement, de la pesanteur, etc., the laws of attraction, of motion, of gravity. 3 (morality) law. Les — de la nature, la — naturelle, the laws of nature, natural law. Telle est la — sacrée de la nature, such is the sacred law of nature. J.-J. Rousseau. 4 (by extension) (règle) law, rule. Il pouvait avoir manque aux — de la politique, mais non à celles de l'humanité, he might have infringed the laws of policy, but not those of humanity. Volt. La — de l'histoire ne nous a permis de rien dégoûter, etc., the laws of history have not allowed us to disguise any thing, etc.

LOI, Les — de la grammaire, de la syntaxe, the laws, the rules of grammar, of orthography. 4 fig. (puissance) law, power, authority, dominion, sway. Il rangea toute l'Asie sous sa —, he brought all Asia under his dominion. La — du vainqueur, la — du plus fort, the law of the stronger. Sous votre — que la France prospère, may France flourish under your sway. C. Del. Sabir, recevoir la — de quelqu'un, to receive the law from a person. Il fallait fléchir sous la — qu'imposait le roi de Suède, it was necessary to submit to the domination of the king of Sweden. Volt. (by analogy) La — de la nécessité est toujours la première, the law of necessity is always the first. Volt.

LOI, sf. mint. standard. LOIN, loo-ang, adv. 1 far, a great way off, at a distance, distant, far off. Devenir —, to live a great way off. Pierre ne peut alors pousser plus — ses conquêtes, Peter can then carry his conquests no farther. Volt. On est obligé d'aller fort — pour trouver, one is obliged to go very far to find. Ce qui fait que nous ne pensons pas toujours les mêmes choses, c'est que nous sommes —, hélas! nous sommes très —, the reason why we do not always think alike, is that we are far apart, alas! very far apart. Mme de Sév.

fig. Arrêtez-vous à cette idée, n'allez pas plus —, stop at that idea, do not go any farther. Sa pensée n'osa pas aller plus —, her thought dared not go any further. Mme de Sév. Sa prévoyance allait aussi — que la vôtre, his foresight went as far as yours. La Font. La rigueur se pousse toujours trop —, rigour is always carried too far. J.-J. Rousseau. S. voyait — dans l'avenir, S. had a deep insight into futurity. Rejetez une chose bien —, utterly to reject a thing. Cette passion vous mènera plus — que vous ne pensez, this passion will lead you farther than you think. Ou ne peut aller — dans l'amitié, si l'un n'est pas disposé à se pardonner les uns aux autres les petits défauts, friendship cannot be carried far if there be not a mutual disposition to forgive each other's failings. La Bruy. Aller —, to go far, to make one's way. Cet emploi peut le mener —, that employment may be the making of him. Avec la dépense qu'il fait, cet homme n'ira pas —, with his expensive habits this man will not hold out long. Il est malade, il n'ira pas —, he is ill, he cannot live long. Ne pas voir plus — que le bout de son nez, not to see beyond one's nose. (threat) Il ne le portera pas —, I will soon be even with him; he shall not come off so. prov. Pas à pas ou va —, fair and softly goes far. 2 du temps, of time) long, a long time, a great while. Trop —, too long.

DE LOIN, adv. loc. 1 from afar, from far, after a long way off. Parler de —, to speak from a distance. Voir de —, to see a great way off. Vous avez tiré de lièvre de trop —, you took too long a shot at that hare. De — c'est quelque chose, et de près c'est rien, when seen at a distance you think it is something, and when near it is nothing. La Font. Je vois de —, j'atteins de même, my eye reaches far, and my arm likewise. La Font.

fig. Il n'y a rien de terrible et de charmant que de —, there is nothing either terrible or charming but at a distance. Buff. Voir venir quelqu'un de —, to see what a person is aiming at. Revenir de —, de bien —, to escape great danger, to have a narrow escape. Je ne veux être mêlé ni de près ni de — à cette affaire, I will not be mixed up, in any way whatever, in that affair. Boss. Nous sommes parents, mais de —, we are relations but far removed.

2 (du temps, of time) far back, a great while ago.

DE PLUS LOIN, D'AUSSI LOIN QUE, conj. 1 as soon as. Du plus — qu'il nous aperçut, il, as soon as he perceived us, he. D'aussi — qu'il me vit, il, when he saw me afar off, he. 2 (du temps, of time) as far back, as well as, as much as. Du plus — que je me souvienne, qu'il m'en souvienne, as well as I can remember. C'est du plus — qu'il se souvienne, it is as far back as I can remember; it is as much as I can do to remember.

AD LOIS, adv. loc. afar off, a great way off, at a distance. Voyager au —, to travel in remote countries.

AD PLUS LOIN, adv. loc. at the greatest distance.

LOIN À LOIN, DE LOIN À LOIN, DE LOIN EN LOIN, adv. loc. 1 at long, great, distant intervals. Des galeries souterraines qu'éclairaient de — à — des lampes suspendues, subterranean galleries which were lighted by lamps suspended at long distances from each other. Chate. Planter des arbres de — en —, to plant trees at great intervals. On ne voyait de maisons que de — en —, houses were to be seen only at great intervals. 2 (du temps, of time) at distant, at long intervals.

LOIN DE, prep. 1 far from. Leur rencontre se fit loin — de l'élément que, their meeting took place very far from the element which. La Font. Surpris — de la côte et sans alibi, surprised far from the coast, and without a shelter. Mich. J'irai cacher — de vous l'éternel regret, I will go far from you and hide my eternal sorrow. Nod. Non — de notre habitation, se trouvait, not far from our habitation was. Jamais l'horodelle ne s'établit — de l'homme, the swallow never fixes its dwelling far from man. Buff. — d'ici, misérables, away! wretches. fig. Il y a souvent très — de mal: que l'on dit d'un ouvrage à celui qu'on en pense, the harm one says of a work is often very far from that which one thinks of it. Beaum. — de nous la coquille envie de, etc., far from us be the guilty wish to, etc. Champf. (elliptic.) — ces rimeurs craignent l'esprit dogmatique, away with those timid rhymers whose phlegmatic mind. Boil. Être — de son compte, to be out of one's reckoning. Être —, bien — de faire une chose, to be far, very far from doing a thing. Je sais bien — de m'enorgueillir du succès, I am very far from priding myself on success. Volt. 2 (du temps, of time) far from. Nous sommes encore — de l'hiver, we are still far from winter.

LOIN QUE, conj. far from, so far from. — que vous saisissez ces exemples, far from following those examples. La Font. — que ma fille pleure et tremble pour sa vie, so far from my daughter weeping and trembling for her life. Rac.

LOINTAIN, loo-ang-tang, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 distant, far distant, remote. 2 (substantif) distance. Apercevoir dans le —, to perceive in the distance. 3 (substantif) point. Le — d'un tableau, the back-ground of a picture. (by analogy) (point de vue) distance.

LOIN, loodr, sm. zool. dormouse.

LOISIBLE, lood-zib, adj. mf. otiose. lawfully, allowable, allowed.

LOISIR, lood-zier, sm. 1 leisure, spare time, leisure moments, leisure time. La musique charnait quelquefois ses — musicales sometimes beguiled his leisure moments. Barth. C'est moi manque le plus dans ma retraite, c'est le —, what I have the least of in my retreat is leisure time. Volt. Vous ferez cela aux heures de votre —, à votre —, you will do that in your odd moments. Une paix qui laissait du — au gouvernement, a peace which gave breathing time to the government. Volt. Si vous êtes de —, if you are free. Ab. 2 (temps pour faire quelque chose commodément) time. Je vous supplie de me donner le — de vous répondre, I beg you will give me time to answer you. M^{me} de Sév. Je n'ai pas eu le — de devenir savant, I have not had time to become learned. Nod. Cet ouvrage demande du —, that work requires time.

À LOISIR, adv. loc. leisurely, at leisure. Je mange tout à —, I eat quite leisurely. La Font. Tu pourras me répondre après tout à —, you can take your own time to answer me afterwards. Cora. Achevez le reste à —, take your own time to finish the rest. M^{me} de Sév. Si le poids s'élevait, alors pas à — N. examinait l'affaire, when the weight was light, M. examined the thing more minutely. Flor. A mon —, à votre —, à son —, at my, your, his leisure. Il s'en repentira à —, he will repent it at leisure.

LOK, lok, sm. med. See LOOCN.

LOMBARD, long-bayr, adj. mf. anat. lumbar, lumbar, lumbo.

LOMBARD, long-bar, sm. 1 geog. Lombard. 2 obsol. pawnbroker's shop.

LOMBARDIE, long-bar-dee, sf. geog. Lombardy.

LOMBES, longb, sm. pl. anat. lumbar region.

LONDRES, longdr', sm. London.

LONDRES, long-drays, sm. (cigare) Londres.

LONDRIX, long-drang, sm. London-cloth.

LONG, long, adj. m. fem. LONGUE, (Lat. longus) 4 (par opposition à court) long. Un bâton — de tant de pieds, a stick so many feet long. Habit —, priest's gown. Lunette de longue vue, longue vue, spy-glass, telescope. (elliptic.) Prendre le plus —, son plus —, to take the longest way; || fig. to go the longest way to work. fig. Il a les bras —s, les mains longues, he has great influence. 2 (par opposition à large) long. Un champ — et étroit, a long narrow field. 3 (qui dure plus ou moins longtemps) long. La journée ne lui paraît jamais assez longue pour, the day never appears to her long enough for. J.-J. Rouss. Les —s éclats de rire, prolonged shouts of laughter. J.-J. Rouss. Une longue vie passée sans reproche, a long and blameless life. J.-J. Rouss. Maigre de si —s repentirs, notwithstanding such lengthened repentance. J.-J. Rouss. La période est longue, il faut reprendre haleine, the period is a long one, one must take breath. La Font. Une longue et profonde paix, a long and profound peace. Boss. Quittez le — espoir, abandon the distant hope. La Font. Des raisons trop longues à déduire, reasons too long to be stated. Barth. (elliptic.) Il ne la fera pas longue, he will not make odd bones, he is upon his last legs. On la tient longue dans une note de province, they keep it long in a country wedding. Hamil. Sylbe longue, voyelle longue, long syllable, vowel. 4 (of fit works) long. Un poème, a long poem. Cet ouvrage est — et abstrus, that work is long and abstruse. Volt. 5 (lent, tardif) long, slow. Il est — à tout ce qu'il fait, he is slow in whatever he does. Ces arbres sont —s à croître, those trees are of slow growth, of long growing. 6 sm. (longueur) Ces rideaux ont deux aunes de —, those curtains are two ells long. Une plume qui a vingt pieds de —, a plank which is twenty feet long. Scieur de —, sawyer. 7 (adverb.) Il nous en a dit —, bien —, he told us all about it. 8 Loaque, sf. (syllabe) long syllable.

LONG-JOÛTE, adj. m. fem. —E, man, long-joined.

DE LONG, EN LONG, adv. loc. lengthwise. Mettre du bois de — en —, to place wood lengthwise. Fendre en —, to split lengthwise. fam. Tirer de —, to scamper away. La colombe l'entend, part et tire de —, the dove hears him, rises, and flies off. La Font. || fig. Tirer de —, to put off. En — et en large, de — en large, backwards and forwards, up and down.

AU LONG, TOUT AU LONG, adv. loc. at length, at great length, at large.

DE LONGUE MAIN, adv. loc. of long standing, a long while ago.

LE LONG, TOUT LE LONG, TOUT DU LONG, AU LONG DE, prep. 1 along, all along. Le — des côtes la nature a creusé des baies, along the coasts, nature has hollowed out bays. Barth. Le — de ton échine, je monterai premièrement, I will first climb up along your back. La Font. Nous vîmes le — du chemin quantité de tombaurs, we saw along the road a great number of tombs. Barth. Je ne veux pas qu'elle conduise ses troupeaux le — des haies, I will not have her lead her flock along side the hedges. Nod. 2 (pendant toute la durée de) quand on a travaillé tout le — la semaine, when one has worked during the whole week.

EN LONGUE, adv. loc. in time, in the long run.

LONGANIMITÉ, long-gan-e-me-tay, sf. (Lat. longus, animus) 1 longanimity, forbearance, long-suffering. La — de Dieu envers les pécheurs, God's forbearance with sinners. 2 (patience) fortitude.

LONGE, longzh, sf. (from long) 1 colin. loin. 2 (particul.) — de veau, loin of veal. 3 man. tether. La — d'un cheval, a horse's tether. fig. Marcher sur sa —, dans sa —, to entangle one's self in one's measures, in one's discourses. 4 (particul.) Truiter un cheval à la —, to lead a horse with a thong.

LONGER, long-zhay, va. (from long) 1 to go along. Il s'avancé lentement longeant les arbres qui bordaient le chemin, he advanced slowly along the trees which skirted the road. Mérim. naut. — one côte, to coast along. 2 (des choses, of things) to run along, to skirt. Il s'éloigna en descendant le sentier qui longeait le mur du parc, he went away down the path that ran along the park-wall. Mérim.

LONGEVITÉ, long-zhay -ve-tay, sf. (Lat.) longevity. Tables de —, tables of longevity.

LONGIMÉTRIE, long-zhe-may-tree, sf. geom. longimetry.

LONGIN, long-zhang, LONGIS, long-zhee, sm. fam. lacybones.

LONGIPEUES, long-zhe-payd, sm. pl. orn. longipeds.

LONGIPENNES, long-zhe-payn, sm. pl. orn. longipennate.

LONGIROSTRES, long-zhe-rostr', sm. pl. longirostra.

LONGITUDE, long-zhe-tüd, sf. (Lat.) 1 geom. longitude. 2 astr. longitude.

LONGITUDINAL, long-zhe-lü-de-nal, adj. m. fem. —E, longitudinal.

LONGITUDINALMENT, long-zhe-lü-de-nal-mang, adv. longitudinality.

LONGTEMPS, long-tang, adv. long, a long time, a long, a great while. On ne trompe guère — le monde, the world is seldom deceived long. M^{me} de Sév. — après que nos amis se furent endormis, a long time after our friends had been asleep. Flor. Depuis —, long, long since, long ago, for a long time. Pendant —, for a long time. Pour —, for a long time. Nous nous connaissons dès —, we have known each other for a long time. Il y a — que je le connais, I have long known him.

LONGUEMENT, long-goh-mang, adv. long, a long time, at length. Vivre —, to live long.

LONGUET, long-gay, adj. m. fem. —TE, longish, rather long.

LONGUEUR, long-gohr, sf. (from long) 1 length. La — d'un bâton, d'une route, the length of a stick, of a road. Epée de —, long sword. 2 (par opposition à largeur) length. 3 (du temps, of time) length. Il souffre fort patiemment la — de mes conversations, he very patiently endures the length of my conversations. M^{me} de Sév. La — de telles journées dépasse infiniment la mesure de, such long days' work infinitely exceeds the measure of. Mich. 4 (des ouvrages d'esprit, of lit. works) Cet ouvrage est délicieux en quelques endroits, mais d'une — assommante, this work is delightful in some parts, but of a most wearisome prolixity. M^{me} de Sév. 5 (ce qui est superflu) tedious passages. Il y a bien des — dans cet ouvrage, there are many tedious passages in that work. Au chant du rossignol, il trouve des —, he finds the song of the nightingale rather monotonous. Flor. 6 (lenteur) slowness, delay. Encore leur ministère a-t-il mille —, and even their agency is subject to a thousand delays. La Font. On nous gruge, on nous ruine par des —, we are eaten up, ruined by delays. La Font. Il ne finit rien, quelle —! he finishes nothing, how slow he is!

EN LONGUEUR, adv. loc. 1 lengthwise. Scier, fendre, mesurer en —, to saw, to split, to measure lengthwise. 2 (du temps, of time) to a great length. Le siège traînait en —, the siege went on very slowly. Barth. Tirer les choses en —, to spin out, to prolong things.

LOGH, lok, sm. (Ar.) med. loch.

LOPIN, lo-pang, sm. 1 (d'une chose qui se mange) bit, morsel. Nun — me suffit, felices vobis propter doctore, this piece is enough for me, you may have what remains. La Font. 2 (by extension) (d'une chose quelconque) share.

LOQUACE, lo-koo-ass, adj. mf. (Lat. loquax) loquacious, talkative.

LOQUACITÉ, lo-koo-as-se-tay, sf. (Lat.) loquacity, talkativeness.

LOUE, lok, sf. rag, latter. Un habit qui s'en va en —, qui est en —s, qui tombe en —s, a coat that is in rags, that is falling to rags.

LOQUELE, lo-ku-ayl, sf. fam. gift of the gab. Avoir de la —, to have the gift of the gab.

LOQUET, lo-ky, sm. (Eng.) latch. La porte ne fermait qu'au —, the door was only on the latch. J. Jan. Hausser, lever le —, to raise, to lift the latch.

LOUETTEAU, lek-to, sm. small latch.

LOUETTE, lo-kyal, sf. dimin. small piece, bit.

LORD, lor, sm. (Eng.) lord. La Chambre des —s, the House of Lords.

LORGNER, lor-nyay, va. 1 to cast a glance at, to ogle, to eye, to have an eye to. fig. — une femme, to ogle a woman. fig. — une charge, one place, etc., to have an eye to a post, a place, etc. 2 (regarder avec une lorgnette) to gaze.

LORNERIE, lor-nyun-ree, sf. (little used) glancing, ogling, quizzing. Hamil.

LORNETTE, lor-nyay, sf. glass, opera-glass.

LORNGEUR, lor-nyahr, sm. fem. LORNGEUSE, ogler.

LORNGON, lor-nyong, sm. eye-glass, quizzing-glass.

LORIOT, lo-ro-yo, sm. 1 orn. loriot, golden oriole. 2 fam. See COMPER.

LORS, lor, adv. absol. then. Le sultan dormait — le sultan was then asleep. La Font. Pour —, then. Je voulais aller la rejoindre, mais pour — je n'avais pas d'argent, I wanted to go and meet her again, but I had no money at the time, at that time. Des —, from that time, ever since then, thenceforth; || then, therefore.

LORS ET, prep. at the time of. — de son arrestation, ses accusateurs ne manquaient pas de, at the time of his arrestation, his accusers did not fail to Saint.

LORSQUE, lors-koh, conj. when. — vous le verrez, when you see him. Lors-qu'un homme vient vous dire que, when a man comes and tells you that. Lorsqu'il partira, vous, when he starts, you. (sometimes Ions is separated from que) Lors même qu'il vous donnerait sa parole, ne le crovez pas, even though he should give you his word, do not believe him.

LOS, lōss, sm. (Lat. laus) obsol. praise. LOSANGE, lo-zangh, sm. losange. Diamant taillé en —, diamond cut in the form of a losange.

LOT, lo, sm. 1 lot, portion, share. Faire des —s, to make into lots. Ils assignèrent à la tribu de Juda le premier et le plus grand —, they bestowed upon the tribe of Judah the first and largest lot. Boss. 2 (dans une loterie) prize. Gagner le gros —, to win the first, the highest prize. 3 fig. (destinée) lot, fate. Son — le plus glorieux est-il un fruit de la terre, 'is lot even when most happy is not of this world. Saint. 4 partie de marchandise, lot, parcel. Un — de livres, a lot of books.

LOTTERIE, lot-roé, sf. 1 lottery, raffie. Faire une —, to raffie, to make a raffie. Mettre un tableau en —, to raffie for a picture. Mettre à une —, to put in a lottery, to buy a ticket in a lottery. fig. C'est une —, it is all a chance. prov. fig. Ce monde est une —, this world is all a lottery. 2 (particul.) (sorte de banque) lottery. Bureau de —, lottery-office. — étrangère, foreign lottery. Mettre à la —, to put in the lottery. fig. C'est un terme à la —, it is a mere good chance.

LOTI, lo-té, ppa. of totia, fem. —E, shared. (by extension) Bien —, favoured. ironic. Le voilà bien —! he has made a fine choice of it!

LOTIER, lo-tyaz, sm. bot. sweet trefoil, bird's-foot-trefoil.

LOTION, lo-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 chem. washing. 2 phrm. lotion. 3 med. lotion, wash. 4 med. (liqueur) lotion. 5 (ablution) ablution.

LOTIIR, lo-teer, va. (from lot) 1 to lot, to portion. — one succession, les effets d'une succession, to lot a succession, the goods of a succession. 2 (d'une chose que l'on partage) to lot, to share, to portion. Les libraires qui ont acheté cette bibliothèque vont la — entre eux, the booksellers who have bought that library are going to lot it among themselves.

LOISSAGE, lo-te-sazh, sm. averaging, assaying.

LOTISSEMENT, lo-tis-mang, sm. lotting.

LOTO, lo-to, sm. 1 loto. Jouer un —, to play at loto. 2 (les objets dont on se sert pour jouer) loto. Acheter un —, to buy a loto.

LOTTE, lot, sf. ich. lote, eel-pout.

LOTUS, lo-tūs, LOTOS, lo-toss, sm. (Gr.) bot. lotus, lotos.

LOUABLE, loo-abl', adj. mf. 1 praise-worthy, laudable, commendable. Ces dispositions —, those laudable sentiments. J.-J. Rousseau. L'utile et la — pratique de perdre en frais de nores, etc., the useful and laudable practice of losing in wedding-expenses, etc. La Bruy. Les plos —s sont ceux qui ont le courage de, the most praiseworthy are those who have the courage to. Fen. (when speaking of persons, is employed with the prep. de) Il est — de s'être conduit ainsi, he is to be praised for his conduct 2 med. good. 3 titre d'honneur) honourable. Les —s cantons de Berne, de Zurich, etc., the honourable cantons of B., Z., etc.

LOUABLEMENT, loo-ab-blah-mang, adv. praise-worthily, laudably, commendably.

LOUAGE, loo-azh, sm. letting out, hire. Un cheval, une voiture de —, a hired horse, carriage. Donner, prendre, louer à —, to let, to let out, to hire, to rent. Il paye tant pour le —, tant de —, he pays so much for the hire. Domestique de —, hired servant.

LOUTAGE, loo-angzh, sf. (from louer) praise, eulogy, commendation. Un homme amoureux de —s, a man greedy of praise. Fen. Mes critiques et même mes —s paraîtront également suspects, my censure and even my praise will both appear suspect. Volt. Il était habile pour assaisonner une — delicate, he was skilful in the seasoning of delicate praise. Fen. On ne tarissait point sur vos —s, your praise was far ever in their mouths. Barth. Cela tourne à sa —, that speaks in his favour. De perdre entre soi du tout le gré de sa —, to lose besides his due all thanks for his praise. La Font. On peut dire à sa — que, it may be said to his praise that. Il était au-dessus des —s, he was above, beyond all praise. M^{me} de Sév. — à Dieu, God he praised. fig. Chanter les —s de quelqu'un, to sing the praises of a person.

LOUTANGER, loo-ang-zhay, va. (in joke) to praise, to commend, to bepraise.

LOUTAGEUR, loo-ang-zhubr, sm. fem. LOUTAGEUSE, 4 praiser, panegyrist. 2 (adjective) laudatory. Je deviens beaucoup plus difficile et moins —, I become harder to please, and less given to praise. De Bross. Discours —, laudatory discourse.

LOUCHE, loosh, adj. mf. (Lat. luscus) 1 squint-eyed, cross-eyed. Il est —, he is squint-eyed. 2 (des yeux, du regard, of the eyes, the look) squinting. Avoir les yeux —s, le regard —, to squint, to be squint-eyed, to have a cast in the eye. fig. L'Envie à l'œil —, squint-eyed Envy. 3 fig. (qui n'est pas clair) muddy, thick. Ce vin est —, this wine is thick. Des perles qui ont un œil —, pearls which have a dim cast. — (morally) ambiguous, equivocal, suspicious. Cette phrase, cette expression est —, that phrase, that expression is ambiguous. Cette action est —, that action is a suspicious one. (substantiv. masc.) Cela jette du — dans la phrase, that renders the phrase ambiguous. Il y a du — dans cette affaire, dans la conduite de cet homme, there is something suspicious in that affair, in that man's conduct.

LOUCHER, loo-shay, va. to squint, to be squint-eyed, to have a cast in the eye.

LOUCHET, loo-shay, sm. agri. mallock.

LOUÉ, ppa. of LOUER, fem. —E, let, hired. Logé — à l'année, baz hired, let by the year.

LOUÉ, ppa. of LOUER, fem. —s, praised. Dieu soit —! God be praised!

LOUER, loo-ay, va. 1 (donner à louage) to let, to let out. Maison, chambre à —, house, room to be let. — des chevaux, des voitures, to let out horses, carriages. Ils étient recherchés dans l'armée russe auxquels ils louaient leur services, they were appreciated in the Russian army to whom they let out their services. Mérim. 2 (prendre à louage) to hire, to take on hire, to rent. — un cabriolet, un cheval, to hire a cab, a horse. Qu'il je vous loue pour une promenade dans la montagne et, etc., what! I take you for a guide in a ramble in the mountains, and, etc. Ab.

SE LOUER, vpr. 1 (se donner à louage) to hire one's self out. 2 (des choses, of things) to be let, hired.

LOUER, va. (donner des louanges) to praise, to laud, to commend. Et louant Dieu de toute chose G. retourne à la maison. G. returned home praising God for every thing La Font. On ne peut trop — trois sortes de personnes, three sorts of persons cannot be too highly praised. La Font. Il faudrait — cet ouvrage depuis un boot jusqu'à l'autre, it would be necessary to praise this book from one end to the other. M^{me} de Sév. Il louait le Seigneur de ce qu'on n'avait desormais plus de cour à faire, he thanked God, that henceforth he should have no more levees to attend. Hamill. absol. Il ne sait pas —, he does not know how to praise.

SE LOUER, vpr. 1 reflect. to praise one's self. 2 recipr. to praise each other. 3 Se — de quelqu'un, de quelque chose, to be satisfied, well pleased with a thing. Pour au qui s'en louera, dix mille s'en plaindront, for one person who will be satisfied, ten thousand will complain. La Font. Je n'ai qu'à me — de lui, I am extremely satisfied with him.

LOUEUR, loo-ahr, sm. fem. LOUEUSE, letter out. Un — de chevaux, de voitures, livery-stable keeper.

LOUEUR, sm. fem. LOUEUSE, obsol. (disparagingly) bepraiser.

LOUGRE, loogr', sm. (Eng) naut. lugger.

LOUIS, looeé, sm. Lewis, Louis.

LOUIS, sm. louis. absol. (pièce d'or de 24 livres) Payer un beau, en bons —, to pay in hard cash. Un demi —, half a louis.

LOUISE, looez, sf. Louisa.

LOUISIANE, looeé-zyan, sf. geog. Louisiana.

LOUP, loo, sm. (Lat. lupos) 1 zool. wolf. — gris, gray wolf. Il fait un froid de —, it is bitter cold. Etre enroumé comme un —, to have a violent cold. Manger comme un —, to devour. Marcher à pas de —, to walk stealthily, to go with stealthy steps. Saut de —, ha-ha, haw-haw. Broderie, décapée à dents de —, — See BRODERIE, DENT. zool. — marin, sea-wolf, wolf-fish, sea-cat, cut-fish. fig. Entre chien et —, between hawk and buzzard. Un sergent qui se promène avec une mine entre chien et —, a serjeant who is walking to and fro with a suspicious look. V. Hug. Se mettre à la guele du —, to rush into the lion's mouth. — de mer. jack-lar. prov. fig. Il faut burler avec les —s. — See BURLER. Le — mourra dans sa peau, a bad man will never amend. prov. Les —s ne se mangent pas, honour among thieves. 2 (sorte ie masque) black velvet mask. 3 astr. Le —, Lupus, the Wolf.

LOUP-CVETIER, sm. zool. lynx.

LOUP-GAROU, sm. 1 were-wolf, bugbear. 2 fig. churl.

LOUPE, loupe, sf. (Gr.) 1 med. wen. 2 (by analogy) bot. knob. 3 magnifying-glass. 4 jewel. lens.

LOUPEUX, loo-puh, adj. m. fem. LOUPEUSE, (little used) knobby.

LOURD, lour, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 heavy, weighty. Cela est — à porter, that is heavy to carry. fig. Qu'elle est —e et froide pour lui cette pensée! how sad and gloomy is that thought to him! Saint. fig. Avoir une maison bien —e, to keep up a very expensive establishment. Une —e lache, une —e besogne, heavy work, task. Avoir la tête —e, to feel one's head heavy. Le temps est —, the weather is close. 2 (qui se remue avec peine) heavy, unwieldy. La caille —e de graisse, the quilt heavy with fat. Mich. Cet homme est devenu bien —, that man has become very unwieldy. Faire une —e chute, to make a heavy fall. fig. Une —e chute, une —e heuve, a grate fault, a grass blunder. 3 fig. (de l'esprit) heavy, dull. Il a l'esprit —, his understanding is dull. (du style, etc.) heavy, dull. 4 fig. (by analogy) paint. sculp. heavy. Le domme de St-P. —e contre-façon du St-Pierre à Rome, the donee of St. P., a heavy imitation of St. Peter at Rome. Th. Gaut. Vous apprendrez à faire vos ciels moins —s, you must learn to make your skies more ethereal. Dider. Un tableau — de dessin et de draperie, a painting the design and drapery of which are heavy. Dider.

LOURDAUD, loor-doh, sm. fem. —E, blockhead, loggerhead, dullard. Jamais —, — quoi qu'il fasse ne saurait passer pour galant, whatever a blockhead may do, he can never pass himself off as a beau. La Font.

LOURDEMENT, loor-doh-mang, adv.

1 heavily. Marcher —, to walk heavily. Tomber —, to fall heavily. 2 fig. (gauchement) clumsily. Plaisanter —, to make heavy, dull jokes. Il s'exprimait —, he expressed himself rather dull. Ab. 3 fig. (grossièrement) grossly. Vous vous trompez — si vous croyez que, you grossly mistake if you believe that.

LOURDERIE, loor-dree, sf. (little used) gross blunder.

LOURDEUR, loor-lubr, sf. 1 heaviness, weight. 2 fig. dullness, tediousness, heaviness. Cet écrivain est d'une — assommoite, he is an excessively dull writer. Architecture hybride où les deux siècles de Louis XIII et de Louis XIV confondent leur coquetterie et leur —, hybrid architecture in which the two ages of Louis XIII and of Louis XIV blend their grace and their heaviness together. V. HUG.

LOURDISE, loor-deez, sf. gross blunder.

LOURE, loor, sf. 1 (danse) loure. 2 (air) loure.

LOURER, loor-ray, va. mss. to join. Il faut — ces notes, get air, those notes, the notes of that air must be joined.

LOUSTIC, loos-tik, sm. wag.

LOUTRE, loor', sf. (Lat. lutra) 1 zool. otter. 2 (fourrure) otter. Casquette de —, alter-skin cap.

LOUVAÏT, loo-vab, sm. ven. young wolf. Au bout de quelque temps que messieurs les — se virent loups parais, at length when the young cubs had become grown up wolves. La Font.

LOUVE, loov, sf. zool. she-wolf.

LOUVES, sf. tech. sling.

LOUVER, loov-ray, ra. to make a hole in a stone to raise it.

LOUVET, loo-vay, adj. m. fem. —, wolf-coloured, deep yellow-dun. Cteval —, deep yellow-dun horse.

LOUVETEAU, loov-et, sm. zool. wolf's cub. Prendre la louve et ses —, to take the she-wolf and her cubs.

LOUVETER, loov-tay, vn. to whelp.

LOUVETERIE, loor-tree, sf. 1 equipment for wolf-hunting. Officier de la —, officer of the equipage for wolf-hunting. 2 (lieu) lodge of the equipage for wolf-hunting.

LOUVETIER, loov -tyay, sm. anc. Grand —, grand master of the wolf-hounds.

LOUVIERS, loo-vvay, sm. 1 geog. Louviers. 2 (drap) Louviers cloth.

LOUVOYER, loo-vo-yay, en. conjug. like employer, 1 gaul to beat to windward, to ply to windward. 2 fig. to manœuvre.

LOUVRE, loovr', sm. 4 Louvre. La garde qui veille aux barrières du — n'en défend pas nos rois, the guards who keep watch at the door of the Louvre cannot protect our kings from death. Malh. 2 fig. (palais) palace. Et son — il les invita : quel — ! un vrai charbon, he invited them to his palace : what a palace! a perfect charnel-house. La Font.

LOVELACE, lov-lass, sm. Lovelace, rake. C'est un —, he is a Lovelace.

LOVELL, lo-vay, vn. nat. to coil.

LONODROMIE, lok-so-drom-ce, sf. (Gr.) naut. lodromie, lodromics.

LONODROMIQUE, lok-so-drom-i-k, adj. mf. naut. lodromic. Tables —, lodromic tables.

LOYAL, loo-ylal, adj. m. fem. —, pl. in LOYALS (from loi). 1 (little used) genuine, bonâ fide. Marchandise bonne et —, good and genuine goods. Vin — et marchand, genuine, marketable wine, law. Loyaux coûts, See coûts. Un bon et — inventaire, a good and bonâ fide inventory. 2 fig. (fidèle) faithful, true, upright, loyal, honest, straightforward, fair. C'est un homme —, he is an upright man. Un procédé franc et —, frank and straightforward proceedings. Un — chevalier, a true knight. C'était le devoir d'un — citoyen, it was the duty of a loyal citizen. C. Del. De bons et loyaux services, good and loyal services.

LOYALEMENT, loo-yal-mang, adv. faithfully, uprightly, honestly, fairly. Vendre —, to sell honestly. Agir, se comporter —, to act uprightly. Le duc R. était venu — acquiescer sa parole, the duke R. had come faithfully to redeem his word. Bar.

LOYAUTÉ, loo-yo-tay, sf. honesty, uprightness, probity, integrity, fairness.

LOYER, loo-yay, sm. 1 rent. Payer un gros — de maison, to pay very high house-rent. Il doit encore tous les —s de l'an passé, he owes still all his rent for last year. (by extension) Elle dit que le — d'une vue si belle coûterait cher à Paris, she admitted that one would pay dearly in Paris for the pleasure of having so fine a view. Ab. 2 (little used) (salaire) hire, reward, wages. 3 absol. (recompense) reward, recompense. Toute peine est digne de —, the labourer is worthy of his hire. La Font. Sans considérer quel sera le — d'une action de ce mérite, without reflecting what will be the reward of so deserving an action. La Font.

LOZANGE, lo-zangz, See LOSANGE.

LUBIE, lû-bee, sf. whim, crotchety, maggot, fancy. Il lui prend souvent des —, he often takes fancies into his head.

LUBRICITE, lû-bee-se-tay, sf. lubricity, wantonness.

LUBRIFIER, lû-bre-fyay, va. xocs LUBRIFIERS, VOY LUBRIFIER, to lubricate.

LUBRIQUE, lû-brik, adj. mf. wanton, lubric.

LUC, lûk, sm. Luke.

LUCIE, lû-see, sf. Lucy.

LUCARNE, lû-karn, sf. dormer-window, dormer, luthern, garret-window.

LUCIDE, lû-seed, adj. mf. fig. lucid. —, lucid ideas. Apres une longue et — discussion, after a long and lucid discussion. See B. Avoir des intervalles —, to have lucid intervals.

LUCIDITÉ, lû-se-de-tay, sf. fig. lucidity, lucidness. 1 la —, des idées, lucidity of ideas. Ph. Chas.

LUCIFER, lû-se-fayr, sm. (Lat.) 1 (chez les païens) Lucifer, morning-star. 2 (chez les chrétiens) Lucifer, Satan.

LUCIOLE, lû-syol, sf. (It. lucciola) ent. fire-fly, glow-worm.

LUCQUES, lûk, sf. geog. Lucra.

LUCQUIS, lû-kood, adj. and sm. fem. —, Lucchese. Une —, a Lucchese woman.

LUCRATIF, lûk-rat-eef, adj. m. fem. lucrative, lucrative, gainful. Des arts —, lucrative arts. Barib. Leurs professions lucratives, their lucrative professions. Volt. L'en emploi fort —, a very lucrative employment.

LUCRE, lûkr', sm. (Lat. Incurum) lucre. L'amour du —, thirst for gain.

LUCÉBRATION, lû-kû-bral-syong, sf. See LUCÉBRATION.

LUETTE, lû-ayt, sf. uvula.

LUËUR, lû-lûr, sf. (from luire) 1 gleam, glimmer, glimmering. La — de la lune, des étoiles, the glimmering of the moon, of the stars. 2 fig. glimmering, glimpse. Des —s de sensibilité et d'instinct, glimmerings of sensibility and instinct. Mich. Il y a quelque — de raison dans ce qu'il dit, there are some glimmerings of reason in what he says. Entrevoy quelque — de fortune, to have a glimpse of fortune. Quelque — de vérité, some glimpses of truth. Barib.

LUCÉRE, lû-gûr', adj. mf. dismal, doleful, lugubrious, mournful, dreary, sad. Voix —, dismal voice. Il faut nous vêtir d'une couleur —, we must put on sad-coloured garments. J.-J. Rouss. Il faisait retentir les plaines de cris —, he filled the plain with mournful cries. Barib. Spectacle —, mournful sight. Idées —, dismal ideas.

LUCUREUSE, lû-gû-brub-ông, adv. dismally, dolefully, mournfully.

LUÏ, lûie, pron. pers. of the 3rd person, m. pl. ex. 4 he, him, it, to him, to it. C'est — qui me l'a donné, c'est de — que je le tiens, it was he who gave it me, I had it from him. En effet c'est —, in fact, it is he. C. Del. Un rossignol est — seul l'honneur du jardin, a nightingale is alone the honour of the garden. La Font. Quand —, son protecteur, se verrait retenu sous les verrous, when he, his protector, should see himself in prison. Saint. Un navigateur qui — aussi a été surpris loin de la côte, a navigator who also has been surprised far from the coast. Mich. Eux repus, tout s'enlort, the young ones fed, they all go to sleep. La Font. Ce — fut un signal pour s'enfuir devers sa tante, that was a signal for him to scamper off to his den. La Font. Une ombre, un rien, tout — donnoit la fièvre, a shadow, a mere nothing, every thing gave him the fever. La Font. Pour — qui a tant besoin de protection, for him who stands so much in need of protection. Saint. Un autre s'introduisait sans prétexte, sans embarras, en homme qui se sent chez —, another would come, without either apology or pretext, as a man who feels he is at home. Ab. Ceci c'est pour —, poor —, seul, this is for him, for him alone. Saint. Mes jours sont à — des l'aurora, his sont 2 — jusqu'au sommeil, my day belongs to him from its dawn, it belongs to him till night-fall. Lamour. C'est — que je le destine, it is for him I intend it. Comme eux, vous fûtes pauvre, et comme eux orphelin, like them you were poor, and destitute like them. Rac. J'ai vu d'heureux tout particulier avec eux, I am quite a favourite with them. Jacq. Toute figure nouvelle se peut avoir une bonne fortune, seeing a new face is a godsend for them. Jacq. 2 (used for ELLE when preceding the verb or in the imperative) her, la her. Je viens de rencontrer votre mère, et je — si dit, I just met your mother, and I — I told her. Si vous voyez cette dame, dites — que, if you see that lady, tell her that. 3 — même, himself, he himself. Le coupable est ton père — même, the criminal is thy father himself. C. Del. Je ne sais si sa famille l'a laissé faire son éducation — même, I know not whether his family let him make his own education by himself. Ab. C'est — même, it is he himself. Mol.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

LUÏRE, lûier, vn. irreg. LEUISANT; LUI; JE LUIS; TU LUIS; IL LUIT; NOUS LUISONS; VOUS LUISEZ; ILS LUISSENT; ILLUMINE; JE LUMINE; TU LUMINES; VOUS LUMINEZ; ILS LUMINENT.

étouffe, de l'encre — a, a glossy stuff, shining ink. — un grand vieillard propre et — comme un sibre neuf, a tall old man, as clean and as shining as the blade of a new sword. Ab. Quels intérieurs propres, — s de cire et de vernis, what clean homes shining with beeswax and varnish. Th. Gaut. Les feuilles ont perdu l'éclat de leur — e verdure, the leaves have no longer their brilliant glossy green. Saint. 3 sm. gloss. Le — d'une étoffe, the gloss of a stuff. 4 sf. astr. bright star.

LUNACHELLE, lû-mash-ayl, sf. nû. lunachet, lunachella, fire-marble.

LUMBAGO, long-bah-go, sm. (Lat.) med. lumbago.

LUMIERE, lû-miyar, sf. (Lat. lumen) 1 light. L'éclat de la — the brightness of light. Un rayon de — a ray of light. La — du soleil, du jour, des tieux, the light of the sun, of day, of Heaven; d'un flambeau, d'une bougie, d'une chandelle, of a torch, of a wax-candle, of a candle, torch-light, candle-light. Il ne pouvait souffrir la — he could not bear the light of day. Fén. Une — pare s'étendait de l'orient au couchant, a pure light extended from East to West. Buff. Considérez ces grands corps de — qui sont suspendus sur votre tête, consider the great bodies of light which are suspended over your head. Mass. L'Olympe plaçant Iris sous au dais de — the gods of Olympus placing Iris under a canopy of glory. La Font. scrip. Anges de — enfants de —, angels of light, children of light. poetic. Commencer à voir la — la — du jour, to be born. Perdre la — être privé de la —, to lose one's sight; poet. to die. fig. Mettre un livre, un ouvrage en — to publish a book, a work. Cet ouvrage n'a point encore vu la — this work has not yet come out. Mettre une vérité en — to illustrate a truth. Un homme qui porte dans la critique la vive — de la poésie, a man who bears the radiant torch of poetry in his criticism. A. Houss. 2 absol. (bougie, etc.) light, candle. Apportez-nous de la — one — bring us a light. On nous a laissés sans — we were left in the dark. 3 point light. Un bel effet de — a fine effect of light. 4 (d'un fusil, etc., of a gun, etc.) touch-hole, vent. 5 (d'instruments de mathématique, of mathematical instruments) sight. 6 (d'un tuyau d'orgues) mouth. 7 naut. — de la pompe, pump hole. 8 fig. (publicité) light, light of day. Les fripons redoutent la — rogues shun the light. 9 fig. (intelligence) light, intelligence, knowledge, enlightenment, learning, instruction. La — de la foi, de l'espérance, of reason. Dieu, source unique de toute — God, sole source of all light. Buff. Un génie étincelant de — a genius sparkling with intellect. Barth. Le dépôt des — était entre les mains de quelques hommes vertueux, the stores of learning were in the hands of a few virtuous men. Barth. J'aurais besoin de ses — s et de ses soins, I shall stand in need of his ability and learning. J.-J. Rooss. Son trop de confiance dans ses propres — s, his overweening confidence in his own abilities. Volt. 10 fig. (éclaircissement) light (upon), insight (into). La géographie ainsi considérée pourrait prêter des — s à la physique, geography, considered thus, might throw a light upon physics. Volt. 11 fig. (homme d'un rare savoir) luminary. Il a été la — de son siècle, he was the luminary of his age.

LUMIGNON, lû-me-nyong, sm. 1 snuff of a candle. 2 (bout de bougie) candle-end.

LUMINAIRE, lû-me-payr, sm. 1 light, luminary. Dieu fit deux grands — s. God made two great lights. 2 (collectiv.) (dans une église) lights, lighting.

LUMINEUX, lû-me-nuh, adj. m. fem.

LUMINEUSE, (Lat.) 1 luminous. Corps — luminous body, luminary. 2 fig. lumineux. Il la voyait (la vérité) lumineuse devant lui, he saw it luminous before him. Saint. Un compte fort — des divers incidents qui ont amené la chute de J., a very clear account of the different incidents which caused the fall of J. Ph. Chas. Une pensée, une idée lumineuse, a luminous thought, idea.

LUNAIRE, lû-nayr, adj. mf. (Lat. lunaris) lunar, lunary. Un mois, une année — a lunar month, year. fig. Je découvrais des restes de beauté sur la grosse face — de M., I discovered some lingering traces of beauty on the big round face of M. Ab.

LUNAIRE, sf. bot. lunary, moonwort, honesty.

LUNATION, lû-nay-zong, sf. lunation.

LUNATIQUE, lû-nat-ik, adj. mf. (Lat.) 1 lunatic, moon-struck; (des chevaux) of horses moon-eyed. 2 fig. (fantasque) fantastical, capricious, erratic. 3 (substantif) fantastical, whimsical, person.

LUNDI, lûng-dee, sm. (Lat. lune dies) Monday. Tous les — s, every Monday. — prochain, next Monday. Venez — come on Monday. — gras, Shrove-Monday. pop. Faire le — to keep Saint-Monday.

LUNE, lûn, sf. (Lat. luna) 1 moon. L'orbite, les phases, les quartiers, les taches de la — the orbit, phases, quarters, spots of the moon. La — est dans son plein, the moon is in its full. — rousse, April moon. fig. C'est nue — un visage de pleine —, it is a face as round as a full moon. fig. Prendre quelqu'un dans sa bonne — dans sa mauvaise —, to take a person in his good, bad moments. Ce cheval est sujet à la — that is a moon-eyed horse. fig. pop. Avoir des — s, to have crochets, whims. prov. fig. Vouloir prendre la — avec les dents, to attempt impossibilities; to try to take the moon by the horns. fam. Faire un trou à la — to leave one's creditors in the lurch. 2 poetic. (mois) month. Depuis quatre — s, since four months. fig. La — de miel, the honeymoon. 3 anc. chem. luna.

LUNETTE, lû-net, sf. 1 glass. — convexe, convex lens, magnifying glass. — concave, concave lens, diminishing glass. — de longue vue, a longue vue, absol. — spp-glass, glass, perspective-glass, field-glass. Monter une — to mount a telescope. Une — de poche, a pocket telescope. — d'opéra, opera-glass. 2 — s, pl. spectacles, glasses. Lire sans — s, to read without spectacles. 3 (by extension) man. lunette. 4 arch. lunette. 5 fort. lunette. 6 horol. rim. 7 (d'un poulet, etc., of a fowl) merrythought. 8 (d'une chaise percée) seat.

LUNETTEUR, lû-nay-tyay, sm. spectacle-maker.

LUNI-SOLAIRE, adj. mf. astr. lunisolar.

LUNULE, lû-nûl, sf. geom. lune, lunula.

LUPERCALLES, lû-payr-kol, sf. pl. (Lat.) Rom. antiq. lupercalia.

LUPON, lû-pang, sm. bot. lupine.

LURIN, lû-rong, sm. fem. — ne, jolly dog, determined fellow. Une — e, a bawdy lass, woman.

LUSTRAL, lûs-tral, adj. m. fem. — E, antiq. lustral. Eau — e, lustral water. Jour — lustral day.

LUSTRATION, lûs-trah-syong, sf. antiq. lustration.

LUSTRE, lûstr, sm. 1 lustre, gloss. 2 fig. lustre, brilliancy, splendour, foil. Le malheur ajoute au nouveau — à la gloire des grands hommes, misfortune adds new lustre to the glory of great men. Fén. Un héros de son-même emprunte tout son — a hero borrows all his lustre from himself. Boil. Pour bien mettre leur crasse dans tout son — to give a correct idea of their sordid avie. Boil. Servit de — to serve as a foil. 3 (chandelier à plusieurs branches) chandelier, lustre. (particul.) (theatre) chandelier.

LUSTRE, sm. (Lat. lustrum) poetic lustre. Je touche à mon cinquantième lustre, I shall soon be twenty-five. Piron.

LUSTRE, lûs-tray, va. (from lustre) to give a lustre, a gloss to, to glaze, to dress (un chapeau, une étoffe, a hat, a stuff).

LUSTRINE, lûs-treen, sf. lustring. LUT, lût, sm. (Lat. lutum) lut, luting. LUTER, lût-ray, va. to lute (une corne, a reed).

LUTH, lût, sm. 1 lute. Jouer du — to play the lute. 2 fig. (de l'inspiration) lute, lyre.

LUTHER (MARTIN), lû-tayr, sm. born in 1483 died in 1546.

LUTHERIANISME, lû-tay-ryan-ism', sm. Lutheranism.

LUTHERIEN, lû-tay-ryang, adj. m. fem. — ne, 1 Lutheran. 2 (substantif.) Lutheran.

LUTHIER, lû-tyay, sm. musical instrument maker.

LUTIN, lû-tang, sm. goblin, hobgoblin, spirit, sprite, imp. La vieille courait comme un — par toute sa demeure, the old woman ran about the house like a hobgoblin. La Font. Il ne dort non plus qu'un — he is always up and stirring. fig. C'est un — un vrai —, he is an imp, a regular imp. Faire le — to play the deuce.

LUTIN, adj. m. fem. — E, roguish, sprightly, waggish.

LUTINER, lû-tay, va. to tease, to plague, to torment. fig. Je suis encore lûtiné par les embarras, etc., I am still tormented by the anxieties, etc. Volt.

LUTINER, vn. to play the deuce.

LUTRIN, lû-trang, sm. 1 reading-desk, music-desk. Chanter au — to sing at the music-desk. Cet homme a une voix de — that man has a most powerful voice. 2 (collectif.) (les chantres) choir, the choristers.

LUTTE, lût, sf. 1 wrestling. 2 fig. struggle, strife, contest. Etre fort adroit à la — to be very skilful in wrestling. fig. Je ne renonce point encore à la — I do not yet give up the struggle. Saint. La — du pouvoir arbitraire et de la liberté, the struggle between ambitious power and liberty. Emporter quelque chose de haute — see EMPORTE.

LUTTER, lû-tay, vn. (from lutte) 1 to wrestle. 2 avec quelqu'un, contre quelqu'un, to wrestle with a person. 2 fig. to struggle, to strive, to cope, to contend. Ce peintre ose — pour le Vénus du pinseau avec Vernet, this painter presumes to contend in the vigour of his touch with V. Vider. Il avait lutté contre elle par le raisonnement, he had striven against it by reasoning. Saint. — contre la tempête, contre les flots, to strive with, against the tempest, the waves. Il est beau de voir un homme — contre ses passions, it is a noble sight to see a man strive against his passions. Volt. Ils enrent à — contre des obstacles toujours renaissants, they had to contend with ever renewing obstacles. Barth. — contre la destinée, to strive against one's destiny. Comment luttiez-vous contre la queue de l'hiver? how do you bear up against the latter end of the winter? Volt.

LUTTEUR, lû-tuhr, sm. wrestler. fig. C'est un rude lutteur, he is a formidable adversary.

LUXATION, lûk-sah-syong, sf. (Lat.) surg. luxation, dislocation.

LUXE, lûks, sm. (Lat. luxus) 1 luxury, sumptuousness. Le — des habits, de la table, luxury in dress, of the table. Un objet de — an object of luxury. L. se faisait remarquer par le — des sobriétés d'argent faits de piécettes, L. made himself remarked by the luxury of his silver buttons made up of small piécettes. Th. Gauth. C'est un — qui revient à une quarantaine de mille francs par an, it is a luxury that costs 40,000 francs a year. Th. Gaut. Il y a ici un — révoltant, et une misère affreuse, there is here revolting luxury and frightful destitution. Volt. Le — brille dans leurs habits et dans leurs maisons, luxury appears in their dresses and in their houses. Barth. Le savant dépensoir, le pauvre garde on son — pour la liste civile de polichinelle, the learned man who has lost his pension, and the poor man keep an extra halfpenny to swell the budget of Punch. Nod. (by extension) Cet ouvrage est imprimé avec un grand — typographique, that work is printed with great typographic richness. 2 fig. (prolusion) proussion, luxuriance, exubérance, superfluousness. La nature y déployait un — de fécondité, une magnificence, nature there displayed an exuberance of life, a magnificence. Rayn. Il croit devoir faire un pas à gauche par — de précaution, he thinks himself obliged from an excess of precaution to take a step to the left. MÉRIM. La liberté est du — pour des gens qui manquent de pain, liberty is a superfluity for people without bread. Jacq.

LUXER, lûk-say, ra. surg. to lux, to luxate, to dislocate.
SE LUXER, rpr. 1 to become luxated, dislocated. 2 (à soi) to luxate, to dislocate (le poignet, etc., one's wrist, etc.).
LUXUEUX, lûk-sû-uh, adj. m. fem. lexxeuss, luxurious.
LUXURE, lûk-sûr, sf. (Lat.) lechery, lust.
LUXURIANT, lûk-zû-ryang, adj. m. (Lat.) fem. —E, luxuriant.
LUXURIEUX, lûk-sû-ryuh, adj. m. fem. LUXURIEUX, leud.
LUZERNE, lû-zay-ra, sf. bot. lucern.
LUXURIÈRE, lû-zay-ryayr, sf. bot. lucern-field.
LYCANTHROPHE, le-kang-trop, sm. (Gr.) person affected with lycanthropy.
LYCANTHROPIE, le-kang-tro-pee, sf. (Gr.) lycanthropy.
LYCÉE, le-say, sm. (Gr.) 1 anc. lycæum. 2 (by extension) (établissement) lycæum. 3 (by extension) (collège) lycæum, grammar-school.
LYCÉEN, le-say-ang, adj. m. 1 of a lycæum. 2 (substantif) a pupil of a lycæum.
LYCOPODE, le-ko-pod, sm. (Gr.) bot. lycopodium, club-moss.
LYDIE, le-dee, sf. anc. geog. Lydia.

LYMPHATIQUE, lang-fat-ik, adj. mf. (Gr.) lymphatic. Tempérament —, lymphatic constitution.
LYMPHE, langf, sf. (Gr.) 1 lymph. 2 (by analogy) bot. lymph.
LYNX, langks, sm. (Gr.) lynx. Avois des yeux de —, to be lynx-eyed. fig. Nous sommes — envers nos pareils, we are quick at detecting the faults of others. La Font.
LYON, lyong, sf. geog. Lyons.
LYONNAIS, lyo-nay, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 of Lyons. 2 (substantif) a native of Lyons.
LYRE, leer, sf. (Gr.) 1 lyre. Jouer de la —, to play the lyre. 2 fig. (la muse) lyre. Les maîtres de la —, the great poets. Les enfants de la —, the poets. 3 astr. Lyra. 4 ora. lyra.
LYRIQUE, le-rik, adj. mf. 1 anlig. lyric, lyrical. Poésie —, lyric poetry. Poème —, lyric poem. (by extension) (des odes) lyric. Poète, auteur —, lyric poet, author. 2 (by analogy) Tragédie, drame, comédie —, lyric tragedy, drama, comedy. Théâtre —, lyric theatre. 3 (substantif) (auteur) lyric. absol. (le genre) lyrics.
LYRISME, le-rism, sm. lyricism

M

M, aym. sf. and m. 1 thirteenth letter of the alphabet. 2 Roman character representing 1000. 3 initial letter of MASTÉ, MONSIEUR, 4 a' contraction for ME, MON. 5 M. A. initial letters of MAISON ASSIÈRE.

MA, mah, adj. pass. fem. of mox, pl. mes, my. — sœur, my sister. (before feminine nouns beginning with a vowel or a silent h, mox is used: Mon âme, mon haldine)

MACABÉE, mak-abr', sf. arch. Dasee —, the dance of death.

MACAAM, mak-ad-am, sm. (Eng.) macadam.

MACADAMISER, mak-ad-am-e-zay, ra. to macadamize.

MACAIRE (Robert), mak-ayr, sm. a swindler, a cheat.

MACAIRISER, mak-ay-re-zay, ra. neol. to cheat, to swindle.

MACAQUE, mak-ak, sm. zool. macaque, ape-baboon.

MACARET, mak-ar-ay, MASCARET, mas-kar-ay, sm. naut. eddy tide, mascaret.

MACHAREUX, mak-ar-uh, sm. ora. pu'fn, ulca, northern cack.

MACAIRON, mak-ar-ong, sm. macaroon.

MACARONÉE, mak-ar-o-nay, sf. macaronic.

MACARONI, mak-ar-o-nee, sm. (It.) macaroni.

MACARONIQUE, mak-ar-o-nik, adj. mf. macaronic. Vers —s, macaronic verses.

MACÉDOINE, mah-say-dooan, sf. 1 geog. Macedonia. 2 culin. — de légumes, de fruits, hodge-podge, dish composed of various sorts of vegetables, of fruits. 3 fig. (livre) miscellany. 4 a game at cards.

MACRATION, mas-ay-rat-syung, sf. (Lat.) 1 chem. macration. 2 fig. maceration. La — de la chair, the maceration of the flesh.

MAGÈRE, mas-ay-ray, ra. 1 med. chem. to macerate (une plante dans du vin, a plant in wine). 2 fig. to macerate (sa chair par les jeûnes, par les disciplines, one's flesh by fasts, by disciplines).

MACÉRER, rpr. 1 to be macerated. 2 fig. to macerate one's body (par les jeûnes, by fastings).

MACHABÉES, mak-ab-ay, sm. pl. Macabees.

MACHE, mash, sf. bot. corn-salad, lamb's-teluce.

MACHECOULIS, mash-ko-lee, MACHICOUILLIS, mash-she-ko-lee, sm. 1 fort. machicolation. 2 (ouvertures) machicolation.

MACHEFER, mash-fayr, sm. hammer-slag, puddler's offal, scoria, dross of iron.

MACHELIÈRE, mash-lyayr, adj. f. 1 Dent —, cheek tooth, grinder. 2 (substantif) jaw-tooth. Les —s d'un bœuf, d'un bas, the upper, the lower grinders.

MACHER, mash-hay, ra. 1 to mastigate, to chew, to chop. — du pain, to chew bread. La laque donne à tes petits de la chair qu'elle a machée, the she-wolf gives her cubs flesh that she has masticated. Buff. absol. Avaler sans —, to swallow without chewing. — de hant, to eat without appetite. Ce cheval maché son frein, that horse champs his bit. fig. — à vide, to feed upon hope. fig. — quelque'un sa besogne, to cut out work for a person. fam. Je ne le lui ai point maché, I did not mince the matter. fig. Je ne maché pas ce que j'ai sur le cœur, I must make a clean breast of it. Nol. 2 absol. to eat with glutinoly MACHEUR, mâ-shuhr, sm. fem. MACHÈRE, 1 eater, great eater. 2 pop. C'est un grand —, he is a great eater.

MACHAVÉLIQUE, mash-yav-ay-lik, adj. mf. 1 machiavelian. Doctrine, conduite —, machiavelian doctrine, conduct. 2 (by extension) (de mauvaise foi) machiavelian.

MACHAVÉLISME, mash-yav-ay-lism, sm. 1 machiavelism, machiavellism. 2 (principes, actions) machiavelism. 3 (by extension) double — dealing, machiavellism.

MACHAVÉLISTE, mash-yav-ay-list, a. mf. machiavelian.

MACHICATOIRE, mash-e-kat-ouâr, sm. masticatory.

MACHICOUILLIS, sm. See MACHECOULIS.

MACHINAL, mash-e-nal, adj. m. fem. —E, (Lat.) mechanical. Mouvement —, mechanical motion. L'instinct est d'autant plus sûr qu'il est plus —, instinct is more unerring where there is no intelligence. Buff.

MACHINALEMENT, mash-e-nal-mâg, adv. mechanically.

MACHINATEUR, mash-e-nat-ubr, sm. (Lat.) machinator, plotter, contriver. absol. C'est un grand —, he is a great machinator.

MACHINATION, mash-e-nat-yong, sf. (Lat.) machination, plot. De sourdes —s, secret machinations. Boss.

MACHINE, mash-eeen, *sf. (Lat. machina) 1 machine, engine. Faire jouer une —, to work an engine. — simple, — composée, simple, compound machine. — électrique, electric machine. — de compression, condenser, condensing engine. — pneumatique, pneumatic machine, air-pump. — hydraulique, — à eau, hydraulic ram, water-ram. — à vapeur, steam-engine. — de vîngt, de trente chevaux, twenty, thirty horse power engine. —s de guerre, engines of war. Tu recevras par la même occasion cette — d'acier pour faire bouffer les jupes de tes robes, you will receive at the same time, that steel thing to puff out the skirts of your dresses. Ab. 3 (assemblage de ressorts) machinery, piece of machinery, work of art, body. Cette horloge est une belle —, that clock is a fine piece of machinery. Qu'un Cartésien s'obstine à traiter ce hibou de moule et de —, let a Cartesian persist in considering this owl as a piece of mechanism. La Font. (by extension) Ces —s locomotives en muscles et en os qu'on appelle des coureurs anglais, *those locomotive engines of muscles and bones called English racers. Th. Gaut. L'homme est une — admirable, man is an admirable piece of machinery. fig. le bieu et la conservation de la — de l'état, the welfare and preservation of the body of the State. La Bruy. poetic. La — ronde, the globe, the earthly ball. En est-il un plus pauvre en la — ronde? is there a poorer one upon earth? La Font. prov. fig. Ce n'est qu'une —, c'est une pure —, one — ambulante, he is a machine, a mere machine, a walking machine. 3 (théâtre) machinery. Le dénouement de cette pièce arrive comme une —, the catastrophe of this piece is forced. Opéra, tragédie, comédie —, s. opera, tragedy, comedy with machinery. fig. Cela sent la —, that is not natural. 4 fig. (invention) intrigue, contrivance, plot, machination. — Il a remué toute sorte de — pour parvenir à ses fins, he has left no stone unturned to attain his ends. J'ai des ressorts tout prêts pour divers —, I have inventions ready to set several plots a going. Noli. 5 fig. (pavrage de génie) work of art, creation.

MACHINET, mach-e-nay, ra. to machine, to plan, to plot (la perte de quelque chose, the ruin of a person).

MACHINISTE, mach-e-nist, sm. machinist. Le — de l'Opéra, the scene-shifter of the Opera.

MACHOIRE, mâ-shoâr, sf. 1 jaw, jaw-bone. La — supérieure, the upper jaw — inférieure, lower jaw. fig. Avoir la — pesante, la — lourde, to be heavy, stupid. fig. pop. C'est une —, he is a blockhead. 2 ierh. jaw, chop. 3 armour, jaw of the cock of a gun-lock.

MACHONNER, mâ-sho-nay, vo. to mumble, to munch. fig. G., son amie, qui machonne quelque chose d'un pèlerinage, G., her friend, who mumbles something about a pilgrimage. M^{re} de Sév. fig. Ne faire que — ses paroles, to mumble one's words.

MACHONNEUR, mâ-sho-nuhr, sm. fenn. MACHONNEUR, mumber.

MACHIERE, mach-û-ray, va. 1 to blacken. 2 print. to macule, to macule.

MACIS, mak-see, sm. bot. mace.

MACLE, makl', NACKRE, makr', sf. 1 brit. water callthorp. 2 min. macule, chasolite.

MACON, mâ-kong, sm. 4 geog. Macon. 2 a sort of burgundy wine.

MAÇON, mâh-sang, sm. 1 mason, bricklayer. Maître —, master mason. Aide —, mason's man, prov. fig. C'est un —, on vrai —, he is a bungler, a regular bungler. 2 France —, free-mason.

MAÇONNAGE, mach-on-azh, sm. masonry, mason's work.

MAÇONNERIE, pp. of MAÇONNER, fem. —, s. (by extension) Des nids d'hirondelle — s de terre gâchée avec de la paille et du crin, swallows' nests built with earth mixed up with straw and hair. Buff.

MAÇONNER, mâh-so-nay, va. 1 to do mason's work. 2 to wall, to block up (une fenêtre, a window). 3 fig. (travailler d'une façon grossière) to bungle.

MAÇONNERIE, mach-on-ree, sf. 1 masonry, mason's work. — de blocage, de moellons, de linosage, rubble-work, ashlar work. 2 France —, free-masonry.

MAGNÉTIQUE, mach-on-nik, adj. mf. masonic. Société —, masonic society. Enlignes —, s. masonic enlignes.

MAGREUSE, mak-ruzh, sf. prn. wiggen, sea-duck. prov. fig. Il a un sang de —, he is as cool as a cucumber.

MAGNÉTISÉ, mak-lat-ûr, sf. print. mackled sheets, waste paper. (by extension) — grise, coarse brown paper.

MAGNÉTIQUE, mak-ûl, sf. (Lat. macula) 1 (do paper, of papers) spot, stain, blemish. 2 theol. Agneau sans —, spotless Lamb. 3 astr. macula.

MAGCLER, mak-b-ay, ra. (des feuilles imprimées, etc., of newly printed sheets, etc.) to mackie.

MAGCLER, va. to set off. Des feuilles nouvellement imprimées maculel, sheets newly printed easily set off.

MADAME, mad-am, sf. pl. MESDAMES, 1 (titre) madam, Mrs. Ma'am, lady, my lady; your, her ladyship. — la comtesse, the countess. — one telle, Mrs. Such-a-one. Comment se porte — votre tante? how is your aunt? Si vous voulez bien, mesdames, Ladies, if you are willing. Faire la —, to play the great lady. Joner à la —, to play at madam. pop. C'est une grosse —, she is a great lady. prov. — vaut bien monsieur, monsieur vaut bien —, he is as good as she, she is as good as he. 2 (à une reine, to a queen) —, si votre Majesté, Madam, if your Majesty. 3 (sometimes of spinsters) madam. 4 (of royal princesses) Madame. Mesdames de France, Mesdames of F., the princesses of F. 5 (ababesses, chanoinesses, etc.) — la chanoinessa one telle, the canoness Such-a-one. 6 absol. (Of the eldest daughter of the king or dauphin, or of the wife of the king's eldest brother) Madame.

MADEFACTION, mad-ay-fak-syong, sf. pharm. maeufaction.

MADEFIEIL, mad-ay-fay, vo. pharm. to madyfy.

MADELEINE, mad-layn, sf. 1 Magdalen. 2 pastry. madeleine. 3 hort. Poires de la —, pears ripe in the middle of July.

MADENOISELLE, mad-moâ-zel, sf. 4 Miss. pl. Mcdemoiselles, young ladies. 2 anc. (title of married women not noble) Mistress. 3 absol. (title of the eldest daughter of the king's brother; title of the king's eldest daughter whilst unmarried) Mademoiselle. 4 (particul.) La grande —, the daughter of Gaston d'Orléans, brother to Lewis XIV.

MADERE, mad-ayr, s. 1 geog. Madeira. 2 sm. Madeira, Madeira wine.

MADONE, mad-on, sf. (It.) madonna.

MADRAGUE, mad-rag, sf. fish, tunny-net.

MADRAS, mad-rass, sm. 1 geog. Madras. 2 (étouffe) Un mouchoir de —, madras. Elle était coiffée d'un —, she wore a madras on her head. E. Sue.

MADRE, adj. m. fem. —, 1 speckled, spotted. Porcelaine —, speckled porcelain. Léopard —, spotted leopard. 2 fig. (rasé) cunning, crafty, deep. Un renard jeune encore, quique des plus —, a fox still young, though most crafty. La Font. C'est un — compère, he is a cunning blade. La Font. (substantif.) C'est un —, he is a sly dog.

MADREPORE, mad-ray-por, sm. nat. hist. madrepora.

MADRIERE, mad-ray, sm. (Sp.) 1 thick, oaken plank. 2 fort. madrier.

MADRIGAL, mad-re-gal, sm. pl. MADRIGAEUX, (It.) 1 madrigal. 2 (by extension) (paroles) gollant compliments.

MAESTRAL, mâh-ays-tral, sm. See MISTRAL.

MAFFLÉ, mâf-lay, adj. m. fem. —, 1 chabby, ful-checked. 2 (substantif.) C'est one grasse —, she is a big, chubby woman.

MAGASIN, mag-az-ang, sm. (Ar.) 1 warehouse, storehouse, emporium. Avoir des marchandises en —, to have stock in hand. (by extension) Amsterdam, malgré les inconvénients de son port, devint le — du monde, A., in spite of the inconveniences of its port, became the emporium of the world. Volt. 2 (établissement de commerce) shop. — d'épicerie, de modes, grocer's shop, milliner's shop. Marchand en —, wholesale dealer. Gargon de —, warehouseman, shopman, porter. 3 mil. (fig.) magazine. — d'armes, de poudre, magazine of arms, of powder; de vivres, de fourrages, of provisions, of forage. — s des vivres, des fourrages, provisions, forage store-houses. 4 (by extension) (provisions de menage) store, provision, stock. fig. Un — de sottises, a heap of nonsense. 5 (d'une diligence, of a stage-coach) boot. 6 lit. titre de certains ouvrages périodiques magazine.

MAGASINAGE, mag-az-e-nazh, sm. com. warehousing. Droit de —, warehouse-rent.

MAGASINIER, mag-az-e-nyay, sm. warehouse-keeper.

MAGDALÉON, mag-dal-ay-ong, sm. (Gr.) phara. magdalon.

MAGE, mazh, sm. (Gr.) magion. Les trois — s, les — s, the three magi, the three wise men of the East.

MAGE, adj. m. anc. Juge —, chief justice.

MAGICIEN, mazh-e-syang, sm. fem. —, 1 magician, necromancer. 2 (by extension) magician.

MAGIE, mazh-ee, sf. 1 magic. — naturelle, — blanche, natural magic. — noire, black art. prov. fig. C'est la — noire, it is past comprehension. 2 fig. magic. La — de son style, the magic of his style. La — de l'espérance, the magic of hope.

MAGIQUE, mazh-ik, adj. mf. 1 magic, magical. Paroles, caractères — s, magic words, characters. Pouvoir —, magic power. Tableau —, glass-plate charged with electricity. Lanterne —, magic lantern. 2 (by extension) (de ce qui étouffe) magic, magical.

MAGISME, mazh-ism', sm. magism.

MAGISTER, mazh-is-tayr, sm. (Lat.) absol. village schoolmaster.

MAGISTÈRE, mazh-is-tayr, sm. (Lat.) magistratum. 1 grand-mastership of Malta. 2 (charge) grand-mastership.

MAGISTÈRE, sm. pharm. chem. mastery.

MAGISTRAL, mazh-is-tral, adj. m. fem. —, (Lat.) 1 magistrat, mastery. S'exprimer d'un air, d'un ton —, to express one's self in a magisterial air, tone.

Œuvre —, mastery work. Ligue —, principal line. 2 pharm. Compositions — s, medicines prepared according to prescription.

MAGISTRALEMENT, mazh-is-tral-mang, adv. magistrally.

MAGISTRAT, mazh-is-trah, sm. (Lat.) 1 magistrat. 2 (collectif) town-council.

MAGISTRATURE, mazh-is-trat-ûr, sf. 1 magistracy. Aspirer, parvenir à la —, to aspire to, to arrive at the magistracy. 2 (collectif) magistracy. Entrer dans la —, to become a magistrate. 3 (temps durant lequel un magistrat exerce ses fonctions) magistracy.

MAGNAN, man-yag, sm. vulg. silk-worm.

MAGNANERIE, man-nyan-ree, sf. (from magnan) 1 (lieu) silk-worm nursery. 2 (art) silk-worm breeding.

MAGNANIERE, man-nyan-yay, sf. silk-worm nursery.

MAGNANIER, man-nyan-yay, sm. silk-worm breeder.

MAGNANIME, man-nyan-im, adj. mf. 1 magnanimous, high-minded. Prince —, magnanimous prince. Cœur —, magnanimous heart. Flech. (by extension) Action —, magnanimous action. 2 (substantif.) high-minded man.

MAGNANIMEMENT, man-nyan-im-mang, adv. magnanimously.

MAGNANIMITÉ, man-nyan-im-e-yay, sf. (Lat.) magnanimity, greatness of mind.

MAGNAT, mag-uab, sm. (Hung.) magnate.

MAGNÉSIE, man-nyay-zee, sf. (Gr.) chem. magnesia.

MAGNÉTIQUE, man-nyay-tik, adj. mf. (Lat.) nat. phil. magnetic, magnetical. Vertu, attraction —, magnetic virtue, attraction. Courant, Guide —, magnetic current, fluid. Lames — s, magnetic plates.

MAGNÉTISER, man-nyay-te-zay, va. to magnetize. Se faire —, to have one's self magnetized.

MAGNÉTISEUR, man-nyay-te-zehr, sm. magnetizer.

MAGNÉTISME, man-nyay-tism', sm.

[Lat.] nat. phil. magnetism. — animal, animal magnetism.

MAGNIFICAT, mag-ne-fe-kat, sm. (Lat.) cath. liturg. magnificat. Entonner le —, to sing the magnificat.

MAGNIFICENCE, man-nye-fé-sang-s, sf. (Lat. magnificencia) 1 magnificence. Il recut avec quelque — 1 magnificence. 2 a rather magnificent style. Volt. Avec tout l'appareil du goût et de la —, with all the appliances of taste and magnificence. Barth. 2 (des choses, of things) magnificence. La — des œuvres du Créateur, the magnificence of the works of the Creator. La — d'un palais, the magnificence of a palace. fig. La — du style, des idées, the magnificence of style, of ideas. La — de votre saint nom, the magnificence of your holy name. Fén. 3 —s, pl. (objets magnifiques) magnificent things, great expense.

MAGNIFIÈRE, man-nye-fy-er, va. ohsolet. to magnify.

MAGNIFIQUE, man-nye-fik, adj. mf. 1 magnificent, generous, manifest. C'était un prince — et généreux, he was a magnificent and generous prince. Barth. — en habits, en meubles, dans ses meubles, dans ses habits, extravaçant in clothes, furniture. 2 (des choses, of things) (splendide) magnificent, splendid, pompous. Des temples —s, magnificent temples. Boss. Leur parure est plus recherchée que —, their dress is elegant rather than splendid. J.-J. Rouss. Le souper fut —, the supper was magnificent. Mme de Sév. Un temps —, splendid weather. fig. L'esprit rempli d'idées —s, the mind filled with magnificent ideas. Flech. Des titres —s, pompous titles. 3 (substantif.) (in the first sense) ostentatious person.

MAGNIFIQUEMENT, man-nyee-fik-mang, adv. magnificently, grandly.

MAGNOLIA, man-nyo-lia, sm. magnolia.

MAGOT, mah-got, sm. (Lat. magotus) 1 zool. baboon, magot. fig. C'est un —, un —, un laid —, no villain —, he is a baboon, a very baboon, an ugly baboon. 2 (figure de porcelaine) grotesque figure. — de la Chine, grotesque Chinese figure. 3 (amas d'argent caché) hoard. On a trouvé son —, his hoard has been discovered.

MAHALEB, mah-al-ayh, sm. See bois de s'c-LUCIE.

MAHOMET, mah-o-may, sm. Mahomet.

MAHOMETAN, mah-o-may-tang, sm. fem. —E, 4 Mahometan, Mohammedan. 2 (adjectif) Mahometan, Mohammedan. La religion —e, the Mahometan religion.

MAHOMETISME, mah-o-may-tism', sm. Mahometanism, Mohammedanism.

MAI, sm. (Lat. maius) 1 May. Le deux —, the second of May. Le mois de —, the month of May. 2 (arbre) may-pole. Planter le —, to set up the may-pole.

MAIDAN, may-dang, sm. market-place in the East.

MAIE, may, sf. tech. bin, trough.

MAIEUR, mah-yuhr, sm. (Lat. major) adv. mayor.

MAIGRE, maygr', adj. mf. (Lat. macer) 1 thin, lean, meagre, sorry. Devenir —, to grow thin. Vous êtes — entrée, il faut — sortir, you were thin when you crept in, you must be thin to creep out. La Font. 2 —, échine, skin and bone. Jours —s, repas —s, fish days, fish-meal. Soupe —, vegetable soup, fish soup. fig. — chère, pitiful fare. — repas, sorry meal. 3 prov. Courir, marcher comme un chat —, to walk like the penny postman. 2 (by analogy) (d'un terrain, of land) poor barren. Le sol est — et ne produit qu'à veu de peine, the soil is barren, and yields but with difficulty. Barth. 3 fig. (pauvre) poor, barren, slight, meagre. — butin, a poor booty. Un sujet —, pitiful subject. Pour un — autrui que je glose en passant, for a sorry writer whom I carp at for once. Bui. Cet orateur a choisi un sujet bien —, that author has chosen a very barren subject. — Voilà un — sujet de rire, there are small grounds for laughter in that. Un style —, a meagre style. Quant à l'ouvrage, il est —, as for the work, it is a poor one. D'Alemb. Une — réception, a sorry reception. fig. — devait être la cuisine qui se préparait à ce foyer, sorry cooking must have been that preparing on this hearth. Th. Gaut. Un — fen, a poultry fire. Th. Gaut. 4 callig. Lettre, caractère, écriture —, slender letter, character, writing. 5 print. Lettre, caractère —, thin letter, character. 6 paint. Pinceau, crayon, trait —, couleur, touche —, meagre pencil, stroke, colour, touch. 7 arch. Colonne, moulure —, etc., meagre column, moulding, etc. 8 (substantif.) lean. 9 (substantif.) mayre-food, fish and vegetable food. Faire —, manger —, to eat no flesh, to abstain from meat. Repas —, fish meal. 10 (adverbialement) farrier. Etamper plus — en dehors qu'en dedans, to punch a horse-shoe near the edge.

MAIGRE, sm. ich. umbra-marina.

MAIGRELET, may-grub-lay, adj. m. fem. —TE, dimin. of MAIGRE, thin, spare, lean.

MAIGREMENT, may-grob-mang, adv. 4 (little used) poorly, sparely. 2 fig. badly, poorly, pitifully.

MAIGREY, may-gray, adj. m. fem. —TE, dimin. (little used) lean, poor, thin.

MAIGREUIL, may-grulir, sf. 4 thinness, leanness, spareness. 2 fig. lit. draw. meagreness.

MAIGRI, may-gree, ppa. of MAIGRIR, fem. —E, le je trouve bien —, I find he has grown very lean.

MAIGRIR, may-gree, vn. to get, to grow, to become lean, thin, to fall away.

MAIL, mah-yuh, sm. 4 mail, maillet.

2 (jeu) mail. Jouer au —, to play at mail. Boule de —, ball. 3 (lien) mail.

MAILLE, mah-yuh, sf. (It. maglia) 4 stitch. Rompre, reprendre, relever une —, to break, to take up a stitch. 2 (dans les tissus lâches) mesh. Les —s d'un filet, the meshes of a net. Et fil tant qu'une — rongée emporta tout l'ouvrage, and gnawing one mesh through, the whole work was destroyed. La Font. 3 (ouverture) mesh. 4 (armures) ring link of mail. Une colte de —s, a coat of mail. 5 weav. mesh. 6 (d'un perdreau) speck. 7 (tache sur la pronelle de l'oeil) itch. 8 (monnaie de billon) dit. Il n'a ni denier ni —, ni son ni —, he has not a cross to bless himself with. fig. Ils ont toujours — à partir ensemble, they have always a crow to pluck together.

MAILLE, ppa. of MAILLER, fem. —E, adjectif. 4 Perdreau —, speckled partridge. 2 Fer —, wire-lattice.

MAILLECHORT, mah-yuh-sbor, sm. german silver.

MAILLER, mah-yay, vn. hant. to get, to grow, to become speckled.

SE MAILLER, rpr. to get, to grow, to become speckled.

MAILLET, mah-yay, sm. maillet.

MAILLOCHE, mah-yosh, sf. bristle.

MAILLOT, mah-yo, sm. 4 anc. swathing, swaddling-band. swaddling-cloth, cloud. 2 (by extension) Un enfant au —, a child in swaddling-clothes. 3 (enfant) baby. Ce n'est plus ce —, it is no longer that boy. Mme de Sév. 4 (de saltimbanques, etc.) tight flesh-coloured drawers.

MAILLURE, mah-yür, sf. hawk's spoils, specifies.

MAIN, mang, sf. (Lat. manus) 4 hand. La — droite, the right hand. La — gauche, the left hand. Le creux, le dedans, la paume, le plat de la —, the hollow, the palm of the hand. Le dessus de la —, the back of the hand. Mais de nos faibles —s que pouvez-vous attendre? what help can you expect from your feeble hands? Rac. Tenir avec la —, à la —, to hold with the hand. — sèche, grasse, fat, skinny hand. — pote, suélette hand. Vous êtes fatigué de porter ce paquet, changez de —, you are tired with carrying this parcel, change hands; || (des choses, of things) Cette maison a souvent changé de — avant d'être à moi, this house has often changed hands before belonging to me. N'ayant d'oreille autant que sur la —, having no more ears than the palm of my hand. La Font.

|| Mettre la — sur quelqu'un, to strike a person, to lay hands on a person; || Mettre la — sur quelque chose, to lay hands, to lay one's hands upon a thing. Mettre la — à l'œuvre, l'ouvrage, to set to work. fig. Mettre la — à la plume, to take up one's pen, to put pen to paper. Mettre la dernière — à un ouvrage, to give the finishing stroke to a thing; || fig. Mettre la — à la pâte, to put one's shoulder to the wheel. Tendre la —, to beg. fig. Teindre la — à quelqu'un, to lend a person a helping hand. mas. Avoir de la —, to execute well. Avoir la — honne, to be handy, to be skilful with one's hands; || fig. to be lucky, fortunate; || Avoir la — heureuse, to be lucky; || Avoir la — légère, to have a light hand; || (by extension) to be free with one's hands; || to be light-fingered. — fig. Il n'a pas les —s gourdes, his hands are not numbed. fig. Il n'a pas toujours les —s dans ses poches, his hands are not always in his own pockets. Avoir la — sûre, to have a steady hand. mas. Avoir un passage, un morceau dans la —, to have a passage, a piece in practice, war. Faire — basse, See BASSE. fig. Faire sa —, to make a good hand of it. fig. Etre haut la —, to be proud, imperious. Faire valoir une terre, un champ, etc., par ses —s, to farm one's own land one's self. Imposition des —s, laying on of hands. — de justice, hand of justice. (hyperb.) Grand comme la —, no bigger than one's hand. (hyperb.) Il a un appartement qui tiendrait dans la —, he has an apartment not big enough to swing a cat in. (hyperb.) Les —s m'en tombent, m'en sont tombées, I am, I was struck dumb. fig. (aux petits enfants, to children) Faire — morte, to let one's hand fall inert. N'y pas aller de — morte, to hit hard. (jeu) — caude, hot cockles. fig. L'argent ne lui tient pas dans les —s, money slips through his fingers. Prêter la — à quelque chose, to lend a hand to, to countenance a thing. Se laver les —s de quelque chose, to wash one's hands of a thing. Se tenir par la —, to go hand in hand. (by analogy) Se donner la —, to stand by each other. Sortir des —s de quelqu'un, to get out of a person's hands, clutches. Tenir la — à quelque chose, to see to a thing.

|| A la —, with the hand, by hand. Prendre des poissons à la —, to take fish with the hand. Un livre écrit à la —, a book written with the pen. fig. Une chose faite à la —, a thing done by hand; || A la — in hand. Avoir l'épée, le sabre, la plume, le pinceau à la —, to have sword, broadsword, the pen, the pencil in hand. Ne portant qu'un fusil à la —, carrying but a gun in his hand. Mérim. Il arma le fusil qu'il avait à la —, he cocked the gun he held in his hand. Mérim. Terminer une affaire le verre à la —, to settle an affair over a glass. Cela est bien à la —, that is very handy. || A la —, at hand. Vous avez là toutes choses à la —, vous n'avez qu'à prendre, you have every thing there within your reach, you have only to stretch out your hand.

A deux —s, two-handed. Epée à deux —s, two-handed sword. Cheval à deux —s, à toutes —s, horse for both driving and riding, for both saddle and harness; || fig. Cet homme est à deux —s, that man fills two employments. — Il nous distribua de tout à pleines —s, he gave us of every thing by handfuls. Ab. Elles prirent à belles — cette gelée d'amidon parfumée, they took handfuls of this perfumed starch jelly. Ab.

On est aux —, et la trêve se rompt, they are fighting, and the truce is broken. Rac. En venir aux —, to come to blows. fig. Mettre aux — deux ou plusieurs personnes, to set two or several persons together by the ears.

A — droite, — gauche, on, at, to the right, left. Preniez — gauche, turn to the left. Jeu de —, game in which the players strike each other; || Jeux de —, romping. Revers de —, blow with the back of the hand. En tout de —, in a trice; || Tour de —, legerdemain, sleight of hand. Une chose faite de — de maître, a thing done in a masterly manner. fig. Une intrigue ourdrie de — de courtisan, an intrigue arranged by a courtier's hand. Une chose faite de — d'homme, a work done by the hand of man.

De — en —, from hand to hand. L'argent passe de — en —, money passes from hand to hand. fig. Cette nouvelle est arrivée jusqu'à nous de — en —, this news reached us from mouth to mouth. fig. De longue —, See LONGUE. De la —, with the hand. Ecrire de la — gauche, to write with the left hand. Les arts de la —, manual arts. De la —, à la —, from hand to hand. Donner de l'argent de la —, à la —, to give money from hand to hand. De la première —, from the first hand. De la seconde —, de la troisième —, etc., from the second, third hand. De toutes —, from all hands. fig. Dans la —, dans les —, in the hands. Entre les —, in, into the hands.

En —, in one's hand, in hand. mian. Bride en —, See BRIDE. Prendre en — les intérêts de quelqu'un, to espouse the interests of a person. Avoir la parole en —, to be well spoken, to have a flow of words. Avoir preave en —, to have proof in hand. Etre en —, to be conveniently placed to do a thing; || (billiards) Etre en —, to have one's ball in hand; to be in hand. fig. En bonne —, en bonnes —, in good hands. En tierce, in the hands of a third party. En — propre, in, into any one's own hand. Par les —, through the hands.

Sous la —, at hand, ready at hand. (threat) Qu'il ne me tombe jamais sous la —, if ever he falls into my hands. Etre sous la — de l'autorité, sous la — de la justice, to be in the hands of the authority, of justice. fig. Sous —, under hand, man. Ce cheval est bien fait de la — en avant, that horse has a fine head and neck. Cheval de —, led horse. — de la lance, right hand. Lâcher, rendre la — à un cheval, to give a horse the bridle; || fig. Lâcher la — à quelqu'un, to slacken the reins, to give a person more liberty. Mener un cheval haut la —, (adverb.) Hant la —, See HAUT. Se payer par ses —, to pay one's self with one's own hands. Vider ses —, to empty one's hands. Plaider la — garnie, les — garnies, to have nine points of the law. Sans —, mettre, without either labour or expense. Ce fief est dans la — du roi, du seigneur, this fief is in the king's hands, the lord's hands. prov. Froides —, chaudes amours, a cold hand, a warm heart.

2 (Jeux de cartes, at cards) Avoir la —, to have the deal, to be the elder hand. Donner la —, to give the lead off. Avoir la —, faire la —, to deal, to make the trick. Faire une —, to make a trick. 3 (jeu de billard) une bonne —, to write a fine, a good hand. Je reconnais sa —, I recognize his hand, his handwriting. (A do mariage) hand. Offrir, proposer — à quelqu'un, to offer one's hand to a person, to propose. Épouser une femme de la — gauche, to make a left-handed, a morganatic marriage. 5 obsol. (marque de distinction) Donner, céder la — à quelqu'un, to give a person the right hand, the upper hand, the wall. 6 fig. (poissance) hand. La — toute-puissante de l'Etre suprême, the almighty hand of the Supreme Being. Volt. Les — glâces de la mort, the icy hand of death. Fen. Ma fortune, ma vie est dans vos —, est entre vos —, my fortune, my life is in your hands. Avoir une — de fer, to have an iron hand. Avoir la — légère, to have a light hand. Avoir la grande —, la haute —, to have the most authority. Avoir les — longues, to have great power. 7 (de certains animaux, of some animals) hand, paw. 8 (de quelques oiseaux, of some birds) claw. 9 bot. cirrus, cirrus. 10 (pelle de tôle) hand-shovel, shovel. 11 (d'un poils, of a well) hook. 12 (d'un carrosse, of a coach) grapple. 13 (d'un tiroir, of a drawer) handle. 14 (morceau de galon attaché au dedans d'un carrosse) body-loop. 15 station. Une — de papier, a quire of paper. 16 com. — courante, waste-book.

MAIN-ŒUVRE, sf. workmanship, making, workman's labour.

MAIN-FORTE, sf. assistance. Donner, prêter —, forcé à l'exécution des lois, etc., to give, to lend assistance in the execution of the laws, etc.

MAINLEVEE, mang-lub-vay, sf. law, replevy, withdrawal.

MAINMISE, mang-miz, sf. fend. law. seizure. fig. User de —, to strike.

MAINMORTABLE, mang-mortabl', adj. mf. 1 law, subject to mortmain. 2 (des corps et communautés) in mortmain.

MAINMORTE, mang-mort, sf. law. mortmain. Gens de —, convents, hospitals. Biens en —, tombes en —, property in mortmain.

MAINT, mang, adj. m. collect. fem. —E, many a. Autres — qu'elles, after many a joke. La Font. —es fois, many a time. Après —s et —s combats, after many fights. Caro.

MAINTENANT, mangt-nang, adv. now, at present.

MAINTENANT QUE, conj. now that.

MAINTENIR, mangt-neer, va. (from main and tenir) 1 to maintain, to support. Cette barre de fer maintient la charpente, this iron bar supports the whole framework. 2 (morally) to maintain, to sustain, to uphold, to keep up, to preserve. Les officiers couraient de tous côtés pour — l'ordre, the officers ran about to maintain order. Barth. Dieu vous maintienne dans cette bonne disposition, may God preserve you in that good disposition. M^{me} de Sév. 3 (affirmer) to maintain.

SE MAINTENIR, vpr. 1 to keep, to stand one's ground, to hold one's own, to keep up, to remain, to be maintained, kept up. Ce vieillard se maintiendra longtemps —, this old man will keep up a long time. (morally) Les Portugais, mal affermis dans leurs conquêtes, se virent hors d'état de s'y —, the Portuguese, not well fortified in their conquests, found themselves unable to stand their ground. Rayn. L'empire se maintint en grande paix, the empire remained in a state of profound peace. Boss. Se — dans les bonnes grâces de quelqu'un, to keep in the good graces of a person. 2 (tenir bon) to keep up, to hold good.

MAINTENUE, mangt-nû, sf. fend. law. confirmation of possession.

MAINTIEN, mang-iyang, sm. 1 maintenance, preservation, keeping up, maintaining. Le — de l'ordre, de la discipline, the maintaining of order, of discipline. 2 (contenance) carriage, deportment. Ils imposaient par la gravité de leur —, the gravity of their deportment was imposing. Barth. N'avoir point de —, to have an awkward deportment.

MAIRE, mayr, sm. mayor. Adjoint du —, deputy-mayor. anc. — do palais mayor of the palace.

MAIRIE, may-ree, sf. 1 mayoralty. anc. — du palais, mayoralty of the palace. 2 (temps) mayoralty. 3 (bâtiment) Town-hall.

MAIS, may, conj. 1 but. Non-sentement il est bon, — encore il est brave, he is not only good, but he is brave. H. se défendit, — avec mollesse, H. defended himself, but coldly. Aug. Th. — attendons la fin, but let us wait for the end. La Font. Figurez-vous un homme petit, — robuste, picture to yourself a little, but thickset man. Mérim. Je vous crois, — pourtant on crie, I believe you, yet they complain. Boil. — quoi! répondez-vous, C. nous pent-il nuire? why I shall you say, can C. injure us? Boil. 2 (pour s'excuser) but, why. 3 (au commencement d'une phrase) but, — enfin, que dites-vous de cela? but, in short, what do you think of that? Quoi? Je m'entends, — excusez? hey? I know what I mean, but what of that? Boil. — tandis que, poor vaquer à sa douleur, il, etc., but whilst, to indulge in his grief, he, etc. Hamil. —, qu'avez-vous dit, qu'avez-vous fait? but, what did you say, what did you do? — revenons à notre propos, but let us return to our subject. — il est temps de finir, but it is time to finish. 4 (substantif) but. Il y a toujours avec lui des si et des —, there are always ifs and buts with him.

MAIS, adv. (is always joined to pouvoir) Bat l'air, qui n'en peut —, beats the air, who has nothing to do with it. La Font. Je n'en puis —, I cannot help it. En puis-je — de vos sottises? can I help your follies?

MAIS, mab-iss, sm. See BLÉ DE TR-QUE.

MAISON, may-zang, sf. (Lat. mansio) 1 house. Sa — de plaisance était également superbe et délicieuse, his pleasure-house was as handsome as it was charming. Boss. Il se divertit beaucoup à faire ajuster sa —, et y dépense bien de l'argent, he takes much pleasure in arranging his house, and spends a great deal of money upon it. M^{me} de Sév. — des champs, farm-house. — de campagne, country-house, scat. — entre cour et jardin, house between yard and garden. De voir aller en cette guile l'animal lent et sot, — to see going in such a way the slow tortoise and her house. La Font. Garder la —, to mind the house; to remain at home. — royale, royal residence. — garnie, private lodging-house. — de santé, private asylum, hospital. — d'éducation, academy, seminary. — de jeu, gaming-house. — de prêt, pawn-broker's shop. — de commerce, commercial, mercantile house, establishment. — de banque, banking-house. — de commission, commission-agency. — de ville, — commune, Town-hall. — d'arrêt, — de détention, — de force, — de correction, goal, House of Detention, county-gaol, House of Correction. La — de Dieu, the house of God, the Lord's house. Petite —, small house; || Petites —, madhouse, Bedlam. Non dire et mes raisons iroient aux petites —, my reasons and my arguments will be called madness. La Font. prov. Il est à mettre aux petites —, c'est être échappé des petites —, he is a fit subject for Bedlam, he is a Bedlamite, a madman broke loose. fig. astrol. Les doctes — du soleil, the twelve houses of the sun. (hyperb.) Par-dessus les —, beyond all reason, all measure. 2 (by extension) house, home, household, establishment. Tenir, lever —, to keep house, to begin house-keeping. — Il uae — bien dispendieuse, bien lourde, he keeps up a very expensive establishment. Faire une bonne —, to form a good establishment. 3 (ceux qui demeurent et vivent ensemble) household, family. De toute la — je suis peiné, of the whole house I am perhaps the one who letters gave the least pleasure to. J.-J. Rouss.

Toutes les — s'il furent fermées, every house was closed to him. Rayn. La — paternelle, the paternal roof. Le maître, la maîtresse, l'enfant, le fils, la fille de la —, the master, mistress, child, son, daughter of the house. 4 (les gens) household, domestic establishment. Nous sommes de toutes les —s, we belong to every household. Lamart. (des princes, of princes) Faire sa —, to form one's household establishment. Faire sa nettie, to clear the house. Les gens de la —, the servants of the house, family. Les gens de —, the servants. — du roi, king's household. La — militaire du roi, — du roi, the king's guards. 5 fig. (race, famille) house, family. La — royale, the royal house. Un homme, une femme, un enfant, une fille de bonne —, a man, woman, child, daughter of a good family. 6 (communauté d'ecclésiastiques) house.

MAISONNÉE, may-so-nay, sf. collect. whole house, family.

MAISONNETTE, may-zo-net, sf. dimin. of maison, small house.

MAÎTRE, maytr', sm. (Lat. magister) 1 master. L'esclave n'a qu'un —, l'ambitieux en a autant qu'il y a de gens utiles à sa fortune, the slave has but one master, the ambitious man has as many as there are people necessary to his fortune. La Bruy. Avoir bon —, to be in the service of a great man. Mon —, l'empereur mon —, etc. fig. my master, the emperor my master, etc. fig. Chercher —, to be wavering, undecided. prov. Il n'est meilleur serviteur que le —, the best servant is the master. prov. Tel —, tel valet, like master, like man. Nul ne peut servir deux —s, no man can serve two masters. 2 (celui qui commande) master, ruler. Notre ennemi, c'est notre —, our master is our enemy. La Font. Rester — du champ de bataille, to remain master of the field of battle. Agir, parler en —, to act, to speak imperiously, masterly. Chacun est —, le — chez soi, every one is master in his own house. Le — de la maison, the master of the house. (by analogy) L'esprit philosophique qui est aujourd'hui le — de tous les arts, the philosophical spirit which is now the master of all the arts. Volt. Heurter, frapper, sonner en —, to give an imperious knock; — se rendre — des esprits, des cœurs, to gain over the minds, hearts; — se rendre — de la conversation, to engross the conversation; — se rendre — du feu, to get the fire under. Être — de ses passions, to get the mastery of one's passions. Il faut être patient pour être — de soi et des autres, it requires patience to be master of one's self and of others. Fléch. Puisqu'alors on n'est pas — de sa réflexion, since one is not master of one's reflection. Condil. Cet écrivain, cet orateur, ce poète est — de son sujet, est — de sa matière, that writer, orator, poet is thoroughly master of the subject, the matter he treats of. Vous êtes van —, you are my master. (by analogy) Les anciens, nos —s en éloquence, the ancients, our masters in eloquence. Condil. Être le —, être — de faire quelque chose, to be free to do a thing. absol. Vous êtes bien le —, you are quite free. Prov. Trouver son —, to find one's match. 3 (propriétaire) master, owner. Il est — de ce château, he is the owner of that mansion. Un cheval qui n'a point de —, a horse that has no owner. 4 (celui qui enseigne quelque art, etc.) master, teacher. — de langue française, French teacher. — à danser, dancing-master. (by analogy) Nos —s sont l'expérience et le sentiment, our teachers are experience and feeling. J.-J. Rouss. (by analogy) Le plus renommé des conquérants regardait Homère comme un — qui lui apprenait à bien régner, the most renowned of conquerors considered Homer as a master who taught him how to reign well. Boss. — des arts, master of arts. — de pension, boarding-school master. — d'école, school-master. — d'étude, usher. fig. Le temps est un grand —, time is a great teacher. 5 anc. (apprenti reçu dans un corps de métier) master. Il est passé —, he has been received a master. 6 (artisan qui emploie d'autres ouvriers) master. — maçon, master-mason. — valet, — garçon, — clerc, head man, head clerk. — d'équipage, boatswain. (by analogy) — canonier, master gunner. — charpentier, ship's carpenter. — calfat, master calker. — des hautes œuvres, executioner, hangman. fig. Il est passé — en fourberie, he is a master cheat. 7 — sot, arrant fool. — fou, nadepou. — homme, un — sire, a clever man, a man of authority. 8 (expert) master. Des règles toutes contraires à celles qui ont guidé nos grands —s, rules quite contrary to those which guided our great masters. Volt. 9 (particul.) (des grands peintres) masters. Les —s de l'école française, the masters of the French school. Les ouvrages de Raphaël, ce des —s, the works of R. that master of masters. De Boss. 9 law. Mr. Sergeant. pop. — Aliboron, Master long-ears. fig. — Jacques, factotum. prov. (in a bad part) — Godin, slly cur, cunning fox. prov. fig. Compter de clerc à —, See compter. 10 petit —, spark, pop. corcomb. 11 — des requêtes, master of requests, referendar. — d'hôtel du roi, butler of the king's household. Grand — des cérémonies, grand master of the ceremonies. Grand — des eaux et forêts, commissioner of Woods and Forests. Grand — de l'Université de France, grand master of the University of France. 12 — de chapelle, precentor, chapel master. 13 (titre donné aux chefs des ordres militaires) master. Grand — de l'ordre de Malte, grand principal. de Malte. 14 (principal) grand, principal. Le — sùtel, the grand, the high altar. Le — brin d'une plante, the stem of a plant.

MAÎTRESSE, may-tress, sf. 4 (celle qui a des domestiques, etc.) mistress. 2 (celle qui commande, etc.) lady, mistress. La — du logis, the mistress of the house. Elle est dame et — de ce lieu, she is the lady and mistress of this place. La — d'une hôtellerie, d'une auberge, the landlady of an inn. Une âme guerrière est — du corps qu'elle anime, a warlike spirit has command over the body which it gives life to. Boss. La raison ne doit-elle pas être — de tons nos mouvements? ought not reason to guide all our movements? Mol. 3 (celle qui enseigne) teacher, mistress, governess. — de pension, — d'école, school-mistress. — de piano, de chant, de danse, etc., music, singing, dancing — mistress. Sons —, under-teacher. (à la tête d'un établissement) chief. — lingère, head seamstress. — couturière, head dress-maker. 5 (des choses inanimées, of inanimate things) chief, principal. La — branche d'un arbre, the main branch of a tree. 6 Une — femme, a notable woman. Mlle C. était une — femme qui menait tout son monde à la baguette, Miss C. was a superior woman who ruled all her dependants with a tight hand. Balz. 7 Petite —, a lady of studied elegance. Un appartement de petite —, a coquet little apartment. 8 (comme aimée) sweet-heart, mistress, love, intended, lady-love. 9 (particul.) mistress.

MAÎTRISE, may-triz, sf. 1 anc. freedom, a freeman's right, privilege. 2 —, grande —, mastership (de Maître, etc., of Malta, etc.) 3 (l'emploi de maître de chapelle) precentor.

MAÎTRISER, may-tre-zay, va. (from maître) to rule, to lord it over. Bien-tôt il les règle, il les maîtrise dans leur conduite, he soon rules them, and gets the mastery of them. La Bruy. Il ne peut — ses chevaux, he cannot manage his horses. fig. — ses passions, his sentiments, son cour, to get the better of, to master one's passions, one's feelings. fig. — son âme dans les occasions fortes, to have command over one's self on great occasions. Beaum. fig. — la fortune, to secure fortune.

SE MAÎTRISER, vp. fig. to have command over one's self, to control one's self.

MAJESTÉ, mah-zhays-tay, sf. (Lat. majestas) 1 majesty. La — divine, la — royale, the divine, the royal majesty. La — du trône, the majesty of the throne. Dieu y parut dans toute sa —, God appeared in all his majesty. Russ. La — des lois, the majesty of laws. La — du culte, the majesty of divine worship. Mass. 2 (by extension) stateliness, dignity. Un air de —, an air of dignity. 3 (titre) majesty. Vos —s, your Majesties. (La — le roi de Suède, his Majesty the King of Sweden).

MAJESTUEUSEMENT, mah-zhays-ou-uliz-mah, adv. majestically, nobly.

MAJESTUEUX, mah-zhays-ti-uh, adj. m. fem. MAJESTUEUSE, majestic, stately, majestic. Air —, majestic air. Front —, a noble forehead. La cime du — Jura, the summit of the majestic mount Jura. J.-J. Rouss.

MAJEUR, mazi-uh, adj. m. fem. —E, (Lat. major) 1 most important, great. La —e partie, the greater part. music. Tierce —e, third major. (substantiv.) Passer du — à un mineur, to pass from the major to the minor. (at pique) Tierce —e, a tierce major. Quinte —e, a quint major. 2 absol. (important) most important, great. Une affaire —e, an important business. Force —e, See force. 3 law. of age, major. —s, sm. pl. obsol. (ancêtres) ancestors, forefathers.

MAJEURE, mazi-uh, sf. logie, major.

MAJOR, mazi-or, sm. 1 mil. major. — général, major general. 2 (dans une place de guerre) major. 3 État —, See état. Adjudant —, chirurgien, — tambour —, sergent —, ronde —, See adjudant, etc. 4 (at pique) Tierce —, quinte —, See majeure.

MAJORAT, mazi-or-rah, sm. majorat.

MAJORDOME, mazi-or-dum, sm. (It.) major-domo.

MAJORITÉ, mazi-or-te-y, sf. 1 (des votants, des suffrages) majority. — absolue, absolute, strict, bare majority. (la pluralité des individus) majority. Les sots, depuis Adam, sont en —, since the time of Adam the majority have been fools. G. de B. 2 absol. patrim. majority. 4 law, majority.

MAJUSCULE, mazi-fis-kil, adj. mf. (Lat.) 1 lettre —, capital letter, capital. 2 sf. Grande —, large capital.

MAKI, mak-ee, sm. zool. lemur, makis.

MAL, mal, sm. pl. malum. (Lat. malum) 1 evil, ill, wrong, harm, injury, mischief. Ce pelé, ce galeux, o'd venait tout leur —, this many beast which was the cause of all their sufferings. La Font. L'homme est sujet à mille maux, man is liable to a thousand evils. J.-J. Rouss. — physi- que, — moral, physical, moral evil. Je ne lui veux aucun —, I bear him no ill-will. La loi civile est plus attentive à réparer le —, civil law is more eager to redress evil. Montesq. — Je prie Dieu qu'il me garantisse de tous les maux, I pray God to protect me from all evil. Mme de Sév. Il n'en veut —, it n'en veut — de mort, he owes me a grudge; he has a deadly spite against me. Les ouvrages qu'on publie contre nous ne font de — à personne, the works they publish against us do no harm to any one. Ab. Il a eu plus de peur que de —, he was more frightened than hurt. 2 (ce qui est coutraire à la vertu, etc.) wrong. Il vaut mieux prévenir le — que d'être réduit à le punir, it is better to prevent crime than to be obliged to punish it. Fên. Quel y a-t-il à cela? what harm is there in that? La science du bien et du —, the knowledge of good and evil. Penser à —, to mcan harm. 3 (souffrir physique) pain, ache. Vous voyez bien que vous faites — à cet enfant, you see clearly that you are hurting that child. Avoir — à la tête, un grand — à la tête, un grand — de tête, to have the head-ache, a bad head-ache, a violent head-ache. La tête me fait —, my head aches. — aux yeux, — d'yeux, sore eyes. — aux oreilles, sore ears. — aux dents, — de dents, the tooth-ache. Où a-t-il pris ce —? where did he catch that complaint? — d'effaut, labour. — de mer, sea-sickness. — du pays, homesickness, nostalgia. Le — du pays l'avait pris, he was seized with the home-sickness. Sr-B. 4 (peine) ado, trouble, toil, hardship. Avoir bien du — à gagner sa vie, to be hard put to, to find it hard work to get a living. (morally) Avoir du —, bien du — à faire une chose, to be hard put to do a thing. 5 (dommage) mischief, harm, hurt, damage. Cette gelée à tout perdit, il y a encore plus de — que l'on ne croit, this frost has destroyed every thing, there is more mischief done than is supposed. 6 (inconvenient) thing to be regretted, inconvenience, evil. C'est un — que vous n'avez pas écrit plus tôt cette lettre, it is a pity you did not write this letter sooner. 7 (discours désavantageux) evil, ill. Dire du — de son prochain, to speak ill of one's neighbour. C'est un homme qui prend tout en —, he is a man who takes offence at every thing. Tous les autres comédiens en ont dit tous les maux du monde, all the other actors have spoken ill of it. Mol.

MAL, adv. 4 badly, wrong. Cette affaire va —, that business is a failure. Il en prit —, force Elats en patrént, it turned unlucky, many states suffered from it. La Font. Quand nous ne ferions pas si mauvaise chère, nous ne nous en porteries pas plus —, even if we did not fare so ill, we should be none the worse for it. Le Sage. Le palais du vice-legate est vieux, fort —, legatle, the palace of the vice-legate is old, and in an untenable state of repair. De Bross. Il écrit fort —, he writes very badly. Il est —, il se tient — à cheval, he sits badly on horseback. Il n'y a pas un homme au monde qui soit plus — en Apennins que le grand-duc, there is not a man so badly off for mountains as the Grand-Duke. De Bross. Ses affaires vont de — en pis, things go worse and worse with him. Etre — dans ses affaires, to be at an ill pass. — à propos, unreasonably, improperly, preposterously, unadvisedly. Prendre — une chose, to take amiss, to take a thing in bad part. Se trouver —, to swoon, to faint, to faint away, to be uncomfortable. fig. Il s'est trouvé — de n'avoir pas suivi mes conseils, he was all the worse for not having followed my advice. Deux riches laborieux étaient — ensemble, two rich husbandmen fell out together. Le Sage. Etre —, to be seriously ill. Etre fort —, to be dangerously ill, to be in an alarming state of health. Etre su plus —, to be in an hopeless state, to be given up. 2 (is employed) adjective in the following phrases. Bon an, — an, taking one year with another. Bon gre, — gré, willing or unwilling; no less, volens.

MAL-APPRIS, adj. sm. fem. —E, ill-bred, unmanly.

MAL-ÊTRE, sm. uneasiness, painful sensation.

MAL-JUGÉ, sm. an illegal sentence, an erroneous sentence.

MALACHITE, mal-sk-it, sf. (Gr.) min. malachite, mountain green.

MALACTIQUE, mal-ak-tik, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 med. malactie. 2 sm. malactie.

MALADE, mal-ad, adj. mf. (from mal) 1 ill, sick, unwell. — à la mort, à mourir, ill to death. Tomber —, to fall ill, to be taken ill. Etre — de la poitrine, to be in a consumption. ironic. Vous voilà bien —! you are much to be pitied! Etre — d'imagination, to fancy one's self sick. Avoir l'air —, to look ill. 2 (des parties du corps) diseased, sore. Ne touchez pas son bras —, do not touch his sore arm. Partie —, the part affected. 3 (des animaux, of animals) sick, ill, diseased, distempered. Les animaux —s de la peste, the animals attacked with the plague. La Font. 4 (by extension) (de choses inanimées) sickly. Cet arbre est —, this tree is sickly.

5 fig. (du cœur, de l'esprit, etc.) disordered. Son cœur — ne sait plus rien sentir, his wounded heart is insensible. — J. Rouss. Il faut croire que ma volonté était bien —, car, etc., you must have thought me very weak, for, etc. Ab. 6 (substantif) patient. C'est un bon, un mauvais —, he is a good, a bad patient. Visiter, garder les —s, to visit, to attend the sick. Faire le —, to sham sickness, to pretend to be ill.

MALADIE, mal-ad-ee, sf. 1 illness, sickness, disease, malady. — légère, indisposition. Relever de —, to recover from illness. — mortelle, mortal disease. — du pays, home-sickness. Je n'ai pas la — du pays, I am not home-sick. Jacq. 2 absol. epidemic. 3 (des animaux, of animals) disease. 4 (par extension) (des plantes, etc., of plants, etc.) disease. 5 fig. (de l'âme, etc., of the soul, etc.) sickness, morbidity. L'ennui, cette triste — du cœur et de l'esprit, the spleen, that disease of the heart and of the mind. Nod. L'ignorance, la plus dangereuse des —s, ignorance, the most dangerous of complaints. Boss. 6 fig. (gout excessif) foible. Il aime excessivement les tableaux, c'est sa —, he is picture mad.

MALADIF, mal-ad-if, adj. m. fem. MALAIVE, sickly, puny, unhealthy, ailing.

MALADREME, mal-ad-ruh-ree, sf. anc. hospital for lepers, lazaretto.

MALADRESSE, mal-ad-ress, sf. 1 awkwardness, unskillfulness, clumsiness. 2 (morally) unskillfulness.

MALADROIT, mal-ad-roôt, adj. m. fem. —E 1 awkward, clumsy, unskillful, bungling. C'est un ouvrier fort — he is a bungling workman. Qu'on dise encore que V. est — de ses mains, say again that V. is awkward. Jacq. 2 (morally) stupid, foolish, unskillful. 3 (substantif) awkward fellow, stupid creature.

MALADROITEMENT, mal-ad-roôt-mang, adv. awkwardly, clumsily, unskillfully, foolishly.

MALAI, mal-lay, sm. Malay, the Malayan language.

MALAISE, mal-ayz, sm. 1 uneasiness, uncomfortableness. Il en résulte du — et quelquefois de l'humeur, it produces often uncomfortableness, nay, even ill humour. De Bross. 2 (morally) Il éprouve une sorte de — an milieu d'un monde inconnu, he feels a kind of uneasiness in the midst of strangers. C. Del. fig. Etre dans le —, to be in straitened circumstances.

MALAISE, mal-ay-zay, adj. m. fem. —E, 4 difficult, hard. Il n'est pas — de tromper un trompeur, it is not a hard matter to cheat a deceiver. La Font. Il ne serait pas trop — de les gagner de vitesse, it would not be a hard job to outstrip them. Ab. 2 (incommode) inconvenient, troublesome, hard. Dans un — chemin montent, s'abandonnent, — on a rising, sandy, loislome road. La Font. 3 (relativement à la fortune) in straitened circumstances. — malgré ses richesses, always hard up in spite of all his riches. De Bross.

MALAISEMENT, mal-ay-zay-mang, adv. with difficulty.

MALANDRE, mal-ang-dr, sf. 1 med. vet. malanders. 2 carp. rotten wood.

MALANDREUX, mal-ang-drux, adj. m. fem. MALANDREUSE, Bois —, rotten wood.

MALART, mal-art, sm. mailard.

MALAVISE, mal-a-ve-zay, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 ill-advised, ill-judged, imprudent, rash, silly. 2 (substantif) Vous êtes un — de parler ainsi, it is very imprudent of you to speak so.

MALAXER, mal-ak-say, to. (Gr.) pharma. to work up.

MALBATTI, mal-ba-tée, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 ill-shaped. Un homme —, a gawky fellow. 2 (substantif) Un grand —, a great gawky fellow.

MALCONTENT, mal-kong-tang, adj. m. fem. —E, absol. dissatisfied, dissatisfied. Votre père est — de vous, your father is dissatisfied with you. (substantif and elliptic) Des chevaux coujés à la —, hairs cut to a malcontent s.

MALDISANT, mal-de-tang, adj. m. fem. —E, (little used) slanderous.

MALE, mal, sm. (Lat. masculus) male. Le — et la femelle, the male and the female.

MALE, adv. mf. 1 male. Un enfant —, a male child. Perdrix —, a cock partridge. bot. Fleurs —s, male flowers. Encue —, See OLIVAN. 2 (by extension) (fort) manly, masculine, stout, strong, vigorous. Une figure —, a manly countenance. Une voix —, a manly voice. 3 (morally) Une — assurance, noble confidence. Cora. 4 fig. lit. fine arts, manly, strong, bold. Une — éloquence, a manly eloquence. Le Sage. Des pensées —s, bold, manly thoughts. Un pinceau —, a bold touch.

MALEBETE, mal-hayt, sf. (little used) a person that is not to be trusted.

MALEDICTION, mal-ay-dik-syong, sf. (Lat.) malediction, curse, imprecation. Ce père a donné sa — à son fils, that father cursed his son. — sur eux! a curse upon them! (by analogy) C'est comme une —, it is like a curse.

MALEFAM, mal-fang, sf. absol. cruel hunger. Elle est en danger de mourir de —, si vous ne lui portez aide, she is likely to be starved to death, if you do not help her. Nod.

MALEFICE, mal-ay-fees, sm. (Lat. maleficium) sorcery, witchcraft.

MALEFICIE, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 sickly, lingering, pining. 2 (par la nature, la maladie) sickly. 3 (abime) injured. Le clocher un peu — par le canon, the steeple a little damaged by cannon-balls. De Bross. L'honneur de la nation qui avait été un pen — par son prédécesseur, the honour of the nation somewhat tarnished by his predecessor. De Bross.

MALEFIQUE, mal-ay-fik, adj. mf. astrol. malevolent, malignant.

MALENORT, mal-mor, sf. absol. ill fate, tragic death, bad end.

MALENCONTRE, mal-ang-kong-tr, sf. mishap, ill luck, misfortune. Puisse-il y arriver sans — I may he arrive there without any disaster! Le Sage.

MALENCONTREUSEMENT, mal-ang-kong-trab-z mang, adv. unfortunately, unluckily.

MALENCONTREUX, mal-ang-kong-troh, adj. m. fem. MALENCONTREUSE, 4 unlucky, unfortunate. 2 (des choses, of things) unlucky, fatal.

MALENTENDU, mal-ang-tang-dû, sm. misunderstanding, mistake.

MALEISTE, mal-poyst, interj. plague to it!

MALÉVOLE, mal-ay-vol, adj. mf. (Lat. malevolus) (little used) malevolent, evil-disposed.

MALFAÇON, mal-fah-song, sf. 1 (little used) defect. 2 fig. (little used) underhand dealing, cheat, trick.

MALFAIRE, mal-fayr, vn. (only used in the infn.) to do mischief. Il se plaisait à — pour le mal seul, he delighted in doing mischief for mischief's sake. Aog. Th.

MALFAISANCE, mal-fuh-zàngs, sf. (little evil) evil-doing, wrong-doing.

MALFAISANT, mal-fuh-zàng, adj. m. fem. — E., 4 mischievous, spiteful, malevolent, malicious. Un des ennemis les plus cruels et les plus — s'quait jamais eus ce pays, one of the most cruel and malicious enemies that the country ever had. Si-B. 6. Animaux —s, mischievous animals. La Font. 2 (poussie à la santé) hurtful, unwholesome.

MALFAIT, ppa. of MALFAIRE, fem. — E., 4 ill-made, badly-done. 2 ill-shaped. MALFAITEUR, mal-fay-tuhr, sm. evil-doer, malefactor, offender. Une bande de —s, a band of evil-doers.

MALFAME, mal-fah-may, adj. m. fem. — E., ill-famed.

MALGRACIEUSEMENT, mal-grah-syuh-zàng, adv. rudely, unmannerly, w. ill-will.

MALGRACIEUX, mal-grah-syuh, adj. m. fem. MALGRACIEUX, obsol. rude, uncivil.

MALGRÉ, mal-gray, prep. 4 in spite of. C'est — moi que vous avez fait cela, you have done this against my will. 2 (par rapport aux choses) notwithstanding, for all that. — le désordre des finances, il se fit payer la dette de N. notwithstanding the disordered state of the finances, he obtained M's portion. Bar. Je l'ai reconnu — l'obscureté, notwithstanding it was dark, I recognized him. — cela, vous ne sauriez croire combien, etc., for all that you cannot think how much, etc. Volt. — tant de jours accumulés, — une si longue expérience de la vie, je n'ai point encore, notwithstanding so many years, notwithstanding so long an experience of life, I have not yet. Chat. — tout, in spite of all. — tout, vous ne réussirez pas, nevertheless you will not succeed. (adverbial) Bon gré, mal gré, will he still be; whether one will or not.

MALGRÉ QUE, adv. loc. — qu'on en ait, in spite of one's self. Hamil.

MALHABILE, mal-ab-el, adj. mf. unskillful (dans les affaires, dans les négociations, in business, in negotiations). Cette disposition d'esprit rendait le duc — à gouverner ses affaires, that turning of mind incapacitated the duke for managing his affairs. Aug. Th.

MALHABILEMENT, mal-ab-el-màng, adv. unskillfully, unskillfully.

MALIABLETÉ, mal-ab-el-tay, sf. unskillfulness, awkwardness.

MALHEUR, mal-uh, sm. 4 misfortune. Avoir du —, bien du —, to be unfortunate, to be very unfortunate. Préchier quelqu'un dans le —, dans un abîme, de —, to plunge a person into woe, into an abyss of woe. J.-J. Rousse. Être dans le —, to be unlucky. Le — lui en veut, the fates have a spite against him. Dans son —, it is a certain petits bonheurs qu'il n'appartient qu'à lui, in his misfortunes, he has some lucky happy peculiar to himself. M^{re} de Sev. Pour surcroît de —, to make the matter worse. Jurer de —, See Jurer. Porter —, to bring ill-luck. prov. Il n'y a qu'un être — en ce monde, nothing like chance. 2 (désastre) calamity, disaster, downfall.

Il est des — qui nous séparent pour toujours des hommes, there are calamities which separate us for ever from mankind. Chat. Je vous soulaite une patience qui triomphe de vos —s, I wish you patience enough to triumph over adversity. M^{re} de Sev. Ne vous affligez pas de cela, c'est un petit —, it is not a great misfortune, it is not a disaster. prov. Un — ne vient jamais seul, one misfortune comes on the back of another. 3 (followed by the prep. à) (threat) woe to...! — à qui est exposé à l'entretien d'un tel personnage j'ose à lui dire que c'est un danger de holding any conversation with such a fellow! La Bruy. — aux vaincus! woe to the vanquished!

MALHEURE, adv. loc. unfortunately, unhappily.

MALHEUREUSEMENT, mal-ob-ruh-màng, adv. 4 unfortunately. 2 (par malheur) unfortunately.

MALHEUREUX, mal-uh-ruh, adj. m. fem. MALHEUREUX, 4 unhappy, unfortunate, wretched, miserable. Être — au jeu, en affaires, en amour, to be unfortunate at play, in business, in love. Le genre humain serait trop — si, mankind would be too unfortunate if. Volt. Un destin sévère m'attache à cette malheureuse patrie, stern fate binds me to that unhappy country. Fén. prov. Être — comme les pierres, to be extremely unfortunate. 2 (des choses, of things) (affligent) wretched, pitiful. Passion malheureuse — requête. 3 (des choses, of things) (désastre) disastrous, calamitous, sad, fatal. Il y a des temps — où les fautes sont inévitables, there are sad times when faults are unavoidable. Volt. Il est — d'avoir affaire à un tel homme, it is a sad thing to have to do with such a man. Faire une fin malheureuse, to come to an untimely end. 4 (qui porte malheur) ominous. Une guerre malheureuse, a disastrous war. Cette circonstance est d'un —, augere, that is an ill-omened circumstance. Cet homme a la physionomie, la mine malheureuse, that man has an inauspicious look, countenance. Ce joueur a la main malheureuse, that man has an unlucky hand. Avoir la main malheureuse, See Main.

5 fig. (hyperb.) pitiful, sorry, wretched, beggarly. Un — écrivain, wretched writer. Un — auteur, wretched author.

6 (médiocre) paltry, beggarly. Pour un — écu qu'il a voulu épargner, for one beggarly half-crown which he tried to save. Réduit à une malheureuse chambre, confined to a beggarly room.

MALHEUREUX, sm. 4 wretched, distressed, indigent person. Les —, the poor. 2 (un méchant homme) a wretch.

MALHONNÊTE, mal-o-nayt, adj. mf. 4 dishonest. 2 (incivil) rude, unmannerly. Avoir un ton, des manières —s, to have a rude voice, rude manners.

MALHONNÊTEMENT, mal-o-nayt-màng, adv. 4 dishonestly. 2 (avec incivilité) uncivilly, rudely.

MALHONNÊTÉ, mal-o-nayt-tay, sf. 4 rudeness, uncivility. 2 (paroles, actions inciviles) impudence, rude thing, rude words.

MALICE, mal-ees, sf. (Lat. malitia) 1 spite, malice. Je restai toujours exposé à la — de mes ennemis, I was always a victim to the spite of my enemies. Montresq. Il est plein de —, he is full of mischief. Un homme sans —, a man void of spite. prov. fig. Un innocent fourré de —, a saintlike devil. 2 (des animaux, of animals) mischief. 3 (des choses, of things) La — d'une action, the spitefulness of an action. La — du pêche, the malignity of sin. 4 (action) a spiteful action. 5 (disposition à la gaïeté) roguishness, archness, slyness. 6 (espieglerie) trick, prank. Entendre — à quelque chose, to find out the jest of a thing.

MALICIEUSEMENT, mal-e-syuh-zàng, adv. maliciously, mischievously.

MALICIEUX, mal-e-syuh, adj. m. fem. MALICIEUX, 4 malicious, mischievous. 4 est — comme un vieux singe, he is as mischievous as an old monkey. 2 (gai) sprightly, roguish, waggish. 3 man. Cheval — vicious horse.

MALIGNEMENT, mal-e-syuh-màng, adv. maliciously.

MALICITÉ, mal-e-syuh, sf. (Lat. malicia) 1 malice, mischievousness, unkindness. 2 fig. (de certaines choses) malignity. La — du sort, de la fortune, the malignity of fate, of fortune. La — des astres, the malignity of the stars. 3 (qualité nuisible) La — des bumeurs, the malignancy of humours.

MALIN, mal-ang, adj. m. fem. MALIN, (Lat. malignus) 1 mischievous, hurtful. C'est un esprit —, he has a mischievous turn of mind. C'est une maline bête, he is a wicked fellow, a mischievous dog.

L'esprit —, le — esprit, absol. le —, the evil spirit, the evil one, the devil, Satan. 2 (espigle) waggish. Le Français, né —, crea le Vaudeville, the French, naturally gay, invented the vaudeville. Boil. 3 (by analogy) (des choses, of things) arch, roguish. Discours —, sarcastic speech. Un regard, un œil, un sourire —, a quash look, eye, smile. Maligne joie, malignant joy. 4 (des personnes, of persons) sly, shrewd, cunning. 5 (nuisible) malignant. Ulcère —, a plague malignant, malignant ulcer, sore. 6 (substantif.) shrewd fellow, old fox, sly dog.

MALINE, mal-en, sf. nau, spring tide.

MALINES, mal-en, sf. 1 gong. Maline, Mechin. 2 Mechin lace, mechin.

MALINGRE, mal-angr, adj. mf. feeble, peaking, poor, sickly, puny. Un enfant —, a puny child.

MALINTENTIONNÉ, mal-ang-thé-sy-onay, adj. m. fem. — E., 1 evil-disposed, ill-meaning. 2 (substantif.) ill-meaning person.

MALITORNE, mal-e-torn, adj. mf. 1 awkward, uncouth, clumsy. 2 (substantif.) C'est le plus grand — que j'aie jamais vu, that man is the most awkward doody I ever saw. Vol.

MALLE, mal, sf. 1 trunk. Faire sa —, to pack up one's trunk. Il a fait ses —s, he has packed up his things; he is ready to start. 2 — poste, the mail coach, the mail. Courrier de la —, the mail guard. 3 (sorte de panier) pedler's basket.

MALLEABILE, mal-ay-ab-e-le-tay, sf. malleability, malleableness.

MALLEABLE, mal-ay-abl, adj. mf. (des métaux, of metals) malleable.

MALLEOLE, mal-ay-ol, sf. (Lat. malleolus) anat. malleolus, ankle.

MALLETTE, mal-ayt, sf. dimin. of MALLE, small trunk.

MALLIER, mal-yay, sm. wheeler.

MALMÈNE, mal-muh-nay, ra. 1 to use ill, to maltreat, to abuse, to bully. Il l'avait déjà malmenée une fois ce jour-là même, he had already rebuked her that very day. Saint. Il malmené celui qui résiste, he maltreats him who opposes him. Si-B. Ils ne songeront pas à se prévaloir de cette circonstance pour nous —, they did not think of availing themselves of the opportunity to ill-use us. Ab. 2 (faire essayer à quelqu'un une grande perte) to ill-use.

MALOTRU, mal-o-lrù, sm. fem. — E., coarse fellow, clown. Tout heureux et tout aise de rencontrer on —, quite happy and glad to marry a boor. La Font.

MALPEIGNE, mal-pay-nay, sm. dirty fellow, shabby fellow.

MALPRAISANT, mal-play-zàng, adj. m. fem. — E., obsol. unpleasant, disagreeable, cross, sad.

MALPROPIÈ, mal-prop, adj. mf. dirty, slovenly, slothful.

MALPROBEMENT, mal-pro-prob-màng, adv. dirty, slovenly.

MALPROPRIÉTÉ, mal-pro-prob-tay, sf. slovenliness, dirtiness.

MALSAIX, mal-sang, adj. m. fem. — E., 4 unhealthy, unwholesome. 2 (des choses, of things) unwholesome, injurious.

MALSEANT, mal-say-ang, adj. m. fem. — E., improper, unbecoming, unseemly, indecorous.

MALSONNANT, mal-so-nàng, adj. m. fem. — E., 4 theol. offensive, ill-sounding. 2 (by extension) Cela est —, that is shocking.

MALT, malt, sm. (Eng.) malt.
MALTE, malt, s. geog. Malta.
MALTOTE, mal-tôt, sf. 1 absol. exaction, extortion. 2 (abusively) any new tax. 3 (maliciously) tax-gatherers.

MALTOTIER, mal-tô-ti-ay, sm. 1 absol. exactor, extortioner. 2 (abusively) tax-gatherer.

MALTRAITER, mal-trai-tay, va. 1 to ill-treat, to wrong, to injure. Il l'a maltraité de coups, he has beaten him. Il l'a maltraité de paroles, he abused him soundly. Pour réprimer leur hubi, irez-vous les — 2 to put a stop to their chattering are you going to fight with them? La Font. Mari d'une jeune et jolie femme qu'il maltraitait, the husband of a pretty young woman whom he used very ill. St.-B. (by extension) L'orage maltraita le pigeon, the storm roughly handled the pigeon. La Font. — l'ennemi, to harass the enemy. La grêle a bien maltraité les vignes, the hail has done much harm to the vines. 2 (faire éprouver ou préjudice) to wrong, to deal harshly with.

MALVACEE, mal-vab-say, adj. f. hot. 1 malraceous. Plantes — es, malraceous plants. 2 (substantiv.) malvaceæ.

MALVEILLANCE, mal-vay-yàngs, sf. (Lat. malvolentia) malevolence, ill-will, malice.

MALVEILLANT, mal-vay-yàng, adj. m. fem. — E, 1 malevolent, ill-natured, spiteful. Caractère —, an ill-natured temper. Propos —, ill-natured remarks. 2 (substantiv.) evil-disposed person.

MALVERSAISON, mal-vayr-sah-syong, sf. embezzlement, misdeemeanour, misdoing.

MALVERSER, mal-vayr-say, vn. to embezzle, to defraud.

MALVOISIE, mal-voob-zee, 1 sf. Malmsay. Boire de la —, to drink malmsay wine. 2 sm. (vin moscat) malmsay wine.

MAMAN, mah-màng, sf. (Gr.) mamma. Bonjour —, good morning, mamma. Grand' —, bonne —, grandmamma. Une bonne —, une grosse —, a portly dame, a fat woman. Une si bonne grosse — ne peut pas être bien méchante, such a plump dame cannot be a very wicked woman. Muss.

MAMELLE, mam-ayl, sf. (Lat. mamma) 1 (d'une femme, d'une woman) breast. Un enfant à la —, an infant at the breast. 2 fig. lactation, suckling. Un enfant à la —, a suckling child. 3 (de l'homme, of man) pap. 4 (des animaux femelles, of female animals) teat.

MAMELON, mam-long, sm. 1 nipple. 2 fig. (éminence) eminence. Un — escarpé, steep eminence of a hill. Lamart. 3 anat. (tubercle) La langue, la peau, sont couvertes d'une infinité de petits —, the tongue and skin are covered with an infinite number of papillæ.

MAMELONNE, mam-lo-nay, adj. m. fem. — E, nat. hist. manitiled.

MAMELUK, mam-look, sm. (Ar.) Mameluke.

MAMILLAIRE, mah-meel-layr, adj. mf. anat. mamillary.

MAMMAIRE, mam-mayr, adj. mf. anat. mammary.

MAMMIFERE, mam-me-fayr, adj. mf. (Lat.) 1 nat. hist. mammiferous. 2 (substantiv.) Un —, a mammifer.

MAMMOUTH, mam-moot, sm. 1 mammoth. 2 (mastodonte) mastodon.

MANANT, mah-idog, sm. (Lat. manens) 1 anc. law. peasant, countryman. 2 anc. absol. (paysan) country fellow. Esopé conte qu'un — charitable autant que peu sage, Esopé tells us of a peasant who, having more charity than wisdom. La Font. 3 (by extension) (homme grossier) clown, rustic, clodpott.

MANCENILLIER, mangs-ne-lyay, bot. manchineel, machinell tree.

MANCIE, mangsi, sm. (Lat. manícula) 1 (d'un instrument, d'un outil, of an instrument, of a tool) handle, helve, haft, stick. Couteau à — d'ivoire, a knife with an ivory handle. Le — d'une faux, the handle of a scythe. — à balai, broomstick. Le — de la charrue, the plough-tail. Le — d'un gigot, d'une épaule de mouton, the knuckle-bone of a leg of mutton, of a shoulder of mutton. Le — d'une basse, d'une contre-basse, d'un violon, etc., the neck, the finger-board of a violoncello, of a counter-base, of a violin, etc. 2 ronch. — de couteau, solen razor, shell-fish.

MANCHE, sf. (Lat. manica) 1 sleeve. La — d'une robe, d'un habit, the sleeve of a dress, of a coat. fig. Il ne se fera pas tirer la —, he will do it willingly. prov. fig. Avoir une personne dans sa —, to have a person at one's disposal. fig. Il a la — large, he has no scruple. fig. C'est une autre paire de —, that is quite another thing. 2 naut. — à vent, wind-sail. 3 geog. channel. La — de Bristol, the Bristol Channel. 4 geog. (particul.) (le Pas-de-Calais) the British Channel. Le département de la Manche, the department of the Manche. 5 (jeu, etc., at cards, etc.) J'ai gagné la première —, I won the first game. Etre — à —, to be even.

MANCHETTE, mang-shet, sf. dimin. of MANCHE, ruffie. Une paire de —, a pair of ruffles.

MANCHON, mang-shong, sm. 1 muff. 2 tech. glazier. muffle.

MANCHOT, mang-sho, adj. m. fem. — E, 1 one-handed, one-armed. Etre — de la main droite, to be maimed of one's right hand. prov. fig. Cet homme n'est pas —, that man is no fool. 2 (substantiv.) C'est un — fort adroit, he is a clever one-handed man.

MANCROT, sm. orn. syphimiscus.

MANDANT, mang-dang, ppr. of MANDER, sm. employer, principal, warrantor.

MANDARIN, mang-dah-rang, sm. mandarin.

MANDARINE, mang-dar-ern, sf. a kind of small orange. (adjectif.) Orange —, China orange.

MANDAT, mang-dab, sm. (Lat. mandatum) 1 law. mandate. — par écrit, verbal, written, verbal mandate. 2 coin. order, check, cheque. 3 crim. law. — de comparution, summons. — d'arrest, warrant, warrant. — de dépôt, mittimus, commitment, warrant of commitment. 4 (de député) writ. — impératif, order, commission.

MANDATAIRE, mang-dat-ayr, sm. (Lat. mandatus) proxy, mandatory.

MANDEMENT, mang-dang, sm. 1 (ordre par écrit) mandamus, order, mandate. 2 (particul.) (d'un évêque, of a bishop) charge. 3 absol. (billet portant ordre de payer) order, note, bill.

MANDER, mang-day, va. (Lat. mandare) 1 to send word, to write, to let know. Je ne lui mandai point la pari que j'avais sa nomination, I did not let him know the part I took in his nomination. Le Sage. Je lui ai mandé de venir, I sent him word to come. Mandons et ordonnons, be it known and decreed. — quelque'un, to send for, to call for some one. Le premier ministre me manda à la Cour pour rendre compte de ma conduite, the prime minister orders me to appear at Court to give an account of my conduct. Le Sage.

MANDIBULE, mang-de-bûl, sf. (Lat. mandibulum) 1 anat. mandible, jaw. Une ruade qui vous lui met en marmelade les — et les dents, a kick which pounds all his teeth and jaw into a jelly. La Font. 2 nat. hist. mandibles.

MANDOLINE, mang-do-leen, sf. (It.) mandoline.

MANDORE, mang-dor, sf. (It.) mandore, a sort of lute.

MANDRAGORE, mang-drag-or, sf. (Gr.) bot. mandrake.

MANDRIN, mang-drang, sm. 1 (poing) punch. 2 tech. mandrel.

MANDUCATION, mang-dû-kah-syang, sf. (Lat.) 1 manducation, eating. Des instruments de —, masticatory implements. Mich. 2 (particul.) rel. manducation, eating.

MANÈGE, mah-day-azh, sm. naut. labour without salary.

MANÈGE, mah-nayzh, sm. 1 training, managing of a horse. Cheval de —, horse belonging to a riding-school. Termes de —, jockey terms. 2 (lieu) riding-school. 3 fig. (intrigues) intrigue, game, play, trick, sport, cunning. On l'aurait surpris dans des — s peu grandioses, he would have been caught in a shabby trick. St.-B. La vérité et la simplicité sont le meilleur — du monde, truth and simplicity are the best manœuvres in the world. La Bruy. Avoir du —, to be artful.

MANÈGE, mah-nayzh, sm. 1 MANÈGE, nous MANÈGES, (from manège) to play, to use, to work. Manègeant de l'éventail, playing with her fan. Th. Gaut.

MANES, nân, sm. pl. (Lat.) poetic. manes, ghost, shade.

MANGANESE, mang-gan-ayz, sm. uin. manganese.

MANGE, ppa. of MANGER, fem. — E, eaten, consumed. (by extension) Une écriture — e par le temps, a writing consumed by time. (substantiv.) Les — s ne parlent pas, those that have been eaten will not complain. Flor.

MANGEABLE, mang-zhabl', adj. mf. eatable.

MANGEAILLE, mang-zhah-yuf, sf. 1 food, meat. 2 victuals, catables.

MANGEANT, mang-zhang, ppr. of MANGER, prov. fig. L'appetit vient en —, one shoulder of mutton drives down another. adj. m. fem. — E, eating. Soyons bien luvains, bien — s, let us enjoy life. La Font.

MANGEOIRE, mang-zhoôr, sf. manger, crib.

MANGER, mang-zhay, va. nous MANGIONS; IL MANGEA. (Lat. manducare) 1 to eat (du pain, de la viande, etc., bread meat, etc.). Cela est bon à —, that is good to eat. — un morceau sur le pouce, to eat a hasty snack. Ils ne mangeaient pas ou ils mangeaient du bout des lèvres, they did not eat, or scarcely ate. Brill. Sav. Qu'importe qui vous mange, homme ou loup? little matter who eats one, whether man or wolf. La Font. absol. Il a mangé d'aujourd'hui, he has not eaten any thing to-day. Il y avait une heure que je ne mangeais plus, I had done eating for the last hour. Méric. — chaud, froid, to eat one's victuals warm, cold. — comme quatre, to eat like a ploughman. prov. fig. Les gros poissons mangent les petits, might overcomes right. prov. fig. — son pain blanc le premier, to live too fast. prov. fig. — de la vache enervée, to endure hardships. 2 (prendre ses repas) to eat, to take one's meals. Il ne mange jamais chez lui, he never takes his meals at home. — en ville, to dine out. Salle à —, dining-room. Un mange bien chez ce restaurateur, this eating-house is a good one. Donner à —, to keep an eating-house; || to entertain. 3 fig. (consommer) to squander away, to run through (son patrimoine, la dot de sa femme, one's inheritance, one's wife's portion). Il a mangé sa fortune à plaider, he has squandered away his fortune in litigation. 4 fig. Ses valets, ses chevaux le mangent, his servants, his horses are eating him out of house and home. 5 (by extension) (ronger) to consume, to require, to take. La rouille mange le fer, rust corrodes iron. Le grand jour mange les couleurs, light destroys colours. Une figure à qui le temps a mangé le bout du nez, a figure the nose of which has been impaired by time. De Bross. 6 fig. — ses mots, to clip one's words. — quelque'un, quelque chose des yeux, to devour with one's eyes. Il se sont mangé le blanc des yeux, they were at daggers drawing, — quelqu'un de carottes, to kill a person with kindness. Votre P. est à —, I could kiss your P. to death. M^{me} de Sév. — dans la main, to take liberties. (threat) Je le mangerais à la croque au sel, I'll eat him raw.

MANGE-TOUT, sm. prodigal, spendthrift. SE MANGER, tp. 1. to be eaten. 2 recipr. to eat each other up. prov. fig. Les loops ne se mangent pas, times are very hard when wolves devour each other. 3 (by extension) gram. Cette voyelle finale se mange, the last vowel is not pronounced.

MANGER, sm. eating, victuals, food. N'acceptant rien de personne, pas même le boire et le —, accepting nothing from any one, not even meat and drink. Aug. Tl. C'est un — des dieux, it is a dish fit for the Gods. Brill.-Sav. C'est peut-être pas si nos seigneurs les ours le — ordinaire, may be it is not the ordinary fare of bears. La Font. Il en perd le boire et le —, it makes him forget to eat and drink. Blanc—, blanc-manger.

MANGÈRIE, mǎngzhǐ-ree, sf. 1 eating. Cette — sans appétit est une cause de l'obésité, etc., that eating without an appetite is a cause of obesity, etc. Brill.-Sav. 2 fig. exaction, extortion, imposition.

MANGER, mǎng-zhǎn, sm. fem. MANGÈSE, great-eat, feeder, trencherman. fig. Un — prodigal, spendthrift. fig. pop. Un — de chrétiens, a chicaner. On ne doit jamais avoir de confiance en ceux qui sont — de gens, we must never rely upon those who live upon their likes. La Font. fam. Un — de viandes apprêtées, de soupe apprêtée, a lazy fellow.

MANGÈRE, mǎng-zhǔr, sf. nibbling, gnawing.

MANGOUSTE, mǎng-goost, sf. See ICHNEUMÈNE.

MANGUE, mǎng-gah, sf. hot mango. MANQUIER, mǎng-glyah, sm. hot mango-tree, mangas.

MANIABLE, mau-yabl', adj. mf. 1 easy to be handled, wildly, like, pitiable. 2 (aisé à mettre en œuvre) workable. fig. Un vent — nous a laissé approcher de la pointe du continent, a gentle wind allowed us to approach the continent. Lamart. 3 fig. (traitable) tractable, manageable. Cet homme est —, n'est pas du tout —, that man is tractable, unmanageable. Un esprit, un caractère qui n'est pas —, an untractable spirit, an unmanageable temper.

MANIAQUE, man-yak, adj. (from manie) mf. 1 mad, furious. 2 (substantif.) maniac, lunatic.

MANICHEEN, man-e-shay-ang, sm. fem. MANICHÉEN, manichean.

MANICHÉISME, man-e-shay-ism', sm. manichæism.

MANICHORDION, man-de-kor-lyong, sm. a clavichord.

MANGLE, mǎng-ikl', sf. See MANIÈRE.

MANIE, man-ee, sf. (Gr.) 1 mania. 2 (folie) rage, mania. 3 (by extension) (habitude bizarre) madness, folly. 4 (by extension) (gout) fancy, passion, excessive fondness. Il a la — des vers, he has a fancy for rhyme.

MANIEMENT, man-e-mǎng, sm. 1 feeling, handling. Quand le — des lettres avait fatigué mes doigts, when my fingers were tired with handling things. Ph. Chas 2 mil. Le — des armes, manual exercise. 3 fig. (gestion) disposal, ordering, management. Le — des affaires, the management of public affairs.

MANIER, mau-yay, va. (Lat. manas) 1 (prendre, tâter) to handle, to feel, to thumb, to finger. 2 (se servir de quelque outil) to handle. fig. Il ne les maniait pas comme des machines, mais comme des hommes, he did not employ them as machines, but as men. Lamart. 3 (employer la matière propre à quelque ouvrage) to work. 4 fig. Cet écrivain manie bien la plume, that writer wields the pen well. Cet avocat manie bien la parole, that barrister has a great talent for speaking. 5 fig. Cet homme-là manie comme une cire molle l'esprit de son maître, that man works upon his master's mind as if it were soft wax. Le Sage. 6 man. — on cheval, to manage a horse. (intransitivement) Ce cheval manie bien sous l'homme, manie bien à droite et à gauche, that horse obeys its rider well, it turns readily to the right, to the left. 7 fig. (gérer) to manage, to direct, to control, to administer. Il a manie, dissipé les deniers du roi, he has had the management of the king's money, and he has squandered it away. Le Sage. — une affaire, to direct an enterprise.

SE MANIER, tp. to be handled. fig. Ce peuple ne se manie pas si facilement, the people are not so easily managed.

À MANIER, adv. loc. by the touch, by the feel; by handling.

MANIÈRE, man-yay, sf. (It. maniera) 1 sort, way, manner. De toute —, de quelque — que cela soit, de — ou d'autre, at all events, any how, some way or other, by some means or other. Je lui ai écrit de la — la plus pressante, I wrote to him in the most pressing manner. Volt. Des changements s'étaient accomplis dans sa — de sentir, a change had taken place in his feelings. St-B. Chacun vit à sa —, every one lived in his own way. 2 fig. y donne à sa son rêve de Salomé, M. gizez votre a description of his utopia. St-B. Vraiment, nous y voici, reprit l'ours à la —, there we are indeed, replied the bear in his own way. La Font. Je n'admire pas moins la — de disputer que le sujet de la dispute, I admired no less the manner of disputing than the subject in dispute. Montesq. C'est sa — d'agir, de parler, that is his way of acting, of speaking. En l'ouvrant à la — dont on ouvrirait une gousse de pois verts, by opening it as you would a pod of peas. Nod. De la bonne —, de la belle —, to some tune, of a fine rate. Par — de dire, as it were. Elle a des — de parler qui n'appartiennent qu'à elle, she has expressions peculiar to herself. Il m'a offert sa bourse, mais c'était une — de parler, he offered me his purse, but of course, it was only out of politeness. 2 absol. (façon d'agir habituelle) way. Chacun a sa —, every one has a way of his own. 3 (respect) kind, sort. Une — de femme, a kind of woman. Th. Gaut. D'autres qui sont des — de ministres disent que, others who are, as it were, ministers say that. M^{me} de Sév. C'est une — de petit-maitre, he is a kind of pop. J.-J. Rouss. 4 point, style, manner, way. 5 lit. (by extension) style. 6 (by analogy) (d'un musicien, of a musician) style. 7 (affection) mannerism. 8 —s, pl. (façon d'être) manners, deportment. Elle a de petites —s qui plaisent, she has little pleasing ways with her. M^{me} de Sév. Je connais les —s des provinces, I know what provincial manners are. M^{me} de Sév. ironic. Avoir les belles —s, to have very fine manners.

DE MANIÈRE que, conj. so that, so as to. Leur devoir est d'occuper le taureau de — à laisser au picador le temps de s'éloigner, their business is to take up the bull's attention so as to allow the picador time to get away. Merim.

À LA MANIÈRE de, prep. after the manner of, in the fashion of. Il salua Alexandre à la — des Grecs, he saluted Alexander after the manner of the Greeks. Montesq.

MANIÈRE, man-yay-ray, adj. m. fem. —E, 4 affected, pretensions. Acteur, danseur —, affected actor, dancer. (by analogy) Air —, contenance —E, affected air, countenance. 2 lit. paint. Auteur, style —, affected author, style.

MANIEUR, man-yuhr, sm. a handler. Le — d'argent, the money dealer. La Bruy.

MANIFESTATION, man-e-fays-tahsyong, sf. manifestation. (particul.) Le ciel, où Dieu nous rendra éternellement heureux par la — de sa gloire, Heaven, where God will make us eternally happy by the manifestation of his glory. Buss.

MANIFESTE, man-e-fest, adj. mf. manifest, evident, plain. C'est une erreur —, it is a manifest error. Le milan, — voleur, the kite, a well known thief. La Font.

MANIFESTE, sm. manifest.

MANIFESTEMENT, man-e-fays-toh-mǎng, adv. manifestly, clearly, evidently.

MANIFESTEIL, man-e-fays-toy, va. to manifest, to display. Dieu a manifesté son pouvoir, God has shown his power. — ses pensées, ses volontés, to manifest one's thoughts, one's will. Les brigands ne manifestaient aucune joie, the robbers manifested no joy. Ab.

SE MANIFESTER, tp. to show one's self. Ses efforts et sa douleur ne purent se — que par quelques gemissements sourds, his efforts and his pain could show themselves only by a few low groans. Nod. Cette susceptibilité se manifeste dans les moindres choses, that sensitiveness shows itself on the slightest occasions. St-B. Ses vertus ne se manifestaient que par des actions, his virtues displayed themselves only in actions. Chas. La fermentation commença à se — dans Londres, the agitation began to show itself in London. Volt.

MANIGANCE, man-e-gǎngs, sf. manœuvre, intrigue, contrivance. Il y a de la — en cette affaire, there is some manœuvre in that matter. Le Sage.

MANIGANCER, man-e-gǎng-say, va. to brew, to contrive, to hatch, to plot.

MANILLE, man-e-yuh, sf. 4 geog. Manilla. 2 (jeu d'homme, etc.) manille.

MANIOC, man-yok, sm. bpt. manioc, cassava root.

MANIOLAIRE, man-e-pū-layr, sm. 1 Rom. antiq. commander of the maniple. 2 (adjectif.) manipular.

MANIPULATER, man-e-pū-lat-ulr, sm. chem. pharm. manipulator.

MANIPULATION, man-e-pū-lah-syong, sf. chem. pharm. manipulation.

MANIPULE, man-e-pūl, sm. (Lat. manipulus) 4 rel. maniple. 2 Rom. antiq. maniple. 3 pharm. (ustensile) manipule. 4 pharm. (poignée d'herbes, etc.) a handful.

MANIPULER, man-e-pū-lay, va. chem. pharm. to manipulate (des médicaments, drugs).

MANIQUE, man-ik, sf. pop. (d'un savetier, of a cobbler) hand-leather.

MANITOU, mau-e-too, sm. manitou, fetish.

MANIVEAU, man-e-vo, sm. — d'éperlaes, de champignons, a little basket for snails, mushrooms.

MANIVELLE, man-e-vayl, sf. handle, winch, crank. La — d'un moulin à café, the handle of a coffee-mill. La — d'un gouvernail, the whipsstaff of a helm.

MANNE, man, sf. (Lat. manna) 1 manna. 2 bi. manna. La — celeste, heavenly food. (by extension) Heureusement la sauterelle est là — de l'Asie, luckily the grasshopper is like manna to some Asiatic wildernesses. Mich.

MANSE, sf. a large, flat, wicker basket.

MANNEQUIN, mau-kang, sm. 4 (pânier) small hamper, hamper. — de marce, a hamper of fish. 2 (pour les arbres) scare-crow. 3 (imitant le corps humain) mannikin, lay figure. fig. C'est un vrai —, he is a mere puppet.

MANNEQUINE, man-e-kay, adj. m. fem. —E, paint, stuff, unnatural.

MANŒUVRE, man-uivr', sf. 4 (action) working, acting. 2 aut. working

(of a ship), tacking, rigging. 3 —s, pl. naut. —s courantes, running rigging. —s dormantes, standing rigging. 4 war. (des troupes, of troops) manoeuvres. absol. Une nombreuse population fut réunie tous les jours à la —, a great multitude were present every day at the parade. Thiers. 5 fig. (moyen) manoeuvre. Les obscurs —s du vice, the dark underhand tricks of vice. J.-J. ROUSS.

MANŒUVRE, sm. 1 (particul.) workman, journeyman, mason. fig. Travail, ouvrage de —, manual labour. 2 fig. (disparagingly) bungler. Ce n'est qu'un —, he is only a bungler, a cobbler. 3 fig. (in a bad parti) artful fellow.

MANŒUVRER, man-oh-vray, rn. 1 naut. to work the ship, to work. Ce vaisseau manoeuvre bien, this vessel works well. 2 war. (des troupes, of troops) Faire — des troupes, to drill troops. Notre général manoeuvra si habilement que, our general manoeuvred so cleverly that. 3 (in a bad parti) to shift, to manoeuvre. B. se vit réduit à — sous main pour l'y déterminer. B. was obliged to have recourse to shifts to bring him to it. Aug. Th.

MANŒUVRER, la. 1 naut. to work (les voiles, the sails). 2 to work (une machine, an engine). 3 (by extension) l'éventail est un art totalement inconnu en France, to flirt a fan is an art entirely unknown in France. Th. Gaut.

MANŒUVRIER, man-oh-vray, sm. 1 naut. able, expert, clever seaman, sea-officer. 2 naut. factician.

MANOIR, man-oh-air, sm. manor, mansion, manor-house. poétie. Le — de Pluton, Pluto's dominions.

MANOUVRIER, man-oh-vray, sm. day-labourer.

MANQUE, mangk, sm. want. Le — d'argent en est cause, the want of money is the cause of it. C'est le — d'instruction nécessaire qui vous a perdu, it is the want of proper instruction which ruined you. Chat. Les haines que R. avait soulevées par son — de foi, the hatred that R. had excited by his want of good faith. Aug. Th. On passe encore sur le — de cœur de M., one may also forgive the heartlessness of M. St-B. Trouver quelque chose de —, to find something missing. (at billiards) Un — à-toucher, a miss.

MANQUE DE, prep. for want of. Ce n'est pas — de soin s'il ne réussit pas dans cette affaire, if he does not succeed in that business, it is not for want of care.

MANQUE, ppa. of MASQUER, fem. —E, L'affaire est —e, the business has miscarried. Un projet —, a failure. fam. Un peindre, un poète, un avocat —, a would-be painter, poet, barrister.

MANQUEMENT, mangk-mangk, sm. 1 omission short-comings, oversight. 2 (rare) — à. Le due de S. irrité de ce — à ses droits, the duke of S. irritated at this breach of his rights. Bar. 3 — de parole, failure in a promise.

MANQUER, mang-kay, rn. 4 to fail, to err. Tous les hommes peuvent — sont sujets à —, all men are liable to commit faults. Vous avez manqué dans cette occasion, you did amiss on that occasion. 2 (by analogy) (des armes à feu, of fire-arms) to miss fire. 3 (tomber, perish) to fail. Cette maison a manqué par les fondements, the foundations of that house gave way. Ce cheval manqua par les jambes, the legs of that horse fail him. Cet homme est bien malade; s'il vient à —, sa famille est ruinée, that man is very ill; if he should be carried off, his family will be ruined. 4 (des choses, of things) (se derbier) to fail, to give way. Le pied lui a manqué, he slipped, his foot slipped. La botte du carrosse a manqué sous son pied, he missed the steps of the carriage. De Boss. 5 fig. (faillir) to fail. 6 (défaillir) to fail.

7 (faire faute) to fail; to be wanting. L'argent lui manqua, money fails him. Cette ressource va leur — incessamment, that resource will shortly fail them. Volt. Quand la solitude vint à me —, que me restait-il à faire? when solitude failed me, what had I left? Chat. Ces deux charmantes créatures auxquelles elle pouvait — d'un jour à l'autre, those two charming creatures from whom she might any day be taken away. Nod. Rien de nous manque à la vérité, mais nous nous ennuions souvent, indeed we are in want of nothing, but we often feel dull. Nod. D'abord il s'y prit mal, puis on peo mieux, puis bien, puis enfin il n'y manquait rien, at first he went awkwardly to work, then a little better, then well, and at last it was all right. La Font. Tout lui manque à la fois, les sens et les esprits, he loses at one and the same time his perceptive and his reasoning faculties. La Font. Jamais homme n'a eu tout de solides vertus, il ne lui manquait que des vices, never was any man possessed of so many solid virtues, the only thing he was deficient in was vice. M^{me} de Sév. Quant à nous, le temps nous a manqué, as for us we stood in need of time. Ab. Les mots me manquent aujourd'hui que je suis de sang-froid, I am short of words now I am cooled down. Ab. absol. Le pain manque, they are short of bread. V. Hug. Le travail manque, there is no work to be had. Mich. (followed by an infin.) Il ne manquait plus que de faire une pension aux veuves et aux orphelins du brigandage, why not give at once a pension to the widows and orphans of the brigands that fall? Ab. (followed by the prep. à) C'était une circonstance qui manquait à ma gloire, et je ne sais pas pourquoi j'en fus si honteux, it was the finishing stroke to my glory and I do not know why I felt so ashamed of it. De Bros. 8 (se pas se trouver) to miss. Il manque deux cents hommes dans ce régiment, there are two hundred men missing in that regiment. Elle avait remarqué des perles manquant dans leurs écrins, she had remarked some jewels missing in their caskets. Lamart. 9 (des choses, of things) (ne pas réussir) to fail, to miscarry. Combien de projets sagement concertés ont manqué! how many projects wisely contrived have miscarried! C. Del. 10 — de, to fall short of, to be deficient in, to be wanting in. — de vivres, de munitions, to be short of food, of ammunition. Comme il manquait d'argent, it imposed on a décade sor, as there was a scarcity of money, he laid a tax of one penny upon, etc. Bar. J'ai manqué de mémoire, my memory failed me. J.-J. ROUSS. Il ne manque pas d'appétit, he has not lost his appetite. — de cœur, de résolution, to be devoid of courage, of resolution. C. manquait d'enthousiasme. Ab. A la voir de loin, elle ne manquait pas d'une certaine élégance, at a distance, she did not appear to be devoid of a certain elegance. Ab. Le général des impériaux manquait d'hommes et d'argent, the general of the Imperialists stood in need of men and of money. Volt. Les vagues de la Méditerranée manquent de grandeur, the waves of the Mediterranean are wanting in grandeur. Mérim. Ses cheveux manquaient peut-être de grâce, quoique longs et bouclés, her hair, though long and curly lacked gracefulness. Nod. — de parole, — de foi, to fail in one's promise, to be wanting in honesty.

11 — de, (omettre) to fail, to neglect, to forget. Le due ne manqua pas d'y venir dans la matinée, the duke did not fail to come in the morning. Le Sage. Il y a un chemin près de chez moi; lorsque je vais à ma maison de campagne, je ne manque jamais d'y passer, there is a road near my house that I always take when I go to my country seat. Montesq.

12 — de, (pour manquer qu'une chose se fait, se fera) to fail. Ta jolie petite mine ne manquera pas de les frapper, your pretty little face will not fail to strike them. Nod.

13 — de, (courir le risque) to be very near, to have a narrow escape.

14 — à, to fail, to neglect. Un prince qu'on savait n'avoir jamais manqué à sa parole, a prince who was never known to break his word. Volt. Il vaut mieux s'exposer à l'ingratitude que de — aux misérables, it is better to expose one's self to ingratitude than neglect one's duty to the poor. La Bruy. — de respect à quelqu'un, — à quelqu'un, to be wanting in respect towards a person. 13 (billiards) — à toucher, to miss.

MASQUER, ma, to miss, to miscarry. Il a manqué son projet, he has failed in his project. Ils passent leur vie à chercher la nature et la manquent toujours, they pass their lives in search of nature, and always miss it. Montesq. Je suis arrivé trop tard, j'ai manqué mon homme, I arrived too late, I missed my man. Je ne manquera pas cette représentation, I will not miss that performance. Le Sage. Il a manqué un bon mariage, he has missed a good match. shoot. — une pièce de gibier, etc., to miss a piece of game, etc. Pourant je ne l'avais pas manqué, ma balle l'avait touché au front, however I did not miss him, my ball grazed his forehead. Ab. (by analogy) — son coup, Se coup. L'avoir manqué belle, Se belle.

SE MASQUER, rpr. 1 (être manqué) to fail, to miscarry. C'est un de ces coups qui ne se manquent pas, it is an enterprise in which no one ever fails. 2 (soi-même) Il a cherché un reste de force pour se pas se —, et sa main a été sûre, he tried to collect his remaining strength in order not to lose command of himself, and his hand was steady. A. Car. 3 Se — à soi-même, to forget what is due to one's self.

MANSARDE, mang-sar, sf. arch. 1 garret-window. Fenêtre en —, garret-window. 2 (chambre) garret. Étage en —, top story with sloping ceilings to the attics. Toit en —, mansard roof.

MANSE, mangss, sf. SE MENSE.

MANSETUDE, mang-sù-ay-tùd, sf. (Lat.) mansuetude.

MANTE, mangt, sf. mantle.

MANTEAU, mang-to, sm. 1 cloak, mantle. — de deuil, mourning cloak. — de cour, court mantle. — de nuit, — de lit, bed-gown, night-gown. (théâtre) Rôle à —, serious character. fig. S'envelopper de son —, to resign one's self calmly to one's fate. fig. Vendre, débiter sous le —, to sell privately, clandestinely. fig. Garder les —x, to be a looker on, to hold the candle. 2 fig. cloak, colour, pretence, mask, show. Sous le — de la religion, of the devotion, under the cloak of religion, of devotion. 3 her. mantle. 4 hawk. mantle. 5 — de chemise, mantel-tree, mantel-piece. 6 (théâtre, d'Arlequin. Se ARLEQUIN.

MANTELET, mangt-lay, sm. 1 short cloak, little mantle. 2 d'une calèche, of a coach) leather-curtain. 3 will mantle.

MANTELETTE, mangt-lèt, sf. mantling.

MANTILLE, mang-to-yuh, sf. (Sp.) mantilla.

MANUEL, man-gay, adj. m. fem. —le, Lat. manualis) 1 manual. Opération —le, manual operation. Travaux —s, manual labours. 2 sm. (livre) text-book, handbook; manual. — de dévotion, prayer-book. — de cavalier, manual of horsemanship.

MANUELLEMENT, man-gay-l-mang, adv. from hand to hand.

MANUFACTURE, man-fuk-tür, sf.

4 absol. manufacture, making (des étoffes, of stuffs). 2 (l'établissement) manufactory. 3 (les ouvriers) the workmen of a factory.

MANUFACTURER, man-fak-tû-ray, rn. to manufacture.

MANUFACTURER, man-fak-tû-ray, sm. 1 manufacturer. 2 (ouvrier) manifactory. 3 (adjectif) manufacturing, fem. MANUFACTURIÈRE, Système —, factory system.

MANUMISSION, man-fu-mé-syong, sf. (Lat.) manumission, emancipation.

MAUS (is, man-ûs, (Lat.) Oïre son in —, to commit one's soul to God.

MANUSCRIT, man-ûs-kree, adj. m. fem. —, (Lat. manus scriptus) 1 manuscript. Ouvrage —, manuscript work. 2 sm. manuscript.

MANUTENTION, man-fû-tung-syong, sf. 1 (administration) management. 2 (little used) (maintenance) maintenance, upholding. 3 (établissement) bakehouse for the army.

MAFFEMONDE, nap-moongd, sf. a map of the world

MAQUEU, mak-ro, sm. ich. macquerel.

MAQUETTE, mak-ket, sf. sculpt. small rough model.

MAQUIGNON, mak-e-pyong, sm. 1 ickey, horse-dealer. 2 (by extension) horse-jockey, horse-jockey. 3 fig. — de mariage, marriage jobber.

MAQUIGNONNAGE, mak-e-nyo-mazi, sm. 1 jokey's trade. 2 fig. intrigue, making up.

MAQUIGNONNER, mak-e-nyo-nay, ra. 1 to jokey, to trim up a horse for sale. 2 fig. to drive a broker's trade.

MARABOUT, mar-ab-oo, sm. 1 marabout, mahometan priest. 2 (écaille) coffee-pot, kettle. 3 orn. Indian bird, marabout. 4 (plumes) marabout feathers.

MARACHEUR, mar-ay-shay, sm. marsh-gardener, market-gardener.

MARAIS, mar-ay, sm. 1 marsh, fen, bog, swamp, moor, morass. Pays de —, marshy country. — salant, salt marsh. 2 (à Paris, in Paris) market-gardener's ground.

MARASME, mar-asur', sm. (Gr.) marasmus, marasm, consumption. Tomber dans le —, to fall into a consumption.

MARASQUIN, mar-as-kang, sm. (It.) marasquin.

MARATRE, mar-âtr', sf. 1 step-mother, mother-in-law. 2 (by extension) barbarous mother. fig. L'adversité est notre mère, la prospérité n'est que noire —, adversity is a true mother to us, prosperity is but a step-mother. Montesq. fig. (adjectif). La nature a été — envers cet homme, nature has been most unkind to that man.

MARACD, mar-o-o, sm. fem. —, knave, scoundrel, rascal, varlet.

MARADE, mar-ôd, sf. 1 war (des soldats, of soldiers) marauding. Je les vis revenir, le soir, de la — assez lourdement chargés, I saw them in the evening returning from marauding heavily loaded. Jacq. 2 (by extension) (des animaux, of animals) marauding. 3 (by extension) (des écoblés, of school-boys) marauding, robbing of orchards.

MARADEUR, mar-o-day, rn. to maraud. Parlois, maître ! je ne maraude pas, c'est que je glane, *I beg you, parlois, master ! I am not marauding ; I am glean-*ing. Not.

MARADEUR, mar-o-dûr, sm. ma-audier, straggler.

MARAYEDIS, mar-ay-ay-dee, sm. (Sp.) maratid.

MARBRE, marbr', sm. (Lat. marbre) 1 marble. Solier, polir, travailler le —, to saw, to polish, to work marble. — de Carrare, de Paros, Carrara, Paros marble. 2 marreau taillé et poli marble. Le — d'une commode, the marble on a chest of drawers. Placez un — sur ces papiers, put a marble Wright upon those papers. fig. Être froid comme un —, être comme un —, to be as cold as marble. (hyperb.) Pour entendre ces propos de sang-froid, il faudrait être de —, to listen calmly to those remarks one ought to have a heart of stone. 3 —, pl. (ouvrages) marble, statues of marble. 4 point, imposing stone. 5 (pour broyer les couleurs) marble, polished stone.

MARBRE, ppa. of MARBRIER, fem. —, adjectif, marbled. Papier —, marbled paper. Veau —, marbled calf. (by analogy) Une peau —, de teintes de la vie, a skin marbled with the colour of life. Lamart. Mon dos était — de taches rouges, my back was covered with red spots. Alb. (by extension) la pureté de pois au sucre, — e à la surface de raisins de Corinthe, pease and sugar, sprinkled over with currants. Not.

MARBRIER, mar-bray, ra. 1 to marble, to vein (le chambrante d'une cheminée, a chimney-piece). 2 tech. (du papier, de la tranche et de la couverture d'un livre, of paper, of the edge and cover of a book) to marble.

MARBRIER, mar-bruh-ree, sf. 1 marble-cutting. 2 (cnploir du marbre) marble-work. 3 (atelier) marble-yard.

MARBRIER, mar-bruh, sm. marbler.

MARBRIER, mar-bryay, sm. 1 marblo-cutting, marble-polisher. 2 (marbrier) marble-dealer.

MARBRIERE, mar-brayay, sf. marble-quarry.

MARBRIERE, mar-brûr, sf. 1 marbling. 2 (peinture) imitation of marble in painting.

MARG, mar, sm. (Ger.) (pol.) mark. 8 onces. Au — la livre, so many shillings in the pound. — d'or, gold mark. Marc, sm. 1 (résidu) residue. 2 — de raisins, d'olives, de pommes, husks, skins of grapes, olives, apples after the last pressing. — de café, coffee-grouts.

MARG, sm. Mark, Marcus.

MARGASSIN, mar-kas-sang, sm. zool. young wild boar.

MARCASSITE, mar-kas-sit, sf. min. marcasite.

MARGATION, mar-koh-syong, sf. See LIGNE.

MARCHAND, mar-hang, sm. fem. —, (Lat. mercator) 1 tradesman, shopkeeper, dealer, storekeeper, merchant. — en gros, en détail, wholesale, retail dealer.

un magasin, un bantique, shopkeeper, drapier, épicer, etc., woaden shop, grocer, foran, itinerant dealer. prov. fig. N'est pas — qui toujours gagne, there is no trader who does not meet with losses. fig. qui perd ne peut rien, let him lose that wins. Être mauvais —, se trouver mauvais —, n'être pas bon —, être close, to have a bad bargain of it ; to get nothing by the bargain ; to come off the worst. 2 (by extension) (celui qui achète pour son usage) purchaser, consumer. Trouver —, to find a purchaser, a bidder. (aux ventes publiques, at auctions) Il y a —, there is a bidder, there is a bid. 3 (adjectif) merchantable, marketable, vendible, saleable. Prix —, marketable price. Ville —, trading town, staple town. Navire, bâtiment, fig. Il ne fut conu ship, merchantman. fig. Il ne fut conu chose qu'une trêve —, nothing was agreed upon but a truce for purposes of commerce. Bar.

MARCHANDER, mar-shang-day, ra. 1 to bargain for, to haggle for, to chaffer for. Elle marchande cela comme une botte d'herbes, she stands haggling for it as if it were a bunch of herbs. Mariv. Pour conjurer le roi et le due de B. de ne pas — la rançon, to entreat the King and the Duke of B. not to dispute about the ransom. Bar. absol. — sou à sou, to stand haggling for a penny. (morally) Perisse l'homme qui marchande un cœur, may the wretch perish who tries to bargain for affection. J.-J. Rouss. fig. Ne jure — sa vie, to expose one's life. Ne pas — quelque'un, not to spare a person. 2 fig. (intransitivement) (hésiter) to be at a stand, to be irresolute, in suspense. Dans le cas où son maître avait la tête tranchée, ne marchandait point pour son compte à se faire pendre, in case his master was to be beheaded, he did not hesitate to risk being hanged himself. Ste-B. L'ambition le marchande pas, la peur marchande moins encore, ambition is staid by no consideration, much less is fear. Lamart.

MARCHANDISE, mar-shang-deez, sf. (from marchand) 1 commodity, goods, wares, merchandise. — de traite, de pavoir sa —, to raise one's goods ; fig. to set one's self off. fig. — mêlée, melley, mixed company. 2 (trafic) trade, traffic. Faire —, to trade, to traffic. Le pavillon couvre la —, the flag covers the merchandise. fig. Faire métier et — d'une chose, to do a thing as one's own proper business.

MARCHE, marsh, sf. march, bounds, limits, borders, confines. La — d'Ancone, the march of Ancona.

MARCHE, sf. 1 (action) marching, march. 2 (sous le rapport de la distance) march, distance. Il y a d'ici là deux heures de —, it is a two hours' walk from here to that place. Ils ont été vingt jours en —, they were twenty days on the march 3 (des troupes, etc., of troops, etc.) march. L'armée est en —, s'es — mise en —, the army is on the march, has marched. Ordre de —, march. Chaque jour de — était une bataille, every day's march was marked by a battle. Voli. — forcée, forced march. Sonner, battre la —, to beat, to sound the march, to strike up a march. Gagner une — sur l'ennemi, to steal a march upon the enemy. 4 naut. Ordre de marche, order of sailing. 5 (des processions, etc., of processions, etc.) march. Un corps de troupes faisait la —, a body of troops brought up the rear. 6 naut. La — d'un vaisseau, the headway of a ship through the water. 7 astr. La — des astres, des corps célestes, the course of the stars, of the heavenly bodies. 8 mus. harmonic progression. 9 (at chess) march. 10 (by analogy) (at draughts) mace. 11 fig. (conduite) course, conduct, manner, way of proceeding. Voici la — à suivre, this is the course to be followed. La — naturelle du cœur humain, the natural ways of the human heart. J.-J. Rouss. Étudier, observer la — des affaires, to study, to observe the course of things. La — d'un poème, d'un ouvrage, etc., the progress of a poem, of a work. 12 (musique militaire) march.

MARCHE, sf. 1 (degré) step. fig. Être sur les —s du trône, être assis, être placé sur les —s du trône, to be on the steps of the throne. 2 tech. treadle.

MARCHE, mar-shay, sm. 1 market. Le — au blé, aux chevaux, — franc, market toll-free, where no dues are paid. 2 (ceux qui vendent, etc.) market. Dans notre ville, il y a — deux fois par semaine, in our town there are two market-days a week. 3 (la vente) market, sale. Le cours du —, the market-price. 4 (achats) marketing, purchase. 5 (convention) bargain, contract. J'étais en — avec lui pour sa voiture, I was bargaining with him for his carriage. C'est un — d'or, it is a dead bargain, a capital bargain. prov. fig. Mettre à quelque'un le — à la main, to offer to break off a bargain. 6 exchang. — à prime, See PRIME. 7 (prix) Avoir une chose à bon —, to buy a thing cheap. Il vend à meilleur —, he sells cheaper. fig. Par-dessus le bargain. A bon —, cheap. En être quitte, en sortir à bon —, to come off to get off cheap. Faire bon — d'une chose, to hold cheap, to be lavish of a thing, not to spare a thing. La faim, l'émotion avait eu bon — de cette créature délicate, hunger, emotion had the upper hand over so delicate a creature. Ab. prov. Les hons — s'ruineat, cheap is dear in the long run.

MARCHEPIED, mar-shuh-pyay, sm. 1 step. — du trône, the step of the throne. 2 (escalabon) foot-step. — d'une voiture, the steps of a carriage. 3 fig. stepping-stone. Dieu se sert de l'adversité comme d'un — pour nous élever, God makes use of adversity as a stepping-stone to exalt us. Chai. 4 (chemin de balage) towing path.

MARCHEUR, mar-shay, rn. 4 to walk, to go; to tread (sur, upon, on). — en avant, en arrière, to go forward, backwards. — à grands pas, à petits pas, to stride along, to walk. — à tâtons, sur la pointe du pied, to grope along, to walk on tip-toe. De graves personnages qui marchaient à pas comptés, sedate persons who walked formally. Barth. Je marchais d'un pas précipité, I walked hastily. Le médecin dit qu'il ne marchera jamais de cette jambe-là, the physician says that he will never be able to make use of that leg. Mém. Elle se mit à — avec une telle rapidité que, she began to walk so fast that — Méria. Si vous ne pouvez —, il faudra que je vous porte, if you cannot walk, I must carry you. Mém. Je n'ai encore vu — personne: les Français courent, ils volent, I have till now seen no one walk: the French run, they fly. Montesq. Ils ont assez de quoi — entre la botte et l'étag, they have room enough to walk between the hiltack and the poud. Nod. Il commence à — avec un bâton, he is beginning to walk with a stick. Il commence à — tout seul, he is beginning to walk alone. — à quatre pattes, to go on all fours. Prenez garde où vous marchez, look where you are treading. fig. — à pas de loup, à pas de tortue, to walk stealthily, at a snail's pace; fig. Cet homme marche à pas de géant à la fortune, that man is marching towards fortune with rapid strides. — sur quelque chose, to tread upon something. Vous m'avez marché sur le pied, you have trodden upon my foot. Marchez donc sur cette araignée, do tread upon that spider. — sur les talons de quelqu'un, to tread upon a person's heels; to rank next to a person. fig. — sur les pas, sur les traces de quelqu'un, to walk in a person's steps, to tread in a person's footsteps. — sur des épines, to tread upon thorns. fig. Il ne faut pas lui — sur le pied, you must not wrong him. 2 (in a wider sense) (s'avancer, to walk, to travel, to march. Il était d'avis que tous marchassent toute la nuit pour gagner un bois épais, he thought it advisable that we should ride all night in order to reach a thick wood. Le Sage. Derrière elle, marchait un pion, behind her, came a man on foot. Ab. Marchez par la ville, vous entendrez assez de gens, walk through the town, you will hear plenty of people. Bar. Tout en marchant elle lui parlait de son frère, walking along she kept on speaking to her about her brother. Mém. Il marcha droit dans la fourre, he went straight into the thicket. Nod. 3 (des troupes, etc., of troops, etc.) to march. Marchez sans délai à l'ennemi, march without delay upon the enemy. Bar. L'armée marchait en ordre de bataille, marchait sur trois colonnes, the army marched in battle array, in three columns. (word of command) Eu avant, marchez forward, march! 4 (dans une cérémonie) to rank, to take the precedence. 5 (des choses inanimées) to go. Ce vaisseau marche bien, that vessel is a fast sailer. Votre montre ne marche plus, your watch is stopped. Ce bâtiment a mille qualités toutes plus précieuses les unes que les autres, mais... il ne marche pas, this ship has a thousand first-rate qualities, but... she is no sailer. Jacq. La Zélée se distingua et marcha cette fois, the Zélée did wonders, and sailed for once. Jacq. 6 fig. (des personnes, of persons) to gain, to attain. Il marche barillement à son but, vers son but, he is advancing boldly towards the accomplishment of his purpose. Je marche seul dans la force et dans ma liberté, I get on alone, unaided and unfettered. Ducis. J'étais un bonnet homme, je pouvais — tête levée, I was on honest man, I was able to hold my head up. Ab. fig. — à tâtons dans une affaire, to be in the dark. 7 (des choses, of things) Le temps marche avec rapidité, time flies rapidly. Qu'elle (la France) marchait dans une voie de progrès, that France was progressing. Ph. Chas. Mes études marchaient comme mes plaisirs, on petit pas, my studies like my pleasures progressed very slowly. Ab. La nature marche toujours, nature never suspends her action. Buff. Je trouve que votre affaire ne marche pas, I think that your business does not progress at all. Ce discours, ce poème marche bien, that discourse, that poem goes off well. 8 (transitivement) tech. — l'étoffe d'un chapeau, to handle, to press the stuff for a hat.

MARCHEM, sm. 4 goit, pace, walk. Un rat des plus petits raillait le — un pen lent de l'éléphant, a rat of the smallest size criticized the slow pace of the elephant. La Font. 2 (sometimes) (l'action de marcher) walking. Quand la cause du — et du mouvement faillit en toi, when the faculty of walking and moving failed you. La Font. 3 (l'endroit sur lequel on marche) treading.

MARCHEUR, mar-shuhr, sm. fem. MARCHEUSE, walker. Un bon —, a good walker.

MARCOITE, mar-kot, sf. agri. layer. MARCOTIER, mar-ko-tay, ra. agri. to lay layers (des chèvrefeuilles, des oseille, of honeysuckles, carnations).

MARDELLE, mar-dayl, sf. See MARGELLE.

MARDI, mar-dee, sm. (Lat. dies Martis) Tuesday. Tous les —s, every Tuesday. — gras. Shrove-Tuesday.

MARE, mar, sf. pond, pool. MARECAGE, mar-ay-kazh, sm. bog, marsh, moor, fen, swamp.

MARECAGEUX, mah-ray-kazh-uh, adj. m. fem. MARECAGEUSE, marshy, moorish, swampy, boggy. Pays —, marshy country.

MARECHAL, mar-ay-shal, sm. pl. MARECHAUX, 4 (artisan) farrier, horse-leech. — ferrant, farrier. 2 mil. — des logis, quarter-master; || (à la cour) marshal. — de camp, major general. — de France, field-marshal. 3 (de certains grands officiers) Le — de Pologne, etc., the Marshal of Poland, etc.

MARECHALAT, mar-ay-shal-ah, sm. dignity, office of a field-marshal.

MARECHALE, mar-ay-shal, sf. the wife of a field-marshal.

MARECHALERIE, mar-ay-shal-ree, sf. farriery.

MARECHASSE, mar-ay-sho-say, sf. 1 (anc. juridiction) marshalsea. 2 (anc. troupe à cheval) marshalsea.

MAREE, mar-ay, sf. 4 tides. Haute, pleine, basse, —, high water, low water. Un vaisseau qui a vent et —, a vessel which sails with wind and tide. La — monte, descend, the tide is coming in, is going out. Morte —, neap tide. fig. Avoir vent et —, to swim with the tide. fig. Aller contre vent et —, to go in spite of all opposition. 2 (poisson de mer) salt-water fish, fish. Marchande de —, fishmonger.

MARELLE, mar-ayl, sf. hop-scootch,

Scotch-hopper. Jouer à la —, to play at hop-scootch.

MARGAY, mar-gay, sm. zool. margay, Cayenne cat.

MARGE, marz, sf. (Lat. margo) margin. fig. Avoir de la —, to have time enough.

MARGELE, mar-zhayl, sf. (d'un puits, of a well) brink.

MARGEIT, mar-zhay, ra. print. to make, to fix a margin.

MARGINAL, mar-zhe-nal, adj. m. fem. —e, marginal. Note —e, marginal note.

MARGINER, mar-zhe-nay, va. to write marginal notes, to write on the margin.

MARGOT, mar-go, sf. dimin. of MARGUERITE, Madge, Margery, Peggy.

MARGOTIN, mar-go-lang, sm. snail bundle of fagots.

MARCOULET, mar-goo-yay, sm. naut. wooden hiltack, bull's eye, wooden traveller.

MARCOUILLES, mar-goo-ye, sm. pop. paddy, dirty plash.

MARGRAVE, mar-grav, sm. (Ger.) margrave.

MARGRAVIAT, mar-grav-yah, sm. margravia.

MARGUERITE, mar-goh-rit, sf. 4 bot. daisy. 2 (la plante) daisy. 3 scrip. (perle) pearl. Il ne faut pas jeter les —s devant les porceaux, one must not cast pearls before swine. 4 (nom) Margaret.

MARGUILLERIE, mar-glue-yuh-ree, sf. churchwardenship.

MARGUILLIER, mar-gee-yay, churchwarden.

MARI, mar-ee, sm. (Lat. maritus) husband. Femme en puissance de, a woman under coverture.

MARIABLE, mar-yabl', adj. mf. marriageable.

MARIAGE, mar-yazh, sm. 4 marriage, matrimony, wedlock. Faire un hon —, on sol —, to marry well, to throw one's self away. — sortable, bien assorti, suitable marriage, match. — d'inclination, love-match. Demander, promettre, donner, prendre une fille en —, to solicit, to promise a maid for a wife, to give away a girl in marriage, to take a maid to wife, to marry a girl. Les enfants qui naissent pendant le —, children born in wedlock. — de conscience, private marriage. — in extremis, marriage in which one of the parties is on the point of death. — de la main gauche, left-handed marriage, morganatic marriage. fig. — sous la cheminée, marriage under the rose. fig. — en détrempé, living like man and wife, pretended marriage. 2 (la célébration des noces) wedding. 3 (le bien) marriage-portion.

MARIE, ppa. of MARIER, fem. —e, 4 married. J'aimerais mieux te voir morte que —e à un G., I should prefer to see you dead rather than wedded to a G. Ab. Un homme —, a married man. Femme non —e, an unmarried woman. Une femme —, a married woman. fig. (de la vigne) Orme auquel une vigne est —e, elm to which a vine clings. 2 (substantif) Un nouveau —, a bridegroom. Une nouvelle —e, a bride. absol. Voilà là —e, that is the bride. Les —s, the newly married couple. prov. fig. Se plaindre que la —e, est trop belle, to complain of too good a bargain.

MARIE, mar-ee, sf. Mary.

MARIER, mar-say, ra. 4 to marry. 2 (faire, procurer un mariage) to marry. Ils étaient convenus depuis quelque temps de — les jeunes gens quand ils auraient l'âge, it had been agreed upon for some time to marry the young folks when they were old enough. Nod. Attendez, mon maltra marie sa fille unique, but wait a while, my master is going to marry his only daughter. La Font. Cet homme a la manie de — tout le monde, that man is the match-maker. Une fille bonne à —, a marriageable girl. 3 fig. (allier) to twine, to unite. — la vigne avec l'ormeau, à l'ormeau, to unite the vine with the elm. — des couleurs, to blend colours.

SE MARIER, vpr. 1 to marry, to be married, to get married. Il est d'âge à se —, he is old enough. Il est d'âge à se marier, he is old enough to marry. Je me plais à croire que l'artiste s'y maria selon son cœur. I hope that the artist married according to his inclination. Nod. 2 recipr. to marry. Quand nous marierons-nous? when shall we be married? 3 fig. (s'allier) to unite, to blend. La souris de sa bouche qui ne se mariait plus au sourire des yeux, the smile of his mouth which was no longer accompanied with the sparkling of his eyes. Chat. Ces harmonies qui pour moi se mariaient à mes paroles, these sounds which I found accompanied my words. Nod. Ces deux mots ne se marient pas bien, these two words do not go well together.

MARIEUR, mar-yur, sm. fem. MARIEUR match-maker.

MARIN, mar-ang, adj. m. fem. — E. (Lat. marinus) a seafaring, sea, marine. Veau, loup, cheval —, sea-calf, sea-wolf, walrus, sea-horse. Plante —, sea-weed. Sel —, sea-salt, salt. 2 myth. Les dieux —, the sea-gods 3 (destinée à la marine) Carte —, chart. Montre —, sea-time watch. Lieue —, league at sea, fig. Avoir le pied —, to be used to the sea, to be a good sailor.

MARIS, sm. seaman, seafaring-man. fam. ironie. — d'eau douce, freshwater sailor, lubber, lund-lubber.

MARINADE, mar-e-nad, sf. marinade, pickled meat, pickle, souse.

MARINE, mar-een, sf. 1 marine, nary, sailing, sea-service, navigation. 2 (le service de mer) nary, naval service, marine. Officier de —, naval officer. Ministre de la —, the first lord of the Admiralty. Ministère de la —, the Admiralty. Infanterie, artillerie de —, the marines, the marine infantry, artillery. 3 (la puissance navale) royale, the royal navy. La — de France, the French navy. — marchande, See MARCHAND. 4 (le goût, l'odeur de la mer) smell, odour of the sea. 5 garde —, See GARDE. 6 paint, sea-piece.

MARINÉ, ppa. of MARINER, fem. — E. adjectif, marinated, pickled. Des huîtres —, pickled oysters.

MAHNER, mar-e-nay, ra. 1 to cure, to pickle (du thon, des anguilles, tunny, eels). 2 (assaisonner certaines viandes) to cure (des poulets, fowls, etc.). 3 (laisser tremper de la viande dans du vinaigre, etc.) to pickle (du chevreuil, du porc frais, venison, pork).

MAHNGOUIN, mar-ang-gouang, sm. eat muskito.

MAHNIER, mar-e-nay, sm. 1 barge-man, boatman, waterman. 2 naut. obol. Officiers —, s. petty officers, masters. 3 enlin. Moules à la marinière, muscles marinière fashion.

MARIONNETTE, mar-yo-net, sf. 1 puppet. Faire jouer les —, to play the puppets. Le maître d'un théâtre de —, the puppet-man, the puppet-master. Prov. fig. Il a fait jouer les grandes —, he employed the most efficient means. 2 fig. (personne) a puppet.

MARITAL, mar-e-tal, adj. m. fem. — E. (Lat. maritalis) law, marital, matrimonial.

MARITALEMENT, mar-e-tal-mang, adv. 1 like a husband. 2 like man and wife, like husband and wife.

MARITIME, mar-e-teem, adj. mf. (Lat. maritimus) 1 maritime, naval. Les provinces, les villes —, s. the maritime provinces, towns. 2 (adonné à la navigation ser mer) maritime. Les peuples, les nations, les puissances —, s. maritime people, nations, powers. 3 (qui est relatif à la mer) maritime. Le commerce —, sea trade. Les forces —, s. the sea forces. Législation —, code —, navigation laws, maritime code.

MARITORNE, mar-e-tora, sf. atrappant, dirty wench.

MARIAUJAGE, mar-e-vo-dazh, em. excessive refinement, sentimentalism, affected style.

MARIVAUX, mar-e-vo, sm. a French author, born in 1688, died in 1763.

MARJOLAINE, mar-jo-layn, sf. bot. sweet marjoram.

MARLI, mar-lee, sm. cat-gut.

MARMAILLE, mar-mah-yuh, sf. (collectif) brats.

MARNELADE, mar-mah-lad, sf. (Port.) marmalade, jam. — d'abricots, de prunes, apricot jam, plum jam. fam. Cela est en —, that is boiled to rags. fig. Une ruade qui vous lui met en — les mandibules et les dents, a kick which shatters in pieces his jaw and teeth. La Font.

MARMENTEAU, mar-mang-to, adj. m. 1 woods and for reserved. 2 (substantif.) Les —, reserved timber-trees.

MARMITE, mar-mit, sf. 1 pot, boiler, copper. — de cuire, de fonte, de terre, etc., copper, cast iron, earthen pot, etc. Concoquer, pied de —, lid, foot of the boiler. Avoir le nez en pied de —, to have a pug-dog nose. — de Papin, Papin's digester. Prov. La — est bonne dans cette maison, they keep a good table in that house. Prov. fig. La — est renversée dans cette maison, there is no cooking going on in that house. 2 (le contenu) psful, kettleful.

MARMITON, mar-me-long, sm. scullion, kitchen drudge.

MARMITONNERIE, mar-me-ton-ree, sf. (collectif) scullions. Th. Gaut. Muss.

MARMORNER, mar-may, va. pop. to mutter, to mumble, to grumble.

MARMOREUX, mar-mor-ray-ang, adj. m. fem. (Lat. marmor) marmorean.

MARMOT, mar-mo, sm. 1 zool. marmoset. 2 (figure en bois, etc.) puppet. 3 fig. (petit garçon) fig. —, brat. 4 fig. Croquer le —, to dance attendance, to wail.

MARNOTTE, mar-mot, sf. 1 zool. dormouse. Dormir comme une —, to sleep like a top. 2 chief tid under the chin.

MARNOTTAGE, mar-mo-tazh, sm. (from marmotter) muttering, mumbling.

MARNOTTER, mar-mo-tay, va. to mutter, to mumble. S. marmotta entre ses dents je ne sais quelles excuses, S. muttered out some excuse, I can't tell what. Ab. — ses prières, ses paternosters, to mumble one's prayers, one's paternosters.

MARMOUSET, mar-moo-zay, sm. 1 grotesque figure. 2 (disparagingly) —, visage de —, monkey-faced. 3 (chenet) androu.

MARNAGE, mar-nazh, sm. agri. manuring with marl, marling.

MARNE, mar-n, sf. marl, clay, chalk.

MARNER, mar-nay, ra. agri. to marl, to clay, to chalk.

MARNEUX, mar-nob, adj. m. fem. MARNETSE, marly.

MARNIERE, mar-nayr, sf. marl-pit, clay-pit.

MARONITE, mar-o-nit, adj. and s. mf. Maronite.

MAROQUIN, mar-o-kang, sm. (from Maroc) morocco, morocco-leather. Papier —, morocco-paper.

MAROQUINER, mar-o-ke-nay, ra. tech. to dress like morocco, to manufacture morocco-leather. — de la basane, to dress sheep-skin like morocco.

MAROQUINERIE, mar-o-keen-ree, sf. morocco-leather manufacture.

MAROQUINIER, mar-o-ke-nayr, sm. a dresser of morocco-leather.

MAROTIQUE, mar-o-tik, adj. mf. Vers —, Marotic verses.

MAROTTE, mar-ot, sf. 1 fool's bauble. 2 fig. hobby, fancy, folly, whim. Chaque siècle a eu sa —, every century has had its hobby. Volt.

MAROUFLE, mar-ool, sm. 1 (disparagingly) rascal, rogamuffin, scoundrel. 2 (drôle) rascal.

MAROUFLE, sf. paint, linig-paste.

MAROUFLER, mar-oo-day, va. paint, to prime.

MARQUANT, mar-kang, ppr. of MANQUER, adj. m. fem. — E. 1 striking, of note, conspicuous. Plusieurs chanoines — s'enfurent arrêtés pour les mêmes motifs, many cardinals of note were arrested from the same motives. Bar. Un trait —, a remarkable trait. 2 (at cards) Cartes —, marking-cards.

MARQUE, mark, sf. (Ger. mark) 1 mark. Dites-moi quelques —, s. à quoi je les heures, consult me, tell me some token whereby I shall be able to know them. La Font. 2 com. mark, stamp. Droit de —, stamp dues. 3 (d'un criminel) brand, stigma. 4 (instrument) stamp. 5 (chez les marchands, with merchants) mark. 6 (d'une personne qui ne sait pas écrire) mark. 7 (cicatrice) mark. Il a eu la petite vérole, il lui en reste des —, he has had the small-pox, he is pitted with it still. 8 (trace) mark, trace. La — de ses doigts est sur toutes les pages de ce livre, the marks of his fingers are to be seen upon all the pages of that book. 9 (l'ache, signe) mole, mark. 10 (signe de dignité) badge, insignia. Les — de la royauté, the insignia of royalty. Volt. — d'honneur, badge of honor. Porter les — s d'un ordre, to wear the insignia of an order. 11 (distinction) Un homme de —, a man of note. 12 (pour se souvenir) token. 13 (at certain games) mark. 14 (jetons, fleches) counters, fishes, marks. 15 (indice) token, mark, proof, instance. C'est une — de bonheur, it is a token of good luck. 16 (présage) sign. 17 (preuve) proof, mark. Combien je suis sensible à une telle — d'amitié, how sensible of I am to such a proof of friendship. Volt. Vous m'êtes encore plus cher, il faut que je vous en donne des —, you are still dearer to me, I must give you some proofs of it. Le Sage. Les — de la cruauté paraissent avec l'horreur, the marks of cruelty appeared at day-break. La Font.

MARQUE, ppa. of MARQUER, fam. — E. adjectif. 1 marked. Tout mon linge est — d'une H. est — à un marque, all my linen is marked with an H. It is marked with my mark. Sa figure est restée — d'une brûlure, there is still the mark of a burn upon his face. Eire — de petite vérole, to be pitted with the small-pox. Cheval — en tête, a horse with a mark on his head. Papier —, parchment —, stamped paper, parchment. fig. Ouvrage — au bon coin, an excellent work, performance of the right stamp. 2 (heiri) branded. 3 (morally) marked. Cet hôte nous dort l'arrivée a été — par des signes funestes, that guest whose arrival was announced by fatal signs. Chat. Ils ont commis nous des jennes —, they have like us certain set facts. Montesq. Tout est — dans l'ordre de la Providence, every thing happens by the appointment of Providence. Mue de Sév. 4 (un piquet, at piquet) Eire —, to be scored up. (substantif.) (by analogy) Un —, dex —, s. trois, s. one, two, three scored up. 5 Avoir les traits —, to have striking features. Une figure à longs traits expressifs et fortement —, s. a long face, with expressive and strongly marked features. Sic-B. (by analogy) (morally) Un caractère —, a resolute temper. J.-J. Rooss. 6 (morally) (évident) conspicuous, evident. Avoir pour quelqu'un des attentions —, to show a person great attention.

MARQUER, mar-kay, ra. (from marque) 1 to mark, to set a mark, to stamp (de la vaisselle, plate; du linge, linen; des chevaux, des moutons, horses, sheep). Il se fit soldat du Christ, marque d'une croix sa cotte d'armes, he became a soldier of Christ, and his coat of arms was marked with the sign of the cross. Aug. Th. fig. Le doigt de la destinée marque dans l'âme et non sur le front, the finger of fate sets its mark upon the soul, and not upon the forehead. Lamart. 2 crim. law. (avec un fer chaud) to brand. 3 (d'un coup, d'une blessure, etc.) of a blow, of a wound, etc.) to mark. 4 (laisser des traces) to mark. (morally) Il marqua les commencements de son règne par des proscriptions et des cruautés, the beginnings of his reign were marked by proscriptions and cruelties. Barth. 5 (mettre une marque pour se souvenir) to mark, to indicate. — son jeu, to mark one's game. — quelqu'un au piquet, au whist, etc., to mark, to score up at piquet, at backgammon. 6 (morally) (détourner) to mark, to fix, to appoint. Le roi marqua le jour de son départ pour l'armée, the king fixed the day of his departure for the army. Le Sage. C'est ainsi que la Providence avait marqué la fin de sa vie dans les plus belles années de son âge, thus Providence had decreed that he should end his days in the prime of his life. M^{me} de Sév. 7 (indiquer) to show, to testify. Quatre flambeaux en marquent les quatre coins, four torches point out the four corners. Chate. 8 (mandier, indiquer) to tell, to state, to inform of. Je vous ai marqué, dans ma dernière lettre, ce que vous devez faire, I stated to you in my last letter what you ought to do. Les comédiens marquaient sur leurs affiches qu'ils joueraient la tragédie de... the comedians announced in their bill that they should play the tragedy of... Le Sage. 9 (témoigner, donner des marques) to testify, to show, to give tokens of. Sans — la moindre répugnance, without showing any sign of reluctance. J.-J. Rousse. Il se mit à retenir sur le chagrin que je marquais de la mort de A., when I expressed my grief for the death of A., he expressed a greater still. Le Sage. — da respect, de l'estime, de l'amitié pour quelqu'un, to testify respect, esteem, friendship for a person. 10 (intransitivement) Ce cheval marque encore, that horse still has the mark in his mouth. Cela marquait trop, that would be too conspicuous. J'avais un chapeau de feutre gris où la pousière ne marquait point, I had on a hat made of grey felt which did not show the dust. Ah. On ne trouve rien qui marque dans cet ouvrage, there is nothing remarkable in that work.

MARQUETER, mar-kuh-lay, ra. to spot, to check, to tinge (une peau, a skin).

SE MARQUETER, vpr. to tattoo one's self. MARQUETERIE, mar-kul-tree, sf. mosaic, patch-work, checker-work, marquetry, inlaid work. fig. Ce discours est une —, that discourse is a very desultory one.

MARQUETTE, mar-ket, sf. cake of bees-wax.

MARQUEUR, mar-kuhr, sm. 1 tech. — de coirs, de draps, etc., leather-marker, cloth-marker. 2 (jeu de paume, de billard, etc., at tennis, billiards, etc.) marker, scorer.

MARQUIS, mar-kee, sm. 1 anc. marquis, marquis. 2 (titre) marquis. 3 (in joke, grand personnage) fig. C'est un — de Carabas, he is a great landholder.

MARQUISAT, mar-ke-zah, sm. 1 (titre) marquisate. 2 (la terre) marquisate.

MARQUISE, mar-kee, sf. marchioness. MARQUISE, sf. 4 (de la tente d'un officier) marquise. 2 nat. aving. 3 (d'une maison) marquise, verandah.

MARQUOIR, mar-koahr, sm. 1 tech. tailor's bodkin. 2 sampler.

MARRAINE, mar-rya, sf. godmother. Être —, to stand godmother.

MARRI, mar-ree, adj. m. fem. —E, ohso, sorry, grieved. Être —, to be grieved. Quant à son ail — sa fortune, etc., leaving with a sorrowful look her fortune, etc. La Font.

MARRON, ma-rong, sm. 1 chestnut. Dees —s bouillis, rôtis, grillés, boiled, roasted chestnuts. —s d'Inde, horse-chestnuts. —s glacés, iced chestnuts. 2 (adjectif) Couleur —, maroon, chestnut-coloured, brown. 3 pyr. cracker. 4 war. maroon.

MARHON, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 fugitive, runaway. Nègre —, a runaway slave. 2 (des animaux, of animals) wild. Corbeau —, pig that has run wild. 3 Courtier —, unlicensed broker. 4 (substantif) C'est on —, he is an unlicensed broker.

MARRONNAGE, ma-roo-azh, sm. running away.

MARRONNER, ma-ro-nay, nn. pop. to murmur, to grumble, to be vexed.

MARRONNIER, ma-ro-nyay, sm. bot. chestnut-tree. — d'Inde, horse-chestnut-tree.

MARS, mars, sm. (Lat.) 1 myth. Mars. Le dieu —, Mars. 2 poetic. (la guerre) war. 3 astr. La planète de —, the planet Mars. 4 anc. chem. (le fer) Mars.

MARS, sm. 4 (mois) March. Le mois de —, the month of March. En —, in March. A la mi —, in the middle of March. Champ de —, field of March. 2 pt. (by extension) (menas grains) spring-grain.

MARSEILLAIS, mar-say-yay, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 of Marseilles. 2 (substantif) man, woman of Marseilles. 3 Fr. rev. (chant) La —, patriotic hymn, (national song) the Marseillaise.

MARSOLIN, mar-sooang, sm. nat. hist. porpoise, porpus, sea-hog. pop. Un gros —, d'haisier, a great porpoise of an usher. Le Gros.

MARSUPIALX, mar-sû-pyo, sm. pl. (Lat. marsupium) zool. marsupialia.

MARTAGON, mar-tag-on, sm. bot. martagon.

MARTE, mart, sf. See MARTE.

MARTEAU, mar-to, sm. (It. martello) 1 hammer. La tête, le manche d'un —, the head, the handle of a hammer. 2 d'horloge, clapper. — de porte, knocker, rapper. fig. N'être point sujet au coup de —, to be one's own master. fig. Graisser le —, to see the porter. Perruque à trois —x, See PERUQUE. lam. Avoir au coup de —, un petit coup de —, to have a slight crack in the upper works. prov. fig. Il faut être enclume ou —, one must bite or be bitten. Être entre l'enclume et le —, to have difficulties on all sides. 2 terme de facteur d'instruments) hammer. 3 anat. hammer.

MARTEL, mar-tayl, sm. ohso. hammer. fig. Avoir — en tête, to be tormented to death.

MARTELAGE, mar-tah-lazh, sm. marking of trees for ship-building.

MARTELE, ppa. of MARTELER, fem. —E, 4 hammered. Vaisselle, médaille —E, hammered plate, medal. 2 (by extension) mas. Trille —, brilliant trill. 3 fig. lit. Vers —s, laboured verses.

MARTELET, mar-tah-lay, ra. JE MARTELE, IL MARTELE, (from martel) 1 to hammer (de la vaisselle, plate) fig. Il martelait la langue pour la façonner sur les formes de l'antiquité, he strained the language in order to make it take the form of antiquity. Lamart. 2 fig. (faire avec effort) to labour (des vers, versée). 3 fig. (donner de l'inquiétude) to puzzle, to worry. Cette affaire me martèle le cerveau, me martèle, that business worries me to death.

MARTELET, mar-tah-lay, sm. a small hammer.

MARTELEUR, mar-tub-luhr, sm. hammerer, hammer-man.

MARTIAL, mar-rya, adj. m. fem. —E, (Lat. martialis) 1 warlike, martial. Courage —, warlike courage. Cour —E, loi —E, See COUR, LOI. 2 anc. chem. Eau —E, ferruginous water. (substantif) Les MARTIAUX, the chalybeate waters.

MARTIN, mar-taug, sm. Martin.

MARTIN-PÊCHEUR, sm. ord. king-fisher. MARTIN-SEC, sm. hort. a kind of pear. MARTINET, mar-te-nay, sm. orn. martin.

MARTINET, sm. 1 flat cudstick. 2 tech. till hammer. 3 cat-o'-nine-tails.

MARTINGALE, mar-tang-gal, sf. 1 man. martingale. 2 (jeu) double or quits. Jouer à la —, to double the stake. 3 (by extension) (manière de jouer) martingale.

MARTRE, martr, sf. (Lat. martres) 4 zool. martin. Fourrure de —, sable. — zibeline, sable. prov. fig. Prendre — pour regard, to take one thing for another. 2 (la peau) martin.

MARTYR, mar-teer, sm. fem. —E, (Gr.) 1 martyr. prov. fig. Être du commun des —s, to be very ordinary. 2 (by extension) (d'une croyance, d'une doctrine) martyr. Je crois cet homme — et vraiement —, car il aime mieux mourir que de faire du tort à son pays, I think that man a martyr, a real martyr, for he preferred dying to doing harm to his country. Aug. Th. 3 (qui souffre beaucoup) martyr. Il est — de la goutte, he is a martyr to the gout. Être le — de quelqu'un, to be tormented by a person. (by analogy) Faire de quelqu'un son —, to torment, to tease a person.

MARTYRE, mar-teer, sm. 1 martyrdom. La couronne, la palme du —, the crown, the palm of martyrdom. 2 fig. (hyperb.) (peines de corps et d'esprit) torment, pains, sufferings. Il imagine en chassant diminuer son —, he thinks by hunting he shall relieve his sufferings. La Font. 3 (particul.) (des peines de l'amour) martyrdom. La beauté qui cause moi —, the beauty who is the cause of my martyrdom.

MARTYRISER, mar-te-re-zay, ra. (from martyr) 1 to make a person suffer martyrdom. (by extension) Le peuple laissa lâchement — son tribun, the people cowardly suffered their tribune to be made a martyr of. Lamart. 2 fig. (hyperb.) (faire souffrir de grandes douleurs) to martyrize, to torture. La goutte le martyrize, he is a martyr to the gout.

MARTYROLOGE, mar-te-ro-lozh, sm. (Gr.) martyrology.

MARUM, mar-uhm, sm. bot. morum, cat-hyme.

MASCARADE, mas-kar-ad, sf. 1 masquerade, mask. 2 (troupe de gens déguisés) masquerade, maskers. 3 fig. masquerade. 4 (danse) masquerade. La société entière était traduite en —, society itself was turned into a masquerade. Ste-B. 5 auc. (chanson) mask-song.

MASCARET, mas-kar-ay, sm. eddy of water, a violent eddy of the tide.

MASCARON, mas-kar-ong, sm. arch. grotesque figure of a head, mask.

MASCULIN, mas-kû-laog ad, m. fem. —E, (Lat. masculinus) 1 male, masculine. Le sexe —, the male sex. Ligne —E, the male line. 2 feod. law. Fief —, fee in tail male. 3 gram. Le genre —, the masculine gender. 4 versif. Rimes —es, masculine rhymes. 5 sm. gram. masculine gender.

MASCLINITÉ, mas-kû-le-ne-tay, sf. masculineness.

MASQUE, mask, sm. (It. maschera) 1 mask. Porter un —, to wear a mask. fig. Avoir un bon —, to have expressive features. 2 (loap) black relet mask. 3 (personne) masquerader, masker. 4 fig. (apparence trompeuse) pretence, mask, cloak. Se couvrir du — de la pitié, to screen one's self under a show of pity. absol. Il leva le — et se déclara protecteur de, he threw off the mask, and declared himself the protector of. Aug. Th. 5 (pour prendre le moule d'un visage) cap. 6 (ornement d'architecture) head. 7 pos. La petite —, the little imp. Mol.

MASQUÉ, ppo. of MASQUER, fem. —E, masked, in a mask. Bal —, masked ball. fig. T. est — de patriotisme, T. makes a show of patriotism. Lamart. fig. Être toujours —, to be very close.

MASQUER, mas-kay, (from masque) ra. 1 to mask, to disguise with a mask. 2 obsol. (aller en masque) to go as a mask. 3 fig. — ses desseins, to hide one's intentions. Ils masquaient de respect pour leur offense, they concealed their offence under the disguise of respect for the public. Lamart. 4 (by extension) (couvrir) to cover, to hide, to mask. Une belle allée de marronniers qui masquait la vue de sa fenêtre, a fine alley of chestnut trees which concealed the view from his window. St-E. 5 war. — une batterie, to mask a battery.

SE MASQUER, to disguise one's self.

MASSAGRANT, mas-sak-rang, ppr. of MASSACRER, adj. m. fem. —E, Humeur —e, cross, peevish humor. Il est aujourd'hui d'une humeur —e, he is to-day as cross as he can be.

MASSACRÉ, mas-sak-ré, sm. 1 massacre, slaughter, butchery. 2 (grande tuerie de bêtes) slaughter. Ils firent un grand — de saugliers, de chevreuils, they made a great slaughter of wild boars and roe-bucks. 3 veu. the head of the stag newly killed. 4 fig. bungler, cobbler, butcher.

MASSACRÉ, ppa. of MASSACRER, fem. —E, (hyperb.) Il a été —, he was slaughtered.

MASSACREUR, mas-sak-ray, ra. 1 to massacre, to slay, to slaughter, to butcher. 2 (des animaux, of animals) to kill. 3 fig. (gâter) to spoil (des hardes, des meubles, clothes, furniture). 4 fig. (d'un mauvais ouvrier, etc.) to bungle, to botch.

MASSACREUR, mas-sak-ruhr, sm. (little used) slayer, slaughterer.

MASSAGE, mas-sazh, sm. shampooing.

MASSÉ, mass, sf. (low Lat. massa) 1 moss, heap. 2 (corps compacte) lump, mass. Une — de plomb, a lump of lead. 3 (corps informe) lump, mass. C'est une — de chair, he is a mass of flesh. 4 nat. phil. mass. 5 (totalité d'une chose) mass. La — de l'air, the whole mass of air. La — du sang, the whole mass of blood. (morally) La — des connaissances humaines, the mass of human knowledge. La — des créanciers, the whole body of creditors. Les —s, the mass, the mob. 6 arch. mass. 7 point. — d'ombre, mass of shade. — de lumière, mass of light. 8 fig. (morally) the whole. Il faut moins considérer les détails que les —s, one must overlook the particulars, and consider the whole. 9 com. Une — de plumes, etc., fifty pounds of feathers, etc. 10 (d'une succession, d'une société) fund. 11 mil. admin. fund. — d'habillement, a stock of clothing; de chaussure, of boots and shoes. 12 tech. (maréau) hammer, large iron maul, beetle, rammer. — d'armes, mace. 13 (bâton) mace. 44 (bâtards) mass, biltard stick. 15 bot. — d'eau, See MASSETTE.

EN MASSE, adv. loc. in a mass, in a body. Partir, se lever en —, to rise in a body. L'enfant sans père était adopté en — par l'Etat, all fatherless children were adopted by the State. Lamart.

MASSE, mäss, sf. obsol. stake, pool.

MASSEPAIN, mass-paog, sm. pastry, marchpane.

MASSER, mäs-say, ra. paint. to dispose in masses.

MASSER, ra. to shampoo. Se faire —, to be shampooed.

MASSER, mas-say, ra. (jeu) obsol. to stake.

MASSETTE, mas-set, sf. pet. mace-wood, reed-mace, cut-tail, cat's tail.

MASSICOT, mas-se-ko, sm. tech. massicot, massicot.

MASSEUR, mas-say, sm. mace-bearer.

MASSIF, mas-sif, adj. m. fem. MASSIVE, (from masse) 1 massive, bulky, ponderous. Cet homme a le corps trop —, est trop —, that man is too big, too fat. 2 fig. (grossier) Cet homme a l'esprit aussi — que le corps, that man's mind is as heavy as his body. 3 jewel. massive. Une croix d'or —, a cross of massive gold. 4 (du bois, of wood) massive. Une table d'acajou —, a table of massive mahogany. 5 sm. mason. a foundation, a basis. 6 sm. gard. grove, cluster of trees.

MASSIVEMENT, mas-siv-mang, adv. heavily, dully.

MASSUE, mas-sü, sf. (from masse) club, bat. La — d'Hercule, the club of Hercules. fig. Il a eu un coup de — sur la tête, c'est un coup de — pour lui, he has received a knock-down blow, that is a knock-down blow for him.

MASTIC, mas-tik, sm. (Lat. mastic) 1 (résine) mastic. 2 (composition de cire, etc.) cement. 3 (poor fixer les vitres) putty.

MASTICATEUR, mas-te-kat-ubr, adj. and sm. masticatory. Les muscles —s, the masticatory muscles.

MASTIGATION, mas-te-kat-syong, sf. (Lat.) aed. mastication, chewing.

MASTICATOIRE, mas-te-kat-wär, sm. 4 med. masticatory. 2 adj. mf. masticatory.

MASTIGADOUR, mas-te-gad-our, sm. vel. mastigadour.

MASTIQUEUR, mas-te-kay, va. to join, to glue together, to cement, to putty.

MASTODONTE, mas-to-dongt, sm. (Gr.) mastodon.

MASTOIDE, mas-to-id, adj. f. (Gr.) mastoid.

MASTOÏDIEN, mas-to-e-dyang, adj. mf. fem. —ne, anat. mastoid.

MASURE, mah-zür, sf. (Lat. mansura) 1 ruins. 2 fig. a hovel, a hat.

MAT, mat, adj. m. fem. —E, 4 unpollished, unwrought, dead. Or, argent —, dead gold, silver. 2 point. Coloris —, couleur —e, a dead, a dull colour. 3 (lourd) heavy. Broderie —e, heavy embroidery. 4 flat, insipid. Du vin qui est âpre, p. et — wine which is harsh, bitter and insipid. De Bross.

MAT, sm. chess. mate. (adjective) Être écheé et —, Être —, to be checkmated. Je vais le faire —, en deux coups, I will checkmate him in two moves. fig. Donner écheé et — à quelqu'un, faire quelqu'un écheé et —, to checkmate a person.

MAT, mat, sm. mast. 1 naut. Le grand —, the main-mast. Le — d'avant, de misaine, the fore mast. Le — d'arrière, d'arimon, the hind mast, the mizen mast. — de rechange, spare mast. — de beaupré, bowsprit. 2 — de cocagne, greasy pole.

MATADOR, mal-ad-or, sm. (Sp.) matador.

MATADOR, sm. 1 (jeu de l'ombre) matadore. 2 fig. (homme considerable) big wig.

MATANORE, mat-au-or, sm. Hector, bully.

MATASSINS, mat-as-sanz, sm. pl. 4 obsol. (danse) matachin. 2 (danseurs) matachin.

MATELAS, mat-lah, sm. 4 mattress. Toile à —, bed ticking. Faire, piquer, rebouter, refaire un —, to have a mattress stitched, beaten, made up again. Un — de crin, a hair mattress. 2 (d'un carrosse, of a coach) squab.

MATELASSER, mat-lä-say, ra. to line with cushions, to pad, to stuff, to quilt (le fond d'un carrosse, the back of a carriage; des chaises, chairs). — une chambre pour un fou furieux, to surround a madman's room with mattresses.

MATELASSIER, mat-lä-say, sm. fem. MATELASSIÈRE, mattress-maker.

MATELOT, mat-lo, sm. 4 sailor, seaman, tar. 2 (particul.) naut. 3 (hy analogy) — d'avant, second a-head — d'arrière, second astern. 4 (adjective) Vaisseau —, consort ship. 5 (vêtement) skeleton suit.

MATELOTE, mat-lat, sf. culin. matelot.

À LA MATELOTE, adv. loc. seaman-like.

MATEL, mah-tay, va. 1 chess. to checkmate. 2 fig. (mortifier) to macerate, to mortify (son corps, sa chair par des jeûnes, par des austerités, one's body, one's flesh by fasting and austerities). 3 fig. (humilier) to humble, to curb, to break down. Afin de — le reste d'orgueil mondain qui restait encore dans son cœur, in order to bring down what was left of worldly pride in his heart. MÉRIM. Il faut — ce caractère opiniâtre, that stubborn temper must be conquered.

MATER, mā-tay, co. naut. to mast, to furnish with masts (un vaisseau, a ship).

MATEREAU, māt-rō, sm. naut. small mast.

MATÉRIALISER, mat-ayr-yal-e-zay, va. to materialize (l'âme, l'esprit, the soul, the mind).

SE MATÉRIALISER, vpr. to be materialized. Dès que le danger se fut, pour ainsi dire, matérialisé, as soon as the danger had, as it were, become palpable. Mery.

MATÉRIALISME, mat-ayr-yal-ism', sm. materialism.

MATÉRIALISTE, mat-ayr-yal-ist, s. mf. 1 materialist. 2 (adjective) materialist.

MATÉRIALITÉ, mat-ayr-yal-e-tay, sf. materiality, corporeity.

MATÉRIAUX, mat-ayr-yō, sm. pl. 1 (d'un bâtiment, of a building) materials. 2 fig. materials.

MATÉRIEL, mat-ayr-yal, adj. m. fem. —LE, (Lat. materialis) 1 material. 2 (qui a rapport à la matière) material, corporeal. 3 (grossier) material, gross, coarse, heavy. 4 anc. philos. (opposé à formel) material. (substantif) material. 5 sm. Le — de la guerre, de la marine, the stores of war, of the navy. Le — d'une armée, the baggage, ammunition, artillery, etc. of an army. (by analogy) Le — d'une imprimerie, d'une fabrique, etc., stock of materials, apparatus of a printing office, of a manufactory.

MATÉRIELEMMENT, mat-ayr-yal-mang, adv. 4 materially, corporeally. 2 (grossièrement) roughly.

MATERNEL, mat-ayr-nayl, adj. m. fem. —LE, (Lat. maternus) maternal, motherly. Amour —, maternal love. La sollicitude —le, maternal solicitude. J.-J. Rousseau. Côté —, ligne —le, maternal line, relations by the mother's side. Langue —le, mother-tongue.

MATERNELLEMENT, mat-ayr-nayl-mang, adv. maternally, motherly.

MATERNITÉ, mat-ayr-ue-tay, sf. (Lat.) maternity, motherhood.

MATHÉMATIQUES, mat-ay-mat-eyang, sm. mathematician.

MATHÉMATIQUE, mā-tay-mat-ik, sf. (Gr.) mathematics. Étudier en —, to study mathematics. —s pures, abstract, pure, speculative mathematics. —s mixtes, mixed mathematics.

MATHÉMATIQUE, adj. mf. mathematical. Les sciences —s, the mathematical sciences.

MATHÉMATIQUEMENT, mat-ay-mat-ik-mang, adv. mathematically.

MATIERE, mat-yayr, sf. (Lat. materia) 1 (ce dont une chose est faite) material, stuff, matter. —s d'or et d'argent, gold and silver bullion. —s premières, raw materials. 2 philos. matter. 3 nat. phil. — électrique, electric fluid. — ignée, igneous matter. — animale, végétale, minérale, animal, vegetable, mineral matter. 4 (par opposition à esprit) matter. Être enfoncé dans la —, avoir la forme enfoncée dans la —, to be a dull, stupid, heavy fellow. 5 med. — fecale, excrement. — purulente, purulent matter, pus. — médicale, medical materia. 6 (le sujet sur lequel on écrit, etc.) matter, topic, subject-matter, subject. Pénétrer une — à fond, to dire thoroughly into a matter. Montesquieu. Une table des —s à la fin d'un livre, table of contents. 7 — fœ-dale, commerciale, bénéficiaire, feudal, commercial matters, matters relating to benefices. — civile, civil matters. — criminelle, criminal matters. La — d'un crime, d'un délit, matters of crime, of misdemeanor. 8 (cause, sujet) cause, reason, grounds, motive, occasion. Il n'y a pas là — à se fâcher, you have no reason for feeling offended. Donner, fournir — à rire, to give, to furnish occasion for laughing. Il n'y a pas — à procès, — de procès, there are no grounds for a law-suit.

EN MATIÈRE DE, prep. In affairs of, in point of. Eu — de morale, nous aimons tout ce qui porte le caractère de la vérité, in point of morals, we are fond of what bears the stamp of truth. Montres.

MATIN, mat-ang, sm. (Lat. matutinus) 1 morning. Se lever de bon —, de grand —, to rise early, very early, to be up betimes in the morning. Dès le —, from the dawn of day. Un des ces —, un beau —, some fine day, one of these fine mornings. fig. poetic. Les portes du —, the gates of morning. Le — de la vie, the morning of life. Je ne suis qu'à mon —, I am yet in my dawn. A. Chen. Elle a vécu ce que vivent les roses, l'espace d'un —, like a rose her life was but the space of a day. Malb. 2 (adverbial) early. Il s'est levé —, fort —, très —, he rose early, very early. — et soir, soir et —, morning and evening, evening and morning. Demain —, demain au —, to-morrow morning. Le glie était de nature à nous déterminer à partir —, the place was such that we resolved to set out early. De Bross. 3 (jusqu'à midi) forenoon. 4 (depuis minuit jusqu'à midi) morning. Quatre heures du —, four o'clock in the morning.

MATIN, ma-tang, sm. 1 zool. mastiff. 2 pop. (terme d'injure) cur, dog, rascal. (in joke) Ces — es de femmes, those hussies.

MATINAL, mat-e-nal, adj. m. fem. —, early. Vous êtes bien — aujourd'hui, you are very early to-day.

MATINEAU, ma-te-no, sm. little mastiff.

MATINEE, mat-e-nay, sf. forenoon morning. Dormir la grasse —, to lie late in bed of a morning.

MATINER, mat-e-nay, va. 4 to line. 2 fig. (gourmander) to rate, to abuse, to snub.

MATINES, mat-een, sf. pl. cath. liturg. matins, morning prayers.

MATINEUX, mat-e-noh, adj. m. fem. MATINEUSE, early riser. Les coqs ont beau chanter matin, je sois plus — encore, however early the cock may crow I am up before him. La Font.

MATINIER, mat-e-nay, adj. m. fem. MATINIERE. La belle étoile matinière, the fair morning star. De Bross.

MATR, mat-eer, va. to deaden (de l'or, de l'argent, gold, silver).

MATOIS, mat-và, adj. m. fem. —, 4 cunning, artful, sly, decp. 2 (substantif.) C'est un —, un fin —, un rosé —, he is a cunning rogue, a sly dog, an artful blade. Une fine —, a sly puss.

MATOISERIE, mat-oôz-ree, sf. 4 slyness, craftiness, cunning. 2 (tromperie) cheat, trick.

MATOU, mat-oo, sm. 4 tom-cat. 2 fig. pop. C'est un —, un vilain —, he is a monkey, an ugly monkey.

MATRAS, mat-rass, sm. chem. matrass.

MATRICAIRE, mat-re-kayr, sf. bot. matriaria, feverfew, motherwort.

MATRICE, mat-rees, sf. (Lat. matrix) 4 anat. matrix, womb. (des animaux, of animals) uterus. 2 min. matrix. 3 print. matrix mould. 4 (d'une médaille) matrix. 5 metrol. (étalon) standard measure. 6 (registre original) original register. 7 (ad-jectif.) principal, first, primitive. Eglise, langue —, mother-church, mother-tongue. Couleurs —, primary colours.

MATRICULE, mat-re-kûl, sf. 4 obsol. (le registre) matricule, matriculation-book. 2 (l'inscription) matriculation. 3 (extraît) certificate of matriculation.

MATRIMONIAL, mat-re-mo-nyal, adj. m. fem. —, pl. m. MATRIMONIAUX, (Lat. matrimonium) law. matrimonial, connubial.

MATRONE, mat-ron, sf. (Lat. matrona) 4 law. midwife. 2 (dame romaine) matron, dame, lady. 3 (in joke) (femme d'un certain âge) matron.

MATTE, mat, sf. metal. matl.

MATURATIF, mat-û-râ-t-if, adj. m. fem. MATURATIVE. (Lat. maturare) 1 med. maturing, maturative. 2 sm. Un bon —, a good maturative.

MATURATION, mat-û-rah-syng, sf. (Lat.) 4 ripening, maturation. 2 (by analogy) La — d'un âbès, the ripening of an abscess.

MATURE, ma-tûr, sf. 4 naut. (collectif.) masts. 2 (le bois) wood for masts. 3 (l'art) masting. 4 (la machine) sheers. 5 (l'atelier) the mast-shed, mast-yard, mast-store.

MATURITÉ, mat-ûr-e-tyr, sf. (Lat. maturitas) 1 maturity, ripeness. Ces blés sont en —, en pleine —, that wheat is ripe, completely ripe. 2 (by analogy) (des âbès) maturity. 3 fig. Cette affaire est dans sa —, à sa —, this affair is ripe. La — de l'âge, the maturity of age. — d'esprit, maturity of mind. 4 fig. (du style, of style) maturity. 5 fig. Avec —, maturity, with mature thought.

MATUTINAL, mat-û-te-nal, adj. m. fem. —, (Lat. matutinalis) (little used) of the morning, morning, matutinal.

MAUDIRE, mo-deer, va. irreg. MADDISANT; MAUDIT; JE MADDIS, TO MADDIS, IL MADDI, NOUS MADDISONS, VOUS MADDISSEZ, ILS MADDISSENT; JE MADDISAIS; QU'IL MADDISSE; (Lat. maledicere) 1 (faire des imprecations contre quelqu'un) to curse. 2 (de Dieu, of God) to curse. Dieu a maudit Cain, God cursed Cain. 3 (détester une chose) to curse, to detest. Je ne tardai pas à — sa visite. I soon began to curse his visit. Ab. Je sortis du cabinet en maddisant le caprice du cardinal, I went out of the room cursing the caprice of the cardinal. Le Sage. — sa destinée, sa vie, to curse one's fate, one's stars, one's life.

MAUJUT, ppa. of MAUDIRE, fem. —, adjective. 1 cursed, confounded, horrible, detestable. Un — chévin, a wretched road. Quel — temps! what dreadful weather! 2 (des personnes, des choses, of persons, of things) plaguy, confounded, cursed. Ce — avocat est cause que. that plaguy lawyer was the cause of. 3 — soit le jour où je suis né! cursed be the day of my birth! 4 (substantif.) scrip. Allez, —, au feu éternel, go, ye cursed, into everlasting fire.

MAUGREER, mo-gray-ay, vn. to curse and swear, to storm, to rage, to fume. Th. Gaut.

MAURE, MAURESQUE, MAURICAUD, See more, MORESQUE, MORICAUD.

MAUSOLEE, mo-zo-lay, sm. 4 mausoleum. 2 (abusivement) catafalque mausoleum.

MAUSSADE, mo-sad, adj. mf. 1 sulky, sullen, cross. 2 (mal fait) clumsy, awkward, slovenly. Une langue qui paraît — parce qu'elle est inconnue, a language which appears destitute of attraction because one does not know it. Nod. 3 (des productions de l'esprit) dull, insipid.

MAUSSADEMENT, mo-sad-mang, adv. disagreeably, sulkily.

MAUSSADERIE, mo-sad-ree, sf. sulkiness, sulkiness.

MAUVAIS, mo-vay, adj. m. fem. —, 4 bad. — pain, bad bread. L'air est — dans ce pays, the air is bad in that country. Nous avons un bien — temps, ma santé est encore plus —, the weather is very bad, my health is still worse. Volt. Le chemin n'est pas si — qu'il vous semble à première vue, the road is not so bad as it seems to you to be at first sight. Ab. Un homme qui a — air, — mine, a bad looking fellow. Cette plaisanterie n'est pas d'assez — goût pour nous irriter, that joke is not vulgar enough to vex us, Nod. J'étais de la plus — humeur du monde, I was in a dreadful humour. Le Sage. Un — jour est bientôt passé, a bad day is soon over. Nod. Les temps sont —, times are hard. Faire — mine, — mine à quelqu'un, to look sour at a person. Je désapprouve tout ce qu'il trouve —, I disapprove of all that he finds fault with. Le Sage. Prendre, interpréter, expliquer une chose en —, to take a thing amiss, to misinterpret, to misrepresent a thing. 2 (nuisible) injurious, prejudicial, harmful, bad. La solitude est — à celui qui ne vit pas avec Dieu, solitude is injurious to him who does not walk with God. Chat. 3 (sinistre) bad. 4 (des personnes, of persons) bad, dangerous, mischievous, wicked. Le — auge, the fallen angel, Satan. pop. — e bête, wicked fellow. (substantif.) Faire le —, to be fractious, obstreperous. 5 (qui n'a pas les qualités qu'il doit avoir) — parent, a cruel relation. — ouvrier, bad workman. — plaisant, a mischievous wag. C'est une — tête, he is a quarrelsome fellow. 6 (malicieux) sly. (substantif.) Oh! le —! ph! le roquet? 7 (avec la négative, with a negation) (assez bon) pretty good. Cela n'est pas si —, that is pretty good, not so very bad.

MAUVAIS, sm. 1 bad, that which is bad. Il fait prendre le bien et le — d'une affaire, one must take the good with the bad. 2 (adverbial.) Sentir —, to smell bad. Il fait — marcher, it is very slippery walking. Il fait — temps, it is bad, dirty weather. Trouver —, to take ill, to take amiss, to take offence.

MAUVE, môv, sf. (Lat. malva) bot. marsh-mallow.

MAUVETTE, mo-vyzyt, sf. dimin. of MAUVIS. orn. lark. fig. C'est une —, he is as thin as a lark.

MAUVIS, mo-vee, sm. orn. red-wing, wind-thrush, swine-pipe.

MAXILLAIRE, mak-so-layr, adj. mf. (Lat. maxillaris) anat. maxillary, maxillary.

MAXIME, mak-seem, sf. (Lat. maxima) 4 maxim. C'est là sa —, such is his motto.

2 mas. maxim.

MAXIMUM, mak-se-mohm, sm. (Lat.) 4 math. maximum. 2 (in common speech) maximum. 3 (by extension) Le — de la peine, the full penalty of the law. 4 (by extension) (des taxes, of prices) maximum. 5 (morally) (le plus haut point) acme, height.

MAZETTE, mah-zet, sf. 1 fam. little tit. 2 fig. milk-op. 3 fig. notice. Il ne sait pas jouer, c'est une —, he does not know how to play, he is a novice.

ME, mob, pr. pers. of the 1st person, pl. nous, mf. me, to me. 1 Sou haleine brûle le visage, his breath burns my face. Chat. La F. parle et — rit des l'abord, La F. pleases and delights me from the very first. St-B. Je sens que je ne — serais trop hâter, I feel I can not hasten enough. Chat. Le vent depuis ce jour — promène, since that day I am whirled along with the wind. Arn. Que — fait à moi cette Troie où je cours, what do I care for that Troy I am going to. Rac. Le sang — hont quand il en est question, my blood rises at the bare mention of it. De Bross. 2 (by elision) On ne m'offre que des passions, you have only passions in store for me. Chat. Je m'en vais essayer un peu de n'être pas servi si l'on à ma mode, I shall just try how I like not to be served according to my taste.

M^{me} de Sév. Ne m'en parlez plus, do not mention it any more. || Je suis des sages conseils, donnez-m'en, I need good advice, give me some. Je vous prie de m'y mener, I beg you will take me there.

MÉANDRE, may-angr, sm. (Gr.) 1 (d'un fleuve, of a river) winding, maze, labyrinth, meander. 2 fig. winding. Pour qu'on pu mieux suivre les —s de cette course, in order to be able to trace better the windings of the scam. Th. Gaut.

MÉAT, may-sh, sm. (Lat. meatus) anal. passage, meatus. Le — auditif, the auditory passage.

MÉCANICIEN, may-kon-e-syang, sm. 1 mechanician, mechanist. 2 (qui invente, construit des machines) engine builder, engine manufacturer. 3 (adjectif.) Serrurier —, manufacturing locksmith. Ouvrier —, engine-man, engineer.

MÉCANIQUE, may-kau-ik, sf. (Gr.) 1 (science) machinery, mechanics. 2 (structure d'un corps, d'une chose) mechanism. La — du corps humain, d'une montre, the mechanism of the human frame, of a watch. La — céleste, the structure of the heavens. 3 (machine) a piece of machinery.

MÉCANIQUE, adj. mf. 1 mechanical. Arts —s, mechanical arts. 2 (qui rapporte à la mécanique) mechanical. Propriétés, lois —s, mechanical powers, laws, fig. Actions —s, mechanical actions. 3 fig. (d'un art, of an art) mechanical.

MÉCANIQUEMENT, may-kau-ik-mang, adv. mechanically.

MÉCANISME, may-kau-ism, sm. mechanism. Le — de l'univers, du corps humain, d'une montre, the structure of the universe, of the human frame, the mechanism of a watch. fig. Le — du langage, the mechanism of language. Le — des vers, de la prose, the structure of poetry, of prose. Le — de la peinture, de la sculpture, the mechanical part of painting, of sculpture.

MÉCANNE, may-sayn, sm. 1 Mecenas, 2 patron.

MÉCANEMENT, may-sham-ang, adv. wickedly, spitefully, ill-naturedly, unkindly, waywardly, mischievously.

MÉCHANCETÉ, may-shang-shay, sf. 1 wickedness. Comme tu étais connu pour un esprit sans —, as you were known as a good-natured person. Nod. Un homme plein de —, a man full of malice. Il l'a fait par —, par pure —, he did it out of pure spite. 2 (des enfants, of children) naughtiness. 3 (action) wicked action, wicked deed. — noire, a foul action. 4 (parole) ill-natured thing, spiteful thing.

MÉCHANT, may-shang, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 absol. bad, sorry, paltry, wretched. —E terre, poor wretched rin, bad wine. Un — habit, a wretched coat. Je suis blessée des —s styles, a wretched style shocks me. M^{me} de Sév. Le duc de N. venait de se faire une —E affaire, the duke de N. had just got into a scrape. Bar. Je n'ai pas si —E goût que vous avez yense, I have not such a bad taste as you thought I had. Mol. Un — cheval, a bad horse, a sorry horse. 2 (contraire à la probité) wicked, bad. Une —E action, a bad deed. 3 (chétif) wretched, poor, paltry. Nous n'avions à souper qu'un — poullet, we had nothing but a skinny chicken for supper. 4 (des personnes, of persons) bad, evil-minded. — homme, a wicked man. Il est plus à être que —, he is more of a fool than a knave. (des animaux, of animals) The cheval est —, that horse is vicious. Avoir —E physiologie, —E mine, to have a wicked look. Être de —E humeur, to be ill-tempered. —E langue, a slanderer. Trouver plus —E que soi, to find one's match, to catch a Turlur. 5 (qui manque de mérite) bad, poor, wretched, sorry. Que je vous plains d'avoir eu un —E prédicateur, how I pity you for having had so poor a preacher. M^{me} de Sév. 6 (par forme de plainte obligeante) unkind, wicked. Vous êtes bien — de m'avoir fait attendre si longtemps, you are very unkind for keeping me waiting so long. 7 (varying in signification according as it precedes or follows the subst.) Une —E épigramme, de —s vers, a wretched epigram, miserable verses. || Une épigramme —E, des vers —E, a spiteful epigram, ill-natured verses. — homme, a wicked man. || Homme —, a slanderer, a mischief-maker. 8 (substantif.) C'est un —, he is a wicked man. Faire le —, to bluster, to break out into threats.

MÈCHE, maysh, sf. 1 (d'une bougie, d'une lampe, etc., of a candle, of a lamp, etc.) wick. 2 (matière préparée pour prendre feu) tinder. 3 (pour mettre le feu à un canon, à une mine) match. Découvrir, éteindre la —, to see events. 4 (d'un fouet, of a whip) lash. 5 — de cheveu, lock. 6 tech. (d'un tire-bouchon, d'un vilebrquin, etc., of a cork-screw, of a drill, etc.) bit, screw.

MÊCHEF, may-shayf, sm. absol. mischief.

MÊCHER, may-shay, va. tech. to fumigate a cask with brimstone.

MÊCOMPTÉ, may-kongt, sm. 1 misreckoning, falling short. Un père à ses brebis trouvant quelque —, a shepherd finding some mistake in the number of his sheep. La Font. 2 (by extension) disappointment. Mais voilà bien un autre —! here is another disappointment! SE-B.

SE MÊCOMPTER, may-kong-tay, vpr. 1 to misreckon, to fall into a mistake (dans son calcul, in one's reckoning). 2 (by extension) (se tromper) to mistake.

MÊCONIUM, may-kou-nyabum, sm. (Lat. med. meconium).

MÊCONNAISSABLE, may-ko-nay-sabl', adj. mf. not to be recognized.

MÊCONNAISSANCE, may-ko-nay-sangs, sf. unthankfulness.

MÊCONNAISSANT, may-ko-nay-sang, vpr. of MÊCONNAÎTRE, adj. m. fem. —E, unthankful (for), unmindful (of).

MÊCONNAÎTRE, may-ko-nay-tr', va. 1 not to know again, not to recognize. Avez-vous méconnu sa voix anguste et chère? should you not have recognized his imposing and beloved voice? C. Del. Mon cœur aimait Dieu, et mon esprit le méconnaissait, my heart loved God, and my mind did not understand him. Chat. 2 (by extension) (désavouer quelqu'un) to disown. 3 (morally) to slight, to overlook, to misappreciate.

SE MÊCONNAÎTRE, vpr. to forget one's self, to forget one's former condition.

MÊCONNU, may-ko-nu', vpa. of MÊCONNAÎTRE, fem. —E, not appreciated. (by extension) Elle meurt de douleur d'avoir été —E, she dies broken-hearted because she has been unappreciated. SE-B.

MÊCONTENT, may-kong-tang, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 displeased, dissatisfied. Être — de soi-même, to be dissatisfied with one's self. (by extension) Un air froid et —, a cold and discontented air. J.-J. Rousseau. 2 (des choses, of things) Not n'est — de son esprit, no one is displeased with his own understanding.

M^{me} Desh. 3 (substantif.) dissatisfied person. 4 (substantif.) (particul.) (ceux qui ne sont pas satisfaits du gouvernement) malcontent.

MÊCONTENTEMENT, may-kong-tangt-mang, sm. displeasure, discontent, dissatisfaction.

MÊCONTENTER, may-kong-tang-tay, va. to dissatisfy, to displease (ses parents, one's parents).

MÊCREANT, may-kray-ang, sm. 1 infidel. 2 (chrétien qui ne croit point les dogmes de sa religion) C'est un —, he is a free-thinker, an unbeliever.

MÊCROIRE, may-kroaor, vn. (little used) to disbelieve.

MÉDAILLE, may-dah-yah, sf. (It. medaglia) 1 medal. — d'or, d'argent, gold, silver medal. — unique, ancient medal. Baitre, frapper une —, des —s, to strike a medal, medals. 2 rel. (pièce d'or, d'argent) medallion. 3 (prix donné aux peintres, aux manufacturiers, etc.) prize-medal. 4 arch. medallion.

MÉDAILLER, may-dah-yah, sm. 1 (meuble) cabinet of medals. 2 (collection de médailles) collection of medals.

MÉDAILLISTE, may-dah-yeest, sm. medallist, antiquary.

MÉDAILLON, may-dah-yong, sm. (It. medaglione) 1 medallion. — d'or, d'argent, de bronze, gold, silver, bronze medallion. 2 (bijou, etc.) medallion, locket. 3 arch. medallion.

MÉDECIN, may-dsan, sm. (Lat. medicus) 1 physician, doctor. Docteur —, doctor. prov. l'eau douce, water-gruel doctor. 2 fig. ce qui est propre à rendre la santé) doctor. La tempérance et le travail sont les deux vers — des hommes, temperance and labour are man's two best physicians. J.-J. Rousseau. 3 fig. (des choses, of things) Le temps est un grand —, time remedies all things.

MÉDECINE, may-seen, sf. (Lat. medicina) 1 physic. Docteur, étudiant en —, doctor of medicine, medical student.

La faculté, les écoles de —, the faculty, the school of medicine. Faire, pratiquer, exercer la —, to practise the art of healing. — mentale, medicine for the mind. — vétérinaire, veterinary art. 2 (système médical) — agissante, the system of checking disease at the outbreak. — expectante, the system of giving remedies only when the disease has had time to develop itself. 3 (remède) medicine, physic, purge. fam. — de cheval, physick, fit for a horse.

MÉDECINER, mayd-se-nay, va. to physic, to give slops.

SE MÉDECINER, vpr. to physic, to doctor one's self.

MÉDIAL, may-dyal, adj. m. fem. —E, (Lat. medialis) gram. medial.

MÉDIAN, may-dyang, adj. m. fem. —E, (Lat. medianus) anal. median, medial. Ligne —E, the median line.

MÉDIANOCHÉ, may-dyan-osh, sm. (Sp.) midnight supper. Faire —, to sup.

MÉDIANTE, may-dyang, sf. (It.) mus. mediant.

MÉDIASTIN, may-dyang-tang, sm. (Lat. mediastinus) anal. mediastine.

MÉDIAT, may-dyah, adj. m. fem. —E, (Lat. medius, tis) Cause, autorité, juridiction —E, mediate cause, authority, jurisdiction.

MÉDIATION, may-dyat-mang, adv. mediately, by means.

MÉDIATEUR, may-dyat-ulr, sm. fem. MEDIATEURICE, (Lat.) 1 intercessor. négociateur, mediator. (adjectif.) Les puissances médiatrices, the mediatorial powers. 2 (jeu de quadrille) quadrille.

MÉDIATION, may-dyat-syong, sf. (Lat.) mediation, interposition.

MÉDIATISER, may-dyah-le-zay, va. (from médiat) to mediatize.

MÉDICAL, may-de-kal, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 medical. 2 (propre à guérir) medical.

MÉDICAMENT, may-de-kah-mang, sm. (Lat. medicamentum) medicine.

MÉDICAMENTAIRE, may-de-kah-mang-tay, adj. mf. concerning medicines.

MÉDICAMENTER, may-de-kah-mang-tay, va. to doctor, to physic.

SE MÉDICAMENTER, vpr. to doctor one's self.

MÉDICAMENTEUX, may-de-kah-mang-tub, adj. m. fem. MÉDICAMENTEUSE, medicinal.

MÉDICINAL, may-de-se-nal, adj. m. fem. —E, (Lat. medicinalis) medicinal.

MÉDIocre, may-dyokr, adj. mf. (Lat. mediocris) 1 moderate, middling. Une somme —, a moderate sum. Je ne contenterai d'une fortune —, I shall be satisfied with a moderate fortune. Le Sage. Son style m'a paru —, his style appeared to me to be poor. Volt. Je sens bien que cette consolation est —, I know that that is poor consolation. Volt. Ma douleur serait bien —, si je pouvais la dépendre, my sorrow would be ordinary indeed, if I could depict it. M^{me} de Sév. Le pays est d'une très — étendue, it is a country of very moderate extent. Barth. Un homme —, a man of ordinary parts. 2 sm. mediocrity. Cet ouvrage est au-dessous de —, that work is very inferior. Il n'est point de degrés du — au pire, there is no medium between mediocrity and bad. Boil.

MÉDIOCREMENT, may-dyo-kruh-mang, adv. 1 moderately, indifferently. Il est — riche, he is scarcely rich. Une table très — servie, a table poorly supplied. Nod. 2 (pen) indifferently, so so.

MÉDIOCRITÉ, may-dyo-kre-tay, sf. (Lat. mediocritas) 1 mediocrity. La — de sa fortune, the slenderness of his fortune. Barth. La — de son esprit, the mediocrity of his wit. 2 absol. (de la fortune) mediocrity, competency. 3 absol. (de l'esprit, du mérite) mediocrity, smallness of capacity. Cet homme est d'une grande —, he is a man of very small capacity. Le goût de l'extraordinaire est le caractère de la —, the love of the wonderful is a mark of an inferior mind. Dider. 4 absol. (des ouvrages d'esprit, of lit. works) mediocrity, poorness. 5 absol. (modération) moderation, medium.

MÉDIRE, may-deer, ra. irreg. vous médez, médez, to slander, to speak ill of. — de quelqu'un, to speak ill of a person. Je sais que de moi tu medis l'an passé, I know that, last year, you slandered me. La Font. Ce ne fut pas sans — de votre personne, it was not without abusing you. De Bross.

MÉDISANCE, may-de-zangs, sf. 1 erispeaking, slander, back-biting. Dire une — des —, to slander. 2 (les gens médisants) slanderers, scandal-mongers. Faire taire la —, to put scandal-mongers to silence.

MÉDISANT, may-de-zang, ppr. of MÉDIRE, adj. m. fem. —, 1 slanderous, scandalous. 2 (substantif.) Vous êtes un —, you are a slanderer.

MÉDITATIF, may-de-tah, adj. m. fem. MÉDITATIVE, 4 musing, meditative, thoughtful. 2 (substantif.) Les —, persons addicted to meditation.

MÉDITATION, may-de-tah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 meditation, cogitation, consideration. 2 (écrit) thoughts, reflections, meditations. 3 rel (oraison mentale) mental prayer, meditation.

MÉDITE, ppa. of MÉDITER, fem. —, 4 projected, meditated. Une entreprise lointaine —e, an enterprise projected long ago. 2 weighed. Cette prose de Courcier si —e et si savante, that proscrit of Courcier so well digested and so elaborated. St-E.

MÉDITER, may-de-tay, va. (Lat. meditari) 1 to reflect, to meditate, to muse, to ponder. — un sujet, une idée, to ponder over a subject, an idea. Le père méditait une réponse sage, the father was preparing a wise answer. Flor. C'est un livre à —, it is a book which calls for much meditation. Volt. absol. Ce n'est guère que dans la retraite qu'on peut — à son aise, it is difficult to meditate at one's ease, unless it be in retirement. Volt. (intransitivement) — sur un sujet, sur une question, to reflect upon a subject, a question. — sur Dieu, to meditate upon God. Je me suis extrêmement divertie à — sur les caprices de l'amour, I entertained myself extremely by musing upon the caprices of love. M^{me} de Sév. 2 (projeter) to contemplate (un projet, a project); to project (une entreprise, an enterprise). Le roi méditait vaguement le plan d'une évasion de Paris, the king had in vague contemplation a plan for escaping from Paris. Lamart. (intransitivement) Il y a longtemps que je médite de vous écrire, I have for a long time been thinking of writing to you. Volt. 3 absol. rel. to meditate, to pray.

MÉDITERRANÉE, may-de-tay-ran-ay, adj. m. fem. —, (Lat.) 1 inland. Les pays —s, the inland countries. Une mer —e, an inland sea. 2 absol. La mer —e, (substantif.) La —e, the Mediterranean sea. Les îles, les ports de la —e, the Mediterranean isles, sea-ports.

MÉDOC, may-dok, sm. 4 geog. Médoc. 2 sort of claret.

MÉDUC, may-dyohm, sm. (Lat.) 1 compromise, medium. Chercher, trouver un — dans une affaire, to look for, to find a means of compromise. 2 mas. middle, medium. 3 (magnétique) medium.

MÉDULLAIRE, may-dû-lay, adj. mf. (Lat. medulla) medullary, medullar.

MÉFAIRE, may-fayr, va. (little used) to do evil, harm.

MÉFAIT, may-fay, sm. misdeed, crime.

MÉFIANCE, may-fyans, sf. distrust, mistrust.

MÉFIANT, may-fyang, adj. m. fem. —, 1 mistrustful, distrustful, suspicious. 2 (substantif.) suspicious person.

SE MÉFIER, may-fyay, vpr. to suspect, to distrust. De tout inconnu le sage se méfie, a wise man is distrustful of all strangers. La Font. Se — des protestations, to suspect protestations.

MÉGARDE (PAR), may-gard, adv. loc. inalterably, unawares.

MÉGÈRE, may-zhayr, sf. (Gr.) 1 myth. Megera. 2 (femme méchante) shrew, vixen, scold.

MÉGIE, may-zhee, sf. tech. leather-dressing, tawing.

MÉGISSERIE, may-zhis-ree, sf. tech. leather-dressing, tawing.

MÉGISSIER, may-zhe-syay, sm. tech. leather-dresser, tawer.

MEILLEUR, may-lyuhr, adj. m. fem. —, (Lat. melior) 4 comparative of good better. Cet homme est bon, mais son père est —, encore —, that is a good man, but his father is better, still better. Cela est un peu —, that is rather better. Tes yeux sont —s, que les miens, your eyes are better than mine. La Font. Le tabac d'A. est — que le vôtre, A.'s tobacco is better than yours. Ah! l'invention leur semble d'autant —e que, the invention seems to them so much the better as, Le Sage. Je ne souhaite ni climats ni destins —s, I desire neither a better climate nor a better fate. La Font. 2 (superlatif, preceded by the defn. art.) C'était la —e fille du village, she was the best girl in the village. Mich. Ces heures que l'on sait être les —es, the hours that we know to be the best. La Font. C'est peut-être la —e chose qu'il soit possible de faire, it is perhaps the best thing we can possibly do. 3 (substantif.) J'en passe et des —s, I skip over some, and some of the best. V. Hug. Nous mangerons ce qu'il y a de —, we will partake of the best they have. Ah. Le — de l'air, le — du conte, le — est que, the best of it is that, the cream of the story is that. Ah! vraiment j'aurais bien le —, ah! indeed I was forgetting the best. Beaum. Boire du —, to drink some of the best. prov. Le — n'en vaut rien, bad is the best.

MEISTRE, See MESTRE.

MÉLANCOLIE, may-lang-ko-lee, sf. (Gr.) 4 med. black choler. 2 (disposition triste) melancholy. prov. Il d'engendre point la —, he breeds no melancholy. 3 (disposition de l'âme) melancholy.

MÉLANCOLIQUE, may-lang-ko-lik, adj. mf. 4 bitious. Un homme —, a melancholy man. Humeur, tempérament —, bitious humour, constitution. 2 (triste) gloomy, melancholy, dismal, doleful, mournful, sad. Vous êtes tout —, you are in the doldrums. 3 (des choses, of things) gloomy, dismal. Des airs —s, gloomy looks. Musique —, melancholy music. 4 (substantif.) Le rêveries d'un —, the dreams of a melancholy man.

MÉLANCOLIQUEMENT, may-lang-ko-lik-mang, adv. sorrowfully, mournfully.

MÉLANGE, may-langzh, sm. 4 medley, mixture, blending. Le — de plusieurs vins, the mixture of several wines. Un horrible — dos et de chair meurtris, a horrible mass of mangled flesh and bones. Rac. Un — de toute sorte de gens, a medley of all sorts of people.

Un curieux — de respect et de familiarité, a curious mixture of respect and familiarity. Ab. 2 (croisement) crossing. Le — des races, the crossing of races. Aug. Th. 3 point. — des couleurs, mixture of colours. 4 —s, pl. (certains recueils) miscellanées. 5 —s, pl. collections. 6 —s, pl. (dans les catalogues) bpendix.

MÉLANGE, ppa. of MÉLANGER, fem. —, Du vin —, mixed wine. Drap —, mixed cloth.

MÉLANGER, may-lang-zhay, va. to mix, to mingle, to blend. — les couleurs, to blend colours. L'art de la boisson, the art of mixing drinks. Barth.

SE MÉLANGER, vpr. to mix, to intermix, to blend, to work up.

MÉLASSE, may-lass, sf. (Lat. mel) molasses, melasses, treacle.

MÊLE, ppa. of MÊLER, fem. —, 1 adjective. Vius —s, mixed wines. Cheveux —s, entangled hair. Ag. Œuvres —es, miscellaneous works. Une attention —e d'anxiété, an attention mingled with anxiety. Villen. Etre — dans une mauvaise affaire, to be involved in a scrape. Compagnie —e, medley. 2 absol. (rare) (de couleurs, of colours) mingled. Il y a beaucoup de lapis domestiques tout blancs, beaucoup de tout gris, et beaucoup de —s, many tame rabbits are quite white, many are quite grey, and many are white and grey. Buff.

MÊLEE, may-lay, sf. 1 (combat) conflict, close fight. Se jeter dans la —, to rush into the thick of the fight. 2 (batterie) scuffle, fray. 3 sf. squabble.

MÊLER, may-lay, va. 1 to mix (des drogues, des couleurs, drugs, colours). — l'eau avec le vin, to mix wine and water together. — du fil, an écheveau, to entangle, to twist, to unravel thread, a skein. — des cheveux, to entangle hair. — une serrure, to hamper a lock. (Je, at cards) — les cartes, to shuffle the cards. 2 fig. (embrouiller les affaires) to entangle, to mix up. Mêlant ensuite le seigneur de M. dans tous ses crimes, comme les ayant conseillés, then mixing up the duke of M. in all his crimes as the one who had advised them. Bar. — quelque un dans des discours, dans des propos, to bring up a person's name in one's discourses, in one's remarks. Nous mêlons un moment nos sanglots sur cette couche funèbre, for a moment we mingle our sobs over that dead-bed. Chat.

Puis-je penser que vous pleurez no fille accomplie sans — mes larmes aux vôtres, can I think that you are weeping over an accomplished daughter without mingling my tears with yours. Le Sage. 3 fig. (joindre, unir) to join, to add. Je mêlârai les horreurs d'un incendie aux préparatifs de son hymen, I will add the horrors of a conflagration to the preparations for her wedding. Nod.

SE MÉLER, vpr. 1 to mix, to mingle, to blend. Mes cheveux se sont mêlés, my hair is entangled. Les fleuves courent se — dans la mer, the rivers flow onwards to mingle together in the sea. Montesq. Se — dans la foule, to get mixed up with the crowd. (by extension) Il se mêla même à l'entretien, he even took an active part in the conversation. Le Sage. 2 (des familles, des peuples, of families, nations) to intermarry. 3 (des animaux, of animals) to mix, to minglé). 4 (dans un combat) to engage. 5 fig. to join, to unite, to connect. Mille scènes tumultueuses se mêlaient sans cesse à la solennité de la justice, a thousand riotous scenes constantly accompanied the solemnities of justice. Villem. Un seul chagrin se mêlait à l'idée de ce pèlerinage, the idea of that pilgrimage was associated with one single source of sorrow. Nod. 6 Se — d'une chose, to meddle, to interfere with —, he writes very well when he chooses to take the trouble. Mme de Sév. Le mal est que les diplomates pourraient s'en —, the misfortune is that diplomatists might interfere. Ab. La justice se mêle de tous leurs différends, justice interferes in all their quarrels. Montesq. Le diable apparemment s'en mêlait, the devil appeared to have a hand in it. Mich. Des choses dont un étranger ne devrait pas se —, things with which a stranger ought not to meddle. Merim. 7 Se — de, to take to, to turn one's attention to. Le roi se mêle depuis peu de faire des vers, the king has lately taken to making verses. Mme de Sév. Elle vient aussi se — quelquefois d'être sentencieuse, she also sometimes takes to making pithy maxims. Mme de Sév. Je remarquai que tout le monde se mêlait d'en juger, I remarked that every body thrust in his opinion. Le Sage. De quoi vous mêlez-vous? what business is that of yours.

MÊLEZE, may-lay-zé, sm. (Gr.) bot. larch-tree.
MÊLILOI, may-le-lo, sm. (Gr.) bot. melioli.
MÊLISSÉ, may-liss, sf. (Gr.) bot. balm, balm-mint. Eau de —, melissa water.
MÊLIFÈRES, may-le-fayr, sm. pl. (Lat.) ent. melliferous.
MÊLIFLUE, may-le-flû, adj. m. fem. —. (Lat.) 1 did. honeyed. 2 fig. soft. Éloquence —, honeyed words. De Boss.

MÊLODIE, may-lo-dee, sf. (Gr.) 4 melody. 2 (par opposition à harmonie) melody. 3 (by extension) (de poésie, de prose) harmony, melodiousness. La — des vers de Racine, the melodiousness of R's versos.
MÊLODIEUSEMENT, may-lo-dyol-z-màng, adv. sweetly, melodiously, musically.
MÊLODIEUX, may-lo-dyuh, adj. m. fem. meloteious, melodious. Chant —, melodious song.
MÊLODIQUE, may-lo-dik, adj. mf. mns. melodious.
MÊLODRAMATIQUEMENT, may-lod-ram-at-ik-màng, adv. melodramatically.
MÊLODRAME, may-lo-dram, sm. (Gr.) melodrama, melodrame.
MÊLOMANE, may-lo-man, s. mf. (Gr.) music-mad. C'est un —, une —, he, she is passionately fond of music.
MÊLOMANIE, may-lo-man-ee, sf. melomania.

MÊLON, mûh-long, sm. hort. melon. Une tranche, une côte de —, a slice of melon. — d'eau, water-melon.
MÊLONGÈNE, mûh-long-zhyan, MÊLONGÈNE, sf. bot. See AUBERGINE.
MÊLONNIÈRE, mûh-lo-nyayr, sf. hort. melon-ced.

MÊLOPÉE, may-lo-pay, sf. (Gr.) 4 mus. melopœia. 2 antiq. chant.
MÊLOPLASTE, may-lo-plast, sm. (Gr.) meloplast.
MÊNARCHURE, may-mar-shûr, sf. vet. sprain.
MÊMBRANE, mâng-bran, sf. anat. film, membrane, web.
MÊMBRANEUX, mâng-bran-na, adj. m. fem. membraneuse, anat. filmy, membranous, membranaceous.

MÊMBRE, mâng-br', sm. (Lat. membrum) 4 limb. Le doux sommeil s'était insinué dans leurs —, a soothing sleep had crept over their limbs. Fen. Une froide sueur couvrait par tous les —s de son corps, a cold perspiration ran down all his limbs. Fen. 2 fig. (d'un corps constitué, etc.) member. 3 fig. (d'un corps constitué, etc.) member. — du Sénat, member of the Senate. — de l'Institut, member of the Institute. Il était traité comme un des — de la famille, he was treated like one of the family. Rayn. 4 rel. member. Les pauvres sont les —s de Jésus-Christ, the poor are members of Jesus Christ. fig. — pourri, gâté, gangrené, rotten, tainted, corrupt member. 5 fig. lit. member. Les — d'une période, the members of a period. 6 fig. arch. member. 7 naut. — s-d'un bâtiment, members of a building. 8 alg. (d'une équation, of an equation) member.

MÊMBRE, mâng-bray, adj. m. fem. —. Il est bien —, he has good limbs.

MÊMBRU, mâng-brû, adj. m. fem. —. 4 large limbed, large membered. 2 (substantif) Un gros —, a stout man.

MÊMBRU, mâng-brû, sf. 1 carp. panel-frame. 2 noun. timbers, ribs. 3 (mesure) a cord to measure fire-wood. 4 (roule) l'ensemble des membres) frame.

MÊME, maym, adj. mf. (It.) 1 same.

Il a encore le — habit qu'il avait, he still wears the same coat that he had. Ce sont les —s gens, they are the same people. Deux plantes de — espèce, two plants of the same species. Ce n'est qu'une seule et — chose, that is one and the same thing. (substantif.) Cela revient au —, that comes to, amounts to the same thing; that is all one and the same thing. 2 (without the article) self. Moi —, myself. Soi —, one's self. Nous —, ourselves. Cela —, ceci —, itself. Ce-lui-ci —, celui-là —, himself. Les remontrances, les châtimens —s ne sauraient corriger, neither remontrances nor chastisement itself could correct him. Le Sage. Après avoir recommandé à nies gous de regarder S. comme un autre moi-même, after having recommended my folks to — consider S. as a counterpart of myself. Le Sage. Souvent le renard — a été trouvé sans vie à côté du nid tranquille, the fox himself has often been found dead by the side of the quiet nest. Nod. Ce grand peuple a parmi tant de bonnes qualités un vice qui gâte ces qualités —, that great nation with all its good qualities is addicted to a vice which spoils those very qualities. Mich. Le soleil plus ardent semble échauffer les imaginations —s, the scorching sun seems to inflame the imagination itself. Montesq. Le cocher, les laquais et l'archevêque — se mettent à crier, the coachman, the footmen the archbishop himself began to shout. Mme de Sév. C'est le roi — qui l'a dit, it was the king himself that said so. Etre soi —, to be one's self. Faire une chose —, to do a thing of one's own accord. 3 (supplémentive) itself. Dieu est la sagesse —, la miséricorde —, la bonté — God is wisdom itself, mercy itself, goodness itself. Si R. n'eût pas été la générosité —, If R. had not been generosity itself. Merim. 4 (semblable) very, very same, self-same. Donnez-mous du — vin, give us some of the very same wine. Des collines de — hauteur, hills of equal height. Les peuples se ressemblent partout, —s vices, —s vertus, nations are every where alike, they have the very same vices, the very same virtues. 5 adv. (de plus) even. Je vous dirai —, I will even tell you. S. loue mon dessein, I project, and even urges me to put it into execution. Le Sage. Ils hésitent — à s'établir sur les terres qu'ils avaient prises, they which they had taken possession of. Aug. Th. — je veux qu'il aie la main son fouet sanglant dont il châtièra les travers et les vices, I even wish him to have a bloody whip in his hand to chastise eccentricity and vice with. Nod. J'ai — retabli sa santé que les ans avaient altérée, I have even restored his health which age had impaired. La Font. On jouit de ce qui n'est pas commun, — quand cette chose est un malheur, we enjoy any thing uncommon, even if it be ill luck. Chât. La verge chez lui, — quand elle est juste, n'est pas fertile, even in his best moments, his imagination is not fertile. S'-B. Ils immolèrent les femmes et — les enfants, they sacrificed the women, and even the children. Helas! à quoi les rois sont-ils exposés? Les plus sages — sont souvent surpris, alas! to what — kings exposed? the very wisest are often taken by surprise. Fen. Peu d'hommes et — très-peu, few, even very few men. Je demande et — je supplie. I ask, may I implore. Il lui dit des injures et — le frappa, he insulted him, may he struck him. Ni —, pas —, not even. Non, quand — il me supplierait, non, even though he should entreat me. S'il veut être payé quand —, if he must absolutely be paid. Ab. Tant s'en faut qu'il l'ait voulu, que — il l'a défendu, so far was he from wishing it, that he even forbade it.

À MÊME, adv. loc. Etre à —, to be able. Ayant un si beau jardin, si vous aimez à vous promener, vous êtes à —, having so fine a garden, if you like to take a walk, you are able to do so. (followed by a regimen) Il n'était plus à — d'exécuter ces ordres, he was no longer able to execute those orders. S'-B. Mettre quelque un à — de faire quelque chose, to enable a person to do a thing.

DE MÊME, tout de même, adv. loc. likewise, the same, so, even so, in the same manner, just, all the same, though. Si vous en usez bien, il en usera de —, if you act well, he will do the same. Pour vous, il n'en est pas de —, as for you, it is not the same. Faites de —, do likewise.

DE MÊME QUE, conj. in the same way as, just as, as well as, with. J'ai cru, de — que vous, que, I thought as well as you, that. Mon bureau s'est fait tout — que le vôtre, my writing-desk is made in the same way as yours.

MÈMEME, maym-màng, adv. obsol. likewise, in like manner.

MEMENTO, may-màng-to, sm. (Lat.) 1 memento, memorandum. J'ai mis un — dans ma tabatière, I put a memorandum in my snuff-box. 2 chat. liturg. Le — des vivants, le — des morts, memento.

MÈMOIRE, may-moyr, sf. (Lat. memoria) 4 memory. Sa — n'est pas fidèle, his memory is not retentive. Je ne vis plus que par la —, I live only on the past. Chât. Mettez, imprimez, gravez, gardez cela dans votre —, bear that in mind; keep that in remembrance. Écrire quelque chose de —, to write a thing from memory. Je n'aurais jamais cru qu'un vieillard de son âge pût avoir la — aussi présente, I never should have thought that an old man of his age could have so quick a memory. Ab. A la vue de M., le poison me revint en —, at the sight of M., the poison recurred to my mind. Ab. Cet homme a une — de lieuvre, il le perd en courtisant, that man has no memory. — locale, local memory. — artificielle, artificial memory, mnemonics. 3 (souvenir) remembrance, remembrance. Je n'ai point du tout — de cela, I don't remember that, I have not the slightest recollection of it. Rappelez-m'en peu votre —, call to mind, call back to your memory. Il vivra dans la — de tous les siècles, his memory will live throughout all ages. L'Église fait aujourd'hui — de tel saint, the church commemorates to-day such a saint. De — d'homme on n'avait point vu pareille chose, in the memory of man such a thing had never been seen. En — de, in commemoration of. N'emporterai-je rien eu — de vous? shall I have nothing in remembrance of you? Ab. 3 com. Pour —, for memory. 4 (reputation) memory, name. Ne vous repo-22 point sur vos descendants pour le sou de votre —, don't rely on your descendants to do honour to your memory. La Broi. On est assez cruel pour persécuter sa —, they are cruel enough to persecute his memory. Volt. A la —, à l'éternelle — à l'immortelle —, to the memory of, to the blessed memory of, to the immortal memory of. Tel prince d'heureuse —, de vertueuse —, such a prince of blessed, virtuous memory. 4 law. Rehabilitier, purger la — d'un défunt, to reinstate the fame of a dead person; to wipe off stains from his memory. 5 poet. Les filles de —, the tuneful Sisters, the Muses, the Aonian maids. Le temple de —, the temple of Fame.

M. NOTE. sm. 4 (écrit sommaire) bill, account, memorandum. 2 (particul.) (dans un procès) memorial, memorial. 3 (état des sommes dues) bill, account. — de frais, de dépens, bill of costs, of expenses. Arrêter, régler on —, to settle the amount of a bill. 4 (d'un marchand, d'un fournisseur, etc.) bill, account, fig. — d'apothicaire, exorbitant, extravagant bill. 5 (dissertation) memoir. 6 —s, pl. (lus dans une société savante) memoirs. 7 —s, pl. lit. memoirs, papers. 8 —s, pl. (documents) memoirs.

MEMORABLE, may-mo-rab'l, adj. mf. (Lat. memorabilis) memorable.

MEMORABLEMENT, may-mor-ab-luh-màng, adv. memorably.

MÉMORIAL, may-mo-ryal, sm. 1 memorial. 2 com. waste-book.

MENACANT, mui-nab-sàng, ppr. of MENACER, adj. m. fem. —e, 1 threatening, menacing. Visage, air, œil —, threatening countenance, look. Des cris —s éclatant de toutes parts, threatening cries burst forth from all sides. Barth. Son front est orné de cornes —es, his forehead is adorned with threatening horns. Itac. 2 (by extension) (qui annonce quelque malheur) threatening. In passage, un avenir —, a threatening omen, future. Le temps qui n'avait pas cessé d'être —, the weather which had not ceased to be threatening. Nod. Une mer —e, a raging sea.

MENACE, mui-nab-sf, 1 threat, menace. Il mit en usage la persuasion et la —, he made use of persuasion and threats. Volt. La — à la bouche, with menacing words. fig. —s en l'air, empty threats.

MENACE, ppa. of MENACER, fem. —e, 1 threatened. 2 (by extension) Eue — de fièvre, d'apoplexie, de phthisie, etc., to be threatened with fever, apoplexy, consumption, etc. (by analogy) Le roi de S. plus impatient et plus —, the king of S. more impatient, and in greater danger. Lamart. L'Etat était — d'une ruine entière, the State was threatened with complete ruin. Volt. Je suis — d'une vieillesse bien cruelle, I am threatened with sickly old age. Volt.

MENACER, mui-nab-say, va. (Lat. minari) 1 to threaten, to menace. Il l'a menacé du bâton, de le faire périr sous le bâton, he threatened to strike him with a stick, to beat him to death. — quelqu'un de l'œil, de la main, to frown at a person; to threaten to strike a person. (elliptic.) Il menacé de s'en aller, he threatens to go away. Les brigands la menacèrent de la porter dans leurs bras, the ruffians threatened to carry her in their arms. Ab. Il n'est mariot esaut crier que du loup sa mère ne menace, there is not a brat that cries, but its mother threatens to give him to the wolf. La Font. Absol. Il jure, il menace, he swears, he threatens. (by extension) Trois puissants rois menaçaient l'enfance de Charles XII., Charles the XIIth was threatened by three powerful kings during his infancy. Volt. fig. poétique. Ces hautes tores qui menaçaient le ciel, those high towers which reached the sky. Aug. Th. 2 (by extension) (pronostiquer) to portend, to prognosticate. La disposition de l'air nous menace d'un grand orage, the state of the air portends a violent storm. Tout semblait — ce Louis XIV., qui avait menacé l'Europe, all seemed to threaten this Louis XIV., who had threatened Europe. Volt. Cela semble — le public d'un nouvel ouvrage de votre composition, that seems to threaten the public with a fresh work of your composing. Le Sage. La discorde en ces lieux menace de s'accroître, discord here is like to increase. Boil. Cet édifice menace ruine, that building is tottering. fig. Une grandeur qui menace ruine, a magnificence going to decay. Fen. 3 (by extension) (faire espérer) to promise. Il nous menace d'un grand repas, he promises us a good entertainment.

MENACER, vpr. to threaten each other. On se menace, on court, they threaten each other, they run. Itac.

MÉNAGE, may-nad, sf. (Gr.) bacchanal. MÈNAGE, may-nach, sm. 1 housekeeping, household, house. Il a un gros —, he has a large household on his hands. Les soins du —, household cares. Il donne tant à sa femme pour faire aller le —, pour la dépense du —, he allows his wife so much for housekeeping, for household expenses. — de garçon, a bachelor's house. Ils font — ensemble, they live together. Toile de —, home-spun cloth. Pain de —, liquer de —, home-made bread, liquor. 2 (meubles et ustensiles) house, set of furniture. 3 (le soin qu'on donne à l'arrangement et à la propreté des meubles) C'est elle qui fait le —, it is she who keeps the house in order, who does the household work. Femme de —, churwoman. (by analogy) Faire des —s, to go out churring. 4 (épargne, économie) husbandry, thrift. Il vit avec grand —, he lives very economically. prov. fig. — de bouts de chandelle, penny wise and pound foolish. 5 (collectif.) (les personnes d'une famille) household, family. 6 (d'un homme et d'une femme mariés) couple. C'est un joli —, on bien jeune —, they are a handsome couple, a very young couple. Ils font bon —, minvains —, they live happily, unhappily together. fig. Gendarmes et brigands faisaient bon — ensemble, the gendarmes and the robbers went hand in glove together. Ab.

MÉNAGE, ppa. of MENAGER, fem. —e, 1 spared, saved. Je vous laisse à penser si le sucre fut — dans le vin généreux, I leave you to guess whether they were sparing of sugar when they made that generous wine. Nod. fig. Ses États n'étaient pas plus —s, his own dominions were not more spared. Bar. 2 fig. brought about. Des incidents bien —s, incidents well brought about. Des trêves adroitement —es préparèrent encore de nouveaux succès, truces cleverly brought about paved the way to further success. Volt.

MÈNAGEMENT, may-nach-màng, sm. 1 caution, regard, consideration. Il faut avoir de grands —s pour lui, we must have great regard for him. Son procédé qui lui fut reproché sans —, her behaviour with which she was strongly reproached. M^{me} de Sev. C'est une sauté très-délicate qui demande beaucoup de —, his health is very delicate and requires great care. 2 obsl. Le — des esprits, des affaires, the management of t^e minds, of affairs.

MÉNAGER, may-nah-zlay, va. 1 to husband, to spare, to be sparing of, to make the most of. Il ménage bien son revenu, he husbands his income well. Il veut dans la dette —s, au point de devoir — une allumette, he lived in such distress that he was obliged to be sparing even of a match. S^{iv}-B. L'imbécile s'avisait de — ses monitions, the fool took it into his head to be sparing of munition. Ab. Absol. Il ménage pour ses enfants, he is saving on account of his children; pour l'avenir, pour sa vieillesse, for old age. fig. Si je n'avais été nourri dans l'horreur du sang, jusqu'à — celui des lampions, if I had not been taught from my infancy to feel so much horror for blood as to make me unwilling to shed even that of a wolf. Nod. On ne ménagea pas au chevalier les avertissements charitables, they did not refrain from giving the chevalier charitable warnings. Sand. Menagant ma voix et ma lyre, je louerai, taking care of my voice and my harp, I will praise. La Font. fig. — ses paroles, to mind what one says. — les termes, les expressions, to weigh what one says, to mind one's expressions. — le temps, — son temps, to make the most of one's time. Quand le présent fuit, menageons l'avenir, when the present has fled, let us be mindful of the future. C. Del. — un terrain, une étouffe, to make the most of a piece of land, a piece of stuff. — ses pas, to spare one's trouble. — ses forces, son crédit, to spare one's strength, one's credit. Ménagez vos yeux et votre santé, take care of your eye-sight, and mind your health. D'Alemb. — des troupes, — un cheval, to spare troops, a horse, prov. fig. Qui veut aller loin ménage sa monture, he who intends to ride far must spare his horse. Ce malheureux ménageait les hommes pommés, the scoldard man husbanded the good apples. Flor. 2 fig. (conduire) to manage, to govern with skill. Menageant d'utiles perfidies, plotting some useful treachery. S^{iv}-B. Il ménagea l'accommodement de la mère et du fils, he brought about a reconciliation between the mother and her son. Volt. — l'occasion, les occasions, to profit by the opportunity. N'avoir rien à — avec quelqu'un, to have no measures to keep with a person. — un escalier dans un bâtiment, to contrive a staircase in a building. Je veux vous — le plaisir de la surprise, I wish to procure you an agreeable surprise. Nod. La fortune lui ménageait de plus grands revers, Fortune was preparing for him greater reverses. S^{iv}-B. J'avais dessein de te — une table et un logement. I intended to procure you board and lodging. Le Sage. Afin de se — un morceau de pain pour sa vieillesse, in order to reserve a bit of bread for his old age. Nod. 3 fig. (traiter avec ménagement) to treat gently, cautiously, tenderly. Le maître à son retour ne l'a pas ménagé, the master on his return rated him soundly. C. Del. Je n'avais pas assez ménagé la bonne dame, j'en fus puni, I had not been sufficiently cautious in my proceedings with the good lady, and I smarted for it. Ab. Ses anciens camarades le craignaient on le ménageaient, a old companions either feared him or tried to keep on the right side of him. Mém. Cette ville était entre les mains du duc de B. que l'on ménageait, that town was in the hands of the duke of B. whom they treated with great respect. Mich. Il envoyait à Rome des députés où il ne ménageait pas le roi, he sent despatches to Rome in which he treated the king with disrespect. Aug. Th. 4 fig. — quelqu'un, to spare a person. R., homme doux qui ménageait les vaincus, fut destitué de sa charge, R., a humane man who had compassion for the vanquished, was turned out of his office. Aug. Th. 5 fig. (avoir des égards) to treat with regard, to keep fair with, to have a regard for. Il y ménagea toutes les situations, he made all the circumstances hinge in. S^{iv}-B. J'ai bien des choses à —, I must have a regard for many things. Ab. Je me suis fait chérir des habitants en ménageant on ne peut pas moins leur modestie, I made myself beloved by the inhabitants by praising them immoderately. De Bross. — l'opinion publique, to treat with regard public opinion. — les intérêts de quelqu'un, to have a regard for the interests of a person.

SE MÊNER, ppr. 1 to be careful of one's self. 2 fig. (se conduire avec adresse) to remain friends with, to keep fair with, to keep on good terms with, to keep in with, to waltz warty. P. se ménageait entre les partis. P. kept in with the parties. Lamart. Je me ménage selon les lieux, les temps et les personnes avec qui je suis, I walk warty according to times, and places, and to the persons in whose society I may happen to be. Mme de Sév. 3 (se réserver) to reserve one's self.

MÊNER, adj. m. fem. MÉNÈRE, 4 thrifty, sparing, careful, saving, economical. Une femme fort ménagère, a very thrifty woman. Quoiqu'il fut fort — de son bien, although he was very saving of his property. Le Sage. fig. Le sage est — de son temps, a wise man has bands his time. La Font. 2 eaux ménagères. See Eau.

MÊNÈRE, may-nah-zhay, sf. housekeeper, housewife. Notre —, our mistress.

MÊNÈRE, may-nah-zhay, sf. 4 ob-sol. poultry-yard. 2 (lien) menagery.

MENDIAN, mang-dyang, ppr. of MENDIER, sm. fem. —E, 1 beggar, beggar-woman, mendicant. (adjective) Religieux —s, moines —s, the mendicants, begging friars. Les quatre —s, the four orders of mendicant friars; || fig. Les quatre —s, almonds, raisins, figs and nuts.

MENDICITE, mang-de-se-lay, sf. (Lat.) 1 beggary, mendicity. 2 (les mendicants) beggars. Dépôt de —, place of confinement for vagrants.

MENDIER, mang-dyay, va. (Lat. mendicare) 1 to beg, to beg for. — sa vie, to live by begging. absol. Être réduit à —, to be reduced to beggary. 2 (by extension) (demander avec bassesse) to solicit, to beg for, to implore. Je pouvais, il est vrai, — son appui. I might, it is true, solicit his support. Volt. J'ai mendié la mort chez des peuples cruels, I sought for death among a cruel people. Rac. — des louanges, to beg for praise.

MÈNEAU, muh-no, sm. arch. munion, mullion.

MÈNE, ppa. of MENER, fem. —E, fig. Il est — par sa femme, he is hen-pecked. Les ennemis furent —s rudement, the enemy was roughly handled. Ces scénes charmanes et si bien —es sous sa plume, these charming scenes, and so well described by him. St-B. Des travaux —s à bonne fin, works successfully completed.

MÈNE, muh-nay, sf. 4 trick, intrigue, underhand practices. Il n'y avait pas de méchantes —s qu'on ne lui imputât, there were no foul tricks that were not imputed to him. Bar. Faire des —s, to be guilty of underhand dealing. 2 ven. track. Suivre la —, être à la — d'un cerf, to follow the track of a stag.

MENER, muh-nay, va. MÉNANT; MÈNE; JE MÈNE; TU MÈNES; IL MÈNE; NOUS MÉNONS; JE MÉNAI; JE MÉNÉ; JE MÉNÉRAI; JE MÉNERAIS; MÈNE, MÉNONS, MÉNEZ; QUE JE MÈNE; QUE TU MÉNASSES; 1 to lead, to conduct. Vous savez le chemin, menez-vous, you know the way, conduct us. Le père et le fils me menèrent sor-le-champ chez le notaire, the father and the son took me immediately to the notary's. Le Sage. — une femme par la main, to lead a woman by the hand. — la mariée à l'église, to lead the bride to the church. Ménant, dès ce soir, la compagnie danser autour de sa statue, leading the dances, that very evening, around his statue. La Font. Où les mé-nai-elle? Where was she taking them? Mich. Cet homme me mena à merveille et me tira de tous les embarras, that man led me along wonderfully well, and got me out of all straits. Montesq. Mon savant me mena dans un cabinet particulier, my scholar showed me into a private room. Montesq. Il trouve la queue d'un cheval, il s'y rattache, ce cheval le mène, etc. he caught hold of a horse's tail, clung to it, and the horse took him to, etc. Mme de Sév. (by extension) Ce chemin mène à tel endroit, this road leads to such a place. fig. C'est le refrain populaire qui menait le peuple aux plus grands mouvements, it was the popular air which the people sang in their wildest outbreaks. Lamart. fig. Des récits qui mènent à son gré les cœurs et les esprits, tales which move at his will the heart and the mind. La Font. Je vais où le vent me mène, I go wherever the wind drives me. Arn. — fig. Cela ne mène à rien, that leads to nothing; there is nothing to be got by that. 2 (conduire par force) to take, to conduct. — en prison, to take to prison. On le menait au supplice, they led him to the scaffold. Biennettes an bout du fusil, pour vous — on vous n'avez pas l'intention d'aller, with bayonets fixed to the muzzle of the guns, to take you where you have no wish to go. Merim. 3 (introduire) to introduce. Menez-moi chez ce ministre, introduce me to that minister. 4 (conduire une troupe) to lead on. — au combat, à l'assaut, to lead to battle, to an assault. C'est lui qui mène les autres, he is the ringleader. 5 (des animaux, de chevaux) to drive, to take. — les bêtes au champ, to drive cattle to graze; — les chevaux boire, les — à l'a-breuvoir, to take horses to the pond, to water. — un cheval en main, à la main, to lead a horse by the bridle. 6 (d'une voiture, of a coach) to drive; (d'un bateau, of a boat) to steer. absol. Ce cocher mène bien, il mène grand train, that coachman drives well, he drives at a good rate. 7 (voiture) to take, to carry, to convey. 8 (se faire accompagner de, par) to take along with one, to be attended by. A l'exception des cavaliers que menait avec lui le roi E., with the exception of the horsemen whom king E. took along with him. Aug. Th. 9 (forcer à suivre) to lead. Le cerf a mène bien loin la chasse, the stag led the huntress a long run. Ce voleur s'est enfui, il a mène loin les gentilles qui le poursuivaient, the robber fled, and led the pendarms who were pursuing him, a very long way. 10 fig. (gouverner quelqu'un) to lead, to guide. Il mène militairement tout over all my folks. Jacq. Il menait le parlement par son crédit, his influence exercised a sway over the parliament. Volt. Il va comme on le mène, he is easily led. — quelqu'un doucement, to treat a person gently. (by extension) Cette médecine l'a mené doucement, rudement, that physic has moved him a little, a good deal. — bien quelqu'un, le — comme il faut, le — rudement, to lead a person a-gance, prov. fig. — quelqu'un par le nez, to lead a person by the nose. 11 fig. (amuser, faire aller) to amuse, to lead about, to keep at bay. Il le mène de jour en jour, he guids him from day to day. Il le menait avec de belles paroles, he deceived him with fair promises. 12 fig. (diriger, conduire) to conduct, to carry on. — la maison, le négoce, to superintend the housekeeping, to manage the traffic. — une affaire, on procès, to carry on a business, a lawsuit. Il y avait déjà près d'un mois que je menais une vie si heureuse, I had already been leading that happy life for a month. Le Sage. Un cabinet on je mène la vie d'un savant, a study in which I live the life of a scholar. Montesq. — rondement une affaire, to go loudly to work in an affair. (by analogy) D'aimables gens qui mènent légerement la vie, amiable people who take life easy. St-B. Son ami avec qui il menait jeunesse, he served fort in this intrigue, his friend who was his boon companion was very useful to him in that scheme. St-B. — on train, on grand train, grand train, to cut a dash. 13 fig. (diriger) to influence, to rule. La vengeance et les préjugés mènent les cœurs comme les particuliers, vengeance and prejudice influence cœurs as well as private individuals. Volt. 14 fig. — loin quelqu'un. See Loir.

MÊNÉSTREL, may-nays-trayl, sm. minstrel, fiddler.

MÈNEUR, muh-nohr, sm. 1 gentleman, usher. — d'ours, bear-leader. 2 (de nourrices) fem. MÈNEUSE, a man, a woman who takes charge of procuring wet-nurses. 3 fig. leader, ringleader. Les sections avaient leurs —s auxquels elles obéissaient, the sections had their leaders whom they obeyed. Lamart.

MÉNANTHE, may-nangth, sm. (Gr.) bot. menianthes, marsh trofoil.

MENIN, muh-nang, sm. (Sp.) anc. gentleman attached to the person of the daughter, minion, favorite.

MÊNINGE, may-nangz, sf. (Gr.) anat. meninges, coats of the brain.

MÊNINGITE, may-nang-zuit, sf. med. meningitis.

MÊNISQUE, may-nisk, sm. optic. meniscus.

MENON, muh-nong, sm. zool. menon.

MENOTTE, muh-not, sf. dimin. of MAIN, little hand.

MENOTTES, muh-not, sf. pl. handcuffs, manacles. On lui a mis les —, they have handcuffed him. fig. Mettre les — à quelqu'un, to hamper a person.

MENSE, mangs, sf. (Lat. mensa) 1 anc. dining-table. 2 (d'une abbaye, d'un évêque) income, revenue, stock.

MENSONGE, mang-songzh, sm. 4 falsehood, untruth, story, lie, fib. — innocent, a white lie. — officieux, officious untruth. L'esprit de —, le père d'un —, the devil, the father of lies. 2 poetic. fiction, fable. 3 fig. (illusion) vanity, delusion. Le monde n'est que —, the world is nothing but a delusion.

MENSONGER, mang-song-zhay, adj. m. fem. MENSONGÈRE, untrue, false, lying. L'imputation des poisons ne se trouvait pas moins mensongère, the charge of poisoning was not less false. Bar.

MENSTRUE, mangs-trâ, sm. (Lat. menstruum) absol. chem. menstruum.

MENSTRUÉ, mangs-trû-ayl, adj. m. fem. —E. ord. menstrual, monthly.

MENSTRUÉS, mangs-trû, sf. pl. med. menses.

MENSUEL, mang-sû-ayl, adj. m. fem. —E. monthly.

MENSTÈLEMENT, mang-sû-ayl-mang, adv. monthly.

MENTAL, mang-tal, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 mental. Oraison —e, mental orison, prayer. Restriction —e, mental reservation. 2 (qui a rapport à l'entendement) mental. Aliénation —e, mental alienation. Maladies —es, mental diseases.

MENTALEMENT, mang-tal-mang, adv. mentally.

MENTERIE, mangt-rec, sf. untruth, falsehood, fib.

MENTEUR, mang-tohr, adj. m. fem. MENTÈUSE, 1 liar. Scip. Tout homme est —, every man is deceitful. prov. Il est — comme un archer avec des dents, comme un laquais, he lies like a trooper. 2 (des choses, of things) false, deceitful. (Visage, langage —, deceitful countenance, language. Si la glace n'était menteuse, il devait avoir grandi, unless the glass was deceitful, he must have grown. Nod. 3 (substantif). Un —, a liar.

MÊNTE, mangt, sf. bot. mint. Eau, pastilles de —, peppermint water, drops.

MENTION, mông-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 mention. N'oubliez pas de faire — de ma personne à nos amis, do not forget to remember me to our friends. De Bross. Son excellence ne fit aucune — de moi, his excellency did not mention my name. Le Sage. Il en a été fait — au procès verbal, mention was made of it in the official report. 2 — honorable, honorable mention.

MENTIONNER, mông-syo-yau, ra. law. 1 to mention, to make mention of.
MENTIR, mông-teer, ru. (Lat. mentiri) to lie, to tell a falsehood, a lie, to fib, to tell stories. — à sa conscience, to betray one's conscience. Et même qui mentirait comme Esop et comme Homère vrai menteur ne serait, and even he who should lie like Esop or Homer would not be a liar. La Font. — à Dieu, — au Saint-Esprit, to lie unto God, unto the Holy Ghost. Faire — le proverbe, to reverse the saying. Il en a menti, il en a menti par la gorge, he lies, he is a liar, he lies in his throat. prov. fig. Bon sang ce peut —, true blood is always guided by a sure instinct. (adverbial.) Sans —, à ne point —, to tell the truth. Sans —, si votre ramage répond à votre plumage, upon my word, if your voice equals your plumage. La Font.

MENTON, mông-tong, sw. (Lat. mentum) 1 the chin. Il a de la barbe au —, he has his chin fagged. Etre assis à table jusqu'au —, See assis. fig. Avoir deux —, double, triple. —, to be double, treble-chinned. Avoir on — à double, à triple étage, to be double, treble-chinned. 2 (de certains animaux, of some animals) jaw.

MENTONNIÈRE, mông-to-dyay, sf. 1 (d'un masque, of a mask) chin-clath, chin-piece. 2 (bandage) bandage round the chin.

MENTOR, mông-tor, sm. (Gr.) 1 Mentor. 2 guide, mentor.

MENU, mên, adj. m. fem. — E. (Lat. minutus) 1 slender, thin. Elle était — et si plus grande que, etc., she was slender, and taller than, etc., Hanil. De l'écriture fort —, very small writing. — bois, small wood. Il avait les jambes si —, es, que, he had such spindly-shanks, that. Le Sage. — plomb, small shot. — rot, small birds. culin. — s droits, minced pig's ears; || hunt. the hounds' fees. — es dimes, small tithes. 2 fig. of little value, small. — s propos, small talk. — s plaisirs, pocket-money, amusement; (du roi, of the king) private purse. cath. liturg. — s suffrages, orisons said after mass. Don J. expédia encore avec distraction quelques — s suffrages, Don J. multiplied hastily a few more orisons. Ménier. 3 perquisites, emoluments of a place. A tous ces — s suffrages se joignit une plaie horrible, a dreadful, ruin came to crown all those little ruses. De Bross. — e monnaie, small money, half-pence. peuple, le vulgair. 3 (substantif.) Compter par le —, to reckon minutely. Il l'expliquait cela tantôt par le —, I will give you all the details by and by. Le Sage. Le — d'un reptil, the bill of fare. 4 (substantif.) small linen. 5 (adverbial.) very small, thin. Il faut barber cela —, you must chop that fine. Ecrire —, to write small. Dru et —, hard and fast.

MENCAILLE, mông-nô-ab-yuh, sf. 1 small coin. 2 (petits poissons) small fry. 3 (petites choses) trash.

MENET, mên-nô-ay, sm. 1 (air) minuet. 2 (danse) minuet.

MENCIER, mên-nice-zay, ra. and n. 1 to carpenter, to do joiner's work. Il aime à —, he likes to do joiner's work.

MENCIÈRE, mên-nice-zee, sf. 1

(art) joiner's work, carpentry. 2 (ouvrage) a piece of joinery.

MENCIER, mên-nice-zay, sm. 1 joiner, maître. 2 master joiner. Carçon —, journeymen joiner.

MENC-VAIR, mên-vayr, sm. 1 menier. 2 her. menier.

MÉPHITIQUE, mên-fe-tik, adj. mf. (Gr.) mephitic, noxious.

MÉPHITISME, mên-fe-tism', sm. mephitism.

MÉPLAT, mên-plah, sm. paint. flat port. (adjective.) Lignes — es, formes — es, flatwise lines, forms.

SE MÉPRENDRE, may-prând, rpr. irreg., conjug. like PRENDRE, to be mistaken, to mistake. Je lui dis que peut-être il se méprenait, I told him that he was perhaps mistaken. Le Sage. Dans ce tableau le visage de Satau ressemble à ne s'y pas —, in this picture the face of Satau is so unmistakable likeness of the features of this pope. De Bross. fig. A qui pensez-vous parler? vous vous méprenez, to whom do you think you are speaking? you are under a mistake.

MÉPRIS, may-pree, sm. 1 contempt, scorn. Le — de la vie, le — de la mort, contempt of life, of death. (by analogy) Le — des richesses, des graniters, etc., contempt of riches, of grandeur, etc. Traiter la douleur avec —, to treat pain with contempt. Bath. 2 —, pl. (paroles, acies) scorn. Il distribuait à des Grecs les — qu'il venait d'essuyer, he heaped upon the Greeks all the scorn which he had just received. Bath.

AO MÉPRIS DE, prep. in defiance of.
EN MÉPRIS DE, prep. in contempt of.

MÉPRISABLE, may-pre-zahl', adj. mf. despicable, contemptible.

MÉPRISANT, may-pre-zâng, ppr. of MÉPRISER, adj. m. fem. — E. contemptuous, scornful.

MÉPRISE, may-priz, sf. mistake, oversight, error. On raconte de sa part quelques — s, some mistakes of his are talked of. Se-B. Il faut relire cet acte de peur de —, you must read that deed again lest you should be mistaken.

PAR MÉPRISE, adv. loc. by mistake, erroneously.

